Egypt's Growing Force Poised Against Israel

CAIRO (AP) — Troops from Iraq and Kuwait joined Arab forces massed in Egypt against Israel today as Britain urged the maritime powers to declare the Arab-surrounded Gulf of Aqaba open to all ships including Israel's.

The United States pushed for adoption by the U.N. Security Council of a resolution urging both the Arabs and Israelis to cool off while diplomats continued efforts to resolve the Middle East crisis.

The United States was told by Egypt to avoid involvement in Egypt' announced blockade of the Gulf of Aqaba and by Israel that not only Israel's interests but the foundations of international law are at stake in the Aqaba issue. The gulf leads to the Israeli port of Elath, through which 90 per cent of the Jewish nation's oil is imported.

In a pointed warning to Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, British Foreign Secretary George Brown told the House of Commons that the British government will consider any unilateral closing of the Gulf of Aqaba an act of belligerence.

Brown said his government is seeking a clear declaration from the international martime community that "the Gulf of Aqaba is an international waterway in which and through which vessels of all nations have the right of passage."

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson refused to tell Commons what he would do if Egypt tried to bar any British ships from the gulf. But he repeated an assurance by Brown that arrangements were being made to meet such a situation.

With a British naval buildup already reported around Aden, at the southern end of the Red Sea, the British aircraft carrier Hermes was recalled to Aden because of the crisis. She had been en route to the Far East.

Another carrier, the U.S. Navy's 41,000-ton Intrepid, was scheduled to pass through the Suez Canal into the Red Sea today with 78 jet fighters aboard, but diplomatic sources said she was bound for Vietnam.

The arrival in Egypt of forces from other Arab nations added little numerically to the 80,000 Egyptian troops Nasser has concentrated in the Sinai Peninsula on Israel's southwest border. But the arrivals underlined the growing Arab unity Nasser is forgoing.

An advance unit of the Iraqi army arrived by plane in Egypt Wednesday, and more Iraqi troops were scheduled to arrive today. Among them was the son of Iraqi President Abdul Rahman Aref, a young lieutenant.

Cairo Radio said an army contingent from Kuwait also arrived in Egypt.

In Jordan, the latest Arab recruit to Nasser's cause, reservists rolled into an army camp about four hours' drive from the Israeli border Wednesday for outfitting with American and British weapons. "Victory will be ours," they chanted.

Jordan came into the anti-Israel front when King Hussein and Nasser signed a mutual defense pact Tuesday. Despite the pact, Syria's socialist regime kept up its propaganda attacks on Hussein, and Nasser sent a mission to Damascus in an attempt to patch up this breach in Arab unity.

Workers File Charges At Firestone

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The United Rubber Workers Union filed an unfair labor practices charge today against the strike-bound Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., alleging a mutual aid pact with four other major rubber firms is interfering with good faith bargaining.

URW President Peter Bommarito said he expects "to file similar charges against each of the four other companies who are parties to this strike assistance pact."

Pickets again massed at the Firestone gates despite a court order limiting picketing at the plant. Company lawyers secured the order after picket standing shoulder-to-shoulder Wednesday prevented salaried employes from entering.

Union sources said the mass picketing was employed at two plants—Firestone and the B. F. Goodrich Co.—because members who have been on strike since April 20 were growing restless and because the URW strike fund is near exhaustion.

The mass picketing ended at both plants after Firestone lawyers secured an order limiting pickets to six at each gate.

A crowd estimated at more than 50 gathered outside the Firestone plant today, again blocking entrance.

In a statement on his unfair labor practices charge, Bommarito charged that the mutual assistance agreement is prolonging the employer from agreeing on necessary items of settlement without the approval of the other members of the conspiracy."

MERCHANTS COMMITTEE — The merchants committee of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce met this morning at City Hall to discuss plans for creating a better sales atmosphere here. Progress through united effort was the main topic of discussion.

Americans Planning Nigeria Evacuation

By ARNOLD ZEITLIN

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — The U.S. Embassy is making plans to begin an airlift Saturday of some 700 Americans from the breakaway eastern region of Nigeria as war threatens between the rebels and central governmental forces.

U.S. Ambassador Elbert G. Mathews advised American firms to withdraw dependents from the eastern region which its military governor, Lt. Col. C. Odumegwu Ojukwu, has declared the independent republic of Biafra.

Beginning Saturday, chartered DC4 planes will evacuate 700 elderly persons, children, pregnant women and others decribed as "unable to travel quickly during an emergency." Most of them will come from Port Harcourt, where about 800 of the 2,000 Americans in eastern Nigeria live. The evacuation is expected to continue for a week.

The embassy has not yet obtained permission to run a daily airlift to Enugu, capital of the secessionist state. U.S. officials must negotiate with authorities of both the central and eastern governments since flights to the east from the rest of Nigeria were banned as part of the sanctions against Ojukwu's regime.

British and Italian authorities also began making arrangements to withdraw 3,000 Britons and 300 Italians who live in the 30,099-square-mile eastern territory.

The 27,300-ton British aircraft carrier Albion broke off from exercises near the Scottish coast and sailed for an "unknown destination," the British Defense ministry disclosed. There was speculation in London that it might be bound for Nigeria, if not for the Middle East.

Diplomats said fighting appeared imminent as Lt. Col. Yakubu Gowon, head of the central government, began mobilizing Nigeria's armed forces.

Six Persons Are Indicted

A Scurry County grand jury Wednesday returned indictments against six persons.

James Costillo, Snyder, was indicted on three counts of forgery, passing a forged instrument, and theft.

Two indictments of forgery and passing were returned against Mary Alice Berryman, also of Snyder, and one indictment on forgery and passing was brought against Ernest Garcia of Roby.

Other indictments: Clarence A. McFarland of Austin, driving while intoxicated (second offense); James Howell of Snyder, non-support; and, Jimmy Medina, a transient, theft and robbery by assualt.

"No billed" by the grand jury were Vernon Eugene Melton and Ottis Boyd.

Merchants Map Plans At Session

Plans for a united and continuing campaign to promote business in Snyder were discussed at a meeting of the Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, this morning at City Hall.

A friendly atmosphere for shoppers in local business helps maintain the image of Snyder as a growing and thriving community, it was pointed out. Moreover, such an image plays an important role in future growth.

Tentative plans for concerted advertising and promotional campaigns were discussed at the meeting. In this connection, it was noted that a contest to determine the friendliest sales clerk in local businesses would improve the overall business climate.

Money spent locally adds to the general wealth of the community which can indirectly benefit persons other than businessmen, it was noted.

Slogans for future campaigns such as "sparkling Valdes in Sparkle City," would tie in well with present community improvement projects, it also was stated.

All of the merchants present for the meeting stressed the importance of working together to improve the overall business climate.

Among those present were Loren Sullivan, chairman; Morris Sanders, Bill Gattis, Marvin Rogers, Tom LeMaster, Don Jeffcoat, Bentley Baize, Bill Butler, Harold Bennett, Rex Miller and T. Jay Rogers.

Egyptian Envoy Sounds Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Egyptian envoy has warned the United States to avoid involvement in Egypt's blockade of the Gulf of Aqaba — termed by the Israeli ambassador "our second lung."

