Chamber of Commerce Doings. Garza Co. Takes Important Step Toward Post-Spur Road; Designates 6 1/2 Miles

Sometime ago a delegation composed of Chamber officials and the Dickens County Commissioners Court went to Post to meet with their Commissioners Court to try to extend the Broadway to Big Ben Highway. They discussed such problems as extending the highway across the Yellow House River and the White River. The cost of both bridges was estimated at $80,000 to $100,000 a piece. Both commissioners courts were very co-operative in the meeting although no definite plans were set and no pledges were made for spending Farm to Market Road money.

This week the Garza County Commissioners Court met with District Engineer S. E. McCarty and designated 6 1/2 miles of Farm to Market Road money. Of the 13 miles of Farm to Market Road money designated this year, 6 miles is to extend northeast toward Spur and include a bridge across the Yellow House Fork of the Brazos. County Judge H. M. Snowden said the new designation must be approved by the State Highway Commission.

The Court also decreed that all funds allocated for Farm to Market Roads in Garza County for 1952 are to be used to extend the road extending northeast toward Spur.

Dickens County Commissioner A. W. Futsin expects to have enough funds in 1952 to extend a Farm to Market Road to meet the county in the direction of Post. The problem now confronting the extension of the Big Bend Highway is the White River bridge or the Kalgary bridge which will cost approximately $100,000.

We appreciate the efforts of Garza County Commissioners Court in designating their 1952 allocation to this road because such a highway will benefit everyone.

The Treasure Hunt is expected to be bigger and better this month with more merchants participating and with more prizes being given. All merchants are urged to attend a meeting of Treasure Hunt Merchants and others who care to participate.

The only way we have of knowing whether we are making a success of the Treasure Hunt or a failure is through the merchants. Our intentions are good toward the trade territory and the merchants so if there is criticism, constructive or otherwise, come to the merchants meeting and we will try to work out our problems.

Through this sale we are trying to establish Spur as a trading center and to establish good will among the merchants and the trade territory. In last month's merchants meeting they decided to give each business three numbers in order that more people could take advantage of the prizes being given. Next Treasure Day Hunt is set for October 3, so make that your shopping day in Spur.

Mrs. George Gabriel, Mrs. W. T. Andrews, Rev. C. Melvin Rathel, and the Baptist Quartet presented a program over KFLD this week from the offices of the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Gabriel sang "My Task," Rev. Rathel sang "The Love of God," and the quartet sang "The Love of God." The program was a devotional and statistics about the Spur First Baptist Church. The Baptist Quartet is composed of Kenneth Watson, bass, Ralph Gibson, tenor, Joe Bruce Long, 1st tenor, and Lyndal Bingham singing the lead. They sang "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior." Listen next Sunday.

We are happy to have as new members of the Chamber of Commerce the Dixie Dog Stand, and the Spur Super Market.

Rural Telephone Step Nearer As CRTC Opens Offices, Closes Kearney Deal

The Caprock Telephone Cooperative has set up offices in the bank building this week, following the approval of a $600,000.00 government loan to the co-op for rural telephone construction. The CRTC has been officing with the Chamber of Commerce.

Final details pertaining to the loan have not yet been completed in Washington, and Joe Bray, attorney for the solicitors office of REA, has requested that the co-op manager, James Wright make a trip to Washington in the near future. With the pending approval of the CRTC board of directors, Wright will leave Spur Sunday to fly to Washington.

The engineers working with the co-op are now preparing an area coverage designed to determine the actual number of circuits to be needed over the entire area to be served.

Dude Florence Construction company of Rockwall, Texas, has been given the contract for the construction of Section "A" of the rural telephone project. The company's crew and the materials are now in the area ready to start the construction of lines when the loan negotiations in Washington are completed.

Florence's bid on the construction work was considered by the board along with three other companies on a per unit cost of construction. The exact number of units to be included in each section of the project is now being determined by the engineers.

This week the co-op has received sealed bids from automobile dealers for the necessary transportation units. No official action has yet been taken on these bids and will not be until the loan is completed.

The CRTC will take over the Kearney system in Jayton and surrounding towns Monday, Oct. 1, states Wright. Final papers were signed with Kearney Wednesday morning of this week. The co-op will take over and operate the system on the present basis until the improved service can be made ready, added Wright.

Miss Callie Jones of Oak Grove, aunt of L. P. Hamilton, is reported recovering successfully from a recent operation on a broken hip at St. Michael's Hospital in Texarkana, Arkansas, despite her 86 years.

The City has purchased a new International pick-up to replace the old one.

House Numbers To Be Erected By Spur Lions Club

In cooperation with the Post Office department, the Spur Lions club has started a campaign to get all houses in Spur correctly numbered and the streets correctly named.

With city mail delivery just a matter of months away, the Lions are anxious to get all houses numbered as soon as possible. Lions D. J. Dyess and Guy Karr have made a tour of the city and listed the new and unnumbered houses. These houses have been assigned a number in accordance with the plan of the city streets.

For a charge of $2.00 per house, the Lions are erecting house numbers for residents. People who wish to erect their own numbers are urged by Postmaster Karr to contact him or Dyess for the correct number before putting up numerals.

Numbers must be up before city delivery will be available, states Karr.

The owners of many new houses in town are unknown to the Lions committee and homeowners who have not yet been contacted by Lions and do not have a house number are asked to contact either Karr or Dyess.

Blair Scores Twice In Third Quarter For Bulldogs; Boys Ready For Trip To Hamlin

The Spur Bulldogs gave the local fans an abundance of thrills and chills last Friday night in Jones stadium, coming from behind to defeat the Rotan Yellowhammers 20-14 in a hard fought gridiron contest.

Little Curtis Blair led the victory-spelling third quarter attack with touchdown runs of 49 and 37 yards. Charles Grimland accounted for the Bulldogs first touchdown in the second quarter with a spectacular 80 yard punt run-back. Grimland personally eluded several potential tacklers and a fine array of down-field blocking took him the rest of the way.

