Planes Carry Bomb Load Deeper In N. Viet Nam

By EDWIN Q. WHITE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers made their seventh reported strike in South Viet Nam today, dropping their bombs in the northernmost raid so far announced for the jet bombers.

Across the border, a U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderschief was shot down in an attack on the Thanh Hoa Railroad Bridge, 80 miles south of Hanoi. The pilot parachuted but efforts to rescue him were unsuccessful and he was officially listed as missing.

A U.S. spokesman said 30 of the Strategic Air Command's eight-jet bombers dropped 500 tons of bombs during a 45-minute raid on "Viet Cong installations in Quang Tin Province, approximately 350 miles north northwest of Saigon."

The raid was carried out at the request of the South Vietnamese government against a suspected Viet Cong base near the Doxa," the spokesman said.

The Doxa is a mountainous, mist-shrouded area north of Kontum that the Viet Cong has controlled for years.

U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese troops joined in a regimentalized strike that overran the Viet Cong-dominated village of Chan Son, 10 miles south of the Da Nang air base. Striking in the face of sniper fire, they killed 25 persons, including about 5 civilians, and rounded up 80 suspects.

The B52s flew today from their base on Guam. Last week they made a raid southeast of Saigon from Okinawa after being moved there because of a typhoon threat to Guam.

On the ground, a big U.S. sweep southeast of Saigon ended today with meager results. The Viet Cong battalion supposed to be in the area was never found.

Three Viet Cong guerrillas were reported killed and three captured in the operation which sent nearly 2,000 American paratroopers and 1st Division artillerymen into the field last Thursday. The ground operation was preceded by the B52 bomber strike from Okinawa.

Five Americans were wounded when one of their own artillery rounds fell short.

Helicopters brought two battalions from the 173rd Airborne Brigade back to the Bien Hoa base before noon. A 1st Division battalion returned by helicopter and road convoy.

Viet Cong guerrillas made scattered mortar attacks across South Viet Nam Sunday. Government casualties were reported "moderate."

Communist forces opened fire on 15 government positions south of Saigon. They also hit three outposts south of Hue, 390 miles north of Saigon, and knocked out 30 feet of a highway bridge and a section of railroad bridge near Da Nanag.

A small U.S. Marine patrol near Da Namag was caught in an open rice field by sniper fire. A military spokesman said casualties were heavy.

Among the Communist targets were the provincial capitals of Long An, 20 miles south of Saigon, and Go Cong, 35 miles south of the capital. One American was among the wounded at Go Cong.

The guerrillas also fired on a South Korean military camp at Di An, near the Bien Hoa air base, Sunday night but no casualties were reported.

U.S. war planes continued bombing raids against targets in North Viet Nam and suspected Viet Cong installations in South Viet Nam. Forward artillery observers claimed 230 Viet Cong were killed by air strikes in South Viet Nam during a 24-hour period ending Sunday.

Accusations Prompt Stir In Washington

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has caused a political stir by accusing a top congressional Republican of violating his confidence and releasing "untrue and perhaps malicious" information about deliberations on the Viet Nam war.

Johnson did not name the man he had in mind but a number of newspapers implied the President's target was House GOP leader Gerald R. Ford Jr. of Michigan.

Asked to comment, Ford said, in effect, that Johnson was talking through his hat if he had him in mind.

Johnson, using language that was perhaps stronger than any he has publicly aimed at a Republican since entering the White House, spoke out at a session with newsmen Sunday at the LBJ ranch.

The President was asked about published reports that he was dissuaded from calling reservists to duty at this time because of a memo from Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana.

On Wednesday, the President ordered 50,000 more U.S. troops to Viet Nam. The action followed a week of consultations, during which there was speculation that the troop increase would be larger and reservists might be ordered to active duty.

Replying to a newsman's question regarding the Mansfield report, Johnson said: "That was the result of a man who broke my confidence, and not only broke it but distorted it. I would brand it untrue and perhaps malicious."

Johnson said the man he was talking about was "one of the prominent members of another party" who had participated in one of the White House conferences that preceded the President's Viet Nam decisions.

There was no list of Republicans attending the meetings, but Ford, Senate GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen and Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa were known to have been on hand.

Dirksen couldn't be reached for comment.

Hickenlooper said he had no idea what the President was talking about.

Johnson said the unnamed Republican had held a background session with newsmen, meaning he gave them information but declined to be identified as the source.

"Most of the people you deal with respect the confidence, but once in a while an inexperienced man, or a new one, or a bitter partisan has to play a little politics," Johnson said.

Ford was chosen at the start of the current congressional session to serve as House Republican leader.

Sweetwater In Race For A-Smasher

WASHINGTON (AP) — Proposals from eight late-starters have helped delay announcement of the front-runners in the contest for the location of a proposed $280-million atom-smasher machine.

Relating this today, a spokesman for the Atomic Energy Commission also said the commission itself has not taken final action on selecting approximately 30 "priority" locations from among 118 proposals submitted to the AEC from all but four states.

There had been some indication last week the commission might announce by today a list of 30 spots it feels best meet the site-selection criteria. But the spokesman said there would be no such announcement today, "and I wouldn't care to speculate when it might be."

Under the selection setup, the AEC's research staff examines all proposals, then draws up recommendations for priority consideration. But the commission itself takes final action.

The Dallas-Fort Worth area is seeking the facility.

One of the late - starters is Sweetwater, Texas.

Contract Awarded For Road Project

County commissioners this morning awarded a contract for seal-coating 7½ miles of county roads.

The project involves a road from Union north to U. S. Highway 84.

Successful bidder on the project was J. H. Strain and Sons, Inc., of Tye with a proposal totalling $9,345.40. The successful bid was the lowest of three up for consideration.

Johnson To Get Vote-Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress expects to send to President Johnson this week the voting rights bill he urgently requested last March.

And the controversy over state legislative reapportionment that erupted after the one-man, one-vote ruling by the Supreme Court may reach a showdown in the Senate.

