

THE JUNCTION EAGLE

Volume XL.

Junction, Kimble County, Texas, Friday, April 27, 1922.

Number 1.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAS CALLED MEETING.

Monday night there was a good crowd at the Court House for a called meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. Numerous questions of interest were discussed but the principal object of the meeting was to discuss the Constitutional Amendment that is to be voted on by the people of Texas in July; explanations of which will be made in the near future. The park proposition was also discussed and a motion carried to have a committee make arrangements to present Kimble County's claims for a park site should the bill come before the Legislature.

A number of interesting talks were made by members, especially along the line of building and maintaining good roads. On account of leaving the town, Louis F. Boyle tendered his resignation as secretary, which was accepted.

The report of J. B. Randolph and L. F. Boyle, who represented the Chamber of Commerce at San Antonio, was read and commented on by Judge Randolph, and adopted by the members.

The report follows:
Junction, Texas, April 23, 1922, Chamber of Commerce of Kimble County, Texas.

Gentlemen:—
We, your committee, appointed to meet with the Chamber of Commerce of San Antonio, during the Fiesta week, beginning April 16th, for the purpose of discussing good roads and irrigation for Kimble County, respectfully submit the following:

On last Monday, April 16th, we met with the good roads committee of Texas, in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in San Antonio. A Mr. Wheeler, who occupies a very important position in the building of good roads in Texas, was there and made a very lengthy, interesting and instructive address, and in our opinion, is one of the best informed men in Texas today, in regard to the building and maintaining the highways and public roads of this State. Mr. Wheeler also imparted some very valuable information in reference to the proposed Constitutional amendment to be voted on by the people of Texas in July, next.

We were very favorably impressed with the information gathered from perfectly reliable sources in regard to the proposed amendment, in this, it is our opinion that every voter in Texas should inform themselves to the end that every person in our State would vote for the amendment.

The passing of the amendment will not in any way effect the taxes of the people, but will place the responsibility of building and maintaining the highways upon the State, rather than upon the Commissioners' Court of each county, and the Commissioners' Court will have the same revenue that they now have for the maintenance of all roads, to be expended upon other roads adjacent to our highways.

Mr. Wheeler informed us that the Federal Government had appropriated $32,000,000, to be used on the highways in Texas, in the near future, with a promise of more later, provided a guarantee can be made by our State that the roads built with Federal aid, will be kept up in a good state of repair, and this condition makes it necessary for the people to vote the amendment, hence the necessity of our Legislature submitting the question to the people; so it follows if the amendment carries, the State will be in a position thru its highway commission to make this promise, whereas, under present conditions the Commissioners' Courts of thinly settled or in poor counties, cannot make the promise or guarantee, for the simple reason they are not financially able to do so, and the result is that the State will lose our part of the Federal aid, and the Federal authorities have said as much.

We are sorry to report our failure to get a hearing before the irrigation committee; the Engineers were all called to Austin by Governor Noff on Tuesday, and notwithstanding our remaining until Saturday, there was no meeting on irrigation.

For the information and benefit of the public, we recommend the publication in the county paper of this report, together with a clipping from the San Antonio Express of the proceedings of the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Louis F. Boyle,
J. B. Randolph.

NEW LAW GOVERNING SHEEP DIPPING.

The 38th Legislature passed an act amending the Livestock Sanitary Law applying to sheep and cattle scabies. It provides that all sheep and cattle infected with scabies must be dipped.

The lime and sulphur dip and the nicotine and sulphur dip are the only dips recognized by the law for dipping sheep and cattle so infected, except where sheep and cattle are placed on a range known to be free from scabies, immediately after final dipping, when the nicotine dip alone is recognized.

The ascertaining of the presence of scabies infection or exposure thereto, shall be done by an authorized inspector of the Livestock Sanitary Commission, or by the Commissioners who shall have authority to enter any private premises in the State where sheep or cattle are kept or ranged and the owner or caretaker must gather the sheep, cattle, at the request of the inspector, on the range or on pens in such a manner as to allow the inspector to make a satisfactory inspection.

