That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says one of the quickest ways to meet new people is to pick up the wrong ball on the golf course.

No form of weakness is more abominable than the abuse of authority.—Doug Meador

WHY HASN'T the United Way reached its goal in Deaf Smith County? If you check around the community, you can find a number of excuses—especially from those who found an excuse for not giving! These people will usually find fault with one or more of the agencies in the United Way, or they'll put the blame on one or more of the volunteer leaders of the United Way. People who try to help in the campaign each year have heard most of the excuses. "I would give but, the Red Cross is one of the agencies and I heard they charged servicemen for coffee and donuts back in World War I. . . . but, too much money is spent for salaries in one of the agencies. . . . but, the workers are trying to twist my arm and I don't appreciate that. . . ." and on, and on, ad nauseam.

And, it's sheer nonsense to criticize people who are doing more than their share, working in the community effort and receiving absolutely nothing except a feeling of accomplishment, or possibly a feeling of frustration in not being able to get enough cooperation from their fellow citizens in attaining that elusive goal.

Our hats are off to the volunteer workers in the United Way campaign. We appreciate their unselfish attitude and their service to this county and community.

The answer is obvious to us. "Thanks to _____, it's working, the United Way." If you can't put your name in the blank space, then you're part of the problem.

SOME TIME BACK H.M. Baggary, publisher of the Tulsa Herald, wrote the following column about "taxflation" that is hurting everyone.

A term we don't hear much about these days is "taxflation." Most people with their built-in "cost of living" clauses don't worry much about inflation. So the cost of living goes up seven percent, so what? They feel that their income will go up by an equal amount.

This applies to U.S. Steel who passes on its costs as well as to laborers, merchants, teachers, federal workers, you name it!

Not taken into consideration is what is known as "bracket creep." It happens when inflation pushes people into higher and higher tax brackets while their spending power stays the same or even declines.

Take a family of four with an annual income of $10,000. Right now, that family is paying about 10 percent in federal income taxes.

But if inflation causes prices to rise at, say, seven percent a year in the coming decade, that family will have to take in some $20,000 in 1987 just to keep up with

Commissioners OK Increase For Municipal Electricity Rate

By PAUL SIMS
Managing Editor

The Hereford City Commission agreed Monday to pay a 9.42 percent rate increase proposed by Southwestern Public Service for municipal electrical power.

Commissioners met Monday night in regular session to take the action, which affects things like booster pumps and electricity for City Hall and not Hereford residents and businesses.

Taxpayers, according to City Manager Dudley Bayne, will later bear the cost of the increase, however.

"They'll have to, but not any time soon. We don't expect any immediate increase in water rates."

Commissioners turned down the original SPS proposal to accept a 9.42 percent increase for its next fiscal year and hikes of 8.28 and 1.94 percent, respectively for the following two years.

The commission instead agreed to pay the 9.42 percent increase beginning on May 1, 1978, the start of the fiscal year, then act later on another increase.

A total bid of $47,333 submitted by Reed Ditching of Amarillo was accepted by commissioners for construction of water and sewer lines to serve the new Chaparral Addition.

WASHINGTON (AP) - A small rise in foods costs held the overall rise in consumer prices to 0.3 percent in October for the third consecutive month, the government reported today.

The relatively small rate of increase, about 3.6 percent at an annual rate, reflected the declines in wholesale farm prices last summer that have continued to exert a moderating effect on retail food prices.

Grocery prices rose only 0.1 percent in October, the same as in September, and have been largely responsible for bringing down the nation's inflation rate since mid-year. Food costs comprise about one-fourth of the Consumer Price Index.

Consumer prices have risen at an annual rate of only 3.8 percent over the past three months. This a marked improvement over the 10 percent rate during the first three months of the year, when the effects of cold weather and fuel shortages pushed up the price of food and other goods at a rapid pace.

Wholesale farm prices had fallen nearly 13 percent in May through September before jumping 2.4 percent last month.

However, government economists said not all of the decline had been reflected at the retail level and predicted that processors and other middlemen would be able to absorb some of the October increase in wholesale prices.

In October, the Labor Department said, the Consumer Price Index stood at 184.5, meaning that a marketbasket of goods and services selling for $100 in the 1967 base period now costs $184.50.

The index also showed that consumer prices in October were 6.5 percent higher than those of a year ago.

The purchasing power of the average worker's paycheck increased 1.1 percent last month, the largest gain this year. The government said this was due to a 1.3 percent increase in average hourly earnings combined with a 0.3 percent rise in the work week, which more than offset the pace of inflation last month.

Over the year, real earnings - take-home pay adjusted for inflation and taxes - have increased 4.6 percent. The over-the-year gain was due largely to the increase in the federal tax deduction that reduced withholding taxes in June.

Non-food prices also continued to moderate last month, rising by only 0.3 percent, about the same as in the four previous months. This came despite the fact that higher prices for the new 1978

United Way Drive Finishes 34% Short

This year's Deaf Smith County United Way Drive officially ended today after collecting $2,400 Saturday in the garage sale at Pratt Chevrolet-Olds.

For the second year in a row the drive failed to meet its total goal, collecting a total of $65,357.46, which is approximately 66 percent of its goal of $98,400.

Although the official campaign is over, the United Way will continue to accept contributions, according to David Pruitt, UW president.

"We'll be taking contributions and there will be contributions sifting in, I guess, for several more weeks or even months."

"We certainly want to encourage any of those who felt like they haven't had the opportunity to give or haven't been financially capable to give to still participate."

Additional contributions will not be included in the official total.

Pruitt, who said he was pleased that the drive earned almost as much as last year despite economic conditions in a some state, is disappointed that the goal was not met.

"I guess we owe an apology to the recipients of this money. . . the kids and the participating agencies. These agencies are going to have to go out and cut their programs or hustle up something in excess of $35,000 to continue with the programs they had planned on having this year."

"We owe a big thank you to all the people that have worked with us and participated and have given their time."

Concorde Jet Lands

NEW YORK (AP) - French and British Concorde jets each carrying 100 passengers landed at Kennedy Airport today, bringing commercial aviation here into the supersonic age and signaling another defeat for those who had vowed to bar the fast but noisy plane.

Under gray skies, the swept-wing jets carrying crews of nine and capacity loads set down on runway 31 Right just 3½ hours after leaving Paris and London on their first regularly scheduled flights on the lucrative New York run. The French craft landed at 8:50 a.m. EST, followed about two minutes later by the British.

Both flew at a cruising speed of 1,340 miles per hour across the 3,500 miles in ocean, beating the sun across the Atlantic.

"This means Concorde has made its biggest breakthrough yet," said Norman Lornie, spokesman for British Airways.

"This is a prime airline business market. London and New York are the two business capitals of the Western world."

A small band of pickets was on hand from various anti-SST groups, but their protests have diminished considerably since the first test landings of the plane

And the people who donated, their contributions have really helped. The news media and George Pratt, we owe them a big thank you, too."

Pruitt said that division leaders, majors and workers "really hustled."

"When you consider everything we did, we'll be raised nearly 67 percent of our goal. And when you consider last year, there wasn't anything like the financial crunch on our economy that we had this year. We raised nearly as much money as we did last year."

