guard against heart attacks. But 31 long seconds remained.

A foul sent Parker to the free throw line again with 18 seconds on the clock. No. 1 went in for a 77.5 lead. No. 2 missed.

Big Mike Pearl took the ball for Crane and dribbled down court as a teammate yelled time. It didn't matter that Mike's shot missed, for the official already had stopped play.

Coach Gothard counseled his players and the Cranes moved in from out of bounds for a last desperate 10-second attack.

The end came with Pearl again shooting for the basket less than six feet out once, twice, three. And somewhere there between two and three the buzzer sounded.

Count all of these Wolves who played as part of the victory. Campbell with his 19 points, Lyncal James with his 19 and his fine game under the basket, Randy Parker with his 13 points and clutch shooting, Kenneth Johnson who repeatedly snaked through the Cranes and raised his 5 feet-10 inches up for a total of 16 points, Robert Bender with six key points and talented ball handling that belied his sophomore status, and Johnny Matthews and Willie Hopkins who both substituted after James fouled out.

Their team work, constant thrust at the Cranes did the job, leaving Coach Matthews in a happy sweat, still weak and feverish from an illness that struck him soon after he preached his regular Sunday morning sermon at Plainview Baptist Church.

Don't get the idea those Golden Cranes were something warned over from a better yesterday. Not the least.

Glen Fletcher, a 63 senior, and Tommy Jones, the 6-foot junior who did much to beat C-City last year, scored 57 points together.

Fletcher, probably one of the most talented all-around schoolboy players in the state, was the game's outstanding individual. He scored 31 points, hogged rebounds for Crane and guided his teammates on both offense and defense.

When he left the court by the foul-route with 1:41 remaining in the game, his departure shot only provided the 2 free shots which Parker sank for a 74-73 Colorado lead, but put a dent into the entire Crane operation.

District PTA Board Plans Conference

Mrs. Curtis Lattimer, member of the 16th district board of managers of Parents and Teachers, attended a planning conference in Las Vegas, Thursday.

Before the all-day official board session, Mrs. Lattimer also attended a meeting of the district PTA nominating committee on which she is serving as a member.

Mrs. Alvie L. Cole of Sterling City, district president, presided at the first district meeting held in First Federal Community Room.

Plans were completed for the annual spring conference to be held in Sterling City, Friday and Saturday, April 26 and 27.

Program will be "Families in a Changing World." State PTA representatives to be in Sterling City for the two-day event are Mrs. Red Lambeth of Vernon, state vice-president, and Jim Hill of Irving, state international relations chairman.

District board members from Sterling City, Ackerly, Miles, Pagan, Plainview and Colorado City attended the planning conference.

Perryton, competing for the AAA Regional crown in Lubbock as a bidistrict finalist last in Quamath, 79-76, and won in Perryton, 70-55.

Coach Matthews, of course, will start the same hustling gang which proved effective against Crane. Robert Dennis, 5-9 sophomore, and Kenneth Johnson, 5-10 junior, at guards; Kerry Campbell, 6-2 senior, and Randy Parker, 6-3 junior, at forwards, and Lyncal James, 6-2 junior, at center.

Quamath's starting lineup will come from these six seniors: Bill Gahlson, 6-2; Gary Williams, 6-5; Joe Payne, 6-3; Ira Murchison, 5-11; Monty Ford, 5-11; and James Turner, 6-1.

It was Williams with 19 points who led Quamath in its bidistrict success Tuesday against Spearman.

"We're pretty well balanced," Coach Billy told the Record Wednesday, "and all of our players usually have a hand in the scoring. "We vary our defense trying to meet the situation, sometimes in a zone and sometimes in a man. And we don't seem to use the press."

Colorado City seems to "crowd" the opponent, too, and keep the pressure on throughout the game. It is this ability, with some physical endurance, contributed to Cranes' defeat.

Midland Carter moved in to regional with a 77-67 victory over Darrault, the team which last year, won the regional championship 54-41 over Phillips, which beat Crane 79-51 in 1967's opening round.

Brady whipped Granbury, 91-80, Tuesday night. Action in Lubbock College begins early Saturday with Class A bidistrict champions.

Clarendon, 42-38 competitor of White Deer, met Aspermont winner over Blues, 58-52 in double overtime, at 11:30 p.m. At 10 a.m. Lorenzo, 86-51 victor over Sudan, plays Insign, 53-52 winner over Clint in overtime.

Class A championship contest will be at 7 p.m. just ahead of the Class AA title game.

Class AAA teams will open play Friday night championship final Saturday at 4 p.m. Vying for the AAA Region crown will be Perryton, Andrews, Lubbock, Darrault and Wichita Falls. Washburn and Dalhart are also in the hunt.

CONVERSATION CORNER

VHM with alarm department features just now the question "What has happened to the so-called woman's magazine?"

Remembering them as they used to be . . . Kathleen Norris, Mary Roberts Rhinehart, Fannie Hurst . . . and trying to read them today makes you wonder.

Time was when a very young wife and mother could receive a fairly liberal education in the household acts just by reading the woman's magazines.

Time was when they all offered up hints for rearing the children, "holding the husband," feeding the family, clothing the figure, and balancing the budget . . . plus, of course, sentimental optimistic, and beautifully pure fiction.

MAYBE all the good ladlike writers and all the nice womanly editors have gone to their just reward.

Something has surely happened to change the whole face of magazines slanted toward the woman.

March issue of McCall's, which touts itself as "First Magazine for Women," has a hideous futuristic picture of a 21st Century Woman on the cover.

On the cover, too, is this blurb: "Spectacular 20-page section on Tomorrow's Food, Fashion, Family Life and Sex Customs."

Note with interest and some measure of consternation that a Mr. James F. Fixx signs the article as editor. A mister editor for women! Maybe that's the main problem.

