Wins Sixth Place In Sales Contest

The Childress District of the United Gas System, which includes Hall County, stood sixth in a nation-wide Electrolux gas refrigerator-selling contest which lasted throughout April, May, and June, thereby winning one of the grand cash awards offered by the American Gas Association Electrolux Refrigeration Committee, which sponsored the drive, it was announced here today by C. L. Taylor, district manager of the company.

The contest, known as the "1936 Leadership Refrigeration Campaign," in which a gold-hilted "Sword of Merit" was offered to companies making the highest number of sales throughout the duration of the drive, was conducted on a scale much larger than any similar contest sponsored by the committee, and it resulted in a response by the buying public in all sections of the United States unparalleled in the history of gas refrigerator-selling during the spring and early summer season, according to Mr. Taylor. To companies running sixth, as in the case of the local company, a valuable cash award was offered.

"Our company regards it as a high honor to have received the award for achieving sixth place in view of the fact that the campaign was carried on in the face of the keenest competition," said Mr. Taylor.

"Our management gives high praise to the individual sales people whose enterprise and energy in carrying the message of gas refrigeration to householders in this vicinity helped to make this company win one of the high awards in the contest."

VINE MESQUITE CHECKS EROSION IN SOUTHWEST

Vine mesquite, an important Southwestern grass in revegetat- ing range land, also is efficient in holding soil against such thieves as racing wind and run-off water, says Leaflet Number 114, Vine Mesquite for Erosion Control on Southwestern Ranges, just issued by the United States Forest Service.

Vine mesquite, a tufted peren- nial, produces a matlike covering with its widely creeping stolens— some of them 8 and 10 feet long. It spreads so rapidly, even under adverse conditions, that a few transplants soon cover nearby areas. It is one of the first local plants to reoccupy gullies and other eroded areas. Its natural range includes Arizona, southern Colorado, Kansas, western Mis- souri, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and Mexico.

When tender and green, the leaves and stems of the vine mes- quite make good pasture for live- stock. On overgrazed ranges animals eat the dry stocks and even the stolens, destroying new plants starting at the nodes. For this reason vine mesquite should be encouraged by protecting the range from overgrazing. Well managed grazing is a cheaper way to obtain new growth than by seeding or transplanting, for seed germination is low and trans- planting costly.

CHURCHES

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"The Judgment of Scripture" will be the subject of Dr. Charles L. Feinberg's sermon next Sun- day morning at 11 a. m. at the First Presbyterian church. There is an unwarranted confusion in the minds of many as to just what the Scripture has to say about the matter of judgment. For many, the idea of a universal judgment for all has been the stock in trade of their thinking on the subject for years. Come and hear what the Scriptures have to say about this vital theme.

At the Sunday evening service (8 p. m.) the message will deal with "The First Coming of Christ." The ignorance relative to the purpose, motive, and ac- complishments of the first appear- ing of Christ is nothing short of appalling. If you know that Christ came to earth and noth- ing more, then this message is in- tended for you. All are cordially invited to all services. A welcome awaits you when you assemble

Hall County People

Asks Their Continued Support

To My Friends in Hall County who were kind enough to give me their support in the last primary, I want to offer my sincere thanks and to ask their continued sup- port in the coming primary. To those who voted against me, I have no ill feeling. I feel that they believe I have made them a good judge and that in casting their votes against me it was not for any personal reason. I am asking, too, that if they can see their way clear, I would be glad to have their support in the coming primary. I feel that from my practice as a lawyer and my experience as a district judge I can now make them a better judge than I have heretofore made.

...erral Office To WPA Work Is Opened Here

Mrs. F. E. Davis, former Hall County welfare worker, has been appointed to supervise the Hall County Intake Office by the Works Progress Administration, A. W. Long, district relief administrator of Amarillo, announced here last Friday.

Mr. Long and Mrs. Ruby Fullen, visiting caseworker from Pampa, were in Memphis last Friday to supervise the opening of the Hall County TRC Intake Office, which is now serving the needy residents of the county. Miss Mena Thompson has taken the position of Hall County welfare caseworker, the position which Mrs. Davis resigned to take a place with the Texas Relief Commission.

