1 Injured In Thursday Accident

One person was injured as a result of early morning wrecks Thursday. Ruby Ozle Land of Midland received a fractured vertebra of the neck when the car which she was driving ran off the highway and overturned 2 times 6 miles west of Colorado City at 3:45 a. m.

After being treated at Root Memorial Hospital, she was released.

She apparently went to sleep at the wheel, according to Highway Patrolman Elmer Rogers.

The 1960 white Renault sedan was a total loss.

A 1959 Chevrolet station wagon and a 1952 Ford pickup were involved in a wreck at 7:34 Thursday morning on US Highway 80, eight miles east of Colorado City.

Driver of the station wagon was Crystal Walker Fouché of Odessa. D. E. Light of Colorado City was driver of the pickup.

Light slowed his speed and was attempting to turn left onto the road leading to the Country Club when the Fouché car overtook him from the rear. Both were traveling east.

The right front of the station wagon was crushed.

Accountant to Direct UF General Division

Henry Lewis, civic-minded accountant and tax consultant, will chairmen general division of Mitchell County United Fund's 1961 finance drive.

His division of volunteer workers will make the largest number of calls of any unit in the drive.

And his workers will move into action during United Fund Week, Sept. 19 through 23, as the final march opens in the campaign.

Goal of Mitchell County United Fund this fall is $40,000 — a sum that will provide finances for 8 cooperating youth, welfare, health and charity organizations during the 12-month period of 1961.

The $23,988 goal is almost $4,000 less than previous campaign targets. It represents a chopping by the fund's screening committee and board of trustees to provide a realistic but adequate financing for the UF program.

Lewis will provide plenty of United Fund experience while leading the general division.

Last year he was chairman of the special gifts division and during the last 2 years has audited the United Fund books.

He is a member of the city's parks and recreation board, a Jaycee director and Chamber of Commerce member. Previously, he was vice president and treasurer of Jaycees.

Lewis teaches a Church of Christ young people's class, is scoutmaster for Troop 23 and is a Lions Club director. For 2 years he was a club master and explored scout advisor.

Forty-nine citizens will serve as captains of the drive.

COMMITTEES AT WORK

Sept. 29 Museum Opening to Combine with Pioneer Party

Sept. 29 will be the opening date for Colorado City Museum.

And the opening will be combined with pioneers' reunion and other activities.

Date for the museum opening was set at a meeting Thursday night at the museum — the main floor of American Legion Hall.

A six-member committee has been appointed to head arrangements for the reunion, according to R. H. (Harry) Ratliff, president of the Colorado Museum Association.

Chairman for the reunion committee is Mrs. Ruth Althart. Serving with her are Sims A. Palmer, Otto Jones, Mrs. C. P. Gary, Mrs. E. H. Winn, Mrs. Louise Wulfjen Geisenberger of Natchez, Miss.

Initial meeting of the reunion planners will be Monday morning.

Other committee chairmen for the museum opening include Claude E. Cogswell, catalogue and index; J. Ralph Lee, finance; Mrs. Charles Thompson, arrangements; Francis Winn, general work; Mrs. J. Ed Richardson, B&PW representative for refreshments.

Ratliff said volunteers desiring to assist with the museum work should contact a committee chairman.

Porter Richardson is making a sign for the museum, which will be contributed free to the association.

Association dues now are being collected for the 1960-61 fiscal year, Ratliff said.

This photo shows Lawrence Lindsey while in military service and before beginning a civilian career in Wichita Falls. The 25-year-old man was murdered last week in Lawton, Okla.

OKLAHOMA MYSTERY

C-City Native Cruelly Slain

Lawton, Okla., police continue investigation this week concerning the mysterious slaying of Lawrence Lindsey, 25, of Wichita Falls, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. DeLong of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lindsey Sr. of Lawton.

Lindsey was severely beaten in Lawton on July 23 and died in Wichita Falls two days later.

Lawton police believe that a group of about 12 persons beat Lindsey and 4 other persons in what was believed to be an unprovoked attack.