PAGE 10 of the March McCall's sets the pace with an article by scientist-philosopher Buckminster Fuller.

It's called "Why Women Will Rule The World" and predicts woman will finally get back to her "Garden of Eden freedom and grace."

"Progressive nakedness," he calls it. Now listen, Mr. Fuller. Nakedness, progressive or retrogressive as you will, is not necessarily evil. But it is a shade on the ugly and highly impractical side.

And any time you think women will trade chiffon, satin, mink, nylon, and washable knits for nothing, you need your head examined.

Only consolation thought you left was this "Oh well. If it should come to pass, I'll never live to see it, thank goodness."

Something has happened to the woman's magazine. Something pretty awful.

ON THE OTHER HAND, magazines in the general or news category continue to intrigue.

Were you lucky enough to read the lead article in the Sunday, Feb. 11, Parade?

Picture on the cover was of George Christian, his daughters Elizabeth and Susan, and his three little boys. George, press secretary to President Johnson, was first married to the late Elizabeth (Betty) Brown daughter of Mrs. John Brown. Betty was mother of the Christian daughters who still visit their C City grandmother each summer.

Article about Mr. Christian, his attractive family, and his life as press secretary was highly complimentary to the Texan, ex-Marine, University of Texas graduate, and former journalist.

Of the four press secretaries of this administration to date, says the article, "It is the considered opinion of many reporters who cover the White House that George Christian is the best."

WE CAN all be thankful, too, that there are still being published in this modern world slim little volumes of exquisite verse.

Such a volume, just out, is one by our Edna Coe Majors (Mrs. Sam L. Sr.), who titles her third book "Plea For Peace."

Title poem won first prize in the Texas Federation poetry contest. Best poems in the collection are the Shakespearean sonnets Mrs. Majors loves best to write.

On the other hand, there's a gay little lyric called "Woodpeckers," and some thoughtful free verse things.

Dedication is for Sam, Elsie Lee, Martha Jane, and Buzz, known to us as the poet's husband, two daughters and son.

SEEN LATELYS include Margaret (Mrs. Ed) Bothwell at a coffee break . . . Martin Weaver on the downtown scene . . . Pat Moore in a bright teal dress . . . Corley Boze . . . Vickie Fuchs, late C.S. . . . Ellen Burson, wife of Guy.

Saw James McMath at his luncheon break . . . Lela (Mrs. Oscar) Price, her daughter Mary Price Womack (Mrs. Jack) and sister Irene Robertson, all of the LTNS department (long time no see).

Lela, later, fell, flew to Odessa from Houston after a visit in the home of daughter Nancy, her husband Earl Neal, and sons Byron and Mark. Mary drove her mother home from Odessa, Tuesday.

OTHER bear tells — The Hubert Rathfils and baby son Brad of Houston were guests last week in the home of his mother Isabel (Mrs. Harry) Rathfil.

Tim and Linda Bennett have been guests of Linda's parents Gus and Frances Chesney, Tim has completed his Army service so they're living in Tyler now, where Tim is in the grocery business.

Mrs. Tom Bradford, the former Mary Ann Latham, has been guest of her mother Ruth (Mrs. E. L.) Latham, too.

Pleasant-voiced Mrs. Harvey Webb of Jal, New Mexico, is guest in the Dalton Conaway home, Conaway Community.

CARROLL BOWLES, son of Bill and Lela Bowles who have moved from Loraine to Rude, has been fighting with the 231st Infantry in Vietnam.

Wounded in combat once, young Bowles was later returned to duty. Sunday night, he called the home of his maternal grandparents, the Ted Lefevres at Loraine, via short wave radio through Anchorage, Alaska.

So happened he missed his parents who were visiting his paternal grandfather Perry Bowles and his wife Evelyn when the surprise call came through from Vietnam.

He promised to call back when he can. Carroll is due to be released from foreign duty latter part of April.

FAMILIAR FACES, various places, brought chats with Lonella, wife of Bruce Byrne . . . Charlene, vivacious wife of Steve Birdwell . . . Lorraine, wife of Nathan Rogers . . . Bill Fandie, husband of Josie Ree.

Office drop-ins included Lily Bennett of Loraine . . . Don Benson and Sefton Plekens . . . Bobby Lemons . . . Margaret Oyster . . . Selma Dickson . . . Fannie (Mrs. Paul) Cooper.

Saw Ruth (Mrs. Joe) Barnett . . . Glenn Thomas . . . T. J. Goss. And met for the first time since he was a toddler the Goss son John, CHS junior.

THREE members of the David Scott family took part as stars in the musical "Oliver," when it was presented at Henderson State College, Arkansas.

David, his wife Frances (nee Frances Merle Cooper) and their son Shannon performed in the musical. David is professor of music at Ouachita Baptist College, Arkadelphia, Arkansas.

Frances is also on the faculty at ODC. She grew up here as daughter of the Paul Coopers. Shannon, the Scott son, is 19 years old.

NEWLY ORGANIZED

Mrs. Rose Heads Blue Ribbon Club

Mrs. Morgan Rose is president of the Blue Ribbon Club, a recently organized group in Loraine.

Others on the new officer slate are Mrs. Sylvester

Rose, vice president; Mrs. MacArthur Griffin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Martha Lewey, recording secretary.

Also, Mrs. Frank Rose, treasurer, and Mrs. Verna Mae Atkins, reporter.

The club, organized to motivate friendship and good will among its membership and the community, will meet each Monday night.

Birthday parties for club members will be hosted every two months.

Mrs. Morgan Rose hosted the group Monday evening in her home. Games of bingo were played. Pecan pies and punch were served.

Attending were Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Willie Rose, Mrs. Rose Ella Smith, Mrs. Sylvester, Rose, Mrs. Verna Mae Atkins of Loraine, Mrs. Martha Lewey and Mrs. Billy Marie Norman of Colorado City, Mrs. Ollie Sample of Sweetwater and the hostess.

