Jimmy Silberisen Catches Mullet In His Own Front Yard

A by product of Sunday's storm here was the school of mullet that appeared in Jimmy Silberisen's front yard, five blocks from the bay, at the height of the down-pour when everything was flooded.

Jimmy said he looked out and his front yard was a sheet of water, working with mullet. He took his cast net and caught three that weighed four pounds between them.

He said that they had probably worked upstream in one of the big drainage ditches leading to the bay, which borders his front yard, and which was filled to overflowing by the terrific rain, which dumped between three and five inches on Rockport within a very short space of time.

With the ground waterlogged by unprecedented rains during the fall and winter, sufficient water remained above ground for the mullet to leave the bay and come calling.

ARRESTS SOLVES ARANSAS PASS THEFTS AT HARBOR

An arrest made by Aransas County Deputy Sheriff Sherman Mundine on Thursday morning at Aransas Pass helped, with the aid of Police Chief Felix Turnbough and Sergeant Hughes, to unravel five burglaries that have taken place recently around Conn Brown Harbor, which is actually in Aransas County.

Two negro juveniles, one 15, the other 12, were apprehended while disposing of loot they had obtained from the Southern Ice Company Thursday morning.

Questioning by the police officers disclosed the fact that the boys had also been guilty of four more recent burglaries around Conn Brown Harbor, at the Beach Shrimp Company, the Solomon Shrimp Company, Jack's Net Shop, and the Shaw Shrimp Company. About $200 in loot was recovered.

Elected with Steele were Vernon Kleypas, as first vice president; Mrs. Charles A. Roe, Sr., second vice president; and Charles LaBounty, re-elected treasurer.

Also re-elected was Mrs. Mary Juergens, secretary-manager of the Chamber.

In other business, President Steele and the directors listened to a report by out-going Board member, N. F. Jackson, concerning a committee on aims and objectives of the chamber, which Jackson will continue to head; a report by head of legal committee and new director, Miss Lola Bonner; and a report from the banquet committee, composed of Mrs. Roe, outgoing director Cecil Cole, and John Albert Ratliff.

Cole told the board that, of four bids received for the annual banquet, lowest was that of Floyd's Barbecue and Bakery, which would serve the meal at the Woman's Club on March 4.

The banquet will be marked by an outstanding speaker, Mrs. Juergens said, and asked all directors to emphasize to those they contacted that it was open to anyone who cared to come, whether they are a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not. Tickets are $2.25 each, and may be purchased from any director, or from Mrs. Juergens.

In other business, the directors approved the purchase of a trophy to be given to the winner of the mile relays in the Annual Toast of the Coast track meet that will be held here later in the spring.

Bill Reintroduced To Create Calhoun Hunting, Fishing Area

Port Lavaca.—State Rep. R. H. Cory has introduced a bill in the Legislature which would reserve over 3,000 acres of Calhoun County land for public use as hunting fishing and camping grounds.

The bill, written at the request of various sportsmen's associations, never got out of committee and had to be reintroduced this year to be considered for action.

The Bill is designed to keep about 3,000 acres of land on Matagorda Island and the islands in San Antonio Bay from becoming private property. It provides that the state may not sell or lease the land without special authorization of the Legislature.

The original bill resulted from a proposal made to the Game and Fish Commission in January of 1960 that a waterfowl sanctuary be established on parts of Matagorda and Saint Joseph's Islands.

Title to the land came under dispute with Dallas financier Toddie Lee Wynn and Perry Bass of Fort Worth, claiming ownership. Their claim was opposed by sportsmen, who say the land belongs to the State of Texas and should be left open to the public for hunting and fishing.

The Sportsmen sent a petition to the commission protesting the establishments of the sanctuary and the idea was abandoned by the commission, which claimed it did not know title to the land was under question.

