Blasts, Fire Rip Santo Domingo

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Explosions rocked military ammunition dumps across the Ozama River from Santo Domingo through the night.

Officials said four persons were killed and 112 wounded.

Flames set by the blasts still raged today, preventing firemen, troops and police from getting close to the dumps.

The explosions caused damage in the city.

Donald Reid Cabral of the government junta said three and possibly five dumps at the army's 27th of February barracks were destroyed. He said investigators were trying to determine the cause. There was an unofficial report the blasts were started by fire in a powder magazine.

Persons in the area heard several carbine shots just before the first explosion. It was believed these were fired by sentries giving the alarm for the fire.

The government put all hospitals and private clinics in the capital on an emergency footing.

U.S. Ambassador William Bennett visited the government house and it was understood he offered help in relief work.

US Couple Get Fill Of Communism

NEW YORK (AP) — Disenchanted and broke, Morris and Mollie Block have returned home after five years in the Soviet Union, where they had gone to find a better life.

The couple told of loneliness, poverty and lack of freedom in Odessa. They spoke to newsmen at Kennedy Airport. With them was their adopted daughter, Joanna, 13.

"We would never return to that hell," said Block, 43.

Asked when she became disillusioned with the Communist system, Mrs. Block, 52, said: "It took me three months. It took my husband two years."

"Socialism as expounded by Karl Marx has been completely prostituted in the Soviet Union," she said.

The couple said they left the Soviet Union because "of the lack of freedom, poverty and intimidation of the people."

Their combined income of about $184 a month wasn't enough, they said. Block was a machinist; his wife a laboratory assistant in a clinic.

The couple did not renounce their U.S. citizenship. Mrs. Block said she had been a Communist before going to the Soviet Union, but never joined the party there because Soviet citizenship was required.

The family arrived with about $1.10. They said they had sold most of their belongings and borrowed money to pay the plane fare home.

"It's a real joke," said Mrs. Block. "After 2½ years of trying to get exit visas they gave us 12 days to get out. We were expelled."

She said they were falsely charged with distributing Communist Chinese propaganda.

BenJack Cage May Be Returned

DALLAS (AP) — Convicted embezzler BanJack Cage may be brought back to Texas from Brazil soon to serve a 10-year prison term, Dallas Dist. Atty. Henry Wade says.

Wade cited an extradition treaty between Brazil and the United States that was approved by the Brazilian Senate June 4.

"In our opinion, the treaty covers Cage and under its provisions we can get him extradicted," the district attorney said Thursday.

Wade said the treaty was passed by the U. S. Senate in 1961. He added that it would go into effect after ratification by both countries.

Cage fled the United States and went to Brazil after a Dallas jury convicted him in October 1957 of illegal financial dealings through the ICT Insurance Co. complex.

Scurry Area Gets More Showers

Thundershowers reappeared over Scurry County yesterday and last night, producing moisture ranging from less than a quarter of an inch to more than 1½ inches.

Heaviest rainfall reported over night was at Ira where 1.6 inches fell. The fall was particularly welcome there since earlier showers around Ira had been somewhat lighter than in other parts of the county.

Camp Springs got only .3 of an inch last night, but soaked up an inch during the day Thursday. The Thursday rainfall was estimated at 1½ inches a mile east of Camp Springs.

Good showers were reported at Lake J. B. Thomas. The gauge at the Snyder pump station at the dam logged .8 of an inch last night, while more than an inch fell at the Odessa-Big Spring pump station to the southwest.

Hermleigh had showers ranging up to .5 of an inch last night and the Fluvanna area received from .4 to .5 with heavier showers reported north of there.

In Snyder, a shower last night left .21 of an inch in the official gauge at the city water plant.

Scranton Has Hat In Ring

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania today announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination "to offer our party a choice."

The 46-year-old governor and former congressman has been saying for almost a year that he would accept only a "sincere and honest draft."

In an 11th-hour speech arranged only Thursday night for the Republican State Convention of Maryland, Scranton declared the Republican party "is in danger if we let an exclusion-minded minority dominate our platform and choose our candidates."

"I have come here to offer our party a choice. I reject the echo we have thus far been handed, the echo of fear, or reaction, the echo from the never-never land that puts our nation backward to a lesser place in the world of free men," he said.

Scranton's announcement puts him in direct opposition to Sen. Barry Goldwater, considered by many political experts to have the GOP nomination virtually sewed up.

The Pennsylvania governor joins a field of candidates including Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and former Minnesota Gov. Harold E. Stassen.

Scranton's speech ran 20 minutes.

"Can we in good conscience turn our backs on the century-old progressive history of our party?" Scranton asked.

"You and I know we cannot.

"I believe that as members of a party more than 100 years old we have no right to sell out to the modern expediencies of the easy answer, the fast draw, the quick solution."

Scranton said the party he represents was born in troubled times.

"I say that the true spirit of the Republican party today stands equally dedicated to preserving this nation from the dry-rot of phony liberalism or the slow death of blind reaction," he said.

Scranton took note of what he termed a pretention of some that the choice of a candidate has already been made before the convention in San Francisco.

"I say," he continued, "that we are going to San Francisco to hold a convention, not a coronation—and I hope you agree that we are not going there to hold a wake.

"A stand must be made, but the hour is late.

"We have waited dangerously long to call upon our party's conscience, upon its wisdom, upon its will.

"I come here to announce I am a candidate for the presidency of the United States.

"Let this be clearly understood: I am not entering this crusade for the privilege of presiding over a whipped minority.

"I need your help.

"I need the help of every Republican. We are reading no one out of our party. We welcome every hand and every heart that believes in the true Republican cause."

The first indication that Scranton had a change of heart came when sources close to the governor reported Thursday he would throw his hat into the ring in his Maryland speech.

W. Texas Areas Hit By Twisters

By The Associated Press

Twisters and high winds bearing crop-damaging hail pelted eastern New Mexico, the Texas South Plains, and parts of West Texas Thursday.

Four persons were hospitalized at Tulia, 75 miles north of Lubbock when a twister upset their trailer home. Joy Farmer, 13, was kept for observation while her relatives were released.