Next regular meeting will be in Sweetwater in the home of Mrs. Sample.

County Has Stake In Vietnam Battle

Mitchell County already has a big stake in the Vietnam war, according to Lewis Elliott, Red Cross Fund Drive Chairman, and with the announcement of a 48,000 draft quota for April local involvement will increase.

Red Cross would be helpless to help any more. Please donate generously when the Red Cross worker calls on you. If you are missed, take your donation by the Red Cross office at 231 Walnut St. in downtown Colorado City.

Q. How often do you get a bargain these days?

A. Every time you use electricity.

True, your electric bill probably is higher than it was a few years ago. That's because you use more electricity to enjoy added comforts and conveniences.

During the past 10 years, the average price per kilowatt-hour to residential customers of Texas Electric Service has come down 27%. At the same time, the average annual use of electric energy by our residential customers has more than doubled.

Electric service is a big exception to rising living costs. It's one of the few things that costs less than 10 years ago.

Electricity, the clean modern energy that does so many nice things for you, is the biggest bargain in your household budget.

Working to make our service ever more helpful

Team Effort —

They're calling our Colorado High bi-district championship a "team effort" over Crane.

I can't think of a better compliment for Coach Caddo Matthews, Coach Dell Riley and their crew of young athletes.

That's one of the main aims of sports — to sharpen ability and desire to work together as well as to improve yourself personally.

When it is truly a team effort, like this 1968 Bi-District Championship, then winning is especially rewarding.

So, congratulation Wolves for bringing our community special achievement that will be remembered through the years.

Rural electricity from the member-owned LONE WOLF Electric Cooperative has made the country store pretty much like its city cousin . . . and has made the rural home as modern and convenient as its city counterpart. As a matter of fact, there is a higher percentage of electric ranges in rural kitchens than in city homes and a far higher percentage of home freezers, electric water heaters and electrically heated homes. So the home town Trading Post sells washing machines . . . lots of them . . . instead of wash pots. Living in clean, quiet, rural areas is happier and healthier thanks to a dependable supply of low cost electricity from the LONE WOLF Electric Cooperative that is building a brighter tomorrow and helping Texas grow.

State Capital Highlights

State Move For "Local" Aviation

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

A rather important corner may have been turned by the State of Texas in providing transportation facilities for its people. This by clarifying where the line between state and federal regulatory power should be drawn.

Texas Aeronautics Commission took the big step when its six members voted to certify Air Southwest Co. of San Antonio as an interstate airline competing with the large, federally regulated interstate lines.

Air Southwest plans to offer commuter service among Dallas, San Antonio, and Houston using Lockheed Electra propjets. It says it can offer service comparable to the large airlines and at rates lower by more than 20 per cent.

Federal-state rub is that the Civil Aeronautics Board licenses the interstate carriers and has its service and subsidy balances all worked out, without considering any state-licensed airlines.

So, Air Southwest is going to upset those balances somewhat, by taking from Braniff, Trans-Texas and Continental airlines some of the revenues now received under their charters from the CAB.

CAB did not make its wishes in the matter of Air Southwest's certification known to the Texas Aeronautics Commission. But Braniff, TAA and Continental did. Result was a seven-day hearing before TAC examiners, then another hearing for oral arguments before the commission itself.

Despite TAC's favorable ruling, the fight is far from over. Opponents to Air Southwest's plans have made it known that they plan to take their case into the courts — as far as it will go.

In the state courts, they will maintain that the TAC's action was not based on "substantial evidence." If they fail there, one attorney said they might go into the federal courts, charging that the TAC certification placed an undue burden on interstate commerce in violation of the U. S. Constitution.

SPECIAL SESSION
Gov. John Connally revealed a "new unofficial estimate" by State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert on available General Revenue Funds indicating that available revenue for operating state government may be some $50,000,000 higher than the comptroller's October 1967 estimate of $297,600,000.

Governor Connally says the import of that is "the increase in available revenues will relieve the pressures for a large tax bill as was originally anticipated" for the special legislative fiscal session. Connally has denied rumors that he will call a special session of the Legislature in March.

"I am hopeful that if the special legislative session this year can be postponed until June," Speaker Ben Barnes said, "the figure will be even less," than the previous estimate of $115,000,000 in new tax resources necessary to support the state government in the fiscal year which begins September 1.

Barnes said recent revisions in revenue estimates mean that if the Legislature had passed a two-year tax bill in 1967, instead of waiting for a special session, Texas taxpayers would have been taxed about $60,000,000 more than necessary.

L.B.J. CONTRACT
A contract for construction of 16,673 feet of high gameproof fencing at Lyndon B. Johnson State Park in Gillespie County has been awarded to Jasper Moore of Ingram. Moore was lowest among five bidders with a project price of $19,717.

Parks and Wildlife Department said the fencing project was assigned more to keep exhibition animals in L.B.J. State Park than to keep visitors out. But it will enclose a large portion of the park and separate it from Ranch Road 1 and the L.B.J. Ranch, known as "The Texas White House."

PEOPLE POLLUTION
"With over population a world problem, Planned Parenthood is becoming increasingly important as a government project," says Alan Bloebaum, regional director of the Southwest Region of Planned Parenthood.

A five-state district meeting on the subject is set for March 4 and 5 in Austin. This conference will be followed by a series of state sessions on family planning. Among them will be a special family planning conference by OEO, the American Association of Planned Parenthood, Physicians and the State Nursing Association.

Cost of planned parenthood for one family per year is about $15, whereas the cost of welfare support — federal, state and county — for a dependent child is about $1,200 a year.

COURTS SPEAK
Supreme Court will hear arguments on March 27 in a Fort Worth case involving whether the city has provided required services to keep 6.3 square miles of annexed land or whether it must relinquish the property taken February 18, 1963, near Exerman.

