British Occupy Ismailia; Egypt Plans Protest

ISMAILIA, Egypt, Nov. 19. (AP)—British forces "occupied" this Suez Canal one trouble center today as the casualty list climbed to 14 dead and 31 wounded from two week end battles between British troops and Egyptian police.

Acting Foreign Minister Ibrahim Farag el Din Pasha said in a radio address he would protest both in Cairo and London against the "occupation."

Four British officers were killed and four soldiers and two civilians wounded. Egyptian authorities said six policemen and four civilians were killed, and 25 police wounded in the 24-hour period of sporadic fighting.

The British wounded included Ralph Champion, correspondent of the London Sunday Pictorial. He was slightly hurt.

After the Sunday outbreak British forces began patrolling the city and enforced a curfew. Egyptian police withdrew to their barracks.

BRITISH KEEP CONTROL

First reports said the occupation would end at 9 a.m. today, but the British continued in control after that hour. A spokesman said no decision had been reached when this would end.

The British maintain their chief military headquarters for Egypt on the edge of Ismailia but have left policing of the city to the Egyptians.

Ismailia, 40 miles south of the canal's north end at Port Said, was the scene of the first anti-British riots in the Canal Zone after Egypt denounced her 1936 treaty with Britain Oct. 15.

A British spokesman described Sunday's fighting as a "flareup of the Saturday night battle."

He said a military patrol jeep was fired on as it passed headquarters of the Egyptian police.

"This appeared to be the signal for gunfire to open from all directions, from rooftops and doorways," he said.

Troops from the British headquarters were sent to the city and returned the Egyptian fire.

A group of British women and children, besieged in a British store were rescued.

Egyptian Interior Minister Fouad Serag el Din said six Egyptian police, four British soldiers and three Egyptian civilians had been killed in a lengthy gun battle around Ismailia's police barracks.

The Egyptians claimed the British fired several hundred rounds from sten guns and automatic rifles, and "the Egyptian policemen defended themselves and returned the fire."

Fighting Picks Up All Along Korean Fronts

SEOUL, Korea, Nov. 19. (AP)—Chinese Reds furiously counterattacked in Central Korea today but couldn't budge a dug-in Allied division which had smashed them back three miles in a two-day line-straightening offensive.

British forces beat off a 12-hour Communist attack on the western end of the battle line.

In the east, UN troops were knocked off two hills, but recaptured one a few hours later.

RED PLANES GROUNDED

Allied fighters swept cloudless North Korean skies without spotting one Communist plane up to noon.

A pair of daring American Sabre jet pilots shot up eight Red Mig-15 jets on the ground Sunday in Northwestern Korea. Seven other Migs were reported hit in three air battles.

The Allied division which shoved the Communists off ridges southeast of Kumsong on the Central Front was hit three times Sunday night and Monday morning by counterattacking Reds.

A Chinese battalion tried for three hours to dent the Allied line but the attackers were thrown back and finally quit the battle shortly before dawn, the Eighth Army said. Two other counterattacks also failed the Army added.

ALLIES GAIN HILL

Allied infantrymen pushed the Reds off still another hill on the nine-mile divisional front east of the Pukhan River.

In the west, the Chinese threw self-propelled guns and soldiers into the 12-hour fight to dislodge the British from a strategic hill west of Yonchon Sunday night. At dawn the Britons still were atop and the Reds pulled back.

The Allied offensive on the Central Front wiped out a "dog-leg" in the battle line along the Upper Pukhan River. UN troops are dug in on ridges ranging up to 3,000 feet on a generally east-west line southeast of Kumsong.

The attack opened Saturday along a nine mile front defended by two Communist regiments. The Allied division commander said 932 Chinese bodies were counted and 99 prisoners taken.

Recover Salt Water In Test Of Borden Well

Southwest of Gail in Central-South Borden County, Brinkerhoff No. 1 Clayton and Johnson is circulating while waiting on orders after recovering only salt water on a drillstem test in the Pennsylvanian lime.

The test was run from 8,071-93 feet. With tool open 20 minutes, recovery was 2,070 feet of salt water and 60 feet of mud. Operator is said to believe there is little if any chance of completing the project as a producer from the Pennsylvanian.

There is a possibility that the project will be plugged back to about 3,200 feet to test the San Andres which had slight shows of production in earlier tests.

BORDEN REPORTS

In Central - West Borden County, Amerada Petroleum Corp. No. 1 Canon is drilling below 4,536 feet in lime.

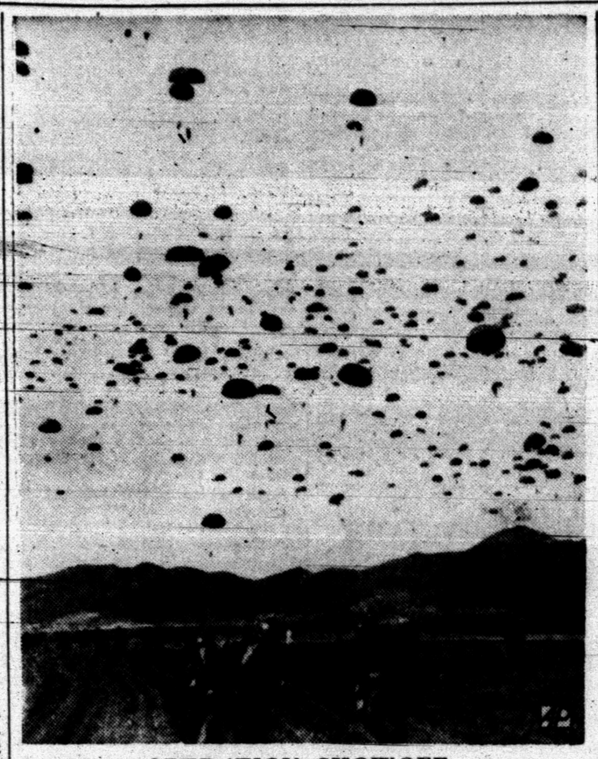

Phillips Petroleum Co. No. 1-A Clayton, northeast of the Good field, is drilling in chert below 9,512 feet.

Dana, Shay & Barker No. 1 McKnight, Northeast Borden wildcat, is connecting tank batteries.

Reds Promise To Give Truce Reply Wednesday

Chief Justice Vinson Thought Candidate To Solidify Demos

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—Chief Justice Fred Vinson was being mentioned today as a possible presidential nominee who might unify the Democratic party.

The latest public plug for Vinson came from Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo), who sometimes votes with Dixie and Republican colleagues and supports only a part of President Truman's "Fair Deal" program.

Johnson said he doesn't believe President Truman will run again, and he predicted the party would turn to Vinson. The senator added he doesn't believe Gen. Eisenhower will be nominated by either party. He conceded the general would be "a strong candidate" if he were nominated.

Vinson, 60, is a Kentuckian. The President and the chief justice are close personal as well as political friends.

FARLEY ON TICKET

Johnson said he thinks Southern Democrats, who are planning a revolt against President Truman's civil rights proposals in next year's Democratic platform, would go along with Vinson and he would be elected. He suggested James A. Farley as a vice presidential candidate to replace Vice President Barkley, who like Vinson is a Kentuckian.

The Senator said he doesn't think Mr. Truman or anyone else will be able to "dictate" the party platfrom. Asked about the civil rights issue, he replied:

"I don't think civil rights should dominate the platform."

FAVORS EISENHOWER

Although Senator Lodge (R-Mass) said Harry Darby, Republican national committeeman, will head the national draft-Eisenhower committee, Darby said he will serve only in an advisory capacity. Lodge has been named campaign manager.

Senator Dirksen (R-Ill) said he thinks Senator Taft of Ohio is the leading GOP candidate and Eisenhower won't have much chance to get the nomination unless he declares his political intentions soon.

Acheson Urges Acceptance Of West's Disarmament Program

PARIS, Nov. 19. —Secretary of State Acheson introduced the West's disarmament plan today and fervently appealed for its acceptance to "open a broad highway along which we can all march together."

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky listened impassively as Acheson urged all countries not "to turn aside into the noisesome alleys of propaganda."

Acheson was asking the UN Political Committee to adopt a program which would set up a 12-nation disarmament commission to start the ball rolling in a step-by-step supervised arms reduction as proposed by the U. S., France and Britain.

WORLD ARMS CUT

The commission, made up of the UN Security Council plus Canada, would lay the groundwork for a world arms reduction conference to which such non-UN nations as Red China would be invited.

