A time filled with friends family and prayer.

Huff, Padgett nuptials read Saturday in double-ring ceremony

An altar area banked in Christmas trees, white lights and tulle was the setting for a double-ring ceremony Saturday evening uniting in marriage Kimberly Raylynn Huff and John David Padgett.

The wedding took place at the Edgemere Church of Christ in Wichita Falls, officiated by Stephen Johnson.

Parents of the bride are Daniel and Carol Huff of Wichita Falls, and parents of the groom are David and Barbara Padgett of Iowa Park.

The path to the altar area was illuminated by 16 candleholders, made for the bride by her grandfather. Each candleholder was designed with a heart-shaped base that held three white votive candles on tall wooden pillars.

Eight Christmas trees flanked the area where the couple exchanged vows. Trees at the front of the altar area featured tulle pouffed at the base to resemble banks of snow with miniature white lights woven throughout.

Trees at the back of the altar were surrounded by red poinsettias, interwoven with miniature white lights, that extended around each tree and to the walls on either side of the sanctuary.

Each tree was topped with a tulle bow, and was decorated with white lights.

Tulle bows marked seating for the guests, and special seating for the bride's basketball team was marked with a tulle bow centered with a miniature Iowa Park basketball.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was radiant in a formal white gown designed with a sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice of floral alencon lace. The bodice was accented with seed pearls and clear sequins and featured a low-cut back with covered buttons. The Basque waistline flowed to a cathedral length train, adorned with lace appliques matching the bodice.

To compliment her gown, Miss Huff carried a cascade bouquet formed of fire and ice roses, white roses and greenery.

Kitri Jordan of Cypress, was maid of honor to the bride.

She wore a formal-length gown designed with a black velvet bodice and white crepe skirt. The A-line dress was designed with an empire waistline and short cap sleeves. She carried two long stem fire and ice roses wrapped in fresh Christmas fern.

Bridesmaids were Lee Cartwright and Ruth Brooks, both of Arlington, Adrian Caloss of Valley Mills, and Brenda Hodges of Iowa

Park.

Each wore a gown identical to the maid of honor and carried an identical bouquet.

Madison Hughes of Iowa Park was flower girl and wore a petite version of the bridesmaids gown, made with a full skirt.

Ringbearer was Cole Chandler of Seymour, cousin of the bride.

The groom and ring bearer wore formal black tuxedos with tailed coats, vests and black bow ties.

David Padgett was best man for his son.

Groomsmen were David Warren of Venus, Jason Lytle of Dallas, Aaron Smith and Kyle Wells, both of Iowa Park.

Ushers were Stephen Huff, brother of the bride, Joel Chandler, cousin of the bride, and Eric Smith.

All male members of the wedding party were attired in formal black tuxedos with black vests and bow ties, and regular coats.

Hallal Praise music was played preceding the ceremony. During the seating of the grandparents, "I Will Be There For You," was played, and "Keeper of the Stars" was played during the seating of the parents.

"Shine on Us" was offered during the processional of the wedding party, followed by "From this Moment On" during the bridal processional.

"The Other Side of Me" was played during the lighting of the unity candle, and "Joy to the World" was the recessional.

Vocalists were Linda Shanks and Greg Biehl.

Rev. Steve Beckwith, minister of First Baptist Church in Iowa Park, read the commencement prayer.

A reception in honor of the couple was held following the ceremony at Faith Village Church of Christ Fellowship Hall.

Sixteen Christmas trees with miniature white lights and ball ornaments decorated the reception area. Another suspended upside down in the center of the room, decorated in white lights and ornaments was the focal point of the hall.

The bride's table held an elegant white five-tiered cake, separated with clear posts. The bridal bouquet and crystal punch service completed the table setting.

The groom's table held a chocolate cake decorated with sugar marzipan fruit and chocolate curls.

A paneled mirrored wall, decorated with fresh Christmas greenery and white lights, served as backdrops to the bride and groom's tables.

The serving table was lined with fresh Christmas greenery, accented with fresh fruits and vegetables, interspersed with fresh red and white flowers.

Guests were seated at round tables covered in white. Fresh flower arrangements in red and white with white burning tapers, centered each table.

Special guests at the wedding were Ruel and Myrtle Perkins, and Era Fay Huff, all of Seymour, grandparents of the bride.

Following a honeymoon trip to Purgatory in Durango, Co., the couple are at home in Iowa Park.

The bride is a 1989 graduate of Rider High School, and a 1994 graduate of Texas A&M Univ. She is em-played by the Iowa Park Independent School District.

The groom is a 1993 graduate of Iowa Park High School, and graduated Northwestern State Univ. in 1998. He is employed by the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services.