Cory's bill includes the provision that the Texas attorney general may file suit to establish ownership of the land in the courts. A second provision would allow the county attorney of Calhoun to file the suit, if the attorney general does not.—Houston Post.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS REPRESENTATIVES HERE MONDAY

In response to a telephone call made Monday by Aransas County Judge John D. Wendell, representatives of the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, were here to inspect flood conditions after Sunday rains.

Judge Wendell said this was in line with the county's recent request for federal flood aid.

TWO WRECKS THIS WEEK

Leon Preidom, driving a 1956 Pontiac north on Live Oak Street Tuesday about 1 p.m. was in collision with a 1948 Pontiac driven by Stanley Pryor, who was headed east on Wharf Street.

Deputy Sheriff Mundine, who investigated, gave Pryor a ticket for failure to grant right-of-way.

Early in the week, William Myers stopped at the intersection of Loop 70 and Highway 35, then made a left turn and ran into Mrs. Micala Casterline, who was driving a 1954 Ford.

Deputy Sheriff Mundine gave Myers a ticket for a traffic violation.

Jarboe Attends Road Meeting In Louisiana

The dream of a U. S. highway stretching from Montreal to Mexico City via Rockport and the Texas Coast came a step nearer reality last week at a meeting of the Texas and Louisiana Highway Improvement Association in Abbeville, La.

James A. Jarboe, a director of the organization from Rockport, attended the meeting, and reported to the Directors of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night on the progress of the project.

Jarboe said a resolution was passed pledging the Texas and Louisiana highway departments to make a joint application for U. S. designation of a hug-the-coast route from New Orleans to Brownsville. Aransas Pass would be the terminal for an alternate route down Mustang and Padre Islands.

At present US 11 extends from Montreal to New Orleans. If the hug-the-coast route through Texas is designated a US highway, tourist traffic would increase according to boosters of the plan.

"I drove the hug-the-coast route on my way to Abbeville," Jarboe said, "and the potential of this drive is terrific."

Ray W. Burgess, Louisiana highway department director, was the principal speaker at the Monday night banquet. He said he could "see no great problem" in making U. S. Highway 11 a major thoroughfare from Canada to Mexico.

Sanders and Son Building Motel

Work Has Started On Twenty Units To Be Ready For Occupancy By June 1 On The Sanders Property North of Fulton

Work commenced here this week on the first stage of the Sandollar Inn, an extensive motel and marina, planned by well-known former San Antonio contractor L. E. Sanders and his son Jack, former manager of the Padre Island Causeway, for Nueces County.

Jack said that the entire development would be located on the Sanders property north of Rockport and in the bay immediately in front. The first twenty units will be ready for occupancy June 1. Fourteen of them (seven two story units) he stated, will be built high on the bluff, overlooking Aransas Bay, while the others will be a lower level on the hillside. All will have a scenic view of the beach and bay, with the 700-foot Sanders pier and T-head in the foreground, along with a marina yet to be constructed.

Each 540-square-foot unit will be of masonry with a folded plate roof, Sanders said; each will have a private patio, a TV, and telephone service through a PBX. One out of two will have a compact kitchen equipped with refrigerator, sink, cabinets and stove, and can be thrown together with the adjoining unit to make a two room suite. All kitchens and baths will be tiled, he stated.

Also planned for completion by June 1 is an office and quarters for the manager, and a fan-shaped swimming pool, 40 feet by 35 feet by 20 feet. This will have a large paved patio around it for sun bathing, deck chairs, and outdoor loafing.

All guests will have free access to the Sanders fishing pier, Jack said, and the motel will run a shuttle service to Aransas County's airport—one of the finest in Texas—for those who prefer to fly their own planes.

Only twenty motel units will be built this year, he continued, because it would be virtually impossible to get more ready for occupancy by the first of June.

Minor Twister Hits Rockport

Rain gauges in Rockport showed 3.5 to 5 inches Sunday when a little squall and incipient twister hit here with wind gusts so heavy that they caused a great deal of damage.