The TRC Intake Office is lo... ...ove the First National ...ell Memphis, and Tuesday ...nesday have been desig... Mr. District Administrator ...the two days each week ...sons may register at the ...Eligibility for referral to ...he function which the lo... ...ke Office does—is based ...e thing only; that basis ... Former relief status is ...paired.

... Davis announced that all ... desiring to seek placement ...A projects should call at ...fice if they have not reg... already. However, she ...here is no great rush as ...re no jobs available at this time.

Mr. Long emphasized here Friday the fact that the Texas Relief Commission does not make the actual certification or the placement. The Intake Office determines the person's eligibility, and the district WPA headquarters at Lubbock makes the placement.

Texas quota on WPA at present is 81,000 persons, where there are 135,000 now certified. It is anticipated that an additional 50,000 will be accepted under the modified ruling. This makes a total of 185,000 eligible with only 81,000 available jobs. As there is practically no possibility of applicants obtaining jobs immediately and as some little time is required between the date of application and actual referral is completed, the relief office has requested that indigents do not rush the Intake Office.

Several persons have visited the Intake Office here this week, having been thrown out of employment when the Memphis Cotton Oil Mill pared its crew for a time and when the Hall County WPA sewing room projects were suspended last month until further WPA funds are allotted to the work.

Mrs. D. H. Davenport and Mrs. Horace DuVall and children of Lakeview were visitors in Memphis Wednesday.

Farmers Receive Corn-Hog Checks

One hundred and fifty-two checks for Hall County farmers for compliance with the national government's corn-hog reduction program last year were received at the office of the county agricultural agent here Thursday morning.

The checks represented the final settlement on the corn-hog program and are perhaps the last large batch of checks to be received for last year's control program. The checks totaled $2,695.63.

All farmers who have corn-hog checks outstanding are requested to call at the county agent's office and apply for their money.

Roy Hardin Takes Vacation; Relief Operator Is Here

Miss Nell Ferguson of Vernon arrived in Memphis the first part of this week to serve as substitute operator of the Western Union Telegraph Company's branch office here. She will run the telegraph office here during the two-week vacation of Roy Hardin.

Announcement has been made that Mr. Hardin is to be transferred from the Memphis Western Union office to the one in Gainesville within the next two or three weeks. The person to manage the Memphis office has not been announced.

Will Sing and Play for Nation

The upper photograph is of Edythe Wright, auburn-haired vocalist who will sing during August with Tommy Dorsey's orchestra when, pinch-hitting for Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians during their vacation, the Dorsey group will be heard in a series of coast-to-coast programs to be broadcast from the Texas Centennial grounds at Dallas. Tommy, the youthful "swing" maestro, and his orchestra are sponsored by the Ford Motor Company. He is shown in the lower photograph.

Young "Swing" Maestro Substitutes for Fred Waring

Tommy Dorsey, the trombone playing "swing" maestro, will bring his group of musical artists to Texas during August to broadcast a series of coast-to-coast CBS programs for the Ford Motor Company, Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians will be on vacation all during August. Each Tuesday night at the Texas Centennial Exposition Dorsey's orchestra will broadcast from the Gulf Radio studios.

The programs, which are sponsored by Ford dealers, will be presented twice each Tuesday night. The first time will be from 7 p. m. to 7:30 central standard time for the eastern and central states. The same broadcast will be repeated from 10 to 10:30 p. m. central standard time for Pacific coast and mountain states.

Two members of the orchestra will be featured. Edythe Wright, auburn haired vocalist, has a clever style, often changing the lyrics of her songs, substituting words and in some cases even whole lines that strike her fancy or better express her interpretation of the song's mood or meaning. Incidentally, she has three hobbies, golf, tennis and writing poetry.

Jack Leonard, also a vocalist, is a most personable and charming young man with a great deal of talent. He contributes considerable to the appeal of the orchestra.

One of the main reasons for the success of Dorsey's orchestra can be traced to the young music master's ability as a trombone player. Often Tommy substitutes a horn for his baton to do solo passages or lead the brasses in the many rhythmic arrangements popularized by the band.

Golf Course Here Damaged By Fire

The nine-hole golf course at the Memphis Country Club was temporarily damaged Sunday afternoon when the dry grass caught fire and burned. The entire western half of the course was burned off.

