Panel Asks Additional Members

Scurry County Commissioners received another petition and took under advisement a proposal to increase the size of its coliseum committee this morning.

A petition with some 224 names was presented to the court. The petition urged the court to give top consideration to coliseum sites as near as possible to the central business district of the town. No specific sites were mentioned, but the petition suggested that efforts be made to locate the coliseum within "10 or 12 blocks" of the county courthouse.

John Boren and Stanley Noah, members of the coliseum committee named by the court several weeks ago, met with the commissioners this morning. Boren passed the petition on to the court, noting that it was not a committee project, but that the petition had been submitted to the committee. Boren then proposed that the coliseum committee be enlarged from its present membership of four to a total of 12, with six of the 12 to be from inside the corporate limits of Snyder and six from rural areas.

Boren and Noah both said they believed a larger committee could function better than the four-man group.

"With four on the committee, we cannot have a representative meeting if one or two are unable to attend," Bore pointed out. "We feel that a committee of 12 still would be able to carry on work at meetings even if three or four should be absent."

The court took the proposal under advisement and indicated that it would be discussed more thoroughly by commissioners.

Laos Neutrals Brace For Red Onslaught

CHAMPION LOSERS—Allen Teich, 35, a Skokie, Ill., accountant, and Miss Barbara Ann Johnson of San Diego, Calif., were crowned king and queen at the annual convention in Kansas City of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly), an organization devoted to physical, mental and emotional improvement through taking off unneeded weight. Teich shed 330 pounds in 1963, trimming down from 515 to 185, and Miss Johnson lost 196 pounds, scaling down from 366 to 170. (AP Wirephoto)

Reds Outnumber Phouma Forces

By ANTOINE YARED

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Laotian Premier Souvanna Phouma says the Communists are preparing to attack his badly outnumbered neutralist army at its last stronghold in the strategic Plaine des Jarres area.

Souvanna said the Communists have 17 battalions—about 8,000 men—and heavy artillery massed for a five-pronged assault on Muong Soui, 110 miles north of Vientiane and just northwest of the plain. The neutralists have about 3,000 men at Muong Soui.

The Commut Pathet Lao and their North Vietnamese allies drove Gen. Kong Le's neutralist forces off the plain earlier this month, then halted their advance.

"We will try to resist," Souvanna told a news conference Sunday.

The loss of Muong Soui, on Highway 7, would give the Communists an important advantage for an assault on the royal Laotian capital of Luang Prabang and bring them closer to the administrative capital of Vientiane.

Souvanna showed newsmen aerial photographs taken by U.S. reconnaissance planes which he said showed movements of troops from North Viet Nam to Pathet Lao positions.

"Nobody can deny North Viet Nam's interference," he said.

Souvanna said the Laotian air force's T28 fighter-bombers—U.S.-supplied propeller planes—were continuing their strikes against the enemy but were hampered by bad weather. He said poor visibility also was preventing U.S. reconnaissance planes from flying as often as he wants.

The neutralist premier again called for a summit meeting of the leaders of the three factions in Laos. Prince Souphanouvong, his half-brother and the Pathet Lao leader, has called for such a conference on the Communist-held Plaine des Jarres.

But Souvanna said he would only consent to a meeting on the plain if the Communists withdraw from the positions they have taken from the neutralists since the Red drive began May 16.

Services For Mrs. Preston Set Tuesday

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday for Mrs. Emma Preston, 81. She died at 11:45 a.m. Sunday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Preston, who came to Scurry County about 10 years ago, was born Oct. 9, 1882 in Comfort, Texas. She married James Preston on Aug. 30, 1899, in Fredericksburg, Texas. Mr. Preston died in 1949.

The funeral services will be held at Green Hill Baptist Church, with Rev. Allen Cartrite, officiating. Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Paul Reeves, T. H. Boyd, B. J. Hardwick, B. B. Cuppet, Mike Wharry and G. K. Fambro.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Robert J. Powers of Snyder and Mrs. Herman Trichell of Little Rock, Arkansas; one sister, Mrs. Mattie Wheeler of San Bernadino, Calif.; one brother, Edd Trampp of Waldron, Ark.; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Preston was a member of the Assembly of God Church.

Robbery Case Is Cleared

Snyder police today announced that a robbery case here apparently has been cleared up following arrest of a 19-year-old youth several days ago in San Diego, Calif.

Local officers questioned Gordon Wainwright Miller, who listed his home as Hereford, in the Lea County Jail in Lovington, N. M. Miller had been returned there following his arrest in California and after he had admitted robbing five service stations, among them Denson's Gulf Station in Snyder on May 13 of this year. The other robberies were in New Mexico.

A complaint alleging armed robbery was filed here with Justice of the Peace Cone Merritt. Officers said Miller had waived extradition and has given a voluntary statement in connection with the case here.

Miller had told California authorities that he had committed five robberies while working as police reporter for the Hobbs, N. M., News-Sun.

Blasts Ring As Troops Leave Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The last United Nations troops are leaving the Congo with a bang, from exploding grenades lobbed by terrorists into polling stations and the wedding feast of a chief of the Baluba tribe.

The bombs injured nearly 100 people Saturday as the Congo opened a nationwide referendum on a new constitution. Agriculture Minister Constantin Tshiala - Mwana was among the wounded.

"National reconciliation" was the keynote of frenzied politicking. It was sounded most loudly by ex - President Moise Tshombe of Katanga, back after a year of self-imposed exile in Europe.

"I am convinced that a total and sincere reconciliation of all Congolese is the only chance of saving this country from misery and anarchy," the former secessionist told hundreds of cheering Congolese a few hours after he returned Friday.

On Saturday, Security police chief Victor Nendaka was amazed to see South Kasai's deposed "Mulopwe," or god - emperor, Albert Kalonji, step from a plane from Brussels.

"I am still the Mulopwe," Kalonji told newsmen.

Kalonji had been a fugitive for more than two years from a 30-month sentence for torturing political enemies. Officials said the charges "had all been fixed."

One Baluba leader won't be around for the reconciliation maneuvers. Messages from the east said North Katanga Provincial President Jason Sendwe had been hacked to death by rebels some days ago when they seized Albertville, his provincial capital.

Sendwe, 47, was cut down with machetes along with Provincial Vice President Fortunat Kabangi-Numbi and several of Sendwe's aides. Sendwe was Tshombe's arch enemy, but he apparently was slaughtered as revenge for the massacre of about 200 anti - Sendwe youths when the Congolese army took Albertville away from the rebels for awhile in May.

Truce In View In St. Augustine

By PAUL WILLS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—The possibility of a truce in St. Augustine's racial conflict loomed today for the first time in nearly two weeks.

A new effort to establish a biracial committee of two whites and two Negroes to seek peace was reported nearing success.

Community leaders predicted that any group would have a difficult time because the middle ground has all but disappeared in the furious, month-long push for integration by Negroes and the equally determined resistance by whites.

There has been almost no communication between the two races for more than a week, following collapse of the first effort to find a settlement.

LBJ URGES

US Must Accept Risk

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says the United States "must be prepared to risk war" to keep its freedom, yet ready to "seek just compromise" to achieve peace.

This was Johnson's keynote message Sunday as he ended a three - day trip into Michigan and Minnesota. He took up the matter of war and peace in his only non-political speech of the trip, at a Swedish Day festival in Minneapolis.

Facing thousands of cheering Minnesotans who stood under shade trees in Minnehaha Park, Johnson said:

"Today, as always, if a nation is to keep its freedom it must be prepared to risk war. When necessary, we will take that risk. But as long as I am president, I will spare neither my office nor myself in the quest for peace."

In South Viet Nam, Johnson said, "We are engaged in a brutal and bitter struggle for the freedom of a friend" and "we will stand firm to help maintain freedom and give them counsel and advice and help as necessary." This was a change from his prepared text, which read, "There too, we will use the force necessary to help them maintain their own freedom."

