ANSWERLINE

Q. Is it legal for someone to be able to vote without having their voter registration certificate with them, even if the person is well known to the person officiating at the voting place?

A. Yes, the election official will check the list of registered voters and then the one voting must sign an "affidavit of a voter without a certificate" before being allowed to vote. You are allowed to vote even if you do not have your certificate with you and your name is not even on the registered voters list. You must then sign an "affidavit of a voter without a certificate and the name is not on the list." County officials emphasize that everyone is urged to have their certificates with them to expedite the process of getting the ballot into the voter's hands with as little delay to the voter as possible.

On 4-2 Vote

School to appeal judge's decision in Barber case

District Judge Jess Holloway's ruling against the Colorado Independent School District's ban on earrings and hair over the collar and ears is headed to an Appeals Court following a 4 to 2 vote by the trustees Tuesday night.

Holloway had heard the case of Austin Barber vs the Colorado Independent School District on Oct. 1 and had issued his ruling on the hearing on Oct. 14.

In his ruling, Holloway had stated that "the dress and grooming code as it relates to hair length and earrings for boys will be declared to be in violation of the Texas Equal Rights Amendment as the same applies to eighteen (18) year old male students still attending school in the Colorado Independent School District".

In the called meeting, trustees Billy Bridgford, Larry Blassingame, Jesse Munoz and Roxie Strain voted for the appeal while Diana Garza and Yolanda Molina voted against.

The vote followed an executive session with the trustees meeting with their attorney, Tom Rees.

Emergency farm loans accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by excessive rain and hail are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) office located in Sweetwater, FmHA County Supervisor Dennis Cumbie said recently.

Mitchell County is one of thirty in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Edward Madigan as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the excessive rain and hail. Cumbie said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business of $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Cumbie said. Farmers participating in ASCS disaster programs or Federal Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

Following the meeting, board president Dwayne Harris stated that "we feel like we have a good chance to win the appeal or we would not have voted for it. The local opinion is very strong to appeal the case."

He went on to say "everyone that contacted me, wanted us to appeal. Our funds are to educate the kids and we are fighting a case we should not have to fight."

Superintendent Don Nimmo stated "our chances are good on the appeals part of this. The support for the CISD has been more than I anticipated both locally and statewide and hopefully this case will be expedited."

One of the two trustees who voted not to appeal stated she did not think the school's case is strong enough. "I did not think the board would vote to appeal," said Molina.

She added that "this issue does not have anything to do with Bids advertised!

What a difference a year makes!

This time last year, community leaders were meeting to formulate plans to acquire a state prison for Mitchell County.

Tuesday morning, the Commissioners' Court voted unanimously to advertise for bids for the materials and construction phase of the water line to the prison site.

Four separate bids will be sought to (1) construct a stand pipe reservoir, (2) jack and bores and the river crossing for the line, (3) purchase the materials to install the water and sewer line and (4) do the actual construction work on the water line project.

Bids for the project will be opened on November 15, 1992.

Present besides commissioners Ed Roach, Carl Guelker, Buddy Hertenberger, Bill Preston and County Judge Ray Mayo, members of the Economic Development Board were represented by Mike Hemphill, Elmer Martin, Nancy Sullivan, Woody Anderson and Bobby Lemons. City Manager Buddy Foster was also in attendance at the meeting.