Also in the Senate, the Judiciary Committee has set a hearing for Thursday on Johnson's nomination of his friend and adviser, Abe Fortas, to succeed Arthur J. Goldberg on the Supreme Court.

The House Judiciary Committee is expected to act Tuesday on an administration bill to abolish the national origins quota system of immigration.

And with congressional hopes still pinned on adjournment around Labor Day, the Senate Labor Committee may complete work on a House-passed bill to double the funds available for the second year of the antipoverty program.

The voting-rights bill was whipped into final form by a Senate-House conference committee last Thursday and will be taken up in the House Tuesday.

Senate action may follow later in the day, although Southern foes could throw up a temporary roadblock if they renew their denunciations of it as an unconstitutional invasion of the rights of the states to determine the qualification of voters.

The bill is designed to enforce the 15th Amendment's ban on denial of voting rights because of race or color. In the states affected by the measure's automatic coverage formula, literacy tests and similar voter qualification requirements would be suspended.

The reapportionment battle centers on a constitutional amendment proposed by Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois to get around the Supreme Court's decision that both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned on the basis of population.

Say Missing Articles May Lend Clues

AUSTIN (AP) — Groping for solid clues to the killers of Shirley Ann Stark and Susan Rigsby, detective sought today scores of items missing from the car in which the two disappeared.

Ranger Bill Wilson said the spot where the young women changed dresses after friends last saw them was another vital bit of information sought in massive investigation.

Separate funeral services were set for the slain beauties late today in Dallas.

Bodies of the two Dallas girls, decomposed and nearly nude, were found Friday hidden among weeds in a vacant lot near the north edge of Austin. The spot is .6 mile from a roadside ditch where part of their clothing turned up July 19, a day after they disappeared.

Police distributed a list of nearly 150 items missing from Miss Stark's car July 20, when it was located on an apartment house parking lot near the University of Texas.

The missing articles included clothing, toilet articles and personal effects of both, plus numerous pieces of kitchen equipment and pantry items. Miss Rigsby had brought supplies for the apartment she planned to occupy while attending summer classes at the university.

West To Offer New Disarmament Treaty

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP) — A joint Western proposal for a treaty to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons is to be offered to the Soviet Union during the next two weeks, reliable sources reported today.

Western negotiators at the 17-nation disarmament conference doubt the Russians will show any constructive interest, but they want to present the treaty draft before the conference adjourns next month for the U.N. General Assembly.

The Western allies figure the Russians then would be left to explain their negative attitude to the General Assembly, which has been pressuring the nuclear powers for progress toward disarmament.

The Western draft would permit the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to proceed with the creation of a NATO nuclear force. But conference sources said it would require the United States and Britain to keep their nuclear weapons under the control of their own nationals and retain a total veto on their use.

Non-nuclear nations participating in the NATO force would be given some say in advance planning and would be consulted before nuclear weapons assigned to the force were used. The draft would make clear that such planning and consultation would not be a treaty violation.

Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin already has brushed aside this limitation on the Atlantic force, terming it meaningless. He has told the conference repeatedly that the Soviet Union will sign a treaty to restrict the spread of nuclear weapons only if it explicitly outlaws the proposed Atlantic force or any other arrangement giving West Germany "direct or indirect" control over nuclear weapons.

"Thus far," one Western delegate said, "the Russians insist that the West must formally bury any kind of joint nuclear force before it is even born. This we obviously can't do. But we keep telling them that any treaty they sign will limit the eventual shape of the force."

The treaty draft would bar the five nuclear powers — the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Red China — from supplying nuclear weapons or know-how to any other nation or group of nations.

The world's non-nuclear powers would agree not to manufacture or acquire nuclear weapons.

The proposal arose from a British plan submitted to the NATO council in Paris July 26. The four Western delegations at the disarmament conference — the United States, Britain, Canada and Italy — are working out a compromise version.

Rash Of UFO Sightings Reported Over Wide Area

By The Associated Press

Authorities in parts of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas were deluged Sunday night and early today by reports of unidentified flying objects.

The sheriff's office at Wichita, Kan., said the Weather Bureau tracked "several of them at altitudes of 6,000 to 9,000 feet."

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol said Tinker Air Force Base at Oklahoma City was tracking as many as four of the unidentified flying objects on its radar screen at one time, estimating their altitude at about 22,000 feet.

A Tinker spokesman refused to confirm or deny the radar observations.

"The reported sightings this evening will be investigated by Air Force personnel," said an information officer, Lt. John Walmsley.

Reports of the UFO's poured in from Dalhart, Amarillo, Pampa, Borger, Canyon, Pecos, Monahans, Odessa, Midland and Fort Worth Tex., Hobbs, Carlsbad and Artesia, N. M., Chickasha, Shawnee, Cushing, Guymon and Chandler, Okla., and Oxford, Belle Plaine, Winfield, Caldwell, Mulvane and Wichita, Kan.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol said policemen in three different cars reported watching the objects fly in a diamond-shaped formation for about 30 minutes in the Shawnee area. The officers described the objects as changing in color from red to white to blue-green.

At 3:40 a.m. the Wichita Weather Bureau said it had tracked one of the objects south and west of Wellington. The bureau said it first showed up on radar at an altitude of about 22,000 feet and descended to 4,000 feet.

"They were red and exploded in a shower of sparks" and at other times "fluttered like a leaf" in the clear sky. This was the word from Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wirtz of Canyon, Tex., who told of three sightings as they drove from Grenville, N.M., to Dalhart, Tex.

Deputy Sheriff Dan Carter of Canyon, Tex., said he "thought at first a plane had exploded in the air." The object "appeared to go south," he said, "then disintegrated in all colors."

Spokesmen at Tinker and McConnell Air Force Bases referred all queries to the Air Force in Washington.

In the past, the Air Force has said the sightings have turned out to be such things as balloons, birds, search lights, jet exhaust, kites, meteors, missiles.

As of July 20, the Air Force had checked 9,127 sightings since 1947 with 667 still unidentified and said that its investigations had turned up no evidence to indicate the objects come from space.

