Destruction Of Group Is Said Leader's Goal

Two Injunctions Now Hang Over Boss Of Miners

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 4.—John L. Lewis was ordered today to bargain with the Southern Coal Producers' association or possibly face another fine for contempt of court.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough, who twice has fined Lewis and his United Mine Workers for contempt, issued the order.

Robert N. Denham, general counsel for the National Labor Relations Board, had asked that Lewis be directed to enter contract talks with the association, headed by Joseph E. Moody.

LEWIS BOWS TO ORDER

WASHINGTON, June 4 (U.P.) — John L. Lewis today bowed to a federal court order and agreed to bargain with Southern Coal Producers association.

The judge said that it was apparent from the record that Lewis did not want to bargain with the southern association because he wanted to "destroy" it.

Harder To Deal With

He suggested that the United Mine Workers chief might desire to bring about the destruction of the southern association "because it is harder to deal with" a single unit than with representatives of the 14 smaller associations through the South which make up the association.

"Certainly it's unreasonable in this present case for the union to say 'we're entitled to one representative for 99 units and the Southern Producers association is not entitled to one representative for 14 associations,'" he continued.

"That is not only not logical, but it is not reasonable," the judge said.

Broke Down May 18

New contract talks between coal operators and Lewis broke down May 18 when Lewis refused to consent to Moody sitting at the conference table as the association's representatives.

Goldsborough said:

". . . But when the time comes that any movement—whether labor or not—undertakes to carry out its wishes by methods which ultimately disintegrate society — at that point it must stop."

The soft coal contract expires June 30, allowing less than a month for the operators and Lew-

GOP To Fight Aid Bill Slash

WASHINGTON, June 4. (AP)—A group of House Republicans decided informally today to join Democrats in fighting cuts in the foreign aid bill.

The House appropriations committee has recommended a slash of $533,000,000 in the multi-billion dollar aid measure.

Secretary of State Marshall declared such a cut would turn the European recovery program into a "mere relief" project.

To Offer Amendments

Rep. Dirksen (R-Ill) told newsmen he will offer amendments to restore the committee's cuts. Dirksen said a "substantial bloc" of Republicans has agreed to support him. He did not say how many.

House Democratic Leaders Rayburn of Texas previously had announced that Democrats would oppose the cuts.

Dirksen made his announcement as the House prepared to take up the bill. Leaders aimed for final action by night fall.

Nearer A Billion

Chairman Taber (R-NY) said the actual cut in funds is nearer $1,000,000,000 since the money would have to last fifteen months instead of the year planned by the administration.

This is 26.7 percent less cash than requested by President Truman to carry out the Marshall plan for western Europe and aid to Greece, Turkey and China.

The House leadership called a

Draft Call May Be Left Up To Truman

Recruiting Of 50,000 Europeans For Service In U. S. Army Also Is Urged

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 4—A Senate Republican leader said today "there is a good chance" that any military manpower bill passed by Congress will leave the actual draft call up to President Truman.

Senator Wherry (R-Neb), acting major leader, told a reporter he favors an amendment to that effect offered yesterday by Senator Capehart (R-Ind). A similar provision has strong support in the House.

"And I think it will have a lot of strength in the Senate," Wherry said as senators began their second day of debate on the draft measure.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass) also claimed "some support" for his amendment to allow recruiting of up to 50,000 young Europeans for overseas service with the American Army. After five years of honorable service they would be eligible for U. S. citizenship.

"They would not be a foreign legion nor mercenaries," Lodge told a reporter. "We could get men with skills and languages that would provide the best military types. Five years of army training certainly would be better screening than any other immigration test."

But Chairman Gurney (R-SD) said the armed services committee already has rejected both proposals and he will ask the Senate to do the same.

Gurney opened debate yesterday with a detailed explanation of the cntroversial bill which aims at boosting the strength of the armed forces to some 1,802,000 men. The Army, Navy and Air Force now number about 1,384,500.

The bill would require all men from 18 through 25 to register, with unmarried non-veterans 19 to 25 subject to immediate call. Some 161,000 18-year-olds could enlist for one year of training or wait for a two-year term later.

Gurney bluntly opposed both

INQUIRY BOARD IS APPOINTED

Emergency Called In Maritime Issue

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 4—The "national emergency" provision of the Taft-Hartley law got a new workout today as President Truman invoked it in the maritime dispute.

This makes five times Mr. Truman has used this special machinery in an effort to end management-labor deadlocks. He invoked it previously in these industries: atomic energy, coal, meat, and telephones.

Board Appointed

The President took the first step of the emergency procedure in the maritime case yesterday when he appointed a five man board of inquiry headed by Harry Shulman, of the Yale law school.

Other members are Andrew Jackson, New York attorney, Arthur R. Allen, University of California institute of industrial relations, Jesse Freidin, New York attorney and George Cheney, San Diego labor relations consultant.

This board will report on the issues in the dispute, which involves six unions of seamen and longshoremen whose contracts expire June 15. After the board's report is made the government can seek an 80-day court order to delay any strikes or lockouts.

Strike Is Voted

The unions are threatening to strike June 15 unless they get a higher wage contract, plus the right to use hiring halls to supply sailors and stevedores to shipowners. The hiring hall issue is the main obstacle to an agreement. The ship owners contend it is a form of closed shop outlawed by the Taft-Hartley act.

Despite the presidential action, union radio operators on East and Gulf coast ships have voted to strike on or after June 15, the CIO American Radio association announced last night in New York.

In San Francisco, another union involved in the dispute said

Johnson Boosters Organize In City

Organization of a "Johnson-For-Senator" club to work for the election of Cong. Lyndon B. Johnson to the U. S. Senate was perfected in a breakfast meeting attended by approximately 30 persons at the Hilton hotel this morning.

Charles Cobb, local attorney, was elected president of the Lubbock county organization with E. K. Hufstedler, jr., city commissioner, named vice-chairman of the group.

Lloyd Croslin, who served with Johnson as a congressional secretary in Washington, is chairman of the 19th Congressional district. He announced that Johnson organizations had already been formed in more than a dozen counties of the district.

Plans were discussed for a big rally here when Johnson comes to the South Plains in his campaign swing around the state. Tentative date has been set for June 25.

Headquarters of the group will be maintained at Hotel Lubbock.

Benefit Plan Defeat Seen

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP) — Senator Millikin (R-Colo) predicted today the Senate will vote against extending social security benefits to hundreds of thousands of self-employed persons.

The Senate was due to start voting at 12:30 p. m. (EST) on various social security provisions, including a resolution to block extension of the program to the self-employed, and an amendment by Senator McFarland (D-Ariz) to increase federal payments to the states for assistance to the aged, blind, and dependent children.

Action Uncertain

Millikin, chairman of the finance committee and floor manager for the legislation, said he did not know what action the Senate might take on McFarland's amendment.

The Arizona senator, declaring that "the aged, blind and dependent children are the forgotten people," proposed these boosts in federal contributions: for the 1,096,069 dependent children, $3 per child; for the 2,340,862 aged and 81,750 blind, an increase to $30 He estimated the additional cost at $184,834,644 a year.

Prevents New Taxes

The resolution dealing with self-employed persons would prevent the Treasury department from setting up a new definition of employer-employee relationships for the purpose of collecting social security taxes.

Millikin said the Treasury proposal, which the agency had intended to put into effect last January, would have "swept into coverage" between 500,000 and 700,000 additional persons.

Petitions For Caso March Are Rejected

HILLSBORO, June 4 (AP)—Petitions to put Caso March's name on the ballot as a candidate for governor were rejected today by Chairman R. W. Calvert of the state Democratic executive committee.

In a letter to the Baylor university professor, Calvert said the petitions did not carry the signatures of 25 qualified voters as required by law. In fact, said Calvert, the only qualified voter to sign was Enos Jones.

There is still time for March's name to be filed, as the deadline is Monday, the party official pointed out.

China Is Given U. S. Warning

Student Riots Are Described As Dangerous

Cordiality Between Two Nations Said To Be Threatened

(By The Associated Press)

NANKING, June 4—The United States warned China today that Chinese student demonstrations against American policy in Japan is creating an increasingly dangerous situation.

(Chinese government officials have charged Communist agitators with stirring up these demonstrations, which frequently have turned into riotous disorders).

Damaging Cordiality

Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart said the agitation "is seriously damaging the traditional cordiality between the United States and China and, if it continues, it may have unfortunate results."

He warned the students:

"If those of you who agitate or participate in agitation against the United States on the question of Japan disagree with what I have said, then you must be prepared to face the consequences of your actions.

Mutual Trust Needed

"Unless China and the United States can approach each other with mutual trust and confidence, peace and welfare are endangered."

As for Japan, he bluntly pointed out that "no one can expect the taxpayers of America to continue indefinitely paying Japanese bills." He added that Japan's economic life must be restored.

The ambassador defied "anyone to produce a single shred of evidence that any part of Japanese military power is being restored or that there is any intention on the part of the United States other than to assure that it will never rise again."

Conference Is Called

The ambassador called a special conference of foreign correspondents and Chinese newspapermen to express the concern of the United States. After distributing a statement, he replied to questions. The statement was approved by the State department.

Certain elements among the university students have protested against what they call the "American policy of bolstering Japan as a bulwark against Communism." Recently, in Shanghai, 338 faculty members participated

Mediator Laboring For Peace As Holy Land War Continues

(By The Associated Press)

CAIRO, June 4—Count Folke Bernadotte said today he hopes to clarify within a day or two conflicting Arab and Jewish interpretations of the four-week truce in Palestine ordered by the United Nations. The time of the ceasefire can be fixed only when the conflicts are worked out.

A Trans-Jordan foreign office source said the Arabs already accepted a date for a cease fire.

War Goes On

While the U. N.'s mediator labored for peace, the war went on. Jews and Arabs reported heavy fighting in the Arab triangle of northern Palestine and on the southern coastal route to Tel Aviv, where the Jews and Egyptians were engaged.

An Arab general headquarters source in Amman, Trans-Jordan, acknowledged that a Jewish armored column speared into Jenin. The informant declared Iraqi troops counterattacked and drove the Jews out.

The Jews said the Jenin drive placed the Israelis in a position to threaten Nablus, the southern point of the triangle menacing Tel Aviv from the east. The western point of the triangle is at Tulkarm, just outside Israel's frontier, 22 miles northeast of Tel Aviv. Jewish planes bombed Nablus and hit a police fortress, the Israelis said.

Jerusalem Quiet

While negotiations for a truce continued, Jerusalem had 24 hours of relative peace. Haganah through yesterday was holding all but a small part of the modern city, but the Jews stood fast without advancing and Arab forces made no attempt to improve their positions. Even the snipers took the night off, a dispatch from the city said.

A Jewich communique said Israeli planes also bombed Arab concentrations at Tulkarm and hit at Arab military camps in the so-called triangle of strength east of Tel Aviv. The Jews also claimed last night their fighters shot down two Egyptian bombers over Tel Aviv.

Victories Claimed

To the south, the Jewish communique said, Israeli artillery and planes continued throughout last night to shell and bomb an Egyptian column at Isdud, adding that "large blazes were observed in enemy concentrations."

The Egyptians said their troops, driving from the south in the direction of Tel Aviv, beat back a Jewish counterattack in a fierce night battle at Isdud. This town is on the Tel Aviv highway, just three miles short of the Israeli frontier.

"Insolent Slander" In Tokyo Press Is Charged By Red Spokesman In Japan

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, June 4 — A Russian spokesman today protested that "insolent slander" about his country had appeared in the Japanese press and a U. S. Army newspaper here.

Maj. Gen. A. P. Kislenko, in a letter to General MacArthur, demanded that the attacks be stopped.

Kislenko, acting Soviet member of the Allied council for Japan, charged a stepping up of "absolutely undisguised propaganda among Japanese of a new war against the U.S.S.R."

Declaring the press could not have acted without the knowledge of MacArthur's headquarters, he said:

"I insist that prompt measures be taken to stop similar occurences and prevent their repetition in the future."

There was no comment by MacArthur.

Kislenko cited:

1. An article, "White War Versus Red," in the May 17 Pacific edition of Newsweek magazine. Kislenko said it promotes a new war again Russia; that it declares point blank the U. S. is going to bomb Soviet cities. (The article charted potential air bases in event of war with Russia.)

PRESIDENT IS RIDING WESTWARD

Test Of Popularity In Store For HST

(By The Associated Press)

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN, Enroute To Chicago, June 4 — An outwardly confident President Truman rode westward today for a major test of his popularity on an 18-state "grass roots" speaking tour.

He told correspondents as he boarded the 16-car special train at Washington last night that "if I felt better, I couldn't stand it."

Mr. Truman had no parting message for newsmen.

"You will get plenty of messages as we go along," he said.

Future Is Affected

The White House tagged the journey as "non-political" but no one questioned its possible effect on the political future of the gray-haired Missourian.

His first major, prepared address tonight at Chicago, at 9 o'clock (EST) shared interest with his prospective meeting there with Jacob M. Arvey, chairman of the powerful Cook county Democratic central committee, and his earlier platform appearances at Fort Wayne and Gary, Ind.

Arvey, who has advocated Mr. Truman's withdrawal from the race, will join the chief executive at dinner in the Palmer House. So will former Mayor Edward J. Kelly. The host is Mayor Martin Kennelly.

Give First Indication

The off-the-cuff platform talks, at Fort Wayne, at 1:20 p. m., (EST) and at Gary at 3:45 p. m. (EST) will give the first indication of the President's hold on the voters on his pre-convention tour which will carry him to Los Angeles June 14.

There will be many other such extemporaneous talks from his

Phone Strike Said Averted

NEW YORK, June 4 (AP) — A threatened strike of 25,000 long-lines telephone workers in 42 states was averted today when negotiators signed a 21-month contract.

The agreement, reached before a federal mediator here, ended a dispute between the long lines department of the American Telephone and Telegraph company and the CIO American Union of Telephone Workers. It is subject to ratification by union members.

No Immediate Boost

A company spokesman said the contract does not provide an immediate wage increase but allows the wage question to be reopened by either party once during the 21 month period.

The spokesman added that the contract does provide for increases in maximum wage rates to meet local conditions at a number of scattered locations.

If the wage question is reopened and no agreement is reached on new rates, the contract may be canceled any time after June 2, 1949, upon 60 days notice to either party.

The company also granted union demands on a number of fringe issues including an increase in overtime pay for holiday work and compensation for certain plant jobs.

Dan Tobin Warns Against Pay Demands

Union Leader Expresses Fear Labor Is On Downward Path

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 4—The New York Times said today President Daniel J. Tobin had told members of his AFL teamsters union that 'they will be jeopardizing the life of their union if they press too hard for higher wages in coming months."

The newspaper said Tobin expressed this view in a "strictly confidential" letter sent to all locals of the union, which claims 1,000,000 members.

The 73-year-old labor leader was quoted as expressing fear that labor is "on the downward path insofar as advancement of unions and wages in concerned."

The Times said the letter continued:

"After the next general election, no matter which party is in power, labor will be squeezed so hard that many unions weak in leadership or in diplomacy will go under.

"I appeal, therefore, to the officers of our unions to impress upon out general membership that no matter how difficult the road may be, keep your men at work and stop strikes during the

20-Foot Wall Of Water Hits In Northwest

Canadian Vessels Rush To Scene To Attempt Rescues

(By The Associated Press)

PORTLAND, Ore., June 4—Unbridled waters churned today through newly punched-out dikes on the Pacific northwest's far-flung flood front. More strained levees were crumbling. A new crest was rolling down.

The Fraser river in Canada crushed the barriers—at Barnston and Hatzie islands in British Columbia. Some 360 persons raced for their lives ahead of a wall of water 20 feet high that broke through on Barnston.

Reinforcements Rushed

Reinforcements rushed to soggy dikes along the lower Columbia river's shores in Oregon and Washington as the massive flow of the big river threatened to widen its most destructive 1,200-mile surge ot the Pacific.

The fresh flood crest was mounting in the Columbia, far up in the mountains where the blazing sun too quickly changed the deep snowpack into runoff water. The Snake river, main Columbia tributary, also was rising.

The collapse of Barnston and Hatzic dikes last night flooded more fertile farmlands, adding to the tremendous but yet untotaled millions of dollars damage in the northwest region.

Losses In Millions

Before the new rampages of the Fraser, estimates from qualified sources soared to $110,000,000 for the Columbia in Idaho and the lower valley in Oregon and Washington, $30,000,000 for the Fraser. The death toll on the Columbia was 21, two on the Fraser.

A wall of water 20 feet high roared into Barnston. The saucer-like island, almost three miles long and one and one-half wide, is 20 miles east of Vancouver, B. C.

The Canadian navy at once sent six vessels in an attempt to save the marooned islanders who fled to the opposite side from the break. Most residents had been evacuated earlier when the situation had been considered more critical. The break came, a Canadian army official said, as "quite a surprise."

Records of District Attorney John Steele said the other man, Alfonso Urtado, 20, of 123 Ave. M, also was charged with theft. He had not entered a plea. He was given x-ray examination of his neck, in West Texas hospital.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Although She Forgave Him, Wife Cannot Forget Husband's Romance With Woman Overseas

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Almost two years ago my husband went overseas and the separation, after nearly 25 years' marriage, seemed to tear at the very roots of my being.

We had always been very close, very affectionate. In fact, our marriage seemed ideal in every respect, for we had fun with each other and with our children in a fine home life.

In John's absence I was terribly lonely, but that loneliness was intensified after his return, because I could sense a difference in his attitude toward me and I kept telling him there seemed to be a rift between us.

After six months he finally told me of the woman he had supported overseas, a married woman with two children, whose husband had left her for another. He said he pitied her so much that he just had to help her, and though she ad fallen in love with him, he did not return her love.

ARE ALL MEN POLYGAMOUS?

WHILE I realize that John was not unfaithful to me in the largest sense of infidelity, I know they shared physical affection and that he wrote to her and sent her things after his return. Finally I had a showdown and after bitter words he promised never to write her again.

He insists she was not attractive physically, that his affair was only an incident in his life, that all the American men overseas made friends of women; and that I was the one he loved and always would love.

My problem is not one of forgiving; it is one of forgetting. Since his return I lie awake nights wondering, "How could he forget our love so easily? How could he so disillusion me?" I love him dearly; I want to be sweet and kind to him; I don't want to be bitter. But how can I forget?

