JFK Says Berlin Crisis Is Soviet Manufactured

Slates Check On Red Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy said today that nothing Russia does can affect the West's rights in Berlin.

Kennedy said the crisis over Berlin is "Soviet manufactured."

Kennedy said the Western Allies formed alliances after World War II that are wholly defensive in nature. He warned in a statement at his news conference:

The Soviets would make a grave mistake if they supposed that Allied unity and determination can be undermined by threats or fresh aggressive acts.

"There is peace in Germany and in Berlin. If it is disturbed it will be a direct Soviet responsibility."

It was Kennedy's first news conference in Washington in nearly eight weeks, and he opened it by reading a statement reiterating his administration's strong position on the German city.

Kennedy also announced that he had instructed his Science Advisory Committee to organize a special study to determine whether the Russians have been or could be engaged in secret testing of nuclear weapons.

Kennedy said the Soviets' insistence on a veto over machinery to police a nuclear test ban is disheartening and "raises a serious question" about how long the United States can maintain its voluntary ban on such tests.

Taking note of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's recent statement that Russia would be outproducing the United States by 1970, the President said that could never take place at any time in the 20th Century and added:

"We invite the USSR to engage in this competition which is peaceful and which could only result in a better living standard for both of our peoples."

In his statement on Berlin, Kennedy put quotation marks around the word "crisis" in reference to the city.

Saying Khrushchev had threatened to sign a peace treaty with the Communist regime in East Germany, he used quotation marks again around peace treaty.

Khrushchev has said this would end Allied rights in West Berlin.

"It is clear that such unilateral action cannot affect these rights, which stem from the surrender of Nazi Germany," Kennedy declared.

Kennedy showed no signs of his back strain or recent virus infection. He replied to a question about his health by saying he was "feeling very well."

In response to a question, Kennedy said no plan for partial mobilization has been placed before him at the present, but that various groups are considering the problem created by Berlin, and "of course we will be considering a whole variety of measures."

On other matters Kennedy had this to say:

TRACTORS FOR FREEDOM—Of the apparently dead negotiation to exchange U.S. tractors for Cuban refugees captured in their abortive attempt to overthrow the Fidel Castro regime, Kennedy said a committee of prominent U.S. citizens "went to every conceivable length in order to demonstrate their good faith" in dealing with Castro.

"Mr. Castro would not accept it," he said—thus throwing blame for the apparent collapse of the transaction on the Cuban dictator.

INTELLIGENCE — Kennedy said Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, whom he has recalled to duty as his personal military representative, has reported orally to him on a survey of U.S. intelligence capabilities. Asked if he planned [illegible] agencies concerned with intelligence activity, Kennedy said a committee is studying the matter and when it is finished, "we may have some changes. He did not elaborate.

SUMMIT — Kennedy said his meeting in Vienna with Khrushchev early this month was useful, certainly to me in meeting my responsibility." Perhaps, he added, it also was useful to Khrushchev.

The issues they discussed are extremely serious, Kennedy said — They involve the security of the United States and they involve also the peace of the world."

Khrushchev Offers To Negotiate

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev offered today to negotiate on Berlin and Germany but warned the West against trying a military buildup to strengthen its hand.

"We are ready to negotiate honestly," he told a Soviet-North Vietnamese friendship meeting at the Kremlin.

In a televised speech Khrushchev said, "There will be no blockade of Berlin" but he repeated an old Soviet condition—Western recognition of the East German Communist government.

Khrushchev warned that if any Western country mobilizes because of the Berlin crisis "we shall take proper measures and, if necessary, measures to increase our combat might."

Discussing Germany, he mentioned measures the West might take if the Soviet Union signs a separate East German peace treaty. One of the much-discussed alternatives for the West is a beefing up of troop strength in West Germany.

"Gentlemen, you do not frighten us," Khrushchev said. "A peace treaty will be concluded."

He talked about the possible breaking of diplomatic relations by Western nations and said this was not a new threat, but a possibility that would only hurt the West.

"Your policy of threats will not frighten us," he said.

Khrushchev declared that the military might of both sides now was equal and policy should be conducted on an equal basis between them.

"But," he added, "we consider that the forces of socialism and peace are the stronger. We base that not only on our economic and military might, but on the justice of our cause."

Khrushchev also repeated his demands for disarmament on Soviet terms and talked about the situation in Southeast Asia.

Arab Leaders Oppose Iraq Claim To Kuwait

CAIRO (AP) — Arab leaders were lining up today against Iraq's claim to the rich little sheikdom of Kuwait.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic came out against any effort by Iraq to grab the oil prize on her southeast border. The U.A.R. announcement, combined with firm Saudi Arabian opposition to Iraq's claim, was expected to swing most of the 10-nation Arab League behind Kuwait Sheik Sir Abdullah As-Salim As-Sabah's defiance of Iraqi Premier Abdel Harim Kassem.

The U.A.R. does not accept the logic of annexation," said Minister of State Abdel Kader Hatem said in a broadcast over Cairo radio.

The Cairo newspaper Al Akhbar said Nasser is sending a mission to Kuwait to congratulate the sheik on his country's new independence. One of Nasser's ministers heading the mission will carry a personal message from the U. A. R. president to the sheik, it added.

Saudi Arabia's Radio Mecca broadcast a declaration by King Saud that "any mishap that befalls Kuwait affects Saudi Arabia and vice versa." Officials in Kuwait reportedly were told Saudi was determined to use force if Kuwait is "subjected to any military action."

King Hussein of Jordan told the sheik that "Jordan will always work for the good of her sister states and the Arab nation at large."

Baghdad radio meanwhile blared forth claims that "all Iraqi commanders and public sovereignty over Kuwait." The state-controlled radio referred to the Connecticut-sized sheikdom as "Iraq's southern district of Kuwait."

Diplomatic sources in Cairo said the Arab League may call an emergency meeting by the weekend. Sources in Beirut said the league might speed up approval of Kuwait's application for membership, filed after it attained independence last week from Britain.

A league spokesman said Secretary-General Abdel Khalik Hassouna would use his good offices to try to settle the dispute.