Snyder Band Is Tops In Class 3A

The Snyder High School Band was selected Sunday as the state's outstanding Class AAA band by the Texas Music Educators Association at San Antonio.

A panel of seven judges reviewed tape recordings of the outstanding Class AAA bands from the 16 regions of the state and selected the top five bands in this order: 1. Snyder; 2. Mercedes; 3. Lake Highland (Dallas); 4. Tulia; 5. Seguin.

The Snyder band had been runnerup for the honor in 1959, 1961 and 1963. Voting on the outstanding Class AAA band is held every other year alternating with the other classifications.

For winning the top honor, the band will present a formal concert for the TMEA Convention scheduled next February in Dallas.

The new honor climaxes a string of 13 years of sweepstakes awards and numerous other honors won at festivals in and out of the state.

In addition to the outstanding concert band record, the Snyder High School stage band has placed first for 12 years in state competition and was recently named the third place winner in the National Stage Band contest.

Melvin Montgomery is the director of the Snyder High School bands. He is assisted by Charles Shaw.

Viet Court Will Try US Adviser

SAIGON (AP)—A South Vietnamese court will try Robert Kimball for the killing of his American boss and a Vietnamese woman, a U.S. government spokesman announced today.

The spokesman said that if convicted, the 37-year-old American adviser to the Vietnamese police would face a maximum penalty of life imprisonment and a minimum of five years in jail. Although South Viet Nam has the death penalty, Kimball will be tried on a charge similar to second degree murder, a police source said.

Last week police said Kimball confessed killing 44 - year - old Jack E. Ryan, chief of the U.S. aid mission's public safety (police) division, and Mrs. Nguyen Thi Hai, 28, the wife of a Vietnamese air force captain. They were shot in the yard of Ryan's home on the night of July 23.

Kimball reportedly signed a statement saying he had been dating Mrs. Hai for two years and became jealous of Ryan. Kimball's estranged wife lives in Salt Lake City, Utah, with their 7-year-old son, Kim.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas so as to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board to Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds or obligations and the conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; and providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Board and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature.

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present.

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed four and one-half per cent (4½%). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with such proceeds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys compising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to Texas veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955, and who upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land is a citizen of the United States, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces above-named and who, at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning or drafting was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold may be sold or resold to such purchasers, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board may be used by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

"All moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the Constitutional Amendment adopted on November 6, 1956, shall be credited to said Veterans' Land Fund and may be used for the purpose of purchasing additional lands, to be sold as provided herein, until December 1, 1965; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on such bonds shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 1, 1965, all moneys attributable to such bonds shall be set aside for the retirement of such bonds and to pay interest thereon; and when there are sufficient moneys to retire all of such bonds, all of such moneys then remaining or thereafter becoming a part of said Veterans' Land Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board (a 'series of bonds' being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds hereafter issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds hereafter issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $200,000,000.00; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law"; and

"AGAINST the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $200,000,000.00; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast were in favor of same Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution and be effective from the date set forth in said Amendment, and the Governor shall issue a proclamation in keeping therewith.

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this state.

Sculptor Also Major Painter

By MILES A. SMITH

NEW YORK (AP) — The major retrospective exhibition of the works of 64-year-old Albert Giacometti, now at the Museum of Modern Art, drives home the point that this artist is a major painter as well as a world-renowned sculptor.

Many art lovers are thoroughly familiar with those elongated, spindly human figures that he models in rough textures. But not everyone is fully award of his painted portraits, landscapes and sketches.

The spotlight was turned on his two-dimensional work last year when the Swiss-born Parisian was awarded the Guggenheim International Prize for painting. (In 1961 he had won the sculpture prize at the Carnegie International in Pittsburgh, and in 1962 the sculpture prize at the Venice Biennialle.)

The Guggenheim award was for a painting of a figure, somewhat resembling his typical sculptured works.

The current show is a complete review of Giacometti's career, well balanced in a presentation of 70 sculptures, 35 paintings and 35 drawings. It will remain here through Oct. 10 and then move on to the Art Institute of Chicago, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the San Francisco Museum of Art.

There are representative examples of the artist's experiments in the 1920s, when he was influenced by primitive and Egyptian sculpture, and later by cubism. Another group shows his temporary affiliation with the surrealists in the 1930s.

Then there is a full survey of his final style, developed after the war from tiny standing figures, which grew in size until in the last few years they have become monumental.

But it is the paintings that arouse the viewer's particular interest in this show.

Giacometti's portraits nearly always present the subject full-face, head-on. They are limited in color — making use of blacks, grays and a little umber.

The oils have an unfinished, sketchy look, and the subjects seem lonely in their isolation. The most striking thing about these portraits is that each subject's eyes seem to stare out at you with a searching, haunted look.

Peter Selz, head of the MMA exhibition department, who directed this show, has called attention to this matter:

"The eye is man's miraculous instrument: it is both the mirror of self and its means of communication. Giacometti stares at people's eyes, hoping thus to understand them. He says that the blind seem to think with their eyes, and that the difference between a living person and a corpse is the gaze. In his painting and his sculpture he concentrates on the eye. 'It would be enough to sculpt the eyes,' he has said. In his painted portraits all the lines converge intensely on the eyes. If he could render a single eye correctly, he maintains, he would have the head, the figure, the world."

The quotation is from Selz' introduction to an excellent 120-page book, containing 112 illustrations, "Alberto Giacometti," published by the museum in connection with the exhibit.

An important feature of the book is the facsimile reproduction of a letter from Giacometti to his friend Pierre Matisse in 1947, describing his own career. With an English translation on the facing pages, it presents the typescript, broken up by small explanatory sketches which the artist used to illustrate his text.

The museum also has published an 80-page soft - cover book by James Lord, "A Giacometti Portrait," Lord, an American writer, sat for the portrait and then described how the artist worked. There are 12 illustrations which show the various stages of the picture's development.

