Equality In Negotiations To Be Given

Join Commission Plans To Decide For Demarcation Of Disputed Border

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Aug. 10—Japan now is prepared to concede to Russia equal representation on a joint commission for demarcation of the Siberian - Manchoukuo border, a foreign office spokesman said today.

Japan previously had insisted upon a commission of three Russians, three Japanese and three representatives from Japan's protectorate, Manchoukuo, which in effect would have given Japanese the majority voting power in negotiations to settle the dispute over the exact location of the frontier line.

Foreign Minister Maxim Litvinoff of Soviet Russia told the Japanese ambassador to Moscow that the commission should be composed of two Russians and one representative each from Manchoukuo and Japan. The concession announced today, therefore, seemed of marked importance in diplomatic efforts to settle bitter fighting along the frontier.

WATCHFUL OBSERVER

BERLIN, Aug. 10 (AP) — Germany's position in the Soviet Russian-Japanese border dispute appeared today to be that of a watchful observer, unlikely to give material aid but sympathetic to Japan, which is linked with Germany in a pact against bolshevism.

An outline of the frontier situation was given to foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop at his Friedwalde country home by the Japanese ambassador on Monday.

Japanese Troops Said To Have Repelled Charge

YUKI, Korea—(Near the Siberian Frontier)—Aug. 10. (AP)—Japanese troops repelled a charge of Russian infantry and 40 Soviet tanks following yesterday's heavy artillery shelling of Japanese lines, army headquarters announced today.

The four-mile Siberian border front was calm at 10 a. m., after the Soviet cannonade which began shortly after mid-day yesterday and lasted until 8 a. m. today.

After the preparatory barrage, the Soviet infantry charged "hill 52," one-half mile south of Changkufeng during the night, but was repulsed the communique said.

Loans In Area Over Million

Insured loans totaling $1,261,300 have been sought by 351 applicants during the four months of operations of the Lubbock district federal housing administration service office at 1212 Texas avenue, according to information given this morning by A. Raley, sr., senior valuator in charge.

The announcement was timed with the beginning of the fifth month of operation of the office, Raley added.

'Majority Are Approved'

Since only the applications for loans are handled in the district office, which serves approximately 40 counties, no information was available as to how many of the applications have been approved. Press dispatches have indicated, however, that most of those which reach the application stage are approved.

Volume of business, according to the announcement, has been increasing as reflected by the fact that during the week ending Aug. 6 a total of 30 applications were received.

The applications originated throughout the district, Raley said, and included Midland, Odessa, Big Spring, Sweetwater, Spur, Plainview, Matador, Floydada and Lubbock.

Former Deputy Seeks To Prove Alibi In Case

Daughter's Name Not On List Of 36 Defense Witnesses To Be Called By Counsel

(By The Associated Press)

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Aug. 10 — Francis M. Carroll, former deputy sheriff, today took the stand and sought through an alibi to prove his innocence of the murder of Dr. James G. Littlefield, of which he was accused by Paul N. Dwyer, 19, the state's witness who previously pleaded guilty and is serving a life sentence for the crime.

Counsel for Carroll, Clyde R. Chapman, read a list of 36 defense witnesses, but the name of the former deputy's daughter, Barbara, 18, was not included. Dwyer, in his testimony, had asserted Dr. Littlefield's knowledge of letters in which Barbara accused her father of improper conduct, was a motive for the murder.

Chapman, in his opening, said the defense "relies in part on testimony offered by the state."

"It is the position of the defense," he declared, "there are not two murderers in South Paris, and that the person who killed Dr. Littlefield, killed Mrs. Littlefield."

Carroll is on trial only for the physician's murder, but the bodies of both were found in an automobile with Dwyer when he was arrested in North Arlington, N. J., last autumn.

Chapman said the defense would show Carroll attended an American Legion supper the night the doctor and his wife were slain, and that Carroll went from the supper to the sheriff's office.

Hog Prices Continue Sharp Break Today

CHICAGO, Aug. 10. (AP)—Hog prices continued one of the sharpest breaks on record today as quotations fell another 25 to 40 cents per hundredweight to the lowest level since spring.

Most of the sharp upturn scored late in May and in June has been lost and prices now are at the lowest August levels in four years.

A top of $8.85 per hundredweight in early dealings today was $1.40 below the 1938 peak reached late in July. The August break has averaged 15 cents each session so far this month. A year ago hogs topped at $8.75.

A woman whose name was given only as Mrs. Gray, 55, of Indianapolis, Ind., was crushed to death, the state highway patrol said.

Melba Martin, 12; Coalgate, Okla., and Jack Hall, 10, of Indianapolis, were injured.

O'Daniel And Phillips Watch Army Maneuvers After Being Guests In Texas 'White House'

BY WILLIAM E. KEYS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Aug. 10 — W. Lee O'Daniel, who wants to apply the golden rule to government, continued a preview of his future duties today.

With Governor James V. Allred and Leon Phillips, Democratic nominee for governor of Oklahoma, O'Daniel, whom Texas Democrats overwhelmingly chose as their gubernatorial nominee, left Austin for Camp Bullis, near San Antonio, to review maneuvers of the third army.

To Observe Military Units

O'Daniel and Phillips will be observing military units of which they will become commander-in-chief when they assume office, national guard troops of their respective states.

The military mission followed an overnight visit of the governors-designate, who were dinner guests of Gov. and Mrs. Allred.

A good five months before they probably will move into the Texas White House the O'Daniels—Mrs. O'Daniel, Molly, Pat and Mike were there—enjoyed fried chicken in the spacious dining room and informally received the capital press corps.

No Decisions On Pensions

The nominee let it be known he was not doing much about being governor "until I am governor."

He said he had made no decisions for paying the $30 old age pension he advocated, or other policies, but had received many suggestions. The communications are being filed away — to be read later.

"I didn't know until the other day I was to go to Beaumont" — the Democratic state convention Sept. 13—"But I'll be there," he said. The party platform will be "left to the folks at Beaumont," O'Daniel said.

Short And Simple

"If I'm any judge, it will be short and simple, like your campaign platform," Governor Allred suggested.

Savings Banks To Be Investigated

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 (AP)—Securities commission experts have begun the spade-work for the anti-trust investigation of $12,800,000,000 assets of the nation's mutual savings banks.

In some respects the study probably will parallel the commission's analysis of the $30,000,000,000 assets of insurance companies and the relation of this huge reservoir of funds to the capital market.

Indications are that the commission's monopoly staff will pattern its study of savings bank assets after its survey of the insurance field.

Pointing up the savings banks inquiry is that fact that about $6,000,000,000, or 50 per cent, of all such assets are held in New York state and about 90 per cent is piled up in banks in five states: New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Once the job of defining and measuring monopolistic forces is completed, the experts must go to work on the next step—devising remedies.

Senator Pope Trailing For Renomination

Bulkley Of Ohio Is Given Smashing Majority And Senator Caraway Leads

(By The Associated Press)

Roosevelt supporters rolled up a smashing senatorial primary victory in Ohio today and had triumph within their grasp in Arkansas but mounting returns from yesterday's Idaho election showed a third New Deal senator slipping constantly behind in his vote for renomination.

The Ohio vote assured Democratic renomination of Senator Robert J. Bulkley who, with 7,789 precincts out of 8,601 reported, had tallied 441,788 votes to 184,434 for former

ROOSEVELT MAKES GESTURE

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Aug. 10 (AP)—President Roosevelt invited Lawrence S. Camp, administration candidate for the U. S. Senate, and Governor E. D. Rivers to a luncheon at the Warm Springs foundation today.

The invitations were considered significant in the light of the president's two scheduled speeches in Georgia tomorrow — in which he may say something in behalf of Camp's candidacy.

Camp is among the three opponents of Senator Walter F. George, who is seeking renomination. Rivers is a New Dealer and Democratic national committeeman from Georgia.

Gov. George White, Bulkley was praised by Mr. Roosevelt when the latter visited Marietta early last month on his way west.

Sen. James Pope D. Worth Clark

Ohio Republicans, balloting in smaller numbers than the Democrats, apparently nominated Robert A. Taft, son of the late president, to run against Bulkley in November. In 8,266 precincts out of 8,601 Taft had 302,663 votes and Arthur H. Day, 235,534.

In Arkansas Senator Hattie Caraway, who like Bulkley received public commendation from the president, was slowly pulling ahead of her nearest opponent, Rep. John L. McClellan. The count for 1,817 precincts of 2,002 gave Caraway 118,370 and McClellan 114,767, and Venable 2,380.

Figured An Issue

Because of President Roosevelt's show of preference for Senators Caraway and Bulkley the administration figured as an issue in their campaigns even though their opponents were by no means antagonistic to the White House.

In Idaho however, the issue was clearly drawn. Senator James P. Pope, a 100 per cent Roosevelt man, was opposed in the Democratic primary by Rep. D. Worth Clark, who hammered home throughout his campaign that he was not an administration "yes man."

The vote in 631 of 802 precincts gave Clark 38,716 to Pope's 35,629.

O'Daniel Plans Conferences With People

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Aug. 10.—Informal conferences preparatory to formation of a governor's business advisory council will be started by him this week, W. Lee O'Daniel, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee, announced before his departure for Austin and San Antonio.

Arrangements for a suite of offices in a downtown building are to be made by O'Daniel upon his return, and soon as his headquarters have been moved the conferences are to get under way.

From All Walks Of Life

People from all walks of life, and from all sections of the state, are to be invited to the conferences, O'Daniel said, and will be asked to give the nominee their ideas about any problem of state government which they are interested.

O'Daniel indicated that at least the skeleton of the business advisory council which he has promised to set up after his inauguration will be selected from among those who participate in the informal conferences.

Avenue To Get Center Paving

A big step toward correction of the traffic problem on one of the most hazardous streets in Lubbock will be taken with the opening of construction in a few days of paving of the center of College avenue, and hard surfacing of a road through Texas Technological college campus.

The state highway department, after investigating into the severe traffic problem on the avenue, recently awarded a $13,768.97 contract to Case Bros. of Bishop. The work had been scheduled to begin this week and the company is expected to move its equipment here any day. J. C. Kerr, engineer on the project said this morning. Kerr, of Lubbock, is a division office engineer of the state department.

To Relieve Congestion

The paving is expected to relieve the congestion on the avenue, in that paving of esplanades will widen the street and discourage parking in the center of the street, and turning in the middle of a block. Also some of the traffic is expected to be turned away from the College avenue entrances to the campus by the hard surfacing of the road on the campus. The road is that extending from a short dis-

Engineers Work Feverishly To Assemble Data On Recent Flood

AUSTIN, Aug. 10 (AP)—State engineers worked feverishly today assembling data for the Texas senate investigating committee's inquiry into whether operation of the flood gates at Buchanan dam, 60 miles north of here, contributed to the recent destructive Colorado river flood.

The committee recessed yesterday until Aug. 17 after preliminary questioning of witnesses in an attempt to determine procedure. Senators T. J. Holbrook of Galveston, committee chairman, Albert Stone of Brenham and Wilbourne Collie of Eastland conducted the hearing.

Dean Emeritus T. U. Taylor of the University of Texas school of engineering, the principal witness, could not be shaken from his opinion the flood could have been avoided by opening the dam gates earlier.

Dalhart Returns To Normalcy Today

DALHART, Aug. 10. (AP) — The laughter of tough old range riders who had their part in the winning of the West died away today and this town in the midst of the great cattle country returned to normalcy, the annual XIT reunion at an end.

They whooped it up yesterday and today before as thousands came here to pay tribute to the men who worked on the great ranch that covered 3,000,000 acres on which 150,000 cattle grazed.

James D. Hamlin of Farwell, Texas, was re-elected president of the XIT association, composed of former ranch hands, their wives and widows. Press Scott of Bovina was elected trail boss; C. R. Smith, Hereford, wagon boss; Joe Killough, Amarillo, straw boss; John McCanless, Dalhart, range boss; Claude Witherspoon, Plainview, hoodlum; Ace Hooper, Plainview, cook; Ollie Conoley, Goldthwaite, horse wrangler; William O. Boyce, Amarillo, treasurer, and W. A. Askew, Amarillo, secretary.

Col. Jack Potter of Clayton, N. M., was re-elected president of the Old Time Drivers of the Southwest which voted to meet here next year on the same dates as the XIT reunion.

Deep Wedge In Spain Driven

(By The Associated Press)

HENDAYE, France — (At the Spanish Frontier)—Aug. 10.—Spanish government troops drove a deep wedge between the insurgent strongholds of Balaguer and Lerida in Catalonia today in a sudden shift of the offensive to a new sector.

Dispatches from Barcelona said the Segre river had been crossed between the two centers and a new government line established on the west bank of the wide stream, which flows south into the Ebro.