The resolution Acheson introduced calls for strictly controlled, gradual disarmament and a census of all weapons, including the atomic.

The permanent members of the Security Council, Britain, Nationalist China, France, Russia and the U. S., would have to agree on such a commission's decisions, since each of the five would have veto power in the Council. The commission would draw up for the world conference treaties of "regulation, limitation and balanced reduction of all armed forces and all armaments."

RUSSIA NOT MENTIONED

Acheson made no direct mention of Russia, whose acceptance would be necessary to start the plan rolling.

"There is no magic" in the West's proposals, Acheson said, but he insisted the plan could be a turning point in world history.

In the second political committee, Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik tilted bitterly with Selim Sarper of Turkey Political Committee No. 2 helps the first committee handle the heavy load of political problems before the General Assembly.

RUSSIA'S PROPOSAL

Russia proposed Friday that a similar 12-nation commission start work at once on the inspection and control of all weapons. It called for the commission to report to the security council by Feb. 1.

The western plan set no date for the disarmament conference.

The west reiterated its insistence that the world's arms stockpiles must be inventoried with foolproof inspection provided.

CAN'T TAKE WORD

Acheson told the committee international verification of arms was the most important part of the plan because "We cannot rely on any statement of any country or official, no matter how friendly they may have been in the past."

Acheson said countries should first list—and have verified—the less secret weapons whose disclosure would be least dangerous to security of states.

"Then we have a chance to see if the system of verification is working," he declared.

The secretary said there were essential elements to the Western plan:

An international inventory and check up of arms and armaments.

Disarmament to agreed levels.

Prohibition of the atomic bomb.

Creation of safeguards to make sure that all nations comply.

Senator Starts Own Tax Probe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—Senator Williams (R-Del) is starting his own search for tax collection scandals. He'll concentrate on "five or six of the top racketeers," he said today.

Williams, credited with setting off the current House probe of scandals in the federal revenue gathering service, said Sunday he will demand still deeper digging.

He followed this with today's disclosure that he's doing some digging of his own into the tax cases of big-time criminals. He wouldn't reveal their names.

"I'm making a detailed case study of just how they were treated on tax return collections and prosecutions by federal tax officials," Williams said. "There has been a lot of criticism and rumor about preferential treatment of these racketeers by tax officials. I have asked treasury officials for full details on these cases."

Williams added that he hasn't yet received all the data he asked but he thinks he'll "be able to get all the facts one way or another."

Williams said he will insist that William G. Lias, whom he has identified to the Senate as a notorious racketeer, gets a chance to tell his full story on "tax deals." Williams wanted to know about $2,230,774 in tax claims he said remain unpaid.

The Senate investigation has led to more than a score of suspensions, resignations and dismissals among tax agents, with two collectors of internal revenue under indictment. President Truman's firing of Assistant Attorney General T. Lamar Caudle stemmed from the committee's airing of Caudle's "outside activities." A White House advisor has said that Caudle's dismissal as chief of the Justice Department tax division "is just a starter."

Iran Premier To Visit Cairo

TEHRAN, Iran, Nov. 19. (AP)—Political circles hinted today that Premier Mohammed Mossadegh is going to Egypt to discuss formation of a vast Middle East Moslem Bloc, independent of the West and Russia.

Mossadegh left Washington Sunday night after a month of talks with U. S. officials on the Anglo-Iranian oil dispute.

En route home, Mossadegh will make a four-day official visit in Cairo. He is expected to meet King Farouk.

The usually well informed newspaper Tolou said government sources believe Mossadegh's visit to Egypt will "pave the way for formation of a union of Moslem countries against foreign colonization."

"The aim of the Moslem countries would be the creation of a bloc independent of both the West and Russia," Tolou added.

Hussein Maki, oil nationalization boss and Mossadegh's right hand man, said:

"According to political plans the destinies of Iran and Egypt are linked. Victory of the Iranian nation signified victory for Egypt. Egypt's fight against colonialism is certain to produce repercussions within other Moslem countries."

Oilmen Receive New Challenge

DALLAS, Nov. 19. (AP)—The men who find oil met today with this challenge facing them:

There's enough oil in the United States to last 100 years—if they can find it.

The estimate came from Dr. Sigmund Hammer, head of the group—the Society of Exploration Geophysicists.

Hammer said "As a matter of fact, our known reserves are the greatest in history. Last year, while the nation was using 2 billion barrels of oil, scientists and wildcatters found 3 billion."

The world supply, he added, is 600 billion barrels. So far, only 100 billion barrels have been discovered and only 60 billion produced.

On the other hand, there is only a 14-year-supply of known reserves and oil explorers will have to find a lot more.

The petroleum industry, he declared, will have to "work like the devil to keep up with a national demand skyrocketing at the rate of 10 per cent a year."

More people than ever are hunting oil, Hammer said. He estimated there are 600 teams of geophysicists at work, a 25 per cent increase since Korea.

Most oil findings in the world are by Americans, he pointed out.

"It's a peculiar American ability, probably due to our free enterprise system," he said. "We can think boldly and are willing to gamble."

Trieste Note Held Diversion

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—The latest Russian complaint concerning Trieste is viewed as an attempt to divert world attention from what U. S. officials consider a blunder made by Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky at Paris.

Vishinsky told the UN General Assembly last week that he had stayed awake all night laughing about Western proposals for disarmament.

The Iron Curtain Countries' press made no mention of this in reporting Vishinsky's speech. The belief here is that the Kremlin sees now that a serious proposal for ending the arms race comes too close to the lives and fortunes of people to be dismissed with ridicule.

It was against this background that State Department Press Officer Lincoln White said Sunday that American officials are convinced Russia's new charges about western military development of Trieste was an effort to revive an old issue as a diversion. The Soviets are "beating a dead horse," White asserted.

Northern Italy Hit By Flood

ROVIGO, Italy, Nov. 19. (AP)—Verona, the home of Romeo and Juliet, and Mantua fell today under the menace of Italy's rampaging flood with the collapse of a quarter-mile section of the northern bank of Bianco Canal.

The break, which has doubled in size since Sunday, was only one more new calamity in the desolated Po delta, where nearly 200 thousand persons have been made homeless.

A fierce storm-driven rain in some parts of the vast area added to sufferings of thousands of isolated hungry, threatened persons. It also added to the floods, which in 10 days have brought death to more than 100 North Italians.

Rovigo, the provincial capital, was a deserted city.

A fleet of small boats was rushed to Adria, where 20 thousand of the 35 thousand population were marooned after ignoring earlier warnings.

The canal break was 40 miles from Verona, a city of 170 thousand made famous by Shakespeare's story.

The flood spread ruin over a Delta triangle 36 miles deep and 18 miles wide at its Adriatic Sea base.

Submerged in the friangle were Adria, Cavarzere, Loreo, and Donada, plus scores of villages, hamlets and farms.

Damage was estimated in the millions of dollars.

JANICE GETS OFF EARLY LETTER TO SANTA CLAUS

Eight year - old Janice Lee Melton of Snyder put away thoughts of Thanksgiving to write an early letter ot Santa Claus last week.

The letter passed through here on its way to the North Pole, where Santa will read it at his leisure.

Janice, early though she is, didn't have only herself in mind. She starts her letter:

Dear Santa,

I have two brothers. They want a dump truck and a record player. And I want a table and chairs. I am eight years old and my two brothers are four years and three years. And I want some skates, some old maid cards.

From Janice and brothers.

Catholics Fear U. S. Decaying

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—The spiritual leaders of American Catholics have spoken out strongly against the hurling of false charges at men in public life.

The U. S. cardinals, archbishops and bishops of the Roman Catholic Church said in their annual statement this country faces a threat alarmingly like the one which caused the downfall of the Roman Empire — "barbarism on the outside, refined materialism and moral decay within."

The Roman Empire disintegrated from within," said the statement, "The same fate will befall us if we do not awaken to the danger which threatens us from within our own household.

"In politics, the principle that 'anything goes,' simply because people are taught not to expect any high degree of honor in politicians, is grossly wrong.

"We have to recover that sense of personal obligation on the part of the voter and that sense of public trust on the part of the elected official which give meaning and dignity to public life."

Public officials, the church leaders said, "have been selected not for self-enrichment but for conscientious public service. One and the same standard covers stealing from the cash register and dishonest gain derived from public office."