High court agreed a South Houston Gardens man is entitled to $14,000 damages for harm to his house and peace of mind caused by low-flying planes after William P. Hobby runways were extended to near edge of his property.

Transfers of four square miles from Rosenthal to Lorena school district is invalid without Falls County school board approval. Supreme Court concluded, upholding Court of Civil Appeals.

State Banking Board's award of a charter to American Bank of Commerce in Grapevine now has Supreme Court approval.

Third Court of Civil Appeals backed up a district court order that a charter should have been granted to Mission Savings and Loan Association in northeast Bexar County.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed death penalty assessed Kenneth Allen McDuff who was accused of killing three teenagers.

Residency requirement in state aid to families of dependent needy children act is under attack in a new federal court suit.

POVERTY PROGRAM
Texas War on Poverty program seems to be heading for a shift in control to the cities and counties under new federal legislation. New law will give local governments the option of taking over programs, effective February 1, 1969.

Cities and counties would have three alternatives: designate an existing community action agency; or designate themselves or some other public or private agency to operate the poverty program; or leave the decision of who is to run the program up to State poverty program officials.

Change in control may also mean a change in the funding formula for the poverty program. Regional OEO Administrator Fred D. Baldwin said there is a "strong possibility" that next year's federal appropriations will come to the states without federal strings on how the money should be used.

PARK DEVELOPMENT
Parks & Wildlife Commission Chairman, Will Odom announced a $51,000 Federal matching grant to develop outdoor recreation facilities at Goose Island State Park, north of Rockport.

With state matching, this will finance a $108,000 development project including restaurants, tent camping units, trailer camping, shelters, roads, parking areas and utilities. The park, acquired in 1935, is the home of a 2,000-year-old live oak tree, Chairman Odom noted.

APPOINTMENTS
Robert D. Spellings of Ft. Worth is new administrative assistant to Speaker Ben Barnes.

Former Bexar County Judge Charles Grace was named state chairman of Don Yarborough's campaign for governor.

Dr. Lee Wilborn, assistant commissioner of education for instruction, will join Texas Bankers Association March 1 as education director.

Gayle McNutt, formerly of Comanche, will handle news and information for Barnes' campaign for lieutenant governor.

Mrs. Roland Boyd of McKinney is Texas chairman for 1968 campaign conference for Democratic women to be held in Washington, May 19-21.

SHORT SNORTS
Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held that higher education institutions' local funds can be placed on time deposit with local banks.

Attorney General Martin also concluded that an insurance company with most of its assets invested in a foreign nation fails to qualify for gross premiums tax reduction.

Governor Connally approved three regional planning grants of $8,000, $5,000, and $7,000 to South Texas and Lubbock Metropolitan councils of government and Austin-Travis County Organization for Regional Planning.

Railroad Commission approved an exception to its order banning saltwater disposal pits for Garrison Drainage Co. of Corpus Christi which handles disposal for a number of fields in Nueces County.

U. S. Army Corps of Engineers has produced an $11,700,000 Colorado River project to relocate its flood-discharge channel and convert the lower six miles of the river into a separate shallow-draft navigation channel.

Senator's Point

Great Benefit From REA

By RALPH YARBOROUGH

United States Senator National Rural Electric Cooperative Association recently held its 26th annual meeting in Dallas.

I attended the opening session of that meeting and addressed the several thousand rural electric administrators from across the nation there. Let's consider the impact the Rural Electrification Act has had on our state.

I remember the thrill of seeing electricity come into use for rural residents. I can also remember the dark days before rural power was available. Those were long work days without electric farm implements or tools and without household appliances and lights.

The REA came into being in 1935 after President Franklin D. Roosevelt told the nation "electricity is no longer a luxury. It is a definite necessity." The first REA loan for Texas was approved in September 1935 for the Bartlett Electric Cooperative in Williamson County, bringing electricity to hundreds of Blackland farms in that Central Texas area.

When that loan was made 33 years ago, only 2 per cent of all Texas rural residents had electric power. Today, thanks largely to the REA program, 97 per cent of our farmers, ranchers and rural people have electricity. We have 99 rural power organizations that have received federal loans in Texas, including 97 electric cooperatives.

Let me emphasize federal LOANS. Some people say this is a giveaway program. This is not true. The federal government has never given money to a Rural Electric Cooperative to build its lines. These have all been loans. The federal government has lent nearly $342 million to these organizations and they have brought electricity to 525,000 Texans.

These REA power suppliers and co-ops have brought settled areas, largely where commercial companies could not profitably provide service. REA telephone loans have also been a boon to our rural areas and small towns.

When the REA telephone loan program was first authorized by Congress 19 years ago, less than one-fourth of our Texas farms and ranches had telephone service. Today, 71 per cent of our farm and ranch residents, plus hundreds of rural homes and businesses, have modern dial telephone service — thanks to REA.

A total of 180,000 rural Texas families benefit from these telephone loans directly, and of course we all benefit indirectly through the faster and more efficient communications they provide.

The Texas REA story can be magnified for each of our 50 states. Texas has benefited more than any other state from the Rural Electrification Act of 1935, but across the United States, 6 million rural residents are better off.

The late Texas Congressman and Speaker Sam Rayburn was co-author of the REA act — an act I have consistently and wholeheartedly supported. The REA brought an end to the kerosene lamp era and the beginning of modern rural Texas.

Cotton Goals

For W-Tex Groups

An objective of two West Texas cotton promotion groups in the next 12 months will be a program to expand the export trade of the United States grown cotton, especially the shorter staple varieties, with European and Far Eastern countries.

Executives of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers and the Plains Cotton Growers, Vice Presidents Charles Bragg of Stamford and Donald Johnson of Lubbock, conferred last week in Washington with representatives of two international cotton trade groups and the U. S. Department of Agriculture on the projected program.