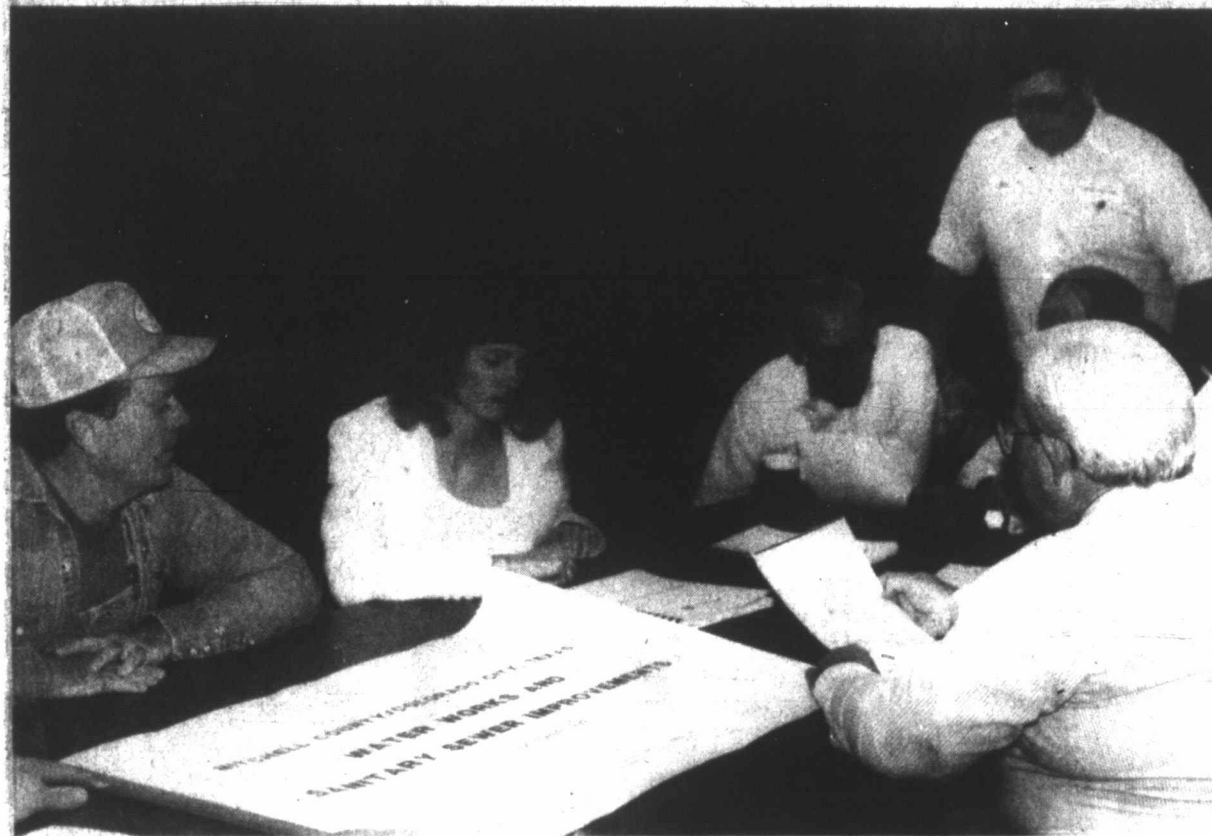

Please see the map of the water line on page 4.

Red Ribbon Program set to begin Sunday

Texas's War on Drugs Red Ribbon campaign is set throughout the state on October 24 through November 1.

It will be observed in Colorado City and Mitchell County with special events and announcements at the schools throughout the county.

The Red Ribbon symbolizes a commitment in fighting to reduce both the demand and supply of illegal drugs and the unlawful use of alcohol.

The long-term goal of the campaign is to develop a healthy, drug-free lifestyle as a standard in Colorado City and across the state and nation.

School officials state that "we continue to believe that our school district can make a difference in our community in the area of drug prevention."

The CMS student council is planning several activities to increase anti-drug and alcohol awareness at the Middle School during this special observance.

According to CMS Student Council president, Jamie Ellis, the students plan to sell links of paper to students to be put together to form a chain and on each paper link will be written, "I Am Drug-Free" and each link will be signed by the student who purchased it.

Special dress-up days are also planned at CMS. They include: Monday, Sock Day, "Sock it to Drugs Day"; Tuesday, "Clash With Drugs Day", wear clothes that don't match; Wednesday, "Black Out Drugs Day", wear all black clothing; Thursday, "Declare War on Drug Day", wear red clothes and war paint; and Friday, "Scare Away Drugs" the students will wear Halloween costumes.

District race takes on brand new look

The District 6-3A race took on a brand new look after Friday night as Colorado City and Kermit won their first district game while Sonora and Crane lost their first.

What this did was to put four teams tied for second place, all with 1 and 1 records. Colorado City, Sonora, Kermit and Crane are all even while Big Lake stands alone at the top with a 2-0 mark and Greenwood is 0-2 in the cellar.

Head coach Mark Howeth of the Wolves said, "this opens the door for everyone to get back in the race."

While Big Lake and Sonora were picked to take the top two spots in district, Kermit's win over Sonora was no fluke...at least not to Kermit's head coach, Bruce Mitchell.

"We played an extremely tough pre-district schedule to prepare for the district run. Sometimes this helps and sometimes it hurts. In our case this year, I think it has helped us," Mitchell said.