The Yellowhammers opened the scoring in the first period with a 40 yard drive to paydirt. Darrel Boen did the scoring from the Spur 2. The same lad then barged over center for the extra point.

Following Grimland's touchdown scamper, he then tied the score up by kicking the extra point. Half-time score was 7-7.

The Bulldogs' explosive third quarter gave them a two touchdown lead, but the game was never considered "on ice". The hard-charging Rotan line jarred a Bulldog ball carrier loose midway in the fourth quarter and Rotan recovered on the Spur 20.

Several plays later Boen brought his team back into the game, scoring from the Spur 6.

Time ran out with the Bulldogs staying off a serious threat to their six point lead. Final score, Spur 20, Rotan 14.

Besides Blair and Grimland, standouts for the Bulldogs were Orville Claude, Joe Bell and Paul Simmons.

GO TO HAMLIN FRIDAY

The Bulldogs travel to Hamlin tomorrow night to meet the Pied Pipers of 7 A.A. The Green-clads sport a small but experienced eleven this year, having lost their big guns last year.

Spur scouts report a winged-T offensive with plenty of speed and razzle-dazzle behind it. For the first time this season, the Bulldogs will be up against a smaller team. Comparing rosters reveals that the Bulldogs will out-weight Hamlin in nearly every position.

The probable starters for Spur are ends Charles Watson and Dean King, guards, Harley Bingham and Larry Smith, tackles, Ralph Gibson and Toby Williams, center, Joe Bell, and backs Grimland, Simmons, Chester Lindsey and Blair.

