8000 Forget Chill Blasts As Spudders Whip Shreveport

CHAMPS OPEN SEASON WITH 5-4 VICTORY

Initial Contest Tucked Under Wings of Local Club

TWO BANDS PLAY

Usual Festivities Mark Inauguration of Great Pastime

By LARRY DAILEY
Record News Sports Editor

The Spudders made a Roman holiday yesterday. And more than 8,000 baseball enthusiasts who turned thumbs down on the Shreveport Sports, enjoyed it.

Despite a harsh wind that blew dust and a chilling breeze, opening day of the 1928 Texas league season at Athletic park was a success. It was, indeed, an artistic and financial success. For the Spudders won the ball game 5 to 4 and the turnstiles clicked their merry tune to show that the fans are appreciative of a championship nine.

Topcoats, Anyway

Adding to the artistic success was the presence of many women, colorfully attired for the gala occasion, in the grandstand. Overcoats and topcoats, however, were worn by the so-called stronger sex, and it looked more like a setting for a football game than for a display of our national pastime.

The day was marked by usual ceremonies traditional to opening day. Mayor Akin pitched the first ball to Fire Chief McClure. That is, Hizzoner tossed the ball in the chief's direction. But it went back of Tom Jenkins, who was accorded the place of honor as batter.

As the Spudders raced onto the field to take up their positions, a band played "Dixie," and the throng vented its enthusiasm in a demonstration befitting their pride in the champions of the South.

Snappy Music

Umpires Hill and Donnell, attired in white trousers and blue coats, held conference with Manager Carl Williams of the Spudders and Art Phelan of the Sports. The band played "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," which, judging from attendance, it was. Mayor Akin wound up and threw the ball in the general direction of home plate, Red Phillips announced the batteries and Dick Cox as the first hitter—and the jamboree was on.

Parade Before Game

Led by a detail of mounted motor cops and Police Captain Scott, the players of both clubs and fans paraded through the downtown section. Lawler's Huzzars and the Lions club boys' band played during the parade and before the game.

The Sports were out on the field, attired in gray uniforms, traditionally worn by clubs on the road. The Spudders, champions of the South, followed the enemy a few minutes later.

Spotless white regalia, with the magical legend "Dixie Champions" on the left breast of the shirt, were worn by the champions.

Boy scouts assisted as ushers, and the youngsters were most able and polite.

WHEREIN HIZZONER SHOWS HE'S BETTER MAYOR THAN PITCHER

More than 8,000 pairs of eyes were centered on the pitcher. The suspense was intense. A windup, and the white sphere went hurtling—where? About ten feet from home plate. But it didn't matter—Mayor J. W. Akin was the pitcher, tossing the first ball to Fire Chief J. L. McClure yesterday to open the 1928 Texas league season at Athletic park, with the champion Spudders meeting the Shreveport Sports. Tom Jenkins, the great slugging Wichita Falls outfielder, was the batter when Hizzoner uncorked the wild toss. The champions won the game, 5 to 4, thus beginning where they left off in 1927.

DEMOCRATS JUBILANT OVER ILLINOIS REPUBLICAN SPLIT

Practically Complete Returns Assure Overwhelming Victory For Deneen Forces In Primary Vote.

CHICAGO, April 11. (UP)—Illinois voters completely wrecked the Small-Thompson-Crowe alliance, gave the republican list of candidates for the November election an entirely new complexion and lent added strength to the presidntial candidacy of Frank O. Lowden, a survey of Tuesday's primary showed tonight.

The democratic leaders in the state were jubilant because they saw a breach in the ranks of the republicans so great that the remaining months until November will be unable to heal it. The bitterness which waged openly in the primary campaign will leave its marks on the republican candidates, the democrats feel.

Deneen Slate Wins.

The so-called Deneen slate of candidates under the banner of the Emmerson-Deneen-Swanson ticket won nominations all through the list with estimated majorities ranging from 200,000 to 400,000.

Louis L. Emmerson, candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, was given the biggest state-wide victory when he defeated Governor Len Small by an estimated majority of approximately 400,000.

To Chicagoans, equally important was the crushing defeat handed State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, in the nomination of Judge John A. Swanson, who charged in the campaign that the prosecutor's office was responsible for existing crime conditions in this city.

Thompson Crushed.

Governor Small and Mayor William Hale Thompson put their entire machine behind Col. Frank L. Smith, who sought again to enter the United States senate, but the voters of Illinois gave an approximate 200,000 majority to nominate Otis Glenn.

The republican state convention at Springfield on April 20 will be controlled by Lowden forces and the 11 delegates-at-large will be selected to support him.

All For Smith.

Governor Al Smith of New York assumed practically complete control of Illinois' 58 delegates to the

SINCLAIR ALIBI GIVEN JOLTS

Interior Official Tells Of Quietus On Deal

WASHINGTON, April 11 (US)—The government struck two hard blows at the defense alibi in the Teapot Dome trial today.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior E. C. Finney swore that Albert B. Fall personally negotiated with Harry F. Sinclair for the lease of the oil reserve and when it was consummated, directed that no publicity be given the transaction.

Sinclair, on trial for conspiracy to defraud the government, contends through his lawyers that the lease was on open and aboveboard business agreement, with which Fall had little or nothing to do.

Finney explained that, while he

SUIT THROWN OUT OF COURT

Judge Rules He Has No Jurisdiction in Ouster

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 11. (UP)—The Ku Klux Klan won an important victory in its trial in federal court today when Judge W. H. S. Thomson, hearing the case, ruled he had no jurisdiction in the counter suit of five "rebel" defendants seeking to banish the organization from the state.

The ruling came as an unexpected move in the trial, which opened Monday. Practically all objections by the Klan counsel to sensational evidence of murders, floggings, and political corruption introduced by the group of five had been overruled by the judge.

In ruling out the cross bill which asked that the organization be banned in Pennsylvania and an accounting of approximately $20,000,000,—said to have been collected by the Klan—be accounted for, the

City Council Starts Hunt For First Manager for Wichita Falls

Collection of Delinquent Taxes Voted at Meeting; Egg Supply for Gila Monster Questioned

The city manager form of government drew a step nearer to Wichita Falls at the Wednesday night meeting of the city council in Mayor J. W. Akin's office when a committee was named to investigate possibilities for the office. The concensus of the councilmen was to let the job seek the man and for the council to get the man best suited to the problem of managing Wichita Falls.

Following the suggestion of J. H. Patton, newest member of the council, that a city manager should be hired with the greatest possible speed, the action was taken with the understanding that the investigation will be made in the next few days.

Tax Suits Ordered

Suits against people whose city taxes prior to 1927 are unpaid were ordered by a unanimous vote of the council after considerable discussion.

That as little time and money as possible be spent on suits for unpaid taxes before 1927, Thelbert Martin, the city attorney was instructed to prepare lists of the most likely cases in batches of 50 and present them to the council for consideration before the suits were filed. He was instructed to go through all suits in that manner and also prepare lists on which it

JAIL DELIVERY PLOT FOILED

Letter to Woman Reveals Prisoner's Scheme

When a prisoner in the county jail grew too confidential in a letter to a girl, he lost what chance he might have for escaping from behind the bars, it was revealed here Wednesday. A note written by the prisoner to a girl was intercepted. "Some morning," the prisoner wrote, "they will find the jail sawed all to pieces, and I will be gone."

The note was taken by officers last week. A careful search revealed several lengths of saws in the cell occupied by Manuel Bridges

3 BODIES IN WRECKED SHIP

Cowboys Find Plane Wreckage at Kent

KENT, Tex., April 11. (AP).—The mangled bodies of three men were found at 10 o'clock this morning in the wreckage of a cabin type monoplane, which was discovered by two cowboys on the "X" ranch, six miles south of here, in very sparsely settled country.

The men were identified as F. L. Drew, Fort Worth; D. M. Lawson, deputy United States marshal of Manti, Utah, and Ed G. Knapp, Ypsilanti, Mich., who was piloting the plane.

Bodies Identified

Identification of the victims of the accident was made possible through letters which each man carried and it was learned that they were enroute to Fort Worth from San Diego, Calif., where the plane recently had been taken over from the factory by Knapp.

The wrecked plane was found at a point six miles south of Kent by Dock Kennedy and Lonny Lock, cowboys, employes of the ranch, which is owned by the Reynolds Cattle company of Fort Worth. Knapp, with his skull crushed and body badly cut, was at the pilot's seat, with the engine of the plane in his lap.

Drew and Lawson were in the passengers' compartment, both bodies cut and bruised. All three of the passengers were securely tied in their seats by the safety belts.

It is believed that the plane occupants met their death about the noon hour Monday, for a resident of Kent declared that he saw and heard the plane pass over Kent, going in a southerly direction and that before it had disappeared from sight, the engine halted and he believed at the time the pilot was attempting a landing.

Landing Attempted

From all appearance, the airmen had attempted to land and the tail of the machine, which was crushed flat, struck a small creek bank near where the wreckage was found, causing the plane to turn over several times.

BREMEN TAKES OFF ON DARING OCEAN FLIGHT

Huenefeld and Koehl Leave Ireland For America

IRISHMAN IN PLANE

Capt. Fitzmaurice of Free State Air Force In Journey

BALDONNEL FLYING FIELD, DUBLIN, April 12. (UP)—Baron Gunther von Huenefeld and Hermann Koehl hopped off in their monoplane Bremen at 5:38 a. m., today on an attempted non-stop flight to Mitchell field, N. Y.

Captain James Fitzmaurice of the Irish Free State air force, who replaced Arthur Spindler as assistant pilot of the plane, was with them.

The German flyers had been waiting here several weeks for good weather since they flew here from Berlin. They had announced they were determined to fly to "Mitchell field or heaven."

Bad weather off the Irish coast had halted their flight several times and only yesterday—their most recent attempt—weather had again interfered.

Col. Fitzmaurice, who is commander of the Irish Free State air force, was expected to pilot the plane for the first few hours after which he was to alternate with Koehl.

The three aviators seemed unworried today over the fact that experts say a westward flight across the Atlantic at this time of the year is almost impossible.

The take-off was perfect.

The Gray monoplane, which once before was turned back on a trans-Atlantic flight, ran down the special board runway for about a quarter of a mile then lifted easily into the west.

Its motor was roaring perfectly and the two Germans and the Laughing Irishman were bound on the great adventure—a westward crossing of the North Atlantic that never yet has been accomplished.