Johnson Waits Olmsted Reply

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—Senator Johnson (D-Tex) awaited today an explanation from the top defense officer Johnson said put out "misleading" reports on arms shipments to Europe.

Maj. Gen. George H. Olmsted, director of the office of military assistance, said last week arms deliveries to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) are ahead of schedule.

Johnson said actually shipments are lagging far behind the original program and Olmsted's statement "surprised and even shocked" him.

Johnson said original schedules broke down, military assistance officials set up new schedules they knew could be met "and then blithly announced that everything was ahead of schedule."

The senator said this "type of thing" is an example of what is causing widespread suspicion. He said the people are entitled to the truth "whether pleasant or unpleasant."

Ask Time For Instructions From Peiping

MUNSAN, Korea, Nov. 19. (AP)—Red cease-fire delegates promised today to give their overall reply Wednesday to an Allied proposal for an armistice in 30 days in Korea.

After an hour and 15-minute session at Panmunjom, they asked a recess through Tuesday. They wanted to study a plan keyed to a truce line which courses up to more than 25 miles north of Parallel 38.

The Reds apparently want to refer the matter to Peiping — where Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai issued a statement backing up a Russian proposal that Parallel 38 be the line of Demarcation for divided Korea.

Chinese Gen. Hseih Fang said the Reds, after studying the plan, would come back Wednesday with the overall reply.

ALLES WANT FRONT

The Allies have proposed that the present line of battle contact across Korea be accepted as a temporary demarcation line now and that such a line become the permanent cease-fire line if a full armistice is signed within 30 days.

If all armistice problems are not settled in 30 days, the U. N. plan calls for a new demarcation line to be fixed, based on "such conditions as will be at the time mutually agreed to by the delegations of both sides." Continued fighting might have changed it by then. Point one of the Allied preposal states that fighting will go on until an armistice is signed.

It was the fourth and last point in the U. N. plan which took up most of the time at Monday's session.

FULL ARMISTICE

Maj. Gen. Henry I. Hodes, senior member of the U. N. subcommittee, explained again to the Reds that a new provisional demarcation line must be determined at the end of a 30-day period if a full armistice has not been reached.

He said point four meant that new and unforseeable conditions may have arisen which would govern the negotiations.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, U. N. spokesman, said the Allied proposal "was not in any way a de facto cease fire."

"The line of contact can change and can change materially in a 30-day period," he said.

An official summary said the Allied delegations once more made clear "that military operations would continue until the complete armistice was agreed upon and signed."

Industrial Uses Of Video To Far Overshadow Uses In Home

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Television is moving into business and industry.

It is becoming the eyes for management, to check up on operations, and a valuable new tool for workers to perform difficult tasks more easily and with greater safety.

More than 150 business and industrial television units are in operation around the country. They are private television systems operated over closed circuits on cables, direct from camera to receiver, with no signals being broadcast over the air.

Industry officials contend that commercial and professional uses of television will overshadow its role in bringing Milton Berle, Arthur Godfrey and other entertainment into the home.

BOILERS WATCH STACKS

Operators in the boiler rooms of the big power station of the Consolidated Electric Co. of New York can see on TV screens whether the three giant chimneys are emitting too much smoke. The superintendent has one in his office so he can keep check, too.

Two department stores have television viewing screens at strategic points to let customers see specials being offered on other floors, or look in on style shows.

Utilities companies have TV cameras focused on water level gauges of boilers so an engineer can watch them from a central location, and on furnaces to see that the burners are operating properly.

The government is making numerous uses of television; many of which are being kept secret for security reasons. Some are for studies of rockets and guided missiles, and in robot planes that can televise target areas to viewing screens in front of observers on the ground.

TV A WATCHMAN

Other uses to which television could be put, scientists say, include:

A watchman in a central location could keep an eye on several key points to be guarded.

The boss could sit in his office and hold a conference with subordinates elsewhere in the building or in branch offices and plants.

A single guard, by means of cameras spaced at intervals, could keep watch over traffic throughout a tunnel or the entire length of a bridge and quickly spot an accident or a traffic jam in the making.

A camera, with light attached, could be lowered into an oil well casing to inspect the inside all the way to the bottom.

The British early this year used a TV camera to locate a sunken submarine.

Video scientists say the field has hardly been scratched.

Exhibition Of Currency Here

An exhibit of paper currency of the United States from colonial days to the present will be open to the public at the Snyder National Bank throughout the week, Ralph Gehsenhoner, vice president, has announced.

The currency is loaned through the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. It is exhibited in 15 specially built display cases.

Included in the display are specimens representing every type of note, bill and certificate which has been circulated as money in the United States since colonial days. However, no notes above the $100 denomination are shown because insurance and transportation charges would be too costly if these were included. Gold certificates, recalled from circulation by the U. S. treasury, are also absent from the collection.

Visitors to the exhibit will receive a pamphlet which explains briefly some of the history of United States currency and gives a more complete description of the notes in each display case.

Two types of currency issued by the Texas treasury are included in the exhibit. The first of these Texas notes were issued when Texas was a republic. State of Texas warrants were issued and circulated in the state during the Civil War period and were used in payment for both civil and military services.

Driving And Liquor Charges Filed Against Six In County Court

County court charges of driving while intoxicated were filed today against five men, and a minor was charged with illegal liquor possession.

Two of those charged with driving offenses were fined, a charge against one was withdrawn to be refiled later as a felony chrage, and the other men pleaded innocent to the charges.

Melvin Ray Duke, 32, of 2800 Avenue D, pleaded innocent to a charge of driving while intoxicated, and his bond was set at $500. Bond was set at $250 for Louis Gore, about 32, of Snyder, on a similar charge.

Fines of $98.50 each, including court cost, were assessed Harold Herman Burnell, 21, of Hermleigh, and Roy Douglas Brunson, 31, of Snyder, when they pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated.

Lloyd Merritt, sheriff, who said he arrested a youth in a downtown alley, said he confiscated 194 half-pints of whisky, 77 half-pints of gin, and six four-fifths quarts of wine from an automobile.

Dr. W. M. Smith Is Reopening Clinic Here

Dr. W. M. Smith has announced the reopening of his clinic, which is temporarily to be located at 2603 Avenue H.

Dr. Smith opended the clinic here in March. It was closed when he became ill early in September. Clinic hours at present will be only in the morning, although he will answer emergency calls at other house.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith now plan to make their home in Snyder. Their son, Bud Smith, is a student at the University of Texas. A granddaughter, Linda Roche, is with them.

WENT TO PRESS 70 MILES AWAY

LUFKIN, Nov. 19 (AP) — The Sunday morning edition of the Lufkin Daily News was hours late. If it hadn't been for help from another newspaper, it never would have been printed.

With half the papers off the press, a chain belt drive broke. The nearest replacement was in Houston and would not have been available until today.

Lamar Hamilton of the Palestine Herald-Press volunteered use of his press. Lufkin pressmen loaded the 12 plates of the edition into their cars and drove 72 miles to Palestine, ran off the papers and returned the printed papers.

Carriers completed deliveries in the early afternoon.

Mary Pickford Makes Return To Filmland

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. (AP)—Mary Pickford, once "America's Sweetheart," is coming out of a 19-year retirement from the screen to star in just one more film.

The actress, 58, will play a librarian in the film, "The Library," by Columbia Pictures.

Her return to the screen matches in many ways the movie comeback of Gloria Swanson.

Miss Swanson, 52, regained her former prominence last year with "Sunset Boulevard." She went on to successes on the stage and in television.

The careers of both ran almost parallel. Miss Swanson started her film career in 1913. Miss Pickford in 1214. Miss Swanson appeared in only two films after 1932. Miss Pickford's last film, "Secrets," was in 1933.

Miss Pickford said Sunday "The Library" is the one and only story which would have induced me again to appear before the cameras."

Since her retirement, Miss Pickford has been active in the management and ownership phases of the film industry. She was one of the founders of the United Artists producing and distributing organizations.

At the height of her career, the star once was guaranteed $250,000 a picture. She turned down the offer, preferring to work for her own company, United Artists.

Miss Pickford married her one-time leading man, Buddy Rogers, in 1937. Rogers is now conductor of his own television show.

Previously she was married to Owen Moore and Douglas Fairbanks, Sr.

Howard Payne In Good Spot

BROWNWOOD, Nov. (AP) — A new Texas Conference champion may be crowned Thursday at Brownwood when the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets entertain the Abilene Christian College Wildcats in their homecoming game.

