THE DUBLIN PROGRESS.

VOLMUE VI. DUBLIN, ERATH COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH. 23, 1894. NUMBER 44.

···WE+ARE···

WE BEG LEAVE to say to the people of Dublin, and Erath, Comanche and Hamilton counties that we have leased the F. C. Oldham rock building, Patrick street, and have thrown open our doors with the largest stocks of Groceries, shelf Hardware, stoves, and Farm Implements in Dublin. We claim to own our stock at very low prices, and desire all purchasers to call on us, look through and get our prices before buying. It is our aim in a very short time to carry the largest stock of Staple and Fancy groceries ever shown in Dublin. Having a store in Comanche, we can handle most goods in car lots. Buying for cash and selling strictly for cash, we are inclined to believe we can sell goods at prices which many pay wholesalers.

HERE IS A PICNIC.

We are determined to close out our entire stock of Farm Implements, Stoves and Wood Work, and now give you some of our low cash prices.

Champion combined Corn and Cotton Planters	$9 00	Avery 8-inch " " "	8 50
Eagle Combined Corn and Cotton Planters	9 00	Keystone 11-inch " " "	8 50
Eagle 10-inch Steel Beam Plows	9 00	Keystone 9-inch " " "	10 25
" 9-inch " " "	8 60	Keystone 8-inch " " "	8 75
" 8-inch " " "	8 25	Single plow stocks ffrom	8 50
John Deere 10-inch Steel Beam Plows	10 50	Wood beam double shovels from	$1 00 to 1 40
		Iron " " "	2 25 to 3 00
			2 25

Dont forget we will sell our line of Cooking and Heating Stoves at correspondingly low prices. We also carry a large stobk of Plow Points, Land Sides, Plow Handles, Wagon Tongues, etc. As we intend handling only Groceries, Shelf and Heavy Hardware, these goods must be sold. We will not use the hsekneyed term, "cost;" we may may say something like "half price. Cost is an unknown quantity. We solicit a liberal share of your patronage, and promise good goods, low prices and polite attention to all. Respectfully,

E. W. HARRIS.

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: Your daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nervine she now weighs 100 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nervine has brought her.

When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate.—Mrs. R. R. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

Sheriff's Sale.

STATE OF TEXAS, }
COUNTY OF ERATH. }

By virtue of an Execution issued out the Honorable District Court of Erath county on the 15th day of February, 1894, by the Clerk thereof in the case of Funck & Hertzler vs. J. H. Latham and Company, No. 1384, and to me, as Sheriff, directed and delivered, I will proceed to sell, within the hours prescribed by law for Sheriff's Sales, on the First Tuesday in April, A. D., 1894, it being the 3rd day of said month, before the court house door of said Erath county, in the town of Stephenville, the following described property to-wit: The south one-half of Lot No. 6 in Block No. 6 of Bishop's Addition to the town of Dublin, Erath county, Texas. Being part of the Wm. Thomas survey. This is part of the lot on which the J. H. Latham two story stone building is situated, and this levy is also made on the south room of said building, which is now occupied by the Dublin Mercantile company as a place of business. Levied on as the property of J. H. Latham to satisfy a judgement amounting to $2031.79 in favor of Funck & Hertzler and cost of suit.

Given under my hand, this 8th day of March, 1894.

N. J. SHANDS, Sheriff.
By F. W. FREEMAN, Deputy.

MASS CONVENTION.

A mass convention of the people's party is hereby called to meet at the court house in Stephenville, on Monday, April 23rd, at 11 o'clock a. m. The objects of the meeting will be, 1st, to select delegates to represent Erath county in the State Congressional and Senatorial convention of the people's party. 2nd. To determine whether, in the event other parties make nominations for county officers, our people will also make nominations. 3rd, To elect a permanet county chairman, because I, myself, being a candidate, think it proper to resign the county chairmanship, which I will do at our convention.

All voters who believe in the reciprocity of reform and relief, as advocated by the people's party, or who have something better to propose, are cordially invited to attend. Such speakers as Judge Nugent, Cyclone Davis and Col. C. H. Jenkins will be present and address the convention.

THE HASTY WORD.

Ugly Marks That Our Tempers Make Upon Our Dearest Friends.

To think before you speak is so wise an axiom that one would hardly think it needful to emphasize it by repetition. And yet in how many cases the hasty temper flashes out in the hasty word, and the latter does its work with the precision and the pain of the swift stiletto! Singularly enough, the hasty word oftenest wounds those who love one another most dearly and the very closeness of their intimacy affords them opportunity for the sudden thrust. We know the weak points in the armor of kinsman and our friend; we are aware of his caprices, and ordinarily are tender and compassionate even of his vanities and his small fancies and whims; but there dawns a day when it is written in the book of fate that we shall be as cruel as we are loving. We are cold, or tired, or hungry. We are anxious over unpaid bills, or our expected letters have not arrived, or one of the children is ailing and we dread the outcome of the malady. So politeness fails us, fortitude is vanquished, philosophy is in abeyance, and we say that which we repent in sack cloth and ashes. But though the hasty word may be forgiven, it is not at once forgotten. It has flawed the crystal of our friendship; the place may be cemented, but there is a shadowy scar on the gleaming surface. Oh, if the word of haste had but been left unspoken; if the strong hand of patience had but held back the sword as it was about to strike.—Harper's Bazaar.

ROTHSCHILD'S SOLILOQUY.

SCENE I, PARIS, 1852.

Rothschilds.—Dose Americans are going to ishue lots of interest-pearing ponds. Mine kracious we moost puy lots of dem. We schust vill sell our gold and kreenpacks for interest-pearing ponds. Dot is just goot!

SCENE II, 1868.

Rothschilds.—We schust did get lots of dose ponds—more as five hundred million dollars vorth. We sold our gold for two hundred cents on the dollar; and in dot vay ve got $500,000,000 of ponds for $250,000,000 of gold.

But dose ponds are payable in kreenpacks. But dose Americans do not know mooch apoud finances and we schust vill teach dem a few lessons. Eh? Our American representatif (August Belmont) ish shairman of ze great democratic party. Ve vill tell him to sell out ze democratic party to dose republicans—provided ze republicans vill pash a bill making all ze ponds payable in coin. Ah, dot ish von great scheme!

SCENE III, 1869.

Rothschilds.—Ze plan vorked to perfection. It voorked splendeed! Zat August Belmont ish von great financier! Ze bill vent through schust so easy as nodings. Our ponds are now payable in coin!

SCENE IV, 1872.

Rothschilds.—Jimney Chrispus! Dose Americans ish de vost peeples I ever did seen. All dem old soldiers, vot vas in ze army, haf gone out into the mountains and are finding so many gold and silver mines as never vas. Gold and silver are going to pe so blenty it vill be nottings vorth. We must schust knock oudt von of dose metals. Ve vill knock oudt silver. Send Mister Seyd right avay quick ofer to dem United States senate (gif him plenty of stuff to take wiz him) and let him influence dem senators to demonetize silver. Then our ponds vill be payable in gold exclusively; and ve vill gif him a letler of introduction to our goot friend, Mister Shon Sherman. Mister Sherman knows schust vat ve vant to do—and he vill do it.

