Rain Covers Part Territory

A good rain fell over a large portion of the Loreine territory Sunday night and again late Monday evening. The rain Sunday night gave only light showers, but Monday the precipitation was heavy in some sections. In the Landers section, where very little rain has fallen this year, a good rain was reported, amounting in some places to five inches it is said. Only a light shower fell in town and several miles south of town.

The Landers and Silver communities have been dry all the year and very few good crops are to be found in these communities. It is hoped, however, that the rain Monday came in time for feed crops.

Crops in other sections of the territory, on the whole, are looking good and at the present time promise a fair yield.

URGES ADOPTION OF BOND AMENDMENT

Austin, Texas, August 1.—Federal funds to feed the destitute of Texas are flowing into the State at an average rate of about $1,500,000 a month, according to a report issued by Colonel Lawrence Westbrook, State Relief Administrator. The total since March, when the funds became available to the first of August was $7,380,170. The same report shows that 1,270,000 persons are now being fed wholly by this Federal money, and no other funds for their subsistence are available from any source.

The report shows that in March the State received $1,382,955; April, $1,472,405; May, $1,626,663; June $885,234; July, $2,042,920.

In May the legislature was hesitant about submitting the proposed amendment authorizing the issue of State bonds for relief and the Federal Relief Administrator immediately suspended payments to Texas. This brought the June disbursements down to about half the normal amount. After the proposed amendment was submitted by the legislature the payments were resumed on the assumption that the amendment will be adopted. Notice has been served on Texas that if the vote is against the amendment the flow of Federal funds will again and permanently be stopped.

At the election on August 26 the people do not actually vote on the bonds. They merely vote to amend the constitution to give the legislature power during the next two years only to issue bonds to match Federal aid. Under the present constitution the legislature is powerless to appropriate any public funds for relief purposes, regardless of how many people might be starving.

O. B. Wilson and family of Brownlee spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wilson.

New Store To Open Next Week

A new grocery store will be opened in Loreine the latter part of next week, according to announcement made this week. The store will be located in the Hamm building next to W. J. Coon's Store. A general stock of groceries will be carried.

O. has been living in Loreine for more than a year and was engaged in the restaurant business for a time, and later in the garage and blacksmith business, selling his interest a short time ago. His brother, V. H., just last week moved his family here from Houston, where he has been in business.

We welcome Fain Brothers and their new business enterprise to our city and bespeak for them a good business.

$16 PER CAPITA FOR ALL SCHOOLS

Austin.—Public school districts will receive a $16 per capita scholastic population from the state to aid in conducting schools for the 1933-34 term under the apportionment fixed by the State Board of Education here.

The apportionment is the same as that fixed for the 1932-33 term.

Of the $16, however, $6 remains unpaid this year. It is expected half of it will be paid by September 1, when the new fiscal year begins.

GOVERNMENT'S NEW SECURITY ISSUES OVERSUBSCRIBED

Washington, Aug. 1.—The Government's new $850,000,000 security issues, floated to help finance the recovery campaign, have been oversubscribed in less than a day.

The $500,000,000 of eight-year bonds and $350,000,000 of two-year notes were offered yesterday in denominations as small as $50 so as to encourage subscriptions by small investors.

"They are going very well and just the way they ought to," said Undersecretary of Treasury Acheson after receiving reports from banking centers. "We are certain of oversubscription."

The books are still open and the Treasury has assured that all subscriptions up to $10,000 will be allotted in full, regardless of the oversubscription.

ROSCOE SCHOOLS TO OPEN IN SEPT.

Roscoe.—September 4 or 11 will be the opening day of the fall school term here, members of the board of trustees have indicated.

Last year the term opened in August, but it was unsatisfactory and will not be used again.

More than 200 conversions and reclamations were reported, and 47 additions to the Methodist Church were reported in addition to quite a number who intend to join other churches.

The meeting was conducted by Rev. Frank M. Neal, evangelist of Amarillo, an able preacher of the gospel.