Within 36 hours the flyers expected to be greeting American friends.

Their airplane carried a gasoline supply that was capable of about forty hours in the air. However, the fliers did not think this would be necessary. Before departing they said they expected to glide down to Mitchel field long before their gasoline supply was exhausted.

The flyers probably will take the great north circle route, which probably will mean beating back over the Lindbergh trail.

Shortly before the take-off Captain Koehl said that he would follow the northern route rather than the southern route as had been planned previously, because of climatic conditions.

This route would take the fliers directly north through the dangerous wind zone to Nova Scotia. From there they are expected to fly down the American coast to New York.

Figuring on a basis of 36 hours the flyers would be in New York at about noon Friday.

They carried only a small amount of food—soups and sandwiches—and no radio apparatus or life-preserving apparatus. They discarded all of the extra equipment in order to save weight, the most valuable thing on the long flight overseas.

All were optimistic of eventual success. The plane was in absolute readiness, they said, and only the dangerous winds—which have thus far foiled four North Atlantic flights in the last 15 months—would prevent their eventual success.

Approximately 500 persons were on the field when the gray plane left the field.

Among the spectators were President and Mrs. Cosgrave of the Irish Free State and the German minister. Previously they had wished the flyers success.

14-Year-Old Flivver 'Chooses to Run in 1928'

EDINBURG, Texas, April 11. (UP)—Even though it is 14 years old and has traveled 400,000 miles, D. C. Campbell of Donna, near here, believes his flivver touring car is good for another 100,000 miles of service.

The car was purchased new in Dallas. Although it "chooses to run in 1928" it "ain't what it used to be," according to Campbell.

Hoover's Order Allowing Negroes Use of Whites' Desks Draws Fire

WASHINGTON, April 11. (UP)—A storm over the negro question has suddenly burst about the head of Secretary of Commerce Hoover because of his recent order abolishing segregation of negro employes in the census bureau of the department of commerce and giving them desks adjoining those of white clerks.

At the census bureau it was stated there are 65 negro employes among about 1,000 in the bureau. They are scattered about so that in each of the large wings containing about 100 clerks, one to four negro men and women clerks have desks.

Senator Stephens, Mississippi democrat, made public today correspondence with Hoover in which he protested at the order and urged Hoover to rescind it. Senator Cole Blease, South Carolina democrat, inserted in the Congressional Record appearing today a letter purporting to be from a white woman census employe whose name was withheld protesting bitterly against the order and urging Blease to use his influence to have it rescinded.

does not seem advisable to file suits. With this list Mr. Martin also was requested to file reasons why the cases should not be filed. Work on the filing of the suits will get under way at once.

Leniency Urged

Councilman Roy Carter, J. H. Patton and J. W. King said that they believed small home owners who are buying their homes on time, but who are in hard financial conditions, should not be dealt with too severely.

W. R. Heyer, city tax assessor and collector, told briefly of the back taxes now due, and said that with the exception of some large estates and properties which are now in litigation, the percentage of unpaid taxes is no worse now in Wichita Falls than in other years. He also asked the city council and the city attorney for a reiteration of the fact that any property, homesteads included, may be sold for non-payment of taxes. Judge Akin affirmed that the law provided for this proceedure.

An appropriation measure carrying $20,818.50 was passed by the council to pay the salaries for the first half of April and also to pay a claim of $3063.25 for the death of J. M. Brown, boiler room engineer who was killed in the auditorium several months ago.

Many current bills were approved but not totaled for payment by the council after they had been checked item by item, by the mayor and council. Among these was one for eggs for the park department.

Councilman King said he thought they were for the gila monster at the zoo. Mayor Akin suggested that they kill the monster and stuff him to get rid of the egg bill.

The purchase of gasoline by city departments from different places instead of using that bought on contract by the city was discussed by the city, but no action was taken by the council. On the motion of Councilman Oral Jones, the bills were ordered approved and read.

Crowing Roosters May Lose Their Vocal Chords

EL PASO, Texas, April 11. (AP)—Dr. J. A. Hill, city veterinarian, has informed Herman Rosch, city clerk, that the crowing of a roosters and the barking of a dog can be stopped. This relieves Rosch very much.

Rosch has been flooded with complaints of crowing roosters and barking dogs. He went to Dr. Hill. "The removal of a rooster's crow is easy," Dr. Hill said. "All you have to do is to cut out the rooster's vocal chords. The same thing can be done to dogs and other animals."

Texan Advises Against Seed Industry Measures

WASHINGTON, April 11. (AP)—Opposition and support of methods of trading in cotton seed oil is a "family squabble" between two interrelated branches of th eindustry, W. H. Jasspon, Dallas, Texas, a crude oil manufacturer today told the senate agriculture committee considering the Mayfield bill.

"This squabble is between the sellers and buyers and I question the wisdom of legislation which would take the business out of the hands of those engaged in it," he said.

Check Dandruff

Youngsters usually get dandruff at school; promiscuous use of combs, towels, etc., brings it on. At the first sign of it, go after it with Listerine, the safe antiseptic. You simply douse it on full strength and massage the scalp vigorously. Keep the treatment up systematically. Unless the case is a very serious one, requiring the attention of a physician, you will note improvement within ten days. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Missouri, U. S. A.

COLEMAN HAS BIG GAS WELL

Deep Production Hoped For in Area

Special to The Record News.

COLEMAN, April 11.—With an estimated flow of approximately 10,000,000 cubic feet of gas, P. B. English et. al. have apparently topped another pay lime at 4268-74 feet in the No. 1 Harris in San Augustine survey No. 519, northwestern Coleman county, and gives plenty of evidence to the oil fraternity here that extensive deep production is not impossible in that area.

Formerly the No. 1 Harris produced approximately 5,000,000 cubic feet of gas and 30 barrels of oil daily from 4072-4109 feet after shots of 30 and 90 quarts. Drilling is being continued slowly, expecting other developments at any depth.

Acreage under and near the well is owned by the Texas American Syndicate, which is controlled by H. H. Tucker Jr. William F. Tyree of Dallas has been instrumental in assembling the acreage for Tucker and is acting as the legal representative for the company.

Seven miles east of the English well, the Manhattan Oil company's No. 1 O. B. Featherstone, 990 feet from the north line and 300 feet from the east line of section 52, block 2, G. H. & H. survey, had water sand from 1508-19 feet and is now drilling by tools at that depth.

In the same northern part of the county the Midwest Exploration company is plugging back in its No. 2 J. P. Morris to 2310 feet to complete the well for a gasser. From 2262-69 feet the Midwest had 5,000,000 cubic feet of gas. The well is located in the A. Newschaffer survey, north of Coleman 10 miles.

"Tex-La-Ark" Division Of A. P. I. To Be Formed

The organization meeting of the Tex-La-Ark district of the A. P. I. division of development and production engineering will be held in Fort Worth on April 25, in the grand ball room of the Texas hotel.

At this organization meeting the vice chairman and secretary will be chosen and the other necessary committees appointed to complete the organization.

The afternoon will be devoted to the presentation and discussion of specially prepared papers from various sections of this district. These papers will be of particular interest to the field men and it is hoped that many field superintendents, foremen, drillers, etc., will attend this meeting and partake in the discussions. One of the fundamental reasons for the forming of this division in the institute was to provide a point of contact between the field men in the various oil producing districts and afford them an opportunity to get together from time to time and discuss problems of mutual interest and compare methods and practices.

Graft in Both Political Parties, Says Republican

RALEIGH, N. C., April 11. (INS)—Graft and bribery are not limited to one party, Representative Theodore E. Burton, republican of Ohio, told 3000 North Carolina republicans attending the party's state convention here today.

"It can't be denied that corruption has shown its snaky head among some of the officials of the government, but against those who are guilty, great or small, the administration is pressing vigorous prosecution and we may be assured the guilty will suffer punishment," he declared.

FIVE COUNTY REPORTS MADE

Six Audits Yet To Be Passed Upon

Five annual reports for 1927 from county officials have been audited and passed on, with six additional reports yet to be passed, according to E. P. Walsh, county auditor.

Reports of the sheriff, the county clerk, the tax collector, both justices of the peace and constable of precinct 1 are yet to be approved by the commissioners court, Mr. Walsh said.

Three annual reports were accepted by the commissioners court Monday. When Arthur C. Howard, county tax assessor, returned fees collected amounting to $2180.17 he was allowed $802.69 to make out his salary to the maximum of $4250. The additional amount was allowed when Mr. Howard's statement showed he had spent $2500 in fees for keeping the plat book, which is additional work for his office. Had the $2500 thus spent been included in the amount returned in fees, he would have earned the maximum salary allowed. It was accordingly granted him, Mr. Walsh said.

Judge E. W. Nicholson, whose report also was accepted by the commissioners Monday, turned in $237.67 above the salary of $5000 allowed him. Judge C. M. McFarland of the county court at law, turned in civil fees amounting to $1264.55 to balance his account.

Indications are that a number of county officials will present their reports at the next meeting of the commissioners court, Mr. Walsh declared.

Edmund Vance Cooke Delights Forum With Lecture Tuesday

Presenting one of the cleverest lectures of the season as well as setting in the minds of his hearers a train of thought, Edmund Vance Cooke, American poet-lecturer and philosopher, addressed members of the Woman's Forum and their guests Tuesday afternoon in the auditorium of the building on the subject "The Laughter of Living."

Surmounting his recognized ability as a poet, Mr. Cooke is at his best as a thinker and presents a running barrage of comment which while it baffles repetition and quotation, sets up a trend of happy thoughts in the minds of his audience.

Permeating the entire address, is the paramount desire of the speaker for world citizenship, and through that mental state, world peace. No man is capable of loving two countries, the poet says, because no man is capable of loving any country until he has abolished from his mind all barriers set up by different creeds, different languages and different philosophies.

War is not a struggle engaged in by peoples of different nationalities, it is a combat between differing philosophies.

No man can be a creditable American citizen until he has embraced in his thought not only his state but also the other 47, and no man can be a good American citizen who constantly endangers its safety and peace by a narrow outlook concerning other nations, was the sentiment felt to be uppermost in the lecture Tuesday afternoon.

Combined with his philosophy, the speaker gave a commentary made up of a rapid fire succession of his best known poems. His children's poems were given with clever juvenile impersonations and pantomime, and an unusual degree of dramatic excellence.