Division leaders included Nicks Fariss, B.F. Cain, Ron Welty, Dean Herring, Buddy Peeler, Clue Sims, Jonny Cloud, Lee Umsted, Cleo Corlis, Mike Carr and Chuck Cosper.

Jim Arney was campaign chairman; Calvin Jones, UW vice-president; Helen Rose, treasurer, and Gayle Cotten, secretary.

Pruitt expressed optimism towards next year's drive.

"Things are going to be better. It's going to take some hard work to reverse some trends that have taken place, but I'm confident we can make this thing work next year."

Thanksgiving Service Set

The Hereford Pastors Assn. will again sponsor the annual Union Thanksgiving Service at 7:30 p.m. in the First Assembly of God, 606 E. 15th, according to The Rev. Jordan Grooms, a member of the service's planning committee.

Rev. Grooms is the pastor of the First Methodist Church United.

"We'll have all Christian people participating to give thanks," Rev. Groom said, adding that members of all Hereford churches and other persons in the community are invited to the service.

Father Jose Gilligan of the San Jose Mission will speak. Music director will be Ray Owens of the First Christian Church, who will lead a choir composed of singers from numerous churches.

There also will be other special music during the affair.

Blood Mobile To Visit City

The Clyde Memorial Blood Mobile will be in Hereford from 3-6 p.m. Wednesday at the Community Center.

Hereford residents are reminded that one pint of blood gives in a particular family's name will insure the immediate family for blood for a year.

Seventy-three pints of blood have been used by Hereford resident Ernest Arnes. The Kenneth Goetz fund has not yet been completed, with his account still lacking 30 pints.

Blood is also needed for the account of Joe Rodgers.

Fish Lauds Scouting, Football For Youth Training

By O.G. NIEMAN
Publisher-Editor

The benefits of Scouting and football may not be outlined in the Bible, but Bury! Fish of Hereford sees a number of unique comparisons to these youth programs and a Christian life.

Fish places much importance on all youth programs that teach a "positive attitude," but his favorites are Scouting and athletics because these are the two areas in which his family became interested.

With some parents intent on "doing their own thing," Fish believes that some youth programs with positive adult guidance offer the last chance for a youth to learn discipline, leadership, hard work, how to follow instructions and, most importantly, to love one another.

A resident of Hereford since 1946, Fish farms about seven miles east of town and resides with his family at 103 Centre. They are members of the First Christian Church here. The 43-year-old farmer is a native of Pampa, moving here when his father started an irrigation well-drilling business. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Fish still reside in Hereford, too.

Fish and his wife, Ruth, have four children—David, 20; Jim, 17; Robbie, 15; and Sarah, 9. When his sons became interested in Scouting, Fish supported the program and has now been an active volunteer worker for about seven years.

"I think Scouting offers one of the finest programs available for developing high moral leadership," says Fish. "The proof is in the pudding. Many of our community leaders—not to mention those around the nation—are former Scouts. The program offers great fellowship and teaches a youth to be self sufficient.

Fish says the local Scouting program "could easily double in size if enough adults would take time to support the program." He adds that "the biggest problem in most youth programs is that adults are not willing to give their time in supporting the program—or they have negative attitudes when things are not going to suit them."

In sports programs, Fish thinks each sport has its own unique contributions. His favorite is football, where son Jim has been an outstanding Whiteface griddle the past few years. "Football challenges a boy to give his utmost in mind, body and spirit. He must totally release himself into the game and, hopefully, this will carry over into other aspects of life."

And, Fish relates the team work of football to the teachings of Jesus. "Oneness of spirit is what ever coach

Longview Policeman Killed after Robberies

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP) — A Longview policeman was shot to death early this morning following two robberies in this East Texas city. He had stopped a car for investigation.

Later, police in Gilmer, north of Longview, pulled over a car and arrested two persons. One was a woman who was shot by a police officer after she came out of the car with a weapon.

The woman, shot once with a shotgun, was reported in critical condition at a Longview hospital.

Longview police spokesman Sgt. Leon Carpenter said officer Marshall Sowers was killed shortly after midnight when he stopped a car with three persons in it. The car had been seen leaving the scene of a robbery.

Carpenter said apparently one of the three persons came out of the car and shot the officer. Sowers, who had been with the force three months, was dead at the scene.

Police said the man got out of the vehicle and was told to stand against it. At that point, the woman came out with a gun and was shot.

Police said the third suspect was believed to have left the car before reaching Gilmer.

Egyptian Propoganda Supports Sadat Trip

CAIRO (AP) — The Egyptian government is mounting a propaganda campaign in support of President Anwar Sadat's visit to Israel as his Arab foes step up their attacks on him.

The charges of treason to the Arab cause from Syria, Iraq, Libya and the Palestinians prompted Sudanese President Jaafar Numairi, bound to Egypt by a defense treaty, to announce he was coming to Cairo today to "congratulate" the Egyptian leader.

An Egyptian government spokesman said Sadat's visit to Jerusalem was the most successful trip he had ever taken because "hostilities of the past 30 years have been ended in 30 hours."

He told the official Middle East News Agency the first public visit by an Arab leader to the Jewish nation succeeded "100 percent" in laying the groundwork for a new Arab-Israeli peace conference in Geneva.

Pneumonia Vaccine Could Save Lives

WASHINGTON (AP) — Researchers who have developed a vaccine against several strains of pneumonia that kill thousands yearly are now trying to protect young children from a serious ear infection often caused by the same bacteria.

The inflammation of the middle ear, known as otitis media, is the most frequently diagnosed childhood disease after the common cold. It strikes 2 percent of all children by age 2 and 75 percent by age 6.

The new vaccine, licensed Monday by the Food and Drug Administration, could save many of the 25,000 lives lost to pneumonia each year in the United States, its manufacturer says. It's development also may be crucial in fighting the children's disease.

Dr. Maurice Hillman, who directed the work on the vaccine, Pneumovax, at Merck Sharp & Dohme's West Point, Pa., laboratories, said researchers may know within a year to 18 months whether a vaccine can be used to safeguard babies against the ear infection.

President To Stop Ugandan Training

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration is asking firms training

Ugandan pilots in the United States to voluntarily halt the sessions.

Hodding Carter III, the chief State Department spokesman, said Monday this would be faster than revoking the Ugandans' visas, a process that "takes longer than the training itself."

Carter said the training, believed to involve several dozen Ugandans at various sites, is scheduled to end by the close of the year.

He identified training sites as two aviation schools in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, Oak Grove and ACME; and the Lycoming Division of AVCO in Connecticut.

The spokesman said a dozen Ugandan pilots had been taking a refresher course at the Bell Helicopter School in Fort Worth. It ended last Friday.

Police Report

Hereford police investigated a vandalism report at Veteran's Park this morning.

According to police reports, somebody kicked in three restroom doors in the city recreation pavilion at the park Monday night or early today. No estimate on the damage available.

Police investigated two minor traffic accidents Monday—at 8:33 a.m. in the 400 block of N. Main and at 11:22 a.m. in the 100 block of Grand.

Vernon Hope, HPD detective, reported that the police have five or six bicycles at the station and said that their owners may claim them through identification.

The bicycles will be auctioned off should nobody claim them.

What's New and What's Next?

Not everything costs more. Mass production and competition still cooperate to benefit the consumer.

In 1941 the first ballpoint pens cost $41. Within 18 months that price was down to 88 cents.

