Son Is Born To Former Broadway Torch Singer; To Be Named For Father

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 10.—A son was born to Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds, widow of Smith Reynolds, at the Pennsylvania hospital tonight.

Dr. Norris W. Vaux, attending physician, said the condition of mother and child was "satisfactory."

Mrs. Roynolds, widow of the late heir to the Reynolds tobacco fortune, who was found dead at his estate in Winston Salem, N. C., last year, entered the hospital this morning. The child was born at 6:48 o'clock.

The former Broadway "torch singer" came here from Wilmington, Del., near where she has been living recently.

The 20-year-old heir to one-fourth of the R. J. Reynolds tobacco fortune was fatally shot at Reynolds, the family estate at Winston-Salem, N. C., last July 6, after a party there.

Mrs. Reynolds, a favorite of Broadway, and Albert Walker, 19, Winston-Salem, were indicted on charges of murder early in August, but in November the cases were dropped. Solicitor Carlisle Higgins announcing there was insufficient evidence to warrant a trial.

The former singer has been quoted as saying her child would be named "Smith" for its father, regardless of its sex.

Young Reynolds' share of his father's estate has been estimated at from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000. In the will of R. J. Reynolds, sr., it is provided that if one of his heirs dies, any child or children of the heir shall inherit the parent's estate. Attorneys have questioned whether Mrs. Reynolds would have inherited the estate, if there had been no child, but they said the law of North Carolina leaves no doubt as to the child's rights.

Young Father And Mother Are Sentenced To Die For Brutal Slaying Of Their Small Babe

Pair Convicted Of Poisoning Child, Crushing In Its Skull And Throwing It Into Swamps Of Lake Few Months After Their Marriage; Young Mother Declares She Loved It

(By The Associated Press)

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 10.—New York state's highest court today ruled that Mrs. Mary Simpson and her husband, R. J. Simpson, a Cortland county farmer, should die for the slaying of her year-old baby.

The 22-year-old mother and her husband were convicted of poisoning the child, crushing its skull and throwing it into the swamps of mud lake in September, 1931, a few months after they were married.

The decision of the court of appeals leaves only one possible way open for them to escape the electric chair—through executive clemency.

Mrs. Simpson is the first white woman sentenced to die in New York since execution of Ruth Snyder in 1928 together with Judd Gray for the murder of Mrs. Snyder's husband.

Second Child Born

The slain baby was Mrs. Simpson's second child born before she married the 29-year-old farmer and, according to her own story, was killed because it "came between" her and her husband, who did not know of its existence until some time after their marriage.

The mother and her husband both told authorities, shortly after the mangled body of the child was found, the details of how they had put poison in the baby's nursing bottle, how Simpson had taken the baby by his feet and "banged" his head against a fence post and a pile of rocks, and how later he had held him under the water until he was dead.

Asked if she loved the child, Mrs. Simpson said:

"Yes, I loved it, but it was in between our getting married."

Simpson said she had asked him to drown the baby after the poison had failed to prove fatal. He said the mother waited in an automobile while he took the baby down to the lake and threw it in.

Rumors That Ely And Martin Are To Resign Highway Posts Described As "Malicious Propaganda" By Sterling

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 10.—W. R. Ely of Abilene, chairman, and D. K. Martin of San Antonio, member of the state highway commision, said here today that reports they contemplated resigning were untrue.

Governor R. S. Sterling, who formerly served on the commission with Ely and who appointed Martin, referred to the reports as "malicious propaganda."

Reports that Judge Ely and possibly Martin planned to resign about the time that Governor Sterling relinquishes his office to Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson had been in circulation here for several days.

Mrs. Ferguson will be inaugurated next Tuesday. Unless Martin or Judge Ely resigns she will have the appointment of only one of the three members of the highway commission. The term of Cone Johnson of Tyler will expire next month.

One report around the capitol was that Governor Sterling, Judge Ely and Martin all would resign and that Senator Walter Woodul of Houston, president pro tem of the senate, who then would be acting governor, by reason of absence from the state of Lieut. Governor Edgar Witt, would appoint two members of the highway commission more nearly acceptable to the Ferguson forces. In that way, agitation for increasing the commission membership from three to five to give Mrs. Ferguson control might be curbed, it was said.

"Wish You'd Tell The Governor I Sure Appreciate This" Is Message Of Expectant Mother In State Penitentiary

(By The Associated Press)

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 10.—Governor Blackwood today changed the death sentence of Mrs. Beatrice Ferguson Snipes, 29, expectant mother, to a sentence of life imprisonment, saying his action of clemency was "in accord with the general sentiment of the country."

The former textile worker, who admitted shooting Rural Policeman Elliott Harris to death with his own pistol, was notified of the executive's decision as she sat in the sunshine in an enclosed yard at the state penitentiary.

Somewhat Bewildered

At first, she appeared somewhat bewildered.

"What does it mean—life here?" she asked.

"Yes," answered Capt. H. H. Kester, of the prison guard, who read the commutation to her.

"Well, I sure am much obliged to you," she said slowly, peering at the document in Kester's hand. "Who did it, the governor?"

The chief executive's signature was pointed out to her.

"I wish you'd tell the governor that I sure appreciate this," she said earnestly.

A movement has been started in South Carolina seeking arrangements whereby the child may be born outside the prison. Mrs. Snipes has a son, Clyde, Jr., aged 6, who is being cared for by relatives.

Wheat Rockets To Fifty Cent Level Tuesday

Half Dollar Price Is Reached By A Rise Of Almost Three Cents For Total Rally Of 8 Cents From Bottom

Wheat Futures Have Risen Six Cents Since First Of Year; Rail Shares Are Principal Stock Leaders

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 10. — Fifty cent wheat came back today after a long period of lower prices, and stocks rose in sympathy.

The half dollar price was reached by a rise of almost three cents today for a total rally of 8 cents from the 1932 bottom, which was the lowest in the history of organized grain exchanges.

Cash Grain Is Up

Since the first of the 10-day-old year of 1933, with only 6 full trading days, wheat futures have risen more than 6 cents. Cash grain has also gone higher.

Much of the sympathetic rise in stock was in railroad shares, contrary to old fashioned principles. In normal times, a bullish wheat market, denoting a short crop, caused a bearish stock market as there would be less tonnage to carry by rails both from and to the farms and less demand by the roads for steel and other materials.

Rise Is Violent

Both the grain and the security markets have been rather strong since the start of the new year. Wheat gradually gained 6 cents or more in the first week, faltered yesterday and then ran up violently late today, stocks joining in the dash.

May wheat, representing wheat already harvested, and the September delivery, which is yet to be grown and harvested, shot up to 50 1-2 cents a bushel and held at that figure for the close. The July delivery, also representing ungrown wheat, lagged a little, but managed to reach 50 cents just before the gong.

Sino-Jap Battle Centers At Pass

Japs Advance In Effort To Gain Gateway To Jehol; Fighting Rages Many Hours

(By The Associated Press)

PEIPING, Jan. 10.—A battle between Japanese and Chinese armies for possession of Chiumenkow pass in the great wall of China, one of the important gateways leading from China into the province of Jehol, got under way this morning and still was raging this afternoon.

The Japanese advance, in which calvary, infantry and artillery participated, started at 6 a. m. The first contact was with Chinese calvary.