"Full cooperation of the USDA, the Cotton Council International and the International Institute for Cotton was pledged to the two grower groups of West Texas," Bragg stated.

"It was pointed out in the Washington conference that more than 40 per cent of the short staple cotton grown in the Rolling Plains and High Plains counties was now being exported to Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong, South Korea and South Vietnam," Bragg said.

The short staple varieties grown in these two areas are used extensively in the manufacture of cloth in these countries. It is believed that its use in manufacturing in other foreign countries could be increased.

Following the Washington conference, officials of the U. S. Department of Agriculture agreed to sponsor, in the next 60 to 90 days, two foreign trade missions, one to the Far East and one to Europe. Representatives from the Rolling Plains and Plains Cotton Growers will be invited to take part in the missions.

Representatives George Mahon of Lubbock and Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls are to confer with USDA officials concerning personnel of the trade mission group.

While in Washington, Bragg and Johnson also conferred with Representative Bob Poage of Waco, Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, Representative Purcell, member of the committee, Mahon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, and USDA officials.

Even a frown can worry Mother. And when he has a fever — she always fears the worst!

Did you know, Mother, that more children fall victim to spiritual neglect than any of the crippling diseases we dread? It has wrecked the fond hopes and bold dreams of hundreds of thousands of parents.

Yet it isn't a disease, at all! It is a HESITATION; hesitating to start our child in Church School, hesitating to go with him and worship God, hesitating to discuss at home the need for moral and religious foundation for the whole family.

Face it today! Do something about it next Sunday! Choose YOUR church. And make it YOUR church. And through a lifetime of worship and faith it can be for your child... HIS church

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

State Capital Highlights

State Move For "Local" Aviation

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

A rather important corner may have been turned by the State of Texas in providing transportation facilities for its people. This by clarifying where the line between state and federal regulatory power should be drawn.

Texas Aeronautics Commission took the big step when its six members voted to certify Air Southwest Co. of San Antonio as an interstate airline competing with the large, federally regulated interstate lines.

Air Southwest plans to offer computer service among Dallas, San Antonio and Houston using Lockheed Electra propjets. It says it can offer service comparable to the large airlines and at rates lower by more than 20 per cent.

Federal state law is that the Civil Aeronautics Board licenses the interstate carriers and has its service and subsidy balances all worked out, without considering any state licensed airlines.

So, Air Southwest is going to upset those balances somewhat, by taking from Braniff, Trans-Texas and Continental airlines some of the revenues now received under their charters from the CAB.

CAB did not make its wishes in the matter of Air Southwest's certification known to the Texas Aeronautics Commission. But Braniff, TAA and Continental did. Result was a seven-day hearing before TAC examiners, then another hearing for oral arguments before the commission itself.

Despite TAC's favorable ruling, the fight is far from over. Opponents to Air Southwest's plans have made it known that they plan to take their case into the courts — as far as it will go.

In the state courts, they will maintain that the TAC's action was not based on "substantial evidence." If they fail there, one attorney said they might go into the federal courts, charging that the TAC certification placed an undue burden on interstate commerce in violation of the U. S. Constitution.

SPECIAL SESSION
Gov. John Connally revealed a "new unofficial estimate" by State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert on available General Revenue Funds indicating that available revenue for operating state government may be some $50,000,000 higher than the estimate of $297,600,000.

Governor Connally says the import of that is "the increase in available revenues will relieve the pressures for a large tax bill as was originally anticipated" for the special legislative fiscal session. Connally has denied rumors that he will call a special session of the Legislature in March.

"I am hopeful that the special legislative session

this year can be postponed until June," Speaker Ben Barnes said, "the figure will be even less" than the previous estimate of $115,000,000 in new tax resources necessary to support the state government in the fiscal year which begins September 1.

Barnes said recent revisions in revenue estimates mean that if the Legislature had passed a two-year tax bill in 1967, instead of waiting for a special session, Texas taxpayers would have been taxed about $60,000,000 more than necessary.

L.B.J. CONTRACT
A contract for construction of 16,673 feet of high-gamewall fencing at Lyndon B. Johnson State Park in Gillespie County has been awarded to Jasper Moore of Ingram. Moore was lowest among five bidders with a project price of $19,717.

Parks and Wildlife Department said the fencing project was resigned more to keep exhibition animals in L.B.J. State Park than to keep visitors out. But it will enclose a large portion of the park and separate it from Ranch Road 1 and the L.B.J. Ranch, known as "The Texas White House."

PEOPLE POLLUTION
"With over-population a world problem, Planned Parenthood is becoming increasingly important as a governmental project," says Alan Bloekum, regional director of the Southwest Region of Planned Parenthood.

A livestock district meeting on the subject is set for March 1 and 5 in Austin. This conference will be followed by a series of state sessions on family planning. Among them will be a special family planning conference by CEO, the American Association of Planned Parenthood Physicians and the State Nursing Association.

Cost of planned parenthood for one family per year is about $15, whereas the cost of welfare support, federal, state and county — for a dependent child is about $1,200 a year.

COURTS SPEAK
Supreme Court will hear arguments on March 27 in a Fort Worth case involving whether the city has provided required services to keep 63 square miles of annexed land or whether it must relinquish the property, taken February 18, 1963, near Everman.

High court agreed a South Houston Gardens man is entitled to $14,000 damages for harm to his house and peace of mind caused by low-flying planes after William P. Hobby runways were extended to near edge of his property.

Transfers of four square miles from Rosenthal to Lorena school district is invalid without Falls County school board approval, Supreme Court concluded, upholding Court of Civil Appeals.

State Banking Board's award of a charter to American Bank of Commerce in Greenville now has Supreme Court approval.

