Final Alcohol Education Meet Slated

Last in the series of Alcohol Education meetings is scheduled for Thursday, September 27, at 8:00 p.m. in the County Courtroom.

Thursday, September 20, a small, but interested, audience heard Dr. James Ferrero speak on the myths of alcoholism. Dr. Ferrero is the Amarillo Community Psychiatrist.

This week's program will feature a recovered alcoholic and his wife. The speaker is a former patient of the treatment program in Amarillo.

Mrs. Dorothy Cooke, of the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, will list the services available through her agency, and Mrs. Beulah Casperson will represent the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission. Joe Klueppel, of the Regional MHMR Board, with Mrs. B.M. Sims, local chairperson of the MHMR Board, will close the session.

Fred Ready, of the Amarillo Hospital District, has stated, "Even though Collingsworth is

Revival Set At Friendship Baptist Church

Revival services will begin at Friendship Baptist Church Monday evening October 1, and continue through the following Sunday, October 7.

Services will be at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

The evangelist will be Rev. Luther Crawford, already well known both in the Buck Creek community and among church members.

He is the son of a former Friendship Church pastor, the Rev. Scott (Manzie) Crawford.

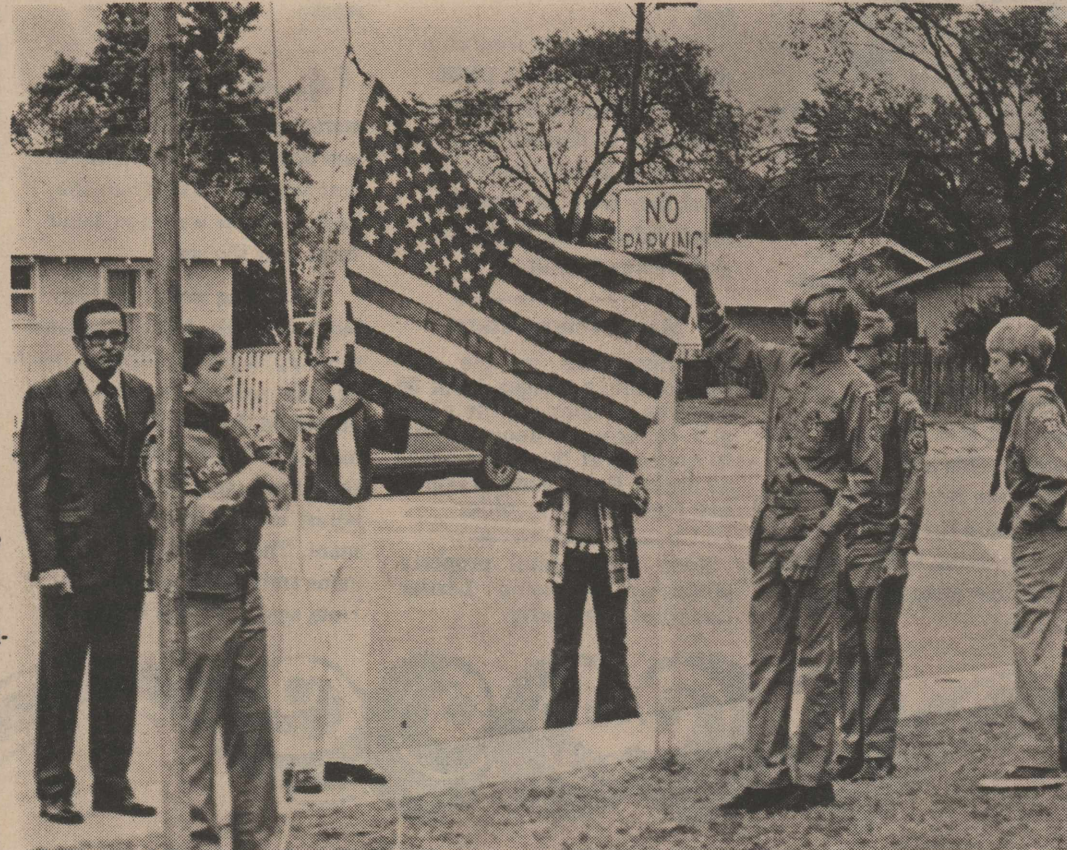

The public is invited to attend the services, said the church members.

Trails, Tales and Treats to Highlight County History

Remembrance of times past -- a thankful look at today with things as they are -- and a glance at tomorrow and its frontiers --, spiced with music and treats are in store for everyone for the observance of Collingsworth County Appreciation Days in November, with a Patch Work of Trails, Tales and Treats.

The six trails being planned for this celebration will include ones to the four corners of the county, a Trail Ride on the Salt Fork of Red River and a Hike and Bike trail in Wellington which will follow a Treasure Hunt for historic spots and things that are in and near town, according to Mrs. Clyde Drake, chairman of the Collingsworth County Historical Survey Committee. The four trails to the corners of the county will be marked and a brochure with map and tales will be available.

"These trails are being planned to help us all know each other and our county better. There will be special treats available on specified days but the trails can be enjoyed any

FLAG PRESENTATION

Hospital Board Hears Record Budget Proposal

Dr. Jose A. Diaz-Esquivel, Amarillo pathologist, has been engaged as consultant for services in the laboratory of Collingsworth General Hospital, Garner Altom, administrator, announced following a meeting of the Hospital Board Monday, Sept. 24.

Much of the board's time centered on the proposed hospital budget for the year October 1, 1973-September 30, 1974, which will be set at $348,377, the largest ever for the hospital.

Mr. Altom explained that a consulting pathologist is required of hospitals by Medicare, the State Department of Health, and Joint Commission on Accreditation. At the same time, a laboratory technician or technologist is required. This post is held by Noel Overton.

Dr. Diaz-Esquivel will attend regular monthly staff meetings, inspect the laboratory at that time and furnish written monthly reports.

Arrangements with the Abilene pathologist formerly used were cancelled due to the discontinuance of a courier service and difficulty with transportation service to Abilene.

Dr. Carter Holcomb, chief of staff, told the board the staff was pleased with this arrangement and Dr. Diaz's presence at staff meetings will be a real asset.

Wilbur DePauw New Farmers Union Head

Collingsworth County Farmers Union members chose Wilbur DePauw president for the 1973-74 year in the annual election meeting Monday, September 17. He will be installed Monday, Oct. 15, and will succeed Donald Langley, who is completing two terms.

New directors elected were Joe Knoll of Lutie, Rudie Tate of Abra, Garland Hightower of Dodson, Delbert White of Quail and J.L. Alexander of Lutie.

The first and second vice presidents, and secretary-treasurer will be elected at the regular board meeting in October.

FU members then passed 16 resolutions, covering a variety of problems from improved brand laws to bargaining rights for producers. These will be presented before the state FU convention in December.

These resolutions proposed: - That agriculture be given priority over foreign trade on all available petroleum products such as steel for machinery.

- A continued fight for 100% parity based on the 1910-14 parity formula, for farm commodities produced for domestic consumption on family farms.

- Urged that agriculture water rights be protected in Texas to insure an adequate water supply for all necessary agriculture

Students to Pick Slogan for County

What slogan best represents Collingsworth County and its people?

The Chamber of Commerce is going to find out, and to do this is sponsoring a slogan contest for students in the three county schools.

Charles Darter and Lynn Jenkins are co-chairmen of the contest.

Any student, from the first through the twelfth grades is eligible to attend, and the contest period is October 1 to November 1, according to Mr. Darter.

Winner of the contest will receive a $25 Savings Bond. Directors of the Chamber will serve as judges.

One requirement is that the slogan be not more than 35 letters in length.

The Chamber is looking for a slogan which is lively, and yet is representative of the county, its products and its people, Mr. Darter explained.

The winning slogan will go on a bumper sticker which will be sold later in the year. Proceeds from the sale will go into the youth activities in the county, such as the annual livestock show.

C-C Slates Drive for Hundred New Members in October

Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce will launch a county-wide fall membership drive Monday, October 1, to continue through the month.

The goal is 100 new members.

Charles Floyd is membership campaign chairman, and co-chairmen with him are Mrs. Esta Glenn and Pat McAlister.

Final plans will be laid at a kick-off breakfast for directors and workers Monday at 7:00 a.m. at Cherokee Inn, according to Dan Hiett, C-C president.

New members will be sought on a one-and-one basis -- workers going out and personally explaining to a prospect what the Chamber of Commerce does for the county and how much more it can do with an expanded membership.

"We will emphasize individual memberships, for most businesses are already members," said Mr. Floyd. He added that those businesses who are not members will be contacted.

The membership drive will be carried into every part of the county, the chairman said, by workers in the various communities.

The need for all residents to become involved in chamber work and in community and county life was pointed out.

Involvement, he stressed, benefits both the individual and the community.

