REVOLUTION SUDDENLY BREAKS OUT IN SPAIN

ARMY IN REVOLT; OFFICERS LEAD MEN IN MUTINY

"Ignominy of Moroccan Campaign Held Responsible"

POLICIES "IMMORAL"

Revolutionists Headed By Powerful Barcelone Leader

By The Associated Press.

MADRID, Sept. 13.—Spain is in the travail of a revolution. A military coup de'etat, originating in Barcelona, has spread rapidly through various districts and provinces of the country, and has aroused the deepest concern to the government.

At the head of the movement is the captain general of Barcelona, Primo Rivera, a man of strong influence and powerful associations. Behind him are the officers of the army, who have been chafing for many months under the ignominy of the Moroccan campaign and with the officers are the rank and file who seem to be ready to follow their leaders to the end.

King Alfonso is believed to be at San Sebastian.

Refuse to Abandon Move.

After protracted meetings of the cabinet a mesage was sent to General Primo Rivera, requesting him to abandon the movement for patriotic reasons, but he refused to do so. The foreign minister, Santiago Alba, who is believed to be particularly obnoxious to the revolting elements, has resigned from the ministry, as well as the minister of labor, Felix Arminan.

The under secretary of war, General Bermudes Castro, informed the correspondents this afternoon that the minister of war had a long conversation on the telephone with the captain general of Barcelona, who informed the minister that he had rebelled against some members of the present government.

Reports Conflict.

Contradictory reports are very prevalent here. A report current is that the government had sent warships to Barcelona, but this was denied by the minister of marine. El Sol announces that Bilbos Garrison has joined in the movement and seized all communications.

Complete quiet reigns here. The people are pursuing their normal life. Military are seen in the streets, and the police are as usual guarding the public buildings. It is declared that the military element in Madrid is maintaining a pacific attitude not wishing to disturb the life of the nation. Most of the troops in Madrid are confined to their quarters and only some small groups are to be found discussing the reports of the revolt. Apparently the bourse was not affected and there was no drop in government securities.

"Immoral Policies"

Captain General Primo Rivera explains that his object is to relieve the country of the immoral policies of the present government and declares that the troops in Madrid and throughout Spain hope for a decision by the king removing the ministry, which is prejudicial to the nation.

MISSING PARSON NOT YET FOUND

Mystery, Despite Ranger Report, Is Deeper, Says Brother

By International News Service.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 13.—Declaring that the announcement by Texas Rangers that his brother, Rev. J. T. Renfro, missing Baptist pastor of Sinton, Texas, and national lecturer of the ku klux klan had been located in Washington, D. C., under an assumed name, simply made his disappearance more mystifying, E. E. Ranfro, of Corpus Christi, left today for north Texas cities to continue his independent search for the missing klansman.

Renfro declared that he had little faith in the reports of the rangers and would continue his search. He said that the missing pastor's family had never been notified by the rangers that he had been found. He pointed out that police officials and newspapermen in the capital had been unable to locate his brother following the announcement of rangers that he had been located. No reason for his disappearance could be given by his brother, other than that of a mental breakdown and he pointed out that if that were the case it would be natural for the rangers to have asked some of his family to go to Washington immediately to help care for him.

Rev. Renfro disappeared from San Antonio on August 22 and shortly afterward three pieces of luggage bearing his name were found on the banks of the San Antonio river. Shortly afterward rangers announced that the missing man had been located in Philadelphia and a few days later declared that he was safe in Washington.

LEAVES PRISON TO FACE THE WRATH OF HIS 9 WIVES

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 13.—George Ruse, alias R. M. McKnight, a man with nine wives, according to evidence submitted at a hearing at the state executive department, today was ordered extradited to Kansas City, Mo., to stand trial on charges of bigamy.

Rush was arrested several days ago as he left the federal penitentiary on completing a term of imprisonment following the conviction in Texas on a charge of white slavery. The warrant charging bigamy had been sent to the sheriff of Fulton county by Missouri officials, and J. H. Cutbirth, deputy county marshal of Jackson county, Mo., is here to take Rush to Kansas City.

Miss Verna Agee of Kansas City, in her affidavit attached to the requisition papers, stated Rush had deserted her in a Texas town after securing $7,500 of her money. Josephine Adams, Francis Henderson Rush, Louise Barber, Alice Williams and another unknown woman were named as the other wives of Rush.

In addition to these, Deputy Marshal Cutbirth presented the names of Mrs. Gregg Allen Rush, who was alleged to have been deserted in El Paso by Rush. Mrs. George Adams, whose last residence was reported to be in Dallas, Texas, who was alleged to have been deserted at Eagle Pass, Texas, after Rush had secured, it was charged, aproximately $4,000 of her funds, and Miss William Reed Murray, whose address was not given, were named at the hearing by the deputy marshal as other reported victims.

Attorneys for Rush opposed extradition on the ground the requisition papers were improperly drawn.

Italy Consents To Evacuate The Island Of Corfu

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 13.—The danger to the peace of Europe from the Italian occupation of Corfu ended tonight, when after another difficult session, the ambassadors council came to a full agreement. Italy finally consented to evacuate Corfu before the end of September. It is understood they are to leave the Island by September 27.

It is also understood the council agreed that if on the date of evacuation, the inter-allied commission of inquiry reports that Greece has not done all possible to discover and punish the assassins of the Italian members of the Greeco-Albanian boundary mission, the 50,000 lire deposited by the Greek government shall be paid over to the Italian government as reparations.

Eventually it was announced with an air of great relief that Italy had agreed to evacuate. An official communique issued soon afterward said:

"The ambassadors' council has adopted a conclusion such as will put an end to the situation created by the assassination of the Italian delegation. The solution will be immediately transmitted to Athens and also communicated to the league council and will be made public tomorrow at noon."

China for League.

By The Associated Press.

GENEVA, Sept. 13.—China came out strongly in support of the league of nations today. Teching Loh, minister to France, in an address before the assembly, declared the league had given ample proof of its ability to secure the peace of the world and to help the triumph of justice.

This has been accomplished, he declared, became the basis of the lehgue was recognition of the equality of the peoples without distinction of races, color or religion. China was convinced that the time would soon come when all the nations of the earth would be represented in the league.

Teching Loh moved the adoption of the report of the council on the work of past years, because, he said, it demonstrated that the sentiments of fraternity and co-operation were surging to the front throughout the world.

Police Chief Vigorously Denies Charges Against Him

By The Associated Press.

SHAWNEE, Okla., Sept. 13.—Dr. J. A. Walker, reputed to be the exalted cyclops of the Shawnee ku klux klan, and G. M. Reber, former major in the Oklahoma national guard, were charged with riot in an information filed here today by County Attorney Claude Hendon.

The information alleges that Dr. Walker and Reber advised the flogging of Frank Cole, Claude McCannon, Will Cole and George Jones. Others charged in the information are Malcom Couch, former chief of the Shawnee fire department, Clay Pell, and Lloyd L. Graves.

Both Reber and Couch were arrested yesterday on other charges growing out of the alleged flogging of Cole and McCannon.

Warrants were issued for the defendants, but tonight the arrests had not been made. Reber and Couch are already under bond. Dr. Walker is said to be out of the city.

County Attorney Hendon made public an alleged confession of a member of the Shawnee klan, upon which he said, he based his charge that Dr. Walker and Reber "advised a riot." The alleged confession stated that about 500 members of the klan were present when arrangements were made for the whipping, and that a report was made by the floggers afterwards to Dr. Walker as exalted cyclops.

The alleged confession, as given out by the county attorney, follows in part:

"Q—(County Attorney Hendon conducted the questioning)—Had the proposition of whipping these four boys, Frank Cole, Claude McCannon, Will Cole and George Jones ever been discussed in the official hall of the ku klux klan before?"

"Q.—By whom?"

JAPS SQUABBLE OVER A CAPITAL

Several Cities Exerting Influence for The Honor

By LLOYD LEHRBAS.
International News Staff Correspondent.

By The Associated Press.

SHANGHAI, China, Sept. 13.—An intense fight is already raging between several Japanese cities concerning the location of the future capital of the empire, according to reports reaching Shanghai today.

Kyoto, Osaka and Kobe, dispatches say, are all insisting that the capital be transferred to one of these cities and that Tokio be abandoned.

However, the government is said to be strongly opposed to any such plan Viscount Goto, minister of home affairs, is quoted as saying Tokio will be completely rebuilt as soon as possible and that the capital will not be moved.

It is further reported Kobe and Osaka are spreading propaganda aimed to prevent the reconstruction of Yokohama so that either one of these ports may achieve the distinction of being the premier shipping center of Japan.

Commenting on this propaganda, Viscount Goto is said to have asserted with great emphasis that every effort would be taken to reconstruct Yokohama on such a scale that the famous city would continue to maintain its high rank as Japan's greatest seaport.

The plans for the rehabilitation of Tokio as given out by Viscount Goto and carried in dispatches are extremely ambitious.

Included in the plans is said to be a proposal to dredge the Sumida river flowing through Tokio so that ocean going vessels may proceed all the way up to the capital city from the bay of Tokio.

The outlay of the entire city will be designed, according to the reconstruction plans so as to allow for wide thoroughfares radiating to all parts of the city from one great central park.

A survey of the damage done by the earthquake and fire in Tokio press dispatches from that city said, shows that the only government structures completely destroyed are the home office and finance department buildings.

It will be possible to repair all other government buildings, reports stated

NEW PROBLEM IN WALTON'S PLANS

Is Reported to Be Near End Of Funds for Martial Law

By International News Service.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 13.—Martial law situation in Oklahoma was today unchanged at the capitol except for investigation of reports to the governor's office that two men had reported whippings. The place and names of the victims were withheld until investigation could be made.

The governor's limit of deficiency warrants for carrying on martial law activities is rapidly nearing exhaustion, it was learned today. Only $5,000 was appropriated at the last session of the legislature for national guard purposes. His limit of deficiency warrants in cases of emergency is $200,000. Of that amount nearly $115,000 has been issued to date, it was revealed.

Governor Walton was continuing his negotiations with the Tulsa chamber of commerce at Tulsa and was not expected to return to Oklahoma City until tomorrow or later.

His demand for resignation of county sheriff, police commissioner and jury commission at Tulsa were meeting with counter propositions and opposition, it was said. Committees appointed to act on the governor's recommendations called upon the governor to prove his charges that the officers were influenced by the ku klux klan, advices to the capital stated. Governor Walton was firm in his demand that the resignations he asked by Tulsa committees be attempting to try sixteen persons now now under military court bond to answer to whipping charges.

Gov. Walton is scheduled to speak at Okmulgee Friday or Saturday. Okmulgee was Walton's first attempt at martial law to run down whipping parties. Muskogee was said to be next in line after Tulsa unless certain reported mob activities were taken care of by county authorities. No secret was made of the fact that Governor Walton accused the ku klux klan in Muskogee county.

Oklahoma county (Oklahoma City) also may be "cleaned up" before the campaign is over, according to the governor. "It is there that we find the highest officers of the ku klux klan."

By The Associated Press.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 13.—Demand for the resignation within 24 hours of W. R. Sampson as exalted cyclops of Muskogee klan No. 3, was served tonight on C. C. Lydick, secretary of the chamber of commerce, by Dr. A. E. Davenport, state Lealth commissioner, speaking for Governor Walton. Davenport implied that martial law would follow failure to obey the ultimatum.

TO TELL HOW TRADE ASSOCIATIONS HELP

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—How the trade association can make a market analysis, promote the use of members' products by co-operative advertising, bring about standardization in an industry, and help elevate the standards of retail merchandising, are some of the subjects on the program of the convention of the American Trade association executives to be held here, October 24-26.