In Kuwait Sheik Sir Abdullah proclaimed a state of emergency and put his small army on a state of alert. Informed sources said Sheik Abdullah Mubarak, the deputy ruler and heir apparent, had cut short a visit to Lebanon and returned home.

Kuwait's 2,400-man garrison is bolstered by British troops whose withdrawal after Kuwait gained independence last week was canceled following Iraq's move. Four British frigates lie in the Persian Gulf.

The Cairo newspaper Al Gumhurria reported that Kuwait authorities have arrested a number of Iraqi settlers in the sheikdom for subversive activities and had expelled several other Iraqis on similar charges. Cairo papers said violent demonstrations were continuing in Kuwait calling for Kassem's downfall.

Daniel Predicts Backing For JFK

HONOLULU (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel of Texas, who heads the resolutions committee, predicted today the governor's conference will approve unanimously a statement expressing united support for President Kennedy in his negotiations on world crises.

He said Govs. Nelson Rockefeller of New York, Stephen McNichols of Colorado and David Lawrence of Pennsylvania were drafting it.

Daniel characterized a pending GOP civil rights resolution as political, a position also taken by Gov. John Patterson of Alabama.

Daniel told a news conference Tuesday it was unusual to have a resolution proposed by governors of only one party.

"Usually politics does not enter into this conference so obviously," Daniel said. "This issue is raised by those who want to make political capital out of it, one way or the other."

The GOP resolution would pledge the governors to act affirmatively and positively to include action by the American people toward the end that all discrimination based on race, creed or color will be terminated in housing, in education, in transportation, in employment, in public places of assembly and in personal services."

Approval of two-thirds of those voting is necessary for adoption of any conference resolution.

Daniel said he doesn't think the conference will adopt any resolution that could be regarded as slapping at Kennedy at a time when Vice President Lyndon Johnson said the world situation is critical.

Johnson told the governors at their annual state dinner Tuesday night that "We are not ready to run away from Berlin under Russian threats."

Johnson said there must be firmness but not belligerence in dealing with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. This country is not going to close any avenue to peace, he said, and to guarantee survival with freedom. "It is increasingly important that we work together in understanding and unity."

Johnson bid for support of President Kennedy in international negotiations with the observation that "It is no contribution to our national security to indulge in selfish and divisive passion for criticism merely for the sake of criticism."

Mrs. McHan Dies Today

Mrs. Susie McHan, 88, of 603 George St., Big Spring, died at 2:30 a.m. today in the Snyder Hospital Clinic.

Mrs. McHan's body was carried overland this morning by Bolger Funeral Home to Davis Morris Funeral Home in Brownwood.

Funeral rites will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Early Baptist Church of Brownwood. Burial will be in the James Chapel Cemetery of Brownwood.

Mrs. McHan was born October 19, 1872, in Missouri. Her husband, G. W. McHan, preceded her in death in 1949.

Mrs. McHan is survived by six daughters, Mrs. O. S. McCormick of Snyder, Mrs. R. M. Salyer of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Ben S. Morrison of LaPorte, Mrs. Raymond Matlock of Brownwood, Mrs. Fritz Mogford of Plainview, Mrs. Floyd Henderson of Big Spring; four sons, Jessie McHan of Blanket, Luke McHan of Brownwood, Lee McHan of Abilene and George McHan of California; 31 grandchildren and 45 great-grandchildren.

Burleson Is Due For '4th' Event

Rep. Omar Burleson, who represents the 17th District of Texas as in Congress, will be in Snyder for the community celebration of Independence Day next Tuesday.

Announcement that Burleson would be here for the event was made at the final meeting of Chamber of Commerce planners last night.

J. Mark McLaughlin, general chairman of arrangements, reported that no less than 17 organizations will participate actively with concessions booths, etc.

The celebration will include several feature events, all of which will be unreeled in Towle Memorial Park. There will be a parade, kid baseball games, boat rides for younger children, a swimming and diving exhibition, an archery [illegible] and a fireworks display.

In addition to a group of "young patriots" being assembled to march in the parade, it was announced that all youngsters in the city are invited to decorate their bicycles and ride them in the parade.

A variety of concession stands will be set up by organizations. The Snyder Garden Club has announced it will have a booth selling homemade ice cream and cake. Other clubs will have similar facilities in operation throughout the afternoon and early evening.

The celebration will be concluded with a fireworks display in the park.

10 Prisoners Await Answer

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—A delegation of 10 prisoners from Cuba waited today for the disbanded Tractors for Freedom Committee to decide whether it would reform and resume blocked negotiations.

The prisoners conferred for nearly four hours Tuesday night with John Hooker Jr., executive secretary of the committee, and announced afterwards that nothing had been changed in their situation.

Hooker said, however, he was hopeful there would be a decision today or Thursday on whether the committee would reconstitute itself to renew the talks.

The committee members were Eleanor Roosevelt, Dr. Milton Eisenhower and Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers.

Hooker said he had been in touch with every member of the committee, including Eisenhower, who had been out of the country. However, another spokesman said in Detroit he knew of no contact between Reuther and Hooker. He added that he knew of no plans to resume negotiations, and "I'd certainly know about such a development right away."

Neither Hooker nor the prisoners would make any statement concerning the conference.

More Negotiations Urged In Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A presidential fact-finding board called today for last-ditch negotiations in an effort to end the maritime strike.

David L. Cole, chairman of the board set up by President Kennedy to study the 13-day walkout, said he already had learned a "great deal" in meeting parties in the dispute.

"I believe that negotiations suspended over the past week ought to be resumed in a last-ditch effort to see whether some substantial progress can be made", he told newsmen.

He declared he hoped to get the talks going again before the end of the day.

Cole made his comment during a recess in a public hearing called by the board to determine whether the strike is imperiling the national security.

If it decides that such is the case, an injunction can be issued under the Taft-Hartley Act.

Cole recessed the session after a meeting of only a half-hour until Thursday.

The strike involves the ship owners and five maritime unions. Ships on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf coasts have been idled.

Several off-the-record talks between unions and managements were held Tuesday night.

The board has only until Friday to come up with a solution to the strike. On Friday, it will report to President Kennedy. This report could clear the way for an injunction.

In all, 85,000 men are out on strike, affecting over 200 American vessels in 30 port cities. A chief issue revolves around the unions' demand for organizational rights aboard American-owned vessels that fly foreign flags.

