Sugar Allowances Are Extended Indefinitely

Increased allowances in sugar inventories permitted wholesalers and retailers on a temporary basis through November 15 will be maintained indefinitely, the District Office of Price Administration announced today from Lubbock.

Temporary increases were originally allowed by OPA to take care of the anticipated demand for sugar for home canning, and were later continued in effect to supply the heavier supplemental rations allowed to bakeries, confectioners and other "industrial" users.

Since the industrial use continues heavy and at the same time transportation difficulties make it important that adequate stocks of sugar be kept in the hands of both wholesalers and retailers, the increased allowances for inventories will be continued indefinitely. They may, however, be cancelled by OPA on 30 days' notice if such action should become necessary.

Committee Meets Tuesday To Make Award Day Plans

These men have been appointed to serve on the the Army "A" committee: Bill Boyd, parade chairman; J. H. Norris, band chairman; Captain Bentley Harris will be in charge of the army division; C. E. Tarter will serve as chairman of the farm people; John Flache is to serve as leader of farm labor; Mrs. C. W. Shafer and Ruth McGee are to be in charge of farm home products; Olon Earnest is to oversee farm livestock; J. H. Middleton has been appointed to see after farm machinery; and Frank Harris has charge of farm produce. Stansell Clement has been chosen as leader of civic clubs; J. H. Baldwin is to be in charge of decorations, and Judge Kilmer Corbin has been selected to take charge of the platform division.

Joe M. Peterson fills the position of over-all chairman.

Tentative plans for the Army "A" day parade have been set up. Four men on horses will lead the parade and will be followed by the band, army, farm people on foot, farm labor, and all types of livestock and farm produce, including dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep hogs, poultry, grain, cotton products, corn, dried eggs, dairy products and peanut and canned products.

Army "A" day will be held early in December.

More Scrap Iron, Steel Must Be Obtained for War Effort, Warns County Chairman

Scrap iron and steel in ever-increasing quantities must be provided to help American military forces keep up their offensives on all fighting fronts, J. R. Earnest, chairman of the local Salvage Committee, asserted today.

"Our armed forces are attacking in every war theater," Mr. Earnest pointed out. "This means that they will require more and more weapons, ammunition and all other equipment. A lot of steel goes into this equipment, and the steel mills are working at top speed to provide it. Whether their output will be enough depends upon how well we, as volunteers, do our home front job of collecting scrap. Scrap metal is the life blood of the steel mills; about half of every ton of new steel produced went into the furnaces as scrap."

The Dawson County Salvage Committee, and others like it throughout the country, are charged with the responsibility of building up a "Victory Scrap Bank" to fill winter requirements of the steel mills. Mr. Earnest explained. The goal for the last half of 1943 is 15 million tons of scrap iron and steel. Industries and special projects are expected to account for about 12 million tons of the total, while the remaining 3 million tons must be provided through the efforts of the general public.

"The flow of scrap to the mills normally falls off sharply during the winter months," Mr. Earnest said. "That is why we must build a stockpile in every community, to be drawn upon as needed. We can't afford to take any chances with our production, because every ounce is vital to the war effort. We must be sure that no American service man will die because of the scrap we failed to collect—the scrap which would have made for him a weapon with which to protect himself and carry the fight to the enemy."

Steel simply is not produced without scrap, Chairman Earnest emphasized. According to a recent statement by Donald Nelson, Chairman of the War Production Board, the steel mills have on hand only enough scrap metal to last about two months. The intensive drive to create a "Victory Scrap Bank," now under way and extending through December 1, is intended to insure a continuing flow of the material necessary to make new steel.

Residents of Dawson County are urged to search their homes and farms for every available piece of scrap iron and steel. Heavy scrap, such as broken, worn out or obsolete machinery, is particularly needed. Anyone who knows of such scrap, which otherwise might be overlooked, should report it to the County Salvage Chairman.

Eighty students of the county who are selected winners in the scrap drive will be taken to the Big Spring Bombardier School where they will be shown interesting features of the camp. The date of the tour will be set at the close of the scrap drive.