SCENE V, 1892.

Rothschilds.—Vell! vell! Tings have not been going quite smootd over in dem United States as we hoped, and yet we haf not much reason to complain. Our scheme to demonetize silver vorked first rate; but a lot of "granks" and "idiots" (dey call demselfs "kreenpackers") haf been telling the peeples all about our leetle plans, and tings are not looking so vell as dey used to vas. Ze fool Americans have undone a great part of our vork, and ve must see dot tings are set right vonce more. Our agents have become very vell ocquainted wid Krover Kleveland—and he is "all right." If he is elected, he and our old true and tried friendt, Shon Sherman, vill gif ze finish touch to "dot silver pishness." Ve must sent ofer blenty of money to puy the great bapers, so that dey advocate our plans. A few million dollars properly distributed vill "fix tings" all right.

SCENE VI, 1893.

Rothschilds.—Vell! vell! dot vas von great country, dot United States peeples! Dey schust do exactly vat ve vant dem to do. Very nice peeples, dose Americans! Mr. Kleveland and Mr. Sherman are two very bright, smart men! And dey are so honest men! Very great men, doze Mr. Kleveland and Mr. Sherman. Silver ish killed at last; and now ponds and our mortgages are vorth schust four times as much as dey vas ven ve bought dem. And great Shimminy, vot lots of good interest moneys ve haf already. Ve haf reolized more as four dollars for one already in interest moneys, and our secoorities are more as four times as much as ven ve bought dem. And dey are all payable in gold. Shades of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—vot a fine country dot America is!—Mercury.

SPRING TIME.

The Best Season of the Year to Treat Chronic Catarrh.

Notwithstanding that a great number of people have been cured of chronic catarrh by taking Pe-ru-na during the past cold season, yet it can not be denied that the cold, wet, stormy winter has retarded many cures. But springtime has come at last, and now is the time for all catarrh sufferers to begin a systematic course of treatment for this disease. The greatest difficulty in the way of treating chronic catarrh is that the patient is so liable to catch cold during the treatment, and thus delay a cure. This liability at this season of the year is, in a great measure, removed, and no one should neglect the opportunity to begin treatment. Send for free catarrh book.

As a spring medicine Pe-ru-na is a never-failing remedy. It cleanses the blood through digestion, and gives tone to the whole system by increasing the nutritive value of the food. "Spring fever," as it is sometimes called, which produces a tired-out, sleepy feeling, and inability to do much mental or physical work, is the result of a sluggish digestion, and no blood medicine will be of any use whatever unless it is able to rectify the impaired digestion. The great popularity that Pe-ru-na has is due to the fact that in all such cases it at once corrects digestive derangements and enriches the blood by purifying this very important source of that vital fluid. Send for free book on spring medicines and spring diseases. Address The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

In this issue J. D. Jackson announces for assessor. Mr. Jackson is of the old "Tennessee hickory stock" of Jacksonian democrats, and consequently asks the endorsement of the People's party. He was born in Murray county, Tenn.; came to Texas many years ago and has been engaged in farming since. In 1892 Mr. Jackson was a candidate for this office, but seeing that all the People's party men would be defeated if so many should run, voluntarily withdrew. If going through the carriculum of the Baptist church, Master Mason, the I. O. O. F., Jacksonian democracy, all combining on the People's party does not make Jackson a good man, we are mistaken. He will make an honest and efficient assessor.

A Great Advantage.

In the Encyclopedia Britanica instead of dismembering the sciences by attempting to treat them under a multitude of terms, they have digested the principle of every science in the form of distinct treatises, and have explained the terms as they occur in the order of the alphabet, with reference to the science to which they belong. From the outset the aim of the work has been to deal with subjects rather than words, in contrast with other Encyclopedias which deal with single items and words.

How Texas Colonists Succeed.

The success of immigrants who have located in Texas is well shown by a colony of Germans in Ellis county, whose economy, industry and good management form the keynote to agricultural prosperity and independence. They buy but little food of any kind, as they all raise a few fat hogs, keep plenty of chickens, make an abundance of milk and butter, and raise an ample supply of fruits and garden vegetables. They have no need to call on the grocer but for the very few articles they cannot raise on their own fertile, well-tilled farms. They are considered models as farmers and as good peaceful citizens.—Manufacturers' Record.

Important to Farmers!!

It is very important for farmers to plant the best and earliest seed potatoes he can buy. To do this he must plant the "Early Six Weeks." If farmers plant this potato they would always get their potatoes in market in time to get seven and eight dollars per barrel. This potato is so quick that the Esquimo would almost have time to mature a potato crop. In the south two full crops can be grown in one season. Its size is large and handsome. We planted the "Early Six Weeks" the last two seasons and selling our crop for nine dollars per barrel. We now have one thousand barrels for sale. 1 lb. 40 cents, 3 lbs. $1.00 by mail post-paid; peck $1.10, bushel $3.00, barrel $7.00 by express or freight. Send your order in at once before they are all sold. Address all orders to the

The Rock Island Railway Co. is noted for the persistence with which its officials try to induce immigration and build up the country through which its lines run. This company has a thoroughly organized department for this business and has, for the past few months, been working for Texas, the result of which is that several hundred substantial farmers from Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska have become citizens of the Lone Star state. The last issue of the "Western Trail," a newspaper published in Chicago by the Rock Island is almost entirely devoted to Texas, and contains much information as well as numerous cuts engaged from actual photographs, taken by its editor while recently here. J. S. DALEY EDITOR AND PRO.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH. 23, 1894.

Never perhaps in political history has there been such a union of adverse, piebald politicians as took place at Dallas between the Hogg and Clark leaders around the Cleveland pie counter. We have neither time nor space to give particulars but say that the following will show that the Hoggies were completely surrendered by their leaders over to Clark and Clevelandism.

1st It was solemnly resolved by all hands that "we stand as a unit ready to second the exertions of our democratic president and Congress in the execution of the demands of the National platform.

2nd It was solemnly resolved that no one who had not voted for Cleveland in 1892, unless he was sick etc., should be allowed to vote in the conventions or primaries of the Copulists in 1894.

3rd The vote for Cleveland was taken as a test of democracy as well as a basis of representation.

4th The Clark committee issued an address in which they say: "Impelled by a sense of absolute necessity in 1892 to seperate from some of our brethren in order to preserve the purity of the party and in order to conform it to to the lines of true principals as we understand them we congratulate you that the object and purposes of the movement has been most successfully accomplished," and goes on to state that this object was to bring all hands up to the support of the national platform and Cleveland and Congress as their chosen leaders.

5th In the meeting of the Hogg committee it was stated as a reason why a late convention should be called "that it was believed the presidents policy would eventually result in the best thing for the democratic party and that it was important that Texas congressmen had time to discuss national issues," thus to drag the people on to the support of Clevelandism.

