

To Combat Inflation... Budget May Be Cut $20 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Carter administration is considering deep cuts in jobs programs, highway projects and urban aid as part of a sudden effort to combat surging inflation by slashing up to $20 billion from the proposed 1981 budget.

Under orders from President Carter's budget office, federal agencies submitted lists of new spending reductions Monday that could help the administration balance the budget for the year that begins Oct. 1.

Administration sources said almost every agency except the Defense Department was required to submit spending cuts.

On Jan. 28, Carter sent Congress a proposed 1981 budget calling for $616 billion in spending and a $15.8 billion deficit.

But less than two weeks ago, the government's consumer price survey showed the largest monthly jump in more than six years boosting the inflation rate to an 18 percent annual rate. That prompted Carter to order an immediate review of the administration's anti-inflation policies.

Budget cuts emerged as the chief alternative, with the possible goal of cutting enough to balance the budget. One administration official said between $18 billion and $20 billion is the latest estimate of cuts needed to achieve that goal.

The administration also is known to be considering some form of mandatory credit controls, but officials continue to insist they will not seek mandatory wage and price controls.

The drive for a balanced budget is gaining support in Congress. But an administration decision to make deep cuts in social programs - while letting defense spending rise - is certain to anger labor leaders, civil rights advocates, urban coalitions and other supporters of those programs.

Administration and congressional officials concede that reducing the 1981 budget will not do much about the current inflation rate, although it could have a "psychological impact" on businesses and consumers whose behavior is based on the assumption that inflation will continue to rage beyond government control.

One of the largest areas targeted for possible cuts is in the jobs and training programs run by the Labor Department, which proposed $16 billion in savings.

Labor's proposal would eliminate 70,000 of 450,000 public service CETA jobs initially budgeted for unemployed adults. It also would cut summer jobs for poor teen-agers in half, from 1 million to 500,000, and scrap a program to provide 21,900 jobs for underprivileged youths in national parks.

The Transportation Department proposed $895 million in cuts, with about half coming from the highway construction budget and most of the rest from airport runway and railroad track improvement projects.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development suggested trimming $75 million, mostly from a grant program for community development projects.

Tuesday update

To Purchase Wheat, Corn

WASHINGTON (AP)—Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland announced today plans to buy up to 13 million metric tons of wheat and corn, part of the grain that President Carter two months ago embargoed from delivery to the Soviet Union.

Officials said the purchases will involve up to 4.25 million metric tons of wheat and up to 9 million of corn. The purchases will be made "at prevailing market prices" from country elevators and, in some cases, farmers themselves.

New Conditions For Panel

By The Associated Press

The militants holding the U.S. Embassy in Tehran imposed new conditions today for the U.N. commission to see the American hostages, virtually eclipsing chances for a visit during the panel's current stay and setting the captors on another collision course with President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr's regime.

Spokesmen for the militants told the Foreign Ministry the commission should first submit its findings on the ousted shah's regime to the United Nations. They said if the United Nations accepted evidence of U.S. crimes in Iran and wrongdoing by the shah, then a visit to the approximately 50 hostages, who began their fifth month in captivity today, would be reconsidered.

The SDN Column

After Sunday morning's nine degrees, we are ready to chip in on some dark glasses for the groundhog.

Also, the SDN Column evoked some response the other day when it said there was no thunder here in February. Mrs. Garth Austin wrote that she heard it thunder three times around 12:30 a.m. on Feb. 8, the morning that we had a shower.

Carl Kunkel advised that he observed thunder and lightning on Feb. 8 and got half an inch of rain, and Mrs. Lamoine Lacy called in to tell us that she heard it thunder at about 2 a.m. on Feb. 8.

Well, the old SDN writer was fast asleep at that hour and didn't hear that thunder, but the fact that we did have thunder in Snyder on Feb. 8 now has been well documented. So, the adage about a freeze in April is back on the front burner. It goes like this: If it thunders in February, there will be a freeze on the same day of the month in April. That would mean a freeze on April 8 here.

This comes close to blending with another legend which says that we can always expect a norther around Easter. Since Easter Sunday falls on April 6 this year, it doesn't take a genius to see that a norther could blow in that day and create a freeze situation a couple of days later.

The big norther of this past Friday hit its low point two days later, on Sunday.

Fortunately, we have learned over the years that there are times when Mother Nature ignores these legends. Let's hope 1980 is one of them.

But we are not one to go around knocking the weather. If it didn't change once in a while about 90 percent of the people wouldn't be able to start a conversation, and it would be tough some days to write a newspaper column.

Prime Rate Rises To 17¼ Percent

NEW YORK (AP)—Chase Manhattan Bank today raised its prime lending rate to a record 17¼ percent, continuing the rapid rise in interest rates that has followed new efforts to tighten credit.

Chase Manhattan, the third-largest bank in the country, said that the demand for loans was "very strong" even at a prime rate of 16¼ percent, which was adopted only last Friday by major banks. Chase also cited the spiral in other interest rates, which has pushed rates on both home mortgages and money market certificates to record levels.

The prime lending rate, which banks charge on loans to their most credit-worthy corporate customers, has now risen two percentage points since Feb. 15, when the Federal Reserve made its latest

Council Balks At Itinerant Merchant Control Ordinance

The Snyder City Council last night balked at an ordinance which would regulate itinerant merchants when only one person appeared at the council meeting to speak out for it.