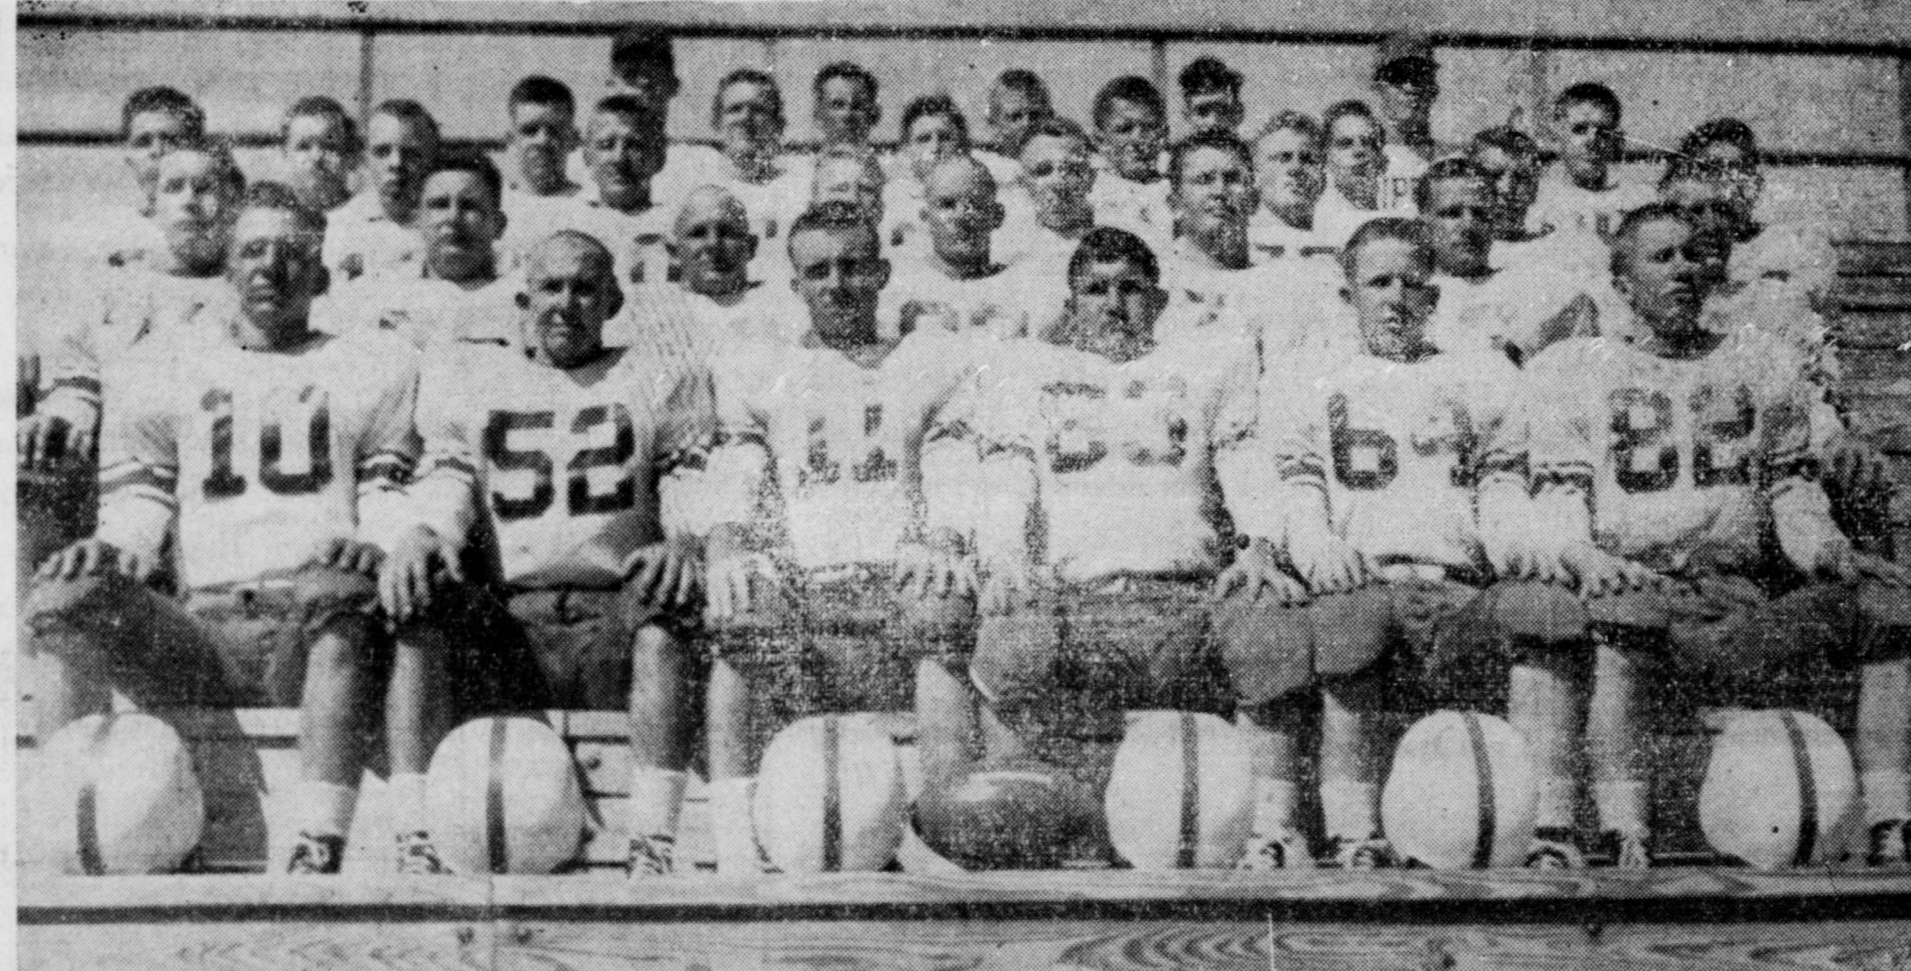

Coach Sam Hawkes reports that his boys have fairly well recovered from the injuries reported last week and should be near full strength for the Pied Piper contest tomorrow night.

IN MEMORY OF GEORGE S. LINK

PREAMBLE

The span of earthly existence is brief. "Man cometh forth as a flower and is cut down." With evidence on every hand to remind us that life is short and time is fleeting, we are never fully prepared for the passing of a friend. Before we are consciously aware of it, our companion is gone to his eternal reward and we are left to "sigh for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still." But we sorrow not as those who have no hope, for we believe that those who sleep in Jesus, will God bring with him.

Not very long ago in the rush of business life we hesitated for a time to clasp hands with and speak a greeting to, and enjoy the fellowship of the subject of this resolution. It seems as though now he was pausing at the gateway to eternal life to wave to us an affectionate farewell.

On Monday, September 17, 1951, George S. Link, Sr., closed his eyes to things mortal to open them on things immortal. "Death was swallowed up in victory." His funeral was a distinct triumph to the waiting throng of relatives and a host of friends who assembled to pay him their tribute of respect.

SKETCH

George S. Link, Sr., was born near Gallatin, Tennessee, December 13, 1873. The family moved to Jones County in the fall of 1887, where they lived on a farm until 1901, when Mr. Link was employed by Baker-Bryant Company, predecessors to Bryant-Link Company.

Mr. Link managed a store for the organization at Aspermont, Texas, in 1903. Later the store was destroyed by fire and he returned to Stamford, where he remained with the firm until he was married to Willie Wyatt. The company then sent Mr. Link to Rule to a newly opened store which he managed until 1910, when he moved to Spur, Texas, where he lived until the time of his death.

Mr. Link was President of Bryant-Link Company for many years and later he was elected First Vice-President.

George S. Link, Sr., was loved and held in highest esteem by all Bryant-Link Company officers, directors, and employees.

From boyhood, Mr. Link was an active, devoted member of the Methodist Church, and was always relied upon by his Pastor in any emergency.

Mr. Link loved people and was solicitous about the poor and needy. The extent of his charity will never be fully known. He often bought an assortment of groceries and left them on the doorsteps of those in want.

Mr. Link enjoyed the love, confidence and good will of all who knew him. His finest characteristics were his faith in God and his love of his fellow man. He felt it his highest privilege to serve others.

In memory of our departed friend and with deepest sympathy to the members of his family and his many friends:

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Directors of Bryant-Link Company, that this RESOLUTION be recorded in the minutes of the Company, a copy thereof be furnished to the family of Mr. Link, and a copy to the press and that we express our love and esteem by emulating his worthy example and that some sweet day in the far away home of the soul we shall have a happy reunion over there and in the language of his favorite hymn, may we now sing:

"On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wistful eye,
To Canaan's fair and happy land
Where my possessions lie."

Respectfully submitted,

COCOANUTS FROM FLORIDA

This week the Girl Scout Council received a box of cocoanuts "in the rough" from Mrs. Emma Russell who lives in Miami, Florida. Mrs. Russell is a friend of many Spur Girl Scouts and their families. We all appreciate this consideration of Scouting on the part of Mrs. Russell.

NEW TROOP ORGANIZED

Mothers of Second Grade girls met at the Little House Wednesday, September 19, and a new troop is well under way to becoming a reality as Brownie Troop VIII. The girls of Troop VIII met at the Girl Scout Little House, September 20.

Miriam Marcy called the meeting to order. Mrs. Peggy Waddell, our new leader, called the roll and other business was considered after the minutes were read and approved.

We were told the Girl Scout Council had decided to sponsor a cookie sale. Friends, be ready. We hope to sell many more than we did last spring.

The Council has set Sunday,

October 28, as the date for the Girl Scouts' Court of Award. At the Court of Awards badges will be presented and a Brownie troop will "fly up."

Two members were absent. The twelve present were Lois Ann Callan, Katie Rector, Louise Williams, Annetta Haile, Sharon English, Carol Jo Blair, Ruth Ann McAteer, Marian Marcy, Lanelle Marcy, Delores Sult, Mary Ann East, and Gail Benefield.

TROOP IV
Brownie Scout Troop IV met at the Little House on Monday, September 24, at 4 o'clock. Plans for a Fly-up Program is the important question with this troop at present.

One of the requirements for becoming a Girl Scout is to be able to repeat from memory the Girl Scout Laws. Roselle Marcy, Rita Williams, Barbara Nelle Foreman and Cookie Gregory passed that test.

The girls who made ice cream last week copied a copy of the recipe used. This will be part of a badge to be earned soon.