Third Triphammer Blow

The offensive is the third triphammer blow government troops have dealt Insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces in two weeks of pounding at weak spots in his extended eastern front.

The first blow fell July 25 when the militiamen crossed the Ebro and advanced to Franco's onetime regional headquarters at Gandesa just as the generalissimo concentrated the main masses of his armies far to the south for an offensive against Valencia.

No sooner had Franco whirled his manpower to the Gandesa sector, 12 miles southwest of the Ebro, than the government jabbed at his extreme right flank west of Teruel and rolled him back for a nine-mile loss.

Carried Out "Feeler Attacks"

During all this time, and unnoticed in the general surprise over the sudden government aggressiveness, troops along the Segre were

Public Takes Up Theater Man's Offer On Horrors Bargain Bill

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 10 (AP)—Showmen in these parts are looking with envy upon the long lines that form day and night at the box office of Emile Eurman's little theater.

Eurman decided to experiment with three almost forgotten horror pictures—"Frankenstein," "Dracula" and "Son of King Kong." Rentals were small, so he couldn't lose much.

He advertised: "We dare you to sit through four hours of horror."

The public took him up, at cut rates, of course. So many people wanted to get in at midnight, Eurman ran an all night show.

Squabble Between Soviet And Japs Is Really Hangover From Previous Russo-Jap Conflict

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. — The squabble between the Soviet and Japan over a pimple on the landscape known as Changkufeng hill is really a hangover from the Russo-Japanese war of more than a generation ago.

The Mikado's forces won that conflict, which wound up in the treaty of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, Aug. 29, 1905, with President Theodore Roosevelt acting as mediator.

Japs Got The Trophy

Some military experts claim that actually Russia had won the war but didn't realize it when her generals threw up the sponge. Anyway, the Japanese carried home the golden trophy, deeply engraved with victory.

Moscow, Tokyo and London now appear to be playing about with the idea of John Bull trying his hand at mediation in the present unpleasantness. Guns are being fired in anger in such increasing numbers as to endanger world peace.

World Remove Cause

Mediation is always worth while, and it may halt this undersized war. But it won't remove the un-

Building permit totals for the first nine days of August whizzed past that for the whole of the corresponding month last year and then leaped into the $100,000 class, according to records this morning at the office of the city building inspector.

Capital Ignores Pleas To Keep Corrigan's Welcome 'Dignified'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 (AP)—Douglas Corrigan, the "wrong way" Atlantic flier, came to Washington today, and the capital completely ignored committee pleas to make the reception "dignified."

Throngs of government workers scrambled out of buildings along historic Pennsylvania and Constitution avenues and cheered him as he passed.

Other thousands leaped from windows and showered the parade with scraps of paper—most of it green, red and white bits torn from scratch pads.

Fairfax Naulty, reception chairman who had suggested that Washington avoid any "hick town demonstration of paper-throwing," did succeed in one plea.

"Don't kiss him!" Naulty shouted as Corrigan stepped from the big airliner which brought him from Baltimore.

The girls didn't.

Police estimated 150,000 persons watched Corrigan pass.

PLAYING 200 HOLES

DALLAS, Aug. 10. (AP) — Husky Clark Raley, 21-year-old Dallas golfer, after a marathon record, completed his 135th hole since early morning at 1 p. m. today.

None of his round scores over the 6,321 yard Parkdale course were above 85. He began play at 4:52 a. m. and hoped to cover 200 holes in the day's play.

Hamilton Says Demos Trying To Cover Up Labor Troubles

(By The Associated Press)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 10. —Chairman John Hamilton of the Republican national committee asserted today that the Roosevelt administration is proclaiming a unique friendliness for labor simply to cover up a grave unemployment situation.

The truth is, he told a rally of Republican women, their own party has for 80 years been the true friend of the working man.

The Roosevelt administration has raised a false issue "to divert attention from its failure to restore some 12,000,000 or more unemployed persons in this country to jobs in private industry," Hamilton said in a prepared address.

He called Democratic avowals of labor attachment another of the "Roosevelt straw men which he said have grown as numerous as tumble bugs in a Kansas wheat field and quite as irritating."

The Republican spokesman said that in using such "false premises," White House advis-

Senator Burke Favors Garner For 1940 Presidential Choice

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—Two United States senators—a New Dealer and a frequent critic of the New Deal—faced each other in a joint press interview on the U. S. liner Manhattan today.

Both talked, but the New Dealer saved words.

The New Deal critic, Edward R. Burke, Nebraska Democrat, said he favored Vice-President John N. Garner as his presidential candidate for 1940.

"I will work for him in the states before the convention," he said. "I'll work for him during the convention and after the convention. He is progressive, forward-looking and has both feet on the ground all the time."

The reporters turned to his companion, Senator Lewis B. Schwellenbach, Washington Democrat.

"You may put me down for the opposite of everything that Senator Burke said," he smiled.

Burke smiled, too.

Said Schwellenbach: "We are going to keep up government

Right there mama figured I was temporarily constipated, which made me feel worse. She gave me Teethina, because mama says Teethina is the nicest, kindest laxative for little fellows like me. It cleansed my bowels and helped to relieve my acid condition. I feel better now and I want to thank my drug store for always keeping a big supply of Teethina on hand. Teethina costs only 30c for twelve nice-tasting powders." TEETHINA.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will invite you to dances and parties.

BUT, if you are cross, lifeless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls. When they go to parties they want girls along who are full of pep.

No Rabies-Infected Dogs Reported But City Health Officer Issues Warning

None of the dogs which have been held under observation recently because of having bitten children has developed any symptoms of rabies and apparently cause for alarm from that score has almost faded, according to information given by city health officials this morning.

However, Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer, repewed his warning that dogs must be vaccinated and licensed and must not be permitted to run at large. Otherwise they will be impounded.

The strict orders were issued late last week after a number of dog-biting episodes had been reported. No one was seriously injured and the available indications were that the dogs were not afflicted. The dogs, however, were placed under observation, some in the city pound, as a precautionary measure.

Strict enforcement of city ordinances relating to unlicensed, unvaccinated and any dogs permitted to run at large, Dr. Rollo said, was decided upon in an effort to forestall repetitions of experiences last summer. Then there were several well-developed mad-dog scares and many of the animals were proved to be infected. Several persons took Pasteur treatment.

Thus far this summer, not a single infected animal has been found here and no one has found it advisable to take anti-rabies serum, Dr. Rollo explained.

'Four Aces' Victors Again In Masters Bridge Championship

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 10 (AP)—The masters team of four championship of the American Contract Bridge league is held by Oswald Jacoby's "Four Aces" for the third time in recent years.

The Aces—Jacoby, David Burnstine, Howard E. Schenken, M. D. Maier and B. Jay Becker—won in a walk in the finals this week as the eight day tournament ended.

They swamped the team of A. Mitchell Barnes by 9,900 points, in contrast to the narrow margin by which they won some previous matches. The Barnes team which includes Charles Lochridge, Morris Ellis, Fred D. Kaplan and Sherman Stearns trailed by 3,800 points at the halfway mark in the 72-board play.

Name Boynton For Governor

BY HOWARD C. MARSHALL
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOUSTON, Aug. 10.—A full slate of Republican candidates for state office stood in the Texas political lists today on a platform which bristled with denunciation of the president and called for a variety of changes in state and federal policies and laws.

Alexander Boynton of San Antonio, an oil man, was nominated for governor by the Republican state convention yesterday, and in the general election will oppose W. Lee O'Daniel, the Democratic nominee and nominees of any other party.

The other Republican nominees, chosen after a program in which criticism of the New Deal was the theme, were as follows:

Lieutenant governor—S. D. Bennett of Beaumont.

Attorney general — Enoch G. Fletcher of Grand Saline.

Associate justice supreme court—L. F. Nossaman of Whitewright.

Judge of court of criminal appeals (unexpired term)—Thomas A. Ball of Fort Worth.

Judge of court of criminal appeals (regular term)—D. Heywood Hardy of Houston.

Railroad commissioner — C. A. Milligan of Pittsburgh.

Comptroller—T. J. Martin of Brackettville.

Land commissioner—R. H. Smellage of Waxahachie.

Treasurer—H. A. Van Tassel of El Paso.

Superintendent of public instruction—Mrs. Gertrude Leek of Livingston.

Commissioner of agriculture—Col. Hoyt Windsor of Dallas.

New Committee Named

A new state executive committee of 62 members, half of whom were women, was elected. T. P. Lee of Houston and H. E. Exum of Amarillo were re-elected chairman and vice chairman respectively. Mrs. Carl G. Stearns of Houston was named woman vice chairman.

The new committee included:

Seventh district—B. J. Peasley, Smith county, and Mrs. I. L. Elam, Van Zandt county.

Tenth district—C. A. Duck and Mrs. H. M. Dyer, both of Hunt county.

Thirteenth — George Breeding, McLennan county, and Mrs. J. C. Eakin, Falls county.

Twenty-third—Orville Bullington and Mrs. W. C. Witcher, Wichita county.

Twenty-fourth—B. G. Hunt, jr., Eastland county, and Sybil Black Trammel, Stephens county.

Twenty-fifth—C. O. Harris and Mrs. R. S. Waring, both of Tom Green county.

Twenty-seventh—William S. West, Cameron county, and Beatrice D. Fraze, Hidalgo county.

Twenty-ninth — U. S. Goen and Mrs. Helen Reynolds, both of El Paso county.

Thirtieth—W. C. Briggs, Cottle county, and Mrs. Guy Goodman, Hale county.

Thirty-first—H. E. Exum and Ruthbelle Bacon, both of Potter county.

In the preamble to the platform, the state party charged the president had used the prestige of his office to "array class against class and to promote dissension among the various groups of people."

"He is using every possible means to destroy the independence of the courts and the congress," it declared. "He has debauched the electorate with public money, spent under the guise of relief.

"He has used his talents to advance the personal and political fortunes of himself and family. He has demoralized and led astray millions of our citizens by the lure of false values and false securities.

"He has forgotten the dignity and duties of his nigh office to engage in partisan political campaigns for the purpose of defeating or electing members of the congress."

The platform advocated administration of relief by non-partisan county boards, governmental economy, a domestic allotment farm plan, abolition of the state ad valorem tax, abolition of the poll tax as a prerequisite to voting, revision of election laws and abolition of liquor and old age pension bureaus with transfer of their work to counties.

It called for drastic reduction in regulation of business, and also said all necessary revenue now provided by the state ad valorem tax could be raised by levying a tax on luxuries. It condemned asserted efforts of the New Deal administration to "socialize the medical profession."

Sizing Up Airplane Situation

It seems the airplane business is going to extremes. Parked under the tail of the new Douglas DC-4—and with room to spare—is one of the new midget Aeroneers built by the Phillips Aviation Co. The DC-4 is the world's largest land plane with a wingspread of 138 feet. The Aeroneer is 32 feet wide. This picture was taken at Los Angeles Municipal Airport.

Tax Records To Be Available

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—Federal income tax records have been thrown open by President Roosevelt for use by a congressional committee which is investigating charges of "un-American activities."

The committee was authorized to examine returns for the period between Jan. 1, 1932 and Nov. 30, 1938.

The committee chairman, Rep. Dies (D-Tex), said more than 25 persons had been subpoenaed to testify about alleged activities in this country in behalf of communism, nazism, or fascism. He said the tax returns would be inspected in cases where the committee had evidence that the suspect had received money from abroad for propaganda purposes.

The hearings will begin here Thursday.

Nearly all the residents of Afghanistan are Mohammedans.

857,520 ON PAYROLL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP)—The sixty-odd agencies in the government's executive branch had 857,520 persons on the pay roll during June. This number, the civil service commission said today, was 16,344 larger than in May, and carried total pay of $128,071,062. Not included were legislative or judicial employes, nor members of the nation's armed forces.

The Amazon river is 3400 miles long, and 150 miles wide at the mouth.

HOT WEATHER BILIOUSNESS

Have you noticed that in hot weather your digestion and elimination seem to become torpid or lazy? Your food sours, forms gas, causes belching, heartburn, and a feeling of restlessness and irritability. Your tongue may be coated, your complexion bilious, and your bowel action sluggish or insufficient.

These are some of the symptoms of Biliousness or so-called "Torpid Liver," so prevalent in hot climates. They call for calomel, or better still, Calotabs the nauseless calomel compound tablets that make calomel-taking a pleasure.

Calotabs give you the effects of calomel and salts combined, helping Nature to expel the sour, stagnant Bile and washing it out of the system. One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of water,—that's all. Next morning your system feels clean and refreshed, your head is clear, your spirit bright, and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish and go about your work or pleasure.