The ordinance had been drafted in response to a request by the Snyder Chamber of Commerce, and Bill Warner, chamber manager, was the only person on hand at the council session to speak in behalf of the ordinance.

Following the discussion, Warner said that the request for consideration of the ordinance was not a policy decision by chamber officials, but instead had developed from a survey of chamber members several weeks ago. He said the survey results showed some 143 in favor of such an ordinance and only two against it.

On the basis of the survey results, Warner said he felt that it should be submitted to the city for consideration. He said the survey was taken after the chamber received half a dozen complaints about itinerant vendors setting up shop on parking lots and vacant property to sell various items for short periods of time and then moving on without contributing anything to the community, such as taxes, etc.

Councilmen Milton Ham and David Holt both said they viewed the ordinance as an instrument to restrict free enterprise and were reluctant to support it without further justification.

The ordinance would assess a $25 investigative fee, plus a license fee of $50, which would be good for six months.

Following the discussion, the measure was tabled until the April meeting for further study.

The council approved appointment of K.O. Pitner to serve as election judge for the city election scheduled for April 5. Also approved were some amendments to the data processing service contracts with the county and the tax appraisal board.

Dog Vaccination and Registration Day was set for March 22 and April 1 was designated as "Census Day" in Snyder. Jim Wadleigh was reappointed to the city's builders board of appeal.

In discussion following action on the agenda, the council indicated that it favored a contract in the private sector for a wage-salary survey and personnel policy review rather than an application for a government grant. Also discussed were earth-moving operations at the sanitary landfill. The council indicated that it favored a contract with outside operators for use of some earth-moving machinery rather than purchase of such machinery by the city, at least for the time being.

The council conferred with City Attorney Ernie Armstrong on a legal matter in an executive session following action on the agenda. No action was taken as a result of the executive session.

Sales Slowdown Causes Lay Offs

DETROIT (AP)—Some 6,500 production workers from three car and truck assembly plants will be laid off because of slow sales, General Motors Corp. says.

Backlogs of slow-selling mid-size cars and pickup trucks have forced the closing of two plants through the remainder of the model year, the automaker reported Monday.

GM's surprise announcement came only 1 day after the No. 1 automaker announced with some fanfare at the Chicago Auto Show that it would recall 15,000 workers.

Two other burglary indictments were returned against Chester Charles Atkinson, 304 28th St. He was indicted on charges he burglarized a habitation on Dec. 1 owned by Leon Enloe and a car owned by Jobie Groves Feb. 4.

Indictments of driving while intoxicated were returned against Lorenzo G. One other person was also indicted, but his identity was withheld pending his arrest.

Three no-bills were also returned. One no-bill involved Ricardo Corrales on a theft charge. One dealt with a drug charge, and another was a theft case, but individuals involved in those cases were never formally charged.

Tax Board Session Set

The Scurry County Appraisal District Board is scheduled to establish dates for regular meetings, discuss personnel policy and consider selection of an auditor at a meeting set for 7 p.m. tonight.

The meeting will be held in the Snyder School administration building.

Also on the agenda for the meeting are the purchase of office furniture, consideration of a county offer for the lease of office space and final approval of a data processing service contract with the City of Snyder.

Ask Us

Q—Is it legal for the county to charge rent to another taxing entity such as the tax appraisal board and if so, what is the charge to other non-county offices such as district judges, district attorneys, highway patrol, drivers' licenses, Texas Rangers, etc.?

A—It is perfectly legal. This question came up in discussion between county officials and tax board members and we have been advised that the county is required constitutionally to provide facilities for the courts and for county offices. For others, it is free to provide space as it desires, and at its own terms. The legislation establishing the tax appraisal board puts the responsibility on that board itself for providing office space. It can be in a public building, a commercial office building or a shopping center, etc.

Rustlers Steal Poisonous Cow

POINTE A LA HACHE, La. (AP)—Rustlers who broke into a Plaquemines Parish corral, stole a 950-pound beef cow and butchered it on the spot could die if they eat the meat, authorities say.

District attorney's investigator Arthur Cope said Monday the cow had been injected and sprayed with substances that could be fatal to humans.

"Any meat from this animal is unfit for human consumption for some time," said Pietro Grandi, general manager of the Citrus Lands of Louisiana Inc., owners of the cow.

He said the cow was injected Feb. 22 with Tyabenzol, which has an incubation period of two to four weeks. The medicine is normally used in Worm control.

congratulation time

If you are a stranger in town, think nothing of it if you see a lot of Snyder area people pinching themselves. They are simply trying to convince themselves that they are not dreaming about a bunch of winning basketball teams.

Here is the situation. Playoffs for regional and state honors in basketball will be going on this week in three cities, and there will be a local team in each of them. Beginning tonight in Midland, the Western Texas College Westerners will see action in the Region V tournament of the National Junior College Athletic Association. The tournament winner will go to the national Finals in Hutchinson, Kan.

Beginning at 4 p.m. Thursday, the Western Texas College Dusters will see action in their regional tournament at Big Spring. The tournament winner will go to the national finals.

Beginning at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, the Snyder High School Tigers will see action in the University Interscholastic League State Tournament at Austin. The tournament winner will be the state champion in Class AAA.

These are accomplishments that did not "just happen." The toil of training, planning, studying and actual competition brought the three teams this far. That they advanced to their current positions in the basketball world is a credit to their coaches, a testimony to their dedication and a joy to their fans.