TROOP V
The president called the meeting to order and we attended to the business. We had some singing and some practiced expression in a play.

Mrs. Reagan surprised the Troop with refreshments of punch and cookies which we appreciate very much.

All the Troop were present except one. Reporters, Agatha Ellis and Shirley Ann Gannon.

TROOP VI
The Brownies of Troop VI met at the Scout house Wednesday at 4 o'clock for the regular Scout meeting.

The first ten minutes was devoted to roll call and business. Fifteen minutes was spent on ukulele practice and the remainder of the hour was spent on our project of making Christmas presents.

TROOP VII
Monday, September 24, the girls of Troop VII met at the Little House at 3:50 with Mrs. Buzbee. More progress was achieved on the sand painting project; sketches were prepared.

Three girls were absent. The thirteen girls present were Dale Buzbee, Sandra Foreman, Marilyn Hagins, Linda Hinson, Sandra Harris, Mary Jones, Ann Godfrey, Arlene Jordan, Everette McArthur, Linda Waggoner, Carol Warner, Anna Bob Williams, and Karen Thomas.

HONOR AT STAKE

A nation's honor is its most precious possession. It is the basis upon which it builds world prestige, and upon which it may wield real world power.

Finland is a case in point. In its international relations we find the highest code of honor expressed both in the material and in the moral. At a time when Russia refuses to return some 600 U. S. vessels she was granted the use of under a loose lease agreement, little Finland is struggling to pay the debt of a few millions, refusing to accept any monetary gift from the United States.

What makes one nation honorable and another dishonorable? Here we must go to the people of a country for the answer. In Finland the people are free. In that freedom they exercise the virtue of honor in their dealings with each other. A Fin's word is as good as a written and documented contract. Thus the mass-honor communicates itself with impact upon its national leaders in their international dealings, and the world terms Finland an honorable nation.

In Russia the people are enslaved. Enslavement forces the individual to resort to certain "expedients" of behavior not prescribed by codes of honor. Every act is merely a means to an end. Crime in Russia is en masse, with the top Russian national leadership leading the parade. The world today assesses Russia a dishonorable nation.

The United States has an impressive record of honor among nations of the world. From our early days as a struggling young nation we have inherited an historic background of honor, expressing the composite will of individuals in a free society where each citizen assumed full responsibility for his acts and actions.

But this precious heritage of honor is being seriously threatened today. Not so long ago 90 promising young men were discharged from our military academy at West Point for having broken the honor code of that institution.

This incident, which should have shocked the nation, caused instead a hue and cry against the West Point "system." Everywhere people were heard saying: After all, those young men are merely reflecting the time and conditions under which we live. From the lowest to the highest offices in our government we see codes of honor broken, so why punish a few young men because of infractions that seem to be the order of the day?

How easy it has become for us to hide behind alibis. The rich man's son a failure because he has too much money, the poor man's son because he hasn't enough, and those in-between because of one reason or another. Individually no one must be blamed. He is what he is because of some "system" or "condition" of which he is the product and victim.

This nation attained its eminence because the individuals therein were willing to assume responsibility for their own acts. In the ratio to which we refuse to accept that responsibility shall we become a nation of dishonor.

You and I, and those 90 young men of West Point, will continue to contribute to the delinquency of this nation so long as we choose to regard ourselves the weak "victims" of something or other.

The time is here for all of us to stand erect, admit our errors, and take our medicine as men—free men, fully responsible for our acts.

Unless we do, we shall cravenly desecrate a heritage of honor the like with which few people have been so singularly blessed.

More than that, through unwillingness to assume responsibility for our individual acts, we shall forget another link in the chain that may eventually enslave us and all free men.

"Another Flag to Be Proud Of!"

Exhibiting the Treasury Defense Bond Flag, which is being awarded to cities that qualify for special distinction in the drive now under way, are First Lieut. Henry Alfred Comiskey, left, and Vernon L. Clark, national director of the United States Savings Bonds Division. Lieut. Comiskey was the first Marine in the Korean war to win the Congressional Medal of Honor, which was presented to him recently by President Truman, at a special ceremony in the White House.

Price Controls Lifted From Some Services

Twenty-two different types of services, which have little effect on the cost of living or which cannot practically be controlled, have been removed from price control, the Lubbock district Office of Price Stabilization announced this week.

Among services exempted are those of real estate brokers, agents and appraisers, labor relations and public relations counselors and advertising agencies, according to the district executive, Ted Gehring.

Gehring estimated several hundred such firms are in operation in the Lubbock district which includes Dickens County, along with 68 other Far West Texas counties.

The new regulation, however, points out specifically that watch and clock repair services remain under price control.

Barbers and beauticians, which already had been exempted by Congressional action, are included in the new regulation listing the exemptions. Among other exemptions are claims adjusters; dues and assessments of clubs and other associations organized and operated exclusively for social, recreational and other nonprofit purposes; justices of the peace; services of mortgage brokers or mortgages in connection with negotiation, placement and securing of mortgages; newspaper carrier hand delivery services; notaries public; commissions paid to distributors of petroleum products on consignment; process servers; services supplied directly by federal, state, territorial or municipal governments or their agents; tinker services; and tree surgery services.

The exemption concerning municipal services does not apply to sales or services supplied in a private capacity by sub-contractors, lessees, licensees or concessionaires.

District price executives also reminded sellers of toys, games, Christmas decorations, lace and yarns they must file supplementary pricing charts by September 29 if they otherwise are operating under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or if these are new categories to their business. This supplementary chart must be filed with the Lubbock District Office of Price Stabilization, 1202 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas.

In making garments from plaid fabrics, the position of the plaid at the front edge of collars should be considered.

REA Safety Program Is Saving Lives

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 26 (Sp.)—The Texas Job Training and Safety program for Texas Rural Electric Cooperatives as conducted by the Engineering Extension Service, Texas A and M College, cooperating with the Texas Education Agency completed its years activities at a business meeting of the State Advisory Committee held in Waco, September 11.