Ambassador Mostafa Kamel of Egypt said Wednesday that if a third party enters the Arab-Israeli dispute, "this will really make the crisis serious."

His statement came after a one-hour session with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

President Johnson met with his Cabinet to discuss the crisis, but the White House continues to remain silent on any developments. This follows a policy, announced last week, of working through diplomatic channels to resolve the dispute.

The State Department denied newspaper reports that Turkey has pledged to block U.S. use of Turkish bases if war breaks out in the Middle East.

Robert J. McCloskey, State Department press officer, said the question hadn't arisen. He said there are no U.S. bases in Turkey, but acknowledged some Turkish facilities are available to the United States under various agreements.

Other U.S. officials said privately U.S. involvement in the Middle East would not require use of Turkish bases.

McCloskey also refused to discuss the Egyptian-Jordanian mutual defense pact — solemnized at a meeting Tuesday of Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser and Jordan's King Hussein, long-time foes.

Session Set On Housing

Carl Geyer of Fort Worth, Chief of the Property Acquisition and Rehabilitation, Department of Housing and Urban Development, is scheduled to be here Friday night for a meeting at the city hall.

Also due to attend the session, which will concern possible utilization of vacant FHA houses here for public housing, is a representative of the FHA office at Lubbock.

The meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. Friday in the city council room of the city hall.

Persons over 62 years old and are retired and those permanently disabled have been asked to write to P. O. Box 1202, Snyder, to get their names included on a public housing survey roll here.

Armored Force Hits Guerrillas

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — An American armored force charged today into a huge guerrilla fortress uncovered on the South Vietnamese coast by one of the war's most spectacularly successful naval bombardments.

The coastal action was announced as the U.S. Command reported the highest American casualties of the war, the greatest monthly loss of U.S. planes in raids over North Vietnam and a record monthly toll of North Vietnamese MIGs.

U.S. casualties last week totaled 2,941—313 killed, 2,616 wounded and 12 missing or captured. The command said 36 U.S. warplanes were lost over North Vietnam during May, three more than the previous high last July, while a record 27 Communist jets were shot down in dogfights during the month.

The naval bombardment took place in Quang Ngai Province—one of the most firmly held Viet Cong strongpoints in the country—and uncovered a vast complex of bunkers, trenches and fortifications.

Firing 300 rounds of 5-inch rockets a minute, a Navy rocket ship opened up on the coastal area Wednesday. Within minutes the beach was a holocaust and it was evident the rocket ship had unearthed a major Red fortress.

Shattering secondary explosions began to rise from ammunition stores hidden in the bunkers. One massive explosion ripped a crater 30 feet across.

The screaming rockets, which land in clustered bursts of 10, ripped open 77 Communist bunkers and uncovered and partially collapsed almost a mile of twisted trenches.

Helicopters zipping over the smouldering field counted only five bodies, but the armored force which sped into the area this morning quickly ran into a firefight and killed 18 more Red soldiers.

Fighting was continuing at last report.

Terrorists Are Trained

HONG KONG (AP) — The Hong Kong Star said today that scores of young local Communists are being trained in armed terrorist tactics.

The English-language tabloid published two photos it said showed armed training sessions on a Hong Kong rooftop. Several young Chinese were carrying or aiming what appeared to be military rifles, but it could not be determined whether they were actual firearms or wooden dummies.

STARR COUNTY RIFT

Solon Seeks To Remove Rangers

By GARY GARRISON

RIO GRANDE CITY (AP) — State Sen. Joe Bernal arrived here today for talks with both sides in the year-old Starr County farm labor dispute.

The Bexar County legislator, one of eight senators who asked the removal of Texas Rangers from the county said he would first talk with Capt. A. Y. Allee, the man in charge of a Ranger detachment stationed in the county during the melon harvest.

The Rangers have arrested 57 persons since the cantaloupe and honeydew melon harvest began early in May. Farm labor union spokesmen have voiced almost daily complaints against the Rangers.

Bernal, arriving on the first anniversary of the union's activities here, said he also would talk with County Atty. Randall Nye and with a group of growers.

Two other senators were scheduled to accompany Bernal, but he said their flight from Austin to McAllen was first postponed because of bad weather and later cancelled. Bernal drove from Austin to McAllen.

He reached the scene of the labor dispute less than 24 hours after 14 persons were arrested on illegal picketing charges by Rangers and Starr County sheriff's deputies and on the day the dispute between the growers and the new farm workers' union became a year old.

Organizer Eugene Nelson first announced a strike against eight large growers on June 1, 1966. He has since stepped back behind the scenes in activities of the United Farm Workers and spends most of his time editing union publications.

Nelson, the man who led a small band of farm workers on a long, hot march to Austin and brought national attention to his movement, is seldom seen by newsmen these days.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a widowed mother who dresses and undresses with her bedroom door wide open? That's exactly what our mother does. She has a small, but beautiful figure, and we all know it, but does she have to show it off in front of her children?

When I remind her she has a 20-year-old son in the house, she says, 'So what. He doesn't pay any attention to me!'" I am 14 and have much more modesty than my mother. Please tell me what I can do about this terrible situation as it is getting worse every day.

EMBARRASSED DAUGHTER

DEAR DAUGHTER: Your obvious annoyance over the possibility that Big Brother might catch a glimpse of Mamma's "small but beautiful figure" gives me more cause for alarm than anythng else. Quetly close Mamma's bedroom door while she's dressing and don't make a federal case out of an attractive nuisance.

DEAR ABBY: We recently moved to a new city. In our former city we knew a girl who babysat for us. She came from a very poor family in all respects. She has at least average intelligence and good moral values, altho the only time she ever attended church was with us. Now the girl is pregnant at 16. Thank God she isn't considering marriage. Her immediate family has dissociated themselves from her, and she is now living with a divorced aunt who is apparently more interested in her as a housekeeper than anything else. My wife and I are considering asking this girl to live with us. All we would ask is that she finish high school and stay out of trouble. If she decided to go on to college, we would send her. We feel that a fresh start in a new community may be just what she needs. On the other hand, could we be asking for more than we can handle? Sometimes when people stick their noses into places they shouldn't they get no thanks and lots of grief. So far we haven't made the offer. What do you think?

ANONYMOUS

DEAR ANONYMOUS: I say, give the girl a chance. Invite her to make her home with you and see her thru her unfortunate situation. If your efforts are appreciated and she appears to respond, do whatever you can for her. But make only one "offer" at a time.

DEAR ABBY: My 11-year-old daughter read your plea for mail to lonely service men, so she wrote to one and sent it to the address you had in your column. I am inclosing part of the reply she received from her "pen-pal":

"Dear Mary:

"First I want to thank you for being concerned about the GIs overseas and their lack of mail. It is girls like you who are interested enough in giving some of their personal time that makes this place a little easier to bear.

"I am stationed at an air field in southern Thailand. Perhaps you aren't old enough to know about Viet Nam and what we are doing over here. We are fighting for what we Americans believe in. Freedom. I hope we will never have to fight for it on United States soil.