Third Court of Civil Appeals backed up a district court order that a charter should have been granted to Mission Savings and Loan Association in northeast Bexar County.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed death penalty assessed Kenneth Allen McDuff who was accused of killing three teenagers.

Residency requirement in state aid to families of dependent, needy children act is under attack in a new federal court suit.

POVERTY PROGRAM
Texas War on Poverty program seems to be heading for a shift in control to the cities and counties under new federal legislation. New law will give local governments the option of taking over programs effective February 1, 1968.

Cities and counties would have three alternatives: designate an existing community action agency; or designate themselves or some other public or private agency to operate the poverty program; or leave the decision of who is to run the program up to state poverty program officials.

Change in control may also mean a change in the funding formula for the poverty program. Regional OEO Administrator Fred D. Baldwin said there is a "strong possibility" that next year's federal appropriations will come to the states without federal strings on how the money should be used.

PARK DEVELOPMENT
Parks & Wildlife Commission Chairman Will Odom announced a $51,000 Federal matching grant to develop outdoor recreation facilities at Goose Island State Park, north of Rockport.

With state matching, this will finance a $108,000 development project including restrooms, tent camping units, trailer camping, shelters, roads, parking areas and utilities. The park, acquired in 1935, is the home of a 2,000 year-old live oak tree, Chairman Odom noted.

APPOINTMENTS
Robert D. Spellings of Ft. Worth is new administrative assistant to Speaker Ben Barnes.

Former Bexar County Judge Charles Grace was named statewide chairman of Dan Yarborough's campaign for governor.

Dr. Leo Wilborn, assistant commissioner of education for instruction, will join Texas Bankers Association March 1 as education director.

Gayle McNutt, formerly of Comanche, will handle news and information for Barnes campaign for lieutenant governor.

Mrs. Roland Boyd of McKinney is Texas chairman for 1968 campaign conference for Democratic women to be held in Washington, May 19-21.

SHORT STORIES
Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held that higher education institutions' local funds can be placed on time deposit with local banks.

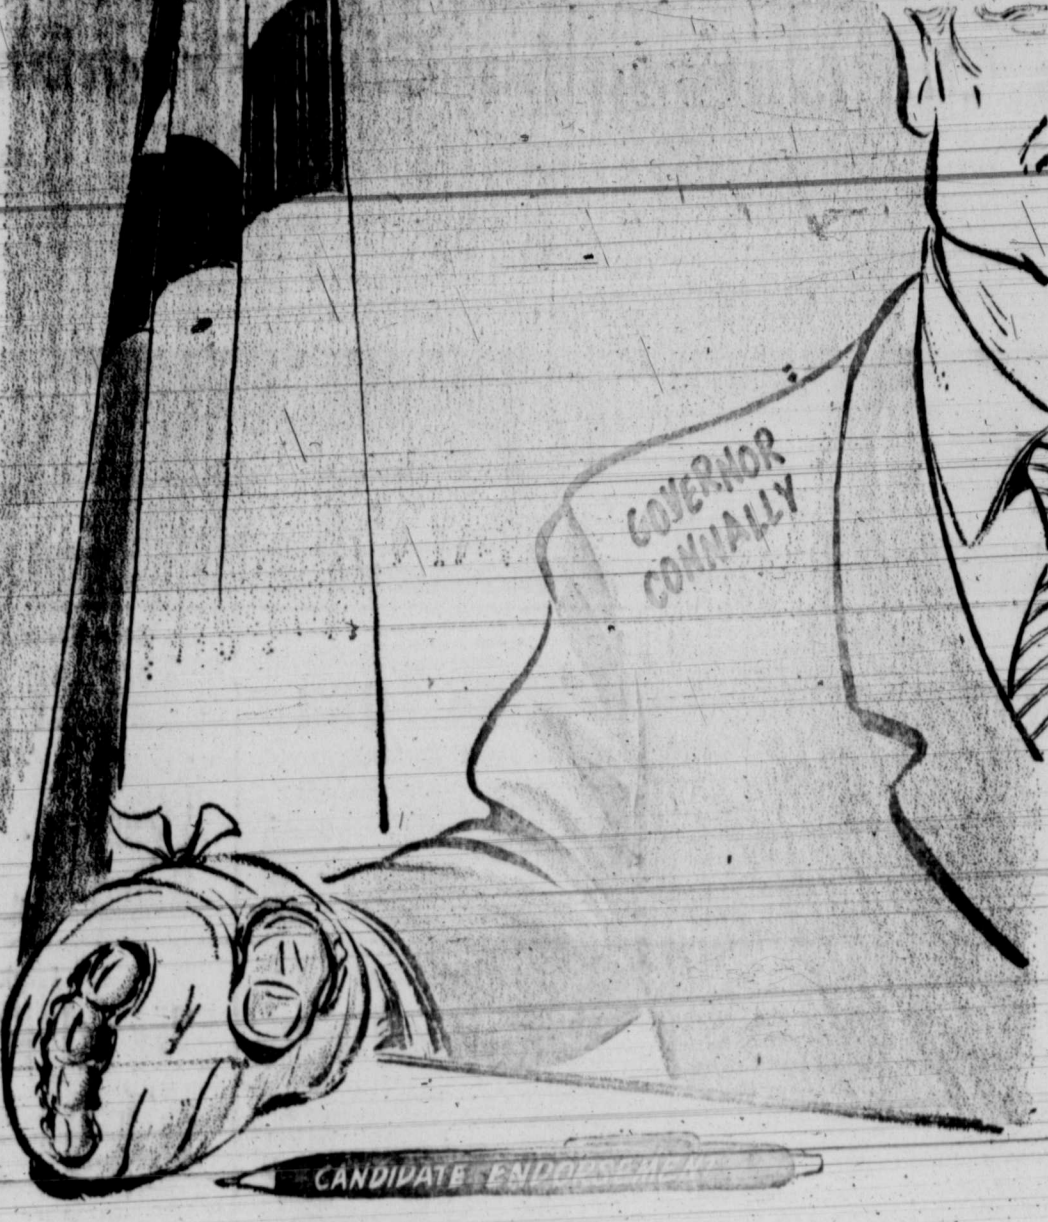

Attorney General Martin also concluded that an insurance company with most of its assets invested in a foreign nation fails to qualify for gross premiums tax reduction.