"I believe it has helped our confidence and aided in our win over the Bronchos but then again, Sonora may just have overlooked us and was looking ahead to their showdown against Reagan County."

It might have been a combination of all those things," stated Mitchell.

Kermit runs from the wish-bone formation and leading them at quarterback is Brandon Heiser who made first team all-district in 1991.

Five sophomores start for Kermit and Devalon Bryan scored three times against Sonora. He also had a 54-yard run called back on a penalty.

In the Wolves victory over Crane, Howeth added that he "was extremely pleased with the way the team came back in the second half and with the adjustments the coaching staff made."

After a 0-0 score at the half, Colorado City scored on their first and third possessions in the second half for the winning points over the Golden Cranes.

Friday night, David Castillo threw for 106 yards while rushing for 116. Howeth also noted that Mike Dossey "played a great game on defense" with at least ten tackles and deflecting two Crane punts.

The kickoff for the Kermit game is set at Wolf Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Regular season games remaining for the Wolves include a trip to Greenwood on the 29th and Reagan County coming to town on Nov. 6.

Rachel Parras

COOK'S CORNER

This week we will feature Rachel Parras as our special cook. Rachel was born & raised in Alpine as was her husband Ruben. Upon graduation Ruben furthered his education at Sul Ross University. They were married a short time before moving to Sanderson where Ruben worked for the school system. They soon moved to Colorado City where they have been for the past 20 years. Rachel's first and most important job is raising their 3 sons. She also works as a caregiver four mornings a week and keeps the nursery babies during First Baptist BYW time on Tuesday mornings. Ruben is employed by the CISD. He is the 5th grade Chapter 1 teacher.

Their children are: Ruben Jr., 23; he is living and working in Alpine. Richie 19, is attending TSTC in Sweetwater. He is majoring in Robotics. Robbie 15, is a Sophomore at Colorado High where he plays in the Wolf Band.

Rachel enjoys reading in her spare time. She likes to read anything but especially enjoys Christian literature.

Rachel is one of the oldest girls in a family of 11 children. She began to learn to cook at age 12 when her mama had to go to work. After marrying, she and Ruben learned more about it together. She says she will "go to town" cooking if her kitchen is clean, otherwise it becomes a big chore.

Rachel recalls the time as a newlywed when she was going to prepare a special dinner. The recipe called to saute onions. She must have gotten the oil too hot or something because when she added the jalapenos, they created a lethal gas! Ruben and Rachel started gagging and had to run outside. What was worse was the people that shared the duplex, ran outside gagging too.

Rachel's helpful hint: Apply vinegar to the bathtub or shower to remove soap scum.

Sheep and goat referendum questions and answers

The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Assn., sponsoring organization for the predator control funding referendum to be voted on Thursday, October 29, has compiled and answered the most common questions about the program.

Q. Why a referendum for predator control?

A. Sheep and goat losses to predators continue to be a major economic constraint on the industry despite existing predator control programs. If passed, the referendum would provide a source of funds to supplement ongoing efforts.

Q. What is the referendum for predator control?

A. Actually submitting the question of area-wide predator control to the producers of sheep and goats. The referendum would levy a maximum of $0.20 per head assessment at the first point of sale, paid by seller, on all sheep and goats sold within the referendum area (see map).

Q. What will be the predator referendum area to be voted upon?

A. An area generally in the central and western part of Texas, commonly referred to as the sheep and goat producing area of the state. It is made up of 111 counties.

Q. What about the election results?

A. If the Commissioner of Agriculture finds that two-thirds or more of those voting in the election voted in favor of the referendum, or that those voting in favor of the proposition produced at least 50% of the volume of production during the preceding year, then the Commissioner shall publicly certify the adoption of the referendum and issue certificates of election to persons elected to the Board.

Q. When will the election be held?

A. October 29, 1992.

Q. Where is the balloting location?

A. At the Mitchell County Extension Service office located in the Mitchell County Courthouse Annex. Producers may vote in either the county of their residence (if within the referendum area) or the county of their ranch headquarters.

