Mercury Rockets To 105

Snyder residents had hopes that things would cool off for awhile after nine consecutive days of temperatures 100 degrees or more.

For the last two days, the thermometer has reached a high of 105, according to David Strayhorn, weather observer. Twice during the long hot period the mercury has reached 106.

There have been 12 days of 100-or-more temperatures so far this year.

By The Associated Press

A cool front lay along a Dallas-Midland line Friday but it didn't really cool Texas—behind it things were just "not quite so hot."

Clear to partly cloudy skies were forecast for all of the state with "not quite so hot" weather north and west.

El Paso had a little dust Friday.

Highs Thursday ranged from 113 degrees at Presidio—with more than 20 points reporting temperatures of more than 100—to 85 at Dalhart.

Meanwhile refreshing cool air, fanned by gusty northwesterly winds, swept across wide areas in the mid-continent Friday ending a spell of hot, humid weather.

The cooling breezes spread southeastward and appeared headed into the muggy air which covers the Eastern and Southern states.

The relief from the sticky weather was reported from the lower Great Lakes region and the Ohio River southward into extreme northern Texas and northern New Mexico. Temperatures were as much as 25 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier in some areas of the cool belt.

The strong winds which fanned the cool air also hit tornadic velocity in some sections. Tornadoes were reported Thursday in parts of Ohio, Wisconsin, Indiana, Michigan and Iowa. No deaths were reported. The most damaging twister struck Bryan, a town of 7,500 in northwest Ohio. Property damage was estimated at $500,000.

Indictments Are Expected

FORT WORTH (AP) — Gov. Price Daniel indicated today he expects some legislators and lobbyists to be indicted in Austin, The Star-Telegram said.

This was said to have a strong bearing on his decision to call a special session of the Legislature.

The newspaper added that, although the governor has said nothing publicly on the subject, his thinking was made evident in talks with close associates and in a Star-Telegram interview. The story continued:

In his discussions here, he made it clear that he feels the grand jury is going to return indictments which will emphasize the need for beefing up lobby control.

The grand jury is studying relations between lobbyists for Texas naturopaths and legislators and also investigating the ICT Insurance Co. collapse.

Argument Over 20 Cents Causes Death

HOUSTON (AP) — An argument over 20 cents caused a death last night.

Mrs. Luther Williams, 33, was slashed in the throat during a street corner brawl. Jefferson Sapp, 29, was charged with murder.

Witnesses told police Mrs. Williams asked Sapp for a 20-cent loan and when he refused she began cursing. Sapp drew a knife and began slashing, the witnesses said.

Sawmill Is Closed

Snyder Area Goes Thru Safe Holiday

The Snyder area got through the Fourth of July without a violent death or injury, and residents are hoping they can make it through the entire weekend in one piece.

No serious accidents were reported in the area. There was no accident of any kind reported in the city limits of Snyder.

Hundreds of people went to Lake J. B. Thomas southwest of here for fishing, boating, and other recreation, and there were no mishaps reported there. The day was calm and hot.

Scurry County's Towle Memorial Park had record or near-record use, with many swimming, picnicking, playing tennis, or playing baseball. All the picnic pavilions in the park were occupied most of the day and far into the night.

By The Associated Press

Traffic killed at least 14.

Roger Gibbons, 17, Randolph Field airman in San Antonio, drowned at Padre Island.

Sgt. Earnest Acosta of Sheppard AFB drowned in Lake Diversion near Wichita Falls.

Patricia Cruse, 6, of Aubrey was killed by a car east of Denton.

Stephen Brown of Dallas drowned at Lake Dallas.

Jack Avery, 13, of Houston died when a car overturned 18 miles east of Crockett.

Mrs. Nora Campbell, 75, died in a two-car collision near Cherokee.

Ethyl Clifton, 32, of Houston, died in a traffic accident at Fayetteville.

Henry Jones, 55, of Corpus Christi, was the victim in a three-car crash.

Allen Williams, 88, a Negro, was killed by a car as he walked along a highway near Rockwall Thursday.

Celester Miller, 33, of San Antonio and Duard Benner were killed west of Luling Thursday in the head-on crash of their cars on U.S. 80.

Joel Cornish, 26, University of Texas student, was killed northwest of Oakhill when an auto overturned Thursday.

US Deaths Mount At Alarming Rate

By The Associated Press

The pace of traffic fatalities quickened today and alarmed traffic experts pleaded that motorists across the nation redouble their care to bring the long Independence Day holiday toll back under control.

With the four-day holiday in its second day, the toll of dead from traffic accidents stood at 152. Another 94 died from drowning and 28 lost their lives in miscellaneous accidents for a total of 274. There were no deaths from fireworks.

As the highway death toll increased at "an alarming rate," Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, urged drivers to exercise extreme caution to hold down the number of fatalities.

"We appeal to the drivers to aid traffic enforcement agencies in bringing the toll back under control by redoubling their care," he said.

Deaths counted in the long holiday cover the 102-hour period from 6 p.m. (local time) Wednesday to midnight Sunday.

National Safety Council experts, who had predicted 535 traffic deaths for the holiday period, had been "encouraged" by the early reports as the toll appeared running a little below a non-holiday Thursday.

But with the heavy increase during the night, a council spokesman said if the pace continued, the council's estimate of 535 deaths "could be matched." The council urged drivers and enforcement agencies to work together to hold down the highway fatalities.

If the estimated 535 toll is reached, it would be a new record for the Independence Day holiday. The current record is 491 set in the Fourth of July holiday of 1950.

For the one-day July 4 holiday last year there were 137 traffic fatalities. The over-all total, with 77 drownings and 39 miscellaneous accidental deaths, was 253.

FOUR OUSTED

Reds Face Treachery Charge

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio announced tonight that Mikhail Pervukhin and Maxim Saburov have been relieved of their duties as deputy premiers.

Pervukhin, a Soviet economic expert, was demoted to candidate membership in the Presidium, or directorship of the Soviet Communist party's Central Committee, in Wednesday's shakeup. Saburov, a top economic planner, was dropped entirely from the Presidium.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet army today accused the four deposed Kremlin leaders of treachery and of threatening to undermine the Soviet Union's defenses.

These grave charges appeared in Red Star, official newspaper of the Soviet Defense Ministry headed by Marshal Georgi Zhukov.

The campaign of denunciation against the quartet picked up momentum at meetings and rallies throughout the Soviet Union.

Lazar Kaganovich, one of the four leaders, was singled out for new and stronger accusations, which could foreshadow legal action against him.

The army and navy publicly announced their endorsement of Nikita Khrushchev in his ousting of Kaganovich, V. M. Molotov, Georgi Malenkov and Dmitri Shepilov from their high posts.

Red Star declared the four were guilty of "fractional activity" aimed at "undermining the basis of the Soviet Union's defensive capacity, to shake the unity of the people and army, which would have been of benefit to the enemies of our state — the imperialists and aggressors."

The article also referred to "treacherous activities" by the four leaders.

The accusation against Kaganovich was made by Nikifor T. Kalchenko, premier of the Ukrainian Republic of the U.S.S.R.

Kalchenko said Kaganovich had made "grave and unfounded accusations" against the leaders of the Ukrainian Republic. Kalchenko said this was done while Kaganovich was secretary of the Central Committee of the Ukrainian Communist party under Stalin's reign.

Marshal Zhukov, who vaulted into the membership of the policy-making Presidium in the Kremlin shakeup, told the Russian people the Soviet armed forces will rally solidly around the Communist party.

In a speech which appeared in all the papers, he said the Soviet army, navy and air force would "defend our state to their last breath."

Until the Kaganovich accusation was voiced Molotov had been the most bitterly accused of the four leaders.

But the big question in Moscow today was what was going to happen to the four.

Today's Atomic Blast Might Be Biggest Yet

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—A gigantic atomic explosion rocked entrenched Marines "like an earthquake" and set fire to brush and trees on distant mountains today.

The Atomic Energy Commission said the blast could have been the most powerful ever set off in the United States.