Delayed dispatches from General Ho Chu-Kuo, Chinese commander, said the fighting still was going on at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Four Japanese airplanes were assisting the attackers by bombing the Chinese lines.

Drive Starts Today

Manchurian headquarters in Peiping reported that at 5 o'clock this afternoon a Chinese cavalry brigade still held the southern end of the pass and at that point there had been as yet no contact with the Japanese.

Chinese officials expected the full force of the Japanese drive to gain possession of the pass would be felt tomorrow. General Ho issued orders to his troops to stand their ground.

Advance Is Slowed

At 6 a. m. today, a dispatch from General Ho said, a mixed force of cavalry, infantry and artillery, made up of soldiers of Japan and Manchukuo, advanced toward the pass, shortly afterward making contact with the Chinese cavalry.

The mountainous country, the general said, slowed up the Japanese advance and made it possible for the Chinese to bring up reinforcements.

Mother And Four Children Are Death Victims In Blaze At Buena Vista As Can Of Crude Oil Distillate Explodes

Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Drags Father And Mother From The House And Then Falls; Help Two Hours In Arriving

(By The Associated Press)

PECOS, Jan. 10.—Five members of a family lost their lives and a sixth was burned perhaps fatally last night when a five-gallon can of crude oil distillate exploded and set fire to their home eight miles from Buena Vista, Tex.

Mrs. J. L. Pitts, 37, and her four children, J. L. Pitts, jr., 15, Monroe, 11, Leroy, 5, and Jean, 9, were burned to death. Their husband and father, who had been a ditch rider for the Pecos county water improvement district No. 2 until recently, was taken to Fort Stockton, 30 miles south of Buena Vista, in a serious condition.

Oil Covers Parents

Residents of Buena Vista said the explosion occurred as the famil, sat down to their evening meal. The can of distillate was near the kitchen stove and when it exploded, burning oil was thrown over the mother and father, rendering them unconscious. J. L. Pitts, jr., dragged his parents outside the house then fell unconscious from his burns. Aid did not arrive for two hours.

Those deaths brought to 14 the fatalities in the Pecos river valley resulting from explosions and fires in the past 45 days. Just a week ago news was received here of the death of five persons at Barstow, 10 miles east of Pecos, when gasoline was thrown on a wood fire by mistake. A sixth member of two families, numbering ten, died later. Two other women and a man died of burns in the previous month.

Three Study Clubs Hold Elections Of Officers On Tuesday Afternoon

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

THERE is a common belief that women—organized women—can accomplish anything that they attempt. Right now, Texas is in a position to discover what women of the state can do in a united effort. For women of the state are becoming vitally interested in education at public expense.

In this immediate territory, the interest is centering in maintaining Tech as a Technological college. However, this is only a part of the interest that women all over the state are feeling in the educational program. The mothers and teachers want to know how public school education is to be financed and the status of education along with that of road-building and all of the other state enterprises. With economy as the crying need of the state, women are interested in knowing how this economy program is to be proportioned.

The 2,219 units in the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers are looking forward to maintaining public school education, according to a letter sent out last week-end by Mrs. J. M. Crain of Claude, the publicity director. In this she quoted a resolution that was adopted by the state body at its general convention in Galveston. The gist of this resolution is that a strict economy program be inaugurated "in order that terms of school need not be shortened and that the entire programs of physical, mental, vocational and character training may be maintained."

Members of the Texas Congress remembering the struggle that has been made for public school education, are ready to continue their efforts to keep the school children in public schools.

Along with the general interest in the educational program for the entire state, Lubbock women are concerned, too, with what happens to Texas Technological college. An expression of this came Saturday afternoon when representatives of federated clubs endorsed a resolution that has been proposed by Mrs. Tillman Jones of Post, protesting the recommendations of a legislative committee on economy and efficiency.

These club women are interested in economy. They realize the necessity for economy in operating the state's educational institutions, but they can see no economy in the plan that has been offered.

WHAT organized women can do remains to be seen in the fight that educational forces are making in Texas today, but it is likely that their influence will be felt since education, unfortunately, remains under the control of politics.

Protests of the more than one hundred women in Lubbock against the changes that involve Texas Technological college will, more than likely be reflected in protests from clubs in the other 47 counties of the seventh district of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs. These same resolutions will oppose proposed action against teachers colleges—either deeding them outright to the towns in which they are situated or making them branches of Texas University.

This opposition to proposed legislative action represents hundreds of women. Of course, men in the section are waging a campaign at the same time—this certainly is not a women's fight. However, this is going to be a time to measure what organized women can do in protecting one of the most valuable things the government offers—education at public expense.

Most of us are offended at what we feel is discrimination against a particular section but that issue is secondary to the one that is threatening the institution of education in the entire state. A program of efficiency and economy that favors particular districts or particular schools instead of benefitting the state as a whole is unfortunate and must be protested by the ordinary citizen unless it is to continue. But the fight of West Texas men and women should not be concluded when they have kept technological courses in the technological college. The fight is much more complex than that and it is going to need the support of every man and every woman.

Now that organized women of the state are taking a hand, it probably will be a good time to determine how much influence they have.

Tech Noses Out Southwestern; Wayland Here Tonight

Matadors Take Final Contest By 33-28 Lead

Tech Forced To Hard Work In Last Half To Protect Lead Gained Early; Shooting Of Young And Kaiser Feature

After hopping off to a nice lead in the first half with an offensive and defensive mixture that seemed destined to result in a top-heavy score, the Texas Tech Matadors had to fight hard to break up a stubborn Southwestern Oklahoma Teachers rally in the last half that came near to tying the score.

The final score of the final game was Texas Tech 33; Southwestern Teachers 28.

The fight of the Matadors to stave off the rally carried them into foul territory near the last and the consistent free goal shooting of Gordie Kaiser and Francis Young threatened to aid and abet the previous scrimmage shooting of Young to the extent of overcoming the lead.

Fitting Climax To Series

All in all it was a fairly close game throughout, played according to the rules of the game and well-handled from the official's standpoint. It was a fitting climax to the series, however in sharp contrast to the rough-house contest played Monday night and won by the Bulldogs, 35 to 29.

Augmenting last night's program, Lester "Terrible" Tribble and Lacey Turner, center and guard respectively on the Matador grid team, indulged in a bit of catch-as-catch-can wrestling, Tribble winning one fall to gain the decision.

The crowd was smaller last night, dropping to about 1,100.

Young Gets Gains

Francis Young, fast-breaking little forward whose duel with Captain Harvey Dunn was an interesting sidelight, took high-point honors with five field goals and two free shots that counted before he was banished via the personal foul route.

Next in line was Tech's Wilson Gilmore, transformed football player, who is stealing most of Tech's offensive glory so far. Gilmore dropped three in from scrimmage and two from the free-throw line. Harvey Dunn counted six points before he went out of the game following a hard fall in mid-court. The accident entailed no foul.

The defensive play of Captain Vickers and Ross, big guards, was outstanding for the visitors.

Tech Holds Early Lead

Tech was off to a lead early, Robison and Priddy sinking a free goal and field goal. Kaiser sunk a long field goal and Dunn made one. Kaiser made another and Crews dropped one in from the floor. Fickers made one and the score was 7 to 6 as Tech called time out. Dunn made a field goal and Crews poured in two from the free line, followed by Priddy's free goal. Kaiser made a free throw that counted and Dunn made a field goal to lead, 14 to 7, as Southwestern called time.

