Four separate proposals will be submitted by the petitioners. One would replace the "Council-Manager" form of government with the "Mayor-Council" form of government, eliminating the office of city manager and providing an elected mayor and elected council to have full management of the city and to receive a salary. At present the mayor and councilmen serve without pay.

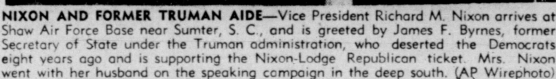

Another proposal would cancel and annul the power of the city council to annex additional territory to the City of Snyder by ordinance without consent of a majority of the property owners and inhabitants of the territory.

The third proposal would provide for an elected city attorney, judge of corporation court and city marshal.

Man Is Held In Slaying Of Judge In '55

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Joseph A. Peel Jr., former city judge of West Palm Beach, Fla., was arrested late Thursday night on charges of murder in the 1955 slaying of a Florida judge and his wife.

Circuit Judge C. E. Chillingworth and his wife, Marjorie, vanished from their West Palm Beach home June 15, 1955. Police said circumstances indicated they had been kidnapped and slain.

Sheriff James Turner said Peel, a neatly dressed man, was taken into custody 40 minutes after he arrived by plane from Charlotte, N.C.

Turner said Peel apparently came here to join James Donald Miles, 31, an Eau Gallie, Fla., builder, Miles and Peel, the sheriff said, are under $25,000 bond in Florida on charges that they conspired to murder a Florida ex-custodian, Floyd A. Holzapfel, 36.

Florida authorities said it was Holzapfel who last month bludgeoned two undercover agents in Melbourne, Fla., that he and another man were hired to murder Judge Chillingworth.

According to the story, which police said they tape recorded, the men took the 56-year-old judge and his wife four or five miles out to sea, weighted them with chains, and threw them overboard.

Holzapfel, who later repudiated the story, allegedly said he was hired by someone who held a grudge against Chillingworth. He is now in jail without bond in West Palm Beach under a charge of murder in the Nov. 5, 1956, slaying of Lew G. Harvey, 21, a Jacksonville area moonshine whiskey runner.

Both Peel and Holzapfel were charged with the Chillingworth slaying in sealed warrants at West Palm Beach. The warrants were kept confidential until Peel's arrest.

Sheriff Turner said Peel would make no statement except to say that he would waive extradition to Florida.

Chairman Jack Brooks, D-Tex., said Thursday that decisions of the Civil Liberties Board were influenced by the fact that he will ask his government activities subcommittee "for approval to conduct a thorough investigation at the earliest opportunity."

Nixon's campaign manager, Robert Finch, has called the charges a smear brought up to hurt Nixon's election chances. He said Nixon knew nothing of the loan until later.

Howard Hughes heads both the Hughes Tool Co. and Trans World Airlines, which is under CAB jurisdiction. The tool company has been identified as the maker of a $205,000 loan in December 1956 to F. Donald Nixon, a brother of the vice president.

Brooks did not name the source of the allegations that the CAB was influenced.

"It has been reported that following this loan in December 1956, TWA was granted a route from St. Louis, Mo., to Miami, Fla., that TWA's Far Eastern route was extended to Manila, that TWA was given a passenger fare increase and that the 12-year restriction imposed by the CAB on commercial transactions between the Hughes Tool Co. and TWA was lifted after the granting of this $205,000 loan," Brooks said.

Columnist Drew Pearson raised the subject of the loan last week in a story which said Hughes' problems "got better treatment after the loan."

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Old Pete is going home, back to the one he knows best.

"Old Pete." In this case, is John Daniel "Pete" McKenzie, one-time fast-shooting scourge of the South.

And he's coming back to the Texas Prison System. Twice convicted of murder and once sentenced to die in Texas, McKenzie paroled after much of his life was spent in prison—then ran afoul of the law in Washington.

But charges of attempted robbery and assault here are being dismissed and stricken from the jury docket after Texas officers indicated they would take him back.

McKenzie was charged here after a shooting incident. An elderly deaf-mute was wounded in the hip during an attempted robbery at a Spokane Valley tavern.

Deputy Prosecutor Donald Olson said there was a strong indication that the 34-year-old McKenzie attempted the robbery in an effort to be returned to prison.

Old Pete had several hundred dollars in his pocket at the time of the incident. Later examination by a psychiatrist indicated the old Texas badman was not psychotic.

NIXON ON OIL AND GAS DEPLETION

At the Texas Press Association annual convention in Houston, Texas on June 19, 1960 Vice President Nixon held a press conference. The transcript of questions and answers was carried in the Houston Post of June 20, 1960. The following is a record of his reply to a question about oil and gas depletion.

QUESTION: (Dawson Duncan, Dallas Morning News) — "I would like to ask you one question on the two points that are closely entwined in the economy of Texas: One, the 27 1/2 per cent depletion oil allowance; the other, the Harris Gas Bill that would relieve small independent producers of utility-type regulations."