"I have 9 months (to go) before returning to the United States to be discharged. As you might guess, I will be a happy man. I don't enjoy being separated from my wife.

"Write only if you have time. As I remember, I had a lot of homework when I was in 7th grade. No matter how much you may dislike it, as a favor to me, Mary, promise me you'll work hard in school. Is that asking too big a favor?"

Isn't this beautiful, Abby? A young married GI taking time out from a shooting war to write to a little 11-year-old school girl.

HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Yes. Aren't people wonderful?

DOUBLE LIFE REVEALED

Wealthy Tramp Leaves Fortune

BLACKPOOL, England (AP) — Julian Ellis-Morris dressed like a tramp and sold razor blades, shampoo and soap door to door in this resort on the west coast of England.

But in Paris the gray-haired old Englishman was a wealthy eccentric who lavished chocolates, flowers and cigarettes on two girls at the Folies Bergere.

When he died in March at 75 he left a fortune of $174,697 including $2,800 to the two Parisian entertainers.

He bequeathed $1,400 each to Micheline Roine and Nicole Delattre, $140 to Michelina's daughter Danielle and $350 each to the unnamed women owners of two Montmartre hotels where he stayed during his jaunts in the French capital.

The double life of Ellis-Morris was revealed Wednesday when his will was published.

Dressed in an old army overcoat and tattered canvas shoes, he went from house to house selling cheap toilet goods from a tray.

At night he returned to a luxurious bungalow where he had three television sets and two automobiles, including a chauffeur-driven Daimler limousine. He vacationed at Nice, Cannes and Paris.

During World War II he swept the floors at an aircraft factory.

He kept his private life secret, though he once told friends that when Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip visited Blackpool he was invited to meet them aboard the royal train.

Once, he said, the Prince of Wales — now the Duke of Windsor—sent a message to his table as he dined in London.

According to his death certificate, Ellis-Morris was the son of a London auctioneer.

"He looked like a tramp and talked about being skint (broke)" said Johnny Miller, the steward at a Blackpool Working Men's Club.

Yet he was a regular customer — seat A15 — for 15 years at the Folies Gergere. Each night he sent chocolates, flowers and cigarettes backstage to Micheline Roine and Nicole Delattre.

When the shy old man plucked up courage to meet them he and the girls became close friends.

His closest friends were in the Salvation Army. He stayed at its hostels and attended its services every Sunday.

He left the biggest part of his money, $98,000, to Annie Graves, a 36-year-old Salvation Army worker.

"I am surprised as anyone," said Miss Graves. "I only used to talk to him and ask him how he was."

BRIGHT RED pimiento strips add flavor and color to delicious Chicken Tetrazzini, a good choice for guests or a family meal. Serve with frosty cool milk and a citrus salad zesty with onion rings.

Time For Tetrazzini

Have you ever figured out how many times a year you serve chicken? It's really amazing how often you can serve this popular meat and still not tire of its savory taste and its tenderness. When you do want a change from chicken broiled, fried, baked or stewed, turn to some of the favorite chicken casseroles and creamed dishes. It may take a few minutes longer to prepare these recipes which use cooked chicken and broth, but you can usually do most of the preparing ahead of time and finish the cooking in short order.

There are chicken dishes galore, but one of the best is Chicken Tetrazzini. This has become a classic in American homes and restaurants since its invention by the chef of a New York restaurant. He prepared it in honor of a popular Italian opera singer of an earlier generation, Luisa Tetrazzini. She was not only a talented singer but a skilled cook who thought everyone should eat well. The recipe's luscious bits of chicken, tender pasta, and creamy sauce toped with a generous amount of Parmesan cheese must have given the lady enough energy for several arias. We can enjoy the same superb harmony of flavors in a modern version enhanced by adding pimiento strips for extra flavor and color.

The sauce is a basic white sauce or cream sauce made with milk and enriched by using chicken broth. Stir in diced cooked chicken, mushrooms, pimiento, cooked spaghetti and part of the grated Parmesan cheese. The rest of the cheese is sprinkled on top to brown lightly as it heats under the broiler. Chicken Tetrazzini is an excellent entree to serve guests as most of the work is done in advance; at serving time just add the cheese and broil. Serve bubbly hot, with a salad of citrus fruit and greens topped with a tangy dressing, French bread and milk.

Chicken Tetrazzini

6 oz. uncooked long spaghetti broken in half
1 tablespoon butter
2 tablespoons butter
¾ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon celery salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 cups milk
1 cup chicken broth
3 cups chopped cooked chicken
1 can (2 oz.) mushrooms, drained
¼ cup pimiento strips
¾ cup grated Parmesan cheese

In a large saucepan cook spaghetti according to package directions; drain. Stir in 1 tablespoon butter until butter is melted; set aside. In a 3-quart saucepan melt 2 tablespoons butter; stir in flour, salt, paprika, celery salt and pepper. Remove from heat; gradually stir in milk and chicken broth. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add chicken, mushrooms, pimiento, spaghetti and ¼ cup Parmesan cheese; heat thoroughly. Place chicken mixture on ovenproof platter or shallow casserole; sprinkle remaining ½ cup Parmesan cheese over top. Broil about 3 inches from heat until lightly browned. Make 6-8 servings.

Summer Sophisticates

1 (10½ ounce) can condensed cream of mushroom soup
2 tablespoons milk
2½ teaspoons lemon juice
1-3 cup prepared sour cream
1 pound fresh asparagus or 1 (10-12 ounce) package frozen asparagus spears
12 slices rye bread toast
3 hard cooked eggs, sliced
2 mecium - sized tomatoes

Combine undiluted soup and milk in a small saucepan; heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Chill. Whip lemon juice and sour cream into chilled soup mixture until smooth. Cut asparagus into 4-inch lengths and cook in boiling, salted water until tender; drain. To serve: Arrange 4 or 5 asparagus spears diagonally across each of 6 toast slices; top with egg slices. Cut each tomato into 12 wedges and arrange at sides of asparagus. Top with about ¼ cup chilled mushroom sauce. Butter remaining toast slices, cut in half and serve at side of open-faced sandwiches.

Yield: 6 servings.

Curried Chicken Muffs An Elegant Hot Sandwich Idea

There are sandwiches made by the stack for children's lunches . . . sandwiches grabbed on the run between household chores . . . the sandwich snack after an active evening of sports. Considering its many and varied uses, the sandwich is truly a heavy duty performer in family meal planning.

But the sandwich can go quite glamorous too, especially for starring roles in luncheon or light supper menus. Here, for example, is an anything-but-ordinary version of the broiled sandwich. Canned boned chicken with broth takes a dressing of mayonnaise, plus celery, chopped ripe olives, and a hint of curry. The mixture is spooned on English muffin halves and crowned with a thin green pepper slice. A topping of shredded Cheddar cheese melts to golden goodness and makes a colorful finishing touch.

Elegant, delicious, Curried Chicken Muffs will prove to be handy time savers too. Canned boned chicken with broth, tasty chicken ready for use right from your pantry shelf, provides the speedy shortcut. Rely on canned boned chicken to spark many tasty sandwich, skillet, casserole and salad ideas for you through the busy months ahead.