Crime Prober Subpoenaed

FORT WORTH (AP) — Grand Jury foreman William Fuller demanded today that state Rep. Tom James of Dallas appear Thursday to tell grand jurors what he knows about alleged gambling in Tarrant County.

"I want him to put up or shut up," said Fuller in ordering a subpoena issued to James.

DeGaulle Seeks End To War

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

PARIS (AP) — A stepped-up drive by President Charles de Gaulle for a quick end to the seven-year Algerian war was under way today.

It includes bringing French divisions back from the North African territory to the continent, resuming suspended talks with rebel leaders and a renewed threat to partition Algeria into European and Moslem sectors if negotiations fail again.

De Gaulle's aim, according to informed sources, is to break the Algerian impasse in three months —one way or another—in order to make French forces available by fall for the looming crisis in Berlin.

The bulk of France's armed forces, an estimated half million men, is tied down in Algeria. Their absence has weakened the North Atlantic Treaty Organization defense position in Western Europe.

De Gaulle disclosed his new Algerian drive at a garden party at the presidential Elysee Palace Tuesday night. In an informal discussion with reporters, he said he had issued orders for the return of one division from Algeria. Without fixing dates, he added he would order others back as well.

Besides strengthening NATO forces on the European continent, the redeployment might also be intended as a peace gesture to the nationalist rebels.

De Gaulle said the peace talks with the rebels—broken off at Evian-les-Bains two weeks ago—will be resumed and "we will see what happens."

The president made clear that he will continue to insist on future association between an independent Algeria and France, including French retention of key military bases and guarantees for the French minority in the North African territory. Otherwise, he said, France will regroup the European and Moslem populations and partition Algeria. France would concentrate the one million Europeans around the main coastal cities—Algiers, Constantine, Bone and Oran — and leave the vast interior for the nine million Moslems to manage as best they can. The rebel National Liberation Front (FLN) bitterly opposes this, knowing the hinterland cannot live without the ports and the agricultural coastal strip.

De Gaulle said an Algerian settlement and the day when there will no longer be a risk of crimes" would bring an end to the near-dictatorial powers he has exercised since the abortive army coup ago.

"There will no longer even be any need for De Gaulle," he added.

Boredom Called Great Sickness

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A Harvard doctor checking the nation's mental and emotional health today declared: "The great sickness of our age is aimlessness, boredom, and lack of meaning and purpose" in living.

We can be enthralled by the space age, but almost willfully try to avoid "learning how to understand and control ourselves," said Dr. Dana L. Farnsworth, director of Harvard University health services and staff physician at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston.

"Medicine has made enormous strides in alleviating pain and prolonging life," he said.

Now an expanded task for doctors is to give "meaning to the life," Fransworth told the American Medical Association's 110th annual meeting.

He suggested some ways to do this, to overcome the boredom and the sick feelings.

Mental health, he said, is that "state of mind in which people can carry on their activities with satisfaction to themselves, with some responsibility to others, and without making nuisances of themselves to large numbers of other people."

"All persons, with or without mental health, are obliged to suffer in various ways," he continued.

"It is the nature of man to experience frustration, grief, pain, tension, conflict, jealousy, fear and anxiety.

"Happiness is a by-product of resolving—in part or wholly—exasperating and difficult situations."

People become emotionally sick when stresses of living become too much to tolerate, he said. Then they try to compensate somehow, or to avoid or to escape the feelings.

"Feelings of isolation, rejection, inferiority, bitterness, hostility and suspicion exaggerate the usual stresses of ordinary living and make individuals more vulnerable, and more likely to become emotionally decompensated or emotionally ill."

To endure their troubles, said Farnsworth, people need "feelings of basic confidence in one's self and others, a sense of competence, and a basic faith that the whole human situation is worthwhile."

Telephone companies in Japan have a difficult time assigning telephone numbers, because certain numbers mean good luck, wealth, bankruptcy and death. Auspicious numbers bring a high price. Unlucky ones are passed out to unwary foreigners.

From Sept. 30, 1777, until June 27, 1778, the capital of colonial America was York, Pa. During that period the British were occupying Philadelphia, normal seat of the Continental Congress.

Ever Bathe A Wild Coyote?

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A mangy coyote showed up at the home of Mrs. D. C. Hutson and got the surprise of his ornery life.

Mrs. Hutson approached the problem with a scrub brush and a box of soap flakes.

Said Mrs. Hutson: "I just gave him a bath."

Now Mrs. Hutson, who thought the animal was a dog, believes she may be the only living woman ever to bathe a wild Texas coyote.

She said: "He didn't act quite natural."

The coyote, a sandy-haired youngster, also seemed to abhor humanity. He raced into the garage at the sight of Mrs. Hutson and her two children—Gary, 11 and Barbara, 7.

As for the family dog, Prince, the woman said: "Boy, they really didn't jive together."

But the stinky intruder had a hankering for dog food, which seemed to keep him around since last Thursday.

Then Mrs. Hutson dumped him into the bathtub again and she said, "He really showed his wild streak then."

Policeman G. S. Connell was called to deal with the unwilling bather. Connell pronounced him a wild coyote.

The zoo has in captivity today what is believed to be the world's cleanest coyote.

Texan Killed In Missouri Crash

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) —A Marshall, Tex., man died Tuesday when his light plane crashed into a tree-studded hillside 16 miles southeast of here and burned.

The State Patrol said Howard Brown was taking the body of Wayne Frank from Chicago to Marshall for burial when the plane crashed.

Mrs. Brown was at the Marshall airport, awaiting her husband's arrival when she heard of his death.

Burnam Rites In Abilene

Funeral services for Joseph Edward (Prof) Burnam, 77, a Hardin-Simmons professor since 1913, were held today at 2:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Abilene.

Burial followed in Elmwood Memorial Park.

"Prof" Burnam, as he was known to thousands of Hardin-Simmons exes, died of cancer at 2 a.m. Tuesday in Hendrick Memorial Hospital, where he was a patient for 11 days.

Born Oct. 11, 1883, in Gower, Platte County, Mo., he moved to Callahan County with his family in 1900 and married Opha Carrie Jobe in Scranton on Dec. 1909.