Poetry has fallen from its pedestal as the highest form of fine arts attainment, Mr. Cooke said. No definite place has been afforded poetry of late years, and the possibility is that some persons have come to believe that it has little place in the general order of things, was Mr. Cooke's thought on the importance of poetical attainment. He went ahead, however, to prove that good poetry like achievement in any other field, has its undoubted merits.

In one of his poems, the lecturer paid a well merited tribute to the fatherhood of the world, and commended men for their self-effacing sacrifices.

Man has long since felt a new explanation for the matters of earth and of heaven, but reformers and preachers have been more concerned with ascertaining the reason for the evils of the earth than in eradicating the evils that are present.

Mrs. J. Truman Stevens was chairman of arrangements for the lecture, with the following members of the forum in the receiving line: Mesdames Dan Hardy, D. H. Whitehill, Newton Maer, M. H. Glover, C. C. Cabiness.

Even birthdays are hereditary—here's Betty Frank Michael to prove that point—she will be a year old July 4 which has been the family birthday for the Michaels for four generations now, not to speak of its being the birthday of Betty Frank's country.

Betty Frank has quite a vocabulary for a very young lady—she can say many things but being feminine the things she says best are "bye-bye" and "daddy."

She is a dark-eyed miss and her hair, if any, is also dark. She is the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Michael of 2104 Broad street.

Ramblin'

with

Marie Theresa

THE bluebonnet is evidently well chosen as the state flower for Texas. This morning Marie Theresa was presented with a bouquet (do you call it a bouquet or a bunch?) of the lovely flowers, and has had the greatest difficulty keeping the surrounding natives from marauding them. These sentimental Texans.

Marie Theresa claims the unwieldy mistletoe for a state flower (can you imagine mistletoe posing as a flower?) but she's never caught anyone trying to steal that gummy parasite except to bank the pedestal of the Christmas tree. I hope this traitorous tirade of mine will aid in hastening the state of Oklahoma in its determination to bring about a change in its state "flower."

SPEAKING of flowers reminds me that I read some time ago that although orchids are the trade brand of luxury and are known everywhere as the flower deluxe, still Bostonians use few of that type of flower. Probably a relic of the old Puritanic days in the Hub city—that early American spirit which takes to frugality rather than extravagant luxury. The writer goes on to say tht New Yorkers are the most persistent purchasers of the gorgeous flower, which mean that New York is the show city of the country. Anyway, Puritan or otherwise, Marie Theresa still believes that she could like orchids.

THOSE who doubt the strength of Texas winds will please take a stand on the walk in front of the Womans Forum and let the water from the garden hose in the back yard strike them full in the face for awhile.

EDMUND VANCE COOKE, American poet-lecturer, paid a visit to the city Wednesday and left a train of happy thoughts for those who are inclined to take to such things.

Mr. Cooke lectured to the women of the Forum and made a distinct hit with them but when you stop to think about it, he really doesn't look the part. He's just as average looking as he can be. Still he is a poet.

There is something about the most of us that makes us appreciate the average garden variety type of man or woman and still most of us try to be something different even if we had to retrograde to accomplish that feat.

BUT now for a few bits of Cooke's homely philosophy that hit the spot with his audience Tuesday afternoon:

It's much easier to tell things than to know them—the average person can tell you what is what without knowing it himself, Mr. Cooke surmises.

If Thomas Paine had written his philosophy in a modern, efficient flat, even his immortal manuscript would have fallen flat, Mr. Cooke believes. For the modern efficiency flat is but a bed built inside and a fire escape built outside with no place to bring up children but an elevator.

Modern efficiency flats haven't reached Wichita Falls yet, so we still have something to look forward to.

BUT Marie Theresa can't understand this next shot—the philosopher-poet says that in Utah and Oklahoma a man must set up a separate establishment for each wife that he has, but I can't figure out why Oklahoma is put in that particular classificaton. These humorists including Will Rogers are going to make that state famous in spite of all the governors and outlaws can do by way of giving a reputation to the Sooner state.

MAN is willing to give anything he has not got for the things he wishes he had never had, says Cooke in quoting a German philosoper friend. We park those things which we have for those things which are just out of reach and when we have them we'd like to strike a bargain with our neighbor, was his running train of thought.

Edmund Vance Cooke being one of America's best posts, doesn't know just what he thinks of poetry and the place that is occupies in the scheme of things today. He hasn't even figured out whether poetry should be included in the Volstead act, he said.

ORIGINAL 1¢ Rexall ONE CENT SALE

What a Rexall One Cent Sale Is
It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c, you buy a tube at this price and by paying 1 cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price.

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, knowing the goods will please you.

Shifty Jim Watson

For years and years "Shifty Jim" Watson of Indiana was a prince in the ranks of republican reactionaries in the lower and then in the upper House of the American Congress. Now "Shifty Jim," who is the favorite son of Indiana, appears as the bold champion of the McNary-Haugen relief bill.

He has swallowed the equalization fee provision of the bill and this too without a grimace. For years and years a spokesman of the steel barons of America in their bitter battles with organized labor, "Shifty Jim" has changed front and is an undaunted advocate of the rights of labor.

A practical politician knows where to find his hat. "Shifty Jim" knows how to change front. When the Klan was a great power in Indiana he was the favorite of the Klan.

Now he says that the Klan has passed away. Indeed, he has doubts as to whether the Klan ever had an existence in Indiana. If he will read the Stephenson disclosure it may refresh his mind.

On the Right Road

STEPS toward the presentation of a bill to the next session of the legislature, in January, 1929, requiring the teaching of the constitution of the United States and good citizenship in the public schools and other state schools were taken at a joint meeting of the Texas Council of the American Bar association and a special committee on court reform of the Texas Bar association, held in the city of Fort Worth.

A report was made of the survey made by the American Bar association through its committee on citizenship. This report was that most of the states through their local school system, really have no constructive method of teaching properly the question of citizenship and patriotism. Furthermore the survey showed that the teaching of the constitution is not given the place in the curricula of the schools that is necessary for the presentation of the highest ideals of our government.

Many representative lawyers of the state, including former Lieutenant Governor T. W. Davidson, attended the joint session. Why shouldn't there be a textbook for the public schools, all the schools for that matter, covering the constitution of the United States as well as the constitution of Texas? Why shouldn't the boys and girls of Texas who are taught in the schools of the state, be well grounded in the frame work and fundamentals of government?

Why shouldn't the bill of rights have a proud place in the books? This newspaper congratulates the lawyers who are responsible for a movement in the right direction. Now the lawmakers should do the rest and the school teachers should give the movement their unqualified support.

Huge Bond Issue for St. Louis

PROGRESSIVE citizens of St. Louis, an ancient city which fringes on Illinois and is on the map as the chief metropolis of Missouri, are planning a $79,000,000 bond issue for public improvements to be carried on for a period of 25 years.

There was a time when St. Louis was a larger and greater city in every way than Chicago. Its leading citizens in the long ago sneered at Chicago. They declared that St. Louis had water rates, that it was the greatest commercial city of a vast region and that it would be impossible for Chicago or any other city west of the Alleghenies to ever rival St. Louis in commercial or financial importance.

Well, the leading men of Chicago were builders. Chicago has a population that is nearing 3,000,000. Chicago is a great financial center of the west. Chicago is the great manufacturing center of the west. Bond issues for public improvement made it possible.

Now the descendants of the early French traders and financiers and the descendants of the Teutonic tribe have come out of their trance. They must build and they must build rapidly. Money talks when it comes to building operations. Money talks when it comes to public improvements.

They are going to float a huge bond issues for public improvements and make a brilliant fight to place St Louis at the head of the procession.

Col. House a Prophet

COL. E. M. HOUSE is a prominent son of Texas. His face was in the Wilson picture eight years. He became an international character and broke bread with the highest in foreign lands. His books and his writings deaing largely with the great war president and the achievements of his administration have been printed in many tongues.

Col. House, on his departure for Europe, declared Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York and Herbert Hoover of California will be the democratic and republican nominees for president. After this declaration he padlocked his tongue. He declined to commit himself. He said, "I am out of politics for good and my only interest is that of an observer."

An observer in the political tree tops has a shade the best of it. He is not asked to carry a torch in a procession. He is not asked to contribute to the campaign chest. He is not asked to wager his money on the outcome. He is a free lance and, if he has the mind of a philosopher, he enjoys himself hugely.

Not For Walsh

ACCORDING to the leaders of the Texas W. C. T. U., Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana isn't in the picture. These leaders have six presidential favorites. Walsh of Montana was ignored in the making of the list, and yet Walsh is the driest of the drys and perhaps the greatest foe to corruption in government to be found in the Senate.

Box On the Shelf

CONGRESSMAN JOHN C. BOX of Texas has been placed on the shelf, for a time at least. His Mexican quota plan has been pigeonholed. It will bob up again next year.

The Day Book of a New Yorker

By BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Press Dispatch to Wichita Falls Record News.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Professional New Yorkers DO see some of the sights and know some of the notables they write about. Here is the unembellished report of 36 kaleidoscopic hours.

At 7 p. m., as a non-member guest, to the annual dinner and revue, at the Waldorf, of the Dutch Treat club, a luncheon group composed of writers, editors, painters and musicians. (It has the longest waiting list of any club in New York.) At our table were Burton Rascoe, the editor; Lyman Beecher Stowe, the publisher; Edward T. Clark, personal secretary to President Coolidge. In the gay throng were Charles Norris, the novelist; Will Hays, the well-known bond salesman, sitting next to Roy Howard, newspaper publisher; Fred Kelly, the writing squire of Peninsula, O., feeling festive over his General Motors and Radio winnings; Will Irwin, the scivener; Irvin S. Cobb, the Kentuckian; Percy Crosby, father of "Skippy;" Dean Cornwall, the painter; Clarence Budington Kelland, the talewriter; Ring Lardner, the short story philologist; Charles Hanson Towne, the editor; Albert Edward Wiggam, the anthropologist.

Dutch Treat shows are so good that most of the material is appropriated by Broadway attractions. It was great fun to see Reinald Werrenrath, the singer, performing as a prohibitionist, and Marc Connelly, the dramatist, burlesquing Mayor Walker's official hand-shaker, and Joseph Cummings Chase, the portrait-painter, made up as a scrub-woman. A score of other notables did clowning.

After the Dutch Treat show, some of us went to Chili Villa, a nook in West Forty-ninth street, where after midnight one is likely to find an assortment of celebrities concentrating on bowls of the hottest food served north of El Paso. Paul Whiteman was there, and James Gleason, the actor-dramatist.