Winds up to 60 miles an hour and sheets of rain and hail raked Presidio, Pecos and Kermit late Thursday. As the storm moved northeastward, however, it lost most of its force and barely grazed Andrews, Midland, Monahans and Odessa.

Roofs of homes and businesses were ripped clear in Presidio between 7 and 8 p.m. School Supt. Oran Columbus estimated damage to the schools at more than $4,000. The 500 acres of cantaloupe in the normally arid area were badly damaged by wind, rain and hail officials described as the size of quail eggs.

Early estimates of damage in the South Plains was estimated at $50,000 but the amount could soar with later reports of livestock deaths and ruined crops.

The heaviest reported rain fell at Farwell with three inches recorded within 35 minutes. Clovis was deluged but no flooding was reported.

At Kermit, an inch and a half fell in 30 minutes—the first rain recorded since a one-inch fall last Thanksgiving.

Debris littered streets in Texico, N.M., near where the storm formed, and also in Bovina and Farwell. Rains of .67 of an inch were measured at the Wink airport and .25 at Monahans, with an undetermined amount at Andrews and the Midland-Odessa area.

Highway patrol and sheriff's officers pooled their units to evacuate 500 Girl Scouts when a cloudburst soaked their tent camp 15 miles northwest of Odessa late Thursday night.

The actual rain wasn't much —upwards of .25 of an inch—but it fell within a half hour to dampen the "roughing it" setup for the Scouts, all from the Midland and Odessa region.

Early today, a band of moderate rains interspersed with a few light thunderstorms moved over a wide section of North Texas. The area was along and 70 miles west of a line from Ardmore, Okla., to Gainesville, Decatur, Mineral Wells, and Stephenville and moving east.

The thunderstorms were concentrated west of Ardmore to 50 miles south of Wichita Falls.

Flights Over Laos Will Be Resumed

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Souvanna Phouma said today that U.S. reconnaissance flights over Central Laos will resume in the next day or two because "important movements" of Communist forces are under way there.

The flights were suspended Wednesday at Souvanna's request.

"Unfortunately," the premier told a news conference, "recent information reaching us shows that important movements of Pathet Lao and Vietminh troops are taking place in these (Communist - controlled) zones.

"The flights will therefore be continued and if the Pathet Lao want them to stop it is up to them to create the necessary conditions."

Reservoir's Waters Are Being Freed

WACO (AP) — Waters from Possum Kingdom Reservoir are being freed to beef up the flow of the Brazos River, now at a level too low to irrigate rice crops on the Texas coast.

A Brazos River Authority spokesman said 21,500 acre-feet of water will be released by June 18 at the request of South Texas Water Co. and Briscoe Irrigation Co.

Soviet Union Boasts Pact With E. Germany

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union and East Germany signed a friendship treaty today but avoided stirring up a major crisis with the West by stopping short of a World War II peace treaty.

Premier Khrushchev said the treaty would be an important contribution to "the peaceful regulation of the German question."

His announcement of the pact appeared couched in cautious terms.

But East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht, following the Soviet leader on the dais at a Kremlin meeting, said the treaty provides that East Germany and the Soviet Union will regard isolated West Berlin as "an independent political entity which in no way is part of the West German Federal Republic and to which the competence of the West German Federal Republic does not extend."

Ulbricht had argued for a peace treaty. Speaking prior to the signing, he said: "There is no other way of insuring peace now than by normalizing relations between the two German states, disarmament, and the signing of a peace treaty by the victor powers and the governments of the two German states."

The West German government refuses to talk with Ulbricht's regime and the major Western Allies of World War II decline to recognize it.

In Washington, London and Paris statements were issued before the treaty was signed saying the Western governments would continue to hold Moscow responsible for East Germany.

The statements were in response to Soviet advance warnings of the treaty, which apparently were given to avoid touching off a crisis through misunderstanding on what it contains.

The three Allied governments consulted on the development, agreed the new pact was not to be considered a peace treaty and therefore created no new critical situation.

The Soviet premier, his voice hoarse from speaking, said the treaty would be signed "in a few hours."

He said it reflected the desire of Socialist states to work together, and provided for noninterference in the affairs of one another. He spoke at a Soviet-German friendship meeting in the Kremlin.

"The unsettled German question can absolutely unexpectedly provoke a catastrophe. If we want to avoid it, sooner or later statesmen will have to muster enough courage to appraise soberly the really existing situation," he said.

"Formalization of the actually existing situation that has already taken shape is the only point in question. This would not demand any sacrifices or losses from either side."

The Soviet Union, East Germany and the other Communist countries have struggled and will struggle for a German peace settlement and normalization of the situation in West Berlin on this basis, he added.

At one point he digressed to accuse Communist China of wanting a world war in order to spread communism but depending on the Soviet Union to win the war.

"When we have a chance, we will use all our influence so there will be no war," Khrushchev declared.

A man would have to be insane to call for war in the time of nuclear weapons, he went on, saying that the bomb that destroyed Hiroshima is now considered a toy and who knows what a 100-megaton bomb would do?

Khrushchev said the United States claims it has enough nuclear weapons to kill each Russian three times. It also says, Khrushchev added, that the Soviet Union has enough nuclear weapons to kill each American once.

"We don't need any more than that," he commented as an audience of 6,000 laughed and applauded.

Stanton Woman Is Suffocated

STANTON, Tex. (AP)—A robber apparently put a plastic bag over the head of Mrs. W. S. McDonald, 82, and suffocated her in her small grocery store, police said today.

Her living quarters were at the back of the store and the body lay in her bed.

John Davis, a farmer, went to the store at about 6 a.m. Finding the front door open and the store untended, he summoned her son, Dan McDonald, whose home is near. The two men discovered the slaying.

Four superficial wounds were on the chest of the dead woman. Justice of Peace Martin Gibson ordered an autopsy. He estimated she died at 2 a.m.

Officers said the store presumably was robbed but they had not determined how much money was taken.

Mrs. McDonald had operated the store on the east side of town more than 20 years. Stanton is 18 miles east of Midland in West Texas.