It is unlawful to move sheep or cattle so infected, in any manner on a public road, or on the land of another, or to ship by railway.

The law also provides that when quarantined sheep are shorn, that the shearing outfit, together with the clothing of the shearers, must be disinfected before moving from a quarantined premises.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION CALLED FOR MAY 19TH.

As shown elsewhere by the order for an election, there will be an election held in School District No. 1, for the purpose of voting $30,000 in bonds for the purpose of erecting and equipping a school building in said district. This election will be held on May 19th, at the Court House.

The Eagle has had nothing to say about the present school conditions, because we thought that the least that could be said until something definite could be done, was best. Why advertise our local troubles and shortcomings to the outside world?

Recently a bond issue was defeated by eleven votes. Subsequently a number of local citizens made an effort to raise the money for building and equipping a new school building by private subscription; their efforts failed and another election to vote bonds, has been called.

It has been our opinion that this community should build its school by private subscription if possible, and we think we subscribed liberally to that end, but it seems now there is no alternative. Who questions the fact that Junction needs a school building now and that it must have one that will adequately meet the present and future needs of the community? A town that fails to provide churches and schools for its citizens, is in a hopeless plight. Not only will it lose many prospective good citizens who will move there from time to time, but it will lose many of the better class of citizens already living in it.

Many people are inclined to criticize trustees, teachers, etc. These may be justified in their criticism, but the fact remains, that their criticism does not provide educational facilities for the children. How can you expect trustees, no matter how competent or how diligent, to get something from nothing; how can you expect good teachers to come here to teach, when the conditions are as they exist here?

When we have the necessary facilities, our trustees can secure the best teachers and we will have a satisfactory school. Until we provide this, they cannot do it.

The fact is that we must have adequate school facilities, and it appears there is only one way to get them; viz. to vote for the bonds on the 19th of May.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TAKE IMPORTANT CENSUS

The Kimble County Chamber of Commerce is sending out a letter and questionnaire to all heads of families and other property owners of the county, to secure valuable data, looking to the development and improvement of the county as a whole.

It is to the advantage of every citizen to fill out the blank at once. It has been more than three years since the Federal census was taken, and a good many changes have taken place since then. Also quite a number of items are listed in this questionnaire that cannot be secured from the Federal census. The information that these blanks will contain will be used only by the Chamber of Commerce in getting together data that it often needs. When the time comes for more elaborate surveys for irrigation developments, as is soon probable, or when it seems the proper time to present Kimble County's claim for a railroad, the information requested on the blanks sent out, will be necessary and of much benefit to every one in the county.

When you receive your blank, kindly fill it out as correctly as possible, and return it in the self addressed, stamped envelope that is furnished you. It will be very little trouble to you and be worth a great deal.

LOCAL CONCERN ADDS LINE OF HARDWARE.

The firm of Wahl Brothers & Jordan have added a hardware line to their general garage and repair business. The interior of the stone building has been remodeled and proper shelving, and other equipment has been provided, and a good part of the stock arrived last week and more is arriving this week.

A concrete sidewalk has recently been completed in front of their two buildings and an addition made to the garage work shop. In addition to E. A. Jordan, Alex and Edwin Wahl, former members of the firm, Chris Schraub is now a member and will have charge of the hardware end of the business.

Miss Maybelle Walton of London left the first of the week for Tyler, Texas, where she will enter the Tyler Commercial College. Miss Walton, who graduated from London high school two years ago, is well qualified to take up the commercial work and we hope for her a pleasant and profitable school term.

HIGHWAY AMENDMENT IS URGED BY SPEAKER.

Favorable action by the people of Texas in passing the highway amendment to the Texas Constitution will do more for the main highways and lateral roads of the State in the next few years than all the work that has been accomplished for the last decade, was the message of W. T. Wheeler, of Fort Worth, secretary and treasurer of the Texas Highway Association, in speaking before a good roads conference at the Chamber of Commerce Monday.