Is it true that all men are polygamous and, given the chance, would betray the wife they profess to hold most dear? I had always felt that our physical intimacy was a sacred bond. Am I a fool for believing that? I have read the Bible, also "Peace of Mind," and I pray, but still I have hours of torment. Will this blow over? I need your help. Signed E. S.

WIFE'S ANGUISH REFERS TO FEAR

DEAR E. S.: See 1 John IV: 18, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

You don't love your husband as "dearly" as you think. Rather you feel completely dependent on his love and approval to give you significance and security. Consequently the discovery that another woman was able to chisel in on his pity and largesse fills you with fear.

Thus fear is at the root of your torment, and fear spawns fierce resentment also, directed at him for dynamiting your security-sense; but you hardly dare express this hostility, lest it widen the rift already existent and cause you to feel even more threatened.

Ergo, you want to act "sweet and kind" for expedient reasons, but the pretense galls you; and it is hypocrisy to say that you have forgiven. At best, you have gone through motions of condoning what's done, even while duelling with lingering repercussions of the affair.

FAILS TO SEE MAN NEEDS HER

NOW for help; In the immensity of your infantile self-concern, you completely overlook the fact that John needs you, and as he indirectly testifies, "always will." So your real security in relation to him rests on recognizing his needs and responding to them.

It is an open secret among psychologists that men are the weaker sex; and for a fill-in on that, read Chapters 12 and 13 of Dr. Edmund Bergler's book, "Divorce Won't Help" (Harper & Brothers). Chapter 12 is titled "The Myth of the Superior Male," and Chapter 13, "The Minimum Requirements for a Good Wife."

The wise, successful wife is always, at heart very much the mother in relation to her man; and the average devoted husband cleaves to his wife either in response to her maternal qualities or in the unconscious hope that eventually she will manifest them.

Probably the woman overseas was intuitively richer on this score than you, which perhaps explains why John seems changed since his return. He senses a deficit in the relationship, of which he was unaware before; and it would be good for your soul to meet the challenge creatively. —M. H.

Importance Of Hair Belittled By Expert

CHICAGO, June 4 (U.P.)—The quantity of hair on a man's head is no indication of his strength, a medical investigator said today.

And if you're losing your hair, there isn't much you can do about it.

Miss J. V. Sheppard of Oak Ridge, Tenn., said in an article in Hygeia, magazine published by the American Medical association, that very few cases of baldness can be cured.

She suggested that rather than rub tonic into their shining pates, men should adopt "a new philosophy of hair" which plays down the importance of hair to their appearance.

Hair isn't of any use anyway, she said. She described it as a limp, vegetative growth, made up of a pouchlike root imbedded in the skin with a long shaft of horny cells.

If you're a blond with a healthy scalp, you have about 140,000 of those pouchlike roots. Brunettes get along with 100,000.

Astronomers Usher In New Era As Big Telescope Is Dedicated

PALOMAR MOUNTAIN, Calif., June 4. (AP)—Astronomers ushered in a new scientific era today as they prepared to tackle the mysteries of the universe with the 200-inch hale telescope — mankind's "window to the stars."

The giant telescope-camera atop Palomar mountain in Southern California was dedicated formally yesterday by some of the nation's top-ranking scientists. It will afford them twice the space-penetrating power of any instrument previously at their disposal.

Disappointment

Newsmen who took their first peek through the "big eye" last night labelled the show something of a disappointment.

They gazed at the planet Saturn but said they couldn't see much. Saturn, 71,500 miles across, appeared as a globe about two inches wide.

Astronomers patiently explained however, that looking through the telescope is meaningless. It wasn't designed for that.

When further tests are completed and additional equipment installed, the "big eye" will be used to take photographs. The photos will show reflections in the telescope's 14¾ ton mirror of light from as far distant as one billion light years.

To Be Analyzed

These photographs, or prismatic spectographs, will be studied and analyzed painstakingly at California Institute of Technology.

Thus the temporary installation of a direct-view eyepiece for "looksees" last night was really a dedication stunt.

Dr. Raymond B. Fosdick, president of the Rockefeller foundation which furnished $6,500,000 for the 20-year-project, put it this way:

"This great new window to the stars . . . will dramatize the questions which mankind has always asked. Are there other planets that have burst into consciousness like our own? Is there an answering intelligence anywhere in space? (life on Mars?) and finally, in the words and spirit of the Psalmist, what is man?"

The great mirror, cast at the Corning, N. Y., glass works in 1934, was brought to the California Institute of Technology optical laboratory, Pasadena, Calif., 135 miles north of here, in 1936.

For 11 years it was ground and polished to an accuracy of two-millionths of an inch.

Trucked To Mountain

Then, coddled and protected like a huge jewel, it was trucked to this 5,500-foot mountain top last Nov. 18. Its telescopic mounting weighs 1,000,000 pounds. Its moving mechanism floats in a film of oil and is movable at the touch of a button. The giant instrument is housed in a rotating dome 12 stories high.

Dr. George Ellery Hale, who conceived the project 20 years ago, died 10 years ago. His widow received the plaudits of the scientists as the telescope was officially named for him. He directed Mt. Wilson observatory where a 100-inch telescope is located, previously the world's largest.

Palomar and Mt. Wilson, near Pasadena, now are operating essentially as one observatory under auspices of the Carnegie foundation and Caltech and directed by Dr. Ira S. Bowen. Caltech hopes to raise a $4,000,000 permanent endowment to defray estimated annual operating expenses of $200,000 for the work of finding answers, astronomically, to questions such as "Why are we here on this dwarf planet?"

Yearly Examinations Are Called "Hoax"

CHICAGO, June 4 (AP)—A New York physician told a national convention of nurses today that the yearly medical examination given school children is a "hoax"

In a talk for the biennial nursing convention, Dr. Leona Baumgartner, director of the Bureau of Child Hygiene, New York City health department, said:

"The expenditure of public funds for examination of school children by a physician may be justified only if some benefit accrues to the children.

"We should not consider it good education for each child that a superficial examination performed with clothes on or only partly removed and done at the rate of one a minute is the medical examination one expects of a physician. . . .

"The national conference for cooperation in health education has set the reasonable goal of four examinations throughout the child's elementary and secondary school career.

American Women Are Claimed To Be On A Hat Buying Spree Due To Kinsey Report

By RUTH BRIGHAM
(By International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, June 4. — The Kinsey report has the millinery cash registers jingling today as they never jingled before.

Hat Designer Walter Florell says women are on a mad hat buying spree equaled only by depression days.

He explained his anamolous statement this way:

"When women are frustrated they buy hats. They were frustrated during the last depression—and hat sales soared.

"But they've never been so frustrated as they are now that Dr. Kinsey has reported on the doings of their husbands."

Got Their Dander Up

The gals have got their dander up, and are in the game to stay.

Florell said business has boomed so much that he's willing to underwrite Dr. Kinsey's future reports should the Rockefeller Foundation fail.

That is, as long as men continue to behave like men.

Wives whose wildest venture heretofore—still quoting Florell—was only a black chiffon nightie when Johnny came marching home are buying daring hats.

And they're paying through the nose, the mad hatter admitted.

The New York hat designer is in Hollywood to put hats on movie heads—at a price, of course.

Dig At Hollywood

In fact, Florell—whose flair for hats is equalled only by his flair for publicity—may be taking a subtle dig at Hollywood, as his models model with masks. Beautiful masks, but masks.

The philosophical designer said hats is woman's answer to the Kinsey report, just as gay suspenders is the answer to the 13 per cent of the men who don't philander.

Florell also exploded another theory: that men prefer wide-brimmed hats.

He said:

"Men like their wives to wear big hats. Because they're more expensive looking. A man has his money invested in his wife—and he wants her to show it."

But in his girl—small hats. The cheek to cheek kind.

City Council May Have To Stand Up

LIMA, O., June 4 (AP)—Clyde city council, is keeping the council from sitting down at its meetings.

Several months ago, while Welty was ill, the council sold the building it now uses and bought another. While the new building, formerly the Greyhound Bus depot, was being readied, the council continued to sit in its old quarters.

The other day, optimistic city officials moved all the council furniture to the new building, then found the legal machinery to make the move fit the law had not been sit in motion.

Welty has refused to vote for such action.

The move must be approved by six votes of the seven-man group, and councilman Robert Wilson has been ill.

Unless something is done before next Monday night, councilmen will take their votes standing—in a chairless room.

The word "elastic" comes from the Greek verb meaning "to drive" but acquired its modern meaning through the writings of a 17th Century experimenter in air currents.

Cow May Not Be Here To Stay, He Thinks

COLUMBUS, O., June 4 (AP) — Cleveland's chief milk inspector thinks there's a chance the cow isn't here to stay.

You may have to rely on synthetic dairy products in the future said Chief Inspector D. W. Acheson of the Cleveland health department in a speech to the Ohio Association of Public Health Sanitarians last night.

"Dairy producers must get more consideration if we are going to have milk in the future," Acheson said.

Otherwise, he said, "the only answer is synthetics, which are coming on us perhaps faster than we realize."

Acheson said the young show a notable "lack of interest" in dairy farming, a field top-heavy with older men. Many cities already have experienced milk shortages, Acheson said.

Divided enforcement authority are conflicting interpretations of sanitation regulations are among factors discouraging dairy farming recruits, Acheson said.

STOMACH AILMENTS, WEAK KIDNEYS, RHEUMATIC PAINS, ARTHRITIS, NEURITIS

and such complaints as Headaches, Nervousness, Acids, Toxins, Bloating, Lack of Vitality, Energy, Poor Appetite, Underweight, Dizzy Spells.

Drugless Health

REGARDLESS of how long you have been a sufferer, and how many medicines you have tried before you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL, the wonderful mineral aid. Feel and enjoy the results one week after you start taking it. GEO-MINERAL comes from the earth — Nature's laboratory. Contains NO dope, NO alcohol, NO oil. ONLY nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

FOR THOUSANDS of years ever since Hipocrates was the father of medicine, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. If you suffer from anemia, nervousness, lack of vitality and energy, see what GEO-MINERAL will do for you.

Wonder Minerals

MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, when the sexual powers weaken, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain of these ills. Doctors send people to mineral springs to find cure or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

Amazing Results

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wondrous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

GEO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best springs. Watch your elimination from your bowels a day or two after using it. The waste, black as the color of your shoes, will start to break away, and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, relieving you. And then realize its value.

GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in the stomach. It cleans and purifies the intestines thoroughly, relieving gas, toxins, acids, and bloating. After these poisons are out of the system, and the kidneys purified, we begin to feel the arthritis and rheumatism leaving, and Nature starting to complete the recovery.

WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Come to this drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money.

Missions Halt Losing Streak

(By The Associated Press)

San Antonio stopped a nine-game losing streak at an opportune time last night. By beating Houston, 11-8, the Missions stayed in fourth place in the Texas league standings.

Dallas' Rebels used a southpaw, Quentin Altizer, to humble the Fort Worth Cats, 2-1, and move within half-game of fourth.

In other games, Oklahoma City took a 6-4 victory from Tulsa and Shreveport edged Beaumont, 5-4.

Four-Run Homer

Tom Jordan's four-run homer in the first inning put San Antonio off to a good start and the Missions took full advantage of the boost.

Fort Worth has been beaten ten times this year by left-handers and Altizer's feat gave Dallas a clean sweep of the two-game series. It was the third victory this year for Altizer over the Cats.

Dallas fashioned runs in the fifth and sixth innings while Fort Worth's only tally came in the ninth when Walter Rogers' tripled to drive in Don Runge.

Oklahoma City drove Tulsa's ace pitcher, Harry Perkowski, from the mound in the fourth with a four-run outburst. The Indians had scored two in the second.

Pinch Single Wins

Nick Gregory came through with a pinch-single in the ninth inning to give Shreveport the decision over Beaumont. His hit scored Danny Reynolds.

Beaumont had jumped to an early 3-0 lead, but lost it in the sixth inning. The Shippers went one up in the ninth, but triples by Jim Kirby and Hal Simpson tied the score for Shreveport in the ninth and then Gregory came through.

Tulsa moves into Dallas for a one-game stand tonight and Oklahoma City plays at Fort Worth. Houston winds up at San Antonio and Beaumont ends at Shreveport

Three Games Played In Church League

Victories in the Church League yesterday afternoon were turned in by the First Presbyterians over the Levine store, the First Methodists over the Barber College and the Asbury Methodists over the Salvation Army.

The Presbyterians won 11-10 with DeWitt outpitching Mills, although the losers scored seven runs in the first inning. The Presbyterian nine tied up the game in the third and won in the fourth.

Two Smack Homers

The First Methodist nine won 14-9 over the Barber College behind the pitching of Doyle Lane, while Ben Cowling and Glenn Williamson each smacked homers to help the victory.

The Asbury Methodist had an easy time in turning back the Salvation Army 16-2 at West Wagner Park, with Doug Galey pitching strong ball and Verdell Turner catching. Jeffcoat was the loser.

Sanders Motor company's softball team won its fourth straight victory yesterday at the expense of the Lubbock Auto nine, turning in a 4-2 victory that ousted the losers from first place in the Industrial League.

A. A. Fralin stole home in the fifth inning with the run that decided the game and Bob Sanders hit a homer in the sixth to clinch the contest. Earlier, Walter Bumpass slammed a four-baster to help him to his victory.

Bumpass allowed the losers only two hits, while the winners picked up five off Raymond Hintze. The victory allowed Sanders to move into first place with a four and one record.

Den 7 won an 18 to 17 victory over the Den 10 team and the Den 1 softball team turned in an 11 to 1 victory over the Den 5 team in games yesterday afternoon for Cub Scout Pack 1.

Big Spring Tightens Hold On Loop Lead

(By The Associated Press)

Big Spring's Broncs rolled merrily along at the top of the Longhorn league today, building their lead to three games over second place Midland on a 14-3 victory over Sweetwater. Midland lost a wild, 18-14 decision to Odessa.

In other games, Del Rio dropped its 33rd game of the year, Ballinger winning, 9-3, and San Angelo edged Vernon, 3-2.

Pampa Stomps Skidding Hubs As Gold Sox, Dukes Advance

Someone has made a dreadful mistake. Someone has failed to tell the Lubbock Hubbers that their show is slipping. And as if to prove it, the Hubbers sank a game closer to fourth place last night in losing to Pampa by the "narrow" margin of 17-1.

Pampa thus upped its margin over the Hubbers to four games and to three and a half over Borger, which was licked by Amarillo, 13-5. Albuquerque gained ground by beating Clovis 8-4 and Abilene slipped closer to Lamesa by losing to the Loboes 5-3.

Gold Sox Paste Borger

All in all, it was a rough night for the second and third place teams, who only Wednesday night traded places. The surging Gold Sox caught the Gassers off balance and handed them a severe pasting, while winning their seventh straight game. If Amarillo keeps up the pace, they can go ahead of Lubbock before the weekend.

In fact, if the Hubbers lose tonight and Amarillo wins, the Gold Sox will go into third place by .002 percentage points so close are they behind the Hub City nine. Moreover, should Borger lose again the Gold Sox would then trail the Gassers by only .010 percentage points.

Dukes Moving Up

And the observer of the West Texas-New Mexico League race shouldn't overlook Albuquerque, which is coming up faster than most persons realized. The Dukes showed that their recent victories have been no fluke by trouncing Clovis 8-4. This moved the Dukes up to .500 and left them in a strong challenging position.

Looking at the more pleasant side, if Lubbock beats Pampa tonight and Amarillo beats Borger, the Hubbers will go back into the second spot and will cut a full game off Pampa's lead.

Lamesa stopped its downward plunge with a 5-3 victory over the Blue Sox, who are getting in a rut themselves. The victory didn't move the Loboes out of seventh, but it brought them closer to passing Abilene and staved Clovis off again.

Three-Run Homer

Eddie Skrabacz hit a three-run homer in the first inning to give the Loboes a lead and they pushed over the winning run on a wild throw by the third baseman. This wild heave allowed Tony Fiarito to score in the seventh, although the Loboes added one for good measure in the eighth.

Some Coaches Oppose Suggestion, But . . .

Sports Writers Seek State Hi School Baseball Playoff

BY WERNER RENBERG
United Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, June 4 — Opinion seems to be divided on the popularity of high school baseball.

The Texas Sportswriters association, which lists as members most every keyboard pounder in these parts, thinks that schoolboy baseball is a great thing, and should be promoted in every way.

So the scribes will ask the high school coaches at the coaching school in Abilene to have a playoff for baseball just like they do in football and basketball. That way there'd be a real state champion.

Dallas Tourney Cited

Now the best method of determining the prep diamond titlist is the tournament sponsored by P. C. Cobb, athletic director of the Dallas schools. Cobb, an old hand in the way of promotion and a great lover of high school kids, has been putting on his tourney for years.

He selects the teams he thinks are the best in each part of the state and brings them together for the championship tournament These are the nines that probably would have won the district title had the districts been organized for play-offs in baseball as in other sports.

One thing about Cobb's tournament—it's open to all towns, big and little alike. If you've got nine boys who can play baseball better than other teams in your district, then chances are they'll be in Cobb's tourney. Apparently the "big city" schools, however, have the edge on the diamond, as Adamson of Dallas has just won its fifth title in seven years.

800 Teams This Year

It's been estimated that there were about 800 schoolboy baseball teams in Texas this spring.

But along comes Harry Hamilton, coach at San Antonio's Thomas Jefferson High, and says:

"All this talk about the public wanting the return of high school baseball is a lot of bunk."

"We started charging 25 cents for admission," Hamilton declares. "No one came out. We lowered it to 10 cents and still no one came so we opened the gates free. All the fans we had was 10 or 12 in addition to the parents of the players.

Hamilton believes most of the pressure for high school baseball is coming from the big league scouts, who would stand to profit from signing the boys to professional contracts.

Scouts Would Benefit

It is true that big league scouts would benefit by a well-knit high school baseball program.

It would take miles and miles and miles of traveling from one corner of the nation's biggest state to another to scout these high school youngsters. Whereas if there were an organized play-off, many—if not most—of the better players would come together for the state tournament. Good, from the scout's point of view.

But there's the boys angle, too. Many of them see themselves as Bobby Fellers and Ted Williamses of the 1950's. Some of them likely will be overlooked if there is no organized baseball program.