A win or a tie is all Howard Payne needs.

The game will have all the fireworks that a championship game can have. It will match Howard Payne's aerial trickery against Abilene's ground attack.

The jackets will rely on the arm of Curtis Davenport, passing ace, and the hard running of Jackie Bearrow, leading scorer in the conference with 66 points. Abilene will bank on the off-tackle and guard smashes by Tommy Hinson, Fullback, who has a 5.71 average in 158 carries for 902 yards.

If Abilene upsets Howard Payne, the Wildcats can share the conference title with Howard Payne and Texas A&I, which has yet to meet Austin College.

Austin College plays East Texas State, Lone Star Conference champs, at Sherman.

Only one game was played last week, McMurry plastering New Mexico AIM 33-13.

Probably Another Week Before Cotton Bowl Contenders Are Named

DALLAS, Nov. 19. (AP)—Indications today were that it will be a week before the visiting team is named for the cotton bowl.

The selection committee reached no decision Sunday. The unsettled situation in the Southwest Conference, which furnishes the host team, was a reason.

Another reason obviously hinges around the probable records of the teams believed under consideration—Kentucky, Virginia and Oklahoma the most prominently mentioned.

L. R. Spires Purchases Big New Mexico Ranch

L. R. Spires, San Angelo and Sweetwater rancher, has purchased the 90-section Moon Ranch in Southwest New Mexico for a reported one million dollars.

The ranch formerly belonged to J. H. Alpin, formerly of Eldorado, Ark. It is made up of patented and leased grazing and is in the northwest part of Grant County near Silver City. A $100,000 home was recently completed there.

Spires holds ranching and oil interests in Scurry and Borden Counties in addition to his Nolan County properties.

Mrs. Charlie Julian, 1412 Avenue R, was taken to a Big Spring hospital by a Bolger - Barnes ambulance last night.

Two Schools Of Thought On What Makes Smallest Town

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—What's the biggest city in the country? Sure, everybody knows that. It's New York.

All right now, how about the smallest? Who knows the smallest incorporated town in the country?

Well, it's debatable.

It depends on what you consider the smallest number. There are two schools of thought—the one school of thought and the nothing school of thought.

The one school of thought figures that a population of one is the smallest population you can have, that when you go below one you have nothing—no population, no town.

The nothing school of thought argues, however, that nothing is less than one and so a town with no population is smaller than a town with a population of one.

Well, so much for technicalities. Now for the statistics.

This is what the Census Bureau found in 1950—

There were five U. S. incorporated towns with zero population. Two are in Florida, three in Arkansas. They are Mecca, in Pinellas County, and Monte Vista, in Lake County, Florida, and Graysonia, Clark County, Kelso, Desha County, and Rohwer, Desha County, Arkansas.

If you believe that no population entitles a town to the crown of "smallest," you could argue that the honor should go to Mecca, Fla. Mecca had no population in 1940, either.

However, if you believe that a population of one gives a town the title, then the winner is Douglas, in Lincoln County, Arkansas. Douglas has a population of one, declining to that number from a 1940 total of four.

Close behind Douglas is Ophir, Colo., in San Miguel County, with two (unchanged from 1940), and Mercur, Utah, in Tooele County, likewise with two. Mercur really hit the skids since 1930 when it reported 358 people.

Next in line are Westfall, Malheur County, and Whitney, Baker County, both in Oregon. Both had totals of three.

So much for the little smallest towns. Let's pass on to some big smallest towns.

For instance, the smallest incorporated town in Rhode Island is Central Falls, which boasts 23,550 people. The smallest town in Massachusetts in Newburyport, with 14,111.

Census Bureau figures deal with incorporated towns and in Rhode Island, Massachusetts and various other New England states the really small population areas are not incorporated, for various governmental reasons.

Going back to those zero population towns, the story of how they happen to exist without people is that while a group of people once was interested in incorporating, no one is around now to go to the trouble unincorporating.

Among the towns which the Census Bureau lists as the smallest in each state (first figure 1950 population, second figure 1940 population) are:

Louisiana, Mound 105 and 145; New Mexico, Greenville 102 and 143; Oklahoma, Santa Fe 8 and 40; Texas, Belcherville 31 and 94.

Hogan Golfer Of Year Again

CHICAGO, Nov. 19. (AP)—Surprising nobody, Ben Hogan, the little guy with the magic fairways touch, again has been named "Golfer of the Year."

The National Open champion got 164 votes, about 85 per cent of those cast, in the Professional Golfers' Association annual poll.

It was the third time in the poll's four-year history the award went to Hogan. He was followed by Lloyd Mangrum, Skip Alexander, Cary Middlecoff and Jim Ferrier, in that order.

Ben finished only four of the five tourneys he started this year. The Phoenix Open, Hogan withdrew because of illness after leading the first round with a 65.

Next at Augusta, he won his first masters crown. After finishing fourth in the Colonial Open, Ben captured the U. S. open for the third time in four years. He closed shop for the year by winning the world championship of golf at Chicago's Tam O'Shanter.

He averaged 70 strokes per round.

Pelican Amassador Asks Churchill To Visit Texas In January

LONDON, Nov. 19. (AP) — Winston Churchill had an invitation today to visit Texas. It came from the ambassador in charge of pelican affairs, News Editor James Carter of the Galveston News.

Carter dropped in on No. 10 Downing Street Sunday to ask the Prime Minister to come to Texas while he is in the United States in January.

Carter said a member of the secretariat told him Churchill would visit Galveston "if he possibly could."

Carter arrived Saturday with four pelicans who will again populate St. James Park. The original clan died out recently.

Aged Baptist Pastor Resigns After 44 Years

FORT WORTH, Nov. 19. (AP)—The Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist Church 44 years, resigned Sunday because of his health.

The Rev. Luther Peak of Dallas succeeded him. He will continue as pastor of the Central Baptist Church of Dallas, which is in the midst of a building program.

The Rev. Norris saw the First Baptist Church congregation grown from one to ten thousand. The church recently paid off its $1 million indebtedness.

Bill Crowder, who lives on the Post road, was admitted to Lubbock Memorial Hospital Sunday morning. He was taken to Lubbock by Bolger-Barnes ambulance.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Matthews, 2711 Avenue V, are the parents of a son born Sunday night in Snyder Hospital.

Foot, Mouth Disease Breaks Out In England

LONDON, Nov. 19. (AP)—A serious outbreak of foot and mouth disease in Eastern England has forced the slaughter of 1,754 animals in five days.

The movement of livestock has been banned in parts of 13 English counties. Eighteen outbreaks have been reported in the area since Wednesday. Diseased animals killed include 742 cattle, 566 sheep and 446 pigs.

Cold Covering Most Of Nation

By The Associated Press

Icy air gave most of the nation a numbing chill over the weekend. Some Eastern States had heavy snowfalls.

Snow fell for 24 hours without a letup in some sections of Pennsylvania, dumping 18 inches at Kane, in Northwestern Pennsylvania. Heavy snow also smacked parts of Ohio, West Virginia and Maryland, with 15 inches reported near Cleveland.

Cold, numbing weather extended over a vast area. Florida, in the path of biting northwest winds, reported the coldest weather of the season today. Truck crops as far south as the Everglades were threatened. A low of 24 degrees was forecast for the Gainesville district. The frost warning service said conditions for citrus in low ground spots would be "on the ragged edge." The temperature at Miami was expected to go down to 38 to 40 degrees.

Threat of frost forced some California citrus growers to break out smudge pots. Temperatures hovered near 32 Sunday in Southern California.

The icy air moved eastward from the Mississippi Valley today with little likelihood that temperatures would warm up soon.

A southern flow of warm air promised respite for Inland Texas points as well as Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma where temperatures were below 20 Sunday.

Early morning temperatures today showed Eau Claire, Wis. one of the coldest spots with -1. Other readings were Duluth, 2, New York 31, Chicago 18, Cincinnati 18, Los Angeles 53, New Orleans 38, Pendleton, Ore., 13, Amarillo, Tex. 30, Seattle 51.

Mrs. Hammett said she hopes that all Sunday reservations will be made by Saturday, but they can still be accepted by 9 o'clock Sunday morning.

BULLIES TRUCK

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 19 (AP)—A huge Black Angus bull bullied Sunday drivers on a heavily traveled highway for 12 hours until it finally went too far and charged a trailer truck.

The impact overturned the truck and killed the bull.