J. M. Bruce led the singing.

LIVESTOCK SHIPMENTS LESS THAN YEAR AGO

Austin, Texas, August 1.—Livestock shipments to Fort Worth and interstate points amounted to 3,980 cars during June, or about 3 per cent less than the 4,095 cars during the same month last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Cattle shipments were slightly larger than those of last year, while calf shipments were slightly smaller. On the other hand hog shipments were more than double those of June, 1932, while shipments of sheep were only about half as great.

For the first six months shipments of all classes combined totaled 29,618 cars, against 26,633 cars during the corresponding period last year, an increase of 11 per cent. Shipments of cattle for the entire period increased 4 per cent, calves 31 per cent, hogs more than 100 per cent, while sheep decreased 14 per cent.

"Shipments of sheep to the Ft. Worth market were only about 40 per cent as large as in June last year, while hog shipments to this market from Texas points were almost three times as great as those a year ago," the Bureau's report said.

"Normally, shipments of sheep to Fort Worth during the spring months greatly exceed those to out of State points, while in the fall, the reverse is true. During June this year, however, shipments to out of State points were comparatively close to those to Fort Worth and were a little larger than a year ago. A marked increase occurred in shipments of sheep to Chicago while an equally sharp decline occurred in shipments to Kansas City and Oklahoma City.

"Los Angeles received a considerably larger number of Texas cattle and hogs which was partly offset by a smaller number of calves and sheep, but the total shipments to this market were about 13 per cent greater than in June last year.

"The method of transporting livestock to the Fort Worth market has undergone a radical change during the past year. In June, 1932, rail shipments constituted 72 per cent and truck 28 per cent of the total, while in June of the current year the proportion by rail was 36 per cent and by truck 64 per cent. Whereas, last year in June the number of cattle shipped to Fort Worth by rail and by truck was about equal this year, twice as many were shipped by rail as by truck. Last year only about half as many calves were transported by truck while this year three times as many were shipped by truck as compared with rail. A year ago the number of hogs shipped by truck and rail was about equal while this year almost twice as many came by truck. Half as many sheep came by truck last year while this year truck shipments exceeded rail shipments by about two-thirds.

"Considerable change is to be noted in the relative number of livestock shipped from the various districts of the State in comparison with June last year. For example, in contrast with other Business men of Loreine, although not directly affected at this time, voted unanimously Tuesday to accept the terms of the blanket code presented by the President under the National Recovery Act. Loreine merchants are 100 per cent behind the President in his efforts to restore prosperity, and they are willing to make some sacrifices to help put the program over.

Meetings for different lines of business are being held this week to work out store hours to conform with the agreement Barbers so far are the only ones to announce their hours. They will open at 8 a. m. and close at 6 p. m. during the week and on Saturday the opening hour will be 8 a. m. and the closing hour 9 p. m. Grocery merchants set their hours at 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. and 7 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. on Saturday.

Every merchant who is displaying an N. R. A. Blue Eagle has signed an agreement with the President to conform to the blanket code which places a maximum work week of 40 hours for employees and an increase in salary in effect now. He also agrees to not lessen his store hours, and if necessary to employ more help to take care of his trade.

Other lines of business will probably be ready to announce their policy next week.

Mrs. S. B. Smith of Henderson, Tennessee, is expected to arrive the last of the week for a visit with her brother Alonzo Phillips.

J. E. Hammett of Slaton is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. O. Kinnison this week.

HICKMAN PRICE LAND SALE OFF

Amarillo, Aug. 2.—The auction of Hickman Price lands in Swisher county to satisfy creditors was halted shortly before sale time yesterday.

Attorneys for Price and the two loan companies who held judgments against Price for $122,000 reached an agreement which, it is understood would stay the sale of the lands for another year.

Price came to Amarillo to aid in saving his lands from the auction block.

J. D. Gamble, deputy United States marshal who would have conducted the sale, called the sheriff at Tulsa at 2 p. m., just at sale time, and announced that the auction would not be held. More than 7,000 acres of Price's industrial farming domain was involved. The land, which Price inherited, was the nucleus for his 22,000 acre wheat project in 1931 when he produced 500,000 bushels of wheat.

Price, who gave up a job as a film company executive to try his hand at industrial farming, turned his properties over to creditors a year ago.