The rain started about 10:30 a.m., and most of it fell within three or four hours. The squall hit about 12:30. Shredded the big tent belonging to the skating rink on the waterfront, tore down fences at the Roaten and Grant residences and ripped limbs and fruit from trees at Bennie Earp's.

Bennie was standing in the doorway of his shop when the gusts hit, and said he felt as though he was in a vacuum. Mrs. C. L. Grant, when she opened a window, said that the outrush of air tugged at her strongly; Mrs. Shelley Roaten said the suction opened a screen door at the Roaten home, against the pull of a heavy spring.

Fences were also destroyed in a westerly direction from the Grant and Earp residences.

Everyone was agreed in stating that they believed that the damage was caused by a minor twister, that really didn't have time to form before it left town, and was dissipated harmlessly.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capital

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex.—Organized, but in some quarters, highly disgruntled, the Texas House of Representatives is down to business.

Speaker James Turman did what comes naturally. He gave committee chairmanships, down the line, to those who supported him in his race for speaker. Key committees have a solid majority of Turman men.

Supporters of Turman's opponent, Rep. Wade Spillman of McAllen, are not happy with their assignments. Mostly experienced legislative hands, they can be expected to do some land mining along the path of the slim Turman majority.

Among chairmen of major house committees are these: Revenue and Taxation, Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger; Appropriations, Rep. James M. Cotten of Weatherford; State Affairs, Rep. Bill Howell of Grand Saline; Rep. Malcolm McGregor of El Paso; Agriculture, Rep. Grainger McIlhenny of Wheeler; Livestock and Stock Raising, Rep. Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches; Insurance, Rep. Murray Watson, Jr., of Mart; Congress-sional and Legislative Districts, Rep. C. W. Percy of Temple; Highways and Roads, Rep. Alonzo Jamison of Denton; Judiciary, Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi; Banks and Banking, Rep. Ben Lewis of Dallas; and Game and Fisheries, Rep. D. Ray Harrington of Port Arthur.

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey of San Augustine had named his Senate committees several weeks ago.

Sen. Wardlow Lane of Center heads the Senate's State Affairs Committee. It's a post he held four years ago for the 55th Legislature.

This is the committee that will consider new tax bills after they have passed the House. Money raising measures must originate in the House.

Appropriations, the other half of the money raising-money spending puzzle, will be handled in the Senate by the Finance Committee, headed by Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney.

Other Senate committee chairmen are: Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe, Agriculture and Livestock; Sen. Robert W. Baker of Houston, Banking; Sen. Charles Herring of Austin, Claims; Sen. Louis Crump of San Saba, Constitutional Amendments; Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, Contingent Expenses; Sen. A. M.

Alkin Jr. of Paris, Counties, Cities and Towns; Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress, Education; Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo, Game and Fish; Sen. Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi, Insurance; Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock, Interstate Cooperation; Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, Jurisprudence; Sen. David Ratliff of Stamford, Labor and Management Relations; Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo, Legislative, Congressional and Judicial Districts.

Tax Referendum Pushed—Two bills have been introduced to allow voters to express their tax likes and dislikes directly in a referendum at the April 4 senatorial election.

Rep. Wesley Roberts of Lamesa introduced a measure which would allow voters to make a choice between a sales tax, income tax or payroll tax. Rep. Henry Fletcher of Luling introduced a similar bill with the additional choice of selective sales taxes.

Meanwhile, these have been added to the money-raising measures introduced in the House:

A 2 per cent general sales tax, exempting groceries, school lunches, prescription drugs, farm machinery, seed and fertilizer, by Rep. John Allen of Longview. Estimated yield: $80,000,000 a year.

A revised formula for franchise taxes on interstate corporations, by Rep. Franklin Spears Jr. of San Antonio. Estimated yield: $10,000,000 a year.

A temporary (one year) increase in the gas production tax from 7 to 10 per cent, by Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola. Estimated yield $22,500,000.