"Until I was a member of Chamber of Commerce, I did not feel I was a part of what was going on in the community," said Mr. Floyd. A science instructor in Wellington High School, he said he was involved in school activities, but much less so in community affairs. "Since I have become a member, it is remarkable how much I have become involved. I think everyone owes it to himself and to the county to get involved. "It is easy to stand back and let somebody else do it, but Collingsworth County is going to be only as good as we want it to be -- and as we are willing to work for it to be."

This will be the second membership campaign held by the Chamber of Commerce in 1973, reminded Mr. Hiett. The first was held through the winter and early spring, and more than doubled the membership to an all time high of 194 members.

Mr. Floyd said he considered the goal of 100 new members realistic, and if this is achieved, it will not only be something of a record for the Chamber, but will make it one of the largest for a town this size in the entire Panhandle.

Skyrockets to Host Big Bobcats Friday

Wellington will host the Childress Bobcats Friday, September 28, showing all the confidence that characterizes the Skyrockets this season. Game time is 8:00 p.m.

Childress long has been the strongest team in District 2-AA, although the Rockets held them to close scores several times when they were conference opponents.

Coach James Williams is expecting a game similar to that with the Shamrock Irish last week.

"They have good size, but they won't be as quick in the line as Shamrock. They have an excellent football team," said the Rocket Coach.

Primarily, this will be the same team that went to the regional before losing to Floydada last year. While several key players were lost to graduation, Childress had some excellent boys out for football.

In their three outings so far this year, the Bobcats defeated both Clarendon and Memphis 13-0, and Paducah 36-29.

"This will be another big game for us, but our kids are ready to play them," said Coach Williams.

"We came out of the Shamrock game with only bruises, so everybody will be ready to play when we kick off Friday night."

Coach Williams and his assistants are making no changes. "When we have something going for us, we'll stay with it."

Junior Varsity Meets Hollis Again Thursday

The Skyrocket Junior Varsity travels to Hollis Thursday, September 27, for the second of two scheduled games with the Tiger Cubs.

Game time is 7:00 p.m. at the Tiger's stadium.

That team will be smarting from their 6-0 loss to Wellington last week, and any loopholes that they may have let get by then should be mended.

The Rocket JV took the measure of the Cubs defensive strength and found it both capable and effective -- but not quite as strong as its own.

In earlier games, the Cubs have shown considerable strength and they will be no pushover for the Junior Varsity Thursday night.

All Students Receive TB Tests in October

All students of the Wellington Schools will receive TB tests Monday, October 1, while boys and girls at Quail and Samnrowood will be given their tests Tuesday, October 9.

The testing program has been broadened this year to include all students in Collingsworth County, as an all-out effort is being made to eliminate tuberculosis, explained Mrs. Clemmie Devenport, nurse for the three schools. In the past, students from selective grades received the tests.

Mrs. Devenport emphasized that no child is given the TB test without parental consent. A consent form has been sent home with all students, but a heavy percentage remain to be signed and returned to the school. She urged that this be done Thursday or Friday.

All Wellington students will be tested Monday, with representatives of the TB Control section of the Texas State Department of Health assisting Mrs. Devenport.

These workers will return Thursday, October 4, to read the tests and determine if there are any positive reactors.

In the other schools, Mrs. Devenport will give all the tests, and these will be read Thursday, October 11.

The Mantoux test is used the school nurse explained, as it is considered in the medical profession as the most accurate and reliable.

"Collingsworth County has been very fortunate in past screening programs," said Mrs. Devenport. "The percentage of positive reactors is real low for children of school age, but even one could contact a lot of others."

A positive reaction to the Mantoux test does not necessarily mean the child has an active case of TB, but it does mean that more testing and x-rays are called for.

All this is done in co-operation with the child's family doctor, and the family is contacted for tests.

All of these, Mrs. Devenport emphasized, are free of

Dodson Church To Hear Guest

The Rev. Joe Ingle of Grand Prairie will be the guest preacher at the Dodson Church of the Nazarene Sunday, September 30, at 11:00 a.m.

Rev. and Mrs. Ingle are visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. D.C. Camp, and with other relatives at Kelley and in the Wellington area.

Rev. Ingle has been a preacher for many years and his wife also is a minister.

The public is invited to the Sunday service.

charge. The TB control program is financed through the Texas State Department of Health.

Should any child be found with active TB, the treatment procedure will be the same as in the adult control program used for Collingsworth County.

Final Play Slated In Women's Tourney

Twenty-five Wellington women have qualified for the finals in the third annual Wellington State Bank Women's Championship Golf Tournament. Final rounds of play are scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 28, 29, and 30, according to President C.T. Hubbard.

There will be two flights, and play on the 27 rounds can begin Friday. All final rounds must begin no later than Sunday at 1:00 p.m., according to Mr. Hubbard.

These 27 holes will determine the winners in each flight and trophies will be awarded following completion of play Sunday afternoon.

First, second, third and fourth place winners in each flight will receive trophies in the form of gift certificates, according to the sponsor.

There will be an additional prize for the golfer closest to the cup on Hole One, but who is not a winner in one of the flights.

First flight: Mrs. Tom Anderson, Mrs. J.W. Cochran, Mrs. Willie Gragson, Mrs. John Holton, Mrs. Wayne Martin, Mrs. R.L. Mabery, Mrs. Jones Singley, Mrs. Henry Sullivan and Mrs. Harold Watkins.

Second flight: Mrs. Louis Allred, Mrs. Jimmy Black, Mrs. Craig Bergvall, Mrs. Howard Holton, Mrs. John Jackson, Mrs. Bill Long, Mrs. Kenneth Patterson and Mrs. Richard Nall.

Third flight: Mrs. Barney Glenn, Mrs. Edd Henard, Mrs. Dan Hiett, Mrs. Cal Hurst, Mrs. Auther Jones, Mrs. Mickey Kendrick, Mrs. John Sherman and Mrs. Jim Wood.

LeRoy Stafford, Long-Time Area Resident, Dies

Albert LeRoy Stafford, 82, a retired farmer and long-time county resident, died in Collingsworth General Hospital at 3:30 a.m. Friday, September 21. He had been critically ill about a week.

He brought his family to Collingsworth County from Memphis more than 40 years ago, and resided west of Wellington for a long period.

He was active in the affairs of that area, especially those things which were for community improvement. He was especially concerned with the schools, and in making it possible for his own children and others had every opportunity for an education.

Since his retirement, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford had lived in Wellington.

He was born at Ardmore, Oklahoma, August 17, 1891. He lived in Hall County for a number of years, and was married to Miss Mildred F. Aduddell at Brice on June 21, 1914.

He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted at First Baptist Church at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Officiating was Dr. Howard Jones of Hamlin, a former pastor here and long-time friend of the family.

Saudi Arabia Holds New Way of Living

By Mrs. LaVerne Sowell

(Mr. and Mrs. David Sowell and sons, David, Jr. and Dennis, now live in Al Khobar, Saudi Arabia, going there from the Dallas area. She is the former LaVerne McWhorter, sister of Mrs. J.I. Morgan and the daughter of H.A. McWhorter now of Headrick, Oklahoma. Mrs. Sowell grew up in the Kelley community.)

We have been living in Saudi Arabia for over a year. I'll never forget when we first arrived. It was 6:30 a.m. and 110 degrees. When we first stepped out of the airplane, I thought it unusual that the heat from the plane's engine seemed so close. It was not long until I realized the heat was not coming from the engine, but from the Arabian sun.

Al Khobar is located on the western edge of the Persian Gulf. Along the coast is farm land. They grow mostly vegetables, some fruits and dates. Most other products are shipped in to the country and that's why canned goods is doubled and sometimes tripled in cost. Fresh fruits and fresh vegetables, dairy products and fish, are very reasonable in cost. Shrimp is 5 riyals a kilo (about $1.28 for a little over two pounds.)

David is employed by Northrop Aircraft Corp. He is an instructor teaching aircraft maintenance.

I teach music, grades one through eight, at the Dhahran Academy. The school was established ten years ago for the purpose of providing education for the children of families who are employed here from other countries.

The school opened with 12 children and two teachers. It has grown to 365 children and 32 teachers. Just this year it opened the doors of 15 new classrooms. The school uses the U.S. curriculum, and the headmaster is Dean Birch from Salt Lake City, Utah. The student body is made up of 23 different nationalities.

a dry county, it has about the same problem with alcohol abusers as do the wet counties in the Panhandle. We can do little about this number one health problem, until we recognize its existence. We sometimes have a fear of what we don't understand. We can understand the facts only by being exposed to them. This is the prime reason for these series of meetings."

David, Jr., graduated from the Bahrain High School at Manama, Bahrain. Bahrain is an island 36 miles long and located 13 miles east of Al Khobar. David is now working at Taif and is employed by Page Communication Corp.

Dennis is a seventh grader at Dhahran Academy and is a member of a band who calls themselves the "Electric Camels."

Since leaving the States last year, we have visited England, Italy, Holland, Greece, Egypt, and Leganon, as well as a return trip home to see our own beloved America.