Young got into action and tossed a field goal. Robinson retaliated and Young sunk a free shot. Gilmore for Tech and Barnes for the visitors scored as the half ended.

Crews and Gilmore

Crews and Gilmore entertained with field goals to stretch the lead, but on three consecutive Tech fouls, Kaiser made as many free shots count. Young, in rapid order, rung up seven points.

Tech played for time, as the game grew old, and Bryant made a free throw count. Everett, sub for Young who was expelled, sunk a free goal and the score was 33 to 26 with a minute to go. Ross made his first offensive play then, scoring from the field on a pretty shot as the game ended.

The box score:

Thirty-Five Mounts Named To Run Agua Caliente Handicap

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., Jan. 10. (AP)—Thirty-five thoroughbreds have been nominated for the fourth renewal of the Agua Caliente handicap March 26, a $50,000 race which drew approximately twice that number of nominations last year.

Judge C. J. Fitzgerald of the Agua Caliente jockey club, said the list might be increased by the receipt from abroad of additional nominations mailed prior to January 2, the closing day.

Two foreign racers were included in the list, Pillow Fight, half brother of Phar Lap, the New Zealand giant which won the race last year, and Boy Painter, which arrived at the track yesterday from England.

Girl Basketball Teams Of This Section To Have Own District Joust And Title

District Two Is Divided Into Quadrants

Although the Texas Interscholastic league does not sponsor girls basketball, a plan has been devised by coaches and school men of this section whereby an official district 2 championship team shall emerge from the large field of feminine basketball talent.

At a meeting recently at Anton attended by a group of coaches representing schools from several counties of this district, definite plans were laid for a girls' district basketball tournament to be held after county and quadrant winners have been established, according to information furnished yesterday by H. C. Osborn at Anton.

Perfect Organization

A complete organization was perfected at the Anton meeting and regulations were adopted to govern the selection of a championship team for the South Plains division.

The body of coaches adopted the following motions:

1. The district shall be divided into four sections, or quadrants, the winner of each quadrant to compete in the district tournament.

2. The quadrants shall consist of the same counties as has been outlined for the play-off in boys basketball.

3. A director-general shall be elected for district 2, said director-general having the power to name one director from each quadrant, these four appointed directors acting as an advisory body for the director-general.

Stephens Gets Office

4. Mr. M. F. Stephens of Shallowater was duly elected director-general.

5. The quadrants shall have the power to employ any method of elimination they see fit.

6. The district finals shall be complete on or before one week following the boys' district finals.

7. All county winners shall be determined by January 28.

8. Interscholastic league rules shall be used to determine the eligibility of teams and players.

9. A two-division playing court shall be used.

10. It is suggested that the ball be put in play by the center throw in all quadrants and district final games.

11. It is recommended that Texas registered officials be employed in all quadrant and district final games as far as possible.

12. The place of the district tournament will be determined by the director-general within the next week and persons interested in participation in the tournament will be notified.

Primo Carnera To Box Schaaf In Semi-Final

Huge Italian And Blond Ernie To Meet In February, With Winner Having Shot At Jack Sharkey In June

NEW YORK, Jan. 10. (AP)—Primo Carnera, the massive Italian, and blonde Ernie Schaaf of Boston, today were matched to go 15 rounds or less in Madison Square Garden February 10 to decide a challenger for Jack Sharkey's heavyweight title.

The winner, according to the Garden management, will be matched with the Boston gob for a June championship bout in New York.

Carnera originally had been selected by the Garden as a semi-finalist in its elimination series, made necessary when Max Schmeling, former title holder, and Max Baer signed with Jack Dempsey. Schaaf won his assignment with a six-round knockout of Stanley Poreda, the New Jersey Pole, last Friday night.

Sharkey Owns Schaaf

Schaaf is partly owned by Sharkey and has fought most of his best bouts with Jack in his corner but his contract with the sailorman and John Buckley, Sharkey's manager, is understood to expire March 4 and will not be renewed.

One of the stories going the rounds was that if Schaaf disposes of Carnera, Charley Johnston, brother of the Garden promoter, will take over Ernie's management.

Major League Stars Face Very Little Salary Cuts; Some Prices Are Bigger

Senators And Pirates To Give Raises To Big Stars

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—Although the general idea seems to be to trim major league baseball payrolls for 1933 at least 10 percent, in the aggregate, most magnates are not only dealing gently with the contracts of their stars but in many cases already have manifested unexpected generosity.

Thus it appears, on strength of information obtained by the Associated Press, that the "bad news" is not going to be quite so bad at all for two contrasting classes of talent, (1) the veterans who kept their 1932 work up to satisfactory or exceptional levels and (2) the youngsters who made the grade on their first or second attempts.

Senators Award "Raises"

Among the pennant contenders, Washington and Pittsburgh in particular furnish proof of this attitude. The Senators not only have raised the salary of their star sophomore right-hander, Monte Weaver, but likely will give increases to Al Crowder, who won 26 games last season, and Goose Goslin, the returning prodigal. Pittsburgh not only has added a high-salaried performer in Fred Lindstrom but decided to give raises to Lloyd Waner and Larry French, amounting to $1500 each, restore a "cut" made in Paul Waner's 1932 salary, and boost the pay of crack youngsters like Earl Grace, Tony Piet, Bill Swift and Floyd Vaughan.

The situation in Pittsburgh, where increases are expected to offset "cuts" for such slipping veterans as Kremer and Brame, is a contrast to the expression of Sam Breadon, president of the 1931 champion Cardinals in emphasizing his payroll "will be slashed, not trimmed."

Marse Joe Get's Raise

Such "cuts" as are made by the pennant teams, Yankees and Cubs, will be dictated by special circumstances. New pitching sensations on these teams like Johnny Allen and Lonnie Warneke will get increases. Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yankees already has signed a new three-year contract at a substantial increase and the rest of Colonel Ruppert's world champions, including Babe Ruth, do not fear the arrival of the mailman. The Babe probably will take another $5,000 "slice" or even $10,000 and like it, especially as Commissioner Landis, revealed now as only a $40,000 employe of the national game, is no longer a salary rival of Ruth's. The Cubs will cut Burleigh Grimes, with a bonus offer to the old spitballer if he makes a comeback.

Simmons Has Year To Go

The payroll of the Athletics will be considerably reduced and that of the White Sox proportionately boosted by the shift of stars like Simmons, Dykes and Haas to Chicago. Simmons has another year to go on his $100,000 three-year contract which the White Sox have taken over. Dykes was the highest paid third sacker in the league, under Connie Mack, but probably will accept a cut this season.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Braves, Philadelphia Nationals, and Cincinnati Reds all will reduce salaries upwards of 10 percent, with some exceptions. Most of Brooklyn's big salaries, including those of Dazzy Vance and Hack Wilson, will be further deflated. Wilson collected $16,500 last year, half what he signed for with the Cubs the year before.

Cleveland, according to Billy Evans, hopes to shave off at least 10 per cent in salaries, along with other economies. Although contributing no details about their plans, it is assumed the Browns, Tigers and Red Sox contemplate similar retrenchment.

Agua Caliente Tourney Draws 184 Pros After Large Purse

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., Jan. 10. (AP)—The fairway leading to the largest pot of gold on the western winter golf trail will be a well-worn trail by tomorrow night, for 184 golfers are ready to tee off in the fourth annual Agua Caliente open tournament, which this year is worth $7,500.