Sometimes it may seem that fans are a fickle bunch, and some of them are. But there are those in a devoted nucleus who have remained loyal through the years—those who saw a high school team lose out by two points in a regional playoff game a few years ago to a team that went on to win a state title, those who saw another Tiger team a decade ago lose by one point in a playoff for the district crown to a team that eventually went on to Austin.

These are in the forefront of the crowds now who are singing the praises of the Tigers, Westerners and Dusters, and we are happy to count ourselves among them. We know that they will "play their game" in these important contests this week, and that is the most that any of us can ask.

Congratulations to Coaches George Byerly, Nolan Richardson and Joe Cushing and all of their players. We hope you win it all, but regardless, thanks for a great, inspirational season. You are the best in our books.

unchanging factors

Just when you think the Chinese are rushing headlong into the modern world, they suddenly veer off unexpectedly so that East doesn't quite meet West after all.

Consider for an example the current updating of Chinese airline service. Prospective stewardesses are reportedly being sought through an advertising campaign. To be eligible, candidates must present a good appearance and be well-proportioned.

Which sounds familiar enough. But there's more. They must also have "correct political thought." Coffee, tea or Mao?

by john dunnam

I hope I'm not too late!

In case you have been in a coma and haven't heard, the high school boys basketball team is going to the state tournament in Austin this weekend. The still undefeated Western Texas College boys team, ranked No. 1 in the nation, will go to Hutchinson, Kan. for the national finals again, if they can wrap up the regional title in Midland this week.

And the Dusters, WTC's girls team are playing for regional this weekend in Big Spring. If they win they are only one game away from the national finals in Overland Kan., a suburb of Kansas City.

This means a lot of you will be doing some traveling. And along with traveling comes eating in strange places. Caution:

Consuming the culinary offerings of unfamiliar locales can be incompatible with your general well being. In other words, watch where you eat and what you eat, dummy.

Space limitations prevent me from discussing both of these areas here so I'll limit this column on where to eat.

First, a general observation: Once you cross the county line, forget about fast courteous service and clean restrooms. Snyder seems to be the last holdout for such old-fashioned ideas. If you find them practiced elsewhere, either you or very lucky or have slipped into the Twilight Zone.

Now, down to the nitty gritty. When you travel you will find three (3) basic types of eating establishments: 1. Greasy spoons, 2. franchises, 3. fancy restaurants.

GREASY SPOONS--Mel's Diner would fall into this category. So would have that little hotel-cafe on Petticoat Junction. And unfortunately, so would the Do-Drop-Inn bar and grill in Jackson, Miss. immortalized in song.

The greasy spoons tend to be small, privately owned and attract a very specialized clientele. And likewise, the food goes from wholesome to downright dangerous.

Unless recommended by a trusted friend, better to drive on; a truck stop can't be far ahead.

But if you feel adventurous and are hungry to sample the flavor of the town as well as its food, then proceed with care. The main thing to remember is not to let yourself be drawn into a conversation until you feel out the political and social inclinations of the patrons.

Posing as an itinerant preacher usually insures safety but just in case don't talk about anything serious. Anything includes: the Equal Rights Amendment, the Ku Klux Klan, Football, Ted Kennedy, Jane Fonda, Mohammed Ali or even who won the Civil War. Otherwise, you may have to kick old green

seven crucial votes

Alabama's Gov. George Wallace was sweeping party primaries in the spring of '72.

He beat home-stater Terry Sanford in North Carolina.

He carried every county in Florida, every county in Tennessee.

Then when Wallace proved a vote-getter in Pennsylvania and Wisconsin -- where he beat Humphrey -- that did it!

Hubert Humphrey made a phone call. In essence it said, "With Wallace's help I can get the nomination; let's establish contact."

That call was to a friend and political confidant in Columbus, Ga., who promptly established contact with Wallace's friend and political adviser, Jimmy Faulkner of Bay Minette, Ala.

During lunch at Faulkner's home, Humphrey was quoted as saying that he could not win the election without the active support of Wallace.

"He could be a kingmaker."

Faulkner replied bluntly, "George Wallace is no kingmaker; he is a king! The only way to get Wallace to be an active campaigner for a Humphrey ticket," said Faulkner, "would be for Wallace to be on that ticket."

Humphrey's emissary responded that the important thing was to keep open a "line of communication for negotiation." Faulkner, in turn, promised to report the conversation to Gov. Wallace.

Wallace was campaigning in the Midwest. A meeting was scheduled for the following Friday -- May 19, 1972.

But on May 15 in Laurel, Md., Gov. Wallace was shot.

The next day, while hospitalized, he won primaries in both Maryland and Michigan, received an outright majority in Michigan. He outpolled Humphrey in both states.

On Wednesday following the attempted assassination, Faulkner was contacted urgently. Humphrey now wanted to include Wallace on the ticket "on crutches, in a wheelchair or any way I can get him."

Faulkner promised to relay the offer promptly. Wallace, hospitalized in Silver Springs, Md., 10 days following the attempt on his life, even though gravely ill, listened to Humphrey's offer of the Vice Presidency, was delighted. Philosophically, a Humphrey-Wallace ticket appeared incompatible.

But, agreed Wallace, "Humphrey is the best of the bad guys -- and we've got to stop McGovern!"

The Democratic National Convention was in Miami in July. On Sunday night, Jimmy Faulkner was invited to Sen. Humphrey's suite. Humphrey said, "Gov. Wallace will be good for me. I think I will be good for him. In my opinion, we will be an unbeatable team."

There was pragmatic political evidence to support that prediction.