Detective Capt. Cleo Stout of Lawton reported that indication show that the fatal fight developed from another fight.

Stout said that a short time before Lindsey and his friends were attacked, an elderly popular barroom man in Lawton was beaten. The detective believed that the persons who attacked Lindsey's party apparently thought they had beaten the man.

But the detective said that he was sure that none of Lindsey's group attacked the elderly man.

Lindsey was an assistant foreman for the William Cameron Co. in Wichita Falls and had gone to Lawton to attend stock car races.

He was born in Colorado City on August 17, 1936. He had lived in Wichita Falls for 13 years, attended Public schools there and was in the armed services for 3 years.

Funeral rites were conducted in Wichita Falls.

He is survived by his wife, Catherine, his mother, Mrs. Guy Woolridge of Wichita Falls, his father, Billy Joe Lindsey of Midland, a sister, Mrs. Ed Vinson of Wichita Falls, 2 half brothers, Guy Woolridge III and Paul Woolridge of Wichita Falls, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. DeLong of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lindsey Sr. of Lawton.

IN COLORADO CITY

Today Is - Anytime Entertaining Time

There was a time when entertaining was limited to a formal "season," but Texas hostesses are as likely to entertain guests, neighbors or vacationing friends in the summer as during the winter months.

The real advantage of summer entertaining is in the more relaxed atmosphere which makes summer parties more fun for hostesses as well as guests.

An increasingly popular summer party is the Sunday brunch, featuring an easy-to-prepare but hearty menu. Sautéed chipped beef and mushrooms in cream served on toasted English muffins, accompanied by fried tomatoes, fresh fruits, and coffee is a Sunday brunch menu that would tempt anyone.

For quick, canapés for drop-in guests, try this easy recipe:

1/2 cup minced corned beef
1 1/2 tablespoons sherry

1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Mix thoroughly, spread on crackers and broil under high heat for about a minute.

Sandwiches have become standard fare for anytime entertaining. This sandwich filling keeps well in the refrigerator, and can be prepared well in advance of a planned luncheon, or kept for children who come home from the swimming pool "starving."

BEEF-AND-CHEESE SANDWICHES

1/4 cup sharp American cheese, grated

2 tablespoons mayonnaise

1 4-ounce can of dried beef or corned beef

1/4 cup sweet-sour pickles, chopped fine

1 tablespoon minced onion

2 tablespoons minced celery or parsley

1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard or pinch of curry powder
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Mix thoroughly. Spread evenly on slices of white or rye bread. For luncheon, use white bread and toast the prepared sandwiches under the broiler, then cut diagonally to divide sandwiches into halves or fourths for attractive arrangement.

For a cocktail party, prepare midget meat balls which will simmer quietly and give the hostess ample time for last-minute preparations. This recipe makes 20 to 30 meat balls.

SWEET-SOUR MEAT BALLS

1 pound ground meat

1/2 medium onion, minced

1 bottle chili sauce (7 or 8 oz.)

1/2 cup grape jelly

1 teaspoon lemon juice

Combine chili sauce and jelly and simmer over low heat until blended. Mix onion with ground meat and roll into balls about one inch diameter. Gently place meat balls into sauce and simmer over very low heat for about 2 1/2 hours, stirring occasionally to prevent sauce from sticking. Remove excess fat from sauce, stir in lemon juice, insert tooth picks in meat balls, and serve in chafing dish.

Although Mrs. Norrell is just a housewife at the present time, she was employed by the State National Bank in Big Spring before moving here.

Mrs. Norrell would probably agree with the old adage, "Man's work is from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done." With a three year old mix for a daughter, she is kept fairly busy from morning till night.

Debbie, a pert, vivacious youngster, chatters away while she plays house or colors in her color-book. She is the perfect little mother-to-her-dolls which include a small one she got off the Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Norrell, who have been married four years, both finished high school at Sayre, Oklahoma.

They have no hobbies, in fact, they say they do nothing but work. However, Mrs. Norrell and Debbie manage to get in a little swimming now and then.

The Norrells have not yet had time to join any of Colorado City's organizations. Norrell says the only organization he belongs to at the present time is the Anthony Company.