He graduated from Scranton Academy in 1908, taking the A. B. degree from H-SU in June 1913. He began teaching at HSU the year he graduated.

Survivors are his wife; two sons, Ed, of Coleman, and Paul Wayne, a professor at Lafayette, La.; two brothers, H. T. Burnam, Abilene, and J. H. Burnam of Calif.; a sister, Mrs. N. C. Terry, Abilene; and four grandsons.

Cheryl Crane Receives Psychiatric Treatment

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Cheryl Crane, 17-year-old daughter of movie star Lana Turner, has been admitted to the Institute of Living for psychiatric treatment.

Miss Crane, Miss Turner and her mother's fifth husband, rancher Fred May, arrived Tuesday.

The girl, a ward of the state of California since she slew her mother's boy friend Johnny Stompanato in 1958, was admitted to the institute voluntarily, said Dr. Gordon Edgren, assistant medical director. He said he could not estimate how long she would stay.

JULY WEDDING PLANS—Mr. and Mrs. R. S. George of Whitesboro announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn, to Bill M. Underwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chandler of Snyder. The couple will exchange vows on July 16, at 3 p. m. in the First Presbyterian Church of Whitesboro. Members of the church and the immediate families of the bride and groom and friends are invited. Miss George has been a teacher in the Snyder School system for the past three years and will resume her duties as home economics teacher at Lamar Junior High School this fall.

Girls Invited To Join Pink Angels

The "Pink Angels" of Cogdell Memorial Hospital met recently at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with their sponsor, Mrs. Carl Dillaha and Mrs. Thomas Hartley. Seven members, three new members and three mothers were present.

The "Pink Angels" were organized in the winter of 1959 and had a membership of approximately 50. Many of these members have graduated or dropped out for other reasons and new members are invited to join.

All girls 15-years-of-age through 18, who are interested in joining are invited to attend a meeting or contact one of the sponsors.

The duties of the "Pink Angels" include delivering flowers, mail, newspapers, running errands for the nurses, reading to patients, feeding patients, attending to small children in the hospital lobby while parents are visiting, collecting for TV's and assisting the "Pink Ladies" (Hospital Auxiliary) in numerous other tasks.

Any girl who plans to work in any field of the hospital world would profit much by joining this worthwhile organization.

First Christian Ladies Install New Officers

The CWF of the First Christian Church held its monthly meeting Monday at 7:30 p. m. Following the business meeting, the installation of new officers and group leaders was held.

Each new officer and group leader was presented with a white cross symbolizing their individual office. Mrs. Arthur Blanchard, Sr., presided over the installation.

New officers include: Mrs. V. E. Chapman, president; Mrs. J. C. Ezell, vice president; Mrs. John Riggs, Jr., secretary; Mrs. Dave Harlin, treasurer; Mrs. Allen Lynch, worship chairman; Mrs. Charles Hartman, service chairman; Mrs. Florence Leftwich, literature; Mrs. J. E. Lowe, hospitality chairman.

Group leaders are Mrs. Bill McKinny, Mrs. Ross Blanchard, Sr., Mrs. O. R. LaRoux and Mrs. Hugh Taylor.

Following the installation, the group adjourned to fellowship hall. The table was beautifully set in yellow and white and the same color theme was carried out in the refreshments.

Mix Meat Balls In The Mixer

In making meat balls or meat loaf, you can save yourself a considerable amount of work and time by mixing the ingredients in your food mixer.

You can do just that with mixers which come equipped with a single flat beater.

Simply place the ground beef or hamburger into the mixer bowl. Add the other ingredients—chopped onions, eggs, bread, and spices—and mix on low speed for about a minute or until the ingredients are thoroughly combined.

You'll find the mixer will do the job faster and more efficintly than you can by hand.

B&PW Holds Installation Ceremonies And Picnic

The Business and Professional Women met Tuesday evening for installation of new officers and their annual picnic outing.

The group met in Snyder and motored to the home of Mrs. Donie Chorn for the evening. Ten members of the Colorado City B&PW Club attended with Mrs. Mildred Truan serving as installing officer.

New officers are: Lida Rhoades, president (second term); Marionette Baze, first vice president; Mildred Sparks, second vice president; Laura Holladay, recording secretary; Sadie Longbotham, corresponding secretary; and Frances Brown, treasurer.

Candles were lighted for each officer and they were given ivy for emblems. Beautiful decorations of Niki and circle were used emphasizing vision, courage, loyalty, wisdom, tolerance and understanding.

The club collect was given. It is: "Give us, O God, a realization of what our emblem stands for. With its standards before us, may our lives be a little stronger and finer than yesterday; May we weed out a little more of the selfishness and greed that make life petty; Reveal to us the beauty of the Golden Circle binding women to high ideals in these United States.

"And, O Lord God of Hosts, may, we forget not the meaning of this emblem: the need of knowledge, our responsibility to the business world, the opportunity to uplift and the ever increasing need to be kind."

Colorado City members attending were Mrs. Mattie Hines, Mrs. Lena Porter (President), Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, Miss Ruth Hightower, Mrs. Thelma Tidwell, Mrs. Lona Pritchett, Mrs. Blanche Wilson, Mrs. Ida Kirechbaum, Mrs. Annie Mary Morgan, and Mrs. Truan.

Snyder members present were: Rubie Lee Brown, Donnie Chorn, Beulah Collins, Dell Smith, Frances Brown, Frances Spencer, Lil Jo Colwell, Hazel Buswell, and Mary Jane, Ethel Roberts, Clera Perlman, Marionette Baze, Florence Leftwich, Lida Rhoades, Carrie Line, Mildred Sparks, Gwen Groves, Ethel Mae Shurdivant and Elizabeth Beavers.

Offspring Of Space Returned Mice Good Gift For Nikita?

BY INEZ ROBB

There are various items on the agenda today, but first let us consider Sally, Amy and Moe, and All-American tricks that can readily furnish the answer to Pushinka, the propaganda pup.

No one can be angry with Pushinka, per se, the shrewd gift sent by Nikita Khrushchev to Mrs. John F. Kennedy, care of the White House, 10 days ago. Pushinka is the offspring of Strelka, a pioneer canine cosmonaut hurled into space aboard a Russian capsule.