Tourists See Troglodyte

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
Associated Press Writer

MATAMATA, Tunisia (AP)—Dug into the brown, barren earth on the fringes of the Sahara, several thousand Tunisian villagers live in caves like troglodytes of the prehistoric era.

This village, some 25 miles south of the Oasis of Gabes, has become the foremost example of troglodyte living, now a major attraction of Tunisia's expanding tourist industry.

To accommodate travelers, three cave dwellings have been joined by tunnels and converted into a unique underground inn.

Civilization reaches Matmata by a hard-top road from Gabes, and a telephone line has been strung over the brown, parched landscape dotted with palm trees.

Electric current has been brought to light the national guard post watching over the rocky area around Matmata. Several white-walled buildings housing a school, administrative center and infirmary have been built over the ground.

But the bulk of Matmata's 6,000 inhabitants live in some 300 man-made caves, as they have for centuries.

"It's always been like that. People are poor here. The earth protects them from the surf in the summer and from cold in the winter," say the inhabitants.

The cave dwelling of M'barek L'taief is a typical example of a better-off Matmata family.

It is reached by a path going steeply down to a large crater-like dugout serving as the central court. All around it are caves forming "rooms" for the 14 members of the family.

The master bedroom is spotlessly clean — with plastic pots and cheap mirrors lined along the clay wall — facets of a modern age conquering the Tunisian south.

On the laundry rope strung outside, sacks from wheat marked "gift of the American People" were hung to dry.

"Only the very poor get the wheat — we get the empty sacks," says Nejma of the house. She was clad in a purple shawl-like robe worn by women of the region, and her face and arms were covered with tattoos.

On the other side of the parched hill, a cave serves as Matmata's "oil factory." In the dim light of the underground installation, a weary camel turns in small circles. His motion activates a primitive press for squashing olives. Another press squeezes the oil into containers.

Ali Ben Mohammed is the key employe of the plant. He does not work every day, and when he does he earns the equivalent of 60 cents a day. The camel has been condemned to a lifetime of underground labor.

The visitor's most memorable impression of Matmata is the originality of the underground inn, operated by the Touring Club of Tunisia. There tourists sleep on hard beds in specially arranged caves that served generations of Tunisians.

Primitive showers have been installed and a simple meal is served in a large dugout lit by oil lamps. A night's stay with dinner and breakfast costs the equivalent of $2.50.

Occasionally busloads of tourists come from nearby Gabes and the resort island of Djerba. On those days villagers perform colorful southern dances and drums roll late into the night.

Day-time, turbanned Tunisians work on the meager plots of barley growing between their dugouts. On a sports field, school children move rhythmically under the guidance of their physical education instructor. A Bulgarian doctor comes three times a week from Gabes.

But the earth around Matmata is poor and there is not much hope for the people — except for tips left by tourists and American wheat brought in sacks with mysterious colored markings.

Extra Social Security Check Will Be In The Mail Soon

By BOB HORTON

WASHINGTON (AP)—There's an extra check in your future if you are one of the 20 million persons now receiving Social Security benefits.

That check, due to be mailed in late September, will be a retroactive payment reflecting the seven per cent increase provided under the Social Security-health care bill signed Friday by President Johnson.

The bill is retroactive to January. To figure what your check may be, let's assume you received $100 monthly January through August for an $800 total. The separate September check will be seven per cent of $800, or $56.

The first regular checks reflecting the increase will be mailed in early October covering September.

Social Security Commissioner Robert M. Ball mentioned the upcoming check Sunday in outlining what some people should do to receive new benefits.

Some needn't do anything.

If you are a Social Security or railroad retirement beneficiary 65 or older, you automatically will be certified for the new basic hospital insurance which goes into effect July 1, 1966.

And if you are a beneficiary interested in the voluntary supplementary plan covering physicians' fees and other benefits, you will receive automatically by mail an enrollment card in September or October. The voluntary program also is effective next July 1.

Some people, however, should check now at their nearest Social Security office, Ball said. These group include:

Persons 65 or over who are insured under Social Security but never have applied for benefits. Apply now — even if employed full time — for hospital insurance. This will assure you of getting any cash benefits you may be entitled to beginning in 1966 under more liberal retirement test provisions.

Persons 72 or over not now receiving benefits because they or their husbands hadn't worked long enough to qualify under previous provisions. You now may qualify for $35 monthly benefits with as little as three-fourths of coverage under Social Security.

Widows 60 or 61 years old. You can file application now to start getting cash benefits at 60, at a reduced amount, instead of 62. This provision becomes effective in September.

Students 18 to 22 whose Social Security benefits have stopped. Apply for benefits retroactive to January if you've been dropped from the Social Security rolls. If you are nearing 18 and plan to stay in or return to school, fill out an information form which will start benefits when you reach 18.

Severely disabled workers. You now may collect disability insurance if the disability has lasted or may last 12 months. Previous provisions stipulated that the disability had to last a long and indefinite time.

Widows past 60 who have remarried or women at least 62 who were divorced after 20 years or more of marriage. You should inquire about possible new benefits.

Persons over 65 who have not worked under Social Security. You may sign up Sept. 1 for the basic hospital and insurance and, if you wish, the voluntary medical plan.

A Junior Editors Quiz About BEAVER

QUESTION: How and why do beavers build dams?

ANSWER: An obliging beaver is answering the how part of the question in the upper left. You can see his large, curved and extremely sharp cutting incisor teeth, two above, two below. When these come together, driven by powerful jaw muscles, they can chop a chunk right out of the wood of a tree. A beaver will work around the tree, cutting out chunks until it comes crashing down (2). Then he will bite off the branches and cut the trunk into lengths easy to manage. To make a dam, the beavers drag such logs to a stream, lay them in place and pile on stones and mud, carrying the mud by holding it to their chests with their front paws.

In (3) we give an answer to the why part of the question. Beavers have no physical way of protecting themselves from predators; but they have worked out a remarkably effective method of protection by living close to or in the water. Alongside of a pond made by a dam, beavers will build a lodge of sticks and mud with an air hole in the top, cleverly concealed. Holes in the bottom lead into the water. The beaver can swim up through a tunnel to the lodge and be safe. In the winter, a supply of young wood is stored in the pond; the beavers live off the bark and twigs.