The local high school which has already begun the drive, is working on a competitive basis between room. Students will carry the scrap they collect to the scrap dealers and bring their sales tickets to their school where they will be given credit for their part.

Extra small amounts, too small to sell, will be collected in a pile on the campus.

Effort Made Sat. To Go Over Top In Chest Collection

Special gift donors, as has been pointed out before, are those who make contributions from $25 upward to the United War Chest Drive.

List of new donors, obtained since last Thursday, follows:

Southwestern Associated Telephone Co.	$ 50.00
Stansell Clement	$ 25.00
Henningsen Lamesa, Inc.	$100.00

In an effort to go over the top in the collection of funds for United War Chest, booths were set up Saturday, November 20 in front of Collin's Dry Goods, A. and W. Dry Goods, and in front of M. C. Lindsey's office. A sound truck was parked by M. C. Lindsey's office, and talks were made by citizens of the county, relative to the War Chest Drive.

A large thermometer was placed near the truck, which showed the progress of the drive as reports from the solicitors came in. Music furnished by a record player placed on the truck, attracted the attention of the Saturday crowd and served as a reminder to contribute to the War Chest.

Reports of the funds collected at the booths were unavailable at the time this paper went to press.

"DON'T CRY. Don't let them see you cry!" Whispers the older Red Cross Worker.

And as the litters of wounded come up the gangplank of the hospital ship, the young novice swallows, shuts her eyes for an instant, and nods.

They don't want our tears . . . these boys of ours. Not though they face a future that at first can seem harder than death.

They want our courage . . . they want our resolution. Courage and resolution to match and sustain their own.

Courage to keep us going on with this great task—no matter what it may cost these coming months in blood and sweat.

Resolution to back the boys who are taking these risks, with every breath that's in us and every dollar we can rake or scrape.

The boys realize, far more than we can, how fast war uses up machines, ammunition, equipment.

The guns and tanks that took Hill 609 in Tunisia had to be rebuilt or replaced before they could thunder down upon Messina and Naples.

The landing barges that brought our men to the perilous beaches of Salerno must be repaired and refitted before they can drive ashore in France or the Balkans.

We cannot win the war with the bullets our bonds bought last summer. Those bullets are already buried in Jap and Nazi graves. And another horde of the desperate, cornered enemy is coming on.

Bullets and shells . . . tanks and guns . . . ships and planes. These are the things the boys are asking us for . . . the boys at the front and the boys behind them who will never again do things with two hands, or walk with two feet, or see with two eyes.

They don't ask us to give what they have given. They only ask us to skip the easy tears . . . to invest our money instead of spending it . . . to lend the mere money price of Victory.

They only ask us to buy War Bonds

State Nutrition Committee Officers Are Elected

Miss Mildred Horton, vice director and state home demonstration agent of the A. and M. College Extension Service, was re-elected chairman of the Texas State Nutrition Committee at its recent meeting in Austin. Miss Horton has been chairman of the committee since its appointment by Dr. T. O. Walton, former A. and M. president, three years ago.

Other officers elected included Dr. Ercel S. Eppright, director of the department of home economics, Texas State College for Women, Denton, vice chairman; and Miss Lucile Langham, junior nutritionist for the State Department of Health, Austin, secretary.

Committee members, expressing a concern over food wastes, learned that last year one railroad paid eight million dollars for lettuce which spoiled in transit. Much of this loss could be prevented by the establishment of farmers' markets, one speaker pointed out. Shoppers who are inclined to handle tomatoes and other fresh fruits and vegetables on the grocer's counters were asked to consider the advertising of a Dallas fruit stand owner who placed a sign over a basket of coconuts: "Pinch these all you want to."

While American homemakers long have prided themselves on fluffy mashed potatoes, from now on they should serve them with the jackets on to conserve nutritive values, conferees in one sectional meeting decided. Another group recommended that local seed dealers package adapted varieties of seed to meet the needs of backyard gardeners.

Members agreed to promote the government's food program with mechanics already existing, believing there are "too many organized communities and too few mobilized ones."

Kraut Making Demonstrations Given In County

Kraut demonstrations to be given by the home demonstration agent, Mrs. Myrtle Dickie Negy, this month will be held at Mrs. B. Smith's home at Hancock, November 18, at the Midway Church, November 22; at Mrs. R. H. Week's home in Arvana, November 23, and at the Ackerly Home Economics room, November 24.