Mrs. LaVerne Sowell Northrop Peace Hawk (223) APO New York, New York 09616

Besides this letter, written especially for The Wellington Leader, Mrs. Sowell has told her sister of many customs which the United States citizens find unusual. When they banquet in manner of their own country, Saudi Arabians are seated on cushions on the floor, around a platter which is several feet long and piled with rice. Into this are inserted such tidbits as cheese, dates and other foods. But the entree is roasted goat. There are no knives and forks, and the banqueters eat with one hand only. Rice is rolled into a little ball and carried to the mouth. Meat is pulled from the goat. Periodically, a servant moves around the feast to wash the hand of the guest. Another follows with a towel, and the third sprays the hand with a sweet smelling substance. Then the diner is ready to eat again.

Mr. Altom reported he had interviewed three people interested in the combination ambulance driver-utility service man place at the hospital and felt this would be resolved in the next few days.

July and August board reports were discussed with Mr. Altom pointing out that the July, August and September monthly deficit would end in current fiscal year with an approximate $30,000.00 loss, which is in line with the $29,451.00 predicted in the revised budget of March, 1973, after one full year of operation. This is due to below average census for 6 out of the 12 months. The budget for October 1, 1973-September 30, 1974 calls for total operating expenses forecast at $348,377.00 with total estimated hospital revenue at $316,890.00, leaving a deficit of $31,487.00 to come from District Tax monies.

"Hospital revenue and expense is based on 5372 patient days which is current for year ending Sept. 30, 1973, said Mr. Altom.

"Hospital revenue and expense fluctuates, or goes up and down, in a direct relationship with the number of patient days. Daily census down, thus revenue down.

"The $348,377.00 budget represents the largest in the history of the hospital with an increase in patient days. Patient days for the same period last year were 4,882 compared to 5372 or 490 more patient days, which indicates increase usage or utilization of our local hospital facilities," Mr. Altom pointed out.

"It might be of interest to point out here that the breakdown of $348,377.00 is $214,080.00 in salaries, and $134,297.00 in supplies and other expenses, most of which is purchased locally. Salaries being paid to some 32 Full Time Employees and 16 part time employees probably represents one of the largest group employers in the County and one of the largest payrolls. Aside from serving and taking care of the Health Care needs of the County, your hospital is one of the strongest financial contributors in the County," the administrator concluded.

POPULAR PARADE ENTRY

Pampa Arts Festival Set

The Pampa Fine Arts Association is sponsoring the annual Top O' Texas Arts and Crafts Festival, Oct. 13-14, in the Heritage Room of the M.K. Brown Memorial Civic Auditorium.

An invitation is open to join artists and craftsmen from the Top O' Texas area in offering your paintings and crafts for sale. Demonstrations in booths will be encouraged.

Ben Konis, a well known artist and teacher from Amarillo will conduct a pastel demonstration in the Heritage Room on the 13th. A painting, "Taos Creek" by Konis, will be presented to the holder of the winning ticket on the 15th.

Other events will include a gourmet booth with foods for sale and a judged flower show.

Entertainment at the M.K. Brown Civic Auditorium Saturday, Oct. 13, at 8:00 p.m. will be "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail," presented by the Pampa High School Drama Department.

Hotel and Motel accommodations are available and reservations should be made in advance.

Additional information may be had from Mrs. Dewey Palminter, P.O. Box 1820, Pampa, Texas 79065.

McKinney Here On Army Leave

PVT Randy Keith McKinney spent a 7-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B.E. McKinney recently.

He finished a 7-week MOS School at Ft. Jackson, Columbia, South Carolina, and was en route to Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Indiana.

McKinney is assigned to an 8-weeks AIT school, from which he will graduate October 16, and he will then be stationed at Fort Sill for 16 months OTJ duty as a court clerk.

were drisively called by the cowboys. They came from the east and the south, from the north and the west and some from over the sea.

"They dug wells, 'dug in' built windmills, turned the grass roots up in places, farmed, ranches, built schools and churches, organized the county government and courts. They invested, speculated, and innovated to adjust to the plains environment. They progressed from game trails to superhighways, from smoke signals to satellite communications, from cow chip fuel and dug outs to meditation homes - - - all this and more - - - in the first hundred years!

"It is enough to boggle the minds of those who have lived to see this transformation and there is certainly no wonder that we need to take time out to know ourselves and each other better and to give a special and grateful thanksgiving prayer for our yesterdays, our today, and our tomorrows.

When we are prone to think of the frontier as something past, it is inspiring to read Gertrude Harris' book, Manna-Foods of the Frontier. In the preface she says: "The Frontier exists for anyone with an inquiring mind, a healthy curiosity and the will to experiment."

"Plan to take part in the Patch Work of Trails, Tales and Treats in November, and please be ready to help make these days memorable," Mrs. Drake concluded.

Introduction date for all Chevrolet models is Thursday, September 20.

Rocket JV Downs Tiger Cubs 6 to 0

The Skyrocket Junior Varsity blanked Hollis Cubs 6-0 in a display of defensive power, Thursday, September 20, at Powell Field.

The game's single score did not come until late in the third period, when the Rocket JV came up with a fourth down and long yardage situation. Randall Sims then hit Edward Thomas with a half back option pass for 44 yards, down to the Hollis One.

On the next play, Shane Tarver carried the ball over on a quarterback sneak. Ricky Ford kicked the extra points, but this was nullified because of a Wellington motion penalty.

Neither team threatened seriously during the early part of play, Hollis then got the ball down to Wellington two, where Randall Sims intercepted a pass in the end zone.

During the remainder of the half, neither team could make headway and played in between the 30 yard line.

Wellington got a drive going early in the third quarter, only to be set back by a 15-yard penalty, from the Hollis 35 to mid-field. Unable to make the first down, the Rockets had to punt.

Neither could Hollis advance, and had to punt. It was a defensive game from there to mid-way in the third when Wellington began to pick up steam and the Junior Varsity score followed.

After that, it was a defensive standoff until the game was over.

"The Defense played a tremendous ball game. They rose to every occasion," declared Coach Robert Hicks, naming as outstanding such front line-men as Ends Jackie Black, and Randall Maxwell, and defensive guard Don Allred.

On the offense, Coach Hicks called Jessie Davis outstanding in pass completions, accounting for approximately 95 yards on four completions. Tarver was commended for his accuracy in tossing these. As far as the running game was concerned, Randall and Richard Sims and Jessie Davis were cited.

"The team looks a lot improved since the Shamrock game," declared the coach.

"There are still some weak spots but these will improve. The kicking game looks good and we were able to maintain good field position because of the specialty teams."

Hollis Tiger varsity had cancelled a game with Holiday last week, giving some of the boys an opportunity to drop back to Bob Foote Dies In Frisco, Colo.

R.S. (Bob) Foote of Frisco, Colorado, died Sunday, September 9, in a hospital there. He was the son-in-law of Mrs. W.S. White, and brother-in-law of Mrs. M.J. Holland and Mrs. Joe Tarver.

Mr. Foote lived at Mill Iron Ranch as a youth, while his father, the late Elmer S. Foote, was the ranch manager.

He was married to Miss Helen White, and in 1940, they moved to Montebello, Calif., and from there they went to Frisco in 1945. He was in business at Frisco and also served as postmaster.

Surviving are his wife and four children: Bobby of Colorado; Patty of Wyoming; Cindy and Ernest of Frisco.

Rockets Stage Great Battle with Strong Irish Team Here Sept. 21

As the flag was lowered over Powell Field last Friday, the scoreboard remained lighted showing a 13 to 3 victory for Shamrock. However, the scoreboard did not tell the whole story about the game as the Fighting Skyrockets of Wellington came very close to making it an upset over the Irish.

Play began as Shamrock kicked off to Dickie Johnson who returned it back to the Wellington 30. The first play saw quarterback George Brewer on a keeper around the end which lost a couple of yards. Play number two saw an incomplete pass to Bobby Cantu. Then the Rockets unleashed a drive that was not to be stopped until it had been turned into a 3 point field goal. It began as Randall Hodges broke a round left end off of a fine block by Dickie Johnson and sped to the 50 yard line before being brought down. A quick dive by Cantu netted one yard. Then the Rockets reached into their bag of tricks and brought out a play which caught the Irish looking. A quick pitch out to Hodges drew the Irish defense up close, then quickly setting himself, Hodges threw a pass to Ronnie Hamby who took it to the 10 yard line. Behind the enthusiastic crowd's yelling, Jim Bob Nall went to the 3 yard line. His next attempt only gained the line of scrimmage. Then with 9:20 left in the first quarter, Hodges split the uprights with a well-placed kick. So on their first possession, Wellington struck quickly with a score.

Shamrock took the Wellington kick-off on their own 15 and the famed Bobby Jackson raced all the way back to the Wellington 42. Jackson again got the call, but Dickie Johnson set him down with a one yard loss. A couple of dives brought the Irish to the 36. Also aiding in that gain was an offside penalty against Wellington. Then Beasley broke around his end to the Rocket 29 to gain Shamrock its first down of the game. Two end runs by Gragg and Jackson brought the Irish to the 20 where Gragg took it up the middle to the 15. Two plays later found the Irish on the 10, and then Beasley broke up the middle to score for Shamrock with 2:43 remaining in the first quarter. The point after was good and now it was Shamrock 7, Wellington 3.