The mighty weapon shook the surrounding desert and blistered the breaking dawn with a blinding flash.

The Marines were entrenched 5,700 yards from where the weapon was exploded beneath a balloon at an altitude of 1,500 feet.

In a telephone interview with the Associated Press, Brig. Gen. Harvey Tschirgi, commander of the Marine brigade, said:

"It was pretty rough. Lots of dust. It shook us like an earthquake. I felt like I was on roller skates for a few seconds."

The general was in a trench 50 feet closer to ground zero than those of the 1,090 men in his command.

Gen. Tschrigi said there were some cave-ins in the trenches but that they were not serious.

One Marine was buried by a cave-in. He is Pfc Theodore Sturgion, of St. Louis, Mo. It took 15 minutes to get him out. He was not hurt.

As the dirt began to cascade down upon him in his trench, he grabbed a buddy and was able to keep his head above the earth.

The AEC said today's bomb could have had a peak power exceeding the largest device exploded here previously. It added that the power possibly could have ranged slightly below the former big shot.

Veteran observers said the fireball this morning was more spectacular than any that they had ever seen.

The weapon, rated unofficially at between three and four times as big as the World War II atomic bombs which devasted the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, was suspended from a balloon 1,500 feet in the air.

As the tremendous blast went off a wave of heat envoloped News Nob, 13 miles away.

It was followed by a terrific concussion and shockwaves which roared and groaned across the southern Nevada desert.

The explosion was the greatest and most spectacularly beautiful of the 51 test explosions run off here.

The fireball writed in green and red as it shot up through quickly rising, dirty black clouds.

The explosion spread so far along the ground that it set a great brushfire on a mountain several miles from the explosion site. The fires appeared to cover several square miles.

The Marines reported some cave-ins in their trenches. Their telephone message to News Nobs said:

"Everything seems to be all right."

As the big mushroom cloud spread out, ugly black at its base and stem, grayish brown at its cap, an icecap formed on its crown.

The cloud remained almost stationary for several minutes and then began to settle and spread as the sky lightened for the dawn.

Fifteen minutes after the explosion, the Marines climbed out of their trenches, removed their gas masks and headed for a loading zone.

A great flock of helicopters whirled in from their base behind News Nob. Amphibious tractors swarmed in the leading area. The copters picked up 886 Marines and the tractors took 204 aboard.

Then they moved into an area theoretically held by an enemy which had been blasted with an atom bomb.

Float Competition

20 Persons Drown

BOMBAY (AP)—Official reports today said 20 persons were drowned in Godavari River when their boat capsized 50 miles from Ahmednagar. Ten persons swam to safety.

Man From Here Is Electrocuted

Robert C. Parker, 31-year-old Snyder man, died this morning as the result of being electrocuted in an oilfield accident.

The accident occurred at an oil rig between Colorado City and Big Spring at about 9 a.m. today.

Parker, while working with a rig owned by Dutch's Drilling Co. of Snyder, came in contact with a high voltage line.

He was taken to a Colorado City hospital and died shortly afterward.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Bell Funeral Home.

Modest And Healthy Dress Recommended

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII says the style in women's dresses should be "modest and healthy."

The Pope commented on fashions yesterday when he received in a special audience the directors and employes of one of Rome's big fashion houses. It was one of the few times papal comment on fashion was not sharply critical.

The group was led by the Fontana sisters of Rome, who made Margaret Truman's wedding dress and dresses for actress Ava Gardner.

Fatally Burned

PAMPA (AP) — Darrell Newman, about 14, was fatally burned when a tank of diesel fuel exploded last night. His brother, Buster, 12, was in a critical condition.

Train Falls Through Trestle, 3 In Crew Rescued, 2 Missing

EDENTON, N. C. (AP)—Two diesel engines and the front cars of a freight train crashed through a 5.1-mile railroad trestle spanning Albemarle Sound early today. Three crewmen were rescued and four others were reported missing.

The first survivor found clinging to the pilings of the bridge which spans the sound from Mac-Key to Edenton gave directions which led to the finding of two other crewmen.

J. C. Poe, general superintendent of the Norfolk & Southern Railway, said in Raleigh two men were missing: S. R. Bray of Raleigh and W. M. Munden of Norfolk, Va.

Poe added that progress in clearing the wreckage was slow and that the cause of the trestle's collapse was undetermined.

Searchers found C. E. Jones, 41, of Pantego, N.C., within 20 minutes after the northbound freight pulling 70 cars smashed through the trestle at 12:45 a.m., two miles from the Edenton side. Edenton is about 75 miles south of Norfolk, Va.

The northbound Norfolk & Southern freight train pulling about 80 cars crashed into about 20 feet of water when a wooden piling of the six-mile railroad bridge apparently collapsed two miles from the Edenton side.

The first survivor, C. E. Jones of Pantego, N.C., a brakeman, was picked up by boat as he clung to a piling. He was taken to an Edenton hospital.

His story of seeing a fellow crewman floating down the sound on a piece of wood ripped from the trestle in the accident was relayed to Edenton police.

They notified the Elizabeth City Coast Guard station 65 miles away. The station dispatched a helicopter, which picked up the unidentified second survivor at 2:15 a.m.

The accident occurred about 12:45 a.m. two miles from the Edenton side of the sound. The six-mile trestle spans the sound from Plymouth to Edenton, which is about 75 miles south of Norfolk, Va.

"I don't remember anything until I was in the water," Jer said. "I swam to the bridge and hung to a piling until a boat from shore picked me up."

Army Depot Blaze

HANAU, Germany (AP)—A fire in a U.S. Army depot at nearby Grossauheim was put out today after destroying an estimated $400,000 worth of Army furniture. No one was injured in the hours-long battle against the flames.

Lawyers Urged To Be More Active

FORT WORTH (AP)—Gov. Daniel told the State Bar Convention last night more lawyers should take part in community and public affairs.

"So many lawyers have abandoned the arena of public affairs," during this century, Daniel said, these things have — and are — happening:

"American soldiers are being tried by foreign courts without benefit of jury.

"International bodies have attempted to write domestic law....

"We have witnessed greater dependence upon the federal government because of our failure to exercise the responsibilities which are inherent in the rights of state and local governments," he said.

The question of approval of photographic coverage of court trials was expected to go before the 1,900 attorneys tomorrow, final day of the convention.

At present, bar rules frown upon televising, broadcasting or photographing trial proceedings.

A special committee which has worked on the question for more than a year is to make its report tomorrow. Opposition to any change in the rules has come from the Lamesa Bar Assn., which proposes a resolution against television news coverage of trials.

The Bar's American Citizenship Committee presented its annual awards to Cullen Smith of Waco, president of the Waco-McLennan County Bar Assn., and to his organization.

Awards of merit to local bar associations went to San Antonio, Amarillo and Orange County.

Dist. Atty. Les Procter of Austin was elected chairman of the Section on Criminal Law.

Harry Loftis of Tyler was named secretary.

Council members named included Eldon Mahon of Colorado City, three-year term, Raymond Thornton of Belton and Homer Dean of Alice, two-year terms, and Gil Jones of Big Spring, one year.

Stormy Words Fly In Louisiana

CAMERON, La. (AP)—A verbal storm brewed today in devastated southwest Louisiana after Sen. Russell Long (D-La) charged the Weather Bureau was 12 hours off on its prediction the night before Hurricane Audrey ripped inland.

This led the people to stay here," he said.

Long made a three-hour tour of ravaged Cameron Parish (county) where an estimated 700 persons died in the hurricane and its 20-foot tidal waves.

"The Weather Bureau made a mistake in not telling the people to get out the previous afternoon," Long said. "I want to know when the Weather Bureau discovered it was more than 12 hours wrong on when the hurricane would reach our coast, and what was done about it.

"I am going to find the answers."

Sheriff O. B. Carter told Long: "A 10 o'clock forecast the night before said there was no reason for alarm, that Hurricane Audrey would not reach our coast until the next afternoon.

