Celebrity golf tournament successful

The Slingin' Sammy Baugh Classic was a huge success last Friday and Saturday at Wolf Creek Golf Links in Colorado City.

The Sam Baugh Classic attracted many retired professional athletes, most of whom either had a personal connection to Baugh, or simply had a great deal of respect for him and wanted to meet him and help him raise money for kids.

The final tally is not in yet on the amount of money raised for the benefit, but thousands of dollars in Silent Auction items were sold to the highest bidder, and all tee boxes had no less than eight "hole sponsors".

Donnie Anderson, star running back for Texas Tech and later, the Green Bay Packers, was especially grateful to be able to participate.

"One of the highlights of my life was yesterday, when I got to play golf and ride in the cart with Sammy Baugh," said Anderson.

"He is a great legend and a true gentleman, meeting him definitely made my day," he added.

Anderson was thrilled to see folks enjoying the celebrities, and was also tickled to hear Coach Darrell Royal tell stories during play.

Veteran NFL Official Red Cashion was a popular celebrity at the event.

"I'm having a blast," said Cashion.

"This is a great bunch of people. A benefit like this is one of those deals where you never know what kind of folks you are going to run into, but I'm having a great time and would love to come back sometime."

Cashion retired from actively officiating in the NFL, but trains new officials for the league. Born and raised in College Station, Cashion graduated from A & M and still resides in Aggieland. Cashion has one son and three daughters, all graduates of Southwest Conference schools including A & M, Texas, Texas Tech and Houston.

Toll-free calling ballots collected

The votes are all in for Colorado City's toll-free calling election, and the results will be announced on Friday, July 30, a spokesman for the Public Utilities Commission said in Austin.

PUC spokesman Terry Hadley said the deadline for returning ballots was Thursday, July 15, and that he would report the results of voting on proposed toll-free lines to Big Spring, Snyder, Hermleigh and Sweetwater 15 days later.

He said Tuesday morning that Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. sent ballots to customers with 2,714 individually billed lines with "728" telephone prefixes.

Seventy-percent approval is required among the ballots that are mailed back, so if 2,500 are returned, 1,750 votes will be needed for any or all of the lines to become toll-free and only 750 will defeat each one.

He said the number of ballots that had been returned had not been tabulated.

Pat Meynig, the C-City woman who petitioned the PUC for the election, said Monday that whether or not any new lines are approved will depend on who voted.

Any or all of the lines would cost residential customers an

Westbrook field included in Midland oil transaction

WESTBROOK -- Fina Oil & Chemical Co.'s Westbrook Southeast Unit No. 701 oilfield, the site of the Permian Basin's initial discovery of oil in 1920, has changed hands in a $96 million transaction between Fina and two independent oil companies in Midland.

The 3,700-acre field north of here has 149 producing wells and was a major part of the deal between Fina, Parallel Petroleum Co. and Baytech Inc., a spokesman for Parallel said Tuesday.

It also has 64 injection wells and 21 shut-in wells, which are non-producing, for a total of 234.

Rhonda Keller of Parallel Petroleum told the CCR Tuesday morning that the acquisition of all of Fina's producing assets in the Permian Basin will be economically beneficial to the region because more wells will be drilled and no one will be laid off.

The independent firms have formed a new company, First Permian L. L. C.

"The Westbrook Southeast Unit is one of the more valuable properties included in that it has a lot of upside potential to it," Ms. Keller said.

"It would rank as one of the primary opportunities in the

Officers widen search for county jail escapee

The search for county jail escapee Moises Yreta Alfaro has expanded outward from Mitchell County in the 2 1/2 weeks since the trustee celebrated Independence Day by getting into the jail recreation yard through an unlocked kitchen door and over or under the fence outside.

Alfaro was first thought to be either in Scurry County or Mexico, but sheriff's officers Tuesday were investigating a report that he might be in an undisclosed small county that is about a 90-minute drive from Colorado City.

Crimestoppers Inc. and the sheriff's office are offering a reward of up to $500 for infomation leading to Alfaro's capture.

The name of the county was not released because of the possibility that Alfaro might learn of the redirected search and flee before officers could apprehend him.

Sheriff Patrick Toombs said Tuesday morning that he had expected Alfaro to lay low for awhile and then gain confidence and start spending more time in public, perhaps to work at his usual occupations of roofer, construction worker or seasonal gin employee.

"We've had a few calls," the sheriff said. "Most of them haven't panned out.

"We've had some here in town and a couple more in Snyder, and we're having people check out leads in a couple of other places.

"We're running down a guy in a small county about an hour and a half's drive from here."

Complex grant okayed

Colorado City's application for a $550,000 grant to build a 20-acre sports complex will be submitted to the Texas Department of Parks & Wildlife late this month, Mitchell County commissioners were told Friday.

Commissioners court members gave County Economic Development Board Director Windi Fuller their approval to file the application, which promises a large amount of dirt work by county road and bridge crews as "in kind services."

They also okayed Ms. Fuller's application to Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. for a $4,250 grant to help finance architectural work and surveying for the project.

She said the question of what to do with the site, which is owned by the Chamber of Commerce's Industrial Team, led to the decision to build a sports complex last year.

It will be a matching grant with the work of prison inmates and county employees, a $75,000 to $100,000 purchase of lighting by the Colorado Independent School District and a possible contribution from the local Little League Association to provide most of the required $225,000 in local contributions.

Featuring baseball, softball and Little League fields, a soccer field and a walking track, the complex will be constructed west of B&B One Stop on the north side of Interstate 20.

A report on the application from the Parks & Wildlife Department is expected next January or February. The deadline to file it is July 31.

Ms. Fuller, who has just given birth to her and her husband Brandon's first child, will report on her progress in preparing the application at a noon Friday meeting of the Noon Lions Club at the Colorado City Civic Center at 157

Wartime tests honed lawyer's ambition

From his childhood on an East Texas farm to World War II battlefields and German prison camps to the University of Texas School of Law and his career as an attorney and prosecutor, Frank Ginzel reviews his life with a philosophy shaped by adversity.

His direct manner of expression is charming or refreshing to some people while making others uncomfortable.

But hearing the colorful and sometimes distressing story of his life, there is no mistaking the inner strength that has kept him going through 77 challenge-filled years.

Growing up near Caldwell in Burleson County and going through school there gave him a peaceful prelude to the war years and his 50-year career as a trial attorney, for which he was recently recognized in a proclamation by the State Bar of Texas.

Enlisting as an infantryman in the 36th Division, the famed "Texas Division" of the Army, he charged onshore through Nazi machinegun fire at Salerno, Italy, in September 1943 and was captured a week later.

He was in two prisoner of war camps, one next to the Treblinka concentration camp, and then was one of only 198 survivors among 1,199 soldiers taken south in a forced march to evade the Russian Army, finally gaining his freedom in January 1945.

After all that, law school was tough but not the terror that it is to most law students.

He had decided during the war that if he survived, he would become the first member of his family to go to college and that he wanted to be a lawyer.

"I had seen that rank has its privileges," he said in an interview last Friday at his 1505 Watson St. home. "One day I woke up, and I was about to graduate."

He had worked as a waiter and taught government to blind people at UT, and he had turned down an offer from the Federal Bureau of Investigation to be an FBI agent in Minnesota or Massachusetts because he did not want to live in a cold climate.

He consulted a former fellow law student who was working for Gulf Oil Co. in Midland, decided he did not want to be a corporate lawyer because of the narrowness of that type of work and came to Colorado City in March 1950.

He went to work with the late attorney Dell Barber and ran for county attorney two years later, serving until his appointment as district attorney for the 32nd Judicial District in 1970.

He was DA for Mitchell, Nolan and Fisher Counties until 1980 and then went into private practice, representing the Coleman Ranch in northwestern Mitchell County and doing some criminal work that he gradually phased out.

Ginzel became known for his willingness, and even eagerness, to take cases to trial, and he had some epic courtroom battles with noted trial attorneys Travis Shelton of Lubbock and Warren Burnett of Odessa.

His approach was to "shoot the works and go for broke.

"I can't understand why you would want to be DA and not want to try cases," he said. "You're there to represent the people and do a day's work.

"You've got to be kind of a special breed of cat," he said, explaining that only about one in 10 attorneys becomes a full-fledged trial lawyer.

"If you don't like to fight, you're not going to make it."

However, for all the feistiness and quick-wittedness demanded by a trial court, preparation -- and sometimes overnight research -- is what makes the difference.

"It's very stressful," Ginzel said, recalling a three-week-long trial against Shelton in the late '70's in which a man was convicted of murdering his former wife and given a 20-year sentence.

"If you don't prepare, it's difficult to get out with a fair verdict."

Asked if he enjoyed the legal combat, he said, "It depends on how you fight.

"I expect a guy to represent his client, but I don't expect them to do anything crooked. Most of them didn't."

He also had difficulty gaining a conviction against one of Burnett's clients, and when he left office he had 34 cases being considered by state appellete courts -- more than the DA's offices in Abilene, Big Spring and Snyder combined.

He rates Shelton and Burnett highly as gentlemen and has kept up a friendship with Shelton, who is a former Lubbock County district attorney and State Bar Association president.

His hardest feelings are for the Nazi SS, but his sense of humor was still good enough to refer to his chief assistant, Rusty Carroll, as "Himmler."

The now retired Kenneth Crow of Sweetwater was his investigator, and Ginzel's nickname for him was "Mad Dog."

"In law enforcement, you have either got to be for law enforcement or you're not," he said.

"You need to find out what the community expects from the law."

Ginzel was married to the former Betty Patton of Refugio from 1947 to '69 and had his three children with her, Carol Johnson and Marsha Ginzel, both of Austin, and Carl Ginzel of Palo Alto, Calif.

He married Doris Coffey Mann in 1970, and following her death in 1983, he ran across one of his old Caldwell classmates who grew up on a farm adjoining the Ginzels', the former Adele Sefcik, who had been widowed and was living at Caldwell.