The fire was said to have originated in the creek which cuts through the course, and started when a player set fire to a pile of dead weeds. Local golf players will have to confine their play here to the eastern half of the course until after a good rain falls, it was said.

'Texas Empire Builders of '36"

Every man, woman and child in Texas should know the principal events of the momentous period of Texas history from March 1 to April 21, 1836 — events that changed the shape and the destiny of the United States.

The facts essential to this understanding are briefly set forth in a 32 page booklet entitled "Texas Empire Builders of '36," telling of the stirring days which all Texans, native and adopted, are celebrating in 1936.

The booklet will be mailed postpaid for 10 cents. Send all orders to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

SOD, NOT SEED, BEST WAY TO GROW BUFFALO GRASS

Requests for Buffalo-grass seed to reestablish the natural vegetative cover in the Western Plains country are in tons while the supply is only in pounds, says H. H. Bennett, Chief of the Soil Conservation Service.

It was only yesterday, he says, that short grasses on the Plains were being destroyed by the plow, overgrazing and occasional devastating fires. Today, men are using their wits to bring back the grasses which through centuries have demonstrated their value as a protection against wind and water erosion.

Seven years ago a farmer in western Kansas wished to re-establish Buffalo grass on a small field that had been in cultivation for a long time. He cut strips of Buffalo grass sod from along the highway. These strips were spot planted in furrows in the field. Today, despite four years of subnormal rainfall, the field is almost completely covered with Buffalo grass.

Sources such as this and fence rows and other patches, agronomists believe, offer a suggestion to farmers wishing to establish small areas of Buffalo grass.

CAVALCADE BRINGS TEXAS HISTORY TO LIFE

DALLAS, Texas, August—Cavalcade of Texas, one of the "must see" things at the Texas Centennial Exposition, recreates the hilarious spirit of the Big Bend country in the above scene in the Jersey Lilly saloon when Judge Roy Bean was all the law there was West of the Pecos. Just below are the famous Wilson Clydesdales, valued at $100,000, drawing one of the covered wagons across the largest stage on earth; lower left, a tragic moment during the Comanche attack on Fort Parker in 1836; Loraine Meeks, at right, member of the cast, dressed as a lovely Spanish senorita, wears a comb brought from Spain by her ancestors a century ago. And below, still the crowds come, jamming the entrance at every performance, waiting to see one of the greatest shows on earth at the Texas Centennial Exposition—Cavalcade of Texas.

Palace Theatre—

The picture screen was installed by the Gardner Daylight Screen Company. The building is equipped with comfortable, red plush seats, with other red plush seats and furnishings in the spacious lobby. Seating capacity of the new Palace has been increased; 624 seats occupy the two long sections on the main floor and in the balcony.

Multi-colored lights adorn either side of the theatre's interior, with large candelabra festooned from the ceiling. Indirect, modern lighting fixtures furnish the necessary light during the performances.

A striking feature of the new Palace is the metropolitan lobby it boasts. Comfortable seats, large inset photographs of movie stars, beautiful curtains, tile rest rooms on either side of the lobby, a drinking fountain, and other luxurious furnishings enhance the appearance and comfort of the lobby.

The ticket booth is unusually attractive, decorated with gay colored curtains, and centers the front of the building, which faces Main street on the north side of the square. The high street awning furnishes a canopy from the show to the street.

Mr. Boren has announced that a good run of pictures has been booked in advance, and that Memphians will be afforded some first-class entertainment. Popular prices will prevail at the new Palace, he said.

Theatre men present for the open house given by Mr. Boren Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Wooten and sons of Canyon, Jim Goldie of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evert of Spur, E. S. Barber of the United Artist Film Co., Dallas, Lee Hughes of Childress, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mulkey of Clarendon, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bell of Clarendon.

Mrs. S. R. Jeffery of Olney arrived Thursday and will be the house guest of Mrs. A. Baldwin for the week-end. She is en route home from a trip to Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Mack Wheat of Lubbock spent last week-end in Memphis visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wheat at 123 South Twelfth street.

Four Counties—

the government in its Soil Conservation Service demonstrational program, he said. There is a great need for soil conservation work in Donley, Hall, Childress, and Collingsworth counties, Finch said, as the sandy loam washes readily and soil erosion is prevalent.