"The next morning we would have evacuated 80 per cent of our women and children. We don't keep women and children here."

Carter said the Weather Bureau tried to whitewash the way it tracked the storm.

Hurricane forecaster Raymond Kraft of the Weather Bureau office in New Orleans commented: "We stand on what we said at the time. Our advisories speak for themselves."

In its 10 a.m. advisory of June 26, the day before the tragic hurricane struck the mainland, the Weather Bureau predicted the center would move inland late the next day, then added:

"However, due to the size of the hurricane, gales will start along the Louisiana coast tonight. Tides are rising and will reach five to eight feet. All persons in low exposed places should move to higher ground."

At 10 p.m. that night, the advisory said the hurricane was 235 miles south of Lake Charles, or 200 miles off the coast, with gales extending out 200 miles.

F. W. Reichelderfer, the weather chief in Washington, praised the way the hurricane was tracked and said, "Unfortunately we cannot take the people by the hand and lead them out."

Val Peterson, former civil defense administrator who toured the area for the President, said, "Few if any people needed to die because the Weather Bureau did a superb job."

Long told a reporter after his plane, car and walking tour, "It should be the joint responsibility of federal agencies, the press and radio to make sharply clear that a hurricane can strike as much as 18 hours ahead of predictions."

Sheriff Henry Reid of Calcasieu Parish said in Lake Charles the number of bodies has reached 305 and the newly started official list of missing has reached 74.

Solon Hopes For Vote On Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) said today he hopes to get a vote next week on a motion to take up in the Senate the House-passed civil rights bill.

Knowland, the Senate GOP leader, has announced he will offer the motion Monday to start what promises to be a prolonged battle over the controversial administration measure.

The motion is subject to a filibuster by Southern opponents of the bill, but Sen. Russell (D-Ga), leader of the Dixie forces, has said that at the outset, at least, they do not plan unusually long speeches.

Knowland told newsmen that if supporters of the bill do run into signs of a filibuster against the motion to take it up for consideration, round - the - clock sessions may be started late in the week.

Knowland said he thinks three or four days of debate should be adequate on the motion to call the bill up, but he added that if the motion carries, he expects debate on the measure itself to run for several weeks.

The Dixie forces have indicated they may reserve their expected filibuster until the bill itself is before the Senate, rather than try to talk Knowland's motion to death.

Knowland said earlier that he is not closing the door against amendments to soften the measure, and there are strong indications that the Southerners plan to gear their opposition tactics to attempts to win agreement on some amendments.

IN CRUISE

Woman Loses Scalp

SAN PABLO, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Lucretia Galbraith's scalp was torn from her head after her long dark hair was caught in a cabin cruiser's propeller shaft yesterday.

Mrs. Galbraith, 50, San Francisco, her head wrapped in toweling to stop bleeding, was rushed in an ambulance to Brookside Hospital in this San Francisco Bay city.

Surgeons sent Deputy Sheriff Lester Clark racing back to the boat harbor to cut free the scalp skin, tightly tangled by hair to the shaft.

Clark rushed back with the scalp and surgeons stitched it on Mrs. Galbraith's head. They hope the operation will result in a successful healing and restoration of scalp and hair.

Mrs. Galbraith, a bookkeeper, caught her hair in the shaft as she inspected bilges in the 30-foot cruiser. T. R. Henry of San Francisco, piloting the boat, heard her scream as he backed down the boat.

He stopped the engine, cut Mrs. Galbraith free, then ran the boat to a dock and called an ambulance.

"Get me to the hospital quick," she pleaded. "And please keep my eyes covered. I feel much better with my eyes covered."

The hospital reported her condition is satisfactory.

Fire Truck's Aerial Ladder Shoots Up

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Rockledge volunteer fire company truck was on its way to a July 4 parade when its 75-foot aerial ladder began to rise.

As three firemen fought frantically to control the ladder and stop the truck, the vehicle, traveling 20 miles an hour, tipped over, tossing the men to the ground. Two were injured slightly.

Some three thousand people flocked to the scene to watch other firemen dismantle the $20,000 truck with blow torches to clear the road.

Fire Destroys Hanger

DALLAS (AP)—A fire destroyed an airplane hanger yesterday. Damage was estimated at $65,000.

Iran Quake Most Serious Since 1948

TEHRAN, (AP) — Official sources say the earthquake in north Iran was the world's most devastating since 1949.

Aid teams still were unable to reach many of the 100 villages reported destroyed Tuesday. But a government spokesman said last night the number of Iranians killed would reach well over 1,500. A member of Parliament put the figure at 5,000.

The earthquake-battered area curved for 500 miles from the Soviet Azerbaijan border on the northwest, southward around the Caspian Sea and back to the border of Soviet Turkmen on the northeast.

Although the adjoining Soviet areas doubtless were damaged, there has been no report of casualties or damage north of the border.

Topping the 1,400 killed in Algeria in September 1954, the official figure was the greatest number number of persons killed in an earthquake since 6,500 died in Ecuador in August 1949.

The government said all Iranian ports and villages on the Caspian were devastated. Property damage in areas thus far visited by aid teams was estimated at 25 million dollars.

Shortages of food, medicine, water and shelter are acute.

Volunteers Hunting For Missing Youth

LEWISTON, Mont. (AP)—Volunteers searched a heavily timbered mountain area near here today for a 17-year-old boy who has been three days without medicine he needs daily to prevent exhaustion.

The boy's father, Claude Foster of Billings, Mont., said that his son, Robert, must take the medicine for a thyroid condition.

The youth disappeared Tuesday from a Southern Baptist Assn. camp hiking party in central Montana, 22 miles northeast of here.

Foster said his son probably would be found asleep or in a coma.

Ban On Ornaments

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) —Such windshield ornaments as baby shoes and dice are banned in California under a bill signed by Gov. Goodwin Knight yesterday. The law, effective in September, bans anything that might obstruct a driver's vision.

Get this super-safe NYLON tire at rayon price!

He had the treads from four tires removed — down to the bare carcassses — and drove the test car at high speeds over the toughest obstacle course that could be devised — deep chuck holes, rails, angle irons, timbers, rocks — even telephone poles.

Gates Air Float Deluxe NYLON
Regular list $26.65
Same as first quality rayon
only $19.95
6.70-15 plus tax & recappable trade-in
Other sizes and whitewalls at similar low prices

A truly great tire value. In addition to the two miles of NYLON cord in each tire, you get a scientifically designed tread of 100% cold rubber — the rubber that far outwears natural rubber.

You also get extra safety from the 5,000 gripping edges of the advanced tread design . . . sure-footed traction on all kinds of roads in all kinds of weather.

Gates NYLON Guarantee
protects against BLOWOUTS, bruises, rim cuts — in fact, any tire failure — for the entire life of the tread.
NO TIME OR MILEAGE LIMIT.

Toughest type of obstacle course couldn't faze Gates NYLONS

BRAINSTORMING SESSION

Try This New Party Game

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Here's a new party game that might enliven this long holiday weekend: Get your friends together and have a "brainstorming" session.

That's it—brainstorming. It's all the rage these days on Madison Avenue, and in many advertising agencies has superseded the traditional type of think sessions.

Here's how it's done, as described by one of its most enthusiastic exponents, Lee Bristol Jr., a young man in charge of public relations for the company founded by his grandfather and headed by his dad, Bristol-Myers.

"You get together as many people as you can get in a room, toss out a subject, and invite everybody to make suggestions—just say the first thing that comes into their heads, no matter how outlandish it may sound. What makes a brainstorming session different is that no criticisms are allowed. Even if an idea is completely wacky, you can't talk it down. If anybody starts to argue, we ring a bell.

"One idea sparks another, and before you know it you have hundreds of suggestions. Most of them probably will be worthless, but out of the lot there are bound to be a few that will work.

"When they know they won't be criticized, people lose their inhibitions, and their imaginations start to work."

Subjects for your own private brainstorming session are legion, and the results could be valuable as well as hilarious.