The proposed amendment will place the responsibility of building and maintaining the highways under the control of the State instead of having each county handle its own road problems. In some cases, such as Bexar, and other prosperous counties, the work is carried on skillfully. Mr. Wheeler said, but in small counties no attempt is made to link up a system of roads and keep them in repair.

Mr. Wheeler stated that the Federal Government has already expended $32,000,000 on the roads of Texas, but much of this money has been wasted by counties which refused to keep the roads that were built in proper repair. If the State cannot guarantee the Federal Government that the roads will be maintained, Mr. Wheeler warned, aid from the Government would be withdrawn.

At present the State has funds from the revenue made available by the new automobile and gasoline tax laws, it is said, but has no authority to build and maintain roads with this money. One feature of the amendment will be to place the responsibility of building roads directly with the State. In this way the State can make a promise to the Federal Government that they will maintain all roads in which the Federal Government funds are appropriated for such use.

During the coming year Texas will receive from the Government close to $2,000,000 to assist in building highways. But the maintenance of these subsidized State roads, Mr. Wheeler said, come first with the Government.

George Holmgren, chairman of the highway department of the Chamber of Commerce, had charge of the good roads meeting. Among the speakers were Augustus McClosky, Aaron Pancoast, L. D. Lewis, Fred Hightor, E. A. Pratt of Parsons, Kansas, and J. B. Randolph of Junction.

More than 50 prominent business men from San Antonio and Southwest Texas were present at the meeting.—San Antonio Express.

STATE RECOVERS LAND VALUED AT $1,000,000.

The Supreme Court Wednesday affirmed the judgment of the Third Court of Civil Appeals in the famous Capitol Land Syndicate case, which means that the State recovers 59,281 acres of land as excess over the 3,000,000 acres donated by Texas to the syndicate for the construction of the State Capitol over thirty years ago. This excess of land is said to be valued at approximately $1,000,000.

The case, which was instituted in the Fifty-third District Court of Travis County, was styled George Findlay et al. vs. the State of Texas. The State sued not only for the recovery of the excess of 3,000,000 acres, but also for a vacancy of approximately 70,000 acres, but the lower court held there was no vacancy but an excess of nearly 60,000 acres.

Any revenue raising measure merely brings to mind the old saying "borrowing from Peter to pay Paul. Would-be statesmen and ambitious politicians would have us believe they have in mind unlimited and hitherto unknown sources of wealth from which we can draw if we will only elect them and allow them to place their ideas on the statuette books in the form of tax laws.

Now the fact is, they have nothing new. They have nothing heretofore untaxed.

Place an intangible assets tax on corporations, and what is the result? Does the corporation pay it? No! The tax is added to the already large profits and 'Jones' pays it. Pass an amusement tax, and the price of admission is raised and Tom, Dick and Harry pay the tax when they attend
the shows.

These are simple examples
and are only two of the many that can be found.

Why find new things to tax?
Let's equalize the present taxes as best we can and look for ways to reduce the enormous expense of government instead.
If our officials would spend half the time in a study of economy that they spend seeking new means of revenue, we would have plenty of funds for operating the State's departments and institutions.

From the looks of things, the "dance 'o mania" will be the next new word to come into popular use. The daily press carries the account of a new dance-ing endurance record most every day. Fine! The one who sets a new endurance record for dance-ing deserves what? Why give space to publish the acts of would-be lunatics, and deny space for something useful to humanity? Why not start a working endurance contest? If the energy that is used in such foolish activities was directed along useful lines, we would have less talk of bad government, high prices and hard times.

That Kimble County is "on top of the world," so to speak,
is evidenced by the statements from people in every community who are of the opinion that we have brighter prospects now than at any time in the history of the county. Things are getting back to a substantial basis.
People know where they are,
and this year will see a great deal of improvements over the entire county.