Genuine Calotabs are sold only in checker-board (black and white) packages bearing the trade mark "Calotabs." Refuse imitations. Trial package only ten cents; family package twenty-five cents, at your dealer's. (Adv.)

Shooting Case Investigated

Investigation into the shooting of Harold Wooldridge, Fort Worth, a 27-year old bronc rider, at a carnival on East Broadway last night, was being carried on today, Victor Lindsey, assistant district attorney said this morning.

Lindsey had not talked to Wooldridge this morning, he said, but he intended to later in the day. Others with whom officers had talked were unable to give a hint as to the probable assailant.

The affair happened on the carnival grounds, across Broadway from the Panhandle-South Plains fair grounds, about 9:40 o'clock. The wounded man was taken to Lubbock sanitarium for treatment. This morning he was resting as well as could be expected it was reported.

Wooldridge was taken to the sanitarium in a Rix ambulance. He was an employe of the carnival and was unable to give investigators an accurate account of the incidents leading up to the shooting.

Bill Mabray, police identifications officer, and Victor H. Lindsey, assistant district attorney, said the shooting probably was done by a man who had attempted to "slip" into the carnival grounds.

Officers said the assailant was not known and expressed the opinion that another carnival employe, wh was arrested after the shooting and in whose possession a pistol was found, was not involved. He was held in the city jail, pending possible charges of illegally carrying a pistol.

Wooldridge was wounded in the right hip, the slug entering from the front and emerging after grazing the hip bone, sanitarium authorities said.

Lewis Kittrell, police traffic sergeant, and H. B. Brown and Ham Odom, both of the police department, assisted in the investigations, as did Cap Moore, deputy sheriff.

Moore had received a complaint earlier in the night from employes of the carnival that they were being molested by several men and boys. They charged the molesters were throwing rocks at the carnival animals.

He scouted rumors the family would move to Austin in September, adding the two boys would enter the University of Texas then but other members of the family would remain in Fort Worth until inauguration.

POPE CONCEDES DEFEAT

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 10 (AP) — Senator James P. Pope, stalwart New Dealer, conceded defeat today in the close Democratic senatorial primary in Idaho that was seen as a test of administration popularity.

Rival opponent, Congressman D. Worth Clark, had described himself as a conservative Democrat. Pope, wired him:

"Apparently the primary vote is in your favor. Congratulations."

Short of an open endorsement by the president Pope had substantial Washington backing. Not only did Hull write to him a few days before the primary but Postmaster General Farley spoke in his behalf.

Cochran Wins Third Term

Yesterday's fourth primary, in Nebraska, was devoid of a senate contest. Gov. R. L. Cochran easily won Democratic renomination for a third term and Charles J. Warner was the Republican choice.

In Ohio, Reform Candidate Charles Sawyer was virtually assured of the Democratic gubernatorial nomination over CIO-Baiting Gov. Martin L. Davey.

Reliable election observers indicated that Sawyer's margin might run as much as 20,000.

Sees Lead Dwindle

After holding a comfortable lead, Sawyer saw it slowly dwindle as Davey received heavy support from rural counties, but late returns from Cleveland and Summit county (Akron) put the former lieutenant governor back into the lead. Latest figures:

Sawyer 438,212; Davey 414,040 (5,566 precincts).

The campaign was complicated in its closing days by Social Security board charges that Davey was bringing political pressure on old age pension beneficiaries.

In Arkansas the race for Democratic nomination for governor had Gov. Carl E. Bailey almost 10,000 votes ahead with three-fourth of all precincts reported.

Returns in the Idaho Democratic gubernatorial race gave former Gov. C. Ben Ross 22,875 to 20,904 for Gov. Barzilla W. Clark.

Guerrilla Fighters Plan To Form 'Regular Army'

SHANGHAI, Aug. 10 (AP) — The formation of a "regular army" flying the banner of "loyal and righteous national salvationists" was proclaimed today by Chinese guerrillas at suburban Pootung.

Chinese reports said the touch-and-go fighters, who have claimed repeated victories over Japanese units throughout China, are increasing rapidly in numbers in anticipation of an expanding guerrilla campaign.

Rumors grew that guerrillas from Pootung across the river from Shanghai, had entered Shanghai's foreign areas and planned a terroristic celebration Saturday, anniversary of the start of Japanese-Chinese fighting in Shanghai.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 9 (AP) — Cotton futures opened 6 to 10 points net higher here today in response to improved foreign markets and unfavorable weather and crop advices.

October contracts opened at 8.45, Dec. 8.51, Jan. 8.52, March 8.54, May 8.57 and July at 8.59 bid. Prices reacted partially after the start under profit taking and towards the end of the first half hour active positions were 5 to 7 points net higher.

The weekly weather and crop summary was favorable for some areas but mention of weevil infestation in eastern states brought in enough buying later in the morning to maintain small advances.

Towards mid-session October contracts sold at 8.40, Dec. at 8.49, March at 8.52, and May at 8.56, or 4 to 7 points above the previous close.

The summary said progress of the crop in the western area was good although some shedding was reported in the extreme eastern part of Texas as a result of frequent rains.

In addition to the weevil activity in the east the report said complaints were received of plants ceasing to bloom and that picking was almost at a standstill in some sections.

The turnover yesterday was 13,980 bales and open commitments 182,800 bales, an increase of 730 bales over the previous day.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP) — Cotton futures opened 5 to 7 higher on higher Liverpool cables and renewed complaints of weevil activity. Oct. 8.33, Dec. 8.40, Jan. 8.41, March 8.44, May 8.47, July 8.50.

Fears that insect damage have increased in southwest Texas since the government crop report was compiled as of August 1 checked selling pressure. Dec. late in the first hour sold at 8.39, with the list 3 to 6 points net higher.

Prices advanced to net gains of 6 to 9 points following issuance of the weekly weather report which showed shedding over many sections of the belt. Easiness of the stock market brought in some liquidation and Dec. reacted from 8.44 to 8.39, leaving the list 4 to 6 points net higher at midday.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP) — The stock market shifted from one foot to the other today, unable to get started for a definite swing in either direction.

Bonds dragged along narrow, uneven channels.

Down fractionally to around 2 most of the time were Sears Roebuck, Bethlehem, American Smelting, Air Reduction, Union Carbide, Chrysler, International Harvester, Dupont, Consolidated Edison and Montgomery Ward.

Wheat closed 1 to 1¼ cents a bushel higher, recouping part of recent losses. Corn was down ½ to up ⅝. Cotton futures near the close were 38 to 40 cents a bale higher.

Army Prepares For Maneuvers

(By The Associated Press)

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Aug. 10 — (AP)—Two thousand cavalrymen — more than twice the number assembled in Theodore Roosevelt's Rough Riders in 1898 — were preparing today for their part in sham battles of the third army maneuvers over the rugged terrain of near-by Camp Bullis.

The maneuver, the second largest of five held in the South and Southwest, will engage 24,000 troops. It is a part of the regular training program instituted in connection with the four army plan adopted when the defense scheme of the United States was revised in 1932.

Moseley Is Commander

The third army, located in the South and Southwest, comprises regular army, national guard and organized reserve personnel.

Major General George Van Horn Moseley, commander of the Fourth Corps area at Atlanta, Georgia, is the third army commander, and Major General Herbert J. Brees, commander of the Eighth Corps area at Fort Sam Houston, is supervising the four maneuvers in this corps area.

In the San Antonio sham battles, which will be held starting Sunday over an area of 273 square miles, 9,800 regular army officers and men will be joined by 15,282 national guardsmen from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona, and 1,027 officers of the organized reserves.

Background Is Explained

At Fort Sam Houston and on the 20,000-acre Leon Springs military reservation, this army was encamped today. This week is being devoted principally to battalion exercises and drill.

Army officials explained the theoretical background of the present maneuver, which assumed the third army has been concentrated on the Pacific coast for the defense of that sector in the event of a landing of hostile forces. A successful naval action near Hawaii removed that threat, but a brown coalition, taking advantage of the absence of the American fleet from the Atlantic, presented an ultimatum involving South America that resulted in war.

Land On Texas Coast

Anticipating this outcome, the brown coalition brought over convoys loaded with troops and equipment, and succeeded in landing them on the Texas coast.

The third army was brought back from the Pacific coast in time to mobilize in the San Antonio area and meet the thrust of the brown invader, marching up from the coast. Here the imaginary situation ends and the real maneuver begins.

For the forthcoming battle, the troops will be divided into two approximately equal forces.

Each side will use the weapons and equipment which it would take to the front in the event of an actual invasion of Texas by a foreign foe.

Hamilton Speech

ers "mount Mr. Roosevelt on the Democratic ass in the role of a Don Quixote and call upon the people to offer hurrahs while this valiant warrior gallantly charges the windmill."

Hamilton said records of the last 80 years demonstrated "that the Republican party throughout its entire history consistently has been friendly to labor.

He called specific attention to anti-trust laws, prison-goods act, the anti-injunction act, high tariffs, restricted immigration, opposition to child labor, wage and hour measures, and an old age pension acts.

"It was only in states having a predominant Democratic leadership that such advancements were consistently opposed," Hamilton said.

Collapse Of Two-Party System Would Be Blow, Farley Opines

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. (AP)—Democratic Chairman James A. Farley says collapse of the two-party system would be a serious blow to the country.

"It would be a tragedy for Uncle Sam if either the Democratic or Republican party were to pass from the scene," he wrote in the issue of the American magazine released today. He added emphatically:

"We don't want three major parties in this country, and we certainly don't want any more than that."

Such a development, Farley asserted, would place the United States "at the mercy of every organized minority, every ambitious demagogue, every radio spellbinder and every political crackpot who should come along."

Nation's Farmers Are Receiving Less

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP)—The nation's farmers received 12 per cent less from sale of principal farm products during the first six months of this year than they did during the January-June period of 1937.

Including government benefit payments, farmers' receipts totaled $3,311,000,000 for the first half of this year compared with $3,829,000,000 for the same months a year ago, the bureau of agricultural economics reported today.

The bureau reported receipts from potatoes were less than half as large as for the first half of 1937, while income from wheat, cotton and cottonseed, truckcrops and citrus fruits were also much reduced. Income from meat animals, except hogs, was down and receipts from chickens, eggs and wool showed slight decline.

Receipts by states, including government benefit payments for the first six months of this year compared with January-June, 1937, include:

War's Hangover

derlying cause of the trouble.

The fight between Russia and Japan revolves about the hegemony of the Far East—a rivalry to determine which shall dominate that vast section of the globe with its splendid natural wealth and uncounted hundreds of millions of people.

The desire to rule here has burned in both breasts for long. It will continue to flame, whatever happens in the present instance, until the day that human nature changes.

The story really begin hundreds of years ago, when both Russia and Japan started reaching out towards the uncharcered regions for expansion and power. That was in the 16th century.

The Russian family of Strogonov, traders in a big way, were responsible for the conquest of Siberia. In 1579 with permission of the Czar they sent an expedition of 800 men into the Siberian wilds in command of the Outlaw Vassili. Under the magic of his sword grew a great new empire.

Less than a hundred years later the Russians had reached the golden valley of the Amur river. This skirts the northern boundary of present day Manchoukuo, Japanese controlled kingdom.

Japanese Were Driven Out

Meanwhile the Japanese grasped at Korea in 1592, sending a large invading army into this ancient nation. Chinese help appeared and the Japanese were driven out. A few years later the Manchus, who also had clashed with the Russians on the north, placed Korea under vassalage.

The Chino-Japanese war of 1894-5 established Korean independence. That war, by the way, ostensibly resulted from Japanese efforts to eliminate hostile Chinese influence in Korea. The Nipponese say that their present invasion of China is to remove anti-Japanese influences.

In 1903 the Japanese landed troops in Korea, charging that the Russians had attempted to occupy a strip of Korean territory containing rich timber lands. The Japanese never withdrew and ultimately annexed Korea.

This Korean incident came just before the Russo-Japanese war. At that time Russia was pressing hard to make herself all-powerful in the Far East. She kept edging forward and in 1900 seized the Chinese Amur province. Both Japan and Britain protested and the Muscovites promised to withdraw, a promise which was not kept.

Russia Refuses Pact

In 1903 Japan proposed a pact with Russia recognizing the interests of each in Korea and Manchuria (now Manchoukuo) but guaranteeing the integrity of both Korea and China. When Russia refused, the war was on, and has been showing signs of life ever since.

So far as concerns Changkufeng hill, which both countries claim, the Russians assert that it was awarded to them by China in the Hunchun treaty of 1886. The Japanese dispute the Russian rights.

Wherever the truth may lie, any excuse would do as well as Changkufeng hill for the prosecution of the old Russo-Japanese feud for supremacy.