Johnson had this to say about compromising East-West differences in the interest of peace:

"We must remember that differences with others do not always flow from a desire for domination. They can come from honest clash of beliefs or goals. In such cases our strength does not entitle us to impose our interest. Rather, our desire for peace compels us to seek just compromise."

In discussing "the several paths we take to peace," Johnson made some pointed statements about the civil rights problem at home in talking about "the ability to adjust disputes without the use of force."

Texas Wedding Second To None

By BOB M. GASSAWAY
Associated Press Writer

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Fausto Yturria Jr., flew out of Brownsville early today on their honeymoon, leaving in their wake hundreds of empty champagne bottles, 1,000 celebrating friends and a wedding rumored to have cost $250,000.

The group crowded into Sacred Heart Catholic Church here Sunday night to watch Sandra Longoria, 19, of Matamoros, Mexico, and Fausto Yturria Jr., 28, of Brownsville exchange wedding vows.

Caterers estimated more than 1,200 persons attended the wedding reception.

They would not reveal the itinerary of their trip, but family members said the couple would visit major cities in the United States, and tour the 29 Mexican states.

The new Mrs. Yturria is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Longoria.

The banker-industrialist Longoria and his four brothers are the leading cotton merchants in Mexico. They also own Banco Longoria, S.A. (Longoria banks incorporated).

The banks' 22 branches, and Longoria cotton and flour mills are scattered all over Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Longoria denied the wedding reception cost a quarter million dollars, but she conceded:

"By the time I get through with the clothes, accessories, the reception and everything else, it may not miss it far."

Longoria said: "This is my only daughter, and I wanted her to have a nice wedding."

Yturria is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fausto Yturria Sr. The family owns farms, ranches, cattle and other real estate in the United States. The groom's ancestors settled in what is now South Texas when it was owned by Mexico.

More than 300 bottles of champagne for the reception were chilled in a small swimming pool at the hotel. In a larger pool, life-size figures of the bride and groom rowed in a boat which floated among flower blossoms and lighted candles.

Two long buffet tables supported about 30 dishes including huge salmon flown in from Alaska, hams, turkey and huge roasts of beef barbecued in the hotel garden before reception guests.

Scant Headway Made In Search

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — The Mississippi Highway Patrol and FBI agents questioned motorists at a roadblock today whether they knew anything about the three missing civil rights workers.

The latest report from the roadblock on Highway 21 about 12 miles northeast of Philadelphia, said no useful information had been obtained.

The roadblock was set up near where the civil rights workers burned out station wagon was found last Tuesday. Each driver was asked whether he knew anyting about the disappearance, or whether he knew anyone who did.

Officers explained that the state highway is only lightly traveled and that some of the drivers who passed that area today might have passed there last Monday.

Authorities also probed a report that two young white men were seen standing beside a station wagon similar to the one used by the three civil rights workers shortly before they vanished eight days ago.

The widespread search for clues in the baffling disappearance of Michael Schwerner, 24; Andy Goodman, 20, both of New York; and James Chaney, 22, a Meridian Negro, continued in this red clay hill section of east-central Mississippi.

One hundred sailors from the Navy's airfield at Meridian rejoined the highway patrol and FBI to search west of this town of 5,000 as other officers dragged small lakes and streams.

Chief investigator Gwin Cole of the highway patrol said one witness had reported seeing a station wagon near a side road in the Bogue Chitto swamp near the spot where the burned vehicle used by the missing trio was found last Tuesday.

The witness, Cole said, spotted the station wagon and two men, whom he described as "of similar appearance", to Goodman and Schwerner, last Monday before noon.

At least six persons have told authorities they had passed the site around 11 a.m. last Monday and saw nothing.

Poles Cheer Bob Kennedy

KRAKOW, Poland (AP)—Robert F. Kennedy told a wildly cheering crowd in this southern Polish city today that his late brother, John F. Kennedy, "wouldn't have been elected president if it wasn't for the support of the Poles" in the United States.

"As a Kennedy, I thank you, and as a United States citizen, I thank you," the visiting U.S. attorney general said in an impromptu speech while standing on top of a car in Krakow's central market square.

Enthusiastic cheering for Kennedy and his party began almost as they reached downtown Krakow from the airport. A crowd of several thousand forced Kennedy's motorcade to halt. When he got out, the people hoisted him to their shoulders with cries "Long live Kennedy!"

PRAISES SCRANTON

Lodge Rejects Idea Of Draft

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge flew in from Saigon today saying the Republican party should nominate the "presidential candidate who is prudent, not impulsive, and I think Gov. Scranton is one of the best men."

Speaking at plane-side upon his return at 7:30 a.m. (EDT), Lodge declared flatly: "I cannot be drafted."

He said the whole point of his resigning the "very interesting" post in South Viet Nam was to come back and help Gov. William W. Scranton in his drive for the Republican nomination.

Lodge disclosed that he will appear at the Republican party Platform Committee in San Francisco July 8. He said he does not—so far, at least—have a ticket for the convention.

Asked for comment on Sen. Barry Goldwater—whose defeat Lodge seeks in the nomination fight—the retiring envoy said he did not want to comment because he wants to take a constructive line, not a negative one.

Lodge said he does not expect to become the campaign manager for Scranton "but I expect to do a little telephoning."

He thus disclosed his intention to work directly among delegates to the Republican National Convention trying to switch their support from Goldwater to Scranton.

Told by newsmen that there has been a certain lack of support for Scranton among the delegates, Lodge replied, "I hope that is going to change now."

Lodge got into his comment about "prudent" men this way:

"Having been in a responsible post and seeing how the President makes decisions on life and death matters, with the President having control over the atomic bomb, I believe both parties must nominate prudent men—not impulsive men, and I think Gov. Scranton is one of our best men."

Lodge reports to Johnson today on his 10 months in the embattled Southeast Asian nation.

Kennedy Says Crash Gave No Warning

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy says he had no warning of trouble just before his plane crashed June 19, killing two of the five persons aboard.

The Democratic senator from Massachusetts was interviewed for 10 minutes Sunday by a Civil Aeronautics Board investigator.

Kennedy is recuperating at Cooley Dickinson Hospital from a broken back and other injuries. Less seriously hurt were Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and his wife, Marvella.

Kennedys pilot and an aide were killed in the nighttime crash in foggy weather.

Helen Keller Begins Her 85th Year

EASTON, Conn. (AP)—Helen Keller entered her 85th year with a quiet celebration attended only by relatives and close friends.

Blind and deaf since she was 19 months old, Miss Keller, a symbol of courage and hope to the handicapped, continues to enjoy good health.

An old friend described her as a woman "of great dignity who is growing old with grace."

On hand for Miss Keller's 84th birthday Saturday were her brother, Phillip Brooks Keller of Dallas, Tex., and a sister, Mildred Tyson of Montgomery, Ala.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our 12-year-old son took our power lawn mower to his aunt's house, which is near us. He told her that her lawn needed cutting and he would be glad to cut it. She asked him how much he charged, and he said he wouldn't charge her anything. She told him to go ahead. (They have close to one acre.) Just as he was finishing, his uncle came home and asked our boy if he had been paid for the job yet. He said he wasn't charging anything. Then his uncle FORCED two dollars on our son. This evening, the wife called me and said she thought it was pretty cheap of our son to accept the two dollars for a job he agreed to do for nothing. Then she remined me for the fiftieth time of all the clothes her son had outgrown and she had given me for our son. What do you make of this? How should it be handled?

BURNED UP

DEAR BURNED: Auntie is pretty cheap. And should she again offer you hand-me-downs, suggest that she make the Salvation Army or Good Will Industries the objects of her generosity.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Years ago my father was also faced with the problem of having the neighbor's chickens wander into our yard. This is how he solved it. He pierced tiny holes in dry corn kernels. Then, using a fine silk sewing thread, just long enough to reach the chicken's craw, he threaded each kernel of corn and attached a note to the other end of the thread. It read: "PLEASE KEEP ME HOME. I FEEL FOOLISH."