The appeal of George Wallace, in a wheelchair, was greater than ever.

A dozen governors were demanding Wallace be included on the Democratic ticket.

Humphrey was confident of his own following in the North. Wallace could deliver the West and South.

The then-governor of Georgia, Jimmy Carter, agreed: "A Humphrey-Wallace ticket would be unbeatable."

Wallace, though not even on the primary ballot in California, had received three hundred thousand write-in votes there.

However, at the July convention in Miami, it was the "outlaw delegation" from California which was seated. The California delegate vote was split.

And when the roll was called -- out of 3,200 votes -- McGovern won by 12. McGovern was nominated -- subsequently, resoundingly defeated.

Now to project what would have happened had seven California votes tipped the balance instead to a Humphrey-Wallace ticket.

Assuming the combination would have been in fact "unbeatable," Humphrey would have been elected and reelected, would have died of cancer in the first year of his second term -- and George Wallace would have been President of the United States. But for seven votes.

New Hampshire in now history, although what history may eventually make of it in the larger context of the 1980 election is still very much to be seen.

What can be made of one event during the primary homestretch is, however, all too immediately and unfortunately apparent.

The occasion was a gathering of gun owners that drew a nearly complete slate of contenders -- all seven Republicans, one Democrat and a Carter son. Only Sen. Edward Kennedy was unrepresented in person or surrogate.

It was one of the best-attended and outspoken -- on the part of both audience and candidates -- forums on the New Hampshire campaign. Also most revealing in some respects.

Although not especially so in the case of John Connally, who found a perfect occasion to recall boyhood in Texas and growing up with a gun in his hand. If there's a word for Connally's response on a macho issue such as this it is predictable.

George Bush, who has established himself as the good guy as well as surprise of the Republican contest to date, may, on the other hand, have surprised some of his new-found supporters in the ranks of the moderate-to-liberal elite. He spoke of the joys of rifle and shotgun ownership and death with the gut issue of the session -- gun control -- in terms of a joke.

Perhaps that should now read good old boy. Jack Carter had a few words about dad, the quail hunter, but none about father, the Democratic nominee, who, it was promised during the 1976 campaign, would be "really tough" on gun control.

Then there was Gov. Edmund Brown who saw gun control as an "opening wedge" of unspecified greater calamities and opposition to it as a means of keeping government "out of where it doesn't belong." This is the same Governor Brown who in the 1976 campaign supported control and emphasized the steps his California government had taken in the

But then, this can come as no more of a surprise than the Connally stance. This is, after all the Brown of the pre- and post-Proposition 13 switch, the apostle of small is not only better but essential who, when gasoline supplies got tight, was first in line in Washington to get a larger allocation for his folks.

There are many words for the Brown style of politics but consistency isn't among them.

Only Rep. John Anderson stood up and spoke out for control. Predictably, since he has made taking positions counter to the pack something of a basic campaign strategy. And for his efforts he was loudly booed. Also predictably at a gathering which opened not with a chairmen's welcome to the ladies and gentlemen of the audience and distinguished guests, but a hearty "Good evening, gun lobby!"

So it went, as it usually does on this subject. One can be either, for, against or completely neutral on the gun-control issue and still regret that this is so. There are valid arguments on both sides.

People are killed and injured by guns. There are guns in the hands of people out there who should never be licensed for anything potentially more perilous than marriage.

But there are legitimate reasons -- beyond the constitutional right argument -- to question whether licensing is the best way of dealing with the situation, whether it might not be primarily cosmetic with the most significant consequence being a further bloating of the bureaucracy. There is ample evidence all around us that governmental regulation is not in itself the answer to a problem and may, in fact, in itself create a new one.

Gun control merits serious, reasoned and thorough debate. But like several other issues in its special class -- abortion and busing come first to mind -- it never gets it. The issue is no sooner raised publicly than reason goes out the window and passions close the door on constructive debate.

And when it is raised in a charged political situation and before an audience such as in New Hampshire, you can be sure that politicians will be off and running with the passions rather than reason.

Like a shot.

WASHINGTON (AP)--

"The federal government today is the largest electric power producer, the largest insurer, the largest lender, the largest landlord, the largest warehouse operator, the largest shipowner and the largest truckfleet operator."

"For a country which is the citadel and the world's principal exponent of private enterprise and individual initiative, this is rather an amazing list." That statement was made in 1954 by Rowland R. Hughes, President Eisenhower's chief budget adviser.

The list has grown considerably since then, with bewildering implications for this country's small businesses, says a just-released study prepared for the Carter administration.

That study concludes that small business could gain more than $2 billion and taxpayers could save nearly $3 billion if the federal government didn't compete so heavily against private companies.

"At a time when small business faces unprecedented problems with inflation, high interest rates, regulation and capital formation, it comes as a shock to find that one of the gravest threats to small business comes from its own government," says Dale Nelson, a Des Moines, Iowa businessman who chaired the Task Force on Government Competition.

Currently, the federal government engages in more than 21,000 commercial and industrial activities at a cost of $10 billion a year, the report says.

These ventures range from travel agencies to laboratory testing services, and from retailing to day-care centers.

The task force was particularly critical of the U.S. Postal Service, which is initiating its own express mail service. "This move would compete with small couriers nationwide and would cost $1 million in advertising alone, but only produce $25,000 in revenues during the first year," the study said.

It also blasted the U.S. military exchange systems, which conduct about $9 billion a year in business.