FOR YOU TO DO: The beaver knows what he wants—security and food, and he works extremely hard to get it. Go for what you want in the same way—work like a beaver! 8-2

Fossil Fish Invades Art World

By JERRY BUCK

NEW YORK (AP) — Painters of soup cans and sculptors of smashed automobiles had best look to their innovations . . . the fossil fish has arrived.

The newest thing in art is the brainchild of a New York stockbroker, Joseph S. Clark Jr., 36, son of the Pennsylvania senator.

The fossil fish was a long time reaching the market. Clark, an amateur geologist, figures they may be as old as 62 million years. His interest in geology led him to discovery of the aesthetic value of fossils.

The reddish fossils, embedded in slabs of creamy limestone, are hung on the wall like pictures. The delicate skelton of the fish appears to have been sculpted.

"The fossils are op art," said Clark, who noted that op art, or optical art, leans heavily on naturalistic objects.

The fish command a price of $100 to $1,700, depending on size. Most are only a few inches long, but a seven-foot alligator garfish now being prepared is expected to bring up to $30,000.

The fossils come from the Green River basin in southwestern Wyoming, where Clark's partner, Carl J. Ulrich of Kemmerer, Wyo., digs up the limestone slabs and readies them for shipment. The partnership is named, appropriately, the Pescadora Co.

Clark sells the fossils from his apartment. His wife, Felicia, handles the business end of the partnership.

Clark said he was struck by the resemblance of the fossils to the cave paintings at Lascaux, France, and Altamira, Spain.

Clark has exhibited the fossils at his children's school, but has yet to be approached by any art museum.

Land Prices Boost Agricultural Assets

WASHINGTON (AP)—A long boom in farm land prices continues to add values to the nation's agricultural assets.

An Agriculture Department report shows that as of March 1, farm real estate was valued at $159.4 billion, compared with $150.8 billion a year earlier. Included was the value of farm residences, barns and other buildings.

Farm values averaged $52,200, compared to $48,000 March 1, 1964. The value of farm land averaged $146 an acre, compared to $137 a year earlier.

The department estimated total farm assets March 1 at $237.6 billion, compared to $228.9 billion a year earlier.

Yangtze River Said Open To Navigation

TOKYO (AP) — A treacherous stretch of the Yangtze River, running 410 miles between Chungking and Ichang, is now open to year-round navigation, the New China News Agency reports.

By Communist account, workers have removed more than 200 dangerous shoals and sunken rocks which made the river forbidding about half the year.

The cost was given as 12.6 million yuan (about 4.84 million).

Good Rains Bring Bumper Corn Crop

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazil, a traditional victim of drought, is experiencing one of its most bountiful harvests because of generous rainfall.

Although the nation normally imports corn, Brazil this year will have 1.9 million tons available for export. Increases in other crops rangs from 6 per cent in dried beans to 75 per cent in peanuts.

The Moors grew cotton in Spain.

North-South All-Stars Prep For Clash In Cotton Bowl

DALLAS (AP)—When Andy White of Houston Lee was substituted in the South all-star football squad for an injured player, it didn't weaken the team one bit, according to Bob Barfield of Pasadena, the South coach.

Charles Galena Park is my No. 1 quarterback, I wouldn't be afraid to go with White," said Barfield as he prepared his team for the big game with the North in the Cotton Bowl Thursday night.

"He's a big, strong boy and is throwing real well."

The North, coached by Theo Miles of Dallas Woodrow Wilson, also has one of its finest quarterbacks in the state in Bill Bradley, of Bay City. And his passing and Riggs and perhaps White could be quite a show.

mages today, probably the only ones the rest of the way.

There were some injuries and illnesses to plague the two squads but none seemed serious.

Norman Bulaich, ace halfback of the South from LaMarque had a bruised knee and Rodney Marek of Taylor, another top back, had a sore leg, while Larry Holder, Kyle end, had a fever Sunday. But all were expected back today.

Ramey, North back, had a slightly twisted knee and Bonnie Hulse of Newcastle for the third time in three outs had to quit early because of a virus.

The South backfield shaped up as Riggs at quarterback, Chris Gilbert of Spring Branch and Gene Rogers of Victoria at halfbacks and Joe Wood of Waller sitting in for Bulaich at fullback.

The North had Bradley at quarterback, Jackie Allen of South Oak Cliff at fullback and James Harris of Brownwood and basketball squads that clash Wednesday night in Memorial Auditorium also were going two-a-day practice

Coach Jack Crawley of Odessa Permian, coach of the North, wasn't pleased at all.

"We've got to improve," he fumed. "We can't get any worse. The kids were tired and sore. It might be partly our (coaches) fault. We might be trying to load them down too much."

Larry Smith of Dallas Jefferson was the only player "looking pretty good in spots."

On the other hand Coach Bobby Roberts of San Antonio Lee, coach of the South, was pretty well impressed with his workouts. He had a tall team shaping up as the No. 1 unit—Ken Spain, 6-8, of Houston Austin; Lynn Phillips, 6-6, of Houston Jones; Rox Goodwine, 6-1, of San Marcos; Copie Perry, 6-2, of Rockdale, and Sonny Benefield, 6-1, of Sweeny.

Roberts said Phillips, Perry and Goodwine were showing exceptional adeptness at shooting.

Browns, All-Stars To Meet Friday

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago becomes the nation's sport center this week with Friday night's 32nd annual College All-Start Football Game in Soldier Field highlighting festivities.

The Cleveland Browns, champions of the National Football League, will provide the collegians with more than formidable opposition in the midsummer gridiron classic.

long before the kickoff, sports editors and football writers from throughout the nation will convene for a hectic schedule of meetings and gatherings.