No matter how endearing an addition to the White House menagerie Pushinka is, she is a constant reminder of Russian triumphs in space—and of the coarse mind that prompted such a gift.

But our side does not have to take this lying down when Sally, Amy and Moe and their descendants are available. Sally, Amy and Moe, which sounds like an old vaudeville act, are three distinguished black mice which were hurled 600 miles into space aboard an American capsule on Oct. 13, 1960.

They explored the lower Van Allen radiation belt before their return to earth. So it is not unreasonable to suppose that in mouse circles their offspring rate as Mayflower descendants.

Now it is my idea that it would only be courteous to send Khrushchev and the Kremlin a gift cage of American astronaut mice, or, rather, their descendants. If, on delivery of the cage, the American charge d'affaires could only manage to let slip the cage door, the cold war could be over in a jiffy.

I base my optimistic predictions on first hand experience in childhood whenever my boy cousins managed to slip a few white mice into the basement. Within two weeks, the household was always completely demoralized, work was at a standstill and my mother, grandmother, and aunts were threatening to leave home immediately.

I don't remember that my father or my uncles cottoned to a siege of white mice any more enthusiastically than their womenfolk. It was just custom for them to assume a manly stance and a brave front before the opposite sex.

Undoubtedly black mice are just as capable of this kind of terrorism as white, especially black mice whose antecedents have explored the Van Allen radiation belt, been plucked out of the South Pacific in their capsule and flown in triumph back to the U. S. A.

At all odds, this seems worth a try to me. Why not send to the Kremlin as a gift Pushinka's weight—17 pounds—in frisky American black mice? And then let nature take its course.

Why, within a month, Khrushchev could be yelling "Uncle!" and begging for a regiment of expert American exterminators.

On another matter, that of Laos, we're licked and not just by communism. It is surely obvious by this time that we Americans are not mentally or emotionally equipped to understand a whole nation of Good-Time Charlies.

Early last spring, at the time of the big Communist push and of the Laotian New Year, the only contest into which the pro-Western forces ever put any real enthusiasm or skill was in the mock street fights celebrating the New Year, during which they emptied water pistols at all the pretty girls.

At that point, I began to realize that the Laotian psyche was beyond my understanding. The nonparley of the three Laotian princes at Geneva where the nation's dissident leaders found it too fatiguing and boresome to reach any hard and fast conclusions to save their country merely underscored the sad Gilbert and Sullivan travesty.

Sometimes it is possible to save people from the consequences of their own folly, but is well-nigh impossible to save people from themselves.

Hollywood Film World Dwindling?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood is dwindling as the world's film capital, says Anatole Litvak, because it has become a rut lit by fading stars and no bright new ideas.

"Slowly, slowly, the American film industry is losing ground abroad, losing prestige, losing audiences, too," he said.

This decline, the famous producer-director insisted, isn't basically the fault of the competition of television or any other economic reason.

"It's because we don't progress—we stick too much to the same formulas we did years ago. We don't dare come up with anything new—either in terms of subjects or methods of approach.

"We stick to the old ways. We depend too much on stars, or spectacular gimmicks such as the wide screen, which provoke the curiosity of people, but only temporarily.

"It is the Italians and the French," Litvak said, "who now challenge world interest with pictures daring in theme—and often made without stars—which are proving both artistic and box office successes.

"They are willing to take a chance," he remarked. "Sometimes they don't click, but often they do. We must be willing to take a chance too.

"Mechanical tricks are not the answer. We must show more real daring, more real originality."

"Tola," as he is known to his buddies, is renowned for such films as "Be Mine Tonight," "Mayerling," and "This Above All."

He isn't against stars—so long as they can act. His latest film, "Goodbye Again," is built around three stars—Ingrid Bergman, Yves Montand and Anthony Perkins.

But Litvak feels strongly that in creating the star system Hollywood like Frankenstein, fashioned a monster that might lead to its own doom.

"In making a motion picture the story is really the most important thing," he insisted. "It may not help my popularity with some people to say this, but it is true.

"But here you can't get the money to make a film unless you have some kind of protection—such as stars. First you sign a star or, better yet, two stars."

"All doors open if you have the right story for the right star. This is the era of the dominance of the star."

Woodpecker Is Mixed Up

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Bird watchers in Tampa have the rare opportunity of observing a crazy, mixed-up woodpecker who dislikes wood but just loves metal roofs.

Seems this disoriented bird prefers to pit his bill against the metal roof of the Joseph R. Canto Sr. home instead of the nice soft trees which abound in the area.

Canto's daughter, Alice, said the crazy bird used to peck on a metal-capped telephone pole behind their house. However, the pole was replaced by an all-wood variety, and the bird hunted new worlds to conquer.

He settled on the Canto roof much to the dismay of the family.

Miss Canto said it was nice when she was working. The bird starts in on the metal each morning at the same time, and she used him as an alarm clock.

However, now that she isn't working, she would prefer to sleep late.

Beauty Shuns Elevator Ride

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—If red-haired Susan Ann Henryson reaches the top in this year's Miss America competition, it won't be in elevators.

The freckled Fresno State College coed, crowned Miss California last Sunday in Santa Cruz, selected her wardrobe—on foot—here Tuesday for the Atlantic City Miss America Contest next month.

Claustrophobic — since I was six," was how Susan, now 19, explained her refusal to ride an elevator to the 10th floor offices of the San Francisco Fashion Industries Association.

"This is going to complicate things," a pageant official said. "Atlantic City is full of lower hotels."

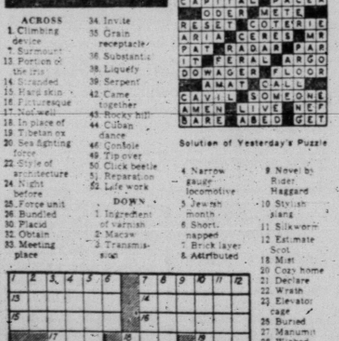

"You keep talking, and I'll keep walking," said Susan, starting up another flight.

Proclamation For '4th' Celebration

A special proclamation urging Snyder citizens to participate in the Fourth of July Celebration planned by the Snyder Chamber of Commerce has been issued by Mayor John H. Hamblen.