The functions of trade association and their place in the economic fabric of the country will be described and analyzed, according to an announcement by O. B. Towne, secretary-treasurer. Prominent tradesmen will lead in the principal discussions.

"The establishment of business standards, improvements of methods of production and distribution, the utilization of a wider variety of raw materials, the general elimination of waste, and the development of a higher code of business ethics are some of the achievements of trade associations," Mr. Towne said.

"I gathering statistics of production consumption, stocks and prices, where these have been made available to the entire public, we also have contributed much to the stability of business and the diminution of speculation."

Threw Woman From Car?

Wichitan Accused With Forcibly Taking Woman to Country and Abandoning Her.

Accused of throwing a woman out of an automobile while driving four miles out on the Holliday road Thursday afternoon resulted in charges being filed by Deputy Constable Richardson against J. A. Odell of Holliday street this city, the complaint stating the driver was operating a car while intoxicated.

Deputy Richardson said he was driving into the city on the Holliday road Friday afternoon and saw some women picking up a woman and administering to her bruises. Richardson said he stopped his car and inquired of the trouble. The women told Richardson they had seen a man throw the woman they were attending out of a Ford roadster a few minutes before. The women had gotten the driver's number.

Richardson hurried the woman to the courthouse where a doctor was summoned and first aid given. The woman told courthouse officials she was waiting for a street car at Tenth and Kemp street when the man in the Ford roadster stopped and offered to take her to town. She said the man instead of coming to town turned the car around and started for the country. She said she begged the man to let her out but he would not. She said when they got a few miles out on the Holliday road the man threw her out of the car while it was going. The women in the car told Officer Richardson they saw the man throw the woman from the car. They said he then turned around and started back to town, stopping at the place where the women picked the woman up. They said they asked him why he had thrown the woman from the car and that he started on back to the city.

Richardson said after leaving the woman in the care of a physician and courthouse officials he set out at once to find the owner of the car number the women had given him. He said the number was registered in the name of J. A. Odell. Richardson said he went to the house at once and found Odell there still intoxicated. He arrested Odell brought him to the county jail and filed charges of driving a car while intoxicated against the man. Richardson said he was informed the county attorney's department was to file another charge against Odell in connection with the case.

GIRL IS DEAD; YOUTH IS HELD

Mob Violence Feared In Murder of San Antonio Child

By The Associated Press.

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 13.—Clarke Cofield, 17, held in connection with the death of Irene Hitzfelder, 10, pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hitzfelder, prominent residents of the Spring Branch community, Comal county, was brought to San Antonio tonight and lodged in the county jail here for safe keeping.

Public opinion in the vicinity of Spring Branch was so inflamed, following the finding of the body of the child in a clump of bushes near the road leading to the school she was on her way to attend, that Sheriff Peter Nowotny of New Braunfels, who took the boy in custody, expressed himself to newspaper men at New Braunfels as feeling particularly lucky to get him out of the community alive.

The head of the child has been literally shattered with stones. Her features were said to be unrecognizable. The crime was committed about two miles from the Spring Branch school house where the body was found in a thick clump of bushes.

POPE IS AGAIN IN THE TOILS OF LAW

By The Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 13.—J. E. Pope, charged twice with crime, repudiated by members of his church and surrendered by his bondsmen, was locked in the county jail this afternoon, secure in his believed ability to establish his innocence of two charges which have been filed against him.

One is for the alleged use of the mails to defraud in connection with the operations of the J. E. Pope Oil Trust, and the other in connection with the organization of a "Texas klan" of which he claimed to be commander in chief. Last night his bondsmen surrendered him. Pope admitted that he had been organizing a "Texas klan" and that he was to have been the head of it, and that he intended that it should reach into other parts of the country.

"Why did you not obtain a charter for it," he was asked.

"I had to have charter members before I could obtain a charter," he replied.

"Was it formed along the lines of the ku klux klan" was the next question put to him, to which he replied that he did not know. The accused man's "Texas klan" literature sets out that an applicant must be a Gentile of protestant faith, not a member of the Knights of Columbus or the Roman Catholic church. The oath forbids that any of the secret pass words, pledges, oaths or other sacred rituals of the order shall be disclosed.

WICHITA RELIEF DRIVE NOT OVER

The drive Thursday to raise $3,000 for Japanese relief, the quota of the local Red Cross chapter, did not go over according to expectations and less than half of the quota was raised, Chairman Horace Robbins said last night.

"The people are not contributing as they should. Those who should be giving $25 are getting off for five or 10 dollars. Practically every city in the country has raised its quota easily. Unless Wichitans respond more freely today than yesterday, the drive will not be a success," Ribbins said.

Dempsey and Firpo Confident On Eve Of Greatest Battle Of Time

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Pre-fight declaration of confidence of their conquering ability were flung out tonight by Jack Dempsey and Luis Angel Firpo.

Statements of the fighters follow:

Jack Dempsey: "I have trained hard for this match because I expect it will be a tough one. I do not pay any attention to those who expect Firpo will be an easy opponent. I am not holding him lightly, but I do not fear him. Firpo is big and strong and dangerous. They are all dangerous until you have them on the floor. I am in good condition, and if beaten, will have no alibis to offer. If I can end the fight in one round, I'll do it, because I can't take any chances with him. Perhaps the fight will go further as many believe, for Firpo can take a lot of punishment. I'll give him plenty of chances to demonstrate this, because I expect to sock as hard as I can from the start, but not take any early risks myself. He is too dangerous with his right hand."

Luis Angel Firpo: "I am in good shape and I feel like fighting as I never have before. In the arena there will be many voices raised against me. In far off countries where Latin tongues are spoken they will be expecting me to win. I am confident; I am not afraid. If I am knocked down again and again, I will come up again and again. There will be no towels to shed from my corner. I don't think Jack Dempsey can beat me and I don't think he can stand up under my punches. I came to the United States to win the world's heavyweight title; I conquered every man that stood on the road to the great test. On my body there are no scars of those battles; in my heart is no fear of any living thing. I think I will conquer Dempsey."

"BARGAIN BABY" IS BELIEVED FOUND

By The Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 13.—Claiming that they believe her to be the famous bargain baby of Thelma Adams, who was taken from its mother after its birth in a maternity hospital here three years ago, county authorities tonight took charge of little Ruth Darrah when they found her hidden in a home in the suburbs, where she had been taken by Mrs. Agnes Darrah, her foster mother, at 3 o'clock last Tuesday morning when Mrs. Darrah, lying seriously ill on a cot, was carried from her apartment in a hotel in the business district and who since, has not been found.

When Mrs. Darrah and the child, which she claims is not the missing baby, fled from the hotel to avoid the service of commitment papers on Mrs. Darrah for contempt of court, police immediately instigated a search for the woman and child. Thursday afternoon they received a tip which they followed and found the child, which had been placed with a family of friends, while the mother made her escape. A court battle will not follow to establish absolute identity of the child, and if it is shown that Mrs. Adams is the mother it will be turned over to her.

Rotary Luncheon.

Telling how the "Native Son" of California put into Rotary the same spirit he puts into the building of his state, Dr. N. F. Grafton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, told the local Rotarians in the weekly Thursday luncheon at the Kemp yesterday the California Rotary system.

Dr. Grafton has recently returned from an extended trip to California where he attended sessions of the Long Beach and the Los Angeles Rotary clubs. C. U. Daniels presided at the meeting, introducing a new Rotarian, George E. Sopher, formerly president of the Streator, Ill., Rotary club. I. H. Roberts introduced guests.

Killing frosts which prevailed in Minnesota and South Dakota found crops very largely harvested, weather bureau officials reported.

CONFESSION

were given by Dr. Walker to whip these four boys, including Frank Cole, tell what orders, if any, Dr. Walker gave in the ku klux klan hall."

"To the whole body of about 500 men, Dr. Walker made this statement from the position of exalted cyclops: 'Gentlemen, there are four men of this city that we have got to spank and we have got to spank hard, and do it as soon as possible because they are members of what is known as the anti-ku klux klan, and gentlemen, while you spank 'em, spank 'em hard.' At which time he received unanimous applause. Following which ——— jumped up and saluted the cyclops for permission to speak and stated that, 'Yes, it must be done and I am the guy that can do it'."

"After which Park Wyatt, the legal adviser for the ku klux klan gained the floor and in a speech to the entire body he stated that it must be done, and done right away, and done right, for the reason that they were members of the anti-ku klux klan and if they were not looked after they would get the upper hand of the klan."

"Who was in charge of the detachment that took Franke Cole out?"

"Major C. M. Reber."

"Was Major Reber present at the time Frank Cole and the other three boys were seized and taken out?"

"Yes, Sir."

"Was he in robes?"

"Yes sir."

"The regalia of the ku klux klan?"

"Yes, sir, the regalia of the ku klux klan."

Further the confessor alleges that he overheard a conversation between Ira Sims and Reber, in which Sims, chief of police, agreed that none of his officers would interfere with the floggings, and he, Sims, advised Reber to give them a ——— of a whipping."

Chief Sims vigorously denies such charges.

The confession reads that the victims were taken out by men in white robes, all of them armed.

Acts of the floggers were alleged to have been executed under the advisement of Dr. Walker.

The penalty for riot in Oklahoma is from two to twenty years.

"We don't want martial law in Shawnee. I believe the situation here is well in hand and there is no need for it," said County Attorney Hendon.

CATTLE RANGES ARE IMPROVING

Rains Late in August Relieved a Serious Situation

HOUSTON, Texas, Sept. 13.—Range conditions have changed greatly for the better since the last report and prospects are now good for fall and winter grass, it is reported by H. H. Schutz, statistician, U. S. division of livestock estimates. The hot, dry weather of July continued until late in August when rains and lower temperatures relieved a situation that was rapidly becoming serious. The ranges were very dry, but grass will have time to make a good start before danger of frost. It is expected that cattle will go into the winter in good condition. While the Texas corn crop is short this year, the corn belt has an increased production and the demand for cattle to go there is expected to be good.

Cattle ranges were reported as 78 per cent of normal which is five points below the August 1 condition. The sheep ranges dropped in condition from 87 per cent on August 1 to 80 per cent on September 1. Farm pastures reached their lowest point of 61 per cent last month since 1918 when 44 per cent was recorded on September 1. The recent heavy rains have corrected conditions greatly and grass is again beginning to green.

Cattle held their flesh fairly well during the month, the decline of three points since August 1 not being unusual. It is considered that ample time remains for ranges to improve and for cattle to take on flesh before cold weather sets in. The drier, heavily stocked sections shipped heavily during the month. Prices of cattle remain practically the same as a month ago. The number of heavy calves be shipped this fall is estimated at 73 per cent of the 1922 fall shipments. The northwest expects to ship 74 per cent; the north 67 per cent; northeast 72 per cent; west 80 per cent; west-center 66 per cent; east 62 per cent; south 74 per cent; and the southeast 78 per cent.

The receipts at the Fort Worth stockyards during August, 1920-23, were as follows:

	Cattle	Calves	Sheep
1920	60,325	41,567	16,471
1921	76,653	57,646	35,905
1922	72,463	39,795	23,762
1923	115,547	48,460	25,942

The condition of sheep remains at 92 per cent, the same as on August 1, while that of goats has declined three points and is reported as 93 per cent. Notwithstanding the hot, dry month, sheep held their own continuing to thrive on dry feed. The recent heavy rains will improve the ranges and insure ample fall and winter grazing. There has been but little trading on the ranges. Lambs were selling around $5.00 and muttons brought from $3.00 to $3.50. Trading in goats was slow. The fall wool clip is turning out well, being of good quality and free from foreign matter. Likewise, mohair is extra good in length, weight and quality.