Woman's Old Fashioned Excuse Gets Her Off; Judge Says Alibi Won't Be Good The Next Time

Learning to knit is a new excuse for overparking, Corporation Judge B. P. Milsap learned this morning. That was the excuse given him by a woman who was given a ticket for overparking in the 1200 block on Avenue J late yesterday.

"I was learning to knit," she explained when the judge asked her why she had spent 2 hours and 10 minutes in a meter space.

Milsap was so surprised he remitted the fine. "I'm a bit old fashioned," he explained, "and I think more women ought to learn to knit things."

P. S.—The next time that excuse is made it will probably bring a fine.

A. N. Casey Is Buried Today

Last rites for a Tuesday accident victim, Arthur N. Casey, 44, of 1941 Avenue P, were conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Rix Funeral chapel, with Rev. C. E. Hereford of the First Baptist church officiating.

Casey, salesman and collector for an oil company, died about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon of injuries suffered in an automobile accident about three miles east of Slide. The accident was believed to have happened about 3:30 o'clock that afternoon.

It was the second time in less than a month that an automobile mishap had taken the life of a member of the Casey family. A sister, Mrs. C. H. Martin, 57, of Slaton, died July 11 of injuries suffered in a crash 12 miles east of Lubbock.

Casey lived about five minutes after reaching a sanitarium here.

Although no person saw the accident, it was believed by investigators that he lost control of his machine at a crossroads between Woodrow and Slide. His automobile, a 1937 light coupe apparently overturned "two or three" times when the wheels were caught in loose dirt on a freshly-graded road. Relatives said he possibly was reaching into the back seat to get papers when the accident happened. They said one arm had been weakened about two months earlier when fractured and had not entirely healed.

Noise And Dust Stirred

An employe of Dryer Oil company eight years, he had gone to that area to see members of the Cooper Rural High school board of trustees, a co-worker said. He was riding by himself at the time of the accident.

He was rushed to the sanitarium here by E. F. Campbell and two brothers, S. A. and W. A. Hartman, relatives said, all of whom were farmers of near the scene of the accident. Several men working on farms in that area said they did not see the accident, but could only see a cloud of dust and the wrecked machine after their attention was attracted by the noise.

Death was attributed to head and chest injuries. A brother said he suffered a fractured skull. He was thrown clear of the wreckage.

Burial This Afternoon

Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery under direction of Rix Funeral home.

He will be given a military burial with members of the Allen Bros. post of the American legion and the Lubbock post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in charge. Casey was an active member of both organizations and spent 14 months in France in the World war.

Brother Of Fire Captain

He is survived by his wife; two sons, A. N. Casey, jr., 17, and Billy Casey, 16, both of Lubbock; two daughters, Mary Evelyn, 15, and Adell, 9, both of Lubbock; three sisters, Mrs. C. Martin of Slaton and Mrs. L. L. Drumheller and Miss Dora Casey, both of Whiteface; and three brothers, C. E. Casey and Guy Casey, both of Lubbock, and T. C. Casey of Abilene. Guy Casey is captain of the Nineteenth street fire station. A. N. Casey was a cousin of Cecil Casey, fire marshal and assistant fire chief.

E. S. Rickard and B. L. Patterson, officers of the Texas Highway patrol, investigated the accident.

Pallbearers were C. E. Lenning, P. H. Zeitz, Ray W. Amick, Robert J. Allen, H. F. Stubbs, and H. D. Woods.

College Avenue

tance southwest of the administration building to Nineteenth street. The college has paved the road to the intersection with a drive in front of the agriculture building and has placed caliche to the Nineteenth street entrance, but did not complete paving.

Expected To Use New Drive

Many automobiles which now go out of their way to reach the College avenue entrances are expected to use the new paved drive.

Many accidents have happened in recent years on the avenue, which ranks near to Broadway in amount of traffic. The avenue is a state and federal highway and besides attracting heavy through traffic, it is travelled by huge crowds en route to football games in the college stadium and to baseball games in Parris field a short distance from the avenue, by students and visitors of the college, and residents who travel it when en route to and from the business section from homes in the west part of the city.

There has been discussion of installation of two traffic lights, at Nineteenth and College and Broadway and College, through cooperative agreement whereby the state department would install the lights and the city would maintain them.

The unpaved center of the avenue extends from Nineteenth to Fourteenth street.

Citizens Group Plans Meeting Tonight; To Discuss Paving

Second of a series of meetings of property owners seeking the paving of Thirty-fourth street from Avenue H duc west to cross College avenue and intersect with the Brownfield highway is scheduled tonight in the office of Dr. R. B. Hutchinson in the Myrick building.

A similar topic was discussed at a meeting Tuesday night in an effort to work out an acceptable plan to secure approval of the project. Advocates contend that paving of the thoroughfare will complete a bypass which would take a considerable volume of through traffic off city streets.

Dr. Hutchinson was elected chairman of the group when a preliminary organization of property owners was formed several weeks ago to promote the project.

Security Week Is Proclaimed

AUSTIN, Aug. 10—Social Security Week in Texas, to be observed beginning August 14, was proclaimed this week by Governor James V. Allred.

The governor asked Texans to participate in local observances and "acquaint themselves with efforts of state and federal governments to bring about a greater measure of security for the individual."

"August 14 marks the third anniversary of the signing of th. Social Security Act", the proclamation read, "the most significant national legislation ever enacted for the general welfare of the American people.

"It is well for the people of Texas to reflect upon the events of the past three years which have brought about a greater measure of security for Texans than ever before.

"Old age assistance has brought aid to needy old people, unemployment compensation has proved a boon to jobless workers, and humanity has been served through the extension of child welfare, maternal and child health, crippled children, vocational rehabilitation and public health services.

Assistance Not Provided

"We should consider further the fact that Texas is one of a small number of states which have not provided assistance to their dependent children and needy blind.

"Because the social welfare of our people is a fundamental requirement to the material progress and economic development of our state, social security should interest every Texan to the extent that he familiarize himself with its every phase."

Examining the record of social security, Texans could find on the credit side:

A total of 750,000 workers covered by the State Unemployment compensation law and approximately $4,879,536 paid as benefits to temporarily unemployed workers since January 1.

More than $19,000,000 granted by the Federal government for the old-age assistance program since payments first began to be made in July, 1936. Currently, more than 111,000 needy persons past the age of 65 are receiving monthly assistance checks, which averaged $13.74 during May, a monthly total of $1,500,000.

More than 1,620,000 social security account cards assigned to Texas workers who by this means establish wage accounts and begin to build up credits in the federal old-age insurance program. Already, $151,485.54 has been paid in lump-sum benefits to 5,168 Texas workers who have reach age 65 or to estates of workers who have died before reaching that age.

Have Received Cash

Maternal and child welfare programs, in which the federal and state governments cooperate to aid the individual by making available services instead of cash, have received from the federal government, during the past three years, grants in the following amounts: child welfare, $135,307.29; maternal and child health, $347,193.42; crippled children, $321,792.52. For the public health program in Texas, total grants of $780,644.20 had been received. Also 2,547 physically disabled persons were being trained and placed in gainful employment under the program of vocational rehabilitation. Much of this assistance went to or benefitted residents of rural areas of the state.

On the debit side, Texas had failed to provide funds for assisting the state's needy blind and probably more than 50,000 dependent children, although an amendment to the constitution for this purpose was adopted by the people in August, 1937, by a generous majority. Only eight other states do not have programs of aid to dependent children and the needy blind.

Mexico's New Tax In Effect

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 10—Mexico's 12 per cent export tax was in effect today with provisions virtually empowering the treasury to make concessions to industries which it believes cannot bear the increase.

The tax is to be based on the "appraised value" of exports which have current prices higher in pesos than they had in February. The law sets up a commission to decide which exports are taxable.

These provisions are tantamount to empowering the treasury to alleviate the effect of the increase on certain industries.

The mining industry, for instance, has stated that it cannot bear the 12 per cent increase because most of its costs are based on the United States dollar.

Tight Guy, Average American; Has Only Dime Less In His Pocket Than Month Ago

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 (AP)— The average American had a dime less in his pockets on July 31 than a month earlier.

The treasury said the July 31 total of coin and currency in circulation was $6,451,875,132 or an average of $49.57 per person. A month ago the average was $49.67 and a year ago $49.95.

Still Picking All-Stars

By Collier Parris

BASEBALL AND WRESTLING tonight, at different places but approximately the same time.

The Lubbocks and the Winks play ball at the ball park, starting at 8:45.

Wink, in fourth place, will be scrapping hard to stay there for the balance of the season, and a shot at the Shaughnessy play-off money. No team in the circuit can be taken lightly from now on. Each has more than a mathematical chance of finishing in the money.

At Sled Allen's Auditorium, Gus Johnson, the mighty Swede, tangles with Louisiana Jack Hagen in the main struggle. A promising supporting card goes on at 8:30 o'clock.

A COUPLE OF official looking documents from Czar Bramham's office of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues come to this desk by post.

One requests that we fill out an accompanying blank with names of ball players whom we consider best in their positions — an all-league team, as it were. This we have done, and forwarded same to Judge Bramham's office, where the official all-West Texas-New Mexico league team will be nominated.

We had planned all along to interview club managers, official scorers and sports writers of the district and present the results as the official all-league team. We still plan to do this, and will present our findings at an early date.

In the meantime, we might as well stick our neck out and start qualifying for The Plainsman's Bonehead Club by giving our own interpretation of the all-league team. The same has been done by several persons, one of whom, Hank Hart of Big Spring, published his views.

A first and second team were selected, along with managers and utility men, right and left-handed pitchers for both teams.

Our all-star team is based on observance of players, batting and fielding averages, personality and hustle.

THE SECOND communication from the Bramham office is in the form of a letter addressed to all league presidents, club presidents, business managers and secretaries:

"Gentlemen,

"My attention is directed to a young man going around ball parks, claiming to know every player in the country and getting upon friendly terms with players, managers and office employees. After staying around the park for two or three days, he manages to get someone to have enough confidence in him to cash a check. They are, of course, no good.

"This young man is described as short, dark complexioned, weighing around 150 pounds. He gives his name as Jack Weller, or Whaler, and claims to be coach of some college.

"Club managers will please warn their players and report this man's activities to the local police if he appears in your vicinity.

"Very truly yours,

"W. G. Bramham."

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Joe Louis has been eating too much fried chicken . . . Cochrane to Brooklyn? Stranger things have happened, particularly in Brooklyn . . . You almost have to string along with Henry Armstrong tonight, but there may be a terrific surprise. . . . Henry can't win forever and this may be the night he gets his lumps . . . Comedian Al Jolson, who retains a rooting interest in Armstrong, has bet $1,100 to $1,000 the brown boy wins by a kayo. . . . What, a tennis scandal coming up?

Bill Henry, sports editor of the Los Angeles Times, will back his wife and pretty daughter, Pat, against any mother and daughter tennis team in the country. . . . Yesterday's game with the Cubs sent the Reds over the 450,000 attendance mark for the home games and wins good old Bill McKenzie a $5,000 bonus. . . . Here's a tip: Babe Ganzel, now doing a swell job at St. Paul, will be maanging in the majors within three years. . . .

Gunnar Barlund gets in from Finland tomorrow and probably will slug it out with Tommy Farr in September. . . . Max Baer and Galento will clash later, then the two winners, with Louis getting the survivor next June. . . . Pepper Martin hopes to take his Cardinal string band on tour this fall with Buddy Hassett and Al Schacht as extra added attractions. . . . Al gets into New York today for a one-day vacation. . . . Jimmy Braddock will continue his career as a referee with Timmins, Ont., as the next stop.

Hype Igoe, veteran boxing writer, has been moved to a hospital with typhoid fever and his friends are worried. . . . How about Tony Baril, 50 years old, hurling a no-hitter in a semi-pro game at Galveston. . . . The Boston Bees will have him in two weeks. . . . Prof. Paul Mickelson has gone to Wichita to mingle with the semi-pro baseballers and make a speech, and if the old boy is feeling up to snuff, the baseballers will get an earfull or two. . . . Asked who was going to play first base on his soft ball team, Joe Louis said: "The All American out—Joe Louis."

Beaumont Hustling In Texas League

(By The Associated Press)

The Texas league campaign has more than a month to run but few fans or critics have the idea the hustling Beaumont Exporters won't be in the four-team play-off when the regular schedule has been finished.

Yesterday they made it two to one against the second-place San Antonio Missions by taking the odd game of the series, 3-1, and going five games ahead of the scrapping padres. The two teams moved to San Antonio today, their last series of the season.

Dizzy Trout gave San Antonio 11 hits and his mates got only six but Beaumont managed to bunch them so as to score three times as much as the Missions.

Max Thomas of the Tulsa Oilers was hanging up his 19th victory of the season by taming the Fort Worth Cats.