ANSWER: (Vice President Nixon) — "The best political answer to that question from the standpoint of getting votes in throughout the country would be against both of those proposals and especially as far as the depletion allowance is concerned at least a very substantial modification."

"That is the political answer. I refuse to give it. And I refuse to give it because coming as I do from California, knowing something about oil exploration, also knowing something about the problems of a necessity for encouraging production in the natural gas area as the way in the long run to get gas to the consumers in the most efficient way at the cheapest prices may I say that my answer to both of those questions is I am for the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance, voting for it as I have previously in the Congress and in the Senate of the United States. I voted for the Harris Natural Gas Bill and I believe that the principle of that bill is sound and continue to support it."

NOTES: 1. On June 20, 1960, Kennedy voted for the Douglas Amendment to cut the oil and gas percentage depletion allowance.

2. On August 11, 1958, Kennedy voted for the Proxmire Amendment to cut the oil and gas percentage depletion allowance.

3. On May 5, 1953, Kennedy voted against the bill restoring the Tidelands to Texas and other Coastal states.

Louisiana Solons Go Into Session

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—The Louisiana Legislature meets today prepared for a new fight against school integration three months after federal courts warned Gov. Jimmie H. Davis against interference.

The governor and segregation leaders kept super secret exactly what the 12-day session would do. Administration sources voiced some concern over reports demonstrators might show up for peaceful protests against any move to close public schools.

Legislators, who confessed frankly they don't know what it's all about, said they didn't believe any attempt would be made to shut down the schools.

New Orleans public schools are under federal court orders to integrate their first grades Nov. 14. Davis and Atty. Gen. Jack Gro-millions are under federal court injunctions to keep hands off. The governor a week ago called the session, using only vague terms hinting at a states' rights challenge of federal authority.

Some lawmakers have been showing worry about the session call mentioning plans for a state militia.

Administration leaders may try to push through the package program in the normal five days of work, with the Senate winding up final legislative passage Tuesday morning, day of the presidential election.

There was no hint whether Davis would address a joint session. He has said he doesn't know what's in the bills.

A few weeks ago, A. P. Tureaud Sr., chief Louisiana counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, threatened new federal injunctions if anyone tried to block the New Orleans integration.

Supl. James F. Redmond of New Orleans, using a pupil placement "idea borrowed from Alabama, proposes to send five Negro girls to white schools.

The New Orleans city council Thursday, in a fist-pounding debate, warned the legislature against an "unwarranted act of meddling" in New Orleans affairs.

After Davis tried to seize control of New Orleans public schools last August, a federal court declared unconstitutional several key segregation measures passed in the 1960 regular session of the legislature and told Davis not to interfere.

Men's Beauty Aids: Sissy?

By BETTY DIETZ
Written for The Associated Press
DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Men — the dear, wonderful creatures — are getting better looking all the time.

Most of them won't admit it, of course, but they're working hard enough at it and spending enough money.

In addition to shoving some $271,000,000 worth of cologne and other toiletries on themselves this year, a growing number of American men are getting hair coloring jobs along with their shave and haircut. Tinting is a necessary part of barber training today, required by Ohio regulations.

A few enterprising souls are also getting permanents, mainly to give the hair what stylists call "body." (Or, so thinning pates won't be as obvious.)

Why the recent change from complete disdain for "sissy stuff" to keen interest in good grooming?

Vanity isn't the only reason. Many men are investing both time and money in their looks to protect their jobs, and in some cases their marriages.

Guaranteed enough privacy and surroundings that smack of masculinity, many more would go in for dye jobs to conceal the gray. Beauty shop operators agree. But men usually are fearful of being found out.

Lloyd Shroyer, a Troy O., barber, set aside a special booth for men with gray roots. Most of the tint customers, by the way, are men in the 30-to-45 age bracket who want the original color restored.

Not all the men are having their hair colored professionally. Much of it is being done at home—sometimes with a little wily help, the experts believe. This may be to cut costs and protect their secret.

Today's barber has to know almost as many styles and cuts as the woman's hairdresser, says Trety Martin who operates a barber college here. However, standard cut with medium length hair is still the favorite with the burr second. Martin says. Kids go for the butch mostly.

The Elvis Presley influence has waned, he adds, mainly because the "young fellows who wanted the cut couldn't grow the sideburns." The man with no hair is usually shy about getting gelled for a toupee. But the fact that men like Big Crosby and Charles Boyer wear hair pieces has done a lot to stir up business.

'Cents' of Smell
As recently as 10 years ago only four out of 10 men used after-shave lotion. The non-users thought it was both unnecessary and effeminate. Today, nine out of 10 use the lotion regularly and this year sales for shaving lotion alone are expected to total $47,700,000.

On the other hand, deodorants will rack up only $31,000,000—a sorry state of affairs, you think (if you realize that many men use their wives' deodorants. They'd never dream of admitting it.)