Northwest: Range conditions greatly improved by recent rains; prospects good for fall and winter grass. The usual September and October rains are expected to supply ample feed for stock and they should go into the winter in good condition. Trading on the range is slow; little demand exists except for calves, a few being contracted at $20.00 for November 1 delivery. Dry cows are fat; those with calves are not so good.

North and northeast: Until the rains came, short grass and shortage of water caused concern; cattle held their condition well. No restocking was being done. Prices are rather low with sales slow and draggy. Some Jersey stock was shipped to dairymen. Stalk fields will be available soon.

West: Grass is greening and coming well since rains; prospects for winter grazing is good. Cattle are mending and will go into the winter in good condition. A few calves have been contracted at 6 and 6 1-2 cents for November 1 and December 1 delivery. Sales on the range of other classes have been slow. Many calves have been shipped to California during the past two months. Sheep are doing well. Lambs are selling fast; no demand for ewes.

West center: Drouth and grasshopper damage have set ranges back; the recent rains have improved conditions. The Concho Hereford Breeders association expects to sell from 15,000 to 20,000 calves this fall direct to feeders. Sheep and goats continue to do well; fall wool and mohair is now being shorn.

Center and east: Cattle are expected to go into the winter in good condition; the range was becoming short; but has lately had good rains. Shipments have been considerable; no trading on the range. It is thought that as many steers will be fed as last year.

South: Ranges were becoming very dry, but have been revived by the recent beneficial rains. It is not unusual for July and August to be dry and cattle to lose some flesh. Calf shipments have been heavy, but are slowing up now. Cattle are becoming free from ticks and are in healthy condition. The rains have saved many from having to ship out.

Strange Tale Told Following a Dose Of "Truth Serum"

SHREVEPORT, Sept. 13.—Scopolumin, the recently discovered truth serum, was used for the first time in Shreveport Wednesday afternoon when Dr. E. L. Sanderson administered a dose to Arthur Johnson, who was shot by the police, after he had robbed the home of J. P. Evans here last night.

After being captured, Johnson was doggedly silent for several hours, refusing to discuss his past, although he freely admitted the Evans robbery and scopolumin was administered after all other attempts to get him to talk had failed.

After receiving the "truth serum" Johnson lay quiet for about 15 minutes seemingly in a half stupor. A faint flush appeared in his face and he seemed to revive and he became restless and talkative.

"Doctor," he said, "Am I going to die?"

"I'm afraid," replied the doctor.

"Are you sure?"

"Yes, almost sure."

"Do you swear it?"

"Yes, I'd almost swear it."

Johnson regarded the doctor for a minute and then said:

"Hold up your right hand."

The doctor complied.

"You swear before God that I'm going to die?"

"Yes," replied the doctor.

Johnson then said: "Well, I guess I might as well tell my name," he said and made a full confession as follows:

"My name is Arthur Johnson, I am 40 years old. I came to Shreveport two days ago with about $50 in my possession. I have a brother, Gordon Johnson who lives on a farm at Milam, Mo., another brother, John Johnson, who is a machinist for the Santa Fe railroad at Topeka.

"I have served time in the Peoria, Ill., pen for burglary and larceny. I also have served a term in the Ohio state pen. Leavenworth has my record and finger prints.

"I have committed several burglaries and I always commit my crimes armed.

"Last fall I held up and robbed a man and a woman in a home at Carthage, Mo., and took a watch and a suit of clothes. A man named Jim Dawson, a dope fiend was arrested and confessed to this crime. He was sentenced to 20 years in the pen at Jefferson, Mo. Dawson's confession was false.

"I hold no grudge against any one and I got what is coming to me. I congratulate the officers who shot me for doing their duty.

"Johnson said his personal effects were hidden some place in the city. He said that he had a great desire to see something done for Dawson who he claims is an old man. He also asked for the officers who captured him expressing a desire to see them.

JAZZ CHANGES THE PLANS OF PRINCE

By The Associated Press.

QUEBEC, Sept. 13.—The trains of American jazz music upset the plans of Baron Renfrew, better known as the prince of Wales tonight. He had planned to pass a quiet evening in his suite at the Chateau Frontanic after his arrival on the Empress of France today, and a round of golf this evening. He returned from a shopping tour, sat by an open window gazing down at the St. Lawrence, when .....syncopated melodies floated through the air.

Baron Renfrew became again the prince of Wales who visited Canada four years ago. He announced his intention of attending the dance in the hotel and Quebec's younger set was on hand.

BUSINESS BOOMS IN MEXICO NOW

Recognition to Be Celebrated in State of Sinaloa

Culiacan Mexico

The news of the recognition of Mexico by the government of the United States was received with demonstrations of great rejoicing in political circles in Culiacan, which is the capital of the state of Sinaloa, as well as in the cities of Mazatlan, San Blas, Navojoa, Sinaloa and Tepic, especially as the report of the commission was accepted and the country recognized without requiring a formal treaty. In business circles also great elation is manifested over the event, as tending to stimulate commercial activity and merchants are already preparing to enlarge their operations as a consequence and generally it is felt that the way is now open to firm and enduring friendly relations between the two powers. On this coast it is expected that the volume of business will be more than doubled before the new year as a direct consequence.

The govrnor of Sinaloa Gen. Rivas wishing to show his appreciation of our government's action, has suggested that 16th of September, Mexico's independence day be observed with special festivities celebrating the recognition by the United States and to that end has invited all Americans to take part in the ceremonies of that day, which commemorates the birth of Mexican independence. Thus the day will be equally observed as commemorating the great historical event in Mexico's early history and to express the rejoicing of the people over the resumption of friendly relations with the United States which is expected to mark the dawn of a new era of prosperity in this land after many troublesome years of strife. Confidence is being restored on all sides, mining operations are taking on a new impetus agriculture is receiving its share of attention among investors, and stock raising begins to show signs of returning to its former activity; altogether the outlook is indeed encouraging. Heavy crops are reported in the agricultural section, prices are strengthening and with the completion of the canal work so far advanced in this locality, and of others under construction in the northern parts of the state, farming is expected to participate in the boom.

With the passing of the rainy season mining engineers and investors are beginning to arrive in considerable numbers, which indicates a revival of interest in this great industry, and it is expected that several large properties that have lain dormant during the past few years on account of unsettled conditions will soon again be in operation.

Police Band.

HARLINGEN.—The police band of the city of Mexico will play here as a feature of the annual Rio Grande Valley fair, it has been announced by officers of the association. The fair will be held in December. Official permission for the musical organization to come here has been received.

Communist Party Was Formed On Mountain Top In Secret Drama

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—A description purporting to show that the Communist Party of America was founded amid dramatic secrecy atop a mountain in the Catskills 28 months ago, and has mushroomed over the United States and Canada, is contained in the fifth of a series of articles made public today by the United Mine Workers of America, charging a movement to bring America under the banner of the Moscow communists.

At first, the article asserted, the party was an "underground" organization, functioning in secrecy. Today according to the miners, it has a membership, direct and auxiliary of 1,000,000, with interlocking directorates binding it to 45 national organizations and 200 locals, and working in the open.

Prior to May, 1921, the communist international was represented as having become so impotent through federal prosecution and deportation of members that formation of an "underground" society was determined upon.

Gather On Mountain Top

And, so, having chosen one of the most historically primitive spots in the east as a setting, "70 communist leaders, representing the two factions of the communist party and the United communist party, gathered in the ancient hotel on the top of Overlook mountain on the morning of May, 15, 1921, to compose their differences and unite in a single group, to be known as the communist party of America," said the article.

"This assembly was not only at the command of Lenin and Zinoviev of the communist international, but it was accompanied with the threat that if the factional differences were not aside and a united front presented for invading the labor unions of the United States, no more money would be forthcoming from Moscow for financing the revolutionary movement in this country. Up to that time Moscow had contributed money to both of these factions, but had decided that their hostility to each other was neutralizing the results of their work.

Lenin Emissary Present

A personal emissary of Lenin and Zinoviev was alleged to have dominated the session.

"Silent and taciturn, this emissary met the 70 delegates near Kingston, N. Y.," the narrative continued. "They were conveyed to the foot of Overlook mountain in automobiles. Guards saluted them along the roads. For more than two weeks these guards had been stationed in the vicinity of Fort Montgomery Tannersville, Saugherties and Kingston. Trains arriving at these towns were observed by sentinels. A guard remained behind the delegates to watch the village marshal in Woodstock. Other guards were scatteren around the countryside as farm hands There were guards also in the Grand Central station at New York."

Military Discipline.

When the party reached the hotel, military discipline was alleged to have been inaugurated. Delegates were forbidden to write letters or take notes. Twice a day everyone was searched. An out-of-bounds was established and as night approached guards could be seen signalling each other with flashlights from the mountain tops that all was well."

Thus, according to the article, was born the communist party of America, and "the central executive committee of the new party was chosen from among the prime leaders of the communist organizations throughout the country." These committee members were alleged to have had places on the central executive committe of the workers party when it later was founded.

Platform Adopted.

"Mass action by the workers; seizure of labor unions and converting them into militant enterprises; boring from within the American Federation of Labor, and, in particular, the United Mine Workers of America," was the platform adopted, declares the article.

"The extreme radicals are promoting the revolutionary movement, and a dozen intermediate degrees of 'liberal' radicals and 'parlor pinks' are co-operating with them intimately and closely, so that the contact is complete from end to end of the scale," the article charged, referring to organizations alleged to be allied with the communists. "There is no gap or breaking point.

"A large volume of pernicious ultra-radical activity is centered around Los Angeles than any other city in the United States with the exception of the metropolitan district of New York. Revolutionary radicalism is profitable around Los Angeles because it is made so by the wealthy 'intellectuals' there who are dabbling in it.

"Pernicious and revolutionary propaganda distributed among the coal miners in the strike of 1922 and intended to arose them to violence and 'mass action' was, in a number of instances turned out by so-called popular authors and novelists in Los Angeles who are receiving from $600 to $800 a month from the 'intellectual pinks' of that vicinity for doing that sort of thing."

M'CRAY'S MISTAKE.

Governor Warren T. McCray of Indiana is of the opinion that what the farmer needs is markets and not sympathy. He is also of the opinion that nothing would be better for the price of wheat than to dump a million bushels into the Atlantic ocean today. Posing as a prophet this Indiana governor predicts that within three years farming will be on a highly paying basis.

Governor McCray was the most successful farmer in Indiana until he threw his hat in the ring eight years ago and asked the Hoosiers, or at least the republican hoosiers, to make him governor of that state. He was the owner of 15,000 acres of the finest farm land in the state. He owned hundreds of heads of cattle and all were prize winners. He was the president of a flourishing bank. He added to his fortune every year.

As a farmer he had been crowned with success. As a breeder of prize winning stock he had been crowned with success. As a banker he had been a winner. He made a failure in his first attempt to win the gubernatorial prize, and his enemies say and his friends admit that he spent a lot of money chasing his hat around the ring. Four years later he made another trial and victory crowned him as a favored son. This made him one of the political bosses of Indiana, but he lost where he had won.

One day he came out of his trance and made the discovery that he owed upwards of two million dollars and must face the music. He had more than a hundred creditors. He called them together. His assets greatly exceeded his liabilities and now a committee of twelve of his creditors, all his friends, will handle his affairs until the McCray fortunes have been rescued and his losses recouped.

This man who was a successful farmer, a successful breeder of fine stock and a successful banker found himself with too many irons in the fire after his election to high office, and now he is paying the price. His financial difficulties, he blames on the deflation of farm prices and the depression of land prices. He is not croaking about it. He has neither attacked nor assailed the federal reserve system or the bankers who operate it. He is not asking for sympathy. All he asked of his creditors was to give him time and they granted it.

Is it true that the shoemaker should stick to his last? If it is then Warren T. McCray was guilty of a collosal blunder when he deserted the farm for the political arena.