The Shreveport Sports started out like lambs and finished like lions in beating Houston, 6-5. The Sports trailed by three runs until the final inning when Pitcher John Grodnicki of the Buffs walked three batters and this sandwiched in with the Shreveport hits did the job.

Dallas and Oklahoma City were idle.

Patty Berg Is Seven Strokes Ahead In Women's Western

CHICAGO, Aug. 10. (AP)—It was Patty Berg of Minneapolis by seven "lengths" as the field in the Women's Western golf derby headed into the final 36 holes today.

The chunky, freckle-faced Minnesota star, with a 36-hole total of 151 strokes, was seven shots ahead of her closest rival, Ellamae Williams of Chicago, at the halfway mark of the longest medal play tournament sanctioned for women in this country. Ten strokes off the blistering pace was Miss Marion Miley of Lexington, Ky., who for the last three years won the event while Miss Berg finished in second place.

The Minneapolis star carded a 37-41—78 yesterday, a two under par performance.

WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

HOUSTON, Aug. 10. (AP) — Billy Deeg of San Antonio today held the Texas welterweight boxing championship.

The 146-pound fighter last night gained the unanimous decision of the judges and referee after a sizzling scrap with Kenny LaSalle, 146-pound Houston battler who had previously been designated as the champion.

Almost two-thirds of women office workers are between the ages of 20 and 30.

Third Title Is Goal Of Little Negro Tonight

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—The improbable Henry Armstrong, an intelligent little negro with spindly legs and a fantastic amount of stamina, will be shooting at fistic immortality when he meets Lou Ambers, the lightweight king, in a 15-round title fight tonight at the Polo grounds.

If he beats Ambers as he is favored to do, Armstrong will hold the featherweight, lightweight and welterweight championships. He will, presumably, have proved himself the greatest fighting man in the world between the 118 pound bantamweight limit and 147 pounds, where the middleweights begin.

FIGHT FACTS AND FIGURES
(By The Associated Press)

Principals—Lou Ambers, Herkimer, N. Y., world lightweight champion, vs. Henry Armstrong, Los Angeles, world featherweight and welterweight champion.
Title at stake — lightweight championship.
Length of bout—15 rounds.
Place—Polo grounds, New York.
Time—First bout 6 p. m. (central standard) main bout 8 p. m. (broadcast WJZ-NBC).
Postponement date—tomorrow.
Probable weights — Ambers 135 pounds, Armstrong 134.
Probable attendance — 15,000.
Probable receipts — $75,000.
Revision of purse — Ambers to receive 37 1-2 per cent, Armstrong 22 1-2 per cent of receipts.

Never Approached Before

That is a span of 29 pounds, right out of the heart of boxing. No fighter, black or white, has approached such a record before. Every time Henry pumps his tireless arms tonight he will be aiming at a target previously thought beyond any man's reach.

Offhand, the human threshing-machine would appear to have assured tonight's victory when he gave Barney Ross, the aging welterweight champ a fearful beating last May. That made Henry champion of bigger men than Ambers, according to the books. But Ambers has been stubborn, and Henry has to prove it.

Ambers Is Clever

As a matter of fact, he figures to have a lot more trouble with Ambers than he had with Ross. Ambers, though colorless, is a clever little man with a fighting heart and good legs. All he needs to make him a great champion is a punch.

Armstrong will find Lou harder to tire and to hit solidly than was Ross. Even Henry's backers concede it might take him 10 rounds to get Ambers "set up."

Ambers is counting on his peculiar style to baffle his ever-charging adversary. The only difficulty about that is that you can fool Henry some of the time, but not for long at a stretch. Fighting him is like trying to repel a swarm of bees—they keep on coming.

Ambers, too, is good at sewing up a man in the clinches. He made Pedro Montanez, a powerful right-hand puncher, look silly for 15 rounds last fall. Here again he will find Armstrong a problem, because it's next to impossible to clinch with the negro. In close he just keeps on jerking his head about, heaving with his shoulders and socking with his fists.

Ross, incidentally, has picked Armstrong to win.

The near unanimity of opinion on the outcome couldn't help hurting the gate. Tickets have been going slowly, with few out-of-town buyers, and unless there is a last-minute rush, the receipts might not top $75,000. Considering Armstrong's record and the goal he is shooting at, that is small money. Even with the two belts he holds, he will again be taking the short end of the purse tonight. Henry has done about everything except make big money.

Sunday Is Final Day For Club Championship Qualifying Play

Sunday is final date for members of Lubbock Country club to qualify for the annual club championship, Professional Charles Akey said this morning.

Qualifying now is in progress. All members are eligible to compete and are urged to start the medal round immediately.

The tournament will proceed through next week with finals carded Aug. 21. First round will be played Monday and Tuesday, with each round until the finals requiring two days.

BUSSEY WINS CONTEST

An average of 260 yards for three drives gave Clinton Bussey first place in the regular weekly driving contest at the Tee Box range Tuesday night.

M. R. Tripp, with a 258-yard average, was second and Ty Bain was third with an average of 254 yards.

Regular weekly "ladies' night" contest will be held Thursday night.

WHITE ARRIVES

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10 (AP) —Byron (Whizzer) White, the Colorado university backfield star who accepted an offer of $15,000 to play one season of professional football with the Pittsburgh Pirates, arrived last night by airplane to join the team.

CCC Softballers Are Victors In Playoff; To Meet Oilers

Second-half title of the American league was copped by the CCC camp softball team Tuesday with a 6-4 victory over Wilson Cleaners in the deciding game of the series.

Each team previously had won one game and another, played Monday, had been halted by darkness with the score deadlocked at two-all. The winners play the T. and P. Oilers, victors in the National league, for the right to meet Lubbock Poultry and Egg, first-half winners of the combined league, for the city title.

Martin and Hines clouted homers Tuesday afternoon to lead the CCC's to victory.

LOOKS LIKE PITTSBURGH

WALSENBURGH, Colo., Aug. 10 (AP)—Ford Frick, president of the National league, told reporters here today it looks as though Pittsburgh "has the stuff" in the senior loop's pennant chase.

Frick and his wife are here to visit Mrs. Frick's parents.

Gramly To Oppose Ferguson In Second Game Of Series With Wink; Win Tuesday 13 To 6

Second game of the current series lifts anchor at 8:45 o'clock tonight at the local park as Marvin Gramly is due to oppose Molly Ferguson, Wink's most logical choice.

A pair of home runs by Mal Stevens and another by Joe Gedzius plus nine other safeties set the locals off to a lead in the series Tuesday night. Score was 13-6.

Game Is Sluggish

Before a half-sized crowd, the clubs last night played a somewhat sluggish game, committing several fumbles and keeping their color to themselves. First three and last three innings, however, were well worth watching. The heavy damage was done in the middle frames.

Red Hay started for Wink, was bumped in the third when Stevens connected for his second straight hit and first home run. He had given up six runs and as many bingles, including a triple by Johnny Taylor and a sizzling single by Hack Miller in the third. He had walked Gedzius.

Couple of Wink errors started a disastrous fifth which saw the Hubbers cross the plate six times. Bingles by Mosel and Melito and Gedzius' booming home run did heaviest damage. Stevens got his second homer in the sixth for Lubbock's final tally.

Blanchard Doesn't Return

Johnny Stone hit a homer off Big Bill Terry, hurling for Lubbock, in the fifth inning, with nobody aboard. Three hits in a row, two of them doubles by Jodie Tate, veteran manager of the Spudders who took his place behind the bat last night, and Jubela, playing first, gave the visitors a pair of runs before Tery got the side out.

Business Manager Harry Faulkner of the Hubbers returned home from a Dallas trip late yesterday, but without Lefty Jerry Blanchard, whom he had hoped to bring home Faulkner said, however, that Blanchard might be moseying in almost any day, that he was not being used by the Indians, who own him, and that Manager Jim Keesey was in favor of letting the big young chunker work here rather than waste his time on the bench.

Thursday night will be "men's night" at the ball park, all males being admitted free, with or without "escorts," while the women folks will be expected to pay the usual 40 cents.

Frank Jacot held Hobbs to seven bingles, while his mates clouted Rusty Needham and Tony Bonk for 11 hits, to give Big Spring a 10-to-0 win. Homers by Dick Ratliff, Red Wyss, and Boyce provided the necessary margin as Clovis prevailed over Midland in an eleven-inning affray, 9 to 8.

Duncan, Okla., Cementers Pace Field In Houston Post Play

HOUSTON, Aug. 10. (AP)—The champion Duncan, Okla., Cementers paced the field today as the annual Houston Post semi-pro baseball tournament prepared for the second round.

The Cementers defeated the Cameron Iron Workers, 5-2, last night as the Alvin Indians, recent winners of the Texas semi-pro championship at Waco, lost their opening engagement to the El Campo Texaco Oilers, 10-2.

Austin 7-up, Waco Dons, Baytown, Balshaw Grocers, Conroe and the Norvell Insurors were other undefeated teams at the end of the first round. Play will be resumed Saturday. The tournament continues until Aug. 23.

Randolph Field, Grand Prize of Houston, American Iron, Easter States, McDavid Realty and Nacogdoches were other teams in the defeated class.

Liquor-infused ice cream, as well as liquored candy is forbidden in New Jersey, to safeguard children.

Gust Johnson Battles Hagen Again Tonight

The turrible Swede, Gust Johnson, holds the top spot again this week in the regular mat mayhem melee by virtue of his defeat of one Andrew Tremaine last Wednesday night.

Just as turrible and maybe more turrible, Jack Hagen will be Johnson's adversary. Hagen, you will remember—if you've visited the grappling show during the past few weeks, is the lad who mauls his way to victory.

He uses much of that might that football developed to wear his opponent down to the necessary size then does his pinning act.

Sheik Faces Andy

Well, they'll be at it tonight.

Sheik Mar Allah and Tremaine do chores in the semi-final event. The Sheik is no pantywaste himself and goes at the mat game with fervor.

Young Andrew is not one to take too many insults from brothers of the cauliflower clan and likely will be ready to do some dishing, too.

Don Hill meets Carl von Bromberg in the curtain raiser.

Hambletonian Will Be Run Off Today

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 9. (AP)—If you can lean on a white-washed fence and thrill to the sight of the nation's greatest trotters scoring through the stretch, stroll through stables and enjoy fondling a horse, or smile after threading through sweltering throngs and standing in long queues for a ham sandwich—then you belong in Goshen today for the Hambletonian.

Ten handpicked three-year old trotters, survivors of 259 named as yearlings, have been selected to match strides in the 13th running of the Kentucky derby of light harness racing. The major share of a purse of $37,962, (amounting to $19,944.30) is the magnet that'll draw the equine stars to the post at 1 p. m. (Central Standard Time) for the first of the best two-out-of-three heats.

Weatherman Is Playing On Side Of Marshall In East Texas

(By The Associated Press)

Even the weather man is playing on the side of the Marshall Tigers in the East Texas league race.

Last night he washed out three games, among them the Marshall-Henderson clash, while second place Texarkana was taking a 11-1 licking from Kilgore. It added a half game to Marshall's lead.

Kilgore won its twelfth victory in fourteen starts behind Van Randolph who pitched five-hit ball.

Jacksonville at Tyler and Longview at Palestine were the other games rained out.

Management Of Tigers Reveals Cochrane's Pay For 3 Years

DETROIT, Aug. 10. (AP)—The management of the Detroit Tigers has broken a precedent of 38 years standing, the time the club has been in the American league, by publicly announcing the salary it had paid one of its employes.

Issued without comment by Walter O. Briggs, jr., treasurer and son of Owner Walter O. Briggs, a statement disclosed Gordon Stanley (Mickey) Cochrane, deposed manager, had earned $126,000 in the last three years.

Total Of 321 Thoroughbreds Entered In 49th Preakness

BALTIMORE, Aug. 10. (AP)—Three hundred and twenty-one of this year's 2-year-old thoroughbreds—many yet untried, others that have known the feel of a horseshoe of victory wreath—were nominated for the next spring's 49th running of the Preakness, Maryland's greatest and richest race, Pimlico officials announced today.

The prosaic announcement that it was a record number of nominations—there were only 173 for the 1938 classic—put down in black and white another step toward the $100,000 "dream race" they talk of at the Maryland jockey club, operator of Pimlico.

Club officials predicted fees owners must pay before next spring, plus the club's $50,000 added money, will bring the Preakness' gaudy total to $85,000 next year.

Thirty-Eight-Year-Old 'Rookie' Is Victor In His First Start For Red Sox; Comes In Handily

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The youth-must-be-served idea in baseball is a good one as far as it goes, but occasionally an old guy comes along with all the answers needed to decide the pennant question.

Right now it's 38-year-old Bill Harris, just up from Buffalo, who may put the Boston Red Sox back into the middle of the American league scrap.