Here are some suggestions: How to get rich; how to be happy; how to get along with your husband (or wife); how to get a trip around the world with no money; how to make enough money to take a trip around the world; how to live without working; how to marry a millionaire. And so on.

Pat Nixon Shows Off New Home

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Showing her new home to Washington newswomen took more planning by Pat Nixon than a whopping "open house" for family friends.

The wife of the vice president sent handwritten invitations to about 30 of newswomen and she met each of us at the door herself. The women brought out pads and pencils as soon as they entered the door of the handsome $75,000 mansion and Mrs. Nixon answered questions as we toured through every room—the cool blue-toned rooms on the first floor, her husband's study off a landing on the second floor, the pale gray-green master bedroom, the pink bedroom of Tricia, 10, and the blue one of Julie 8.

After coffee in the dining room, she held an informal press conference in the drawing room with some of us sitting on the floor.

Everything was in apple-pie order throughout the house. Personal effects such as clothing and toiletries all had been stashed out of sight. The exception was the girl's rooms, where dolls and momentoes brought back from the Nixon's far-flung travels were much in evidence.

Only the white telephone in the master bedroom gave evidence of who owned the house. Among its listing of extensions was the direct line to the White House.

There were no ties, no comfy slippers, no bedside pill bottles, no books. Except for a small plant, the fancy burgundy—trimmed bathroom with its glassed-in shower and big dressing table—which Pat said she'd turned over to her husband—was like any you'd see in a store window. Pat said she used a small bath also off the master bedroom.

"I don't need a lot of room," she explained. "I can get dressed in a minute, putting on my make-up while I stand up."

Mrs. Nixon said she knew all the colors she wanted and had bought what new furniture she needed all in one day before they took off on their trip to Africa. Friends had the place in partial readiness by the time they returned on March 22 and they spent their first night back in the new home.

"The kitchen is the most fun in the house," Pat exclaimed as we wound up the tour in the completely modernized sunny yellow room. "We even eat there. The children love it."

So does Checkers, the much-publicized family cocker spaniel. She was lying happily under the table until the invasion of the newswomen when she barked her objection and had to be banished.

NEWS FROM UNION

By MRS. J. B. ADAMS

Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Ledbetter and boys visited during the weekend with relatives in Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Clarkson and children of Holbrook, Ariz., are visiting this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clarkson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hogue left Wednesday for Memphis, where they will attend the Lemons reunion.

Mrs. J. B. Adams has as visitors this week her granddaughters, Cherry, Judith and Anita Jones of Bangs, and Donna Boles of Lamesa.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jones of Hermleigh visited Tuesday with Mrs. J. B. Adams.

The name of Acadia was changed to Nova Scotia in 1713. Women won the right to vote there in 1918, two centuries later.

IRA SCHANTZ

Ira Schantz Is Named To College Post

BIG SPRING — Ira Schantz, widely known West Texas singer and member of the Texas Tech faculty, has accepted a place on the Howard County Junior College music faculty.

Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, said that Schantz, who also is minister of music for the First Presbyterian Church in Lubbock, would come here Sept. 1. He will succeed Orland Johnson, who has been director of vocal music and the college choir.

Schantz has been a soloist with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, the Robert Shaw Chorale, and the Lubbock, Wichita Falls and Midland symphonies. He also has been guest soloist for two oratorios presented here during the Christmas and Easter seasons. He has served as director for numerous special choral clinics.

A native of Lubbock, he is a graduate of North Texas State College. He was soloist for the college a cappella choir and the great chorus which, among other appearances, performed annually with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra. While studying two years in the East following his graduate work at NTSC, he was with the Shaw Chorale as member and soloist. He was the tenor soloist in Shaw's recording of Stravinsky's "Mass" for Vox records.

Jack Hendrix, who is head of the music department at the Howard County Junior College, is also a graduate of the North Texas State College School of Music where he also earned the Master of Music degree. He is a pianist, recitalist and teacher in his own right.

Dear Miss Brandow:

Jerry and I are going steady, but George has asked me to a party that Jerry is not invited to. Wouldn't it be alright if I went? How would you explain this to Jerry?

Sandra

That's the $64,000 question. I'm sure I don't know the answer. Just how can you tell a boy that instead of being a loyal, true blue friend you've a yellow streak? How can you explain social mutiny?

If you can talk him into agreeing that you, his steady, may go where he is not invited—and go with a rival of his—you've a rare speech talent.

He ought to turn you over his knees and spank you because you are acting childishly. Going steady means that you go with only one person.

Either remain loyal to your steady or quit going steady.

Dear Miss Brandow:

Robert has a birthday next month and I would like to bake him a cake and give him a surprise party. Would this be alright? I am his steady and know he won't have a party or a cake otherwise. His mother cooks mostly out of cans and would never bother with making a cake.

Abby

What a gem that boy has in you! I cuss this with your mother and see if she will okay your plans and the use of the house. Next phone Robert's mother on the sl and get the go ahead from her. She can help you with a list of his friends, in any case she must be invited.

Here's hoping the cake turns out well!

Red Nation Is Paradise For Hunters

PRAGUE (AP)—They are inviting gun-carrying Westerners to Communist Czechoslovakia. Czech officials boast that this country is a "hunter's paradise" and there are many who agree.

Hunting in Czechoslovakia has become one of the most exclusive—and most expensive—hobbies of Western Europe's upper brackets. French Marquis, British business executives, Swedish industrialists and German brewery owners shoulder their guns to travel to this dollar-short Red nation.

And the Czechs claim a conducted safari in South Africa is kid stuff compared to hunting brown bears and wolves in Carpathia.

To those who are less keen on breath-taking adventures but would like to register a big bag, they offer pheasant and hare shooting with certified bags that surpass all West European standards.

Accommodations offered range from simple wooden hunting lodges in the Carpathian Mountains to a ballroom-sized bedroom in a Moravian castle. The costs range from $5 to $11 per person daily, including food.

The high cost of a hunting trip to Czechoslovakia makes it quite an exclusive affair. "Basic fees" range from $1.20 for a hare to $1,500 for a seasoned bear. Stags also are among the expensive game, with a 16-antler species costing more than $1,000.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

IS THE CHURCH OF CHRIST A DENOMINATION?

WERE THERE DENOMINATIONS IN THE BEGINNING? "Now I beseech you, brethren, . . . that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you . . . " (1Cor.1:11-13). Though there were divisions in the church at Corinth (1Cor. 1:11-13) which might have resulted in denominations, the brethren repented (2Cor.:10-16). Thus, they kept "the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." (Eph.4:3). There were no denominations in the beginning.

HOW MANY CHURCHES DID JESUS BUILD? Jesus announced he would build but one church, " . . . upon this rock I will build my church; . . . " (Matt. 16:18). Later, Jesus prayed that all of His followers "may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, . . . " (Jno. 17:21). The Holy Spirit said, later, that God gave Christ "to be head over all things to the church, which is his body, . . . " (Eph.1:22,23). Also, he said, "There is one body, . . . " (Eph.4:4). Congregations of Christ's followers were separated by distance only and were referred to as, "churches of Christ . . . " (Rom. 16:16). They all had the same worship, organization, doctrine, life, and were referred to by the same terms. They were not denominations but "churches (congregations) of Christ."

WHAT ARE SOME OF THESE WORDS (terms) used by the Holy Spirit to describe the followers of Christ? "Body" is used frequently (Cor.1:18) to present the idea of co-operation among the members of the church. "Church" is used as frequently to describe a redeemed people (Acts 2:47) who wre called "out of darkness into his marvelous light." (1Pet.2:9,10). "Temple" refers to the idea of worship (1Cor.3:16,17) and each Christian is a "lively stone" (1Pet.2:5) built into a habitation of God (Eph. 2:21,22). "Kingdom" is a term used with reference to the government of the church (Col.1:13) with Christ as King (1Tim.3:15) and Christians as subjects. "House (hold)" refers to the family relationship (1Tim.3:15) with God as Father and Christians as children. The above terms are not "names" of churches but they are descriptions of a people redeemd by th blood of Christ. It was so in the first century; it can be so in the 20th century when man submits to the will of God. Each person was a member of the church revealed in the New Testament and thereby, he answered the Lord's prayer for unity (John 17:20,21). Let it be so today!

"THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST SALUTE YOU." (Rom.16:16). Tune in KSNY and hear "Five Minutes With The Master" at 8:25 a.m. Monday thru Friday.

Graham Calls For Spiritual Revival

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham says this nation "must have a spiritual revival that will put a new moral fiber in our country or we will be done."

Graham's subject last night before 16,000 persons at Madison Square Garden was "Where Is America Headed?"

"We are now facing a moral deterioration that is going to eat out the heart and core of the nation," said Graham, adding:

"The same symptoms that were prevalent in Rome in the last days before its fall are now present in America."

The North Carolina evangelist chose his text from 2 Chron. 7:14 —"If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Graham, who carried on despite a slight fever, told his audience that "lewd magazines on newsstands make a Christian blush when he stops to buy a newspaper."

Graham warned the United States to solve its racial tensions with love, lest the judgment of God fall upon the nation. One reason we have been spared so far, he said, "is that God has always befriended people who have taken care of minority groups within their borders, especially the Jews."

ON CIVIL RIGHTS

South Is Given Fresh Ammunition

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has given the Southerners free and fresh ammunition against his own civil rights bill—a major part of his program—by admitting he himself doesn't understand parts of it.

The Southerners can and will use this. It fits in nicely with their latest line of opposition to the civil rights measure. They say it's so loaded with gimmicks and so "cunningly" written that the public can't realize its full implications.

Eisenhower and his administration have backed this bill and plugged for it. He has repeatedly called it a very "moderate and decent thing."

But—athough he's had months to understand it and has discussed it in generalities at 8 of his 16 news conferences in 1957—the record shows he has been continually hazzy on what the bill would do.

This means he either didn't read it, or didn't read it carefully, or failed to get himself thoroughly briefed by Atty. Gen. Brownell, whose Justice Department lawyers approved it.

At his Wednesday news conference this week, Eisenhower gave the impression of having just gotten around to reading the bill for the first time. Having done so, he admitted there were parts that puzzled him.

At the same time he disowned any responsibility for writing the bill. He emphasized at his news conference—one day after Sen. Russell (D-Ga) talked of the "cunning" writing—that it was not he but lawyers who did the writing.

One provision, which particularly heats the Southerners and bears directly on Eisenhower's lack of knowledge on the contents of the bill, is this:

It would give a federal judge power to try without jury trial and send to jail—for example—a registrar of voters who disobeyed a court order not to interfere with a Negro who wanted to vote. Trial without jury in contempt cases is not new.

But Southerners insist there should be a jury trial. The bill's backers insist speed in a voting case is essential: that an election would be over before a jury trial. Besides, they say, a Southern jury would not convict such a registrar.

George Wash. Becomes Dateline

But 3,000 persons and the governor of the state of Washington stood in the sagebrush land of the Columbia Basin and dedicated a town that is not. Except on the plotting board of a promoter.

The 40-acre site has a main street — lined with cherry trees. At the terminus of the street is a tall flagpole topped by a hatchet.

Owner of the site is Charles E. Brown, who bought the property from the Reclamation Bureau, built roads and curbs and planted the cherry trees. He named it and predicted it someday would be a healthy farm communit in the vast irrigated area near Grand Coulee Dam.

Gov. Albert D. Rosellini told the 3,000 persons who attended the dedication ceremonies he too agreed the town of George, Wash., had a great future.

Among other dignitaries who attended the daylong festivities and contributed dedicatory words was Nat Washington, a state senator from nearby Ephrata and a great great-grandnephew of George Washington.

Nat says he has no intention of moving to the little townsite. So far, no one else has either.

Smog Growing Menace

NORTHSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH

16th and Ave. S Jack Dean, Pastor

Missionary-Evangelistic-Premillennial

There they are... our tracks. And there he is following in them. Daddy, every step you take leaves its mark. And eager young minds see them so clearly, and follow them so well. Why not take some steps toward church! Your son and your daughter will follow.

His first impulse is to do just what you do... to walk in daddy's tracks. Notice how many farmers' boys farm, how many bankers' boys go into banking and how many preachers' sons enter the ministry. They are following you, daddy, even to the tone of your voice. If you want them to help build a good society, to know God... then take them to church and sit with them in the place of worship.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

GOLFING ACTIVITY AT THE local Country Club yesterday was just as hot as the 100-plus degree temperatures.

No less than five "eagles" were recorded in the "blind bogey" tournament here yesterday. In all probability this is a record for most eagles in one day at the Snyder CC.

Unfortunately for those who carded the "eagles," the holes drawn in the "blind bogey," drawning did not include the "eagle holes," Nos. 1 and 8.

Dr. R. J. Kidd and Wayne Boren led the eagle-shooters with two each. Dr. Kidd got his two eagles on one nine-hold round, threes on the par five Nos. 1 and 8.

Boren eagled No. 1 both times around on the 18 holes.

The other eagle recorded was by Manning Davis who threed No. 1.

Dr. Kidd's two eagles helped him to a 34 for the nine holes, one under par figures.

Other Activity Slated

Pro Shanty Hogan said this morning that a "round robin" tournament would begin in the near future at the local CC.

A round-robin tournament, of course, means that every player in each flight plays each other and the one with the most points in conclusion is the winnah.

The round-robin tournament would consist of eight players to each flight.

Hogan also says the City Tournament is upcoming—perhaps in August.

"We're going to wait until the weather gets a little cooler before staging the City Tournament," Hogan said.

You can see that there'll be plenty of activity on our fine gold course here before fall arrives.

Did Casey "Boot" Chance?

There was probably plenty of second-guessing in Yankee Stadium yesterday when the Yanks and Red Sox hooked up in a double header.

Ole Casey Stengel, dean of major league managers apparently pulled a "boo-boo" when he didn't have Yogi Berra bunting with runners on first and second and no-one away in the bottom of the ninth inning and the Yanks one run behind, 3-2.

By moving the runners up, there would have been any numbers of way to get that tieing run across, fielder's choice or a slight bobble.

But to get a man in from second you almost have to get a solid base hit or for the other team to make a very bad error.

Yogi, to be sure, is a good hitter but we don't believe he's too good to bunt. Then, too, Yogi has been in a slump this season.

If you didn't hear the broadcast, Yogi flew out and the next batsman, Moose Skawron hit into a game-ending double play. Had the runners been moved up by a sacrifice, there wouldn't have been a double play as the force would have been removed.

Well, if Yogi had produced, Casey would have been a genius but the Yogi didn't, he's a bum.

That's something that managers and coaches of any sport have to contend with.

IN PONY LEAGUE

Patterson Hurls No-Hit Game

Larry Patterson hurled a no-hit, no run game last night when he led the Scurry Butane Dodgers to a 13-0 win over the Hermleigh Cardinals in a Pony League game.

The game was called after five innings because of the 10-run lead rule.

In the other game, the Von Roeder Red Sox continued unbeaten in the second half of play with a 14-9 win over the Line and Line Yankees. It was the fourth win in as many starts for the Red Sox in the second half race.

Only three Cardinals got on base against the Dodgers' Patterson, all via walks.

Patterson struck out 13 of the 15 official batsmen he faced.

The Red Sox got only four hits themselves but pitching wildness and errors led to the Cardinal downfall. Skip Franklin got two of the Dodgers' four hits.

The Red Sox spotted the Yanks a 2-0 lead before they exploded for five in the second inning to take the lead they never relinquished.

The Red Sox did all their scoring in three innings, scoring five in the second, four in the third and five more in the sixth.

Roger McMennamy led the Dodgers with three hits. Travis Alexander and Joe Fowler had two hits apiece for the Yankees.

Baze-Vandiver 'Blind Bogey' Champs Here

Vic Baze and R. B. Vandiver won the "blind bogey" tournament yesterday at the Snyder Country Club with a best ball round of 34.