At 2:30 a. m., Texas Guinan's corral had opened, and we went over. Richard Bennett was guest of honor, and show folk were there in droves. Texas has been making fun of notable New Yorkers for four or five years now, but seemingly they like her barbed sarcasm at their expense (expense is the appropriate word!) for her popularity is undimmed.

After Texas' show dulled we went to a showing of some amateur movies in a Ninty-eighth street apartment. From there to bed.

At lunch, which followed more or less later, a "man in the know" volunteered the name of the gentleman, a publisher, who presented Peggy Joyce with the $300,000 Black Star diamond for keeping a secret. Peggy is now in Europe for the purpose of acquiring another husband and title.

In the afternoon, with Dick Blythe, one of Lindbergh's public relations counsels, to fly with Anthony Fokker in his newest aerial achievement, a three-motored monoplane, designed to carry two pilots, 12 passengers, express and mail between New York and Chicago. It cost $60,000. Fokker, a genial Dutchman, who is considered to be the greatest individual aircraft constructor in the world, gave me a thorough demonstration of the ship's versatility, flying first with three motors, then two, later, one. It was the motors that made the plane so costly. The three "Wasps" cost about $9000 each.

In the evening to Greenwich Village, to a second viewing of "The Last Moment," an unconventional and extraordinary movie photoplay, which flashes the thoughts of a drowning man; and George Jean Nathan, the drama critic, who professes to detest the movies, was there with Lillian Gish, unrecognized.

LINDA -:- A Love Mystery of Collegiate Life

By Virginia Swain.

WHERE IS DR. PRINE?

Linda paid for the telegram without so much as a glance at the horrified old man behind the counter, and went home.

She was packing the last drawer of her wardrobe trunk when Mrs. Morris knocked on the door and entered, cheeks pink and fat shoulders braced in stern resolve.

"I'm very sorry, Miss Waldron," the woman began, hurrying through the words as though anxious to get them over with. "But"—

"Don't say it," broke in Linda. "It isn't necessary. I'm going." She clambered to her feet and brushed back her towsled hair, then waved at the open trunk. "My tents are already folded."

The woman gasped, opened her mouth several times like an uneasy fish, and turned to go. At the door she looked back. "No hard feelings, Miss, I hope."

Linda shrugged. "Certainly not. You're a respectable woman and you keep a respectable house. Isn't that what you were going to say, Mrs. Morris?"

The landlady coughed, flushed and went away.

But Linda was forced to run out into the hall after her and call down the stairs. "Will you please send Dhan Gopal up to help me close this trunk?"

Mrs. Morris snapped back: "Dhan Gopal is gone. The worthless tramp disappeared a week ago. I'll probably find everything valuable in the house disappeared with him. After all I've done for that bohunk."

"Bohunks," said Linda gravely, over the bannister, "come from Bohemia, not from India."

She struggled with the trunk for some 15 minutes before the lock could be sprung into place. At last she was ready. The bandbox, the week-end bag and the suitcase of alligator stood on top of the trunk. The desk yawned empty and they were holding nothing out on her.

Linda met the transfer man on the stairs. "Take these things to the Tavern," she instructed him, "and leave them there in my name. You may say I will arrive in about two hours."

Mrs. Morris was listening, down by the front door. "Shall I send your mail to the Tavern, Miss Waldron?"

A taxi was honking at the curb. "Yes," cried Linda, brushing past Mrs. Morris and running out the door.

She sat in the taxi and watched her trunk and bags safely loaded in the van nearby before she gave the cab driver his directions.

They started off through the sibilant slush of Mulberry Place. Lights were out in the front windows of frugal Faculty Row when Linda's cab entered the street. And lights were on in the bay windows of dining rooms. It was now seven-thirty, and Faculty Row was meekly consuming its bread pudding, its rice pudding and its cottage pudding, made from the remains of Sunday's sponge cake. It was even nibbling heroically at its stewed prunes.

Linda dismissed her cab near the corner. A pretty pass, that she must protect her friends against her own reputation, not allow anyone to see lest she injure Dr. Prine.

When the man had driven away, she walked slowly down the sidewalk toward the bungalow. Its front windows, too, were dark, but she kne wthat Dr. Prine always had dinner at home, in the little breakfast room behind his study.

She went up the porch steps almost blithely. Arthur Graham was now the only soul in Marbury who cound b ecounted on to believe the truth and consign liars to the devil. She did not know quite what she meant to say to him. But words would come, and with them relief.

She wondered at the snow piled on the porch. It seemed not to have been packed down by the tread of feet. She was reaching out to knock when her feet struck something solid in the snow. The knock resounded through the house, as she stopped in the dark to examine the object she had stumbled over.

A moment's digging in the snow brought forth a heap of papers. Linda counted six newspapers rolled and crooked for hurling from sidewalk to porch. Beside them was a little pile of what seemed to be circulars and envelopes.

She examined the mail box. It too, was overflowing with papers. Hurriedly, she knocked again, and rang with the noise. It must have been several minutes before she moved.

Leaving the porch, she walked around the driveway where she and the professor had run down Dean Ella Steur with the bicycle. There were lights now in the Steur dining room where Dean Ella was expounding on the virtues of stewed prunes, for the sake of a somewhat crabbed husband.

Linda shrank outside the square of light reflected from the Steur windows, and made her way on toward Dr. Prine's back porch. Proceeding cautiously up the back steps, she stopped just in time to avoid crashing into a regiment of six milk bottles standing on the top step.

The sight of the six bottles changed her mind for her. No use to go on knocking and skulking about the house of a man absent six days from home.

Linda walked back to the street slowly, with her head drooping. There was now nothing left to do but set out for the tavern and stay there until further word came from Simon Whitlock. She remembered dully that she had not told the telegraph people where to deliver her messages. She must call them up as soon as she reached the hotel.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCoy, who can be addressed in care of this paper.

Disorders of Metabolism.

The word "metabolism" simply means tissue change, and is the sum of all the physical chemical processes by which the living organized substances produce and maintain.

The disease of metabolism can be divided into three classes. In the first one, there is a perversion of the carbohydrate metabolism which is called diabetes. In the second, there is a perversion of fat metabolism, called obesity. And in the third, there is the perversion of protein metabolism, producing gout and rheumatism. All of the diseases of this group are intimately related to one another, both chemically and clinically. Each is characerized by an inability on the part of the organism to convert sugar, fat, or albumin in a normal manner. There is such an intimate connection between the metabolic perversion in these groups that we often see combinations of diabetes and obesity, of diabetes and rheumatism, or of rheumatism and obesity, or even all three together.

In diabetes the first important thing to do is to increase the general nutrition of the patient; secondly, to substitute protein as much as possibly for the corbohydrates, and then build up the patient's strength so that metambolism in general will become more perfect.

In obesity the essential thing to do is to cut down on the quantity of food. In this way the body will be encouraged to use up its fat reserve, and a reduction of weight is bound to be produced. Starches, sugars, and fats should be reduced to the minimum, and the patient must be urged to use a plentiful amount of all the greens, both cooked and raw, and a limited amount of proteins, such as meat, fish, eggs, fowl, etc. Exercise should be increased, as this will assist metabolism and, while hardening the muscular tissues, it will destroy many of the fat cells.

Where perversion of metabolism results in rheumatism, the first important thing to do is to rid the system of all the extra toxic material which has accumulated, such as the uric acid poisons, etc. This can best be accomplished through taking a strict fruit fast. The fast should be continued a matter of weeks rather than of days if one expects to entirely free himself of the accumulated uric acid and inorganic elements that have been precipitated in certain parts of the body. After all soreness has left the tissues and joints, the diet must then be resumed very carefully, and only good combinations of foods used. One with a tendency to rheumatic diseases must not be afraid of using limited quantities of flesh foods, but must restrict himself carefully in the use of carbohydrates.

In all these diseases of faulty metabolism, the general bodily strength must be increased by systematic physical culture exercises, and by taking long walks each day in addition to the proper dietary treatment.

Questions and Answers.

Question: W. K. writes: "Kindly inform me if there is any way of helping me. I have terrible head noises and am very hard of hearing."

Answer: Your head noises are doubtless due to catarrh of the inner ear which also causes your deafness. Send a large, self addressed stamped envelope for my article, "Those Mysterious Ear Noises."

Question: Mrs. I. O. asks: "Do our bodies require milk? If so, when should we drink it?"

Answer: Milk is a wholesome food if used properly, but of course is not absolutely necessary, as other foods can supply the same elements. Study the menus published in this column each Saturday, and you will soon learn how to use milk properly.

Question: Inquirer asks: "Will you kindly advise me what would be the cause of stiffness and soreness in the side of the neck? Might this be the result of cold or do you think it might come from a hurt? Is it a form of rheumatism or neuralgia, and what treatment would you advise. I have suffered from this condition for six months. Have tried rubbing with different kinds of liniments, also used hot applications without any good results."

Answer: Go to an osteopath or chiropractor and get his opinion. An X-ray picture of your neck vertebrae and a personal examination will surely disclose the cause of your trouble.

Question: Mrs. G. S. asks: "Is liquid paraffin oil a safe laxative to take?"

Answer: Paraffin oil may be used as an intestinal lubricant, but cannot be considered a laxative. It is a safe thing to use while you are correcting constipation through removing its cause.

OPEN SEASON FOR RASPBERRIES.

The Record News Editor:

Why all the blood and thunder and excitement?

We talked about "The Red Knight of Germany" when you ran it in your paper.

Now comes "Aces Up." It starts out like a good story, but why should I get palpitations of the heart from so much excitement all at once?

This "Aces Up" story is so filled with thrills that I feel like a game cock when I am through reading an installment, and our preacher tells us we shouldn't fight.

Some day, you may learn to respect the feelings of everybody, myself included, and I hope that will be after your story of "Aces Up" is over. J. F.

DARK HORSE NEEDED, SAYS CHILDRESS MAN

Editor Wichita Falls Record News:

I see so much about the Texas democrats to the Houston convention and the wet and dry platform that I am bound to speak from the underbrush part of the state.

If the convention nominates a wet candidate for president, it had been better not to hold the convention, for such action means suicide for the democrats of the South. The underbrush people of the state will not support Al Smith, Ritchie or James Reed.

There must be a dark horse as yet unknown to take the banner of the democrats to victory. It has come to the period in these United States that party politics have run their course and principles have taken their place.