Mike Williams took the Irish kick-off on his 5 and with a fine job of broken field running and some good blocking brought it back to the 40. Two aerial attempts failed before Brewer connected with Bobby Cantu at the Shamrock 45 yard line. A couple of off-tackle tries by Nall and Hodges brought the count to 3rd and one on the Irish 36. Nall was elected to carry on a dive play where he fumbled but recovered his own fumble at the 32 for another first down. After gaining six yards on a sweep by Hodges, Brewer went back to pass. Going back with Brewer was Vineyard for the Irish and sacked George at the 32 as the gun sounded for the first quarter. Resuming play Randall Hodges hauled in a pass and took it to the 8 again with a good block by Johnson. An unsuccessful campaign for a first down sent Hodges back to punt. After getting off a good boot he was hit by a Shamrock player which drew a fifteen yard penalty for roughing the kicker. Again a punt, and the ball was dead at the 15. The Irish found the going also tough and were forced to punt. Hodges brought the ball back seven yards to the 38. One penalty, an incomplete pass and an almost intercepted completion brought up another fourth down punt. This one was short and out-of-bounds at the Irish 34. Gragg pitched out to Jackson who could not find the handle and fumbled at the 32 where Neal Cochran fell on the ball and gave the Rockets another chance. Hodges brought the first play to the 20, when a pass to Williams gained the 11. But the Rockets turned the ball back to the Irish at the 5 on a fumble. And not to be out done the Rockets forced another fumble at the 3 where Richard Sanders found the ball for the Rockets. A dive by Hodges and a facemask penalty took the ball to the 1. From here the Rockets tried unsuccessfully to break the front line for a touchdown. Then Jim Bob Nall went around the end but found no room there either. The ball now revolved to the Irish on downs and Jackson tried to sweep his end and was successful to the 15 where the half ended.

The Irish came out in the second half like the Rockets had come out in the first with a score on their possession. Gragg took the kick-off but gave it to Jackson who raced from the 10 to the 35. From here the Irish used a variety of plays to move the ball. Also making use of two Wellington penalties, the Irish ran and passed their way to the 3, Carter dove over the middle fumbled, and recovered it again. Then Gragg took a chance up the middle and found enough room for Shamrock's second touchdown. The point after was no good, so the score was Shamrock 13, Wellington 3.

Wellington took the kick-off from the 10 to the 30. After no gain on three tries, Hodges punted away to the Irish on fourth down. Gragg took the punt on the Shamrock 29, dropped it but picked it up and began to run. However, the officials ruled his knee down at the 29. Gragg then broke to the 45. From here, he and Jackson alternated runs until they had moved to the Rocket 34. Here Gragg intended a pass for his half-back Range but Randall Hodges picked off the pass at the 17 yard line. Wellington then seemed to mount another drive as a pass to Williams and a dive by Hodges gained a first down at the 34. Hodges then took the ball to the 50 for the second first down of the series. Sammy Gonzales gained several yards but got them called back on offsetting penalties. A pass interference by Galmer against Hodges gave Wellington their third first down of the series at the Irish 48. But here the drive stalled and Hodges grudgingly punted the ball away. An offside penalty moved the ball back five yards and Randall

Service Family Due Overseas

M/Sgt. and Mrs. Larry Dodge and children, Tracey, 13, and Andy, 11, are visiting in Wellington before his new assignment takes him to Thailand and the remainder of the family to England.

They are guests of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Dodge and children.

They came here from Shaw Air Force Base, South Carolina, his last assignment.

Sgt. Dodge will be in Thailand a year.

Mrs. Dodge is from England, a native of Leicester, and for this coming year, she and the children will be near her family.

She has returned a number of times since the couple's marriage, and Sgt. Dodge also was stationed there for a tour of duty. Another took the family to Germany.

heir last first down of the game on a quick pass to Vinyard and a dive by Carter, Shamrock's thrust was stalled by incomplete passes and fumbles. Punting the ball, the Irish quickly converged on Hodges at the 20 who broke loose to the 48 but was called back on what was termed a clipping penalty. Unable to move the ball, Wellington punted from their own end zone. The Irish, unable to find daylight on the field had to punt the ball back to Wellington. From the 22, Brewer tried to launch an air attack but was successful only on his first pass to Mike Williams who took the ball to the Shamrock 48. Then as Brewer went back to pass he was joined by several white jerseys and thrown for a loss. However, he rebounded with a pass to Tony Martinez who gained the Shamrock 40 once more. Again, Brewer was sacked. The ball moved over to the Irish. On their last play, Shamrock called on Range who took the ball up the middle to the one yard line where he was finally hauled down as the final gun sounded.

The crowd, the coaches, and the boys felt that they had played a good game. The boys had made their breaks and had moved the ball well. Coach Phil Bailey said that in the locker room was sitting some district champs. And head coach Williams said that the boys had wanted to play and that their desire was what made the difference in the way they played. And although victorious, Shamrock went home knowing that they had been played by a team that could and would play football with anybody around.

Music Club Opens Year with Salute To "Our First Century of Culture"

The twenty-second dinner for the opening of Wellington Music Club's active club year was held at the Heritage Room on September 18. Known at state and national levels for its unique themes and creativity, the club is saluting Collingsworth County's Centennial with "Our First Century of Culture."

The president, Mrs. Charles Floyd, presided for this Federation Futur Day event, which is the first of eight explorations into music or related arts experienced by those who lived in this county.

Table grace by Mrs. E.H. Harwell preceded the festive buffet. Members and guests ate by lamplight glow and learned the art of trimming a wick properly. Designed by Mrs. Hiram Cudd, favors were reflections of artistry of the previous century placed on contemporary easels. On the registry table was a large lantern filled with flowers and greenery. Other reminders of the past and present included a Texas-shaped holder for barbed wire, centered with the state seal of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs.

The display table that accompanied the program was accented with a bouquet of mums. The program leader was Mrs. Harwell, who guided the audience "From Kerosene Lamps to Electric Lights." She told how the gramophone was born at the beginning of an age of wonders that saw the development of wireless telegraphy, radio, horseless carriages, powered flight and the electric light. She had one of those wonders on display - Mr. Edison's talking phonograph. Music from her collection of cylinders was used. Another from the Harwell collection was a vintage radio. Mrs. Harwell told interesting and humorous facts of radio drama sound effects.

Then as a newscaster from Radio Station TFM, Mrs.

B.M. Sims used research on how radio came to the prairie to blend nostalgia, humor, and unknown facts of yesteryear and today in music related items. This spanned from windchargers to rural electrification to nuclear energy.

Miss Vikki Saunders was welcomed as the club's new member.

Special guest and honoree was Mrs. Clyde Drake, chairman of the Collingsworth County Historical Commission. The club members took this means of expressing to Mrs. Drake and her committee their appreciation for her "doing something today to document the past for the future."

One of the club's projects is to seek out vintage music and instrument. This was begun by the club's past presidents, who include Mrs. Truett Holland, Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., Mrs. L.W. Wells, Mrs. Cudd, Mrs. Sims, Mrs. John Holton and Miss Virginia Robey.

The new officers were presented, and include Mrs. Floyd, president; Mrs. Robert Owens, vice-president; Mrs. Jesse Peters, secretary-treasurer-reporter; Mrs. Harwell, historian; and Mrs. Holland, parliamentarian.

The immediate past president, Mrs. Holland, presented the club an attache case to be used by the present and future presidents.

Hostesses for the evening were members of the yearbook committee, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Harwell, Mrs. Cudd and Mrs. Sims. The October meeting will be a guest day event, when Miss Virginia Browder of Memphis will tell of a time when musical drama came to Texas at the turn of the century.

Guests and potential members attending were Mrs. Dennis Cudd, Mrs. Bill Hill, Mrs. Charles Waugh, Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mrs. Kay Gassiot, Miss Robey and RANCH-STYLE CORDUROY—Cone's cotton corduroy creates Western duds for a costume party or just playground fun. To go with their plaid shirts and embroidered vests, the young cowgirl chooses a fringed skirt while her dude companion opts for chaps.

October 12 Wedding Date Set by Darlene Staats, Kenneth Stallings

The approaching marriage of Miss Dorothy Darlene Staats and Kenneth Michael Stallings has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Staats of Hollis.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Stallings, 100 North Bowie Street; and Mrs. Louise Stallings of Sacramento, Calif.

The couple will be married Friday, October 12, in Faith Baptist Church, Wellington. Miss Staats attended Hollis Schools, while her fiancé was graduated from Sacramento, Calif., High School and attended Sacramento, College.

Blue flowers were used to decorate the room.