Hair tonics and all the other preparations will chalk up a tidy $89,000,000 while shaving creams, etc., will come to just $2,000,000 less.

Next thing you know, a girl will have to be careful what she says in the beauty shop.

The husband she's berating may be the customer in the next booth.

Rare Coins Rare Indeed

By MILTON MARMOR

LONDON (AP) — They come daily from all parts of the world to the vault-like numismatics section of the British Museum hoping to learn that their "rare coins" are of great value.

And daily these amateur treasure seekers have to be told that the coins they unearthed or stumbled upon are worth only their metal value.

Which raises the question: What is a rare coin?

Dr. John Walker, scholarly keeper of coins and medals at the museum, smiled softly as he gave the answer.

"A rare coin is one of which only two or three specimens at most have ever been seen or published. And it's a rare coin indeed when you find one never seen before."

The British Museum boasts one of the world's great collections of coins. They run to almost a million and they date back to the beginning of coinage, about 600 B. C. in both Asia Minor and in China.

Dr. Walker's eyes lit up as he recalled the occasion when a "young fellow walked in before the war. He had a large medallion of Carausius, a usurping Roman emperor in Britain in the Third Century."

What happened?

"The young fellow still has the valuable coin. It should be in the museum."

The other day a British Army officer came in with a blue vase filled with 50 or more little silver coins, all of the rule of the Persian Shah Sulaiman I (1666-94).

"We are not likely to want any of these," Dr. Walker said. "There is not much of a market for oriental coins, so the military fellow said we could have them as a gift. But what are we to do with them? We have had a specimen of each for some time.

If you should ever find a 1933 bronze British penny—and you won't, don't worry — you really would have something.

The British mint struck a few specimens of them. Three are in the foundation stones of the University of London, St. Mary's Church in Leeds and the Church of St. Cross in Middleton.

The museum says no others of the 1933 date exist, except those in the British museum and the royal mint museum.

If you find commemorative coinage of Constantine the Great, forget about it. They were struck in great numbers between 300 and 345 and not so long ago some 10,000 of them were found buried in Ross-on-Wye in England.

The numismatics section tries to soften the blow for coin finders even before they get to an expert.

On a table, in the waiting room outside the locked steel screen door to the numismatics rooms, there are numerous printed pieces of paper telling how common are so many of the coins regularly unearthed.

Dr. Walker tells sadly how it is that regular visitors to the museum itself almost never see the great coin collection.

"Our exhibition room is in that part of the museum that has not yet been rebuilt after the war damage," he explained.

Byrd Has A Subtle Way Of Making Intentions Known

BY ED KOTERRA
WASHINGTON. — Sen. Harry Flood Byrd, the pleasant perennial enigma of the political South, made this promise to me six weeks ago: "If I make the decision, you'll be the first to know."
I suspected that this was more than a kindly dismissal of my persistence, but I really did want to know who he was going to vote for on November 8 — or at least whom he was going to back.
When a big Democrat backs a Republican, that's news, but this little apple-faced man from Virginia wasn't talking then. I said in my story that the suspense was killing me. And Viola Stingley of Bloomington, Ind., wrote that it was killing her, too.
So beseeched that I locate the Senator again and find out once and for all.
Well, usually, when Byrd is ready to make a major political decision, he hikes the five miles up to Old Rag in Shenandoah National Park to meditate.
Each time I tried to reach him by phone at Winchester, Va., the word was that he was out in his orchards looking over his apples or sampling some of his own apple sauce. Then word filtered down from Old Rag summit that Harry'd been there — his final pre-election hike.
When finally he came to the phone, I put it to him directly: "What have you been up to, Senator — Old Rag, by any chance?"
He said yes, but only to dedicate a concrete shelter which he donated for the use of Appalachian Trail hikers. "I know what you want to know," he said, "and I'll let you know as soon as..."

To be sure, his procedure is different this political season. In 1952 when he came down off Old Rag, he announced: "I have decided to oppose Adlai Stevenson." Then, in '56, when he descended from the summit, he said: "My position is exactly the same as it was in 1952."

Ex-Queen Is Given Tour

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Television's Wyatt Earp has introduced former Queen Soraya of Iran to an old American custom—blackjack.
Actor Hugh O'Brian and the stately brunette toured the sights of the Desert Spa Thursday, viewing, in the course of the day, Virginia Lena Horne, Boulder Dam-Lake Mead, a few slot machines and the green baize tables where the blackjack dealers ply their trade.
Soraya, who was divorced by the shah of Iran in 1959 after she failed to bear him a male child, arrived here Tuesday with O'Brian and a chaperone, Mrs. Jaime del Amo.
When newsmen asked O'Brian if he had marriage plans, he told them: "You'd better ask the princess."
She only smiled and lowered her eyes when they did.