Wins First Start

Harris, acquired last week to help out the younger Boston hurlers, limited the Athletics to ten hits, fanned five and came up with a 16-4 victory in his first start yesterday. The Sox batted out all their runs in the last three innings as Rookie Jim Tabor socked a homer with the corners crammed in the big seventh.

The veteran right hander had a trial with Cincinnati in 1923, and was a 30-year-old "rookie" when he came up to Pittsburgh in 1931. He served mostly as a "finisher" there, and earned his nickname of "hard Luck" Harris when he managed to win more games than he lost only one season in four.

Came In Good Spot

Yesterday's victory came in a good spot, for the league-leading New York Yankees took a 4-2 setback from Washington when Ken Chase set them down with six hits and drove in the winning run himself in the ninth inning. Cleveland's second place Indians split a double-header with the Browns losing the first game, 4-3 when Howard Mills outlasted Bob Feller, then winning the second 8-1 on a five-run inning marked by Bruce Campbell's four bagger.

Those results put Boston 6 1-2 games behind New York and 1 1-2 behind Cleveland.

Cubs Whip Reds

In the National league, the Chicago Cubs made the best gain when they whipped Cincinnati 3-0 in a mound duel between Larry French and Paul Derringer, and broke a tie for third place.

Pittsburgh's league leaders downed the St. Louis Cardinals 1-0. Big Russ Bauers hurled a two-hit game, facing only 31 batters, and won it himself in the third when he singled and progressed home on Lee Handley's double and Lloyd Waner's base hit. The second-place New York Giants snapped their losing streak to beat Boston 5-4 with a three-run seventh and some nice relief flinging by Dick Coffman.

The Detroit Tigers, held to four hits by Jack Knott, beat the Chicago White Sox 4-1 when Rudy York belted his 23rd homer with two mates on deck. The Brooklyn Dodgers hammered out a 9-6 decision over the Phillies.

Travis Is Seen As Bat Leader

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. — Everybody's talking about Jimmy Foxx and Earl Averill as candidates for the American league batting honors for 1938, but what about quiet Cecil Travis?

Clark Griffith, bushy-browed, bombastic president of the Washington Senators, believes his gawky Georgia shortstop can turn the trick this season.

"Look where he is today," said Griffith. "He's seven points ahead of Averill and just one point behind Foxx, who is leading the league. Travis is hitting .349, which is quite a bit of hitting."

Never Under .300

Travis never has batted less than .300 in any league, and that includes four years in the majors.

Griffith well remembers the day young Travis, then 20 years old, broke into the Washington lineup. There was a lot of laughter as the knock-kneed country boy timidly approached the plate.

He hit the ball to left field for a single. A left-hander isn't supposed to hit to left field, but to right field.

"Handle hit," the skeptics muttered.

The second time up, Travis hit another single to left field.

"Luck," scoffed the doubters.

But they changed their tune when Travis socked five straight singles to left field.

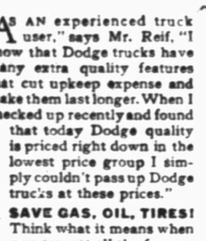

If Travis has any fault as a ball player, it is that he's too retiring. He is such a personification of the bashful bumpkin, that Griffith once offered him a bonus if he would get into a fight. But it didn't work. Travis just kept on in his quiet way, hitting .300-plus.

Battle Over Group Health Plan Indicates Medical Changes Pending

High Standards Said At Stake

BY PRESTON GROVER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 — If you were a government clerk in Washington with an income of $2,000 a year, a sore appendix, a wife with an oncoming baby, and no rich uncle, probably you would join the Group Health Association if it promised to take care of your medical needs for $2.20 a month. $3.30 including family.

That situation in a nutshell, is what started the controversy between Washington's Group Health Association and the American Medical Association, a controversy which now is on the way toward a history-making anti-trust battle.

Was Voluntary Group

Group Health, counseled by the Twentieth Century fund, an endowed research organization, offered its members hospitalization and full medical and surgical care for this small monthly sum. It was altogether a voluntary organization but in a few months, 2,500 federal employes had joined. These, with their families, amounted to 6,000 potential patients.

The District (of Columbia) Medical Society, an AMA affiliate, promptly attacked the plan as leading toward the compulsory medical insurance systems in vogue in Germany and elsewhere in Europe. Such systems they denounced as undermining high standards of medical practice and likely to break down the close relationship of the physician and his patient.

Besides, here was a group with steady earnings snatched right out of the teeth of "regular" physicians, leaving them still with the burden of caring for the indigent without the sustaining aid of bill-paying patients.

Enter The Government

The Medical Society took steps. It threatened expulsion of the dozen or so physicians employed in the group health clinic here. Expulsion is truly serious for a physician. Further, the hospitals, following the pattern of the physicians practicing in them, declined to permit Group Health physicians to operate in them.

That was a sore handicap. To fulfill its obligations, Group Health had to call on "outside" physicians at regular fees for needed surgery for their members since G-H physicians could not have access to the hospitals.

In steps Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general in charge of anti-trust prosecutions. In a public statement he charges the Medical Society action constitutes violation of the anti-trust laws by depriving certain physicians of a right to practice their profession.

Nonsense, replies American Medical Association. Can't the AMA decide who will be members, and can't hospitals decide who may have access to them?

Changes On Way

What menace do "regular" physicians see in Group Health?

1.—They say such low fees can't supuport full medical coverage. It will necessitate ultimate government subsidy. Malingering patients will take advantage. In Germany, for instance, they say workers are "sick" twice as often and twice as long as in America because it is nice to loaf in a hospital.

2—Federal intervention means political control of medicine, a glary-eyed bugaboo to the medical profession.

What do Group-Healthers reply?

1—They are "delivering the goods" by providing the medical care promised—as far as the hospital restrictions will permit. By assuring ready access to "preventive" medicine, they hope to reduce the total illnesses. Clinical practice reduces lost time on the part of physicians, so makes them more efficient, permits them to handle more patients, at resulting lower costs. They seem to agree that perhaps present fees are low.

2.—Group-Healthers, and many high ranking "regular" physicians are not panicked by federal intervention.

What's coming of it?

The District Medical Society points to steps taken here before the advent of Group Health, by which they sought to extend medical aid to the low paid. Admittedly they have become more active in that direction since.

Both in and out of Group Health it is freely admitted that radical changes in medical practice are on the way.

It Seems Ginger Can Draw Something Besides Crowds

Ginger Rogers, who has been doing all right in the movies with her pretty face and figure and her dancing and acting, is also something of an artist along other lines. Recently she has been experimenting with various mediums in an attempt to find the one which best suits her particular talents—and above are shown two samples of her work. Left, a self-portrait done in crayon, and, right, a water color of Actress Katharine Hepburn. Miss Rogers is also trying her hand at sculpture. As soon as she decides which medium she prefers, she will hire a teacher.

Production Of Crude Remains Stationary

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 10. (AP)—Production of crude oil in the United States remained nearly stationary during the week ending Aug. 6, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

Daily average production for the week was 3,314,501 barrels, a decline of 1,389 barrels daily from the week before.

Oklahoma showed an increase of 275 barrels daily to 422,900. East Texas had an increase of 515 barrels daily to 440,100 and the total state of Texas declined 357 barrels daily to 1,391,793.

Louisiana registered a drop of 7,705 barrels daily to 261,720. California had a jump of 900 barrels daily to 651,150 and Kansas showed a decrease of 2,250 daily to 151,725.

Eastern states including Illinois and Michigan had an increase of 8,099 barrels daily to 205,663 and production in the Rocky Mountain west dropped 1,620 barrels daily to 39,600.

No. 4 Wheat May Be Eligible Under Loan Program Soon

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (AP)—Officials said today the Commodity Credit corporation may announce soon a revision in its wheat loan program which would make some number four winter wheat eligible for loans.

The announcement, they said, probably will extend the loan provisions to number four which meets the grade qualifications of types to which loans now apply, but does not meet the weight requirement.

New Orleans Seeks Municipal Terminal

FORT WORTH, Aug. 10. (AP) — A $14,800,000 application for the first large municipally owned union railroad terminal in the nation was filed today with the Public Works administration region office here by the city of New Orleans.

The Louisiana application, said C. C. Barnard, engineer in charge of the terminal at New Orleans, represents 60 years of effort on the part of the city to obtain a union station.

The proposed terminal would serve 10 railroads, all of the lines entering New Orleans.

That Girl on Broadway says if you're giving all your time and thought to gain, it's pretty certain that you're not doing much good.

* * *

Strikes and labor disorders are bad enough, but the tough time in this country is coming when the employers get fed up and do a "sit-down!"

J. B. HUTTO, of Lubbock, yesterday showed The Plainsman a letter, yellowed with age and with its ink faded so badly that it cannot be read.

He had run across it in the possessions of his late wife, who passed away last February. Members of the family were able to ascertain that the letter was one written by Mrs. Hutto's father, when he was a soldier in the Civil war, to his wife and children at home. Otherwise, however, little can be made out from the letter because the passing of the years has so dimmed the script and yellowed the paper that reading is impossible.

Does anyone know how the letter might be treated, chemically or otherwise, that it might be read?

If so, The Plainsman would be glad to pass the information on to Mr. Hutto.

The writer did the only thing he knew of when approached by Mr. Hutto.

We suggested he see Dr. Bob Goodwin, the chemistry expert and dean of the graduate school out at Texas Tech.

If Bob can't do the job chemically, maybe some reader can suggest some other way of making this old letter legible.

* * *

An expert on bringing up families, writing in the Scripps-Howad papers, points out that a happy home depends upon calm on the part of the parents.

That is doubtless true, especially when children are in formative stages.

The writer could have gone further, however, and said in all truth that happy life depends upon the individual's being able to control his nerves, to relax and to philosophically "take things as they come."

Nervous disorders, all too frequent in this hurly-burly age, are not generally considered serious ailments but, as a matter of fact, they can do as much as any form of illness in making their victims thoroughly unhappy and uncomfortable.

* * *

THE other day in some magazine or other, The Plainsman ran across an article by some self-appointed "high-brow" and giving "swing" music a "down-the-river fit."

The article started with the birth of so-called "jazz" music and sketched the connection—if any—of the new "swing" with the old "jazz."

It wound up by condemning all sorts of popular music and by criticizing everybody who likes any sort of musical concoction other than that which is called "classical."

* * *

No musician, yet never-the-less an addict of sprightly melodies, The Plainsman grows powerful weary every time some long-haired intellectual bobs up shouting about "good music."

Just what is "good music" anyway?

Does music have to be totally without tune or rhythm to be "good music?"

You'd think so, to hear some of the critics of popular music talk.

IF an automobile is generally considered to be a "good automobile," it is purchased by a lot of people. It's popularity is mirrored in its sales.

Same thing is true of a refrigerator, a radio, a newspaper, a brand of beer, shoes, suits, or what-have-you.

Isn't it logical, then, to say that "good music" is the kind of music which pleases the most people?

That's the way it looks to us.

Every time the great mass of our people shows interest in some form of amusement, the air becomes blue with the howls of a few dissenters who, representing the so-called "intelligentsia," point out that the public is too dumb to know what it wants and is utterly lacking in the taste it displays.

"Nuts!" say we.

THE Plainsman is in favor of people having what they want, and liking what they please, so long as their desires do not hurt anyone else.

If the majority of the people want "swing" music and like "swing" music, then hooray for "swing" music.

Those who don't like it don't have to listen to it.

They can get 'em some records of "high-brow" stuff, without a sign of rhythm or tune, and play them on phonographs to their hearts' content.

As for us, we'll take something with a tune to it—something with melody.

But unlike the "high-brows," we won't object to their enjoying their own choice—as long as we don't have to listen to it!

CAST OF CHARACTERS

NIKKI JEROME, heroine; blond, popular, is engaged to six-foot, black-haired

STEVE MALLORY, hero; who is accompanying her on a trip to Nikki's aunt and uncle on a Wyoming dude ranch. Nikki's father, PETER JEROME, is a wealthy New York jewel merchant.

Yesterday: Nikki and her uncle and Steve are to take a mountain trip and Sarto, Bancroft and Fiske decide to go too!

CHAPTER VII

They took the trail just as the sun broke in dawn and sent its first warming rays into the mists that formed a soft, white cloak over the hills toward which they rode in pairs, conversing and adjusting their bodies to the gaits of the fast-walking animals.

Nikki rode with Steve and realized, in the grandeur of the breaking dawn, that she loved this man very much and that she was being distinctly unfair to him. Anything final test of personality is to search for your wife's lost glove under the feet of movie patrons—and not get slapped!