A desert course was served to Mrs. Emory Hunter, Mrs. Frank Coleman, Jr., Mrs. Jim Wood, Mrs. Sandy Parsons, Mrs. J.B. Stevenson, Mrs. A.L. Elliott, Mrs. J.D. Wilson, Mrs. B.M. Sims, Mrs. Rolan Bryan, Mrs. O.V. Johnson, Mrs. Cliff Campbell, and the hostess.

Mrs. Drake. Members attending were Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Cudd, Mrs. Henard, Mrs. Harwell, Mrs. D.C. Lacy, Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Kyle Lindley and Mrs. Bura Handley.

Retired Teachers Meet October 2

The Collingsworth County Retired Teachers chapter will meet Tuesday, October 2, with Mrs. R.R. Crawley as hostess at her home, 1101 Bowie Street.

The meeting will begin at 4:00 p.m., according to Mrs. Charley Hill, president.

All former teachers, both men and women, who are interested in membership are invited to attend.

Party Honors

Sharon Henard

Sharon Anne Henard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henard III, was honored on her second birthday Tuesday, September 18.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Henard gave a party for Sharon Anne's young friends. A Raggedy Ann theme was carried out in the table decorations, accessories and cake.

Present were Clay Holland, Shelly Thomas, Tammy Henard, Jodi Blackshear, Robert Watts, Dena Lacy, Leandra Hartman, De Jon Lindsey, Toni Bell, also Shelli and Sonya Thompson, Kyle and Kelli McQueen and Casey Ward of Memphis.

That night, members of the family came by, including the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Henard, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. H.R. Yarbrough of Memphis; also Mr. and Mrs. Dan Langford, Carrie and Dana.

Mrs. Purl Tippie has returned to her home in Dodson after spending the summer in Dallas.

Open House Honors Mrs. Jack Lowry Saturday in Her Wellington Home

An open house in her own new home honored Mrs. Jack Lowry Saturday afternoon, September 22.

The event was planned as a surprise while she was out of town, and she was aware of it only hours ahead of time.

The hostesses were two sisters, Mrs. H.L. Lowry and Mrs. Rufus Sweat; her daughter, Mrs. Paul Schaub of Lutie; and a niece, Mrs. Cal Hurst.

Mrs. Lowry grew up in the Lutie Community. After she and the late Mr. Lowry were married, they continued to make their home which was the family farm of her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Young. For several years, her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Schaub and children, have lived there.

Mrs. Lowry retired from teaching in the Samnorwood Schools at the end of the last term and by that time already had her new home under construction.

Receiving guests Saturday were Mrs. J.L. Alexander, a neighbor from Lutie, and the honoree.

Miss DiAnna Schaub registered the guests and Miss Nancy Alexander showed the gifts which friends had presented.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a white net cloth, applied with white felt flowers and sequins. At the center, a footed bowl held an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums and baby's breath. Appointments were crystal and silver. Hostesses alternated at the coffee and tea service.

Approximately 75 friends called between two-thirty and four in the afternoon.

Family members coming from out of town to join the festivity were Mrs. Lowry's son and family, Dr. and Mrs. Joel Lowry, Landon and Melanie of Vernon; a sister, brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mrs. Grover Young and Mrs. Jason Young of Arlington; Mrs. T.C. Young of Muleshoe, Dewey Young of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. James Young of Irving; and a cousin, Mrs. Faye Messick Cook of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Group Attends Golden Wedding

A large group of out of town friends and relatives were here Sunday, September 23, for the golden wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Langford.

These included their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Bruce and Carol of Gladewater, and Mrs. Jon Curtis of Burbank, Calif.; also Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson of Floydada; Mr. and Mrs. Garland Fielding and children of Garland; Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Boyer of Ft. Worth; Mrs. Vergie Jackson of Lovington, New Mexico;

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Hicks, Roy and Karen and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Thompson and children of Hobbs, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Glasgow of Elk City, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bryant of Ft. Worth; Dr. and Mrs. Tom Bryant Jr., of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Glasgow of Mangum; Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Langford of Perry, Oklahoma;

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Adams and grandchildren of Amarillo; Mrs. Viola Langford of Phoenix, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shaw of Lubbock; Mrs. Fay Messick Cook of Albuquerque, New Mexico;

Marge Brown of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yarbrough of Vinson, Oklahoma; Mrs. Victor Smith, Mrs. Basil Smith and Mrs. Viola Glasgow of Clarendon; and the Rev. and Mrs. Clayton E. Day of Ft. Worth.

Bob Langfords Host Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Langford were hosts at a luncheon Sunday, September 23, for members of the family and honoring his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Langford.

The meal was served buffet style from a table covered with a copper colored cloth, and centered with an arrangement of gold chrysanthemums.

Only members of the family attended.

Lazy Daisy

Four-H Elects

The Lazy Daisy 4-H Club met Tuesday, September 18, to elect officers for the coming year. The meeting was in the office of Mrs. Arla Felts, home extension agent.

The new president is Geney Morrow, while Linda Coffee is vice president; secretary-treasurer and reporter, Pam Vines; recreation chairman, Debbie Stallings; and 4-H Council delegate, Kay Coffee.

Meeting dates were set for the third Tuesday of each month. Six members attended the organizational meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Black are the parents of a son, Kenneth Bryan, born September 7, in Childress General Hospital, Childress. He weighed 8 pounds and 13 ounces. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simmons of Childress and Mrs. Marie Black of Wellington.

MR. AND MRS. BILL LANGFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Langford Honored Sunday on 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Langford, 1511 Amarillo Street, were honored on their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, September 23, when their five children were hosts at a reception.

These were Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Bruce of Gladwater, Mrs. John Curtis of Burbank, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Billy J. Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Langford and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Langford.

The event was held in the Heritage Room, and relatives and friends called between two and five in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Langford and the children received the guests, who were then registered by Connie Langford and Maria Langford, granddaughters.

Because a number of those attending were former residents who had come back to honor this couple, the afternoon was festive with visiting and reminiscing, as well as with catching up on news of the various guests.

Flower arrangements about the room carried out a gold color theme.

The reception table was covered with a white linen cloth, and centered with the golden wedding cake. Appointments were of silver and crystal. Miss Carol Bruce of Gladwater and Mrs. Michael Shaw of Lubbock, both granddaughters, served the wedding cake and poured.

William George Langford -- friends have never known him except as Bill -- was born in Greer County, Oklahoma, but came here as a small child with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Langford. This has been his home since. Mrs. Langford is the former Euby Glasgow, whose parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Glasgow. She was born in Wellington, and this also has been her lifelong home except for "a year or so in Ft. Worth as a child."

Both attended Wellington Schools. They also have been members of First Baptist Church for many years. She formerly taught a Sunday School class and was a member of the choir until only a few years ago.

Mrs. Langford is active in the Lillie Home Demonstration Club, and beyond this, she says she has spent her entire married life taking care of her home and family.

The couple farmed near Wellington for many years, and he was especially interested in cattle. He also learned the butcher's trade and worked in Wellington grocery stores.

Their three sons, Billy, Jimmy and Bobby, are in business in Wellington. The two daughters are Mrs. J.D. Bruce (Jane) of Gladewater and Mrs. John Curtis (Sue) of Burbank, Calif. Another daughter, Linda, died in 1961.

Fix-It Tip

Pick your time to correct ill-fitting doors. Waiting until cold weather arrives is a mistake. A hot, humid day isn't very good either because moisture causes wood to swell.

When doors do not close, resist the temptation to plane all the edges. Check hinges first. When hinges are loose, doors sag and stick. Tighten all the screws. If screw holes are worn, plug the holes with wood putty and use longer screws.

If the door binds at the top, shim the top hinge with layers of cardboard. The cardboard should be placed under the hinge leaf that is on the door frame. Start with one thickness of cardboard and add more if needed.

Dodson Legion Auxiliary Meets

The Dodson American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 535 met at the Legion Hall Tuesday evening, September 18, with Mrs. J.C. Howell opening the meeting.

Mrs. Fred Boyd, chaplain, gave the prayer and Mrs. B.B. Martin led the Preamble, then as secretary reported on the men's clothing and magazines sent to the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Three members reported visiting the new Arnett School and presenting it with 12 flags, one for each room.

Plans were made for the Veterans Day Dinner, which this year will be held Saturday, November 10.

It was announced that items stored in the rear of the Legion Building are to be cleaned out, and anyone having something in the building is asked to call for it.

Dues were collected at this meeting.

Present were Mrs. Sylvia Claiborne, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Maggie Webb, Mrs. Mary Alice Birden, Mrs. T.E. Lennon and Mrs. A.V. Lowrie.

Good Neighbors Meet Friday

Mrs. Coy Vaughan entertained the Good Neighbor Club in her home Friday, September 21, at 2:30 p.m.

The president, Mrs. Vaughan, directed the business meeting. Mrs. Robert Karnes had the program from the "Vision of Evangelist," by Mrs. Daisy Osborn. One member contributed to the birthday jar.