"She was valedictorian, and I hunted possums and squirrels," he said.

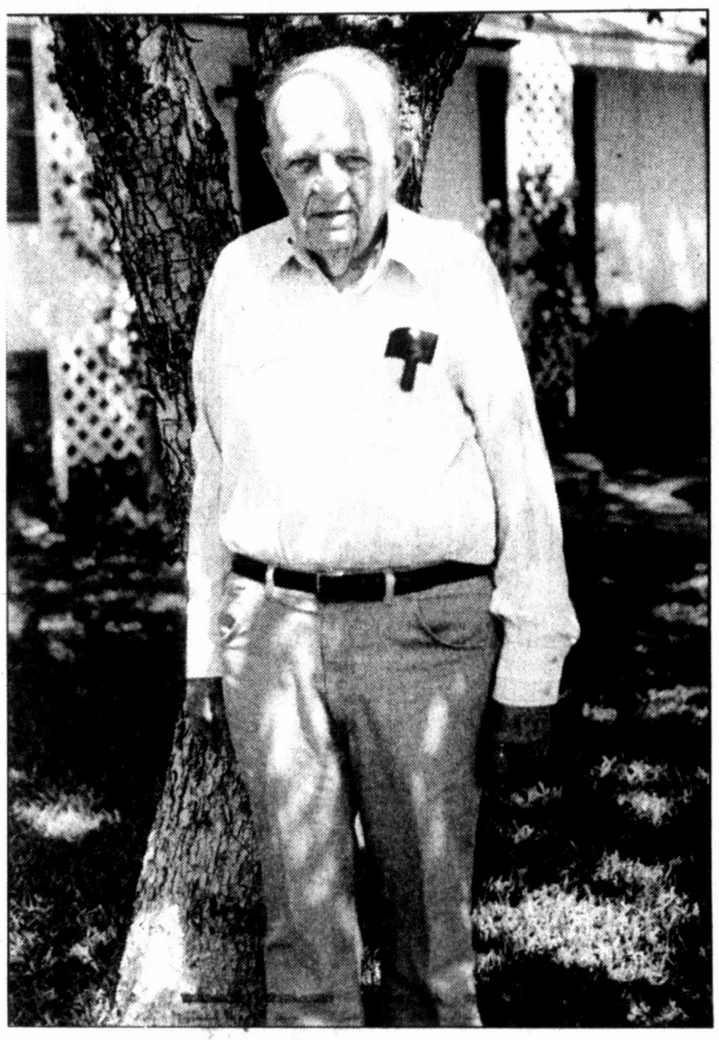
They married in '84, and he has seven grandchildren.

He had three brothers and two sisters, and two brothers survive -- Marvin of Hitchcock, near Galveston, and Weldon of Dallas.

Weldon was one of the Marines who took Iwo Jima.

The Ginzels are of Czechoslovakian heritage. Ginzel's grandfather Henry put up the 11th house that was built in Burleson County, west of College Station.

(Next week: the war years.)



FORMER DISTRICT ATTORNEY Frank Ginzel was a German prisoner of war during World War II who came to Colorado City in 1950 after his graduation from the University of Texas Law School.

Foreign exchange students looking for Texas homes

A Garland organization is seeking host families in Texas for high school foreign exchange students from Germany, Greece, Thailand and Georgia, in the former Soviet Union, for the 1999-2000 school year.

Marie-Claude Dijoud of the Educational Merit Foundation said students who get host families will arrive in Garland, northeast of Dallas, with everything they need, including insurance and spending money.

"All you have to do is add a seat at your dinner table and provide a bed and your family's unique way of life," she said.

Ms. Dijoud said single parents and families without children may apply.

You may call 972-495-3888 or 1-800-HOST-EMF to respond.

"We still have over 30 students from Europe and Asia anxiously waiting for Texas families to host them for the 1999 fall semester or the '99-2000 school year," she said.

"Unless we can find families for them very soon, these students will not be able to come and their dream of being American teens won't happen.

"If you have room in your heart and home for one more person, the Educational Merit Foundation high school exchange program needs volunteer families to host prescreened high school students for five to 10 months while they attend a local high school.

"Give a student a chance to learn about Texas and realize a longtime dream."

New principal arrives

Newly appointed Hutchinson Elementary School Principal Janey Burke is an experienced educator who is impressed with the transitions that students make from school to school here.

Kelley Elementary does a good job of preparing its kindergarteners and first and second graders for the third through fifth grades at Hutchinson, she said, while Hutchinson's program is designed for students' success in the middle school.

"I think there's great cooperation in the transition between school buildings," she said. "The student has to be put first. That's the only reason we're here."

Ms. Burke said Hutchinson's accelerated reading program is a plus, along with its strong TAAS Test mathematics scores.

Asked her philosophy of school discipline, she said, "Discipline is necessary for there to be structure for learning to take place. The first area of discipline is in the classroom, and then I'm the next stop.

"The simpler you can leave it with discipline, the better. I am a strict disciplinarian, yet not every situation calls for strictness.

"They've got to have confidence in you and feel secure enough to work through problems."

Born Janey Pollan, she graduated from Ennis High School in 1965 and earned a bachelor's degree in home economics and English at Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

She met her husband Jimmie, a Sweetwater native, at Tech, where he was studying industrial engineering. They moved to Dallas, and she taught at Stockard Junior High School while he worked in the semi-conductor industry.

They moved to Champion, southeast of Loraine in Nolan County, in 1985. She began teaching at Highland Schools, and he started a hydroponics tomato business.

Earning a master's degree at Sul Ross State University in Alpine in 1992, she had been the Highland principal for all grades since 1993.

She replaces Beau Rees, who left to become assistant principal at Sweetwater High School.

"I had been interested in working as an elementary principal because I had pre-kindergarten through the 12th grade and I wanted to concentrate in one area," said Ms. Burke.

"We have an excellent program in place, and I have been very impressed with the faculty members I have met -- and the community members.

"Third through fifth graders are energetic and willing to express themselves," she said, chuckling. "They just have a great method of expression, although not as frank as kindergarteners."

The Burkes have three sons, Dale, 28, of Lubbock, Cody, 26, who will attend Stanford University in California this fall, and Stoney, who just graduated from Highland High School and will attend Texas A&M University in College Station.

Dale took a Texas Tech degree while Cody graduated from Texas A&M and Stoney is going there, she noted, so the Burke family's Tech-A&M rivalry is a three to three draw.

Dale and his wife have two children.

The Burkes are Southern Baptists who belong to Champion Baptist Church.

JANEY BURKE of Champion has been appointed principal of Hutchinson Elementary School. She has been principal of all grades at Highland Schools since 1993.

Museum is collecting sports memorabilia

The Heart of West Texas Museum sports memorabilia section has started off with a bang and, by summer's end, should be one of the most elaborate collections of West Texas sports memories in this neck of the woods.

Director Shirley Scott met with Dick Compton, Hollis Gainey, Don Maynard and several sports legends at last weekend's Sammy Baugh Classic at Wolf Creek Golf Links.

Mr. Compton brought Scott several items with him last weekend, and the others are shipping items this week.

Several sports legends including Walt Garrison, Donnie Anderson and Dean Weese have agreed to add to the collection.

The sports section of the museum hopes to include a photographic viewing library, trophies and other items from Colorado City, Loraine and Westbrook schools, as well as any other sports-related items from across the state.

The upstairs exhibit is in its infancy at this time, but Scott is asking for any items you have whether they be photos, trinkets or trophies, so that she and her staff may begin to put the section together for a showing in the downstairs area.

Scott wishes to let everyone know that any and all items provided for the exhibit may be "leased" to the museum in your name, and remain your property.

For more information, or to donate or lend items to the library, please call Shirley Scott at 915-728-8285.

NBC Report Indicates Many Hearing Aid Patients are Wearing Outdated Technology

A recent report on the NBC "Evening News" stated that within the last three years, there have been dramatic advancements in hearing instrument technology. If you are currently wearing hearing aids that are more than three years old, they may contain outdated circuitry. The national television report went on to say that replacing the older technology with newer, advanced technology may result in an increased level of customer satisfaction.

Tax-free shopping set Aug. 6-8

By Lt. Gov. Rick Perry

School buildings are mostly empty, family vacations are underway and temperatures are rising.

The Rangers and Astros lead their divisions, and it is definitely summertime in the Lone Star State.

Summer is in full swing, but you might want to start thinking about back to school shopping.

Thanks to Senate Bill 441, which the Legislature passed and Gov. Bush signed earlier this year, Texas families will be able to enjoy 72 hours of tax-free shopping on Aug. 6, 7 and 8.

In the first-ever Texas sales tax "holiday," children's and adults' clothing and non-athletic shoes costing less than $100 will be completely exempt from state and local sales taxes.

We expect Lone Star State consumers to save $69.2 million during the event.

The tax-free Friday, Saturday and Sunday will save up to 8.25 percent on purchases of Wranglers, Red Wings or Doc Martens.

Athletic shoes and clothing commonly used as everyday wear such as football jerseys, baseball caps and running shoes costing less than $100 will be exempt.

Merchandise used exclusively for athletic purposes like golf shoes or football pants will not be eligible. In addition, jewelry, handbags, wallets and formal wear will not be included.

Sales tax holidays in other big states have been good news for retailers and consumers alike.

Since January 1997, New Yorkers have saved $81.6 million during three sales tax holidays. Florida's $50 holiday last August saved families $15.1 million.

Texas' Aug. 6-8 event is part of a package of pro-consumer tax relief measures aimed at putting money back into the pockets of Texas families.

The Legislature also eliminated sales taxes on over the counter medications and up to $25 a month in Internet access charges.

Altogether, state leaders cut consumer, sales, business and property taxes by nearly $2 billion this year, allowing citizens to keep more of your hard-earned money.

We used the record $6.4 billion budget surplus wisely by funding record increases in public school financing, a $3,000 pay raise for schoolteachers and human service and criminal justice needs, returning almost $2 billion to the people in the form of tax reductions.