Nine holes were drawn after the players had completed their 18-rounds with the entries counting their strokes on the holes drawn.

The teams of Dr. R. J. Kidd and Russell Yorgensen and Howard Crenshaw and B. L. McKinley tied for runnerup honors with 35.

Forty players took part in the tournament.

Five "eagles" were scored in the tournament. Dr. Kidd eagled two and 8 on one nine hole round. Wayne Boren eagled No. 1 both times around and Manning Davis eagled No. 1.

IF TRADITION HOLDS

Redlegs, Yanks In World Series

By DON WEISS
The Associated Press

It'll be a Yankee-Redleg World Series — and look out for flying glass—if baseball's Independence Day tradition holds up in '57.

Tradition says the teams leading the pennant races on July 4 meet in the Series about six times out of 10.

The Yanks, who make it a habit, passed the July 4 milestone three games in front of the Chicago White Sox, a half game less than their AL lead a year ago when they won by nine.

It's the 22nd time the Yankees have been the July 4 leader in the modern era and only four times have they been dislodged in the second half of play.

Cincinnati's lead is shaky at best. The Redlegs are half a game and four percentage points up on St. Louis, half a game and six points up on Milwaukee, 2½ in front of Brooklyn and 3 up on Philadelphia.

The margin between first and fifth in the NL was clipped by 1½ games in yesterday's big holiday program as Milwaukee battered the Redlegs 10-7 in a single game and the other four contenders moved up.

St. Louis edged Chicago 4-3 after the Cubs' two-run rally in the ninth had won the opener 7-6. Brooklyn won its second game 8-2 from Pittsburgh after losing the first 5-1. The Phillies showed a 1½ gain, sweeping New York 2-1 and 6-2.

In the AL, three double-headers were split. The Yanks won 4-1 after losing to Boston 3-2 on Mickey Vernon's two-out, two-run pinch homer in the ninth. Chicago thrashed Kansas City 8-3 after the A's rallied for five in the ninth for a 5-4 first-game victory. Cleveland stopped Detroit 3-1 on Early Wynn's three-hitter, then lost 4-3. Baltimore won a single game, 3-2 over Washington in 11 innings.

Singles by Bill Bruton and Red Schoendienst drove in the tying and winning runs in a four-run Milwaukee eighth, costing Redleg reliever Bud Freeman his first loss. Hank Aaron helped Gene Conley win with his 26th homer, two doubles and three RBI. George Crowe drove in six for Cincinnati with five hits, including his 17th and 18th homers.

Chicago edged the Cards on ninth-inning pinch hits by Bob Speake and Jim Bolger in the opener but Sam Jones saved the nightcap for St. Louis, pitching a six-hitter and driving in the deciding run. A double and homer raised Stan Musial's career extra-base total to 1,133, fourth on the all-time list.

Charlie Neal and Duke Snider combined for five RBI behind Don Newcombe for the Dodgers after the Pirates' Bob Friend had seven-hit the Brooklyns in the first game. Bob Purkey lost to Newcombe.

Left-handers Harvey Haddix, winning his seventh, and Curt Simmons, now 8-4, did the job for the Phils although Simmons needed help from Dick Farrell in the ninth after a two-hit show for eight innings. Rip Repulski's 11th homer decided it for Haddix over Ruben Gomez and Joe Lonnett hit his first major league homer in the nightcap.

Vernon's dramatic homer off Yankee reliever Bob Grim followed Frank Malzone's single and, giving Dave Sisler his fifth straight over New York in two years, ended the Yanks' win streak at seven. Don Larsen's five-hitter controlled the second game.

Chicago blasted Ned Garver and four successors for 15 hits in a romp for Bob Keegan in the nightcap with the A's, who got the winning run in the surprise first-game finish on Joe DeMaestri's dash home from first on a slowly handled single by Gus Zernial.

Rocky Colavito's three-run homer beat Detroit for Wynn's 11th but singles by Frank Bolling and Charlie Maxwell and Al Kalines' double produced two eighth-inning runs that won the second game for Detroit.

Ken Lehman won over Truman Glevenger, both in relief, in the Baltimore-Washington single. Jim Busby's RBI double in the ninth tied the score at 2-2 and Busby scored the winner for the Orioles on Jim Brideweser's single in the 11th.

Dodgers Still A Threat, Says Freddie

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Brooklyn bats still hold the key to the torrid National League pennant chase, says Manager Fred Hutchinson, whose St. Louis Cardinals virtually share the lead with Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

"I have a hunch the race will go right down to the wire," said Hutchinson after the Cardinals split a double-header yesterday with the Cubs to retain second place. The Cards then left for home and the opening of a four-game series tonight with the leading Redlegs.

"It's one of the greatest races I've seen," he said.

"Those Dodger bats could break up the entire party, however. They have more power than anybody else, and if they get hot and stay that way, they could run. Otherwise, it's pretty even, and I wouldn't be surprised if it stayed that way.

"That could be the pattern, especially if everybody can help blanket that Dodger power. Brooklyn isn't any tougher than anybody else when they aren't hitting."

As for his Cardinals, Hutchinson said his most pleasant surprise has been his young pitchers. He listed as disappointments thus far the inability of Wally Moon and Ken Boyer to hit.

"Moon had a good streak that slumped off," he said. "Boyer hasn't even had a streak yet."

Boyer, however, got three hits, including his ninth homer, in yesterday's first game although the Cardinals lost 7-6. He got only a single in four trips in the nightcap, but St. Louis pulled out a 4-3 decision.

"Our hitting has been too spotty," Hutchinson added. "Right now we are resting Moon with hopes he can get going again."

Hermleigh In 1st Place Bid

Hermleigh, with a chance to pull into a tie for first place in the City League standings, will take on the Blue Sox tomorrow night, starting at 8.

Snyder Furniture and Sun currently share the lead with 6-3 records but Hermleigh can pull even with these two by winning tomorrow. Hermleigh's current record is 5-3.

Dwayne Prince probably will draw the starting Blue Sox mound assignment. Any one of Hermleigh's four pitchers will be ready, Grady Gafford, Ted Masters, Norman Gladsen and Bermon Corbell.

The League standings:

TEAM	W	L	PCT
Snyder Furn.	6	3	667
Sun Oil	6	3	667
Hermleigh	5	3	625

Middlecoff Slips In British Open

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — Cary Middlecoff's hopes of winning the British Open Golf Championship faded badly on the third round today as he shot 74 on the third round for a 54-hole total of 217.

Leaders among the early finishers ahead of Middlecoff were Tom Halliburton of England and Angel Miguel of Spain, with 54-hole totals of 213.

Ted Has Lost Touch, Says Yank Hurler

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Ted Williams, despite his lofty batting average, is finally beginning to show his years.

The Boston Red Sox slugger, generally regarded as baseball's best hitter during the past two decades, is not as feared by opposing pitchers as he used to be.

"Something tells me I shouldn't say this," a New York Yankee pitcher remarked because it would be just like the big son-of-a-gun to make me eat my words before the day is over. But if you ask me I think Ted has lost something.

"Sure he's still a great hitter, but he doesn't seem to have that old snap in his swing any more. At least he hasn't shown me that old buggy-whip swing of his. I think he knows it too. He doesn't appear to be as confident at the plate as he used to be. He takes more good pitches now and he even swings at some bad ones too. He doesn't seem to be too sure of himself.