The first digital watches cost $500. Within 24 months digital watches—improved over earlier models—were available for $27.

Now wait'll you see what's next in computers!

There is a home-size computer available for this Christmas that will wake you up in the morning, switch on your shower, warm your coffee. While you have breakfast it will flash on a screen for your perusal the day's agenda.

After you leave for work the computer will monitor the heat in the house, watch for seepage in the basement, telephone you in case of fire and the police in case of break-in.

Your computer will catalog your recipe file for instant replay, help you balance your checkbook, perfect your bridge strategy, remind you of appointments and birthdays. It can be programmed to order groceries and gather by telephone for your personal computerized research materials from a data bank or the public library.

This is not some futuristic device for the year 2000; a home-size computer capable of all these chores and more is available and adaptable now.

If the initial cost is presently prohibitive, so was the initial cost of a digital watch.

Recently a hundred computer firms, large and small, demonstrated their newest in Chicago. Any visitor was left wide-eyed but convinced that the age of the computer has begun and that it will be altogether as exciting as was the innovation of television 30 years ago.

With the world "speeding up", as we frequently complain, science is providing a means of keeping up with the speedup by a computer that is roughly one million times as fast as a human.

It is not altogether as simple as I have made it sound. For a computer to perform the functions I have mentioned it must be programmed for your purposes. No computer can compute when your house is being robbed without the installation of sophisticated and expensive proximity sensors at all doors and windows. To compute your taxes, somebody has to feed into the device the latest tax laws.

But these changing tax laws will doubtless become available on miniature cartridge tapes.

One telemetry system displayed is capable of 250,000 calculations a second and retails for $1,070.

The first pocket calculators cost hundreds of dollars, but within two years were available for less than $20. The home computer—after we first get acquainted with them in the form of TV attachment games—will be included as routinely in new home construction as the room-to-room stereo presently is.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

A group of twenty-six men and women from Hereford attended the Pro-Family Rally. This rally will go down in History as the first of this sort.

We departed Hereford Nov. 18 a little apprehensive because of the publicity of violence that might occur that weekend. We just left knowing a job had to be done and someone had to do it.

We all agreed it was the most inspiring event we had ever the privilege of attending. It's hard to express the feelings we had to be among more than 15,000 Christian men, women, and children with the same objective, that being to let it be known that IWY (International Womens Year) does not speak for us, and to save our families from the immoralities that the IWY hopes to have legislated.

The Pro-Family Rally began Saturday, Nov. 19 at the Astro Arena in Houston. The astro arena was over flowing and thousands were outside. The program began with the Invocation by Dr. Paige Patterson of Dallas, associate pastor of First Baptist Church. The Pledge of Allegiance to our flag followed and then we sang the National Anthem.

The spirit of the rally was enormous. Every state and their pleas to condemn abortion, ERA, and homosexuality. Many women wore, name tags that stated "I'm a housewife and proud of it."

The Hereford group proudly carried the banner "Texas Panhandle supports farmers, not lesbians."

We were welcomed to Houston by the former mayor Louie Welch.

The speakers were outstanding. Speakers included State Senator Walter Mengden, Elizabeth Elliot, author of "Let Me Be a Woman," and Nellie Gray, attorney and president of March for Life.

Other speakers included Phyllis Scherfly, mother of six children and president of Stop-ERA and Eagle Forum. Also, Dr. Mildred Jefferson, Boston, Mass., physician, surgeon and president of Right to Life, spoke.

State Rep. Clay Smothers of Dallas' speech was interrupted throughout with applause and cheering. He said, "I don't stand here as a black man but as a human being. I have enough civil rights to choke a hungry goat." Smothers added, "I ask for public rights. I ask for victory over pervers in the United States. I want a United States strong in morals."

Congressman Robert K. Dorman of California stated that the Pro-Family Rally was the most positive group he's encountered in his life.

Anita Bryant who was unable to attend sent a special filmed message to all those attending the Pro-Life Rally.

We then passed long overdue resolutions as follows:

(1) A Human Life Amendment to protect all persons born and pre-born from conception.

(2) For pre-school child development programs to be controlled by private sector giving parents freedom of choice over the physical and philosophical environment of their children.

(3) Opposition of the Equal Rights Amendments.

(4) That homosexuality, lesbianism or prostitution shall not be taught, glorified, or otherwise promoted as acceptable through the laws of society, through the adoption of children, or within institutions such as our schools.

The resolutions that would go to President Carter were in the hundred of thousands and not all had been counted at the end of the day. Resolutions came as far away as New England, Saudi Arabia, Iran, West Indies, Yugoslavia and Venezuela.

It was significant that the Pro-Family Rally had no support from the government. The opposing side IWY was given $5,000,000 tax dollars to put on their show. The supporters of Pro-Family came on their own money.

We came home tired and exhausted but with a bubbling spirit from inside. Our only regret was that if only all could have experienced what we had, which is something that is hard to express in words.

This is just the beginning of a long sixteen months of letter writing to our president and congressmen. We will anxiously await a victory for March 22, 1979. It will not be easy but we know the Lords work was not promised to be easy. Many sacrifices will be needed. All Christians will have to work together to keep our families together.

Many families were at the Pro-Family Rally but most were women whose husbands stayed at home to babysit so their wives could attend the rally and let America really hear what the women of America really want as well as their families, and that is good morals.

Thank God, I was there. Nadine Berend Rt. 5, Hereford.

[Editor's note: The other delegates to the Pro-Family conference in Houston wish to add their support to the feelings expressed by Mrs. Berend in the above letter.]

Opponents Of NWC Speak Out

HOUSTON (AP) — Thousands of opponents protested the National Women's Conference on Saturday chanting slogans against abortion, gay rights and the Equal Rights Amendment.

Men and children as well as women participated in the rally at Houston's Astro Arena, insisting that they - not the delegates to the federally financed conference - represented the true thinking of American women.

"Women's libbers. Follow Jesus Christ and Your Husband and Your Pastor. Repent," one of their signs read.

"Bella's Bunch Get a Free Lunch Compliments of the U.S. Taxpayers," said another. The reference was to Bella Abzug, former congresswoman who is presiding officer of the Commission on the Observance of International Women's Year, which is conducting the conference.

"I don't want my wife and my daughter to be equal," asserted Lee Goodman of Dallas amid cheers from the crowd. "I want them to be ladies."

Five miles away, the conference was formulating recommendations on how women can achieve equality in the United States.

Opponents of the conference filled the 8,500 seat Astro Arena to overflowing. The counter rally was organized by a "pro family pro-life coalition" which is affiliated with Stop ERA, the National Right to Life Coalition, March for Life, Eagle Forum and other conservative groups.

Lottie Beth Hobbs, an organizer of the rally who is from Dallas, said the coalition's financial support is "coming just from a dollar here, a dollar there, from all over the United States."

Supporters joined the coalition for various reasons. Most objected to one or more of the recommendations on the conference agenda. The recommendations the conference approved will be submitted to the president and Congress.

the cost of living.

Not only will it not be any better off in terms of what its $20,000 will buy, it will be much worse off at a tax time. For without having added one dollar to its spending power, the family's income tax will be 15 percent, not ten.

A family of four earning $20,000 a year today — and paying 15 percent in income taxes — will be hit even harder. As inflation doubles the cost of living in ten years, the family's income, if it doubles as well, will be taxed at 25 percent!