Demonstrations have already been given at Mrs. O. H. Morris, at the Five Mile School house, and at the home of Mrs. B. B. Bolch of Sparenberg, and at the Union Home Economics room.

The girls of the Home Economics class at Five Mile furnished equipment and cabbage for kraut and are taking care of krauting. When the "krauting" process is complete, girls will can by water bath method.

Special emphasis is placed on kraut because an excellent grade of cabbage is available for you at the local stores. Kraut is an important item in the diet because of the vitamin "C" and mineral content, and because it has been high in ration points and at times has been unobtainable.

Every month American housewives are turning in eight to 10 million pounds of waste fat.

Prices For Young Live Turkeys Are Released for Area

Maximum prices to be paid by consumers for live young turkeys were listed today by J. B. Mooney, district price executive of the Office of Price Administration, out of Lubbock. These listings were made by the executive to clear up any confusion which might have been created by previous listings of the ceiling prices which were wholesale prices.

A maximum retail price of .447c per pound may be paid for live young turkeys, Grade A, weighing 18 pounds or less when sold by producers to the consumers, Mooney pointed out. If sold by Group 1 or 2 stores, the maximum price is .4514c per pound and if sold by Group 3 or 4 stores, the price is .447c per pound.

The maximum retail price for drawn (oven dressed), Grade A, young turkeys, drawn weight under 13 pounds, is set at .6267c per pound when sold to the ultimate consumers by producers. If sold by retail stores in Group 1, 2 or 3, the price is .6325c per pound and by Group 4 stores, the price is .6217c per pound. Money explained. He stated that old turkeys and all grades lower than Grade A are priced lower.

The above prices apply to sales in 24 counties including Andrews, Bailey, Borden, Castro, Cochran, Dallas, Dawson, Deaf Smith, El Paso, Gaines, Hale, Hartley, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Swisher, Terry, and Yoakum.

Reconnaissance On Service

With Thanksgiving approaching thousands of people in Texas and elsewhere have reason to be thankful for the patriotic service of agricultural and home demonstration leaders in the state, in the opinion of Bess Edwards of the A. and M. College Extension Service.

In a recent radio talk addressed to a farm audience, the assistant state home demonstration agent gave these examples from her reconnaissance.

Washington County neighborhood Victory leaders recently made a drive for old phonograph records and obtained 702. These were made available to manufacturers who will imprint new records for men in the armed services.

To assist with the signing of war bond pledges, Mrs. O. W. Hancock in Swisher County rode her horse to every home in the McGuire community. In this same county, home demonstration club women sponsored an exhibit of pictures of all men and women in the service of their country. These pictures have been display in a Tulia store.

Miss Edwards says women from eight home demonstration clubs in McLennan County staffed a "Shangri-la War Bond booth" in Waco recently and sold war bonds valued at $4,650. For every bond worth $50 or more, these rural women gave away an item of home-produced or conserved food such as corn, eggs, tomatoes, or chicken. The LaMarque home demonstration club in Galveston County now owns five $100 bonds and is working on its sixth.

Besides producing food, club women and girls have been doing varied jobs. Mrs. E. C. Cowell of Refugio County drove a cotton truck regularly during the summer, and Mrs. Gud Pable of the same county milk 15 cows regularly.

Ensign Lloyd Morgan, of Florida is visiting here this week with his father, Hardy Morgan.

Garters Make Officer!

RAPID CITY, S. D. (AP) — A figure clad only in GI briefs confronted Sgt. Joe Daragonas, who was drilling 40 men. "Get those men away from this barracks," ordered the scantily clad intruder. "There are men sleeping in here." "Sleeping?" yelled the Sergeant. "Get those gold bricks out here and fall in." The unidentified man disappeared into the barracks and later emerged in his flight officer's uniform to announce the sleeping men had just finished a night flying mission. Before guardhouse lawyers, after he had made his apologies, Sgt Joe demanded, "How was I to know he was an officer?" "He was wearing garters, wasn't he?" a private replied.