The prominent Donley County rancher explained the demonstration work that has been done by the Memphis SCS, and stated that the SCS wants a local organization to assist with the work.

E. McBride, superintendent of the Memphis SCS camp, was introduced by Mr. Finch, and Mr. McBride read suggested resolutions for the proposed voluntary sponsoring agency. He stated that it was his desire for every community within the local SCS area to get its share of the government soil conservation work.

James A. Jackson, former Hall County Agricultural Agent, was here from the regional SCS headquarters in Amarillo; and he assisted with the organization of the Greenbelt Soil Conservation Association. Mr. Jackson discussed the need of such an association. The organization would pick the farms and ranches over the four counties for the demonstration work. He stated that it will be necessary to have a legal soil conservation unit in the future, and that now is a good time to lay the foundation of such a body. This section needs an active organization to represent the area in soil matters at Washington, he said.

A motion was made by Dr. W. C. Dickey of Memphis to organize the Greenbelt Soil Conservation Association, and the agriculturists present voted unanimously in favor of the motion.

A board of directors, composed of eight members, was elected. The board of directors is composed of S. D. Ballard and Cagle Teague, Childress County; Dr. W. C. Dickey and C. M. Hawkins, Hall County; F. A. Finch and Arthur Ranson, Donley County; Noel Cudd and Henry Wischkaemper, president, Collingsworth County. Collingsworth County is to name another director to serve in Mr. Wischkaemper's place, and the president shall serve as an ex-officio member of the board. E. McBride was elected secretary.

Among the outstanding agriculturists present at Saturday's meeting here were P. C. Bennett, SCS project foreman of Vega, N. M.; and Bob Alexander of Childress, state representative.

his information, which he considers reliable, is that certain stores and other places of employment have followed the practice of working their girls sometimes as much as twelve to fourteen hours on Saturdays, under the misapprehension that such practice did not constitute a violation of law, provided the total hours for the week did not exceed fifty-four.

The law enforcement officer declared that this practice must be stopped, that an absolute limit of nine hours per day for female employees would be enforced by his department, and that it was his purpose to file complaints in the courts against any employer found to be disregarding the law. Mr. Gragg pointed out in this connection that it is all right for mercantile establishments to remain open Saturday evenings, if they care to do so; that this convenience to the public could easily be arranged by having part of the sales girls go to work late enough on Saturday mornings so that their total hours for the day would not exceed nine.

The deputy labor commissioner plans, he said, to make a thorough investigation of the situation here. Incidentally, Mr. Gragg complimented the city and ventured the suggestion he liked to be in Memphis so well that he did not care how often his official duties brought him here or how long he might be required to remain. Mr. Gragg has been with the State Labor Department for almost twenty years, and by his work and interest in the welfare especially of girls who are required to earn their own livelihood has earned the sobriquet of "the poor working girls' friend." He declared he was proud of the designation.

Many men and women who read this are desperate with the fear and agony of rheumatic pains. How well you know!—you sufferers—what this scourge of mankind means to its victims! Disillusioned—discouraged—life has little meaning for you today.

Amazing Relief

But at last there is a message of genuine hope for you. Read the amazing sworn testimony furnished to Tarver's Pharmacy from Mrs. Rebecca J. Newmon, R.F.D. 5, Abilene, Texas:

"I suffered with rheumatism or neuritis in my hands and arms for some time, gradually getting worse. My fingers became so stiff that I finally had no use of them, and I got to the point where I could hardly raise my arms.

"After commencing to take Williams R.U.X. Compound, my trouble has disappeared. My hands and fingers are now so that I can do my housework, and I have even begun to do sewing again. Am more than pleased with the results as I had taken other medicines with absolutely no benefit and am happy to recommend R.U.X. Compound to anyone."

Doctor's Prescription

Developed from the experience of an army doctor during the World War, this remarkable medicine is now available to you under the name of Williams R.U.X. Compound, and local pain-ridden people by the score are daily finding that this medicine actually does the work. Mrs. Morgan To Be In Concert At Centennial

Mrs. Margaret G. Morgan returned from Amarillo Wednesday where she went Saturday to play in the Ten Piano Concert by the Ensemble Club of the Musical Arts Conservatory of West Texas Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Playhouse at 1800 Harrison street.