Going back to school is often stressful for children and adults alike, and back to school shopping can be a difficult and expensive task.

Fortunately, we were able to make things easier by cutting taxes.

So as your summer vacation comes to a close and the 1999-2000 school year looms, remember that you have 72 hours of tax-free shopping on Aug. 6, 7 and 8!

(Editor's note: Lt. Gov. Perry, a former state representative from Haskell, may be reached in Austin at 1-800-441-0373).

acquisitions."

While considering the configurations of the flood plain in which it lies, she said, the companies view the field as being ripe for new drilling.

"Where we have 20 acres between wells, we may go down to 10," she said.

Ms. Keller said, however, that the number of wells will not be doubled because of the potential for flooding.

She said 58 to 60 people are working to operate and maintain the 821 producing wells included in the deal.

She did not know how many work in the Westbrook field.

"We have got a very good crew out there to step in and make a smooth transition," she said.

"There have been enough layoffs in the Permian Basin. It will be good for the community from the standpoint that we may not be adding jobs, but we're certainly not taking them away."

Financed by Bank One NA in Midland and two unidentified private investors, the deal includes 24 fields that are being operated and five that are not.

Parallel President Larry Oldham said First Permian will be also be used to make new acquisitions.

He said there is a lot of potential for shallow "in-fill" drilling and the new firm will start a development program early next year.

Participants have said the publicly traded Parallel's financial expertise will combine with the privately owned Baytech's operational skills.

Baytech Operations Manager Ben Strickling said the downsizing that Fina had already done will enable First Permian to take the present staff and still be in position to turn a profit.

He said "First Permian" derives from the W. H. Abrams No. 1 well that was brought in west of Westbrook on July 16, 1920 -- the first oil well in the region.

"Our companies have been here for over 20 years, and we are looking to be here for a long time to come, squeezing all we can from these fields," Strickling said.

"We intend to create good news in the Permian Basin with good managerial skills and good acquisitions. We are excited about doing something good for our community."

Other operated fields in the transaction are the Southeast and Southwest Garza Units in Garza County, near Post; the East Penwell-San Andres Unit in Ector County, near Odessa; the North Robertson and ODC San Andres Units in Gaines County, near Seminole; and the West Brahaney Unit in Yoakum County, near Denver City.

Non-operated fields include the Reinecke Unit in Borden County, the Central Ownby Unit in Yoakum County and the Central Robertson Unit in Gaines County.

The fields are currently producing about 5,500 barrels of oil a day, and natural gas production amounts to 25 percent of the assets.

Parallel guaranteed $10 million in return for 22.5 percent of the new company -- an interest that will grow to 37.5 percent if certain conditions are met.

It has extensive holdings in the Permian Basin and onshore on the Gulf Coast.

Parallel has seven employees and Baytech 10.

Baytech was created in 1981 and operates primarily in the Permian Basin.

extra $3.50 a month and businesses another $7.

Asked if she had had many expressions of support since the ballots arrived early this month, she said, "There have been quite a few of them, but I know there're some that are not for it.

"I picked up my flyers at the stores, and somebody had written 'no' on the one on the bulletin board at the Dairy Queen.

"I think the young couples were all for it, but there are quite a few of the older ones that are not. If all the young ones mailed theirs in, I think it would go.

"But I don't know. I haven't even been able to guess."

Ms. Meynig said, however, that 70 percent is a high standard that may be easily missed if there is any appreciable opposition.

She said the Mitchell County commissioners' recent decision to cast 20 "yes" votes to cover all the lines at the courthouse will help, as will the support of the First Baptist Church.

Those Kids Can Now Have Cold Milk

By Tumbleweed Smith

Hot. Dusty. Poor. Fields of pulverized earth that looks like powder. Too dry to grow even greasewood or cactus.

This is Creel, Mexico.

A young hypnotist was performing in a big circus tent. The crowd and the show created so much choking dust inside some people left.

The most beautiful thing around Creel today is a refrigerator in a rural school. It was delivered recently by a group of Rotarians who asked me to go down with them.

They have been making the trip the past few years to provide supplies and furniture for some country schools in the Tarahumara Indian territory around Copper Canyon in northwest Mexico.

The kids spend most of their days at school, attending on Saturdays as well as weekdays. They eat a couple of meals at school. For the last few months the youngsters have been without hot food because the school officials didn't have enough money to buy eighteen dollars worth of butane for the stove.

People living in the area have been forced to haul water from a creek because the pump Rotarians bought has a broken check valve. When water fills up the reservoir, it all runs back out due to the broken valve, which costs around twenty dollars.

School officials told Rotarians the kids needed milk. There was no way to keep it, so the Rotarians bought a refrigerator for $800 at Wal-Mart in Chihuahua and hauled it by pickup truck to the school in the mountains. As soon as it was instlled, a teacher put a cup of wter inside the freezer section. After awhile, she retrieved it and marveled at the condensation on the outside of the cup and the cool water inside it. She was all smiles.

The only hospital in Creel has an x-ray machine once used in Andrews. The hospital in Andrews was getting a new one, so some Rotarians asked if they could have it for the hospital in Creel. Getting it across the border took some doing and getting it installed in Creel was something unusual in these days of big businesses with small hearts.

General Electric, the manufacturer of the x-ray machine, sent a team of technicians from Mexico City to install it in Creel at no cost.

On this trip Rotarians delivered 1800 servings of dehydrated food to the students. To have a hot meal they just add hot water.

I hadn't been to the area for a few years, and was impressed with the superb roads winding through the mountains. They are wide and well marked and maintained.

We spent a morning poking around the edge of the Copper Canyon at Divisadero. At least three large resort hotels are there, some with porches hanging over the canyon.

We spent one night at Guerrero where Rotarians have been holding medical clinics for years. The clinic needs painting. Any volunteers?

Churches entertain at benefit

This past Saturday night proved to be a huge success. Over 20 youth from First United Methodist Church and Oak Street Baptist Church carhopped in an effort to raise money for the up and coming Disciple Now Weekend scheduled in August.

The evening entertainment was provided by "The Humble Servants". This band is spreading God's word through their gift of song. The band is made up of Chris and April Chambers, Megan Merrell, Chet Erwin and Cheryl Sparks. They entertained the crowd throughout the evening.

A special thank you goes to the local car club, C.C. Riders. They helped these youth cruise in the name of the Lord. This new local car club is growing and we appreciate their enthusiasm in Colorado City.

This event would not have been made possible without Tommy Meeks, owner of Sonic. With businesses like the Sonic supporting the local Christian youth, the movement in the name of the Lord will only continue to grow.

A thank you also to all the employees of Sonic. The sacrifice each of you made to help the cruise night be a huge success is greatly appreciated.

If you would like to make a contribution to the up and coming Christian weekend, Disciple Now, please stop by First Baptist Church, Oak Street Baptist Church or First United Methodist Church.

Band plays again for Calderons

LORAINE -- Seven months after they got married, Annette and Oscar Calderon are still trying to catch a break.

Maybe it will come at a Saturday night dance at the Colorado City Civic Center to help pay medical expenses for injuries she suffered in a near fatal Easter Sunday traffic accident on April 4.

A popular conjunto band from here, Elias y Los Chuys, will play from 7:30 p.m. to midnight.

Advance tickets are $8 at the Cold Spot Cafe at 1258 Hickory St. in C-City, the Loraine Cafe or from Mrs. Calderon at 728-2518.

Tickets on the night of the show will be $10 at the door.

Elias Barrera is a Loraine High School student who is considered a prodigy on the accordion, backed by his father Jesse and other musicians.

Oscar and Annette married last December after a long-distance courtship of more than a year.

She had taken him to a farm he leases south of here for him to do some tractor driving late on the afternoon of the accident.

She was going back into town on FM 644 to head to C-City and return some rented movie videos, and that's the last thing she remembers.

Their 1991 Ford S-250 extended cab pickup truck rolled three times on a righthand curve a mile south of here, and she had severely bruised lungs, a broken left elbow, a broken left shoulder and a head injury that left her delirious.

"They told my mother that I really just knocked myself out good," she said.

"Oscar said when he got there, I was unconscious but screaming for him and my mother. He said that's all I was doing, screaming.

"When we got to the hospital, Dr. Roach came out and told him I was giving them a lot of trouble and he had to sedate me.

"They said maybe something ran in front of me and I swerved. I don't remember because the next time I woke up, it was 10 days later and I had all these tubes in me."

Mrs. Calderon was in the surgical intensive care unit at Covenant Medical Center in Lubbock for 12 days, where doctors did a brain scan and exploratory surgery to determine the extent of her internal injuries.

She needed surgery to stop bleeding in her abdomen and 27 stitches from the top of her head down the left side of her forehead and face.

The couple had no medical insurance, and the bills they have received so far amount to more than $180,000. An account has been established in her name at the First Bank of West Texas here.

Her mother, Naomi Pecina of Euless, near Fort Worth, has been living with the couple since the wreck, and Oscar's parents, Rodolfo and Elida Calderon, recently had a garage sale for them and raffled a quilt.

Having Elias y Los Chuys, or "Elias and the Jesse's," play a benefit for them is appropriate because the Calderon's lives have seemed to revolve around dances.

They met at a wedding dance six years ago in Abilene and then missed each other at an anniversary dance two years ago in C-City when Oscar attended but Annette did not.

Encouraged by Oscar's cousin, Melissa Garcia of Euless, they started talking by telephone and traveling to see each other in Loraine and Euless.

When they married, Elias y Los Chuys played at the wedding dance.

"I'm not driving just yet," Annette said. "I can just now cook a meal. I tire easily. They told me to take it easy for the rest of the year.

"Me and Oscar haven't had a real good start, but I feel I'm starting to get my life back in control."

Mrs. Calderon graduated from Trinity High School in Euless in 1990 and was the general manager of a trucking company there.