Economists' Predictions Vary Widely

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Business economists—who should, by now, be used to living dangerously — already are beginning to release their predictions for 1961.
As always the guesses vary widely. But a majority seem to fall into what may prove to be a pattern for the big outpouring of predictions that traditionally marks the final days of any old year.
More than half of those guessing today think that either the present general slackness will continue well into next year or that there will be a further, if slight, dip in the first half of 1961. Most of those so minded add they hope for a good recovery in the second half of next year.
Divergent exceptions are taken to this pattern by some. They see the first half of next year as better for business than was the first half of this year, when many industries were sliding from peak levels.
Others cite what they consider a much more general degree of confidence among business men right now than was noted in the fall of 1957 when many industries were entering a recession.
Political opinions may well color many views. A majority of purchasing agents, for example, are reported seeing little change in the business climate if the Republicans win, and a marked change in Washington's attitude if the Democrats take the White House. They worry about what as yet unknown course new policies might take.
Many predictions also bear the mark of the businessman's own problem—whether his chief concern is to sell his products to the consumers and thus needs to bolster their confidence, or whether he sells materials to other businessmen, and has to take into consideration their opinions or whether much of his business prosperity is tied to orders from governments at the various levels.
The National Association of Business Economists has held a forecasting meeting in New York. Publicly the majority went on record as looking for a moderate dip early in 1961 followed by a rise.
The National Industrial Conference Board polled 173 manufacturers and found six out of ten of their spokesmen on economics looking for profits and new orders to be unchanged or lower in the first half of 1961, compared with the year before, and the other four looking for an increase.
Government economists have been very vocal. Those in this administration express generally optimistic views—usually after those who served in previous administrations.

Think Shakespeare's Death Mask Found

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—The Hesse provincial library has acquired what it believes to be William Shakespeare's death mask.
The library bought the mask at auction Thursday for $10,948 from a Heidelberg art dealer who said a German tourist got it in England in the 18th Century.
German artists have long used the mask as a model for paintings of Shakespeare. Engraved inside the mask is 1616, the year the English dramatist died.

Tigers, Tors Battle In Do-Or-Die Joust

By Jerry Jackson
News Sports Editor

"Twist the Tornadoes" was the adage scrawled across the fieldhouse blackboard yesterday at Tiger Field, and tending to that chore will be the objective of the Snyder Tigers tonight as they clash with district rival Lamesa in a "battle for survival."

Site of the important game is Tornado Stadium in Lamesa, with kickoff time being 7:30.

The Tigers are still smarting from a 22-15 licking as handed them last year by the Tors, as that unexpected upending—following on the heels of Snyder's 10-6 victory over Sweetwater—knocked the Tigers out of undisputed possession of the district title. Snyder, Lamesa, and Sweetwater eventually tied for the crown with one loss each, and the Tornadoes advanced to the bid-trick round on the flip of a coin. Breckenridge romped over them with ease in bid-trick, winning out by a wallop 22-0.

Both teams go into tonight's game needing a victory in the worst way. Snyder is 1-1 in conference play and Lamesa 0-1. A defeat would tend to eliminate the loser from title contention.

Snyder goes into the game at near peak strength with one notable exception, that being center and defensive guard Reg. Scarborough, who is nursing an injured ankle and will be hampered considerably as a result. Scarborough, a veteran anchor-man who has been "Mr. Middle" for the team all season, is on the tentative starting list, but Tiger coach John Conley expressed doubt as to whether or not he will be able to play.

Lamesa isn't without injuries, as that team has several boys on the injured or ailing list. Bill Childers, a second unit halfback, is out with a broken nose as received in Tuesday's drills, while starting guard John Porter is slowed by an ankle injury. Those two are the only ones falling into the "major" category.

The core of the Tor offense centers around quarterback Gene Westmoreland, a scrappy 145-pounder. Another junior, Steve Free, will be directing the Tiger attack. He will be joined in the backfield by Mike Moffett and Perry Culwell at full. Culwell was only last week's "Walker Hittin' Hurler."

NEW YORK (AP)—Jerry Walker of the Baltimore Orioles, a 169-pounder in 1959, led all major league pitchers in batting with a sizzling .368 average in 1960.

Walker, a switch-hitter, collected 14 hits in 38 times at bat, figures compiled by The Associated Press showed today.

On the road will be the Lincoln High Trojans as they travel to Pinalview for an 8 o'clock clash there.

Waco beat Austin 27-18 Thursday night to climb back into the District 13 race of Class AAAA schoolboy football.

It also scrambled the district until there were five teams tied for first place. Part of this might be handled Friday night when Bryan and Temple, two of the teams in the five-way tie, play Austin McCallum and Austin Travis, respectively.

In other games of importance, Dallas Samuell whipped Dallas Bryan Adams 26-0 to roll on the momentum of the state's undefeated teams, and Corpus Christi Ray got dimly back into the race in District 14 with a 13-0 victory over Corpus Christi Carroll.