Some of the color faded from the tournament yesterday when Gene Sarazen, British and American open champ and winner of the first Agua Caliente open, was taken ill with influenza in Los Angeles. But the largest field in the history of the tournament and a number of expert shot-makers should keep it from being drab.

State forestry departments distributed more than 100,000,000 trees for forest planting last year.

Westerners To Scrap College Team At 7:30

Wayland College Jackrabbits Seeking Revenge For Defeat By Westerners Earlier In Season; Play At Hi School

A game of more than passing interest is scheduled for the Lubbock High school basketball outfit in a regularly scheduled affair.

The Lubbock High school Westerners will meet the Wayland college Jackrabbits at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

The Westerners' first claim to fame this season resulted in their victory over the Wayland college clan at Plainview in the first game of the season for either team. It was claimed that Coach Swede McMurry's boys got the jump on the collegians and otherwise caught them napping. A return game was promptly scheduled and the Jackrabbits will be seeking revenge.

The Westerners, said by many fans to be the best potential quintet ever to represent the school, defeated Amarillo High school at Amarillo last Saturday night to increase their prestige and give their stock a rise.

Coach McMurry will have his full strength tonight, provided one or two players report in improved physical condition.

Congratulations In Order!

FOR the past eight years and in four state gubernatorial campaigns The Morning Avalanche and J. A. Humphries have been on opposite sides of the political fence.

We have fought each other, politically, tooth and toenail. It seems that we've never been able to agree.

But that fact has never blinded this newspaper or its staff to the fact that Mr. Humphries, who is a fair, square opponent, always conducts himself as a true, Christian gentleman and as a good citizen. It has never blinded us to the fact that he is a political foeman worthy of anyone's steel.

With these facts in mind, this morning we say to J. A. Humphries, our opponent in politics but in many other things our friend:

"Congratulations, Ab, on your appointment as a supervisor in the state department of education. Your experience and your political aid given those whom you considered best fitted to rule in Texas make it highly appropriate that you be the first Lubbock man honored with a state appointment. We're glad to see your merits recognized. We're glad to see Lubbock and the South Plains so recognized. We know you'll make good at the job—not only from the standpoint of the man who appointed you but from the standpoint of the schools which you will serve.

"Doggone you, Ab, we've shot at you politically simply because we thought we were right, as you thought you were right when you shot at us. But now that it's all over and the votes have been compiled, we're glad to see that your efforts have not been overlooked; we're glad you've been so honored; we're for you in your new job.

"Hands across th miles between here and wherever you're located—and hands across the block if your headquarters remain in Lubbock.

"Our political fight with you is over—at least until 1934!"

SOMETHING TO WATCH

Dr. Chas. W. Reese, who is pastor of a church in suburban Chicago, has started something which ministers in Lubbock and everywhere else will do well to watch closely. Doctor Reese proposes to set apart a period after the Sunday morning service in which those of his congregation who choose to remain may quiz him on his discourse, or make such critical, or approving comment as they consider appropriate.

The Chicago minister believes that such an innovation will improve the quality of sermons preached for that departure from the traditional exathedra attitude of the dominie, long accustomed to expound law and gospel without fear of challenge, could be ventured safely only when the pulpit was sure it had something worth saying.

And, from another angle, it offers the churchgoer the added opportunity to learn more and more of the doctrines of his religion and of the translation of the Bible itself.

The Morning Avalanche would like to see the plan tried out in Lubbock not because we consider Lubbock preaching below par, for it is not, but because we wonder if a short trial would show that it will add to interest in churchgoing here.

AMERICAN PLAN THE BEST

Nations are like individuals in that the other fellow's skates always look better than their own. Sensible of the faults of their own institutions, they can only see the advantages of the others.

Many Americans would have their national government adopt some of the features of the British form on the theory that it is more responsive to the popular will and to changing economic and political condition. They like the British practice of immediately removing an administration which has lost the confidence or control of parliament.

Yet over in Germany editors, sick and tired of a long series of upsetting and chaotic elections, proposed the Americanization of the German republic. They would change the government from "ministerial" to "presidential."

There is no doubt about the greater stability of the American scheme, especially if applied to German politics. The German cabinet is dependent upon a majority in the Reichstag in which none of the many German political parties has a majority. This advantage of our system has seldom forced itself upon the public mind because one of the two major parties usually has a safe majority in both houses while one of its members sit in the white house.

Adoption of the "presidential" form by Germany would undoubtedly tend to free for all in the Reichstag and, in time, would effect a consolidation of the country's large political parties into two or three major groups.

Plan Is Emergency Step

(This is the first of a series on the solution of the farm problem as Washington sees it.)

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Half a column of type would scarcely suffice even to list by title all the farm relief plans that the senatorial and house of representatives' committees on agriculture have discussed in the last 10 years.

The Curtis-Aswell plan.
The McNary-Haugen plan.
The debenture plan.

Mention of these simply will serve to stir the memories of folk who have followed the progress of congressional efforts to aid the nation's agrarian interests since deflation of the land began, soon after the armistice was signed.

Now the domestic allotment plan is under consideration.

President-elect Roosevelt is said to favor it.

However, it is proposed only as an emergency measure, according to Chairman Marvin Jones of the representatives' agricultural committee.

Charles P. Stewart

HERE IS the plan:

First, it is recognized that American prices of agricultural products are on a parity with other American prices. Specifically, as indicated by latest statistics, the farmer sells at an index of 84 and buys at an index of 106—52 points to his disadvantage; in fact, decidedly below his production cost.

Second, it is conceded that an agricultural-industrial price parity must be established to save agriculture.

How to accomplish this?

First, again, wheat, cotton, hogs and tobacco will be designated as a quartet of products on which agriculture must attain price parity with factory products.

Second, government will make advance estimates of what should be the season's production of wheat, cotton, hogs and tobacco, with a proportion struck, as between the percentage that will be required for home consumption and the percentage that presumably will be exported; after which each farmer who desires to avail himself of the plan's possibilities (he will be at perfect liberty to suit himself in the matter) will be invited to give satisfactory guarantees that he will abide by the government's limitations upon his production, and proceed with his seasonal activities.

Third, at the season's end, the wheat, cotton and tobacco having been harvested, the hogs fattened and all sent to market, a tax will be levied upon the "processors" (the millers, spinners, tobacco manufacturers and packers) for the benefit of the allotment farmers (those who have restricted their production in accordance with the government's allotment limits).

EXCEPT for the distribution of the tax money among the farmers, in proportion to their various allotments, this will complete the program.

True, the tax remains to be explained more fully. The processors" naturally will be taxed only upon the wheat, cotton, hogs and tobacco consumed in the United States; the farmers will have to take for their exports whatever they can get in the world's markets.

The levy on the "processors" will be agreed to make up to the allotment farmers the difference between the prices actually paid to them, in the American markets where they sell their wheat, cotton, hogs and tobacco, and the amount necessary to bring their agricultural products up to parity with the general American price index.

BUT THIS by no means is all there is to be said in connection with the agricultural problem.

It is not all there is to be said in connection with the allotment plan.

For one thing, the allotment plan is attacked as unconstitutional, which is a serious drawback to it, if the objection is found to be valid.

THE ALMANAC

It seems to the man in town that the almanac has lost the bulk of its former following. He sometimes wonders if back on the farm it is still read as assiduously and credulously as it was 50 years ago.