Track Aces To Tangle Tonight

DALLAS, June 4 (AP)—Track aces from the Southwest and Big Seven conferences vie here tonight and second-best contenders are expected to decide the "duel of champions."

The Southwest is figured to just about make a clean sweep of first place medals in track events, and the Big Seven expected to walk off with blue ribbon honors in the field.

Probable Winners

Clyde Scott of Arkansas, Charley Parker of Texas, Jerry Thompson of Texas and Rollin Prather of Kansas State are figured to win two events each.

Scott's 23 seconds flat for the 220-yard low hurdles and 14 flat for the 120-yard high hurdles this year is far under the meet standards. He's defending champion in the low hurdles.

Parker, defending 220-yard dash titlist, is expected to dethrone teammate Allen Lawler in the century.

Thompson, running on the track that brought him fame in high school is an easy choice to defend championships in both the mile and two mile. The same can be said for Prather in the shot and discus.

Strong In One Event

The Big Seven is strongest in only one track event—the 880-yard run—where Dick Shea of Kansas, Charles Lancaster of Missouri, and Duane Wolfe of Missouri, may take it a 1-2-3 finish.

Southwest conference schools represented will be Rice, Texas, Texas A&M, Arkansas and Southern Methodist. Baylor and Texas Christian failed to place in the conference meet.

The Big Seven is represented by Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Kansas State and Iowa State.

Adamson Wins 12-2 For Unofficial Title

DALLAS, June 4. (AP)—Adamson of Dallas today was unofficial state high school baseball champion for the third straight time.

The Leopards last night walloped Beaumont, 12-2.

Longview edged Hondo, 6-5, for third place.

Kal Segrist hit a home run and double to take batting honors for the Leopards as Bob McGhee and Ray Fitzpatrick scattered six hits to Beaumont.

The purples scored on an error and a stolen base.

CONNIE MACK HONORED

PHILADELPHIA, June 4 (AP)—Connie Mack was honored last night by the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce in recognition of his 65th season in organized baseball and 48th consevutive year as manager of the Athletics.

Blackwell Back In Form, Beats Giants

BY BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Cincinnati Reds have come up with a lot of bad news for the seven other National league clubs. Ewell Blackwell's back in form.

The stringbean righthander, sidelined for a month with a sore shoulder, last night won his first game since April 23. He held the slugging New York Giants to two hits and a pair of runs in seven innings. Nine Giants went down or strikes, although Mickey Livingston blasted a bases-empty home run for the New York in the fifth.

Retires In Seventh

Blackwell, who walked six, retired after the seventh and the Reds quelled a ninth inning rally to win, 6-4. Blackwell retired after he complained he was having difficulty breathing as the result of a heavy head cold.

Hank Sauer hit his 14th home run with nobody on in the seventh for the Reds.

The victory moved Cincinnati into sixth place in the National league, only four and a half games back of the leading Giants.

The loss cut the Giant's first place margin to a half-game over the St. Louis Cardinals, who broke a six-game losing streak. The Red Birds tripped Brooklyn, 4 to 1, in Sportsmans park behind the brilliant four-hit pitching of Harry "The Cat" Brecheen.

Pirates Beat Boston

The Pittsburgh Pirates pulled to within a game of the top by outlasting Boston, 5 to 3. The Braves picked up a run in the eighth, scored another and had the bases loaded with none out in the ninth when Elmer Singleton came to Kirby Higbe's rescue. The former Boston righthander shut off the hitting immediately, although a final tally came across on a force play.

Young Richie Ashburn, whose powerful spring hitting boosted him from the Class A Eastern league to the Philadelphia Phils, connected safely in his 20th consecutive game as the Phils downed Chicago, 4 to 3. Ashburn, the league's fourth hitter, smashed two singles and a double.

Detroit Beats Yanks

In the American league, Detroit spurted for four runs in the 11th inning to defeat New York 6 to 2 and Boston turned back St. Louis, 3 to 2. Cleveland at Washington and Chicago at Philadelphia were rained out.

Hal Newhouser held the Yanks to six hits in winning his fourth straight game. Hoot Evers and Vic Wertz homered for Detroit, while Joe DiMaggio accounted for both New York tallies with a single and a long fly.

Jack Kramer tumbled his former St. Louis mates out of first division with his eight hitter. Whitey Platt, rookie Brownie left fielder, homered with one aboard for the St. Louis runs in the seventh inning.

Pat Rooney Is Sold To Clovis

Pat Rooney, who last year patrolled the outfield for the Lubbock Hubbers when they won the West Texas-New Mexico League championship, has been sold to the Clovis Pioneers and will report in the next few days.

Rooney, who was bought by the Greenville club of the Class B Big State League, has been playing the outfield there this season. He apparently did not live up to their expectations and they peddled him to Clovis.

Played Here Last Year

The move, while welcomed by Clovis fans, will not make Lubbock residents happy, who remember the reliable player only too well. He clubbed the ball at a .328 average last year, getting 21 doubles, 11 triples and five home runs. He drove in 60 runs and received 73 bases on balls.

Rooney also led the right fielders in the loop in fielding with a .969 mark. He appeared in 86 games, had 142 putouts, 12 assists and only five errors, while taking part in eight double plays, more than any other outfielder in the league.

The capable outfielder presently is making his temporary home in Lubbock with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tryheart, 2204 29th street. He probably will remain here for another day or two.

LINE COACH NAMED

ALICE, June 4 (U.P.) — Henry Armstrong, first string tackle at Rice institute for the last three seasons, will take over next week as line coach of the Alice High school football taem, Head Coach G. C. (Ox) Emerson said today.

Two Games Set At Boys Club

The Red Sox and the Yankees are playing a Pee Wee League game this afternoon at the Lubbock Boys club and this tilt will be followed by a game between the Methodist Men and the Exchange club nines of the American Legion's South League.

The first game is set to start at 3 p. m. and the nightcap will begin at 5:30 p. m.

Cards Turn Back Sox

Yesterday it was the Cardinals' turn to win and they did, turning back the White Sox in a Pee Wee League game, 14-9, while the ABC nine eked out a 7-6 victory over the Jaycees in the South League.

Two batters led the way for the Cardinals in piling up a decisive victory. Wary had a single and a triple in four trips to the plate, while Bill Nicholson had two singles in as many trips as Wary.

Fawcett Pitches Win

Dean Fawcett pitched creditable ball in gaining the win, although touched for a three-run triple by Wade Wolfe in the sixth inning. This blow highlighted the White Sox attack.

In the ABC-Jaycee game, Truman Jones had a pair of singles for a perfect day at the plate and Bobby Tollison equalled him on a double and single in two trips.

Carol Walker had a triple and single in three plate appearances for the Jaycees, while Karl Ince, the losing hurler, tried to help his own cause with a home run in the first inning.

Win Game In Seventh

The winning run crossed the plate in the last of the seventh, as the ABC's eked out the victory. Each team had six hits, but Truman Jones, the winning hurler, struckout 15 men and kept the hits pretty well scattered. Dan Heard was his catcher for the victors, while Donny Presley did the receiving for the Jaycees.

The title of "Junior Ambassador" will be bestowed upon Alderson, an outstanding football, basketball and baseball player at Lubbock High school, from which he graduated recently.

The young Lubbock star will play in the outfield on the U.S.A. All-Star nine that will play the Arkansas All-Stars, also teen age boys of outstanding ability. Last year's visiting all-star team was captained by Buddy Parker of Corpus Christi in the games at Baltimore, Md.

Hughson Wins First Comeback Attempt

(By The Associated Press)

Tex Hughson may be on his way back to the Boston Red Sox.

The big former ace of the Boston pitching staff went six innings in his first start for the Austin Pioneers of the Big State league last night and gave up but three hits. He struck out five men, walked one and retired with a three-run lead.

Austin finally won the ten-inning game, 4-3, but Paris staged a good finish.

Other results included Texarkana's one-sided, 17-6 decision over league-leading Waco; Sherman-Denison's easy 18-5 victory over Wichita Falls and Greenville's 8-7 win over Gainesville.

Hughson, sent to Austin in hopes warm climate would cure an ailing pitching arm, apparently asked Manager Hank Oana to send in the relief pitcher.

Paris tied the count at 3-all in the eighth inning when Barney White hit a two-run homer and Charley Cantrell's infield hit scored George Reichelt.

Austin's winning run came on a close play at home. F. M. Younger scored on Dave Sarver's bunt.

Six home runs helped Texarkana clip Waco. Tony Dibartolo and D. C. Miller each hit two and Vernon Washington and Jim Basso hit one.

Hurlers Feature Softball Play

A pair of hurlers featured the two South Plains Softball league games at Jumbo Webster field last night, Jackie Neel establishing a new strikeout record and G. W. Warden losing a game in which he didn't allow a single hit.

The Baldridge Bakery beat the Thomas Jewelers in the second contest, 1-0, after the Bluebonnet-Sunbeam nine had taken an 11-1 victory from the Cloverlake Dairy.

Loss A Heartbreaker

Warden's loss was a real heart breaker. The clever, able hurler didn't allow a single hit all night, but got himself into trouble by walking Jim Joe Rieger.

Reiger proceeded to steal second, but the danger still wasn't great with Warden pitching good ball. At this point Billy Kelley, the usually dependable catcher, threw wildly into centerfield and Reiger crossed the plate with the only run of the game.

Only three men reached base off Warden and one of them scored. All were the gainers by walks. Warden faced only 24 batters officially and he fanned 11 men.

Neel Is Magnificent

Loy Hubbard pitched almost equally good ball, allowing only four hits and whiffing five men. His team helped him by playing errorless ball.

Neel was magnificent again tonight, striking out 20 batters for his new record. Cloverlake was held to three hits and they were fortunate to avoid a whitewash.

Meanwhile, the Sunbeamers, who lead the loop, found Cecil Hale's pitching exactly what they wanted and proceeded to bang his deliveries all over the field. The washermen picked up five runs in one inning to cement the game, although they missed scoring in only the third frame.

The line scores:

Louise Suggs Wins British Tourney

ST. ANNES-ON-THE-SEA, England, June 4. (AP)—Atlanta's little Louise Suggs trudged through a ripping gale and icy rain yesterday to capture the British women's golf championship with a one-up victory over Jean Donald, daughter of a Scotch country doctor.

The new champion, who succeeds the now professional Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias sails for home Saturday with other members of the United States' victorious Curtis Cup team.

American Chances In English Derby Increase As Rains Make Track Heavy

EPSOM, England, June 4 (AP)—American chances of a derby win at Epsom tomorrow rose steadily as windy showers and slow footing were predicted for the 169th running of the British flat racing classic.

The chief American hope in the 33-horse event, New York banker William Woodzard's Beleck Tarquin, likes the going heavy and should have an edge on tough opposition if the bad weather prevails.

Expected To Cut Odds

Bookmakers at the final derby callover tonight are expected to cut the current odds of 100-7 against Black Tarquin.

The other American-bred colt, Senator 2nd, is in peak shape for the mile and a half test for three-year-olds. He has a mile and a quarter win under his belt this season.

Black Tarquin is one of eight probable starters to win a race this season over the full derby distance. Two weeks ago he took the derby trial stakes at Lingfield Park.

The French hopeful, Marcel Boussac's Djeddah, arrived at the Blackbushe airdrome near Epsom in a specially-equipped French airliner yesterday afternoon.

Weather Uncertain

The weatherman's foibles threatened to upset the derby form completely. The current favorites are Mahaevrdaja of Baroda's unbeaten My Babu at 4 to 1 and the Cobbler at 5 to 1. The Cobbler will be ridden by the leading English jockey, Gordon Richards.

The course was muddy and slick last night and bookmakers reported a public tendency to favor outsiders One Londos bookmaker said bettors are putting their piggy banks on everything from 33 to 200 to 1.

Black Hubbers Play Stamford Tonight

The Lubbock Black Hubbers will play the Texas Cardinals from Stamford tonight at 8:30 under the lights at Rosenthal Field in a game designed to replace the scheduled contest last night with the Odessa Black Oilers.

The Odessa Black Oilers failed to arrive, with the exception of one carload of players and, after waiting over an hour, the game was cancelled. The customer's money was returned and the game with Stamford immediately booked for tonight.

Manager James Roy Lewis immediately contacted Stamford and the Texas Cardinals from that city will be here tonight for a game at 8:30 p. m. at Rosenthal Field.

Manager Lewis said last night that he regretted the failure of the Odessa nine to appear as advertised, but guaranteed that the Stamford crew would be here.

He said that his lineup would remain unchanged, with Alexander Johns the probable pitcher. Behind the plate will be one of the most colorful players in Negro baseball, Jack "Rocking Chair" Brown.

Brown, a catcher of outstanding ability and a natural comedian, actually catches from a rocking chair. He is adept at picking up all deliveries from the pitcher and can make accurate throws to any base from the chair. He consistently has thrown out base runners attempting to steal.

Demaret Burns Up Albuquerque Course

ALBUQUERQUE, June 4. (AP)—There was talk of renaming the University of New Mexico golf course today.

More ardent fans went so far as to suggest it might be named for Jimmy Demaret, the sweet swinging Texan who registers from Ojai, Calif.

And as the $10,000 Albuquerque open headed into its second round of medal play, Jimmy certainly was acting pretty much as if he owned the 6,813-yard public links layout.

Yesterday, for example, he took it apart for a brilliant 65—seven strokes under par and one fewer than his nearest competitor in a 72-man field of pros and amateurs.

George Schneiter of Ogden, Utah, came in with a flashy 66. Stout Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, N. C., fashioned a 67. Another blow back were Stewart (SKP) Alexander, Lexington, N. C., and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, with 68's.

The value of livestock on United States farms Jan. 1, 1947, was estimated at $11,978,000.

Legion Nine Plays Big Spring Today

The Senior American Legion nine this afternoon is scheduled to play the Big Spring American Legion team in Big Spring, the second exhibition and practice tilt of the season for the Lubbock boys.

Coach Fred Taylor and Legion Commander H. J. McCabe will take a full squad for the game, the second exhibition contest scheduled for the senior nine. The Lubbock diamond men scored their first victory Wednesday night in turning back the Morton American Legion team, 10-9, and will play Morton again Sunday at Morton.

Longview Regains Lone Star Lead

(By The Associated Press)

Longview regained first place in the Lone Star league last night, nudging Bryan, 6-5, while the Drillers were losing to Marshall, 7-6.

Tyler stayed two games off the pace with a 9-2 victory over Henderson and Lufkin moved into a tie for sixth place by beating Gladewater, 10-8.

Joe Pate racked up his 10th victory of the year in beating Bryan. He was touched for 11 hits, but kept them fairly well scattered. Manager Dixie Parsons of Longview was thumbed out of the game in the eighth after an umpire argument over a called strike.

Lufkin nicked three Gladewater pitchers for 14 hits in beating Gladewater.

Bobby Cullins hit three more runs in Marshall's slim win over Kilgore while Tyler bunched 12 hits to beat Henderson.

France is estimated to have shipped perfumes valued at nearly $2,000,000 to the United States in the last year.

Foreign motion picture exhibitors are facing increasing restrictions on remittance of earnings from Argentina.

Former Packing Plant Employe Tells Of Horse Meat Shipment

HOUSTON, June 4 (U.P.) — A former employe of a Houston meat packing company was scheduled to appear before the Harris county grand jury today to tell what he knows about 10 empty meat barrels sent to a concern that slaughters only horses.

Richard Musick, a Houston resident since 1942, was among witnesses waiting to appear before the grand jury now investiing the alleged widespread sale of horse meat for human consumption in Houston.

Not Clean Enough

"I quit that job with the packing company because I didn't like what was going on," Musick told newsmen. "I didn't think they were clean enough to be handling meat that people would eat."

Musick said he also stopped eating this company's sausage and other ground meat products. He had been employed as a cattle truck driver.

The witness said on a Saturday about two months ago he rolled out the 10 empty barrels for the waiting truck. He said he remembered the barrels and their numbers because he thought it was unusual they should be sent to a plant that slaughtered only horses.

Barrels Are Full

"Early Monday morning I was bringing in a load of cattle to be slaughtered when I noticed the same 10 barrels sitting in the plant," Musick said. "Another employe told me they had been returned late Sunday night and had been emptied sometime during the night."

Highlights of the horse meat situation included a state laboratory test report that horse meat had been found in meat sold in school cafeterias, and a charge by a Houston meat packer that as much as 200,000 pounds of horse meat a week was sold to consumers who thought they were buying beef.

Reported Elsewhere

Other cities in the Texas gulf coast area also reported alleged sales of horse meat for human consumption.

The meat situation took a different twist as Otis Muennink, Baytown sanitarian, revealed that tests proved that two-thirds of meat sampled in an inspection of six meat markets disclosed meat with illegal preservatives.

"There is no way one can tell if preservatives have been put in meat except by laboratory test," he said.

Restores Color

"Meat can smell to high heaven and the color can be dark, but certain preservatives can return the meat to normal color and odor," he added. "But the bacteria are still there."

Charges were filed against four Baytown meat markets, and Muennink said he would continue to file charges against offenders. He said his investigation did not indicate any horse meat was being sold.

However, several Baytown cafe operators reported they have refused to buy horse meat when it was offered to them for sale.

Mine Dispute

is to make a new agreement.

More than one third of the nation's soft coal is produced by the groups making up the southern association.

The coal operators were standing by, ready to resume contract talks.

Lewis now has his choice of including the southern association in the bargaining talks or facing another fine for contempt of court.

Goldsborough is the judge who twice already nas fined Lewis and the UMW a total of $2,130,000 for contempt of court. Previous contempt charges arose when Lewis and his union ignored court orders requiring them to end coal strikes.

Winding up a lengthy statement giving his decision today, Goldsborough said:

To Sign Order Today

"I will sign the order requested by the National Labor Relations Board."

The judge will sign the order formally later today.

This action makes two Goldsborough injunctions hanging over Lewis. The other is an order prohibiting the union from striking in a dispute over miners' pensions. This dispute has been settled, at least to the satisfaction of the Justice department but Goldsborough has refused so far to lift the order.

Two Arrested

road, the pursuing officers said, and the police began firing warning shots.

Traveling over the new underpass near Monroe, the suspects allegedly pitched a tire out in front of the police.

The police, dodging to prevent hitting the tire, began placing their shots nearer to the suspects. The Latin Americans began weaving in efforts to avoid being hit, lost control and began "pin-wheeling."

