Lawyers At Watergate Trial Eye Med Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lawyers in the Watergate cover-up trial are watching medical reports on Richard M. Nixon because the former president's health may decide whether he will appear as a witness.

Meanwhile, the former deputy director of Nixon's 1972 reelection committee, Jeb Stuart Magruder, took the stand today for his fourth day of testimony.

The attorney for Kenneth W. Parkinson asked Magruder, "Parkinson had nothing to do with the events before the break-in on June 17, 1972, did he?"

NO, SIR

"No, sir," said Magruder. The lawyer, Jacob Stein, then asked Magruder the same questions for a series of dates leading up to July 13, 1972, when Parkinson was told the true story of the break-in by Magruder.

Parkinson was hired as a lawyer for the reelection committee once the original Watergate burglars were caught.

Earlier, U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica announced to the jury that the principal lawyer for defendant Robert C. Mardian, David C. Bress, was ill and would be gone from the courtroom for some time.

Defense sources had said Mardian's other lawyer, Thomas Green, had requested a separate trial for Mardian because of Bress' illness.

TURNED DOWN

But Sirica has apparently turned that down, saying to the jury, "we hope Mr. Bress will be able to return to active participation in the near future."

Lawyers familiar with the trial say there already has been serious discussion about moving the trial to California for Nixon's testimony if the former president is too ill to travel to Washington.

Another possibility is a direct television link from California to Judge Sirica's courtroom in Washington. Nixon would testify either from a hospital bed or his San Clemente, Calif., estate.

Nixon, operated on Tuesday for pleuritis, remained in critical condition today from complications. However, doctors said he was improving.

Nixon has been subpoenaed by defendant John D. Ehrlichman, whose lawyers say Nixon's account is vital if their client is to receive a fair trial.

Sirica already has indicated he will appoint a team of three doctors to examine Nixon. If they recommend that Nixon not be required to testify, defense sources indicate

San Angelo Youth Shooting Victim

By MARJ CARPENTER

Ronald Reagan Brooks, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brooks, 2209 Lakeside, San Angelo, has been identified as the murder victim in a shooting which occurred on the parking lot behind Bain Electric near 2nd and Johnson around 10:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Arrested here Wednesday afternoon and charged with murder was Joe Ed Paul, 27, 807 1/2 Russell. He was arrested at his apartment by city police. Justice of the Peace Walter Grice set his bond at $25,000. Locally, he was also known as Johnny Dancer.

The San Angelo youth, who is a student at San Angelo High School and a member of Baptist Temple Church, boarded the bus in Odessa with a ticket to San Angelo. He met Paul in the bus station there, while headed for Big Spring.

The two were sitting together on the bus, but when they got off, they went to Mutt's Lounge, according to witnesses at the scene. Brooks' luggage was still at the bus station, according to police.

The two apparently got into an argument centering around mutual acquaintances in San Angelo. They later left to go get something to eat at the Palmer House, according to the police account.

Apparently, the argument resumed in the parking lot, and the Brooks boy was shot in the chest and then twice in the forehead after he was lying on the ground.

Nalley Pickle Funeral Home stated that services are pending at Johnson's Funeral Home in San Angelo.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Brooks, 2209 Lakeside; a sister, Holly Lynn Brooks; a brother, Jon Henson Brooks; and two grandmothers, Mrs. Lorene Henson and Mrs. D. F. Brooks, all of San Angelo.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon is "in his best condition since his operation," President Ford was told today.

After hearing the news, Ford arranged today to visit Nixon at a hospital here.

CONTROVERSY

Press Secretary Ron Nessen said Nixon's physician, Dr. John C. Lungren, called presidential physician William Lukash and said:

"The former president is in his best condition since his operation. A visit from President Ford would be a tremendous boost to his morale."

Ford, who aroused a storm of controversy Sept. 8 when he granted Nixon a full pardon, arranged to fly by helicopter to Long Beach International Airport, then drive to the hospital.

Ford spent Thursday night in a Los Angeles hotel after a Republican campaign rally.

DANGER

Nessen said Ford would spend about 20 minutes at the hospital where Nixon is still listed in critical condition after surgery Monday.

Nixon's doctors said late Thursday that he probably will remain on the critical list for 24 to 72 hours. They said, "There are dangers lurking in the background."

The doctors said the internal bleeding which nearly cost the former president his life had apparently stopped. New transfusions were ordered to replace blood lost after surgery last Tuesday for his pleuritis condition.

Ford arrived in Los Angeles for a political fund-raising dinner Thursday evening and it was learned that he would visit Nixon at Long Beach Memorial Hospital Medical Center early today.

GRAND IDEA

Presidential Press Secretary Ron Nessen said Ford talked to Mrs. Nixon by telephone Thursday and asked whether it would be helpful if he went to see Nixon.

"I can't think of anything that would do him more good," was Mrs. Nixon's reply, Nessen said.

The 61-year-old former president could have died from the internal bleeding that sent him into shock after the operation Tuesday. "If proper measures had not been taken," Dr. John C. Lungren told a news conference Thursday.

Lungren, Nixon's personal physician, and two surgeons who operated on the former president did not specify when the apparent let-up in bleeding took place.

FREIGHT TRAIN DERAILED BY FLOOD WATERS — Floodwaters from heavy thunderstorms washed out a track embankment along Hickory Creek south of Denton, Tex., causing this freight train to derail. No one was injured in the mishap, but it will be several days before traffic can be resumed.

Most Candidates Mum As Voting Time Nears

By The Associated Press

LT. Gov. Bill Hobby was the lone Democratic voice on the campaign trail Thursday as Democrats maintained silence against criticisms by Republicans and others seeking to unseat the incumbents.

Hobby addressed the University of Houston Energy Institute Symposium and advocated removal of artificial impediments to oil and gas production, particularly price controls.

He suggested that the state should halt oil and gas leasing on public lands until "we get a fair return."

"Producing at depressed prices is wasting the asset which is constitutionally dedicated to the school children of Texas," Hobby said.

COVERING UP?

Gov. Dolph Briscoe remained at his home in Uvalde. The governor cancelled the final two weeks of campaign appearances to remain near his critically ill mother.

His republican challenger, Jim Granberry, told a luncheon audience in San Antonio that Briscoe has failed to disclose the donors at three fund-raising dinners in January 1973 although he promised to do so.

"What is the governor covering up in those contribution lists?" Granberry asked. "Who or what groups have given money and for what purpose to the governor that he wants to hide from the people of Texas?"

At Houston, Raza Unida gubernatorial candidate Ramsey Muniz accused Briscoe of being the candidate for powerful utility interests.

UTILITY RATES

He said public records showed one of Briscoe's $500 contributors was James J. Nance, a registered lobbyist of Houston Power & Light Co. Muniz said the utility has opposed state regulation of public utilities as well as environmental controls.

"That will tell you something about how concerned Briscoe is about high utility rates," he said.

American Party gubernatorial candidate Sam McDonnell released a statement that James Movers, chairman of Franklin County Republicans, has endorsed McDonnell.

Republican Tom Cole, candidate for attorney general, said in a news release that incumbent Atty. Gen. John Hill does not protect the rights of Texans but serves as "a shield for entrenched do-nothing Democrat control in Austin."

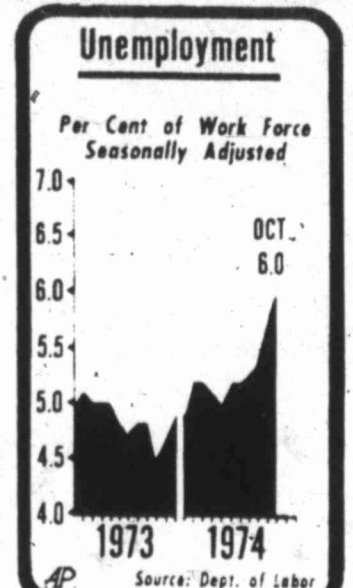

Bob Holt, GOP candidate for state treasurer, said in a release that incumbent Jesse James' hiding of his age is "in line with his general secretiveness about himself and his office."

BLENDS WITH WIND

Nick Rowe, Republican candidate for state comptroller, said his opponent Bob Bullock was a "political chameleon" who "bends with the wind all the time."

Rowe said his first priority would be to make his office "more responsive to the needs of the business community and state government." He claimed that at least one-fourth of his opponent's campaign had been financed through labor or labor-related contributions.

UNEMPLOYMENT — The nation's unemployment rate climbed to 6 per cent last month, an increase of two-tenths of a per cent over the Sept. figure and the highest level in three years. The Labor Dept. announced today that 5.5 million Americans were without jobs last month, 200,000 more than in Sept. and 1.3 million more than in Oct. 1973.

DEER PARK, Tex. (AP) — An 8-year-old boy died Thursday night several hours after eating candy he received trick-or-treating during Halloween, police said.

The Harris County medical examiner scheduled an autopsy today to determine if the candy collected by the youth, Timothy M. O'Bryan, had anything to do with his death.

The office also was conducting tests on the candy.

Deer Park police Lt. A. L. Marquez said the boy's father, Ronald O'Bryan, took the boy trick-or-treating in nearby Pasadena. After returning home, the boy became ill. He died several hours later in a Pasadena hospital.

Marquez said there were no other reports of Pasadena or Deer Park children becoming ill after eating Halloween treats.

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's campaign to get the price of Middle East oil reduced is in for another setback from the Shah of Iran today. Kissinger was flying to the Iranian capital from Pakistan and Afghanistan and was to call on the Shah soon after his arrival. The ruler, who wants all the oil money he can get to finance his huge military and industrialization program, is proposing that the price of oil be linked to an index of 20 or 30 major commodities. Ali Bastani, Iran's top oil price expert, said Kissinger's arguments in favor of a lower price will "definitely fail" unless he agrees to the Shah's formula.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Terrorists fired an antitank grenade at a pleasure boat carrying Argentina's federal police chief and his wife today, killing them both instantly, police sources said.

The police chief, Alberto Villar, 53, was brought out of retirement last January by the late President Juan D. Peron as a step toward cracking down on Marxist terrorism in Argentina.

Villar had gained fame under the past military government as head of the riot squad, personally leading motorcycle squads and applying tough measures on suspected activists.

Many left-wing leaders accused Villar of torture and even murder, saying his men sometimes executed suspected guerrillas after interrogation.

Police said the attack occurred at 11 a.m. just off the jetty of the Astarsa Shipyards in Tigre.

Raid Village

By The Associated Press

Israeli troops raided the Lebanese village of Blida early today, blew up two houses suspected of being bases for Arab terrorists, then returned to Israel, military sources in Tel Aviv said.

On the oil front, Egypt's semi-official newspaper indicated that Arab nations will cut off oil shipments to the United States again if it supports Israel's refusal to negotiate with the Palestine Liberation Organization.

At the same time, the Kremlin charged that the industrialized West has launched a "war of nerves" against the oil-producing nations designed to intimidate them into lowering oil export prices.

Lebanese sources said there were no casualties in the raid on Blida, a mile from the Israeli frontier.

The raid came 24 hours after Israeli gunboats shelled a Palestinian refugee camp in southern Lebanon. The Israel command said the target in that raid was a guerrilla base inside the camp.

Hospital Rates Are Going Up

MIDLAND — Across-the-board daily increases of $10 in room rates have been announced by Midland Memorial Hospital trustees. The rates, effective today, range from $48 for a bed in a four-bed ward to $75 for a private suite.

Board president Marshall S. McCrea Jr., said soaring costs dictated the increase.

Strangled Stripper

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — William Eugene Ruble, 33, of Oklahoma City was sentenced to 10 years to life in prison Tuesday after pleading guilty to the strangulation of a Fort Worth, Tex., stripper Jan. 15.

Ruble was charged with second-degree murder in the death of Lynn Keith Jordan, known as April Angel. Her body was found in a brush pile near a county road in northeast Cleveland County.

Ruble told Associated District Court Judge Alan Couch he had driven to Shawnee, Okla., the day of the slaying to take Miss Jordan to Fort Worth and to talk over some problems.

"I stopped along the road and she sat in the car and talked, trying to straighten out our problems," he said. "We got out of the car and I knocked her down and then put her back into the car and started choking her."

After hiding her body in a brush pile, Ruble said he "took off her clothes," which he said he later put in a Goodwill Industries bin in Shawnee.

Hobby Tackles Energy Issue

HOUSTON (AP) — Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby says Texas is willing to share energy responsibilities with the rest of the nation but only as part of a total national effort.

He said Texas cannot afford to sacrifice its interests "while the Northeast tries to get the energy at controlled prices and without environmental costs."

The lieutenant governor spoke at a University of Houston Energy Institute Symposium.

Hobby said he would not sit by while the consumers and producers and taxpayers of Texas were abused. He suggested that the state should stop oil and gas leasing on public lands "until we get a fair return."