Q. Can I vote absentee?

A. Yes. Absentee ballots will be done by mail and must be postmarked prior to midnight three (3) days before the election date (by October 26). Absentee ballots may be obtained from the local County Extension Agent's office. Ballots are to be mailed in a pre-addressed envelope (provided with the ballot) to: TSGRA, P.O. Box 2290, San Angelo, TX 76902.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor of Colorado City Record:

I personally think the Public Schools should be able to set their code ethics of wearing apparel and hair to the best interest to all students, parents, teachers and anyone else to go by. The public schools are free to the students FOR learning. The way the schools are planned that everyone that attends can graduate at the age of eighteen, or in their eighteenth year. There should be no exceptions. That any one going to any high school should follow their school regulations of codes.

If you change one rule to satisfy one student. There will be followers who will want something else. If anyone doesn't like the school codes on hair and dress, I suggest going to a paid school or home schooling. I'm a mother, grandmother, great grandmother and a tax payer and had my share of schools.

Yoma Fowler

Dear Editor:

The optimist club met and after a lot of debating, decided to continue the basketball program. There has been some question whether the club would continue or disband.

For those of you who didn't know, the club is being sued. During one of our games last year, a preschooler was playing unsupervised in the bathroom with some school equipment and cut her hand pretty severely.

Anyway, to make a long story short, we've had a problem getting officers or members to continue to operate the club. After a lengthy discussion, the club decided to work hard to keep it going.

We will need to ask that everyone help out. We'll need people to sit with gyms, concession stand, coaches, referees, books, pick up trash, monitor outside and watch bathrooms.

I honestly do not feel like we can survive another lawsuit...besides asking for help, we ask that each of you remember that we have approximately 340 kids in this program and there are a few of us. We are just not able to act as babysitters too. Especially for children not even in our program.

But this was a terrible accident that may have been prevented if the child had been taken to the bathroom by a parent or guardian.

Many have voiced concern about the program, but remember...we need you to make it fly.

We are also not happy to announce that because of the lack of manpower, we will not be taking care of the toy drive. A couple of civic clubs have said they might, but at this time; I don't believe anyone has committed to this. The only thing the club will do is the basketball program and give the money away after each season as we have done for many years.

Thank you so much for taking the time to read this letter. The club really means a lot to me as it does for so many others. And the last thing we want is for it to end.

education and our kids deserve the best education possible regardless of hair length or earrings."

She added, "here we are raising taxes and now we are telling the tax-payers they have to pay for an appeal on this lawsuit."

Garza stated that she voted against the appeal "mainly because the taxpayers should not have to shoulder the additional costs of an appeal." She went on to say that one of the things a speaker had told them in a recent school board convention in Houston was "not to worry about grooming and dress and to be concerned with the education of children."

Garza did say that "18-year old students are adults and should have a choice on how to wear their hair" but as far as younger students are concerned, she said "I think there are some things they do have to wait for and this is one of them. They aren't allowed to take driver's education until they're 15 years old."

Halloween safety tips suggested by Highway Patrol

Halloween is a time of fun and great excitement for youngsters of all ages. Unfortunately, each year, it results in injury and occasionally, death for some. Captain Clanton of the Highway Patrol said. "If parents will do some planning and closely supervise their children's activities on Halloween night, many of these injuries could be avoided."

He said, "First, the trick or treaters should be dressed in white or light-colored clothing. Don't put a child out on the streets in a black or dark-colored costume unless it has reflective tape on it. The children should be instructed not to sample any of the candy until they return home. The treats should be carefully inspected to insure, as best you can, that it is safe to eat. If you have any doubts about any of it, it should be discarded. Wash all fruits and slice it into small sections to insure nothing has been embedded into it."

Captain Clanton strongly urged parents to remind their children of all the pedestrian safety rules they should observe while trick or treating and to furnish them a flashlight to use. He also suggested to use facial makeup instead of having them wear a mask since a mask severely reduces their ability to see.

He suggested to go only to homes where the porch light is on and where you, as parents, know they are welcome. "If we confine a child's trick or treating activity to our own neighborhood, where we know the residents, we would know the treats are safe."

"Driver's have a special problem on Halloween night also," Captain Clanton said. "They have to be alert for trick or treaters and remember, in a child's excitement, they are likely to forget to look before crossing streets. If drivers would drive as if their child was out trick or treating, we could avoid the vehicle-pedestrian accidents on Halloween."

CHIEF LONE WOLF

BY JIM BAUM

There's really no proof the Baptists fudged a little to win the Sunday School Rally in Colorado City, back in 1924. But, there is something kinda fishy about it.