These exchanges were created to provide necessities to isolated posts for low-paid military personnel. But now, the exchanges are frequently patronized by retired officers and dependents and many others who might not need such subsidized benefits, the report says.

Witnesses testifying at task force hearings said virtually no consumer product is exempt from sale at these exchanges, which are situated in many areas that are anything but isolated.

Detests Baylor Firings

By The Associated Press
The firing of three Baylor University student editors over editorial policies has angered their Southwest Conference colleagues, who insist the issue has now grown beyond the question of students posing for Playboy magazine. "The Playboy photographs are non-issues," said Roy Bragg, editor of the Texas A&M Battalion. "Now it's a question of whether Baylor administrators want a newspaper or a PR publication. If it's the latter, maybe Baylor should hire a staff of professionals and really do it big," Bragg said. Baylor's Board of Publications voted in an emergency meeting Monday to remove Jeff Barton, Cindy Slovak and Barry Kolar from the staff of The Baylor Lariat. The board also suspended publication of the campus newspaper for the rest of the week. The firing culminated a three-week-long dispute between the editors and school administrators that began when Playboy announced plans for a pictorial feature, "Girls of the Southwest Conference." University President Abner McCall threatened to expel any Baylor female who posed for the magazine, and the Lariat editors opposed him in print. "I thought the battle could be fought on moral grounds," said Barton, Lariat editor-in-chief, after the meeting. "I'm very disappointed in the university, and today, I'm embarrassed to say I'm a fifth generation Baylorite." Board members refused to comment on the decisions. Walter Borges, managing editor of the Daily Texan, the student newspaper at the University of Texas at Austin, attended the two hour session Monday. "The Playboy angle has become a false issue," Borges said. "The question instead has been how free the editors were to publish what they wished. Today, it was ruled they were not free. It was ruled the paper was to be an organ of McCall and his views," Borges said.

Dear Abby
Husband's Horn Blows Her Mind
By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My 46-year-old husband is finally fulfilling one of his childhood desires. He has started to take clarinet lessons. I am pleased that he feels secure enough to pursue this childhood dream, but when he practices, the noise is unbearable!

Abby, I think parents—not wives—should be responsible for their children's musical education. There is also the matter of footing the bills for lessons. Would it be in bad taste to suggest that my in-laws bear some of the burden? I think they should either pay for their son's clarinet lessons, or provide a place for him to practice. What do you think?

TRUBLED CLEF IN D.C.

DEAR TRUBLED: Parents have no responsibility for a 46-year-old son who decides to take clarinet lessons. You must be kidding.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old girl who has a girlfriend my age who confides in me. She has just told me that she wets the bed! She said she started wetting 3 1/2 years ago. She wet the bed for two years straight, then she stopped for a year, and then started in again. Now, instead of washing the sheets every day, she sleeps on a plastic garbage bag with a towel over it, so all she has to wash is the towel.

She is a very heavy sleeper, and she doesn't wake up while she's wetting. My friend is really desperate. She's tried setting an alarm to wake her up every three hours. She's even stopped drinking liquids at least two hours before bedtime. She's even tried praying. Nothing has helped.

The poor kid can't accept invitations to slumber parties for fear she'll wet. How can I help her?

HER BEST FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: Tell her to see a physician for a thorough examination. And if the doctor can't find anything physically wrong with her, to get a "Wee Alert Buzzer." (It is listed in the Sears catalogue.) That little life-saver has dried up more wetters (of all ages) than anything I've ever heard of.

DEAR ABBY: I have worked for 10 years for the same company. I am going to be married in June and, as you know, wedding invitations are very expensive.

My fiancé and I both have large families and intend to send invitations to all our aunts, uncles, cousins, etc. There are 500 people in my department at work, all of whom are located on six floors of the main building.

It has become a custom for each employee who gets married to place an invitation on the bulletin board of each floor. I was told that this was very tacky. Is it?

DON'T USE NAMES

DEAR DON'T: If you can't afford to send an invitation to all the people you know and want, invite them verbally. But tacking up an invitation as a general public announcement for 500 people (most of whom must be strangers) seems tacky to me.

Do you hate to write letters because you don't know what to say? Thank-you notes, sympathy letters, congratulations, how to decline and accept invitations and how to write an interesting letter are included in Abby's booklet, "How To Write Letters for all Occasions." Send $1 and a long, stamped (28 cents), self-addressed envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Suspect Created Family Through Kidnapping

By DAVE EINSTEIN
Associated Press Writer
UKIAH, Calif. (AP)—
Kenneth Parnell, a lonely ex-convict who police say created a family for himself by kidnapping children, was being arraigned today as police studied the possibility that he had an accomplice in the abduction of Steven Stayner seven years ago.

Meanwhile, Stayner, 14, who lived with the quiet hotel clerk for seven years before turning up over the weekend with a second abduction victim, was getting to know his family again.

He said he was "sort of nervous" at the reunion with his parents and siblings — two brothers and two sisters. "It's the greatest thing that has ever happened," said his father, Delbert.

Kay Stayner, the youth's mother, said the family never moved from their modest Merced home, about 200 miles southeast of here, because they were "waiting for Steven to return."

Stayner told reporters he had been thinking about leaving Parnell for two years, and some officials speculated Stayner didn't return earlier because he'd grown fond of his abductor — even calling him "Dad" — and didn't want to get Parnell in trouble.

"Apparently the man was kind to him and treated him decently," said Mendocino County District Attorney Joe Allen. "At some point, he decided to stick with what he had."