SS For Lawmakers—Social security deductions from Legislators' salaries will be paid by the state under a bill finally passed by both Houses.

This bill stirred up fireworks in the House where it passed only 76-65. Rep. R. A. Bartram of New Braunfels was spokesman for those who deplored the legislators' spending more money on themselves in the face of the recent salary raise and the state's need for more money.

Speakership Plan Proposed—New ground rules are being pushed for one of the hardest-fought, most trouble-causing races in Texas politics.

A proposed constitutional amendment would allow newly elected House members to meet and elect their speaker at least a month before the regular session opening day. Reps. W. T. Dungan of McKinney and Ben Lewis of Dallas are sponsors.

This plan would give the winning speaker time to name committees and be ready to begin work on an organized basis at the start of the session.

Proposed amendment would also limit a presiding officer to one term, bar campaigning in the House and require monthly reports on campaign contributions.

Also proposed is that the post be an elective one the same as the Lt. Governor's office. That would let the people decide and settle the matter early in November.

Crowded Calendar Ahead—Hundreds of bills on almost every conceivable subject have been launched on the legislative waters.

Some never will be heard of again. Some may change your way of living. Among these are proposals to: Up minimum retirement pay for teachers with 20 years' experience to $1,800 a year; Remove the constitutional ceiling on state payments for the needy aged and increase the ceiling for payments to the disabled; Abolish the requirement for a wife's separate acknowledgment on property transactions; Allow a woman owning property before marriage to continue to manage it without her husband's consent after marriage; Set penalties for giving false testimony under oath to legislative committees; Set a state minimum wage of 75 cents an hour.

National Electrical Week Celebrated

This is National Electrical Week, an event observed each year during the week of Thomas Edison's birthday.

Electrical Week, 1961, commemorates the 114th anniversary of the birth of Edison, the onetime newsboy who brought electricity out of the laboratory and into practical use for the benefit of mankind. His invention of the first practical incandescent lamp on Oct. 21, 1879, started a new way of life.

In the few years since that time, electricity has become the lifeblood of our civilization.

Along with the electric light, Edison developed central station generation and distribution of electricity. With this, electricity came out of the laboratory and into homes, factories and farms.

The housewife 20 years from now may buy an entire week's supply of food in pre-packaged cartons, selected from more than 100 menus at the shopping market. When she decides what she wants for dinner, she will set a few dials, push a button and the proper carton will be transferred automatically from the freezer to the electronic cooking station. A family coming home from vacation will phone their empty house, instruct it to cool itself off and have dinner ready by six o'clock. There will be thermoelectric refrigerators to replace present-type refrigerators. By reversing the flow of current, the unit will become either a refrigerator or an oven.

There will be ultrasonic sinks that wash dishes by means of sound waves, and electric blankets that heat in the winter and cool in the summer. Dusting will be done with the magic of an electrostatic wand that will gather the dust to it like a magnet.

Homes will be lighted by luminous panel walls and ceilings, and controls will enable the family to obtain the precise level and color combination of lighting desired for every room to obtain the maximum beauty of color, texture and design of home furnishings.

Transportation will be revolutionized too. Highways will be lighted along their entire length. Electric automobiles will be able to cross the country without a single recharging. Cars, both electric and those powered by internal combustion engines, will operate along highways in which control cables are imbedded so that each driver can dial the speed desired. There will be vertical take-off and landing airplanes — automatically controlled and restricted to prescribed air channels at low altitudes for safety and speed.

Even today, electricity is entering formerly complicated areas of industry. Automation is already an essential ingredient in many industrial operations. Computers do in minutes what it used to take an entire group of engineers months to do. Electric furnaces produce heat close to the temperature of the sun. And molecular electronics are revolutionizing the electronics industry to extend our exploration of outer space.