Barnett

A son, Jacob Tyler, was born Dec. 15, in Wichita Falls, to Cody and Jody Barnett of Iowa Park. He weighed eight pounds, 10 ounces, and was 21 1/2 inches long. He has a sister, Taylor Lyn, 20 months old. His mother is the former Jody Russell of Iowa Park.

Grandparents are Charles and Jaquita Barnett, Cindy Walker and Dale Russell, all of Iowa Park.

Great-grandparents are H.C. and Jody Johnson of Iowa Park, and R.A. and Marie Williams of Muskogee, Okla.

Ruth Johnson of Orange Grove is a great-great-grandmother.

'Christmas with Charles Dickens' program topic

Joyce Rentschler presented Twenty Three Study Club members a "Christmas with Charles Dickens" program, at their last meeting of the century last Thursday.

She introduced the program by telling something about a number of pieces from her large Dickens Christmas Village collection. Her home was decorated with the pieces which she began collecting in 1984.

They are based on Victorian England and the people and places recognized when reading Dickens' work. She reported that the first villages were brought to America by German immigrants, and related a number of interesting stories concerning some of the major pieces.

She then introduced members of the club who told about pieces from the Dickens village as they related to his writings. Mary Guthrie pointed out some of the cottages mentioned in "Oliver Twist" published about 1828.

Mary Frances Farris reported on "Nicholas Nickleby," which was based on the abuses Dickens had observed, and which brought the plight of the helpless and hungry to the attention of the public.

Patsy Todd reported on "David Copperfield," published in 1850. One of his most popular writings, which was believed to be a thinly disguised autobiography, almost true to his own life.

Norma Harrell reported on "Great Expectations," pointing out and describing some of the cottages mentioned therein, with interesting anecdotes about some of the characters.

Evelyn Skinner decried the well known "Christmas Carol" published in 1843 and pointed out some of the village pieces and characters mentioned in that writing.

Lucy Reynolds then reported on the life and times of Charles Dickens, the second most published author of all time, second only to Shakespeare. Born in 1812 and endowed with vivid imagination, he was quoted as saying that he "never invented his stories, he saw them." Although he died at the age of 58, his life lives on in his stories, and the 1820's were truly "the Best of Times and the Worst of Times."

The highly collected Dickens Village pieces are distributed by Department Fifty-Six, and new ones are issued and older pieces retired regularly.

Co-hostesses for the meeting were Norma Harrell, Shirley Hicks, and Wanda Singer.

Program Leader, JoAnn Hale led the group in the pledge to the American Flag and the reading of the club collect. She introduced Lita Watson who gave the meditation of the day from writings of Phillip Brooks, entitled "Everywhere, Everywhere, Christmas Tonight."

Federation report was given by Frances Park. She reported the National Education Association is saluting Dr. Seuss, and emphasizing reading, especially to children to develop the love for reading.

As I See It...

By Bob Hamilton

Well, it finally got here! I've been waiting all year to say this -- Merry Christmas!

Getting out our annual Christmas Edition is a labor (and lots of it!) of love. We always enjoy it, both because of all the Letters to Santa we have, and also because this is our opportunity for Dolores and me to print the front-page picture of our grandchildren, and now great-grandchild.

And, if you remember what I've said in this space over the years, it puts me into the situation of shopping for Christmas gifts. I've followed that practice for a number of years.

Speaking of buying Christmas gifts, I've mentioned over the years my recollections of my early memories of Christmas.

One thing I've not mentioned, however, is what they cost and how our nation's economy has increased.

It occurred to me that the value of all the gifts I received my first 15 or so years didn't cost as much as the postage stamps we've used to mail our Christmas cards.

No, I'm not kidding. Not only were Christmas gifts few in number when I was a youngster, but their cost in today's dollars were virtually nothing.

But boy, did I enjoy them. It wasn't the number of gifts nor their cost that was important. It was just receiving a gift that made the season.

And that's the way it should be. To all of you, and your's, have a Very, Very Merry Christmas!

WORTH QUOTING

A Christmas Gift - For A Child

What does Christmas mean to you? Do you worry because you have to spend $20.00 on gifts this year instead of the usual $50.00 or more? There is a little 8 year old girl in Iowa Park who wants nothing for herself. Last year just before Christmas she lost her little baby sister. She wrote a letter to Santa to make her Mommy happy again and send them a new baby. That will never happen.

This year her letter to Santa pleads please find my mommy a new heart and let my daddy call me just one time. (She hasn't heard from him in months and don't know where he is.) This year think of Josie Dixon and count your blessing, remember the Real Reason For The Season. Things can always be worse. Name withheld by request

Explains their effort

To the residents of Iowa Park, the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department, and any organization, business, or church that was upset or feels that they were misled by our recent toy collection, we apologize. It was not our intention to upset anyone. Our only goal was to collect toys for children for Christmas.