Parnell, 48, has been charged with the Feb. 14
kidnapping of Timmy Lee White, 5, of Ukiah. He is being held on $7,000 bond, and was to appear today
before Justice James Luther in Ukiah Justice Court.

The youngster hitchhiked to freedom Saturday with Stayner, who was abducted in 1972 on his way home from school and later told he had been adopted. Stayner said he had helped free the youngster child because he didn't want White to face his fate.

"He realized it was not good for Timmy to be there and arranged to get Timmy safely returned to Ukiah despite the fact that in the process he was going to destroy the only

Ira Parents Are Urged To Visit Schools

IRA-Parents and other interested citizens are being encouraged to visit Ira Schools and eat with the pupils in the lunchroom
during Texas Public Education Week, Supt. Ron Plumlee has advised.

Plumlee said that, contrary to a report in a news story Monday, there will not be an open house event at the Ira Schools this year.

"We have open house every other year, and this is the year we skip," said Plumlee. "The report that we would have open house this week resulted from a misunderstanding."

world he had ever known in seven years," said Allen.

"He knew it would mean the arrest of the man who became a foster parent, if you will."

Charges are pending in the Stayner case. "We're investigating the possibility of a second individual being involved," said

Merced Police Chief Harold Kulbeth.
Parnell was convicted in connection with the abduction of an 8-year-old Bakersfield boy in 1951

and served three years in San Quentin Prison.
Meanwhile, New York City police said Monday
they were hoping to learn whether he might know of the case of Etan Patz, a 6-year-old who vanished from the city's Soho area of Manhattan while on his way to school last May.

Parnell was divorced from his high school sweetheart, and his mother said Monday that he had been told after the separation that he could no longer see his own daughter.

"It seemed he wanted to build a family for himself without going to the trouble of getting married," said Allen.

Mitchell Hits 55 Points; WTC To Face Amarillo

MIDLAND—Victor Mitchell scored a record-breaking 55 points to lead Amarillo College past Hill County 114-100 in a qualifying round of the men's Region 5 junior college basketball tournament here last night.

In the only other game played, Frank Phillips, also of the Western JC Conference, nailed Cisco 65-55.

Bliss Will Try SMU

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Dave Bliss, University of Oklahoma basketball coach, said Monday he plans to talk to Southern Methodist University officials "within the week" about the school's vacant coaching job.

Bliss also said he has not been contacted by Duke University. The Durham, N.C., school is also looking for a head basketball coach to replace Bill Foster, who resigned Sunday. A Durham newspaper has reported that Bobby Knight, coach at Indiana where Bliss was an assistant before coming to OU five seasons ago, has personally recommended Bliss to Duke athletic director Tom Butters.

"I've been approached by some of the newspapers there (in North Carolina), but other than that, I have no idea what's going on," Bliss said.

Newspaper and radio reports from the Dallas area over the weekend indicated Bliss could be hired at SMU this week. The vacancy at SMU was created by the resignation of Sonny Allen last week.

When asked if he had talked with Russ Potts, SMU athletic director, or other SMU officials, Bliss replied, "No, I'm going to talk to them within the next week."

and Mark Summers 10. Stan Branch led the way for Hill with 23. Tony Massey scored 17.

Today's action was to tip off at 2 p.m. with Odessa taking on Cooke County. Frank Phillips, led by Bobby Allen's 19 points last night, was to meet McLennan Community College at 4.

In the evening session, the red-hot Amarillo Badgers will face the nation's No. 1 ranked Western Texas College Westerners at 7, followed by No. 8 rated Midland versus Ranger at 9.

Session tickets are $3 adults and $2 students. All games are held at Chaparral Center here.

Amarillo and Western Texas have met twice during the regular season with the Westerners taking slim wins in both encounters. WTC won at home, 73-66, and at Amarillo, 96-89.

"They are the strongest fifth place team I've ever seen in my life," said Westerner Coach Nolan Richardson, speaking of Amarillo's seeding in the tournament. "They've won 20 games (21-10) this season, and should be up and around the top two teams in any conference anywhere."

"We're going to have our work cut out for us. The last thing I heard them say as they left the floor last night was 'Western Texas,' so they're going to be ready for us. We know they are a good ball club. We'll have to play our best basketball to win this one."