As for leaders, we have almost quit the old goose chase and are beginning to look out for principles instead of flowery speeches and high stepping gentlemen.

The "underbrush" is the people that produce the new wealth and unless they are consulted the leaders may find that the underbrush won't quack every time they do. Tom Love is right. The delegates should be instructed to stick to the last minute. They are the people's representatives and should have their orders from the majority of the people of Texas.

I see a break in the solid south that is from the east. No well-informed southern man will support a man from New York or any eastern state. The south and west are too big for that. We want a man from the west or south.

If the east is successful in landing their man it spells death to the democratic party. It will cause establishment of a new party with purer principles to combat the evils of the day, such as anti-prohibition. We have prohibition. What we need is law enforcement to the letter.

A reader of your paper and a staunch democrat with the full meaning of democracy.

MAKING 100 ACRES WORTH $75,000

The greatness of America and the state of Texas particularly as a land of boundless opportunity is strikingly illustrated in the case of Ludwig Vorauer, an Austrian who came to the United States 14 years ago with little money and unable to speak the English language. Starting with a 'half-acre nursery' near Fredericksburg, Texas, he is today the owner of one hundred acres of ideal nursery land, on which he produces about every variety of fruit and vine that can grow outside a tropical country. He refused an offer of $75,000 for his 100 acres. All this in less than 15 years.

MOVING THE HOUSE TO WATER

Get water before building a home upon the farm should be the plans of all. Recently an owner of a small farm, being rented, erected a house upon the farm for use of the tenant, but water could not be had near the house. After being completed the tenant did some looking around for himself and about 500 yards from the house dug a well a few feet deep and secured an abundance of water, said to be good, rather better than is found in that community. Result: The owner of the land is to move the newly built home to the well, as the well cannot be moved to the house.

BUMPY GRAMMAR AND ROADS

Mixed methaphors, twisted language, bad construction, chopped sentences, misplaced colons, semicolons, commas, dashes and hyphens have no place in an editorial or anywhere else.

Neither do bumpy, muddy, disagreeable, expensive, out-of-place, out-of-date dirt roads have a part to play in a county as prosperous and as potentially rich as Collingsworth county.

Sinclair Alibi Thrown for Loss

wes generally in charge of oil leases for the interior department at the time, in this particular case Fall himself took command.

Likewise, the assistant secretary said, it was a general practice in the department to let oil lands by public sale or competitive bidding. In the deal with Sinclair for the $100,000,000 Teapot lease, Finney testified, Fall didn't follow the usual policy, but conducted the negotiations with Sinclair only, other prospective bidders not getting a chance to bid for the valuable franchise.

All of these negotiations, it has been testified, were completed prior to Sinclair's giving Fall a total of $304,000.

That Harry Sinclair personally made a comfortable fortune, even for a man of immense wealth, out of the oil deal, was revealed from the records of his company and portions of his own admissions placed in evidence today.

In early 1922 when the lease was under contemplation, he was chairman and largest shareholder in the Sinclair Consolidated Oil company. When Sinclair personally took title to the Teapot lease it was revealed he later turned it over to the specially organized Mammoth Oil company in return for 2,004,900 shares of its capital stock.

The stock, at that time of no par value, was later placed on the New York curb market, where at one time it sold up to $58 a share.

JURY LOSES MUSIC

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11. (UP)—United States Marshal Edgar Snyder today prohibited playing of "Bye Bye, Blackbird" on a graphophone by jurymen locked up nightly in the Harry F. Sinclair trial.

Klan Suits Are Thrown Out

judge left only the suit of the Klan against the "rebels" to be heard.

The Klan had sought an injunction to prevent Van. A. Barrickman and four associates from using the name of the Klan or interfering with its operation and asked $100,000 apiece as damages from each of the defendants.

Barrickman and his associates immediately filed a counter suit which was given first trial. He had arrayed an imposing list of former members of the Klan as witnesses in the case.

Sensational Testimony.

Today's ruling came after sensational testimony by former members had revealed the Klan kept information concerning public officials in all parts of the country for reference. The Roman Catholic church had been attacked for its alleged efforts to take charge of the government and further testimony was directed at the administration of Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York.

Barrickman, counsel for his group, had suggested that the Klan attorneys enter a "blanket objection to all testimony I will introduce to show the workings of the K. K. K."

Churchmen Ejected.

The trial had attained sensational proportions when William G. Hohman, prominent churchman of Pittsburgh, was ejected from the courtroom and threatened with arrest.

He had leaped to his feet at the rear of the courtroom and shouted, "you're a liar," at Dr. Charles S. Hunter, of Verona, former head of the Unity lodge of the Klan and a prominent witness in the case. Hohman later offered to apologize for his actions but was not allowed to enter the courtroom.

Judge Thomson's ruling came with dramatic suddeness to the court spectators, most of whom were said to be Klansmen and Klanswomen.

"If the Klan should be driven out of Pennsylvania, it will be up to the secretary of state to revoke its charter and not a matter for the federal court to decide," he said.

and Claude Reeves, both under sentence to the state penitentiary. W. P. Timmons, jailer, believing that all of the saw blades had not been found, maintained a careful watch and Tuesday night caught one of the prisoners trying to saw through the bars with a length of saw mounted in a bit of pine board.

Had the men succeeded in making their escape from the cell in which they are confined, they would have had two other sets of bars through which to saw, Mr. Timmons said.

The conviction of Reeves here on a charge of conspiracy to commit burglary recently was reversed by the court of criminal appeals and a motion now is pending before the higher court for a rehearing. The trial here resulted in a sentence of two and a half years' imprisonment. Bridges is under sentence aggregating seven years from Wichita and Montague counties.

Reeves was among the eight prisoners who several weeks ago escaped from the county jail. He was captured by members of the city police department a few hours after the jail break at a Wichita Falls residence.

Dorothy Dix Articles Daily--Advice To Women

BOOK LOVERS NOT UNHAPPY

Dorothy Dix Advises Housewives

Why the Housewife Who Is a True Bookworm Will Never Be Unhappy.

Dear Dorothy Dix — Do you think it wrong for a housewife to read as much as she can without neglecting her other duties? I have a husband and two children and do all my own housework, washing, ironing, sewing, baby-tending, etc. I love to read good books and the magazines and papers, but my husband never reads anything, scarcely the headlines in the papers, and can't see why I do. Sometimes I read after he and the children are in bed. Do you think I should do this?

I AM A BOOKWORM.

Answer: Perhaps none of us can ever understand how any one finds pleasure in doing the things that we do not like to do ourselves. For ages men have ridiculed women for punching holes in cloth and then filling them up with intricate stitches, and for crocheting miles of thread into what-you-may-call-'ems that nobody knew what to do with after they were done, yet thousands of women derive unending amusement from doing fancy work. Most wives, if they told the truth, would admit that they thought golf only a game for senile morons, yet there are millions of men whose greatest passion in life is chasing a little pill over a forty-acre field.

It is all a matter of taste and there is no arguing about it. You like a thing, or it is caviar to you, and that is all there is about it.

So if your husband has no intellectual curiosity about the great thoughts of great men, if the printed page holds no lure for him, if he even has no interest in anything that is happening in the great world outside his little narrow circle, he just doesn't get your point of view and thinks you are wasting time doing something that would bore him to tears.

But tell him that he makes a great mistake when he tries to stop you from reading, because he is unwittingly attempting to take away from you the magic that keeps you contented at home instead of making him take you out to find diversion and thrills and excitement.

I consider a love of reading one of the greatest gifts that God can bestow upon us, because if we have that we have a charm that prevents boredom, an anodyne for loneliness, a narcotic that even drugs pain to sleep.

Fate may have ordained that we have to associate with dull and stupid people, but it does not matter if we can open a book and instantly be in communion with wits and philosophers and humorists and raconteurs.

We may have to spend days and weeks, perhaps years, cut off from association with our fellow creatures, but we are never lonely if we have the companionship of books; and papers and magazines keep us in touch with all that is happening in the world abroad. We may have to lie on beds of pain, but we can even forget our suffering in reading. So great a boon are books in sickness that I know one man who is a great Dickens lover who has refrained from reading Copperfield because he is saving it to solace him through some illness.

A love of reading is a lifesaver for every one, but no one needs it more badly than the housewife, because her work is monotonous. It is necessarily done in her own house apart from other people, and it is the doing over and over of the same tasks that require no concentration of attention.

It is, therefore, supremely important that she should have the diversion of books that lift her out of herself and take her to far places, that throw a gay and colorful pattern on the drab surface of her life, that thrill and amuse and entertain her.

Happy is the woman who, as she washes her dishes or mixes a pie or sews up long seams has her mind filled with what she has read, whose thoughts sing some beautiful poem, whose fancies are roaming in far Cathay, whose wits are busy puzzling out some sociological problem, whose heart is thrilling to some love story. She is not finding the life dull nor housework flat, stale and unprofitable. Nor will you ever find her one of the whining, complaining, fretful women whom the job of being wife and mother and housekeeper bores to extinction.

So ccontinue to be a bookworm, dear lady, and pass along your habit to your children. It is the best heritage you can give them.

MODISH MITZI — STYLES ORIGINATED BY VIONNET — By Jay V. Jay

Aunt Sophia loves Vionnet's fashions because Vionnet creates in the modernistic mood and always shows models with long slim lines, slanting seam lines and trimming lines that will slenderize one if anything ever can. That's why Aunt Sophia and Mitzi are looking at Vionnet's new creations. The first frock is a hand faggotted silk sport dress with the deep double V line in the front of the bodice and a scarf most skillfully draped from the neckline. Next is a crepe daytime gown with slanting tucked lines and a panel that droops far below the skirt. The coat has pointed seam lines and a high, standing, fur trimmed collar. "And every line of every one so modern," says Mitzi.

The simple dinner gown is of opeal white satin with a crystal girdle-clasp. A single drape falls from one shoulder below the hem and the front circular panel adds to the hemline irregularity. The curved diagonal seam lines of the second dress, and the long scarf collar are features that appeal to Aunt Sophia—also, you may be sure, to Mitzi.

Aunt Sophia has decided that she will buy just one dress and it probably will be this. The wide V front of the bodice simply drapes over one shoulder into a long scarf and molds itself on the other into the sleeve. There are just a few lines of hand-fagotting and a simple circular godet in the front of the skirt. Vionnet is so simple and subtle!