Governor Connally approved three regional planning grants of $6,000, $5,000 and $7,000 to South Texas and Lubbock Metropolitan Councils of government and Austin-Travis County Organization for Regional Planning.

Railroad Commission approved an exception to its order banning saltwater disposal pits for Garrison Drainage Co. of Corpus Christi which handles disposal for a number of fields in Nueces County.

U. S. Army Corps of Engineers has produced an $11,700,000 Colorado River project to relocate its flood-discharge channel and convert the lower six miles of the river into a separate shallow-draft navigation channel.

Governor Connally has designated March as "Beautify Texas Month" to recognize the Texas Garden Clubs Inc. which is celebrating its 40th anniversary.

Senator's Point

Great Benefit From REA

By RALPH YARBOROUGH
United States Senator

National Rural Electric Cooperative Association recently held its 26th annual meeting in Dallas.

I attended the opening session of that meeting and addressed the several thousand rural electric administrators from across the nation there. Let's consider the impact the Rural Electrification Act has had on our state.

I remember the thrill of seeing electricity come into use for rural residents. I can also remember the dark days before rural power was available. Those were long work days without electric farm implements or tools and without household appliances and lights.

The REA came into being in 1935 after President Franklin D. Roosevelt told the nation "electricity is no longer a luxury. It is a definite necessity." The first REA loan for Texas was approved in September 1935 for the Bartlett Electric Cooperative in Williamson County, bringing electricity to hundreds of Blackland farmers in that Central Texas area.

When that law was made 33 years ago, only 2 per cent of all Texas rural residents had electric power. Today, thanks largely to the REA program, 97 per cent of our farmers, ranchers and rural people have electricity. We have 99 rural power organizations that have received federal loans in Texas, including 97 electric cooperatives.

Let me emphasize federal LOANS. Some people say this is a giveaway program. This is not true. The federal government has never given money to a Rural Electric Cooperative to build its lines. These have all been loans. The federal government has lent nearly $542 million to these organizations and they have brought electricity to 32,000 Texans.

These REA power supplies and cooperatives serve thirty settled areas, largely where commercial companies could not profitably provide service.

REA telephone lines have also been a boon to our rural areas and small towns.

When the REA telephone line program was first authorized by Congress 19 years ago, less than one-fourth of our Texas farms and ranches had telephone service. Today, 71 per cent of our farm and ranch residents, plus hundreds of rural homes and businesses, have modern dial telephone service — thanks to REA.

A total of 180,000 rural Texas families benefit from these telephone lines directly, and of course, we all benefit indirectly through the faster and more efficient communications they provide.

The Texas-REA story can be magnified 467 each of our 59 states. Texas has benefited more than any other state from the Rural Electrification Act of 1935, but across the United States, 6 million rural residents are better off.

The late Texas Congressman and Speaker Sam Rayburn was co-author of the REA act — an act I have consistently and wholeheartedly supported. The REA brought an end to the kerosene lamp era and the beginning of modern rural Texas.

More Tourist Money

Record Year Reported for Texas

Texas last year hosted more visitors — who spent more money here — than ever before, the Texas Highway Department reported.

A total of 20,684,000 persons from out of the State visited Texas in 1967. They spent a record $1,203,137,000, making 1967 the second year in a row that the value of the Texas travel industry has surpassed the billion-dollar mark.

The automobile again was the favorite mode of transportation.

The Highway Department's annual visitor industry survey showed 15,198,000 persons visited Texas by automobile during the year. Their expenditures in the State amounted to a total of $807,972,000 while in the State. Total number of automobile visitors was up 7.4 per cent over 1966, and their expenditures rose 11.6 per cent.

In addition, the Texas Tourist Council, an Austin-based association of travel-related businesses, estimated that an additional 5,486,000 out-of-State visitors came to Texas by commercial carriers. This group added an estimated $395,165,000 to the State's economy.

The Highway Department's survey of automobile travelers employed visual and mechanical traffic count surveys.

Valuable data also was gained from more than 122 thousand questionnaires distributed by the Departments of Tourist Information — Bureaus at key highway gateways and returned by out-of-State visitors at the completion of their Texas visit.

Statistically, the average tourist party included 2.99 persons — .09 of a person more than in 1966 — who stayed in Texas 5.98 days, or .18 of a day longer than in 1966.

Average spending per person was $3.89 a day — up 9 cents from the year before. The average party made expenditures of $26.59 per day.

This and other data will be included in the Highway Department's annual Visitor Industry Report which will be available soon.

The data is concerned with out-of-State visitors only. Millions of Texans traveling within the borders of their own State are not included. No such figures are available, but, undoubtedly, Texans themselves have an enormous additional impact on the overall Texas travel industry.

The report also will reflect the activities of the Highway Department's Travel and Information Division and the Texas Tourist Development Agency, representing the State's travel development efforts, and the Texas Tourist Council, representing the private business sector.

The Highway Department's Travel and Information Division hosted 775 thousand travelers at its Tourist Information Centers, an increase of 2.5 per cent over 1966. In addition, more than 300 thousand travel inquiries by mail were answered by the Division.

More than four million pieces of descriptive literature were distributed. About half of this total was produced by the Highway Department with the remainder supplied to the Department by chambers of commerce and other travel-oriented groups.

Cotton Goals

For W-Tex Groups

An objective of two West Texas cotton promotion groups in the next 12 months will be a program to expand the export trade of the United States grown cotton, especially the shorter staple varieties, with European and Far Eastern countries.