It appears the good natured rivalry began in late May when the pastor of First Methodist Church, J.F. Lawlis, said in a newspaper article that his church was "shooting for 250 in Sunday School" next week.

First Baptist minister M.C. Bishop nonchalantly pointed out that his flock had 258 in Sunday School last Sunday.

The Methodist preacher came right back and said his church was "after 300 in school next Sunday morning."

That may have been the first shot fired in the Sunday School Wars. At any rate, after all these years, we have what may be a "smoking pistol."

Here's the background. The four largest churches in Colorado City, Baptist, Methodist, Christian and Presbyterian, agreed to have a City Wide Sunday School Rally. The goal was to have one thousand persons in attendance at the four churches.

The Colorado Record noted that "there is no rivalry between the different churches in this drive to set a new Sunday School record. The goal is to get the people into the Sunday School of their preference." (Sure, and the Dallas Cowboys and Washington Redskins play for fun).

"One thousand is the goal for next Sunday," said brother Bishop of First Baptist. "We have good teachers, good music, good lessons to be taught, fine fellowship and a warm welcome for you." (Do churches ever have "cold" welcomes for visitors?)

Further, the Baptist preacher pointed out, "many fine folks in Colorado City have never darkened the doors (of church) and they'll be lined up to get in. So, lets encourage them and help them get back in the habit again."

The record pointed out that everyone was getting involved in the effort. The paper stated that even lawyers and bankers were urging people they came in contact with to make plans to go to church. (The newspaper didn't say who was encouraging the lawyers and bankers to attend).

When Rally Day arrived, folks in Colorado City turned out in large numbers. And there was no disputing which church had the largest Sunday School attendance. The Baptists won hands down.

Records show 405 persons crowded into the First Baptist Church and the Methodists finished second with 317 souls present. The Christian Church had 101 in attendance and the Presbyterians had 91. The overall total was 914, and while that represented a good turnout, it was short of the goal of one thousand.

The competition was soon forgotten by the Methodists. However, their preacher was worried that attendance might drop off now that the warm weather season was beginning. And of course, those were the days before air conditioning.

So, Reverend Lawlis promised his faithful that Sunday morning services would be over with in forty-five minutes, if they would get to church on time.

As for the length of his sermons, Lawlis applied some real down home logic.

"Some folks like short sermons and I am prepared to give them to you. I had rather talk for ten minutes and you be awake, than talk thirty minutes and you go to sleep." (Hmmm, not a bad idea. That might even start a whole new movement in this day and age; drive-in church services).

But, back to our story. What about the Baptists? They celebrated their victory by having a Bar B Q picnic the following Tuesday. It was held under the Colorado River bridge and an estimated 400 persons turned out, including the Colorado Booster band. ("There is no rivalry, etc.).

Nonetheless, congratulations to the Baptists. But it is kind of surprising they would meet under a bridge. And does a Bar B Q after a Sunday School contest smack of a payoff to you?

Probably not, but it's obvious the winners were all business, even on a picnic. Just in case the occasion arose for converts, the Colorado River was nearby.

Those Baptists never miss a trick.

Methodist to dedicate canopy

This Sunday, October 25, United Methodists of Colorado City, along with others of the area will gather to celebrate the dedication of a canopy addition to the church building. First United Methodist Church building was completed in 1884 and has had several additions to the building since that time.

In early May, 1992, the trustees of the church voted to recommend to the Administrative Council of the church the building of the canopy addition. After an approval vote Ron Goebel was hired as architect and building supervisor. A number of church members, at various times, assisted in the construction of the project. Total cost of the addition was approximately $10,000, and completion date was near the end of June.

Trustees of First United Methodist Church are: Mike Ratliff, Chairperson, John Clifton, Vice Chairperson, Tandy Curlee, Secretary, Robert Hoback, Emabeth Thompson, Jay Craddock, B.B. Bridgford, Mike Burt and Ross Hargrove. Pastor David A. Shaw worked with the trustees prior to his retirement on June 1, 1992. Present pastor of the church is Howard Quitt.

The service of dedication will be at 1:00 p.m. following an all church fellowship dinner in the fellowship hall of the church. The public is cordially invited to attend the service of dedication to be held in front of First United Methodist Church.