6th. A Clark convention man, Mr. White, said: "The basis of representation, which was the vote for Cleveland, and excluding all who did not vote for Cleveland, means a purified democratic platform at the next state convention." which simply means the exclusion of all who voted for an income tax, railroad corporations turned loose to fleece the people, a single gold standard and a tariff protecting the factories of New England and killing the South and West.

7th. George Clark publicly proclaimed that he had converted Hogg and now claimed him as his own progeny.

8th. Reagan kept on saying nothing and seemed lost.

We are satisfied that at least 500 men in Erath county, who in 1892 voted for Hogg under the belief that he was honest in his talk against corporations, will now see him in his true character as a political whited sepulchre, outside claiming to be a friend of the people but inwardly a greedy, pie-counter Clevelandite, ready at any time to sell his people and cringe and fawn in the presence of power and pie; that in Erath county, at least 500 men will be found who in 1894 will rise to the necessity of the occasion and repudiate this surrender at Dallas and declare that the goods cannot be delivered.

The Storm.

Last Sunday night a terrific wind storm, which materialized into a cyclone in different parts of the state, done great damage to life and property.

At Emory, Rains county, nearly all the western part of the town was demolished and the Baptist and Methodist churches and the masonic hall were blown down; four people were killed and many others injured.

At Longview over 3000 window panes were broken; the heaviest part of the storm there missed the town about six miles, where it passed the large country home of a planter named John Cain. His residence was situated in the center of a grove of large oaks, twenty in number. Every tree was taken up by the roots and piled together in great confusion. Many dead dogs, fowls and cows and five dead and eight wounded negroes were found in the wreckage. A family of eight by name of Lester were all killed or so badly wounded they will die.

Seven other parties were also killed and three more dangerously wounded.

A passenger train passed just before the cyclone swept by, narrowly missing it.

At Sulphur Springs ten persons injured. Property and stock losses were badly and two probably fatally were heavy.

Near Rice one person was fatally wounded and several painfully wounded. At one place a house was torn away leaving the occupants on the floor unhurt. At another a horse was lifted high in the air, lifted across a fence and dropped to the ground.

At Hallville five persons were badly injured, and large rocks were torn out of the ground. Very heavy hail fell and many cattle were killed by it.

At Jacksonville heavy damages to property but no loss of life.

The body of the cyclone at every place reported was about 200 yards wide, and is said to have appeared like a cloud of whirling smoke and debris.

New Candidates.

In today's PROGRESS Mr. B. F. Allison of Stephenville, announces as a candidate for tax assessor, subject to people's party action. Mr. Allison is a well known and staunch populist, is a deserving man, and would make a good and efficient officer.

Collector D. M. Rumph announces in the PROGRESS today as a candidate for re-election to his present position. Major Rump has filled the office well and made many friends in his official capacity by promptness to the business interests of the county embodied in his office.

The announce of N. J. Shands appears in today's PROGRESS for re-election to the office of sheriff of Erath county. The announcement was authorized by friends of Mr. Shands. It is unnecessary for us to comment on the official and personal career of Mr. Shands because it is well known by nearly if not every voter in the county. The general satisfaction felt at the way in which he has conducted his business speaks volumes for him.

Organized effort in any direction for the accomplishment of any purpose is always formidable and never fails to command respectful attention. Fixity of purpose, unanimity of purpose and persistent effort will do marvels, while a house divided against itself cannot expect to reach the golden goal. The pages of history are not silent on this point. A Grange exchange says: Some of the grandest reforms that have blessed the world have come from the active, persistent organized efforts of those who, though few in numbers, were strong in faith and overcame opposition by a wise use of the means at their disposal. Agriculturists should not be slow to learn this important lesson and seek to obtain redress and immunity from the grievances they have suffered for so many years, by a just and discriminating use of the facilities at their command.

The Grand Army State Encampment is to meet at Dublin on April 3rd, 4th and 5th, and the ex-Confederate Association of Erath and Comanche counties is to meet with them. In fact, it was at the invitation of the latter that the meeting was announced for Dublin, and the G. A. R. men will be practically guests of the ex-Confederates.—Granbury News.

A minie ball was extracted from the body of John C. Cox, of Sweetwater, recently, the result of a wound received at the battle of Chicamauga over thirty years ago.

The G. A. R. encampment will be held in Dublin on the 3, 4 and 5 of April. Hundreds of ex-Confederates will also be in attendance.—DeLeon Free Press.

Dublin will be in glory April 3, 4 and 5. It is to entertain a reunion of both the Union and Confederate veterans on that occasion. A general invitation is extended to all, no matter on which side they fought during the war.—Hillsboro Mirror.

HIGHEST AWARD.

Dr. Price's Baking Powder Receives It.

Chicago Tribune.

For leavening power, keeping qualities, purity and general excellence the World's fair jury decided that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder had no equal. On each of its claims it was awarded a first prize or a diploma. All the baking powders entered for prizes were subjected to a most exhaustive examination, and the jury was the best equipped to make the decision of any ever got together. Their verdict was supported by the testimony of Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington. Dr. Wiley is an expert on food products and the highest authority on such matters in America. This verdict settles a long debated question as to which among the many baking powders is the best.

The lust of avarice has so totally sealed upon mankind that their wealth seems rather to possess them, than they to possess their wealth.—Pliny.

Our body is a well-set clock, which keeps good time, but if too much or indiscreetly tampered with, the alarm runs out before the hour.—Bishop Hall.

The severe windstorm Sunday night did considerable damage to signs, awnings and cornice of buildings in Dublin. Besides this several buildings received more or less injury. One in particular, the blacksmith shop of Dunn & Phillips was blown down. Fortunately no one was hurt, so far as learned.

Tonkaway.

R. F. Stokes, pastor of the First Baptist church, Coleman, Texas, writes:

Rev. Moss Martin: For eighteen years I have had occasional attacks of bronchitis, for which I have tried many remedies. I want to say that Tonkaway relieved me quicker than anything I ever tried. In twelve hours use the soreness had disappeard. I regard it as a very fine preparation. I write this voluntarily.

THE PAST guarantees the future. It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story. Remember HOOD'S CURES

Joseph V. Dorey, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by S. S. Davis.

Sick [illegible].

Mrs. Mary Shneck of Iredell, Texas writes. "I have been subject to sick headaches since I was 13. After taking one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla I did not have any sick headache for six months. Hood's Sarsaparilla kept me from having slow fever last summer."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

The method of the Encyclopedia Britannica is to give a connected view of the more important subjects under a single heading, instead of breaking them up each into a number of shorter articles. This essential feature of the true Encyclopedia has been carried to its fullest extent in the new Dallas News edition. The following advantages are thus secured: 1. The various parts of any subject are grouped in their natural relations and connections, with a manifest gain in clearness, besides avoiding repetitions. 2. Details are treated with far greater fullness and thoroughness than is possible by the method of fragmentary subdivisions. 3. The most eminent living authorities in science, literature, and the arts give in these extended articles the latest results of original research in their specialties.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

LARGEST COUNTY CIRCULATION

J. S. DALEY EDITOR AND PRO.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH. 23, 1894.

Never perhaps in political history has there been such a union of adverse, piebald politicians as took place at Dallas between the Hogg and Clark leaders around the Cleveland pie counter. We have neither time nor space to give particulars but say that the following will show that the Hoggies were completely surrendered by their leaders over to Clark and Clevelandism.