Miss Joyce Weatherly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Weatherly formerly of Rockport, has completed the Secretarial Science Course at South Texas Commercial College of Corpus Christi. Miss Weatherly entered college in June, of 1960. She is a graduate of Aransas County High School, class of 1960.

Breakfast In Hollywood Most Successful

The Woman's Club of Aransas County held a most successful and entertaining "Breakfast in Hollywood" on Saturday morning in the Woman's Club building.

Mrs. George Dickey, president, welcomed the guests and Mrs. Bill Clark sang "The Lord's Prayer." A "Roaring 20's" program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Roy Hinton. The Roaring 20 girls' chorus sang: "I'm Just Wild About Harry" and "Bye Bye Blackbird" with Mrs. Lucille Schultz dressed as the blackbird in a most cleverly designed costume. The Roaring 20's Girls were Mrs. C. C. Crabb, Mrs. Jack Sparks, Mrs. Kyle Vick, Jr., Mrs. E. F. Everett, Mrs. Seth Steele and Mrs. C. C. Atchley. They were all dressed in costumes reminiscent of that period, knee-length sack-like dresses with long beads, and flapper hats. Mrs. Jerry Wendell sang "Bill" with Mrs. A. B. Chernosky taking the part of Bill. The "Charleston Trio," Mrs. J. Allen Frye, Mrs. E. F. Everett and Mrs. Ron Schultz sang "Baby Face." Mrs. J. Allen Frye sang "Five Foot Two-Eyes of Blue" with Mrs. Schultz at the piano. The chorus danced the Charleston and the whole program was most enthusiastically received by the audience.

Many of the guests wore hats that were most unusual. Judging the hats were Rev. Wilson Brumley, Mr. J. Reid Simmons, postmaster, and Mr. A. B. LeFevre, principal of the Aransas County High School. First prize went to Mrs. Philpot for her "Goldfish Bowl." Mrs. Donnell won second prize with her "Stovepipe" hat. Mrs. E. T. Johnson won third prize with her hat representing "Toast of the Coast." Mrs. Talt won fourth prize and her hat represented "Income Tax."

Mrs. Babel L. Woodworth of Portland, Oregon won the prize for the visitor living furthest away. Many door prizes were given to those attending, the prizes being decorated with miniature hats.

Mrs. Birch Addington was chairman for this event assisted by Mrs. R. L. Harrell. Mrs. A. S. Dodson and Mrs. E. T. Page were chairmen for the breakfast and Mrs. A. B. Chernosky and Mrs. J. W. Hunt were program chairmen.

FAITH CIRCLE MET TUESDAY

Faith Circle of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Rae Smith Feb. 7. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer, repeated by all, led by chairman, Mrs. Smith.

There were 10 members and 7 guests.

Mrs. Dovie McCoy gave a very beautiful description of the Lord's Prayer.

The meeting closed with WSCS benediction.

Mrs. Barringer Rockport Oldtimer Passes Away

In a letter from J. Nathan Morrill, of Santa Paula, Calif., he enclosed the following obituary:

"Mrs. Margaret Evelyn Barringer, 41, of 1201 Woodlawn Drive, Santa Paula, died at a local hospital.

Born in Rockport, Texas, on March 14, 1919, she had been a county resident 12 years and lived in California the last 22 years.

Mrs. Barringer is survived by her husband, John D., and four sons, John W., now in the U. S. Navy, James E., Thomas O., and Frank B., all of the Santa Paula address.

She had a sister, Mrs. Sibyl Crews of Fontana; and six brothers, Roscoe and Olin Bonham of Texas, James Bonham of Fontana, Charles and Spencer Bonham of Los Angeles and William J. Bonham of Santa Monica.

Memorial services were conducted by the Rev. James W. McKnight Friday at 2 p.m. at the Silkin Chapel in Santa Paula. Cremation will be at Ivy Lawn Cemetery in Ventura.