Payments To Slaughterers Are Changed Recently

A directive designed to "afford relief to non-processing slaughterers" by means of a special additional payment of 80 cents per hundred live-weight, has been put into effect, according to information from the office of Economic Stabilization Director, Fred M. Vinson, Washington, to the A. and M. College Extension Service. The new order makes an important change in the plan under which payments of $1.10 per hundredweight on all grades are made by the Defense Supplies Corporation to slaughterers of live cattle.

It is explained that the special payment will be in addition to this amount, and will not involve any increase in the original estimates for financing the slaughter payment program.

The modification has three objectives: (1) To enable slaughterers not engaged in processing of beef—a group made up principally of small enterprises whose margins have been adversely affected under existing regulations—to continue in business; (2) To maintain prices of live cattle within a stated range approximating the present price levels thus affording a support price to livestock producers and at the same time discouraging unwarranted advances in the live market; (3) To provide a more economical and effective allocation of present payments to all slaughterers by increasing the amount paid for certain grades of live cattle and reducing them for others.

It is explained further that the directive, while avoiding the disadvantages of a formal price regulation or support price program seeks to achieve the purpose of both price ceilings and support prices for live cattle. This is done by requiring deductions from subsidy payments in the case of any slaughterer whose monthly payments for live are either above or below the range of prices provided for in the directive.

Non-processing slaughterers are defined as "slaughterers who during 1942 sold, and who currently sell 98 per cent or more of the total dressed carcass weight of cattle slaughtered by them in the form of carcasses, wholesale cuts, frozen boneless beef, or ground beef."

Local Man Writes Poem 'The Fall of an Island Fortress'

Editor's Note: Following is a poem written in 1941 by Odes Leroy Anderson, who is employed at Kimbell Milling Company here:

THE FALL OF AN ISLAND FORTRESS

A Song

The Japs had landed,
And were marching inland,
MacArthur was bracing,
At the Fort of Bataan.
Then the Japs, they struck,
From the land, sea and air.
But after many an attack,
MacArthur was still there.
Then the Japs brought up,
Reinforcements for
Another great drive.
They swore that no American
Should be left alive.
They demanded they
Surrender and fight no more,
Or from broad side,
To broad side,
Great shots they would pour.
It was then that
MacArthur made this reply,
"For the sake of Old Glory,
We will conquer or die,"
And from broad side
To broad side
Great shots they did pour.
Great cannons did rattle
And the airplanes did roar.
They struck with all fury,
From land, sea and air.
But after the battle,
MacArthur was still there.
It was then, back home
In the old U. S. A.,
On every street corner,
You could hear people say,
MacArthur is the man,
The man that we need,
MacArthur is the one to Command and lead."

Then from over the nation,
Came one great demand,
Put General MacArthur
In supreme command
Then his boys promised
As he left Bataan,
We'll stand by Old Glory,
To the last dying man.
But the Japs kept gathering
In thundering herds,
Their airplanes flew over
Like swarms of great birds.
They struck at Bataan,
From land, sea and air,
A little relieved that
MacArthur was not there.
Our boys, though outnumbered,
Fought day and night,
And fought a good battle
Under General Wainwright.
But the odds were so great,
The enemy so strong,
Our boys were exhausted,
And their supplies all gone,
And those that were left,
Though wounded and sore,
Made their way to the Fort of Corregidor.
And then, though exhausted
With no support from the air,
They counted to fight
For your freedom from there
Come all you people
From far and wide,
You have heard the
Story how our boys have died.

They bravely died fighting,
For the red, white and blue.
They died asking
But one thing of you,
Buy Defense Stamps,
And Bonds. Oh, buy
Them today

So that we can have help
With out more delay.
Ten more planes might
Have saved the Fort at Bataan
One shall might save
The life of a man.
So let's make a stand,
And buy all that we can
And drive the Japs
Out of Bataan.
Down in Australia,
MacArthur so true,
Is continuing his fight,
For the Red, White and Blue.
He's missing his forces
On land, sea and air,
And with your help
He'll soon strike from there.
He'll blast the Japs
From the air, sea and land;
Then Old Glory will again
Wave over Bataan.