As a result of the splendid performance an invitation came from the program committee of the Texas Centennial to make an appearance in Dallas on Aug. 7.

Those who attended the performances in Amarillo declare the interpretations were at times massive and at others delicate in the finest sense of tonal nuance. The entire program was full of interest, entertainment and contrast, and contained music for every type of musical taste. The fine performance, exceptional ensemble and spirit of the players evidenced genuine sport of a new kind. The players are well trained and achieve some massive effects in such numbers as one the Liszt Hungarian Rhapsod and numbers by Weber, Chas Albanez. The delicacy of chestral playing was evidenced numbers by Sinding, Sibel Schubert and Duke Ellington.

Part of the program was gi to popular music a la E Duchin.

CARDUI

Helped Three Times

At three different times, Cardui has helped Mrs. Ike Wright, of Sealy, Texas. "I used Cardui, when a girl, for cramps, and it helped then," she writes. Next, after marriage, she reports having taken Cardui when she felt weak, nervous and restless before her children were born.

And during middle life, it helped her again. "I was miserable," she explains. "I did not have an appetite. I was very blue and upset. I remembered Cardui had helped me, so took it again and soon began to pick up. I ate and had more strength. I kept up the Cardui and did not have any more trouble. Is it any wonder that I recommend Cardui to all my friends?"

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Cuts Operating Costs In Half

Gets 17 Miles Per Gallon

June 19, 1936

Ford Motor Company,
Oklahoma City, Okla.
Gentlemen:

We are having such satisfactory service out of our Ford V-8 car and truck I would like for you to know about it.

We used another make of cars and trucks for more than two years, but the cost of operation was too great. After talking with several of our friends and observing the operation of their V-8 Fords we decided to try them.

To say we are pleased is putting it mildly, for the operating cost is only about half as much, to say nothing of the ease of handling and that feeling of safety.

We get about 17 miles per gallon of gasoline with the new V-8 truck loaded and 18 to 20 with the car. Have never added a drop of oil between changes. The truck has been driven 12,000 miles and only 65¢ has been spent for repairs on it.

CHIEF ALVIN MASSEY EXPLAINS HOW TO TURN IN FIRE ALARMS

The past several fires which have broke out in Memphis resulted in considerable confusion, because of the fact that the persons turning in the alarms did not know the exact location of their houses, Fire Chief Alvin Massey said this week.

"The average person in Memphis does not known how to turn in an alarm in case of fire," Massey declared. In asking for the cooperation of everyone in Memphis in order that the Memphis Fire Department may make quicker response to the fire calls, Massey gave the following as the proper way to turn in an alarm:

Call the telephone operator. Tell her what street and block the fire is on, if the exact house number is not known. All houses are listed as being on the street on which they face.

Every person should know his house number, or at least what block he lives in. Do not turn in an alarm, saying: "This is Mr. Jones and my house is on fire!" Massey said. Instead, say: "There is a fire on South Ninth, block 600." Or, if the correct house number is known, give that, Massey said.

The main thing, Chief Massey pointed out, is to make clear whether the fire is on North Seventh, South Seventh, East Main, West Main, or wherever it may be.

HIKE IS MADE IN SALES OF SAVING BONDS

$6,000 In Bonds Is Sold During July In Memphis

Wayne C. Taylor, Acting Secretary of the Treasury, announced today that the one-half billion dollar mark, maturity value, of sales of United States Savings Bonds had been passed.

Sale of the bonds from the Memphis post office, according to J. Henry Read, postmaster, amounted to $6,000 during the month of July.

Savings bonds were first made available on March 1, 1935. For the 10 months period from that date to the end of the year, purchases amounted to a maturity value of $250,000,000 or an average daily sale for each business day for that period of $1,000,000, maturity value. Purchases from January 1, 1936, to July 6, represent maturity value of $241,000,000 or an average daily sale of $1,535,000 for each business day, reflecting a 50 per cent increase in the average daily sales for the year 1986 over 1935.

Purchases for the new fiscal year, which began July 1, are at an increased rate averaging a daily maturity value of $1,823,700. Average daily sales in July, 1936, were 76 per cent ahead of average sales for July, 1935.

United States Savings Bonds may be purchased at all post offices of the first and second classes, at most of the third class, and at some of the fourth class offices or direct-by-mail from the Treasurer of the United States, or any Federal Reserve Bank.