HUMAN NATURE ON THE JOB.

John Bull made a profit of almost forty-five million dollars on the sale of surplus cateen supplies left by the army and navy after the war and all the profits go to the relief of disabled veterans of the war. John was furious when he discovered that most of the low priced goods were sold to former officials of the sales board. Human nature appears to be the same in all countries. It is impossible to fool a buzzard.

STUDY THE MITS, YOUNG MAN.

Prize fighting is the most profitable business under the flag. Professor Jack Dempsey and the South American slugger are responsible for a ticket sale that will go beyond $1,250,000. Professor Dempsey will get $350,000 win or lose; the South American slugger will get $150,000 win or lose. Study the mits, young man, study the mits.

NUECES CROWDING THE FIELD.

West Texas cotton growers sent out a call for 12,000 cotton pickers and the call was answered. As a cotton producing section West Texas is on the map this year. However, Nueces county growers have picked and ginned more than 80,000 bales and it is said that the cotton was sold as fast as it was picked at a price around 23 cents a pound. According to the returns the boll weevil has deserted the Nueces river cotton plantations.

BOOTLEGGERS DEMAND PROTECTION.

California bootleggers are opposed to the league of nations, importations of foreigners or foreign made goods and are calling for the building of a Chinese wall around the republic. They had been getting a hundred dollars a case for whiskey when British rum ships appeared off the coast of California where they coaled and sold liquor over the side of the ship. They did not sell it for a hundred dollars a case. They scabbed on the job and to all comers they made a price of $20 a case.

Native sons and native products should be afforded protection. Why should the pauper labor or the pauper made goods of foreign countries be permitted within the three-mile limit or any other limit? It is different in Texas. Dr. Atticus Webb has made the city of Dallas as dry as a bone. All this has happened since the Somervill distillers were put out of business by the rangers.

These Somervill gentlemen had built up a very flourishing business and all the shipments were made to buyers in the city of Dallas. This admission was made by a high official in the city of Dallas, who is at the prosecuting end of the game.

It appears that the Somervill moonshine makers had been busy for a long time, they made large quantities of liquid fire and they found a ready market for their product. Now all the officers of Dallas and Tarrant and adjoining counties are on the trail of the brazen violators of the eighteenth amendment and Dr. Volstead's act.

There are said to be fifty counties in Texas where the corn grown is turned into mash and the mash into "likker."

WHAT RECOGNITION DID.

Mexican recognition has given an impetus to the financial and industrial growth of El Paso. Business men of that city are going to build a five hundred thousand dollar cotton mill and to begin operations with a working capital of $100,000 cash. Work on the new mill will be started in October and the plant will be used in the manufacture of denims, duck, cement sacks and other low grade products. Promoters of the factory did not go to New England for the money. They found it at home.

So Goes It

Lorna Ambler, Australian actress, is grieving because she waited two years for Lou Tellegen to get a divorce to marry him, and then was rejected. Why should she worry about a little thing like that? There'll be another one along in a minute.

A Belgian Congo chief has announced his intention of turning over 50 of his wives to his son and heir. An American missionary is going over to see the chief and try and talk him out of it. Our idea of a wild goose chase. No man should be expected to keep fifty wives, especially when he has fifty more in reserve.

One thing is certain: There aren't any permanent waves or clothes in that neck of the woods. If there were no man could support 50 wives, to say nothing of a hundred.

R. E. Shepherd ought to get in on the royalties from "Yes, we have no Bananas." He certainly is doing his bit toward making it famous.

What Mr. Shepherd really is doing is boosting the Texas-Oklahoma fair. And he's doing a good job of it, and having plenty of assistance. It isn't hard to boost for anything that you know to be worth while.

We have a fear that Governor Walton is violating Rule Five of the Order of Owls: That he is taking himself (and everything else) too seriously. Everywhere he looks in on a local situation, he reports "the situation serious." Funny how Oklahoma seemed to be getting along in pretty fair shape until Walton was chosen governor.

A Better English Contest.

One Mother Says:

To overcome the present slovenly habit so common among school children of using an inadequate vocabulary and making one word do the work of many words, I have instituted a dictionary game for my children. I insist that the proper word be used, even to the shades of meaning, and on Saturday afternoon the child who can give to me the longest list of words which he has learned to spell, define, and use during the week receivs a simple prize—always something worth having.

WHAT TODAY MEANS
BY MARY BLAKE.

Virgo.

Excellent vibrations influence the day, therefore, it is very favorable for important matters, new undertakings and the giving way to all desires. Success is obvious and certain. The evening has happiness and pleasure in store for those who are looking for it.

A child born this day will be talented and fortunate but unruly and disobedient.

Yours is the merry way of life, if today is your birthday, and nothing can happen to you in which you will not be able to find a laugh even if it be at your own expense. You have the mind of a poet and the disposition of a jester.

Intellectually you are alert and enthusiastic, and easily carried to rapturous excesses by the swiftness and beauty of your own thoughts.

You have a good memory but one over which you have practically no discipline whatever—it will serve you up what it pleases regardless of what you ordered and nine times out of ten you will be content.

You are incurably romantic and no matter what task you are working at it is never quite so hard nor so important as your opinion of it. Then there are times when you think of something else and cannot keep your mind on the work in hand. It would be well for you to have some simple, easy profession by which you earn a living and then give all your serious thought to play, for you will probably do so anyway.

Unless you find some such vocation as journalism or lecturing or writing, you will surely neglect your business. You should write well and talk convincingly, especially in public for you choose your words carefully then, but amongst your family and friends you are very thoughtless about what you say and often cause great feeling of animosity. Emotionally you are affectionate and extremely responsive. The opposite sex inspires you to your best efforts and are never completely yourself unless you are in the presence of one of them, preferably one who adores you. This should not be difficult for you, as you are very popular with the opposite sex. Your system of attracting them is indifference, and strange to say it works in your case.

Successful people born on your birthday, are: Wm. H. Irwin, author; Charles Dana Gibson, artist and illustrator; Hamlin Garland, author.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE

We do not know whose feet tracked up
The nice clean kitchen floor;
We're certain it was not the pup;
He can't unlatch the door.
The cat, if we suspected her,
Could prove an alibi.
Outside the house she will not stir
Excepting when it's dry.
The guilt is difficult to fix,
For we are short of clews—
Still, Tommy rose today at six
And cleaned and shined his shoes.

A jar of jam was broached last night,
By whom we do not know;
The silverware was quite all right,
Repeated countings show.
The windows all were tightly closed
No cause have we to fear—
(As some of us at first supposed),
That burglars have been here.
The culprit we have failed to trace,
But Ethelinda said
That brother Tommy washed his face
Before he went to bed.

The cat, with an embarrassed air,
Came in the other day
And we observed that all her hair
Was neatly clipped away.
We do not know whose hand it was
That brutally made free
With pussy's glossy fur, because
We were not there to see.
We have no reason, we suppose,
For blaming any one—
Still, little Tommy brushed his clothes
The day the deed was done.

WE HOPE SO ANY WAY

Perhaps the establishment of a world court will breed a little more world courtesy.

The Colonization Questionaire Who Answered.

Yesterday we noted that there was every reason to believe on account of the fact that the questionaire was long and because it was sent out by mail that but meagre returns would be received. As a matter of fact over 50 per cent of those addressed made returns and replies are still coming in.

An examination of the list and land owners discloses the fact that about 20 per cent of the parties addressed were oil companies, estates, residents in other states and corporations, such as the railroad companies and the city of Wichita Falls. Such owners could hardly be expected to answer a questionaire about colonization because, in the case of the corporations they could not sell; in the case of oil companies they are interested only in oil; and in the case of estates, the title may be in such a condition as to prevent the sale of the property.

Out of the above class only one or two questionaires were returned. If we deduct the 20 per cent covering the above classes, this leaves about 30 per cent of the land owners that should have answered but for some reason did not.

If we eliminate the 20 per cent from out list and consider the remainder as a whole, then the replies amount to about 62 per cent. This, it must be acknowledged, is a fair return and, if we remember that in a mail questionaire, only those interested reply it would indicate that the majority of those owning land that can be sold are interested enough to answer a long exhaustive set of questionaires and send them in.

It would seem that the rule governing mail questionaires, that is, only those interested answer, is fulfilled in this case, but this very fact makes the result more valuable for the fundamentals of any colonization plan is based on the desire of the land owner to sell all or part of their holdings. If none of the land owners wanted to sell, there could be no colonization.

Appliqued Flowers Very Much in Vogue Just Now

GLORIA SWANSON IN NASTURTIUM TAFFETA TRIMMED IN APPLIQUED NASTURTIUMS

The appliqued flower trim is in vogue.

In seasons past, it was the appliqued flower of self material that trimmed the frocks. Now it is the regular French hand-made flower, made to look as much like the real thing as is humanly possible.

One of these lovely flower frocks is shown in the photo above of Gloria Swanson. It is of nasturtium taffeta, shot with gold. The skirt is draped and drawn smartly over to the left hip, where it seems to tie in a large stiff bow of many ends. From this bow trails a border of nasturtiums of the brightest hues—oranges, scarlets, yellow—all of the colors of the real flower.

Miss Swanson's head band is of the same material as her gown, and on it are appliqued more of the flowers. Some of them come down over the ears at each side in a very decorative and becoming manner. Gloria wore this flower frock in the East during the late summer, while making "Zaza," as a Paramount picture.

The upper sketch shows a collar formed of nasturtiums. It is tied up on the shoulder by a brown velvet ribbon, and goes with an evening gown of bronze cloth. This collar and the bow are the only trimming on the frock.

The lower sketch shows a band and fan of appliqued chrysanthemums. The chrysanthemums are of an orchid pink shade, and trim a silver gown.

Borders, girdles, panels—all can be made charming by the application of flowers. And, very often, these flowers come in colors that cannot be got every day in silks, and therefore make up something unusual in the gown line.

Of course, the smaller flowers are more amenable in the dressmakers' hands, and serve to make a dress less bulky, but the effect of a large exotic South Sea poppy over one hip is not to be underestimated.

TODAY'S POEM

The Penitent.

I had a little sorrow,
Born of a little sin,
I found a room all damp with gloom
And shut us all within;
And "Little Sorrow, weep," said I.
And, "Little Sin, pray God to die,
And upon the floor will lie,
And think how bad I've been!

Alas for pious planning—
It mattered not a whit!
As far as gloom went in that room,
The lamp might have been lit!
My little Sorrow would not weep
My little Sin would go to sleep—
To save my soul I could not keep
My graceless mind on it!

So up I got in anger,
And took a book I had,
And put a ribbon in my hair
To please a passing lad.
And, "one thing there's no getting by
I've been a wicked girl" said I;
"But if I can't be sorry, why,
I might as well be glad!

Empress—Tom Mix in "Catch My Smoke."

Julius Stern, president of Century Comedies posted a bunch of signs around the studio a few weeks ago suggesting that stars and actors make use of the wide array of courses offered at the University of California after working hours.

As a result, Jack Earle, the seven foot giant, Joe Bonner, Jack Cooper, Marjorie Marcel, Ernie Adams, Johnnie Ralesco and Ted Ross are slinging a bookstrap and attending classes again.

Some are taking literature, some additional knowledge of the moving picture business, some scenario or short story writing, and some public speaking and dramatics.

Al Herman and Edward Luddy, directors for Century are enrolling now, and will begin classes next week.

"Irene" was all there!

Many priceless articles went under the hammer at the Paramount Long Island studio this week when Sam Wood staged the auction scene for "His Children's Children," Arthur Train's novel which is being done in screen form, but not a cent of money changed hands.

The "three complex" at the Goldwyn studios continues.