Served were: Mrs. Meritt James, Mrs. Doshia Dix, Mrs. Ray Clubb, Miss Glenda Kiker, Mrs. Ethel Britton, Mrs. Karnes and the hostess Mrs. Vaughan.

Four Sisters Together Recently for First Time in Thirty-two Years

Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Knuteson, their daughter, Thea, and small son, Eric, of Anchorage, Alaska, are here to visit her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Odean Lewis.

They have lived in Anchorage 8 years, although Thea spent the last year in Cutler, Calif., attending school. She will be a senior in an Anchorage High School this year. The remainder of the family joined her in August and they visited in Nevada and Amarillo before reaching Wellington.

Snow is already falling in the Anchorage area, the family has learned.

The two women are the daughters of Mrs. Goldia Wilson. The trip home by the Knuteson family was also the occasion for a reunion of the four Wilson daughters -- the first time they have been together in 32 years.

The event was held in Amarillo Wednesday, September 19, in the home of one sister, Mrs. Virgil (Viola) Estes. Joining her were Mrs. Ray (Erlene) Lowry of Bakersfield, Calif.; Mrs. Knuteson (Betty) and Mrs. Lewis (Charlene).

The Knutesons will be in Wellington and Amarillo for another month.

Mr. Knuteson is a right-of-way agent for the State of Alaska Highway Department, in its southeastern District. This covers both the mainland and off-shore islands. The family plans to be in Alaska at least 12 more years.

The hardest adjustment to make is being away from her family, Betty Knuteson believes. "We're so far from home, we're orphans," she laughs.

Because she grew up here, Mrs. Knuteson is always interested in learning of other county families living in Anchorage. People enjoy news from state-side she reminded.

Although Alaska is sparsely settled even today, the former Wellington girl expressed surprise at the excellence of the school system. Anchorage has a branch of the University of Alaska as well as a community college.

Winter sports, including skiing and skating, are organized on a team basis. Eric, not quite four, is already a member of a hockey team for small boys.

The family is not certain if they will find a gasoline shortage when they return home. They have paid 49 cents per gallon the entire time they have lived in Anchorage.

Beef also comes from the states, says Mrs. Knuteson, except for that which comes into the markets occasionally from Kodiak Island. This, however, she finds of inferior quality.

But Moose and Caribou meat they find to be delicious, "so tender you can cut it with a fork," she declares. This does not come out of the market, but is killed on hunts the whole family participates in.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. B.B. Martin this past week were two of her brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Guy J. Gear of San Antonio, and Mr. and Mrs. H.T. Gear of Lawton, Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. F.W. Gear of San Antonio had visited her earlier.

Couples Observe Anniversaries

Two Dodson couples celebrated wedding anniversaries at a luncheon during the week end.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander, who were observing their 49th anniversary on September 24, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyd, the hosts, who were married one year on September 23.

Coming for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Alexander and Mark, and Mr. and Mrs. Darby Reid of Amarillo; Mrs. Jean Linderman of Borger; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boyd and Mrs. Gladys Burns of Wichita Falls. Also visiting in the afternoon were the L.B. Boyds of Wellington.

Personal

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Oran Starkey were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Doolen Starkey from Dallas, and their cousin Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dysart from Amarillo.

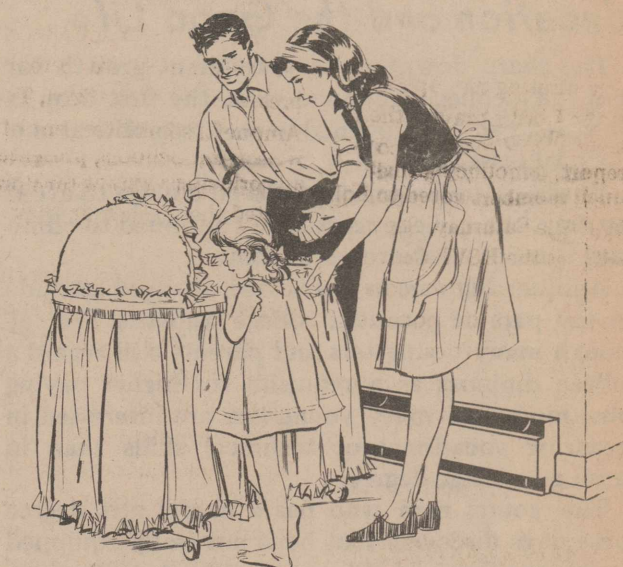

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Caison left Thursday morning for Port Aransas, where they will remain until about December. They spend part of each year at this fishing center.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Campbell, and Miss Besie Rainer are their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Massey, from Hugoton, Kansas.

Stir a little lemon juice and a lot of minced parsley into melted butter and serve with fish fillets that have been broiled.

Grapes Might Prove to Be A New Crop for This Area

Information released by the Texas Tech School of Agriculture recently calls the panhandle potentially one of the choice areas of the country for growing grapes.

It has long been known that grapes would do well in Collingsworth County, particularly in the sandy land areas. The content and type of soil is right. The growing season is hot and in most years sufficiently dry, and in the desirable areas irrigation is available.

Certainly a great deal of specialized knowledge would be necessary, but an area going into viticulture has several options open. There could be the wine and table grapes as in California and New York or table and canning grapes as in the Ozarks. Both are profitable to the grower who is knowledgeable and businesslike.

When we are hunting for another money crop, we might take a long look at this one.

Education and the Good Life

The sharp downturn in enrollment growth for next fall's college freshman class, the first drop in 10 years, can be explained in part by political and financial reasons.

Youngsters no longer need attend college to avoid the draft and college costs have continued to climb until it is out of the reach of some.

Another big reason has to be a changed attitude on the part of potential college students. For although many youngsters and parents still regard a college diploma as a requisite for higher paying jobs, more and more youngsters are interested in acquiring vocational or technical skills than in earning a college degree.

The young man who has a liberal arts degree these days discovers that he is not really equipped to do anything and if he wants to get a job where he can produce something, including a regular paycheck, he will have to learn how to do something.

In 1969, an impressive 50.3 percent of the college age population in the U.S. was enrolled in college and the institutions were bulging at the seams.

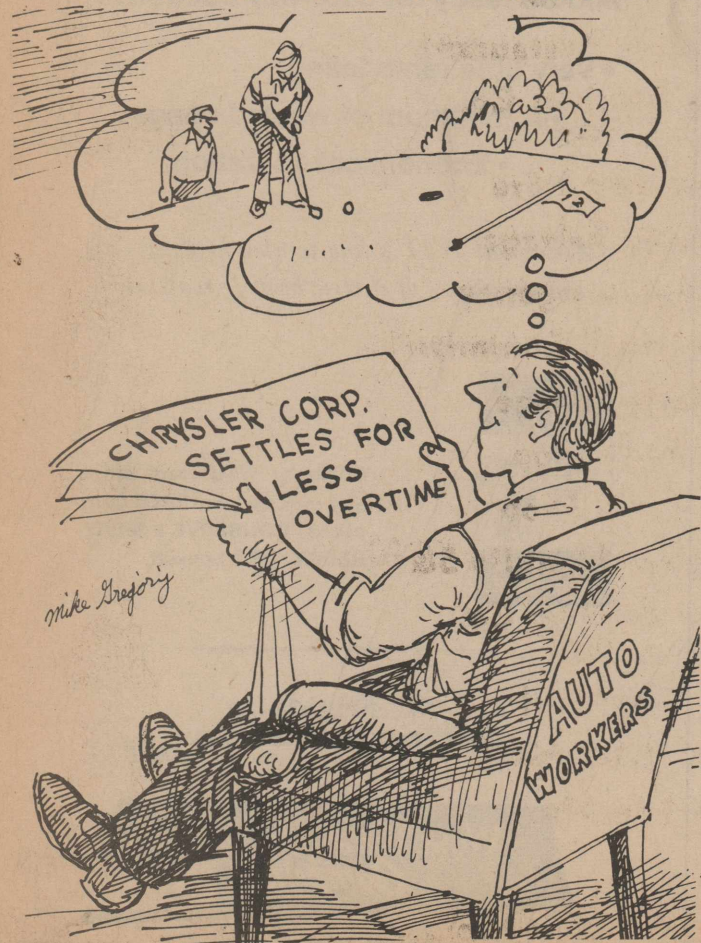

It was apparent in 1969 that there were far too many students clogging up the campuses who never really wanted to get educated, just needed a place to escape the draft and get out of circulation. This led to a lot of the unrest and hell raising and demonstrations that went on.

The Perryton school system is turning toward more emphasis upon vocational skills, courses that teach young men and women how to do things, how to learn job skills that employers are eager to pay money to secure.

There are a lot of ways to get educated. And as Will Rogers once said: "All of us are ignorant—just on different subjects."

— The Perryton Herold

Some Time For Leisure

AUSTIN, Tex. - New legislative sub-committee investigations of the amusement and vending machine industry have been ordered amid sensational (and disputed) allegations resulting from a 1968 probe.