Before the wreckage could be cleared another car ploughed into the truck. The driver of the car, Sgt. Shafter Collins, 21, suffered chest injuries and shock.

The bull was valued by its owner at $1,800. Damage to the truck was $2,800.

Tech, H-SU To Battle For Border Victory

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 19. (AP) — Texas Tech and Hardin-Simmons are heavy favorites to continue their march toward a show-down championship battle in the Border Conference this week.

Both teams are undefeated in conference play, and if they get by their battles Saturday will meet for the crown at Lubbock Dec. 1.

Tech moves its split-T attack to Albuquerque for a game with New Mexico.

Hardin-Simmons will be host to Arizona, but is believed to have too much ammunition.

Arizona State at Tempe is at home to Wyoming. Texas Western plays West Texas State at Amarillo.

New Mexico A&M and Arizona State at Flagstaff have completed their seasons.

Tempe defeated Texas Western 23-13 in the only game between two conference clubs Saturday.

Texas Tech gave Tulsa fits before going down 21-14. Hardin-Simmons was again edged by Loyola of Los Angeles, 14-13.

Tempe, Texas Western and West Texas State end their seasons Saturday.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Admissions to Snyder Hospital yesterday include:

Reds Use Three Methods On Two Main Opposition Groups

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—It would be gruesome if the Communists took over here, judging from what's happened elsewhere.

Wherever they move in they have the immediate problem of trying to stay in. This seems to be a continuing problem since the Russian Communists, after being in 34 years, still need a secret police.

For the Communists, as their history shows, staying in means getting rid of members of the opposition, active or potential, or crushing it in several well-known ways: confiscating their property; forcing them into labor camps; or executions.

Traditionally, the Communists look for their opposition in these two groups:

Those with material possession who can't be expected to embrace the Communists for taking it away from them — the rich, property owners, businessmen, and farm-owners whose land will be collectivized.

Those who disagree with the Communists on ideological grounds a large group including religious leaders, teachers and intellectuals.

Suppressions and liquidations in Russia are familiar. There have been some recent examples. Reports from China, reliable or not, tell of more than a million people executed in massive purges.

From Hungary come stories of more than 50 thousand of the middle-class taken from their homes in just a couple of months and thrown into labor camps with farmers and landowners.

Besides telling of thousands of American soldier-prisoners slain by the Communists, the U. S. Army in Korea last week reported South Korean civilians slaughtered in batches by the Communists.

But in this country, because of special conditions, the Communists would encounter a problem more complex than any they've found elsewhere. No doubt this would call forth their greatest efforts.

In just sheer number of oppositionists we outdo any other country so far communized because we have more property owners, businessmen, religious leaders, teachers and intellectuals.

For instance, the Elks, Masons, Knights of Columbus, Kiwanis, Rotary, Chambers of Commerce on city and state and national levels, ditto the National Association of Manufacturers, labor unions, the professional societies, church groups beyond number, and the ward, precinct, district, city, state and national political organizations.

First Workout For Cagers Held Today

King football moved aside today to give way to another major sport, basketball, when Coach Ernest Kinney began his daily workouts with about 75 boys at Snyder High School.

Kinney, the A team coach, and Hal Battles, the B team coach, hardly let the yells from Friday night's football game die down before they issued their basketball equipment Saturday morning and put the boys through three practice periods on the same day.

ABILENE FIRST

The teams have about five more practice periods before they go into a game that was matched with Abilene last week for Nov. 30 in the Abilene gym.

Kinney is stressing defensive ball to pull the teams higher in district play than the third place they won last year. In district play, last year's team won eight out of 12 games, while they won 13 and lost 12 in season play.

The Nov. 30 game will begin a long chain of matched games before district play begins Jan. 10.

Six lettermen from last year's A team are back on the floor for play this year.

Center W. G. Birt, senior, was a regular all season last year, and he developed into one of the most outstanding defensive men in the district.

Senior Bill Hanks, forward and guard, was also a big defensive helper and played regular.

John Gary, senior, was a regular forward, good on both offensive and defensive.

N. J. Harrison and Bobby Shipoley, both senior guards, were reserves last year but played many quarters near the end of the season.

Forward Ned Underwood, the only junior letterman on the squad this year, became a regular in early season last year and was good on the defensive.

"B" TEAM

Among B team cagers returning this year are Guards Kenneth Crook, A. C. Floyd, and Bill Cain, seniors, and Forward Joe Cargile, junior, and Centers Deanie Floyd, junior, and Bill Boyd, sophomore.

New equipment for home games include white pants and shirts with black and gold trimmings. Written across the front of the shirts is "TIGERS" in an arc, gold on black. Travel suits are block with gold trimmings.

Coaches are Kinney and Battles, Bue Lowry for the freshmen and Horace Bostick for the eighth grade.

Championships In High School Ball This Week

By The Associated Press

The battle for two Texas schoolboy football championships begins this week.

Thirty-two games will push off the first round in Classes AA and A.

Most bi-district sites and dates have been set and all others arrangements will be completed today.

These classes finished the district campaign last week.

Headline games are La Vega and Lampasas and La Porte and French (Beaumont) in Class AA and Canadian-Dimmitt, Wink-Eden and Wilmer-Hutchins-Whitney in Class A.

UNBEATEN, UNTIED

Undefeated, untied La Vega is a top championship favorite in Class AA. Lampasas looks like a tough one for the Pirates. It has a 9-1 record. La Porte is undefeated and untied and French has a 9-1 mark.

The three big games in Class A match undefeated teams, with Wink and Eden furnishing the major show, each having won 10 games.

In Class AA the pairings are:

Thursday—Tulia (6-3-1) at Shamrock (8-0-2), Quanah (6-4) at Childress (5-5), Tahoka (6-3-1) at Anson (9-0), Winters (8-2) at Ranger (9-1), Arlington (8-1) at Olney (6-2-1), Pittsuurgh (8-0-1) vs Atlanta (9-1) at Mt. Pleasant, Huntsville (9-1) at Ennis (6-4) Donna (8-2) at Robstown (9-1).

FRIDAY GAMES

Friday—Littlefield (8-2) at Kermit (7-2), Terrell (8-2) at Pleasant Grove (7-3), Gonzales (8-0) at Cameron (9-1) Brenham (9-1) at Lamar (Rosenberg) (6-3), French (Beaumont) (9-1) at La Porte (10-0), Cuero (10-0) at Uvalde (8-2), Livingston (6-2-2) at Jacksonville (8-1-1).

Lavega (9-0) and Lampasas (9-1) decide today in a meeting at Gatesville where and when they will play.

In Class A the pairings are:

Thursday — Canadian (10-0) vs Dimmitt (9-0) at Canyon, Abernathy (10-0) vs Denver City (8-1) at Lubbock, Eden (10-0) at Wink (10-0), Farmersville (9-1) at Plano (7-3-1), Cedar Bayou (8-2) at Groveton (7-1-1), Industrial (Vanderbilt) (9-1) vs Hondo (10-0) at El Campo.

Friday—Wylie (Abilene) (10-0) at Albany (8-2), Fairfield (6-2) vs Franklin (8-1-1) at Mexia; Tomball (5-5) vs Angleton (7-2) at Pasadena. Burnet (4-5-1) vs Giddings (10-0) at Taylor.

Newcastle (10-0) and Grapevine (8-1), Wilmer-Hutchins (9-0-) and Whitney (9-0-1), Daingerfield (9-1) (8-1-1) and Newton (9-1), Pearsall (5-4) and Taft (6-1-2).

Benavides (6-2) and Rio Hondo (7-1-2) have not announced their sites and dates.

Only 2 Games Left In Lone Star Conference, Champion Plays Both

By The Associated Press

Only two games remain on the Lone Star Conference schedule. East Texas State, the champion, plays both of them.

Everybody except East Texas and Sul Ross closed out last week when East Texas beat Southwest Texas, 28-21, to sew up honors. East Texas plays Austin College Thursday at Sherman. East Texas and Sul Ross end the campaign Dec. 1 at Alpine.

Stephen F. Austin whipped Sam Houston 14-0 and Lamar Tech nosed Sul Ross 28-27 last week.

Marvin Brown, fleet-footed halfback for East Texas, scored three touchdowns against Southwest Texas State to increase his scoring leadership. He set a new post-war season scoring record and possibly an all-time mark for the circuit. He has scored 14 touchdowns for an 84-point total. The previous high was 70 last year by Sam Houston's Jack Kyle.