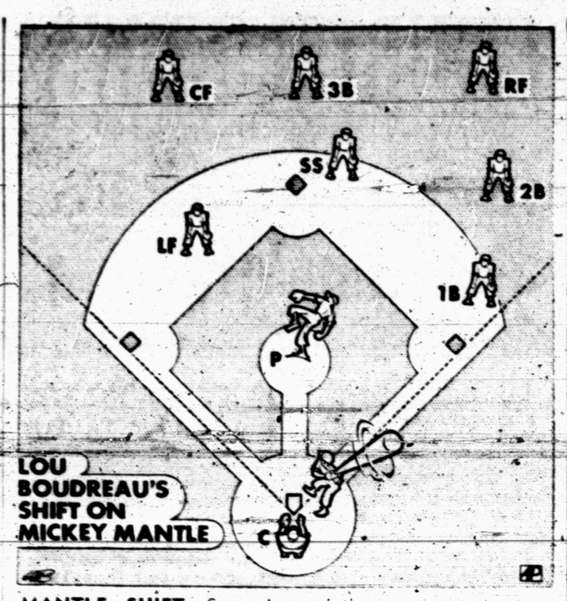

"Maybe I'm wrong about him I'm pitching against him now than but I feel more confident when ever before. At least I don't get a nervous feeling any more when he strides up to the plate. There was a time when I'd be happy to settle for a single or double. Now I feel I've got a 50-50 chance against him."

Williams, 38, did not distinguish himself at the plate as the Yankees and Red Sox divided their holiday double-header. He drew a walk in the first game, but failed to hit the ball out of the infield in his three other turns at bat against Bobby Shantz. Boston won 3-2.

Obviously tired, Ted was given a rest in the second game but he furied up as a pinch hitter in the fifth against Don Larsen and went out on a high pop foul. The Yankees won 4-1.

Lew Hoad Wins Wimbledon Title

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Power-hitting Lew Hoad of Australia trounced his countryman, Ashley Cooper, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2, today to win the All-England Lawn Tennis Championship for the second straight year.

Hoad, 22, became the first player ever to win the Wimbledon title two straight years since America's Don Budge did so in 1937 and 1938.

The All-American women's final between Althea Gibson, New York Negro, and Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., will be held tomorrow.

A crowd of 17,000 packed the stands around the center court and saw Hoad display some of the greatest tennis ever seen in this historic tournament.

Typical of the match was Hoad's dazzling performance in the first set. He broke his rival's service three times and closed out the set with service aces for two of the final three points.

Hoad served and drove with terrific pace, particularly off his backhand. Time after time Cooper, 20, struggled to get his racket on the ball.

Then Hoad raced through the second set in 15 minutes. He pulverized Cooper's first service without the loss of a point and ran up a 4-1 lead before Cooper could snatch a game on his own serve.

The third and final set was almost the same. Cooper, a tall, handsome, dark-haired youth who holds the Australian title, could only shake his head at Hoad's tremendous power and accuracy.

Youngster Is Leading Field At Montreal

MONTREAL (AP)—Much to the surprise of top American golf professionals they found themselves today chasing a youngster little known outside of the Montreal area in the second round of the annual $29,000 open.

Jack Key, 26-year-old pro from the nearby Mount Bruno course, caught fire on the last four holes of the 6,645-yard Islesmere course yesterday and chalked up an eagle and two birdies for a 5-under-par 67.

Although the 67 was one stroke under the old competative record for Iselsmere, it gave Kay only a one-stroke lead over two California players, Ken Venturi of San Francisco and George Bayer of Los Angeles. Five other American professionals were tied at 69.

Both Doug Ford of Mahopac, N. Y., and Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C., were in good positions to take over the lead late in the afternoon. They were three under par after 14 holes but ran into trouble in the late going and had to settle for 71s.

Julius' younger brother Ernie, his assistant at Mid Pines, was one of five players bracketed at 69. Others were Leo Biagetti of St. Paul, Minn.; Pat Schwab, Dayton, Ohio; Joe Conrad, San Antonio, Tex., and Paul Harney, Belfer, Mass.

ONE FIGHT ERUPTS

Action Aplenty In Texas League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

July 4 was most eventful in the Texas League with all sorts of great pitching performances, four one run games, the surge of Austin into a tie for third place and one fight.

It was an occasion for hurlers and two of the exhibitions were one hit masterpieces—one by Frank Baumann of Oklahoma City and the other by Neil Roberts of Dallas.

Dallas swept a double-header from Tulsa and Houston took a twin bill with San Antonio so Dallas maintained its 8½ game lead over second place Houston.

San Antonio plummeted to fifth. Aus... surged from fifth to a tie for third.

The fight came at San Antonio when Chuck Oertel, San Antonio centerfielder, got into some fist throwing with Harry Walker, Houston manager, in the first inning of the first game. Both got the heave-ho.

After Roberts had tamed Tulsa 2-0 with his one hit hurling in the first game, Joe Kotrany stole the show in relief for Dallas in the second. He worked the last four innings without a man reaching first base as Dallas gained a 5-4 triumph.

Al Widmar and Hollis Robertson combined to limit Dallas to four hits in the first contest.

Houston beat San Antonio 9-3 as Billy Muffett set down a five hitter in the opener. Then the Buffs took the second 5-2 with three unearned runs in the last inning.

Austin trimmed Shreveport 5-0 and 4-3 with standout pitching chores by Bill Connelly and Mike Clark. Connelly spaced five hits to win the opener and in the nightcap Clark had a no-hitter going until Ed Richardson lined a single with two out in the eighth. In the ninth Shreveport slammed four hits and got three runs to almost catch up with the Senators.

Baumanns' one hitter brought Oklahoma City a 2-1 triumph in the first game with Fort Worth. But in the nightcap Jake Crawford hit a two run homer in the ninth to give the Cats a 4-3 decision.

Nurse Is Living Alone With Gorilla

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

BERLIN (AP)—"Living alone with a gorilla can be fun."

So says Rosemarie Hobler, a petite 24-year-old German nurse with gentle brown eyes.

She knows. She has just spent three months in a hospital isolation room caring day and night for Knorke, an ailing baby gorilla.

Knorke, aged 20 months and worth $5,000, is a hairy 28-pound bundle of mischief with a toothy flashin, grin. The Berlin Zoo flew him in from the French Cameroons to replace Pongo, a giant gorilla who was bayoneted to death in World War I by Russian soldiers.

When Rosemarie first entered Knorke's life last March 19, a sad-eyed homesick little ape stricken with infectious paratyphoid, a fever fatal to many gorillas.

Rosemarie, a nurse at West Berlin's City Hospital, volunteered to go into quarantine with Knorke to save his life. Zoo experts said Knorke would have a better chance to pull through if he were cared for by a woman he could come to love as his foster mother.

But doctors warned Rosemarie that she could never return to her nursing profession if she contracted the lingering paratyphoid fever.

"It was a big risk," Rosemarie concedes.

Rosemarie set up housekeeping for herself and the gorilla in a small barely furnished sealed-off room at City Hospital.

"At first I was afraid of the little black devil because the first bit me," said Rosemarie. "But time I took him into my arms he soon I came to love him better than I would a child."

And how did Knorke feel?

"The first night he was afraid and sat up in his cage. He would begin to cry everytime I turned off the light.

"But then as we were together, he began to love and respect me. He knew that I was helping him. If I tried to go uot, he would follow me whimpering. That was proof that he loved me.

"When Knorke was naughty, I would spank him. Then he would put his face in his hands and after a while look up at me with big disappointed eyes. Most of the time he would obey me after he had been spanked."

Knorke got steadily better on a diet of baby milk formula, soft-boiled eggs and fruit.

By day, Rosemarie and the gorilla would romp in the room.

"He was lots of fun," she says. Knorke would duck under the bed face around the room and then leap into Rsemoarie's arms, burying his flat nose in her hair and gently nipping her ears.

The big problem for Rosemarie, like for any parent, came at night when Knorke would stubornly refuse to go to bed.

The nurse learned it was best to put him in a big bag and dump him directly into his wooden cage. The cage stood near Rosemarie's steel hospital cot.

Knorke feels well now, although he will never be entirely free of paratyphoid. He has been taken to the zoo hospital where visitors can view him in a big glass cage.

Rosemarie has gone along to take care of him. She works days at the zoo. When she leaves, Knorke cries for her like a child.

Hugh Roy Cullen Dies In Houston

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Hugh Roy Cullen, 75, oilman who earmarked over 160 million dollars for philanthropy after building a tremendous fortune with a pet theory, died last night.