The U.S. Marine Corps Reserve asked us to help them collect toys, and we in turn asked other businesses in Iowa Park to help us. The U.S. Marine Corps Reserve along with the Wichita Falls Firefighters collect toys each year at Christmas. These toys are distributed by the Salvation Army. The Salvation Army not only serves Wichita Falls, but also all the surrounding communities. This includes Iowa Park. Any needy family in Iowa Park can register with the Salvation Army prior to the distribution date, and they will be assisted.

We usually help with several toy collections around the area during the Christmas season. We would have been glad to help with a toy collection in Iowa Park, but we were not contacted, nor did we realize that there was a toy collection going on in Iowa Park. We blame no one but ourselves for that oversight.

Again, our only goal was to make one day brighter for a child. Any child -- Anywhere -- No Boundaries! Happy Holidays, Jim and Vickie Gilmore Red River Harley-Davidson, Inc.

JACQUELINE LEE MILLER, 61, was transported to a Wichita Falls hospital following a two-vehicle accident Saturday afternoon at the intersection of Washington and Pacific Ave. Miller, the driver of this car, was driving east on Washington, when she entered the intersection and struck Eric Lynn Justus, 19, who was travelling south on Pacific. Justus was not injured, and Miller's injuries, thought to be minor, are unknown.

Trio arrested for possession

Three men traveling from Colorado to the Dallas area Saturday afternoon never made it.

They got this far, and then they landed in the Wichita County jail.

Iowa Park police were notified of a vehicle traveling erratically on US 287, and the stop was made as it entered Iowa Park.

A search of the vehicle produced a quarter of a pound of marijuana, and also dried mushrooms.

Arrested were Jeffery Steven Lee, 20, Brian Eric Walker, 28, and Jason Randall Horsley, also 28.

Bonds were set the same on all three: $20,000 for the mushrooms, a second degree felony, and $5,000 each for the marijuana, a third degree felony, according to the police blotter.

Three other arrests were made by local police during the past week, none of which related to the jailed trio case.

Micheal Dean Cox, 24, was taken into custody shortly after midnight Friday, on a commitment order issued on six warrants. Total fines on the warrants were $1,066. He was transported to the jail.

When officers responded to a domestic disturbance at midnight Monday in the 1300 block of Edgemoor, they arrested Jody Wayne Stewart, 49, on a public intoxication charge.

At 2:22 a.m. Wednesday, Linda Beebe Shaddock, 42, was arrested in the 100 block of South Saratoga and charged with driving while intoxicated. She was later transported to jail, according to the police blotter. A high school student reported Friday that someone had taken a bag containing a CD player and accessories, with a total value of between $500 and $1,500.

Wednesday evening of last week, a woman's purse reportedly was taken from her car while parked in the 200 block of West Bank.

Lions name winners

Winners of three prizes were drawn Tuesday by the Iowa Park Lions Club.

All participants had made donations to the civic organization's scholarship fund, which generated more than $300 this year.

The winners included:
- 36-inch color television set: Monty Britt.

- gas grill and $50 worth of steaks: Kim Scobee.

- 100 gallons of gasoline: Teri George.

Recipients of the Lions' scholarships are announced at the high school's annual awards assembly, which is held in the spring.

WHAT DOES GOD SAY?

By Ross Saunders

About His authority? All of the sins of humankind can be attributed to the failure to recognize and respect the authority of God. The downfall of human relationships also result from disrespect for God's authority. The "so what" attitude toward the moral principles of God destroys what could otherwise be happy and constructive lives. Religions often manifest the same attitude, replacing Divine authority with what seems good (Proverbs 16:25). Jeremiah said it well (5:31): "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?" We often seek the approval of men for things unapproved by God.

A good example is found in 2 Samuel 7:1-11. David, the "man after God's own heart" looked at his own house and decided it wasn't fair for him to have a house of cedar while God only had a tent (tabernacle). He decided to build God a cedar house, and the prophet Nathan told him it was a good idea. Neither of them consulted God. Even though David was a godly man (Acts 13:22), with a considerate motive and the approval of God's prophet, God's reaction was negative. Not only was David's idea presumptuous, it reflected an attitude toward God's authority that is so prevalent today. In essence, God tells David that He had gotten along fine without a cedar house; none of my prophets ever told you to build me a cedar house; if I wanted a cedar house I would tell you, and anyway, I am the one who has blessed you and I don't need you to build me a house. God could give the same answer to numerous religious practices today. Two examples should suffice. "If I had wanted you to observe Christmas in honor of my birth, I would have told you!" The fact that a religious observance of Christmas is not authorized by Christ is totally ignored because many "love to have it so." "If I had wanted instrumental music in my worship, I would have told you." The fact that instrumental music in worship is not authorized by our Lord in the New Testament is completely ignored. The specific authorization of God to build a tabernacle was not respected by David. He thought something else would be all right. God has authorized a manner of worship, which included specifically singing (1 Corinthians 14:15; Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16). It is presumptuous to think that more will be accepted. Jesus said, "In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (Matthew 15:9).