The program is headed by W. W. Mills with G. E. Baker, E. W. Kerlick, T. S. Watson, and W. O. Wood serving as field instructors. In his report of the program's years work, Mr. Mills stated that the 70 cooperatives which participated in the program and employed about 1,250 people had no fatalities. However on the 12 non-participating cooperatives two fatalities were reported, Mills emphasized. Thus on a proportionate basis the training program has saved the equivalent of twelve lives.

The committee also decided to hold the Annual State Job Training and Safety Program conference on the campus of Texas A and M College, November 23-24. All Texas Cooperatives will participate in the conference. Mills added that anyone interested in Job Training and Safety work is invited to attend the two-day conference.

Texas farm and ranch land prices rose an average of 12 percent during 1950—from an average of $44.44 to $49.95 per acre.

License Provisions for Hunting Explained

AUSTIN, Sept. 26—The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission reminded Texans of some extra state law license provisions for the new hunting season.

One is that all Texans over 16 years of age, planning to hunt waterfowl, must have the $2 Federal duck stamp regardless of whether they hunt in their home area.

Under the new state combined hunting license law, Texans must have the $2.15 license to hunt small game beyond their home county. All those hunting deer or turkey must have the state license, excepting those who hunt on the property of their residence and those who are under 17 years of age.

Those hunting deer or turkey on their home property or excused by youth, must obtain an "EX-EMPT" license which is similar to the regular license. They are issued without cost, bear the regular two deer tags but have the word "EXEMPT" lettered in red across their face.

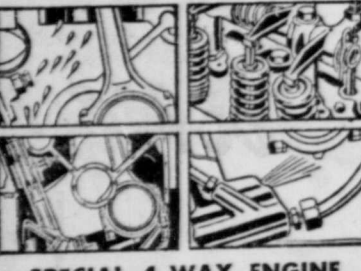

The Executive Secretary emphasized that, for the waterfowl season beginning November 9, only exemptions for the $2 Federal fee are persons 16 years of age and under.

Reports from the approximately 2000 state license agencies indicate that a normal number of Texans have bought the combined hunting license, as well as the $1.65 statewide fishing license. A few dealers already have asked for new supplies.

 Farm was a quarter section bought from S. M. Swenson and Sons. He led his community and much of the area in the use of the tractor and early saw the value of complete mechanization in farming. He was years ahead of his time in conservation practices. He was a valued member of both the Calgary and Spur communities, and labored for better roads and schools in this area. The Star Route between Post and Spur was established through his efforts. During his lifetime he saw the South of the reconstruction, pioneer life in both East and West Texas, and the rise of farming to its present status. Ford died at 10:30 p. m., September 24, 1951 following an acute coronary occlusion. His health had been poor for the past 15 years and he had been largely inactive since 1941. Burial was in the Spur Cemetery with Campbell's Funeral Chapel in charge. Survivors are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Ivorie Ford English of Phoenix, Arizona; one son, R. D.; and two grandsons, William Bruce Ford III and Robert D. Ford. He is preceded in death by two sons, Benny who died in infancy and W. B. Ford, Jr. who died in 1943 at the age of 24; and one daughter, Bonnie Chlorine who died at one year of age. Wheat varieties recommended for the principal wheat areas of Texas are Comanche, Westar, Wichita, Triumph and Quanaah.

 By this humble means we wish to express our appreciation and gratitude for the endless deeds and loving sympathy shown us by our many friends and neighbors during the illness and death of our dear husband and father. The beautiful floral offerings and the tender words of sympathy spoken helped to lighten our sad and heavy hearts and are appreciated more than we can express in words. May God bestow his richest blessings upon all of you.

Chamber of Commerce Doing Garza Co. Takes Important Step Toward Post-Spur Road; Designates 6 1/2 Miles

Sometime ago a delegation composed of Chamber officials and the Dickens County Commissioners Court went to Post to meet with their Commissioners Court to try to extend the Broadway to Big Bend Highway. They discussed such problems as extending the highway across the Yellow House River and the White River. The cost of both bridges was estimated at $80,000 to $100,000 a piece. Both commissioners courts were very co-operative in the meeting although no definite plans were set and no pledges were made for spending Farm to Market Road money.

This week the Garza County Commissioners Court met with District Engineer S. E. McCarty and designated 6 1/2 miles of Farm to Market Road money. Of the 13 miles of Farm to Market Road money designated this year, 6 miles is to extend northeast toward Spur and include a bridge across the Yellow House Fork of the Brazos. County Judge H. M. Snowden said the new designation must be approved by the State Highway Commission.

The Court also decreed that all funds allocated for Farm to Market Roads in Garza County for 1952 are to be used to extend the road extending northeast toward Spur.

Dickens County Commissioner A. W. Watson expects to have enough funds in 1952 to extend a Farm to Market Road to meet the county line in the direction of Post. The problem now confronting the extension of the Big Bend Highway is the White River bridge or the Kalgary bridge which will cost approximately $100,000.

We appreciate the efforts of Garza County Commissioners Court in designating their 1952 allocation to this road because such a highway will benefit everyone.

The Treasure Hunt is expected to be bigger and better this month with more merchants participating and with more prizes being given. All merchants are urged to attend a meeting of Treasure Hunt Merchants and others who care to participate.

The only way we have of knowing whether we are making a success of the Treasure Hunt or a failure is through the merchants. Our intentions are good toward the trade territory and the merchants so if there is criticism, constructive or otherwise, come to the merchants meeting and we will try to work out our problems.

Through this sale we are trying to establish Spur as a trading center and to establish good will among the merchants and the trade territory. In last month's merchants meeting they decided to give each business three numbers in order that more people could take advantage of the prizes being given. Next Treasure Day Hunt is set for October 3, so make that your shopping day in Spur.

Mrs. George Gabriel, Mrs. W. T. Andrews, Rev. C. Melvin Rathel, and the Baptist Quartet presented a program over KFLD this week from the offices of the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Gabriel sang "My Task," Rev. Rathel sang "The Love of God," and gave a devotional and statistics about the Spur First Baptist Church. The Baptist Quartet is composed of Kenneth Watson, bass, Ralph Gibson, tenor, Joe Bruce Long, 1st tenor, and Lyndal Bingham singing the lead. They sang "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior." Listen next Sunday.