This didn't hurt the chickens, but they did look mighty silly walking around with those messages hanging from their beaks. The chickens never visited us again, and relations with our neighbors remained friendly.

• • •

DEAR L. S. H.: And therein lies a moral: Never underestimate the power of corn.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Back in 1905 my mother thought up a good way to keep the neighbor's chickens out of our yard. She soaked bread crusts in Dad's corn liquor (much to his displeasure) and she scattered these crusts around our yard, where the chickens visited daily. The chickens came over as usual, ate their fill and promptly passed out just like humans all over our yard. My mother went out, picked them up and threw them back into their owners' yard. When the neighbors saw their chickens lying there like dead, they got the hint. No more chickens for mother. It was much cheaper than calling a lawyer, too.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "DEDICATED PARENTS" IN SEATTLE: I regret that you misunderstood my reply to "Heartbreak." I did not, and would not, advocate automatic institutionalizing all mentally retarded. Nor did I imply that all mentally retarded are "dangerous."

Of America's 5½ million retarded, only 210,000 are in institutions. Many are able to live happy, useful lives at home. Efforts are being made to educate parents of retarded children as the nature of retardation, how it differs from mental illness, how limited the life of the retarded child will be, and how to help the child accept these limitations. I hope that parents and neighbors of retarded children will write to the National Association for Retarded Children, 386 Park Avenue S., New York, for information concerning this vital problem. It is free.

4 Mishaps Logged By Highway Patrol

Four traffic accidents in the Snyder area were investigated by the Texas Highway Patrol Saturday and Sunday. A one-car accident occurred about noon 1.7 miles north of Snyder on state highway 208 involving a 1963 Ford station wagon driven by William Core of Abilene. He was pulling a well - test trailer belonging to Skelly Oil Company. The trailer broke loose from the station wagon and turned over. Estimated damage was $2000.

Another one-car mishap was investigated about 1 p.m. Saturday about a mile south of Hermleigh on highway 84. Marlow Lynn Simmons of Littlefield was driving a 1963 Chevrolet which went off the road and hit a guard post. The driver said that the car was forced off the highway by an unidentified automobile. Damage was estimated to be about $250.

A two-car accident occurred about 8:45 p.m. Saturday about a mile south of Snyder on highway 350. Involved were a 1956 Chevrolet driven by Ira Eugene Calhoon, Snyder and a 1953 Ford driven by Feddie May Crenshaw, Snyder. Damage to each vehicle was estimated to be about $300.

A one-car mishap was investigated at 12:30 a.m. Sunday one-tenth mile east of Snyder on a paved county road. A 1963 Ford, driven by Bernard Louis Melton of Snyder turned over. Damage was about $1000.

Police Investigate 2 Traffic Mishaps

Snyder police investigated two traffic mishaps over the weekend. One accident occurred about 2 p.m. Sunday at the entrance to Towle Park. Involved were a vehicle driven by G. E. Parks of Lamesa and one driven by Pete Luna, 1607 Fifteenth Street, Snyder. The damage to each car was estimated to be about $200.

The other accident occurred about .6:45 p.m. Saturday. Involved were a 1959 Buick driven by Dixie Gilmore Bergeron of Snyder and a 1959 Chevrolet driven by Joe Charles Harrington of Snyder. Damage to the Buick was about $85 and to the Chevrolet about $40.

Dobrynin And Wife Tour Grand Tetons

GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARK, Wyo. (AP) — A smiling tourist and his wife, traveling alone in a rented car, toured Wyoming's scenic peaks unnoticed Sunday.

The man was Anatoly Dobrynin, Soviet ambassador to the United States.

After viewing an illuminated eruption of Old Faithful geyser at Yellowstone, Dobrynin and his wife drove on to Grand Teton. Several hours later they left quietly for Denver.

India's New Chief Trims Schedule

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Ailing Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri was reported in generally good condition today but more of his official schedule was canceled.

For the first time there was a public suggestion that the 59-year-old prime minister, who reportedly was stricken with a mild heart attack Friday night, should delegate some of his responsibilities.

The Times of India said no prime minister can afford to do without a full-time foreign minister, as Shastri does. The paper called for "a more liberal delegation of responsibility."

Shastri, like his predecessor, the late Prime Minister Nehru, retained the foreign minister's portfolio when he formed his government. He also serves as minister for atomic energy.

A government spokesman issued this statement on Shastri's condition: "The prime minister's temperature is near normal now. He slept well last night. His general condition is good and he is cheerful."

"In a couple of days the prime minister may be in a position to attend to the business of government," an authoritative source said. Sunday night. Shastri's son, Hari, said his father would need at least a month's rest, and there was speculation some of his aides would take the reins of government temporarily.

Shastri, 59, is officially reported ailing from "overstrain and temperature," but authoritative informants said he suffered a mild heart attack Friday.

The diminutive prime minister almost died of a heart attack in 1949. The government's statement on his present condition did not allay fears that he was critically ill.

Shastri had been working up to 18 hours a day, attempting to give new impetus to solving the country's monumental problems.

New Agent At Santa Fe

L. C. Ochsner has assumed duties as Santa Fe Railway agent in Snyder following retirement of J. R. Greene.

Ochsner, who lives at 2801 Thirty - fourth Street, had been serving as ticket agent here. He has been with Sante Fe for 41 years and first worked for the railroad here in 1926-27. During that tenure here he was married to Miss Nora Byrd.

The Ochsners returned here in 1962. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ochsner are "Ham" radio operators and actively follow that as their principal hobby.

Preston Smith Says Cotton Is Still King In Texas

DALLAS (AP) — Lt. Gov. Preston Smith said today that cotton is still king in Texas despite oil wells and federal cotton acreage controls.

He spoke to the International Oil Mill Superintendents Association.

"Cotton is still important in the Texas economy," Smith said, "far more so than we are in the habit of remembering. Cotton is grown on 80,000 Texas farms in 200 counties. During the last 10 years Texas has produced annually an average of 3,910,000 bales of cotton and more than 1,600 tons of cottonseed, with an average value of $715 million a year.

"The value of Texas cotton fiber and seed exceeds the value of oil crops in 45 other states. It is estimated that 1.5 million Texans making their living from growing, processing, manufacturing and selling cotton, cottonseed and their products.

"While more sensational figures can be developed out of oil and gas production, there has never been any crop or product that created as much business for the towns and cities of Texas as King Cotton."

QUILTED COAT—Feather-light jiffy coat for summer is a dream to own. Use simplest coat pattern; polished, floral cotton; plus patented Dorron — the new, needle-loomed wool interlining. Quilt flowers in isolated areas, and you have the newest-look coat that's light as air—practically weightless. Unpacks without wrinkles. Strong on high fashion via quilting.

Knitted Wools Make Swim, Style-Sense

A swimsuit that is not functional is like a pair of shoes that is only for sitting! Of course, there are people who prefer to show off styles that don't come near the water. It's the real swimmer who demands both these qualities. She's the one who finds the perfect combination in knitted wools.

All - American knitted wool has a swim - ability that is its own exclusive knack. The flexible, living fiber thrives on dunking; doesn't shift, sag, bag, or plaster the body in embarassing wrinkles when wet. And from the health standpoint, there's nothing like the protection and comfort offered by wool, because its highly absorbent nature makes it feel surface-dry even though completely saturated with water.

Master swimwear craftsmen appreciate the way knitted wool responds to their design talents, and they favor this fiber for expressing their most creative styles. Only the experts in swimwear know how to create swimsuits in knitted wool.