Africans Given Life

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP)—The eight defendants in the South African sabotage trial escaped the death penalty today. All were sentenced to life imprisonment.

Death sentences given earlier to three opponents of South Africa's racial laws had caused a storm of protest abroad. The U.N. Security Council on Monday adopted a resolution appealing to the South African government not to execute the three and not to give death sentences to the eight who were convictd Thursday.

A ninth defendant in the trial was acquitted.

The eight men sentenced today included African national leaders Nelson Mandela and Walter Sisulu; Dennis Goldberg, a white civil engineer; four other Africans, and an Indian, Ahmed Kathrada.

New Flood Threat Seen In Montana

HELENA, Mont. (AP)— New flooding was a threat in Montana today.

Residents of Shelby, near the Canadian border, worked through the night sandbagging two large farm reservoirs.

Dams threatened to go out as the third and lowest dam in the reservoir chain did Thursday afternoon, flooding an area including about 300 Shelby homes. There were no injuries.

In southern Montana the Jefferson River, one of three major tributaries of the Missouri, was flooding its lowlands and had torn out at least one bridge.

Erhard, LBJ Discuss Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany flew into Washington today to review the German and Berlin problems with President Johnson in the light of the Soviet - East German friendship pact announced in Moscow earlier today.

Erhard declined immediate comment on the pact, saying "I must see the text first. I cannot make a political comment knowing only what the headlines say."

Responding to the welcome extended at Andrews Air Force Base by Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, Erhard said of his upcoming talks with Johnson:

"We have no concrete decisions to make, but it is opportune to draw a balance and coordinate our positions."

Also on hand at the airport was German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder who arrived Thursday and had two meetings with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

German diplomatic sources said that, contrary to some reports, the two foreign ministers did not come to any decision on what steps the two countries should take next.

Specifically, these sources said, there was no agreement on a joint U.S.-German appeal for a four-power conference on the German-Berlin issues.

This was one of the points raised at the Rusk - Schroeder meeting, one authoritative source said, but explained it was simply revival of the long-standing German proposal to have a permanent group, probably on the deputy foreign minister level, to review the issues.

TESTIFY AT ASSASSINATION PROBE—Marina, Lee Harvey Oswald's widow, and her attorney, William A. McKenzie, enter an elevator in Washington on their way to appear before the Warren Commission. Nixon Eyed As Possible Target

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Dallas News said Friday in a copyrighted story that Marina Oswald, widow of President John F. Kennedy's accused assassin, believes she talked her husband out of an assassination attempt on former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The story, was written by Hugh Aynesworth, Dallas News reporter after interviewing the young widow before she went to Washington for a second appearance before the Warren commission.

It continued:

"Oswald's widow also disclosed:

"That Oswald considered Edwin A. Walker an 'extremist' and believed he had done right last April 10 when he shot at the onetime army general.

"That she feels certain that Lee Harvey was the lone assassin who killed President Kennedy and wounded Gov. John Connally, but it was just because 'he wanted to be a big shot,' not because of hatred for Kennedy.

"The Nixon threat came last April or May, shortly before the Oswalds left for New Orleans to live.

Marina said she could not pinpoint the exact date, but said: " 'He came walking into the room, all dressed up and had a gun (a pistol) in his hand. I asked him what he was doing, where he was going.'

" 'I'm going to see Richard Nixon,' she quoted Oswald as saying.

"This was a few days after the attempt on Walker's life, and Marina figured what the word 'see' might mean, in view of her husband's actions of April 10.

"Marina said she was afraid and tried to get Lee to talk about it.

" 'We argued plenty,' Marina said, 'and he didn't go. I didn't know anything about Mr. Nixon. I don't know if he was in Dallas or where.'

"She added: 'It didn't matter to him who he killed. He just wanted to be popular.' She hesitated here, as she realized despite her limited English, that the word 'popular' was not the word she wanted to use."

Judy Garland Says Story Just A Gag

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —Intimates of singer Judy Garland and American actor Mark Herron greeted a report of their marriage "six or seven days ago" with the comment: "It's just a gag."

Miss Garland's publicity agent, Guy MacElwaine, told The Associated Press: "I know it's a gag because I know the senses of humor involved.

"Somebody probably threw them a line and they probably answered, 'Oh, sure, we're married. or maybe she just said, 'We want to be married.' It's just a gag."

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: With reference to the letter about why a man, who has a lady for a wife, will pick up a tramp and treat her like a lady, and then will turn around and treat his wife like a tramp:

Some time ago you stated in the confidential section of your column: "The worse a man's morals are, the better he wants his wife's to be." How do you reconcile the two answers?

MRS. A.

DEAR MRS. A.: A man whose morals are low wants his wife's morals to be high, but he prefers a tramp for a sweetheart because he has a feeling of worthlessness and inferiority with his wife — but not with the tramp. And because a man treats his wife like a tramp does not mean he wants her to behave like one. Married men who cheat with tramps have no desire to marry one. Comprende?

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am so unhappy, I hardly know where to start. I am a middle - aged woman employed as a cook, housekeeper, companion and chauffeur to the most selfish, heartless woman I have ever known. She expects me to eat leftovers that should go into the garbage can. She finds fault with everything I do. When she is going out I have to help her dress, which is a chore, because she tries on a dozen dresses before deciding what to wear, and I have to tell her how "beautiful" she looks in every one or she gets mad. On my day off she lays in bed watching TV all day, and I have to prepare all her meals and put them within her reach. She is not an invalid. She plays golf. When she goes out I have to stay up and dressed to let her in, lock up the house and undress her and put her clothes away. She is a millionairess, but she goes around the house in a quilted robe with the heat turned off to save fuel. Once she made a toll call for me and took 15c out of my wages. Jobs are not easy to find. What should I do?