We are happy to have as new members of the Chamber of Commerce the Dixie Dog Stand, and the Spur Super Market.

The Spur Experiment Station was host Sunday, September 23, to three prominent visitors from Mexico.

Secretary of Agriculture Felipe Ferandos, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Martinez Patino, and a representative of the College of Agriculture of Mexico, Senior Santa Maria were accompanied by E. W. Williams, vice chancellor of A. & M. College to see the experimental work that is done by the Spur Station.

According to C. E. Fisher, superintendent of the Station, the men were primarily interested in water and soil conservation investigation and brush control study, but also in grazing study and livestock feeding. These are the Station's four-point program.

Smart to Head Auto Dealer Assoc. Drive

Plans for a unique one-day drive on October 10th to recruit membership in the National and State Automobile Dealers Associations were announced today by V. C. Smart, local Ford dealer who is Area Chairman for the association in Dickens County.

The two associations, already among the largest in their respective fields, will stage a one-day membership campaign known as "Give A Day" in an effort to enlist the active support of every authorized car and truck dealer who is not already a member of the associations.

A committee of local automobile dealers will be selected by Mr. Smart to work with him in the campaign.

As the slogan of the drive implies, Area Chairman and other dealers will "give a day" of their time in calling on non-members in the whirlwind round-up for the Texas Automobile Dealers and National Automobile Dealers Associations.

Rural Telephone Step Nearer As CRTC Opens Offices, Closes Kearney Deal

The Caprock Telephone Cooperative has set up offices in the bank building this week, following the approval of a $600,000 government loan to the co-op for rural telephone construction. The CRTC has been offering with the Chamber of Commerce.

Final details pertaining to the loan have not yet been completed in Washington, and Joe Bray, attorney for the solicitors office of REA, has requested that the co-op manager, James Wright make a trip to Washington in the near future. With the pending approval of the CRTC board of directors, Wright will leave Spur Sunday to fly to Washington.

The engineers working with the co-op are now preparing an area coverage designed to determine the actual number of circuits to be covered over the entire area to be served.

Dude Florence Construction company of Rockwall, Texas, has been given the contract for the construction of Section "A" of the rural telephone project. The company's crew and the materials are now in the area ready to start the construction of lines when the loan negotiations in Washington are completed.

Florence's bid on the construction work was considered by the board along with three other company's on a per unit cost of construction. The exact number of units to be included in each section of the project is now being determined by the engineers.

This week the co-op has received sealed bids from automobile dealers for the necessary transportation units. No official action has yet been taken on these bids and will not be until the loan is completed.

The CRTC will take over the Kearney system in Jayton and surrounding towns Monday, Oct. 1, states Wright. Final papers were signed with Kearney Wednesday morning of this week. The co-op will take over and operate the system on the present basis until the improved service can be made ready, added Wright.

House Numbers To Be Erected By Spur Lions Club

In cooperation with the Post Office department, the Spur Lions club has started a campaign to get all houses in Spur correctly numbered and the streets correctly named.

With city mail delivery just a matter of months away, the Lions are anxious to get all house numbers as soon as possible.

Lions D. J. Dyess and Guy Karr have made a tour of the city and listed the new and unnumbered houses. These houses have been assigned a number in accordance with the plan of the city streets.

For a charge of $2.00 per house, the Lions are erecting house numbers for residents. People who wish to erect their own numbers are urged by Postmaster Karr to contact him or Dyess for the correct number before putting up numerals.

Numbers must be up before city delivery will be available, states Karr.

The owners of many new houses in town are unknown to the Lions committee and homeowners who have not yet been contacted by Lions and do not have a house number are asked to contact either Karr or Dyess.

Blair Scores Twice In Third Quarter For Bulldogs; Boys Ready For Trip To Hamlin

The Spur Bulldogs gave the local fans an abundance of thrills and chills last Friday night in Jones stadium, coming from behind to defeat the Rotan Yellowhammers 20-14 in a hard fought gridiron contest.

Little Curtis Blair led the victory-spelling third quarter attack with touchdown runs of 49 and 37 yards. Charles Grimland accounted for the Bulldogs first touchdown in the second quarter with a spectacular 80 yard punt run-back. Grimland personally eluded several potential tacklers and a fine array of down-field blocking took him the rest of the way.

The Yellowhammers opened the scoring in the first period with a 40 yard drive to paydirt. Darrel Boen did the scoring from the Spur 2. The same lad then barged over center for the extra point.

Following Grimland's touchdown scamper, he then tied the score up by kicking the extra point. Half-time score was 7-7.

The Bulldogs' explosive third quarter gave them a two touchdown lead, but the game was never considered "on ice". The hard-charging Rotan line jarred a Bulldog ball carrier loose midway in the fourth quarter and Rotan recovered on the Spur 20.

Several plays later Boen brought his team back into the game, scoring from the Spur 6.

Time ran out with the Bulldogs staving off a serious threat to their six point lead. Final score, Spur 20, Rotan 14.

Besides Blair and Grimland, standouts for the Bulldogs were Orville Claude, Joe Bell and Paul Simmons.

GO TO HAMLIN FRIDAY

The Bulldogs travel to Hamlin tomorrow night to meet the Pied Pipers of 7 A.A. The Green-clads sport a small but experienced eleven this year, having lost their big guns last year.

Spur scouts report a winged-T offensive with plenty of speed and razzle-dazzle behind it. For the first time this season, the Bulldogs will be up against a smaller team. Comparing rosters reveals that the Bulldogs will out-weight Hamlin in nearly every position.

The probable starters for Spur are ends Charles Watson and Dean King, guards, Harley Bingham and Larry Smith, tackles, Ralph Gibson and Toby Williams, center, Joe Bell, and backs Grimland, Simmons, Chester Lindsey and Blair.

Coach Sam Hawkes reports that his boys have fairly well recovered from the injuries reported last week and should be near full strength for the Pied Piper contest, tomorrow night.