In the wreckage of their car a second tire was found, the patrolmen said.

Part Of Public Duty

Moreno was driver of the car, police said.

"With all these burglaries being perpetrated, it is understandable that we must stop everybody who acts suspicious," Chief of Police Lewis Kittrell said.

"If we have to shoot or use force otherwise to effect an arrest, that too is part of the public duty we have to stop and question persons who arouse suspicion by attempting to outrun us when we call on them to stop."

It is estimated that the American Legion controls physical assets totalling $200 million.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 4 (AP) — Cotton futures moved lower today under pressure of liquidation. The proposed House appropriations committee cut in the foreign aid funds accounted for the selling as traders feared that cotton exports may be well under previous ideas.

The poor demand for cotton textiles and favorable cotton crop prospects also influenced nervous selling. Offerings were absorbed principally through mill covering against textile sales. There was further switching from nearby July to later months.

A private survey estimated that cotton acreage will be 11.7 per cent higher than last season's plantings.

Futures closed unchanged to $1.75 a bale lower than the previous close.

Marshall Flayed By Editor For Refusal To Accept His Award

NEW YORK, June 4 (AP) — Secretary of State Marshall, who declined to accept the annual award of the Churchman Magazine, was criticized by its editor last night at a dinner at which the award was to have been presented.

Dr. Guy Emery Shipler, editor of the independent Episcopal publication said:

Changed His Mind

"Recently a government official, who for eight months had told me that he would like to be present on this occasion, suddenly made some surprising discoveries and changed his mind.

"He found, he said, that 'The Churchman is not, as I had originally understood, the official organ of the Episcopal church, devoting itself exclusively to religious matter. Its editorials extend far into the realm of politics and international affairs'."

Dr. Shipler, noting that the magazine has been published "only since 1804," said it never has been an official publication and always has carried in its masthead the phrase "an independent journal." He said the Episcopal church has no official national journal except a missionary monthly.

Israel Welcomed

"Some government intelligence agency," Dr. Shipler said, "Did an amazing job in unearthing these secrets and certainly earned the taxpayers' money."

A "Christian salute" and "warmest welcome" citation was presented at the dinner to the new state of Israel.

The citation was accepted by Rabbi Israel Goldstein, former president of the Zionist Organization of America. Aubrey S. Eban, Israel's representative at the United Nations, had turned down an invitation to attend following Marshall's refusal of the annual award.

Two Nisei Soldiers Buried In Arlington National Cemetery

BOOTS AND ALL—Doryce Platt who won the title of "America's Most Beautiful Cowbelle" at the Stampede Day celebration held in Bandera recently as "Miss Galveston" is shown with cowboy boots, hat and a silver cowbell on the beach at Galveston.

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—The Army buried two Japanese-American soldiers in Arlington National cemetery today with a general's graveside declaration that "they proved their loyalty and devotion beyound all question."

The two privates, first - class, were Fumitake Nagato of nearby Arlington, Va., and Saburo Tanamachi, of San Benito, Texas. They died in the Vosges mountains of France in 1944 when the famous Nisei organization, the 42nd combat team stormed a German-held ridge.

In rescuing men belonging to a battalion of the 36th infantry, the Nisei outfit lost 200 men killed and 800 wounded.

The bodies of Nagato and Tanamachi were buried in a temporary military cemetery in France and brought to this country recently.

Gen. Jacob L. Devers, chief of Army field forces and one of several high-ranking officers who paid final honors to the two Nisei, said:

"There is one supreme, final test of loyalty to one's native land. This test is readiness and willingness to fight for, and if need be, to die for one's country. These Americans, and their fellows, passed that test with colors flying."

Arkansas Peace Justice Would Perform Ceremony Himself For A $10,000 Bride

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 4. (U.P.) —An Arkansas justice of the peace, tired of performing marriage ceremonies for other persons, offered today to marry a Lexington, Ky., woman and take the $10,000 she'll pay for a husband.

The woman last week said she would pay the $10,000 for a suitable husband. Today she had six takers. Two were from Missouri, the others from Arkansas, Rhode Island and Boston, Mass.

The woman attempted to insert a want-ad for a husband in the classified section of the Lexington Herald-Leader. The paper's advertising department refused the ad because of paper "policy." It did not take the woman's name.

The justice of the peace wrote the Herald-Leader, as did the other candidates and asked to be put in touch with her. He said he's single, 55 years old, and wants the Lexington woman because she seems to be "different." He's willing to perform the ceremony himself.

He cast aside other women by saying they "don't seem to be interested in housekeeping in a home."

Not Interested In Money

The Oklahoman said he wasn't interested in the woman's money. He just wants to get in touch with her. The Bostonian said he was a farm laborer who wants a "help-mate," while the fellow from Rhode Island wants some one to "look after me . . . and take my hand."

One of the Missourians said he was a chief machinist "who could give references," while the other said "she would have to live in the Ozarks, a good country and good people."

What can the Herald-Leader do with the letters? It doesn't know the woman's name.

So this year they decided to take the children. They ended up with 26—eight of their own, 13 grandchildren, and some "in-laws." They had to rent a whole camp of eight cottages at Fish creek for their vacation Aug. 8-21.

mid-morning session in hopes of passing the bill on to the Senate by nightfall.

Majority Leader Halleck (R-Ind) told reporters "my guess is that there won't be any further cuts." Taber said he would not oppose any amendments which "appear to be justified."

Wants Full Amount

Paul G. Hoffman, head of the economic cooperation administration, said he "certainly hopes" Congress approves the full amount.

"The less money we have, the less recovery we can expect," he said.

The committee trimmed $245,000,000 from the requested $4,000,000,000 ECA fund destined for the 16 western European nations.

Other cuts recommended: Greek-Turkish aid — from $275,000,000 to $200,000,000; Chinese aid — from $483,000,000 to $400,000,000; government and relief in occupied areas — from $1,400,000 to $1,250,000,000.

In addition the committee recommended that $20,000,000 earmarked for Trieste should come from ECA funds.

Proposed Amendments

Major fights were expected on proposed amendments which would:

1. Restore the $533,000,000 lopped off by the committee.

2. Spread the appropriation over 12 months instead of 15, thereby substantially reducing the cut.

3. Prohibit use of any of the funds for Great Britain.

4. Knock out a provision allowing $10,000,000 of the money to be used to protect American distributors of information abroad from losses through currency exchange.

train before he returns to Washington.

Although there was no representative of the Democratic national committee aboard Mr. Truman's train, Senator J. Howard McGrath, the Democratic chairman, saw him at the White House last night and drove with him to Washington's union station to see him off.

So did Secretary of State Marshall, Secretary of Defense Forrestal, Attorney General Clark, Secretary of Agriculture Brannan and Senator Lucas of Illinois, Democratic whip of the Senate.

Senator Lucas is accompanying the President to Chicago for his speech in Chicago stadium commemorating the 100th anniversary of Swedish immigration into the midwest. It will deal at least in part with the plight of displaced persons in Europe.

Mr. Truman plans other major, prepared talks, as follows: at Omaha, Saturday, at 10 p. m. (EST) before the 35th division's annual reunion.

At Seattle, June 10 at 4 p. m. (EST) in Victory square under auspices of the Washington State Press club.

Lubbock Man Is Fined $100 On Guilty Plea For Carrying Gun

James N. Pruett, 30, of Lubbock, was fined $100 and county court costs today after a plea of guilty of carrying a pistol, a judgment of County Judge Walter Davies showed.

The charge followed investigation into an informal complaint of A. L. Clark, a student of Texas Tech, that Pruett fired the weapon at a dine and dance place southeast of Lubbock. Clark named several other Tech students as witnesses. None was injured.

Gun Was In Car

Police arrested the defendant when he drove into Lubbock a few minutes later, with a woman companion. It was about 1:30 a. m., officials said. The gun, they said, was in the car. The woman was not detained.

Authorities said an argument preceded the shooting.

A charge had been prepared, but not filed, in connection with a Thursday night raid and confiscation of 104 cases of beer in 500-block Thirty-fourth.

Charley Fuller, deputy supervisor of the Liquor Control board, obtained a search warrant for the raid, from D. W. Robertson, justice of peace.

House Burglarized

Antonio Erbeia, who lives outside city limits in 400-block East Thirteenth, reported nothing taken in a burglary of his trailer house. Intruders cut a hole in the trailer to gain entrance.

El Paso authorities accepted custody of Tony Don Juan Pier, 23, a Houston negro arrested May 1 at Quanah and sentenced two days later to seven years by Judge Dan Blair of the 72nd district court of Lubbock county for forgery.

The black also is wanted by several other counties, Lubbock officials were informed.

No Arrest Made

Police still had made no arrest in connection with the stabbing a day earlier of a 43-year-old Latin American, Juliano Hernandez. The name of a suspect had been given to them.

R. L. Burdett reported that a barber shop at 1112 Ave. L had been visited by thieves who failed to gain entrance. A lock on the front door had been tampered with, and several pieces of wire were stuffed into the lock.

John F. Mullins, 47, was fined $200 and costs on a charge of check law violation after pleading guilty, according to county court records.

China Warned

in one of these demonstrations and sent appeals to President Truman and Secretary Marshall. They want the U. S. to stop helping Japan.

Stuart said he did not hold the Chinese government responsible for the agitation.

Speaks With Regret

"It is with real regret that I am compelled to take cognizance publicly of the growingly dangerous situation which affects not only the interests of the United States but the vital interests of China as well," he said.

"Because most of my life has been spent in Chinese academic circles, it is difficult for me to admit that the core of anti-American agitation on the question of Japan is coming from Chinese student groups."

He continued that it is all the more regrettable that "this movement should start at a time when the United States is embarking on a large scale and serious program to assist China in its present tragic plight."

"At a time when the American people are called upon to assist in the rehabilitation of war-torn areas throughout the world, they may well wonder when these efforts are greeted by unreasonable and irresponsible attacks on American policy," he went on.

Draft Bill

the Capehart and Lodge proposals.

"Either we need a draft or we don't," he said. "The committee ejected all schemes for delay. I think Congress is willing to meet the responsibility."

Gurney's committee recommended that the draft become effective whenever the bill became law, instead of requiring the President to start up the machinery.

Capehart's amendment would delay actual drafting until 90 days after the bill was signed. Drafting would be permitted then only if the President found the armed forces unable to obtain enough volunteers.

Flood Victims

men who had been helping civilians in holding the saturated dikes. One of them was Col. J. Toogood, commander of the 13th armored regiment.

The break on Hatzic island, 45 miles east of Vancouver, was the largest along the Fraser during the current flood siege—800 feet. Water swept away the Canadian Pacific railway's double - tracked main line, a pump station and the stationkeeper's house. The town of Dewdney was isolated and about 6,000 acres of land submerged. The British Columbia electric power station at Dewdney was knocked out.

On the lower Columbia, more troops and civilians hurried into danger areas to aid weary workers who have spent days strengthening scores of weaking dikes against the river's savage onslaught.

Condition Is Critical

Five hundred army regulars and 250 navy men were helping hundreds of civilians in the 12,000-acre Clatskanie area, which U. S. engineers said was in "very critical condition." Only one of nine dikes in this Oregon area 50 miles from the river's mouth, was good, they said.

Across the river in Washington, the situation in the Longview-Kelso area 65 miles upriver was almost as bad. Nearly 5000 men, including 100 fresh soldiers, labored on soggy dikes each day. Their schedule called for laying 100,000 sandbags each day.

Elsewhere along the lower river, the dikes were holding their own or the situation was improved over yesterday, the engineers reported.

Crest Swells Streams

The crest of the new flood—expected in the already hard-hit Portland area Monday—was beginning ot swell both the Columbia and the Snake, the Columbia's principal tributary.

At Grand Coulee dam, most massive structure yet built by man, the Columbia's rate of flow hit a new record late last night —534,650 cubic feet a second.

The Snake rose more than a foot yesterday at Lewiston, Idaho. On the Canadian headwaters of the Columbia, the smelter city of Trail, B. C., evacuated a street as flood waters edged higher.

Veteran Columbia forecasters said they do not expect the new crest to equal the height of the old one.

Job Placement Is Increasing

Contiuuing to show a steady increase since February, job placements through the local office of the Texas Employment commission during May totaled 713, according to a report on the month's activities by James E. Marshall, manager.

The figure compares with 438 in February. The number of contacts by persons seeking employment during the month was 3,943, job openings cleared through the office numbered 856, and new applicants for employment totaled 587, the report showed.

As employment increased during May, the number of unemployment compensation and servicemen's readjustment claims declined. The report showed that a large number of final payments were made during the month in the cases of veterans who have drawn all unemployment compensation and self-employment benefits due them under the servicemen's readjustment act.

Analyzed industrially, 147 of the placements during May were in contract construction, 139 in retail trades, 84 in wholesale trades, 34 in food and kindred products, 31 in transportation and allied industries, 61 in service institutions, and 18 in government establishments.

By occupational groupings, the placements were 101 in clerical and sales group, four in professional and managerial, 147 in service occupations, 65 skilled, 82 semi-skilled, and 276 unskilled.

Marshall's report shows a current estimate of 3,053 firms in Lubbock with total employment of 24,962. Retail trades rank first as to number of people employed, estimated at 6,542, and service institutions are in second place with 3,684.

Medical and other professional services account for 2,586 of the total employed, and other estimates are 1,788 in wholesale trade, 1,650 in construction, 1,490 in transportation and allied industries, 1,093 in government establishments, and 1,200 in manufacture of food and kindred products.

Waitress Charged In Shooting Said Sane

NEWARK, N. J., June 4 (INS) —Mrs. Ann Seamons Powers, 39-year-old red-haired waitress accused of the fatal shooting of Newark police Captain Thomas J. Rowe, was pronounced sane today.

Essex county prosecutor Duane D. Minard said the county psychiatrist found her "completely normal" and that he will present the case to the grand jury on July 1.

Mrs. Powers, who was seized as she ran out of Rowe's office May 21 is being held without bail on a murder charge. Rowe died of a bullet wound from his own gun.

The waitress, who is estranged from her husband, claimed her mind was "a blank" at the time and she doesn't know how Rowe was shot.

Pair Of Ski Pants Brings About "Great" Love Between New Yorker, German Girl

NEW YORK, June 4. (INS)—A drab pair of ski pants donated by an unknown American to a charitable organization which sent it to Germany was listed today as the cause of a "great love."

The story was told when blonde, attractive Fraulein Hildegrade Nesch arrived at LaGuardia international airport from Frankfurt to meet her husband-to-be, Lawrence F. Goty, of Yonkers, N. Y.

Goty explained that they never had met before, but have carried on a correspondence for about 8 months. It started when Hildegrade wrote to thank him for the pants.

She said the group which gave her the pants gave her Goty's name as the donor.

Goty asserted he didn't know where the relief organization had gotten his name because he hadn't ever donated anything to German relief.

But, he said, that was okay with him, because it resulted in his "great love."

The happy pair said they will be married in Yonkers on June 13. Goty works in the Yonkers department of finance.

As for the ski pants, Hildegrade said she wishes she knew who donated them, so she could invite the "Cupid" to be the best man or maid of honor at their marriage.

Buxom Blonde Is Flooded With Offers Of Marriage In Exchange For $14,000 House

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., June 4. (U.P.)—Nellie Wolan, a buxom blonde who wants to trade her six-room house for an affectionate husband, had so many calls from prospects today that she hardly had time to eat.

"And I'm on a party phone line," she said. "The neighbors all listen in. It's rather embarrassing."

Seven men came yesterday to look over her $14,000 house and offer the 34-year-old Miss Wolan marriage.

"But I turned them all down," she said. "None of them was exactly what I wanted."

She hoped for better luck today among the 14 interviews she has scheduled.

Miss Wolan, an unemployed office worker, broadcast her desire for matrimony earlier this week over a local radio station's "swap-shop" program. Her main specification was that a husband must be affectionate—"because I like a lot of loving."

The five-feet ten-inch, 160-pound Miss Wolan said she wasn't driven to the appeal because she lacks for suitors.

"I just needed wider variety," she explained. "The number of men a girl can meet is rather limited under ordinary circumstances."

Japanese Fishing Boat Is Now In Tow

TOKYO, June 4 (AP)—Aid has reached the disabled Japanese fishing boat Taiyo Maru, adrift for a month between Guam and Okinawa.

The U. S. destroyer John R. Craig, docking at nearby Yokosuka today, reported it found the Taiqo Maru had approximately 30 Japanese aboard instead of 19. The Japanese told the Craig they had no casualties but needed food and some minor medical aid.

The Japanese patrol vessel Shinko Maru is towing the Taiyo Maru to Kobe.

"Grand Old Man" Of Baylor College Dies

BELTON, June 4 (AP) — Mary Hardin-Baylor's "grand old man" is dead.

Dr. Ernest Gale Townsend, 79, connected with the college for more than 40 years, died last night.

An ordained Baptist preacher, Townsend had at various times been acting president, vice president, teacher, dean, field representative and head of the college's religious and education department.

He served as mayor of Belton from 1938 until 1945, when he resigned, and had been a city commissioner since 1931.

Widely known throughout Texas and the South as an educator, he once held pastorates in Dallas and Waco. He was active in Baptist orgnizations.

Survivors include his wife, Ellie Townsend, and a son, Gale Townsend, of Houston.

Payments To Mother Of Child Reduced

SANTA MONICA, Calif., June 4 (AP) — Film Producer George (Buddy) De Sylva has been granted a reduction of $100 a month in payments for support of his son born out of wedlock and the child's mother.

The Superior court yesterday orded payments of $750 a month reduced to $650 after March 10, 1949. De Sylva's lawyer told the court that continuation of the payments granted last February to the boy's mother, Marie Ballentine, De Sylva's former secretary, would "encourage women to think they can live in luxury simply by having a baby.

The court also reduced the amount of fees to be paid Miss Ballentine's lawyer from $16,000 to $11,000.

Cat Takes Care Of Five Baby Minks

CHICAGO, June 4 (AP) — Five baby minks, whose mother died last Monday, a day after they were born, have a foster-mother—a cat already busy caring for her three newly-born kittens.

Joseph Zona of suburban Chicago Heights didn't know what to do for the five orphan minks after the mother died. Then he thought of the mother cat at the home of his neighbor, Mario Caruso.

With Caruso's permission, Zona brought the mother cat and the three kittens, who also were born last Sunday, to his home and put the five minks in with them.