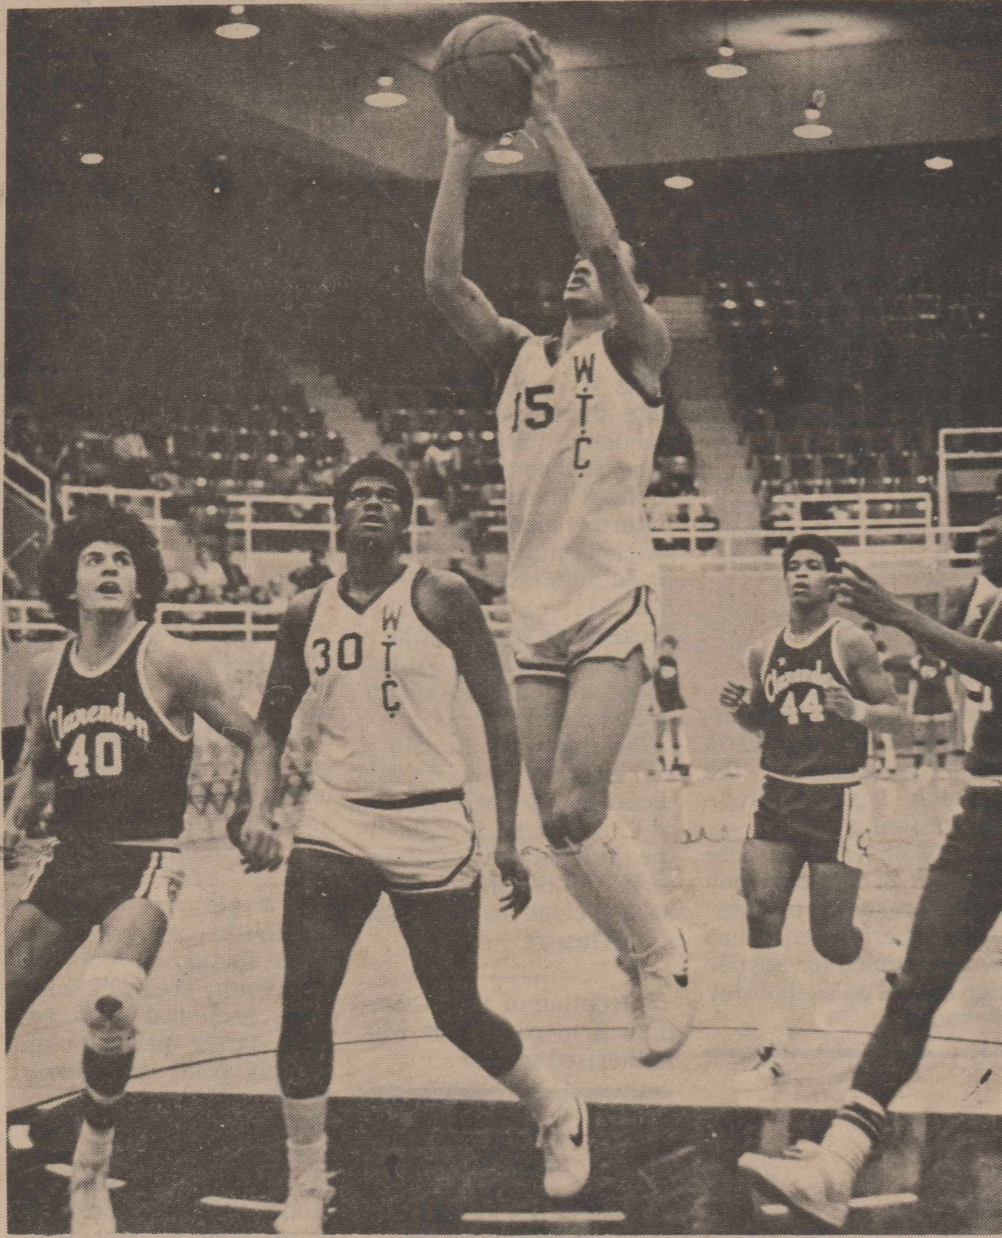

Richardson said he would probably press the Badgers from the tipoff, hoping to take the starch out of the team by the late-going.

The tournament here is shaping up to be a repeat of Western Junior College Conference wars. Frank Phillips and Amarillo won last night, and Midland and Odessa will be slight favorites today, despite the fact that Cooke County is a No. 2 seed and Odessa is No. 3.

In the other two games, Western Texas is about a five-point pick over Amarillo and McLennan -- the only NJCAC team expected to be on the court tomorrow -- is favored over Frank Phillips.

Winner of the WTC-Amarillo game will play an Odessa-Cooke victor tomorrow at 9. At 7, the winners between FPC-MCC and Midland-Ranger will compete.

BEGIN REGION TOURNEY TONIGHT—Western Texas College opens Region 5 Tournament play tonight in Midland, taking on Amarillo College at 7 in Chaparral Center. Tickets are $3 and $2. Amarillo defeated Hill County 114-100 yesterday. Above, Franklin Bennett puts up two points for Western Texas as Donald Warren (30) looks on. (SDN STAFF PHOTO)

Tigers Prepare For State; Waxahachie Five Given

Snyder High School's Tigers, competing for the first time in the UIL's class AAA state basketball tournament, take on Waxahachie at 8:30 p.m. Thursday in Austin's Super Drum.

Another semi-final round will pit No. 1 ranked Beaumont Hebert against Bay City at 7 o'clock. Winners will meet for the state AAA title Saturday at 8:30.

The Tigers, ranked No. 2 in the state, will be looking for their 28th win on the season, No. 18 in a row. Waxahachie is 32-3 and ranked No. 4.

Waxahachie starts four seniors and a junior, giving the Indians slightly more experience than the Tigers. The Indians also have an edge in the height department. Seniors Vance Hughes and Ken Cox, a pair of 6-4's averaging 14 and 13 points respectively, lead the Indians. Victor Guynyard, a 6-1 senior, averages 12 points a game.

At point-guard for the Indians is 6-0 junior Lyndon Wilson with a 4.6 average. Kurt Paschal, a 6-3 senior postman, fills out the lineup. He averages six points a game.

Mike Cox, 6-3 senior averaging 13 points, will sub for Paschal, while James Stein, a 6-0 junior (5.9 points), will take the floor to spell Wilson.

The Indians are reputed to be a quick team with good shooters, and average just over 68 points a game, comparable to Snyder.

Snyder also exchanges seven players in and out, but fans will likely see at least nine Tigers in Thursday's ballgame if Coach George Byerly keeps to form.