"Producing at depressed prices is wasting this asset which is constitutionally dedicated to the school children of Texas," Hobby said. "We must explore possible mechanisms for utilizing state-owned oil and gas for our local needs in times of emergency."

MAINTAINS ATMOSPHERE — Hercules J. Agee, owner and manager of Agee Food Store at 1201 11th Place for years has preserved the old-fashioned neighborhood food store atmosphere at his establishment. After 47 years in the food sales business, he will soon retire after selling the store.

Arts, Craft Veteran Grocer Sale, Show Here Retiring Is Planned

Area artists and craftsmen will be interested in the upcoming "Christmas Barn," an arts and crafts show and sale sponsored by the Howard County 4-H Clubs.

The event will be held in the new Howard County Fair Barn in Big Spring, Dec. 7-8. This will be an opportunity for area craftsmen to exhibit and sell their wares. All hand-crafted articles are acceptable and a variety of items such as oil paintings, water colors, lapidary works, jewelry, ceramics, pottery, metal sculpture, leather crafts, wood workings, knitted items, baked goods and many more will be available.

Exhibitors are encouraged to demonstrate their craft during the Fair. The public will have an opportunity to view and buy original works of art.

Booth spaces approximately 10' X 10' can be rented. Tables and chairs will be available for rent or participants may furnish their own. All proceeds go to the Howard County 4-H Club. Booths will be assigned on a first come first served basis.

Entrants are encouraged to purchase their booth by Nov. 22. For additional information, those interested can contact the Howard County Extension Office Box 790 Big Spring, 79720 or call 1-915-267-6671 or contact Mrs. Don Hale, 267-5064 or Mrs. Bruce Griffith, 263-0965.

By TROY BRYANT

The old-fashioned, personalized atmosphere prevails in Agee Food Store here, and that's the way Hercules J. Agee likes it, almost as much as his customers.

It has been that way for many years, even before Agee took over the business at that location 23 years ago. The neighborhood store is very popular with both young and old.

Agee will soon be retiring from the grocery business after 47 years, but the new owners do not plan to change the store's atmosphere. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eudy will soon take over the business.

Mr. Agee began working in the grocery business when he went to work for the H. O. Wooten Wholesale food chain in Abilene. He worked for that company for 20 years in Abilene and Snyder before going into the retail business as a partner here and several years later, buying the food store that was to bear his name from the late George O'Brien.

Agee was born and reared near Anson and has been working since he was five years old.

The spry 68 year old has been doing his own butchering, stocking shelves and completely runs the store with the help of a cashier.

"One reason I'm quitting is because I can't afford to pay a butcher's wages anymore," he said. In fact, he spends most of his time at the store and has no hobbies as such. He does devote a considerable amount of time to church work, as he has served as treasurer for the First Baptist Church for the past 15 years and is on the Finance Committee, Budget Committee and Board of Deacons of the church.

During the past 23 years he has had his store in its present location, he has noticed a drastic change in the grocery business. "The prices have gone from very low just 20 years ago to the highest in history," he recalls.

More recently, problems in the food business have surfaced, according to Agee, because it is hard to get some canned fruits and vegetables from his wholesalers. Beef is not that much a problem, however, as he cuts his own meat and has kept the same prices for the past year, although the retail price has gone up and down.

After retirement, he plans to take it easy and enjoy life with his wife, Dempsey, his daughter, Mrs. Darlene Dabney and his granddaughters, Melody Dabney. Whatever he does, the youngsters in the vicinity of 1201 11th Place are not likely to forget Hercules Agee, the most popular man who sells them candy.

Glasscock Box Is Relocated

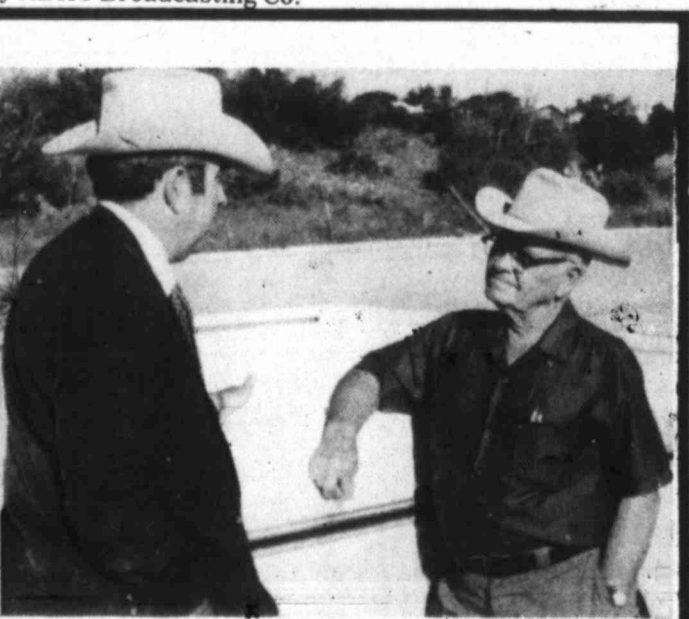

GARDEN CITY

Precinct 4 voting box has been changed to the foyer of the new school gymnasium, according to County Judge D. W. Parker. The election judge at this precinct voting place Tuesday will be Mrs. Larry Wheat with Mrs. Herbert McPherson as alternate.

Other boxes for Glasscock County are in the same place, including Precinct 1 in St. Lawrence Hall with Mrs. A. F. Henrichs as judge and Mrs. Fred Ernst, alternate. Precinct 2 will be in the commissioners courtroom of the court house with Mrs. B. A. Harris, judge, and Mrs. Willard Kelly, alternate. Precinct 3 will be in the Drumright Community Center with Mrs. V. E. Phillips as judge and Mrs. Gene Smith as alternate.

Ford's Anti-Inflation Program Bugged Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz has opened a food conference by telling participants not "to flail the middleman," while a fellow Cabinet officer was announcing administration intent to probe that segment of the food industry.

Butz issued his plea as he opened the conference on food productivity, costs and prices Thursday. Elsewhere in Washington, however, Treasury Secretary William E. Simon was saying the administration was ready to battle the food industry middleman, including refiners, canners and the packaging and transportation industries.

FARM PRICES — "With times as difficult as they are, we cannot permit one segment of the economy to reap unjust enrichment at the expense of everyone else," Simon said in discussing the administration plans at a National Press Club luncheon.

Simon said he was concerned that farm prices have been falling generally while consumer food prices have been increasing. He said the administration's efforts will begin with the sugar industry and that he had ordered public hearings on sugar prices by the Council of Wage and Price Stability.

Simon said that all facets of the sugar industry will be looked at, including the price of raw sugar as it compares with the refined product, and he said:

"When we get all the facts, we will take whatever action is warranted."

FOREIGN IMPORTS — Meanwhile, President Ford reassured farmers that he would not allow foreign imports to further deteriorate their economic base. Speaking in Sioux City, Iowa, Ford promised to impose meat import quotas or negotiate voluntary export restraints if meat imports threatened to exceed a certain level.

He also pledged not to change the dairy import quota system without a thorough review of market conditions and listening to dairy producers.

The President also said he would ask Butz to consider increasing government purchases of beef for the school lunch program. The food conference began five days before congressional elections in which food prices are a major issue and as an increase in raw farm prices was announced.

The Agriculture Department reported a 4-per cent increase in farm prices from Sept. 15 to Oct. 15. Higher prices for wheat, corn, hogs, soybeans and cotton were mostly responsible for the increase.

There were these other economic developments: —Despite President Ford's appeal to cut back spending to fight inflation, sales reported by the nation's leading discount and department stores were up as much as 21 per cent in October over a year ago. And the government reported all retail sales for the last week in October rose 8 per cent above last year.

—The Civil Aeronautics Board approved a 4 per cent increase in fares for passengers flying within the mainland United States, effective Nov. 15.

LACKEYS OF COMMIES

Thieu Seeking To Discredit Opponents

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu tried today to discredit his political opponents by branding them lackeys of the Communists and colonialists and a minority.

But at the same time he promised to carry out some of the reforms his increasingly vocal opposition is demanding.

ATTACKS — "The Communists are launching major attacks in the front, while in the rear, Communist henchmen, colonialists and defeatists are seeking all means to create disorder and political instability and to incite the people to rise up and overthrow the government," Thieu said in a National Day broadcast.

Despite a violent police crackdown Thursday in which scores of anti-Thieu demonstrators in Saigon were injured, thousands demonstrated today in Da Nang and Qui Nhon. They expressed no confidence in the president and called for his resignation.

Leaders of the Unified Buddhist Church in Da Nang said Thieu is following in the path of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem, whose overthrow in a military coup on Nov. 1, 1963, is commemorated by the National Day.

A MESSAGE FROM CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

PAUL SHAFFER

Next month, if you exercise your valuable privilege to vote, you will make a choice for County Commissioner, Precinct 2. Your choice will be determined by which candidate you feel can best serve as your representative on the Commissioner's Court. I sincerely hope the following information will help you to evaluate my qualifications:

- Age 44, born and raised in Big Spring and Howard County, son of T & P Ry. Conductor and Mrs. W. L. Shaffer.
- Married 22 years to the former Rosie Parks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parks of Big Spring.
- Oldest son, Pete, is a student at Texas A & M University, Bob attends Howard College.
- Graduated from Big Spring High School in 1948, from Texas A & M in 1953 with a BS Degree in Architectural Construction.
- Two years Air Force as Installations Engineer.
- Five years experience in Architectural and Engineering design with Benson-Thompson-Nash, Engineers & Architects of Big Spring. Major design project — Howard County Airport.
- Twelve years experience in General & Mechanical Contracting, most of which was as Vice President of Masch Bros., Inc. of Big Spring. Personally responsible to Fred and Paul Kasch for over $20 million worth of construction projects all over the State, five of which exceed $2 million including the Webb AFB Hospital.
- Now self-employed as partner in Chaparral Park and Chaparral Contractors. Projects of Chaparral Contractors include a ten-unit T-Hanger for Howard County Airport, which should be completed by December. If elected, I would disqualify myself from bidding future County work.

County Government is intended to serve the whole County in furtherance of the desires and ambitions of its residents in a fair and impartial manner. It must work with, and not against, other governments and agencies within the County to effect the maximum benefits for the County. Its attitude must be positive and all employees, as well as elected officials, should work hard to justify their respective positions.

I am proud to be a resident of Howard County. It has been good to me and to my family and its where we'd rather live. I owe it to my County to offer my services to Her. You owe it to your County to vote your convictions. Please do not shirk that most valuable privilege and responsibility.

Storms Flail Parts Of Texas

By The Associated Press

Three days of flooding rains and destructive tornadoes in one part of Texas or another tapered off today into light showers near the coast and eastern areas of the state.

Before it died down, however, vicious thunderstorms boiled through parts of South Central and Southeast Texas during the night while areas farther north assessed property losses and watched high waters subside.

OKIE DROWNS

Surprisingly, the widespread storms were blamed directly for just one fatality—the drowning of Army Lt. Charles R. May from Bixby, Okla., after a seven-inch deluge tumbled a car off a bridge at Killeen in Central Texas late Wednesday. A car from which two companions escaped was carried three miles downstream.

Up to 6 inches of rain in two hours Thursday night left Port Lavaca on the coast awash. Traffic stalled in water-filled streets.

In the wake of the storms, thick fog formed before dawn today across a broad stretch of Central and Northeast Texas, and there was some drizzle as far inland as San Antonio and Austin. Near-zero visibility made motor travel hazardous in parts of the fog belt.

RAIN MEASURED

Skies cleared over West Texas, meanwhile, and early morning temperatures dipped to 32 degrees at Marfa and 38 at El Paso and Dalhart. It was still cloudy and warm over most of Central and East Texas, where the readings stayed as high as 75 at Brownsville and 77 at Corpus Christi.

Forecasts called for dry and warmer weather throughout the state.

Rainfall amounts left by the departed storms ranged up to 10 inches at Dawson in Navarro County, McGregor 8.72, Crawford 8.30, Ambrose 5.96, Kerrville 5.74 and Bridgeport 5.26.

Measurements of 3 to 5 inches were common in parts of Central and East Texas.

STRESSES PRODUCTIVITY — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz tells a food marketing conference in Washington Thursday that he doesn't want the conference to flail the middleman. Butz said, "I'm not talking about reducing wages or earnings. I'm talking about increasing productivity."

SECRET RLEA BARGAINING Accuse Justice Agency Of Deceiving Judge

DALLAS (AP) — Special prosecutors in the Jake Jacobsen case have argued that the Justice Department deceived U.S. District Court Judge Robert Hill last summer regarding their secret plea bargaining with Jacobsen in Washington, D.C.