Complement the subtle flavor of Curried Chicken Muffs with a crisp green salad, and for dessert, poached rhubarb.

Curried Chicken Muffs

2 cans (5 ounces each) boned chicken with broth
¼ cup mayonnaise
½ teaspoon curry powder
2 tablespoons chopped ripe olives
¼ cup chopped celery
2 English muffins, split
4 green pepper rings
¼ cup shredded Cheddar cheese

Combine chicken, mayonnaise, curry, olives, and celery; spread on muffin halves. Top with pepper rings. Place on broiler pan. Broil 4 inches from the heat for 8 to 10 minutes. Sprinkle with cheese; broil until melted. Makes 4 open-face sandwiches.

Carl Clouts 2 HR's As Boston Holds 3rd

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pressure is getting to Carl Yastrzemski . . . and it's the best feeling he's had in seven years.

"Every time at bat means something now," Yastrzemski said Wednesday night after clouting his ninth and 10th home runs to help the Boston Red Sox edge Minnesota 3-2 for their fourth straight victory.

"We're playing tight ball games and you've got to be bearing down all the time," the slugging outfielder added as the Red Sox savored the heady atmosphere of third place in the American League race.

Yastrzemski has won one AL batting championship and barely missed another since joining Boston in 1961. But he has never played on a pennant contender. This year, Yaz is off to his best start ever . . . and the Red Sox are keeping pace for a change.

Wednesday night's victory over the Twins left them 4½ games out of first place.

The Chicago White Sox trimmed Detroit's league lead to one-half game, nipping Baltimore 3-2 in 11 innings while Cleveland was drubbing the Tigers 9-0 behind the six-hit, 13-strikeout pitching of Luis Tiant. New York blanked Kansas City 3-0 and Washington trimmed California 6-3 in other AL games.

Philadelphia scored six runs in the 11th inning for a 6-0 victory over Los Angeles, San Francisco bombed Pittsburgh 15-4, the Chicago Cubs shaded Cincinnati 6-5 and Houston whipped the New York Mets 6-1 in National League play. Atlanta and St. Louis were rained out.

Yastrzemski's leadoff homers in the fourth and seventh innings staked right-hander Darrell Brandon to a 2-0 lead and the Red Sox added another run in the seventh on a suicide squeeze bunt by Mike Ryan.

That run turned out to be the winner when the Twins chased Brandon with a two-run burst in the eighth before reliever John Wyatt stemmed the tide.

The Red Sox are 22-20 for the season, compared to 16-26 at the same point last year, when they finished ninth. "I said before the season that this team would win more games than it loses, and I still believe that," said Manager Dick Williams.

Ron Hansen's run-scoring single in the 11th lifted the White Sox past Baltimore after Boog Powell's sacrifice fly pulled the Orioles even in the ninth.

Ken Berry, whose bunt single in the sixth delivered Chicago's second run, led off the 11th with a single, took second on a sacrifice bunt and scored the tie-breaking run on Hansen's hit.

Tiant breezed to his third victory against one setback and knocked in two runs with a sixth inning single. Leon Wagner and Larry Brown each drove in three runs for the Indians, who pounded six Detroit pitchers for 16 hits.

Rookies Steve Whitaker and Thad Tillotson led the Yankees to their shutout victory, with a ninth inning assist from relief specialist Dooley Womack. Whitaker crashed a two-run homer and right-hander Tillotson, making his first major league start, checked the A's on five hits before tiring in the ninth.

Womack replaced him with one out and the bases loaded and struck out the last two KC hitters.

Cap Peterson's three-run homer and a two-run blast by Ken McMullen — both with two out in the third inning — paced the Senators' attack. Rookie pitcher Joe Coleman scattered nine hits for his third triumph.

Top Net Trio Beaten

PARIS (AP) — The three top-seeded women in the French international tennis championships have been eliminated.

The trio of surprises came Wednesday when Mrs. Billie Jean King, the No. 1 seed from Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Ann Haydon Jones, No. 2 seed and defending champion from England, and Brazil's Maria Bueno, third seeded, all were beaten.

Annette Van Zyl of South Africa knocked off Mrs. King 6-2, 5-7, 6-4, while Kerry Melville, a young Australian, upset Mrs. Jones 0-6, 6-4, 8-6 and Francoise Durr of France beat Miss Bueno 5-7, 6-1, 6-4.

Fourth-rated Lesley Turner of Australia survived the upset trend, beating Helga Schultze of Germany 7-5, 6-2. In semifinal action Miss Turner faces Miss Van Zyl while Miss Durr takes on Miss Melville.

Houston Whips Mets, Cubs Clip Redlegs

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

"I just try to make them hit my pitch," says Rich Nye, who did quite a job of hitting theirs.

The Chicago Cub rookie left-hander beat the National League-leading Cincinnati Reds 6-5 Wednesday night, although he was in trouble in the ninth inning.

But Nye didn't need help in the batter's box, a place where pitchers usually feel anything but at ease. He drove in a run and scored twice on two singles, a double and a walk.

Houston whipped the New York Mets 6-1, Philadelphia downed Los Angeles 6-0 in 11 innings and San Francisco trounced Pittsburgh 15-4 in other National League action. The Atlanta at St. Louis game was rained out.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox nipped Baltimore 3-2 in 11 innings, the New York Yankees blanked Kansas City 3-0, Boston edged Minnesota 3-2, Cleveland walloped Detroit 9-0 and Washington topped California 6-3.

Nye doubled in the third and scored on Glenn Beckert's single, singled home a run in the sixth and walked and scored in the Cubs' three-run eighth. His other hit was a bunt single in the fifth.

Beckert doubled home Nye and Ron Santo singled in the other two runs in the eighth as the Cubs took a 6-2 lead.

Then the Reds, who had been held to three hits by Nye in seven innings, finally got to the rookie in the eighth when they scored three times on a walk, single, two doubles and a fielder's choice. Nye finished the inning, and then Cal Koonce got the Reds out in the ninth.

Houston exploded for six runs in the sixth inning against the Mets, moving into ninth place by .13 percentage points over New York.

Three of the Astros' runs came in on singles by Jim Wynn and Bob Aspromonte and Rusty Staub's double. Ron Brand singled in two more and the sixth scored on an error by shortstop Bud Harrelson.

Dave Giusti allowed the Mets only four hits, one of them a homer by Bob Johnson, in gaining his second victory after five straight losses. He struck out eight and walked one.

The Phillies, held scoreless by Don Drysdale on six hits through 10 innings, exploded in the 11th, with Bill White driving in the first run with his first hit of the season, a single. White has been sidelined most of the season with a heel injury. He had gone 0 for 18.

After the second run scored Phil Regan replaced Drysdale, but he couldn't get the final out until four more runs had crossed the plate to put the game out of reach.

Rick Wise and Dick Hall, who took over starting the 10th, scattered eight Los Angeles hits.

San Francisco got a three-run homer from Jesus Alou in the fourth and a two-run shot by Ollie Brown an inning later in clobbering Pittsburgh and handing Bob Veale his first loss after six victories. The Giants wrapped it up in the seventh when they scored six runs, only one of which was earned.