Football will not be the only sports activity on the agenda. Three big stakes races are scheduled at Arlington Park, with Darby Dan Farm's highly touted 2-year-old Graustark making his stakes debut in Friday's $50,000-added Arch Ward Stakes' named for the late sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, who originated the All-Star Game.

Tom Rolfe, winner of the Preakness, will be favored in the $100,000-added Chicagoan Saturday.

Then there's the Western Junior Girls Golf Tournament in suburban Lake Forest. And the Chicago White Sox will be

Texans Fare Well In Frontier Day Rodeo

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — Texans won two of the events at the final performance of the Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo.

Jim Prather of Clairemont, Tex., roped a steer in 22.9 seconds to take top money with a three-day total of 65.9.

Bud Smith of Del Rio and Jack Burkholder of San Antonio tied for first in calf roping. Each wrapped handled three calves in a total time of 50 seconds.

Cornell won the first Intercollegiate Rowing Association championship in 1895.

home. Vice President Hubert Humphrey will arrive Friday to be the principal speaker at the main meeting of the Football Writers Association of America the day of the game.

The game again will find the Browns heavily favored. But the All-Stars are capable of pulling surprises, as they have in the past.

Coach Otto Graham has some excellent talent, especially when it comes to passing. Football's Chicago Bears down 10-7 at most potent two-pronged offense the half. But a series of defensive miscues in the second half resulted in a 20-17 Bear triumph.

At his disposal are such quarterbacks as Roger Staubach of Navy, John Huarte of Notre Dame and Craig Morton of California.

On the receiving end will be Fred Biletnikoff of Florida State, Jack Snow of Notre Dame and Bob Hayes of Florida A&M to name a few.

In past games, the All-Stars have come up with sufficient punch much of the time. Their ground game has proved against the pro passing attack.

United States Dazed Over Track Loss To Russians

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

KIEV, U.S.S.R. (AP) — A dazed U.S. track and field team licked its wounds today from its worst debacle ever in international competition — a loss to the Russians — and asked: "How did it happen?"

Were the Yanks too complacent and over-confident, as suggested by Russian Coach Gabriel Korobkov and seconded by high-ranking U.S. officials?

Did many of their stars wear themselves out in a month of campaigning on the continent prior to the seventh annual U.S.-Soviet meet Saturday and Sunday in this picturesque capital of the Ukraine?

Or was it simply a case of bad luck — mushrooming injuries that felled some of the best of the American athletes in the midst of the crucial meet?

The Russians scored a sweep, winning both the men's and women's competition for the first time since the series was started in 1958. It marked the first time American men track and field stars had ever lost a meet of this kind.

Scoring upsets in such American specialities as the pole vault and sprint relay and winning the 5,000 and 10000-meter runs, in which the United States had Olympic champions, the Soviet team beat out the U.S. men 118-112 and won for the seventh time from the women, as expected, 65½-45½.

It wasn't a complete disappointment from the American standpoint.

Wyomia Tyus of Griffin, Ga., established herself as the fastest woman runner in the world by winning the 100 meters in world record-tying time of 11.1 seconds, coming from far behind to spearhead a victory in the 400-meter relay and then finishing second Sunday in the 200 meters behind Edith McGuire.

A 15-year-old doll of a schoolgirl named Marie Mulder of North Highlands, Calif., had even the Russians cheering for in the 800 meters with the fastest time ever recorded by an American woman — 2 minutes 7.3 seconds.

In the men's division, Ollan Gassell of Nutley, N.J., emerged as a giant by winning the 400 meters and then stealing the 1600-meter relay out from under the noses of the Russians with a come-fromg-behind anchor leg. Big Randy Matson of Pampa, Tex., awed the Russians with a 66 foot, 6½ inch shot put; six-foot-seven Dave Weill captured the discus with 192 feet, 5 inches and Jim Grelle, who won the 1,500 meter it again with a meet record of 3:39.2.

Redlegs Win No. 12 Against Merkel Team

The Snyder Redlegs downed the Merkel Texans 3-2 for their 12th straight victory Sunday afternoon in North Park.

It took the Redlegs ten innings to do it, but the win came in the bottom of the tenth. Joe Rosas singled and stole second base. Cele Hernandez followed with a single scoring Rosas and ending the game.

The Redlegs scored two runs in the third inning, and led the entire contest until the Texans finally scored two runs in the top of the ninth inning. The Texans scored their two runs on two singles and a Redleg error.

The Redlegs now own a 15-4 season record, and will meet an Odessa team Sunday at 1:30 p.m. in quest for 13th straight win.

Nicklaus Is Thunderbird Golf Champ

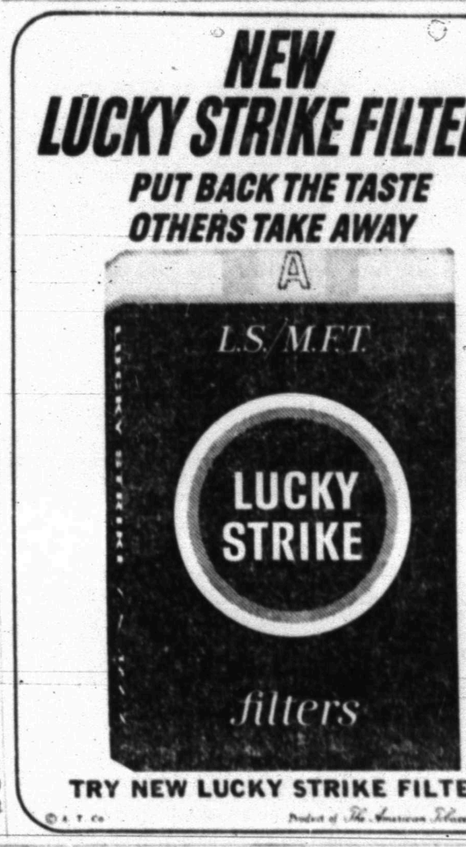

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, the mighty belter from Ohio, edged South Africa's Gary Player in their down-to-the-wire duel Sunday for $20,000 top money in the Thunderbird Golf Classic. He clinched the victory with a pair of precise shots that led to birdies on the final two holes.