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps Her So Much

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I was just completely run-down. I had tired, heavy, sluggish feelings and I could not eat. I was losing in weight. I read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what a good medicine it is, that I started taking it. I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and about the same in tablet form. This is one medicine a woman should have in the house all the time. I am improving every day and I sure am able to eat. I am willing to answer any letters asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Ella Richards, 21 Chautauqua St., N. S. Pittsburgh, Pa.

Favorite Jokes of Famous People

As Told by Them to

FRANK ERNEST NICHOLSON

By HOPE HAMPTON

HOPE HAMPTON

Hope Hampton won fame as a beauty, as a singer, as a movie actress, and then won a millionaire husband. That's about all Hope could hope for.

Recently she was starred on Broadway in "My Princess," and now that the show has closed this can be told.

Jules Brulatour, the rich husband of the star, produced the show chiefly to vindicate his talented wife.

Three years ago she was to star in "Madame Pompadour." On the eve of the premiere Miss Hampton was replaced by Wilda Bennett and there was much ado about it in the papers—all of which naturally humiliated Miss Hampton. ... .

"My Princess" was patterned for her to prove to the critics that Miss Hampton was not a flop. Miss Hampton's delightful singing in this show vindicated her—so far as her husband was concerned—after the glowing tributes from the reviewers next morning.

The vindication is reported to have cost Mr. Brulatour over $300,000.

Here follows the joke in question:

"I have heard that among gamblers there is a saying, and a true one, that no matter how wise a man may be in his own line, he's always a sucker at some other fellow's game," Miss Hampton told me. "The expert confidence man loses against the crooked roulette wheel. The promoter of fixed foot races blows his loot on faro.

"It has remained for a sporting man whose specialty is poker to explain why, in his own case, he fails to garner any profits when he invades a kindred field of endeavor. This particular man went to Belmont track one day to play the races. When he returned home in the evening he was penniless. The bookmakers had stripped him of his last dollar.

"His wife took him to task.

"'You certainly are a boob,' she said. 'Every time you go to the track you come home cleaned out. Why is it you always lose there when you always can win at cards?"

"'Well,' he said, 'I've been thinking about that very thing myself, and I guess the answer is that I don't shuffle the horses.'"

SPUDDERS RALLY IN SEVENTH INNING AND TAKE OPENER, 5-4

STANTON AND BENTON STAR

Payne Pitches Effectively; Kilduff Clouts Hard

By LARRY DAILEY
Record News Sports Editor

Any lingering doubt that might be entertained that the Spudders are real champions, for instance over at Fort Worth, was dispelled yesterday. After spotting the Shreveport Sports a three-run lead in the first inning, the Texas league and Dixie champions fought an uphill battle to win the opener of the Roberts loop out at Athletic park

Turned back scoreless and with only one hit in the first four innings by Joe Brown, the Spudders got to the big right hander for two runs in the fifth round and three tallies in the seventh. That proved enough to win, 5 to 4.

George Payne, the well known master of the "screw ball" and other deliveries calculated to baffle opposing batters, pitched superb ball after that first round. Also, the trio of markers in the opener were due partly to his own error and a misplay by Turgeon, though he did give up a brace of hits.

Anyhow, after the first round George was what is known as master of the situation. Until he retired from the scene of action to permit a pinch-hitter to bat for him, Payne gave up nary a tally and only two hits. That's real chunking.

Young George Stanton, making his first start in Spudder regalia and the only Wichita Falls athlete not a veteran acquitted himself most creditably. Buck was the first to get a hit off Brown, pounding a single to right in the third. Then in the fifth he clouted a sacrifice that drove home a mate.

In the seventh George's potent mace did more damage, his second single sending a mate to third. This gave the kid a perfect batting mark for the day, and made him the only Spud to get more than one hit.

All Stanton's starry work was not on the offense. He made a scintillating play in the midst of that Sport flurry in the first inning and otherwise displayed superb fielding skill.

Benton Shares Honors.

Rabbit Benton shared honors with Stanton in setting the winning pace. The shortstop started two fast double plays at critical occasions and it was his hit in the seventh that drove home two comrades with what were to prove the winning tallies.

Peter Kilduff, the eminent second baseman of the Sports was a hard man to get out. He slammed two hits, one a double and walked twice.

After the Spudders went ahead in the seventh the shivering 8,000 or more fans who packed the stands turned colder. But it wasn't the weather. It was a threatened rally by the Sports.

Mike Cvengros took up the hill duty for the Spudders. The southpaw, who can hurl an excellent game of ball and who usually does, found the keen wind not to his liking. Aften an auspicious start in which he struck out the first batter to oppose him Mike developed a distressing lack of control.

So when he had given up three passes to fill the bases Skipper Carl Williams called in Milt Steengrafe. The Californian chucked a wild pitch on his first throw that enabled an enemy to amble home. But he settled down then to real pitching and averted further danger by retiring the side.

Brown wasn't entirely to blame for the Spudder rally in the seventh, as an error was disastrous. But neither was Payne held solely accountable for the Sports scoring in the first, so it was 50-50.

After Lamb had grounded out in the seventh Jenkins lifted a high fly which Wilson permitted to dribble through his fingers and Tom scurried to second. Swenson tapped to Bloxsom, who tossed out Jenkins at third. The Spudder cause did not look so hopeful. But there still was George Stanton, the pride of Wilson, Virginia, suh, to be considered.

He did CONSIDERABLE, slashing smartly to left for a hit that sent Swenson to third and enabled him to amble to second. Joe Cobb walked. Then pandemonium reigned. Joe Luciano was told to pick out a bat and hit for Payne. A tough spot for a rookie. But Carl knew what he was doing. He most always does. Luciano has a keen eye; they have to pitch to him. Brown apparently was wild. The play was to work for a base on balls. Which Joe did. And got it. That enabled Swenson to stroll home.

Up came Rabbit Benton. The shortstopper crashed smartly to center, Stanton and Cobb racing home with the runs that were to prove sufficient to win the ball game. Luciano was thrown out at third on that hit.

The Sports scored three runs in the first inning, aided by two errors, a brace of hits, a sacrifice and base on balls. Turgeon dripped Cox's lift back of first base and Elmer went to second. Kilduff strolled. Payne threw wild on Sears' bunt, Cox scoring, Kilduff going to third and Ziggy to second. Wilson singled to left, Kilduff tallying and Sears going to third. Holman dropped a hit in short left-center, Sears racing home and Wilson to second. Stanton made a fast play on Whelan's bunt and tossed to Swenson to retire Wilson. Bloxsom skied to Jenkins. Cobb raced to the Sports' dugout to take Hayworth's foul.

Champs Score in Fifth.

The champions counted a pair of markers in the fifth. Jenkins started it with a sharp knock to right. Swenson's short hit to the same field sent Tom to third. Stanton's long fly to Wilson scored Jenkins. Kilduff dropped Holman's toss on Cobb's grounder, Swenson reaching third and Joe first. Cox went back to make a one-hand snatch of Payne's drive, Swenson scoring. Cobb was run down, Brown to Kilduff to Whelan.

After striking out Holman, first batter in the eighth, Cvengros passed Whelan and Bloxsom. Hayworth flied to Lamb. Tobin, our old friend Frank, batted for Brown and walked, filling the bases. Steengrafe strode to the mound. He threw wild, Whelan scoring. Milt struck out Pete Kilduff ,who until that time had enjoyed a perfect day at bat.

Steen passed one and gave up a hit in the eighth, but Benton, Turgeon and Stanton executed their second fast double play of the pastime and the homelings were where they were when they quit a year ago—at the top of the procession.

Moore's Hit Scores Winning Run With Two Out

FORT WORTH, April 11. (AP)—Fort Worth battled 11 innings to defeat Dallas 4 to 3 in the opening game of the 1928 Texas league season Wednesday afternoon at Panther park. Eddie Moore, Cat center fielder, drove in the winning run in the 11th with two away. Richardson came home from second with the winning run. An estimated crowd of 15,00 saw the game.

Fort Worth scored three runs in the second inning on home runs by Holland and Smith. The latter's came with one on. The Steers nicked Pate for one in the third, seventh and then tied the score in the ninth. They threatened in each of the extra innings, but lacked the punch.

BEARS WHALE EXPORTERS.

SAN ANTONIO, April 11. (AP)—About 8000 persons saw the San Antonio Bears defeat the Beaumont Exporters in the Texas league opening game here, 7 to 1, Wednesday afternoon. They saw Dana Fillingim pitch a steady game, in which he kept ten hits well scattered. They saw the Bears spank out a dozen hits, including a home run by Ray Grimes, who also got a two-bagger, and they saw most of these hits coming at a time when they were needed.

Manager Frank Gibson himself was in harness behind the bat and the battery of Fillingim and Gibson, which used to work for the Boston Braves, operated in big league style. Score:

Waco got to Ken Penner for three runs in the first stanza, but the Buffs kept peppering away at the offerings of Jake Freeze until they got him out. Close to 15,000 diamond enthusiasts paid to see the game. The overflow crowd set a record for Houston baseball attendance. Score:

SEVERAL SEEK VERNON PLACE

Applications as Prep Athletic Coach Considered

Special to the Record News.

VERNON, April 11.—Vernon high school officials are considering several applications for the place as coach here. Coaches Baggett and May are making preparations for baseball and track in the meantime. May, who will coach the Sandstorms next year, is in charge of baseball, while Baggett is devoting his efforts to track.

Several inquiries are being sent out to coaches and athletes whose names have been suggested by football fans here, and no action will be taken until replies to these inquiries are received, it is announced.

Notes of the Game

Foreman Carl probably will start Joe Kiefer today, while Homer Blankenship is Art Phelan's likely mound selection.

Payne struck out all three batters yesterday in the fourth inning. Bloxsom, Hayworth and Brown, making four straight who fanned. Whelan, last batter in the third, was retired on strikes.

George pitched out of a hole in the fifth when with two runners on bases he fanned Holman.

The high wind made judging of fly balls most difficult.

This youngster Holman looks like a mighty good ball player. Besides getting a pair of clouts he handled nine chances, some of them difficult, flawlessly.

Turgeon fielded with his usual skill and grace, despite the dropping of Cox's high lift.

Tom Jenkins and George Stanton shared honors in winning prizes offered Spudders. Each won two. Jenkins will receive a pocket knife from J. C. Owen and a Bill Doak glove from Landon-Hill company for scoring the first run.

Stanton gets a silk shirt from McClurkan company for the first hit and a necktie from Ludlam-Riggs company for batting in the first run. Nine other prizes still are awaiting winners.