"God love me" does not preclude His authority. There is a behavior worthy of death in God's sight (Romans 1:32). Violence is caused by a lack of God's principles in the heart. Are you learning God's will? If the "shootists" had, they would never have pulled a trigger. If the rapist had, he would have respected the woman. If a thief had, he would have respected the property of others. Think!

DARE TO KEEP KIDS OFF DRUGS.

In Loving Memory of our Grandfather Joseph "Charlie" Helms

The sweetest Grandfather ever did live, eighty five wonderful years to give, love and memories to cherish for a lifetime. From early childhood they began, though adulthood now as a woman and man. Always making sure we made it to Sunday School, putting coins in our pocket as tithing was a rule. Letting us learn to drive in the old pickup truck, feeding the cows at the pasture if we didn't get stuck, teaching us to ride horses and "Lopadeelope." And how to lasso the tree branches with your 10-ft. rope. Telling us Jack and the Beanstalk 'till we fell asleep. These are the memories we will always keep, and we won't forget about the cowboy songs, "When I was a small boy" with us singing along. The long-winded tales we've always believed. And if there was anything you ever achieved, were love and memories to cherish for a lifetime. Even though he is now gone All of these memories still live on, within us and our family day by day. Till we meet again "Josem," I pray.

Combine flour and salt; add to creamed mixture alternately with fruit-nut mixture, beginning and ending with flour mixture. Stir in vanilla.

Hawks shot down by Bulldogs

The Burk Burnett Bulldogs, led by 6-8 Division I prospect Matt Gipson's game high 24 points, proved to be too much for Iowa Park Tuesday night as the Bulldogs defeated the Hawks 72-38.

The loss drops the Hawks to .500 in non-district play with a record of 6-6 overall while Burk improved to 11-3.

Iowa Park led 5-4 early in the opening quarter before a 19-5 run by the Bulldogs which led to a 23-10 first quarter lead that they would never give up.

Burk went on to win the second quarter 12-6, the third 15-8 and the fourth 22-14.

Landon Miller led Iowa Park in scoring with seven points followed by Chris Simmons and Andy Simpson with six points each. Chase Wright finished with five points after getting into foul trouble early.

What made the score look as lopsided as it did was the free throw shooting by Iowa Park. The Hawks made only 6-of-22 shots from the line for 27 percent.

Wright led the Hawks on the boards with seven rebounds followed by Simpson and Simmons with five each. Aaron Duran added four rebounds.

Tuesday's game was the final game before the Christmas break with the Hawks not returning to action until Tuesday's game in Paducah. The Hawks will then play in the Archer City Tournament starting next Thursday, then will close out the non-district portion of their schedule at Decatur on Jan. 7. District starts on Tuesday the 11th at Henrietta.

"Our kids played hard," said head coach Tim Clark. "We missed some easy shots that we usually make, but that sometimes happens when you play against a real aggressive team like Burk. They really get after you. Part of our poor shooting carried over to the free throw line where we have got to do a better job, and we will I assure you. A lot of our district games will be close and could come down to free throw shooting."

The JV Hawks suffered their worse loss of the season Tuesday night falling 89-35 to Burk Burnett.

The Bulldogs jumped on top 33-10 after the first quarter and never looked back, leading 54-16 at the half.

Burk won the third quarter 15-9 and the fourth 20-10 to make the final 89-35.

Kyle Young led Iowa Park in scoring with 12 points before fouling out midway through the fourth quarter. Jerome Wilson finished with six points followed by Adam Arrington with five and Michael Weeks with four.

Young also led the Hawks on the boards, finishing with 10 rebounds followed by Wilson with seven and Weeks with four.

Iowa Park's next opponent will be Paducah on Tuesday with the game scheduled for a 2:30 p.m. tipoff.

The Freshman Hawks ran into a tough opponent in the Burk Burnett Bulldogs Tuesday night falling 60-40 in their next to last non-district game.

Iowa Park led 13-8 after the first quarter, but an 18-8 second period gave Burk the lead at intermission

Little League election to be held Jan. 3

Their support, efforts and dedication have made this a very successful season that we can all be proud of.

that they never gave up, winning the third quarter 15-10 and the fourth 19-9.

The Hawks were led in scoring by David Clubb with 16 followed by Beau Gray and David Horton with seven points each. Adam Arredondo and Robert Baumer each finished with four points.

Iowa Park will be off until Jan. 7 when they travel to Decatur for their final non-district game. The district portion of their schedule starts on Tuesday the 11th.