Mr. Morrill said:

"Any of the oldtimers in Rockport 45 to 55 years ago would remember Dr. Bonham; Mrs. Barringer is his daughter. I feel sure some of the teachers still in Rockport taught Sibyl Bonham (now Crews) who is a sister of Mrs. Barringer. Likely Mrs. Mabel Kennedy Bryant taught her. I was born in Rockport in 1907, Mrs. Barringer in 1919, and we lived within two blocks of one another, and I didn't know it until I read this notice."

LIONS PAY TRIBUTE TO CAMP

Members of Lions Clubs throughout Texas this month are pausing to pay recognition to their camp for crippled children which has given 4,284 handicapped youngsters a new dimension of freedom since it was opened in 1953.

The camp, located at Kerrville in the Hill Country of Central Texas, is free to any crippled, blind, deaf or mute child between the ages of seven and 16. The 16 permanent buildings dotting the 504 hillside acres represent an investment of more than $600,000.

At the camp, these youngsters who have been denied a normal childhood through no fault of their own learn to shed their shyness imposed by their handicaps. By mutual association with other handicapped children and by gentle counseling, these youngsters have found the freedom to grow, mentally and spiritually, into useful citizens of tomorrow.

While the Lions are paying tribute to their camp, we would like to pay tribute to the Lions and their friends who have supported this great venture of the heart. We know a man never stands so straight as when he stoops to help a crippled child.

Young Virtuoso To Be Heard At Corpus Christi

Lorin Hollander, sixteen year old piano genius, will appear with the Corpus Christi Symphony Orchestra, Jacques Singer conducting, Monday evening, Feb. 13, Del Mar Auditorium.

When Lorin Hollander made his debut at the age of eleven with the National Orchestral Association at Carnegie Hall, conductor Leon Barzin dubbed him "Artist of Tomorrow." Now, at sixteen, this young virtuoso has proved before audiences throughout America that he is an artist of today.

Replacing Van Cliburn in San Antonio in January, 1959, he won a standing ovation from an audience of 6,000. The San Antonio Press hailed him as a "wonderkind" devoting long paragraphs of praise to his "dazzling display of virtuosity," sentiments later echoed in New York papers when, in October, 1959, he returned to Carnegie Hall for an engagement with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Counseled the New York Herald Tribune Music Critic, "Remember his name, you will likely hear it often."

He has also been introduced to even greater audiences via radio, television, and recordings. On the occasion of his debut, Donald Voorhes of the Telephone Hour engaged him immediately, so becoming the youngest artist ever to appear on that famed series. Perry Como and Ed Sullivan were the next to bring young Hollander to nationwide audiences.

For ticket reservations write or phone the Symphony office at P. O. Box 495, or TU 2-2717.

ATTENTION

The Good Sheppard class will hold a bake sale Saturday, Feb. 11, at West's Grocery. Cakes, pies, breads and cup cakes will be on sale.

Austin Diary--

Could Someone Help Me Find My Husband, Please?

By Carrin Patman

I know I have a husband. I've read that in the newspapers. Besides, we have pictures of the wedding. But I have seen so little of him, since we got to Austin, that I have really begun to doubt it. So, today, I found out why.

Since Carrin and I have waked up to a fatherless household for several weeks now, I set the alarm for seven-thirty, determined, for once, to catch a cup of coffee with my husband before he left for work.

I discovered the early bird doesn't catch anything at all around here! My breakfast partner turned out to be an empty chair, instead of Bill, and his contribution to the conversation was a note reading "Don't forget to take the laundry."

It was the laundry, in fact, that led me to the next clue in solving the mystery of my husband's disappearance.

There was something about changing the starch in his shirts. Too much or too little? I'd call and find out.

No. I couldn't talk to my husband, reported the secretary; he was conferring with some constituents, who had come up to see him about legislation they were interested in. But I might call back in an hour.

In an hour, I still could not talk to my husband. "Missed him again," said Jeanette. "He's gone to the Legislative Reference Library. Said there was a complicated bill he wanted to get some more facts about." But she would ask him to call me, as soon as he had time.