At least a score of district championships are on the line Friday night as the schoolboy campaign hits its most crucial stretch. The state's feature game matches unbeaten, untied El Campo and Bay City with the District 11 title in the balance in Class AAA.

Top-rated Baytown of Class AAAA plays Galena Park in a district game the Ganders appear virtually certain to win.

AS TRAVIS TAKES NIGHT OFF

Lamar 9th And 7th Roll To Wins; 8th Scuttled

Lamar Junior High invaded Lamesa last night and succeeded in establishing a beach-head on two fronts. Two battalions survived and were able to hoist the victory flag, while one other was lost to the enemy.

Posting victories were Lamar 9th, which vanquished its foes by 28-0, and Lamar 7th, an 8-6 victor over the Lamesans.

Being sucked under was Lamar 8th, which fell with a mighty 36-12 thud.

Those three games represented the only junior high activity of the night for Snyder teams, as the three Travis delegations were all idle.

Here's how it happened:

Lamar 9th 28, Lamesa 0

LAMESA — The Lamar 9th Texans, playing without the services of several stalwarts and carrying on a running fight with the penalty bugaboo during a flag-marred first half, still possessed more than enough artillery to shoot down Lamesa 9th here last night, 28-0.

Two Texan mainstays — tackle Larry Lee and fullback Eddie Kizer — were not able to suit up due to injury, while a number of other regulars could only operate at half-strength because of illness or maimings.

The entire Texan line fell in line for praise from coach Ace Amos, however, as did the substitute backs, many of whom saw considerable action for the first time. Quarterback Jim Wilson was the bright light in the Lamar attack, putting on one of the finest performances as seen this season.

Wilson initiated scoring in the first quarter, skirting right end on a 20-yard TD scamper. A blast at right tackle for the points fell short of the mark.

Wilson circled the same end in the third period for eight yards and the second six-pointer for the winners. Jimmy Feather shuffled over tackle for the points to up the count to 14-0.

Feather scored later in the same canto on a 40-yard romp around left end, followed by a successful conversion running over right tackle by halfback Edward Schulz. The caper offer for the Texans was tallied by halfback Sterling Kessler in the final quarter, as he slipped over right tackle on a 20-yard touchdown jaunt. Danny Aycock, a recent conversion from guard to fullback who reportedly took to the new position like a duck to water, hit right tackle for the follow-up points, but was piled up short of the mark.

The Texans stuck to the ground most exclusively, going airborne on only three occasions, none of which were completed. They amassed a total of 323 yards during the running of 58 plays on 45 attempts. Lamesa sent up 13 passes, hitting on three of same for a total of 30 yards.

Lamar was peppered by 11 penalties — all but two of which were charged in the first half — for 75 yards, while Lamesa was penalized twice for a total of 10.

Lamesa 36, Lamar 8th 12

LAMESA — "We looked dead," stated Lamar 8th coach Roy Carter following his Texans' 36-12 drubbing at the hand of Lamesa here last night. "Penalties and fumbles stopped us almost every time we started to move," he added, "but to put it flatly we just took a good licking."

The defeat was the second in a row for the Texan eleven, which still possesses a most respectable 4-2-1 record for the year. Lamesa leaped out to a comfortable 22-0 halftime lead, and was never headed in taking the win. A pair of touchdowns were marked up in the initial quarter on an end run covering 30 yards and a pass good for 40. Their third tally was realized in the second quarter on a run of 25 yards.

Fullback Jerry Wilson lit the spark for the Texans as the second half got underway, as he gathered in the kickoff and raced 70 yards for a touchdown to break the scoreless ice for his team. Halfback Tom Kincaid unsuccessfully attempted to carry for the points.

Near the end of the third period Lamesa boosted its margin to 30-6 by scoring again, then soon thereafter—early in the final stanza —capped off its point making on a 25-yard off tackle scoring slant. Kincaid rifled to end Shorty Bennett 40 yards for a touchdown on the last play of the game to bring on the 36-12 tab.

The Texans, plagued by butterfingers, lost possession five times via fumbles and once on a pass interception.

Tackle Larry Stewart and end J. N. Wall showed up to advantage on offense by opening up holes, while Albert Williams and Jerry Vestal sparkled for the Texans defensively.

Lamar 7th 8, Lamesa 6

LAMESA — Defense-minded Lamar 7th struck early, scoring in the first quarter of play for an 8-0 lead, then held on to win out over Lamesa 7th here last night by 8-6. It was the second victory in six starts for the young Texans, who also have one tie game to their record.

Highlighting first period play was a 25-yard scoring aerial, as sent aloft by halfback Eddie Greenfield, with Ray Kizer on the receiving end. The tally capped off a 35-yard paydirt drive. Greenfield added what was to prove to be the winning points by chugging off tackle on the conversion to boost the count to 8-0.