In a written brief sent Thursday to the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, Dallas lawyer Wayne Woodruff, Patrick Higginbotham and Andrew Barr asked the court to deny the government's request to suspend the prosecutors.

PUBLIC INTEREST

Hill appointed the three Oct. 23 to carry out the Texas case against Jacobsen involving charges of misapplying $825,000 from a San Angelo savings and loan association.

The Justice Department has asked the appeals court to suspend Hill's order appointing the prosecutors, saying Hill overstepped constitutional boundaries for the separation of powers.

The prosecutors argue a stay of the order will undo what Hill has done and the "public interest" is best served by complete litigation of the matter in an adversary proceeding.

PROMISED

The Justice Department allegedly promised to dismiss Texas charges against Jacobsen, a lobbyist for a San Antonio-based milk co-operative, in return for his testimony against former Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally.

The three prosecutors pointed out that Justice Department counsel workings on the case in Texas did not relay the information to Judge Hill.

The Dallas lawyers also noted that Jacobsen was indicted July 29 on a lesser bribery charge, but that Judge Hill was not informed of the plea bargain until Aug. 20.

They said Hill pointedly asked U.S. Atty. Frank McCown Aug. 29 if he wished to introduce evidence or testimony to explain why the Texas case should be dismissed to benefit the Washington proceeding, but McCown declined to elaborate.

If the appeals court should grant the stay, the special prosecutors asked it to allow them to participate in an appeal.

Scout Party Is Held Wednesday

Boy Scout Troop 249, celebrated their first anniversary with a Halloween Party for their neighborhood children Wednesday on Bell Street.

with tickets $1.50 per person.

Women from the altar society in charge include Mrs. Roger Lange, Mrs. B. J. Havlak, Mrs. Dennis Schraeder and Mrs. Leon Halfmann.

Men in charge of their portion of the festival include Fred Ernst, Dennis Seidenberger, Hubert Frerich and Cecil Halfmann.

The community was settled 26 years ago on the Oliver Daniels 45 section ranch. Many strides have been made since that time.

Among the earliest settlers were M. A. Braden, Herbert Seidenberger, Gus Mahler, Herbert and Herman Goetz, Martin Holder, Ace Hoelscher and Fred Ernst.

In a year or two these were followed by A. W. Schraeder, Isidore Hoelscher, Robert Hayden, Adolf Halfmann and sons, Oscar Schwerner, Sylvester and Edgar Glass, John Bednar and Mr. Cope.

Rev. A. Lucca is the pastor of the organization. The group built a $90,000 church at the site in 1969.

THD Favors Extension Southward

AUSTIN — A southerly extension of Interstate Highway 27 to Interstate Highway 20 and 10 is feasible and necessary, a report prepared by the Texas Highway Department has determined.

The report said that seven public meetings were held during the study period with a total attendance of 1,725 persons, all suggesting routes for the highway. Some 23 routes were proposed in a broad area of Texas.

One of the routes proposed would have the new highway intersect Interstate 20 at Big Spring.

The study said that of all the words said about the extension, not a word was said opposing the highway. The difference of opinion is where the highway will be located.

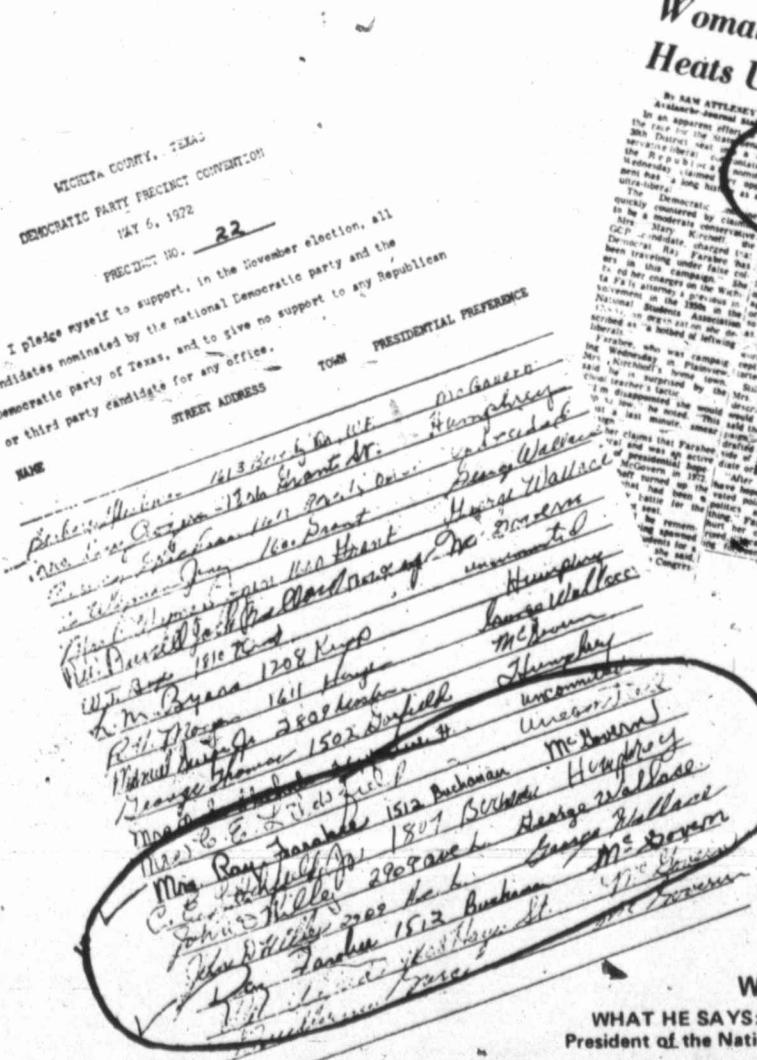

The study was undertaken as a result of special provisions included by Congress in the 1973 Federal-Aid Highway Act. Ten proposed additions to the IH system nationwide were singled out for study in the act. Only the IH 27 extension had no special route prescribed for Congress.

Shouldn't A Lawyer Tell The Truth, The Whole Truth, And Nothing But The Truth?

Farabee's Early Support Of McGovern Is Documented At Precinct 22 Convention

WOMAN NOMINEE'S CHARGE HEATS UP STATE SENATE RACE

But Farabee, The Candidate, Avoids The Record

What He Says: "He also denied actively supporting and working for McGovern."

What The Record Shows: Farabee's early support of McGovern is documented by his own handwriting which identifies him as a committed delegate at his precinct convention. Farabee was thus lined up for the take-over of the Democratic Party when McGovern still had only a 2% rating in the opinion polls.

WHAT ELSE DOES THE RECORD SHOW?

WHAT HE SAYS: "Farabee acknowledged he served as President and Vice President of the National Students Association (NSA) in the early 1950s..."

WHAT THE RECORD SHOWS: "Throughout its existence, NSA has been one of the principal vehicles for left-wing agitation and propaganda among the nation's youth. It has been a vulnerable and often willing target for infiltration by the far left..." (NSA Report)

WHAT HE SAYS: "I strongly support right to work and I believe in a concept of open shop."

WHAT THE RECORD SHOWS: The NSA constitution begins, "We, the members of the National Union of Students of the United States..." Farabee was president of this national union.

He uses clever language to avoid direct reference to the agency shop. "A concept of the open shop" is the agency shop, which requires workers to pay union dues regardless of whether they belong to a union or not.

"Agency shop" is a watered-down version of "union shop." Both are opposed to the right-to-work principle.

HOWARD COLLEGE At Big Spring

OFFICE OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

OSHA SEMINAR
ARE YOU IN COMPLIANCE WITH OSHA REGULATIONS?

The William Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 set forth laws, "to assure as far as possible every working man and woman in the nation safe and healthful working conditions and to preserve our human resources." The provisions of the law apply to every employer engaged in business affecting commerce who has employees.

Under the law the Labor Department was provided with safety inspectors who have the responsibility of inspecting and enforcing the law. It is the responsibility of business to understand and comply with the various provisions of the act.

Howard College and the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce join in making available a seminar to inform the business community of the provision of OSHA regulations.

The instructor for the seminar will be Mike Dixon. Mr. Dixon has received training in the provisions of OSHA and is an experienced public school teacher.

WHERE? Howard College, Adult Education Building, Room 1
WHEN? Tuesdays, starting November 5 through December 17 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.
FEE? $25.00

More Women Candidates Running, Expected To Win

WASHINGTON (AP) — More women are running for more offices this year than ever before, and two of them are expected to win major statewide posts in Tuesday's elections.

Rep. Ella Grasso is favored to become governor of Connecticut and Mary Ann Krupsak is ahead in her bid for lieutenant governor of New York.

At the same time, women are expected to substantially increase their numbers in state legislatures. But women could slip back from their current congressional strength of 16 seats.

Rep. Grasso, a Democrat, would become the fourth woman governor in U.S. history, and the first to make it without benefit of a husband's coattails. She has two decades of experience in Connecticut politics.

Miss Krupsak, a state senator who defied Democratic party leaders to capture the nomination for lieutenant governor, would be the first woman elected to a major statewide office in New York. She ran her insurgent campaign on the slogan "She's not just one of the boys."

Other major women candidates include Democrats Barbara Mikulski of Maryland and Betty Roberts of Oregon, both running for the Senate, and Republican Louise Gore, a gubernatorial candidate in Maryland.

All three are challenging heavily-favored incumbents.

In New York, Barbara Keating, a Vietnam war widow, is the Conservative Party nominee for the Senate. She could play the spoiler's role, siphoning off as many as one million votes from Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits and his Democratic challenger, Ramsey Clark.

Less visible but highly significant were the expected grass roots elections of women on school boards, city councils, state courts and as county sheriffs and administrators.

Thousands more women sought elective office this year than ever before — including a nun in Tennessee, a brothel owner in Nevada, an activist Quaker grandmother in New Hampshire, a right-to-life conservative in New York, a lesbian in Massachusetts and a young Peace Corps veteran who swims the California coast to dramatize her opposition to offshore oil wells.

Nobody has a precise fix on the number of women candidates. But the National Women's Political Caucus says 1,029 women sought state and congressional seats in 1972. This year, political director Freddie Wechsler estimates that more than 1,800 women ran for comparable seats.

More than 1,100 women survived the primaries, she said, including 1,000 candidates for state legislatures and three major-party candidates for the Senate, 44 for the House, three for governor, four for lieutenant governor and 11 for secretary of state.

At last count there were 462 women among the 7,584 state legislators or slightly more than 6 percent.

"We look to increase this about 50 percent, to between 600 and 700," said Betsy Wright, director of the National Women's Education Fund.

The figures are skewed, however, by the disproportionate share of women in New Hampshire's 400-member legislature. There are 89 women legislators there now and 160 are seeking seats this November.

Every state has at least one woman legislator — Alabama and Nebraska have only one each — but many states have never elected a woman to the U.S. House or Senate.

This year, three of the 16 congresswomen are retiring and Rep. Grasso quit to run for governor. The 12 incumbents are likely to win again. Reps. Patsy Mink, D-Hawaii, and Lindy Boggs, D-La., have GOP women opponents and Rep. Leonor Sullivan, D-Mo., has two women opponents.

There aren't four sure winners among the new women contenders for Congress although both GOP and Democratic analysts rate a dozen races so close they're toss-ups as the election nears.

Every state has at least one woman legislator — Alabama and Nebraska have only one each — but many states have never elected a woman to the U.S. House or Senate.

And I wish she would. How do we let her know?

DEAR PUZZLED: This is not a job for "we" — your husband should handle it alone. And if he really wants to discourage further gift giving, he will — too sweet!

State Officer Is Banquet Guest

Mrs. Glenn L. Person of Big Spring, first vice president of the Texas Association of Women's and Girls' Clubs Inc. and immediate past president of the Stokes-Parker District, will be guest speaker Saturday at the Woodson Community Center, 1020 E. Murphy, Odessa.

The benefit banquet, which begins at 7:30 p.m., is being sponsored by the Castanette Club to help defray expenses when the seven federated clubs in Odessa host the 25th annual convention of the Stokes-Parker District in April 1975.

Mrs. Dorothy Jean Mitchell is president of the Castanette Club, and Mrs. O. L. Benson of McCamey is district president.

The Role of Club Women in the Community will be Mrs. Person's theme, and she will use excerpts from the book, "Ladies, Please Come to Order," by Peggy Cameron King.

Another feature of the program will be a talk by Mrs. Gladys Penny, a retired teacher from Big Spring Independent School District, who now resides in Odessa. Mrs. Penny is a trustee for the state organization and organizer for the district.

Invocation will be by the Rev. H. L. Steager, pastor of St. James Baptist, and the guest speaker will be introduced by Mrs. Lillian Deaver, president of the Odessa city federation and second vice president of the district. Among those at the head table will be City Councilman Willie Hammond, the first black councilman elected in Odessa.