Drivers applying for license must have social security card

Beginning November 1, Texans applying for a driver's license and persons renewing their license or seeking a duplicate will need to show their Social Security card, according to the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Social Security numbers already are required for Commercial Driver's Licenses, which the DPS began issuing in September 1990.

"We think this new policy will make it harder for an individual to fraudulently obtain a driver's license," explained DPS Driver's License Inspector John Hall. "This should pay off by reducing crimes where a fake identification is important, like hot check cases. It also should make it much more difficult for a minor to obtain a license with an incorrect year of birth."

Only Social Security cards issued by the federal Social Security Administration will be accepted, Hall said.

"I realize almost everyone knows his Social Security number by heart, but we need to see the actual card issued by the U.S. government, not a commercially produced metal or 'flea market' card," the inspector said. "If you do not have the government-issued

BIRTHS

Elizabeth Diane Hickson was born October 12, 1992. She weighed 6 lbs 15.5 ozs. She is 18 1/2 inches long. Parents are Tommy and Lona Hickson of Sweetwater Texas.

Tommy Baker and Etta Lee Gibson, both of Colorado City, tied with the same number of losses in this week's football contest but Baker was closest to the Dallas-Kansas City tie-breaker.

So, Baker captures $30 in football bucks while Gibson comes up with $20 in football bucks.

The Wolves' opponent this week, Kermit, was a loss for everyone except two entrants. The Houston Oilers loss hurt a lot of entrants also. Enter the contest this week and have a chance to win first or second place. The contest is in every Thursday issue of the Record.

LORAIN PERSONALS

Hello Today. I really don't know how to start this news, as so many things are happening around us. Some good and some bad. To our friend Betty Darnell, we want to say you have our love and our prayers for the terrible things that happened to your family last week. May God Bless you and yours at this time.

Julia Mathis called to tell me her son Don, his wife Jane and daughter Melissa came today (Sunday) and brought lunch and they ate with her, had a very pleasant day together. She also told me that Forest and Modene Porter of Roscoe came last week. In fact they visit her real often and that makes her very happy.

Julia told me this cute little story also. She told her neighbors lots of times that she loved good singing but she says she can't sing one bit. She said she was so happy to be better these days that she got up Sunday morning singing "Count your Blessings," and thinking of others who were worse off than she is. She said if anyone heard her they would say she was making a noise of some kind but it sure wasn't singing. That's ok. Julia God won't care if the tune was right or not. Now seems to be a very good time for everyone of us to count our blessings.

This morning Bro. James told our children a little true story about a man named Todd who could not talk, use his hand and whatever but he was not bitter or discouraged. All he wanted was to be used in God's great plan and with his faith he was. Why don't we all try to be happy and not feel sorry for ourselves.

Our beautiful little Tiffany had a birthday party Saturday at her home. People came from everywhere and all had a good time.

Our granddaughter, Patti Beaty of Abilene was honored with a bridal shower in the church parlor at Pioneer Drive Baptist Church Saturday morning Elba Mae Evans and I went and were really were glad we did. They made us feel real important for the moment. We met Doug's mother and sister and we were pleased to get to know them.

Patti will marry Douglas Blue on November 21 at Pioneer Drive Church. They will live in Clyde where he is employed. All three of my grandsons will serve the groom as ushers so that makes all our grand kids in that wedding. Excuse all this personal business but we are like all grandparents we are proud of our grand kids.

We talked to Donna Seaton and her lovely daughter-in-law. They said Eric would get his jaw unwired this week and then they would tell him when he could get some teeth put back that were knocked out in the wreck. He is doing ok.

Visited with Auther Zungia Sunday morning to find out how his mother was doing. She is maybe improving a little but not much. Her medication doesn't seem to do much good no matter how often they try something different. When you visit with Auther and Jennifer you find out how strong their faith really is. I know they are going to come through this crisis no matter about the out come.

Young Miss Jennessa Lee of Wilson was visiting her grandparents, her father and her brother. I did not get to visit with her and I feel real cheated. She has always been a favorite of mine.

Our varsity footballers did real well again this past week. There was at least one bad point to it, David Mitchell got hurt in the 2nd quarter and will be out this Friday I am told. He told me Sunday that he had his birthday the last of the week and is now 18. Good luck my young friend.

Inez Webb seems stronger and says she is feeling better. I was pleased with her attitude. At our ages it is sometimes hard to have a good out look if we are ill.