Poor working people are hit hardest of all. A family that makes $5,000 this year actually gets $400 in "earned income credit" from IRS. In ten years, it will be paying around ten percent, even if its

The reason is that the tax brackets are totally insensitive to inflation. In 1964, when the tax brackets were set, inflation wasn't much of a problem.

Today, taxation costs taxpayers $5 billion a year over what they would pay if the system had been inflation-proof.

addition between La Plata Drive and 15th.

The bid included $27,670 for sewer costs and $19,663 for water. It was the lowest of four bids considered by commissioners.

The Amarillo firm also submitted the lowest estimate on number of days to complete the project — 50.

Commissioners also approved the construction of a sewer main collector line in the northwest part of town in the vicinity of Plains and Kingwood. Rapid growth and construction in that portion of Hereford have necessitated the construction, according to Bayne.

A storm sewer at Greenwood and Westhaven will be constructed at a cost approximately $18,000 after action Monday by commissioners. The sewer will tie into the main storm sewer on W. Park.

"We're getting too much water around there," Bayne said. "It's coming from all the building out there and it flows down Westhaven. It's a bad situation."

Commissioners on second reading approved the amended electrical franchise to allow SPS to provide electricity for the city. The franchise will take effect after commissioners read it for the third time in their next meeting, according to the city charter.

The money will be paid to the state through the Texas Employment Commission.

A matter of airport zoning was tabled by commissioners until their next meeting Dec. 5.

model cars were introduced into the index for the first time in October.

The Labor Department said the new-car index rose 0.6 percent. However, used car prices fell 2.1 percent.

Prices for gasoline and motor oil jumped 1.4 percent last month, considerably more than each of the preceding two months. Clothing prices also rose in October following a decline in September, and prices for tobacco products continued to rise sharply.

The cost of services, including rent and utility rates, rose 0.4 percent in October, compared with increases of 0.5 percent in both September and August and monthly increases averaging 0.8 percent earlier in the year.

Charges for electricity declined slightly last month but natural gas costs rose sharply, the government said. Rents increased 0.4 percent, while the cost for medical care rose 0.7 percent.

Among food prices, there were declines for sugar, cereal and bakery products, ground coffee, eggs, dairy products and pork.

Fresh vegetable prices also declined last month following a sharp rise in September. Prices for fresh fruits turned up in October. Poultry prices increased after declining for four months and the price of beef rose for the second consecutive month.

The administration has forecast an inflation rate of about 6 percent for the year, compared to a rate of 4.8 percent in 1976.

Food prices, which rose 3.1 percent last year, are expected to increase about 6.5 percent this year. A slightly lower rate is predicted for 1978 by the Agriculture Department.

Earlier this year, food prices were partly responsible for an annual inflation rate of 10 percent in the first quarter. The inflation rate fell to about 8 percent in the second quarter, and to 4.2 percent in the July-September period.

The slowing of inflation during the third quarter has been one of the few bright spots in the nation's economic picture, which has been the unemployment rate persist at about 7 percent since April with a marked slowdown in the rate of economic growth.

The Consumer Price Index is based on a monthly nationwide survey of about 400 items selected to represent the movement of prices of all goods and services purchased by urban wage earners.

exuberant about the inaugural flights. "Morning, New York" reads a breezy greeting from British Airways in full-page newspaper advertisements today in London.

Air France ads in the British press announced "Concorde aujourd'hui" Concorde today — and showed the SST flying over the New York skyline and the Statue of Liberty.

Concorde

proved less noisy than many residents of nearby areas had feared.

The flights marked the effective end of a 20-month court battle to keep the Concorde from using John F. Kennedy International Airport, whose neighbors claim noise from the supersonic jet is louder than that from regular jets.

Demonstrators had jammed the airport several times during the ban by snarling traffic with slow-moving cars.

Regular Concorde passenger service between Europe and Washington's Dulles International Airport had started in May 1976.

Today's twin landings — coincidentally coming exactly 14 years after the assassination of the president for whom the airport is named — were a finely timed operation worked out for the 3,500-mile route over the Atlantic.

Ann Landers Check Cashing Confusing

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have a very expensive problem. I was given a personal check for $200 by a friend and tried to cash it at my company's commercial bank with my check cashing card. I was turned down because I have no account with them.

I then went to a branch of the bank, near my office, where my friend's checking account is held. I was turned down again because I have no account with them. I was sent to the main branch in which the actual checking account is held. Again, I was turned down for the same reason.

One of the bank officers suggested that I go to the check-cashing service. I visited three offices and was told each time that NO check-cashing service will cash a personal check.

Ann, please tell me what to do with this check? My friend is out of town and will be for several weeks. In the meantime, I am broke in Brooklyn.

DEAR BROKE: I consulted with one of the country's top executives, who is based in New York. He asked someone in his organization to review your dilemma with officers at Citibank, Manufacturers Hanover, Chemical and Chase Manhattan. (P.S. For a 13 cent stamp you are receiving the benefit of some very classy talent.) His response is as follows:

Banks have been suffering large losses of late because of increased sophistication in the use of forged identification. They are, therefore, adopting much tougher standards for cashing checks to accommodate people not known personally to them.

Your best bet is to deposit the personal check in your own checking or savings account, allow for sufficient time for that check to clear and then draw on it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My beloved husband died recently. He was seven years younger than I. This did not bother us in the slightest, but his family never knew. My family thought there was only a three-year difference.

I must order a headstone soon. The plot next to him will be mine. I realize it's terrible to lie on a headstone, but if my husband were here he'd say,

"Go ahead". What should I do? --Mrs. X.

DEAR MRS. X: One thing you could do is write a more believable letter. Surely it isn't reasonable for you to add four years to your deceased husband's age. His family knows how old he is. It's YOUR age they don't know. The lying would take place on your headstone--not his.

DEAR ANN: Our 14-year-old daughter is furious with her father. Is she justified?

Mary's boyfriend, Tom, telephoned an hour ago. Her father answered and told the young man that Mary was in the bathtub. He asked Tom to call later. Mary claims it was vulgar, crude and gross to have mentioned the bathtub. Now she says she can't face him. Your opinion will be the last word.--Arbitrator

DEAR ARB: It should come as no surprise to Mary's boyfriend that she bathes. However, I agree with your daughter that it is not essential to give everyone who phones a detailed account as to why the person wanted cannot come to the phone. But--Mary should not be so hard on her ol' dad.

Replanting Lawn

Work being rushed to get the former E.B. Black home ready for opening to the public soon, includes work on the yard. A sprinkler system is being installed to water a lawn, and this week Twig Rose and George Turrentine supplied tractors to plow the yard. Exterior repair is complete and the inside is being renovated and redecorated. The turn-of-the-century house built and occupied for years by members of the E.B. Black family, was given to Deaf Smith County last year by Mrs. Prudie Black to be used as an adjunct to the County Historical Museum. (Brand photo by Dianne Banner).

Police Search for Killer Of Dallas Baptist Preacher

DALLAS (AP)—There were services Sunday at the small First Baptist Church in East Dallas. Police were still looking for the man who killed the pastor, the Rev. Deima J. Price, whose body was found in the church's meeting room.