"The Eternal Three" has just been completed by Marshall Nellan.

King Vidor just made "Three Wise Fools."

Elinor Glyn and Carey are work-on "Three Weeks."

And Charles Brabin, not to be outdone, comes along with a multitude of the number in "Six Days."

But then, why shouldn't three be a popular number. The Goldwyn studios used to be the Triangle lot.

Several hundred ex-British soldiers, veterans of the Great War, South African war, and Egyptian campaign recently took part in a big scene made for George Melford's Paramount picture "The Light That Failed" in Hollywood. This picture is being made from the famous story by Rudyard Kipling. The featured players are Jacqueline Logan, Percy Marmont, Sigrid Holmquist and David Torrence.

Mary Astor, featured in the Paramount picture "The Marriage Maker" says the six pictures she likes best are "The Birth of a Nation, "Broken Blossoms," "Jack-Knife Man," "Shoulder Arms" "The Four Horsemen" and "Only 38."

Jean Lowell, one of the latest of motion picture "finds" was taken on board her father's ship at the age of three months on a desperate effort to stem the tide of death which medical men forecasted. Suffering from malnutrition the infant was nursed by her sea-captain father on the usual ship's rations.

Today at the age of seventeen she is considered a sturdy example of American girlhood and is on the brink of receiving the highest screen honors through her work in Associated Authors' production of "Loving Lies," Thompson Buchanan's screen version of Peter B. Kyne's famous story, "The Harbor Bar," which is nearing completion under plans for release through Allied Producers and Distributors corporation.

This good looking young Romeo who has so successfully won his way into the hearts of screen fans is making another big step on the ladder of fame in D. W. Griffith's "White Rose," that comes to the Strand next week.

Mae Marsh makes a wonderful come back in this picture, a comeback that assures her instant success. She does not come back older, more thoughtful, more matronly, as we might suspect; she comes back to us the same Mae Marsh. There is only one Mae Marsh!

Cotton Shipment Increase.

DALLAS—Cotton shipments by Texas railroads to state points during the last 30 days have exceeded by 20 per cent shipments of the same period last year, according to statistics compiled at Southern Pacific railroad stations. A heavier movement is expected during the next 30 days, it was said.

Sub Rosa

By MIMI.

Time was when the very delicate type of heroine hold full away in fiction. She was created frail because the writers believed that "sympathy was kin to love" so girls in th books fainted and coughed and wept, thus arousing the sympathy and manliness and strength of their lovers. They could be carried up four flights of stairs or snatched to the saddle of a horse, and their Lotharios never lost a breath.

They were light of weight and small of stature.

What a contrast those heroines are to our girls of today! No wild hysteria or sham faints or swooning for them, thank you. They are ashamed of tears, and ill health went out when girl scouts became popular.

They can change a fire or swing a bat as well as the next fellow.

Sad day for them if they do not win a swimming contest or a match of tennis or a game of golf

They are of longer-lived stock than their frail sisters and I prophecy that they are here to stay.

Stage All Set For Famed "Battle of Continent"

CHAMPION JACK BIG FAVORITE ON EVE OF FIGHT; WILD BULL OF PAMPAS RELYING ON WALLOP

Big Fight Attracts Greatest Interest Since Dempsey-Carpentier Battle; More Than Ninty Thousand People to See Ring Classic.

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Two modern gladiators—Jack Dempsey and Luis Angel Firpo—will match their speed, courage and punch tonight in the greatest test of their careers—a "battle of the continents," in which that greatest prize of the ring, the heavyweight championship of the world, will be at stake.

The American holder of the title, king in the squared circles of the last four years, will go into the conflict with his bronzed grim-visaged South American an overwhelming favorite, among close followers of the game, to win, and to win decisively, but while expert analysis of the fight—the "dope"—all points toward victory for the champion, those who have followed the meteoric rise of Firpo, believe that the "mighty right" that has thrust aside all opposition heretofore, may upset calculations and bring triumphs to the "Wild Bull of the Pampas."

Attracting the greatest interest of any international encounter for ring honors since the Dempsey-Carpentier battle two years ago, the 15 round title match at the Polo Grounds—home of the New York Giants tomorrow night promises to rival as a spectacle that historic struggle in which the champion vanquished his rival from France.

A throng of more than 90,000 will pay approximately $1,340,000 to witness the fight, according to Tex Rickard.

The promoter declared tonight that revised figures of builders who erected vast temporary additions to the field showed a total of 90,374 seats. He predicted that every one of these would be occupied and that sufficintuo would be occupied and that sufficient standing room would be filled to swell this total by several thousands.

Thus the crowd may rival the record attendance of approximately 93,000 at the Dempsey-Carpentier bout in Boyle's Thirty Acres, but the "gate" even at its maximum will not be able to eclipse the record of $1,600,000 set by the "Battle of the Century."

The promoter announced that but a few thousand reserved seats remained unsold tonight, most of them of $16.50 and $22.00 denominations with a few of the ringside pasteboards at $27.50. The cheaper reserved sections were sold out. When gates to the arena are opened at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, 5,000 unreserved seats at $3.30 each will be put on sale.

Meanwhile, however, ticket speculators were reported to be doing a thriving business, despite the combined efforts of federal, state and local officials to check their activities. Ringside seats were said to be available in the theatrical district at prices ranging from $60 to $150 a piece.

Wagering on the outcome of the fight, which so far has been comparatively light, gained impetus with the arrival of thousands from out of town. The confidence of majority in Dempsey's ability to win was reflected in the odds, which lengthened on the champion with reports of several large wagers at three to one that he would be the victor. One bet of $15,000 to $5,000 was reported at these figures.

Among the numerous odd wagers was one at even money, $1,500 each, that Firpo would at least knock Dempsey down for a count.

The fighters, resting in seclusion over night, were pronounced in perfect condition. Dempsey this afternoon, after breaking camp at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., came to New York by train and went at once to a hotel. Firpo, who returned yesterday from his training quarters in Atlantic City, N. J., spent the day at his uptown apartment except for an hour or two this afternoon, when he attended a reception given in his honor by the Spanish Society. The fighters will meet tomorrow for the first time when they weigh in at the offices of the state athletic commission at 2 p. m.

Dempsey, it is believed, will force the fighting from the start, placing his reliance on the tactics which brought down Willard. They put the titleholder's main chance of victory in a rapid fire attack from the tap of the first gong.

Firpo has started slowly, somewhat cautiously, in most of his important fights so far. Should he elect this style of battle, he may be a mark for the champion's swift jolts. But if the Argentine weathers such a storm and still retains the fire of his offensive, experts believe he will have the championship in his grasp. It will be a struggle between a panther-like, swiftly weaving fighting machine, and an unorthodox, crude, but powerful and natural battler, an instinctive gladiator. On the one side, highly developed ring skill, experience and punching power will be arrayed against rugged stamina, a fair amount of generalship and terrific hitting prowess.

Under a change in the program, the title match tomorrow night will start as close to 9:30 o'clock, eastern daylight time, as possible, instead of 10 o'clock. Ring formalities, however, may cause some delay. Gene Tunney, American light-heavy-weight champion, who was slated to appear in the semi-final 12 round bout with Leo Gates, an Indian fighter, has been forced to withdraw because of an old injury to his right hand. Bartley Madden has been substituted. The bout will be held after the main affair.

Three preliminaries, starting at 8 o'clock will bring together lesser known heavyweights. They are between Mike Burke and Al Roberts, both of New York, six round; Leo Brown of Australia, and Dar Bright of England, six rounds; Jack Burke of Pittsburgh and Bill Reed of Columbus, Ohio, eight rounds.

SPUDDERS ENJOY DOVE DINNER AT LOCAL CLUB HOUSE

"Oh, boy! Worth a season's work." Bob Bescher grinned and smacked his lips. George Bischoff likewise grinned. Buddy Tanner grinned. The whole Spudder crew grinned. They had a right to!

The Spudder ball tossers were the guests of R. V. Colvert, of the Peters Cartridge company, and Arthur Salmon at a dove barbecue at the club house yesterday afternoon. Along with the officials of the baseball association the players enjoyed a real feast, the meal being served on a specially erected table near the club house. More than 100 doves, prepared at Arthur's White Kitchen especially for the boys, with all the "trimmings" composed the feast, which was ended with the slicing and partaking of several ice cold water melons.

The Spudders had an off day yesterday, and the bird barbecue was planned as a mark of appreciation of their faithfulness, by the two hosts.

Three Americans Still In Matches For Tennis Title

By The Associated Press.

GERMANTOWN CRICKET CLUB, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—Three Americans and one foreigner, a South African, came through this afternoon to the semi-finals in the lawn tennis singles championship of the United States at the Germantown Cricket club.

The Americans to survive were William T. Tilden of Philadelphia, three times national champion; William M. Johnston of San Francisco, holder of the world's title, won this year at Wimbledon, England; Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle, N. Y., finalist at Wimbledon, and Brian I. C. Norton, champion of South Africa.

The trio of Americans reached the semi-finals round according to expectations of lawn tennis men. Norton unexpectedly came through in brilliant five set victory over R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia, captain of this year's American Davis cup team.

Williams, who had been playing this year in the form that won his national championships in the past, was beaten by the courageous and resourceful play of the South African, who, blocked at one type of game, constantly switched his play to garner points.

Rickard Says Fight Will Be Hard For Jack

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Tex Rickard, tonight predicted an evenly waged battle tomorrow when Firpo and Dempsey clash.

"I look for a slashing fight with the odds of victory about even," declared the promoter. "I think the experts who pick Dempsey to win easily and quickly are all wrong. Firpo is a big, husky fellow, one of the strongest of strong men, and one of the hardest hitters I have ever seen. He has proved he can take lots of punishment and come back with a knockout wallop. Dempsey may have advantages in speed, experience, and generalship, but he is not the 'super-man' that a lot of critics would make him seem. He will have the hardest fight he has ever had to keep the championship."

When It Doesn't Rain It Doesn't Leak

A LEAKING roof doesn't cause much trouble while the sun shines.

An inferior valve cup can't do much harm in the supply house store room.

Actual oil pumping is the only true test of a valve cup, just as a rainstorm proves the value of a roof. And oil men, old in the field, know that Darcova Valve Cups stand up strongest where service is most severe. That's why you'll find "Darcovas" wherever oil is pumped in greater quantities, at lower cost.

Look for the name. Be sure you get the genuine.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
CITATION BY PUBLICATION

To the sheriff or any constable of Wichita county greetings:

You are hereby commanded to summon Geo. Daves by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the Eighty-Ninth district court of Wichita county, to be holden at the court house thereof, in Wichita Falls on the first Monday in October A. D. 1923, the same being the 1st day of October A. D., 1923, then and there to answer a petition filed in the Thirtieth district court on the 24th day of May A. D. 1923 and transferred to the Eighty-ninth district court in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 14387-C, wherein Catherine Jenne Daves is plaintiff, and Geo. Daves is defendant and said petition alleging that plaintiff and defendant were legally married in Wichita county, Texas, on June 3, 1920; that after the marriage of plaintiff and defendant, plaintiff treated the defendant with kindness and forbearance to the best of her ability discharged every duty imposed upon her by the marriage vow, but the defendant being unmindful of his obligations and an abled bodied man, failed and refused to work and provide for this plaintiff and the child borne to that union, towit, Juanita, a girl, born on August 27, 1921, and the defendent's failure and refusal to work and make any provision for the comfort and maintenance of the plaintiff and their said child constitutes the grossest and most inhuman treatment, because this plaintiff with her said child has been forced to work, has worked and is now working at the City Laundry to earn a livelihood for herself and her said child. That throughout said marriage defendant has never lived with plaintiff more than ten months and never more than three months at one time, but has been a worthless shiftless person who would travel from place to place and do nothing, and that when he was with plaintiff he has been unkind and has frequently cursed this plaintiff and abused her, and is a man of intemperate habits and adicted to the use of whiskey when it is available and has frequently become wholly intoxicated and while in such condition would curse and abuse this plaintiff and would otherwise conduct himself in a manner well calculated to and which did wound the feelings and alienate the affections of this plaintiff and the further living together of plaintiff and defendants as husband and wife has now been rendered wholly insupportable. Defendant is wholly unfit to have the care and custody of the said child, and plaintiff asks that its custody be decreed to her. Defendant is able to work and from time to time does work but has been spending his money wholly upon himself and in riotous living. He is able to and should be required to pay into this court for the support of the child of plaintiff and defendant the sum of at least $10 per week and plaintiff asks that an order be entered requiring the defendant so to do until said child is arrived at the age of majority or has married.