MISERABLE

DEAR MISERABLE: If you remain with this woman, you do not deserve much sympathy. Jobs may not be "easy" to find, but if I were you I'd start looking for another one tomorrow. You could hardly do worse.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WANTS TO BE POPULAR": It is better to sit home for a few weeks — or months — than to date boys who want only a quick physical thrill. After they get what they want, the challenge is gone and you'll be sitting with a bad reputation and memories that will embarrass and burn. Get smart, and date only decent boys, or keep your nose in a good book. These are years for self - improvement — not self-destruction.

Cardinal Accused Of Malfeasance

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A priest accuses James Francis Cardinal McIntyre of gross malfeasance in office and says he has written the Pope asking for the cardinal's removal.

Rev. William H. DuBay accused the cardinal of failing to speak out on the racial question. Father DuBay first made the charge in Ramparts, a Catholic journal for laymen.

"Cardinal McIntyre can continue to say that there is no racial problem in his archdiocese," the article said. "an incredible statement. No one who is in touch, who reads, who knows what is going on could make it with a straight face."

In his letter to the Pope, Father DuBay said:

"His Eminence has insisted that the civil rights issue in California is a purely political one, into which the Church has no right to interfere. His policy is to limit the Church's activity in integration to her own institutions and to preaching of Catholic principles of justice and charity."

Father DuBay, whose parish in Compton, Calif., is predominately Negro, issued a written statement to news media Thursday, in which he regretted accusing his bishop publicly, but he said letters, petitions, phone calls and even sit-ins and pickets at the cardinal's office and residence had not moved the cardinal.

"It is clearly time for a priest to stick out his neck and share some of the hardships of laymen, ministers and rabbis in the battle for human justice and freedom," he said.

Edward M. Keating, publisher of Ramparts, publicly backed Father DuBay.

Bush Carried Most Texas Counties

DALLAS (AP)—A total of 121 counties favored Houston oilman George Bush over Jack Cox in last Saturday's republican runoff primary for the U. S. Senate nomination.

A check Thursday showed Cox won 75 of the remaining 133 counties, with the vote tied in three. Fifty-five counties did not vote in the GOP runoff.

Both Bush, making his first bid for political office, and Cox, a veteran campaigner, carried many of the counties they won in the May 2 primary.

Bush garnered wide margins of victory in Galveston, Midland, Smith, Harris and Victoria Counties. Cox scored heavy triumphs in Bell, Cooke, Hidalgo, Gregg and Rusk.

RUSSIANS SNUBBED

Romania Shows Signs Of Rift

By RICHARD O'REGAN

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP) —Bucharest streets with Russian names are getting new ones. The Russin language is no longer compulsory in Romanian schools. Soviet book stores and institutes are being closed or renamed.

There are hints of bitterness between Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Romani's longtime Communist leader, Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej.

Since Romania signed an agreement last week to trade more with the United States, there has been increasing speculation in the West that Romania may be moving away from the Communist bloc. Cautious Western diplomats in Bucharest believe Romania won't break away from the Soviet Union and other Communist countries—or follow the Yugoslav model. But they say that disagreements are tenser than at any time since Romania became Communist in 1947.

Romania probably is the richest of all East European Communist countries in raw materials. She has Europe's largest oil production outside the Soviet Union, and gold, bauxite, extensive wood supplies, methane gas, water power, uranium ore and salt.

For years, most of these raw materials went to other Communist countries.

In 1960 Gheorghiu-Dej decided on a large-scale plan of industrialization. Because Romanians could not get the first-class equipment from the Soviet bloc, they started trading their products in the West, and began buying industrial plants in West Germany, Britain, France and Italy.

Romania's rapid industrialization and its increasing Western trade has not pleased Khrushchev. Since 1962, he has been trying to persuade the Romanians to come back fully into the Communist camp and integrate their economy with Comecon—economic organization of East European states.

South Gives Up On Changing Bill

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern foes of the civil rights bill have virtually abandoned hope of winning adoption of any additional amendments of consequence.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the Dixie forces, said today that the bill's supporters evidently are not going to take any more amendments.

This was confirmed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., the bill's floor manage,. He said in a separate interview that there might be some technical changes but nothing of substance.

"I don't think we have much chance on any of our amendments," Russell said, but he added that the Southerners will continue to offer them to put the Senate on record, even if they get only 20 to 30 votes.

"This is bad legislation, and we are going to givethose who are pressing this cup to our lips a chance to make a record," said Russell.

A Southern filibuster against the House-passed bill was shut off Wednesday when the Senate voted 71 to 29 to put its debate-limiting cloture rule into effect. Under this each senator has only one hour to speak on the bill and all amendments.

The Senate acted on 16 amendments Thursday, rejecting all of those not acceptable to the leadership. Humphrey called it "a great day" that encouraged him to believe the bill might be passed even before the end of next week.

"I think we will comeout of this pretty much with the package bill we now have," he said.

He was referring to the package of amendments drafted by leaders of both parties and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as a substitute for the House bill.

Stalin Poisoned Lenin?

THE LIFE AND DEATH OF LENIN. By Robert Payne.

All the talents of Edgar Allan Poe, Alfred Hitchcock and Charles Addams couldn't produce a more chilling tale than the one which unfolds in this 640-page biography of Vladimir Ilyich Lenin.

Fraud, murder, pillage, hypocracy, even genocide appear throughout this lengthy - yet - readable volume, one of three Lenin biographies published almost simultaneously (the others: Stefan T. Possony's "Lenin: The Compulsive Revolutionary," published April 30 by Regnery, and Louis Fischer's "The Life of Lenin," to be published June 12 by Harper's).

The coincidence is readily explainable: 1964 is the 40th anniversary of Lenin's death. And the circumstances of that death probably are the most controversial thing about Payne's book.

Payne says flatly that Stalin had Lenin poisoned, thereby clearing the way for the 30 - year rule in which the onetime seminarian from Georgia wrote a history far more bloody and tyrannical than any of the czars.