Price, 69, who was described by his daughter, as a "humble kind of man" had been shot once in the upper chest. Police said his wallet was missing and furniture in the meeting room was a strewn, indicating there had been a struggle.

"We have had a little trouble before with people breaking into church, trying to steal a piano and things," said Mrs. Lucille Price, the pastor's widow. "Somebody just wanted some money to buy dope."

Prices body was found shortly before midnight Saturday by police after they received a report from a woman who said she was walking by the church in a residential area of East Dallas at about 8:30 p.m. when she noticed the lights were on and a door was open and Price's pickup truck was parked outside the church.

Price and his family had moved to Dallas from Tyler 13 years ago. Earlier he had served as pastor of a congregation in Allen.

The congregation has approximately 150 members.

Flynt Says He's Got Religion

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP)—Hustler magazine publisher Larry Flynt says he's seen the light and will turn his girlie magazine away from nudity and sex and toward religion - and it's all due to President Carter's faith-healer sister.

Flynt, 41, and his wife, Althea, were surprise guests of Ruth Carter Stapleton at a Sunday night revival at the Independent Church of Castle Hills.

Mrs. Stapleton said Flynt's first admission that he accepted Christ came in a telephone call from the outspoken publisher Friday night in San Antonio. Flynt was in the Alamo City on Thursday to testify before a state legislative committee on child pornography.

During an impromptu interview at San Antonio International Airport before the church service, Flynt said he planned to change the magazine and would incorporate religious articles.

"We won't be discriminating toward women and we're going to deal with different topics," he said. "If we do deal with sex, it'll be promoting a healthy attitude toward sex rather than a perverted one."

Marsh Wins Draw; Claims First Place

Karen Marsh was the recipient of a little luck to go along with her prediction prowess this week to win first place in the 12th week of the Brand's Football Contest. Marsh won the top prize in a drawing with two other entrants, who also missed the same number of games on the list last week, six.

Albert Hartman's name was drawn for second place, while Jeri Bezner placed third due to the luck of the draw. The drawing for the top places was necessary this week due to a misprint in the tie-breaker game in the contest.

Marsh thus wins the top prize of $25, while Hartman claimed the $15 second-place money, and Bezner $10 for third.

The final edition of the contest runs in today's issue of the Brand. The season winner will be announced sometime next week following a check and recheck of the tabulation of misses for all entrants who entered the required 11 of 13 weeks.

Football contest entries are due at the Brand office by 5 p.m. Friday.

'Faces Visit Former Coach

The Hereford Whitefaces, fresh off a 69-64 thumping of rival Canyon, travel to Amarillo tonight for a reunion of sorts with former Herd head coach Barry Arnwine.

The 'Faces are 1-1 on the year after an opening loss to Tascosa last Thursday and the big win against the Eagles Saturday in which stalwart guard Kelly Kitchens crushed to 29 points, nearly matching his best output of a year ago in which he hit 30 against Monterey down a crucial stretch in the district race.

Amarillo High will be playing its first game under new coach Arnwine, who left the HHS helm last season to assume the head spot at AHS.

New HHS head coach Bobby Decker's crew was a little outmanned in its '69-53 loss to the Rebels in the opener, but some balanced scoring despite Kitchens' big burst helped the cause against the Eagles.

Adding punch to the Herd win were Robert Graves and David Schumacher with 16 and 14 points respectively, while David Arney added eight and Jackie Mercer two.

Kitchens has a 24.0 scoring average after two games this year to lead the Herd contingent. Graves is hitting the basket at a 13.5 clip, while Schumacher has an 11.0 standard. Arney has been consistent with eight points in each of the first two encounters.

The Herd junior varsity will also play the Sandies tonight just prior to the varsity matchup. The JV is also 1-1 on the year after beating Tascosa 50-31 and losing to the Eagles 58-53. Steve Cerda is leading the JV scoring attack with an 11-0 average.

MHS Wins CC; Herd Qualifies

Monterey High School crowned individual champions in both divisions enroute to District 4-4A cross country championships ran at Mackenzie Park in Lubbock Saturday. The MHS boys won their title with 27 points to runner-up Coronado's 30, and Hereford's 75, while the MHS fems outpointed the Hereford girls 25-38 for their title.

Curtis Conaway won the boys individual title with a 9:53 clocking over the two-mile course. Willie McCool of Coronado finished second with a time of 10:15. Monterey's Karla Leslie took the girls title over Hereford's Velma Arroyos in a time of 13:14. Arroyos took second with a 13:34 clocking.

The top three teams and top ten individuals qualified for the Regional meet, which will be held in Lubbock December 3.

The only Hereford boy to finish in the top 10 was Frank Madrigal, who cruised the course in 10:55. Hereford's girls were more fortunate with Arroyos leading a contingent of three individuals in the top 10. Also in the elite group were Beverly Nixon, seventh, and Kerry Hacker, ninth.

In addition Judy Birdwell and Joyce Betzen finished 11th and 13th for HHS in the girls race, while Rita Soliz was farther back in the pack with a time of 15:18.

All Hereford boys and girls qualified for the Regional meet due to their teams finishing in the top three.

In addition, Phylecia Rowland, a top runner on the HHS fem team all season, will join the team at the Regional meet despite having to fall out of the district race due to an injury.

Rowland had led the HHS team all season until the past few weeks, when Arroyos moved to the forefront.

Pampa Upends HHS Fems

By BOB NIGH
Brand Sports Editor

The Hereford Whiteface girls' basketball teams began the push to official UIL competition in 1978 with their season openers against Pampa at the HHS gym Monday night, and the visitors spoiled the Herd debut with a pair of wins over their hosts.

The Herd, using the five-player system for the first time since the style of play was tentatively approved for the 1978-79 season, came close in the varsity match, but couldn't match the shooting ability of the Harvester girls and lost a tense 36-30 decision.

Pampa also won the junior varsity match 43-23.

"We made a lot of silly fouls," Herd coach Roy Shipp commented following the varsity matchup. "We tried to make up for our mistakes with too aggressive defense, and we got whistled for the foul."

Hereford played their hosts even in the first half with the score knotted at 15 after 16 minutes of play. The Herd actually coasted out to a 15-10 lead midway through the second quarter, but a determined rally by Pampa evened the score.

With transfer Tammy Heard from Vega leading the way with nine big first-half points, Hereford trailed only on three occasions in the first half (2-1, 4-3, and 6-5). Heard and co-transfer Penny Whiteside of Friona led a HHS defensive charge that resulted in several steals, and front court players Sheri Whitaker, Denise Albracht, and Marie Schilling helped keep the Pampa forwards and post off the boards.

Pampa's Kelly Richardson escaped the HHS defense for eight first-half points, however, and she added nine points in the final two stanzas at the Harvesters got the hot hand from the field while the Herd struggled.

Richardson picked up four points in the third period as Pampa raced to an 8-3 advantage and a 23-18 lead. Hereford lost the services of Heard in the period as she got into foul trouble.

Richardson continued her hot hand in the final stanza, adding five points to her game-high total of 17. Meanwhile the Herd suffered a cold spell from the field, hitting only four field goals, while adding the same number of free tosses.

Heard wound up with 13 points to lead HHS in the contest, while Whiteside added five points. Albracht and Whitaker scored three each for HHS, and Schilling, Debra Rogers, and LuAnna Berryman closed out the Herd scoring with two points apiece.