As it is remembered the old-fashioned almanac was issued as the advertising medium for patent remedies to which were attributed cure-all powers by testimonials distributed through the almanac's pages. Sandwiched between these were mystic diagrams of the signs of the zodiac, the moon's phases, weather forecasts, hoary anecdotes and sage advice culled from Poor Richard's sayings.

No rural home was without its almanac in the old days. It provided reading matter for long winter evenings, guided the housewife in planting her flowers by the "up sign" and the potatoes by the "down sign", and determined the family social and business calendar by its long-distance weather forecasts. Without an almanac life would have been like a ship without a rudder.

Grandmother swore by the almanac, "doctored" by it, planted and harvested by it, argued by it, formed her opinions from it and laughed at the jokes. Rendering these multifarious services falls to the lot of her newspaper today.

Letters To The Editor From Readers

I. W. Ross Offers Opinions In Support Of Prohibition Laws; Blames Weak-Kneed Drys

Editor, The Avalanche: I do not agree with many of the orthodox and theological ideals in religion, but I do believe in true Christianity and good morals. Therefore, I heartily indorse the comments of Pastor Campbell of the Baptist church in his letter of January 5th to the editor of the Avalanche, regarding prohibition, no, because of any religious leaning toward his church or any other, but because he gives, what seem to me, sensible reasons for keeping present prohibition laws in the constitution and in the statutes. I would recommend that weak-kneed prohibitionists read his letter carefully and then return to the fold in full faith.

I must plead guilty my self to having had some slight inclination to wobble on this question after hearing some of the arguments by the antis and some of the weak-kneed pros.

One of their late contentions is that prohibition is one of the major causes of the present financial depression, but I cannot understand, if this is so, why it did not take effect sooner after the prohibition laws were passed. It strikes me that it would be just as sensible to give prohibition credit for the financial boom that ended in 1929 as to blame it for the depression that followed. We did not try to find the cause of the boom, but we seem to be following every possible clue to the cause of the depression and strike at everything that comes in sight as a possible cause. My humble opinion is, that if we had been forced to depend on prohibition alone for a depression we would have gone without our dear depression to fight prohibition with.

Furthermore, even if prohibition did, by any possible logic, have any tendency, in any way to augment the depression it could have had but a very minor influence against all the other causes for the depression in keeping it off. A return to booze could not cure all our financial troubles. Any argument to the contrary is of course ridiculous.

But, if for the sake of argument, we should admit, which we do not, that by any possibility, the return to booze and its consequences, our financial condition could be slightly improved, or even largely improved, would we be justified in sacrificing a moral principle for any financial gain? If there is no other way out of the slough of despond Americans have lost their boasted financial ingenuity, and we are up against a perpetual financial strain, prohibition or no prohibition.

The wets claim that, after the repeal of prohibition laws, they do not want the return of the saloon, but do not tell us just how they propose to prevent it except through some vague idea of government control in some way still more vague. We have witnessed the effects of government control of industries to the disgust of either the industries or to those they are supposed to serve, until it is very doubtful if the government can really control anything that it does not own. I do not believe that we are ready to have our government go into the booze business through ownership.

In my opinion, the strongest argument against prohibition is, that morality cannot be secured through legislation, which to some extent is true. But legislation can legitimately pass sanitary laws that involve moral questions and right living. Very few people object to the laws against the use of narcotics that are known to be injurious to individuals and to society in general, but it is difficult to make them admit that strong drink is harmful, and that it has destroyed many times as many people as narcotics have.

But the avowed wets are not altogether to blame for their opposition to prohibition, for many loud talking drys wink at violations of the present laws in their own cases. I have been in a position in local option territory, to know that at least one half of the violations, not of the law, but of the principle for which the law was passed, were committed by members of the churches who claimed that they were doing no evil in shipping booze into local option territory because the law permitted them to do so, showing that something stronger than principle was necessary to restrain them.

Such actions on the part of alleged prohibitionists is one of the strong points in the arguments of the wets, and it is a legitimate point, too. That kind of dry talks with his tongue in his cheek and the wets know it, for the drys cannot indulge without the knowledge of some of the wets. The old saying that one should go into court with clean hands is still true, and the present attitude of both political parties does not give much hope that the drys will be given favorable action through any exception to the principles involved in the old saying.

Very truly yours,
I. W. Ross,

Ropesville Man Will Face Jury

L. L. Nettles, 29, of Ropesville, charged with failing to stop and render aid after an accident, waived an examining trial in justice court Tuesday afternoon and posted $750 appearance bond to await action of a grand jury.

Nettles, arrested Monday at Levelland by a state highway patrolman, was charged in a hit-and-run accident in which a truck hit Mary Frances Gooden, nine, of 2401 Twenty-first street about 7 o'clock Friday night in the 2300-block of Nineteenth street.

Nettles was transferred to Lubbock county jail early today. The patrolman signing the complaint was E. C. White. County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson filed it in justice of the peace J. S. Connell's court.

The Gooden girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Gooden, was knocked unconscious, suffered a gash on the back of the head and a cut on the face. She was dismissed from Lubbock sanitarium after receiving emergency treatment.

A passerby tried, unsuccessfully, to stop the truck, he said.

School Taxes Are Reported

Collections For December Are Reported At $43,922.31 By Schools Manager; Majority Are Delinquent

Lubbock independent district school tax collections for December totaled $43,922.31, A. C. Jackson, schools manager, reported Tuesday.

Of the total, $23,362.31 was in delinquent taxes and $20,560 in current taxes.

Last two months salaries of Lubbock school teachers have been paid on time, Jackson said. Whether the next payroll is met promptly will depend on collections in the intervening three weeks, he pointed out. Taxes will become delinquent after January 31.

In addition to meeting last month's salaries on time, the school system paid approximately $28,000 into the interest and sinking fund. Of that amount $8,000 was used for retirement of bonded indebtedness.

Cotton — Cotton Advance Made Tuesday — Livestock — Steer, Yearling Price Is Strong — Grain — Wheat Goes Up 2 Cents Bushel

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 10. (AP)—After ruling quiet most of the day, cotton spurted with stocks and wheat in the late trading as shorts covered actively, and last prices were the best at net gains of 18 to 23 points, equivalent to 90 cents to $1.15 a bale.

The opening was quiet after the third day holiday here. Liverpool cables came in about 5 points above what was due. Private cables said the market was small and quiet affair, with some hedge selling and influenced by continued weakness in Egyptian. Manchester cabled the market there was quiet, with a fair cloth inquiry and a steady demand for yarns. First trades here showed no change from the previous close. But prices eased slightly after the start on a little hedge selling. During the morning March dropped to 6.10 and July to 6.31 down 4 points from the previous close, afterwards fluctuating narrowly.

The market became quite active and advanced sharply around the middle of the afternoon, however, in sympathy with an upturn in stocks and in other commodity markets. Shorts covered freely and there was some trade buying. Prices made new high for the day and the current movement with March at 6.33, May at 6.48 and July at 6.61 or 23 to 27 points above the lows of the morning. The close was at the top, prices showing a net gain of 18 points, May 19 points and July 21 points.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow to be unchanged points up.