She had just started a job at Western Auto in Snyder when she was hurt.

Her husband is also a maintenance man at Kingswood Apartments in Snyder.

"She took a real beating," Oscar said. "They had her on a respirator for 12 days.

"Everybody keeps telling me it was a test, so I guess we passed the test."

ANNETTE AND OSCAR CALDERON have had a tough year, witn Annette being almost fatally injured in an Easter Sunday traffic accident. A benefit dance will be held for them Saturday night in the Civic Center.

TXU ELECTRIC/WEST TEXAS UTILITIES PUBLIC PARTICIPATION SESSIONS FOR PROPOSED MORGAN CREEK-TWIN BUTTES-RED CREEK-COMANCHE TRANSMISSION LINE

TXU Electric and West Texas Utilities Company (WTU) are proposing to construct new 345-kilovolt(kV) electric transmission facilities in west-central Texas. The proposed line will be 200-225 miles long and constructed within an approximately 160-foot wide right-of-way. The study area and existing project facilities are shown on the map below.

TXU Electric and WTU are committed to routing the proposed transmission line in a manner consistent with the values of the local communities and the need to provide reliable electric service to their customers. In order to accomplish this, TXU Electric and WTU want to solicit input for use in determining the preferred route for the proposed transmission line and share information about line routing alternatives. Individuals attending the "come and go" open house meetings will have an opportunity to ask questions and make comments to representatives and technical experts from TXU Electric and WTU regarding the routing of the proposed transmission line. PBS&J, a consulting firm retained for the project, has identified preliminary alternative transmission line routes for consideration which are shown as dashed lines on the map below. These preliminary alternative routes are subject to modification based on further study and the results of these public meetings

Agents attend ag confab

COLLEGE STATION -- Mitchell County Agents Vance Christie and Mary McMullen were among more than 1,000 officials who attended the Texas Agricultural Extension Service Conference here.

The three-day conference was aimed at preparing faculty for a "new century of service" to the state.

"As a knowledge-based organization, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has been educating Texans for 85 years through a wide array of outreach activities," said Dr. Edward A. Hiler, vice chancellor and dean for the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at Texas A&M University and Extension director.

"The extension service has brought the resources of a land-grant university to local communities in ways that have had a positive impact on people's lives and communities. We have always been able to respond effectively to chaging needs because we continue to listen to people, hear what they say and take action."

Participants were drawn in from across the state for the first time in 11 years.

Keynote speakers included Dr. Lowell Catlett, professor of agricultural economics and agricultural business at New Mexico State University, who spoke on "Getting Extension's Future in Focus," Michael Boehje, professor agricultural economics, and David King, head of the department of agricultural communications at Purdue University, who spoke on "Meeting the Private Sector Challenge," and David Hutchens, a corporate consultant and author, who discussed "Out-learning the Wolves: Reimagining Your Community as a Learning System."

Extension faculty were also able to participate in continuing education sessions on topics such as mediating conflict in communities, achieving customer service excellence, creating and nurturing collaborations partnerships, building extension volunteer programs, interpersonal communications, and empowering team leadership.

Other sessions included, biotechnology, health and water issues in the 21st century, youth assets, trends in liability and rsk issues, nature tourism, attracting and retaining top-notch employees, effective teaching on the World Wide Web and learning styles and learner-centered teaching. Some faculty were able to take advantage of first aid certification as well.

The extension service provides a range of research-based information and education to people in every Texas county. Faculty include specialists and county agents with expertise in agricluture and natural resources, consumer and family sciences and 4-H and youth development.

about the escapee and his possible whereabouts is asked to call the sheriff's office at 728-5261.

Your identify will be kept confidential.

Sheriff Toombs said the 36-year-old Alfaro, 5 foot 4 inches tall and weighing about 130 pounds, has a lengthy criminal history and has used a number of aliases, most of them variations on his real name -- Alparo Moyses, Moyses Alfora, Moises Yreta and others.

He has been to the Texas Department of Criminal Justice twice, the first time after a January 1989 swine theft conviction and two-year sentence in Nolan County.

He was arrested for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle on Oct. 6, 1990, in Dallas, and his parole was revoked and he was returned to the TDCJ on Dec. 2, 1993, after being arrested for theft.

He was deported to Mexico on Sept. 9, 1994, and convicted of driving while intoxicated on March 14, 1997, in Nolan County.

Alfaro was arrested for failure to pay child support in December 1997 in Haskell County, and his parole had just been revoked following his arrest here for possession of marijuana and failure to pay a fine on a conviction for making a terroristic threat.

He was awaiting transfer to the TDCJ -- and deportation back to his native Mexico following his release -- when he took advantage of his trustee status and escaped from the county jail about 10:10 p.m. Sunday, July 4.

Sheriff Toombs speculated that someone was waiting for him in a motor vehicle with a change of clothes because his orange jail clothes were found in the recreation yard.

He had been in jail here since April 10.

He has relatives in Loraine, Snyder and Dallas, an ex-wife in Haskell and a girlfriend in Snyder.

Between arrests and deportations, Alfaro has lived in Loraine for a number of years.

A search by tracking dogs from the Wallace Unit in a widening circle around the area of the jail was unproductive, leading the sheriff to believe that he might not have been on the ground long enough to leave the distinctive, somewhat sour scent of a man who has just left a jail.

COMPLEX

FROM PAGE1

W. Second St.

Drawings of the complex will be displayed, and the application will be mailed to Austin on Wednesday, July 28, she said.

People who wish to attend but are not Lions Club members should notify the Civic Center at 728-2072 so that an adequate number of meals will be prepared, Ms. Fuller said.

The softball, hardball and Little League fields will be built during the project's first phase and the soccer field and a dual use softball field with movable fences in the second phase two or three years later, she said.

Other business in the 9 a.m. called court meeting included a discussion with County Auditor Susan Buckalew about the new county budget, which commissioners had been reviewing with department heads all week.

Ms. Buckalew said the tentative Year 2000 budget stands at $33,800 more than the $3,704,588 1999 document.

That's with a $50,000 reduction in each of the four commissioners' precincts, but the new budget does call for the purchase of a new crew cab pickup truck for County Agents Vance Christie and Mary McMullen, County Judge Ray Mayo said.

Noting that the court in some previous years has enacted budgets with small deficits that were later covered by unforeseen revenue increases, Pct. 2 Commissioner Carl Guelker said the document could be approved as written with fund reserves being dedicated to ad-dress the deficit.

"With the situation the way it is out there, I think the taxpayers would appreciate it if we did that," Commissioner Guelker said.

Pct. 1 Commissioner Ed Roach and Pct. 4 Commissioner Bill Preston stated no opposition to the idea.

Pct. 3 Commissioner Wendy Inman was absent.

A meeting was scheduled for Tuesday, July 27, when the county's effective tax rate will be available, to consider adopting the budget.

The current total tax rate is 57.5 cents per $100 in valuation, and court members have speculated that it might have to be increased to about 70 cents to offset declining oil and gas properties.

Adopting a new effective tax rate equalizes revenues without increasing tax bills.

Judge Mayo said after the meeting that the commissioners were able to cut their budgets primarily by curtailing new equipment purchases.

"As much as we would like to give everybody what they want, it just may not be possible," the judge said.

A bid of $100 was approved for Pcts. 1 and 3 to sell a used air compressor to Colorado Feed & Seed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:

I would like to respond to Mr. Geigers' letter to the editor in the July 8, 1999, issue of your newspaper. While I appreciate Mr. Geiger's five years of dedicated service to the Mitchell County Hospital District Board of Directors, I respectfully disagree with him on the following issues:

Responsibility to the taxpayers: Mr. Geiger is correct in stating that the votes of the county indicated by the survey that they want a new hospital (to be specific - a new hospital complex).

In fact, he was one of the board members that felt strongly that the board should hear from the voters whether they would be in favor of and/or support such an undertaking - thus, the survey, which apparently made no difference at all in his decision to side with the opposition after the vote was taken.

Absenteeism: The members of the hospital district board meet at a set time each month. Mr. Geiger was aware of the meeting time and date. Even through the agenda was not posted and received by him at the time he made plans to be away, he could have demonstrated responsibility by checking with the administrator and/or board president on possible agenda items to be considered which were not routine business.

The general public was anxiously anticipating the board's actions on this important issue and felt it would be considered by the board as soon as the count on the questionnaire was received from Parrish, Moody and Fikes. (It was public knowledge that the results had been received a month prior to this meeting.)

Taxes: It has become obvious that our newly elected directors sought board membership for only one reason - to prevent building a new facility - and join with Mr. Geiger and Mr. Beasley stating that taxes will increase, the hospital might have to close its doors, employees' jobs would be jeopardized, etc. As a matter of fact, taxes of every taxing entity will probably increase this year due to the drop in oil values.

When discussing our hospital tax money, other factors must be considered, such as what services are rendered, and what number of the population is served. And, to compare our tax rate to other hospital tax rates, means absolutely nothing because the amount of tax money is equal to the rate times the property valuation.

In other words, the valuation (or tax base) must also be taken into consideration. For example, Dallas County rate for 1997 was only .18577 yet generated $165,147,416 in tax revenues due while the Mitchell County rate was .38444 and generated only $1,629,643 in tax revenues due.

Also, you must realize that the amount of tax revenues due does not always equal the tax income (the amount actually received). As stated, our hospital district stands to lose approximately $300,000 in tax revenues. No mention was made of the fact that we have received $141,000 in the tobacco settlement, there are plans in place to offset the remaining $159,000; and, we already have enough saved to make payments for the first three years on the proposed construction.

Disproportionate Share Money: According to figures obtained from the management, the hospital has already received $617,280 in disproportionate share money for the '98-'99 year. I was assured that what was received will not be subject to loss. The hospital district anticipates losing 5% (approximately $38,000/year) in 2000 through 2003 (not $900,000 - $120,000).