Pat Coats backed up Richardson's play for Pampa with six points.

In the junior varsity game Pampa raced to 10-6 and 22-10 leads after one quarter and at the half and coasted to a 43-23 win. Paula Baldwin led the way for the winners with eight points. Kerry Hacker led HHS with six points, while Beverly Nixon added five, and Melinda Tatum and Darlene Sanders four each. Karen Drake and Rhonda Ford closed out the HHS scoring with a pair of points each.

The HHS girls both fall to 0-1 with the twin losses, and will try to get on the winning track tonight at Canyon against the Eagles.

Coach, Execs Join In Free Agent Spotlight

Baseball's free agents are on the move again. But this time, they'll have to share some of the spotlight with a coach and two of baseball's most successful executives.

Free agents Lyman Bostock, Mike Torrez and Dick Drago signed multi-year contracts Monday, but they weren't the only members of baseball's family who packed their bags and were heading elsewhere.

Harry Dalton was named as the Milwaukee Brewers' new general manager while New York Yankees' General Manager Gabe Paul and Coach Bobby Cox appear ready to take over as chief executive in Cleveland and manager of the Atlanta Braves respectively.

Bostock became, in his own words, the highest paid player in the history of baseball when he signed a reported five-year contract with the California Angels for $3 million.

"As far as I know, I'm the highest paid ballplayer," Bostock said.

The 27-year-old outfielder, who played out his option with the Minnesota Twins, batted .336 this season, second in the American League to teammate Rod Carew. Bostock hit 14 home runs, 12 triples, three doubles, and drove in 90 runs. He had 199 hits and scored 104 runs.

The "Boston Red Sox," who always seem to have plenty of hitters in the lineup, moved to bolster their pitching staff and dug deep into the cash till to sign veteran pitchers Torrez and Drago.

Torrez, who won two games for the Yankees in the World Series, reportedly agreed to a seven-year $2 million contract after a 1-13 season.

"We think Torrez will be a big help to us," Red Sox general manager Haywood Sullivan said.

"In fact, when I called our manager, Don Zimmer, this morning to tell him the news, he laughed and said 'Oh, the pressure really on us to win now.'"

Drago, who had a previous stint with Boston, had a 6-4 record while pitching mostly in relief for the California Angels and Baltimore Orioles this season.

Dalton, who helped build two world champions at Baltimore in the 60s and early 70s, stressed that hiring a manager wasn't his top priority as he took over in Milwaukee.

"Unlike some of you, I don't think there's a great urgency to name a manager. I have no self-imposed deadlines. I'd rather wait 45 or 50 days and pick the right man."

Dalton said he has three immediate projects with the Brewers.

First, he wants to upgrade the farm system by signing more players and adding a farm club.

Second, he will try to sign a few free agents and, finally, he'll be trying to make a few trades.

Paul, who is on vacation in Puerto Rico, is mulling over a return to Cleveland, where he was general manager from 1961 to 1972.

If Paul decides to return to Cleveland, then a group headed by F.J.O'Neil will buy the franchise and name him chief executive.

Cox, who played two years with the Yankees and compiled a .224 lifetime batting average, is expected to be named the seventh Atlanta manager since the team moved from Milwaukee in 1966 at a news conference at 3 p.m. EST today.

Nieman Ahead; One Week Left

Brand publisher Speedy Nieman has retaken the lead from Joyce Shipp in the Fearless Forecasters panel after posting a 19-7 mark last week while Shipp fell to 17-9, her second-worst performance of the year.

Nieman now leads the panel with a 232-80 record with just one week remaining. Shipp is one game back in second place, while Craig Nieman has almost a sure hold on third place with a 221-91 mark.

Craig Nieman and sports editor Bob Nigh outdid the rest of the panel last week with 20-6 marks. Nigh trails the younger Nieman by five picks for the season, and is fourth with a 216-96 record. Brand editor Paul Sims fell back into the cellar last week with a 18-8 mark, which moved him to 214-98 overall. Sims had pulled even with Nigh the week before after being in the bottom spot all year long.

Four games got the best of the entire panel last week with all five members getting a miss on the Idalou loss to Littlefield in high school playoff action, Texas Tech's 45-7 loss to Houston in college play, and the Atlanta Falcons and Oakland Raiders losses in NFL action.

As a whole the panel has been correct on their picks .718 percent of the time this year with 224-88 record in the consensus column. Nieman has been correct .744 per cent of the time, while Shipp has a .740 mark. The younger Nieman has a .708 correct percentage, while Nigh has a .692 mark, and Sims a .686 percentage.

Bowl Shares Make SWC Teams Richer

DALLAS (AP) - It's like getting money from home without writing for it or the clumsy bridesmaid catching the bouquet.

Whatever the analogy, the Southwest Conference celler-dwelling Rice Owl and friends will be about $203,000 richer thanks to their bowl-bound brethren.

Over the weekend, the SWC found itself in the enviable position of having four teams in post-season attractions. The result promises to produce something like $2.4 million for the nine-team league.

It is only the second time ever for four SWC teams to be headed for bowl games. The first was in 1960.

Under a share-the-wealth plan, those out of the bowl picture-Rice, TCU, Baylor, SMU and Houston, which is on probation, will get approximately $203,000 each. The bowl teams will take home about $353,000 less expenses.

The SWC bowl representatives and their respective paydays stack up this way:
COTTON - Top ranked Texas and Texas A&M will do battle Saturday to determine who defends the honor of the SWC against Notre Dame Jan. 2 in Dallas. Bowl officers project $1 million payoffs to each school.

ORANGE - Arkansas will meet the winner of Friday's Oklahoma-Nebraska shootout Jan. 2 in Miami. The participants are expected to each earn $1.1 million for the outing.

BLUEBONNET - Texas A&M has accepted the invitation if they fall to Texas. The Longhorns will go if the Aggies win and then go on to defeat Houston Dec. 3. The opponent for the Dec. 31 Houston Astrodome classic will be either Southern Cal or Washington. Payoff: $240,000 each.

TANGERINE - Texas Tech will clash with Florida State with the earnings dependent on the crowd. Bowl officials say they are assured of at least 40,000, which would give each school $150,000. The game will be Dec. 23 in Orlando, Fla.

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The 19th annual Sunkist Invitational indoor track meet will be held Saturday night, Jan. 21, at the Sports Arena, meet chairman Al Franken announced Monday.

Invitations have been sent to nearly all the leading track and field performers in America along with some standout athletes from other countries, Franken said.

FUEL

PUZZLED by increasing electric bills? Part of the explanation is: RIISING FUEL COSTS!

7. Arizona at 8. Arizona St.

The tremendous jump in the cost of fuels needed to produce electricity accounts for a large part of higher electric bills. Users of fuel turned to less expensive forms of energy when oil prices began to rise a few years ago. The demand for the less expensive types of fuels increased, and so did the cost. Now all fuels are expensive. It appears the cost of fuel will continue rising and this will cause the cost of electricity your Cooperative purchases to increase.

House Member Who Fasted Now Overdrawn On Expense Account

AUSTIN, Texas (AP)—Rep. Sam Hudson, who fasted 68 days because he didn't get committee hearings on his 96 bills as fast as he thought he should, is $3,058 overdrawn on his House expense account.

