$5,000 donated

Pool project receives donation

By TOM JAY GOSS II

A group of local citizens determined that Colorado City should have a swimming pool this year, met Monday night at the Civic Center with Mayor Elmer Martin, Councilwoman Brenda Tarter and Buzz Rich, director of city services and revealed that a donation of $5,000 had been made toward the rebuilding of the old pool or construction of a new pool. Donors asked to remain anonymous and hoped that others will donate. A fund will be set up at each bank to make that easy. In addition, the group, headed by Coach Tom Ramsey, wants to begin temporary repairs to make the pool usable by next weekend.

Mayor Martin called an emergency meeting of the City Council to meet at noon Tuesday with Coach and Mrs.

Ramsey. They explained that the group wants to use volunteer labor to repair the pool and wants the city to release $1,500 in the city's budget, already scheduled for pool repairs, for materials.

The Council, present with the exception of Don Bennett and Robert Hoback, had studied the matter on two occasions this year and had decided that it would be impossible to get the pool in operation this year. Faced with free labor and the drive and determination of the citizen group involved, the council about faced and voted to allow the use of the $1,500 in the budget and to go as far in helping as the budget allowed.

Coach Ramsey explained that donors had hoped that the $5,000 can remain intact and grow with other donations to become an appreciable sum—but he said, if necessary, the group can draw on it if needed.

The donation funds could become sufficient to help toward matching funds, usually required by The Texas Fish and Game Commission for pool grants.

Mrs. Ramsey said that the commode in the men's dressing room can still be used but the one in the woman's dressing room should be torn out and boarded over. A portable John is a possible solution for the women's dressing room.

The volunteer group had presented the council with a petition for repair with 162 names at the June 12th meeting, but after talking to contractors and council felt that repairs this year were impossible.

Rodeo highlights busy weekend

A fun-filled weekend is being planned around our annual AJRA rodeo as events are scheduled to encourage wide participation and enjoyment for residents and visitors alike.

The rodeo will begin each night with competition in the following events: barrel racing, poles, break away roping, ribbon roping, steer or bull riding, tiedown roping, team roping, bareback riding and junior bull riding.

There will be a dance Friday night at 9 p.m. till midnight at the Ag Barn with music provided by Roy Miles.

Midnight Express. Admission is $3.

Saturday is a big day for kids and adults as the final day of "rodeo in" kicks off with a Western parade followed by a barbeque at the Mitchell County courthouse. The meal is being sponsored by the Volunteer Fire Department to pay for the fireworks show.

AJRA Rodeo Queen will be crowned Saturday night. Susan Scott is the Rodeo Queen chairperson and assisting her is Sue Guelker who is teaching the girls the reining pattern to be

Fireworks to light up sky on July 3

The Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department will open the celebration of the Glorious Fourth with a big fireworks display about dark thirty Tuesday night, July 3.

The display will be held at the football field and everyone is invited, according to Fire Chief Brian Bassham.

"The show is free," Bassham says, "but donations will be cheerfully accepted." In fact, Bassham says, the cars outside the field may be approached for donations.

The city pays $1,000 toward the display, but the show will cost over $3,500, according to Bassham. Last year about 3,000 attended.

On the following day, the Fourth, the annual July 4th Fly-In is scheduled from 7 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the Northwest Airstrip, northwest of Colorado City.

Admission is free, according to J. O. Dockrey, and breakfast will be served—free to those who fly in, $3.00 to others.

Dockrey says that several trophies will be given to pilots. Rides will be available.

The big Air Force 3-130 will be on display.

For spectator thrills, there will be aerobatics, parachute jumps and a display of ultralights, the latter described as boxkites powered by a chain saw.

A FUND AT CITY NATIONAL BANK has been set-up for the Rene Alvarez family whose house was almost completely destroyed Monday morning in a fire. The family of six lost most all of their possessions. Anyone wanting to help out is encouraged to do so. The Alvarez family lived at 1919 Locust in Colorado City. Officials said the fire apparently was an electrical fire.

Horses, posse & kids equal rodeo parade

The Shriners are coming! "Hopefully," says Brenda Feaster, publicist for the annual Rodeo Parade. The Shriners, fun group of the Masonic Lodge, are an instant hit and addition to any parade with their skittering little vehicles, clown suits and outrageous put-ons.

Others "hopefully" coming are the Sheriff's posse from Scurry County and a San Angelo riding group—possibly the Red Raider from Texas Tech and a float or two. Antique automobiles may show and Ms. Feaster says that she is trying to get the six white horses from Hardin-Simmons. "HSU grads!" she says, we need your help! If you know anybody who could pull a string for us, please let them know that we need them."

"Hopefully" means that everybody who promises to show up for a parade doesn't always make it.

"Anybody on a horse in the parade gets a free ticket to the rodeo," Ms. Feaster says.

There's a new contest, this year, she says. Dress western for the parade and win a prize. Not everybody, that is, but the three most original will win money prizes. Those interested in competing for this should show up by 4 p.m. at an Opti-MS. Club pickup across the street from Hutchins Ford. You will need to check in here. Judging will

The Father's Day reception was well received as families sipped pink lemonade, visited with their Dad and opened gifts.

Mr. Rufus Solomon and Mr. Hubert Sailing, spent their special day in the home of their children.

Not one of the Fathers went lacking for attention as their families lavished them with affection and love. This Fathers Day was also my Dad's birthday (Mr. D V Pedigo).

I speak for all us "kids" when I say, if we would have had a choice of any man ever born to be our father, we would have each chosen our dad.