Five Teams Still Scrambling For Honors In SW Conference

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff

There may have been whackier races than the Southwest Conference is putting on this year but nobody can remember it. With two weeks to go five teams still are in the fight for the title or a share of it.

TCU and Rice, tied for the lead with three victories and one loss each, clash at Fort Worth Saturday in the big game. Of little less importance will be the battle of Baylor and SMU at Waco.

Baylor is close enough to TCU and Rice that the least thing can shoot the Bears right up there. Texas is almost even with Baylor.

TEXAS PREVAILS

Texas added its bit of confusion by beating TCU 32-21. The Longhorns were never better and to the amazement of everybody had a whirlwind passing attack. It allowed Rice to pull into a first place tie. The Owls beat Texas A&M 28-13.

TEXAS, SMU HOPEFUL

The chances of Texas and SMU winning or sharing the championship are dim. But the statisticians are having a field day with the thing and come up with the revelation that Texas conceivably could win the title and SMU could tie for it.

Here's how that would work: TCU has Rice and SMU to play. Rice has Baylor, Baylor has SMU and Texas has Texas A&M. If TCU and Rice tied, Baylor beat Rice, SM beat Baylor and TCU, and Texas lost to A&M, SMU, Baylor, Rice and TCU would tie for first place with records of three victories, two losses and one tie apiece If Texas beat A&M, Texas would win the title with four victories and two losses.

You can go on and on.

Take last week: An Arkansas team that had beaten Texas 16-14 was slammed 47-7 by a SMU team that had lost to Texas 20-13. A TCU team that beat Baylor 30-7 was licked by a Texas team that had lost to Baylor 18-6.

COTTON BOWL WAITS

And while hte conference teams are tying each other in knots, the Cotton Bowl pats its collecive foot. What to do? It can't pick a visiting team not knowing who's going to be the host team because the host team has to accept the visiting team.

Arkansas and Texas A&M are not worrying about it, since they definitely are out of everything. The Razorbacks play Tulsa at Little Rock.

The intersectional record was enhanced when Baylor's Bears whipped the pants off Wake Forest 42-0. Texas and A&M aren't doing any business this week. They will be working toward their grudge game Nov. 29.

2 Bowl Teams Still Must Face Tough Opposition This Week

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. (AP)—Football heads into its final big week with almost as many major teams assured of bowl berths as are on the unbeaten and untied list.

It's possible that by sundown Saturday the situation will be reversed, for two of the six remaining with perfect records face really rugged opposition. A third will have its work cut out for it. Results may give the four assured bowl teams some company.

The two teams most likely to drop from the unbeaten slate—Tennessee and Stanford—already are assured Jan. 1 bowl bonanzas.

Tennessee, which must meet Kentucky, is lined up for the Sugar Bowl. Stanford, which must go against powerful California, clinched a Rose Bowl bid Saturday by whipping Oregon State, 35-14.

PRINCETON TAKES 21ST

Princeton, the third unbeaten-untied team with a tough game Saturday, does not figure in the Bowl picture because of an ivy league agreement. The Tigers, with Saturday's 27-0 trouncing of Yale their 21st straight win, face Dartmouth.

Otherwise, teams with all-winning records should conclude their seasons that way. Maryland, bound for the Sugar Bowl, is heavily favored over West Virginia. Michigan State, No. 1 team in the land should romp over Colorado. San Francisco should have no trouble against Loyola of Los Angeles. Michigan State is out of the bowl picture because of Big Ten rules.

The other bowl-bound team is Georgia Tech, due to go to the Orange Bowl.

RICE VS. TCU

Illinois could clinch the Big Ten title and Rose Bowl trip by beating—or tieing—Northwestern. The winner of the Rice-TCU game will take at least a temporary lead in the race for Southwest Conference honors and the role of host in the Cotton Bowl.

The Southwest Conference won't be settled until the final day of the season. Rice, with a 3-1 conference record, plays Baylor (2-1-1) that day and TCU, (also 3-1) winds up against SMU. Baylor plays SMU this week, while Texas (3-2) winds up against Texas A&M Nov. 29. Texas whipped TCU 32-21, Saturday.

A similar conditon would come up in the Big Ten if Illinois should lose to Northwestern—and the Illini have lost five straight to Northwestern. Illinois' conference record is 4-0-1 after the disappointing scoreless tie with Ohio State, and Wisconsin (4-1-1) has an easy for Saturday in Minnesota. Purdue (3-1) will be favored over Indiana. Wisconsin trounced Iowa, 34-7, while Purdue was edging Minnesota, 19-13. Northwestern clipped Michigan, 6-0.

Undefeated Bucknell Is Top Sun Bowl Prospect

EL PASO, Nov. 19. (AP)—Bucknell, undefeated in nine games, is a top prospect for visiting team in the Sun Bowl Jan. 1.

Bucknell has been approached by the Sun Bowl and several others to play in bowl games.

Gene Donohue, chairman of the Sun Bowl selection committee, said the Pennsylvania school stood very high on the list of teams considered.

Hardin-Simmons and Texas Tech play Dec. 1 at Lubbock for the Border Conference championship. The winner probably will be invited to be host team.

OPEN SEASON

By DALE WALTON

Frequently, accidents during hunting trips are caused by the carelessness of those who consider themselves the most careful. It's wise for anyone who is hunting to take extra precautions.

Adam Wilson III of Hunt, Tex., gives these pointers—

Removing a gun barrel first from an auto may mean instant death if the trigger snags. Be doubly safe and don't carry loaded arms in the auto.

Always take care in how you carry the rifle. Don't swing it over your shoulder.

When crossing a fence, ease gun butt first through wires and keep the muzzle pointed away from your body. When you get on the other side, you can pick up your gun and proceed. Don't use the wires as a ladder, or you may be shot by the farmer who owns the fence.

Don't fire on just anything that moves, especially if it is in the brush. It may turn out to be another hunter.

Never load or cock the gun if it is pointed at hunters in front of you.

Don't let the muzzle of your rifle touch the ground. It may get full of dirt and explode in your face when you fire the next time.

Bid Expected From Tangerine Bowl For North Texas State

By The Associated Press

A bid to the Tangerine Bowl is expected this week for North Texas State's 40-points-per-game Eagles.

The Eagles, champions of the Gulf Coast Conference with an 8-2 record, play Chattanooga there Thursday and the University of Houston next week. It's one of the longest seasons in college football.

The Eagles smashed Fresno State 62-0 last week to break even in intersectional play. North Texas lost to College of the Pacific in mid-season mainly because the team members were ill from a bumpy plane ride.

The Gulf Coast Conference decides second place Saturday when Midwestern and Trinity plays at San Antonio. Midwestern beat 77-8 last week. Trinity did not play.

Parents Called Lax in Failing To Check Their Baby-Sitters

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

Over the course of months I have noticed news reports recording the troubles of parents with teen - age baby sitters. Few of these have been sensational enough to be recorded by more than two or three paragraphs. None, lately, has matched the Massachusetts story of the 15-year-old who absconed from a physician's home with some $24,000 to spend with girl friends on a sweet childish lark in New York, buying clothes, getting drunk, and picking up a couple of men in a bar.

But just the other day in the San Francisco suburbs another physician and his wife came home to find their two small children deserted by another teen - age baby-sitter who had made off with some $500 worth of valuables.

A longer time back, in another city, I read of a shooting fray that occurred when a girl dated her boy friend on her baby - sitting job. He arrived with a bottle and a gun for an unchaperoned evening. I have noted other such episodes from time to time, while passing to more important news of world significance.

But I wonder whether such events are not also significant for the light they throw on the present condition of our civilization.

• • •

Baby sitting as a service purchasable for an hourly fee is a relatively new phenomenon, although the family problem it seeks to meet is not new at all. Few American families have ever had nurses or governesses for their children or domestic servants whose characters familiarity has revealed. The problem, therefore, of having the children cared for while Mama and Papa are out has always been there. What is new is the willingness of even educated parents to entrust what are presumably their most precious charges to total strangers and often to strangers whose own years are no warranty of discretion or ability to meet an emergency, should one arise.

One wonders at the simple trust of parents who would leave an infant or small child in care of a 15-year-old girl about whose character they knew nothing. All the testimony in the Massachusetts case revealed the baby sitter to be a problem case, a girl who, having stolen, became intoxicated and involved with a man within 24 hours, yet felt not the slightest remorse. It is credible that this girl's temperament, shall we say, had universally escaped observation? Had the parents ever investigated her family background and associations?