Another misunderstood fact is this: People are led to believe that, should the district go ahead with this project financed with revenue bonds and due to some very unusual and unlikely circumstances not be able to make a payment, the hospital would close and the taxpayers would still be responsible for repaying the outstanding balance on these bonds.

Every board member received a copy of the document from Southwest Securities (bonding agent) which states in Section 28, page 29: "The Bonds are special obligations of Authority payable from the Pledged Revenues and the Holders thereof shall never have the right to demand payment thereof out of funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Efficient Operation of Hospital: If a person would compare our financial statements with those of prior years it would be evident that our hospital is now operating more efficiently than it has in the past; however, with the aniquated hospital building, scattered facilities, and board members who lack the courage to "spend money to make money" it will not be possible to move forward in progess, and in all probability, the hospital will eventually close.

After all, how can we expect to keep qualified doctors and healthcare personnel with these conditions? It is not enough to have "good medical care" when we want and deserve the best medical care possible with the most efficient use of our revenues (including your tax dollars). It is senseless to continue to literally pour money down the drain.

Question to consider: Of those opposing this construtions project, how many utilize our physician services and our healthcare facilities?

Again, I urge people of this county to contact their board members to reconsider and correct action taken on this very important matter.

Sincerely,
Shirley A. Clifton

Letter to the Editor:

A few weeks ago, I was on my way to Abilene on I-20 when a Colorado City police car, unit 7, flew by me like I was standing still. I caught up with him in the construction area.

As soon as we were out of the construction area, he floored it. Since he was not using his red lights or siren, I caught up with him. He was driving between 85 and 90 m.p.h. I pointed out the speed to him and he just looked at me and went on.

I slowed down and called the Colorado City Police Dept. on my cell phone and asked them to radio the officer to slow him up. If they did, it had no effect on him.

Keeping him in sight, I finally called 911, around Merkel, to try to get the DPS to slow him down. The officer finally slowed down just inside Abilene.

This officer was out of his jurisdiction, speeding in a city vehicle. He took an oath to uphold the laws of Texas not to break them.

When I got back to Colorado City, I tried to get in touch with the Police Chief and the City Manager but both were out of town. So I asked to meet with the city council, I told them my name and what I wanted to talk about.

Last week when the city council met, I was there. They said my name was not on the agenda. The mayor asked what I was there for and I told him about the city police officer speeding all the way to Abilene.

The mayor said he didn't want to talk about it in the meeting, but I would hear from them in two days. I haven't heard anything, so I called the Police Chief and he said the officer might get a letter of reprimand in his folder. Big deal.

If you or I were caught driving at that speed, we would have a big fine to pay. I would just like to know why the city does not answer this problem instead of, more or less, trying to sweep it under the rug.

I was wondering if there are two sets of laws, one for the citizens and one for police officers. I am all for law enforcement, but the police officers should be professional and set the example.

Thank you,
Melburn Jaco

Letter to the Editor:

First I want to say that I agree with those who say that the new members on the hospital board only wanted on there to try to stop the building of a new hospital, not for any of the reasons they should be.

The goal of the hospital and the entire medical community is to carry out the wishes of the people of Mitchell County, who are the real owners of the hospital and other medical related facilities.

They have not been there long enough to know enough about the real facts to cast an educated vote. Therefore, there shouldn't have been a vote called that soon.

If they will take the time and make the effort to find out all the facts and listen to the people who do know and who have worked there in the past, they will find out that there has already been enough spent the last few years just trying to keep the present facility open, to have built a new hospital.

I worked there for 50 years and retired in 1993 and a facility was badly needed before then.

So, board members, look at all the real facts and needs and do what you should do as members of a board elected by the people.

Inez Howell

Letter to the Editor:

This letter is in regards to the SWB ballot on toll-free calling. First off, I want to say "Hooray" to Ms. Griffin.

I am on a fixed income and can afford $3.50 a month much easier than paying to call the surrounding areas.

Most of my doctors are in the toll-free areas as are some of my family.

If Colorado City would come around to the 20th century, it would make it a lot easier for several of us on a fixed income to call doctors, family members, or whomever, without having to pay the high long distance rates.

Wake up Colorado City!

Channel 12 news anchor speaks to B&PW Club

The Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club met Tuesday, July 13, 1999 at 6:30 p.m. in the Civic Center.

Hostess Committee for the evening included the incoming officers and president, Barbara Stahl. After president Stahl gave the welcome, she led the Pledge of Allegiance and Molly Bruce led the Club Collect.

A delicious dinner was served to two visitors and 14 members.

President Stahl then introduced the speaker for the evening, Karen Wilkinson, morning anchor for Channel 12, KTXS, Abilene, spoke on Media News Reporting. She said the market calls for more women in broadcasting.

She gave an inspirational talk about relying on yourself and keeping your chin up.

Also speaking to the group was Laura Miller, who was awarded the BP&W Scholarship for 1998-99. She spoke of her accomplishments in high school. Her plans are to attend UTPB in Odessa training to be an elementary school teacher then get her masters' in Deaf Communications.

After a five minute recess, President Stahl called the business meeting to order. Minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given, approved and filed for audit.

Committee reports were given and the audit report for 1998-99 was presented by Shirley DeLaney.

The BP&W anniversary dinner, scheduled for August 27, 28, was discussed. The dinner is to be held in the Calvary Baptist Church Family Center. Plans for a breakfast and luncheon were discussed.

Those present for the meeting were: two guests, Karen Wilkinson and Laura Miller; and members, Louise Logsdon, Barbara Stahl, Mary Crisp, Pauline Light, Virginia Dearen, Shirley DeLaney, Shirley Scott, Mary Beth Love, Donna Laurens, Molly Bruce, Christine Cooley, Urdine Morgan, Sue Womack and Erlene Selliers.

R. Hendersons host Sunday School Class

The Adult V Sunday School department of the First Baptist Church met Friday, July 16th, at the lake home of Robert and Janie Henderson for a barbecue dinner, with Harry and Dorris Dockrey as co-hosts.

Those attending the festive occasion were: Wesley and Deanie Elliott, Joe and Zona Pritchett, Wayne and Betty Shawn, J.O. and Betty Dockrey, Thermie and Friday Moore, Glenn and Mae Dunn, Coy and Leota Adams, Elbert and Leora Spann, Sug Bynum, Ralph Glenn, Dora Sutton, Mary Jo Self, Ernestine O'Dell, and Virginia Dearen.

Guests for the evening were: Jerry Strain, Lana Self and Zach Mowery.

Class meets in W'brook

JOY Sunday School Class members of Westbrook Baptist Church met in the fellowship hall on July 13, 1999 for a salad supper and meeting.

President Marcil Moody presided over the meeting. Frances Ranne voiced the opening prayer.

The group sang "Happy Birthday" to Wilma Jean McKenney, who celebrated her 80th birthday on July 14.

Following the meal, the group sang the class song, "Let Others See Jesus in You" and repeated the class scripture, II Timothy 2:15.

Frances Ranne read the minutes of the previous meeting and gave the treasurer's report. Blanche Bell read a poem entitled, "Don't Turn Around".

The class members voted to buy a spaghetti cooker for the church. Members then exchanged gifts and revealed secret pals.

Those attending were: Helen Baucum, Ruby Chambers, Charlotte Clemmer, Marlena Rice, Judy Moore, Irene Edwards, Mollie Warren, Marcil Moody, Nell Rollins, Naomi Williamson, Wilma Jean McKenney, Frances Ranne and Blanche Bell.

The next meeting will be in September. Nell Rollins is teacher of the class.

COOK'S CORNER

By Sheila Plagens

It is getting hot outside - not quite as hot as it was this time last year, but hot just the same. Today I have included some cool salads for your enjoyment.

EASY FRUIT SALAD

1 can peach pie filling
1 bag frozen strawberries
1 can pineapple chunks
1 can Mandarin oranges
3 or 4 bananas

Mix all ingredients. Chill well and serve.

FIRE & ICE TOMATOES

6 lrg. tomatoes, quartered
1 green pepper, sliced
1 onion, sliced
1 cucumber, sliced

Dressing:
3/4 cup vinegar
1 1/2 tsp. celery salt
1 1/2 tsp. mustard seed
1/4 cup water
1/2 cup salad oil
5 tsp. sugar
1/8 tsp. red pepper
1/8 tsp. black pepper

Mix dressing ingredients in saucepan and boil for 1 minute. Pour over vegetables; chill.

24 HOUR LAYERED TOSSED SALAD

1 head lettuce, broken
3/4 cup chopped green onions
4 hard-boiled eggs, sliced
8 oz. Swiss cheese, grated
1 bottle real bacon bits
1 pkg. frozen peas, thawed

Salt, pepper and sugar
Real mayonnaise

Layer 1/2 head lettuce, Layer eggs, salt, pepper and sugar. Layer over 1/2 head lettuce, bacon bits, peas, cheese and seal with mayonnaise. Refrigerate overnight. Toss with green onions and serve.

CORNBREAD SALAD

1/2 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped green onion
4 slices crisp bacon
2 tomatoes
1 Tbsp. mustard
1/2 cup salad dressing
1 pkg. cornbread mix, cooked

Crumble the cornbread; add remaining ingredients. Add salad dressing or mayonnaise. Serves 12.

PASTA SALAD

Day 1:
1 16 oz. pkg. vermicelli
1 Tbsp. Accent seasoning
1 Tbsp. seasoned salt
3 Tbsp. lemon juice
4 Tbsp. oil

Day 2:
4 oz. pimiento, drained
1 cup bell pepper, diced fine
3/4 cup onion, diced fine
1 small can diced black olives, drained
2 cups diced celery
1 1/2 cups mayonnaise

Slightly undercook vermicelli and drain; rinse with cold water and drain again. Mix remaining ingredients for Day 1 with pasta and marinate overnight. Combine all ingredients for Day 2 and add to ingredients mixed on Day 1. Marinate overnight.