Port receipts 41,191, for week 68,614, for season 6,096,807, last season 7,813,858. Exports 29,443, for week 58,090, for season 4,317,807, last season 4,417,411. Port stock 4,757,852, last year 5,821,211. Consolidated shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 190,816, last year 134,711. Spot sales at southern markets 21,156; last year 31,522.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Jan. 10. (AP)—Cotton advanced moderately today on a renewal of trade buying and covering which was stimulated by the firmness of wheat and stocks and reports of continued light offerings from the south.

Prices made new high ground for the movement with March contracts selling up from 6.12@6.37 or 17 points net higher, and closing at 6.35. The general market closed steady at net advances of 9 to 15 points.

The opening was 1 to 4 points lower in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables and reports of better weather in the south.

Prices worked off during the early trading, July declining to 6.17 and the general list showing net losses of 6 to 10 points. Liverpool was a seller on the decline, presumably on the differences.

Buying turned more active in the late trading, July selling up to 6.62 with the general list showing recoveries of about 25 to 36 points from the low levels of the morning. The close was at or within a point or two of the best prices for the day.

Optimism Given Benefit Of Doubt By Financial Markets; Prices Advance

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 10. (AP) — Financial markets gave optimism the benefit of the doubt today and quotations lifted, in some cases sharply.

Stocks, after a couple of hesitant hours, swung upward with a vigor that interested many short covering, reserving their best efforts for the last hour when wheat's climb of 2 to 2 1-2 cents a bushel brought livelier action on the stock exchange. Cotton had a less strenuous session, but added 14 to 75 cents a bale to its market value. Bonds plugged away at their heartening advance, considerable activity developed in secondary issues.

The rise that finally brought many net gains of 1 to 3 points for shares started in a rather desultory way shortly after noon, following publication of U. S. Steel corporation's unfilled tonnage statement. The backlog dropped only 191,000 in December and because it is a smaller decrease had been widely expected readers found a pleasant surprise in this news. Some short covering followed, but the market did not become notably strong until wheat was closing in Chicago. Sales during the last fifty minutes approximated 800,000 shares, roughly half the total day's business of 1,710,617 shares.

U. S. Steel issues were in demand, the common rising more than 2 points after the preferred showed a gain. The latter appeared less certain as to what dividend action was to be taken late this month, and corrected rather freely. Wheat's pulse, attributed partly to weather prospects, lent a hand to the farm group. Case jumped around 4 points and Harvester nearly 2, while mail order issues firmed. Industrials generally were strong. Eastman Kodak, American Can, Allied Chemical, Westinghouse, American Tobacco "B," Auburn, Nash Motors, Continental Can, Liggett and Myers "B," and Standard Oil of New Jersey improved 1 to 3 net.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 10. (AP)—Yearlings and light steers cleared at generally strong prices with spots 10 higher while medium weight and heavy steers were barely steady. Several loads of choice yearling heifers in Chicago up to 7.25. Medium weight steers in Omaha and Chicago were noted at 7.00 and best weights steers around the circuit brought 6.50. Country reports of liberal shipments of light yearling heifers to stockers and feeders with a few consignments of better grade around 5.25@6.75. Stockers and feeders were scarce at most points but showed material strength on the few sales reported. Cattle receipts in Kansas City 13,000 as compared with 20,000 last week and 188,542 the same period a year ago.

Generally steady to 10 lower figures prevailed on hogs in the day's trade Chicago and St. Louis listing a top of 3.90 on best light weight butchers.

Most sales of lambs were tabulated around 10 to 25 lower levels with a spread of 5.25@6.10 taking the majority of desirable fat kinds. Chicago reported a few up to 6.25 with several loads of highly finished lambs unsold at a late hour.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, Jan. 10. (AP)—Cattle and calf supplies at Fort Worth were moderate. Plain steers, fed yearlings and mixed loads made up the bulk of the cattle supply. Cows and yearlings sold to a fair demand at prices that were steady; lightweight plain quality steers were steady but the demand for heavy cattle was narrow. Calves sold to a better demand at prices that were steady to strong. Some sales higher for the week. Not many stocker cattle included in the day's total and trading was at steady values.

Hogs were mostly 10 lower with some early sales off a little more.

Trading in the sheep yards got away to a very slow start with most classes about steady with Monday's close.

Most classes of dressed meats sold at steady prices on the eastern markets. Supplies were about normal and some small changes were made in beef prices at the different markets. Lamb was a little higher and very little mutton was offered.

Grain

FORT WORTH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, Jan. 10. (AP) — Demand for all commodities continued fair on the Fort Worth cash grain market.

Quotations ranged as follows, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid, delivered Texas Gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points: Wheat, No. 1 hard according to protein and billing 55 1-2@58 1-2; barley No. 2 nominally 31 1-2@32 1-2; No. 3 nominally 30 1-2@31 -2. Sorghums No. 2 milo per 100 lbs. 64@68; Mo. 3 milo 61@65. No. 2 kaffir 57@59; No. 3 kaffir 56@57.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn No. 2 mixed 40@41; No. 2 white or yellow 41@42.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 10. (AP)—Wheat whirled suddenly upward almost 3 cents a bushel today just before the market closed.

Alarmed by an extreme dearth of offerings that indicated a much oversold condition of the speculative wheat pit, flurried traders joined in a wild rush to buy, and stop-loss orders wholesale were forced into execution as values shot upward to 50 cents a bushel or higher for the entire list of future delivery contracts. Forecasts of a cold wave were current that suggested damage to domestic winter wheat, already at the lowest condition since government crop reporting started in 1885.

These prices are furnished by the following Lubbock firms: Poultry Lubbock Poultry and Egg company, delivered Lubbock; Grain—S. E. Cone Grain and Seed company, following prices being bid by Lubbock grain dealers; Cotton, Stocks, Cotton company. All prices subject to change during day.

Legislature

the opening of the legislature on account of illness.

Stevenson won the speakership over A. P. Johnson of Carrizo Springs in a tight fight. The official vote was announced as 82 to 68. Every one of the one hundred and fifty members of the house was present and voting. A close canvass for voters had been conducted by partisans of the two candidates for weeks prior to meeting of the legislature.

Vote By Secret Ballot

While Mrs. Ferguson and her husband had not taken an active hand in the pre-session speakership campaign, persons close to them politically interested themselves in Stevenson's success.

Voting for speaker was by secret ballot. Each member wrote the name of his choice on a piece of paper and as his name was called deposited it in a box placed in the well of the house under guard of six tellers. The ballots were later withdrawn and tallied in presence of the membership.

When the seventy-sixth ballot, representing a majority of the membership, was called for Stevenson, 138 votes had been counted. Members who were doing their own tallying interrupted the proceedings with cheers for the victor but the counting was completed.

Is Made Unanimous

On motion of Johnson the house made Stevenson's election unanimous. He was sworn in by Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, who called the house to order at noon and presided until the speaker was elected and qualified. Mrs. Louise Snow Phinney, chief clerk of the house in three legislatures, and again seeking that assignment, swore in the entire membership, 84 of those who repeated the ancient constitutional oath containing a denial the affiant ever had "fought a duel," having not served in the last legislature.

The senate re-elected Bob Barker, long-time secretary of the upper house, and adjourned after an hour's session, devoted to routine. Both branches adjourned until tomorrow, when the house will complete its organization by the selection of minor offices.

Crowds Are Large

Nestors around the capitol said the throng that jammed both houses and the galleries of the legislative parts of the building and overflowed into corridors and rotundas was probably the largest that ever looked in on a session start.