Lamesa retaliated early in the final quarter after gaining possession of the oval thanks to a blocked punt. A two-yard plunge over right tackle was good for the touchdown, after which a jump pass for the extra points was broken up when Texan guard Bill Blum reared up to deflect the toss, which was battered down by center linebecker Greenfield.

In a game which was dominated by Lamar throughout the first half and Lamesa in the second two stanzas, Greenfield was the most dominant figure on offense, while tackle Freddie Johnston was far and above the most outstanding player defensively speaking. Greenfield and guard David Holt also showed up well on defense for the Texans, Holt being responsible for the recovery of two enemy fumbles.

THE BIG GUY—Donnie Rannefeld, mammoth 240-pound Hermle Cardinal tackle, has been cited as Lineman of the week for the school by Card coach Ted Averitt on the basis of his hustle and all-around fine play as displayed in Saturday's 46-8 walloping of Lorraine. Rannefeld, a three-letterman senior, plays left tackle on both offense and defense. (Photo by Jackson)

Deer Kill Estimated

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—A harvest of close to 115,000 deer is predicted for this fall by the State Conservation Department. This was the figure for last year's kill, the second highest on record. About 465,000 hunters are expected to take the field for the Nov. 15-30 season.

Deciding Saturday Faces Conference

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer
Rice meets Arkansas and Baylor lashes at Texas on a fateful Saturday in Southwest Conference football.

Much can be decided—whether Rice is capable of going through undefeated, whether Baylor's dreams are to be turned into a nightmare, whether Arkansas can repeat its 1959 feat of tying for the championship by coming from behind.

High in the Ozarks Rice will make its greatest bid for season's glory. It's pretty well agreed that the task ahead—beating a good Arkansas team on its home field—is monumental. There will be tough games ahead after that but none will present the difficulties that might arise for the surging Owls Saturday.

Before the season began Rice straight and was accorded a great chance of capturing its first championship in 36 years, fell before angry Texas Christian last week and now is backed into a corner. The Golden Bears must beat Texas or it's all over for the season so far as championships go.

While these big games are being played, Texas A&M and Southern Methodist will be settling a long-standing feud in the comparative quiet of the Cotton Bowl. The game means nothing except a chance for one of the two to escape the cellar. It also will provide Southern Methodist with its best opportunity to win one this campaign. The Methodists have lost six in a row, may be on the way to their worst season yet.

Texas Christian, still with a chance of figuring in the championship, takes the week off, but Texas Tech, the other conference member, turns back to the infernal war. The Red Raiders meet Tulane at Lubbock but can only hope for victory. There is little to indicate the Techs have much chance with the Green Wave.

The conference is barely ahead in inter-sectional play, winning nine, losing eight and tying one. There are three games with outside foes left, so the league will have to win one to wind up even for the season. A Texas Tech victory would, of course, insure it.

With three out of four last week—Texas Christian ruined the average by beating Baylor—they look as follows this time: Rice-Arkansas—Rice has a good, solid football team that should win about like it did over Texas.

Baylor-Texas—The Bears can come back but it won't be easy. Texas A&M-Southern Methodist—The Aggies are not much at scoring but should be able to do more than SMU. Texas Tech-Tulane—A good chance for an upset but Tulane is the choice.

TIGER LANE LADIES—Morning ladies leagues at Tiger Bowl are reportedly "thriving," with emphasis being on the fact that all beginning lady keglers are urged to take part in infant leagues which are in action each Monday, Thursday and Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Tuesday and Wednesday mornings at the same time bowling classes are offered, with qualified instructors and nursery facilities available. Here one of the instructors, Ila Ruth Newton at center, poses with two of the officers of the Thursday-league; secretary Ann Looney at left and Mrs. Kenneth Goforth, president, at right. Jeannell Beasley is vice-president of the league. (Photo by Jackson)

"The One for the Many" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. Walter L. Lentz to the Grace Lutheran congregation at the 10:45 service.

The Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a.m. Services are being held in the West Elementary School auditorium until completion of the congregation's church building in the Cogdell Memorial Hospital area.

Every Saturday at 11:45 a.m. Rev. Lentz presents "Religion in the News" over KSNV.

Union Church Sets Revival

R. N. Tucker, Pastor of the Union Baptist Church, announced today that the church will be in revival all next week. There will be services twice daily during the week. The morning service will commence at 10 a.m., while the service in the evening will get underway at 7:30 p.m.

The Sunday Services will start at 10:30 a.m., with the Rev. Alfred Altum, Pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church in Abilene, doing the preaching.

Rev. Altum is a graduate of Hamlin High School and of Hardin-Simmons University. He also attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth.

Rev. Altum is well-known in this area, having formerly served as pastor of the Ira Baptist Church and of the Knapp Baptist Church. He has returned to Texas after being in pastoral work for four years in Arizona.

Singing for the revival will be under direction of Elmo Faver, a former resident of Snyder who now lives in Sweetwater.

Northside Church Sets Fall Revival

A fall revival will begin Sunday at Northside Baptist Church.