Strike Talks Fail In City

Negotiations seeking settlement of the strike of drivers for the Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches here broke off again last night after four days of renewed efforts in the two-weeks old wage dispute.

The drivers walked out two weeks ago tongiht after negotiations stretching over several weeks time had failed to produce agreement on a working contract.

Primary points of disagreement were:

1. The company's rejection of a union proposal to return all striking employes to their jobs, who had not been charged officially with offenses against the company, and submission of the wage increase issue to arbitration.

Plan Is Offered

Under arbitration, as proposed by the union representative, C. H. Smith, of Fort Worth, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, a union and a company representative would meet with a third person chosen by the governor or other suitable official to give a final decision on the wage issue.

2. The company, in a statement to Smith, barred from re-employment 14 men. According to Smith, this figure had been 17. Smith said this presumably included five men formally charged with offenses of violence against the company in Hale and King counties.

But the names of the other nine men were not known nor the charges against them. He said that these men should have a hearing before agreement on that point could be reached.

The company statement indicated that the unnamed operators were accused of wrongdoing such as threats against or abuse of employes of the company.

Smith and Hart Willis, of the firm of Willis and Lewis of Dallas, said that the union was willing to exclude from re-employment those men against whom charges of offenses were proven.

On the matter of re-employment, the company in a statement from Jess C. Levens, vice president, proposed to return approximately 20 men to work immediately. The others, excluding those charged with improper conduct toward the company, would be put on a list and given an opportunity to work at a later date.

Levens had no comment last night to make on the negotiations.

Members of the union were notified late yesterday, according to Smith, that the company would put part of the striking operators back to work. But that this would be done without impartial arbitration of the wage issue, and with the company maintaining the choice of rehiring the remaining 24 drivers.

Smith said that at a meeting of the union membership it was voted that all men were to be returned to work or that the strike would continue.

Smith said he would make a broadcast at 6:30 p. m. tonight over Station KFYO concerning the dispute.

Baby's Bottle Is Of Wrong Formula

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 4 (AP) — The law was dry, the diapers were wet and as for the proof—it ran about 90.

Prowler car officers R. L. Pratt and S. W. Stephens answered a call to a tavern. The barkeep said a woman with a small baby was bothering the trade.

At headquarters she suggested a change of didies for the infant.

Lt. Ed White started to hand her the diaper bag when he looked inside.

The two bottles there weren't the nursing type, and the formula was altogether wrong.

Even three-cornered pants won't put pints on the square in dry Oklahoma. The police circled the lady gently around behind the bars—their bars.

Rodeo Ticket Booths Are Set Up Downtown

Five additional downtown booths for sale of tickets to the American Business club-sponsored Gene Autry rodeo here next week were set up yesterday afternoon, and will be open during business hours until opening day of the rodeo next Wednesday, it was announced today.

Mrs. Hugh Anderson, president of the ABC Dames, ladies auxiliary of the civic club, is in supervision of the booths, and teams of women have been selected to operate the booths.

The additional booths, set up as a convenience to those wishing tickets and as auxiliary projects to the main headquarters booth in the lobby of the Hilton hotel, will be located at the Citizens National bank, Sears, Mark Halsey No. 1, Wylie's Drug, and Dunlaps, the announcement said.

Four Lamesans Hurt In Wreck

BALLINGER, June 4. (Special)—Four members of a Lamesa family, en route to Austin to see a son who is to finish his first year at Lutheran Concordia college today, were injured, three of them seriously, in an automobile-train accident here at 1:30 p. m. Thursday.

Injured were Erich Henry Kunkel, his wife, Selma, and two daughters, Marjorie Nell, 10, and Audrey Faye, 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Kunkel and Marjorie Nell were admitted to the Bailey clinic here.

Taken To San Angelo

Audrey Faye, who suffered a skull fracture, was taken to a San Angelo hospital by a Newby-Davis ambulance to be treated by a brain specialist.

The accident happened at the North Broadway Santa Fe crossing as the west-bound train, No. 73 started to pull into the station. Kunkel, driver of the car, was headed north.

Kunkel said he stopped at the crossing but pulled ahead when he saw another car pass him and cross the tracks. The car stalled on the tracks and was struck broadside on the right side.

Car Is Demolished

The automobile, a 1947 Chevrolet sedan, was pushed and carried 185 feet before Engineer H. L. Denson was able to stop the train with the emergency brakes. The car remained on front of the Diesel-type engine and was removed by passersby before Mrs. Kunkel could be removed from the right front seat. The sedan was totally wrecked.

The two children were riding in the back seat, Audrey Faye on the right side. She suffered a fractured skull and was in critical condition at San Angelo Thursday night.

Mrs. Kunkel sustained a gash over her eyes and an injured hip Kunkel suffered injuries to his chest and right shoulder. Marjorie Nell apparently sustained only scratches and bruises.

London Paper Muses On Bannister Slide

LONDON, June 4. (AP) — The stately Times mused for half a column today on the report that Miss Florence E. Dolph of Dunmore, Pa., slid down a bannister before breakfast on her recent 101st birthday.

"It is difficult to resist the feeling we have been told either too much or too little" about how she spent her birthday, the editorial said.

"We have no vestige of right to assume she spent the rest of the day in a rocking chair; she is far more likely to have been bouched over the controls of a helicopter, and if she was we ought to have been told about it . . .," the paper went on.

"We do not even know whether she adopted the forward seat or whether she slid astride or side-saddle. These points are of more academic importance to devotees of this exhilarating sport. . . .

"On the whole, bannister-sliding is a lost accomplishment, and it is sad to think of the vast majority of the younger generations of this country growing up with none of that basic early training in the sport which is so essential if you intend to adopt this means of progression on your 101st birthday."

Congress Takes Time To Debate Major Issues Although Rushed

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—Congress is trying to finish in a rush by June 19, so it can go to the political conventions.

And when it tackles unimportant things, it acts like it's going to a fire. The Senate on Wednesday rammed through 52 minor bills.

But on the big stuff it's still pretty slow going. Long debates. Jockeying around.

Not So Simple

Maybe you wonder: If Congress is in such a hurry, why all the talk? Since Congress is made up of Democrats and Republicans, why can't each side let a couple of men talk for them and then go ahead and vote?

It's not so simple as that. That might work in some place like England where Parliament is sharply split between Labor and Conservative members.

There's no such sharp division between Democrats and Republicans. In both American parties there are "conservatives" and "liberals."

True, on some issues the Democrats and Republicans close their ranks and vote pretty strictly along party lines.

Want To Talk

But most of the time—on the big issues—plenty of members of both parties want to get up and speak their pieces. Why?

Because they think they can influence other members; or they want to be on the record for or against something; or they feel so strongly about an issue they have to talk.

As a result—party lines are crossed and on some things Republicans line up with Democrats, Democrats with Republicans.

Because of this endless crossing of party lines, people in other countries probably wonder sometimes what difference there really is between the two parties.

Sees No Difference

Russia's Joseph Stalin, for example, taking a dim view of what happens here anyway, once said he sees no difference between Democrats and Republicans.

Even the President can't always lead the members of his party in Congress along the road he wants them to take.

Although he's head of his party, its members may turn against him bitterly on a big issue.

That happened this year when President Truman urged Congress to pass a civil rights program that would have benefitted negroes mostly.

Asked Laws

Among other things he asked Congress to pass laws against lynching and poll taxes.

In seven southern states a poll tax must be paid before a person can vote. And most lynchings have occurred in the South.

The southern members of Mr. Truman's Democratic party in congress promptly jumped on him, their leader.

And squads of them are against letting him be nominated as their party's presidential candidate in the November elections.

(The Republicans hold their nominating convention in Philadelphia, starting June 21, and the Democrats hold their there in July.)

Since that southern storm hit him, Mr. Truman hasn't said much about pushing his civil rights program through Congress.

Plenty Of Debate

When the big issues come up—like letting some of Europe's displaced persons in here—there's plenty of debate in Congress.

Mr. Truman had urged Congress to let some of them in here. But the main opposition, when the Senate on Wednesday night passed a bill to do this, came from his southern Democrats.

The vote on the bill to let in 200,00 displaced persons over the next two years was:

For the bill—63 Democrats and Republicans altogether.

Against the bill—12 southern Democrats and one Republican.

A good illustration of the divided thinking in Congress—not only among members of the same party but among members from the same section of the country—is this:

Senator Eastland, Mississippi Democrat, spoke for a long time against the bill. Senator Pepper, Florida Democrat, spoke a long time for it.

In spite of its hurry to get done, the Senate debated that bill all day Wednesday and far into the night before passing it.

Lions' Attendance Winners Revealed

Two winners of attendance prizes of $250 each, posted by the Lubbock Lions club for perfect attendance during the past year, were announced yesterday by J. Wm. Davis, club president.

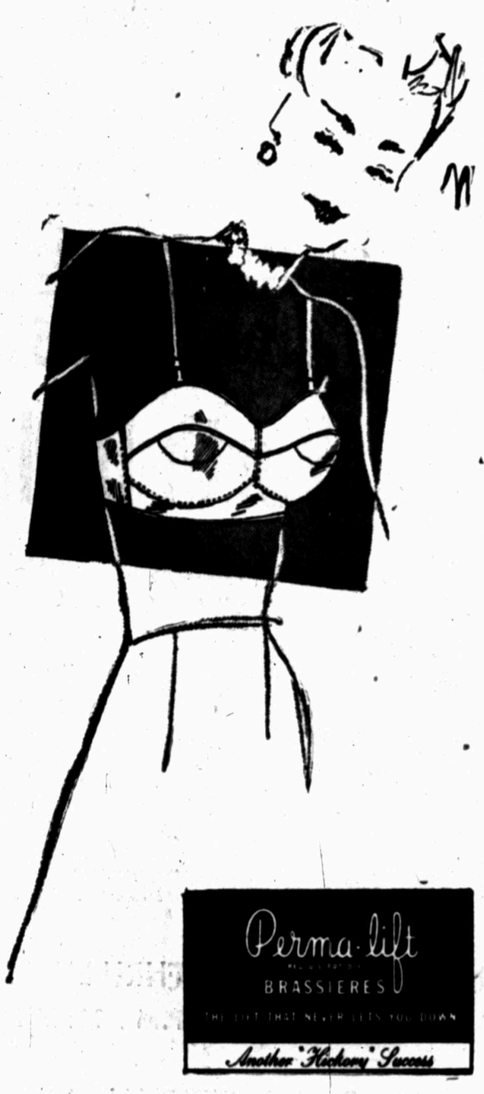

Named as winners were Ralph Dorsett and Bob Garner. Payment of the prizes is conditioned on attendance by winners at the convention of Lions International, to be held this year in New York City July 25 to 28.

Two alternates are chosen for each winner, and in event the winner cannot make the trip, the first alternate has the opportunity. If he cannot go, then second alternate gets the call.

Only those with perfect attendance records during the year participate.

Named as alternates to Dorsett, in order of succession, were Carroll Thompson, and Seth Bertram. Alternates to Garner were Wilson Holden, and B. G. Ripley.

Radio Rights For Westerner Grid Tilts Settled By Board

Broadcast rights to Lubbock Westerner home football games were settled for a three-year period last night by action of Lubbock Independent School district board at a regular meeting at district offices.

Radio station KFYO was awarded broadcast rights for the 1948 high school football season when this station was chosen by lot. Station KCBD received broadcast rights for the 1949 season, and Station KSEL was given the rights for the 1950 season.

Bidding Was Opposed

DeWitt Landis, station manager for KFYO, proposed that the board set the price and allow the three competing radio stations to "draw for the broadcast privileges. He said he opposed competitive bidding for the rights.

Joe Bryant, KCBD manager, concurred with Landis, pointing out that in the past he had found broadcast facilities limited at high school stadiums. He said facilities were usually provided for only two stations and that when more were allowed to broadcast there was great inconvenience.

Bryant contended that it was "bad radio" for two stations to handle the same game at the same time, and could not be considered practical.

Drawing Is Held

Clyde Smith, of KSEL, presented an opposing view to the board. Smith said he believed anyone and everyone should have the right to broadcast high school football games. He pointed out that it was "good publicity for the school and put more money in the till." Smith urged the board to "set the price and let everyone take it that wanted it."

C. H. Hamilton made a motion that broadcast rights be set at $50 for each home game and that numbers be placed in a hat for broadcast rights to be drawn in order for 1948, 1949 and 1950, with stations having the right to negotiate with other stations to handle game broadcasts if unavoidable program conflicts developed. The motion was amended to require that the broadcast fee be paid in advance for the season.

The motion was adopted unanimously.

The board, in three separate ac-

Hale Wildcat To Be Drilled

(Special To The Journal)

HALE CENTER, June 4—Contract has been completed for a 7,000-foot wildcat oil prospector five miles southwest of Hale Center, it was announced here late Thursday, as plans for giving Hale County's oil play a major boost were revealed.

C. E. Cooper, widely known Texas oil man, and Charles F. Hemphill of Beverly Hills, Calif., have opened offices in Hale Center and have purchased oil leases on a solid block of 12,474 acres of land known as the Nick Alley block, located five miles southwest of this city for the new development, according to information to Tom Rambo, editor of the Hale Center American.

Pioneer In Business

Drilling operations will get underway "as soon as practicable," it was announced by Cooper and Hemphill to Rambo.

Alley, president of the First National bank of Hale Center, helped organized the block of land in which 42 different land owners are included.

All transactions in the development were on a cash basis, Alley said.

The new development is centrally located between the Lee Irish field in southwest Hale county and the Lutrick producer in the Abernathy area, Rambo said.

Cooper, Rambo said, will be remembered as the same Cooper who brought in the famous Discovery well in the Breckenridge Field in 1920. He will be remembered for locating in Stephens county in 1919 when he assembled a large block of oil and gas leases around Breckenridge in an area where 29 dry holes had been drilled.

On Feb. 3, 1920, he brought in the Discovery well and later completed 42 successful wells before hitting a dry hole.

Taft Backers Claim 25-Vote Margin On First GOP Ballot

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—Who will top the first ballot at the Republican national convention?

That question was hotly debated today by backers of three leading GOP presidential candidates.

Supporters of Senator Robert A. Taft claimed a 25-vote margin over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey on the first crucial test.

Without breaking down their claims fully by states, the Taft camp contended it can count on 306 votes in the initial convention ballot.

The Ohioan's friends listed Dewey's opening total at 281, credited Harold E. Stassen with 149 and said 358 votes will go to favorite sons and others. A total of 548 is needed to nominate.

Disputing this, Herbert E. Brownell, Dewey's campaign manager, predicted the nomination of the New York governor without any long deadlock at the convention, which opens in Philadelphia June 21.

Brownell told a news conference yesterday he is certain Dewey will have more votes on the first ballot than any other candidate. He declined, however, to estimate the total.

Race Very Wide Open

Stassen has predicted he will have 340 votes on the convention's first ballot. He told a news conference in Des Moines yesterday the presidential race is "very definitely wide open."

"No one has sufficient strength to win on the first ballot," Stassen said.

The question has taken on added importance lately because all three leading candidates apparently think the best way to beat a threatened convention tieup is to break the tape in the first heat.

Brownell said he thinks Dewey's victory over Stassen in the Oregon primary has made it possible for the New York governor to grab the nomination early in the Philadelphia balloting.

"I am not predicting a first ballot victory for the governor," Brownell said, "but I certainly am not ruling it out."

Ex-Dead End Kid Is Freed Of Charges

LOS ANGELES, June 4 (AP)—Actor Leo Gorcey, 30, one-time movie "dead end kid" was free today of charges of assaulting his estranged wife with a deadly weapon.

The charges were dismissed in superior court yesterday after police investigators testified that Gorcey's wife, Mrs. Evalene Bankston Gorcey, did not wish to press prosecution.

Gorcey was arrested May 25 after Mrs. Gorcey charged that the actor fired at her as she and two private detectives entered his home in Sherman Oaks. Gorcey told police that he did not see his wife and did not know who was trying to enter. No one was injured.

Mrs. Gorcey, 29, now living in Hollywood, filed a separate maintenance suit March 2. They were married in October, 1945.

Jail Term For Strike Given

NEW YORK, June 4. (AP) — A New York judge says "a foreign government" had a hand in the recent stock exchange strike, which was marked by mass picketing, disorders and arrests.

Judge Frederick L. Hackenburg, handling a picket case yesterday in special sessions court, said "outsiders" went to the financial district "under compulsion."

Jail Term Given

"This compulsion," he declared, "did not come from within the territory of the United States, but was dictated by a foreign government which under the guise of ideology tries to start trouble so that they can publish in Moscow 'Riots in Wall street.'"

The judge made the comment as John Flynn, 32, of New York, a member of the Seafarers International union (AFL) was given a suspended one year jail term on a third degree assault charge.

The Seafarers union, which joined members of local 205 of the United Financial Employes (AFL) in picketing the stock exchange, frequently has expressed an anti-Communist stand. Its officials were not available for comment on the judge's charge.

Flynn was one of several pickets arrested in a disturbance in the Wall street district on March 31.

More than 165,000,000 telephone calls are made daily in the United States alone.

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—What does the President of the United State have to do?

Everyone knows he has a hard job. Just how hard it is, few voters appreciate.

His working hours generally are 7 a. m. to midnight—except on nights when he toils "late." He lives in a goldfish bowl as far as his private as well as public life is concerned. Secret service agents never let him out of sight and his personal physician gives him twice daily—or oftener—check-ups.

The pressure never ceases. Visitors, mail and problems pour in without respite.

Merriman Smith, United Press White House correspondent, has undertaken "to show in human factors and in words of as few syllables as possible how the intricate 20th cenutry presidency operates" in his new book, "A President Is Many Men.

Avoiding the legalistic side of the story, Smith endeavors to highlight and describe the office now sought so eagerly by a host of candidates.

"It is the story of the night President Jackson's guests ate nearly a ton of cheese at the White House; how some of the most distinguished world figures are not above stealing White House silver for souvenirs; the story of what Thomas Jefferson called life in 'splendid misery'," Smith said in a foreword to his book.

Back of the President moves an army of advisers, secretaries, experts, "idea men," "insiders" and workmen of all kinds.

Mainly by anecdote and allusion to the striking or bizarre historical facts, Smith gives a lively picture of this army in action. Dozens of anonymous but powerful figures are brought to the surface and the author gently exposes their methods.