SOMEWHAT paraphrasing "Alice In Wonderland," it occurs to The Plainsman that in addition to speaking of ships and shoes and sealing wax, and cabbages and kings, the time also has come to speak of the Lubbock Baseball club of the West Texas New Mexico league.

We have studiously refrained from saying much about our ball club this year, largely because we felt that in his exuberance over having baseball, Sports Editor John Collier Parris was saying plenty and it is known by all and sundry that about the best way to hurt somebody, or some organization, is to say too much about him or it in the public prints.

However, this column has come to the point where it either must say something about the club, or depart from its set policy of always—when cognizant of the facts—giving "flowers to the living."

It's getting along toward the tag end of the baseball season, hence this is the proper time to call to the public's attention the fact that the Chicago White Sox, owners and operators of the Lubbock club, have done everything they said they would—and then some—at the start of the season.

They have given Lubbock a good baseball team for the class of baseball the new league has been able to produce. It's the best in the circuit.

They haven't asked anybody for a thin dime to get the club started or to keep the club going.

They have had, in General Manager Harry Faulkner, a high class gentleman in charge of the project there.

And in Manager Hack Miller they have a colorful, always-trying head of the playing end.

THE West Texas New Mexico league is in its second year, Lubbock's club is in its first year.

Yet already it has established itself in the hearts of baseball lovers in this part of the country and already plans are being made for a better and stronger league next year.

The games have been worth the money and the more than 30,000 paid admissions in Lubbock thus far bear witness that there is a demand for baseball here.

This column believes the league as a whole, and the Lubbock part of it in particular, have been well worth the effort.

Not only have the White Sox ownership and the local management refrained from "chiseling" on Lubbock business men—which is so frequently the case in minor league ball—but the organization has gone out of its way to be a part and parcel of this community.

Convention visitors from time to time have been granted free admission to the ball games.

Ladies and children have frequently had their "special nights," at no cost.

Now on this Thursday night, the club is doing something that The Plainsman has never heard of before—it is having a "men's night," and for that game every man who can be jammed into the park will be admitted free.

The generous management is doing that to express its appreciation of Lubbock's support this season and as a token of good will from the club to the fans.

THE PLAINSMAN hopes the West Texas-New Mexico league—strengthened and made an eight-club affair as soon as possible—will long be an institution in our wide open spaces.

We salute the White Sox from Louis Comiskey, of Chicago, Bob Tarleton, of Dallas, Harry Faulkner and Hack Miller, of Lubbock, on down to the bat-boy for their efforts and their methods of operation.

No city ever mothered a ball club which has tried any harder to please and certainly no city has ever been any better treated than the White Sox organization has treated Lubbock.

The whole citizenship should—and doubtless does—join in praise for the baseball company.

It certainly has more than lived up to its pre-season agreements.

CRITICISM OF NAVAL SEARCHES

Truth of the natural law that a swing to one extreme inevitably must be followed by a back-swing to the other seldom has been more strikingly demonstrated than following the recent disappearance somewhere in the Pacific of one of the giant Clipper planes.

When disappearance of the ship was reported with 15 persons aboard, the navy took the lead in the search just as it should have done, determining to continue the hunt either until the plane was found or until hope was abandoned. Any other action by the navy would have been incredible nor would it have been tolerated by humane public opinion. The navy was hunting for a ship of an established and very valuable line of communication. It was looking for six members of the crew who automatically would have taken their places in the first line of defense in time of national emergency.

Yet there has been criticism because the navy incurred the admittedly large expense of conducting the search. True, the criticism has not been loud and it has been confined to a very few. But it has been there just the same.

The reason for it? Nothing except the headline hunting pilots who have attempted the spectacular in the hope of personal gain.

Fortunately a fairly effective curb has been placed upon flight attempts of that type. But the recent tragic experience demonstrates that the harm they have done still continues.

might happen on this trip, she thought, and decided to stell Steve about Bancroft and the money at the first opportunity. In the meantime she rode beside him in silence and told him with her eyes that she loved him greatly.

Long before they stopped to eat the sandwiches that had been prepared and to boil coffee over a tiny fire, the trail started upward and became more and more rocky. Once they crossed a dry river bed that was a tremendous trail of boulders walled in on either side by cliffs along which the seams and formations traced irregular patterns.

Their pause for lunch was brief for Uncle Jim wanted to reach the cabin before dark and the worst of the trail lay yet ahead. As they started out again he arranged them in single file and warned each rider against trying to pass another or of getting too close on the trail.

Rance led the way, followed by Nikki, Uncle Jim, Fiske, Sarto, Steve, Bancroft, and Woody, who brought up the rear to keep any of the little party from straggling too far back.

The trip appeared to be a hardship for Sarto alone. He was distinctly not an outdoor man and nature to him meant taking a taxi through Central Park — when it was the shortest route to his destination. He clung to his saddle as the trail narrowed and hunched disconsolately in his seat, scowling silently. The pack trip was obviously not of his choosing.

The trail wound along the side of a cliff, tortuous and rocky. On the inside rose the sheer walls of stone, washed clean by centuries of mountain storms, marked with the oddly colored lines of capricious reds and blacks against the brown. On the other side, along most of the slender path, the mountain sloped off steeply but not dangerously. A daring horseman could have ridden down the side had he chosen. It was dotted with clumps of low-growing bushes and trees that clustered courageously in the soil around the boulders.

But in spots the violent torrents of the spring thaws had burst over the trail and rushed down the mountain side in foaming white cascades, stripping the slope of its bushes, stunted trees, and boulders, transforming the decline into a sudden, breath-taking drop that might be 50 or might be 200 feet straight down before the break ended in a rough bed of granite.

They had been on that upward trail several hours when it happened. Nikki was watching her horse stepping carefully at the heels of Rance's mount. Behind her Uncle Jim hummed a monotonous little song and paid small attention to a trail that was long familiar to him.

Behind her uncle came Fiske, quiet and observant, and back of him rode the glowering Sarto. They were passing one of the sections of the trail narrowed by the snow-laden torrents and the path hung precipitously over awesome nothingness on the right. There wasn't over 20 feet of danger and then the trail widened and fell off into gradual sloping ground again.

Nikki heard a sudden frightened yell and turned to see Sarto's horse plunging forward, hugging the inner wall. Sarto clung to the pommel, his head ducked forward into the steed's mane.

The quick lunge carried Sarto's horse crowding between the wall and the mare ridden by Fiske. The mare fought desperately for balance. Her iron-shoe hoofs struck sparks as she slipped on the edge of the trail.

"Throw yourself off," shouted Uncle Jim, twisting in his saddle, helpless to aid.

There was only an instant as the mare hung on the brink. Fiske leaned desperately to throw his weight inward. Sarto's horse surged forward again in frightened leaps and broke through.

Steve, riding directly behind Sarto, reined in his horse abruptly at Sarto's unexpected lunge. He could see the quick, deadly drop off the trail, the narrow path upon which two horses could not stand side by side. He could see just ahead the safety of the sloping mountain with its dotting shrubs and small trees.

That safety lay a bare seven feet ahead of Fiske.

The final plunge of Sarto's horse thrust Fiske's mare far out on the edge. One hind foot slipped over and pawed into the thin air. She fought and lost the battle for balance.

Then Steve moved. With the sudden skill of years of polo playing, he turned his horse to the outside of the trail. He leaned forward and brought his flat hand down brutally hard on his mount's rump.

His horse bounded forward and struck Fiske's mare almost as she slipped off the trail. The momentum of the blow carried the mare forward and in. She was safe. So was Fiske. But the motion threw Steve's horse to the outer edge, fighting for footing on the last few feet of the trail which overhung the precipice.

Steve lost his balance and plunged over his mount's shoulder, but the force of the fall carried him past the precipice. He grabbed a clump of bushes as he slipped downward and clung on desperately. His horse scrambled forward, lost its footing, rolled over twice and finally stopped against a tree, got up and shook itself vigorously.

Uncle Jim was off his horse by that time with a rope in his hand. He tossed the noose down to Steve, snubbed the other end around his saddle horn.

"Slip it over your arms," he shouted, and Steve managed to find footing long enough to get the noose over his head and shoulders. Rance and Uncle Jim hauled him back up.

Sarto still sat his horse sullenly. Fiske was leaning against the wall. He came over to give Steve the final helping hand back up on the trail.

"Thanks," he said, and his voice meant it.

"That was mighty quick thinking," said Uncle Jim.

"Mighty quick acting, too," said Rance.

Nikki was standing back, her face white, and she couldn't get over the feeling that her knees weren't going to support her much longer. Steve came over and she clung to him.

"I'm all right, honey," he told her and laughed gently.

"I know you are now," she said, "but you weren't a minute ago and you might have been killed. Oh, Steve."

Hollywood Chit-Chat

BY PAUL HARRISON

(Bill Porter, of NEA Service's Hollywood staff, is conducting the Hollywood column while Paul Harrison is on vacation.)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 10—All over the lot: There's only one man whom Director John Ford will trust with powder and big guns, and he is Jack Pennick, former marine. For the picture "Wooden Anchors," Pennick found himself having a battle with himself. In the morning, he fired three-inch guns as Guns McPeek, gunner aboard an American submarine chaser. In the afternoon, he donned a wig and a German sailor hat with two ribbons dangling from it, and played the role of Hans Schneider, a gunner aboard a German U-boat.

A hurry-up call from the "Gunga Din" company on locaton at Lone Pine, Calif., caused Joan Fontaine to dash 500 miles by automobile. When she arrived, she discovered the sequence the director was so anxious to complete called for her to say, "Oh, Tommy!" to Douglas Fairbanks, jr. She was then free to return to Hollywood.

In August, 1927, Director William Wellman released the first great aviation picture, "Wings," and in November, 1930, Howard Hughes produced an equally great aviation epic, "Hell's Angels."

Today Wellman is directing the first great aviation color picture, "Men With Wings," a history of aviation, and since Hughes' flight around the world Wellman has changed the ending of the picture to include Hughes' flight. Originally the picture was to have ended with Wiley Post's flight around the world.

And The Foreign Investors Say---

A Real Russo-Japanese War Would Bring On Most Spectacular Air Warfare In History

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—A real Russo-Japanese war, if it should come, will likely produce the most spectacular, effective aerial bombardment and combat yet seen.

Dutcher

Tokio as American army officers see it, would become the first capital of a major power to suffer a severe aerial bombardment.

It is less than 700 miles from Russia's Vladivostok to Tokio. Experts who believe Tokio would be a prompt objective also envision suicide squadrons of Japanese taking off with loads of explosives and flying madly into Russian air fleets.

News of darkening of Japanese cities confirms belief that Tokio and other large centers are vulnerable.

The Russian Mind

Diplomats and military men have supposed that the Changkufeng fighting would be kept localized, on the theory that Japan wants no war because of her Chinese involvement and that Russia has too much to worry about in Europe. This is mere deduction. Aside from general background, all the State, War and Navy departments know is what they read in the newspapers — meaning the official versions from Tokio and Moscow.

Several bizarre theories as to the "real reason" behind the outbreak have gained wide credence in Washington. But the best Far Eastern experts are unwilling to go beyond suggesting as possibilities:

1. That Russia has sought to diffuse Japanese military energy and take heat off the Chinese. Chinese resistance might suddenly collapse — as Ethiopian resistance to Italian troops did — and Russia may have been warned of such a likelihood.

2. That Russia desired to test Japanese reaction and find out how weak or strong Japanese resistance would be.

3. That Russia, believing the point of maximum Japanese weakness may have been reached, prefers to strike before Japan can consolidate her position in China.

At any rate, Russian troops moved into previously unoccupied territory of great strategic value and Japanese fought to drive them off. The Changkufeng hills dominate Japan's Tumen railroad, which runs far into Manchukuo from the important new Korean port of Rashin. The Rashin-Tumen route is Japan's shortest route for getting troops and supplies into Manchukuo.

What Treaty?

Mention of the alleged treaty with China on which Russia bases claim to the disputed territory brings skeptical grins from State department officials, who never heard of such a treaty. They haven't even a map bearing the name Changkufeng — and they have many exhaustive maps. To Japanese questioning existence of the treaty, Russia says: "Ask the Chinese." Japan warring on China, won't.

One of the less screwy-sounding theories circulated in Washington says Japan attacked Russians in a major engagement at behest of Germany, as a prelude to a widely-feared German invasion of Czechoslovakia this month.

While renewed Berlin verbal blasts against the Czechs might back up this theory, cagey diplomats here say Japan wouldn't stick her neck out just because Germany asked her. But they say many Japanese militarists would take on both Russia and China.

Nelson Is To Give Address

Invitation to address Lubbock's first Labor day celebration in several years has been accepted by State Senator G. H. Nelson of Lubbock.