Participation in the event offers area citizens an excellent opportunity to make a public profession of their patriotic convictions, the mayor said.

A number of clubs and civic organizations are making plans for activities in Towle Memorial park during the celebration here, which will feature several special events. The celebration will be climaxed with a fireworks display in the early evening.

They mayor's proclamation follows:

TO ALL CITIZENS OF SNYDER, TEXAS, greetings:

WHEREAS, on July 4, 1776, in Independence Hall in the City of Philadelphia, the First Continental Congress, representing the original thirteen colonies in America, did enact a Declaration of Independence stating that henceforward these colonies would constitute a separate and independent nation, founded upon democratic processes, and proclaiming the proposition that all men are created equal and endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights, among them life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and,

WHEREAS, the intervening one-hundred-and-eighty-five years has been a period unequalled in man's history and during which this great nation, the United States of America, has grown from a small group of dedicated patriots to the greatest nation every existing on earth, and

WHEREAS, this growth has been nurtured and made strong by the same patriotic zeal and the same enthusiasm for and dedication to the principals of freedom and individual dignity that inspired our forefathers to proclaim this nation's independence; and, the anniversary of this event, the FOURTH OF JULY, is a day to be celebrated and revered by Americans in full remembrance of the significance of this historic day;

NOW THEREFORE, I John Hamblen, Mayor of the City of Snyder do proclaim JULY 4, 1961, a public holiday and do by this proclamation urge all citizens to properly observe this greatest of all patriotic holidays, the birthday of our nation, by demonstrating their love for their country and by rededicating their allegiance to the principles that are the life's blood of our republic; and, I do urge all citizens to attend the FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION in Towle Park on that day as a public profession of their convictions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereby sign this proclamation and cause the official seal of the City of Snyder to be affixed hereto this 27th day of June, 1961.

(S) John H. Hamblen
Mayor, City of Snyder

Hearing Is In Recess

AUSTIN (AP)—The Board of Water Engineers has recessed until Monday its hearing on the Sabine River Authority's plan to build the Toledo Bend dam.

The action came Tuesday after two days of testimony.

The authority seeks a permit to build the dam and 100-mile reservoir 23 miles northeast of Newton.

If approved the reservoir would inundate about 181,000 acres of timberlands in Texas and Louisiana and would hold about 4,477,000 acre-feet of water. Total cost is estimated at $54 million.

J. H. Hart of Austin, representing Joaquin lumberman G. T. Paterson, won the recess for time to look over statistics presented by project proponents.

James Cotton, a Dallas consulting engineer, explained to the board the long report made on the project.

US Visitors Spent $970 Million In 1960

WASHINGTON (AP) — Visitors from foreign countries spent $970 million in the United States last year—an increase of $70 million over 1959.

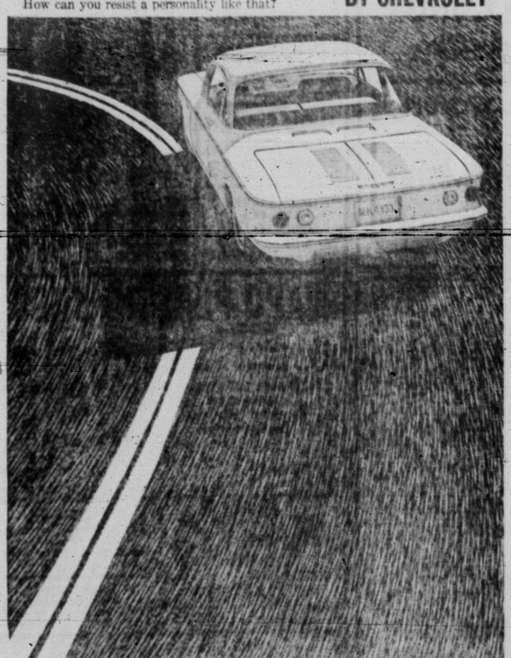

The Commerce Department said Tuesday that, in addition, foreigners paid $110 million in fares for travel on U.S. ships and planes, an increase of $20 million over the preceding year.

Although travel receipts from foreigners increased, the department said American outlays abroad increased even more so that the gap between payments and receipts increased by 10 per cent to $1.1 billion.

WINNING FRIENDS AT EVERY TURN One thing about Corvair, it makes friends in a hurry. One drive, in fact. Because any Corvair—wagon, sedan or coupe—is such an overwhelming joy to pilot. Its rear-engine design makes for light, positive steering and real nailed-down traction. And its full independent suspension shuts out road shocks before they ever reach you. What's more, this sweetheart's no slouch at saving you money: it carries a sensible price tag, goes and goes on a gallon, never needs liquid coolants.
How can you resist a personality like that?

Cubs, Sox Score Easy Victories

Little League White Sox third sacker Kenney Haskell powered a booming grandslam homer to left in the second inning of a Tuesday encounter against the Athletics, that blow giving his mates the early advantage needed, as they went on to roll past the A's by 14-3.

The victory carried with it added meaning, as the two teams had entered the fray tied for the loop leadership in the two-team tussle for the top spot.

Johnny Gaona went the distance for the Sox to gain credit for the important victory. He allowed four singles during his stint, two of which were picked up by Ricky Cornell.

The Sox collected six hits off the combined efforts of loser Freddy Benitez and relief hurler Lonnie Gilstrap. Three of them went for extra bases, however, as Robert Golden connected for a solo homer in the first and Gaona doubled in the fifth in addition to Haskell's big circuit smash.

Buddy Powell was the only Pale Hose performer to garner more than one hit, as he singled twice in three trips.

In other action of the night, the Cubs surprised the league-leading Giants, burying them beneath a 9-3 score.

Starter Robert Jones was the winner in that one. He was helped along by Delbert Foree, who worked the final three innings.

Ken Pollard, Giant starter, absorbed the loss. He went the first three frames, then stepped down to make way for Lane McMillan, who tossed the final three.

Cub first baseman Mike Kenner was the big man in his team's platter attack, singling three times in four appearances. Jones aided the effort with a pair of singles in four trips, also.