Dr. Bill Rhode was speaker for the Asbury Methodist Men's group in Lubbock last Tuesday night.

His topic was "The Responsibilities of the Laymen."

Dr. Rhode was accompanied to Lubbock by Jim Forshey and Anne Rhode.

In New Home

The new Anthony manager, Ronnie Norrell, relaxes with his family in his home. Mr. and Mrs. Norrell and Debbie have lived in Colorado City exactly three weeks today.

Anthony Family Considers C-City Real Friendly Town

Although they are members of the Baptist church, they have not yet joined a church in Colorado City.

Norrell's brother, Leo Norrell, was the manager of the Anthony store here before it burned December 23.

Not only are the Norrells glad to be here with Anthonys, but they are glad to be associated with Colorado City residents. Mr. and Mrs. Norrell consider this a real friendly town.

'Pollyanna' Due At Palace Theatre

With the first turn of a movie camera on a hot day in California's Napa valley, the joining of two legends became a fact — the fictional legend of "Pollyanna" and the living legend of Walt Disney.

"Pollyanna" will be at the Palace Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The mixture of what the name Disney represents with the almost spiritual effect that the orphan girl of Eleanor H. Porter's novel has had on people everywhere, is a motion picture "natural." Walt Disney is a household word today. "Pollyanna," at least to older generations, has been a recognized American institution ever since 1912 when it was first published.

Actually, the story of the fabulous success of the book is as incredible as the story of the public's acceptance of Disney as a creative genius. "Pollyanna" Whittier, so the novel reads, was an orphan girl who came to a small eastern town to live with her wealthy, spinsterish, strict, unloved, and seemingly unloving aunt, Polly Harrington.

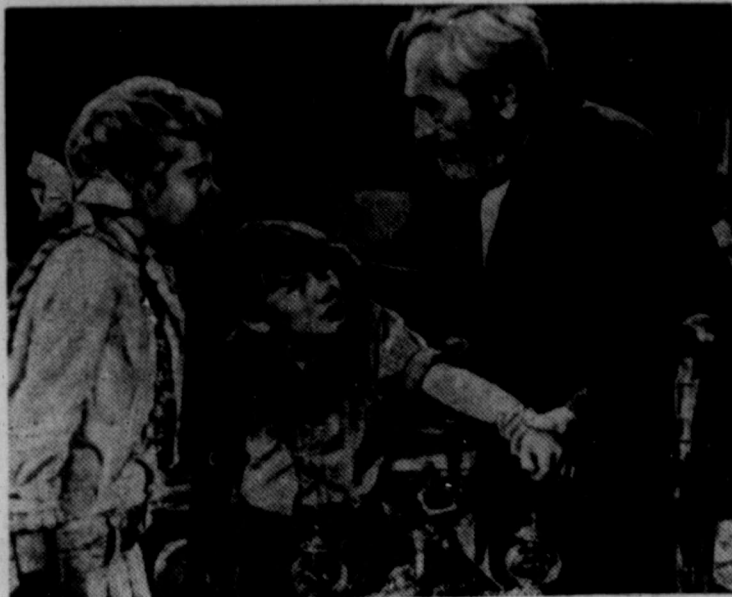

Aunt Polly runs the town of Harrington with a velvet-gloved fist. She is charitable because it is a civic duty. She maintains the name Harrington in the fashion of a benevolent despot.

Into this area of "town acceptance" of things as they are, comes Pollyanna and her "Glad Game." This is a philosophy which simply says that no matter how bad things are, they could be worse.

The effect of the book was phenomenal. A New York Stock Exchange broker suggested to members of the Exchange that they read "Pollyanna" to their families. The inmates of a large eastern prison, began playing the "Glad Game," and according to their letters to Miss Porter, it helped them hold hope for the future.

The teacher of a midwestern school made individual "Pollyannas" of all the girls in his class. The book became required reading in hundreds of public schools throughout the country. The novel received unanimous praise from the clergy.