The season's new woolknit enliven the waterfront with styles that cover the whole span from minimum to maximum exposure. There are bikinis that are positively stingy in coverage, but they transform deftly into on-beach playsuits with the addition of separate overskirts and pullovers. Necklines plunge to record depths baring both the sides as well as the back, with necklines often coming to chin - heights in the front.

The sweater look for swimwear is a flattering new interpretation of the fluid, easy-line fashion silhouette. Sleeveless sweater tops, with necklines varying from modest highs to daring lows, pull subtly down over little boy trunks. Soft blousing is another easy-to-wear treatment. The waistline receives attention in belted styles with high - posed obis or low-tied slotted sashes.

Checks, both large and small set a pattern theme in a vibrant pallette of glowing wool colors. Wool's natural rich texture is enhanced by mohair blends, chenille knits and pique stitches. The most devastatingly feminine texture story of all is in the cloud - fluffy angora and knitted wools, in fabulous singing colors. They come in solids and in exotic floral or abstract prints.

You may be able to remove the stains or tarnish from that pewter piece by rubbing with a cloth dampened with salad oil and dipped into whiting.

Traffic Checkup Good Idea For Every Home

How's the trafffic situation in your home?

It may be time for you to play the role of policemen to check the routes your family takes most frequently. Most popular thorough - fares are from front door to family room, kitchen to bedrooms and back door to closest bath.

The purpose of your study is not to determine where to set up stop signs and traffic lights, but rather to decide how to properly arrange your home.

For example, it's usually best to locate your laundry near the sleeping quarters instead of adjacent to the kitchen or in the garage or basement. This will save the homemaker many steps each day.

Time Nearing For GOPs To Unite Behind Platform

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans are reaching the point where they will have to find some agreement among themselves—on a party platform—but until then they will continue rubbing sandpaper on their wounds.

Next week the 100-man resolutions committee meets in San Francisco to hold hearings on what form the platform should take when the Republican presidential convention opens there July 13.

It has been a confusing Republican year. Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam won the New Hampshire presidential primary although he was far off in Southeast Asia and said he was not a candidate.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller had campaigned hard in that unpredictable New England state. Then Rockefeller, by the polls, wasn't supposed to win in Oregon but he did.

While the polls said Rockefeller would win in California, it was Goldwater who won. When the Republican governors met in Cleveland in early June and some talked of stopping Goldwater, none stuck his neck out. Then Pennsylvanian William W. Scranton suddenly did. He announced he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination. He has been scooting around the country ever since, trying to make inroads on Goldwater but doesn't seem to have made any impressive ones yet.

Then last week Lodge resigned as ambassador, announced his sole reason for doing so was to come home to help Scranton stop Goldwater, and in the process got into a disagreement with other Republicans, including Scranton.

Lodge, who had been ambassador in Southeast Asia under the Democratic administrations of Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, said the war against communism there is on the right track and should not be a political issue this year.

But Goldwater, who has been criticizing the Democrats' Southeast Asian policy for months, said it most definitely is an issue. And Sunday so did Rep. William E. Miller, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Even Scranton disagreed with Lodge. He said "as far as I am concerned, it is an issue."

Where this is leading is hard to say.

Since Goldwater is a conservative and some of the other top Republican leaders are not — men like Scranton, Lodge, Rockefeller and Michigan's Gov. George Romney — they want a voice in the direction the party takes, even if the convention nominates Goldwater.

Lodge, Romney and Rockefeller are going to appear before the committee in San Francisco to say what they think the platform should contain. Goldwater has said he would like the platform to be merely a statement of principles rather than a list of specifics.

But if he gets the nomination, and at this moment his chances look unexcelled, he will need broad Republican support, not only from party leaders who now disagree with him but from rank-and-file Republicans, too.

This may induce him to compromise on the platform's contents.

For example: while a majority of Republicans in both houses of Congress voted for the civil rights bill, Goldwater voted against it. This may help him with some Southern Democrats but it angered some Republicans.

If they insist on a strong civil rights plank in the platform, it is possible Goldwater won't make an issue of it. He can explain that while he voted against the bill he would, as a presidential duty, enforce it if elected.

The platform problem may produce the convention's greatest heat.

Junior Editors Quiz on CHEESE

QUESTION: How is cheese made?

* * *

ANSWER: Cheese, one of the most valuable and nutritious of foods, starts with the cow (1). In the cheese-making plants her milk flows into large vats that can hold up to 20,000 pounds of milk. About 11 pounds of milk are needed to make a single pound of cheese. In (2) a "starter" culture of lactic-acid bacteria is being poured in, separating the solids or curds of the milk from the whey or liquid part. Rennet extract further helps curdle the milk. In (3) the curd, having been cut into small cubes, is being pushed to both sides of the vat to allow the whey to run off. Further cutting and salting prepares the cheese to be wrapped in parchment and squeezed into metal boxes (4) after which these boxes will go to the curing rooms. If cured for a short time, the flavor will be mild. American, or Cheddar cheese, is usually cured from two months to two years; the longer the curing, the sharper the flavor. Different variations of the cheese-making process produce different varieties of cheese—with rocquefort, for example, the addition of penicillin mould gives a sharp, special flavor.

* * * 6-29

FOR YOU TO DO: For a tasty toasted cheese sandwich, place slice of cheese between two slices of bread, butter outside of sandwich, lay in skillet, cook on medium heat until brown, then turn over. Cook until that side is brown and cheese is melted. Butter again. Eat.

Knowledge Gained From Reading Mail

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Few people are more boring than those who brag they haven't taken a vacation in years. Actually, 85 per cent of U.S. families now enjoy an annual vacation.

Women can hear higher-pitched tones better than men—but not as well as dogs.

One out of every 10 children, sooner or later in life, will be incapacitated by a mental illness.

Today's highly paid television entertainers might be startled to know that one of the highest fees ever paid a performer was the $60,000 that pianist Ignace Jan Paderewski received during the 1920s for a single concert at Madison Square Garden. That was in the era when money was worth money.

It is estimated that some 25,000 unqualified "psychological experts" rake in $375 million a year from gullible victims.

It isn't nagging wives who drive husbands to drink. A medical study of the wives of alcoholics and nonalcoholics found no marked differences in their temperaments.

Quotable notables: "Real merit of any kind cannot long be concealed. It may not always be rewarded as it ought; but it will always be known"—Lord Chesterfield.

Some 50 million Americans have difficulty proving they were born because their birth cerificates either were not filed or have been destroyed by fire, flood or other cause.

Strawberries got their name from the fact that in the old days it was the custom to cover the plants with straw in winter to protect their roots from freezing. Please do not ask us why the gooseberry is called the gooseberry, as we will have to duck that query.

Quips from our contemporaries "Definition of the articulate: Describing an accordion without using the hands"—Catholic Digest.

As a nation we are getting older, but as a people we are getting younger. It is estimated that in 1975 half the U.S. population will be under age 26.

Folklore: It is bad luck to get up out of bed backward rather than face forward. Wearing a piece of red woolen yarn around your throat will protect you from the nosebleed. If you carry a horse chestnut in your pocket it will ward off rheumatism. A potato in the pocket will also absorb rheumatic twinges.

It was Finley Peter Dunne who observed, "One of the strangest things about life is that the poor, who need money the most, are the very ones who never have it."

Arnie's Loan Of Putter Backfires

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Arnold Palmer will be a bit more careful in the future about lending putters to competitors.

About six weeks ago Tony Lema broke the weapon he had been using on the greens, and big-hearted Arnie lent him one of his own.

Sunday, in a great come-from-behind effort, and in an extra-hole sudden death playoff, Tony used the borrowed club to beat Palmer out of the $20,000 top prize in the $100,000 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament. Palmer settled for second place and $12,000.

Arnie and Jack Nicklaus, at the end of 54 holes, were deadlocked at 12-under-par 202 and three strokes ahead of the field.

Nicklaus fell out of it on the first hole of the final round, taking a bogey to Palmer's birdie —and never came close to making up the two strokes.