By eleven, I knew that no silly domestic questions were going to get answered this morning, at least. Bill would, of course, already be on the floor of the Senate, tending with his colleagues to the traditional daily business of the first thirty days of a legislative session, which the writers of our Constitution prescribed to be "introduction of bills and resolutions (and referring them to Committees), acting upon emergency appropriations, confirmation of the Governor's appointees, and . . . emergency matters . . . submitted by the Governor"—in short, the work of planning and organization.

Well, thought I, even busy Senators have to eat, and for years I've been cooking a pretty fair noon meal . . . I've found the bait at last.

I should have known better! You see, the lunch hour is one of the few times in the day when legislators can get together and discuss things informally. So, naturally, most of them take advantage of this time to talk things over, try to "sell" the merits of legislation which would be advantageous to their districts, and, in general, get better acquainted with each other's point of view. This give and take is pleasant and necessary, if anything constructive is to be accomplished, during the session. Obviously, no one Senator can do anything without the help and cooperation of his colleagues.

Anyway, the fact is clear that I am not going to be cooking lunch very often, during the legislative session.

Since Carrin and I deliberately stay away from daddy's office most of the time, so we won't interrupt his work, I didn't feel too guilty about making an exception this afternoon, and we jaunted down to the Capitol with the intention of "tracking him down," if it took all afternoon.

As a matter of fact, it did—or would have, if we had had the stamina! Jane and Jeanette had their ears plugged with dictaphones and their noses buried in typewriters, as we breezed into the office. One look at the stack of mail told me why.

Bill deeply appreciates hearing from constituents. Says that's the best way he has of knowing what his people want. So he tries hard to answer all his mail as promptly as he can.

I thumbed through the top few letters. There were kind letters of encouragement, informative letters on legislation, urgent applications for jobs, invitations to meetings, requests for information. I shuddered to think how long it would take me to dictate through the pile; but I beamed, too, to see such wonderful evidence of people's interest in their government, and I could understand why Bill is so anxious to answer every letter personally.

When Jeanette stopped for breath, I asked her where the boss was. "At a Committee hearing," she said. "I've learned that's where they do the real business of the Senate in these first few months."

The Committees have to study all bills in their field, listen to testimony (from experts, including all interested citizens who want to appear and give an opinion,) and then decide whether to recommend it to the Senate, or revise it, or kill it in Committee.

Since each Senator serves on eight or nine committees, this is no snap of a job. It's of crucial importance, too, because the fate of much legislation is decided around the committee table.

"Then," put in Jane, "he has an appointment with one of the Representatives from our district."

"After that, I hope he'll be able to return some phone calls, but he'll have to rush, in order to make it to Victoria for a meeting tonight."

"Never mind," I said. "I don't think we'll wait."

Who cares about starch in a shirt? What Senators need, I've discovered, is starch in their spines! And from what I saw today, I think my Senator has it.

What does
mean to you?

To the homemaker, it probably means freedom from household drudgery for a better family life. To the businessman, it could mean greater efficiency to make each man-hour more productive and profitable. To the industrial worker, freedom from strenuous physical labor—along with better pay for fewer hours of work. To the farmer, it's pretty much the same. Electrical energy has given the world freedom from physical toil. What's more, the energy of electricity has made a considerable contribution to comfort, cultural development, and the enjoyment of leisure time.

This is National Electrical Week. It terminates February 11 with the birthday of Thomas A. Edison, the man who launched a great industry by putting electricity to work.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Feb. 7, 1961
Rockport, Texas

Dear Sirs:
Quite some time ago an article appeared in the Pilot stating that garbage should be put in well covered garbage cans to keep dogs and cats from overturning garbage and littering the streets, well this happens every day, its really a disgrace. Can't something be done about it? I hope so.

Sincerely,
A Resident