Giant catcher Murray Bowden had the big base knock of the game, a leadoff fourth inning roundtripper to center.

AS "66" UPENDS MIXON

Harlin Inches By Smith, 4-3

The Harlin Oilers pulled up to within a half-game of front-running Denson Gulf here Tuesday night in City Softball League play.

They did so, third way, however, upending R. E. Smith by 4-3 in a 10-inning contest.

The Smithmen started out like a house afire, tallying all three of their runs in a first inning splurge. Walks were issued to Joe Falls and Leroy Leard at that time, after which Kenneth Drake cleaned the bases with a four-bagger.

Harlin came alive in the fifth to break the scoring ice. Dave Harlin lit the spark by singling, and scored on a double from off the bat of Max Laing. Laing eventually scored himself on the grace of a Smith fielding miscue.

Tim Marcum knotted the contest in the sixth with a solo, homer to send the game into extra innings.

Errors led to Smith's downfall in the tenth, also, when with two out Bennie Greenfield drew life on a bobble and romped home when a long fly by Marcum was dropped.

Guy Sullivan was the winner as he set Smith down on four safeties. Leard relinquished eight hits in taking the loss.

Harlin's Jim Wesson, with three singles in five times up, paced the Oilers at the plate.

Other action of the evening saw Plainsmen 6C applying the pincers to Mixon Tires, 11-4.

Billy Andrews was the victor, allowing a total of four hits, while Eckert was the losing chunker on 11 base knocks.

Several "66" batsmen sparkled during the contest. Eddie Gregory had three singles in as many trips. Clyde Colvin doubled twice in two plate appearances. Clint Gregory doubled and singled, and Abram Jones tripled to show the way for the winners.

Bill Kimzey tallied the Mixon run on a Phillips fielding bobble.

Harold "Pinky" Kraft has been coaching the University of North Dakota baseball team six seasons.

Phillies Flip Tigers, 8-4

The Colt and Pony League kingpins shoulda "stood in bed" Tuesday, as both got themselves unceremoniously bounced.

The Phillies slipped into a tie for second in the Colt standings with an 8-4 peppering of Roby's Tigers, the win giving the Phils a 4-4 mark and dropping the Bengals to 3-3.

Ronnie Bennett went all the way for the Phils to register the victory, a five-hit affair. Tigers Barry Hughey and Bob Waddell led the losing attack against him with a pair of singles and a double, respectively.

A big fifth inning iced the contest for the Phils, when consecutive singles by Lupe Lopez, Tim Hardin, and Hall combined to shell starter-loser Bill Ashton from the hill and bring on reliefer Bob Waddell, who toiled the remainder of the game.

Bennett connected for the big blow of the game, a seventh frame triple. Lopez went 2-for-2, also, both of his hits being of one-base vintage.

The Pony Braves bolted into a share of the league leadership along with the Buffs by routing the Rebels—who entered the game in the top spot—by a 10-2 count in the nightcap. The Braves and Buffs are now 4-2 for the season, while the Rebs are a half-game away at 3-2.

Robert Foree and Jimmy Weaver each singled twice for the winning nine, and victorious hurler Ricard Bennett boosted his own effort with a firsthand inning triple to left.

Bennett went the route for the win, allowing only four singles over the span of the contest. Both Reb runners who scored had gotten on base via bases on balls.

Starter Ramon Valdez was the losing hurler after stepping down from off the hill in the fifth to make way for Jimmy Featherston.

Between You And Me

BY JERRY JACKSON

"I'm gonna get a hit off of Lonnie Friday," was the way he put it. And then added as an afterthought, "That is, if I can see it."

Lonnie in this instance is one Lonnie Crosby, who pitches for Denson Gulf in the City Softball League. Blond-thatched, and equipped with a blinding fast ball. The fellow who was doing the predicting was Lacy Boles, part-time jack-of-all - trades and a quick one, with the verbal quip.

His reference was to a game of the Friday past, in which he nor any of his teammates succeeded in touching Crosby for any hits.

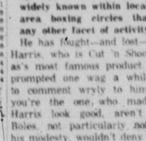

Boles has been participating in the softball program for about six weeks now, giving his very all for the Phillips "66" nine. But he's been doing it on what you might call "borrowed time."

His wife has strongly hinted more than once that she rates yard work, fence painting, and vacuum cleaner fixing quite a bit above ballplaying. But Lacy'll probably keep playing until such time as the little woman decides to take some punitive steps in his direction. So far he's still acting like a kid with a new toy about it all, though.

Ballplaying isn't his only love by any means, as he is more widely known within local and area boxing circles than in any other facet of activity.

He has fought—and lost—to Roy Harris, who is Cut 'n Shoot, Tex., as's most famous product. Which prompted one wag a while back to comment wryly to him: "Oh, you're the one, who made Roy Harris look good, aren't you?" Boles, not particularly noted for his modesty, wouldn't deny it.

He has won more than he has lost in the past, but somehow he is almost always remembered in this position, that being Lacy on the flight.

One of his so-called friends saw him the other day and admonished him to "Lay down on the floor, Lacy, so I can recognize ya."

Department of Just-Too-Good-To-Go-Unnoticed: A quote from yesterday's edition of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal concerning the area girls who are going to take part in the national AAU meet in Gary, Indiana, referred to it as the "Women's Natural AAU track and field meet."

You may rest assured, though, moms, that the statement was in error, and that ear entrant will be fully clothed in track attire.

Athletics Nip Yankees In FL Squeaker

The Farm League Athletics, riding high atop the standings, survived a gallant upset bid on the part of the Yankees here Tuesday, slipping past them by a slim 7-6.

Randall Owens was the winning moundsman, and Wesley Bishop the loser.

Yank center fielder Jimmy Farmer topped the platter parade of the evening with a triple and a single, while teammate R. Frizzell singled twice, also.

Powering the A's to the win were Larry Woolsey, Eugenio Davila, and R. Rodriguez, each of whom singled on two occasions.

The Indians outslugged the White Sox in the second game of the night, winning out by a 16-9 count.

Indian backstop Clyde Webster uncorked the big blow of the game, a second inning home run. Tribe third sacker John Thomas collected two safeties on the evening, one in each game, it being a double in the third.