President Heydler Sees Champions Trounced

ST. LOUIS, April 11. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals got off to a flying start in the 1928 National league pennant race by walloping the Pittsburgh Pirates, last year's flag winners, 14 to 7, here today.

The opening day of the league's fifthy-third season was perfect. Mayor Miller tossed the first ball after Manager McKechnie of the Cardinals was presented a bouquet of flowers by admirers. John A. Heydler, president of the National league, was here to add to the impressiveness of the opener. He made the journey from his office in New York to attend.

Brooklyn's first tally was a homer by Hendrick and the other two runs were the result of Pinch Hitter Bressler's double with the bases full. Cold weather kept the crowd down to 12,000.

REDS TRIM CUBS, 5-1

CINCINNATI, April 11. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds inaugurated the race for the National league pennant by trimming the Chicago Cubs, 5 to 1, today.

Hargrave and Dressen started the action in the fifth and both scored when Gabby Hartnett overthrew third base while trying to frustrate a double steal.

The two unearned markers gave the Reds a margin for victory, for the only Cub score was tallied on Maguire's circuit drive into the left field bleachers in the sixth.

DAILY DOPE

By LARRY DAILEY

DEMPSE MOORE will acquit himself with credit when he engages in the finals late this month at Boston in the Olympic trials. This is not a prediction that the Wichita Falls youth will win. Not knowing the other contenders such a forecast would be ridiculous. But Dempse has shown enough fighting ability to justify the belief that he stands an excellent chance of being the man to represent the United States in the 175-pound boxing class this summer at Amsterdam.

Moore probably will find his greatest opposition from the representative of the eastern section. Merely a guess of course. But they teach boxing in many of the higher institutions of learning in the effete section, and they have numerous athletic clubs, all with proper facilities for training.

IF DEMPSE is the lone survivor, which I have the hunch and great hope he will be, it will be due to sheer fighting ability. From what I have seen of amateurs they are boxers, not fighters. Meaning that the amateur style of pugilism differs from the professional, where the idea is to win by a knockout.

The Boston finals, like those western trials won by Dempse at St. Louis, are to be for three rounds, with an extra round in the event of a draw. Dempse's aggressive, two-fisted, flailing attack should carry him far. His superb condition, tremendous strength and stamina will stand him in excellent stead over the route of a short bout.

THE TEXAS LEAGUE is off to another campaign. All indications point to another highly successful season in this ancient and honorable loop. And not the least factor in the favor found in the game by the fans will be the hurrying up of play. J. Doak Roberts, the most competent and progressive president of the league, has issued orders to his umpires to enforce his rules of eliminating dilatory tactics.

THERE IS NOTHING that will detract from interest in a ball game so much as a listless affair, in which the athletes play as if it were only part of the day's work, to be accomplished with as less hurry and work as possible. There is a class A league that last season was marked by its slow games, a majority of which throughout the summer dragged to weary conclusions requiring two hours or more. And the attendance showed that the fans didn't like such baseball. Indeed, two cities in that league showed a great desire last winter to enter our own Texas wheel, fastest of all class A circuits.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11. (AP)— After advancing 14 to 17 points in early trading the cotton market turned easy late today and dropped 16 to 21 points below the high. Rallies in the final trading on shorts covering and some buying based on the improvement in stocks firmed prices up. The close was steady at a net advance of 1 to 4 points.

Liquidation of the May position and the weather over the belt were the dominating influences. May contracts after trading up to 19.54 eased to 19.34, but rallied and closed at 19.39, up 5 points net.

Liverpool cables came in better than due and first trades here showed gains of 11 to 14 points. The market continued to improve on unfavorable weekly weather and crop report. July traded to 19.39 and October 19.10, 14 to 17 points above the previous close.

Toward noon the market weakened on an official forecast for fair and warmer weather and some liquidation of May contracts. Despite occasional rallies July ultimately reached 19.18 and October 18.94, 16 to 21 points net down. In the final trading the strength of stocks in New York brought out some covering by shorts and a little trade buying. July recovered to 19.25 and October 19.00, closing at these levels, net 3 and 4 points up respectively, for the day.

Exports for the day totaled 1540 bales.

Bonds

Leading Issues on New York Market

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—The bond market was fairly active in early trading today and the tone was firm.

Some issues, particularly the rails, were inclined toward softness, evidently reflecting the higher money rates and reports of a decrease in car loadings. The St. Paul issues, Canadian Pacific 4½s and Pennsylvania 7s sagged under continued offerings. Wabash First 5s and Erie Refunding and Improvement 5s, however, showed small gains, the latter apparently on the strength of the statement of President Bernet that the road has about completed house cleaning, is in good condition and might benefit if taken into a larger system, such as the Nickel Plate, under pending consolidation plans. Anaconda Copper 7s and Andes Copper 7s continued to sag, but Anaconda Copper Firsts 6s and Chile Copper 5s scored small gains. Other industrials showed little activity.

New York Traction bonds again were in demand. Manhattan Railways Convertible 4s moving to a new top at 74.

Foreign obligations held firm.

U. S. government bonds showed little change.

State Secretary To Certify Election Here

Certification of the six charter changes voted by Wichita Falls at the recent city election is expected soon from Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state at Austin.

The proceedings were sent to the secretary of state Wednesday by W. E. McBroom, city secretary, and should be received in Austin Thursday.

As these amendments involve the city manager plan of government on which Wichita Falls is now working, quick action is expected at Austin. After reviewing them and certifying to them, Mrs. McCallum's office will incorporate them as a portion of the city charter on the records of the state.

SCOUTS ACTIVE

Springtime is bringing activity at the Wichita Falls Boy Scout headquarters, and also to the scouts, according to announcements made Wednesday by Frank B. Creighton, local scout executive.

Thursday night, the committeemen of the troops of the city will meet at the scout headquarters in the auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Friday night, the members of Wichita Falls' troop No. 12 will go to the Cashion rural school house to give a demonstration of scout work. Don Ross is scoutmaster of this troop.

WASHINGTON, April 11. (UP)—Soldiers and widows of soldiers who risked their lives in the Cuban yellow fever experiments would be given pensions of $250 monthly under a bill presented to the house today.

Stock Market Recovers On Drop In Call Money Rate And Sales Hit 4,300,000 Shares Again

By BROADAN WALL
Universal Service Financial Expert

NEW YORK, April 11.—Call money eased to 5½ per cent from renewal of 6 per cent and recovery started in the stock market that gathered momentum during the afternoon, resulting in turnover of over 4,300,000 shares, and closing most active issues near the high levels of the day.

Steel moved steadily forward after a favorable Iron Age report was received and its strength influenced general good feeling with the result that General Motors was closed 6 points higher.

Public Service of New Jersey gained more than 4, Union Carbide jumped 9, Cast Iron Pipe a similar amount and gains of 2 to 4 points were numerous. New York Central lead the rails in quite spirited comeback gaining more than 3 points, with Wabash showing similar advance. Interborough gained 3 also in the lead of an advancing local traction group while coppers and oils quieted and held to fractional price range. Cotton and grains rallied on bullish weather advices while the foreign exchange market turned extremely dull with leading currencies practically unchanged for the day.

Renewal rate of 6 per cent, the highest in nearly two years, failed to bring heavy selling as there was report that some banks had more money than they could loan after Tuesday's close. This was due to the amount of funds that poured in from other cities as the call rate was advanced here. The session was not very old before the easing of the call rate expected from the development was experienced and the rally started in earnest. There was belief that further ease would be experienced but with tax payments, interest and other disbursements in fairly large amount, due the end of the week, there is not likely to be much of a drop in the rate. Knowledge that the "Big Ten" as the Durant-Cutten group is known, were to get together soon, enhanced bullish sentiment also.

General Motors was the outstanding bull feature during the initial stages of the comeback and estimates as to earnings and forecasts of dividends results thereof, circulated via brokerage wires, were more optimistic than ever before. When the midweek steel reviews were received telling of sustained big demand recent accumulation of Steel common had its effect in the immediate advance. Steel, according to floor report, ras been under quiet accumulation for several weeks. Linseed showed no benefit from wide circulation of report of Du Pont's interest in the company, told of first here some weeks ago.

Curb

Leading Issues on New York Market

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—Announcement of a reduction in call loan rates just before noon served to enliven trading on the curb market today and issues which had been slow to move and had disclosed sagging tendencies in prices suddenly became active. Buying strength went to a new list of favorites, however, with motor accessories, utilities and oils showing the greatest improvement.

Reports of proposed decrease in capitalization served to lift industrial Rayon nearly 2 points to a new high at 23⅝. Tubize gained about 4 points in sympathy, but Celanese and Courtaulds sagged.

The motor accessories moved up almost as a group, Wire Wheel, Motor Products, Timken Detroit Axle, U. S. L. Battery, Warner Gear and Western Auto Supply, reaching new high levels. Firestone Tire gained about six points.

Deere & Co. gained about 4 points and Hall Lamp, Northwest Engineering and Acme Steel moved to new peaks. Safeway Stores, Canadian Marconi, Bancitaly, National Sugar Refiners and a few others sagged.

The utilities also showed group strength, with gains of 1 to 3 points for United Gas Improvement, Commonwealth Edison and Blackstone Valley. New England Power, New England Telephone & Telegraph, Pacific Light, and Central States Electric were at new highs.

Southern Pennsylvania, Pantepec, Penn Mex Fuel were among the oils to soar to new peaks.

Grain

By THOMAS TEMPLE HOYNE.
By Universal Service.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The government crop report was the yeast that brewed strong bull markets in wheat and rye today. Wheat went up like a volunteer fireman climbing a ladder to a blazing building. It jumped up at the start 2 to 2½ cents. After that it climbed slowly, but with determination.

At the end wheat was up 4⅝ to 5½c; corn was 1⅝ to 2c higher; oats were ½ to ⅝c better, and rye was up 2 to 4¼c.

The action of the wheat market was unique for so large an upturn. There was none of the flurry and hustle about it that usually prevails in an advance of such proportions. The market went ahead without excitement in business-like fashion, as a man might mark a ballot.

This seemed to suggest that the volume of trading from the outside expanded slowly. Traders far away from the pits, read tickers and thought the situation over before they acted. Many of them did not act at all, but waited for a setback.

There never was a reaction of any moment. The heavy professional profit taking early in the session was absorbed. Then prices began to forge upward again. Those who waited lost the market.