Plaintiff prays for judgement cancelling and annuling the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, for costs of suit, and that an order be entered forwith requiring the defendant Geo. Daves to pay into court for the use and benefit of the minor child at least $10 per week, and for general and special relief.

Herein fail not but have before said court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return there on showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls on this the 23 day of August A. D. 1923.

Chicago Grain.

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Huge crop estimates from Canada led to sharp breaks today in the price of wheat, and September delivery in Chicago dropped to below $1.00 a bushel. The close was weak, 1 5-8 to 2 cents net lower, with December 1.02 7-8 to 1.03 and May 1.08 3-8 to 1.08 1-2. Corn finished 5-8 to 1 1-2 cents down, oats 1-8 to 1-2 cent down, and provisions at 5 to 17 cents decline.

Predictions of a liberal movement of new corn to Chicago had a bearish effect on the corn market, despite predictions of frost. Oats held relatively steady in the absence of any rural offerings. Provisions were weak in line with hog values.

Cottonseed Oil Weak.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The market for cotton seed oil was weak under liquidation by recent buyers, due to weakness in the other commodities and a slightly easier tone to distant crude oil. Closing prices were 23 to 28 points net lower. Total sales 24,100 barrels. Prime crude 10.00 bid; prime summer yellow spot 11.20@11.50; September 11.20; December 10.10; March 10.15, all bid.

ROME, Sept. 12.—A dispatch to the Corriere D'Italia from Santa Quarantia says the Greek government has sent a communication to the Albanian government asking for the arrest of the Italians who it declared assassinated the Italian boundary mission headed by General Tellini.

The Albanians, according to the dispatch replied that the assassins were not Albanians but Greeks and that the Albanians were ready with pleasure to cross the Greek frontier in order to arrest them, if Greece could not.

Quotations from the local cotton market showed cotton to be selling on streets Thursday at 27 1-2 cents a pound and moving at the rate of 50 bales a day, according to W. C. Reeves manager of the Wichita Gin company. Cottonseed is selling at $45 a ton, according to Mr. Reeves.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—An opening decline in the cotton market was followed by rallies again today, but after selling up from 27.26 to 27.68, December broke to 27.16 in the late trading and closed at 27.20. The general market closed hardly steady at net declines of 24 to 31 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 8 to 22 points under overnight selling orders and showed net losses of 17 to 24 points right after the call owing to relatively easy cables an reports of continued good weather in the south. There was trade buying on the decline and prices turned upward later in the morning on favorable trade reports from Manchester and covering from Ocotober shorts who appeared to be growing uneasy over the small supplies now available here for delivery or for contracts for next month.

For a time the market showed considerable strength, advancing to 28.02 for October and 27.29 for January, or about 20 to 26 points net higher, but as soon as the near month demand slackened, prices again weakened. Reports as to the spot basis in the southwest conflicting, but expectations of a rapidly increasing movement were encouraged by a report that new crop cotton was just beginning to reach the Oklahoma market and sentiment around the ring seemed to be unsettled by the talk of falling prices on the stock market and firm call money rates.

Wall Street houses were among the more active sellers. On the afternoon decline, which extended into new low ground for the day with October selling at 27.51, and January at 26.75, or 25 to 33 points net lower. Some scattered southern hedge selling was reported here during the afternoon, and trade demand was said to be less active although a little buying for foreign trade account was noted toward the close. Last prices were within a point or two of the lowest, representing reactions of nearly a full cent a pound as compared with the high records of last Monday. Port receipts today 28,349. U. S. port stock 344,677. Exports today 14,792, making 375,842 so far this season.

New Orleans Cotton.

By The Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 13.—Conflicting accounts of the way things were going in the spot department were responsible for the largest fluctuations in the cotton market today and they carried prices both above and below yesterday's close.

From 26.80 around the opening, October swung upward to 27.15, but in the late trading was off to 26.74 and the closing range of sales on that position was 26.77 to 26.80. On the close, the showed net losses of 22 to 31 points.

In the early session, the continued dry weather over the greater part of the belt, poor cables and news of the revolt in Spain caused a break of 19 22 points. New buying met this decline, being encouraged by claims of a much higher spot basis in Texas, especially in the northern section, by reports of heavy freight bookings out of Texas for both September and October sailings and by rumors that spinners were fixing prices in a large way. The market gradually did better and around mid-session stood 16 to 26 points higher than the close of yesterday, this being the highest stage of the session.

In the last half of the day the tone was greatly effected by messages from the western belt stating the basis was higher only on long staple cotton and that it was easy on other descriptions. Houston wired that the basis in that market had lost about 30 points during the week. The market remained under the influence of such reports to the close.

Fort Worth Livestock.

By The Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 13.—Steady prices were paid for all classes of cattle Thursday and the calf trade was boosted to the extent of 25 cents. Receipts were moderate, the estimate calling for 2,500 head of cattle and 1,500 calves.

Approximately 15 carloads of steers were in the yards. Two cars of grass cattle were here and sold at 6 to 5.50. Fed cattle made up the remainder of the run, but quality was not very good and nothing reached $7. Car lots brought 6.60. Prices were considered steady.

A car of good cows sold at 4.50. Most of the supply went at a range of 1.50@2.65, canners and cutters again being in the majority. Bull prices remained about the same as usual, the general range being around 2.50@3.75.

One car sold at 7.50 and some south Texas calves in the southern division made 7.25; a large number of deals ranged from 6.00@7.00.

Hogs again fell close to 3,000 mark, the estimate being placed at 2,800 head. One car of strictly choice sort was purchased at 9.20, but most of the good hogs sold around 8.50@8.80. Packers started late and made their selections at rates that were mostly 10 to 20 cents lower. Their top was 9 and hogs at that value were choice. Good fat pigs again sold freely at $7 and the fair to good kinds were taken at a range of 6.00@6.75.

Receipts in the sheep division amounted to 5,000 head, but of that number at least 4,800 were feeder lambs on through billing. On lambs the market was quotably unchanged, but the goat deal was called 50 cents under last week's basis. A deck as good as the 3-cent goats of last week, had to go at 2.65 and another deck sold at $1.00.

MONEY At Work

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments.

Efficient handling of working capital is one of the best tests of the ability of a business management.

Yesterday "Money at Work" explained exactly what working capital is—current assets minus current liabilities.

Invested capital is useless without this working capital. Employees must be paid. Materials must be paid. If a management has not enough cash on hand to take advantage of market bargains, or perhaps discount bills, profits will be less.

If too much unproductive cash is kept on hand, the interest or profits it might earn are wasted.

Firms may go bankrupt with total assets greater than total liabilities because the managers have allowed working capital to be tied up in nonliquid investments. As a result current obligations cannot be paid.

Watch how a company handles its working capital!

MILLION SHARES SOLD ON MARKET

First Million-Share Day in Three Months—Reaction Follows

Market Features.

By The Associated Press

Total stock sales 1,046,200 shares. Twenty industrials averaged 90.03, net loss 2.02. High 1923, 105.38, low 86.92. Twenty railroads averaged 81.27, net loss .76. High 1923, 90.51, low 79.53.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Wall Street witnessed its first million share day on the New York Stock exchange today in more than three months, but it was accompanied by a sharp reaction in prices with active shares registering losses of from 1 to nearly 5 1-2 points.

The selling was attributed to a variety of causes including the failure of operators on the long side to attract a public following in the recent upward movement, the disturbing nature of the foreign news, the decline in forward buying in the steel industry and rumors of unfavorable dividend action particularly by some of the oil companies. Passing of the Mariand dividend was not announced until after the market closed but rumors that it was in danger were circulated during the day with the result that the stock dropped 2 1-4 points. Many of the large commission houses, apparently discouraged by the failure of the market to rally yesterday, urged profit taking on the part of recent buyers, thereby accelerating the decline which had received its initial impetus from the heavy offerings of speculators for the decline.

The reactionary trend was checked momentarily by the statement of E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States corporation, that in his opinion, there was nothing in sight to indicate a serious business depression in the near future and that the recent dimunition in new orders was seasonal and not alarming. At last reports, he said, finishing mills of the corporation were operating at 89.4 per cent of capacity.

United States Steel common broke below 89, but rallied 89 1-4, where it was off 1 1-4 on the day. Republic, Crucible, and Bethlehem dropped 2 to 3 points and Gulf States Steel slumped 5 3-8.

Baldwin dropped 3 1-4 points and Studebaker and American Can, also included among the so-called pivotal stocks, yielded about two points. Stocks in which pools are reported to have been operating, were among the hardest hit. Among the many stocks to drop three or more points were DuPont, General Asphalt, Bosch Magneto, American Ice, Manati, American and Punta Alegra sugars, Savage Arms, Stewart Warner Speedometer, Stromberg Carburetor, National lead and United Realty Investment preferred.

Rails offered better resistance to the decline than industrials on reports that another high record for car loadings had been established in the week ending September, when the total was 1,092,507 cars, an increase of 22,635 over the previous record established the week before. However, there were a few conspicuous weak spots. Lackawanna dropping 3 1-2 and Great Northern preferred 2 1-8.

Call money opened at 5, advanced to 5 1-2 and thence to 6, more calling of loans in view of the due date of income tax payments this coming Saturday, being report. Commercial paper again ranged from 5 1-4 to 5 1-2 per cent.

Foreign exchanges were reactionary. Demand sterling dropped nearly a cent to $4.53 7-8. French francs slipped back 3 1-2 points to 5.74 1-2 cents and Belgian francs yielded the same amount, being quoted at 4.75 1-2 cents. Dutch guilders advanced 26 points to 39.51 cents.

SUNSHINE STATE GETS NEW BIG ONE

The whole area where the Sunshine State Oil & Refining Co. is now operating in Archer county, is beginning to look good.

The company has brought in No. 7 Carter from the regular sand and its initial production was at the rate of 800 barrels a day. This well was drilled in without a control head on and it resulted in the well going over the top. Quite a bit of the landscape was greased up before it was shut in. The big flow was not expected.

The Sunshine company and associates also have a good well in No. 6 Parrish. This well, just completed, is good for 500 barrels from the regular sand.

Sunshine State and associates' No. 6 Carter is feeling for the sand and should be in this week.

WELL EXTENDING POOL IN ARCHER

Sibley & Smith Also Get 200-Barreler In Verschoyle

The Verschoyle district in Archer county has been extended 300 feet west by the Henley and company on the Wilson ranch, which is on top of the sand and has set the casing. The sand was topped at 1,577 feet.

A good-looking well has just been completed in this district by Sibley & Smith on the Wilmot farm, it being No. 4. The sand was topped at 1,572 feet and it is estimated good for 200 barrels.

This district is continuing lively, in comparison to other districts. One result of the Sibley & Smith well is a direct east offset by the Griswold Oil & Refining company. This operation was being rigged up Thursday. The operation is located on the Boller lease.

In this same district the Kentucky Production company is drilling at 1,250 feet in section 12.