In the California case the absconding baby sitter was trusted by the parents because for two months she had "sat" twice a week and nothing had happened. But why did they trust her the first time?

Don't people have friends, relatives or neighbors any more with whom they can exchange family services? And, for that matter, is it more important to have a good time than to take responsible care of the children one has brought into the world?

Many parents apply for baby sitters through agencies, offering for money Domestic help in various categories. The negligence of such agencies in investigating the employees, they offer is notorious, as is the willingness of employers to give favorable testimonials to persons they have sound reasons for dismissing. And teen - agers, unless they are youngsters one knows personally, from long association, should not be given the run of an empty home or apartment. Plenty of them need some unobtrusive chaperonage themselves. Nor should they be subjected to the temptation of a date in an empty home, or of money or valuables left lying around.

• • •

It seems to me that churches of every denomination ought to take up the problem of creating a new type of family agency, recommending as child guardians only child - loving women mature enough to have discretion, known personally to the pastors to be of good character, and women, furthermore, who are willing to undertake the service, not only for money, but as a service of family protection.

Warn Wetbacks Are Moving Into Industry

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—A National farm-labor union official asserts Mexican wetbacks are moving in on industrial jobs. He warned labor unions to protect themselves.

Illegal immigrants from Mexico generally are called "wetbacks." Mostly they are employed on farms The United States recently has been attempting to send as many as possible back across the border.

H. L. Mitchell, president of the farm workers' organization, asserted the wetbacks are "enticed over the border by the corporation farmers" but find pay as low as 25 cents an hour. Consequently, he said, they are moving on into industrial areas.

Despite Gloomy Cries, Wonder Drugs Don't 'Just Fade Away'

The discovery of the so-called "wonder drugs" has brought revolutionary new ideas to the field of medicine. The public, assured of the powers of these drugs, has taken to them without question and has come to rely on them for an almost endless variety of uses.

Some doctors, however, question the continuing usefulness of the drug. They explain that the human body can build up a sort of immunity to them too rapidly, and that the doseages must be increased steadily. Even this, they say, may not provide enough strength to permit the drug to function as it should.

But before you start clearing the medicine shelf, listen to the other side of the issue.

CAN BEAT GERM

It is true that the body can build up "drug fastness," a condition in which the germs in the body have become so accustomed to that particular drug that the drug has no effect on them. The new streptomycin is the most frequent offender in this respect, one physician here said. However, by changing the chemical formula slightly (di - hydrostreptymycin) this difficulty can usually be overcome.

The body can also build up an immunity to the drug if it is administered in improper doses, the physician continued. This could happen if the drug were purchased without a prescription and taken for a considerable length of time without supervision. It is almost impossible to give an overdose of these new drugs, the doctor said, but because of their cost the prescribing physician usually attempts to give no more than is necessary.

INDIVIDUAL FACTORS

Immunity to drugs may be offset by various other individual body factors. Allergies are among these factors. Sulfa, one of the older drugs, may cause nausea or other ill effects which are seldom noted in the newer medicines.

The nature of the illness itself may be the limiting factor in the effectiveness of any drug. Tuberculosis could probably be cured with some of these drugs, and it is a possibility for the future. At present, medical researchers have been unable to increase the doseage enough to affect a tuberculosis cure.

The advent of theses new drugs has brought a new crop of technical names to the family medicine cabinet. They are usually easier to say than to spell, although they are spelled generally as they are pronounced — aureomycin, terramycin, chloromycetin, polymyxin (for external use ony), and streptomycin.

FROM FUNGUS

These drugs, like the more familiar penicillin, are made from fungi cultivated for this purpose. Sulfa, as the name suggests, is derived from synthetized sulphur.

The hue and cry over the fading of medicine's latest hope seems to be a perennial subject for pessimism, the Snyder physician said. Every year some person or group comes up with a death knell for at least one of the drugs, and thus far they have managed to prove their continuing effectiveness. New discoveries may replace some of the earlier medicines but so far very few have just faded away by themselves.

Grand Gesture to Egypt Might Save Middle East For Europe

By STEWART ALSOP

CAIRO — One fact is so obvious that it hardly needs restatement. Real Western military power here—at present embodied in the British troops and bases in the Suez Canal Zone — must at all costs be maintained, if this entire area is not to become a ripe plum for the Kremlin's picking. For the moment, however, British evacuation is not in question; nothing the Egyptians can now do will force a British withdrawal.

This provides a certain breathing spell, which did not exist in Iran, in which to consider how the power of the Western alliance is to be maintained in this vital area, not only in the short run, but for the long pull. And for the long pull, the prospect is anything but happy. One wise and experienced Englishman here put it this way: "If the entire population really hates you, sooner or later your position becomes untenable. You're too dependent on the people, these days, for food and labor and communications and so on. We've found that out in Palestine and elsewhere."

• • •

The entire population here—or all of it that matters — now "really hates" the British, at least as a symbol of something else. Both in the Middle and Far East, Americans and British have tended disastrously to underestimate this mass bitterness as a force with which they must contend. In Iran, the line was, "The beggars will soon feel the pinch, and then they'll come to heel." This did not work in Iran. In the end, it will not work here.

The bitterness of the Egyptians has certainly been artificially stimulated. Yet it is anything but artificial; it is real and universally felt. As such it is a major political force, which it would be suicidal folly to disregard.

Moreover, although Egyptians (with some highly intelligent exceptions, like U. N. delegate Fawzi Bey) constantly weaken their case by wildly overstating it, they do have valid reasons for bitterness. They consider the talk about the "sanctity of treaties" hypocritical hogwash — which in a sense it is, since the 1936 treaty with the British was something of a shotgun marriage to begin with, and has been disregarded since when it suited British convenience. As for the Sudan, Egyptian claims are obviously fanciful, but it is at least true that the Anglo-Egyptian condominium has had precious little "con" in it.

Behind the issues of the treaty and the Sudan, however, lie deeper and more emotion-generating sources of bitterness. One is in the immediate past — the creation of the state of Israel. Moral judgments aside, it is a political fact that the creation of the Israeli state has left a festering political wound here, and that the shameful treatment of the hundreds of thousands of Arab refugees from Israel acts like a permanent irritant in the wound.

• • •

There is also, of course, the acrid memory of seventy years of British rule. In a tour of the Canal Zone, this reporter saw a sign reading, "For low grade native labor," and this sign might stand as a symbol of the peculiar British political tactlessness which even now continues to enrage politically conscious Egyptians.

All this adds up to a fierce national bitterness, often puerile in its very impotence (like the blind, shrieking rage of a small boy) but no less dangerous for that. Somehow, sooner or later, means must be found (and the means are not United States Information Service movies) not to erase this bitterness, for that is impossible, but to bring it within manageable proportions.

And this is possible — or should be. What is possible, and what might be a great deal more effective than now seems likely, is the kind of well-timed grand gesture which Franklin D. Roosevelt—and Winston S. Churchill, too — once knew so well how to make. For example: a public recognition that the 1936 treaty is dead — which it is; an offer of real Egyptian participation in Canal Zone defense, including military aid and some command position; a serious program of economic aid; a really effective effort to deal with the Israeli refugees; a promise of an eventual neutral plebiscite in the Sudan; and so on.

• • •

The details are for the experts. But the general purpose is clear—to give the moderate and rational Egyptians, who exist, and who are our last hope here, some sense of participation and self-respect.

The four - power proposal for Canal Zone defense was presumably designed to this end, but it was badly presented (much of the wording was lifted straight out of a Pecksniffian State Department draft) and idiotically timed (as both the able American and British ambassadors here clearly warned their governments). And timing is all important. The crucial moment will come when the present government, discredited by its own impotence, can safely be replaced by King Farouk. Any new government will be quite literally the last chance for the West. If we fail to strengthen a new government by making some sort of bold and generous gesture, the government will fail to govern, and the street mobs and fanatics will take over. Then we shall fail also, in the end, throughout the Middle East.

This sort of gesture is, to be sure, a temporary expedient, a means of buying time. But it is desperately necessary to buy time here, as elsewhere in the Middle East, if more permanent means are to be found to stop the crumbling and dry rot in this area. And just as the situation could "easily have been saved in Iran by proper timing and a sense of political realities," the situation can still be saved here, although with immense difficulty.