But Lema, waving his putter like a magic wand, then stepped into the act. He sank putts of 15, 15, 8, 5 and 18 feet for five straight birdies to end the front nine—and he was deadlocked with Palmer. He birdied No. 14 with a 40-footer, and got down in two strokes from 45 feet for another on No. 16.

He was one ahead coming to 18, where he stuck his approach six feet from the home. He was shooting for a course-record 63 if he could sink it, and he could also force Palmer, who was a pair of threesomes back, to birdie the last two holes to tie.

But the putt rolled eight inches past the cup. He was careful about it—but the eight-incher stayed out and he had a bogey. Palmer parred in to tie, and almost won it when his putt hit the back of the cup on 18 and stayed out. They finished at 270, or 14 under par for the Highland Park layout.

Lema birdied the first extra hole with a 15-footer, giving him the verdict and reversing last year's decision in the same tourney when Palmer beat him 67 to 70 in a playoff.

Nicklaus finished two strokes off the pace at 272, deadlocked with 25-year-old Terry Dill of Muleshoe, Tex. The latter's $6,250 payoff was the biggest of his career.

BRITAIN REVIVES ELIZABETHAN SPORT—Two riders, dressed as knights and riding colorfully-clad horses, engage in a joust at Montacute, England, site of England's finest Elizabethan homes, 130 miles southwest of London. Tom O'Hara Breaks Jinx; Finally Beats Burleson

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) —Skinny Tom O'Hara, the pale Chicagoan who thrives on peanut butter sandwiches and looks as though a stiff Windy City breeze would blow him clear across Lake Michigan, has finally given the back of his freckled Irish hand—and heels—to his arch-tormentor, Dyrol Burleson.

Like a playful leprechaun pulling a sudden disappearing act, O'Hara gave Burleson a slight sniff of victory and then pulled away down the stretch for a record-smashing 1,500-meter triumph Sunday at the National AAU Track and Field Championships.

In six previous meetings—four at a mile and two at 1,500 meters—Burleson had never tasted defeat from O'Hara. But the lanky Oregonian couldn't match red-haired Tom's finishing kick this time as O'Hara pounded home in 3:38.1, an American record and the equivalent of a 3:55.1 mile.

O'Hara, Burleson, Jim Grelle and gangling Jim Ryun, the incredible 17-year-old Wichita, Kan., schoolboy, all bettered the American mark of 3:39.3 set only three weeks ago by Cary Weisiger. Burleson's time was 3:38.8, Grelle's 3:38.9 and Ryun's 3:39 and Weisiger himself could do no better than 3:40.9, good for eighth place.

The two-day meet gave America's Olympic hopefuls a chance to qualify for the trials in New York next weekend. The first six Americans in each event who had not previously qualified won the right to compete in the Olympic trials and the first two will face Russia in a dual meet at Los Angeles next month.

The meet also produced a near miss in an attempt at a pole vault record by 17-footer Fred Hansen and knocked ace sprinter Bob Hayes out of the Olympic trials.

Most events ran according to form, but 30-year-old Mike Larrabee, a California teacher, provided a major upset in the 400 meters as he and two others outran world record-holder Adolph Plummer and favored Ulis Williams. Larrabee and runner-up Ollan Cassell both were clocked in 46 seconds.

Saturday, with darkness rapidly closing in on Rutgers University Stadium, Hansen tried and narrowly failed three times to vault 17 feet 6¾ inches. Each time Hansen seemed to go over the crossbar but hit it with his chest on the way down and jarred it loose.

Hansen's 17-foot leap was only the fourth time the magic mark has been cleared and was the third time this month the 23-year-old Rice University graduate has done it.

The 100 meters presented U.S. Olympic officials with a minor problem and likely solution. Hayes, only man ever to run 100 yards in 9.1, pulled a hamstring muscle high in his left thigh near the end of his 10.3 sprint victory and announced he would skip the New York trials.

Olympic officials had no immediate comment but there was little doubt they would exercise their right to make special provisions in such cases and invite Hayes to the final trials in September.

Allison's Hot Bat Helps Twins Win

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Allison hasn't done much broken field running since his college football days but he's leading a merry chase today.

The former Kansas fullback is showing his heels to the American League.

Allison cracked a single and his 20th home run in the Twins' 9-3 victory over Chicago Sunday extending a consecutive game hitting streak to 19 and lifting his batting average to .340, tops in the AL.

Allison's season average has zoomed 50 points, from .290, during the burst. He has hit seven homers and as many doubles, driven in 11 runs and scored 14 for a league-leading total of 55.

After Zoilo Versalles' eighth homer snapped a 3-3 tie in the seventh inning, Harmon Killebrew preceded Allison's shot with a two-run 410-foot wallop—his 27th—into the bleachers.

Elsewhere, Baltimore extended its winning streak to six games and its league lead to four with a 6-4 victory over Washington while second place New York divided a doubleheader with Detroit. The Yanks took the opener 8-6, the Tigers the nightcap 6-5.

Boston swept a pair from Cleveland 8-5 and 4-3 and Kansas City blanked Los Angeles 4-0 in a single game.

San Francisco grabbed the National League lead by nipping Los Angeles 1-0 while Philadelphia split with St. Louis, winning 5-0 and losing 8-2. The Phils trail the Giants by .002 percentage points. Cincinnati won two from Pittsburgh 6-2 and 6-5; Chicago beat Houston 10-2 before losing 4-1 and Milwaukee topped New York twice, 7-6 and 9-0.

Minnesota scored six runs in all during the seventh inning uprising, assuring reliever Al Worthington, who joined the club only a few days ago, of his first American League victory.

The White Sox did all their scoring in the sixth on four singles and a hit batsman. Gerry McNertney drove in two runs and Dave Nicholson the other.

The Orioles sent Washington reeling to its sixth straight loss by pushing over a pair of unearned runs in the eighth. John Kennedy booted a grounder and Don Lock dropped a fly ball after Brooks Robinson's leadoff single. Willie Kirkland drove in one run with a sacrifice fly and the other scored on Lock's miscue.

Tom Tresh hit a grand slam homer in the eighth inning of the opener as the Yanks overtook the Tigers. Two homers by Don Demeter and another by Dick McAuliffe had powered Detroit to an early 6-2 lead.

Gates Brown's seventh inning homer broke up the nightcap after the Tigers blew a 5-2 advantage. Joe Sparma relieved starter Mickey Lolich in the sixth, stopped the Yanks the rest of the way and picked up his first major league verdict.

Felix Mantilla hit two homers in the Boston-Cleveland opener. Frank Malzone slugged a pair in the second game and Dick Radatz came out of the bullpen twice to save Red Sox victories.

Cleveland's Leon Wagner hit his 16th and 17th homers in the first game. Al Smith and Dick Donovan connected for the Indians in the afterpiece.

Two unearned runs and Diego Segui's five-hit pitching helped the Athletics stymie the no-longer hot Angels. After Lenny Green dropped a fly ball in the first inning, Manny Jimenez doubled a run home and Bill Bryan followed with a triple. Nelson Mathews homered for the A's as Los Angeles dropped its second straight after an 11-game winning string.

Golfer Bob Toski, a native of Haydenville, Mass., is one of nine children of a Polish brass worker.

Fast-Draw Mira May Be Hottest Name In Football

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — George Mira, the fast draw of Miami, may be the hottest new name in football before the new season is over.

Mira definitely was the most exciting performer in the All-American Game Saturday night, when he passed the East to an 18-15 victory over the West.

The 21,112 fans left War Memorial Stadium raving about Mira's strong arm, accurate passes and daring running.

The kid from Key West, Fla., put on a tremendous show in the second half, throwing for one touchdown and setting up two more.

Mira belongs to the San Francisco 49ers, a club plagued by quarterback miseries last season after John Brodie was injured. Brodie, of course, is an established star but Coach Jack Christiansen will have to take a long hard look at Mr. Mira.