To date there have been issued 1,700,000 Savings Bonds. As the limitation of individual ownership is restricted by law to $10,000, maturity value, issued during any calendar year, the sales have been attained only through wide distribution to investors throughout the nation.

United States Savings Bonds are sold in denominations from $25 to $1,000, maturity value. The $100, maturity value bond—$75, purchase price—is proving by far to be the most popular, especially among those who are purchasing Savings Bonds under the new Regular Purchase Plan recently announced by the Treasury Department. This plan provides that upon request, the Treasury Department will mail a memorandum statement each week, each month, or at regular intervals as the purchaser may elect.

A United States Savings Bond matures exactly 10 years from its issue date for a sum one-third more than its purchase price. Hence, if these bonds are bought at regular intervals and are not redeemed prior to maturity, the maturity value will be payable, at the same intervals as the purchases, 10 years from the respective issue dates.

Tabulation of the audited returns from the sale of United States Savings Bonds in the several states and possessions showed that Texas had sold $823,812.50 worth of bonds during the month of April, 1936, and a total of $12,760,462.50 in bonds for the period from March 1, 1935, to May 1, 1936. For the month of May, 1936, Texas sold bonds at a total of $679,687.50.

BLACK-DRAUGHT GOOD LAXATIVE

Black-Draught has been kept on hand for all the family in the home of Mr. W. A. Lemons, of Independence, Va., since twenty years ago. Mr. Lemons writes that he takes it as a laxative in cases of "headache, dull, tired feeling, biliousness."

"And I take it if I feel uncomfortable after a heavy meal," he adds. "I especially use it for sick headache. It certainly is good.

"When a man says 'Black-Draught is good,' it is probably because he remembers the prompt, refreshing relief it brought in constipation troubles. Its benefits are felt because it is a simple, herb laxative, so natural in composition and action that thousands and thousands of men and women prefer it when a laxative is needed.

STOMACH GAS AWFUL BACKACHE QUICKLY RELIEVED

Prescription of Former Army Doctor Enables Lady to Do Her Own Housework Now

"For some time I have been run down and worn out," says Mrs. Nina McAlister, of 710 Clay St., Wichita Falls. "I was troubled with gas on my stomach and had terrible backache; was even unable to walk to town to do my regular shopping without becoming worn out."

"I decided to try a bottle of Williams S.L.K. Formula, and after taking only a few doses began to notice results. Now that tired feeling is gone and I enjoy walking once again as well as doing my own housework."

Millions of people today are suffering similarly because of sluggish stomach, kidneys, and bowels. And so unnecessarily when these common conditions may so often be quickly relieved by the prescription of an ex-army doctor. Developed from his experience in the World War this prescription, known as Williams S.L.K. Formula, is now on sale in this city at Tarver's Pharmacy. Get a bottle today, and if you are not wholly and completely satisfied after taking the very first bottle your money will be cheerfully refunded without question.

WHY?

IT IS NECESSARY TO HAVE COPY EARLY

The biggest task that the personnel of a good newspaper has to perform is to permeate its columns with QUALITY!

Of course, at first thought, that performance seems inconsequential to the casual observer, but it is important to the person who is doing it.

A good newspaper worker is always conscientious about his work. He wants it to be up to the very latest standards of good journalism, and that is why it is necessary to have copy early.

Particularly is this true of advertising copy. The management of The Democrat endeavors to live up to the rigid rule of "quality" in the columns of the paper, and of course to fulfil that rule means that advertisements must be neatly gotten up, attractively displayed in type styles, and must be well arranged on the pages.

To do this requires time. After the last piece of advertising copy is received in this office, 4 to 6 hours are required to complete the job of assembling the advertisements, news and editorial matter before the complete, printed paper can be placed in the mail.

THEN

If the papers are not placed in the post office by 6 p. m. on the day of publication, it is impossible for the postal clerks to work the outgoing mail and get them all properly routed so as to reach their various destinations on time, and in such instances naturally the subscriber is disappointed and the advertiser does not receive as much benefit as he would if all the papers were delivered on time.

For the above outlined reasons the management of The Democrat is forced to ask the co-operation of advertisers in turning in copy earlier than heretofore.