The belief that Lenin died from a cerebral hemorrhage has been prevalent, and Payne concedes at the outset that one of his main purposes is to set the record straight. Other legends which he demolishes along the way include those of Lenin's heritage ("he was German, Swedish and Chuvash," and there was not a drop of Russian blood in him"), his poverty (". . . since his monthly income amounted to 150 rubles per month he was probably the wealthiest person in the village"), his humility (he did not hesitate to cite his hereditary nobility and "he had the aristocrat's contempt for the mob"), his devotion to Marxism (". . . in fact he hammered and bent Marx to his own will. . . jettisoning him whenever it served his purpose"), his asceticism and scholarship ("like other men, had mistresses, and he was not always the detached scholar"), his humanity ("he could decree the deaths of thousands upon thousands of men, and their deaths were immaterial, because they were only statistics impeding the progress of his theory").

For the serious reader — and few would tackle such a book casually — Payne has added a chronology, bibliography, index and chapter notes.

Heat canned cream-style corn, then stir in a generous amount of ripe olives (cut from pits in large pieces). Top with scarlet strips of pimiento and serve with fried chicken.

Scranton Announcement May Confuse Picture More

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania does today what he seems ready to do—tell the country that he will seek the Republican presidential nomination—it will be just one more twist in an already unforgettable week.

And if the public is no less confused after he does, the prime movers in the Republican party—Scranton not excluded—will have to share the blame.

For while Sen. Barry Goldwater was emerging as the GOP's only aggressive leader, they were looking more like caretakers than captains. They were sitting back, doing nothing, saying nothing now that New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, the only top Republican willing to stick his neck out against Goldwater, seemed at the end of the line although he says he is still in the running.

While Goldwater and Rockefeller were slugging it out in the primaries, there was always the fine chance the two would knock each other out of all consideration before the Republican nominating convention in July. That would leave the field wide open to those would - be presidents who said they'd accept the nomination but would not fight for it.

After Goldwater's California primary victory all but sewed up the nomination for him, they began to wring their hands. They showed concern for the nation and the party but never enough to really do anything about it.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was also concerned but he didn't show any more leadership than the others. He told The Associated Press Thursday his main concern is in seeing an open convention and a platform and ticket that would build the party to its maximum strength.

He didn't hide his reservations about some aspects of Goldwater's conservative philosophy but, as he put it, he wants to be in a position to pick up the pieces after the convention and help unite the party behind its nominee.

He had said he wouldn't interfere in the selection of a candidate but before the Governors' Conference opened in Clevland this week he called Scranton and nudged him toward some activity.

Scranton had said he would not seek the nomination but would accept it if drafted. Eisenhower suggested he not be so rigid about waiting to be drafted.

Of all the Republican leaders, Scranton put on the most indecisive and confusing performance. He said one time he could run for the vice presidency on Goldwater's ticket and indicated their views on issues weren't too far apart.

Gov. George Romney of Michigan said he'd do everything in his power to stop Goldwater but when former Vice President Richard M. Nixon suggested that Romney actively seek the nomination in opposition to Goldwater, Romney wouldn't.

But Nixon who would like the nomination, but says he isn't a candidate, explained that in urging Romney to oppose Goldwater he wasn't really trying to start a stop-Goldwater move although it might have that effect.

There was always the chance of course, that if Romney and Goldwater fought each other until the convention got deadlocked on them, Nixon might have a chance, perhaps his best and only chance, to be picked finally as a compromise candidate.

Nixon said Scranton would be a good vice-presidential running mate for Goldwater, a view which, if it caught on, might erase Scranton from the convention's mind as a presidential candidate at all.

Scranton repaid the compliment by suggesting that Nixon, who had been vice president eight years under Eisenhower, would be just the man to run for the vice presidency again.

If all this adds up to some kind of political chaos, that is what it was. Goldwater? All he had to do was sit back and watch the spectacle.

Wife-Waiting Inescapable Fact Of Life

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals for every husband is wife-waiting.

Earning a living for a wife, a fellow finds out, is one of the easier things about marriage. It takes only about eight hours a day.

This leaves a man 16 full hours for wife-waiting and other such essential chores as sleeping, shaving, eating, walking the dog and obeying his children.

There are several kinds of wife - waiting, but they break down into four general classes:

Waiting for her to make up her mind, get to the point, to shut up after she does get to the point, and to get dressed so you can go somewhere together.

Getting ready is no problem to him. All he has to do is wash his face, put on a clean shirt, look in a mirror and say, "Oh, you handsome, money - making devil, you." Then he could be off at a gallop—if it weren't for that little problem of waiting for his wife.

Wives are a terrible lot of trouble to themselves. They never have anything to wear, they claim, but they always manage to summon up a different wardrobe for every possible function.

Whatever the occasion, she has to outfit herself in a different manner. While she is putting on this, taking off that, then changing into something else, her husband is fuming himself into a state of high blood pressure.

Some husbands try to do something about it.

"Why does it always take you so long to get dressed?" they demand peevishly. Then their own ears are bent for the next few hours.

No husband can point out a wife's fault to her without learning immediately of 612 major defects in his own character, some of which he never suspected.

Still other husbands try to improve themselves in some way while waiting for their wives. They take up hobbies, read long books or go next door and hold hands with a neighbor's wife.

One fellow took a correspondence course in ventriloquism during the long hours he had to spend while waiting for his wife to get dressed. He became quite expert at bird calls. He was accidentally shot during the quail season while imitating a bob white.

The most sensible attitude a husband can adopt toward wife-waiting is one of philosophic acceptance.

The problem of wife-waiting is pretty much like the problem of erosion: There isn't much any one man can do about it in his lifetime.

A Junior Editors Quiz About RECORDS

QUESTION: How can records record the sound and later reproduce it again?

• • •

ANSWER: The story of a record begins with a performer (1) singing, speaking, or playing an instrument (2) before a microphone (3). The sound waves entering the "mike" are changed into electrical impulses which are then made stronger in an amplifying tube (4) and affect a vibrating needle (5) which cuts grooves into a rotating wax disk. The grooves vary with the differences of the electrical impulses. The disk is the first record and many duplicates are made of stronger material; these are the records you buy. When you put one on your phonograph (6) its grooves vibrate the needle just as the cutting needle vibrated in (5). These vibrations are turned into electric signals and enlarged by an amplifying tube (7) and these impulses, working through an electromagnet, produce vibrations in the diaphragm of the loud speaker of your machine. These last vibrations create sound waves (8) which vibrate through the air and reach your ears, which in turn relay them to your brain. An immense amount of painstaking research and experiment had to be made before this complicated process was worked out. But the results are well worth it.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: The first records did not use electricity in the way we have described. Find out in what different way the sound was recorded.