Nicklaus fired his fourth successive sub-70 round over the Westchester Country Club's compact west course — a four-under-par 68. That, along with earlier rounds of 67, 66 and 69, gave him a 72-hole of 270 and a two-stroke margin over Player, who posted a 71.

Nicklaus, who repeatedly drove the greens with his explosive tee shots and whipped his long irons for phenomenal yardage, boosted his leading money-winning total for the year to $89,700. He won the Memphis Open, in addition to the Masters, and has been in the first five in 12 of his 15 tourneys this year.

Player earned $12,000 for second, while Gardner Dickinson, who zoomed into third at 275 with a 67 over Westchester's well-tailored 6,573-yard layout, won $6,000. Next came Bobby Nichols with a 68 for 276.

Billy Casper soared to a 74 after being in prime contention and finished at 277. Arnold Palmer improved to a 69, tying for 11th at 280, and Tony Lema, who won $20,000 as Thunderbird champion last year, managed a $511 paycheck for a 285.

Ike Calls For Support Of Viet Policy

MINOCQUA, Wis. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has expressed disappointment with the United Nations' position on South Viet Nam.

"I am disappointed that the United Nations has not shown the initiative to get the facts and marshal world opinion behind South Viet Nam's fight for life," he said.

Eisenhower, winding up a Wisconsin vacation Sunday, called for support of President Johnson's policies in the Viet Nam conflict.

The former president said the White House has facts not available to the public, adding:

"It is futile and difficult for the private citizen to talk about what should be done in Viet Nam to develop opposition in times of crisis is to split the country."

Eisenhower made the comments to a newsman as he and his wife left nearby Woodruff by private railroad car to return to Gettysburg, Pa., after a 13-day vacation in the Northern Wisconsin lakes region.

A crowd of about 200 turned out in cold and rainy weather for the departure. The former president said, "I hope people come to see me because I was square with them as president and kept the country prosperous and at peace. I'm glad they did not throw rocks."

The vacationing has dwindled since the Minocqua visit. Paul Schaal, a rookie third baseman with the Los Angeles Angels, played Little League, Pony League, Babe Ruth League and Connie Mack League baseball before World War II. He stayed at the private estate of New York art dealer Howard Young.

"I had a wonderful time loafing, shooting and fishing," he said, adding he caught nearly the limit of bass in each of four outings.

Asked if he would return in 1966, Eisenhower, 74, replied, "I can't predict a year ahead. At my age you can't plan that far away."

Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, hold, manage, purchase, sell, assign, trade, transfer, and dispose of any securities, evidences of debt, and other investments in which said securities, moneys, and assets have been or may hereafter be invested by said Board. Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to invest and reinvest any of said moneys, securities, and assets, as well as the proceeds of any of such investments, in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued, or assumed or guaranteed in whole or in part, by the United States or any agency of the United States, or by the State of Texas, or by any county, city, school district, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas, both general and special obligations; or in home office facilities to be used in administering the Teacher Retirement System including land, equipment, and office building; or in such corporation bonds, notes, other evidences of indebtedness, and corporation stocks, including common and preferred stocks, of any corporation created or existing under the laws of the United States or of any of the states of the United States, as said Board may deem to be proper investments; provided that in making each and all of such investments said Board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as probable safety of their capital; and further provided, that a sufficient sum shall be kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under such retirement plan, as may now or hereafter be provided by law. Unless investments authorized herein are hereafter further restricted by an Act of the Legislature, no more than one per cent (1%) of the book value of the total assets of the Teacher Retirement System shall be invested in the stock of any one (1) corporation, nor shall more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; and provided further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid cash dividends for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors; and provided further, that so long as less than $500,000,000 of said Fund is invested in the government and municipal securities enumerated above, not more than thirty-three and one-third per cent (33⅓%) of the Fund shall be invested at any given time in common stocks. This Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall become effective immediately upon its adoption without any enabling legislation. This Section shall not alter, amend or repeal the first paragraph of Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas as amended November 6, 1956, or any legislation passed pursuant thereto, except insofar as the provisions of the second paragraph of Section 48a and any legislation passed pursuant thereto, may limit or restrict the provisions hereof and only to the extent of such limitation or restriction."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on November 2, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment amending Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding Section 48b relating to the Teacher Retirement Fund and the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, revising provisions for investment of moneys and other assets of the Fund, and changing other existing provisions and making other new provisions with respect to the administration of the Teacher Retirement System."

Sec. 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary Proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 24 proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas by amending Article VII, Section 17, providing a method of payment for the acquiring, constructing and equipping of buildings and other permanent improvements at certain state institutions of higher learning; providing for allocation of funds therefor; authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes and the pledging of allotted funds for the payment of same; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 17 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven Cents (7¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article III, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two Cents (2¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the continuing payment of Confederate pensions as provided under Section 51, Article III, and for the establishment and continued maintenance of the State Building Fund as provided in Section 51b, Article III, of the Constitution.

"Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Ten Cents (10¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning provided that none of the proceeds of this tax shall be used for auxiliary enterprises; and the governing board of each such institution of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed four per cent (4%) per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise in not more than ten (10) years; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty Cents (30¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

"The following state institutions then in existence shall be eligible to receive funds raised from said Ten Cent (10¢) tax levy for the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, and for the succeeding ten-year period:

Arlington State College at Arlington
Texas Technological College at Lubbock
North Texas State University at Denton
Lamar State College of Technology at Beaumont

Texas Woman's University at Denton
Texas Southern University at Houston
Midwestern University at Wichita Falls

East Texas State College at Commerce
Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville
Southwest Texas State College at San Marcos
West Texas State University at Canyon
Stephen F. Austin State College at Nacogdoches

Angelo State College at San Angelo.

"Eighty-five per cent (85%) of such funds shall be allocated by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas on June 1, 1966, and fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds shall be allocated by said Comptroller on June 1, 1972, based on the following determinations:

"(1) Ninety per cent (90%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966, shall be allocated to state institutions based on projected enrollment increases published by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System for fall 1966 to fall 1978.