The address probably will be delivered at the park west of the city hall, the afternoon of September 5, said L. E. Bell, chairman of the arrangements committee. There will be other speakers.

A meeting is being planned for Thursday night in the court house when delegates from each of the women's auxiliaries, of the labor groups will meet with the men. Plans for a barbecue to be served Labor day will be discussed.

Slaton To Cooperate

The trainmen's organization at Slaton and its auxiliary will cooperate, said Bell. Other railroad groups at Big Spring, Sweetwater, Amarillo and Abilene are to be asked to cooperate and to have representatives here.

"Merchants who would like to participate in the parade with a float should get in touch with the committee," Bell said. "We want to have a large parade that day."

A dance is planned for the auditorium at night. Ned Bradley's orchestra is to play and tickets are being sold.

Gang Slaying Victims Had Appointments

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP) — Victims number six and seven on the current list of mob-method assassinations knew they had appointments with death, investigators disclosed today.

Shortly after the bullet-pocked body of Sam "Frog Legs" Picciotto was found across the street from the White Sox ball park Tuesday morning, his sister cried:

"They said they'd get him. Now they did."

Only six hours earlier three marksmen had killed Jaines G. Dungan, 35, an official of a painters and decorators union, in front of his home.

BUCK ATTACKS KEEPER

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10 (AP) — A 900 pound buck, aroused when an elderly keeper at the Washington Park zoo petted a doe in the deer pen Tuesday, knocked him sprawling and trampled him.

The keeper, Herman Matter, 75, was treated at emergency hospital for a fracture of his right collarbone, cuts and bruises. He was rescued by other keepers armed with pitchforks and brooms.

The buck previously had been known as a well behaved animal.

There are about 500 species of hummingbird in the world.

Visits In City

P. Pierce Brooks, of Dallas, candidate for lieutenant-governor, is in Lubbock today in the interests of his run-off campaign against Coke Stevenson, of Junction. Brooks led Stevenson by 47,000 votes in the July primary. Tomorrow night he will speak over KFYO from 6:45 to 7 o'clock and following that will be heard over a state radio network.

Red Cross Chapter Praised For Work In Life Saving

Praise for Lubbock chapter of the American Red Cross was voiced by Roger Plaisted of St. Louis, member of the national staff in charge of first aid and life saving activities in Texas, at the close of a two-day inspection Tuesday.

Plaisted, after ending a two-day visit of inspection here late Tuesday, went to Spur to remain today and Thursday. From there he will go to Sweetwater.

His observations concerning Lubbock chapter of the Red Cross that it is an "on its toes" organization and that its work in promotion of safety work, particularly aquatic safety, has made it outstanding.

Of immediate interest to Lubbock he related:

That K. N. Clapp, chairman of life saving of the local chapter, has "accomplished more in the same length of time than any Red Cross member in Texas in the cause of aquatic safety."

That George M. Garrett, division highway engineer, expects at least three paces in the county will meet the exacting requirements soon after September for designation as Red Cross first aid stations. In that connection, Plaisted disclosed that the state highway department has trained more than 3,000 persons for such first aid work and that they saved the lives of at least seven persons last year who would have died had not the skilled first aid attention been immediately available.

McLarty To Be Delegate

That Marvin McLarty will be sent by Lubbock chapter to Oconomowoc, Wis., Aug. 24 to Sept. 3 for an intensive course in water safety. The course is identical with one completed by Clarence Mast in Camp Mystic near Kerrville earlier in the summer.

Plaisted's work deals with all matters pertaining to safety. But it was statistics concerning water safety which he stressed as evidence of the effectiveness of the educations program which has been carried on steadily since 1914.

In 1914, he said, approximately 10 persons in each 100,000 drowned. In 1936, the latest year for which figures were available, the number dropped to 5.2 per 100,000, in spite of the fact that the number of swimmers and their frequency of swimming multiplied several times.

Best estimates are, he added, there were more than a billion "supervised" swims last year, which means swims in approved places where lifeguards were on duty.

Chicago Bandits Rob Man And Then Break His Spectacles

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP) — Two bandits robbed Raymond Kahn of $450 as he sat in his automobile and then broke his glasses so he couldn't see the license number of their car.

But, they forgot to ask him if he had any more money, so he didn't mention $560 hidden under a seat.

Bond Elections Are Discussed

Details of plans for an early bond election were discussed by members of the board of trustees of Lubbock independent school district with city officials and several "interested citizens" at a meeting in school business offices, 1007 Texas avenue, Tuesday night.

Members of the school board discussed details of a proposed bond issue of $150,000 for school improvements, pointing out that the issue is an emergency in that the funds are needed to match a federal grant from the Works Progress administration if and when it is approved. Likewise, the city has an application for a grant from the WPA and needs available funds, it was explained.

Petitions Prepared

The trustees decided if the bond issue is called and is approved, the bonds will be made payable serially over a period of 20 years. Petitions have been prepared and probably will be circulated today, school officials pointed out.

"Crowded conditions in the school, as well as the need of the funds to receive a federal grant makes it an emergency that the election be called at once," a school official said. "The federal agency has insisted both the city and the school district have funds available when and if the grant is allocated."

If petitions are received by the board, the election probably will be called in the next two weeks, it was explained.

Representatives from the city, meeting with the school board, discussed the proposed city bond issue of $750,000 and as a convenience to voters, informally and unofficially decided to call the two election, if they are called, on the same date.

The elections, however, will be held separately at different places, with different ballots, and with different judges. It was pointed out that the school district includes more territory than the City of Lubbock proper.

The city bond election was advocated in petitions which were put in circulation Tuesday. The petition was addressed to the city commission and asked that an election be called on issuance of the bonds as follows: $50,000 for fire station; $150,000 for street improvements; $300,000 for storm sewer; and $150,000 for a sewer disposal plant.

Would Mature In 20 Years

The bonds, if authorized in the election, will bear interest at a rate not to exceed four per cent, payable semi-annually, maturing serially in 20 years and tax levied sufficient to pay interest on bonds and provide a sinking fund with which to pay the principal at maturity.

Members of the school board attending the session at the school district office at 1007 Texas avenue were Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, president; R. F. Bayless, E. J. Parson, and Dr. Allen T. Stewart. From the City were Mayor Carl E. Slaton, W. H. Rodgers, city manager, and Hub Jones, a commissioner. Several other persons also attended the open meeting, and endorsed the move to go ahead with the necessary bond issues.

Soil Conservation Men Meet In Conference At College

Between 20 and 25 members of the field staff of the Soil Conservation service from five stations met Tuesday afternoon and night in the division of agriculture at Texas Technological college for a conference.

SCS camps at Vega, Hereford, Clovis, N. M., and CCC camps at Littlefield and Lamesa were represented. Douglas Smith, of district headquarters at Amarillo was in charge of the program.

Matters pertaining to the summer program and other work here were discussed. O. T. Williams called the meeting but was unable to be present.

Here Today

G. A. Jerry Sadler, of Longview, is in Lubbock this afternoon in the interests of his run-off candidacy for a place on the Railroad commission. He is a kinsman of Harley Sadler, widely known and popular Texas showman.

Petition Granted In Barbara's Split-Up

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Aug. 10 (AP)—Exchange Telegraph says Acting Minister of Justice Buhl officially announced today that a petition for the separation of Count Court Haugwitz-Reventlow and the former Barbara Hutton had been granted.

The petition was granted on the basis of a private agreement between the parties announced in London July 29.

Under Danish law, when the parties agree to separate it is unnecessary that the matter come before any court since the petition can be granted by the minister of justice.

On July 29 attorneys for Count and Countess Haugwitz-Reventlow announced the couple had agreed to a deed of separation ending their bitter marriage troubles "amicably."

The countess settled an undivulged sum upon their two-year-old son Lance, whose upbringing was one of the main sources of their marital strife.

The count was given "parental right" over Lance, which "secures to him the ultimate decision with regard to education, religion, and professional career of his son," but for the child's "tender years" his mother is to "have the care of the child for the greater part of the year."

It was stated "the count had waived any rights which he may have under Danish law to one-half of the common property of the parties to the marriage."

This separation agreement had been preceded by a sensational hearing in London's Bow street police court early in July in which the count was accused by his wife's lawyers of demanding $5,000,000 and custody of Lance in return for a divorce.

Several Hundred 'Cousins' Are Boasted By Mrs. R. L. Whiteley; All Are Adopted

Several hundred "cousins by adoption" probably gives mrs. R. L. Whiteley, 1419 Avenue D, an entirely unique distinction so far as the South Plains are concerned. Her husband is a mechanic with the city power plant.

Belief that her claim to the distinction has been strengthened was expressed Tuesday following receipt of word that her blood cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carr of Ames, Iowa, recently have adopted their 56th child during their 32 years of married life.

Several of the adopted Carrs have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley from time to time. Mr. and Mrs. Carr have no children of their own.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr were recently made subjects for an article in the Des Moines Register, clipping of which has been received by the relatives here. It relates that of the children adopted by the Carrs, 10 still are small and being cared for in the home. One, stricken with infantile paralysis while an infant 25 years ago, still is an almost helpless invalid there.

Most of the others are married and have children. Some have grandchildren. Thus, Mrs. Whiteley has no idea how many first, second and third cousins by adoption she may have.

Of all the children, according to the article recently published, only one has "gone wrong." He is serving a prison term for theft. Others have achieved varying degrees of success in many lines of endeavor, including a girl who at 15 years of age, is credited with giving promise of outstanding success as a star in circus or rodeo.

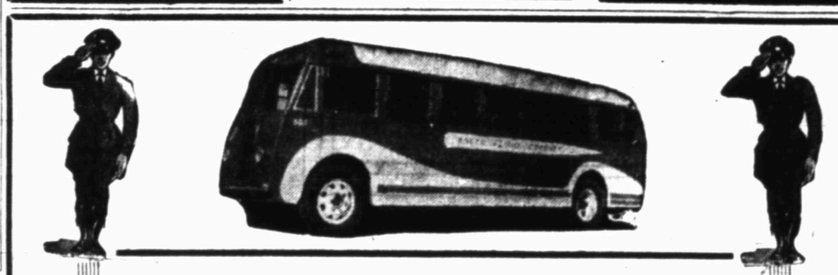

Memorial To Knapp Talked

Meeting of summer school graduates of Texas Technological college to decide, among other things, what gift is to be left to the school will be held at 6 p. m. Thursday in room 220 of the administration building, according to announcement Tuesday by Noah O. Cunningham of Quail, class president.

One proposed gift, said Cunningham, is a plaque commemorating the late Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of the college, who died recently.

If that should be decided upon, he added, it will be placed at the left of the south entrance to the sally port of the college Administration building. On the opposite wall is displayed a plaque to the memory of Dr. Paul Whitfield Horn, first president of Tech.

Several other important matters of business also are scheduled for discussion, Cunningham said. Among them will be final directions to seniors and graduates concerning their part in the approaching exercises.

Meet These Dizzy People in the New Farce Novelette, "Haywire House"

When pretty Sally Pennington acquired half-interest in an old-fashioned Connecticut home, she got along with it the "interest" of go-getting Kinks Parker who owned the other half. He converted the place into "Restatorium."

But dour Wilton Ames, whose banker father held the mortgage on the house, was also interested in Sally and interested in the interest as well, on his father's behalf.

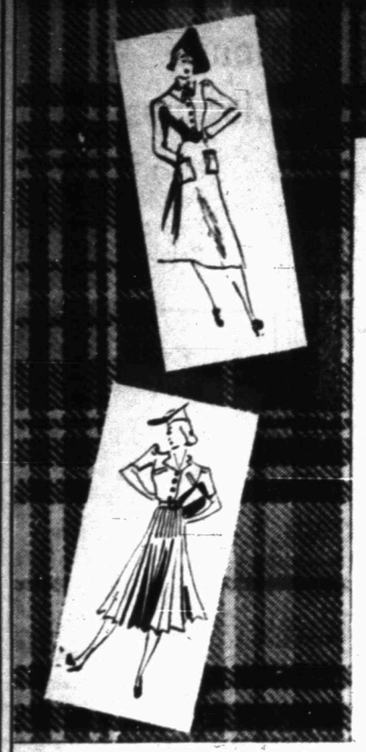

So Wilton opposed opening the house as a "Restatorium" to such guests as prowling electricians, neurotic spinsters and gangsters like Nick, the Ferret.

Nor did he like the presence of behemoth Tony Spaldini who shot his way into the resort. Wilton wanted to foreclose at a handsome profit, love or no love.

But the dizziest guest of all, Great Pierre, the magician, turned the trick for Sally and Kinks. It is told in the funniest newspaper serial in years, starring Wilton, Nick, Tony and many others in an all-Haywire cast, a farce beginning Tuesday, August 23 in The Evening Journal.