Speaker Price Daniel Jr. named Rep. Arthur (Buddy) Temple of Diboll to head a House Consumer Affairs sub-panel inquiry into juke box operations and needed legislation in the field.

The sub-committee was instructed to work jointly with a Senate group headed by Sen. Ron Clower of Garland. Clower said his sub-committee will look into allegations the industry is linked to organized crime and that the regulatory state Amusement Machine Commission is dominated by big operators who do not protect customers.

Daniel said the air should be cleared of speculation, controversy and innuendo which have surrounded operation of the industry for years.

Meanwhile, Daniel unveiled some of the previously-secret records of a 1968 House investigation. Most controversial was a tape recording of testimony by Pete Martinez of Austin that he gave money to a state representative, a state senator (who is now dead) and a judge, on behalf of Raymond B. Williams of Dallas, a major amusement machine owner who previously served on the regulatory commission.

Williams has denied Martinez's testimony. Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir said Martinez, now serving a probated sentence for burglary, failed to satisfy a lie detector test that he was telling the truth and that he refused to repeat his charges to a district attorney or grand jury.

AID FOR RUNAWAYS - An experimental hot line for runaway youths to send word to their families is being installed through leadership of Gov. Dolph Briscoe and with cooperation of the telephone company and its employees.

Briscoe announced the facility, which he termed "Operation Peace-of-Mind," will be manned by volunteers for 30 days. The initial Houston office will have two statewide inbound Wide Area Telephone Service (WATS) lines, one national WATS line and three local lines in the city.

The Governor said the network will transmit messages from the runaways to their parents and friends and is not intended to "inform" on them. Volunteers will also tell the youthful wanderers where they can receive assistance anywhere in the state.

Number of the state WATS line is 1-800-392-3352. The national WATS number is 1-800-231-6946.

AG OPINIONS - Atty. Gen. John Hill ruled state game and fish funds may be used to erect artificial reefs on submerged lands of the continental shelf seaward of three marine league limits.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

An automatic, unmanned bank teller machine operating 24 hours a day seven days a week does not violate bank holiday laws.

Proposed plans for a Rapid Transit Authority must be furnished to the Governor's Interagency Transportation Council by the governing body of the principal city rather than by the authority governing body.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where Mr. Nixon's veto of minimum wage raiser didn't get an override from the House, and some youngsters will have to keep on working for $1.60 and experience.

Time was when working for little or no pay in order to learn how to be useful was common and worth more and cost less than tuition and board and room at some college.

And once it was thought proper for folks to work for what they are worth on a job, but nowadays it would be ridiculous to expect most of our politicians to work that cheap.

Waggoner Ranch Site of Brush, Range Field Day

VERNON -- A glimpse at one of Texas' historic ranches and latest research findings on brush and weed control will highlight the 1973 Statewide Brush Control and Range Improvement Field Day at Vernon on Thursday, Oct. 4.

A tour of major brush control work at the half-million acre W.T. Waggoner Ranch south of Vernon will be one phase of the day-long event.

"The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has conducted various brush research projects at Waggoner Ranch since 1941, and we are delighted that this fabled ranch is opening its doors for the 1973 field day," said Charles E. Fisher of Lubbock, Experiment Station scientist and general field day chairman.

The field day, held on a rotating basis across the state's vast rangeland area, serves as a report to ranchmen on the newest brush and weed control recommendations, regulations and a research-in-progress report, Fisher explained.

The Waggoner Ranch tour by air conditioned busses will depart from Wilbarger Memorial Auditorium in Vernon at 8 a.m. (full tour) and 9:30 a.m. (short tour), Fisher said.

After a Dutch treat luncheon, developments in brush control research will be covered in a 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. confab at the auditorium, including a ranchman's panel.

Dr. L.S. Pope, associate dean of agriculture at Texas A&M University, will serve as master of ceremonies.

"Waggoner's Ranch brush control work includes spraying 25,000 to 35,000 acres with herbicides annually, plus root plowing, chaining and grass reseeding," said Dick Yeager, farm manager.

The ranch was put together between 1890 and 1900 and operates today as a family-owned trust estate. John Riggs of Vernon is trustee and general manager.

Businessmen of the Vernon-Wichita Falls area are underwriting the Waggoner Ranch tour which is being planned for an expected 600 West Texas ranchers and their wives. There will be no charge for the 50-mile ranch tour.

The field day is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in cooperation with a large number of other agencies and commercial firms.

The ranch is not generally open to the public, and field day participants will have a rare opportunity indeed to view effective brush control on a truly grand scale, added Fisher.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf Sunday were two of her cousins, Miss Diane Walker and Miss Charlotte Walker of Amarillo. A Monday guest was his sister, Mrs. G.B. Morris of Crosbyton.

AT THE RITZ

Governor Sets Sept. 23-29 Highway Week

AUSTIN -- Terming the Texas highway system "the basic transportation resource in Texas," Governor Dolph Briscoe has designated September 23-29 as Highway Week in Texas.

The event coincides with National Highway week which this year is under the honorary chairmanship of television personality Lorne Greene. Theme of the observance is "Better Roads -- Better Living."

Speeches, highway dedications, open house and other special events activities at many Texas Highway Department facilities across the state are planned for the week.

The Governor singled out citizen support as an important factor in highway progress in Texas and noted that development has been a cooperative effort between all levels of government.

Highway progress in Texas has been made possible through an active partnership between Texans working through organizations such as the Texas Good Roads Association and the Texas Highway Department.

Highways are important in the movement of goods and people between cities. Equally important are the thousands of miles of urban highways, freeways and major arterial streets which have been developed cooperatively between all levels of government.

The travelways take most Texans to work, whether they drive their own cars or ride public transportation. And when work is done, they transport Texans and their visitors to recreation spots. They are essential to the health of business and industry. They are the carriers of police, fire and other emergency services.

Mrs. Patricia Bowden, of Dallas, came after her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Smith, and took them home with her. While they were here they also visited with three other children, Mrs. Tanya Herring of Dallas, Mrs. Billie Franklin of Duncanville, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith of Arlington. Mrs. Franklin and children brought them home this week end.

Cyclists Go To New Mexico State Rally

A group from the Wellington Cycle Club will leave Thursday evening, September 27, to attend the Second Annual New Mexico Cycle Rally in Ruidoso.

It will get under way Thursday, Sept. 27, and continue through Sunday, Sept. 30. Between 6,000 and 7,000 cyclists are expected.

A number of special events are scheduled, including races on Saturday.

Going from here will be Jack Needham, club president, and Wade Welch, Jimmy Reynolds, Lynn Derryberry and Boyd Derryberry. Joining them will be Red Caldwell of Clarendon and Hugh Wilson of Pampa.

Kennedy Gets FFA Nomination

A former Quail vocational ag instructor, Frank Kennedy of Vega, has been nominated to receive the Future Farmers of America Honorary American Farmer Degree.

He was nominated for the degree by the Texas FFA Association and the nomination was approved by the National FFA Board of Directors which met recently in Alexandria, Va.

After a long tenure at Quail, Mr. Kennedy became agriculture teacher at Vega High School 9 years ago.

LETTERS from the People

Enclosed is a check for The Leader for another year. We look forward to news from Collingsworth County each week.

We live on a ranch on the Crow Indian Reservation in Montana now. It is beautiful country and we are going to experience a different winter I'm sure. We have already had snow.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Kenneth Jett

THANKS FRIENDS

We would like to take this opportunity to say "Thank You" to all those who attended our Farm Sale Tuesday, Sept. 18. Without you, our Sale could not have been the success that it was.

We also want to thank each one who worked with us to get ready for the Sale; the Auctioneer, Mr. Cleatus Calloway, and his crew who did such a magnificent job in handling the Sale.

Since we are retiring from custom farming, we would like to say "Thank You" to all our farmer customers over the two years we were in business.

MR. AND MRS.
J.L. LANGLEY

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

FARMERS are being urged to go all out in their efforts to increase agricultural production of all food and fibre products. At the same time they are confronted with the irritating shortages of fuel, fertilizer and insecticides. They also find it difficult to obtain baler twine and baler wire. In addition there is increasing trouble in finding parts for old tractors and other farm machinery. Prices are unbelievably high for farm products; but the road ahead is not an easy one for the man who tills the soil.

CROPS look splendid now. If the prices hold up at anything like their present level, bank deposits should zoom to an all time high in Wellington by March of 1974.

CANDLER HAWKINS and I took a ride to look at the luxuriant crops Tuesday. He was impressed with the excellence of the fields of cotton and milo. His father was the Methodist Minister here from 1914 to 1918. Candler said that his father came near to buying the F.O. Masten farm from Peach Stewart one year. The price under discussion was $50 an acre.

FOR YEARS we have known that excessive noise causes deafness one example being farmers who ride tractors too long. Now comes Dr. David Glass of The University of Texas (that is the one in Austin) who says that children subjected to noisy surroundings have more difficulty in learning. When a child is unable to discriminate between basic speech sounds he has a hard time learning to associate those sounds with written symbols and therefore reading skills are impaired.