Entertainment will include a style show with fashions from Midland stores. Tickets for the banquet are $2.50 per person. Pictures at the event will be placed in the city's bicentennial annual, along with other records of Odessa's clubs and historical events.

'ECONOMIC OCCUPATION

Drive To Conquer Wild Amazon Basin

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Brazil's stepped-up drive to conquer the Amazon Basin is carrying 20th century civilization deeper into one of its last major frontiers with primitive man.

The government launched a new Amazon development program in September in which it earmarked hundreds of millions of dollars for what it called the "economic occupation" of the huge area.

TRADITIONS

The program will mean increased contact between an estimated 100,000 or more Indians who live in the jungles and outsiders who go there to tame nature with steel and concrete.

The government says the Indians will be integrated gradually into Brazilian society. Defenders of Indian culture say the process will destroy tribal traditions and turn surviving Indians into misfits of an alien civilization.

Some of the tribes have taken to attacking those who encroach on their territory. The lands at stake are part of an area as big as the western United States.

BOWS, ARROWS

In early October, one of many clashes involving Waimiri-Atroari tribesmen took place north of Manaus, Brazil's main city in the Amazon.

A group of the Indians made what appeared to be a friendly call on a jungle station manned by the National Indian Foundation, Funai. For reasons still unclear, the Indians suddenly attacked the government agents with bows and arrows. Two agents were killed; a third was wounded and died later.

Numerous similar attacks by that tribe and others have been reported in the past decade.

Brazilian newspapers say the Waimiri-Atroari have killed more than 50 persons sent to them on pacifying missions.

Funai has given priority to pacifying the Waimiri-Atroari because a highway is being built near their area between Manaus and Caracaras.

RAIN FOREST

"These Indians are very difficult. For several years they have accepted contact but continue to be distrustful," said Gen. Ismarth de Araujo, president of Funai. "The Manaus-Caracaras highway is seen by them as a threat to the autonomy of their reservation."

The Amazon basin is dotted with 16 reservations and parks. More long highways are being cut through the rain forest. Jungle is being cleared to make room for large corporate cattle ranches.

The less-isolated Indians of Brazil have had contact with outsiders since the Portuguese began colonizing Brazil in the 16th century. Uncounted thousands of Indians were killed by the outsiders' diseases, enslaved or slain.

Gov. Briscoe Big Spender

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe is outspending his Republican challenger Jim Granberry almost $2 to $1 in the governor's race, campaign expense reports indicate.

Briscoe reported Tuesday to the Secretary of State that he has spent $1,011,747 in his re-election bid and has received contributions totaling $1,002,248, including $645,000 which he loaned himself.

Granberry reported expenses of $536,545 and contributions of $521,462. The reports, supposedly complete through Oct. 26, were the last before the Nov. 5 general election.

12 Million Illegal Aliens In America?

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — There may be as many as 12 million illegal aliens in this country, U.S. Atty. Gen. William Saxbe said here.

Saxbe, in the Lower Rio Grande Valley to visit the U.S. Border Patrol Academy near Los Fresnos and to make a speech to Valley lawyers, said usual estimates place the number at four to seven million but the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service said it could be as high as 12 million.

Describing the situation "a severe national crisis," Saxbe said the immigration service could open up one million new jobs in the next year with an additional appropriation of $40 million and 1,500 new employees. He said the jobs could be opened by removing aliens holding down an estimated 364,000 jobs in industry, nearly that many in agriculture and about 400,000 in the service trades.

Noting that about 90 percent of the 800,000 illegal aliens apprehended in this country last year came from Mexico, Saxbe said "though it is outside my area of responsibility, I am convinced that this country must do more to help Mexico with its economy."

"In one sense, it would be a prudent investment for our own future, but at the same time, it is the decent and necessary thing."

"I am sympathetic to the poor from any land, but the United States has an abiding obligation to care for its own first. That will be hard to do if the flow of illegal immigrants continues unchecked."

Saxbe said that in addition to taking to unemployed citizens, the illegal aliens sometimes qualify for welfare. Most do not pay income taxes, he said.

The attorney general said the U.S. Border Patrol force along the 2,000-mile stretch of Mexican border between Brownsville and San Diego, Calif., is stretched so thin that its men could respond to only one-third of the alarms.

5 Million Plus Attend Expo '74

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — A logger and his family from St. Maries, Idaho, have pushed Expo '74 past the 5 million attendance mark the fair has said it needed to break even.

World's fair officials were jubilant at the attendance figure Monday, although 5 million visitors do not automatically guarantee financial success for the fair. That attendance goal was set in the budget shortly after the fair began.

Stanley K. Wolfe, his wife Pauline, his daughter Stephanie Meyer and her daughter were Monday's honored guests and were showered with gifts.

"The U.S. government could save many times the $5 billion President Ford hopes to pick up from his proposed surtax. It could do this by reforming the alphabet soup of the federal regulatory agencies — ICC, FCC, FTC, CAB, SEC, FCC, IRB, FMC, AEC, FDA and so on, not to mention the newer WPA and FEA.

This is the recent observation of the Christian Science Monitor, which went on to point out that $100 billion in transportation and utility charges alone are regulated by government. In transportation, it is estimated that the regulatory agencies countenance price-fixing and wastefulness, duplications, etc., to such an extent as to cost Americans $16 billion annually, says the paper.

Lewis Engman, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, is quoted as saying that "our airlines, truck lines, railroads, electronic media, and countless others are on the dole. We get irate about welfare fraud, but out complex systems of hidden regulatory subsidies make welfare fraud look like petty larceny."

That's pretty strong stuff, but Mr. Engman is not far from the truth.

We clamor for free enterprise, when it is free only from real competition in many instances. So much of this regulation is done in the guise of the public interest, and the same goes for unannounced subsidies which do not help the consumer but on the contrary jack up the price of what he would have to pay were competition undiluted.

The Monitor suggests that one remedy at hand is better presidential appointments to those top commissions. Too often, they have carried a bias of those whom the agency is called upon to regulate.

Another suggestion is that Congress indicate its displeasure with present practices by the simple device of cutting expenditures. Still another would be to strengthen oversight committees. And finally by getting courts into a more efficient and active role.

We have one to add to that: Why not fix the life of any agency to a specific term, just like a president or member of Congress are subjected to the regular prospect of termination. If an agency is really needed, it will be renewed and extended; if not it can be killed off. At worst, it can regularly be made to justify its operations and to be subject to constant scrutiny and overhaul.

Prayers For Recovery

An unexpected turn of events has left former President Richard Nixon in a critical condition from post operative shock following surgery to minimize chances of a blood clot in his leg breaking loose.

Physicians reported that the anticoagulants given the former president to lessen the chances for clots forming within the veins contributed to internal hemorrhage. Suddenly a normal, stable prognosis deteriorated into a precarious situation. This is most distressing.

To the skillful, unstinted efforts of physicians, each of us can add our prayers that this crisis can be weathered and that Mr. Nixon will be restored to health and strength.

My Answer

Billy Graham

I have problems with the so-called Golden Rule. The "Do unto others as you'd have them do to you" idea is one command of Christ that I find most difficult. In fact, failing at this occurs so often I really wonder if I'm a true Christian. Please discuss this in a future column.

M. M. B.

May I suggest several reasons why you have trouble with the Golden Rule, essentially taken from Matthew 7:12.

The first is that it is such an all-inclusive principle, comprehensive of all other ethical teaching. Jesus said in that same reference that it sums up all the law and the prophets.

Secondly, it opposes our natural inclination to be selfish and at times careless of the feelings of others.

Thirdly, like many, you fail to see the basic equality that is true of all men — an equality of worth in God's sight, and an equality of need for a Savior.

But now you must also realize that the chief difference between Christ and other moralists is the power that accompanies His teaching. I'm afraid the Golden Rule remains an unattainable goal, unless we come into a personal relationship with Christ.

The inspiration of Christ's life makes the Golden Rule attractive, but His power makes it all possible.

MY ANSWER

THE SKY IS FALLING!

And Now The Bad News

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — First the good news. General Motors, which will sell perhaps $30-billion worth of goods to the world during the next year, has stated it plans no more increases on its 1975 automobile models.

For a company of such size — it is the largest manufacturing enterprise in the world — such a statement is extraordinary, especially since GM already is under price pressure from its suppliers and others.

In taking its stand, the company introduces a degree of stability into an uncertain atmosphere.

Among other things, the move reassures car buyers that they need not rush into the market now in order to avoid higher prices in months to come.

It all but compels competitors to maintain similarly stable pricing programs. It offers an example by which other companies can measure their own prices. It might even impose a moral restraint on GM suppliers.

In summary, it might not have the impact of a move by the Federal Reserve Board or the Ford administration budget makers, but its impact cannot be underestimated either.

GM last year sold $35.8 billion of cars, diesels, air-conditioners, batteries, trucks, buses, refrigerators, construction items and other products. It buys hundreds of millions of dollars of glass, rubber, steel. Its employment never has fallen below 660,000 in the past decade.

It is the most powerful corporation in the world, and its impact is felt not only by every American but by millions abroad.

And now the bad news. While GM is thus making its contribution to the anti-inflation effort, it is simultaneously preparing for and reacting to a major downturn in the U.S. economy. It will be buying less, selling less, employing fewer workers and earning less.

It cannot earn the same as a year ago, in fact, unless it pares its costs. It claims already to be absorbing $100 of increased costs since 1975-model prices were announced.

Corporate officers announced a week ago that current income has been "adversely affected by rapidly rising costs, reduced volume, and by strikes," the latter occurring mainly at suppliers.

If it already has decided to avoid higher prices as a route out of this earnings predicament, its only other choice is to cut costs. In good times this can be done by increasing sales, but that option also has been closed.

In summary, GM must retrench, and that means everyone associated with GM must think about cutting back — its suppliers, employees, dealer-distributors, rail and motor carriers, advertisers, and maybe even recipients of GM dividends.

Quinine And Cramps

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had cramps in my legs and lately it became so bad that I would wake up at night and have to walk around.

A friend told me to take five grains of quinine before going to bed. I took only one capsule and have had no more cramps all this week. Could I take it every time, if it should occur again? — M.B.

Quinine is often effective in relief of leg cramps — it is one of a variety of methods I outline in my booklet, "How to Stop Leg Cramps and Foot Pains." (If you wish a copy of the booklet, send 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed and stamped envelope to me in care of the Big Spring Herald.)

Even a smaller dose, say three grains, may work. But I have to voice this word of caution: some individuals should not take quinine for one reason or another, and some may find that quinine encourages ear noises. Therefore I prefer that people keep their doctors informed if they are using quinine regularly.

If your particular case, you haven't had any more pains for a week — which is fine. There's certainly no point in taking that or any medication if you don't need it — and it is also possible that some other, very simple, methods may be sufficient to ward off cramps in your case.

Generally speaking, quinine is more likely to be used when the patient knows with relative certainty that without it he is going to wake up with leg cramps. Taking the drug at the time of an attack of cramps will not bring relief any quicker than getting up and walking.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 70 and wish to have a baby. My husband is 60. We were never married before. My periods stopped when I was in my 40s. We are newly wed and ignorant about sex. — Mrs. H.

You are long past fertility 20 years or so past, so it will be impossible for you to have a baby.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What foods contain vitamin K? — R.T.

Cereals, cabbage, cauliflower, spinach, bran, soybeans, liver all contain it. Lesser amounts are in other fruits and vegetables. It is also produced in the intestinal tract if there are ample bile and other digestive juices present.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am considering taking birth control pills but have some concern about long-run effects. For instance, if a woman takes the pill for five years in her middle 20s, then what is the chance that when she turns 40 or 50 she will have some sort of cancer or degeneration in the reproductive system? The "pill" has not been in use long enough to know with certainty its long-term effects. — Mrs. C.A.P.

You've answered your own question: "certainty" is not possible. But that applies to so many other things, too. How long ago did somebody say that nothing is "certain" except death and taxes? The pills were tested for years before they were approved for general use.

Birth control is a highly relevant topic in today's society. Find out what you should know about it in Dr. Thosteson's easy to read booklet, "The Twelve Birth Control Methods." For a copy write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25 cents.

Males New Patrons

Around The Rim

John Edwards

When I was young, my father once made me go into a beauty shop and get my mother. It felt like it does to walk into a restroom and not be sure you're in the right one.

AS I GREW UP, though, things changed. First, it was greasy long hair, then flat tops, then Ivy League cuts and then hippy. Now, the latest is a cross between a hippy and redneck cowboy.

And some men are getting their hair cut in beauty salons.