La Vega Gets Playoff Spot

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

La Vega is the first team to make it to the state schoolboy baseball tournament.

La Vega beat Fort Worth Diamond Hill 6-0 Wednesday night to close out the bi-district series and become one of four Class AAA teams that will compete in the tournament at Austin June 8-9.

The other three will be the winners in Odessa Ector-Lamesa, Beaumont Forest Park-Clear Creek and South San Antonio-Lockhart competition.

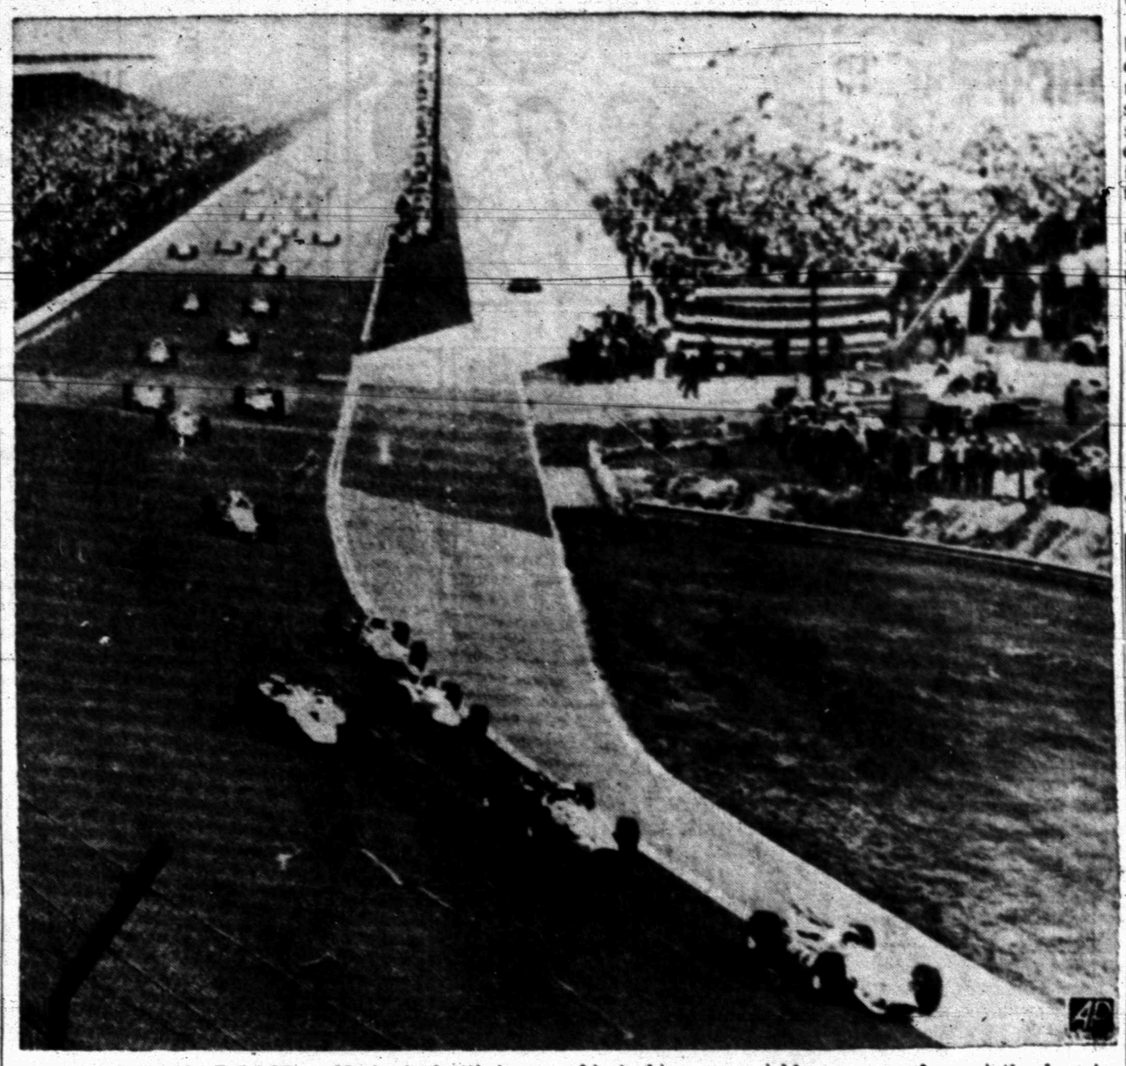

Class AAAA was due to determine at least one and possibly two places in the state tournament today.

Tyler and Fort Worth Eastern Hills met at Tyler. Tyler led 1-0 and two games were to be played if necessary to decide it.

Corpus Christi King, leading 1-0, can sew up its series by beating San Antonio Lee at Corpus Christi tonight. If Lee should win, the deciding game would be at Victoria Saturday night.

Abilene Cooper leads Arlington 1-0 and they will play a doubleheader if necessary Friday at Arlington.

START OF 500-MILE RACE — Mario Andretti, in car No. 1, leads the field of 33 cars into the first turn to start the running of the Indianapolis 500-mile speedway race. But two things happened. Bouton Goes To Minors

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bill Monbouquette got another chance to save his major league pitching career, but Jim Bouton will have to make a go of it in the minors for a while.

Monbouquette released by Detroit two weeks ago, was signed Wednesday by the New York Yankees, who also optioned Bouton to Syracuse of the International League subject to 24-hour recall.

A 30-year-old right-hander, Monbouquette had his best year with Boston in 1963, winning 20 games. He pitched a no-hitter in 1962. Bouton, 28, won 21 games for the Yankees in 1964, but has had arm troubles lately.

In other action on the baseball trading and signing front Wednesday, San Francisco bought outfielder Ty Cline from Atlanta for something more than the $20,000 waiver price and sent Ken Henderson to Phoenix to make room for him.

Odessa In Jr. College Finals

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — Odessa goes after the national junior college baseball championship tonight with the Texans meeting Bacone, Okla., in the finale.

Odessa advanced Wednesday by beating Bacone 3-0, then winning a coin flip to give it a bye into the title game.

Bacone beat Miami-Dade of Florida 4-1 to become Odessa's foe.

Larry Horton pitched a seven-hitter and got good fielding support as Odessa beat Bacone.

Tosmah won the 1964 Colonial Handicap at Garden State Park in Cherry Hill, N. M., and repeated in 1966.

JONES SLIPS TO SIXTH

Foyt Cops 500 Race With Record 151.2

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Parnelli Jones' "whispering wind" turbine car died away and lost to A. J. Foyt Jr.'s conventional rear-engine Coyote Ford in Wednesday's 500-mile auto race.

But controversy over use of an aircraft engine for the first time in the 56-year-old race had not quieted today.

Henry Banks, director of competition for the U. S. Auto Club and himself a former national champion, said the question of running a turbine against piston engines "definitely will be brought up" at a June 5 meeting of the USAC rules committee."

"It's our job to keep the competition even; arranging formulas for that purpose is a foremost consideration," Banks said.

"There were no ground rules for a turbine and we think we came up with a pretty good formula for one. All you can do for a new development is run it once and then reconsider."