I have been told that Lorene McNeil will have eye surgery this week. Her sister, Ruby is here to take care of her while she is ill.

Talking about eye surgery Jaunice Butler had her's done last week in Odessa. I saw her and her grandson Brian Butler walking to town a few days ago, I suppose to the grocery store, but what I wanted to tell you was how well Brian was taking care of his grandmother. He was doing one fine job of that. I know Jaunice was a very proud grandmother.

Today is Mary Lee's birthday and I happen to know how old she is but I'll never tell. Many more happy birthdays to you my friend.

I hope if you are not involved in our school activities you will get involved. Every organization could use more help like Band Boosters Club and by the way if you have not listened to or watched them march this year you have missed something, they are good. We also have the Sports Booster's Club and the P.T.O. and maybe more places of service that I don't know about. Any of these could use your time, talent or money to help our school carry on a little better.

Cancer Society wins award

Volunteers in the Mitchell unit of the American Cancer Society have won the valued Quality of Life Award.

"This award recognizes our efforts to bring to our community more patient and family services at no charge," said Mark Waldrup, president of the Mitchell unit. "These efforts are the result of year-round work by volunteers in our community-work that usually goes unheralded."

Quality of Life honors units that serve 33 percent of their potential patient population and increase the number of patients served by 10 percent over last year.

"Because of this high honor, our community is better served with the patient and family support that plays such a vital role in treatment and recovery," Sue Dossey, Patient Services Chairman, said.

Ann Beaty received a 10 year pen and certificate of service as a volunteer (serving on the Mitchell Unit Board).

CONVERSATION CORNER

BY BARBIE LELEK

Yea the Wolves beat the Cranes. My daughter told me they would because Wolves eat things and birds just fly! The band has a wonderful pregame performance, doing a couple of different numbers. I haven't heard this year! Yea Band!

Homecoming is always an exciting time. Getting to see old school chums, queen candidates in their pretty dresses, parades, the bonfire and everyone wearing their mums.

The class of 1983 celebrated their 10 year reunion. Everyone got together to visit at the Thompson room after the ballgame Friday night. Saturday morning was fun with the classmates enjoying a picnic at the park and showing off their families. A dance and BBQ was held at the Ft. Wood pavilion in the evening with Coley Ramage in charge of the music. Several awards were given out to various people. Mike (Woot) Griffin was voted as most eligible bachelor. girls, there ya go!! Sandy Castillo with 4 children got the most kids award. Anyone with four kids deserves an award. Another 1983 graduate that still lives here and won an award was Chris McKinney, most changed.

The Homecoming queen candidates were so pretty but they looked so COLD. Vicing for the crown this year were Caasi Smith, Suean Lentz, Leticia Castillo, Brandi Jernigan, Michelle Molina, Jessica Espinoza and they are were beautiful but only one could win and that was Leticia Castillo. All of the candidates were driven around the field in special vehicles that were loaned for this special purpose. Kent Womack drove the queen in his 1930 Model A Roaster convertible. Tom Kelley drove Kent's 1972 Impala convertible. Coley Ramage was privileged to drive Carrol Joplin's 1986 black Camaro and Robert Ramage drove Virginia Fullers' special birthday present from Raymond, a 1980 Chrysler LeBaron convertible.

I think the Freshman class made history last weekend as their float won first place in the Homecoming parade. It was really neat. They created the Wolf Rock Cafe complete with tables and chairs. Out the back door, you could see them cooking a Crane over a fire! The Sophomore class won runner up.

The four high school classes also have a contest to see who can gather the most wood for the bon fire. the Sophomore class won here.

The Bon fire gathered a huge crowd. Special thanks go to Jerald and Debe Lynch who were in charge of it. They saw the need to have the land scraped to allow for a bigger area. The county donated it's time for this purpose. This gave everyone more room to step away from the heat as well as make a safer event. Bon fires are always fun and loud. Everyone enjoys visiting and watching the cheerleaders, band, flags and twirlers. the flag corps had the opportunity to do a routine, which I'm sure everyone enjoyed.

I saw Judd Ramage getting a hug from Bluefoot during the ballgame Friday night!

I hope Phil Anderson enjoyed his hot dog, it sure looked good.

Joann Sanderson was busy in the concession stand dolling out popcorn and sausage on a stick.

Didn't Brian Limmer sound good on the radio Friday evening.