The Rev. Jack Dean, pastor of the church, will be the evangelist during the revival, which marks the eighth anniversary of Rev. Dean's ministry at the Northside Church.

During these eight years the Northside Church has grown from slightly over 100 to an enrollment of 341 with a record attendance of 534. There have been over 300 additions to the church during that time and 15 young men have surrendered to the ministry.

The mission program of the church has been greatly enlarged, with missionaries being supported in the United States and in many foreign countries. Last year the church completed a new auditorium seating over 700. This was the third unit of a three-part building program. The other units were educational facilities providing sufficient space for a Sunday School of over 600.

Rev. Dean is president of the Missionary Baptist Association of Texas and president of the Board of Trustees of Texarkana Baptist Orphanage.

There will be services each evening during the coming week, 7:30 p.m. with the evangelistic messages by the pastor. Music will be directed by the Rev. James F. Holmes, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Magnolia, Ark.

Halloween A Bit Much

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP)—It took three days, but a Navy wife finally has been convinced that Halloween goblins, witches and the rest of the trick or treat fraternity make only a one-night stand in the United States.

Guillermo Calit had locked herself and three young children in their Alameda apartment since Halloween night. She came out of seclusion Thursday.

Monday was Mrs. Calit's first Halloween in the United States. She is a recent arrival from the Philippines.

Her husband, Florentino, a crew member on the carrier Midway, tried to explain things to her before starting on a training cruise Monday. He stored a week's supply of food in their apartment and left a bag of trick or treat goodies.

But Mrs. Calit became terrified when great hordes of strange creatures descended. After treating the first waves, she locked the doors and windows.

She kept them locked until Thursday. She telephoned a neighbor, Gertrude Aden, and explained her plight. Mrs. Aden was unable to convince her that all was clear and no bad police, who finally applied the convincer.

Jack Webb Agrees To More Support

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jack Webb isn't fighting a request by his ex-wife, singer-actress Julie London, that he double monthly support payments for their two daughters, Stacy, 10, and Lisa, 8. In fact, he's for it.

He said Thursday in Superior Court that he would pay the $500 monthly asked by Miss London.

"Julie and Jack both recognize that as the children have grown older, their needs have increased and as a result have agreed amply upon the increased support payments," a joint statement said.

The TV actor-producer was ordered to pay $250 a month for the girls when he and Miss London were divorced in November 1953.

Baptist Youth Contests Set

The Southern Baptist Training Union association elimination tournament for Sword Drill and youth speakers will be held at the First Baptist Church here at 3 p.m. Sunday.

The Sword Drill consists of speed drills in locating Bible books and scriptures. This contest will feature young people of intermediate ages, 12-14. Contestants will be entered from First Baptist Church in Snyder and from Colorado City.

The youth speakers tournament for ages 17-24 consists of 5-minute speeches selected from 21 suggested topics and written by the contestants. All speeches must be original and delivered without benefit of notes or speakers aids.

Winners in these events will then advance to district eliminations in Big Spring on Nov. 13. The winners there will enter the state convention eliminations and be eligible to go to either the Florida, N. M., or Ridgecrest, N. C., Baptist Assemblies.

Sword Drill entrants from Snyder include Ann Patterson, Gene Shelburne, Mary Bowlin and Tommy Shelburne, alternate.

Youth speaker entrants from Snyder are Donna Lemoir and Marilyn Robinson alternate.

Witnesses Will Hear Supervisor

Circuit supervisor and minister, Arthur W. Avev, will visit the Snyder congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses Nov. 8-13. It was announced by the local presiding minister, J. D. Cook, today.

A special week of activity is planned beginning with Tuesday night at 7:30 when the weekly congregational ministry school will be held at Kingdom Hall on the Clairmont Road, followed by a ministry-development class. Mr. Avev will then give his first talk of the week on a vital Bible subject.

Each day following this Mr. Avev and members of the congregation will be engaging in preaching from door-to-door in the locality in imitation of Christian methods by Christ Jesus and his disciples. Wednesday through Friday evenings Mr. Avev will meet with different Bible study groups. Saturday night he will again address the congregation.

Various local ministers of Jehovah's Witnesses will also participate in highlighting answers to Bible questions. Mr. Avev has been an ordained minister since 1934. Sixteen years of this time was spent at the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society's international headquarters in Brooklyn, N. Y. He has also served as supervising minister in Missouri, Ohio, and Wisconsin.

The highlight of the week will be the public lecture, "Seeking Peace with God and Man," to be delivered Sunday, Nov. 13 at 3 p.m. at the Kingdom Hall on Clairmont Road. The public is invited to all meetings and lectures.

Rev. Tucker On Morning Devotions

The Rev. R. N. Tucker, pastor of Union Baptist Church, will be the speaker on "Morning Devotions," next week.

The program is presented at 9:15 a.m. Monday through Friday over KSNV.