JOB-SELLING BEING PROBED

Fort Worth.—The Tarrant county grand jury next week will begin an investigation in an alleged state job-selling scheme which state rangers say three men have used to fleece victims out of $25 to $75 each.

Announcement of the investigation was made Saturday by Assistant District Attorney Dawson Davis, who said ten witnesses of some of the victims will be called before the jury.

State rangers under Captain Odneal have been investigating for several weeks, Davis said. The alleged job sellers represented themselves as agents of the Ferguson administration, Davis said their representation was entirely spurious.

parts of the State there was a marked increase in the number of cattle and calves shipped from the southern high plains and Trans-Pecos country compared with a year ago. This fact probably reflects the shortage of range feed on account of the prolonged drought."

PLOWING UP THE COTTON

A new thing has happened under the sun—a strange thing. We went out among the farms this week and saw the farmers plowing up their cotton. On almost every farm, a man with team and plow is going through the fields like a destroying angel plowing up that which he had planted scarcely two months ago. The stunted little plants in the dry sections and the fine, thrifty plants in the areas where the rain has been abundant are falling alike before the deadly plowshare. Fields that were green and beautiful with growing crops yesterday are bleak and barren today.

And all this is being done at the behest of the Government. Yes, the Government is paying the farmers to do it.

Nothing like this has ever happened before in the history of man. Oftentimes the crops of a people have been destroyed by the vandal hands of invading enemy. Oftentimes they have been destroyed by storm or drouth or some devastating insect. But never before has the world beheld a people deliberately destroying their own crops.

Some of the crops that are being destroyed are not very promising, and the owners of these feel that they are being given a distinct bargain. But many of the crops are as fine and promising as ever grew on these rich plains soils, and it is with a sickening thud that the owners of these fields begin their work of devastation.

Yet, strange and unique as this procedure is, contrary to common sense and to the emotions of the heart as it may seem to be, yet a calm reflection of existing conditions teaches us that, for the people of the South and of the nation, it is the wisest and best thing to be done.

A curtailment of one-fourth of the yield is calculated to double the price of the product. Farmers who are destroying a portion of their crops will probably receive for the remaining portion greater returns in dollars and cents than they would have received for the entire crop had none of it been destroyed. In addition to these returns, they will have the vast sums of money that the Government is paying them to destroy a large per cent of their acreage. Those who accepted the option plan will also reap handsome profits, no doubt, from the cotton bought from the Government. The burden of these expenditures will again have become fairly prosperous. The prosperity of the Southern farmer is the basis of all prosperity in the South. With money in his pockets, he will begin paying up his debts and buying the needful things which for so long he has denied himself and his family. When he begins buying liberally, business will pick up. There will be a demand for more manufactured goods, a demand for more raw material, a demand for more factory hands, a demand for more laborers in the transportation of the raw materials and the manufactured products, a demand for more clerks in the stores—a general revival of business and industrial activity.

So, this work of destruction and devastation would appear to be in fact a work of construction and recovery. We truly hope that it proves to be so.

But, we hope that never again will it be necessary for farmers to go into their fields and destroy that which is necessary to clothe the world—never, at least, as long as there are millions of ragged children and countless numbers of despairing fathers and mothers throughout the nations of the earth.—Lynn County News, Tahoka.

West Texas News
In Small DosesBEER IS TAKEN
WEST OF TOWN

Beer—ice cold beer—was plentiful at a dance west of town Saturday night, until Sheriff S. H. Newman and Deputy Sid Bruton rolled into the yard.

Riley Appleton was caught in the beer selling act, the officers say, and was promptly taken in tow despite his desire to run to parts unknown.

Riley's car contained about 100 bottles of ice cold beer, which he was selling to all comers to the dance.

A vagrancy charge was filed against the beer salesman, and he paid a fine of $17.50 in cash. Officers will tell you that a jury can not be obtained that will "stick" a liquor law violator. The only course remaining for them is to tack on a vagrancy charge, collect from the offender, and turn him loose. . . . to sell more beer, perhaps. —Scurry County Times.

PRAIRIE FIRES MENACE TO RANCHMEN

With the extremely dry conditions of the ranges over Shackelford county, the danger of prairie fires is proving a real danger to ranchmen.