At the close prices looked as firm at the top as at any time during the day.

Oats, supposed by many grain men to be in the most bullish position on the board show little of the spring awakening that has aroused the other cereals. Trade, perhaps, is too restricted in this grain to force the futures to follow cash prices upward at present.

Rye continues to show the strength that underlies the situation in that grain. On paper it appears as if there might be some difficulty before the last of July in finding enough rye to go round to those who want it. Foreign demand is the big factor in this grain.

In the cash market wheat was 2 to 3 up; corn unchanged to 1 up; oats ⅝ to 1 up; firm; barley, steady.

Boston Wool Trading

BOSTON, April 11. (AP)—Although wool tradings continues quiet, quotations are firm, and the tone among dealers is one of confidence. Some demand is being received for 64's and finer worsted grown wools. Current gossip is that further business has been done in medium grade wool to be delivered out of contracted wools. New business in cloth by mills is very spotty. Some of the mills that are active are running extensively on the finer qualities of foreign wools.

AIRLINE GIVEN ENDORSEMENT

Representatives Lay Plans For Petroleum Line

Wichita Falls first air transportation line was formally voted by representatives of a group of cities from San Angelo, Texas, to Bartlesville, Okla., at a meeting in the Wichita Falls charmber of commerce Wednesday.

The committee reported that surveys made in the cities along the proposed line indicated sufficient interest and revenue to support it. It was then voted that a committee should make a survey of the costs, decide on the approximate capitalization, submit a quota of stock to be subscribed to each city, and report to W. N. Bonner of Wichita Falls. Mr. Bonner will then apply for a charter from the state.

The new airline will serve Wichita Falls, Abilene and San Angelo in Texas and Bartlesville, Bristow, Duncan, Oklahoma City and Tulsa in Oklahoma. It will be known as the Petroleum Airline, and will give passenger, express and mail service.

Present plans call for the association to proceed with the work entrusted to the committee with the end in view of installing the line. It was said, however, that if bids were received by private airlines they would be considered.

The association will not rush into the proposition, it was indicated at the meeting, but will proceed carefully and will work out each detail after due deliberation.

Two directors will represent each city in the deliberations of the association as directors.

At noon Wednesday the visiting delegates were the guests of the chamber of commerce at a luncheon at the Wichita club.

A number of the visitors flew to town. Among these was E. P. Halliburton of Duncan, who came in with three of his friends. Frank Hoover, Virgil Brown, Irving Perrine, R. F. Danner, Stanley Draper, Roy French, H. C. Martin and A. E. Warner came from Oklahoma City in two ships. All three planes landed at the Wichita Falls Air Transport airdrome.

Among those attending the meeting were:

Highway Engineer to Report On Wichita-Waurika Road April 25

A report on recommendations in regard to the designation of the Wichita Falls to Waurika highway will be made to the Texas state highway commission which is due to meet April 25, by Gib Gilchrist, state highway engineer, following a trip by Mr. Gilchrist over the road Wednesday.

A month ago a committee of Wichita Falls business men from the chamber of commerce took the matter up with the highway commission at Austin and the inspection by the state engineer Wednesday was the first definite result. No intimation as to what form his report would take was given by Mr. Gilchrist prior to his departure.

With H. P. Puckett, district highway engineer; J. M. Isbell, Wichita county engineer, and J. S. Bridwell, J. D. Parnell and W. B. Hamilton, he attended a luncheon in the Wichita club Wednesday noon.

The designation of the highway has been sought for some time by the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce. If Texas designates the highway to the Oklahoma line, a good highway that will serve the trade territory in that district is assured as the Oklahoma end of it already has been cared for.

Wild Scenes Mark Trading In Pit As Crop Report Sends Wheat Up

CHICAGO, April 11. (UP)—The Chicago grain pit saw some of the wildest scenes in many years today when a bull market sent wheat futures to new high records and advanced September deliveries.

Traders who had hoped for a break after the market opened up two to two and one-half cents, were sent into a frenzy when the bullish sentiment grew and a wild scramble for short covering ensued.

The bulls likewise scrambled to place orders and the pit was plunged into excitement which had not abated when the market closed for the day. Other futures were influenced by the wheat rise, September corn closing two cents above Tuesday's close. Oats showed activity for the first time in several months and gained one-half cent before the close.

The government report Tuesday, which predicted a big reduction in the winter wheat crop, caused the upward trend to get under way as soon as the market opened. The bears were sent to cover and frantic efforts to bring the prices down met stubborn bullish resistance.

The public entered the trading freely and buying orders were received from several towns throughout the day, holding the market at the higher figures. Professional traders, who stepped out at the opening, returned to cover at prevailing prices but this served only to stimulate the market.

FARM RELIEF SUM IS RAISED

Senate Adopts Big Raise In Appropriation

WASHINGTON, April 11. (UP) The senate late today adopted an amendment to the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill raising the appropriation for the revolving fund from $250,000,000 to $400,000,000. The vote was 42 to 30.

Several amendments by Senator McKellar, Tennessee Democrat, were also adopted by the senate. They would give advisory councils powers of veto over the farm board on matters pertaining to the particular commodities represented by the councils.

The question of whether the commodity councils shall be appointed by the president or by the farm board was left unsettled.

Prior to adoption of the amendment increasing the revolving fund appropriation, southern senators had fought among themselves over amendments to the measure.

An amendment was introduced by Senator Carraway, Arkansas Democrat, providing that the farm board should appoint members of the commodity councils and that the board shall have power to veto the council's rulings.

Introduction by McKellar of his amendment to give advisory councils power of veto over the farm board started long speeches for and against it. Senator Simmons, North Carolina Democrat, argued for McKellar's proposal.

The bill was opposed in its entirety by Senator Bruce, Maryland Democrat, who said it would set up a tax against the consumer for the benefit of private business.

The senate's action on the bill today was taken despite another warning from the White House that it is not acceptable to the president.

New Home

A further step to make Wichita Falls a city of beautiful homes was recorded Wednesday when W. E. McBroom, city clerk, issued a permit to J. V. C. T. Christensen to build an $18,500 brick home at 1408 Grant street. It will be built by J. L. Nair, contractor, and is to be of brick.

Into the Sewer.

Fifteen hundred bottles of good, bad and indifferent beer, several gallons of wine and a bit of whiskey Thursday morning will find their way to the city sewer, according to plans of Constable Frank Morgan. All of the intoxicants to be emptied were taken in raids conducted by members of the constable's department over the weekend, Mr. Morgan said.

Keeping step with the spirit of Wichita Falls, Mayor J. W. Akin declared a partial holiday at the municipal auditorium Wednesday so that the opening of the baseball season for the Wichita Falls Spudders, champions of Dixie, could be enjoyed by all. All offices in the auditorium were closed by 3 o'clock, and the mayor and practically all of the city employes attended the game.

A fire at the Texas Electric Service company building, 1011 Ninth street, Wednesday caused approximately $15 damage before it was extinguished. The fire, according to Fire Chief J. L. In the army Thursday used to be just Thursday with a little entertainment by Elsie Janis or some other star once in a while. In Wichita Falls today it is all different. Thursday means good vaudeville opening for a two-day stay at the Majestic with something new and modern all the time.

A triple headline show is opening Thursday with an Elinor Glyn feature picture, "The Mad Hour," as an added attraction.

The Loos brothers, Ernie and Billie, for several years staff artists of KYW radio station in Chicago, are harmony singers who give the ivories some rapid tickling and who tune up in a new kind of harmony.

Comedians and dancers, Joe Keno and Rosie Green in "A Hilarious Hodge Podge," have frequently scored in musical comedy and in the movies in addition to their work on the vaudeville stage. They are especially known for their eccentric dancing.

Hal Jerome and Gloria Gray in "Hoo's Hoo," make up the third act of the triple headlinging. They are a comedy pair who make fun of and with Mr. Webster of dictionary fame.

Slim Timblin and company are colored with cork and loaded with character creation comedy. Slim is seen as a levee lounger and the act is called "Southern Capers."

Welder Sister and company in "A Demi-Tasse Revue" complete the program with singing, dancing and music. A male quartet, including Bernie Dossit, Joe Pastor, Arthur Cappo and Larry Kramer, assist with the harmony.

"The indebtedness of Wichita Falls must be reduced, and immediate steps should be taken to this end." This was the keynote of a short talk made at the Lions club luncheon Tuesday by Mayor J. W. Akin. "Whatever is necessary, I feel that every citizen will assist and co-operate in doing to put the city on a firm financial foundation once again," the mayor said. "I will work to the best of my ability to this end, and I know that the Lions and all citizens will do what they can do to bring it about."

Harold Lloyd in "Speedy," which opens at the Majestic theater Saturday.

HAROLD LLOYD TO OPEN HERE SATURDAY

Harold Lloyd pictures are an event in Wichita Falls or any other city in America because they don't come often, but how they do come!

Saturday will see the opening of Lloyd's latest film feature at the Majestic theater. It is "Speedy," in which Harold is the hero of the horse-pulled street car.

Harold Lloyd has built into this production, which he is releasing through Paramount, some of the best comedy ideas and sure-fire features announced in a long time.

Hank Knight, 82 years old, the last of the historic Wells-Fargo stage drivers, is one of his comedy aids. Ann Christy, Harold's leading lady, is giving out interviews suggesting buttermilk, used internally, as an aid to beauty. Walter Lundin, known in filmland as "the dude," is the cameraman. For 12 years he has been grinding out Lloyd comedies.

This is Lloyd's fifth year as an independent producer. He has not been prolific in his offerings, but has aimed for the best in motion picture comedies. These include "Hot Water," which everyone remembers at least for the steaming kettles which were used everywhere in advertising; "The Freshman," "Girl Shy," "For Heaven's Sakes" and "The Kid Brother."

Local Knights Templars At Annual Conclave

J. D. Avis, eminent commander, George Lawler, recorder of Wichita Falls Knights Templar, commandery No. 59, and Otto Stehlik, grand captain of the guard of the Grand Commandery of Texas, have gone to attend the 75th annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of Texas, which is being held in Houston.

The program of the conclave, which is expected to be the greatest in the history of the order, includes competitive drills, parades, a ball, exemplification of Rainbow Girls' degree work and a boat ride on the ship channel. Several exemplifications of Masonic work will be put on.

Wives of the knights will be entertained with an automobile tour of the San Jacinto battle grounds, luncheon and auto tour of Houston, and a theater party and a tea.