Why? "They get it done better," Mrs. Eloise Faulkenberry, owner of a beauty shop, said.

Are they embarrassed? No, she said. Her firm cuts hair for an average of five or six males each week. "I've never advertised that I do it," Mrs. Faulkenberry said, linking the trend to long hair fashions which short styles, she thinks, will replace in time.

"It will be legal until January," Mrs. Faulkenberry said, "and then it may not be legal to cut women's hair."

The Texas Supreme Court is expected to rule in the hairy controversy then, she said.

"The barbers want us to get a barber's license and join their little union," Mrs. Faulkenberry said.

"I have nothing against the barbers and don't want their business and know they're hurting," the beautician spokeswoman said. "I just don't want them cutting women's hair."

Some beauty shops do seek male customers, though, Mrs. Faulkenberry said.

WHAT ABOUT women getting hair cut in barber shops? Larry Knight, co-owner of a barber shop, said any women requesting hair cuts at his place are referred to beauty shops.

As for men going to beauty shops, Knight said: "I know this problem has affected us some but not all that bad."

He and his employees are schooled in styling men's hair and periodically attend seminars on hair styling, Knight said.

Knight could not think of any specific customers who might have started getting hair styled and cut at beauty shops.

"I STILL DON'T think a woman who spends most of her time cutting women's hair is going to be able to cut a man's hair the way he wants it," Knight said.

Hunka Stewart, another local barber, is well acquainted with the legal fight.

Of the cosmetologists, Stewart said: "Their law reads they can cut hair when it's incidental to the way they're fixing it."

But Stewart did not want to comment for the record otherwise, citing the complexity of the matter.

Wrong Choice

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — Damned if you do and damned if you don't. That is the wry conclusion of President Ford as he stumps across the country trying to pull Republican-congressional candidates out of the slough of despond.

HE IS BEING roundly scolded for playing the partisan game and thereby further dividing an already fractured nation. Instead he should be taking the high road of unity to pull people together for the common goal of fighting inflation, so the argument goes. By denouncing the Democrats as big spenders in-state after state, he is betraying that goal.

But it takes practically no imagination to hear the chorus of complaint that would arise if he had followed the other course and had stayed in the White House with the image of a national leader. Hard-pressed Republicans would have denounced him, as they did Richard Nixon, for being indifferent not only to their fate, but to the future of the party.

WHETHER HE wrestled with the choice or whether he is just doing what comes naturally is of no moment, since the die is cast. He has tied his fortunes to GOP candidates, many of whom are almost certain to go down to defeat. In an election campaign marked by resounding apathy, even the President of the United States has failed to draw sizable and enthusiastic crowds.

In my opinion, the President made the wrong choice. I say this while realizing how difficult it would have been for him to say no to the appeals of one beleaguered candidate after another. The error of his choice has been compounded by his use of the threat that greatly enlarged Democratic majorities in Congress would jeopardize the Administration's foreign policy initiatives.

THE BLAME on this score is broad enough to cover both parties. An example is the foreign aid mess. Conservative Republicans have consistently voted against aid.

With aid snarled over the Turkish stand on Cyprus, the hope that Secretary of State Henry Kissinger might employ foreign-aid grants to implement a Middle East peace is deferred if not canceled. During his shuttle diplomacy earlier this year, Kissinger had encouraged Egypt to believe in a $250-million grant which would be largely used to restore the Suez Canal and the ruined cities along the canal.

Likewise, the blame for inflation should be shared by both parties. Lyndon Johnson's escalation of the Vietnam war was one of the principal causes, with no tax increase to make up at least part of the deficit.

AS A MEMBER of the House of Representatives, later a minority leader, Gerald Ford voted for every Vietnam appropriation requested by President Johnson. With one comparatively minor exception, he voted for all the big arms bills before Congress during his 25 years there.

Sticking to the job of President, Mr. Ford might have helped to rescue funds for mass transit out of the clutches of the highway lobby. While his threat to veto the aid bill if it contained a ban on arms assistance to Turkey brought a compromise, a more direct and vigorous intervention might have moved aid out of the no-man's land where it languishes today.

THE ANALOGY with Harry Truman is false. Truman's give 'em hell campaign in 1948 came after he had been President for nearly four years. He was attacking a Republican majority in a congress that had divided on more or less clearcut party lines over social legislation. Inflation and recession were not factors.

Republicans in 1972 rang a change on George McGovern's far-out campaign promises with a plea that went "Come home, George McGovern." Maybe "Come Home, Gerald Ford" is right for a President crisscrossing the country and tying his future to a losing campaign.

But Who Knows?

By JAY SHARBUTT

AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Sand had just finished a Chinese lunch when three ladies at a nearby table arose, walked over, gave him a card and asked him to autograph it. He was obviously pleased. So were the ladies.

One ventured a jest — "I didn't recognize you without your bass."

BUT A MAN at the next table thought Sand was Joe Namath.

So it goes these days for the 34-year-old star of CBS' "Friends and Lovers," the new Saturday night series in which he plays a bachelor who plays the big bass viol in the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

The shaggy-haired, sad-faced actor, born in Los Angeles, was in Fun City to bow up some publicity for his show which, sandwiched between "All in the Family" and "Mary Tyler Moore," has few ratings worries.

But Sand seems a worrier by nature, the sort of guy who'd probably be happiest running a grief swap shop. At the interview, he was fretting because CBS hasn't said yet if it'd renew the show for 13 more weeks.

"All the earmarks are that it will be," he said. "But who knows? I would like it to be picked up because I'd like to use what I've learned so far to make the next 13 more solid."

LEARN? There doesn't seem much more learning needed for someone who began studying acting at 11, left home at 18 for a year with Marcel Marceau's mime troupe in Paris, working with Chicago's "Second City" gang and won Broadway's "Tony" award in 1970 for his work in "Story Theater."

Sand now has the floor: "Well, I was totally intimidated by television. It took me years to get comfortable on the stage and then this opportunity came."

"I'd done a couple of things, like one shot on the 'Mary Tyler Moore show,' he played an auditor — and three Carol Burnett shows, but this show was really like being in a new school."

He said he felt his timing was off initially and, although the show's writers toiled mightily, "they were writing for an actor who can tell jokes. I can do situations, but I can't tell jokes."

A Devotion For Today . .

'Listen to advice and accept instruction, that you may gain wisdom for the future.' (Proverbs 19:20)
Prayer: Thank You for the privilege of hearing Your Word, Lord. Help us to listen with sincerity and enthusiasm. In Jesus' name. Amen.

A state gridiron's computer system must be stuck. For the third straight week it rates Big Spring a 20-point underdog. The Steers tread to Abilene Cooper tonight.

To help encourage Big Spring Quarterback Club attendance, Bob Zellers, Runnels football coach, will explain at Tuesday's meeting the reason for combining his team and Goliad for the remaining season. Zellers will show a "true living back and white" film on the combined team's performance. This is the first time Runnels and Goliad have ever joined forces. If Goliad had decided to call it quits, the season for it would have ended Oct. 24.

Big Spring High cagers will participate in two tournaments during the month of December. Plainview is booked for the first weekend and Snyder, for the second weekend. The Steers took top honors in the Snyder festival in 1973.

Big Spring compiled a 17-15 record for 1973-74 and tied for fourth in the 5-4A roundball final standings. Lee won the district and was eliminated via the bi-district.

There are 575 women and 550 men competing in sanctioned bowling in Big Spring which includes Webb AFB.

Henry Aaron, American home-run king, and Sadaharu Oh, Japan's "Sultan of Swat," will meet in a home-run hitting contest to be broadcast via satellite from Tokyo Stadium in Japan.

It is scheduled from 2-3 p.m. Saturday on CBS-TV Sports Spectacular. Highlights of a baseball game between the New York Mets and Japanese All-Stars will also be presented.

The hitting contest will consist of five alternating turns at bat for each hitter, with each swinging a total of 20 times. The batter who hits the most out of the park will be considered the winner.

If Baylor holds its attendance average at the current 40,750, it will mean an increase of 175 per cent over six years ago and 88 per cent over three seasons back.

Cotton Bowl scouts Saturday will visit five of the seven leading contenders for the guest spot on New Year's Day. Four contenders will be playing each other — Maryland at Penn State and Auburn at Florida. Cotton Bowlers will also visit Alabama for its game with Mississippi State. The two other leaders, Notre Dame and Nebraska, are playing away from home Saturday.

No Grid Merger With WFL Clubs

NEW YORK (AP) — Forget about any possible consolidation between the 55-year-old National Football League and the infant World Football League... as long as Pete Rozelle is NFL commissioner.

Asked about the possibility of such an amalgamation Thursday, Rozelle said emphatically, "There will be no complete or partial merger with any World Football League teams. The league never has considered it. The World Football League will have to make it or not make it on its own, without any help from us."

"We have our own expansion plans and there would just be nothing in it for us to take in two of their teams. If we did, there could be all sorts of problems, such as teams in our league holding rights to some players on those teams."

"For our 29th and 30th teams, we are going to stock them with NFL players, just as we are going to stock our 27th and 28th teams with NFL players."

In fact, no NFL teams will be stocked with any more WFL players for the remainder of this season. The NFL owners made that decision Thursday, at the conclusion of their two-day meetings.

In passing such a resolution, the owners broadened a longstanding rule that had been in effect against the signing of Canadian Football League and minor league players.

Thus, when the first WFL regular season ends on Nov. 13 and the CFL regular season concludes on Nov. 3, none of their players would be eligible to be signed by NFL teams, even if they became free agents at those times.

Meanwhile, Rozelle said no decision had been reached on awarding of the Seattle franchise. The commissioner said three groups — two from Seattle — were bidding for the franchise, which is scheduled to begin play in 1976, along with Tampa. The commissioner said the decision probably would be made within the next month.

The Tampa franchise was awarded Wednesday to Tom McCloskey, a Philadelphia builder and real estate developer.

There remained the possibility that two more franchises would be added for 1976, increasing league membership to 30 in six five-team divisions. Among the cities considered leading contenders are Phoenix, Birmingham, Ala., Memphis and Honolulu. Ironically, the last three currently have WFL teams.

The owners also voted to play the 1976 Pro Bowl Game, matching all-stars from the American and National Conferences, in the Superdome in Louisiana on Monday night, Jan. 26. This season's Pro Bowl Game, the first under the lights, is scheduled for Jan. 20, 1975, in Miami's Orange Bowl.

Rozelle said the possibility of extending the 14-game schedule next season was turned down. It had been reported that some of the exhibition games might be counted as regular-season games.

Big Spring Gains Win

COAHOMA — The Big Spring sophomores scored a 14-12 win over Coahoma JV here Thursday night.

Big Spring scored on the first play of the game on a 40-yard pass. PAT was kicked. The visitors closed out scoring procedures in the second. A TD was completed on a 20-yard pass. PAT was kicked.

Coahoma's Dusty Douglas scored all of his team's touchdowns. He crossed Big Spring's end zone in the second and third frames on eight-yard and six-yard runs respectively. Extra point attempts failed on both tries, which provided the winning Big Spring two-point margin. Coahoma ran 76 offensive plays as compared to Big Spring's 31.

Coahoma now stands at 6-2 and faces Snyder-T here next Thursday.

COEDS PLAY ON MEN'S SOCCER TEAM — Clare LeMyer, left and Mary Quinn warm up with Ernie Chavez (glasses) and Bill Giles before working out at Loyola University in Los Angeles with the school's 25-player intercollegiate soccer team. They're believed to be the only girls in the country playing on an otherwise all-male team.

Sports Highlights

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — The Florida Blazers of the World Football League will be sold Saturday despite a current investor's warnings of financial ruin, a Blazer attorney says.

Bob Deutsch, an attorney for Rommie Loudd, a Blazer managing general partner, said Thursday that the sale was set and that the new owners would assume control of the financially feeble franchise next week.

"We are typing up the papers today and they will be signed Saturday," Deutsch said. "The deal will be closed and the money transferred next week."

The path for the sale was cleared Tuesday when Orlando millionaire David Williams, the major investor in a limited partnership engineered by Loudd, failed to post a $500,000 bond ordered by a circuit judge as a prerequisite for keeping alive his suit to block the deal.

Williams, who fell out with Loudd over management of the team, charged in his suit that he was not consulted on the sale and stood to lose his investment of nearly $1 million.

Although Williams appealed the bond order to the 4th Circuit Court of Appeal and warned any potential buyers they would be subject to "future substantial losses" if he won, Deutsch said the legal hassle had "absolutely no effect" on the sale. Deutsch said the identities of the new owners would not be made public "until the money is transferred" to preclude the chance of them being sued.

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Texas Ranger veteran infielder Larry Brown has been given his unconditional release and replaced on the major league roster by pitcher Larry Mohr.