Aboriginal people who flourished in America when Charlemagne was conquering Europe are believed to have been descendants of an Asiatic tribe.

Mardis Clayton of New York City. Kathryn Oliver spent the week

Mrs. E. O. Pieplow Tells Experiences In European Area

Mrs. E. O. Pieplow, a native of England, delivered a very interesting address to members of the Lions Club at the regular Thursday meeting. Mrs. Pieplow told of her experiences after being transferred from England to Denmark. She was in Denmark at the time the Germans invaded the country, and was evacuated through Germany to Italy. At Genova, Italy, she boarded a United States ship, and landed in this country.

Mrs. Pieplow stressed throughout her talk the power of the American flag. She told of the feeling of relief that swept over the people when they boarded the American ship and realized that they were sailing under the protection of the United States flag.

Members of the club made plans for helping Saturday with the United War Chest.

Visitors attending the meeting were Mrs. Matt McCall, who introduced the speaker, and Captain De Giglia of the local field.

New members present were Dr. David Parson and member at large, Mr. Edwards, Boy Scout Executive.

Wives Can Enlist In United States Naval Reserve

DALLAS — The Navy no longer will bar wives of its enlisted men from becoming members of the Women's Reserve. U. S. Naval Reserve, provided they can meet other standard requirements.

Lieut. Comdr. G. W. Cook, Jr., in charge of recruiting WAVES in 122 counties in the upper portion of Texas, today announced the change in marriage qualifications. Prior to this, Navy wives had to enlist in another branch of service.

Women whose husbands are commissioned officers with the rank of Ensign or above in the U. S. Navy or Naval Reserve may not be enlisted or appointed in the Women's Reserve. Marriage regulations as amended by the Navy, however, no longer apply to wives of Midshipmen, warrant officers or enlisted men.

Two other changes affecting the Women's Reserve also were announced by Comdr. Cook. President Roosevelt last week signed the bill giving members of the Women's Reserve or other dependents all allowances or benefits provided by law for male officers or enlisted men.

A second change establishes the highest Women's Reserve rank at Captain instead of Lieut. Comdr., now held by Miss Mildred McAfee.

Dens Organized During This Week For Cub Scouts

Two meetings were held this week for the purpose of organizing dens for Cub Scouts. The first meeting was held Tuesday, November 16 at 4 o'clock at the Grammar School. At this time 3 dens for scouts were set up. Den mothers present for the meeting were Mrs. Jessie Carroll, Mrs. E. Cope, and Mrs. L. D. Sipes. Lee R. Pool and G. M. Roberts also attended the session.

Again on Thursday afternoon this group and also Mrs. George Hart met with Merle Edwards, Boy Scout Executive, who outlined the Cub Scout program. Plans were made for the first meeting of the 4 dens which will be held Tuesday, November 23, at 4:15 p. m. in the homes of the den mothers.

There is a need for more dens and den mothers. Ten or twelve boys are assigned to each den, and officials report approximately 50 local boys who are interested in becoming Cub Scouts can not be assigned to a den until more leaders are found. Any mothers wishing to take a den are urged to contact Lee R. Pool, county agent, or G. M.

Farmers Urged To Save Peanut Seed

Charles Tarter, administrative officer at the AAA office, urges all farmers who plan to plant peanuts in 1944 to save their 1943 seed for this purpose. Persons who did not plant peanuts in 1943, but plan to do so in 1944 should contact their neighbor who has peanuts for sale and make arrangements for seed.

Peanuts raised in Dawson County are better for planting than nuts raised farther east, and you are advised to secure available seed as soon as possible.

Ration Points On Pork Products Trimmed By OPA

District Office of Price administration announces details on pork point reductions which became effective this morning:

On the consumer point table all items listed under pork and bacon are reduced two points. All items under ready to eat meats, except corn beef brisket, dried beef, and tongue are reduced 2 points, and these three named items are not reduced at all. Under pork variety meats all these items are reduced 2 points. All sausage items containing exclusively pork are reduced 2 points. This means 100 per cent pork sausage, liver sausage, and souse, and head cheese containing no other meats than pork. Canned meat point prices are not changed, regardless