Executives of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers and the Plains Cotton Growers, Vice Presidents Charles Bragg of Stamford and Donald Johnson of Lubbock, conferred last week in Washington with representatives of two international cotton trade groups and the U. S. Department of Agriculture on the projected program.

"Full cooperation of the USDA, the Cotton Council International and the International Institute for Cotton was pledged to the two grower groups of West Texas," Bragg stated.

"It was pointed out in the Washington conference that more than 40 per cent of the short staple cotton grown in the Rolling Plains and High Plains counties and South Korea and South Vietnam," Bragg said.

The short staple varieties grown in these two areas are used extensively in the manufacture of cloth in these countries. It is believed that its use in manufacture in other foreign countries could be increased.

Following the Washington conferences, officials of the U. S. Department of Agriculture agreed to sponsor, in the next 60 to 90 days, two foreign trade missions: one to the Far East and one to Europe. Representatives from the Rolling Plains and Plains Cotton Growers will be invited to take part in the missions.

Representatives George Mahon of Lubbock and Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls are to confer with USDA officials concerning personnel of the trade mission group.

While in Washington, Bragg and Johnson also conferred with Representative Bob Ponge of Waco, Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, Representative Purcell, member of the committee, Mahon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, and USDA officials.

Discussion related primarily to the nature of cotton legislation that would likely be enacted during the present session of Congress.

Congressman Ponge said that hearings on farm legislation would likely begin in the next 60 days, or as soon as he and Secretary of Agriculture Freeman returned from attending a trade fair in Japan in April.

The legislative committee of the RPGC will meet soon to discuss details of a cotton program in the new legislative act that would be acceptable to members.

Taxpayers Quiz

Medical Expenses

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — Last year's medical expenses don't add up to 3 percent of my income. Does that mean I can't use the new provision that allows you to deduct one-half of your medical insurance premiums?

A — You may deduct one-half of your medical insurance premiums up to the maximum of $150 even though your other medical expenses do not exceed the 3 percent income limitation. However, to take this deduction you must itemize all your other deductions such as taxes, contributions, and interest expenses. You can not deduct your medical insurance premiums if you take the standard deduction.

Q — My brother and I provide over half our mother's support. Who gets to claim her?

A — If each of you contributed over 10 percent of your mother's support and the combined total adds up to over half of her total support then either of you may claim her as a dependent. A special declaration must be completed by the one not claiming the exemption and sent in with the return of the one who claims the exemption. Form 2120, Multiple Support Declaration, is the one to use.

Q — I just filed my 1967 return. What records should I keep in case I'm audited?

A — Keep whatever you need to substantiate the income and deductions on your return. Cancelled checks, paid bills, W-2 and 10-99, bank books and similar records will be helpful.

Q — If I send in my return now, how long will it take to get my refund?

A — Accurate and complete returns are normally processed and the refund issued within five or six weeks.

Q — My brother and I provide over half our mother's support. Who gets to claim her?

A — If each of you contributed over 10 percent of your mother's support and the combined total adds up to over half of her total support then either of you may claim her as a dependent. A special declaration must be completed by the one not claiming the exemption and sent in with the return of the one who claims the exemption. Form 2120, Multiple Support Declaration, is the one to use.

Social Security

For Young Worker

(This is the fifth of a series of eight articles concerning Social Security. The articles were written for publication by Erven Fisher District Manager at Big Spring.)

New protection for the young worker and his family stands out among the new provisions in the social security law for the disabled.

For young workers who became disabled before they had a chance to work under social security for at least 5 years, a new change in the disability benefit provisions is a boon.

For benefits to be paid to a disabled worker and his dependents under the old law he needed social security credits for a least 5 out of the 10 years before becoming disabled.

the time you became unable to work.

If you are disabled before you reach age 24, you need only 1 1/2 years of work under social security out of a 3-year period ending when your disability began.

Benefits under this new provision are first payable for the month of February 1968. About 100,000 people — disabled workers and their dependents — are eligible. An estimated $70 million in additional benefits will be paid out in the first 12 months.

The new law could mean benefits even for some people who have recovered from their disabling condition, or if they were denied benefits previously because they lacked enough work credits. You should seek more information at your social security office at 1009 Gregg, Big Spring, if you think you qualify.

Even a frown can worry Mother. And when he has a fever — she always fears the worst!

Did you know, Mother, that more children fall victim to spiritual neglect than any of the crippling diseases we dread? It has wrecked the fond hopes and bold dreams of hundreds of thousands of parents.
Yet it isn't a disease, at all!
It is a HESITATION; hesitating to start our child in Church School, hesitating to go with him and worship God, hesitating to discuss at home
the need for moral and religious foundation for the whole family.

Face it today! Do something about it next Sunday! Choose YOUR church. And make it
YOUR church. And through a lifetime of worship and faith it can be for your child . . .
HIS church

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

PROBABLY COMING DOWN WITH SOMETHING!

Five Travel To Hospital

Five volunteer workers February 20 were in Big Spring where they conducted a recreational program at Big Spring State Hospital.

They were Mrs. Roxie Witen, Mrs. E. H. Winn, Mrs. W. C. Harlow, Mrs. Jewell Richter and Miss Ruth Hightower. Highlight of the afternoon's recreation was piano music presented by Miss Hightower. Patients sang and clapped their hands with music selections.

Mrs. Mildred Bennett, program specialist for the hospital, expressed appreciation for Miss Hightower's contribution to the program. Games of dominoes, checkers, "42" and puzzles were played in addition to the music.

Mrs. C. A. Farmer, who maintains an office for circuit rider volunteer work here, emphasized this week that there is a great need for more workers.

Anyone interested in volunteering for this work is asked to notify Mrs. Farmer at RA 8-3974.