Foyt picked up a record first place check for $171,227 at the Victory Dinner Wednesday night. Jones, who slipped to sixth in the wreck-halted race, got $48,392 including $27,000 in lap prizes for leading 171 of the 200 laps.

Foyt's record average was 151.207 m.p.h. against Jim Clark's 1965 mark of 150.686. Jones had one lap at 164.926, another record.

Second place Al Unser, Albuquerque, N.M., won $69,977 and third place Joe Leonard, Foyt's teammate, got $43,527. The total purse of $727,346.98 broke a record of $691,808.90 set last year.

The race, run in sections of 45 and 455 miles because of a Tuesday interruption by rain, proved that the STP-Pratt & Whitney turbine could go off and hide from any piston engine on the track whenever Jones hit the throttle.

A $6 ball bearing finally failed in the gear box with less than 10 miles to go and the dogged Foyt won as he had in 1961 when leader Eddie Sachs stopped to change a tire with only 2 ½ miles to go.

Jones said he was running slowly and smoothly when the bearing went out. "I was going into the third," he said. "It felt just like pulling the car out of gear."

Foyt won the hard way in 1964 and joins the only other three-time winners, Louis Meyer, Wilbur Shaw and Mauri Rose.

Foyt said he might be in a turbine car himself next year if the rules aren't changed to bar it. He said he simply couldn't catch it when Jones was on the track.

International racer Dan Gurney also tried gallantly but was washed out by a series of mechanical problems.

Foyt and Gurney pushed Jones as hard as they could and the 51st 500 literally was a three-car race.

Golfers Due In Snyder Tomorrow

Some of the best known persons in the sports world were expected to begin arriving in Snyder tomorrow for the Snyder Open Golf Tournament.

The partnership affair gets underway with 18 holes Saturday. The concluding round, also of 18 holes, will be played Sunday.

Included among those entered are Frank Broyles, head football coach at Arkansas University; Doak Walker of SMU fame; King Hill and Frank Ryan, both of Rice University; Johnny Vaught of Ole Miss; Charley Johnson of the St. Louis Cardinals; and many others.

There will be a gallery fee of $3 per day or $5 for the tournament for adults. The charge for children is $1.50 per day or $3 for the tournament.

The tournament will be divided into true amateur and professional divisions.

Defending champs in the pro division are Cloyce Talbott of Snyder and Henry Ransom of Bryan.

Tickets to the shrimp boil are limited to contestants and their wives and the first 125 members who call for them at the pro shop.

President Nasser's Move Makes Showdown Imminent

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — If it were just a matter of bugle-blowing, calling men to the colors, and whipping up patriotic frenzy and hatred in Israel, Egypt, Jordan, Syria and elsewhere in the Middle East the crisis there might melt away without war.

But Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser gave all of it a showdown tone when he barred Israeli shipping from the Gulf of Aqaba, and announced he could never be persuaded to drop his blockade.

Elath, at the southeast tip of Israel on the north end of the Gulf of Aqaba, is its port for direct shipping to and from Asia and East Africa. Ninety per cent of Israel's oil is imported through Elath.

If Nasser can keep it closed to all vessels bound for Israel through the Gulf of Aqaba, then they will have to travel around all of Africa and through the whole length of the Mediterranean.

Since he seized the Suez Canal in 1956 Nasser has barred all shipping to or from Israel through that channel, which lies within Egyptian territory.

But the Gulf of Aqaba, connected with the Red Sea, is bounded by four nations: Israel and Jordan at its northern tip, then farther down, Egypt on the west and Saudi Arabia on the east.

The United States has declared the Gulf of Aqaba an international waterway. The Suez Canal might be considered the same but, after the uproar over Nasser's seizure of it, the world permitted him to bar Israeli shipping from it.

Eventually, as the result of pressure in the present furor, Nasser may agree to let ships bound for Elath use the Gulf of Aqaba so long as they do not bear the Israeli flag.

But, if he is permitted to do that, he will have established his right to bar ships, if only Israeli-owned ships, from the gulf. Then, the next time the mood seized him, he could argue his right to bar all shipping bound for Elath.

After the Middle East war which followed the creation of the state of Israel in 1948, Nasser did bar Israeli shipping from the gulf but he lost that control after the Israeli-British-French attack on Egypt in 1956.

At that time the Israeli forces swept down through Egypt's Sinai Peninsula — bounded on the east by the Gulf of Aqaba and on the west by the Gulf of Suez — and drove Egyptian troops from Sharm el Sheik, a key point in this whole business.

It's at the southeast tip of the Sinai Peninsula, overlooking the Strait of Tiran which links the Gulf of Aqaba with the Red Sea. That strait has a 900-yard-wide opening, making it easy for Nasser to dominate all shipping through it.

The channel through the strait lies along the Egyptian shore. So long as he could put troops and cannon at Sharm el Sheik — before 1956 — Nasser could keep all Israeli shipping out of it and thus out of the Gulf of Aqaba.

He lost that control, of course, when the Israelis took the strategic point in 1956. They agreed to leave it in 1957, after peace was restored, on condition that a U.N. peace-keeping force by stationed at Sharm el Sheik to assure Israel use of the Strait of Tiran and th Gulf of Aqaba.

But last month, when Nasser ordered the U. N. forces out of all Egypt, they had to leave Sharm to him. He promptly manned it and banned Israeli shipping again.

Yet, in 1958 a U.N. conference on the law of the sea voted overwhelmingly against forbidding "innocent passage of foreign ships through straits" connecting international waters with the high seas.

The Arab nations were implicitly forbidden to halt ships bound for Elath through the strait and the gulf. But the Arab states, including Egypt, abstained from the vote. So Nasser can say he was not a party to such a ruling.

Israel has indicated it won't stand still more than a few weeks for what Nasser did. If, by the end of that time Nasser hasn't backed down and the United Nations can't find a solution, the shooting probably will begin.

Junior Editors Quiz on HAIRCOMBS

QUESTION: Who made the first comb?

* * *

ANSWER: The use of the haircomb goes far back in history. Though we don't know exactly who first discovered combs, we find them made of wood, bone, or horn, in the ruins of dwellings which prehistoric men built along the shores of Swiss lakes about 5,000 years ago. The Greeks, Romans and Egyptians made beautiful combs, using close-grained boxwood and also ivory. A comb of this period, as shown, looks strikingly modern. In Asia, combs were frequently made out of buffalo horn, as shown in the comb from New Guinea, or of bamboo, as in the other example. The most dramatic use of the haircomb is undoubtedly in the huge ornamental combs of Spain, which Spanish ladies love to place on the back of the head on special occasions. Flowers are arranged in front, and the elaborate lace shawl called a mantilla is draped over the top, producing a most romantic effect. Such combs are usually made of tortoise shell. Modern American combs are generally made of synthetic plastic materials. India-rubber is often used, hardened by the process called vulcanizing.

Best Known Secretary Can't Type

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —The world's best known secretary can't type well—and doesn't know shorthand at all.

"Oh, no, I can't take dictation," said Lois Maxwell, her green eyes smiling through a mist of auburn hair. "And I can type only on an Italian typewriter, because I don't seem quite able to find the keyboard on an English machine.