Tuesday evening about dusk fire was discovered on the Merriek Davis ranch over in the valley west of the ranch home. The quick action of the men on the ranch and nearby, probably saved many acres of fine grass from being burned off. A telephone call to town had ten car loads of men on the scene in a very short time, prepared to meet the emergency. About 35 acres of grass was destroyed.

Grass is very rank on many of the ranches, some of it knee high for miles around, and in such a dry condition that the least bit of carelessness in throwing out lighted matches and cigarettes might cause the loss of thousands of acres of grass, with the probability of danger to stock and buildings even greater. The public is warned to take every precaution against fire hazards.—Albany News.

TOT GOES TO JAIL WITH MOTHER AND HAS SWELL TIME

The county jail house, in the opinion of a recent five-year-old "boarder," isn't such a bad place, after all.

The youngest inmate ever to go behind the bars here wasn't a prisoner at all. His mother, however, was "nabbed" by beer raiders Saturday. Her fine was $14 and she couldn't pay it all. She was confined in jail for three days and, there being no other place for her child to go, he accompanied his mother to her cell.

The youngster was given his meals, and got special attention from the jailer and jail inmates who kept him royally entertained for the three days.

The woman was arrested when raiders found a quantity of beer at her address on Ash street. —Nolan County News.

TWO WOMEN KILL
SNAKE IN BEDROOM

Some women might throw up their hands and scream if they found a four-foot snake in their bedroom, but Mrs. Lola Haynes of this city armed herself with a hoe and a board and proceeded to kill it. She then carried it around over the city for exhibition purposes.

Mrs. Haynes, who lives at 413 S. Mulberry Street, discovered the snake, termed by some as a prairie runner or coachwhip, running along the wall of her bedroom Tuesday morning of this week.

Seeing it go under the dresser, she called a neighbor, Mrs. Bill Hassen. Mrs. Hassen held the reptile with a hoe while Mrs. Haynes, armed with a board, engaged it in a duel. The snake was the loser.—Eastland Weekly Record.

REPORT PROGRESS
ON HIGHWAY 9

The Texas Highway Commission Tuesday announced construction projects planned from the Federal Recovery funds for nine counties, contracts to be advertised for letting about August 7. It is estimated that the work will cost about $625,000.

Among the projects is included 17 miles of grading and drainage structures on highway No. 9 in Dawson county from Lamesa to the Lynn county line.

County Judge W. E. Smith advises that practically all of the right-of-way for highway No. 9 has been procured through Lynn county.—Lynn County News.

PLAN FOR LOCATING
COLORADO 'PUT OFF'

Announcement made last week that Colorado would become possessor of a radio broadcasting station within the next few days have failed to materialize. Outside interests, here a week ago, announced that such an enterprise was being brought to town.

Mayor J. A. Sadler stated Monday morning that information coming to him indicated the promoters planned purchase of station equipment at Sweetwater, but that the property had been required by other interests. Those interested announce that the station may be placed into commission sometime during next month.—Colorado Record.

Your Lowest Priced Domestic Servant

PRICES are going up. So say the newspapers and business experts. . . . so say the price tags in the stores. Food, clothing, commodities in general, are moving steadily to higher levels to meet changing conditions.

But Natural Gas Service, always your lowest priced domestic servant considering the value received, remains at its same modest price level. Instead of advancing to keep pace with other costs, it now becomes by comparison an even greater value than before.

Yes, you can still cook a dinner for three people, make 33 cups of coffee, or operate a gas refrigerator from 8 to 10 hours for a gas cost of only ONE CENT, for each of these operations, because Natural Gas Service remains your lowest priced domestic servant!

SWEETWATER
MONDAY AUGUST 7

at the Blue Bonnet Hotel From 10 A.M. to 4 P. M. Please come early.

Any rupture allowed to protrude is dangerous, weakening the whole system. It often causes stomach trouble, gas and back-pains.

My "Perfect Retention Shields" will hold rupture under any condition of work and contract the opening in a short time.

Do not submit to avoidable operations and wear trusses that will enlarge the opening. Many satisfied clients in this community. No mail order.