The 5-foot-11 passer has been called too small for the pros. Critics claim he wouldn't find his targets, behind the rush of the whales who man pro defensive lines. They are having second thoughts today.

Carl Eller (257 pounds) of Minnesota, Scott Appleton (245) of Texas, and Lloyd Voss (250) of Nebraska are high - priced, highly regarded pro rookie linemen.

They manned the middle of the West line but Mira hit with 14 of 20 passes in the second half and an over-all total of 21 of 40 for 306 yards.

"I never played against men as big as the West team," Mira said, "It was a real test and I am glad I passed it. I had no trouble seeing my receivers. I think I was able to prove something to myself—that size alone won't bother me."

Aqueduct May Be Race Of Year

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The horse race of the year is shaping up for July 4 with the 78th running of the $100,000-added Suburban Handicap at Aqueduct.

The line-up for the 1¼-mile event will not be determined until owners and trainers confer after looking over the weights to be announced today. But the field of 10 or so is expected to include Kelso, Oden Times, Iron Peg, Garwol, Smart and a pair of 3-year-olds — Quadrangle and Malicious. No 3-year-old has won the second leg of New York's handicap Triple Crown since Crusader in 1926.

Kelso, winner in 1961 and last year with 133 pounds up each time and second in 1962 with 132 pounds, probably will be handicapper Tommy Trotter's choice to carry top weight. Kelso showed two dull races in California in his first two starts this year but came back to win at Aqueduct last Thursday with a fine effort in a 1⅛-mile warmup.

Also scheduled for the July 4 card are such rich events as the $50,000-added American Handicap at Hollywood Park and the $40,000 added Stars and Stripes Handicap at Arlington Park. Each is at 1⅛ miles with the Arlington race on the turf.

Last Saturday's feature races saw favorites falling by the wayside for the most part except in the $22,000 Diamond State Handicap at Delaware Park in which there was no betting. Mongo, 1963 grass course champion, returned to competition after a two-month layoff and easily beat three rivals.

Dandy K., a trailer in the Kentucky Derby, ran back to his fine workouts and beat favored Roman Brother, runner-up in the Belmont Stakes, by 2½ lengths in the $115,000 Chicagoan at Arlington Park. He paid $10.

Lt. Stevens ran in his first stakes race after five straight victories and accounted for the $29,300 Saranac Handicap at Aqueduct for a $10.30 payoff.

Close By, rated at the start of the season as Rex Ellsworth's best 3-year-old, finally came through in taking the $57,250 Cinema Handicap at Hollywood Park. He returned $12.

Shooters Open Ends

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Bench Rest Shooters Championship Open ended here Sunday with Fred Bussell of Abilene and A. L. Daugherty of Alamogordo, N.M., winning the top prizes.

The shooters all will be back, plus a flock of new ones, for the National Bench Rest Shooters Tournament here Aug. 7-8-9.

Bussell won the grand aggregate in the Light Varmint Class yesterday with .622. John D. Richardson of Abilene was second with .676.

Daugherty won the Sporter Class Saturday.

Rumors Of Big Trade Draw Denial

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Rumors of a whopping trade with the New York Mets drew denials Sunday from Milwaukee Braves' officials and some ire from Eddie Mathews, one of the players supposedly involved.

According to a story Sunday in a New York newspaper, Mathews, Warren Spahn and Frank Bolling were to be surrendered to the Mets for $200,000 and three players.

"I'm getting sick and tired of all those trades coming out of some sports writer's imagination," said Mathews. "It's not only ridiculous but pitiful. I bet the writer a steak that it was a lie."

Mathews has been hitting well lately, getting three hits in seven times up in Sunday's twin victories over the Mets. He and Spahn are the only survivors of the original team which moved here from Boston in 1953.

Spahn remarked, "I don't know what's ahead so I'm not going to say anything." However, the 43-year-old veteran pitcher insisted he was far from being through as some have claimed.

"I wouldn't be here if I thought otherwise and you can bet on that," he said. "Physically, I feel great. That's all I'm going to say."

"It sounds like something someone dreamed up," said Braves'-President John McHale. "This club will never trade Spahn."

Copter Pilots Plan To Crack Their Eggs

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) —Pilots hope to set a helicopter down at the Kern County Airport at noon today to crack a world's record—and 47 eggs.

It will mark the end of a 101-hour endurance record for helicopters which a team of four pilots began Thursday.

Referees from the National Aeronautical Association taped 48 eggs to the skids of the machine to make sure it couldn't make an unauthorized landing.

One egg was broken when a pilot dropped it Sunday to celebrate passing of the old 72-hour endurance mark, set four years ago by Navy pilots.

Pee Wee Athletics Remain Undefeated

The Pee Wee Athletics remained undefeated for the season by winning their 4th consecutive game friday evening as they downed the Indians 10-6. Randy Dryden and Steve Wittie did the pitching. Steve also homered for the Athletics.

Locals Run In Lubbock Track Meet

Nineteen members of the Snyder Track Club participated in the Lubbock Invitational Meet Saturday. The locals did well in the meet, in which over 700 contestants entered.

Barbara Schiebel placed 4th in the 100-yard dash and 6th in the running broad jump in the senior girls division.

Snyder gained two individual places and one relay place in the junior girls division. Sandra Burleson placed 5th in the 50-yard dash and 6th in the 75-yard dash. Snyder also placed 5th in the 220-yard relay. Running on that relay were Viki Keller, Kathy Boren, Daphne Merritt and Sandra Burleson.

In the 11 years old and younger girls division, Cynthia Schiebel placed 4th in the broad jump. The 220 yard relay in that division placed 2nd. On that relay were Cynthia Schiebel, Patti Sims, Hollye Crenshaw and Lisa Graham.

The Snyder Track Club will participate next in the Odessa Meet July 11, and will go to Abilene July 25.

9 Texans To Be In Trials For Olympics

DALLAS (AP)—There will be nine Texans in the Olympic Trials at New York next weekend and most of them appear capable of making the squad that goes to the final trials at Los Angeles in September.

Three of them will get into the Russian-U.S. meet next month on the basis of their finishes in the National AAU Saturday and Sunday at New Brunswick, N.J.

They include Randy Matson of Texas A&M, who won the shot put with 64 feet 11 inches, and Fred Hansen of Rice, who took the pole vault with 17 feet. Both were AAU records.

Ollan Cassell, former University of Houston star, wound up third in the 400-meter run and got into the U.S.-Russian meet.

Other Texans qualifying for the Olympic Trials Friday and Saturday at Randall's Island, N.Y., are Jerry Dyes of Abilene Christian, javelin; Bill Miller, McMurry, broad jump; Billy Pemelton, Abilene Christian, Christian, pole vault; Jim Heath of Dallas, service meet 400-meter champion; Bobby May, Rice, 110-meter hurdles, and Ed Red, Rice, javelin.

Six men in each event will qualify for the final Olympic Trials.

Pioneer Airman Dies Sunday

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The man said to have built America's first single-winged plane died here Sunday.

He was Prentice A. Newman, 94, also believed to have been the first pilot of a heavier-than-air ship in the Southwest.

He made that flight in a biplane Jan. 2, 1909, from a parade ground at Fort Sam Houston, and later turned to developing his monoplane.

With the help of contributions, the former automobile salesman built a biplane with wings 32 feet long. Towed behind a car, the plane reached an altitude of 70 feet before the rope broke and the motorless craft crashed.

Newman's flight drew worldwide publicity. The same year Bleriot flew across the English Channel. A year later Benjamin Foulois made the historic first military flight at Fort Sam Houston.

Attempts to set up a company to manufacture and further improve Newman's plane failed, and he moved to Brownsville, Tex., to work on a plane at the request of the Chamber of Commerce.