CALICO SALAD

1 can shoepeg corn
1 can small peas
1 can French-style green beans

Dressing:
1/2 cup vinegar
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup oil
1/2 tsp. salt
2 tsp. pepper (optional)

Drain all vegetables well and mix together. Mix the dressing ingredients in a saucepan and bring to a boil. When cooled, pour over vegetables.

State 4-H Horse Show

Three local riders to participate

Mitchell County has a rich history of horse owners and activities. The 4-H Horse Program is one of the strongest in the district and several local students participate at the State Horse Show each year.

This year the district will be represented at the State 4-H Horse Show in Abilene, July 25-31, by Jami Goebel, Kali Froneberger and Robin Morris.

As technology increases so does the scope of the Extension Program Areas. As an effort to reach a new and ever-growing audience, the Tarrant County Extension Office has designed a new website to provide information to anyone interested in horses.

The Cyberhorse Short Course is designed to give participants basic information about horses. The information presented will be of value to horse owners and non-horse owners. The public is invited to participate. The site for the Cyberhorse Short Course is: www.tarranttaex.tamu.edu/cyberhorse.html.

The target audience of the website is youth 6-19 years of age who love horses but can't own one at the present time due to space, financial or other reasons.

The Cyberhorse Short Course will consist of eight lessons: psychology, breeds, colors, health care, feeding, etc. Upon completion the course, participating youth will have completed requirements for the 4-H Horse project.

Adults completing the course may be interested in becoming involved as a 4-H group or project leader, volunteer or participant in other activities, such as tours, clinics, and workshops.

Ultimately, the Cyberhorse Short Course should help participants in learning life skills and enhance the quality of life. For more information call, 728-3111.

Local girl enrolls in AQHA riding program

Malarie Bradbury, of Colorado City, recently enrolled in the American Quarter Horse Association Horseback Riding Program. The program provides AQHA members recognition for time spent riding or driving American Quarter Horses.

A unique aspect of the program is its simplicity. Current AQHA members complete a program application and pay a one-time $25 enrollment fee. Each enrollee receives an official AQHA log sheet to record their hours driving or riding their American Quarter Horse. Participants need not own their own horse, but all official hours must be accrued with a registered American Quarter Horse.

The first award, a program recognition patch, is given after only 50 hours have been logged and verified. Patches and nine subsequent awards are presented at 100 to 5,000 hour levels and range from merchandise gift certificates from Drysdales Western Store to a Montana Silversmith trophy belt buckle at the highest level.

Jim Bret Campbell, AQHA Manager of the Horseback Riding Program, said, "The Horseback Riding Program is a unique opportunity to earn rewards outside of traditional competition. In some cases the program rewards people who already spend many hours riding American Quarter Horses. For others, the Horseback Riding Program is an incentive to get out and ride."

Horseback riding provides good exercise. According to the U.S. Department of the Interior, more than 27 million people participate in horseback riding nationally.

AQHA actively encourages horseback riding as a relaxing recreational activity that can be enjoyed alone or shared with family and friends.

Westbrook students acquire scholarships

Two 1999 Westbrook graduates, Chris Chambers and Kristin Moody, have been notified that they are the recipients of scholarships through the Texas Interscholastic League Foundation.

Chris Chambers, the 1999 Valedictorian of Westbrook High School, has been awarded a Nelda C. and H.J. Lutcher Stark Foundation Scholarship in the amount of $13,040.

Chris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. Monte Rich, all of Westbrook. He has received $47,000 in academic scholarships to date.

While attending Westbrook High School, Chris competed in UIL Accounting and Computer Applications as a senior, under the direction of Hontas Hines. He also competed in Calculator Applications as a sophomore, with David Williams as his teacher.

Chris will attend the University of Texas at Austin, majoring in computer engineering.

Kristin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Moody, has been awarded an Abell-Hanger Foundation Scholarship in the amount of $3,000.

While attending WHS, Kristin competed in UIL Computer Applications as a sophomore, with Hontas Hines as her teacher and coach. She graduated as Salutatorian of her 1999 graduating class.

Kristin will attend Angelo State University in the fall.

ASU sets fall semester registration

For those who may have procrastinated in preparing for the Fall 1999 Semester, there is still time to apply for admission and register for classes at Angelo State University, accoring to Monique Cossich, Director of Admissions and Retention.

Although time is running out to apply for admission to the university for the upcoming semester, Cossich said, it is beneficial for students to complete the application procedure as soon as possible.

The next opportunity for students to register fot the Fall 1999 Semester at ASU will be July 23-24 and July 26-29.

Friday, July 23, and Monday - Thursday, July 26-29, registration will be available in person, as well as via telephone and Internet. Saturday, July 24 registration will be by telephone and Internet only.

Students are strongly encouraged to take advantage of convenience of the telephone and on-line registration process.

Bills for the Fall 1999 Semester will be mailed after this registration period. By paying this bill by the posted deadline of August 18, Cossich said, students will have completed the registration process.

Classes for the Fall 1999 Semester at ASU begin August 30.

Applications and class schedule bulletins are available in the ASU Office of Admissions, accessible through the first floor of the Hardeman Building off of Avenue N.

For more information, contact the ASU Office of Admissions at (915)942-2185.

CHRISTIAN YOUTH IN ACTION

By Robert Sarles, Minister of Youth and Music, Calvary Baptist Church

Calvary Baptist Youth have had a busy summer. On Sunday evenings, we started a new discipleship program called "N-Sight". N-sight (which stands for new sight) is for committed teenagers from 7th - 12th grades who are looking to deepen their daily walk with Christ. Each week we answer new questions like: "How can I have a positive influence on my friends?" and "How can I change my way of thinking?"

The highlight of our summer has been the Youth Evangelism Conference. We joined 20,000 youth from across Texas at the Alamodome in San Antonio. There we enjoyed great Christian music from Rebecca St. James, Avalon and other as well as the incredible preaching of Dave Edwards.

Our last big event before school starts is Baptist Youth Days at Six Flags over Texas. Of course, Six Flags needs no explanation, but there we will also enjoy the music of the Supertones and Audio Adrenaline.

CHS cheerleading mini-clinic slated

The CHS Cheerleading Mini-Clinic will be held July 27-30 at the high school.

The session for girls ages 4 years through 6th grade will be from 8 to 9:30 a.m.

The session for 7th and 8th grade girls will be from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. 7th and 8th grade girls must attend in order to participate as a cheerleader this year.

Registration for the mini-clinic will be July 22 and July 23 from 4 to 6 p.m. at the high school in room 111. Everyone participating in the clinic must register.

Fees for the clinic are $10 for the younger girls and $20 for the middle school girls. Late registration fees will be $15 and $25.

COACHES LARRY HARTWICK and Todd Pollard (r), begin the task of getting equipment ready for the 1999 Wolves' football season.

Wolves football players begin 2-a-day workouts on Aug. 4

Colorado High School football players begin two-a-day workouts in just two weeks.

Defending their 1998 District Championship will be a tall order for the varsity Wolves, and the work begins, in earnest, August 4 at 7 a.m.

After receiving their equipment August 3, the Pack begins working out at the stadium practice field, and will begin their first season in their newly renovated field house.

The Wolves will field just ten seniors this year, after losing eleven to the 1999 graduating class.

The Pack is picked to place third in District 3-3A again this year, behind Lamesa and Seminole, according to Dave Campbell's 1999 Texas Football magazine, the self-proclaimed "bible" of Texas football.

Only time will tell if they missed the mark again, but the true story will unfold weekly beginning Friday, August 27 at Wolf Stadium against the Sonora Broncos at 8 p.m.

Rocha earns spot on SRSU baseball team

Armando "Rock" Rocha, the hard-hitting CHS athlete, who made great contributions to both the Wolves' football and baseball teams, has won a starting position with the Sul Ross University Lobos' baseball team in Alpine.

"Abel, Philip and I went down there and tried out for the team and they asked us to sign up," Rocha said, speaking of friends Abel Bonilla and Philip Castro and their recent trip to Alpine to try out for the Lobo baseball team.

The tryouts were held during a two-day period in which there were college players trying out for the Arizona Diamondbacks Major League team also.

The guys stayed in the SRU men's dormitory for two days and three nights and had a great time.

Rocha will play left field for the Lobos, and may suit up for the football team in the fall also.

"They asked me if I wanted to play football, and I told them I don't know right now," said Rocha.

He says he'll wait and see how baseball goes before he decides on the football squad.

Rocha will attend Sul Ross with Bonilla, but Castro has decided not to attend the school.

Rocha is saving up his money, working full time for Ramage Appliance in Colorado City.

RECORD SPORTS WEEKLY

BY RUSSELL BENSON

I've always been a Dallas Cowboys fan, to a fault. The Cowboys were once known as "America's team", back in the days when Clint Murchison was the owner and the great Tom Landry was head coach.

Yes sir, the 'Boys had Roger Staubach, Bob Lilly, Randy White and a true American cowboy named Walt Garrison.

Many of us had the pleasure of meeting Garrison this past weekend at the Slingin' Sammy Baugh Classic at Wolf Creek, and nobody was disappointed.

One lucky lady from Big Spring received a personal phone call from Garrison on Saturday, just to say "howdy".

Tommy Meeks, local owner of Sonic Drive-In, told me how his 92 year-old grandmother in Big Spring was an avid Cowboy fan, and that she would love a souvenir from Walt Garrison.

After a brief conversation with Garrison on the course during Saturday's rounds, the popular Cowboy agreed to sign a football and talk to Frankie Marstrand on the phone.

Garrison, surrounded by kids and adults wanting autographs at the ninth green, took the time to grab the phone and say "how are you today Frankie?", and go on to talk with her for three to four minutes before continuing to the number one tee box.

Garrison was gracious and charming to Marstrand, as his selfless actions literally made her day.

Garrison is just that type of man, having spent two weeks whittling a beautiful walking cane for Sammy Baugh.

But Wolf Creek was "packed" with unselfish individuals Friday and Saturday, both celebrity and non-celebrity.