On the Wilson ranch, block 13, section 23, the Verschoyle No. 1 is ratholing at 1,300 feet.

"SUPES" TO VISIT TULSA EXPOSITION

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 13.—That practically every oil field superintendent in southern Oklahoma and north Texas will attend the international petroleum exposition and congress in Tulsa October 8 to 14 was the word brought to exposition headquarters a few days ago by a salesman who travels the oil fields of that section. The same is true of other parts of the mid-continent field, where oil workers are realizing that the exposition offers an extraordinary opportunity not only to meet old friends, but also to solve problems of operation that are encountered in the fields.

Hundreds of pioneer oil men in Pennsylvania and West Virginia have announced their intention of visiting Tulsa at the time of the exposition and looking up old friends who have preceded them to the mid-continent territory.

The reunion idea is being stressed by the exposition management and no opportunity will be overlooked for the holding of gatherings of old friends of the oil fields who have become widely scattered as oil discoveries have called them to new fields.

Tulsa hotels have announced that their usual rates will hold good exposition week. Boy scouts will be on duty to direct visitors and everything possible will be done to make the old timers, as well as the youngsters of the oil business feel at home. Special railroad rates also will be in effect for the occasion.

COST-X SYSTEM IMPRACTICAL?

Many Objections Offered to Proposal Made by Miners

WASHINGTON.—The fallacy of any "cost plus" system of price control to be applied to coal mines has been pointed out to the United States coal commission by the Bituminous Operators' special committee. This "cost plus" system was one of the so-called constructive suggestions made to the commission by the United Mine Workers of America. They suggested that coal mine profits be limited to six per cent of the cost of producing the coal.

Coal mines, the operators pointed out to the coal commission, have widely varying costs of production. Despite this, since there is and probably always will be a free market for coal, as there is for wheat, corn and cotton, the price of any given quality on any given date is the same, irrespective of varying production costs of particular lots sold.

The proposal of the United Mine Workers, the commission was told, would artificially cause prices to vary widely on the same kind of coal mined in adjacent mines to keep the constant margin of six per cent profit above the cost of production. This would mean the inconceivable situation of having the same quality of coal selling at the same place and the same time at widely different prices. The studies of the Engineers' committee of the fuel administration of the "cost plus" system during the war were pointed out.

The advantages of the "cost plus" system were summed up as only two —that it is apparently simple in plan and execution, and that no producer would have any advantage of any other in the matter of profit. The impracticability of the "cost plus" had these indictments brought against it:

1. Grave disturbances of markets, due to multiplicity of prices.
2. Continually changing prices, due to changing production costs.
3. Instability of the industry, due to the natural course of the consumer in purchasing the lower priced coals of the same grade.
4. The inefficiency in operations which always result from the "cost plus" system.
5. Reduction in output and quality of coal, due to the natural tendency to mine poorer and more expensive coal with a guaranteed profit, leaving the more easily mined better coal to be produced on return to normal conditions.
6. Continual cost increases which would follow extravagant methods, certain to result from guaranteed profits.
7. Constant demands from labor for more money, due to knowledge of a guaranteed profit to the operator, regardless of the cost of production.
8. The practical impossibility of accurately determining the cost of each separate operation.
9. Impracticability of securing the same efficient operation of the mines as when competitive conditions prevail, or when there exists the stimulus of possible increased profits through greater efficiency.
10. The plan is illogical in that better planned and better managed operations are discouraged in comparison with badly planned and inefficiently managed properties.

It was pointed out that those manufacturing establishments which were not fortunate enough to secure coal from mines where it could be produced at low costs and hence lower prices, would have to raise the prices for their products considerably. As about half of the coal produced is used in manufacturing, the commission was told, this would be a considerable item of expense to the American consuming public. Another argument against the "cost plus" suggestion is the cumbersome and expensive machinery which would have to be set up if the system was to work at all.

CAMP IS NAMED BY SPANISH WAR VETS

A large meeting of Spanish war veterans, Monday night, September 10th, it was decided to name the local camp "David C. McCaleb, Camp No. 1" in honor of Mr. McCaleb who died recently and who was an officer in the Spanish war as well as the late war. Mr. McCaleb was well known throughout this section.

W. S. Langford and W. R. Duke were appointed as delegates to attend the 25th annual national reunion of the United Spanish war veterans which convenes in Chattanooga, Tenessee, Sunday morning, September 16.

Charter has been applied for and it is expected that the camp will have a large number of charter members. Mr. Langford announces that he will give the new organization a banquet at the Wichita club at the next meeting, date of which will be announced soon after his and Mr. Duke's return from Chattanooga.

K. C. BIBLE SCHOOL TO BE TRANSFERRED

By The Associated Press.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 13.—The general board of missions of the Methodist Epscopal Church, South, in session here today, voted 37 to 18 to move the Scarritt Bible and mission school from Kansas City, Mo., to Nashville.

The decision came following the recommendation of joint commissions, presented to the general board this morning, and was officially recorded only after a determined resistance, led by Bishop W. F. McMurray, of Louisville, Ky.

Location for Scarritt school here will call for a building program as yet indefinite as to the amount of money to be spent and time of erection. Methodist laymen of Nashville and local business men have subscribed $50,000 to help in construction. It is considered likely that the building will be erected on property adjoining Vanderbilt University and Peabody college.

In winning the school's location, Washington, D. C.; Atlanta, Louis-Washington, D. C.; Ataltna, Louisville, Memphis, Birmingham and Dallas.

Service Resumed

BRYAN.—Service on the Bryan-College station interurban line was resumed this week after reorganization of the controlling interests and considerable improvements to the line. The interurban was discontinued last year because of financial conditions, it was reported. Recently a new charter was obtained from the state.

HIDALGO—Nearly $1,000,000 will be expended by this county in completing the three main projects on the Hidalgo county highway, according to officials. These projects are said to be the largest undertaken in South Texas.

BELLEVILE, Ill., Sept. 13.—Walter C. Cochran this afternoon was indicted for murder for the fatal shooting of his wife Monday. After shooting his wife, Cochran shot his mother-in-law and two peace officers and stood off more than a score of policemen for four hours, firing at them from windows of his home before being captured.

Cochran formerly was an inmate of an asylum in this city, it was learned Wednesday. He married one of the nurses of the institution, whom, it is believed, is the one he shot when he ran amuck.

JIM WELLS—The county has approved $600,000 of road construction bonds. Work will start soon on the roads.

WANT CLEAN-UP FOR FAIR WEEK

Civic Organizations to Make Inspection Tour Today

The civic development committee of the chamber of commerce under the leadership of C. E. Rogers, and the Civic league under Mrs. Bert Bean will conduct a tour of inspection this morning over the entire city, preparatory to the clean-up day which has been set for Monday, Sept. 24.

The chamber of commerce with a group of block chairmen will conduct a thorough inspection of store fronts, alleys, and side streets; and owners of numerous vacant lots in the business district which are conspicuous because of trash, junk, and old autos will be visited, and requested to clean them up before fair time.

The ladies of the Civic league will meanwhile conduct a similar campaign through the residence district.

This action is the result of a committee meeting held at the chamber of commerce Thursday morning, presided over by W. B. Hamilton, which is a culmination of several weeks of planning of local civic organizations who realized the necessity of a general city-wide clean up before the Texas-Oklahoma fair crowds begin to arrive. The committee was composed of W. B. Hamilton, C. E. Rogers, L. R. Buchanan, Julian Montgomery and Mrs. Bert Bean of the Civic league.

YOUNG "SOB STORY" TELLER HITS THE TRAIL FOR HOME

Malcom East, age 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. East of Breckenridge, boarded the Wichita and Southern train at 9 o'clock last night, and solemnly shaking the hand of Miss Katherine Henricle who had driven him to the station, told her she was a good scout.

Malcom was returning home after his run-away the second week in August with a complete new outfit, suit, cap, stockings and shoes, furnished by kind hearted Burkburnett women with whom he had been staying, who were touched by the "sob stories" he told of his dead mother and father.

Mrs. J. M. F. Gill of Burkburnett, heard his story, and immediately telephoned Miss Henricle, of the Texas Children's Home and Aid society. Two hours later Malcom was in Miss Henricle's car on his way to Wichita, telling her his string of "sob stories." Miss Henricle listened patiently until he was through, then she laughed at him, and said: "You know as well as I do that you're stringing me, come on now, and tell me all about it." At that, the boy grinned understandingly, and then told her that he had run away and had lived all over the Burkburnett oil fields with various families who were good to him and believed the stories he told them. He said he was hunting adventure, and wanted to be a cowboy and live on a big ranch. He consented reluctantly to being sent back home, and said he'd stay there awhile."

Malcom is a clean, bright, intelligent little chap, a perfectly normal boy, good natured, and pleasant to talk to, and is in the fifth grade at school. He is quite attached to his family and is very fond of his mother, but since he was a tiny boy he has had "a loose foot," and possessed an unconquerable wanderlust. He seems quite independent and capable of caring for himself, and though his plans for ranch life were temporarily frustrated, he seemed willing to go "back to the folks."

SOFTENED HEART BRINGS HOME CASH

Corporations have been termed soulless and business is usually termed "hard" but the fact that "a little child shall lead them" is as true today as when it was uttered. Constable Frank Morgan will tell you.

A man two months ago went into a local department store and asked to cash a good sized check. His request was granted. The man had no money in the bank. The store officials notified Constable Morgan. The man had skipped. Morgan searched for two months. He heard of the man was in Dallas. The constable went to Dallas but failed to locate his man. Three days ago Dallas officials notified Morgan the man had been captured. Morgan Wednesday went to Dallas a second time for his prisoner.

Morgan found the man had a wife and three small children. The man was on a small salary and his wife and children had no other means of support. Morgan talked it over with the store manager. "Stick him hard and make an example out of him" the manager said after years of exasperating dealings with bot check artists.

"But he has a wife and three small children," Morgan said.

The manager got his hat and went to Morgan's office. There was the wife, the three children and the man. The store manager said "turn him lose."

The man showed his appreciation by paying the store manager the full amount of the check in cash.

Stops Woman And Orders Off Dress

To most women it would prove embarrassing for a big man to walk up to them on the street and say, "Sorry but you'll have to take that dress off and be in a hurry about it."

That's just what happened at Fort Worth Tuesday and the woman asked to give up the dress didn't argue about it.

It wasn't her dress anyhow.

She had stolen it from a Wichita Falls woman and local detectives traced the dress and its wearer to Fort Worth. Fort Worth detectives located the woman and the stolen dress. The dress was sent back to detective headquarters Thursday morning.

The woman from whom the dress had been stolen refused to prosecute the girl who had run away with it.

"The dress is what I wanted back anyhow and I'm satisfied," the woman said.

SERIES OF SAFE BLOWINGS SOLVED?

"In my own mind I am satisfied the two Wichita men arrested at Fort Worth and now held at Corsicana for burglarizing the Coca-Cola plant there of $600 and some jewels are part of the same gang who operated here three weeks ago."

The above is a statement of Detective Chief May made Thursday after a telephone talk with Detective Chief Jackson of Fort Worth regarding two Wichita boys caught there Tuesday and delivered to Corsicana officials after the Corsicana burglary.

"I talked to the Fort Worth detective chief and he said he questioned the two boys closely regarding burglaries here. The boys refused to 'put out' a thing and when Wichita Falls was mentioned they closed up like a clam. The Corsicana burglary resembled the Wichita Falls safe breaking in every way. The local Coca-Cola plant was entered among the rest of the stores. Other evidence we have points to the two men held at Corsicana strongly," the decetive chief said.

May said he would either go or send a member of the local force to Corsicana soon to interrogate the prisoners and see what else could be learned. He said it would probably be the first of next week before anyone was sent to Corsicana as he wanted to give officers there plenty of time to work up their own case with the men held.