"I'm afraid the only thing I could do well in a business office would be to answer the door and take someone's coat."

Actually, Miss Maxwell is an actress, and a very good one. But she has won such screen fame as Miss Moneypenny, the slender, beautiful, superefficient secretary in the James Bond spy pictures starring Sean Connery, that the role threatens to submerge her own identity.

Lois has been in five of the films, based on the late Ian Fleming's espionage novels. The latest is "You Only Live Twice."

The series has made Lois something of a heroine to secretaries all over the world.

"Most girls who get involved with Bond either die or meet what used to be called a fate worse than death," she remarked. "But not Miss Moneypenny.

"I get many amusing letters from secretaries saying, 'You won't ever nip off with that naughty James Bond, will you?'

"Well, on or off the screen"—she laughed—"There is little likelihood of that."

Miss Maxwell is married to Peter Marriott, managing direction of National Broadcasting Co. International in London. They have two children.

Lois is a vivacious lady who likes a life of excitement and adventure.

Born in Toronto—her father was a schoolteacher, her mother a nurse—she became a childhood radio star in Canada. Then at 15, she ran away from home, fibbed about her age, joined an entertainment unit of the Canadian army and was shipped to London.

"When my real age was discovered," she said, "They were going to send me back home. So I went AWOL."

When military authorities caught up with her, she was enrolled in the Royal Academy of Art. Lady Louis Mountbatten persuaded them to let her remain in England as her ward.

In the years since then Lois worked as a photografpher's model, acted on the London stage, and made some 20 films there and in Hollywood and Rome.

State May Avoid Sales Tax Hike

By LEE JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—A sales tax increase may not be needed to finance state spending for 1969, Gov. John Connally says.

At a news conference Wednesday, the governor said, "I can see the possibility of not needing to raise the tax."

He also defended Texas Rangers, discussed the outcome of his legislative program, indicated he might veto a controversial legislative retirement bill and talked some more about his still unwritten account of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Connally said, "I don't think you necessarily have to assume" that appropriations for the 1969 fiscal year need be as large as those for the year starting Sept. 1, 1967.

When asked about the prediction of Sen. H. J. Blanchard, Lubbock, that the special session would have to pass a $200 million tax bill, he said: "I think that's high. I am not going to assume we are going to be looking at a tax bill of those proportions."

But he refused to commit himself on just now much might be needed.

He also refused to give any indication what he might submit at the special session besides appropriations and taxes, although he expressed disappointment that the Legislature did not approve annual legislative sessions.

Connally also was noncommittal about when he would call the session. He did say the chances "are not good at all" it will be this fall and that his present thinking was to have it "after the first of the year."

Asked about the likelihood of his running again, he said, "I don't know I will announce for a fourth term, and if I do I don't know when the time will be."

He called the regular session "basically a good session," commenting twice that the appropriation bill is closer to his recommended budget "than at any session since I became governor."

But, he said, he has "serious doubts" about signing a bill into which a conference committee injected a provision raising legislative retirement benefits. The legislative retirement system began with a similar conference committee provision in 1963.

Without going into the merits of the retirement system, I think the manner in which it was started in 1963 is open to question, and the same techniques were used this time," he said.

Connally said Texas Rangers are on duty in the Rio Grande Valley farm workers dispute "to enforce the law. They are not there for any other purpose. They are not there to prohibit any peaceful picketing."

"They were not ordered there by me and it was without any knowledge on my part until they were there," he said. U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., said earlier Wednesday the Rangers were being used in Starr County as "Connally's strikebreakers" and said Connally sent them there.

The governor said he has "made quite a bit of progress" on his account of the assassination "in terms of basic documentation and research."

He said he would have no comment on New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's investigation into an alleged conspiracy to kill Kennedy, who was shot to death in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963. Connally was seriously wounded by gunfire in the same incident.

"I think I was very wise in saying (previously) and I was waiting to see what happened. I am still waiting," he said.

Connally said he had no knowledge of any requests from Garrison for any information or help from the governor or any state agency.

He said his "story or book" is not intended as a rebuttal to William Manchester's "Death of a President," which he has criticized.

Three Texans Listed Among Casualties

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon listed three Texans Wednesday as dead in Vietnam.

Army Pfc. Gary L. James, son of Mrs. Madi W. James, Box 593, Santa Anna, was killed in action.

Army Spec. 4 Paul D. Skelton II, husband of Mrs. Martha J. Skelton, 1112 N. 44th St., Waco, was listed as dead due to hostile action. Skelton previously was carried as missing.

Army Capt. Floyd W. Kaase, husband of Mrs. Renate W. Kaase, 7500 Highcrest St., Houston, died not as a result of hostile action.

New York Opens Lottery Selling

By JOHN MULLIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) —Tickets for the New York State lottery went on sale at 12:01 a.m. today and within minutes customers were lined up in one hotel waiting to lay out a dollar for the chance of a $250,000 return.

First to purchase a ticket from the tuxedoed salesman at the Americana Hotel was Patricia Nelson, a Bronx housewife, who said, "I know I'm not going to win, but if I do I'll probably spend it."

Forty-five minutes after the booth opened for business, the hotel had sold 171 of the green and white $1 tickets, including a number to out-of-staters who first received assurances that they were eligible to win.

Robert Goldfarb of St. Thomas, V.I., bought five tickets and gave one to a reporter. "That's good luck—an old lottery custom," he explained. "You give somebody a ticket you've bought."

Most outlets, which include some 4,000 hotels, motels and banks throughout the state, did not plan to start selling tickets until later in the day.

The state hopes to sell 30 million a month to bring in $360 million a year or enough for a $198 million net profit, all of which must be used for education.

At the monthly drawings, there will be 240 prizes totaling $300,000 for each $1 million worth of tickets sold. The awards will range from $100,000 to $150. In addition there will be a once-a-year superprize of $250,000.

All tickets sold in a given month will be put in a drum for a drawing the following month, with the first tentatively scheduled for July 20 in Albany. Winners will be notified by telegram. New York State votders authorized the lottery in a referendum last November making the state the second in the nation, after New Hampshire, to go into the business.

It has been dubbed a "horse-bowl" because winners are determined both by fishbowl-type drawings and the results of a horse race run at a New York track.

Hearing Held On Bilingual Education

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Creation of a number of independent school districts in urban areas provides "a convenient tax shelter by which the wealthy have not contributed through local taxes to education of low income Mexican-American" children, an educator said Wednesday.

"The result of this genteel segregation," said Dr. Jacques M. T. Wilson, "is that those least able to bear the cost of education have to bear a disproportionate tax burden."

Wilson, foreign language department chairman at Our Lady of the Lake College in San Antonio, was a witness before a U.S. Senate subcommittee on bilingual education.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., is holding several hearings on a proposed $30 million measure that would aid establishment of pilot programs in the field of bilingual education.

Wilson told the subcommittee that San Antonio's Alamo Heights School District, with more than $72 million in property values, has only 4,749 pupils.

The Edgewood Independent School District, he added, with $3.5.5 million property valuations has 16,973 pupils.