IN MEMORY OF GEORGE S. LINK

PREAMBLE

The span of earthly existence is brief. "Man cometh forth as a flower and is cut down." With evidence on every hand to remind us that life is short and time is fleeting, we are never fully prepared for the passing of a friend. Before we are consciously aware of it, our companion is gone to his eternal reward and we are left to "sigh for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still." But we sorrow not as those who have no hope, for we believe that those who sleep in Jesus, will God bring with him.

Not very long ago in the rush of business life we hesitated for a time to clasp hands with and speak a greeting to, and enjoy the fellowship of the subject of this resolution. It seems as though now he was pausing at the gateway to eternal life to wave to us an affectionate farewell.

On Monday, September 17, 1951, George S. Link, Sr., closed his eyes to things mortal to open them on things immortal. "Death was swallowed up in victory." His funeral was a distinct triumph to the waiting throng of relatives and a host of friends who assembled to pay him their tribute of respect.

SKETCH

George S. Link, Sr., was born near Gallatin, Tennessee, December 13, 1873. The family moved to Jones County in the fall of 1887, where they lived on a farm until 1901, when Mr. Link was employed by Baker-Bryant Company, predecessors to Bryant-Link Company.

Mr. Link managed a store for the organization at Aspermont, Texas, in 1903. Later the store was destroyed by fire and he returned to Stamford, where he remained with the firm until he was married to Willie Wyatt. The company then sent Mr. Link to Rule to a newly opened store which he managed until 1910, when he moved to Spur, Texas, where he lived until the time of his death.

Mr. Link was President of Bryant-Link Company for many years and later he was elected First Vice-President.

George S. Link, Sr., was loved and held in highest esteem by all Bryant-Link Company officers, directors, and employees.

From boyhood, Mr. Link was an active, devoted member of the Methodist Church, and was always relied upon by his Pastor in any emergency.

Mr. Link loved people and was solicitous about the poor and needy. The extent of his charity will never be fully known. He often bought an assortment of groceries and left them on the doorsteps of those in want.

Mr. Link enjoyed the love, confidence and good will of all who knew him. His finest characteristics were his faith in God and his love of his fellow man. He felt it his highest privilege to serve others.

In memory of our departed friend and with deepest sympathy to the members of his family and his many friends:

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Directors of Bryant-Link Company, that this RESOLUTION be recorded in the minutes of the Company, a copy thereof be furnished to the family of Mr. Link, and a copy to the press and that we express our love and esteem by emulating his worthy example and that some sweet day in the far away home of the soul we shall have a happy reunion over there and in the language of his favorite hymn, may we now sing:

"On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wistful eye,
To Canaan's fair and happy land
Where my possessions lie."

Respectfully submitted,

COCONUTS FROM FLORIDA

This week the Girl Scout Council received a box of coconuts "in the rough" from Mrs. Emma Russell who lives in Miami, Florida. Mrs. Russell is a friend of many Spur Girl Scouts and their families. We all appreciate this consideration of Scouting on the part of Mrs. Russell.

Miriam Marcy called the meeting to order. Mrs. Peggy Waddell, our new leader, called the roll and other business was considered after the minutes were read and approved.

We were told the Girl Scout Council had decided to sponsor a cookie sale. Friends, be ready. We hope to sell many more than we did last spring.

The Council has set Sunday,

October 28, as the date for the Girl Scouts' Court of Award. At the Court of Awards badges will be presented and a Brownie troop will "fly up."

The girls who made ice cream last week copied a copy of the recipe used. This will be part of a badge to be earned soon.

TROOP V

The president called the meeting to order and we attended to the business. We had some singing and some practiced expression in a play.

Mrs. Reagan surprised the Troop with refreshments of punch and cookies which we appreciate very much.

All the Troop were present except one.

Reporters, Agatha Ellis and Shirley Ann Gannon.

TROOP VI

The Brownies of Troop VI met at the Scout house Wednesday at 4 o'clock for the regular Scout meeting.

The first ten minutes was devoted to roll call and business. Fifteen minutes was spent on ukulele practice and the remainder of the hour was spent on our project of making Christmas presents.

TROOP VII

More progress was achieved on the sand painting project; sketches were prepared.

Three girls were absent. The thirteen girls present were Dale Buzbee, Sandra Foreman, Marilyn Hagins, Linda Hinson, Sandra Harris, Mary Jones, Ann Godfrey, Arlene Jordan, Everetta McArthur, Linda Waggoner, Carol Warner, Anna Bob Williams, and Karen Thomas.

Highway 11 D. Club Meets September 24.

How to simplify the ironing of a shirt was demonstrated by Mrs. Coe Estep on her new 20" x 48" ironing board at the first lesson of the Highway 11 D. Club in her home at 10:30 p. m., September 24.

An easy way to sew in a zipper and how to sew a button were demonstrated also.

Lunch was served to 11 club members, two children, and four men.

In the afternoon basket weaving was taken up and nine baskets were made.

Mrs. J. B. Karr of Dry Lake gave a talk on the legislature of the county.

The regular business meeting was conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Richard Westfall, with thirteen members present in the afternoon.

Visitors were Mmes. Harriette Hatcher, Karr, Jim Smith, Robbie Wyatt and Mrs. Karr's little son. The next meeting of the club will be in the community house, October 8 at 2:30 p. m.

HONOR AT STAKE

A nation's honor is its most precious possession.
It is the basis upon which it builds world prestige,
and upon which it may wield real world power.

Finland is a case in point. In its international relations we find the highest code of honor expressed both in the material and in the moral. At a time when Russia refuses to return some 600 U. S. vessels she was granted the use of under a loose lend-lease agreement, little Finland is struggling to pay the debt of a few millions, refusing to accept any monetary gift from the United States.

What makes one nation honorable and another dishonorable? Here we must go to the people of a country for the answer. In Finland the people are free. In that freedom they exercise the virtue of honor in their dealings with each other. A Fin's word is as good as a written and documented contract. Thus the mass-honor communicates itself with impact upon its national leaders in their international dealings, and the world terms Finland an honorable nation.