It's extremely hard for the President to amuse himself. A dance or dinner party turns into a rigorously programmed affair at which he, his wife and family are apt to be prize exhibits, and in which they must follow strictly formalized procedure. A trip finds his every mile recorded in a special White House book, endless arrangements involved, and urgent communications dogging him at every step.

Bound By Tradition

The President is bound by tradition and rule in many, many ways. He was not even allowed to help himself to a "snack" out of the White House ice-box under a rule that he must not touch anything but absolutely fresh food. Franklin D. Roosevelt finally shattered that obviously antiquated rule.

The President has many things no millionaire could buy, to be sure. His private plane and private railway car are far beyond any private individual's dreams. His prestige and power defy exact limitation. And his wife can indulge herself in various ways, if she wishes: Mrs. Coolidge drank two quarts of orange juice daily, while she was in the White House.

In the round, however, the White House makes a poor sort of home. Smith recounts as indicative of life there the story of "Sistie" and "Buzzie," the Roosevelt grandchildren, who once took some aluminum serving trays to use as sleds because no one had remembered to get them real ones.

Man Gets 99 Years In Death Of Wife

BALLINGER, June 4 (AP) —A jury in 119th district court last night found Cliff Clary guilty in the death of his wife and fixed punishment at 99 years in prison.

The jury brought in its verdict at 7:30 p. m.

Clary's wife, Odella, 56, died when flames swept their ranch home 15 miles northwest of here.

Clary testified during the trial that gas fumes ignited in the house and that he tried to save his wife.

Dr. O. M. Chandler of Ballinger testified that the woman had died of strangulation.

Commander Donald B. MacMillan, 73-year-old explorer, has a collection of 9,000 Arctic photographs taken during his 26 expeditions to the Far North.

Details Of Record "Speed Run" Between Texas Cities Recalled

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

Next month marks the 28th anniversary of a memorable South Texas speed run—a record round-trip between San Antonio and Corpus Christi.

Dimly remembered now, the run was a colorful event, conducted with fanfare and peppered with excitement. The record still stands—no one ever bothered to officially better it.

Rode Green Essex

Fred Schoenberger is the surviving member of the two-man team that rode the green Essex roadster to fame in 1920. Schoenberger, thin-haired and 57 now, moon-faced and good natured, today supervises a utility company garage in Corpus Christi. From him we obtained these details on the daredevil trip:

The San Antonio Express and the Corpus Christi Caller offered a silver cup to anyone who could better the round-trip time from San Antonio to Corpus Christi which had been established in 1911.

The Clyde Chaddick Auto company of Corpus Christi decided it would sponsor an attempt on the record. Schienberger, veteran of fighting in France and a mechanic employed by Chaddick, was selected as the mechanic or—as he was to be known—the "pilot" for the trip. Hired as a driver was the late Walter White, a man devoted to fast driving. Charles Roster, now an advertising man in Corpus Christi, was official timer.

Highway Was Dangerous

Schoenberger owned a new Essex roadster, a dashing vehicle with big-spoked wheels. Two horns and a siren were mounted on this car and at 5 a. m. the morning of July 14, 1920, White and Schoenberger pulled away from the San Antonio Express office on the first leg of the run.

They were dressed in khaki shirts and trousers, they wore goggles, they had breakfasted excitedly on coffee and doughnuts.

The highway to Corpus Christi in those days was 160 miles, a hazardous road of big ruts, deep holes, clinging sand, detours and indolent cattle. For the ordinary driver it was a dawn to dark trip. People with brains took the trains.

"We left early to take advantage of the cool of the morning," Schoenberger said. "We figured to do everything possible to keep from overheating the car."

Flew 40 Feet

"We had 40 pounds of air in the front tires and 45 in the rear so that we could jump over culverts and holes easier. We hit a hole in some sand near Floresville and the car went four feet into the air and flew for 40 feet.

"White didn't say anything—just nudged me with his elbow."

It was a tense trip with speeds up to 69 miles per hour. White drove grimly, rarely uttering a word. Schoenberger watched the oil pressure gauge and the heat indicator on the radiator cap, called, in those days, the motor meter.

"I spent a lot of time cranking that siren," said Schoenberger. "Wagons moved over for us but we had a time with pigs, chickens and cows. You can't impress a herd of cows with a siren."

A fire truck escort was waiting at the city limits of Corpus Christi. It led them part of the way into town, but then White, fuming at the delay, passed it. The Essex arrived at the Caller office at 9:23 a. m., four hours and 23 minutes after leaving the Alamo city.

Cheered By Crowd

Word of the incredibly fast time spread quickly. A big crowd cheered as White and Schoenberger left the Caller office at 5 a. m. the next morning on the return trip. Hundreds lined Leopard street for two miles to the city limits and yelled and applauded as the green topless roadster, its siren howling, roared by.

Schoenberger burned out the siren and one of the horns on that return trip. The time was slower, four hours and 55 minutes. "A lot more cattle," Schoenberger explained.

The total time was nine hours, 18 minutes—almost three hours better than the 1911 record.

San Antonio turned out to give the daredevils a royal welcome. And when the pair returned to Corpus Christi, a luncheon was held in their honor. They drove the Essex into the ballroom of the Nueces hotel and the chugging of its brave engine mingled with the roars of the banqueteers.

White later became a rancher at Aqua Dulge in South Texas and died several years ago. Schoenberger has a son, a 23-year-old veteran who, like his father, fought in France.

Fred, jr., likes speed, has a souped-up Ford, and drives the smooth, greatly shortened highway from Corpus Christi to San Antonio in two hours.

Husband Dies, Wife May Survive Shots

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., June 4 (AP) — John L. Gibson died in a hospital here yesterday and his wife, Mrs. Emma Gibson, 53, was given a fair chance to recover from gunshot wounds. Gibson died of a bullet wound in the temple.

The couple were shot yesterday at their home here.

The wounded woman told officers at the hospital she and her husband had been arguing about a divorce.

Magnate Refuses To Accept Decoration

NEW YORK, June 4 (AP)—Industrialist Gerard Swope has declined a British government decoration, saying he is "without respect" for Britain's policy on Palestine.

Swope said yesterday he had turned down an award as an "honorary commander of the most excellent order of the British Empire."

He said in a letter to British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks that in the last year "in spite of repeated recommendation of several commissions of your own government, of an American-British commission, and then finally of the action of the United Nations of a separate state in Palestine, the vacillating, reprehensible and non-constructive attitude of your government has left we without respect for its position."

Hedges were such important parts of the old Roman gardens that those who cared for them and trimmed them were given a special, dignified title.

Pay Increases Set In Berlin

BERLIN, June 4 (AP) — Stepping outside the bounds of the Allied Kommandatura, the Russians today ordered blanket wage increases and extra food rations for workers in their sector of Berlin.

This action by the Soviet commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander G. Kotikov, destroyed the uniformity in wages and working conditions which previously had been maintained through the four-power Kommandantura.

It was a virtual certainty that the Western Allies would soon take similar action at least in regard to wage increases, for their occupation sectors.

Proposal Rejected

Kotikov said he took the action because the Kommandantura had not accepted his 14-point proposal for improving the workers conditions.

E. L. Gardner, American military government labor official, said Kotikov's action was at least in part induced by Soviet efforts to win back control of Berlin's trade unions. The Communist grip on the unions was broken in recent shop elections. The anti-Communists, claiming a majority broke away from the Communist-controlled city trade union federation and are setting up their own federation.

Silent Screen Star Is Granted Divorce

LOS ANGELES, June 4 (AP)—Silent screen star Helene Costello, 40, has been granted a divorce from her fourth husband, Lee LeBlanc, 34, film studio artist.

She obtained the decree yesterday after testifying that prior to their separation two years ago LeBlanc remained away from home nights and often admitted he had been in the company of other women.

The court approved an agreement under which LeBlanc retains custody of their daughter, Diedre, 6, until August 15 while efforts are made to work out a permanent arrangement. Miss Costello may visit the child on alternate weekends.

The LeBlancs were married in Salome, Ariz., Aug. 14, 1940. She formerly was wed to John Regan, advertising man; Lowell Sherman, actor and Arturo Del Barrio, Cuban sportsman.

BY DREW PEARSON: FOUR AMERICANS IN MOSCOW HAVE NOW SIDED WITH RUSSIANS

Ex-Mayor Kelly Revamps Truman Chicago Arrival

WASHINGTON — Chicago Democrats have bailed President Truman out of a near blunder on his visit to Chicago tomorrow.

The White House staff had planned to bring the President into Chicago at 3:30 p. m. — a time when the streets are not crowded.

PEARSON

However, ex-Mayor Ed Kelly, a past master at parades, reminded the White House that 4:30 was the time to arrive in Chicago. At that hour, people are on their way home and the President will appear to have a crowd watching his arrival — even if it's only a lot of folks on their way to catch trains and buses.

Housing Still Bottled Up

Ninety more Congressmenare needed to sign the petition to get the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill out of the banking and currency committee where it is now bottled up.

A few southern Democrats have already signed in favor of housing — but only a few. However, southern leaders indicate that pressure from the voters at home is strong and that southern Congressmen will begin signing up en masse soon. They are beginning to realize that adequate housing is one of the best ways to lick Communism.

If the south signs, it will take about 25 to 30 eastern and western Congressmen to force the important housing bill onto the floor for a vote before Congress recesses. Able California Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas is spearheading the housing drive. If the drive fails within the next week there will be no chance of any housing bill passing Congress until next year.

A TOTAL of four American citizens in Moscow have now either deserted to the Russians or denounced American policy toward Russia. On top of this the son of Meyer Davis, wealthy bandleader, has renounced his American citizenship in Paris in protest against U. S. policy.

The above were young Americans.

All of which would indicate that in the eyes of part of our younger generation there is either something wrong with our current Russian policy or else that that policy has not been properly sold either at home or abroad.

All the facts in the case of Sergeant James McMillin, who deserted the American embassy with the top secret code of the United States, have not been told. Actually this incident was just as severe a blow to us as the desertion of Soviet code clerk Igor Gouzenko in Canada was to Russia.

McMillin was the son of a West Point graduate and a colonel in the regular army. With the secret code he gave the Russians, the Kremlin is now able to read the following highly important messages regarding U. S. plans for the defense of Europe:

1. Conversations with Franco Spain by which the American Army is to dig in behind the Pyrenees in case of war with Russia.

2. Conversations with France for defense of the Rhine in case of war with Russia.

3. Conversations with Iran for U. S. support of the Iranian army in case of Soviet invasion.

Russia Has Our Secrets

These and other highly confidential messages were sent to Ambassador Bedell Smith in Moscow. Just why military messages were sent to the American ambassador in Moscow is not known. It is understandable that Smith should have received all reports from the Bureau of Fisheries, but sending military messages to Moscow, even in code, was risky.

Today these are no longer secret. The Russians have them, can publish them whenever they please, just as Canada published the information unearthed from the confessions of code-clerk Gouzenko.

While it was partly Sgt. McMillin's infuation with Russian glamor-girl Galina Dunaeva Biconish that lured him from his own country, friends believe it was also the military nature of the messages he was decoding which helped influence him.

All this, plus the daughter of the Commerce department assistant now working for the Soviet Tass news agency, plus the large and youthful following of Henry Wallace, make it appear that the United States is losing part of the cold war with some of its own younger generation.

And while this columnist is convinced we are basically right in maintaining a firm policy and a big air force against Russia, yet we have made the mistake of offering no alternative to the mailed fist.

If, however, we kept the mailed fist in one hand and held an olive branch—friendship with the Russian people—in the other hand, we might be on a firmer psychological ground both at home and abroad.

DURING March and April, millions of friendship letters were sent to Italy. They had an important effect on the Italian elections, helped score a victory for Democracy. Prior to that, a series of friendship trains visited Europe at a time when the U. S. government was slow about sending food to Europe. Both these projects were initiated and executed solely by the American people. The government had nothing to do with them.

Governments always move slowly. The U. S. government is no exception. However, time is all-important in combatting war and winning friendships. And if we have the friendship of the Russian people, it becomes more difficult for the Kremlin to fight. So, while waiting for the State department to do something about penetrating the Iron Curtain, there is no reason why the American people can't operate on their own—as for instance, starting a friendship-letter campaign to Europe, especially to people behind the Iron Curtain.

There is no censorship on mail to Russia. And while the number of Russian-Americans living in this country is nowhere near the number of Italo-Americans, even a small group of Russian-Americans could supply the names and addresses of many Russians in Russia for correspondence purposes.

Friendship letters to all the countries of Europe — England, France, Germany — also those behind the Iron Curtain — Poland, Czechoslovakia, Jugoslavia — can be most effective.

They can help to refute the idea that the United States is a nation of warmongers. They can help nullify the impression given by the Sergeant McMillins and the Garry Davises and the others who have renounced their American citizenship. But most important of all, a friendship letter-writing campaign can really win friends on a people-to-people basis.

And where the people of two countries really know each other—as do the United States and England—no dictator, prime minister or president can ever bring war between them.

The PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says there are some people who have no conception of time—especially when it's your time!

A long-married man rarely forms an opinion until his wife expresses it for him.

THE threat of increased cost of burglary insurance—or, even worse, the withdrawal of some burglary insurance firms from the local scene—is sufficiently important to cause the City administration to go to work on ways and means of strengthening the police department—and to stay at that work until Lubbock has a police department of sufficient size and efficiency to satisfy the public.

The majority of the members of the present City commission inherited the present police department and its system of operation. But the responsibility is not now that of the old commission. It rests squarely on the shoulders of the present commission.

It is to today's authorities that Lubbock is looking for action leading to a satisfactory solution of the problem.

That we have had too many burglaries and hijackings of late everybody knows and agrees.

The easy way to vent our individual and collective spleens is, of course, to raise hob with the police department and to howl for somebody's scalp.

But the easy way to solve the problem isn't necessarily the best way. As a matter of fact, the easy way probably won't get the job done at all.

WE think the crime problem here, and the operational difficulties of the police department, are sufficiently grave to require a special meeting of the City commission as a whole to carefully sift and study, or for a special committee of the commission to do so.

Taxpayers in general, and the business people in particular, have a right to expect more protection than they've been getting against inroads of the lawless.

They're not going to be satisfied until they do.

To The Plainsman's certain knowledge, the Lubbock police department never has been sufficiently large or sufficiently experienced, to do the kind of a job it should do and that the people have the right to expect it to do.

City administrations have gone hog wild spending money in other channels—such as paying whacking big salaries to city managers — while "economizing" on the police department.

City administrations have fretted and sweated over elaborate plans and charts of various kinds while paying little or no attention to organizing a police department and seeing that it is operated in a way comparable to that essential to a city the size of Lubbock.

Well, the result is easy for everybody to see and the time has come for remedial action.

ACCORDING to men who know the police business best: the FBI, to be specific, no city can be well policed without having one patrolman for every 1,000 residents, which in Lubbock's case would be at least 56. This figure does not include executives, officers, such as sergeants, lieutenants, captains, etc.; it does not include special squads, such as traffic, detective bureau, meter watchers, radio dispatchers, stenographers, painters of traffic markers on streets, traffic light repairmen and installation people.

The total manpower of the Lubbock police department—including meter watchers, radio operators, two jailers, desk sergeants, chief and other executives, detectives, janitors and all the others—doesn't top by a dozen the number of patrolmen alone, the world's best police authorites say this city should have.

No wonder it's an easy matter for yeggs to chop through roofs, knock knobs off safes and then dance a jig to the accompaniment of a brass band and still escape undetected.

In spite of the fact that the department was undermanned, as always, and short of patrol cars—as both conditions remain today—the last (not the present) City commission cut $24,000 off the suggested police budget in a great economy move.

About that time, too, there was a lot of talk about reorganizing the department under a vertical control system, used in all cities with efficient police departments. The vertical control system places authority not only on the chief, but also on captains, lieutenants and sergeants on both day and night shifts to keep things moving and patrolmen on the job, as well as in charge of special details, such as traffic, detective, etc.

The then city manager, Homer Hunter, drew a pretty organization chart in green, red and blue, showing the setup and how everybody would work.

Then the whole business was "gone with the wind"—

Coin For Broadway Musicals Is Said To Be Very Scarce

the conversational wind, that is.

THIS much is certain: until Lubbock's police department is given the men and the equipment it needs, we're going to continue to have trouble.

As Lubbock grows and expands, things are going to get worse—even traffic, which is generally agreed to be about as bad as it can get.

It may be true, as some critics insist, that Chief Lewis Kittrell does not have the broad experience necessary to running a city police department; that the same is true of some of the department heads under him. We wouldn't know about that, and neither would anybody else, simply because the chief and his principal aides haven't been given a chance. They haven't had the manpower; they haven't had the equipment essential to giving them a chance.

The members of the City commission needn't take our word for any of this.

All they need do is ask a few citizens and they'll find out:

People aren't satisfied with the policing;

Business men are sore about being robbed;

They're very much against the idea of paying more for burglary insurance;

They're scared stiff that insurance companies may even pull out of the local field until better police protection is afforded;

People in general want traffic law enforcement, believing the safeguarding of life and limb considerably more important that sticking somebody in here to trade a buck for parking five minutes overtime.

When the officials talk to a few of the folks, they'll be ready to get on the wood, look into the police problem—and work it out.

Well, There's Nothing Like Trying

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

SIX months ago, the Joneses decided they were fed up with bridge and agreed to toss it out of their lives.

For a couple who have accepted bridge invitations for years to decide suddenly that they will have no more of the game isn't easy.

MILLETT

But the Joneses stuck by their decision, and they are pleased with the change.

Neither of them really liked the game. But when they were newcomers in their town, in an effort to be congenial they accepted invitations to play bridge. Pretty soon they found they were spending a good many of their evenings playing a game that was, for them, no recreation at all.

They also discovered they were spending a lot of time with people, brought together by a bridge table, who weren't really congenial or stimulating to each other.

DETERMINATION NEEDED

A GOOD many people at one time or another find themselves in a position similar to the Joneses. They are wasting time on something, simply because they haven't enough determination to put it aside. And determination is really all that it takes.

If you find yourself dreading to have the Browns to dinner, then it's time to give up the Browns

If you are a hanger-on member of a club or organization that no longer interests you, then it's time to resign.

If you're always wishing you had a little more free time, then cut out some of the useless activities in your life.