Ken McBride Hits Jackpot As Reliefer

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

After laboring in vain for nearly two months, Ken McBride has gone on relief and hit the jackpot.

McBride, a 28-year-old right-hander, halted his 10-game losing streak as the Los Angeles Angels nipped Cleveland 5-4 in 12 innings Thursday night.

The one-time ace of the Angels' pitching staff beat Washington 4-0 on opening day, April 13, then lost 10 consecutive games in 12 more starts. His latest start—and defeat—was last Sunday.

Then, against the Indians Wednesday night, Manager Bill Rigney brought McBride in from the bullpen for his first relief appearance since April 19, 1962. He didn't give up a hit in 1 2-3 innings.

He relieved again Thursday night, coming on this time in a 4-4 game with two on and none out in the ninth inning. He got Vic Davalillo on a grounder and induced Leon Wagner to hit into a double play.

McBride pitched two more innings, allowing one hit, before leaving for pinchhitter Willie Smith in the 12th. Smith's single started the winning rally.

The season for McBride has been one of utter frustration. He won 13 games and lost 12 for the Angels last year and had a 3.26 earned-run average.

Elsewhere in the league, Baltimore defeated Chicago 3-1, New York whipped Boston 8-4 and Minnesota downed Detroit 4-2.

In the National League, Milwaukee edged San Francisco 6-5, Los Angeles blanked St. Louis 5-0, Chicago beat New York 6-3 and Houston got by Cincinnati 5-3.

After singling for McBride, Smith was forced at second by Tom Satriano. Ed Kirkpatrick's single and an intentional walk to Jim Fregosi moved Satriano to third from where he scored on Lou Clinton's sacrifice fly.

Dean Chance started for the Angels and ran his scoreless inning string to 28 before Bob Chance singled home two runs for the Indians in the sixth. Dick Howser's two-run single tied it in the ninth. Joe Adcock and Felix Torres each drove in two runs for Los Angeles.

A two-run homer by Brooks Robinson in the eighth carried the Orioles past the White Sox. The blow off Hoyt Wilhelm broke a 1-1 tie. Luis Aparicio homered for Baltimore in the sixth. Tom McCraw got Chicago off to a 1-0 lead in the first with a homer off Milt Pappas.

Mickey Mantle slammed two home runs and Roger Maris one for the Yankees. Mantle connected with one on in the fifth, then slugged his 10th homer with the bases empty in the seventh. Maris' 10th came in the third. All of the blows were off starter Bill Monbouquette.

Ed Bressoud and Felix Mantilla homered against Jim Bouton, who won his fourth game in nine decisions. Bouton doubled and scored in the fifth and belted a two-run single in the eighth.

Dick Stigman and reliever Garland Shifflett stopped Detroit on three hits as Earl Battey knocked across three runs. Shifflett pitched the ninth after Stigman walked leadoff batter Al Kaline. Bill Freehan and Don Demeter tagged Stigman for home runs in the fifth.

Battey slashed a run-scoring double in the third and smashed a two-run homer in the fourth.

Lewis No-Hits Cards; Athletics Win Over Yanks

Superb pitching was seen in Little League play Thursday night as the Cubs beat the Cardinals 6-0 on Ronnie Lewis' no-hitter and the Athletics won over the Yankees 4-0 on Brad Morgan's one-hitter.

The victory for the Cubs gave them the leadership in the tight National League with a 4-2 record. The Cardinals are a half-game behind with a 4-3 record, which is a virtual tie with the Braves who are 3-2.

Lewis faced only 20 batters, two above the minimum. He walked the first man he faced, Glenn Rambin, then retired the next 13 before Gordon Gray reached base on an error in the 5th. Lewis struck out 12 batters, two in every inning. Five of the strikeouts came with a 3-2 count on the batters.

Lewis also hlened his cause at the plate, getting a double and a homerun, a feat matched by teammate Phil Ator. Max Falls also doubled for the winners.

Pitcher Brad Morgan of the Athletics almost mached Lewis' feat as he limited the Yankees to one hit, a first-inning single to Jim Patrick. Morgan walked two and struck out 13 as the aAthletics continued their winning ways. They have won six while losing none. The Yankees now have a 3-4 record.

McGaha Replaces Lopat At KC

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mel McGaha takes over as manager of the Kansas City Athletics in the city where he first managed a major league club—Cleveland.

The A's fired Ed Lopat, former New York Yankee pitching star, Thursday, and immediately replaced him with the 37-year-old McGaha, coach with the club for a year.

The announcement Thursday by General Manager Pat Friday kept McGaha from going to Wilteville, Va., where he was to have reported in a few days as manager of the A's Rookie League farm club.

Lopat was stoic about being fired.

"It's standard procedure as far as baseball managers are concerned," he said. "It's easier to change the manager than to change five or 10 ball players."

McGaha, who flew here for a four-game series starting tonight, was asked about his plans for the Athletics, now in 10th place.

"Nothing drastic," he replied. "I intend to put the nine best men available on the field."

McGaha, whose rookie season as a major league manager was in Cleveland in 1962, said he may use starters as relievers. He did that as Cleveland manager and was criticized for it.

Lopat, a coach for the A's in 1962, took over as manager on the last day of the season when Hank Bauer stepped down. Last season the club had a 73-89 record. So far this season it is 17-35.

Lopat whose contract runs through the 1965 season, said he did not plan to accept an offer to work with the young pitchers on the club.

The Cub - Cardinal affair sparkled with extra - base blows. Ronnie Watkins of the Cubs got a double and a triple, Gary Shields and Wesley Key tripled, and Gary Pruitt doubled. Richard Gorman and David Sellers hit doubles for the Cardinals.