1st It was solemnly resolved by all hands that "we stand as a unit ready to second the exertions of our democratic president and Congress in the execution of the demands of the National platform.

2nd It was solemnly resolved that no one who had not voted for Cleveland in 1892, unless he was sick etc., should be allowed to vote in the conventions or primaries of the Copulists in 1894.

3rd The vote for Cleveland was taken as a test of democracy as well as a basis of representation.

4th The Clark committee issued an address in which they say: "Impelled by a sense of absolute necessity in 1892 to seperate from some of our brethren in order to preserve the purity of the party and in order to conform it to to the lines of true principals as we understand them we congratulate you that the object and purposes of the movement has been most successfully accomplished," and goes on to state that this object was to bring all hands up to the support of the national plaform and Cleveland and Congress as their chosen leaders.

5th In the meeting of the Hogg committee it was stated as a reason why a late convention should be called "that it was believed the presidents policy would eventually result in the best thing for the democratic party and that it was important that Texas congressmen had time to discuss national issues," thus to drag the people on to the support of Clevelandism.

6th. A Clark convention man, Mr. White, said: "The basis of representation, which was the vote for Cleveland, and excluding all who did not vote for Cleveland, means a purified democratic platform at the next state convention." which simply means the exclusion of all who voted for an income tax, railroad corporations turned loose to fleece the people, a single gold standard and a tariff protecting the factories of New England and killing the South and West.

7th. George Clark publicly proclaimed that he had converted Hogg and now claimed him as his own progeny.

8th. Reagan kept on saying nothing and seemed lost.

We are satisfied that at least 500 men in Erath county, who in 1892 voted for Hogg under the belief that he was honest in his talk against corporations, will now see him in his true character as a political whited sepulchre, outside claiming to be a friend of the people but inwardly a greedy, pie-counter Clevelandite, ready at any time to sell his people and cringe and fawn in the presence of power and pie; that in Erath county, at least 500 men will be found who in 1894 will rise to the necessity of the occasion and repudiate this surrender at Dallas and declare that the goods cannot be delivered.

The Valuable Citizen.

The citizen who is of the most value to a community, town or city is not always the man who possesses the most wealth, the highest intelligence or the most aristocratic lineage. Of course the two former increase a man's usefulness if he will exert them in the right way. But the valuable citizen par excellence is the man who believes thoroughly in his town, its people and its business and proves it by his men. He does not make a business to decry the honesty of his local banker or merchant or attorney of the resident lawyer or physician. But instead he is an enthusiastic advocate of all things that pertain to the welfare of his home city. He has the interest of the schools, churches, societies and people at heart and exploits the excellence abroad. We need more of this class of citizens in our midst. We have the material to

...per with evidence of ... support in its pages ...mes for a town. The ...very trade seeder has an ...nt in its colums proves ...ple are up with the ...vorably impresses the ... whose hands it

The Storm.

Last Sunday night a terrific wind storm, which materialized into a cyclone in different parts of the state, done great damage to life and property.

At Emory, Rains county, nearly all the western part of the town was demolished and the Baptist and Methodist churches and the masonic hall were blown down; four people were killed and many others injured.

At Longview over 3000 window panes were broken; the heaviest part of the storm there missed the town about six miles, where it passed the large country home of a planter named John Cain. His residence was situated in the center of a grove of large oaks, twenty in number. Every tree was taken up by the roots and piled together in great confusion. Many dead dogs, fowls and cows and five dead and eight wounded negroes were found in the wreckage. A family of eight by name of Lester were all killed or so badly wounded they will die.

Seven other parties were also killed and three more dangerously wounded.

A passenger train passed just before the cyclone swept by, narrowly missing it.

At Sulphur Springs ten persons injured. Property and stock losses were badly and two probably fatally were heavy.

Near Rice one person was fatally wounded and several painfully wounded. At one place a house was torn away leaving the occupants on the floor unhurt. At another a horse was lifted high in the air, lifted across a fence and dropped to the ground.

At Hallville five persons were badly injured, and large rocks were torn out of the ground. Very heavy hail fell and many cattle were killed by it.

At Jacksonville heavy damages to property but no loss of life.

The body of the cyclone at every place reported was about 200 yards wide, and is said to have appeared like a cloud of whirling smoke and debris.

New Candidates.

In today's PROGRESS Mr. B. F. Allison of Stephenville, announces as a candidate for tax assessor, subject to people's party action. Mr. Allison is a well known and staunch populist, is a deserving man, and would make a good and efficient officer.

Collector D. M. Rumph announces in the PROGRESS today as a candidate for re-election to his present position. Major Rump has filled the office well and made many friends in his official capacity by promptness to the business interests of the county embodied in his office.

The announce of N. J. Shands appears in today's PROGRESS for re-election to the office of sheriff of Erath county. The announcement was authorized by friends of Mr. Shands. It is unnecessary for us to comment on the official and personal career of Mr. Shands because it is well known by nearly if not every voter in the county. The general satisfaction felt at the way in which he has conducted his business speaks volumes for him.

Organized effort in any direction for the accomplishment of any purpose is always formidable and never fails to command respectful attention. Fixity of purpose, unanimity of purpose and persistent effort will do marvels, while a house divided against itself cannot expect to reach the golden goal. The pages of history are not silent on this point. A Grange exchange says: Some of the grandest reforms that have blessed the world have come from the active, persistent organized efforts of those who, though few in numbers, were strong in faith and overcame opposition by a wise use of the means at their disposal. Agriculturists should not be slow to learn this important lesson and seek to obtain redress and immunity from the grievances they have suffered for so many years, by a just and discriminating use of the facilities at their command.

The Grand Army State Encampment is to meet at Dublin on April 3rd, 4th and 5th, and the ex-Confederate Association of Erath and Comanche counties is to meet with them. In fact, it was at the invitation of the latter that the meeting was announced for Dublin, and the G. A. R. men will be practically guests of the ex-Confederates.—Granbury News.

A minie ball was extracted from the body of John C. Cox, of Sweetwater, recently, the result of a wound received at the battle of Chicamauga over thirty years ago.

The G. A. R. encampment will be held in Dublin on the 3, 4 and 5 of April. Hundreds of ex-Confederates will also be in attendance.—DeLeon Free Press.

Dublin will be in glory April 3, 4 and 5. It is to entertain a reunion of both the Union and Confederate veterans on that occasion. A general invitation is extended to all, no matter on which side they fought during the war.—Hillsboro Mirror.