One of the celebrities, Donnie Anderson, after already donating his time and expense for the event, gave Bob O'Day a $100 bill Friday "to go towards the donations".

I had the pleasure of playing on the Dukes' team, consisting of Jake and Linda Dukes, Jay and Esther Guelker and Jack Spikes, a true gentleman whose golf game was as solid as his resume'.

Jake Dukes is the doctor who treats prisoners at Wallace and Ware, and he was late for Friday's round, due to a few broken ribs and a broken nose at the unit Friday morning,(no, not his).

Dr. Dukes was one of many Colorado Citians who contributed to the Silent Auction, purchasing several sports collectibles at a bargain.

As for our round of golf, "team Dukes" went eleven under par, thanks to the driving of Jack and Jay, and the putting of Linda, Esther and Jake (I think we may have used one of my putts!).

Everyone was having too much fun to worry a great deal about their golf game.

The tournament featured many sports' legends, but the story doesn't end with that, because I think we all were encouraged, if not humbled, by the sense that the legends were just as down to earth and friendly as anyone you'll ever meet.

Tourney organizer Bob O'Day reserved the meeting room at the Villa Restaurant for the celebrities to relax and visit, and tell stories.

C-City's Don Maynard stole the show Friday night as he shared some memories about Sammy Baugh.

Maynard can tell a tale or two, and the colorful Hall of Fame receiver had his friends at the Villa rolling as he recalled his days under Coach Baugh.

I believe we all want to be remembered and recognized. The interaction between the celebrities and the "regular people", was special. For just one weekend, we all shared a common goal and were able to take a peek into the lives of those who made it "big", and perhaps even come away with a piece of their fame that we could call our own.

The event was the "First Annual" Slingin' Sammy Baugh Classic, which means that the tournament will return next year, hopefully bigger and better.

The Permian Basin chapter of the Sul Ross exes association deserves a big "thank you" from our city, as do the many celebrities who came to C-City. Abel Bonilla thanked everyone for their help during Saturday's play, setting a great example for us to follow.

Celebrity tournament winners are announced

There were thirty-six teams entered in the Sammy Baugh Classic last Friday and Saturday at Wolf Creek Golf Links in Coloradio City.

The top eight teams' 18-hole score in the two-day event were awarded prizes by the tournament organizers.

Each team member received an authentic NFL Wilson football autographed by Slingin' Sammy Baugh.

Par at Wolf Creek is 70.

The top eight teams were:

1. The Robertson Team from Snyder with celebrity Donnie Anderson. Team members were Raymond Nichols, David Holt, Glenn Fonner, David Harrell and Pete Bryant. Score - 53.

2. The Scott Team from Odessa with celebrity Cotton Davidson. Team members were Kenneth Scott, Jerry Burleson, Jerry Larnard, Tommy Burleson and Ricky Burleson. Score - 54.

3. The Sample Team from Alpine with celebrity Dean Weese. Team members were Chet Sample, Roger Grant, David Tandy, Kevin Farrer and Bob Lemons. Score - 54.

4. The Lubbock Red Raiders Team with celebrity Dave Parks. Team members were Coach Dean Campbell, Coach Rick Dykes(son of Texas Tech Head Coach Spike Dykes), Richard Whittenburg, Jerry Thormahlen and Courtney White. Score - 54.

5. The Erwin Team from Snyder with celebrity Dean Weese. Team members were Jim Erwin, Jay Kidd, Pop Kidd, Gerald Beard and Ricky Beard. Score - 55.

6. The Strobel Team from Abilene with celebrity David McGinnis. Team members were Chris Strobel, Dwayne Hennessey, Sam Wohlers, Mark Smith and Maxey Ware. Score - 56.

7. The Stewart Team from Colorado City with celebrity Hollis Gainey. Team members were Don Stewart, Terry Haggerton, Steve Shackelford, Hobie Bolin and Herschel Houghton. Score - 56.

8. The Pasqua Team from Ft. Stockton with celebrities Bobby Joe Conrad and John David Crow. Team members were Paul Pasqua, Tracey Pasqua, John Morrow and Rick McIvor. Score - 56.

The ties were broken by a scorecard playoff. Congratulations to all the golfers and thanks for supporting the Sammy Baugh benefit tourney.

TOURNEY

FROM PAGE1

University of Texas in 1953.

Jones coached with Darrell Royal at the University of Texas for eight years before going into the banking business in Austin in 1963, the year that UT won the National Championship.

In 1980, Coach Jones came back to football as the Administrative Assistant Athletic Director at Texas, then in 1985 he took over the reigns as Athletic Director at Texas Tech, where he stayed until his retirement in 1993.

Coach Jones loves working with kids, saying, "you never know what it means to work with young people until you have one of your students come up years later and want to tell you about his family."

C-City's George Lay Powell called the event "super".

"There was great fellowshipping both days. The celebrities are just great, down-to-earth people, willing to give their time to help raise scholarship money for kids."

Individual "Sammy Baugh" autographed footballs were given to team members on the top eight teams in the six-man scramble format.

Par is 70 at Wolf Creek, and the Robertson team out of Snyder shot a 53 to take first place.

Odessa's Kenneth Scott team took second with a 54. Chet Sample's team from Alpine and the "Lubbock Red Raiders" team tallied a 54 as well, but finished third and fourth respectively after the scorecard tie-breaker.

Snyder's Jim Erwin team finished fifth with a round of 55, as the final three teams all finished with a round of 56.

Chris Strobel's team from Abilene took sixth place, Don Stewart's Colorado City team placed seventh and Paul Pasqua's Fort Stockton snagged the eighth spot.

Colorado City's Jay Guelker was proud of the event and the way everything fell together.

"I can't believe how well it has come off and I would love to see the tournament here next year," said Guelker.

Several long-time members of Wolf Creek mentioned that the course was in the best shape they have seen in four years or more. Thanks to recent heavy rains, the course was soft and green and drew praise from the weekend's visitors.

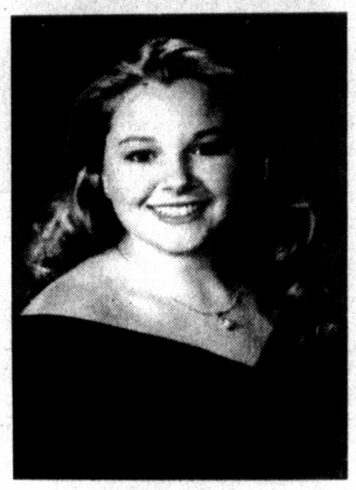
Abel Bonilla, recipient of the Gainey-Compton-Maynard $4000 Scholarship award to Sul Ross University in Alpine, made it a point to thank the celebrities who showed up to help raise money.

"I had only heard of a few of the celebrities before today," said Bonilla. "I knew about Mr. Compton, Mr. Gainey and Mr. Maynard."

All of the stars who met Bonilla were impressed with the young man and the gratitude he had shown.

Other celebrities participating were E.J. Holub, Frank Broyles, Don Maynard, Cotton Davidson, Jack Spikes, Hollis Gainey, Walt Garrison, Dave Parks, Bobby Joe Conrad, Dean Weese, Dick Compton, David McGinnis, Jim Parmer, John David Crow.

Miss Scott receives All-State recognition



Ann Marie Scott

Colorado High School's Ann Marie Scott was recently elected to the Texas Sports Writer's All State Team as a third baseman.

Scott led the team with a .667 batting average and a .780 on-base-average.

The Lady Wolves' star also finished with twenty-six runs scored, sixteen doubles, two triples, two homeruns, twenty-four RBI's and twenty-six stolen bases.

The 1999 CHS graduate will attend the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor in Belton, Texas in the fall and play softball for the Lady Crusaders.

Scott's 96 average and rank of seventh in her class at CHS earned her a $1250 Honors Scholarship from UMHB.

The CHS graduate is looking forward to her time in Belton.

"Its very pretty down there, and they have a young coach who is very competitive," said Scott, who truly appreciates the support she received in Colorado City.

"I just have to thank CHS and softball fans from Colorado City for supporting us.

"Its great that CHS added softball; now I can fulfill my dreams," she added.

At this time, she is undecided on a major field of study.

Texas Football rates Loraine, Westbrook

By Carl Graham

According to Dave Campbell's 1999 Texas Football magazine, Loraine and Westbrook are picked to finish fourth and fifth, respectively, in Districts 10 and 6.

The Loraine Bulldogs will return four starters on both sides of the ball from their 3-7 team of a year ago.

Among the returning starters will be "little dynamite" quarterback Luis Rico, a 5'7", 125-pound junior. If he can start healthy this year, he should make another run at all-district.

Another to watch will be Roman Martinez, who intercepted five passes to lead the district in that category. Although only 5'7", 130 pounds, he can be dangerous when he gets open.

The other returning starters will probably be senior center, Mike Rico, who was out most of last year due to injuries. Mike would like nothing better than to finish up his senior year in a strong fashion.

Look for senior end Rene Garcia to have a banner year as well. Garcia has 4.45 speed in the 40 yard dash and will be dangerous in the open field.

Senior defensive end Jesse McDaniel should get extensive work on both sides of the ball this year. He was credited with several quarterback sacks last year and is a real headhunter.

The Bulldogs are picked fourth in District 10 (6-man), behind Blackwell, Highland and Trent, Veribest and Paint Rock.

The Westbrook Wildcats will once again compete in District 6 (6-man) and are picked fifth in that tough district. Borden County, a 13-2 state finalist a year ago, is being picked to be dethroned as district champion this year by the tough Sands Mustangs who return every starter from a 6-6 playoff team that put one of the two losses on Borden County last year.

The other order of finish in District 6 is Borden County, second; Ira Bulldogs, third; Grady, fourth; and the Hermleigh Cardinals are once again picked for the cellar.

The Wildcats only return two starters on both sides of the ball from last year's 5-5 season. Of Coach Jim Hill's six returning letterman, the players to watch are running back Roland Matos, a 5'7", 155-pound speedster and his brother, James Matos, a 5'8", 195-pound senior who hits with authority, as end and linebacker.