"Pollyanna" has been published in 22 countries throughout the world. In the United States alone more than 3,500,000 copies have been sold, indicating an estimated 12,000,000 readers. Within a few short months after its publication, Miss Porter had received Adolphe Menjou, portraying Mr. Pendergast, a recluse who reputedly cannot abide children, harangues Hayley Mills and Kevin Corcoran in this scene from Walt Disney's new Technicolor production, "Pollyanna." The screen adaptation of the famed Eleanor H. Porter novel, stars Menjou, Jane Wyman, Richard Egan, Karl Malden, Nancy Olson, Donald Crisp, Agnes Moorehead and young Corcoran, and presents Miss Mills in the title role. "Pollyanna" starts Sunday at the Palace Theatre.

ed literally thousands of letters from people who said they had been helped in a measurable fashion by Pollyanna's philosophy.

In trying to explain just what the youthful heroine believed, Miss Porter said in an interview: "Pollyanna did not pretend that everything was good. Instead, she represented a cheery, courageous acceptance of the facts. She understood that unpleasant things are always with us, but she believed in mitigating them by looking for whatever good there is in what is."

The combination of "Pollyanna's" universal appeal and Walt Disney's genius has resulted in an outstanding motion picture, one that is already being talked of in Academy Award terms.

afternoon of Aug. 26 for a safety meeting.

The August pre-school registration completes a registration and student guidance program which started last spring in both High School and Junior High.

Wilson emphasized the importance of all High School and Junior High students to report to their school on assigned registration dates.

If they cannot be present their prescribed dates, then they should inform their principals ahead of time, the superintendent said. This is necessary for accurate registration and to adopt class schedule as close as possible to the individual student's plans.

Individual schedules—which must be confirmed at the final registration—are being mailed to High School students. Junior High students will receive their individual schedules when they report on assigned dates.

By BONNIE SUMMERS

Old and young alike are looking forward to the Pioneer's Reunion in Colorado City Sept. 29, in connection with the opening of Colorado City Museum Association.

Many interesting articles are on display in the museum at corner of Third and Chestnut Streets.

To mention a few — an ox yoke that belonged to J. D. Wulfin, father of Mrs. E. H. Winn and B. L. Wulfin. Mr. Wulfin used the ox yoke when he moved his family to Mitchell County from Williamson County in the early 1880's.

A stove pipe hat that belonged to Captain Jeffries, old pioneer lawyer here for many years, presented to the museum by the D. M. Merritt family — an old loom that belongs to Jim Heston. It is over 75 years old and his mother wore it on it.

Two chairs from the first Mitchell County Courthouse was presented the museum by Will Berry. The first courthouse stood in the middle of where Oak Street is now, in the 300 block. It was built in 1881.

Anyone for a swing through the northwestern States?

You should have been along with the J. V. Howard family when they went sightseeing on their two-week vacation trip recently.

Yellowstone National Park was the main objective for the trip — but the Howard family saw many interesting sights in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and back in good old Texas!

Howard was on vacation from his job at Col-Tex, where he has been employed the last 15 years. Mrs. Howard was taking a vacation before she started work in the new Anthony Store that had its opening last week.

Doris and Patsy are employed by the local theatre management. Doris at the Palace and Patsy at the Lone Wolf, and they were just along with mom and dad for the trip. Donald Howard, also accompanied his parents on the trip.

Asked what the most interesting thing that was seen on the trip, the answer—"The bears at Yellowstone!"

There's lots of interesting things to be found in our home state... just ask Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dunn and children, Mary Glenda and David.

Glenn, who is salesman for Jay Adams Chevrolet Company, and his family visited relatives in Quanah for several days and then 'hop-scotched' across central and southern Texas. They visited and went sightseeing in Austin, Harlingen, Padre Island, and many other interesting spots in our Lone Star state!

Bobby and Johnny Carver, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carver, are having a time fishing and camping out while visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Hickey, in Oklahoma City, Okla.

The Carver sons will return home about Aug. 15, following a vacation that they will remember. The grandparents have taken them to numerous places, including Devil's Den in southeastern Oklahoma.