Army Puzzler On Sentenced WAC Fighters

CAMP BRECKINRIDGE, Ky., Nov. 19. (AP)—The slightly puzzled Army pondered today the problem of where to imprison six WAC sergeants sentenced for beating another WAC. One is a Texan from San Angelo.

The Army has no prison facilities for women.

Col. Barney Daughtry, camp chief of staff, said he knew of no precedent in the matter of a female member of the armed services facing possible time behind bars.

One highly placed officer suggested the review courts have no choice but to file away the prison terms and give the girls some other punishment.

The six sergeants were convicted of assault and battery on Pfc. Carol Ann Kierce, 20, Mount Vernon, Ohio, girl. They were tried by court martial last week and given terms of one to 2½ years.

Carol said she was kicked and beaten unconscious because she testified at the trial of another WAC, a friend of the sergeants. The defendant WAC was given a dishonorable discharge.

Carol's Father, Marshall E. Kierce, said his daughter had "witnessed an affair" involving the discharged WAC.

The father expressed fear for his daughter's safety. He said the sergeants lured her to a lonely river road, beat her badly, threatened to throw her into the river and released her only after warning her they would "get" her if she told about the beating.

Carol was in a hospital 25 days.

The sergeants are in confinement on the base awaiting disposition of their case. They are Grace L. Morton, San Lorenzo, Calif.; Juliette V. Mente, Pecos, N. M., Marjorie L. Struck, Santa Cruz, Calif.; Edith M. Brown, San Angelo; Edna H. Whiteman, Preble, N. Y., and Mary G. Long, Fort Madison, Iowa.

Investigation Planned Of Chicago Hotel Fire

CHICAGO, Nov. 19. (AP)—Two investigations were planned today into a south side hotel fire which killed three, injured nine and left many homeless.

Some occupants of the Norwood Hotel leaped from windows. Others were brought down ladders by firemen battling the blaze in freezing weather. Five persons who jumped from the top floor to a concrete sidewalk were seriously injured.

New Casualty List

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (AP)—The Defense Department added 897 names today to the American battle casualty list in Korea. A new list identified 216 killed.

Know the best road to Houston? That's what the three Snyderites are searching for on the map. Left to right above are Miss Thema Leslie, Mrs. C. W. Popnoe and Miss Katherine Northcutt who are planning to attend the Texas State Teachers Association convention in Houston Thursday through Saturday.—(Lee Watson photograph.)

TALK OF THE TOWN

By SUE HOLMES

When the seventy - third annual Texas State Teachers Association convention convenes Thursday in Houston, there'll be several Snyder representatives there to take part in the three - day program: Miss THELMA LESLIE, secretary to the school superintendent; Mrs. C. W. POPNOE, secretary of the newly organized Scurry County chapter of TSTA, and Miss KATHERINE NORTHCUTT will be heading toward the metropolitan coastal city. Also Mr. and Mrs. CLOIS HENRY are planning to attend.

* * *

Step right up, residents of Scurry County. It's free, and oh, so simple.

It's the chest X-ray we're speaking of, of course. The State Health Department representatives set up the X-ray unit Saturday in the Courthouse and are hoping every county resident over 15 years of age will stop by for the simple check-up. The unit will be open tomorrow, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Main purpose of the check is to show the presence of tuberculosis.

The process takes all of two minutes. Just give the volunteer workers your name and other uncomplicated information, and follow the technician's instructions which go something like this: "Put your chin on the chin rest. Place your hands on your hips, push your shoulders forward. Take a deep breath. Hold it, and that's all."

One couple strolled over to the unit Saturday intent on having their chests X-rayed and going on about their business. But the husband couldn't resist remarking as his wife stepped up for the check-up: "Wish you'd see if she has a heart, too."

The women working weren't sure just how humorous his request was.

And the kids seemed to be out in full force for the unit's first day in Snyder. Workers patiently explained that the mimimum age was 15. The intricate equipment seemed to fascinate the young children fully as much as any Western movie showing across the street from the courthouse.

A hospital assured us not too long ago that a comparable X-ray to the one offered free this week would cost $10.

* * *

Visitors from South Africa are expected this afternoon. The Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Meek, sister and brother-in-law of H. D. JONES, are coming to stay a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Jones, 3115 Thirty - ninth Street.

PERSONALS

Mrs. John Merritt, 1902 Avenue R, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Merritt, 2707 Avenue S, attended the funeral of a friend in San Angelo Friday.

E. J. Sneed of the Lone Star Camp returned home recently from a weeks' trip to Chicago where he attended the American Petroleum Institution Convention.

Mrs. R. H. Curnutte, 2306 Thirty-second Street, had as her guests over the week end her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Curnutte, Jr., and children of Seminole, Tex.

Mrs. E. J. Sneed of the Lone Star Camp, recently visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ray of Abilene, and with her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Amis of Wichita Falls. On her way back home, Mrs. Sneed visited with her son, Ernest Sneed, who is attending Tech at Lubbock.

Mrs. Virgie Harris, 3012 Avenue , was in Lubbock over the week end to attend the football game.

ASK MILDRED

Send your questions to Mildred Sparks, County Home Demonstration Agent, Courthouse or to the Daily News.

Dear Mildred, I read in one place to plant tulip bulbs four inches deep, in another place to plant them 10 inches deep and others say plant them 4 times as deep as the bulbs are wide. Will you clear this up for me? November is not to late to plant tulips, is it? J.N.H.

Tulips should be planted in November, on the north if possible with a four or five inch soil covering and four or five inches apart. Or try deep planting, 9 to 10 inches to prevent bulb division.

* * *

My seven - minute cake icing very often turns sugary after a day or so; is there a way to prevent this happening ? J. C.

The icing is "grainy" when some of the sugar is not completely dissolved and these few grains of sugar act as a starter and cause all of the icing to become sugary. Perhaps your duoble boiler is shaped so that it is impossible to beat all of the icing thoroughly. Try removing the icing to a clean bowl and doing the last one minute of beating.

When you transfer the icing to the bowl do not scrap the pan because there may be grains of undissolved sugar and the reason of transferring the icing to the bowl is to eliminate the possibility of undissolved sugar causing the whole thing to be grainy.

* * *

I am planning draperies for my bedroom. The room is light blue with a darker blue rug. The room is not too large. What color should I use so that the room will not look any smaller, but still add some gaiety. Mrs. S.

I suggest a gray, blue, or rose tone on tone fabric. The drapes should nearly match the walls if you want your room to appear larger. For gaiety in the room you might use a floral bedspread or colorful pictures.

$40,000 Taken From Woman

DALLAS, Nov. 19. (AP) — The search for a man who took $40,000 from a Dallas woman after a struggle in her home spread to Big Spring today.

The money was taken from the bathroom of the home of Mrs. N. K. Leeper Sunday. She had hidden the money and about $30,000 in jewels in the room.

Mrs. Leeper, head of the Dixie Cotton Chopper Company, said the man was a former employe. The firm makes machinery.

She told Police Capt. Will Fritz the man came to her and asked for $37.50 to redeem two suits.

She said the man found the money and jewelry in the bathroom.

"I got hold of the money and he started beating me and we fell to the floor. Finally I was hurting so badly that I told him to go ahead and take it," she reported.

The man left behind nine diamond rings and a bracelet which Mrs. Leeper estimated were worth $30,000.

The man had worked in West Texas. Officers at Big Spring were asked to watch for him.

Olive-Celery Stuffing
by the Food Editors of McCall's Magazine

2 cloves garlic
1½ teaspoons salt
8 cups bread crumbs
2 medium onions
1 small bunch celery
1 large green pepper
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup stuffed olives
8 sprigs parsley
½ teaspoon monosodium glutamate
½ teaspoon poultry seasoning
¼ teaspoon marjoram
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
¼ teaspoon sage
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
Salt and pepper

Crush garlic with salt in a bowl (a fork does a good mashing job), then mix with the bread crumbs thoroughly. Spread crumbs on a large tray and heat in a 300F oven until dry and slightly crisp.

Meanwhile, chop onions, green pepper and celery fine (use the leaves, too). Heat butter or margarine in a skillet and cook the chopped vegetables about 5 minutes. Stir frequently. Remove from heat, add sliced olives and chopped parsley and mix all the vegetables with the bread crumbs. Add herbs, salt and pepper and mix thoroughly. This makes enough for a 15-pound bird.

Celery 9c per bunch
Onions 10c per lb.