Hundreds sought appointments as clerks and other places the legislators had to fill. The house, the larger of the two legislative chambers, was choked with men, women and children. Legislators had difficulty finding their desks.

Sergeants-at-arms had difficulty in whipping the assembly into order so the woman secretary of state could be heard as she formally convened the legislature. After hundreds had heeded the command to leave the chamber there still was an unprecedented throng upon the floor. Mrs. McCallum announced that business would proceed without clearing out all visitors. Later, however, just before the speakership election was gone into all except representatives and members of their family were asked by resolution to absent themselves.

"Chesterfields taste Better"

WE HAVE been telling the public for a good many years that Chesterfields taste better. They satisfy!

That wouldn't mean a thing if smokers found out that it wasn't so. Nobody can fool the people very long.

But a great many smokers have smoked Chesterfields for a long time, and they know that they taste right. And so they say to their friends, "If you want a cigarette that really tastes better, try Chesterfields!"

Chesterfields taste better because they are made of mild tobaccos that have been aged for two years. And there is just enough Turkish in them . . . but not too much.

We are sure that you, too, will enjoy their Mildness and Better Taste.

Public Enemy List Is Made

Thirty-Nine Persons Who Call Chicago Home Are Announced As Principal Offenders By Detective Chief

CHICAGO, Jan. 10. (AP)—Chief of Detectives William H. Schoemaker has compiled a new list of 29 persons who call Chicago home, but it's no honor to be numbered among them, for the chief says they're hoodlums whom he considers the city's principal public enemies.

They constitute first rank offenders, he said. Other lists containing several hundred more names of second, third, and fourth rank gangsters are to be announced soon, he said.

Leading the 39 appear the names of Murray Humphries and William (Three Fingered Jack) White of the Capone organization, Schoemaker declared. He named the others as follows:

William (Klondike) O'Donnell "Machine Gun" Jack McGurn, Frank Nitti, Frank Diamond, Joe Saltis, Edward (Spike) O'Donnell, Dan Stanton, Claude Maddox, George (Bugs) Moran, Michael (Bubs) Qinlan, Dan McGeoghegan, Red Bolton, Lawrence (Dago) Mangano, Leo Mungoven, James (Fur) Sammons, Tony (Mops) Volpe Phillip D'Andrea, James Nuzzo, Jack Russo, Paul Ricco, Rocco De Grazio, Rocco Fannelli, Ernie J. Rossi, Frank Pauley, (Tough) Tony Capezio, William Heeney, Sam Hunt, Nicholas Degrazio, Roger Touhy, Roy Marchalk, Vincent McErlane, Martin (Sonny) Quirk, Thomas Touhy.

Filing of the names was a part of the police department's activities in following Mayor Anton J. Cermak's orders to clean up the city before the opening of the world's fair in June.

OVER MILLION CANS

PORTALES, N. M., Jan. 10. (Special)—The Portales Canning factory during 1932 turned out 1,250,000 cans of fruits and vegetables, it was announced. Virtually all of the vegetables were grown in the Portales valley area. Irrigated farms comprise the greater part of the area. The factory is owned locally.

Little Change Is Reported In Condition Of Six Men

HOUSTON, Jan. 10. (AP) — Little change was reported today in the condition of six men burned in an explosion at the Shell refinery on the Houston ship channel.

The most seriously injured was R. L. Thornton, who was burned on the face, hands and body.

The others hurt were S. Mitchell W. E. Dehart, E. F. Kaempner, J. H. O'Burke, and Alphonse Poirrier. All suffered burns.

The accident occurred when three of the men were repairing a leak in a distillate line. The others were watching them. There was a flash, believed to have been caused by fire in a nearby furnace igniting the leak.

Fire Loss In City Heavier

No Change Is Anticipated In City's Fire Insurance Premium Credit Rating, Chief Twitty Declares

Lubbock's fire loss last year was $56,362, D. A. Forbess, fire marshal reported Tuesday. The 1931 loss was $38,508.

No change is anticipated in the city's fire insurance premium credit rating, Fire Chief W. E. Twitty said. The rating, ranging from a 15 per cent penalty to a 15 per cent credit, probably will be announced in February to be effective March 1.

Because of the heavy fire loss of 1930, when destruction of the Temple Ellis and Conley buildings ran the total to about $219,000, Lubbock was taxed a three per cent penalty on premiums in 1931. The good record of that year caused the penalty to be dropped, and neither penalty nor credit was given last year.

The rating is based on the average loss for the three previous years, and this is the last year in which the heavy losses of 1930 will be included in the average. A credit will mean the saving of hundreds of dollars to Lubbock fire insurance policy holders, or a penalty the loss of hundreds of dollars, Chief Twitty pointed out.

The Lubbock fire department answered 148 alarms last year, as compared to 145 in 1931 and 137 in 1930, Cecil Casey, assistant chief, reported. The department laid 34,900 feet of hose during the runs.

The principal fire was in the building at Avenue J and Broadway. Loss was estimated at about $32,000.

Causes of last year's alarms were listed as: Unknown, 34; car fires, 21; grass fires, 11; trash fires, 13; oil stoves, 10; gas stoves, 6; friction, 4; spontaneous combustion, 6; open flames, 2; gasoline, 7; smoking, 9; oil fires, 4; defective flues, 3; false alarms and no fires when alarm answered, 7; incendiary, 4; bomb explosion, 1; over-heated stove, 4; film fire, 1.

Crippled Newsboy Who Sold Papers Here Ready For Home

George Adams, 19-year-old Ardmore, Okla., cripple, who sold newspapers in Lubbock recently, ended his hobo trip by freight trains in Fort Worth Sunday, and yesterday was waiting to be returned to his home.

Adams, crippled since infancy, was found in the Santa Fe railroad yards in Fort Worth with three younger boys, one of them his brother. He declared hoboing was "rotten!" The trip from Ardmore to Lubbock was financed by Adams, who sold pencils, chewing gum, and newspapers. The two younger boys lifted his wheel chair on and off the cars. They were joined by George's younger brother, Earl, 13, at Corsicana, where Earl was living in the Odd Fellows home.

Mrs. H. M. Bryant Buried At Lockney Late Tuesday

LOCKNEY, Jan. 10 (Special) — Funeral services for Mrs. H. M. Bryant, 25, who died Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock of influenza and pneumonia, were conducted by the Rev. C. J. McCarty, Lubobck Baptist minister, at 2 o'clock this afternoon here. Burial was in a Lockney cemetery.

Mrs. Bryant was married last August. Mr. Bryant is manager of a gin here. Besides the widower, survivors are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Carter of Floydada, and an uncle, Tom Carter, of Lubbock.

Total Of 136 Divorce Suits Are Filed In Courts In '32

Lubbock county residents filed 136 divorce suits in 99th and 72nd district courts in 1932, Chas. B. Metcalfe, district court clerk, said Tuesday.

Mr. Metcalfe reported that 86 divorces were granted last year. Both courts drew a total of 447 civil suits in 1932, in addition to a heavy criminal docket.

Plainview Child Is Treated Here For Broken Right Arm

Billie Whiteside, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Whiteside of Plainview, was being treated last night at Lubbock sanitarium for a broken right arm suffered while at play at a Plainview school yesterday.

The child was admitted here for treatment about 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The arm was broken below the elbow.