Other top prospects are end Eulalio Gutierrez, end Joe Rich, center/end Erick Roberson, a 6'7", 215-pound hulk and quarterback/safety, Adam Roemisch.

Keep in mind, these are nothing more than pre-season predictions and, as everyone who follows sports knows, anything and everything can happen.

loraine news

By Bessie Ann Vaughn

Greetings. I hope you had a good week.

It would seem that the month of July is the most favorite month for family reunions.

It is very hard work getting everything prepared and then getting you and yours to the right place to meet on time.

A lot of kissing and hugging and laughing and baby crying goes on.

Please make an effort not to hurt anyone's feelings and brag on everybody.

That should just about cover all bases.

Guests in the home of Anniebelle Jones last Wednesday were Clifton and Edith Gage of Burnett, Tx.

My sincere regrets in sending condolences instead of concerns for Ray Eiden last week.

Our concerns are great for Shorty Bauman, who is in a Lubbock hospital.

Tuesday, July 13, 1999 an impressive congregation of Loraine residents met to form an organization call "L.I.P." (Loraine Improvement Plans).

An election was held with each nominee named and elected in a unanimous decision.

Officers elected were: Bill Crockett, president; Joann Long, vice president; Shirley Kendall, secretary; Jennifer Zuniga, treasurer; and Ann Hallmark, Edgar Haltom, Oscar Singleton and J.A. Sadler, board members.

Officers and board members will meet again July 27. Thereafter, all meetings will be open to the public. If you are interested in your community, please plan on making future meetings. You are entitled to voice your opinions and remarks.

After the July 27th meeting, our next open meeting will be planned. I will have a date for you then.

Chuck, Angie and Seth Black of Yorkstown, Tx. visited with Oscar Singleton last week. Also visiting were Bill and Judy Havins of Horsehoe Bay.

We send concerns for Lee Matlock. We hope he is improved and back at home at this time.

Cecil and Othel Mings were guests in the home of Chrystene Hall last week. They also visited with Barbara and Jim Hall, Betty Chandler and Chrystene Hall.

While the Mings were here, a surprise lunch and birthday cake was enjoyed for Barbara Hall.

Mr. Ming is the father of Barbara and Betty .

Enjoying the day together were: Mike, Cindy and Brandi Butler, Collinsville, Tx.; Reige and Alice Butler, Brownfield; Susie Ward Carpenter and two boys, Odessa; Oran Ray and Julie Carpenter, Colorado City; Dwayne and Carolyn Carpenter, Odessa; Coryie Lee Carpenter, Colorado City; Ronald and Lynn Carpenter, Collinsville; Dana Carpenter, Arlington; Royce Carter, Parker, Tx.; Christal and Tracy Howard and baby Colton, Denver City; Rob and Christi Coons and children, Brownfield, Tx.; Sue and Heather Cathern, Denver City; Jan and Joshua Datson, Denton; Aaron, Kim and Jessica, Casper, Wyoming; Jerry, Karla and Stuart, Odessa; Jimmy, Andrea and Rebecca, San Angelo; Kandance Marcom and Sam Hins and baby, Midland; and Faye Marcom, Midland.

Also, Mike and Misty Marcom, Midland; Jefff and Tammy McKnight and children, Celina, Tx.; Terry and Shirley Montgomery, Big Spring; Francis Fleckenstein, Rene and Leslie Rivera and children, Colorado City; Pearl Ruth, Colorado City; Jimmie and Billie Ruth, Loraine; Jimmy and Marva Sherrod, Big Spring; Pam Zanneli, Houston.

They had great fun and plan to meet again next year.

Visiting in the home of Chrystene Hall last week were: Melinda Haley, San Antonio; Jamie Jeffery, San Antonio; David Stubblefield, Colorado City; and James and Lori Killpatrick, family of Betty Chandler.

We are fortunate to have the Loraine Creemee open once again. Hours are 9:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. The proprietor is Archie Easley.

Recently, Danny and Pam Butler and Juanice Butler attended the McCarley family reunion held at the Holiday Inn Center.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. H.B. (Alene) McCollum of Tucson, Arizona. She was the mother of Terry and Starr McColium and an aunt of Jay McCollum. She was a cousin of Chrystene Hall, Iris Preston and Vida Mae McDaniel.

The "Crownover Cousins" held a reunion last week. Those attending a hamburger supper Tuesday night at the home of Tharon and Doris Henderson were: June Rogers, Brownwood; Kay Lanceley, Fredericksburg, Virginia; Ronnie, Myra, John and Dan Crownover, Denton; Zane Wilkinson, Ardmore, Oklahoma; Kim Sarah, Justin Crowley, Big Spring; Morgan Henderson, Midland; and Larry and Susan Farr, Colorado City.

Also present were the only two remaining Crownovers, Pauline Smiley of Loraine and Suda and Wright Hock of Colorado City.

On Wednesday night, the entire group went to Lake Colorado City at the home of Susan and Larry Farr. Picture taking, visiting and a good time was had by all.

Senior Center

Last Wednesday we enjoyed the music of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Norwood, and Charles Dunn.

Dorothy plays piano and Mr. Dexter plays a horn and sings, of course, Charles plays a mean bass. They have a great sound.

Last Friday, Billie Schoeder showed a film depicting places of interest along with her tour of Alaska.

The tour was a seven day cruise with five days ashore.

Billie reported that everything was expensive there. At mealtime hot food was $2 more than cold food.

She said it was a fantastic tour!

Louise Crenshaw, niece to Juanice Butler, had lunch at the Center Monday.

The Klatter Combo played for us Monday with Vida Mae McDaniel at the piano. We loved it.

Loraine Manor

Director Minnie Briseno was pleased to report that Effie Stevens is out of Mitchell county Hospital and back at Loraine Manor.

Going to DeLeon from Loraine for the Graham-Warren reunion were: Bobbie and Wanza Graham, Tommie and Brenda Linam, Donald and Doris Graham and Don and Sandra and Cody Graham of Roscoe.

Also going were Roland Graham and Patsy Long of Sweetwarer, Shirley Graham, Irene Graham, and Nancy and Brooke Swendle of Sweetwater.

Some went to the reunion from Comanche, Tx. where Max Graham was in a roping event.

Take good care and see you about town.

1999-2000
School Lunch/Breakfast Program

The Westbrook ISD, in participating with the National School Lunch and Breakfast Program, is announcing the free or reduced price meal policy statement for 1999-2000 school year. The Board of Trustees of Westbrook ISD has adopted the following family size and income scale to assist in determining eligibility.

INCOME CHART

Household Size	Annual	Monthly	Weekly
1	15,244	1,271	294
2	20,461	1,706	394
3	25,678	2,140	494
4	30,895	2,575	595
5	36,112	3,010	695
6	41,329	3,445	795
7	46,546	3,879	896
8	51,763	4,314	996
For each add'l member add	+ 5217	+435	+101

Children from families whose income falls within the level shown on the above scale are eligible for either free or reduced price meals. The reduced price for lunch is 30 cents and for breakfast is 20 cents.

Every household will be furnished with an application, which must be completed to apply for free or reduced price meals. To complete, please answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain the following information is not complete and cannot be processed by the school: 1) Names of all household members; 2) Amount of income received by each household member such as wages, welfare, alimony, etc., or your Food Stamp or AFDC/TANF number if you receive these benefits; 3) Signature of an adult household member, 4) Social Security number of the adult who signs the form or the word "none" if that person has none.

Within 10 days of the receipt of the application, the school will notify you whether or not your child is eligible. The school or other officials may check the informaiton on the application at any time during the school year.

If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must notify the school when your income increases by $50.00 per month/$600 per year or when your household size decreases. You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now, but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

Children who receive free or reduced price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for their meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child is discriminated against because of race, sex, color, age, handicap, national origin, political belief, or religion. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling, or writing to Mr. Tommy Hancock, Superintendent of schools, PO Box 99, Westbrook, Texas, 79565, or call (915) 644-2311.

How Do You Write A Classified Ad That Gets Results?

BE THOROUGH

Sure you want your ad to stand out from the rest, but don't skimp on the sort of information that sells. The item's condition, size, age, brand name and color are some of the basics readers want to know. Without them, your ad may be passed by.

STEER CLER OF ABBREVIATIONS

OK, so you want to include all the important basics, now don't confuse your reader by using strange abbreviations. What is perfectly clear to you may be perfectly unrecognizable to someone else!

BE HONEST

Exaggerating your item's finer points may bring in a lot of responses, but a buyer who's misled won't appreciate it - and will take his business somewhere else.

STATE YOUR PRICE

The cost of an item is one of the most important concerns of Classified readers. Ads showing prices are ones which get results. Giving a price also serves to "weed out" those buyers not in your price range.

BE ACCESSIBLE

Including a telephone number or address puts you in touch with potential buyers. Be sure to state the hours you can be reached: a caller who can't get through the first time often won't call again.

Don't hesitate to call with any questions or problems you may have. Our professionally trained staff knows the ropes and would be happy to pass their know-how on to you. That's why we're here: to help you get the results you deserve!

CARD OF THANKS

Card of Thanks

We, the family of Mabel Hood Logan, offer heartfelt thanks to our friends-her friends- who responded so beautifully in prayers, words of comfort, deeds, cards, memorials, floral and food offerings at the time of the funeral service. The delicious noon meal provided by friends at the First Baptist Church was very much appreciated. A special thanks to Dr. Ted Spear for his comforting message and support. Also to the musicians Randy Chambers, Connie Waldrip and Connie Baker. Upon arriving at the Spade Cemetery the family found it in prime condition due to the deligent care given by the Wallace Cemetery workers crew and the special care given by Doris and Bill McClellan, Doris, Harvey and Jim Dockrey and June and Weldon McMillan. We extend a special thanks of appreciation to Kiker-Seale for their efficient service.