ADMITS ASSAULTS ON HIS DAUGHTER

Charged with having criminally assaulted his 12-year-old daughter at various times covering a period of two years, J. M. Cox, of Burkburnett, made a confession last night to District Attorney Bernard Martin and Wayne Somerville, assistant county attorney.

The arrest of Cox followed complaints filed with Sheriff Pat Murphy, by Burkburnett residents Thursday, who claimed they would be at the trial to qualify as eye-witnesses to the charge. Assistant County Attorney Wayne Somerville and Mrs. E. B. Gorsline Jr., welfare secretary, spent Thursday afternoon in Burkburnett securing evidence in the case. Mrs. Gorsline conferred with the little 12-year-old daughter and is said to have obtained from the child a complete statement against her father.

The child is said to have told Mrs. Gorsline her father began his assaults on her when she was 10 years old and she is now 12. Attorney Somerville said last night he questioned witnesses at Burkburnett and obtained several statements that will be used in the prosecution of the case.

OIL MEN PURCHASE LEASES AT MORAN

J. M. and S. P. Wilson, oil operators, returned Thursday night from Moran, where they purchased more than 1,000 acres of valuable oil leases in the shallow field there.

The oil men said oil of 39 to 41 gravity was being obtained in the vicinity of their new lease at 425-foot depth and making from 30 to 125 barrels daily. They report business good in the Moran field despite the slump, five distinct sands having been found.

Gamblers Fined.

A "bloody" crap game was interrupted by Deputy Sheriff's Belcher and Hawkins late Wednesday in a local hotel when four men, $500 in cash, and several pairs of loaded dice were confiscated.

The four paid fines of $25 and costs in justice court Thursday morning.

Say He Had Liquor.

A complaint of possession of liquor for sale was filed against Alex Johnson Friday in Justice O. L. Gibb's court by Deputy Sheriff Frank Watkins.

Jackson was assessed bond $1,000 and bound over to the grand jury.

Audit Completed.

The audit of the city books for the fiscal year ended March 31, last, has just been completed by T. E. Allday and company certified accountants. The audit will be presented soon to city officials for approval.

Allen Claims To End Rheumatism

ALLENRHU relieves at once. One bottle—a full pint—will show you the way to complete recovery or your druggist will gladly return your money.

Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days, and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a week.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of ALLENRHU, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu shows immediate results, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee one full pint bottle in every instance.

Palace Drug Co. and Central Drug Co. will supply you. Mail orders accepted.—Adv.

Heart and Home Problems Solved

Dear Mrs. Thompsun: I am a girl of 16 and very much in love with a boy 18. He is of a poor family and my father and mother object to my going with him. I love this boy very dearly and wish very much to go with him. He is always asking me for dates, but my father objects seriously.

Would you advise me to go with him or give him up for my father's sake? ANXIOUS.

Your father's reason for objecting to the boy is decidely snobbish. Since you are only 16, however, the thing for you to do is to obey your father. The day will come when the boy will work out of his present conditions and amount to something. It does not pay to judge youth by riches or poverty.

Try to keep your democratic ideas when you are older and look deeper than the pocketbook in choosing your friends. Character counts far more than money in bringing about happiness.

Dear Mrs. Thompsun: I am a girl of 16 and have ben going with a fellow for five months. There are certain girls I go with and when my friend sees me on the street with them he does not speak. He told me he did not like these girls and he would not speak when they were with me. Do you think he loves me. I love him dearly. BLUE EYES.

The "better than thou" attitude which the young man assumes would indicate that he does not love you. If his effection were deep he would want to speak to you regardless of your associates. You have not said why he does not like the girls, but as far as I can see that has nothing to do with the case. It is to be hoped that the young man has so pure a character and always will have that he can be excused for feeling so superior.

In case he feels that he is trying to save you from bad associates, he has taken a very ungentlemanly course, in protecting you against them.

Dear Mrs. Thompsun: I am a girl in my teens. Five years ago I moved with my parents from another state. Previously I became acquainted with a young man 10 years my senior. During the time I lived there he treated me very nicely, except on one evening. After I moved away I did not see him until the next summer, when I went back to visit my friends. I talked to him and had a nice visit. I cared very much for this young man and was always glad when summer came so I could go back to see him and my other friends.

This summer he asked to take me home from something that I had gone to. He treated me very rudely and I would not talk to him. I told him not to talk to me. He said that he was sorry for the way he treated me, but I did not pay any attention to him. Now I want to make up and be friends again. Would it be correct for me to write to him and ask him to be friends again, or is it his place to write first? I care very much for this young man and I want to make up. I would feel ashained to meet him among my friends and not speak. LONESOME PAL.

Since the young man was rude to you, he deserved reproof. Do not write to him, because if he is really sorry for his rudeness he will be eager to make up and he will be glad to write to you. Another time when you are visiting your friends speak to him if you meet. It would be foolish to show others that trouble has come between you. Even enemies should be pleasant when they meet socially. After the occasion is over they are free to assume their former attitude toward each other.

WHERE DO THEY GO?

The little boy hd had a birthday party. It was the perfect party, with pink cake, pink candles, pink paper caps and multi-colored balloons. Mother had done it all—the guests, the cake, the ice-cream, all assembled by mother; and mother responsible too for the surprise of it.

And when night came, and a tired little boy ere, to bed he said earnestly to mother:

"You have joyed me. I wish I could joy you."

An impulse of the human heart is the returning of goodness in kind!

A little girl looked out of the window at a man shoveling snow—a world of dry whiteness through which black beings struggled in the wind. The little girl's mother, who was watching too, said absently:

"See the man, making a path for Maizie."

And the little girl, looking very earnestly, cried:

"See the man making a path for all peoples!"

An impulse of the human heart is to share benefits!

A dozen children were playing "Brook," a game which consisted in a winding march, single file, occasionally broken into a wild little dance for rapids and waterfalls, this dance accompanied by a song whose burden was "Rippling, purling"—translated by the children, "Ripley, purley." One little boy, angered because he could not lead the march, fell out and withdrew to the other side of the playground and there made his own march, broke out with his own dance, and sang his own song. And one of the original marchers, perceiving the lonely performance of the exclusive one, cried out:

"Oh look at Ricky, playing 'Ripley, Purley' all alone!"

The children all burst into laughter at so queer a sight.

A human impulse is that to cooperate, in play, or in work!

A little boy was alone in the drawing-room, moving chairs about. His mother entered and he said absorbedly:

"Mother, don't disturb me. I'm getting everything ready. God is coming to play with me."

A impulse of the human heart is to reach towaid God in consciousness of presence.

Then what becomes of all these impulses—to return goodness, to share benefits, to co-operate in work or in play, to be conscious of God's presence?

In individuals, families, towns, nations, they all slip way. How do they go so surely? How do we get them back?

Today's Recipes.

Fried Chicken Maryland—Cut the chicken to pieces. If it is an old fowl steam it until tender, dip in eggs and crumbs, place in a frying pan or baking disk and cook until tender and brown and delicious looking. Plenty of drippings or butter must be added. It may be cooked over the fire or in the oven.

Cream Apple Pie.—Make a rich deep one crust pie, mix a cup of sugar with a cup of cream and pour over the pie. Season with nutmeg.

Pineapple Cream-Cheese Salad—For each plate of salad take a lettuce leaf, on it place a slice of pineapple, a tablespoon of cream cheese, over it pour a tablespoon of mayonnaise, then finish with a plentiful sprinkle of paprika.

Devil's Food Cupecakes.—One cup brown sugar, one cup sour milk plus one teaspoon soda, one tablespoon butter, two tablespoons cocoa, one and one-half cup flour, one teaspoon vanilla. Bake about twenty minutes.

Icing.—To one cup powdered sugar add tow tablespoons butter, thin with cream so as to make it soft enough to spread, flavor with vanilla.

Suggestion.

Substitute for Pin Cushion.—Take a round piece of cardboard three inches in diameter and cover it with a heavy piece of flannel. Then cover the flannel with a piece of pretty ribbon, three folded in half, to the edge. Hang this on the pole of your dresser and always keep threaded needles in it. This is time saving and a good substitute for a pin cushion.

Ojalda.—This is a most delicious form of bread served with coffee or chocolate. Put two cups flour on the bread board and make a hole in center. Into this drop the yolk of an egg and one tablespoon lard. Work this with enough salted water until a stiff paste is formed. Work well and roll into a very thin sheet, then cut into diamonds and fancy shapes with pastry cutter, putting two or three slits through the middle. Fry these a light brown in hot lard and sift powdered sugar over them. They should be crispy and melting in one's mouth. Nice for luncheon or breakfast.

Mother Dies.

Jailer H. H. Fitzpatrick received a telegram late Thursday night his mother had died at her home in Marion, Ohio, Thursday.

Fitzpatrick left Friday to attend the funeral.

Been here all summer? Hurrah for a stand-by. Can count on you sure. Next Sunday is Home Coming Day at the First Christian Church.—Adv.

CHATTING BOOTH A PART OF FAIR

Woman Expected to Be Specially Interested In Novelty

A booth of special interest to women at the Texas-Oklahoma fair and exposition, Oct. 1 to 7, inclusive, will have an ingenious scheme for giving little nooks of privacy, for reading and chatting. The plan has been worked out by a local woman whose home has a large rectangular room.

The room has four walls unbroken except by windows and doors; that is, it has no alcoves, no deep window niches, no suggestion of a little room within the room, which adds so much to the attractiveness of a home.

Between the windows at one end of the room is a tall bookcase, flat against the wall. The bookcase was pulled around until one end stood against the wall and the other out into the room, where it met a large overstuffed divan. This formed two little niches, one in front of each window, definitely separated from the larger part of the room. The book shelves faced one of the niches, and within this alcove was placed a large chair, a tall reading lamp and a little table for magazines.

The solid back of the bookcase, which faces the other niche has a beautiful oriental rug hung over it, and a little nest of lacquered tables were placed against the rug. This niche can be used by four persons playing bridge, or by two persons chatting. The bookcase would hide them from the reading alcove in the other niche. While a conversation could of course be overheard, there would be a distinct feeling of privacy in both cases.

The best part of this scheme, however, is the interesting broken line of the box like room. Any piece of furniture obtruded into a room gives this sense of semi-privacy, a divan at right angles to the wall, a grand piano extending into the room, or a library table so placed that it provices little cut-off places in which to chat.

ANDERSON COUNTY—The first installment, amounting to $260,000 of the $1,500,000 county highway improvement bonds, have been sold to a Chicago firm. Construction of the Montalba highway is under way.

PRACTICE STARTS FOR GAME AT FAIR

A. B. Hays, football coach of Simmons college, Abilene, has sent word that the eleven has already commenced practicing for the Simmons-Austin game which will be played Friday, Oct. 5, at the fair grounds here during the week of the Texas-Oklahoma fair and exposition, Oct. 1-7 inclusive.

Hays stated that 18 candidates, seven of whom are letter men have started practicing. This number has been augmented by a number of husky recruits and members of the 1922 squad. Coach Hays expects to have 15 men in uniform at the game during the fair.

Simmons stock has taken an advance during the week and prospects of the merit of the coming game at the fair grounds continues to create a vast amount of interest. The addition of Wright, tackle, Estes, halfback, both former Abilene high school stars to the list of candidates for positions on the squad, has brought a glamor to the already growing expectations of the conquest of Austin college.

COOKE—A comprehensive maintenance program for the county highway system recently completed at a cost of $2,000,000, has been ordered by the county commissioners. Two new tractors have been purchased at a cost of $9,000.

All the members and friends will be there—Home Coming Day next Sunday. First Christian Church.—Adv.