Brown, a 12-year American League veteran with Cleveland, Baltimore, Oakland and Texas was signed as a free agent by the Rangers during spring training following his 1973 release by Baltimore.

He has a lifetime batting average of .233, but hit .197 for the Rangers last season. Mohr, a 21-year-old righthander from Litchfield, Ill., is considered one of the top pitching prospects in the Texas club.

He was purchased from the Spokane, Wash., farm club where his record was 3-6.

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa. (AP) — Slippery Rock has a 6-0 record this year, but Coach Bob DiSpirito says even so still smiles at his school's football team.

DiSpirito, however, is not smiling about never having made the Associated Press Small College football poll. In fact, he's steaming.

"We are very upset," he says. "We have won two straight state championships and we're driving for a third, and we still can't get any recognition."

But opponents give the Rockets lots of recognition. Slippery Rock has not lost in its last 29 games against Pennsylvania competition, has a 20-game home winning streak and an 11-game non-losing skein going into Saturday's game at Lock Haven State. The Rockets won last year, 76-0.

"We feel we can play with anybody," says publicist John Carpenter.

The venerable Dunkel rankings have Slippery Rock rated ahead of more than a dozen major schools, including New Mexico State. It says the Rockets are 1.5 points better the 5-3 Lobos.

"Look, we might not beat Penn State if we played them, but we sure wouldn't lose 55-0 like Wake Forest did, either," says Carpenter.

Grady Experiencing First Year Problems

By CLARK LESHER

Gary Harrell, coach and principal has his hands full at Grady High School. He's trying to put over a first year football program which has had its share of "problems."

Last year, Grady took Flower Grove's 1B basketball position. Flower Grove was consolidated with Klondike. A brand new gymnasium was built in 1973.

This autumn, Grady took over the gridiron spot formerly occupied by Cotton Center and which dropped from the scene. Prior to last year, prep students from Grady attended Stanton.

Grady, with Gary in charge, three years ago started off enrollment as an elementary school.

"The main problem faced is getting enough students out to field a team," Grady first had 14 report down to the present 13, and competes in eight-man.

"Our boys have a real good outlook," Gary said. "They do their jobs well, and realize the school is somewhat at a disadvantage."

Grady, though winless in six games and without a homefield, has showed steady improvement. A stadium is to be completed before the 1975 season rolls around. The playing field has been sodded to accommodate workouts.

Grady has two games left on the 1974 calendar — Witharrel today and Southland, Nov. 8. Gary thinks "we have a good chance to beat both of them."

Harrell thinks his team will be able to compete with any eight-man football squad next fall.

Grady loses five seniors after completion of the 1974 gridiron sport. Two juniors and three sophomores will return. An outstanding eighth grade football team will booster Grady's forces next year.

Grady's girls' basketball season starts Nov. 12. Southland is the named opponent with the game earmarked for the Grady gym. The boy's squad initiate court action Nov. 15 at Fluvanna.

Grady travels to all football games by school bus.

Gary graduated from West Texas State in 1971. He didn't compete in sports. "I was present among such Buffalo celebrities who went on to national recognition as Mercury Morris, Duane Thomas, and the Funk brothers, Terry and Dory, Jr."

Gary ran a dry cleaning shop in Canyon with "school a sideline." He was very impressed with the Funks. "Well disciplined and polite. Anytime one can become a world champion, it's an indication you're doing okay."

Juniors Bounce Snyder

SNYDER — A combined team from Runnels and Goliad Junior High Schools defeated the Snyder-Travis crew 20-6 here Thursday night as Eddie Puga ran wild and scored twice on runs of 64 and 68 yards.

Puga gained 192 yards in ten carries for the game, bringing his season total to 1,368 yards gained rushing.

He scored first on a 64 yard run with 1:12 left in the first quarter, capping a 70 yards drive in three plays. He added the extra points for an 8-0 lead.

He broke loose again in the second quarter, this time for 68 yards as they scored from 70 yards out in two plays.

In the third quarter, it took five plays to drive 60 yards as Ricky Gutierrez passed 19 yards to Danny Crosby for the final Goliad-Runnels touchdown, giving the Big Spring team a 20-0 lead.

Snyder closed the gap later in the third quarter as they scored on a 53-yard pass.

Toros Close Out Season

The Big Spring Toros closed out their season Thursday night with a 14-6 win over Odessa Crockett.

Odessa's lone score of the night came on a 50-yard first quarter run. Crockett's TD was set up as a result of an intercepted pass.

The Toros bounced back with just three seconds left until half-time. Quarterback Wade Cobb passed to Kenneth Coffey for 15 yards and a TD. Extra point try failed.

Mike Abreo scored the Toros winning TD in the third. He ran over into Crockett's end zone for the one.

The Toros had taken possession of the ball from the opening kickoff. It took nine plays of 70-yards to reach Odessa's end zone.

Outstanding Toros performance was registered by Charlie Vernon, Tony Mann, Ish Solid and Lance Perry.

The Toros finished the year with a 3-4 record.

Booster Club Meeting Set

ACKERLY — The Sands Booster club will hold its meeting in the old gym immediately following the completion of Monday's girls' basketball game.

Final arrangements for a pancake supper in the school cafeteria will be discussed. The supper is scheduled for Nov. 16. Tickets are: $1.25, adults, and $1.00, children 12 and younger.

Supplies are urged to be donated for the supper.

HC Scores Twin Wins

Howard College's volleyball team Monday downed both Odessa College, 15-8, 15-5 and Texas Tech, 15-11 and 15-13, in the Hawk gym.

The Hawkettes on Friday and Saturday travel to Abilene for a District Tournament in Hardin-Simmons gym. Howard College is seeded second under Sul Ross.

AREA SCHOOLBOY ROUNDUP

Steers Trip Over To Abilene Cooper

Big Spring High faced with a sudden rash of injuries and sickness hopes to make a game of it tonight. The Steers go up against Cooper in Abilene's Shotwell Stadium at 8 p.m.

The Steers counted out in their last five appearances put up a 2-5 seasonal total and a 0-4 5-4A combination. Cooper is 5-2 over-all and 2-2 in the district standings.

This will be Big Spring's next to last road trip for the season. The Steers close out 1974 travel arrangements at Odessa High, Nov. 8, and end seasonal play at home with San Angelo, Nov. 15.

Ronnie Mullins is the latest Steer member to be sidelined for the remaining three games. He tore knee ligaments in Monday's drill.

Two other Steer players involved in knee mishaps were forced out for the season duration. Tommy Churchwell was lost before fall play began and Ricky Darrow was permanently sidelined in the Midland High game.

Ray McCutcheon, failed to don a Steer suit all this week. He jammed his neck in the Lee game. "Doc" Irwin, Steer trainer, says Rays future availability remains somewhat uncertain.

Jesse Doss, Joe Mathews and James Coffey experienced bruises from Permian that isn't expected to prohibit their entry from tonight's endeavor. Frosty Reynolds' cold may keep him from suiting up for Cooper.

Coahoma will be out tonight to keep a third 6-AA loss from crossing its record. The Bulldogs go to Hamlin for a 7:30 date. Coahoma is 5-2-1 for the year's record book and 2-1 in 6-AA.

Hamlin shows off a 6-1 yearly total and is the district leader with an unblemished 3-0 mark.

Injuries have also taken their toll with the Bulldogs. Ricky Patterson damaged knee muscles against Ballinger and will sit out the rest of the season. Gary Roberts was scratched from the Bulldog roster two weeks ago. He injured his knee in the Anson game.

Coahoma has an open date next week and winds up regular season play Nov. 15. The Bulldogs will host Stamford.

Forsan riding the crest of a superb 7-0 record entertains Hawley tonight at 7:30. This is rated as one of area's top gridiron attractions.

The Buffaloes are tied for the district leadership with Broote, state third-ranked and Jayton. Bronte and Jayton are matched this week.

Forsan has experienced its problems. Wesley Thixton, Billy Banks, Billy Osborne and Allan Hollingsworth have been besieged with minor aches and pains but are expected to be healthy come game time tonight.

Jack Woodley, Buff coach, said, "It's hard to tell what the kids' attitude will be tonight. There were real high last week against Sterling City."

SWC ROUNDUP

Aggies Rated To Down Hogs

By the Associated Press

Professional oddsmakers seldom deal with the emotional factor in picking favorites and if it wasn't for that important intangible you could hand Texas, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Baylor Southwest Conference victories Saturday.

All four teams are heavy favorites to whip their opponents in a week which will spotlight the muscular Texas Aggies, the SWC leader.

A&M is an 11-point choice over Arkansas at College Station; Texas is a 19-point pick over Southern Methodist in Austin; Baylor is a 13-point nod over Texas Christian in Fort Worth; and Texas Tech is a 10-point favorite over Rice in Houston.

Coahoma JH Splits Pair

COAHOMA — A blocked punt kept the Coahoma Seventh graders from defeating Andrews Eighth Grade "B" team here Thursday night as the Coahoma teams split with Andrews.

Coahoma lost that game 16-14, but the Eighth Graders defeated Andrews 38-20.

Isidoro Mendez scored both touchdowns for the Seventh Graders and Tim Davidson added a two point conversion.

In the Eighth Grade game, Tracy Frazier scored three times on runs of 45.5, and 60-yards and Danny Tucker scored three times on runs of 50, 65, and 55-yards. Gary Holm scored a two point conversion.

Next week, the Coahoma teams will host teams from the combined Runnels-Goliad Junior High Schools from Big Spring, beginning at 4:30 p.m.

The wet weather experienced Wednesday kept Forsan from going outdoors for practice.

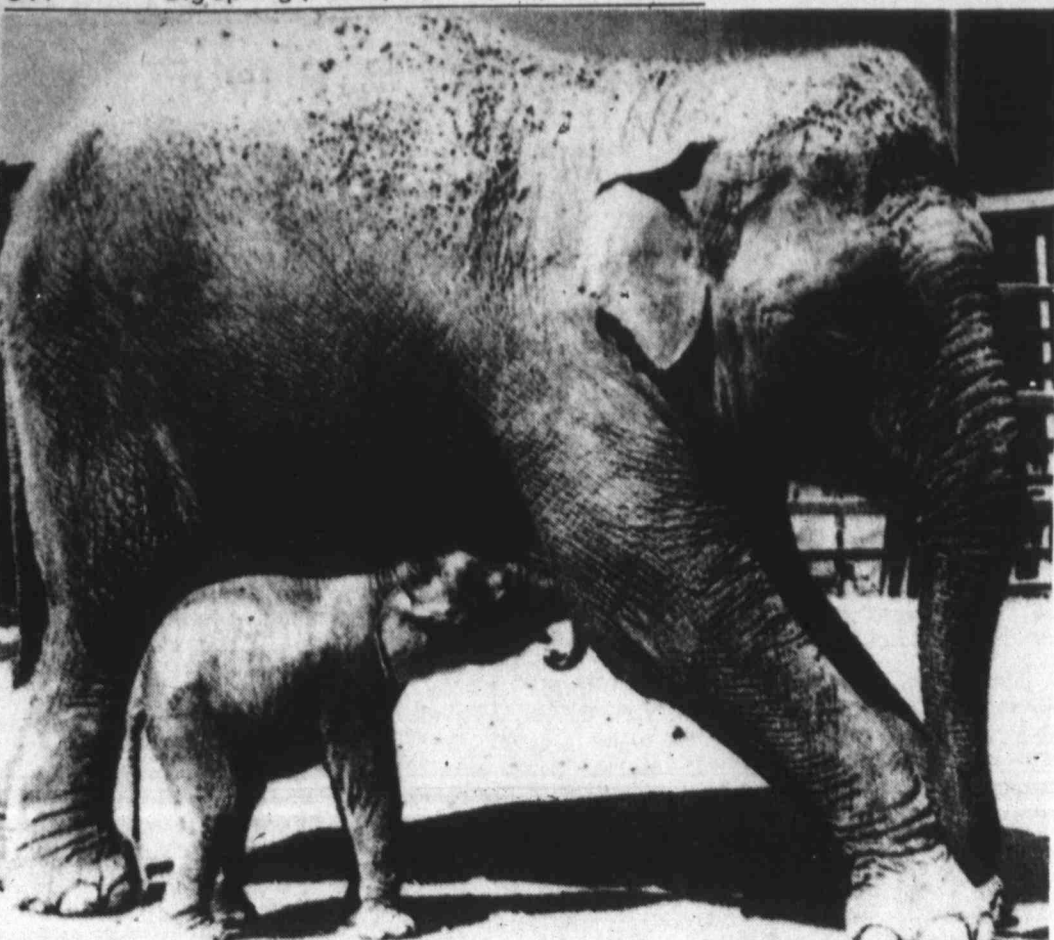

An overflowing crowd is expected to jam the stadium to catch a glimpse of under-rated but powerful unbeaten Forsan.