Paul Glover clunked the win, and Larry Wall was tagged with the loss.

Claim Government Picking On Cohen

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mickey Cohen's lawyer says the federal government is picking on the ex-gambler.

In final arguments at Cohen's income tax evasion trial Tuesday, attorney Jack Dahlstrum said "Mickey Cohen is the government's whipping boy . . . like in the olden days when somebody took punishment for somebody else higher up. He was set up by the government to be an example to other persons to pay their taxes."

Cohen is accused of evading $76,000 in federal income taxes from 1956 to 1958. He was convicted on a similar charge 10 years ago and served a 4½-year term in prison.

Actress Anne Baxter, Husband, Expect Child

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Anne Baxter says she and her husband, Randolph Galt, expect a child in the late fall.

Miss Baxter has a daughter, Katrina, 10, by a previous marriage to the late actor John Hodiak. The Galts own a 37,000-acre ranch in Australia.

Finds No Reason To Retire At 65

DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Who says people should retire at 65?

When Dr. Clare A. Garber, 88, who moved her office from a downtown building to her home was asked whether she plans to retire, Dr. Garber said, "only reason I moved my office here is to take things a little slower."

Dr. Garber has been practicing medicine for 59 years. She is a graduate of the old Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago, class of 1902.

GRAND OPENING TOMORROW—This is an interior view of the new Ben Franklin Store, which will begin its grand opening event tomorrow. The opening celebration will continue through Saturday.

New Ben Franklin Store Will Open

Grand opening sale of Snyder's completely new Ben Franklin Store, located at 2503 Avenue S, will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Billy and Jean Wood, owners-operators, have announced.

There will be a large number of special merchandise values that have been purchased for the opening, Wood disclosed. Attractive gifts will be presented to all adult shoppers and their children.

The store will be open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. each day of the grand opening sale.

"Opening just at the vacation shopping season," Wood said, "we will offer a complete selection of summer needs and children's play clothes, toys and gift items. Our values will include popular brands that are already favorites with Snyder families, as well as many items that are new in retail stores this season."

The completely self-service store will have a wide assortment of variety items arranged in displays which provide the greatest convenience to shoppers, he added. All articles will be within easy reach and clearly price-marked.

Wood's store is one of more than 2,400 independent Ben Franklin businesses which work cooperatively with Butler Bros., nation-wide merchandising organization. The Ben Franklin plan is designed to enable local stores, operated to fit the needs of their communities, to offer more than 14,000 items of quality merchandise at lower prices.

Men with and without previous retailing experience, following the Butler Bros. plan of operation, have become successful store operators, he continued.

Explaining the Ben Franklin organization, Wood said Butler Bros. maintains a major distribution center in Dallas to speed to local stores the merchandise produced by hundreds of nationally known manufacturers. Butler Bros. professional buyers each year interview more than 10,000 salesmen and travel to all parts of the U. S. and to many foreign countries to visit 2,500 factories and manufacturer's show rooms.

As one of the world's largest buyers, Butler Bros. makes purchases in huge quantities which enable local stores to offer many special values.

Backed by this large national organization, the Ben Franklin voluntary chain now is the largest group of variety stores in the country, Wood pointed out.

He added that the entire interior and exterior design of the new store was planned by Butler Bros. on the basis of its scientific studies of variety merchandise displays, customer buying habits, and trends in retailing. The new location was selected because of its closeness to other popular retail shopping facilities and to plenty of parking space.

"We know Snyder families will enjoy shopping in pleasant modern surroundings and we hope they will give us their suggestions as to what they like in a locally owned and operated store," Wood said.

"Through friendly and courteous service and by guaranteeing the quality of every product we sell, we want to make our Ben Franklin the most popular store in Snyder."

Wood is a native of Snyder and started in this type of business here. He had been associated with Perry Bros. for 16 years.

Wealthy Dog Kicks Bucket

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — It's a dog's life. Inherit a bundle, then you kick the bucket before you can enjoy it.

That's what happened to a Pomeranian belonging to the late Lillie Hudson Cattrall, wealthy Miami Beach socialite.

When she died June 16 at 80, she left 1,000 shares of stock in the J. L. Hudson Co. of Detroit to her two Pomeranians. Immediately afterward one of the dogs became ill and was put away last week.

But that means twice as much for the other.

Under the terms of the will, Mrs. Cattrall's cook, Helen Baker, will administer the money for the care of the remaining Pomeranian. The amount of income from the stock was not disclosed.

In addition, 7,000 shares of the stock were left in trust for Miss Baker.

Examinations For AFB Positions Set

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced examinations for employment at Webb Air Force Base and other Federal agencies in the vicinity.

Positions involved are bookkeeping machine operation and card punch operator (CS-3) with annual salary of $3,760, and heating equipment mechanic—steamfitter (W-10) at $2.63 per hour.

Full information and applications may be obtained from the post office, or from the executive secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiner, Webb Air Force Base.

Specialists Are Sought

A new examination for equipment specialist in the optional fields of surface-to-air missiles and surface-to-surface missiles has been announced by the U. S. Civil Service Commission for filling positions paying starting salaries of $8,955 a year wit hthe Dept. of the Army.

Persons appointed to these positions will work as field representative of the U. S. Army Ordnance Missile Command at various locations throughout the United States. A few positions may be filled in foreign countries.

To qualify, applicants must have had the appropriate experience or training. No written test is required. Full details concerning the requirements to be met are given in Civil Service announcement No. 5-35-17 (61).

Announcements and application forms may be obtained from Marvin Hanback at the Snyder Post Office, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Dallas Told To Integrate

DALLAS (AP) — U. S. Dist. Judge Whitfield Davidson said Tuesday "The people of Dallas will have integration now, not by consent, but by force."

The white-haired jurist made his remark in signing an order instructing Dallas schools to start integrating in September with the first grade under a "stair step plan."

"Bad medicine," the judge said. The court's decree may take effect through the office of the U. S. Marshall or with soldiers' bayonets. It is force just the same."

Davidson's mild rulings on integration have been overruled by the U. S. 5th Circuit Court of appeals. The new order is for Dallas to integrate one grade per year. He cautioned Negroes not to "crow over the reverses of an honorable adversary."