IF YOU think pollution is killing more people than diseases did formerly you need to read the insurance tables. An American baby born today will live 21 years longer than one born in 1900.

THE ANNUAL banquet of the Kiwanis Club held at the Hay Camp Country Club turned out to be a colorful affair. Visitors from Pampa, Amarillo, Shamrock and Vega were impressed with the interesting setting in which the annual meeting was held. Early arrivals were there in time to see the wild turkeys going to roost in the trees east of the club house.

THE CLUB is having a family night every Thursday with an "all you can eat" special dinner served during the evening. They will also have a pre-game warmup each Friday evening with quick food service for those who intend to go to the game. They will also serve food after the game each week.

NOPE. Pete Nipper and Truett Holland are not interested in "sitting in the sun" to watch Texas play Tech. It is a night game.

Junior Class Names Officers

The Junior Class of Wellington High School had a class meeting on Friday, Sept. 21, and chose their officers, class favorites, and projects for the year.

Officers are: president, Lucy Sullivan; vice president, Betty Burba; secretary, Tanya Watson; treasurer, Della Shumate; reporter, Jeanie Ernest; favorites, Kelly Cook and Renee Mitchell.

Projects for the year include a powder puff football game, and a western supper.

JODY BURKE

Father Pat Burke Home From Ireland

Father Pat Burke, Priest of the Catholic Church here, returned last week-end from his annual visit to his family and friends in Europe.

Father Alex Francovic, who replaced Father Pat, left for his home in Arizona a few days previously.

Father Pat reported to the Leader office that the situation in Northern Ireland is worse than ever, with many people being shot every day, and explosions being heard all night long. He did not visit the trouble-spots this year, but confined himself to the peaceful Republic of Ireland in the south.

The Catholic Church schedule of Masses and other devotions will resume right away, with the children's Religion Classes beginning again Sunday, Sept. 30.

One different aspect to Father Pat's return to Texas this Fall was the fact that he was not alone. He brought a ten-year old Irish cousin with him, who will stay at the rectory for a while. The boy's name is Jody Burke, and this is his first visit to America. He already likes everything about Texas, and has acquired a new bicycle and a few new friends among the small boys in the neighborhood. His father, who hails from Thurles in County Tipperary, was a former lightweight boxer. Jody comes from a family of seven, having four sisters and two brothers. Father Pat says he will enjoy the company, and Jody will be a big help to him in his work around the house and church.

Pillars of Hercules
The Pillars of Hercules were not mountains, but the two opposite promontories, in Europe and in Africa, at the eastern end of the Strait of Gibraltar. Their modern names are Rock of Gibraltar and Jebel Musa.

Fifty-two in Red River Track Races Sunday

Competition was keen among the 52 riders at the motorcycle races Sunday, September 23, at Red River track south of Wellington.

The 125 cc class had 11 riders, and this many makes for an exciting race, reminded track owner C.A. Wilbur.

The special event for Sunday, October 7, will be a micro mini race, he added.

Winners this week were: Powder puff: first, Ronna Tyler of Childress; second, Teresa Cowan of Canadian; third, Sheryl Johnson of Hedley.

Mini man: first, Tom Johnson of Hedley; second, Mark Tarpley of Hollis; third, Robert Powell of Wellington; fourth, Ronna Tyler of Childress and fifth, Kenneth Hicks of Hereford.

100 cc: first, Jeffery Crawford, of Adrian; second, Tom Johnson of Hedley; third, Ronna Tyler of Childress; fourth, Mark Tarpley of Hollis and fifth, Mike Cummings of Wellington.

125 cc: first, Jerry Fisher of Vega; second, Auther Jones of Wellington; third, Danny Lane of Childress; fourth, Brent Hendershot of Amarillo; and fifth, Terrell Gray of Adrian.

175 cc: first, Jerry Fisher of Vega; second, Roy Hayes of Hollis; third, Jeffery Crawford of Adrian; fourth, Larry Edwards of Pampa; and fifth, Brent Hendershot of Amarillo.

250 cc: first, Fred Cowan of Canadian; second, Jerry Fisher of Vega; third, Henry Small; fourth, Charlie Keese of Hereford; and fifth, Jim Bragg.

Open class: first, John Wright of Canadian; second, Danny Arnold of Altus; third, Charlie Keese of Hereford; fourth Bill Hoover of Canadian; and fifth, Mike Sackett of Amarillo.

Bond Sales Total $6,184

Series E and H United States Savings Bond sales in Collingsworth county during the month of July totaled $6,184. Sales for the seven-month period were $82,754 for 83% of the 1973 goal of $100,000.

Sales in Texas during the month amounted to $17,185,499, while sales for the seven-month period totaled $137,169,781 with 63% of the yearly goal of $216.6 million goal achieved.

Green Discusses Book in Amarillo

The author of "Land of the Underground Rain: Irrigation of the Texas High Plains, 1910-1970," discussed his new book Sept. 20 in the Bivins Memorial Library.

Donald E. Green, whose book is the first complete history of irrigations on the Texas High Plains, will be speaking at 7:30 p.m.

"My interest in the history of water utilization is much older than my academic research," Green said. "I was born during the Dust Bowl and went through high school during the drought of the 1950's. In addition to those earlier experiences, I became interested in irrigation on the High Plains when I married a girl whose father and brother were irrigation farmers near Tulia. While a student, I worked on these farms one summer and became thoroughly acquainted with the day-by-day routines of pump irrigation.

Green's book published July 30 by the University of Texas Press, is a study of man's use and threatened exhaustion of the High Plains' most valuable natural resource - water. It covers three phases that characterized the movement toward irrigation.

In the period from 1910 to 1920, large-volume pumping plants first appeared in the region but were not generally successful. The second phase began as a response to the drought of the Dust Bowl and continued into the 1950s.

By 1959, irrigation had become an important aspect of the flourishing High Plains economy. The decade of the 1960s was characterized chiefly by a growing alarm over the declining ground water table, caused by massive pumping and by investigations of other water sources.

The author is a member of the faculty of the Department of History at Central State University in Oklahoma. Born in Wellington, most of his research for the book was done at the Southwest Collection at Texas Tech University.

Hollis Hosts Big Singing

Hollis is hosting a 15-county Singing Saturday night, September 29, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

It will continue through the day, beginning at 10:00 a.m., and closing at 4:00 p.m., according to Mrs. Roy Tisdale.

This event takes in the Wellington Gospel Singing.

A basket lunch will be served at noon.

The singing will be held at the Hollis Grade School Cafeteria.

Mrs. Simmons Dies Sept. 17

Mrs. Annie Ethel Simmons 79, of Hedley, died Monday, September 17, in Wellington Nursing Center, where she was a resident several months.

She was born at Hess, Oklahoma and had lived in Donley County since 1906. Her home was at Hedley after 1955.

Mr. Simmons preceded her in death in 1972.

She was a member of the Church of Christ, with Bright Newhouse, minister from Clarendon, officiating. Burial was in Rowe Cemetery, Hedley.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Levonia Messer of Quail; a sister, Mrs. O.S. Messer of Hedley; 5 granddaughters and 9 great grandchildren.

Rev. Boswell to Pastors Meeting

The Rev. James Boswell, pastor of First United Methodist Church, will attend the annual pastors conference, held annually for clergymen of the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences.

This year's conference will be at the Baptist Assembly at Gloria, New Mexico, Monday through Wednesday, October 1 through 3.

The overall theme will be "Emerging Styles of Pastoral Leadership," said Rev. Boswell. Keynote speakers will include the Rev. Lyle Schaller of New York and Dr. Jameson Jones, president of Iliff School of Theology, Denver, Colorado.

Artists Invited To Childress Fall Festival

Le Atelier Club of Childress has scheduled a Fall Festival of Arts at the Childress City Auditorium Friday through Sunday, October 19-21.

Classes will include landscapes, animals, still life, portraits and buildings, and mediums will be oils, water colors, pastels and graphics, according to Mildred Steed president of H.S. Black Abstractor, Inc.

There is a registration fee of $1.00 per entry, and out of town artists may register Saturday, October 20, from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m. A dutch lunch will be held at noon Saturday for exhibiting artists.

Collingsworth artists wishing more information may contact Mrs. Omer Johnsey, Box 828, Childress, Texas 79201.

Cubs March In Parade

Cub Scouts who marched in the Collingsworth County Fair earlier this month drew many fine comments, according to Mrs. James Herring, who works with the group.

The boys participating included:

Den 1: Jay Jones, Eddie Langford, Glenn Hamilton, Roy Mote, Eddie Trimble, Dru Lacy, Darren Hall and Scott Cochran.

Den 2: Windol Robbins, Jr., Brent Jones and Timmy Harris.

Webelos: Johnny Mote, Delmer Turner, Jr., Darryl Vernon, Timmy DeVoss, Jeffery Barnett, Jerry Lee, Steven Vassey and Darren Jones.