Hunt For $4 Million Stolen Cash Pressed

CHICAGO (AP) — Authorities continued their search today for more than $4 million stolen in the nation's largest burglary, but officials feared the search may prove futile.

Six men are in custody in connection with the burglary of the Armored Express Corp. on Oct. 20, when more than $4.3 million was stolen.

Officials said about $61,000 of the money has been recovered. U.S. Atty. James R. Thompson said Thursday the missing funds would be hard to trace because the bulk of the money may be stashed in secret foreign bank accounts.

Two men were arrested Wednesday on Grand Cayman Island in the Caribbean shortly before they were scheduled to fly to Costa Rica, where authorities say extradition would have been difficult.

A third man surrendered Thursday to federal authorities in Chicago where three other men are being held.

Authorities said the money still missing may be scattered in several accounts in some of the 172 banks on Grand Cayman, an island south of Cuba in the British West Indies.

The banks operate with the same secrecy as Swiss banks, making investigation difficult, said FBI spokesman Kenneth Gray.

The two suspects arrested on Grand Cayman were Charles Marzano, 42, and Luigi Di-Fonzo, 27, a former silver commodities broker, who were flown Thursday to Miami, Fla. FBI officials said they should be taken to Chicago after a hearing later this week to face federal charges of bank burglary.

bank larceny, the use of explosive devices and interstate transportation of stolen money.

Shortly after the arrest, William Marzano, 31, brother of Charles, surrendered to federal authorities in Chicago.

Three other men were arrested earlier in connection with the burglary.

DEATHS

Blake Durham

SNYDER — Blake Durham, 81, father of a Big Spring resident, died at 4:30 p.m. Thursday at his home here. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Bell-Seale Funeral Home here. Burial will be in the Dunn Cemetery, Mr. Durham had resided in Scurry County since 1901 and was a retired farmer.

Among survivors is a daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Sheid, Big Spring.

J. Armstrong

Word has been received of the death in Austin of Joyce Irene Rollins Armstrong, a native of Big Spring. She was found dead at her home by neighbors who were alarmed by the barking of a dog.

She was born here Feb. 19, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rollins, her father working at the time at the old Jones Dairy. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Peggy Boyd, Austin, and Dr. Lillian Marie Dinges, M.D., Houston, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mrs. Gerri Atwell is a cousin.

Deadline Near For Balloting

After receiving mail this morning, the county clerk's office had counted 326 absentee ballots.

This total included 282 voting in the office and 44 of 98 mailed ballots returned. Mailed ballots will be counted if they arrive before 1 p.m. Nov. 5, election day.

In the last non-presidential election year, 1970, 427 persons voted absentee, and the total vote count was 7,294. Mrs. Margaret Ray, chief deputy county clerk, said.

There are approximately 16,000 registered voters in Howard County.

Demos Honor Jake Pickle

Cong. J. J. (Jake) Pickle, a native of Big Spring and a brother to two Big Spring residents, was honored by Democrats of Williamson County in Georgetown Tuesday at a barbecue.

The meal was served in the San Gabriel Recreational Center in Georgetown.

Demos Due To Increase Their House Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even Republicans concede the Democrats stand to increase their 248-187 House majority. The question is whether they will give the opposition party enough advantage to stymie President Ford's young administration.

The official, admittedly optimistic, estimate of the Republican National Congressional Committee is that GOP net losses can be held to five. This would fit in the normal range of midterm election losses for the party controlling the White House.

HARDESTIMATE
The Democratic Congressional Committee makes what it terms a hard estimate of a 37-seat gain, with hopes for substantially more.

To produce the veto-proof House Ford has been deceiving as a national danger, the Democrats would have to do much better than make good their hard prediction.

A shift of 37 seats would produce a 285-150 Democratic majority, less than the two-thirds required by the Constitution on votes to override vetoes. In practice, the opposition party would have to number well above the minimum to be reasonably certain of overriding most vetoes.

FIGHTING
About 75 races are considered close, and these are widely scattered geographically. Many involve incumbents, but as usual most incumbents are favored to win re-election.

Most of the shifts are expected in open districts — those where the incumbents already have been removed by retirement, defeat in primaries or candidacy for other offices. There are 52 such races this year, a high but not unprecedented number. Of the seats involved, 28 were held by Democrats and 24 by Republicans.

Republicans also are fighting hard to reclaim some of the seats lost in special elections during the past two years. They think one of their best chances is in Ford's old Michigan district. Democrat Richard F. VanderVeon was elected in an upset when Ford vacated the seat to become vice president. Ford traveled to Michigan to campaign for the Republican contender, Paul G. Goebel Jr., and some Democrats concede his appearance may make the difference.

EXOTIC DANCER
In another race where a personality is important, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., is generally favored to win, but some observers insist his embarrassing partying with a former exotic dancer who jumped into the Washington Tidal Basin may produce an upset.

The Republican challenging the 65-year-old chairman of the Ways and Means Committee is Judy Petty, 31.

Granberry's Aggie Joke

BRYAN, Tex. (AP) — An Aggie joke told by Jim Granberry, Republican candidate for governor, has upset the folks in Aggieland.

In a front page editorial Thursday, the Bryan-College Station Eagle chided Granberry for telling what it called an "off-color" joke during a Waco campaign appearance.

"The Eagle isn't against Aggie jokes and neither, to our knowledge, are Aggies, as long as they are kept in the proper perspective and taste," the Eagle said. "But the joke he told the Waco gathering lacked taste and was certainly beneath a man running for governor of the state of Texas."

The joke was as follows: A lady discovered huge rats in her basement. She thumbed through the yellow pages and called the Aggie Exterminating Co. "This is an emergency," she shouted. "Big, vicious rats are taking over my basement. Please hurry."

A truck soon pulled up in front of her house. The doors burst open and out charged 20 Aggies in uniform, complete with knee boots and rifles with fixed bayonets. They charged into the basement.

Two of the Aggies were killed. Eight were wounded. Six defected to the other side. And two came out with war brides.

Grant Air Fares Hike

WASHINGTON — The Civil Aeronautics Board today granted a 4 per cent hike in domestic air fares effective Nov. 15 and announced it was making permanent an earlier 6 per cent hike it had approved on a temporary basis.

The 4 per cent hike was the third granted by the board for domestic flights since the fuel shortage began last winter. Air fares as of Nov. 15 will be 15 per cent higher than they were before the fuel shortage.

The 6 per cent hike, approved on a temporary basis last April 16, was due to expire today unless extended.

The airlines requested the fare hikes because of higher fuel costs and general inflation. No objections to the hike were filed and the board approved the increase by a 3-2 vote.

The 4 per cent hike means the cost of a one-way coach fare between Washington and Los Angeles, for example, will rise to $184 from $177 which includes the 6 per cent hike that was made permanent. A one-way coach ticket between New York and Chicago will jump from $68 to $71.

FORD'S NEW BATTLE CRY:

'Throw The Spenders Out'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — President Ford has come up with a new battle cry for his final fling on the 1974 campaign trail: "Throw the big spenders out" even if they are Republicans.

He softened some of his earlier assaults on the Democratic opposition and, for the first time, suggested Thursday night in Los Angeles that perhaps some Republicans might be worthy of oblivion, too.

UNHAPPY? At a GOP fund-raising dinner in the Century Plaza Hotel, Ford said:

"If you are unhappy about the handling of the nation's finances over the past 20 years, if you think it is time for a change, remember next Tuesday who the big spenders are — and throw the big spenders out."

This prompted a burst of applause from party faithful, drowning out Ford's politically significant wind-up phrase:

"And if some of them are Republicans, so be it."

Ford said it was time "for responsible men and women of all political persuasions — Republicans, Democrats, independents — to come together, not in an effort at political advantage, but in a spirit of true American patriotism to whip problems like inflation, energy and the environment, to strengthen our successful foreign policy by the restoration of bipartisanship."

Young Kennedy 'An Easy Hit' Suspect Says

NEW YORK (AP) — The young man accused of mugging John F. Kennedy Jr. and stealing his bicycle described the 13-year-old son of the late president as "an easy hit," a police detective has testified.

Detective Richard Buggy said that Robert Lopez, 20, also told police that he fenced the bike for $20 and used the proceeds to buy two bags of cocaine.

Buggy testified Wednesday at a pretrial hearing for the case in Manhattan State Supreme Court.

He said Lopez walked into the 23rd Precinct station house on July 25 and gave an account of the alleged May 14 mugging of young Kennedy, who was on the way to a tennis lesson at the time.

"I mugged John Kennedy," Buggy quoted Lopez as saying. He added that Lopez did not recognize his alleged victim, but explained that he picked him as "an easy hit."

Three Palo Pinto Jail Escapees Surrender

PALO PINTO, Tex. (AP) — A trio of jail escapees has been charged with felony escape and burglary after surrendering to Palo Pinto authorities.

The trio was returned Thursday to the Palo Pinto County jail—the same jail from which two of them have escaped twice in the last two months.

Justice of the Peace Lynn Bell set bail at $5,000 for Melvin Lee Hood, 24, of Pasco, Wash.; Ronnie Lee Moore, 17, of Palo Pinto County; and Dexter Anthony Cross, 20, of Mineral Wells.

Sheriff Bill Harris said the three men overpowered the jailer, Slick Boon, Sunday and locked him, his wife, and grandson in a cell before fleeing the jail.

Harris said Moore contacted his father-in-law Thursday and told him the trio was ready to surrender. The father-in-law contacted two Mineral Wells

AUCTION

Ford was bound from here to Fresno, Calif., for an airport rally in behalf of Republican Reps. Robert Mathias and Charles Wiggins. From there he was heading for five evening appearances in Portland, Ore. — at a White House conference on domestic and economic affairs, three Republican fundraising events and a local society auction benefitting the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry. He will visit Utah, Colorado and Kansas before returning to Washington on Saturday.

En route to the West Coast, Ford stopped for an airport crowd at Sioux City, Iowa, in an effort to boost the re-election bid of Republican Rep. Wiley Mayne, who is strongly challenged by Democrat Berkeley Bedell.

SUGGESTING

The President told his farm belt audience of several thousand that if foreign meat starts to "pick up markedly" next year, "I will either impose meat quotas or negotiate volunteer agreements with foreign suppliers" to limit their shipments to the United States.

Ford also said, "there is no interest on my part to increase dairy imports into the United States."

When it was suggested to Press Secretary Ron Nessen that Ford's goal might be to raise consumer prices of beef and milk, Nessen responded that the President was not committing himself to anything but suggesting what he might do to help cattlemen and dairymen.

Flip Stolen Goods Charge

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals has reversed a judge's refusal to allow appeals to be filed by two men convicted in Amarillo, Tex., on a possession of stolen property charge.

The court ordered U.S. District Court Judge Halbert C. Woodward to hold an evidentiary hearing to determine if Albert W. Morris and William W. Weirback Jr. "voluntarily and understandingly" waived their right to appeal.

Phillips Memorial Sets Speaker ; Southern Baptists Slate Awards

By MARJ CARPENTER
Phillips Memorial Baptist Church will hear Lt. Col. Arthur W. Burer at 7 p.m. Sunday. He has spoken to several churches and clubs here in recent weeks.

Lieutenant Colonel Arthur W. Burer is a former Prisoner of War presently an Instructor Pilot at Webb AFB, at Big Spring, Texas.

Colonel Burer was born in San Antonio September 2, 1932, but traveled extensively throughout his youth as the son of a career military man.

Colonel Burer completed high school in Washington D.C. in 1950, and shortly thereafter enlisted in the Air Force, at the height of the Korean war. Six years later he won an appointment to OCS, which lead to a commission and flying training. His formal training began at George Washington University in 1954, followed by Laredo Junior College and the University of Omaha where he received his B.A. degree in 1964.

With the outbreak of hostilities in South Vietnam, Col. Burer volunteered for reconnaissance duty. His capture came during a mission over North Vietnam on March 21, 1966 when he was forced to abandon his aircraft after it was struck by enemy ground fire. Within moments after reaching the ground, Col. Burer was taken prisoner. He was released by the North Vietnamese February 12, 1973 after spending 6 years and 11 months as a Prisoner of War.

Col. Burer's military decorations include the Distinguished Flying Cross; two Air Medals; the Purple Heart and the Air Force Commendation Medal.

A WACO BUSINESSMAN who developed a world-wide religious broadcasting and publishing firm "almost-by accident" has been named, recipient of the 1974 Texas Baptist Communication Award.

The annual award is given through the Public Relations Advisory Committee of the two-million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas for significant contributions for Christianity through the communications media.