Mr. Chester Bigham, Mr. Silberio Valdez, Mrs. Myrtle Womack, and Mrs. Fern Jeter will be in the limelight this Wednesday afternoon to celebrate their birthdays. The party will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Cake and punch will be served.

Mrs. Peggy Faulkenberry will play the piano as we sing birthday songs for the guest of honor.

Library to show 4 childrens films

The following films will be shown at the Mitchell County Public Library on June 23 at 2 p.m.

Lonesome Ghosts, eight minutes, color, Disney, (p-a). Some lonesome spooks decide to have a little fun and call the Ajax Ghost Exterminators—Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck and Goofy. When the trio arrives, the ghosts surprise them with a bag of tricks that keep the boys running in hysterical circles.

Last Stronghold of the Eagles, 30 minutes, color, LCA, 1981, (j-h-a). Largely unaffected until recently by the onslaught of development, Southeast Alaska supports the greatest concentration of Bald Eagles left in North America. Beautifully photographed on location and culminating in the spectacular winter gathering of thousands of eagles in the Chilkat Valley, this film explores the habitat and entire life cycle of our national emblem. Produced by the National Audubon Society.

I Want—You Want, seven minutes, color, Barr Films, 1977, (p-el). An animated film about a little boy who had one very bad habit—he always said, "I want" and before long he had no friends. Then a squiggle came to play with him and he had a wonderful time until the day he said, "I want" and the squiggle went away. He lassoed the squiggle but finally let it go because he thought it wanted to be free. After that the squiggle came to play everyday and the little boy was never lonely again.

The Remarkable Riderless Runaway Tricycle, 11 minutes, color, Phoenix, 1982, (e-a). Live action, nonverbal story of a magical tricycle based on the book by Bruce McMillan. A young boy leaves his tricycle to play with a kite retrieved from a trash can. The tricycle is mistakenly picked up on trash day and taken to the junk yard. Just as it is about to be crushed for scrap metal, the tricycle magically takes off. The tricycle has an amazing adventure through town, finally pedaling its way back to where it was picked up, and is reunited with the boy.

up and drug interaction. She stressed the dangers involved in the following combinations, even though each might be safe when taken alone: aspirin, antibiotics, oral contraceptives and alcohol. Warnings are printed on labels of these drugs.

A few specific dangers named were the combinations of alcohol and antihistamine, aspirin and blood thinner; antibiotic and milk (antibiotic loses effectiveness) and many medicines and soda pop.

Ms. Christian advised that one's doctor should always know what medication you are taking when you go to him, before other drugs are prescribed. It is even better if you take the medication for the doctor to see. She advised against another person's prescribed medication. Also, one should follow the prescribed dosage, she added.

Drugs are under three names (1) generic (2) chemical (3) and trademark. The program was very informative.

Mrs. Bennett served refreshments to Ms. Christian and the following members, Mmes. T. L. Holman, Hubert Meadows, J. E. Price, Jack Linam, Rosie Hamrick, Raymond Wheeler and two guests, Mrs. Naomi Julian and Mrs. Florence Fine.

lorado City team the Stix. At press time, the Stix held a half game lead over the Moonlighters with a 5-2 mark in league competition.

Colorado City also got a fourth place with the first and second place finishes from the Babes—currently 2-4 in league standings.

In Division I last Friday night, the Cracker Jacks got their first win of the year edging Snyder's Orange Crush 16-15.

Both teams scored twice in the first inning but then Snyder led 7-6 after two. The Orange Crush made 8-6 in the top of the third before the Cracker Jacks answered with four to make it 10-8.

The Orange Crush took the lead back with three runs in the third but then again the Cracker Jacks scored four runs to take a 14-11 lead.

In the last inning the Orange Crush again swayed the lead back to their side by scoring four runs to take a 15-14 lead.

At their last time at bat the Cracker Jacks made their third consecutive comeback by scoring two runs for the victory.

Taking the win for the Cracker Jacks was La-Lonnie Molina.

Also in Division I the Bears took two wins, over the weekend to improve their division leading record to 6-2.

Last Friday night the Bears edged the Snyder Sparkettes 8-7 and then Monday night the Bears defeated the second place Grey Socks 8-1 and now lead them by 1½ games.

Jennifer Munoz pitched in the Friday night victory and taking the Monday night win was Jennifer Ornelas.

In another Monday night game the Stix posted a 16-8 victory over Snyder.

Astros, Yankees tied

By TONY FRANCO

In Little League action over the weekend, the Freshman League leading Yankees won a game and lost a game to drop to a first place tie with the Astros.

Last Friday night the Yankees were upended by the Dodgers by the score of 11-3.

The Dodgers jumped on Yankee pitcher Laron Miles for nine runs their first time at bat then added one run in both the second and fourth innings.

Dodger pitcher Dane Hoover meanwhile was limiting the Yankees to just one run through the first five innings before being relieved by Ricky Westbrook.

The win upped the Dodgers record to 5-4. Prior to the Dodger-Yankees game, the Rangers posted a 9-7 victory over the Indians that left them at 5-4 also.

Monday night the Yankees got back to the win column by edging the Indians 6-4.

Yankee shortstop Joe Silva led off in the first inning with a score that made 1-0. That stood up as the score until the bottom of the third when Silva again led off with a score that began a four run inning for the Yankees.

In the top of the fourth the Indians Jason Lawson led off with a home-run—the first of four Indian scores in the inning that made it 5-4 Yankees.

The only other score for the remainder of the game was a run by Yankee catcher Gabriel Ornelas in the bottom of the fourth inning.

Earning the win was Yankee pitcher Brandon Raschke with relief from Silva and taking the loss was Stanley Bradbury.