The Dallas Democrat must repay the deficit by the end of the year or face disciplinary action, according to the chairman of the House Administration Committee, Rep. Pete Laney, D-Hale Center.

"There is no excuse for it," Laney said. "There is plenty of money for office expenses. If members want to live high on the hog, they can do it, but they can't live higher than the hog can reach."

Hudson said, "I was shocked when I saw the deficit. Over several months, the rent payment vouchers for his Dallas legislative office had not been signed, and we had to pay $3,000 all at one time.

"I try to be as fair to my staff as I can. I pay them what I think they're worth. I must have an adequate staff, and that doesn't leave much room in the budget for other things."

Hudson spent more-$61,490 during the fiscal year that ended Aug. 31 than any other House member. A couple of others, Fred Head, D-Athens, and Craig Washington, D-Houston, spent within $300 of that figure. For the first eight months of 1977, Hudson had $31,300 to spend. His expenses totaled $34,102.

In 1975, he had to pay back $1,600 to balance his account.

"We have spent more time trying to keep him out of trouble than with any other member," Laney said.

If the current deficit has not been eliminated by the end of the year, Laney said, Hudson's staff will not be paid.

4-H Firsthand

AMARILLO—Thirty-seven outstanding boys and girls from the Texas Panhandle were honored, challenged and presented awards here Saturday night, November 12, at the annual 4-H Gold Star Awards Banquet.

For their achievements, the youths were honored by more than 350 parents, government officials, Extension leaders and other supporters who gathered for the banquet at the Hilton Inn.

They were challenged by Max Sherman, president of West Texas State University, Canyon, to continue their leadership and to strive for new accomplishments.

And they received their Gold Star awards, the highest county honor offered in the 4-H club program, from District Extension Agents Sue Farris and Paul Gross. A boy and girl from each of the 20 counties in Extension Service District 1 are eligible to receive the award each year for outstanding leadership, achievement and contribution to 4-H.

"You already have proven that you are leaders," said Sherman, speaking on the theme "Freedom to Be." He said the qualities recognized by the Gold Star award are qualities that will be needed in the Texas Panhandle, the state, the nation and the world in the years ahead.

He cautioned the youths to remember that the achievements for which they were being honored were not theirs alone.

The game of life is a team game, he said, noting that team members who helped the youths achieve their Gold Star honors were represented by those attending the banquet.

"It is the team spirit that makes it possible to have the freedoms we enjoy," he said.

"What we need are people who are doers and who will continue to be doers," he said, urging the youths to use that evening "as a stone upon which to continue to build your life."

The banquet guests were welcomed by Nick Craig of the Rita Blanca Electric Cooperative, Inc., one of the five member-owned electric cooperatives which sponsor the event. The other four are Deaf Smith, North Plains, Hall County and Swisher County cooperatives.

Toastmistress was LuAnn Kiser of Dumas, vice president of the District 1 4-H Council. Entertainment was provided by the Midnight Flyers, a country and western band of 4-H'ers from Hart County. Band members are Garre Shepherd, Dale Burson, Terry Williams and Troy Williams.

Gold Star honorees from Deaf Smith County are Micki Merritt and Steve Douglas.

At Wits End

BY ERMA BOMBECK

I just read some statistics that sent a chill up and down my spine.

It said that teenagers know considerably less about sex than most adults think they know. A national survey revealed most teenagers knew little if anything about birth control, pregnancy, or communicable diseases.

I don't mind telling you I haven't been so shook up since Butterfly McQueen threw up her hands and screamed, "I don't know nothin' 'bout birthin' babies, Miss Scarlett."

Now where are parents supposed to go for all their information?

As I told my teenager the other day, "I'm 50 years old and I think it's time we had a talk about why I cry so much. Maybe it's meno —"

She clapped her hand over my mouth. "Where did you hear gutter language like that?"

"The girls at the bowling alley. They said there's a reason why I cry when they pick up the garbage and why I fall apart when I find the date on my yeast has expired. What's happening to me?"

"Did you read the books I left in your room?"

"I couldn't understand them. Look, if this is uncomfortable for you, I could discuss it with Maya's children."

"No, no," she said clearing her throat. "It's just that I don't know how much you know already."

"Only what you told me last year that someday soon, I would look into the mirror and my grandmother's face would look back."

"That is essentially true. It has to do with getting O-L-D."

"Don't spell in front of me!" I snapped. "I'm not a child."

"I'm sorry. You have to understand how difficult it is for teenagers to explain sex to their parents. We don't want to tell you too much or too little. Did I tell you sex is a natural and beautiful thing?"

"You told me that just before I went into 18 hours of labor with your brother."

"What's labor?" she asked suddenly.

I stood up in disbelief. "I'm going to the bowling alley. At my age, I can't afford hearsay."

Texas, Alabama and Oklahoma held onto the top three spots in The Associated Press college football poll today while Rose Bowl-bound Michigan replaced arch-rival Ohio State in the No. 4 position.

However, should Texas stumble in either of its last two games, starting with No. 12 Texas A&M next weekend, a wide-open race is in prospect for the national championship, with only eighth-ranked Ohio State among the Top Ten showing as many as two defeats.

Texas, a 29-7 winner over Baylor last Saturday and the nation's only unbeaten-untied team, received 60 of 64 first-place votes and 1,272 of a possible 1,280 points from a nation-wide panel of sports writers and broadcasters in the next-to-last poll of the regular season.

The final regular-season poll will be released at 6:30 p.m. EST next Monday, with the national championship poll following the bowl games.

Alabama and Oklahoma were idle last weekend. 'Bama received one first-place vote and 1,044 points while Oklahoma also earned one nomination as the No. 1 team and 998 points.

Michigan, which turned back Ohio State 14-6, climbed from fifth to fourth with 912 points while Notre Dame, which crushed Air Force 49-0, moved up from sixth to fifth with one first-place ballot and 732 points.

Arkansas, No. 8 a week ago, jumped to sixth with 606 points for a 47-7 rout of Southern Methodist. The other first-place vote went to Kentucky, which defeated Tennessee 21-17 and held onto seventh place with 600 points.

Ohio State barely made eighth place with 486 points over Penn State, idle last weekend. The Nittany Lions received 483 points while Pitt, also idle, remained No. 10 with 398 points.

The Second Ten consists of Nebraska, Texas A&M, Clemson, Washington, North Carolina, San Diego State, UCLA, Brigham Young, Arizona State and Florida State.

Last week it was Nebraska, Arizona State, Florida State, Texas A&M, Clemson, Texas Tech., BYU, North Carolina, Washington and UCLA.

Texas Tech was the only member of last week's Top

Twenty to drop out. The Red Raiders suffered an embarrassing 45-7 walloping by Houston shortly after accepting a bid to the Tangerine Bowl.

Replacing Texas Tech in the rankings was San Diego State, which boosted its record to 9-1 by trouncing Florida State, Tech's Tangerine Bowl opponent, 41-16. San Diego appeared in the rankings for the first time this season.

Akers Tabs McEachern To Start Saturday

By JACK KEEVER

Associated Press Writer
AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - The Texas-Texas A&M rivalry is such a great one, says Coach Fred Akers of No. 1 Texas, that "they ought to triple the price of the tickets."

The series started in 1894, and the two teams will meet for the 84th time Saturday at College Station with a spot in the Cotton Bowl against Notre Dame on the line.