He said only token results have been attained in attempting to overcome the handicap of a Spanish-speaking youngster when he enters a first grade conducted in English.

He added: "The hard fact is that even today the average Mexican-American child in this state repeats the first grade three times and drops out of school in the fourth grade."

Another witness before the committee was State Sen. Joe Bernal of San Antonio. He told the panel that "prejudice and ignorance" have obscured for too long the fact "that bilingualism is and should be an asset and not a liability, which can be used to bridge the cultural gap.

"It can help fuse harmoniously our two great cultures, rather than having them clash."

With a laugh, the state senator added, "I couldn't speak English in the first grade either...I still have trouble with it."

Board Takes No Stand On Conflict

DALLAS (AP) — An abrupt vote to adjourn halted sharp debate on Vietnam resolutions Wednesday before the North Texas Conference of the Methodist Church.

As a result, the conference took no stand and issued no formal statement on the war in Southeast Asia.

A statement by the General Board of Christian Social Concerns, distributed at the Methodist meeting Tuesday, urged immediate withdrawal of U. S. troops from Vietnam "in a manner to be determined by negotiation."

To counter this, the Rev. John Brand of the Munder Place Methodist Church in Dallas asked a formal expression that the conference "believes that unilateral cessation of operations by American military forces would not be a step in the direction toward a lasting and meaningful peace and world order."

Also brought up during the lively discussion was a stand taken last November by the Methodists' council of bishops, who opposed further escalation of the war. They urged President Johnson to seek a truce and applauded efforts by U. N. Secretary-general U Thant to effect a ceasefire.

Bishop W. Kenneth Pope, presiding over the debate, interrupted the discussions at least three times to appeal for "a Christian spirit in this vital matter."

After the vote for adjournment, several delegates figuring in the arguments sought to regain the floor. Pope declared matter closed.

The only official ballot during the stormy session rejected a motion that the three statements on the war be "accepted for consideration by the conference.

The mushroom is synonymous with good cuisine in Paris. Hundreds of miles of mushroom beds thrive in caves, tunnels and sheds in the suburbs, the National Geographic says. The average Frenchman consumes about two pounds of mushrooms a year.

TTA To Refund Federal Subsidy

WASHINGTON (AP)— Trans-Texas Airways must refund $352,592 in federal subsidy paid during 1964, the Civil Aeronautics Board ruled Wednesday.

CAB said its ruling was under its profit-sharing arrangement with local service airlines.

Net refund, however, will be only $234,820 since CAB had already withheld $117,772, the agency said.

Swine Course Is Set At Hermleigh

HERMLEIGH — A swine short course for adult farmers will be held June 5-6-7-8 under the sponsorship of the Hermleigh High School Vocational Agriculture Department, according to Ted Averitt, superintendent, and Frank Barnes, teacher of vocational agriculture.

JOE TOCQUIGNY

Joe Tocquigny, Swine Specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and the Department of Animal Science at Texas A&M University, will teach the course. He is headquartered at Texas A&M University.

Tocquigny holds a B. S. Degree in Agricultural Education from Texas A & I College, and M. S. Degree in Agriculture from Texas A & I. He was a purebred breeder and commercial feeder for 10 years. Prior to joining the Specialist Program in 1963, he taught vocational agriculture at Weslaco.

More than 60 Swine Short Courses in various parts of the state have been taught by Tocquigny and all have met with outstanding success, according to Hulan Harris, area supervisor of vocational agriculture Big Spring. Arrangements for the adult education short course in swine husbandry and in other fields are made through Harris' office.

The short course at Hermleigh is scheduled to begin June 5 at 7:30 p.m. in the vocational agriculture building. Other meetings in the series will be held June 6-7-8. During the dates the short course is in progress, Tocquigny will be available to assist producers with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to Barnes.

Anyone wanting additional information regarding the short course can contact Barnes or Averitt. Swine Production Short Course Certificates are to be presented to each participant who attends all the training sessions. An enrollment fee of $2 will be charged.

Anyone in the Snyder, or Hermleigh area is invited to attend. The time of meetings may be changed to suit the group.

Crowell To Head Firm At Big Spring

Bob Crowell of Snyder has become president and general manager of Big Spring Printing at Big Spring.

Crowell, a resident of Snyder since 1953, has resigned as manager of Feather Printing Co. here, a position he has held for the past 12 years. The change is effective today, June 1.

Crowell heads new ownership of the Big Spring Printing firm. Other officers in the firm are Herbert Feather, vice president, and Dillard Pope, secretary-treasurer.

Pope, business manager and advertising manager of The Snyder Daily News, will be the new manager of Feather Printing Co. He has been associated with the Snyder Daily News since 1950.

Crowell came to Snyder as Chamber of Commerce manager, a post he held for two years before joining Feather Printing Co. He and his family plan to move to Big Spring.

Farm Product Price Level Ends Decline

By OVID A. MARTIN Q

WASHINGTON (AP) — The farm product price level, influenced mainly by upturns in prices of meat animals, has ended an eight-month decline that stirred unrest among producers.

The Agriculture Department's May farm price report issued Wednesday showed farm prices as a whole increased two per cent between mid-April and mid-May. They had declined each month since last September and wound up in mid-April down 10 per cent from last summer's peak.

But even with the two per cent upturn in May, prices still remained slightly more than eight per cent below last August's high point. They also were down four per cent from mid-May last year.

A 10 per cent upturn in prices of hogs and beef cattle—a result of reduced marketing—led the May turnabout in farm markets. Partly offsetting the increases were lower prices for cotton, eggs, lettuce and tomatoes.

Department officials had predicted an increase in farm prices by mid-year, due mainly to foreseen declines in production of meat animals, poultry and some other products. A further increase in June seemed likely, officials said.

Local Archaeological Chapter In Session

The Scurry Chapter of the South Plains Archaeological Society has voted to resume regular meetings on the last Thursday of each month, rather than once every three months.

At the last meeting, W. A. Cooper showed many frames of arrowheads and other displays of artifacts. He told of the Indians in the Big Bend area of Texas.

A pamphlet on a Scurry County campsite written by members of the chapter has been given to the Scurry County Historical Survey Committee for approval to further the work toward a possible marker concerning Indians in this area.

John Portis, president of the chapter, presided at the meeting. Refreshments were served to 12 members. The next meeting will be held June 29 at the Sunray Recreation Hall.

25 YEARS OF Star-Spangled Security FOR AMERICANS 1941-1966

If you bought a U.S. Savings Bond in 1941, it would now be worth more than twice the money you paid for it.

Series E Bonds, you see, have never stopped growing. And now that the interest rate on new E and H Bonds has been raised to 4.15%, your older bonds will earn proportionately more, too, for their remaining period to next maturity. So Savings Bonds are better to buy, and hold, than ever. But that's only one reason why you should buy Savings Bonds.

You see, while Savings Bonds are building your financial security, they're also building your country's security. Because as your money grows, it helps support our fighting men in Vietnam — and keeps our economy strong.

Buying Bonds is easy!

Simply sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This way, money is automatically set aside from your paycheck — and applied toward the purchase of a Savings Bond. And you can also buy Bonds automatically through the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank.