HIGHEST AWARD.

Dr. Price's Baking Powder Receives It.

Chicago Tribune.

For leavening power, keeping qualities, purity and general excellence the World's fair jury decided that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder had no equal. On each of its claims it was awarded a first prize or a diploma. All the baking powders entered for prizes were subjected to a most exhaustive examination, and the jury was the best equipped to make the decision of any ever got together. Their verdict was supported by the testimony of Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington. Dr. Wiley is an expert on food products and the highest authority on such matters in America. This verdict settles a long debated question as to which among the many baking powders is the best.

The lust of avarice has so totally sealed upon mankind that their wealth seems rather to possess them, than they to possess their wealth.—Pliny.

Our body is a well-set clock, which keeps good time, but if too much or indiscreetly tampered with, the alarm runs out before the hour.—Bishop Hall.

The severe windstorm Sunday night did considerable damage to signs, awnings and cornice of buildings in Dublin. Besides this several buildings received more or less injury. One in particular, the blacksmith shop of Dunn & Phillips was blown down. Fortunately no one was hurt, so far as learned.

Tonkaway.

R. F. Stokes, pastor of the First Baptist church, Coleman, Texas, writes:

Rev. Moss Martin: For eighteen years I have had occasional attacks of bronchitis, for which I have tried many remedies. I want to say that Tonkaway relieved me quicker than anything I ever tried. In twelve hours use the soreness had disappeard. I regard it as a very fine preparation. I write this voluntarily.

SAYINGS OF NOTED MEN.

Oliver P. Morton—There is but one thing on earth more cruel than a million dollars, and that is two millions.

Jay Gould—My son, if you would succeed in business you must first bury sentiment.

Thomas Jefferson—Banking institutions are more dangerous than standing armies.

J. J. Ingalls—In our civil war it is doubtful if the gold of New York and London did not work us more injury than the powder, lead and iron of the south.

Salmon P. Chase—My agency in procuring the passage of the national bank act was the greatest financial mistake of my life.

J. J. Ingalls—During the civil war gold was in open alliance with our enemies the world over, and all energies were evoked for our destruction.

Thad Stevens—The first victory of the money power over the people of this country was the exception clause on the greenback.

Senator Vance—Let no man question that this panic [of 1893] is the result of a conspiracy of bankers and money changers for the purpose of securing the purchase of more government bonds.

John Sherman—If the people of the United States want more currency, inducements should be offered the national banks to furnish it.

Ex-Mayor Hewett, of New York—The rich have had their day; the reign of selfishness is dying and a new era is about to be born.

Congressman Bland—This extra session of congress and this anti-silver legislation has been thrust upon the people as a stock jobbing speculation.

Chauncey Depew—Fifty men can paralyze this whole country for they control the currency circulation and can create a panic whenever they will.

Henry Clews, N. Y. banker—To suppose that the present drift toward monopoly can be much long- er tolerated would be to assu... that the American people have ... their regard for freedom and t... sense of self-respect.

er tolerated would be to assume that the American people have lost their regard for freedom and their sense of self-respect.

Master Workman Sovereign—Every man connected with this disreputable transaction of issuing bonds should have his name branded with national infamy.

Thomas Jefferson—The object of banks of issue, like national banks, is to enrich swindlers at the expense of the honest and industrial part of the nation.

Master Workman Sovereign—Let us be dupes and fools no longer—let us meet the bond proposition with the power and fellowship of our entire organization, and stay in the fight until we force a relaxation in the power of money to rob the industrial masses.

John C. Calhoun—Never was an engine invented better calculated to place the destinies of the many in the hands of the few than a national banking system.

Whitelaw Reid—A good thing has been accomplished: the machinery is furnished by which, in an emergency, the financial corporations of the east can act together at a single day's notice with such power that no act of congress can overcome or resist their decision.

Abraham Lincoln—As a result of the war corporations have been enthroned and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people, until all the wealth is aggregated into a few hands and the republic is destroyed.

Master Workman Sovereign—Millions of our people are in beggary and starvation because labor has been robbed year after year by a merciless power that has grown haughty and despotic.

Banker Hazard, in 1862—The great debt that capitalists will see to it is made out of the war must be used as a means to control the volume of money; and to accomplish this the bonds must be used as a brinking basis.

A Georgia editor gives the following interesting view of the meanest man in the country: "Any man what would keep a dog that would jump a fence and break a rail and scare a mule that would throw a nigger and break a jug of liquor in a dry county, his chances of forgiveness are slim."

The Marlin Democrat remarks that "should the republican vote be taken from the populists they could not elect a justice of the peace." It might be in order to ask what party received the republican vote in '92.

Sciatic Rheumatism

Severe Pain and Stiffness

4 Bottles of Hood's—Perfect Cure.

"I am not only willing, but anxious to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was taken with severe pain and stiffness in my limbs; at times being hardly able to walk. I consulted a physician, who pronounced my trouble sciatic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I took medicine, I became worse instead of better. I then read so much of Hood's Sarsaparilla's wonderful cures that I concluded to give it a fair trial. When I was taking the first bottle I could feel a change in the better; my appetite increased and my health became built up. I have now taken four bottles and am happy to say I can work as well as ever I could before. I recommended to my cousin, who has received equally good effects from it. I cannot speak too highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla. MRS. CLARA FISHER, N. E. cor. Caroline and McElderry Sts., Baltimore, Md. Be sure to get Hood's.

The method of the Encyclopedia Britannica is to give a connected view of the more important subjects under a single heading, instead of breaking them up each into a number of shorter articles. This essential feature of the true Encyclopedia has been carried to its fullest extent in the new Dallas News edition. The following advantages are thus secured: 1. The various parts of any subject are grouped in their natural relations and connections, with a manifest gain in clearness, besides avoiding repetitions. 2. Details are treated with far greater fullness and thoroughness than is possible by the method of fragmentary subdivisions. 3. The most eminent living authorities in science, literature, and the arts give in these extended articles the latest results of original research in their specialties.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH. 23, 1894.

Never perhaps in political history has there been such a union of adverse, piebald politicians as took place at Dallas between the Hogg and Clark leaders around the Cleveland pie counter. We have neither time nor space to give particulars but say that the following will show that the Hoggies were completely surrendered by their leaders over to Clark and Clevelandism.

1st It was solemnly resolved by all hands that "we stand as a unit ready to second the exertions of our democratic president and Congress in the execution of the demands of the National platform.

2nd It was solemnly resolved that no one who had not voted for Cleveland in 1892, unless he was sick etc., should be allowed to vote in the conventions or primaries of the Copulists in 1894.

3rd The vote for Cleveland was taken as a test of democracy as well as a basis of representation.