Today's Thought

And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there. — Revelation 21:25.

Eye hath not seen it, my gentle boy!
Ear hath not heard its deep songs of joy;
Dreams cannot picture a world so fair—
Sorrow and death may not enter there;
Time doth not breathe on its fadeless bloom,
For beyond the clouds, and beyond the tomb,
It is there, it is there, my child!
—Felicia Hemans.

Today's Journal Editorial

CAREFUL STUDY IS IMPORTANT

The American people have demonstrated repeatedly they are willing to pay for anything that might add to national security. They have not quibbled over appropriations for the armed services. When in doubt as to the value of a requested appropriation, their attitude has been to play safe by approving it.

This attitude is not likely to change with regard to the 6½ billion dollars requested for the Army and Air Force for next year. But it does not mean that the proposed budget should not be scrutinized most carefully by Congress. It does not concede the proposed budget should be approved exactly as submitted. On the contrary, it is the duty of Congress to make every effort to locate and eliminate anything that represents waste or extravagance—and the armed services aren't famous for their economies or their financial efficiency.

But when doubts arise as to merits of particular items—and these questions are likely to be frequent—the attitude of Congress and the American people will be clear. They won't haggle over money if as much as a possibility can be shown that the expenditure might enhance national safety

"Try And Stop Me"

NED ALVORD, the theatrical press agent, had one sure-fire trick that he saved for emergencies. When the advance sale fell below par in any city on his show's route, Alvord would write an angry letter to the local newspaper editor that ran as follows:

"The manager of your Blank Theater, having learned how stupendous and star-studded is our coming attraction, has violated his agreement with us and insisted on doubling his admission prices. This is unfair to the public of your fair city. They either will see our remarkable show at the regular admission scale, or we will skip the city entirely." All but the wiliest editors fell into Alvord's trap, and by the time their editorials cooled off, the show had received priceless publicity, and the seat sale had perked up miraculously.

Eisenhower Not Likely To Be Nominated, Expert Predicts

WASHINGTON—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower sat in on a conference the other day at which he heard his own prospects for the Democratic nomination for President candidly discussed. During the conference the new head of Columbia university maintained a sphinx-like silence.

CHILDS

Leader of the discussion was a veteran of the political wars whose prognostications are usually proved accurate. He made the flat prediction that Eisenhower would not be drafted, since President Truman would be renominated on the first ballot at Philadelphia.

The analysis of this political veteran went as follows:

Alamaba comes first on the roll call of the states, and on the first ballot Alabama will put General Eisenhower's name in nomination. Next comes Arizona, with the possibility that some votes in that delegation would go to the general. Third in line comes Arkansas, and the votes of the Arkansas delegation will in all probability be cast for Eisenhower. But then, as this analysis goes, party regularity will begin to assert itself, and when the late state and the last territory have cast their votes, Mr. Truman will be the nominee of his party to run for a full term in White House.

In talking with friends later, General Eisenhower seemed inclined to accept this diagnosis with something of a sense of relief. If it happens that way, Columbia's new president will be spared a great deal of anxiety.

There is a possibility, however, that the outcome of that first ballot might be quite different. The state that comes after Arkansas in the roll call is California. Party regularity and party loyalty to Mr. Truman will be practically nil in that big, excitable delegation.

Next comes Colorado, and those who know the west say that an Eisenhower upsurge among the California delegates would produce a similar response among the representatives from Colorado. Thus, like a prairie fire, the revolution might sweep through the hall beyond the power of party regulars to check it.

Ike Favors Vandenburg

So the possibility cannot be entirely ruled out, and therefore Eisenhower remains one of the key figures in the political scene. It is a striking commentary that the two men who have protested most earnestly that they are not candidates are in the forefront today. The other man, it is hardly necessary to add, is Senator Arthur H. Vandenburg, who is rated by many as the No. 1 Republican choice.

Between Eisenhower and Vandenberg there is mutual respect and admiration. Although Eisenhower has not yet actively taken over the direction of the sprawling university on New York's Morningside Heights, it is believed that he had something to do with the fact that Columbia tapped Vandenburg for an honorary degree.

The general thinks the Senator would make a good President of the United States. Should Vandenberg be the choice of the Republicans who meet first, it is conceivable that Eisenhower would publicly endorse him during the interval of a week or ten days before the Democrats convene. Thus, rebellious Democrats might have their dreams of an Eisenhower stampede at the convention shattered even before Chairman Sam Rayburn's gavel falls for the first time.

A steady procession of Democratic politicians and officeholders has been wending its way to Eisenhower's big, handsome office in the Low Memorial Library building at Columbia. At least five governors and eight members of the Senate have told him that he owes it to the nation to run. One Senator up for re-election had the frankness to say that he knew his only chance to win was with Eisenhower at the head of the Democratic ticket. Eisenhower's comment was that it was a great relief to meet an honest man.

MANY restless Democrats on the labor-liberal-left side of the party would be in for a surprise in the unlikely event of Eisenhower nomination. He is a strong believer in states' rights. He quotes the passage in the constiution which specifies that those powers not granted to the federal government are reserved to the states or the people.

This has, of course, a direct bearing on President Truman's civil-rights program. Under the view taken by Eisenhower, the police power of the federal government could not be used to enforce fair

MacMillan Arctic Bound On His 27th Polar Exploration Trip

By ALAN WADE
United Press Staff Writer

BOOTHBAY HARBOR, Me., (U.P.)—The little schooner Bowdoin is being loaded here for a new venture within the Arctic Circle. It will be Commander Donald B. MacMillan's 27th exploration voyage. The Bowdoin sails June 19. The 73-year-old veteran of Arctic work plans an 8,000-mile trip that will carry him within 11 degrees of the North Pole.

With him will be his young wife, Miriam, and 14 crewmen and scientists. In the far north they hope to gather new bird, mineral and plant specimens.

MacMillan, who in 1909 helped Adm. Robert E. Peary on the expedition that climaxed in discovery of the North Pole, said he also hoped to gather specimens for the soon-to-be-established Arctic museum at Bowdoin College.

He plans to bring his tiny ship back to port on Sept. 15, after cruising as far north as the Kane Basin.

Her Sixth Trip

"This will be Miriam's sixth trip north," MacMillan said. "She has now traveled about 33,000 miles on voyages to the Arctic."

When the Bowdoin casts off for the Arctic, she will carry with her tons of fresh food and supplies, much of it in huge frozen food lockers.

After a stop in Nova Scotia, the ship will head for the coast of Labrador and a "lonely two months" of exploration work. The expedition is being made under the auspices of the Cleveland Museum of Natural History and Bowdoin College.

Aboard, besides the MacMillans, will be Barney Turner of Little Current, Ont.; James F. Wiles of Norway, Me.; Clayton Hodgdon of East Boothbay; Bruce Nelson of Lakewood, O.; Nathan Corning of Cleveland, O.; Peter Rand of St. Louis, Mo.; Stanton Cook of Berkley, Cal.; Paul Eitel of Wilmette, Ill.; Clifford Ives of Wilmette, Ill.; Albert Barnes of New York; John Snyder of Lansing, Mich.; plus a doctor, radio operator and taxidermist.

Dog's Bell Leads Him A Dog's Life

DES MOINES, Ia., June 4—It wasn't the dog house but the dog's bell that plagued the married life of George S. Nelson.

Nelson, seeking a divorce in district court, yesterday testified his wife removed a bell he had attached to his dog's collar and fastened it on the back door.

"I wanted to keep track of the dog out in the corn fields," Nelson said. "But she wanted the bell to check on my leaving and returning to the house."

Mrs. Nelson is asking that the divorce action be dismissed. The trial continued today.

Trucks Fight Country Fires

SHERMAN, N. Y., June 4 (U.P.)—A system of using tank trucks to carry water supplies to rural fires is catching on throughout the country almost a decade after the idea was put into practice here.

The idea, which has been referred to as the greatest advance in rural fire fighting in a half century, consists of the use of a truck to haul water to places where fire fighters often are forced to run their lines for miles to creeks and other sources.

The nearby fruit farming community of Sheridan was believed to have been the first to have a fire department equipped with a trailer-tanker water truck. The 5,400-gallon tank was bought by the farmers in 1936 after several buildings were burned because of lack of water.

Idea Spreads

Introduction of the idea at Stanley, N. Y., was carried out on a smaller scale but with more dramatic background.

One day in the spring of 1939, the Stanley hose company was called to the farm home of Roy Calhoun, where fire was out of control because of lack of water.

Firemen went into action with their chemical truck, the only effective method for fighting farm blazes without water. The chemicals checked the fire, but shortly after it was brought under control the chemical supply ran out.

With no water within reach of their pumper, the firemen had to stand by helplessly while the nearly-extinguished blaze flared anew and burned Calhoun's home to the ground.

No Time To Waste

"Water," Fire Chief Paul Coe said, "is the thing we must have. And we must have it as soon as we arrive, not hours or even minutes later."

It had become obvious that the only thing to do was to follow the example set by the Sheridan fire department. Within a short time, the Stanley hose company stripped the chemical truck of its equipment and had an 800-gallon tank installed along with ladders and other equipment.

The idea since has spread to dozens of other rural fire departments in western Pennsylvania, and concerns manufacturing fire fighting equipment now are offering special custom tank equipment.

Queen Wilhelmina Will Quit Sept. 4

THE HAGUE, June 4 (AP)—Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands will abdicate on Sept. 4, it was announced officially today.

Her daughter, Crown Princess Juliana, will assume the throne that day and be sworn in as queen two days later, the announcement said. Sept. 6 will be the fiftieth anniversary of Queen Wilhelmina's ascension to the throne.

Queen Wilhelmina, in poor health for months, announced a month ago that she would step down in September, but did not set the day. Her abdication will follow the celebration on Aug. 30 of her fiftieth anniversary as ruler over the Dutch empire.

Princess Juliana now is princess regent, her mother having relinquished her royal duties last month for the second time in a year, because of her health. The queen is 67. Juliana is 39, the mother of four daughters.

If the "after" of cooked fresh asparagus bears little resemblance to the whole, attractive spears of the "before", try the $10 asparagus tip from Mrs. Hazel Williamson, Denver, Colorado:

Cut both ends out of a No. 2 or 2½ tin can. Carefully insert the asparagus, handling altogether by the stem ends. Stand upright in a tall kettle, stem ends down in the water, and cook. When done, slide the asparagus spears out on the serving dish and season as desired. Hmm . . . very pretty!

When trying to give your food budget a little nudge downward . . . frequent use of ground beef is a good start in the right direction. Mrs. R. C. Rheil, Fort Smith, Arkansas, shows the way to a luxurious meal despite its thrifty beginning. Proving a penny saved is a penny earned . . . we've sent Mrs. R. 1,000 of them for this recipe:

PORCUPINES

1 lb. ground beef
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
Salt and pepper
1 cup raw rice
1 medium onion, chopped
1 tablespoon MRS. TUCKER'S SHORTENING

Mix the beef, seasonings and rice, adding tomato juice if necessary to moisten. Form lightly into balls 1 in. in diameter. Cook onion in hot MRS. TUCKER'S SHORTENING until done, not browned, then add tomatoes and cook 5 minutes. Pour over meat balls in a greased casserole. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 1 to 1¼ hrs. Serves 4 generously.

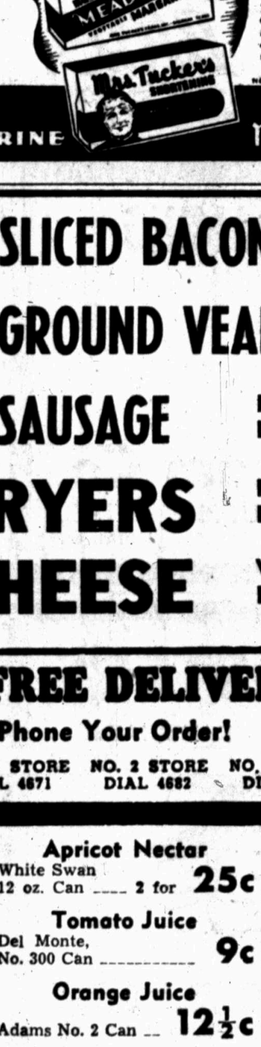

NOTE: Chopped green pepper may be added to sauce, if desired. Cook it with the onion before adding the tomatoes.

Are you always playing hide-and-seek with the belts to your dresses? Well, you needn't be "it" any more, thanks to Mrs. Lee York, Tatum, Texas. Here's an idea that found $10 and accounts for fewer losses of temper:

Screw cup hooks (from the five-and-ten) into the bottom rod of a wooden coat hanger. Hang the belts on the hooks by their buckles. Add a cheerful note of color by painting the hanger to match or contrast with the color scheme of the room.

Planning Commission Considers Changes To City Building Code

Consideration of ways and means of securing for the city adequate and satisfactory building, electrical and plumbing codes occupied a major part of the attention of the City Planning commission at its regular monthly meeting last night at City Hall.

W. L. Bradshaw, acting as spokesman for a special committee previously set up by the commission to study the need for such codes, presented the report of the committee to the commission.

Codes Out Of Date

The report stated that the present building, electrical and plumbing codes, adopted by the city in 1938, had become inadequate and outdated in several respects. The committee recommended that the commission adopt a resolution recommending to the City commission that it employ a competent individual or agency to study the needs of the city and prepare either a revision of the existing codes or a new code, which would be adopted by the City commission only after review by a competent citizen's committee set up for that purpose.

The Planning commission voted to accept the report of the special committee and to adopt the resolution which it submitted.

The commission rejected a petition from W. Z. Butler and others asking that property south of Thirty-fourth street and on the west side of Avenue Q be changed from a temporary "A" zone to a business zone. K. N. Clapp, chairman of the commission, pointed out to the property owners present that the commission was extremely reluctant to zone property for business since "Lubbock already has three times as much business property as the population of the city warrants."

A petition presented to the commission by Glenn Ivy for a zone change for lots 1, 2 and 3 of the Maddox addition to allow building of tennis courts and a tennis club on the corner of North Fourth street and Madison avenue was referred to the zoning committee for further study.

General discussion on a proposed extension of East Avenue A from Thirty-eighth street through to Forty-second street was conduced, with several interested parties outside the commission taking part.

C. A. Tubbs, representing the county, stated that his primary concern was in having a right-of-way set soon in order that construction might be started.

The board of directors of Lubbock Independent School district is also interested in the situation since the proposed street would run adjacent to Chris Harwell school.

Property owners in the neighborhood were also present at the meeting last night, more interested in finding out what solution to the problem would be offered than in attempting to influnece the decision of the commission.

The Planning commission referred the situation to the platting committee for comprehensive study of the most equitable solution, and in the interest of the county which wishes to proceed with construction as soon as possible, authorized the platting committee to approve whatever plat of the area it deemed best. Otherwise, approval of the plat would be held up until next month's meeting of the commission.

On petition from Roscoe Parks and others for changing the south 130 feet of block 10, Robert & McWhorter addition, from a "C" to a business zone, the commission voted to approve the change but to make the change effect property beyond the 130 feet and extending to the east-west alley.

Blocks 7 and 8 and the north one-half of blocks 11 and 12, Morning Side addition, were changed from an "E" to a "J" zone.

A plat of Country Club heights, adjoining the country club on the north and the Plainview highway on the east, was approved. Also approved was a plat of Locklar subdivision of lot 2, block 18 of the Crump addition at Forty-second and Avenue U.

Members of the Planning commission present at last night's meeting were K. N. Clapp, Homer D. Grant, W. L. Bradshaw, J. H. Murdough, Marlin R. Smith and John P. Ruhmann. Members absent were Chas. A. Guy, J. D. Hassell and J. T. Krueger.

Rates Are Discussed

Freight rates on canned goods shipped from the South Plains were discussed by area canners and packers with railroad officials Tuesday at a meeting in Plainview Chamber of Commerce offices.

George Bond, director of agricultural activities for the Lubbock chamber, and W. A. Dorman, Lubbock food company head, attended from here.

South Plains food processors contend rates, as they now exist, prevent them from selling to markets in other parts of the U. S. The major item discussed was shipment of blackeyed peas, but the processors pointed out that the discussion would apply to other items which they hoped to can in the future.

The railroads were represented by W. P. Brooks, assistant division freight and passenger agent for Santa Fe lines, Lubbock; Guy C. Victory, general agent Fort Worth and Denver City, Lubbock; W. A. Blank, general freight agent Fort Worth and Denver, Fort Worth; J. G. Roberts, assistant general freight agent, Santa Fe lines, and C. R. Smith, Santa Fe rate clerk, both of Amarillo.

The railroad officials promised to give "serious consideration" to the complaints voiced by the processors.

King Abdullah Thought Willing To Consider Jewish Compromise

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Agreement for a four week armistice in the Arab-Jewish war will, if made to stick, be a matter of extreme gratification from several viewpoints:

1. For at least that period the danger of another world war growing out of the smaller conflict will be greatly lessened.

2. Even a brief cessation in the bloodshed, and senseless destruction of relics which are sacred to three great religions, will be a godsend.

3. It will have asserted the authority (and, equally import, the dignity) of a hitherto divided and weak United Nations.

4. Within that month some sort of bargain perhaps might be made between the Jews and the Arabs.

Accomplished Fact

Of course, the Arabs insist that they won't recognize the new Jewish state of Israel and that it must be abolished. However, the creation of Israel is a fait accomplish, a fact which is confirmed through its recognition by ten nations, including the United States and Russia. There is no way in which the establishment of Israel could be undone, except by force of arms, and that would mean war to a finish, since the Jews have sworn to defend their state to the end.

Now no one questions the bravery of the Arabs or their willingness to fight. They have been famous warriors throughout the centuries. Still one does question the wisdom of trying to settle by the sword an argument whose end cannot be foreseen but might be a global conflagration which would wreck the hopes of both Arabs and Jews. Another world war might change the entire complexion of the Middle East to the disadvantage of Arabs and Jews.

Compromise Seen

Therefore one returns cautiously to speculation heard in informed quarters that, when all is said and done, some sort of compromise may be made between the Arabs and the Jews. I referred to that possibility — perhaps remote but still a possibility—in a previous article.

This speculation revolves in part about King Abdullah of Trans - Jordan, commander in chief of all the Arab armies attacking Palestine. Abdullah is the outstanding Arab personality involved in the conflict and his own army is the most powerful fighting force of all those involved.