Jarrell McCracken, president of Word, Inc., who will receive a plaque and memento gift in Amarillo, Oct. 30 during the Texas Baptist Convention has made his mark through religious records, books and cassettes.

McCracken, along with wife Judy and their two children, is active in Seventh and James Baptist Church in Waco. His pastor, the Rev. David Matthews, said McCracken is an active witness for Christ in his demanding role as Word president.

TEXAS' RURAL MINISTER of the Year for 1974 is Jack C. Hunnicutt, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Junction, 196 Chapel and Roosevelt Church in Kimble County.

Announcement was made by Dr. David Buesink, Texas Agricultural Extension Service sociologist and general chairman of the yearly Town and Country Church Conference.

The minister was honored during the 29th annual Town and Country Church Conference Oct. 10-11 at Texas A&M University, and he received an engraved silver tray from "The Progressive Farmer" magazine.

"WHAT THE NEAR FUTURE HOLDS" is the title of the subject for consideration by F. D. Moske, District Supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses, when he will speak to an estimated 1900 delegates at the Scurry County Coliseum in Snyder on November 3 at 2 p.m.

Another outstanding feature of the assembly program will be the ordination of new ministers by means of water baptism. In the last three years, more than a half-million new ministers of Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the world have been added to their ranks. Moske will direct the baptism program beginning Sunday morning, November 3, at 9:15. Approximately 65 from our local area are now finalizing plans to attend the Christian gathering. A large-scale program is now under way in Snyder to house delegates in motels and private homes. Assembly sessions will begin on November 2 at 1:55 p.m.

Grace Baptist Church History Related

Grace Baptist Church had its beginning as a mission of Trinity Baptist Church of Big Spring. The first meeting was held on the third Sunday of October 1958, located at 109 Wright St. The original property consisted of two lots and a half basement building. The first plate offering was made for foreign missions; thus the mission became missionary in spirit and practice from the first.

During the first months preaching services were conducted by three ministers from the Trinity Baptist Church. There were Rev. Kenneth Evans, Rev. A. C. Hodges and Rev. Albert Pettus. Serving as mission superintendent was Albert W. Medlin, and services had hardly begun when an addition to the building, consisting of rest rooms and storage, was added, the working being done by the men of the mission.

CONSTRUCTION BEGAN
In April 1959, construction was begun on a new 40x110 foot auditorium. Soon after this the mission called Ronnie Allen as mission Pastor, and he served as mission pastor until the second Sunday of September 1959, at which time the mission was organized into a church.

Bro. Jack Power, then pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, served as moderator of the organizational meeting, and the new church — Grace Baptist Church — called

Rev. Ronnie Allen as its first pastor. He served as its pastor until the 10th of August, 1961, when he resigned to pastor elsewhere.

On the second Sunday of September 1961, the second anniversary of the Church, Rev. Roy E. Honea moved on the field as pastor, and has served the church faithfully since that time.

In 1960, the church added to its properties with the purchase of three lots across the street from the church building for use as a parking lot. During this year a new parsonage at 1500 Bluebird was purchased for the use of the pastor. In 1962, new property was purchased on the south side of the church building, and a Sunday School annex was added. This history will be completed on next week's church page.

BAPTIST CHARACTER
... in children's films

Pre-Teen Children Films Slated At Baptist Temple

A series of color cartoon films featuring Jot, the Southern Baptist Radio and Television character, shall be shown at Baptist Temple Church each Sunday evening during the month of November for Pre-teen Children. Jot is a lovable little moppet who can best be described as an animated dot. He can bounce, roll around or sprout arms and legs to suit his fancy. He is a neuter figure who gets into the same kind of mischief as the ordinary child. Jot is a character with whom boys and girls can easily identify. They learn through his experience about such biblical values as honesty, obedience, faith and unselfishness.

Newsweek Magazine has acclaimed the original series of 13 Jot episodes as "the first genuinely entertaining — and effective — use of television for preaching the morality to pre-teen children."

All Pre-teen children are invited to see the films at Baptist Temple Church. The films shall be shown in the fellowship hall of the church. Film time each Sunday evening is 6:00 p.m.

The Jot films are only a part of the unique ministry developed by the church for Pre-Teen Children on Sunday evening. A special training session will follow after the films are shown. Pre-Teen children who are ages 3-5 shall be directed by Mrs. Allen Bailey and Mrs. Gary Huckabay. Pre-Teen children in school grades 1-6 shall be directed by Mrs. Bob Newsom and Mrs. J. E. Meeks. The Pre-Teen ministry is under the direction of the pastor, J. E. Meeks.

Pre-Teen children are invited to call Baptist Temple Church about enrollment in this Sunday evening ministry. Enrollment is free.

Trinity Lutheran Slates All Saints Sunday Service

On Sunday morning at the 11 a.m. service in Trinity Lutheran church, Virginia Ave and Marcy Dr. the Holy Communion will be celebrated by the pastor, the Rev. Lester M. Utz.

Those to be received and their sponsors are, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Harold Olesen, sons Daniel, David, Philip, and daughter Kemberly, 446A Armstrong Dr. at Webb AFB, assigned here from San Angelo, and their sponsors will be Chief Petty Officer and Mrs. John Leeman, Big Spring. A second couple to be received are — Capt. Barry R. Thompson, Barcelona Apts, now stationed at Webb AFB, and Judith Ann Moore, Rt. 1, Big Spring, a teacher in the Big Spring Public schools, and their sponsors will be Sgt. and Mrs. Ernest Wildt, Big Spring.

In addition to the Reception of these persons into membership, and the celebration of the Holy Communion which is open to all persons who are professing Christians of any, denominational persuasion, the pastor will mark the observance of All Saints Sunday with a short message on the theme, "What Happens at Death and After."

The most cordial invitation and welcome awaits any and all who will attend this service. Sunday School precedes at 9:30 A.M. with teachers for all grade and age levels and a Bible Study class for the Adults.

All Saints Service

St. Mary's Episcopal Church will hold a special All Saints Service at 6:30 p.m. tonight.

The Friday night service will include Holy Communion, according to the Rev. Steve Birdwell.

Saturday Morning Bricklayer

My neighbor Marty is a certified public accountant. He is also an assistant scoutmaster. And treasurer of the Civic Association. Hard worker for local charities. And—oh yes—Marty is a Saturday morning bricklayer. He can build a mighty fine wall to set off that patio he put in last summer.

You'd think that a man so capable and versatile wouldn't feel dependent on anybody or anything. Not so.

It is usually the folks like Marty—the ready, willing and able ones—who are first to recognize their spiritual needs. Nor are they ashamed to admit their dependence on God—and His Church. You'll hear Marty and his wife give credit to their religious beliefs for the strength of their marriage and for the ideals that inspire their family life.

In fact, it's Sunday morning, rather than Saturday, when they do their most important building. How about joining them at church time?

Solution to Yesterday's Puzzle:

DENNIS THE MENACE

"MEASLES...NOT MEASLES." "GINA OUGHTA KNOW...SHE'S THE ONE THATS GOT 'EM."

"JENKINS, YOU'RE FIRED. HAVE A NICE DAY."

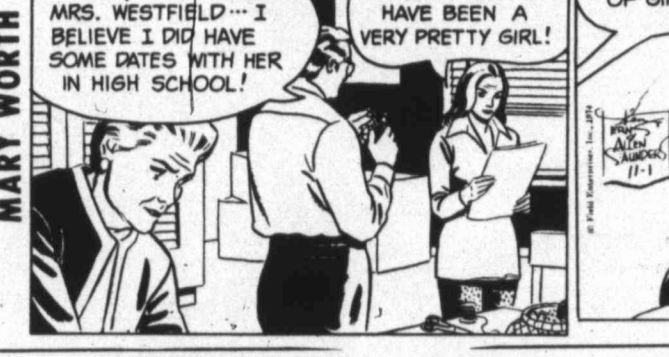

NANCY

"HOW MUCH LONGER, MR. CHEW? ALMOST ACROSS, HONEY... BUT UPHILL... BUT UPHILL... MUST STOP AND REST AGAIN."

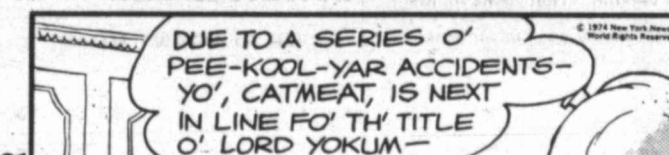

"IT'S STEEL, SIR. CHOP IT, I SAID! TURN ON THE FLOOD-LIGHTS"

"YES, BUT...AS SHE TOLD YOU, I DATED A LOT OF GIRLS! AND SHE-UM-- MOVED AWAY WHEN SHE WAS A JUNIOR! DO YOU THINK, IF WE ADDED LACE TO THE NECK-LINE, MARY, IT WOULD BE TOO FUSSY?"

"OKAY...BUT STOP STAYING OUT UNTIL ALL HOURS OF THE MORNING! THAT'S ANOTHER THING YOU'D BETTER GET THROUGH YOUR HEAD--I'M DATING WHOMEVER I CHOOSE AND STAYING OUT AS LATE AS I WANT! NOW, JENNY-- WAIT A MINUTE--"

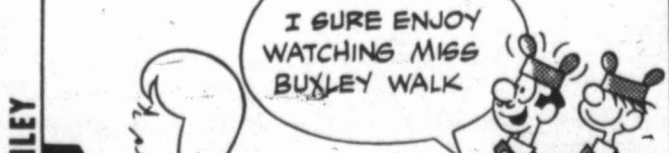

"IF IT WEREN'T FOR YO', OUR PAL, LIL' ABNER, WOULD BE... SO WE HOPES YO' UNNERSTANS WHY WE GOTTA BASH IN YORE SKULL--"

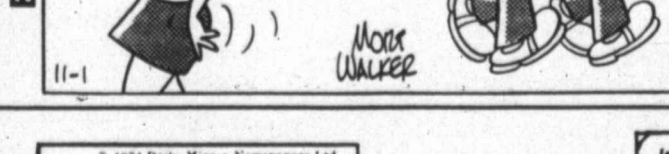

"IT DOESN'T START UNTIL FOUR, BUT MY TEACHER WANTS ME TO GET THERE EARLY. HOW COME? SHE WANTS ME TO FINISH MY NUMBER BEFORE THE AUDIENCE GETS THERE."

"SO DOES THE GENERAL."

"NEWLY-WEDS! LOOK, IF A BLOKE SAYS 'ELLO TO HIS WIFE EVERY TIME 'E SEES 'ER, FIRST THING YOU KNOW SHE'LL EXPECT IT!'

"I BROKE MY NOSE."

"MY SHOELACE GOT CAUGHT IN ONE OF MY ROOTS."

"I BROKE MY NOSE."

"MY SHOELACE GOT CAUGHT IN ONE OF MY ROOTS."

VOLUME 506, No. 27—

BIG THREE GO UP!

G.M., Ford, Chrysler Hike Prices.

DETROIT—To keep up with recent rises in the price of steel, the Big Three auto manufacturers announced price increases on cars and trucks today.

The G.M. increase takes effect on the end of the '74 model year. Increases have included not only the basic vehicle but also standard equipment and destination charges.

Ford and Chrysler, hiking their prices a total average of $204 and $432 respectively.

Extraordinary increases.

The multiple price increases put into effect by the auto makers are viewed by the industry as the first step toward a long-term price stabilization plan.

Kirchoff Is Critical Of Farabee's Stand

PLAINVIEW — Mary Kirchoff of Plainview today said her State Senate opponent "conveniently overlooked the documented record" when he recently denied having supported George McGovern in 1972.

Ray Farabee, who also seeks the District 30 Senate seat, said in a Lubbock interview that he denied actively supporting McGovern and that he is a moderate-to-conservative candidate.

"There is no way my opponent can truthfully say he was not an early supporter of McGovern," Mrs. Kirchoff said. "A photocopy of the delegate roster is available from the Precinct 22 convention, Wichita county, dated May 6, 1972. My opponent signed that roster."

"In his own handwriting, he also identified himself as a delegate committed to McGovern. The original of this precinct document is on file at the Wichita county courthouse and is a matter of public record."

She also noted that her opponent was quoted last June as saying he "recommends close evaluation of candidates and their records" when he publicized unfavorable information about his previous opponent in the primary election.

Mrs. Kirchoff said, "Perhaps he figured no one would ever bother to look at his own background."

"After finding he had been disqualified for campaign irregularities after being elected student body president at the University of Texas, the thought occurred that this was just a temporary student matter."

"But shortly thereafter, he became a high officer, and finally president, of the leftwing National Students Association, which is the national union of students."

"Then there is his early support of George McGovern two years ago."

"The way all the pieces fit together indicates that my opponent's background is something which should be examined thoroughly by voters in this Senate race."