The Cardinals came from behind to take the lead in the 2nd inning, only to lose it to the Cubs in the 3rd. The Athletics and Yankees were tied 2-2 after 3 innings, but the Athletics outscored the Yankees 2-1 in the 4th. and were not headed after that time.

Rebels, Phillies Gain Victories

The Pony League Rebels edgd the Buffs 4-2 Thursday night while the Colt Leauge Phillies managed only one hit, but still won out over the Red Sox 3-1.

The Rebels put together two walks, a single and an error to go out in front of the Buffs 2-0 in the top of the first inning and were never behind after that. Terry Holt was the winning pitcher as he scattered four hits in the contest. The Rebels have now won 3 and lost 4, while the Buffs are 2-3 for the season. Hitting doubles in the game were Larry Wadzeck of the Rebels and Robert Hobbs of the Buffs.

Raymond Valden of the Colt Red Sox allowed only one hit by the Phillies but that was a homerun by David Cadena. The only other extra-base blow in the contest was a double by Larry Anderson of the Red Sox.

The win by the Phillies allowed them to take over the lead in the Colt League, with a 4-2 record. The Red Sox have won 3 and lost 2.

Texas League Roundup

By The Associated Press

Tight pitching spelled victory Thursday night for the Texas League's upper division clubs.

Albuquerque's Larry Miller held Austin to three singles as the Dukes shutout the Senators 6-0. It was lefthanded Miller's seventh straight win against no defeats.

Another lefty, Tulsa's Dave Dowling, had a shaky first inning but settled down until the eighth, allowing only one hit in six innings, as the pace-setting Oilers brushed by El Paso 4-2.

Reliefer Darrell Brandon gave up only one infield hit in six innings to spark San Antonio to a 6-2 victory over hapless Fort Worth.

In all, El Paso, Austin and Fort Worth could bang out only nine hits for the evening—three for each team.

Tulsa, Albuquerque and San Antonio, on the other hand, were connecting for a total of 38 safeties.

As a result, Tulsa remains on top of the league standings. Albuquerque stays a half-game out and San Antonio two-and-a-half. The breach between the upper and lower division widened a game, with El Paso now six games off the pace, Austin 11 and Fort Worth 16.

Brandon and Dowling registered victories in Thursday's play, as did the sparkling Miller. Tagged with the losses were Fort Worth's Bill Ballou, Austin's Arnold Umbach and El Paso's D. E. Weber.

Today finds Albuquerque at San Antonio, Austin at Tulsa and El Paso at Fort Worth.

Angels Option Dees To Oklahoma City

CEVELAND (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels said Thursday night they have optioned first baseman Charley Dees to Oklahoma City in the Pacific Coast League, reducing the Angels' roster to 24, one under the player limit.

Twins In 5-Man Swap

DETROIT (AP)—The Minnesota Twins indicated their trading may just be beginning following a five-player swap with Cleveland and the Los Angeles Angels Thursday.

"We're still trying to get a pitcher," said Twins' Manager Sam Mele. "I don't think we're through (trading) yet."

The deal sent fan favorite and first baseman Vic Power from Minnesota to Los Angeles, Angel infielder Billy Moran to Cleveland and infielder Jerry Kindall from the Indians to the Twins.

Minnesota also traded outfielder Lenny Green to Los Angeles for infielder Frank Kostro, now with Hawaii in the Pacific Coast League.

"Kindall can play all infield positions and he can hit the long ball. He call spell (Zoilo) Versalles at short," said Mele. "Kostro swings an aggressive bat. He's always hit wherever he's played."

Advice Pays Off For Phil Rodgers

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (AP)—A bit of friendly advice from fellow-pro Jack Nicklaus prompted young Phil Rodgers to try a different approach to his golf game, which he used in taking the first-round lead in the $66,000 Buick Open Tournament Thursday.

Rodgers fired a 67 over the demanding 7,230-yard Warwick Hills course, taking a one-stroke lead over Mason Rudolph and a two-stroke edge over Thunderbird Open winner Tony Lema.

"A couple of months ago," Rodgers said, "Nicklaus and I were practicing and he told me I wasn't much of a golfer anymore.

"I asked if he had noticed anything particular that I was doing wrong and he suggested that we go over to the practice tee.

"We spent the whole day there, and I finally overcame the one thing he saw me doing wrong—I was dipping my shoulder and wasn't getting enough power in my drives," he said.

Since then, Rodgers continued, his drives have been getting longer.

He called Thursday's round the luckiest of his career. It saw him breeze through the 18 holes with five birdies and 13 pars. He needed 26 putts in all and had 10 one-putt greens.

Rudolph had nine one-putt greens in his round, while Lema was four under par on the back nine in his 69.

Bunched at 70 were Don January, Walt Burkemo, Ray Floyd Bruce Devlin, Dow Finsterwald and Gary Player.

Defending champion Julius Boros was two more strokes away with a 72, while Sam Snead had a 75.

Texan Makes Bitter Attack On EPC 'Experimentation'

By CHARLES HASLET

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a new attack on federal regulation of the natural gas industry, Rep. Walter Rogers, D-Tex., accused the Power Commission of playing a "game of blind man's bluff with the nation's sixth largest industry."

"Government cannot play games with business and expect business to survive, to grow, to expand in the future," Rogers said in urging Congress to take a fresh look at the situation.

Rogers' attack came 10 years after the Supreme Court jolted the gas industry with its decision nanding the Power Commission regulatory authority over the price of gas produced for interstate commerce.

"The past decade has been marked," he said, "by unusual experimentation by the Federal Power Commission in this area. It has been marked by uncertainties unparalleled in the history of government regulation of business.

"It is no credit to anyone involved that after 10 years the harbingers of a new decade are continuing confusion, more experimentation, and even greater uncertainties.

"This game of blind man's bluff with the nation's sixth largest industry not only has buffeted the natural gas business but has acted against the long range interests of the consuming public . . .

"Trying to apply utility type regulatory procedures to this industry is like trying to add apples and oranges and get a total of grapefruit. The factors of exploration, discovery, development and transportation to market do not lend themselves to pet formulas and exact computations which constitute the mold into which for 10 years the Federal Power Commission has been attempting to fit the industry."