4th The Clark committee issued an address in which they say: "Impelled by a sense of absolute necessity in 1892 to seperate from some of our brethren in order to preserve the purity of the party and in order to conform it to to the lines of true principals as we understand them we congratulate you that the object and purposes of the movement has been most successfully accomplished," and goes on to state that this object was to bring all hands up to the support of the national platform and Cleveland and Congress as their chosen leaders.

5th In the meeting of the Hogg committee it was stated as a reason why a late convention should be called "that it was believed the presidents policy would eventually result in the best thing for the democratic party and that it was important that Texas congressmen had time to discuss national issues," thus to drag the people on to the support of Clevelandism.

6th. A Clark convention man, Mr. White, said: "The basis of representation, which was the vote for Cleveland, and excluding all who did not vote for Cleveland, means a purified democratic platform at the next state convention." which simply means the exclusion of all who voted for an income tax, railroad corporations turned loose to fleece the people, a single gold standard and a tariff protecting the factories of New England and killing the South and West.

7th. George Clark publicly proclaimed that he had converted Hogg and now claimed him as his own progeny.

8th. Reagan kept on saying nothing and seemed lost.

We are satisfied that at least 500 men in Erath county, who in 1892 voted for Hogg under the belief that he was honest in his talk against corporations, will now see him in his true character as a political whited sepulchre, outside claiming to be a friend of the people but inwardly a greedy, pie-counter Clevelandite, ready at any time to sell his people and cringe and fawn in the presence of power and pie; that in Erath county, at least 500 men will be found who in 1894 will rise to the necessity of the occasion and repudiate this surrender at Dallas and declare that the goods cannot be delivered.

The Valuable Citizen.

The citizen who is of the most value to a community, town or city is not always the man who possesses the most wealth, the highest intelligence or the most aristocratic lineage. Of course the two former [illegible] increase a man's usefulness if [illegible] but exert them in the right [illegible]. But the valuable citizen [illegible]cellence is the man who be[illegible] thoroughly in his town, its [illegible] and its business and pro[illegible] men. He does not make [illegible]siness to decry the honesty [illegible]ocal banker or merchant or [illegible]ity of the resident lawyer [illegible]ician. But instead he is an [illegible]stic advocate of all things [illegible]rtain to the welfare of his [illegible]ality. He has the interest [illegible]chools, churches, societies [illegible]ople at heart and exploits [illegible]cellence abroad. We need [illegible] this class of citizens in our [illegible]d have the material to [illegible]m.

The Storm.

Last Sunday night a terrific wind storm, which materialized into a cyclone in different parts of the state, done great damage to life and property.

At Emory, Rains county, nearly all the western part of the town was demolished and the Baptist and Methodist churches and the masonic hall were blown down; four people were killed and many others injured.

At Longview over 3000 window panes were broken; the heaviest part of the storm there missed the town about six miles, where it passed the large country home of a planter named John Cain. His residence was situated in the center of a grove of large oaks, twenty in number. Every tree was taken up by the roots and piled together in great confusion. Many dead dogs, fowls and cows and five dead and eight wounded negroes were found in the wreckage. A family of eight by name of Lester were all killed or so badly wounded they will die.

Seven other parties were also killed and three more dangerously wounded.

A passenger train passed just before the cyclone swept by, narrowly missing it.

At Sulphur Springs ten persons injured. Property and stock losses were badly and two probably fatally were heavy.

Near Rice one person was fatally wounded and several painfully wounded. At one place a house was torn away leaving the occupants on the floor unhurt. At another a horse was lifted high in the air, lifted across a fence and dropped to the ground.

At Hallville five persons were badly injured, and large rocks were torn out of the ground. Very heavy hail fell and many cattle were killed by it.

At Jacksonville heavy damages to property but no loss of life.

The body of the cyclone at every place reported was about 200 yards wide, and is said to have appeared like a cloud of whirling smoke and debris.

New Candidates.

In today's PROGRESS Mr. B. F. Allison of Stephenville, announces as a candidate for tax assessor, subject to people's party action. Mr. Allison is a well known and staunch populist, is a deserving man, and would make a good and efficient officer.

Collector D. M. Rumph announces in the PROGRESS today as a candidate for re-election to his present position. Major Rump has filled the office well and made many friends in his official capacity by promptness to the business interests of the county embodied in his office.

The announce of N. J. Shands appears in today's PROGRESS for re-election to the office of sheriff of Erath county. The announcement was authorized by friends of Mr. Shands. It is unnecessary for us to comment on the official and personal career of Mr. Shands because it is well known by nearly if not every voter in the county. The general satisfaction felt at the way in which he has conducted his business speaks volumes for him.

Organized effort in any direction for the accomplishment of any purpose is always formidable and never fails to command respectful attention. Fixity of purpose, unanimity of purpose and persistent effort will do marvels, while a house divided against itself cannot expect to reach the golden goal. The pages of history are not silent on this point. A Grange exchange says: Some of the grandest reforms that have blessed the world have come from the active, persistent organized efforts of those who, though few in numbers, were strong in faith and overcame opposition by a wise use of the means at their disposal. Agriculturists should not be slow to learn this important lesson and seek to obtain redress and immunity from the grievances they have suffered for so many years, by a just and discriminating use of the facilities at their command.

The Grand Army State Encampment is to meet at Dublin on April 3rd, 4th and 5th, and the ex-Confederate Association of Erath and Comanche counties is to meet with them. In fact, it was at the invitation of the latter that the meeting was announced for Dublin, and the G. A. R. men will be practically guests of the ex-Confederates.—Granbury News.

Dublin will be in glory April 3, 4 and 5. It is to entertain a reunion of both the Union and Confederate veterans on that occasion. A general invitation is extended to all, no matter on which side they fought during the war.—Hillsboro Mirror.

HIGHEST AWARD.

Dr. Price's Baking Powder Receives It.

Chicago Tribune.

For leavening power, keeping qualities, purity and general excellence the World's fair jury decided that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder had no equal. On each of its claims it was awarded a first prize or a diploma. All the baking powders entered for prizes were subjected to a most exhaustive examination, and the jury was the best equipped to make the decision of any ever got together. Their verdict was supported by the testimony of Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington. Dr. Wiley is an expert on food products and the highest authority on such matters in America. This verdict settles a long debated question as to which among the many baking powders is the best.

The lust of avarice has so totally sealed upon mankind that their wealth seems rather to possess them, than they to possess their wealth.—Pliny.

Our body is a well-set clock, which keeps good time, but if too much or indiscreetly tampered with, the alarm runs out before the hour.—Bishop Hall.

The severe windstorm Sunday night did considerable damage to signs, awnings and cornice of buildings in Dublin. Besides this several buildings received more or less injury. One in particular, the blacksmith shop of Dunn & Phillips was blown down. Fortunately no one was hurt, so far as learned.

Tonkaway.

R. F. Stokes, pastor of the First Baptist church, Coleman, Texas, writes:

Rev. Moss Martin: For eighteen years I have had occasional attacks of bronchitis, for which I have tried many remedies. I want to say that Tonkaway relieved me quicker than anything I ever tried. In twelve hours use the soreness had disappeard. I regard it as a very fine preparation. I write this voluntarily.