He had been ill for three months.

Cullen struck many a gushing oil well by drilling deeper in areas major companies and other successful independent operators had abandoned.

Before his death he wrote checks for nearly 60 million dollars in gifts. He also pledged the Cullen Foundation over 100 million based on future income from oil properties. The University of Houston, the greatest beneficiary, has received an estimated 30 million dollars.

Death came a day after the outspoken oilman's 76th birthday and 103 days after he was admitted to Hermann Hospital, one of many medical institutions to benefit from his gifts.

Mrs. Cullen, four daughters, all but one of 15 grandchildren, the family physician and three nurses were in the room.

Cullen had been in critical condition five weeks and in a coma several days. Death was attributed to cerebral thrombosis, a clot in a brain artery. He was hospitalized after a stroke March 23 and 28.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at the family's beautiful stone mansion in River Oaks. Burial will be in Forest Park Cemetery, where an only son, Roy Gustav Cullen, was buried in 1936 after being killed in a south Texas oil field accident.

The daughters are Mrs. Paul Portanova, New York City, and Mrs. Ike Arnold, Mrs. Douglas Marshall and Mrs. Corbin J. Robertson, all of Houston.

It was just 10 years ago that the Cullens surprised a hospital convention in Houston by announcing establishment of the Cullen Foundation for Educational, Medical and Charitable Purposes.

Cullen told the convention the foundation would receive an estimated 80 million dollars in income from the production potential from a portion of 7,743 acres of oil-bearing lands. The next day, when civic leaders called to thank him, Cullen boosted the estimate to 180 million dollars by adding another 10,768 acres.

Cullen frequently said selfishness was responsible for the many gifts.

"My wife and I are selfish," he said. "We want to see our money spent during our lifetime so we may derive great pleasure from it."

Measles Epidemic

BELGRADE (AP)—A measles epidemic has hit Yugoslavia. The Federal Health Office today reported more than 43,000 cases.

State Publisher Dies Last Night

TEXARKANA (AP) — C. E. Palmer, 80, owner of newspapers and radio stations in Texas and Arkansas and a philanthropist particularly interested in character education of youngsters, died last night.

He suffered a stroke at his home and was pronounced dead at 7:50 p.m., shortly after arrival of St. Michael's Hospital.

Arrangements for funeral services had not been decided early this morning. The body was taken to the Neal Funeral Home.

An associate, J. Q. Mahaffey, editor of the Texarkana Gazette and Daily News, said:

"It is no exaggeration to say that Mr. Palmer was a business genius. Business was his hobby, his relaxation, and nothing delighted him more than a tough civic or business problem."

Palmer obtained a license as an airplane pilot at 70, and had returned from a fishing trip to Canada just before his death.

He owned or held interests in newspapers at Texarkana, astride the Texas-Arkansas border, and El Dorado, Hot Springs, Camden, Magnolia, and Hope in Arkansas.

Palmer's radio interests were in Texarkana, Hot Springs and Camden.

He pioneered the teletypsetter system for newspapers and set up the first such wire circuit in the United States. The system permits newspaper type to be set by perforated tape instead of by direct-manual operation. The perforated tape can be transmitted between cities by wire.

The "Palmer Circuit" of teletypesetters was established about 15 years ago and serves newspapers at Hot Springs, El Dorado, Texarkana, Magnolia, Hope, Camden, Queen and Stuttgart.

He Has Answer To Inducing Showers

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP)—John A. Cummings, meterologist in charge of the Charleston Weather Bureau, says he has the answer to inducing rain. He just leaves the top of his convertible down.

A heavy rain at the airport caught Cummings with his top down. The Charleston News and Courier nominated him for the most red-faced man in town.

Said Cummings: "As you know, we had 1.59 inches of rain at the airport and none downtown. In fact, none was reported over the entire state. In fact, I don't think any rain fell — except in my automobile."

Hard Rains Hurt Wheat Crop

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Heavy rains have dealt what could be a stunning blow to the nation's breadbasket.

Kansas may produce 50 million bushels less than last year. The same glum situation, in a lesser degree, holds true in Texas and Oklahoma.

If so, the market price for wheat will go up and you can count on paying more for bread.

There has been so much rain that Kansas fields look like rice paddies. Last week alone 15-inch totals were general over the state. Rain, hail and windstorms have beaten the grain down into a twisted mass of broken stems, matted like wet fur on the back of a soaked cat. Some fields are considered complete losses.

The sun finally broke through this week in Kansas and some harvesting got under way. But it would take at least 10 days of constant sunshine to dry most fields enough to support heavy harvest machinery.

"It hasn't been this bad in 17 years," one grainman commented.

Meanwhile, deterioration, weeds and rust—a fungus—were taking their toll of the ripe grain.

There may be a worrisome shortage of labor and combines which moved to other states when the Kansas harvest bogged down. Neighboring Missouri fields, too, have suffered.

New crop and acreage estimates taking into account the heavy rains, will be announced next Wednesday.

"Harvest operations have stopped nearly everywhere," the Kansas Department of Agriculture advised. "In southern Kansas harvesting is now three to four weeks behind schedule."

What little wheat has been harvested so far—about 4 per cent of the expected crop—is below last year's yeild in weight and protein content.

Some grain has been left ripe on the stem so long it has started to sprout.

Boy Drops Ice Cream, Little Girls Killed

DANVILLE, Va. (AP)—Because a little boy dropped ice cream on his father, two little girls were killed and a third critically injured on U.S. 58 five miles east of here yesterday.

James H. Fallen, 27, Sutherland, told state police the car he was driving swerved off the highway when he looked down to brush away the ice cream dropped by his son who was standing on the front seat.

The car struck three sisters, fatally injuring Patricia Anne Dillard, 9, and Cynthia Louise Dillard, 7. Ringgold, a 4-year-old sister was in critical condition in a Danville hospital.

Fallen was charged with manslaughter.

Convertible Top Is Hit By Firecracker

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP)—Some one did some holiday celebrating at considerable expense to Philip Peyton.

Peyton told police he was parked at a drive-in restaurant with the top of his 1957 convertible down. A firecracker, its fuse sputtering, landed on the folded top, exploded and ripped a ragged six-inch hole in the nylon fabric.

Peyton said it would cost $145 to replace the top. The person who threw the firecracker escaped detection.

Cowboy Is Killed By Brahman Bull

PRESCOTT, Ariz. (AP) — Great humpbacked Brahma bulls so vicious that they have thrown 24 of the 27 cowboys who tried to ride them in rodeo during the last two weeks, killed a rider yesterday and injured two others.

Six thousand spectators saw the enraged bulls at the 70th annual Frontier Days Rodeo.

One of the bulls stamped on Odis Sullivan's chest as he was bringin him out of the chute. The 27-year-old rider from Kanab, Utah, died shortly afterwards in the hospital.

Decaying System

AUSTIN (AP) — Dr. Edward Tabersky, University of Texas professor who held high positions in the Czech government, said today Russia's system of government has been a decaying process which cannot be halted.

Alligator About To Eat Park's Goldfish

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A delegation of four police vehicles, a city plant truck, and a dozen or so excited youngsters rushed to a city park here to check on a report an alligator was in the park.

The report came from a woman who phoned police that the alligator was in the park's fountain and was "about to eat the goldfish."

She was right. Patrolman Wilbur Thompson made a barehanded capture of the 12-inch gator.

Now She Has Hard Problem To Solve

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Madame Tersa, self-styled faith healer, advertises, "There is no problem so great I can't solve it."

Police gave her one yesterday: the question of raising $500 bail on a charge of fortune telling.

Harriman Concedes It As Friendly Territory

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP) — "What country do you represent?" Gov. Harriman of New York asked a questioner after his speech at the Colgate University foreign policy conference Wednesday night.

"I'm from Ohio," said William P. Pecsok of Shaker Heights.

The Democratic governor allowed that Ohio was friendly territory despite certain political differences. The Buckeye State has a Republican governor.