In Russia the people are enslaved. Enslavement forces the individual to resort to certain "expedients" of behavior not prescribed by codes of honor.
Every act is merely a means to an end. Crime in Russia is en masse, with the top Russian national leadership leading the parade. The world today assesses Russia a dishonorable nation.

The United States has an impressive record of honor among nations of the world. From our early days as a struggling young nation we have inherited an historic background of honor, expressing the composite will of individuals in a free society where each citizen assumed full responsibility for his acts and actions.

But this precious heritage of honor is being seriously threatened today. Not so long ago 90 promising young men were discharged from our military academy at West Point for having broken the honor code of that institution.

This incident, which should have shocked the nation, caused instead a hue and cry against the West Point "system." Everywhere people were heard saying: After all, those young men are merely reflecting the time and conditions under which we live. From the lowest to the highest offices in our government we see codes of honor broken, so why punish a few young men because of infractions that seem to be the order of the day?

How easy it has become for us to hide behind alibis. The rich man's son is a failure because he has too much money, the poor man's son because he hasn't enough, and those in-between because of one reason or another. Individually no one must be blamed. He is what he is because of some "system" or "condition" of which he is the product and victim.

This nation attained its eminence because the individuals therein were willing to assume responsibility for their own acts. In the ratio to which we refuse to accept that responsibility shall we become a nation of dishonor.

You and I, and those 90 young men of West Point, will continue to contribute to the delinquency of this nation so long as we choose to regard ourselves the weak "victims" of something or other.

The time is here for all of us to stand erect, admit our errors, and take our medicine as men—free men, fully responsible for our acts.

Unless we do, we shall cravenly debase a heritage of honor the like with which few people have been so singularly blessed.

More than that, through unwillingness to assume responsibility for our individual acts, we shall forget another link in the chain that may eventually enslave us and all free men.

License Provisions for Hunting Explained

AUSTIN, Sept. 26.—The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission reminded Texans of some extra state law license provisions for the new hunting season.

One is that all Texans over 16 years of age, planning to hunt waterfowl, must have the $2 Federal duck stamp regardless of whether they hunt in their home area.

Under the new state combined

hunting license law, Texans must have the $2.15 license to hunt small game beyond their home county. All those hunting deer or turkey must have the state license, excepting those who hunt on the property of their residence and those who are under 17 years of age.

Those hunting deer or turkey on their home property or excused by youth, must obtain an "EX-EMPT" license which is similar to the regular license. They are issued without cost, bear the regular two deer tags but have the word "EXEMPT" lettered in red across their face.

The Executive Secretary emphasized that, for the waterfowl season beginning November 9, only exemptions for the $2 Federal fee are persons 16 years of age and under.

Reports from the approximately 2000 state license agencies indicate that a normal number of Texans have bought the combined hunting license, as well as the $1.65 statewide fishing license. A few dealers already have asked for new supplies.

Big Bend National Park is one of the last great wilderness areas in Texas.

"Another Flag to Be Proud Of!"

Exhibiting the Treasury Defense Bond Flag, which is being awarded to cities that qualify for special distinction in the drive now under way, are First Lieut. Henry Alfred Comiskey, left, and Vernon L. Clark, national director of the United States Savings Bonds Division. Lieut.
Comiskey was the first Marine in the Korean war to win the Congressional Medal of Honor, which was presented to him recently by President Truman, at a special ceremony in the White House.

Price Controls Lifted From Some Services

Twenty-two different types of services, which have little effect on the cost of living or which cannot practically be controlled, have been removed from price control, the Lubbock district Office of Price Stabilization announced this week.

Among services exempted are those of real estate brokers, agents and appraisers, labor relations and public relations consultants and advertising agencies, according to the district executive, Ted Gehring.

Gehring estimated several hundred such firms are in operation in the Lubbock district which includes Dickens County, along with 68 other Far West Texas counties.

The new regulation, however,
points out specifically that watch and clock repair services remain under price control.

Barbers and beauticians, which already had been exempted by Congressional action, are included in the new regulation, listing the exemptions. Among other exemptions are claims adjusters; dues and assessments of clubs and other associations organized and operated exclusively for social, recreational and other nonprofit purposes; justices of the peace; services of mortgage brokers or mortgages in connection with negotiation, placement and securing of mortgages; newspaper carrier hand delivery services; no-taries public; commissions paid to distributors of petroleum products on consignment; process servers;
services supplied directly by federal, state, territorial or municipal governments or their agents;

ticker services; and tree surgery services.

The exemption concerning municipal services does not apply to sales or services supplied in a private capacity by sub-contractors, lessees, licensees or concessionaires.

District price executives also reminded sellers of toys, games, Christmas decorations, lace and yarns they must file supplementary pricing charts by September 29 if they otherwise are operating under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or if these are new categories to their business. This supplementary chart must be filed with the Lubbock District Office of Price
Stabilization, 1202 Texas Avenue,
Lubbock, Texas.

In making garments from plaid fabrics, the position of the plaid at the front edge of collars should

REA Safety Program Is Saving Lives

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 26
(Sp.)—The Texas Job Training and Safety program for Texas Rural Electric Cooperatives as conducted by the Engineering Extension Service, Texas A and M College cooperating with the Texas Education Agency completed its years activities at a business meeting of the State Advisory Committee held in Waco, September 11.

The program is headed by W.
W. Mills with G. E. Baker, E. W.
Kerlock, T. S. Watson, and W. O.
Wood serving as field instructors.

In his report of the program's years work, Mr. Mills stated that the 70 cooperatives which participated in the program and employed about 1,250 people had no fatalities. However on the 12 non-participating cooperatives two fatalities were reported. Mills emphasized. Thus on a proportionate basis the training program has saved the equivalent of twelve lives.

The committee also decided to hold the Annual State Job Training and Safety Program conference on the campus of Texas A.
and M. College, November 23-24.
All Texas Cooperatives will participate in the conference. Mills added that anyone interested in Job Training and Safety work is invited to attend the two-day conference.

Texas farm and ranch land prices rose an average of 12 percent during 1950—from an average of $44.44 to $49.95 per acre.