There Newman constructed a monoplane designed to lift off the ground under its own power. But it needed improvements in the tail section and in the attempted takeoff, a propellor blade was broken off.

Newman abandoned efforts to revamp the plane because of lack of money.

Newman also was believed to be the first man to build a plane with all of the controls at the rear of the plane, thus removing obstructions in front of the pilot.

He gave up his machine shop in Brownsville in 1941 and lived in Guatemala and the Honduras until about nine years ago when he returned here.

Lew Worsham, 1947 U. S. Open champion, turned pro at 18.

Oswald's Dairy Tells Of Unhappy Life In Russia

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Lee Harvey Oswald wrote vividly in a diary of an attempt to commit suicide soon after reaching Russia in 1959, of his unsatisfactory love life with Russian girls until he met wife Mariana, and about his dissatisfaction with Russia and plans to return to the United States.

He told of these things in a diary reported in a copyright story written by Hugh Aynesworth in today's Dallas Morning News. A second portion of the diary will be published later.

Oswald labeled his writing, "Historic Diary," and kept it from Oct. 16, 1959, the day he entered Moscow, until March 27, 1962, a year and half after returning to the United States. Oswald was charged with assassinating President John F. Kennedy in Dallas last Nov. 22. Two days after Kennedy died, Jack Ruby shot Oswald to death.

Oswald's train into Moscow was met by Intourist guide Rimma Sherikova. His words to her were, "I want to apply for Russian citizenship."

In his diary, he said, "She is flabbergasted, but agrees to help." He wrote, "I explain I am a Communist. She is politely sympathetic, but uneasy now. She tries to be a friend to me. She feels sorry for me. I am something new."

When Oswald visited a Soviet official about getting citizenship, Oswald told him the Soviet Union is "great." He said the official told him, "the U.S.S.R. is only great in literature."

Oswald heard nothing about extending his visa and two hours before it was to expire, police telephoned and ordered him to start out of the country within two hours.

In a melodramatic fashion, Oswald wrote, "I am shocked! My dreams! I have $100 left. I have waited two years to be accepted. My fondest dreams are shattered because of a petty official."

He decided to commit suicide one hour before his visa expired, Oct. 21, 1959. He wrote, "Soak wrist in cold water to numb the pain. Then slash my left wrist. Then place into bathtub of hot water.

"I think, 'when' Rimma comes at 8 to find me dead, it will be a great shock.'

"Somewhere a violin plays, as I watch my life whirl away."

Rimma found Oswald unconscious by the bathtub, the floor and tub deeply stained with his blood. Doctors took five stitches in the wrist wound.

When he regained consciousness the next day, he realized he was in an insanity ward. "This realization disquiets me" he wrote. With Rimma's help, he was transferred to a regular ward.

He described how he became discouraged at hearing nothing about his Russian citizenship papers. "I must have some sort of showdown," he wrote and went to the American Embassy and told an official, John A. McVickers, "I have come to dissolve my American citizenship."

Embassy officials tried to talk him out of it, he wrote, but he left elated, sure the Russians would now welcome him. "After this sign of faith in them."

At his hotel, reporters converged on his room and his mother and brother called. "Now I feel slightly exhilirated, not so lonely," he said.

One month after his arrival in Russia, an official notified him he could remain until they decided what to do about his case.

On Jan. 4, 1960, he was told he could have a residence document but not citizenship and was ordered 468 miles southwest of Moscow to Minsk to take a job in a factory. He said he got money from the Red Cross to pay his hotel bills and the train fare. (The Red Cross in Washington denied ever giving Oswald money.)

In Minsk, he met Rosa, "about 23, blonde, attractive, unmarried, excellent English. We attract each other at once."

He met the city mayor, "Comrade Shrapof, who welcomes me to Minsk, promises a rent - free apartment 'soon' and warns me about 'uncultured persons' who sometimes insult foreigners."

At the Minsk radio factory he was given a good job — very good by Russian standards—as a 'checker' metal worker at 700 rubles a month.

He said he took Rosa to the theater, movie or opera almost daily. "I am living big and am very satisfied."

But on his 21st birthday, Oct. 18, 1960, he invited Rosa and a Jewish girl named Ella Germain and another man to his apartment for a party.

"Rosa and Ella are jealous of each other," he wrote. "It brings a warm feeling to me. Both are at my place for the first time."

In December of that year, he wrote that he was "having a light affair with Nell Korobka," a girl he met at the foreign language dormitory.

His mind was made up, however, for Ella on Jan. 1, 1961. "I think I'm in love with her. She has refused my more dishonorable advances. We drink and eat in the presence of her family in a very hospitable atmosphere."

"Later I go home drunk and happy. Passing the river homeward I decide to propose to Ella."

He does, standing on a doorstep. "She hesitates, then refuses. My love is real but she has none for me.

"Her reason besides lack of love: I am an American and someday might be arrested simply because of that."

He quoted Ella as saying, "There is too much against you and you don't even know it."

He wrote afterward, "I realize she was never serious with me but only exploited my being an American to get the envy of the other girls who consider me different from the Russian boys. I am miserable!"

Oswald told of gradually becoming disenchanted with the Soviet Union. A friend, Andrei Toli, "says many things and relates many things I don't know about the U.S.S.R. I begin to feel uneasy inside."

When the Russians called early in January 1961 to ask if he wants citizenship, he said no, just "extend my residential passport."

"I am starting to reconsider my desire about staying. The work is drab. The money I get has nowhere to be spent. No nightclubs or bowling alleys, no places of recreation except the trade union dances.

"I have had enough."

Feb. 1, 1961, he wrote the U.S. Embassy in Moscow, saying he wanted to return to the United States.

A month later, he met a "girl with a French hairdo and red dress with white slippers. Her name is Marina. We like each other right away."

The diary got skimpy as Oswald courted Marina. "We are going steady and I decide I must have her. She puts me off, so on April 15, I propose. She accepts."

They marry and Marina's aunt gives a dinner reception for 20 friends and neighbors "who wish us happiness (in spite of my origin and accent.)"

In May of 1961 he wrote, "the transition of changing the full love from Ella to Marina was very painful, especially as I saw Ella almost every day at the factory, but as the days and weeks went by, I adjusted more and more. I still haven't told my wife of my desire to return to the U.S."

When he does, in late June, "she encourages me to do what I wish to do."

Marina's coworkers and the Young Communist League tried to dissuade her. "Not effect; maker her more stubborn about wanting to go," Oswald wrote.

With no word about a passport and visa by December, however, Marina wavers, "probably from the strain and her being pregnant. Still we quarrel and things are not so bright, especially with the approach of the hard Russian winter."

Their Christmas present was notification of approval of Marina's exit visa. Their baby girl was born in February and named June Lee, the middle name over Oswald's protests but according to Russian law which requires a child's middle name must be the same as her father's first.

The last diary entry was March 27, 1962, "I receive a letter from a Mr. Phillies, an employer of my mother, pledging to support my wife in case of need." Soon after, the three Oswalds sailed for New York.

Correspondents Tour Southeastern Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A group of 125 foreign correspondents and their wives left Sunday for a five-day tour of the Southeastern states of Mexico, as guests of the Mexican National Tourism Council.

It will be the first part of a good-will tour through most of Mexico, which is to end in the northern state of Chihuahua in mid-July.

The correspondents are expected to return to Mexico City July 4-5 to cover the presidential elections and then will leave in the second part of the trip to the north.

Special guides and officials from several government ministries are accompanying the group.

Body Is Found In Corpus Christi Bay

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—The body of John Carbajal, 53, Corpus Christi tavern operator and a truck driver for a beer distributor, was found floating in Corpus Christi Bay Sunday.

Officers said the body was floating at the end of a rope which was attached to a 40-lb. rock.

Police said the body appeared to have been in the water since Friday.

BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS

NEW PRODUCT AT CAPROCK—These salt houses for ranchers are a new product of Caprock Materials Co. here. Easily moved from one location to another, the salt houses have been found to be handy indeed.