AMERICAN LEGION SANATORIUM LEASE APPROVED

Austin, April 12.—Lease of the American Legion Memorial Sanatorium at Kerrville by the State of Texas to the United States Veterans' Bureau for the period beginning June 1, 1923, and ending June 30, 1924, with option of extending the lease to June 30, 1928, at an annual rental of $67,500, has been approved by Gen. F. T. Hines, director of the Veterans' Bureau, the Hospitalization Board of that bureau and by the President of the United States, according to a telegram received Thursday by S. B. Cowell, chairman of the State Board of Control. Chairman Cowell announced that the papers would be signed and every detail arranged for making the transfer on June 1st.

The rental is to be paid the State of Texas in equal monthly installments. The Board of Control estimates that this contract will save the State an annual expenditure of $300,000, which amount would be necessary for the support and maintenance of the institution. At this rate the rental from the Government in five years will pay for the construction of the entire sanatorium.

It is provided in the contract that full and absolute operation management and control of the sanatorium and the personnel undergoing hospitalization, during the term of the lease, shall be fixed in and remain in the Veterans' Bureau.

WANTED

A man for hard work and rapid promotion; a man who can find things to do without the help of a manager and three assistants.

A man who gets to work on time in the morning and does not imperil the lives of others in an attempt to be first out of the office at night.

A man who is neat in appearance and does not sulk if asked for an hour's overtime in emergencies.

A man who listens carefully when he is spoken to and asks only enough questions to insure the accurate carrying out of instructions.

A man who looks you straight in the eye and tells the truth every time.

A man who does not pity himself for having to work.

A man who is cheerful, courteous to everyone, and determined to "make good."

A man who does not make the same mistake twice, who is not a goody-goody, a prig or a cad, but who does the very best he knows how with every task entrusted to him.

This man is wanted everywhere. Age or lack of experience do not count. There isn't any limit, except in his own ambition, to the number or size of the jobs he can get. He is wanted in every big business from Maine to California.

Austin, April 16.—In compliance with an agreement with Col. Glenn S. Smith of the topographical branch of the United States Geological Survey, that the Board of Water Engineers make ten selections of reservoir sites by April 15, the following is the list of sites and their locations, and probable use of water:

Two sites on the Llano, near Junction. One on North Llano and one on South Llano. Flood control and irrigation.

Two sites on the Concho, on the South Concho just below the confluence of the South Concho and the Middle Concho, and on the North Concho near the town of Water Valley. Flood control, irrigation and city supply.

One site on the Bosque River near Waco. Flood control, irrigation and city supply.

Little River below the confluence of the Leon River, Lampasas River and the Salado River, in Bell County, below the town of Belton. Flood control and irrigation.

There are other possible sites on the Brazos, Sabine, Neches, Colorado, Navasota, Trinity, Devils, Pecos, Guadalupe and San Antonio Rivers that will be investigated. The work of inspection and selection of feasible sites will continue throughout the year or until every available site has been selected on all the streams of the State, according to a statement given out by the Board Monday.

Dallas, Ft. Worth, Greenville and Wylie are a few among the places the board expects to visit in the near future. The principle interests in these places are flood control, city water supply and irrigation.—Kerrville Mountain Sun.

Most anybody can tell a joke and raise a laugh these days; people are becoming very courteous.

DO YOU KNOW

THAT THE Poultry industry in the United States is bigger than the Cattle industry? And haven't you noticed that there is always a good demand for poultry at most all seasons of the year? Of course we realize that the present local facilities for handling large quantities of poultry is inadequate, but when the poultry production of the country is increased, the facilities for handling will be provided. LAST WEEK We urged the raising of more poultry on Kimble County farms and ranches, as a sideline, that will bring in extra dollars. We want you to take a few minutes and do some figuring; estimate the number of chickens and turkeys that you can raise on your place, without extra expense for feeding, and with only a little expense for providing housing room. Then estimate what this number will produce, considering a fair market; then there is the extra work that will be required; but when you have thought it out, you will find that the money you receive for this extra work will be equal to that which you receive for working with cattle or sheep, amount of time considered.

ON EVERY Farm in the country a few more turkeys and chickens can be profitably raised.