Constable's Sale of Real Estate.

STATE OF TEXAS, }
COUNTY OF ERATH, }

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Justices' court of Precinct No. 4, Brazos county, state of Texas, on a judgment rendered in said court on the 9th day of September, 1890, and directed and delivered to me as constable, I have levied upon and will proceed to sell on the first Tuesday of April, 1894, it being the 3rd day of said month, between the hours of ten o'clock, a. m., and four o'clock, p. m., at public vendue, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, at the court house door of Erath county, Texas, in the town of Stephenville, the following described property, to-wit: A track or parcel of land situated in the town of Dublin, Erath county, Texas, a part of the Wm. Thomas survey, and bounded as follows, Beginning at the N. E. corner of a one-half acre block deeded by J. E. Bishop and wife to W. B. SinClair for S. E. corner of this, thence N. 74 W. with SinClair's N. line 84 varras, thence N. 14, E. 70¼ varras, thence S. 79¼, E. 110 varras, thence S. 15, W. 80 varras to beginning.

Said property being levied upon as the property of J. W. Peeples, and to satisfy an execution isssued out of said court in favor of R. R. Chatham & Co., and against J. W. Peeples for the sum of one hundred and ninety-four dollars and forty cents, and costs.

This, the 14th day of March, 1894. J. A. ADAMS,

Jonesboro is the sweetest place on the face of the globe. Every one that moves away comes back. Our former citizen, John Cooper, who left here some two years ago and went to Dublin, is in town prospecting with a view of moving back. The perpetuation of our free institutions, the stability of our nation and the advancement of civilization depends altogether on the social, moral and literary training of the children. The school room being the main factor through which these accomplishments are attained and through which the children reach that high plain of usefulness which will prepare them for filling high stations in life, therefore we conclude that the question of education is the greatest question now confronting the people; hence it behooves the citizens of Dublin to look well after their school interest on the 3rd day of April next, at which time we will be called upon to elect trustees for our city school for the ensuing year. Horticultural Notes.

It requires skill to market small fruit properly.

Success in gardening depends very largely on having a rich, deep, well broken soil. The garden spot should be broken in the fall.

Every farmer should raise at least all the fruit his family can consume, and the man who does not is not as good a provider for his family as he might and ought to be.

Straight rows in the garden not only look better, but they can be cultivated more easily. Don't make crooked rows when straight ones can be made just about as easily.

The Western Plowman says keep this in mind for next spring: One tomato plant properly set, staked, matured and pruned is worth a dozen cultivated in the ordinary manner. The proof of this is easy—test it for yourself.

An eastern berry grower thinks that the most profitable varieties for the commercial grower are those not easily influenced by differences in soil and climate. Those which succeed well on wide areas are usually better than those which have a mere local reputation.

Tit for Tat.

The parson was complimenting the tailar on some mending which he had done for him. In the course of the conversation he, however, incautiously observed: "When I want a good coat, I go to London. They make them there." Before leaving the shop he inquired, "By the way, do you attend my church?"

"No," replied the tailor. "When I want to hear a good sermon, I go up to London. They preach them there."

James Buel, secretary National Bankers' Association, in private circular to national banks—To repeal the law creating national banks, or to restore to circulation the government issue of money, will be to provide the people with money, and will therefore seriously affect your individual profits as a banker and lender; see your member of congress at once and engage him to support our interests that we may control legislation.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. The method of the Encyclopedia Britannica is to give a connected view of the more important subjects under a single heading, instead of breaking them up each into a number of shorter articles. This essential feature of the true Encyclopedia has been carried to its fullest extent in the new Dallas News edition. The following advantages are thus secured: 1. The various parts of any subject are grouped in their natural relations and connections, with a manifest gain in clearness, besides avoiding repetitions. 2. Details are treated with far greater fullness and thoroughness than is possible by the method of fragmentary subdivisions. 3. The most eminent living authorities in science, literature, and the arts give in these extended articles the latest results of original research in their specialties.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

OVER THE COUNTY.

HIGHLAND.

March has certainly proved to be a stormy month. It has blown hard enough several times to make the houses quake but has not as yet moved them off their pillars.

We have had another nice rain, and the prospects for a good crop are quite flattering.

Mrs. Van is very sick with heart trouble and it is thought she will not recover.

Mrs. P. A. Burnett is on the sick list this week.

Our public school closed last Friday. Profs. Kennedy and Crofford gave general satisfaction, and we are sorry the school funds gave out so soon. Prof. Crutchfield commenced a subscription school last Monday.

MOUNT AIRY.

As I failed to reach you last week I give your many readers a few items of news from this part of the country.

Have had splendid rains the past week.

Nearly all the farmers have finished planting corn, and the first planting is coming up.

Oats and grass are just "humping" themselves.

We had a considerable wind storm Sunday night. No damage done here except blowing down a few fences.

Death has again visited our community and taken away our beloved friend, Thomas Kirkland, son of Mr, Ras Kirklan. Tom was a good boy, beloved by all. We miss him much, and would say to the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters, to weep not as those who have no hope, for our loss is his gain.

CHALK MOUNTAIN.

Corn planting is about completed and we are having plenty of rain. Corn, planted only one week ago, is coming up, a thing I never saw before at this season of the year in this country.

The weather for the past three weeks has been delightful.

Death has again entered our midst and claimed for its victim old Grandpa Hatter, who died on the evening of the 12th instant and was buried at Chalk mountain the next day. He had been sick a long time with la grippe.

The infant child of William Martin died on the night of the 18th and was buried the next dny at this place.

Our public school will close next Thursday. It has been a success all the way through.

E. E. Davis, of Bluffdale, will speak here on the night of the 6th of April. I hope he will have a large audience. He will speak at Duffau on the 7th at 2 o'clock and at Dry Duffau at night.

Farmers generally are well up with their work and are in good shape to entertain the candidates when they come around, so far as chin music is concerned, but rations will be short unless they wait until roasting ears come in.

LIVE OAK.

We feel truly grateful for the gracious rains that have fallen and that the thirst of our parched earth has been slaked, and our hearts are cheered when we look ahead and see the beautiful emerald-hued carpet spreading over our prairies and all nature putting on her most lovely smiles, as if to rebuke man for his forlorn and dejected appearance, and seemingly beckon us on to better times.

It was our good pleasure to traverse, or travel over, a good portion of this and surrounding communities to-day, and we must say we never saw the farmers more forward with their work and the crops being put in in a more favorable condition since we have been in the county (nine years) and prospects brighter for good crops at this time of the year.

Our wife has been quite ill for several days past, but is now mending.

Our young friend Robt. Bruner has been quite sick since Saturday, with but little change in his condition.