Captain Kyle Short, a 5-11 guard averaging 12 points, 5.1 assists and three steals, is the Tiger floor leader. Another guard is 5-7 senior Thomas Selmon, averaging 4.5 points, three assists and 2.3 steals.

Brad Richardson, 6-2 junior, leads the Tigers in scoring a 14.2 average. He also averages 6.1 rebounds, 2.3 assists and a steal a game. Eric Arnold, a 6-3 junior averages 9.9 points and 4.6 rebounds; Mark Preston, a 6-2 senior, averages 9.1

points; and Kris Seale hits for 6.6 as a 6-2 junior. The leading rebounder is 6-3 junior Barry Blackmon, averaging 6.9. He scores an average of 5.9.

As a team the Tigers average 65.5 points, 30.4 rebounds, 16.2 assists and 10.8 points.

Demons Remain Tops In Nation

By The Associated Press DePaul, which saw its quest for an undefeated regular season stopped by Notre Dame 76-74 in double overtime last week, nevertheless maintained the No. 1 ranking in the final Associated Press College basketball poll for the 1979-1980 season.

DePaul closed out a 26-1 regular season with a 97-81 victory over intrastate rival Illinois State in its other game last week.

Louisville, which captured the Metro 7 Conference tournament last weekend, edged newly crowned Southeastern Conference tournament champion Louisiana State for the No. 2 position. The Cardinals, ranked fourth last week, were tabbed twice for first place and received 1,030 points -- 12 more than the Tigers,

Snyder Wins Opening Baseball Contest, 4-0

Snyder's Tigers found leather in the second inning here yesterday to open the 1980 baseball season with a 4-0 victory over Midland High.

The Tigers are scheduled in Abilene this afternoon for a 4 o'clock meeting with Cooper as the season continues.

Ricky Gambol belted two base hits, Pete Willis knocked a double and Bryant Vincent, Shawn Ragland and Toby Neves added a hit apiece to comprise the Tiger offense.

Tony Degrate picked up the win, allowing no runs, two hits and 10 strikeouts in five innings. Relief pitcher William Robinson gave up no hits, no runs and recorded one strikeout. "I was real pleased with our defense," said Coach Albert Lewis. "I think we'll have a real fine interior as the season progresses. Our pitching was good, but our hitting is a long way off."

The Tigers got four runs on six hits and recorded no errors in their first game of the season. Paul Gafford, Mike Roemisch and Willis combined for a double-play, 6-4-3, something Snyder didn't get last year until midseason.

Snyder was to start Steve Tate on the mound against Cooper today, and follow with Bobby Degrate, according to Coach Lewis.

In other action yesterday, Snyder junior varsity outlasted Midland 11-9. Tommy Gressett and Gary Don Hicks filled in on the mound. Brent Roemisch and Curtis Gafford slapped two doubles and a home run, respectively. The JV was to play a makeup game with Abilene High at Moffett Field today, at 4 p.m.

Rader, 35, was offensive coordinator at West Virginia the past two seasons, with previous assistant coaching assignments at Texas Tech, where he worked with current Aggie head coach Tom Wilson, and at Spring Branch, Hurst Bell and Breckenridge high schools in Texas.

Dinner Theatre To Continue PRIME RATE

The Western Texas College dinner theatre production of "See How They Run" will continue performances Thursday through Saturday nights this week. Tickets may be reserved by calling the box office at 573-8511, extension 234. Tickets are $9 each, which includes dinner and the show, and must be paid for in advance.

"See How They Run" is a comedy set in a British vicarage. Dinner is served at 7 o'clock each night in the Student Center cafeteria and the show begins at 8 o'clock in the Fine Arts Theatre.

move to tighten credit. The move was promptly matched by Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, the fifth-largest bank, and by No. 9 First National Bank of Chicago. Other banks were expected to follow.

The prime rate does not directly affect other rates, but it is widely followed as an indicator of short-term interest rates. Many commercial and industrial borrowers pay more than the prime rate — some now well over 20 percent.

At the Treasury Department auction on Monday, six-month Treasury bills were auctioned at a record 14.792 percent, up sharply from last week's 13.629 percent. As a result, banks and savings associations will be able to pay 14.792 percent on money-market certificates, sold in denominations of $10,000 and up, starting Thursday.

The higher rates have also pushed up the cost of buying a home. Major savings and loan associations in California on Monday raised their lowest mortgage rate a full percentage point to 15½ percent.

Analysts say there are several reasons banks have found willing borrowers despite the high interest rates. Although some industries, notably autos, are suffering, business has remained strong for others increasing the need for funds.

Pick the fuels electricity can be made from:

- coal
- natural gas
- oil
- uranium
- all of the above

"All of the above" is right. But these days two of those fuels—coal and uranium—cost less and are more plentiful than the others.

At one time, we used natural gas and some oil to generate all your electricity. And we still have to use a lot of those fuels. But today, we're making almost half your electricity with lignite coal. And we're building a plant to make electricity with uranium.

That's good. Because at the end of this year our biggest contract for low-cost natural gas expires. The new gas and oil we'll have to buy will be much more expensive.

This means the cost of electricity will go up. But not nearly as much as it would if we still used nothing but gas and oil. Our use of lignite coal and our planned use of uranium are ways we're helping minimize the increases in your electric bills.

By conserving, you can help save on your bills. To learn effective conservation measures, attend one of our free Operation Tighten-Up workshops. Call us for information on a workshop in your neighborhood.