Rogers urged "an effective, stable, sound policy which will serve the overwhelming public interest of adequate supplies at reasonable cost."

"He said the decade "of confusion" has brought a decline in the ratio of natural gas reserves to production to the lowest point in the history of the industry.

And at the same time, he said, the price of natural gas at the wellhead has "increased markedly" under federal regulation.

Consumers, he added, are paying the bill "just as they have paid for and are paying the bill for the long and costly hearings and litigation" and "unless we take heed of the record which has been written, we face another decade of confusion and failure."

Fed. Employes Eye Pay Boost

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fatter pay checks for most federal workers were in prospect today after House passage of a pay raise bill that includes $7,500-a-year increases for members of Congress.

By the surprisingly large margin of 243 to 157 the House reversed its earlier defeat of a similar bill and cleared the way for Senate action on the $533-million package of pay boosts.

It includes $7,500 a year raises for judges, Cabinet officers and top federal executives, and increases ranging from 22.5 per cent at the top to 1.6 per cent at the bottom for 1.7 million government workers.

The average letter carrier would get a 5.6 per cent boost of $325 a year and the average government typist and file clerk would get a $310 a year raise.

The bill is expected to be one of the first called up in the Senate after it completes action on the civil rights bill, and no difficulties are foreseen in its passage.

A number of considerations prompted the House to pass the pay bill this time after defeating one, 222 to 184, last March.

The size of the proposed congressional raise was scaled down from $10,000 a year to $7,500 and it was made effective next January, instead of this year, making it easier for members to vote for it.

Of major importance in the view of the bill's backers, however, was the fact most state primary elections are now over. Last March the primaries were still to be faced and too many members felt it politically unwise to vote raises for themselves and then face the electorate.

Strong support from President Johnson also helped put the bill over this time, as did a powerful lobbying effort by the postal unions.

An amendment designed to eliminate the pain of voting for its own pay raises in the future was adopted by the House Thursday. It was offered by Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., and would provide automatic increases for Congress whenever the top Civil Service grade gets a rise.

Both Chiefs Due At El Chamizal Rites

MEXICO CITY (AP)—October ceremonies returning the El Chamizal area to Mexico will be attended by Presidents of both Mexico and the United States, the newspaper La Prensa says.

President Lyndon B. Johnson and President Adolfo Lopez Mateos will be on hand for the rites, La Prensa said, but added that no exact date yet has been set.

The El Chamizal ceremony, the newspaper added, will be one of Lopez Mateos' last official acts as President.

Says Colleges Still Have Room

NEW YORK (AP)—The Student Admissions Center says about 60,000 places are still open in next semester's freshman classes of two-year and four-year accredited colleges.

G. James Hechtman, director of the center, said Thursday that there is more room available than is popularly believed.

"The problem is one of distribution of applications rather than a lack of physical space," he said.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Commissioner's Court of Scurry County, Texas, will meet in a special session on Monday, June 22nd, 1964, at 10:00 o'clock A.M., at the Courthouse in Snyder, Texas, and will receive, until the above mentioned time, sealed bids on the construction of a community center building at Fluvanna, Texas.

Complete plans and specifications may be obtained from Joseph D. Hinton, Architect, at his office at 2425 Ave. S., Snyder, Texas.

The Commissioner's Court reserves its right to waive any and all technicalities and to reject any and all bids.

Nevada Is Puzzled By Oil Pattern

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Vast riches of precious metals are trapped in Nevada rocks. Is a bonanza of oil hidden there, too?

That question is still unanswered a decade after the state's first oil discovery, but the infant Nevada industry has taken some wobbly steps forward.

A number of wells have been drilled since 1954, a handful successful, but geologists are still mystified by the Nevada oil geology.

"Each well makes it more confusing rather than helping to establish a pattern," says Robert Horton, secretary of the Nevada Oil and Gas Conservation Commission. "Our oil geology is unlike that of any place in the world."

Horton says there's a chance a rich pool is waiting to be tapped.

"I feel confident additional fields will be found . . . but will probably require extensive drilling," Horton says.

Nevada's 1963 oil production was 102,000 barrels, minute compared with major producing states. All of it came from the Eagle Springs Field in Railroad Valley, 65 miles southwest of Ely in east-central Nevada.

The oil is trucked to southern California since production is too small to make a pipeline or refinery pay.

Successful drillers in Railroad Valley went through more than 4,000 feet of valley fill into an area where the oil was trapped long ago. The depth of possible oil-bearing formations in Nevada makes exploration costly.

"You've got to be ready to drill to 10,000 feet to come into Nevada. This pretty much puts the little guy out," Horton says.

Dry holes drilled in Elko County, north of Eagle Springs, have gone past 11,500 feet. Shell Oil Co.'s discovery well at Eagle Springs in 1954 went to 10,358, but was plugged back to 6,750 feet where oil was drawn from tertiary volcanic sediments.

The Nevada Legislature offered a $25,000 reward in the 1940s for the man who drilled the first well in the state. The legislature withdrew the offer before 1953 when it went unclaimed.

Texas Solons Voted For Exemption

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both Texas Sens. Ralph Yarborough, D, and John Tower, R., voted Thursday for an amendment by Sen. John S. Cooper, R-Ky., to the civil rights bill to exempt owner-operated boarding houses with up to 10 rooms from the public accomodations title.

The Senate defeated the amendment 51-35.

Both senators also voted for an amendment by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N. C., to bar a person from being tried twice for an act involving a federal criminal law violation and criminal contempt. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 79-14.

Code Numbers Have US Private Confused

NEW YORK (AP) — In Ian Fleming mystery fiction, James Bond, ace British secret agent, bears the code number 007, identifying him as an agent authorized to kill in the line of duty.

In the U.S. Army everyone also has a job code number, his MOS (military occupation specialty).

Pfc. John Sharpe of Montgomery, Ala., stationed at Ft. Totten here wondered what the Army meaning of 007 is and looked it up.

It's a Women's Army Corps basic trainee.