Some of our piscatorially inclined friends repaired to Restley's creek last Thursday and succeeded in catchlng a nice mess of the finny tribe. While two of our young friends, one of either sex, were engaged in the sport they became so absorbed with each other and in trying to solve some abstruse problem, presumably concerning cupid, that they became seemingly lost to all their surroundings, until the young man's foot slipped and he tumbled from the beautiful flower environed fairy land in which he had been wandering hand in hand with his fair inamorita, and on which he had erected his splendid air castle, whose gilded spires and minarets kissed the skies and facaded columns rose white and majestic, into the cold, unfeeling and unromantic water of Restley's creek. Chaotic must have been the young man's thoughts as they appeared before his mind with kaliedoscopic changes, and frozen his heart with his rude awakening, but we are glad to report that he still survives and seems to be doing a good business.

Our lady friend has so far recovered that she thought she was able to take a ride in a road cart, but it proved to be the pitching kind and now she looks like she had been to an Irish wedding.

Our nimrods are all quiet this week as if meditating some deep-laid strategy. or perhaps the fond hopes of some of them are about to be realized and they are all recuperating to celebrate the happy occasion. Whatever the result may be, we will watch and wait with bated breath and report to your many readers in the future.

The Erath County Pomona grange will meet here at 10 o'clock a. m. on the second Wednesday in April.

Parties in peregrinating over the country should fasten gates and not turn horses loose in pastures. "A hint to the wise is sufficient."

COWAN.

Farm work is well up to date. Wheat is growing nicely, very little being winter killed.

Oats up and corn nearly all planted except among those farmers who judge the weather by Foster's and Hicks' predictions. The cold wave which was to strike us about the 7th did not come nor did the terrible cold wave get there that was to reach the Pacific on the 11th and the great central valley about the 15th; but this failure to guess at the weather will not be noticed by those who believe in these forecasts, as the next cold spell will answer for them and fulfill the predictions even though they miss a week or a month. These weather prophets are like one guessing at Bobby and Tommy riding on a rail, for while Bobby is up Tommy is down. You may guess right every time for one of them will be up all the time if you give yourself enough time between guesses for the boys to pass each other and call the time that the rail is horizontal the 'reactionary spell.'

Dublin mail did not reach us Saturday nor Stephenville papers either. Some one must be neglecting his duty. We like to get the mail Saturday. but often fail.

LINGLEVILLE.

A considerable storm passed over these parts last Friday night, doing considerable damage; and again last night, blowing down a number of barns and doing other damage. The barns of Dr. Higgs and F. M. Brown were blown down; M. A. Duncan's house was blown from its foundation and a great deal of damage done to his furniture. The barns of J. B. Keahey and W. C. Campbell were blown down, and that of J. T. Matthews almost wrecked, and that of Geo. Echols moved from its foundation.

TO RESIST THE ATTACK—of the germs of Consumption, Scrofula, Grip, Malaria, and many other diseases—means fight or die for all of us. These germs are everywhere in the air we breathe. The odds are in favor of the germs, if our liver is inactive and our blood impure.

What is needed most is an increase in our germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully you need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no "weak spot," nor soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself. It is the development of generations of medical thought—it has stood the test of a quarter of a century of cures.

That is why the makers can guarantee it. In every trouble caused by torpid liver or impure blood, if the "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, your money is refunded.

Pretty strong reasons for trying Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. $500 if you can't be cured.

A number of smaller buildings were also blown down.

Everybody planting corn. Some sickness yet.

Guess Brown is having a severe spell of la grippe.

Dr. Grode came near being seriously hurt while returning home from H. F. Whitaker's after night by driving into a ditch, which upset the buggy, throwing he and Smith Turpin, who was with him, out on a pile of rocks, by which they were badly bruised and considerable damage done to the buggy. The doctor has not been able to see out of but one eye since, but says he thinks it will be all right as soon as the swelling has gone out of it.

Prof. W. H. Rayzor has gone to Dallas, and will work for the American Book Co. until Sept. 1, when he will again return and take charge of the Alliance High School. Prof. M. L. Arnold is conducting the school alone, and is giving general satisfaction as an instructor.

R. P. Campbell is off on a business trip to St. Louis.

The closing exercises of the Antioch school will be on the night of the 27th instead of the 23rd, as stated in our last. Miss Ethel Phillips, the teacher at that place, has given general satisfaction, and well may the pupils and patrons be proud of that noble young lady.

ROCKY POINT.

The storm that passed through this vicinity was the most severe we have been visited by for years. Considerable damage followed in its wake but no deaths. A part of the large hay shed belonging to May & Bridges, on Bunker Hill stock ranch, was blown down and many fences were also destroyed.

Your correspondent interviewed some of the citizens of Pilot Knob. three miles north of this, and learn from them that it was very severe. The roof of Mr. Crabtree's dwelling was blown off and the kitchen blown down. John Martin, of Pilot Knob, says he has positive evidence that the storm was harder at his house than any that ever visited them before, for it actually blew down several oak trees which were never blown down before. (I guess John knows what he is talking about.)

Billy says the storm was the hardest in years, for it blew down a large cottonwood tree which had been standing for twenty years.

We are having plenty of rain and the ground in the fields is a perfect mire. Crop prospects were never better at this season of the year.

Prof. Arch Morris closed his school at this place Saturday. He gave general satisfaction.

Rev. M. V. Labaume preached a splendid sermon at this place yesterday to a large and very attentive congregation.

Some young corn is coming up.

BUNYAN.

Health is good.

A fine rain fell yesterday eve.

Grass is growing nicely, and stock are putting in full time to get enough to eat.

A good deal of corn was planted last week, and I presume the farmers will finish by the end of the coming week, provided the weather is suitable. Oats are up and growing nicely, and vegetables will soon be large enough for use.

Our People's party club organized on Saturday night, with twenty new names on the roll. Other names will follow soon. Mr. M. Simmons was chosen chairman and J. B. Bostick secretary and treasurer. The name of our organization is the Bunyan Reform Club. It meets Monday night after the second and fourth Sundays in each month.

BLUFF DALE.

The wind Friday night damaged the business house of Lauderdale & Greenwood and did some other lighter damage. The Colony school house in Hood county was blown off the foundation and badly damaged. Lauderdale and Greenwood have begun business again since their financial embarrassment.

Mrs. C. D. Black died Sunday night and was taken to-day to Morgan's Mill for interment.

It is raining to-day. Monday.

ALEXANDER.

Plenty of rain since our last writing.

Spring time is here and every thing is lovely.

Farmers are well done planting corn.

Oats are just humping themselves. What wheat that is sown looks well.

The present prospects, etc. for a good peach crop were never better.

Farmers are well up with their work, and much cotton will be planted by April 1.

The debate between Hensler and Oliver was very interesting, and as usual, both came out victorious.

Some few candidates have been rushing around the last few days. All we have seen have had a good long smile on their faces. I, for one, have no time this year to take stock in the election enterprise.

Mrs. Mary Pack and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, from near Corinth, have been visiting children and parents in this neighborhood.

The school at Alexander, under the charge of Mr. Stricklin, will be out in April.

Health good in this community.