Akers told a news conference Monday that junior Randy McEachern probably will start at quarterback because of his record in high-pressure ball games.

With a record overflow crowd of 57,000 expected at Kyle Field, and another 6,500 watching the game on closed circuit television, there will be pressure.

Asked if McEachern, a third-teamer at the start of the season, would start, Akers told his weekly news conference: "Randy's edge in experience and performances in high-pressure ball games would indicate that he is ahead of anyone else."

Freshman quarterback Sam Ansley piled up 181 yards running and passing against Texas Christian Nov. 12 while McEachern rested a strained knee, and junior quarterback Ted Constanzo also has returned to the lineup - but as a punter.

Ansley also started in Texas' 29-7 victory over Baylor last Saturday, but McEachern opened the second half and hit seven of eight passes for 120 yards to compliment Earl Campbell's 181 yards rushing.

After Texas' top two quarterbacks were hurt in the first quarter of the Oklahoma game, McEachern directed Texas to a 13-6 victory. The following week he guided Texas 80 yards into the wind to beat Arkansas 13-9.

Asked to assess A&M, Akers said, "for the past for or five years they have had as much physical talent as anyone in the country."

"They're a top football team," Akers said, "and we're a top football team. It's a great rivalry and it should be a great game. The stakes are high, and I would think both football teams will be at their best."

Texas coaches chose tackle Brad Shearer as the outstanding defensive player against Baylor and split end Alfred Jackson as the best offensive player.

Shearer led the team in tackles with 14, including four behind the line of scrimmage, caused two fumbles and pressured the passer four times.

Jackson ran a reverse 10 yards for Texas' first touchdown and caught five passes for 87 yards, including two for 30 yards and set up a 21-yard field goal and a 34-yarder that set up Texas' final touchdown.

The yardage enabled Jackson to hike his career receiving total to 1,409 yards to break the record of 1,394, set by Ben Proctor 30 years ago.

Akers said he was "very pleased" with Constanza's punting and Steve McMichael's place-kicking in the absence of Russell Exleben, the nation's leading punter in 1976 and co-record holder of the longest field goal in NCAA history - a 67-yarder.

Exleben has a tight thigh muscle with a slight muscle pull in his groin, and Akers said he did not know if he would play against A&M.

THIBODAUX, La. (AP) - Larry Wilson, who averaged more than 26 points last season for Nicholls State, has a broken foot and will miss several weeks of basketball, a school spokesman said Monday.

Wilson, a 6-foot-5 forward, fractured a bone in his arch in the final minutes of an exhibition game Sunday against the Windsor, Ontario, Canada, basketball club.

He had scored 31 points and was driving for two more when he either stepped on another player's foot or was stepped upon, a spokesman said.

RICHFIELD, Ohio (AP) - The Cleveland Barons, hoping to bolster their sagging scoring, Monday recalled center Ken Kuzyk from Phoenix of the Central Hockey League.

Kuzyk, who spent part of last season with the National Hockey League club, has scored 10 goals and added 11 assists this season for Phoenix.

The Barons also said they have returned rookie right wing Dan Chicoine, the team's second-round draft choice this year, to Phoenix.

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP) - Tom Robertson of Chambersburg, Pa., shot a first round one-under-par 71 Monday to take the lead in the 36-hole Florida PGA Club Professional tournament.

Robertson led a group of 71 golfers competing for the $3,000 first prize at the 7,085-yard Boca West course.

Jack McKelvy of Valparaiso was in a three-way tie for second place with Bill Capps of Beckley, W. Va., and Larry Startzell of Timonium, Md. All shot even par 72s.

Redskin Playoff Hopes Alive

By TOM SEPPY

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Washington Redskins still have hopes of making the National League Football playoffs as the wild card team, even if they almost were beaten by a spunky young club from Green Bay with the league's greenest quarterback.

It all came down to three plays in Monday night's television special.

Scrambling Joe Theismann, under a heavy rush by the Packers defense, searched out running back Mike Thomas for a 7-yard touchdown pass to give the Redskins a 10-9 victory over the Packers.

The fourth-quarter score was set up by a 30-yard rifle shot from Theismann to Danny Buggs and a 12-yard scramble by the Redskins quarterback that put the ball at the 7.

"It was a tough one to lose," said Green Bay Coach Bart Starr. "The big play was the third down pass to Buggs and the scramble by Theismann was the back-breaker."

Theismann, who had a sporadic night in hitting only 10 of 21 for 124 yards and one interception, did not get into the groove until near the end.

"I didn't throw well," he said. "I wasn't getting set. I saw the dogs (blitzers) coming and I hurried myself."

With previously untried quarterback David Whitehurst replacing the injured Lynn Dickey for Green Bay, Washington Coach Allen tried to confuse the rookie by "using every dog in our play book, including a couple of new ones."

But Whitehurst, an eighth-round draft choice from Furman, wasn't rattled, completing 12 of 24 for 144 yards though he suffered three interceptions in the second half - none of which the Skins managed to convert into scores. Whitehurst was sacked six times for 33 yards.

Whitehurst said the turnovers did hurt the team while the defensive unit "really played a hell of a game."

The rookie said he thought Washington would not score again after Chester Marcol broke a 3-3 tie with a 42-yard field goal in the third period. Marcol earlier had a 40-yard placement and Washington's Mark Mosley hit one from 35 yards.

After the Redskins scored the touchdown, Green Bay got another 44-yard field goal from Marcol with 4:16 remaining in the game, electing not to try for a first down on fourth-and-four. The Redskins now stand at 6-4 and in third place in the NFC East behind Dallas 8-2 and St. Louis 7-3. They have a slim chance to make the playoffs as a wild card entry. They still have games remaining with both the Cardinals and Cowboys, including a contest with Dallas Sunday.

Murray AL's Rookie of Year

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The rookie-laden Baltimore Orioles made the American League East Division pennant race a three-team affair in 1977, with designated hitter Eddie Murray among the young team's leaders.

The switch-hitting Murray was chosen the 1977 AL Rookie of the Year Monday by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Outfielder Mitchell Page of the Oakland A's was second in the voting, followed by second baseman Bump Wills of the Texas Rangers and pitcher Dave Rozema of the Detroit Tigers. Murray got 12 1/2 votes in balloting of the 28-man baseball writers' awards committee. Page had 9 1/2, Wills 4 and Rozema 2 votes.

"It was just a case of getting our chance. We sort of showed people we could play," the 21-year-old Murray said of Baltimore rookies who took over for high-priced free agents who left the team after the 1976 season.

Baltimore and Boston fought down to the final weekend of the 1977 season before falling just short in the pennant battle with the New York Yankees. In the crucial games of the final month, Murray batted .364 with nine home runs and 26 RBI.

Murray was signed by the Baltimore organization right after graduation from Locke High School in Los Angeles in 1973. He did not become a switch-hitter until 1976, and had a slow start with Baltimore before a late-season charge carried him to a batting average of 2.83, 27 home runs and 88 RBI.

Baltimore Manger Earl Weaver "was talking about winning the pennant ever since spring training," Murray said from his Los Angeles home Monday.

"The players up from the minor leagues knew what we could do, because we had been preparing together for several years," he said of Baltimore's strong season after loss of such free agent players as Reggie Jackson, Bobby Grich and Wayne Garland.