The program is scheduled by the radio committee of the Snyder Methodist Alliance.

Missionary Will Speak Here Sunday

The Rev. Bill Tarter, missionary to India, will speak Sunday at Calvary Baptist Church, 2405 Third Street.

Rev. and Mrs. Tarter, originally of Amarillo, began their mission work in India in Sept. 1947. Study of the difficult Telugu language occupied much of their time during the first two years in their adopted country.

After successful completion of the prescribed examinations, they were able to start concentrated missionary activity in a completely unevangelized area.

Conversions were made and churches were organized. Two of these churches have become the strongest among village churches. They are indigenous in every sense of the word.

In Oct. 1953 the Tarters returned to America for turlough with their children, Rena Sue and Billy.

During their second term in India, the Tarters lived and worked in the City of Secunderabad. Secunderabad and Hyderabad are twin cities with a total population of over a million. A strong indigenous church has been established there. Extensive radio work also has been carried on.

Rev. Tarter helped organize and served as the first studio director of the Evangelical Radio Fellowship for South India. Radio programs produced in the six major languages of India are heard all over that country, as well as Burma, Ceylon, Pakistan, Arabia, East Africa and other countries on that side of the world. Upon return to India for their third term, the Tarters plan to enlarge this ministry which has proved so successful. This will enable the villagers to hear the gospel every day in their own language.

Rev. Tarter will have an exhibit in the lobby of the Calvary Church of things that he has brought from the mission fields of India.

Sunday evening at 7:30 he will show a film on the religions of India and slide pictures of the work.

that he has been engaged in. The public is invited to attend the services.

REV. BILL TARTER

Alliance Slates Meeting Monday

The Snyder Methodist Alliance will meet at noon Monday at Tiger Bowl.

Plans for a community service for Thanksgiving will be made and a program on visitation and evangelism will be presented by R. Virgil Mott of the First Baptist Church.

Wrong Island Is Picked For Port

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—They had a big ceremony a week ago, dedicating a little island as the site of Miami's new port.

Thursday, a bulldozer began pushing down trees, clearing the land. Four acres had been worked before someone began making some calculations.

"Oops, wrong island" was the comment. Everything should have been on an island 500 feet to the west.

Former Missionary Casts First Vote

AVON PARK, Fla. (AP)—Gen. Ulysses S. Grant was elected president of the United States in 1868, one year after Dr. Martha Tate was born in Hickory, N.C. Twenty-three national elections later, the former medical missionary to Korea has cast her first vote for a national candidate.

Dr. Tate, 98, sealed her absentee ballot Thursday and with a cheery smile gave it to Mrs. Roland X. Drut, deputy registration supervisor of Highlands county.

Now a resident of a nursing home, Dr. Tate said she is a registered Democrat. She declined to say for whom she voted.

When the pedestal for the Statue of Liberty was completed in 1866, jubilant workmen threw into the molten collection of silver coins from their own pockets.

Junior Editors Quiz on FOOD

QUESTION: How did dried grapes come to be called raisins?

ANSWER: Raisins are made from bunches of tiny, seedless grapes. When ripe, the bunches are placed on trays in the sun where they dry for 10 to 15 days. Later they are cleaned and packaged. The Egyptians first discovered that grapes could be preserved by drying when they found bunches of dried grapes, which had been missed by pickers, still on the vine. That was hundreds of years ago, for raisins are mentioned in the Old Testament. They were very popular in ancient Rome. And it is from Rome that the word comes. Raisin apparently stems from the Latin word racemus, or racemus, which meant a cluster of grapes or berries.

FOR YOU TO DO: Compare a raisin and a grape. Then taste both.

(Shirley Ferguson of Lake Charles, La., wins $10 for this question. Mail your question on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of this newspaper. If duplicate questions are received, Mrs. Higgins will choose the winner.)

Stand On Nudism Is Requested

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Where do Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy stand on nudism?

Horton Room, editor-publisher of the nudist magazine "Sunshine and Health" says he wants to know.

Room said Thursday he wrote to both presidential candidates asking their views on the practice of nudism but received no answer.

America's 250,000 nudists will be disappointed by the lack of response, Room said.

Subject to Law

Surely the eagle best represents the ideal of Liberty. But the picture shows him to be under restriction. He has duties to perform, young to rear and a home to protect. Perhaps freedom is linked with responsibility. From Alaska to the Gulf he ranges in freedom as monarch of the sky.

Yet, how subject is he to the natural laws of God. You never see birds very high in the sky. Most birds do not risk much of height above the tree tops. When exhausted they need a branch on which to perch. They fly awhile and then earth calls them down. How clearly the eagle speaks to us Americans. We are so free, yet so subject to God, so responsible to Him and ours. May we limit our own freedom, support His church and realize how subject we are to God.

You In The Church The Church In You

— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Ministers of all faiths and the community-minded firms below persuade you to read this Spiritual Values page and make it a part of your life... it is your heritage.