Some observers hold the view that he might be inclined to bargain with the Jews, unless the opposition of the other Arab states was too strong. It is noted that before the war he was reputed to be less anti-Zionist than other Arab chiefs.

Obligated To Britain

Moreover, Abdullah is under heavy obligations to Britain. His legion is British trained, British equipped and British officered, having been created under treaty to maintain order among the wild tribesmen along the Palestine frontier. He also receives an annual subsidy of about 2,000,000 pounds sterling ($8,000,000).

Since Britain is anxious for peace in Palestine, one must assume that Abdullah would like to fall in line. Presumably his attitude would be influence greatly by its effect on his prestige with the other Arab states.

To sum up, the question of whether mediation can achieve a compromise is purely a matter of speculation. Certainly the U. N. move is not unmixed with some hope of peace. Perhaps the truce will provide sufficient cooling off period so that reason will prevail.

chef and has three helpers.

This week, J. B. Johnston, Scout field executive of Lamesa, has charge of the commissary and incidentals. The trading post is under direction of Phil Jonnston, Scout and son of the field executive at Lamesa. Next week, Ray Howard, field executive at Plainview, will have charge of duties filled this week by Johnston and the final week, F. W. Atkinson of Levelland and have those duties.

W. R. Postma, the council executive, and Pat Lewis of Lubbock, field executive, are alternating in taking charge of the kitchen, making sure there is adequate help, plenty of food and conditions are sanitary.

Order Of The Arrow

Immediately following close of the final general Scout camp on June 19, the Order of the Arrow camp will open the same day. The Order of the Arrow, a national honorary fraternity of Scout campers, will hold a two-day camp to induct new members elected from this year's Scout camps. Scouts accepted in the Order of the Arrow must continue to fill certain camping requirements to hold membership in good standing, it was announced. There are three degrees in the order: Ordeal Honors, Brotherhood Honors and the highest, Vigil Honors.

On Sunday, June 20, the council will hold open house at Camp Post for all friends and contributors, Postma announced. Refreshments will be served.

A major event of the year for the Cubs, Postma said, is the Cub-Dad Pow Pow. Two are planned. The first will be conducted Saturday night and Sunday and the second, June 12-13.

Schmidt Is Director

Dr. C. C. Schmidt, who has been director of the Cub-Dad Pow Pows 14 years, will be director.

Reservations have been made for approximately 300 Cubs and their fathers for the Pow Wow this week-end and several reservations already have been made for the following week-end.

One troop alone, Pack 1 in Lubbock, has 114 Cubs and is planning to take part in the Pow Wow this week-end.

Cubs and their fathers are to arrive at the camp Saturday afternoon and set up tents. They are to have supper at 7 p. m. and play games afterward. A campfire program is to be conducted about 9 p. m. The program will include songs and stunts and possibly Indian dances by Troop 8 of Lubbock.

About 8 o'clock Sunday morning the group will hike up "box" canyon and at one end will have a service including songs, probably a talk and a short religious service, then will hike back to camp. After the noon meal, the Pow Wow will break camp.

tions, planned to add to school facilities. First, the trustees announced that they would receive bids at 7:30 p. m. June 29 at the school district offices on the addition to the Senior High school building.

A purchase order for steel to be used in the new physical education and gymnasium to be located at Chapman field placed by the building committee was approved by the board. The contract previously had been awarded to Capital Steel Co., Oklahoma City, on a low bid of approximately $29,000.

A building committee effort to secure a number of surplus Army buildings for use as temporary school buildings to alleviate crowded conditions, in several school areas was approved. It was pointed out that extra classrooms are needed especially at the East Broadway school and in the northwest section of the city, and that the Exceptional Children's school, now housed in Hub Homes rented quarters, must be vacated before fall.

A proposed school calendar for the 1948-49 year submitted by Supt. R. W. Matthews was approved. Under the plan the fall session will open Monday, Sept. 6 with a general faculty meeting. New students will be enrolled during the afternoon of that day with classroom work starting the following day.

Holidays the first semester will be two half days off during the Panhandle-South Plains fair; two days for Thanksgiving vacation, Nov. 25 and 26; Christmas holidays to begin Friday, Dec. 17 and to close Monday, Jan. 3, 1949. An Armistice Day holiday, Nov 11 was held open for future consideration by the board.

The calendar allowed a two-day holiday at Easter, April 15 and 18 with schools to close Friday, May 27, 1949.

The board, at G. C. Dowell's suggestion, voted to place all Dunbar school athletics under the school athletic department. Dowell pointed out that heretofore the Dunbar program had operated "on its own" but should be included as a part of the entire district program.

Resignations Announced

Resignation of five teachers was accepted. Those resigning were Mrs. Winnie Englert, George K. Hunt school; Mrs. Audrey Quest, McWhorter school; Lewis L. Stoelzing, Senior High school band; Omer R. Bantz, Senior High school, distributive education teacher, and Dorothy Hilliard Johnson, Central Ward summer school.

The board in turn elected four teachers. They were Genevieve Sewell, primary; Mrs. Alice V. Ward, primary; Nelva J. Halbert, primary, and J. H. Penn, Senior High school orchestra and A Capella choir director and coordinator of instrumental music.

The assignment of A. B. Reese, presently serving as an English teacher, to distributive education, Senior High school, was approved.

Plains Clinic was awarded a contract to supply medical service to the schools for the coming year, and the board voted to employ a second school nurse.

Bids on cafeteria equipment for two new elementary schools, 36th street and Woodlawn, will be received by the board on June 15, it was announced.

A. C. Jackson, business manager, was authorized to investigate cost of lighting the baseball ground at Chapman field and if not found to be excessive to go ahead and secure the facilities as soon as possible.

Jackson reported to the board that cafeterias operated under the school lunch program had completed the year with a gross profit of $1,343.

Attending the session were Clyde G. Tatum, president, G. C. Dowell, M. M. Ewing, Glenn Woody and C. H. Hamilton, board members, and R. W. Matthews and A. C. Jackson.

Taft Backers

Dewey to top the initial count and fail to pick up more delegates on the second. They argue that many delegates would think he had passed his peak and would look around for another choice.

The same politicians say Stassen's problem is to get out front early and to keep piling up delegates.

If he runs second or third on the first ballot, they give the former Minnesota governor less chance of becoming the nominee than his chief rivals because they think Stassen lacks the support Taft and Dewey have among veteran convention delegates.

Taft's candidacy might get a big boom if he could top the first ballot. It would be something of an answer to the good-man-but-can't-win argument raised against him in some Republican circles.

If he runs second or third on the first test, Taft is certain to face pressure from many sides to get out in favor of Dewey.

But the Taft people think they have an ace in the hole in the 56-vote Illinois delegation which is expected to cast its first ballot for Gov. Dwight Green as a favorite son.

The Taft camp thinks it will get 50 of those votes on the second ballot. It is counting on others from Massachusetts, New Jersey and Nebraska to swell that total.

If that first ballot result is close the bidding will be feverish for support from Pennsylvania's 73-vote delegation, California's 53, Michigan's 41, New Jersey's 35, Massachusett's 35 and Connecticut's 19.

Vivian Romance, French Star, Wants Glenn Ford For Co-Star

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, June 4.—Vivian Romance, the torrid French actress, is reportedly aiming for a Hollywood invasion and hopes to co-star with Glenn Ford.

This news comes from Glenn himself, who happily learned that he is the French star's first choice for a leading man when she makes a picture here. A deal for her services is now being cooked up and Glenn is hoping Columbia will let him do the film with her.

Meanwhile, the non-stop actor (he's had only a few day's vacation since exiting the Marines) expects to start another film as soon as he finishes his current one. Next will be "Mr. Miracle," a Settlement House yarn which will be partly shot in New York.

Bill Holden Worried

Joel McCrea continues his western film jag. He has sifted through 24 scripts and has come up with an untitled outdoor yarn on an epic scale. It will follow "Tennessee's Partner" and he hopes to interest Ginger Rogers as co-star.

Bill Holden is worried. He has had but two pictures before the public in eight years and now four of his films are slated for release in November. He's afraid the public won't want so much Holden. I don't think he need worry.

George Raft faces a big problem with his "Outpost Morocco." He filmed all the location shots in North Africa. He'll finish the film here and now he has to find exact doubles for all the characters in the overseas footage.

Victor Jory joins the "South of St. Louis" cast and he and Joel McCrea will have one of those tremendous fights that seem utterly necessary in film westerns. Victor recently had a gruelling knife duel with Glen Ford in "Carmen." In his spare time, he narrates kiddie stories.

King-Sized Ring

Lucille Bremer is displaying a king-size ring designed and donated by her fiance, Abelardo Rodriguez. It's a five-carat sparkler surrounded with rubies an emeralds. The red-headed actress expects to marry in August and says she'll spend six months each year with her husband in La Paz, Mexico, and six months with the movies in Hollywood.

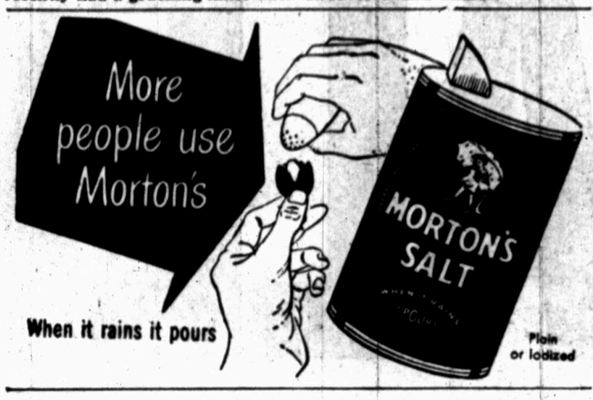

The Cary Grant-Betsy Grant friendship is more business than romance. He is greatly impressed with her talent and intends to use her in his future productions.

Death Valley, the scenic furnace where actors wilt and film melts in the cameras, has been conquered for movie purposes by John Ford. On the "Three Godfathers" location, a special device was invented to watercool the camera. The company was still happy to get back to the Los Angeles rain.

SIMPLE, ECONOMICAL AND TIME SAVING

Andrews Well Is A Producer

Union Oil Company of California No. 6 Cowden, one quarter of a mile south of the nearest Ellenburger oil well in the Dollar Hide field of Southwest Andrews County, and 1,875 feet from north and 2,085 feet from east lines of section 7, block A-55 psl survey, has proven for flowing production from the deep pay, and is to be completed.

This project ran a 37 minute drillstem test at 9,972-10,105 feet. A 1,500 foot water blanket was used. The water blanket started flowing out in 19 minutes. Oil cut mud came to the surface in 25 minutes and clear oil flowed out of the drill pipe in 27 minutes.

50 Barrels Per Hour

The project flowed oil for ten minutes at the estimate rate of 50 barrels per hour.

Top of the Ellenburger was at 9,970 feet. Operator will cement a string of 5½ inch casing on bottom and will then perforate opposite the pay zone. That section will be tested through those holes, and the well will then be finished and put on production.

Application Filed

The Texas Company has filed an amended application with the Railroad Commission of Texas, requesting a permit to drill its No. 1 Scharbauer, et al, wildcat in West Midland County, to a possible bottom of 12,000 feet.

That is calculated to take the project into the Ellenburger. It was originally started as a 5,000-foot venture to explore into the San Andres zone of the Permian.

The prospector drilled to a bottom of 5,091 feet in dry lime. It has cemented at string of 9⅝-inch casing at 5,080 feet. Cement has been put in back of that pipe practically all the way to the surface.

Operator has moved off the small drilling rig which cut the hole down to the current bottom, and is moving in a large rig.

The venture is about 12 miles southwest of Midland, one mile south of the Midland Air Terminal, and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 20, block 40, TP survey, T-2S. Deepening is to start as soon as the larger rig is ready to operate.

Start Making Hole

Magnolia Petroleum company will start making hole by June 7, on its No. 1 W. C. Hicks, which is scheduled as a 12,500-foot wildcat in Southeast Gaines County, about 14 miles southwest of Lamesa, which is in Central Dawson County.

The exploration will be 660 feet from north and west lines of labor 16, league 273, Loving County School Lands.

The projected destination of 12,500 feet is due to take the development into the Ellenburger.

She Becomes Doctor, Mother At Same Time

OMAHA, June 4 (AP) — Mrs. Robert A. Jeffrey, jr., 25, became a doctor of medicine only a few minutes after she gave birth to a nine-pound, 14-ounce daughter.

Her husband, who received his medical degree last year, stood in for Mrs. Jeffrey at Creighton university commencement exercises yesterday after she went to the hospital.

Mrs. Jeffrey was scheduled to receive her M. D. last year with her husband, but dropped out of school for the arrival of Robert A. Jeffrey, 3rd in November, 1946. This year she decided to try again for the medical degree. She completed final examinations and attended baccalaureate services before going to the hospital.

Mrs. Jeffrey is the former Margaret Degnan, daughter of a Livermore, Calif., physician.

Gen. Ike Quoted As Saying He Couldn't Run As Demo Because He Is Republican

NEW YORK, June 4. (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is quoted in the current issue of Pathfinder news magazine as saying he could not run for the presidency on the Democratic ticket because "he is a Republican."

In its column, "Under The Dome," the magazine said:

"In an exclusive statement to Pathfinder, the retired general said that he could never run for the presidency on a Democratic ticket for the simple reason that he is a Republican. He will support whomever the Republicans nominate."

Eisenhower, president-designate of Columbia university, could not be reached immediately for comment. However, a spokesman for the general said last week, when asked to comment on the Pathfinder article, that Eisenhower had told him that never to his knowledge had he "indicated to anyone at any time any thought which could be interpreted in such a way."

Paraguay Chief Justice Begins 10-Week Term As Interim Head

ASUNCION, Paraguay, June 4 (AP)—Chief Justice Juan Manuel Frutos began a 10-week term as Paraguay's provisional president today, replacing deposed President Higinio Morinigo.

Morinigo, "strong man" president since 1940, was forced out yesterday in a bloodless coup effected by the army. His cabinet resigned with him.

Frutos will hold office until Aug. 15, when President-elect Juan Natalicio Gonzalez is to be inaugurated. The army said it acted to insure Gonzalez' inauguration.

Hint Of Trouble

The provisional president, believed in his late sixties, is an old-line leader of Morinigo's Colorado party.

First news of the deposing of Morinigo came yesterday morning when the government announced his resignation at the request of "the armed forces and the people."

Asuncion residents, long used to wars and revolutions, got a hint of trouble the evening before, when strong police patrols and troops appeared on the streets. Telephone service was cut.

The army communique said the action was started when Morinigo tried to remove Capt. Rodriguez Liberato, Asuncion police chief. A few hours earlier the chamber of representatives had adopted a bill prohibiting the dismissal, without legal justification, of public employes loyal to the government.

Refused To Resign

Liberato, a supporter of president-elect Gonzalez, refused to resign.

Political observers saw in the attempted removal of Liberato and his refusal to quit the climax to a bid for power by both Morinigo and Gonzalez.

Although Gonzalez was Morinigo's hand-picked candidate for president, reports were heard recently that rivalry between them was growing.

Morinigo outlawed all other political parties at the elections last February, leaving Gonzalez the only candidate.

Recently political observers said, Gonzalez heard unconfirmed rumors that Morinigo wanted to retain the presidency. He apparently became suspicious and began building strength in the army to offset the influence of the president.

Many Previous Coups

Morinigo had weathered many previous coups in this country of slightly more than a million population. He became president in 1940 after President Jose Felix Estigarribia was killed in an airplane accident. He was the army's choice to complete the term of the dead president, ending in 1943. He got himself elected to another five-year term in a plebiscite in which he said he got 85 per cent of the votes.

Morinigo recalled all political exiles two years ago and formed a coalition cabinet of the chief parties. The coalition broke up, however, and a civil war followed last year. The government put down the revolt after seven weeks of fighting, including a two-week siege of Asuncion.

In the past two years, 12 of Latin America's 20 republics have been involved in some sort of violent political disturbance or revolt.

Displaced Persons Bill Due For Okay

WASHINGTON, June 4. (AP) — Passage of a bill to let displaced persons into this country seemed assured today as House Republican leaders gave that legislation high priority.

With adjournment scheduled for June 19, majority floor leader Halleck (R-Ind) told reporters a house bill to admit 200,000 homeless Europeans during the next two years will be called up for debate next week.

House leaders are not clearing any bills for debate which are not expected to pass before adjournment. The Senate passed a DP measure Wednesday.

The House bill, sponsored by Rep. Fellows (R-Me) and approved by the House judiciary committee, generally follows the lines of the Senate bill. But it would charge half of the total number of displaced persons entering this country against future immigration quotas for the countries from which they come.

Newfoundland Vote Is Close

ST. JOHN'S, NFLD., June 4 (AP) A runoff vote to decide Newfoundland's political future appeared virtually certain today.

Returns from yesterday's plebiscite on the question, now about two-thirds counted, strongly indicated that none of the three proposals on the ballot had received the 51 percent margin necessary to win.

Self-Government Leads

The standing, with 120,264 of 176,27 eligible votes in is:

For return to independence and responsible self-government — 83,131.

For confederation with Canada as that dominion's 10th province—49,185.

For retention of the present commission form of government —17,948

Those figures made only one thing sure: That Newfoundlanders — Newfies, they call themselves—do not want to remain any longer as a British colony. This rocky island ranked among the colonies as Britain's oldest.

In a runoff referendum the final decision would be between independence and confederation.

Delay In Counting

Some of the ballots may not be counted before another week, since they must come from bleak and barren outposts where election materials were dropped by parachute and have to be picked up by motor boat and brought in.

Newfoundland reverted to colonial status, from independence, 14 years ago, when it found itself unable to make ends meet financially. A governor was appointed by the British crown and a commission sat as a sort of bankruptcy administration to settle the island's $100,000,000 debt.

Prosperity returned with the war, through the establishment of the big American bases at St. John's, Argentia and Stephenville, and the British, by prearrangement, agreed to the new plebiscite.

Russia To Cancel Finland War Debt

HELSINKI, Finland, June 4. (AP)—Premier Mauno Pekkala says Russia is going to cancel half of Finland's remaining reparations debt, about $70,000,000

Pekkala said a formal note from Moscow last night confirmed this. Three Finnish ministers had asked a reduction.

The Finnish war reparations bill originally was $300,000,000. About $160,000,000 has been paid.