"I SUFFERED 10 YEARS WITH ITCHING ECZEMA"

". . . and after spending hundreds of dollars to clear it up, I tried Zemo and got relief," writes G. C. G. of Texas. Soothing and cooling, Zemo relieves itching in five seconds because of its rare ingredients not used in other remedies. Also wonderful for clearing Rash, Pimples, Ringworm and other irritations. Zemo is worth the price because you get relief. All druggists', 35c, 60c, $1. (Adv).

NEWS BRIEFS

E. Wilson of Teague is visiting his son, Vaughn E. Wilson, Lubbock county attorney, and Mrs. Wilson of 1920 Seventeenth street.

A juvenile, charged with theft of $117 in a complaint filed in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court, was released on his own recognizance Tuesday by Peace Justice Connell. The youth's parents agreed to appear before a grand jury Feb. 6.

Civil cases docketed for the first six weeks of the current term of 99th district court were announced yesterday. Judge Clark M. Mullican has set 50 cases, or more than an average of eight a week, for trial during that period. The second week, beginning Monday, which has been set aside for criminal practice, has five civil suits docketed for call.

Some Lubbock thief evidently believes that the best place to hide is in a crowd. As a consequence, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stevens are minus one spare wheel and tire from their car. Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Stevens parked her car in front of a local shoe store and attended the Twentieth Century club meeting at Hotel Lubbock. About five o'clock when she returned to her car, the wheel and tire were missing.

Dr. C. C. Selecman, who will address a prohibition mass meeting at the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock tonight, will discuss some phase of the dry-wet controversy 15 minutes over radio station KFYO this afternoon, beginning at 1:15 o'clock.

A trash fire at the rear of a garage and filling station at 1501 Avenue Q resulted about 8:45 o'clock last night in a run by Lubbock fire department members. There was no damage.

CARRY SPARE AIR

Many German automobiles are carrying small tanks of carbon dioxide to take the place of tire pumps. In case of a flat tire, the tanks are used to inflate it after it is fixed.

Knapp To Speak At Dallas Today

"Some Lessons From The Depression" will be the subject of an address by Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological college, at a banquet session of the Texas Agricultural Workers association at the Adolphus hotel in Dallas tonight. Dr. Knapp and Dean A. H. Leidigh of the school of agriculture left for Dallas to attend the association's annual meeting there today.

Lubbock is extending an invitation to the association and to the Texas Jersey Cattle club to hold their next conventions here. W. L. Stangel, Garnet Reeves and Don L. Jones went to Dallas Monday night to attend sessions of the Jersey cattle club Tuesday.

R. E. Dickson, manager of the state experiment station at Spur, is also aiding in extending Lubbock's invitation for the conventions.

World Conditions Talked By Lions

"We have a habit of killing our presidents," Dr. W. A. Jackson, head of the government department of Texas Technological college, told Lubbock Lions club members at luncheon Tuesday at Hotel Lubbock. The department head spoke informally of world conditions and the trend of centralizing government in the United States.

"The continued operation of our government depends not on centralization but the turning back to the state powers taken from them," he declared. "Through a system of subsidies the United States has taken over powers formerly exercised by the states. We have done away with our big men by placing them in impossible positions, creating countless departments of government, bureaus and commissions for the president to worry about."

George Slover gave two vocal selections prior to Dr. Jackson's talk. He was accompanied by Willette Merrel at the piano. Jim Wilson of Floydada was an out-of-town guest.

The city of Tiahuanaco, Bolivia, is thought to antedate even Ur and the ancient pyramids.

Mrs. E. A. Gale Is Buried In Scurry County Tuesday

SNYDER, Jan. 10 (Special)—Mrs. E. A. The Rev. W. M. Turner, the pastor, conducted the service. The body was taken over land by Foster funeral home to Ira.

WINTER PLOTS A WICKED CRIME

THE VICTIMS: Those Motors Using Ordinary Oil that Drains Away from Heated Working Surfaces.

THE TIME: Those Cold Starting Minutes While Precious Motor Parts Must Run Dry at Warming Speed Until Oil Is Pumped from Below.

GET THE "hidden quart in time" *

THE QUART THAT STAYS UP IN YOUR MOTOR AND NEVER DRAINS AWAY

*The Germ Process (exclusive Conoco patent) imparts to this motor oil that peculiar ability to penetrate and combine with metal surfaces. Of the first filling about one quart will "hide" itself up in your motor's precious working parts. This hidden quart n-e-v-e-r drains away. It becomes a part of the motor itself; worth its weight in gold.

CONOCO

The One Oil that Gives You Perfect Protection for Winter's Worst Days Ahead

Drip! trickle! drip! through long night hours, ordinary oil drains away. When the pump quits, ordinary oil quits, leaving the motor's parts high and dry. You touch the starter. The motor roars. The pump strains at the sluggish oil. It is only a few minutes till circulation is completed. But in the meantime, working surfaces only partly lubricated are in contact, while the motor makes three to five thousand revolutions. This causes 50% of all motor wear.

Prevent this loss. Choose not merely a quick oil, but an oil that never leaves. Choose the oil with the *hidden quart that penetrates and combines with the metal surfaces of the motor itself. In the emergency of an empty crankcase, users have driven many miles, without damage, on this *hidden quart alone. This proves that your motor need never suffer while waiting upon the pump. Don't remain in doubt. Drain and refill with the *hidden quart oil today.

New Home Farmer Suffers Wounds As Result Of Knife Affray On Tuesday

J. T. BALCH, 30, a truck operator and farmer of New Home, was in Lubbock sanitarium last night suffering of five knife wounds inflicted about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at New Home. A cotton picker, about 45 years old, who had been employed to gather Balch's cotton crop, was held at Tahoka in connection with the knifing.

Sanitarium attaches said Balch's condition was not regarded as serious. He was slashed twice on the right thigh, twice on the left leg, and stabbed once in the back.

Balch last night said he and the cotton picker had been discussing settlement of a $9 cotton picking debt in a New Home store. Balch said he insisted the other's family complete the cotton picking before a settlement, Balch declaring he had hired the other man last August to gather the entire crop. Both stepped outside the building, and according to the wounded man, the other drew a maize knife.

"I ran about 100 yards in the street before my left leg, which has been broken three times, gave way," Balch said. "I fell then, and while I was trying to keep him away he cut me."

County Commissioner J. H. Ward of Lynn county brought Balch to Lubbock. The wounded man bled considerably. Balch has a wife and an 8-year-old daughter. The man held is married and has six children.

Two Plays Given Here On Tuesday

"The Merchant of Venice" and "Macbeth" were presented in matinee and night performances, respectively, by the Hendrickson-Bruce Shakespearian company Tuesday in Lubbock High school auditorium. Although not a part of the Texas Technological college artists course bookings, the Shakespearian dramas were given under auspices of the course.

The line, "'Tis the attempt, not the deed, which confounds us," might aptly have applied to the presentation of "Macbeth," which was mediocre except for perhaps two scenes and intermittent excellencies in the portrayals of Macbeth, Lady Macbeth, and one or two lesser roles. The only member of the cast who seemed to shed the consciousness of acting and become another throughout was the fellow who was the churlish porter at the castle of Macbeth.

The three witches proved supernatural enough . . . supernatural enough to make themselves understood by the audience only rarely.

But, as Lady Macbeth counseled, "Things without remedy should be without regard."