New Products Developed By Caprock Materials

Whether it be for the farmer, rancher, home owner or builder, Caprock Materials is constantly on the lookout for new ways to save its customers time, effort and money.

A recent example of this is the building of salt houses which can save the rancher much time and labor spent in hauling sacks and cakes of salt frequently to various parts of the ranch.

Built of concrete and steel, the 5 x 5 structure, which will hold 50 or 60 sacks of salt, can be placed at convenient locations where they will be handy. These houses are built on skid bases so that they can be moved from one spot to another when this is desired.

Each of these structures has a substantial door and will give maximum protection against weather and varmints.

Caprock Materials, located at Twenty-third and Avenue Q, was opened in 1950 by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Best. During this time the company has grown with Snyder, and each has helped the other. Materials from Caprock can be found in Snyder's schools, churches, homes, plants, roads and highways, and in the new fire-police-civil defense building.

Although Caprock Materials is one of Snyder's larger industries, the folks there are interested in all phases of the growth and betterment of the community. Most Snyder citizens would be amazed by the numerous home - beautifying and landscaping aids that can be found at Caprock Materials.

A variety of patio blocks and stepping stones are available at Caprock. Also obtainable are rocks, both large and small, that can be used in landscaping.

Recently devised are terracing blocks that are real handy for gardening or landscaping. They consist of two sides at a right angle to each other. This can give you a terrace of two feet in both directions one foot high. Or, if preferred, two of these can be used to build the terrace two feet high.

These are just a few examples of the numerous products that are on hand at Caprock Materials. The Bests and their employees will be glad to show folks around so that they can see for themselves the many bargains at Caprock Materials.

First Half Of This Year Making Financial History

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) —So far 1964 has been a year for the books — certainly for the front pages.

—A year that has seen Uncle Sam rather than the boss sweeten many take-home paychecks.

—Seen investors scramble for shares in a space venture and for rights to buy the biggest offer ever of down-to-earth corporate common shares.

—Seen the Dow-Jones industrial stock average go above the 800 point level.

—The job total climb above 71 million but with unemployment only slightly nicked.

—Corporate profits soar to a surprisingly high record.

—Personal incomes and spending and debt set new highs —and also the cost of living.

—A business upturn set a postwar record for long life without assistance of government spending for armed conflict.

—Businessmen steadily revising upward their predictions for output, sales, profits, spending for expansion.

Each of the six months has had its quota of news of especial interest to businessmen and consumers.

President Johnson predicted in January that the total output of goods and services this year would reach $623 billion, or $40 billion more than in 1963. He also caused a stir in business and taxpayer circles by proposing to spend a bit less in the fiscal year starting July 1 and to cut the next Treasury deficit to half of the estimate for the current year.

In February the President signed the federal income tax cut bill, estimated to save taxpayers $11.5 billion, with corporations benefitting by $2.4 billion. American Telephone & Telegraph stirred the investment market with a 2-for-1 stock split and an offer to its stockholders of rights to buy $1,223,000,000 more, at a price $46 a share below the market price at that time. It was the biggest common stock offer on record, and gobbled up.

On the rise for months, the stock market in March finally pierced the 800-point level of the Dow-Jones industrial price index. It was at a record 830.99 by June 26, and other popular averages also were at their highs.

Americans, accustomed for several years to large deficits in international payments, were told that a surprising turn had all but brought the books with the rest of the world into balance. The first quarter ended with corporate profits after taxes soaring to $31 billion annual rate, up $5.7 billion in a year; the Gross National Product at an annual rate of $608 billion, compared with $571.8 billion the year before; and wages and salaries at $323.6 billion against $304.5 billion.

Steel companies in May joined the parade of large corporations notably in the auto and oil industries, announcing big expansion spending plans. And the rails pleased stock traders by reporting that earnings were picking up after a long drought. Industrial output went to a record high of 130.3 per cent of the 1957-59 average.

Stock of the Communications Satellite Corporation was snapped up by the public in June. Auto plants sent the first half output above the previous record, 4,257,150 cars in 1955. Effects of the tax cut began to appear in retail sales as well as in increasing business ordering and planning.

Police Stage Shooting Near Acapulco

ACAPULCO, Mex. (AP) — Seven policemen and a woman bystander were killed Saturday in a shoot-out between judiciary and rural police in Arena Del Bejuco, a town 18 miles from this west coast sea resort.

Officials said the shooting started when the judiciary police attempted to arrest a group of rural policemen suspected in recent crimes.

A spokesman for the judiciary police said that 20 rural policemen allegedly involved in the slaying of a rich cattleman ambushed their colleagues and escaped by motor launches on Tres Palos Lake.

Snyder Sailor Is Back From Tour

Lewis O. Blount, boatswain's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Lewis of Route 3, Snyder, recently returned from a five-month tour with the U. S. Seventh Fleet in the Far East aboard the Navy oiler USS Kawishiwi.

Kawishiwi has spent her last cruise replenishing ships of the Seventh Fleet helping to keep them independent of shore facilities.

Members of the crew had the opportunity to visit Hong Kong, the Philippines and Japan.

Means Of Immunization Modernized

By STEPHEN M. AUG

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Whole populations can be immunized against disease without the use of needles or pills, a Denver scientist said today, but human fears prevent use of the new technique.

"We have become accustomed to being injected," lamented Dr. Gardner Middlebrook, director of research at National Jewish Hospital in Denver.

He said that mass immunization through airborne vaccines is possible as a means of preventing tuberculosis, polio and measles.

A pioneer in the research of immunizing by inhaling vaccines, Middlebrook developed an airborne infection apparatus several years ago. The device is being used to test this technique on animals at several research centers.

Since 1951 U.S. scientists have made great strides in developing the technique which they call aerogenic immunization.

The basis of such inoculation depends on the use of attenuated organisms, living germs which are weakened but which are highly infectious. The organisms are sprayed into a chamber in closely controlled amounts.

A single sniff by a human, Middlebrook says, and he's immune.

The Denver scientist said mass immunizations by the airborne technique could be used theoretically to fight any infectious disease.

A big problem now is development of the highly infective but non-disease producing vaccines.

Once these are produced, then biologists will have to collaborate with engineers—particularly those experienced in ventilation—to determine proper doses for given amounts of air under all conditions.

League Of Latins Name New President

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — William D. Bonilla of Corpus Christi is the new president of the United League of Latin American Citizens (LULAC).

Delegates to the LULAC national convention which ended Sunday also voted to hold their 1965 convention at Beonsonville, Ill.

Mario Lewis of El Paso was elected national president of the junior LULAC and Carmen Vela, daughter of the new vice president, was named vice president of the junior group.

When Al Balding won the 1955 Sanford, Fla., Open he became the first Canadian professional golfer to win a PGA tournament in the United States.

Snyderites In Exercise

Philo B. Underwood, airman, USN, and Russell L. Underwood, airman, USN, sons of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Underwood of Snyder, Tex., participated with Helicopter Anti - Submarine Squadron Eight in a combined sea - assault and airborne combat training exercise called "LIGTAS" May 12 to June 10 under the direction of the South-East Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) in the Philippines.

"LIGTAS," meaning "Saved" or "Rescued" in the Philippine language, was sponsored by the United States and hosted by the Republic of the Philippines.

All member nations participated in the exercise which was part of a SEATO general counter-offensive to be used if an "enemy" should invade South-East Asia and gain control. The exercise tested the effectiveness of the SEATO forces to assault and regain control of areas behind the "enemy" advance.

The operation was designed to train allied forces in the planning and execution of this type of assault. Closer working relationships and understanding among member nations was an important objective of this training.

"LIGTAS," the second training exercise this year and the 27th since 1956, was part of a long-term schedule announced by SEATO Headquarters in November 1963, to maintain joint military defense.