"(2) Ten per cent (10%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966 shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on the number of additional square feet needed in educational and general facilities by such eligible state institution to meet the average square feet per full time equivalent student of all state senior institutions (currently numbering twenty-two).

"(3) All of the funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on determinations used in the June 1, 1966, allocations except that the allocations of fifty per cent (50%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on projected enrollment increases for fall 1972 to fall 1978, and fifty per cent (50%) of such funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities.

"Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be derived from said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax for said ten-year period and not later than June first of the sixth year of each succeeding ten-year period said Comptroller shall reallocate fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds to the eligible state institutions then in existence based on determinations for the said ten-year period that are similar to the determinations used in allocating funds during the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, except that enrollment projections for succeeding ten-year periods will be from the fall semester of the first year to the fall semester of the tenth year. All such designated institutions of higher learning shall not thereafter receive any general revenue funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to replace the uninsured loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of any General Revenue Funds. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall draw all necessary and proper warrants upon the State Treasury in order to carry out the purpose of this Amendment, and the State Treasurer shall pay warrants so issued out of the special fund hereby created for said purpose. This Amendment shall be self-enacting. It shall become operative or effective upon its adoption so as to supersede and repeal the former provisions of this Section; provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed as impairing the obligation incurred by any outstanding notes or bonds heretofore issued by any state institution of higher learning under this Section prior to the adoption of this Amendment but such notes or bonds shall be paid, both as to principal and interest, from the fund as allocated to any such institution.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 57 proposing an Amendment to Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding to said Section as presently written, the following provisions: requiring automatic retirement of certain District and Appellate Judges at age seventy-five (75) or such earlier age, not under seventy (70), as may be provided by law; creating a State Judicial Qualifications Commission and providing for its composition and the qualifications, methods of selection and terms of office of its members; defining the functions and procedures of said Commission, including the duty to investigate, and hold hearings in respect of, disability and misconduct of District and Appellate Judges and to make recommendations to the Supreme Court of Texas for involuntary retirement or removal of such Judges; empowering the Supreme Court of Texas, in its discretion, to retire such Judges for disability and to remove them for misconduct, upon recommendation of the aforesaid Commission and consideration of the record made before it; defining misconduct for which said Judges may be so removed; providing that the proceedings of said Commission shall be confidential until filed in the Supreme Court with recommendation for retirement or removal; and providing that the removal provisions hereby established shall be alternative to and cumulative of those provided elsewhere in the Constitution.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so that said Section shall hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1-a. (1) Subject to the further provisions of this Section, the Legislature shall provide for the retirement and compensation of Justices and Judges of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts on account of length of service, age and disability, and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed. The office of every such Justice and Judge shall become vacant when the incumbent reaches the age of seventy-five (75) years or such earlier age, not less than seventy (70) years, as the Legislature may prescribe; but, in the case of an incumbent whose term of office includes the effective date of this Amendment, this provision shall not prevent him from serving the remainder of said term nor be applicable to him before his period or periods of judicial service shall have reached a total of ten (10) years.

"(2) There is hereby created the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, to consist of nine (9) members, to wit: (i) two (2) Justices of Courts of Civil Appeals; (ii) two (2) District Judges; (iii) two (2) members of the State Bar, who have respectively practiced as such for over ten (10) consecutive years next preceding their selection; (iiii) three (3) citizens, at least thirty (30) years of age, not licensed to practice law nor holding any salaried public office or employment; provided that no person shall be or remain a member of the Commission, who does not maintain physical residence within this State, or who resides in, or holds a judgeship within or for, the same Supreme Judicial District as another member of the Commission, or who shall have ceased to retain the qualifications above specified for his respective class of membership. Commissioners of classes (i) and (ii) above shall be chosen by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, those of class (iii) by the Board of Directors of the State Bar under regulations to be prescribed by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, and those of class (iiii) by appointment of the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate.

"(3) The regular term of office of Commissioners shall be six (6) years; but the initial members of each of classes (i), (ii) and (iii) shall respectively be chosen for terms of four (4) and six (6) years, and the initial members of class (iii) for respective terms of two (2), four (4) and six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. Commissioners may succeed themselves in office only if having served less than three (3) consecutive years.

"(4) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services as such. The Legislature shall provide for the payment of the necessary expense for the operation of the Commission.

"(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement or removal of Justices or Judges shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

"(6) Any Justice or Judge within the scope of this Section 1-a may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any such Justice or Judge may be involuntarily retired for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

"(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to misconduct or disability of particular Justices or Judges, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

"(8) The Commission may, after such investigation as it deems necessary, order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal or retirement of a Justice or Judge, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefore, it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal or retirement, as the case may be, of the Justice or Judge in question and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

"(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order removal or retirement, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

"(10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission, Master or the Supreme Court shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character.

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any judge against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the judge in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

"(12) No Justice or Judge shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

"(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to, and cumulative of, the methods of removal of Justices and Judges provided elsewhere in this Constitution."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commmssion, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability.

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election, and this Amendment shall be published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding a new Section to read as follows:

"Section 50b. STUDENT LOANS. (a) The Legislature may provide that the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Eighty-five Million Dollars ($85,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called 'Texas College Student Loan Bonds,' shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purposes of this Section.

"(b) All moneys received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund to be administered by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors to make loans to students who have been admitted to attend any institution of higher education within the State of Texas, public or private, including Junior Colleges, which are recognized or accredited under terms and conditions prescribed by the Legislature, and to pay interest and principal on such bonds and provide a sinking fund therefor under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe.

"(c) While any of the bonds, or interest on said bonds authorized by this Section is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

"(d) The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund, and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature.

"(e) All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under this Constitution.

"(f) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such acts shall not be void because of their anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for loans to students at institutions of higher education to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan.

LBJ Attempts To Bolster Fortunes Of King Cotton

By OVID A. MARTIN
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson Administration is making what might well be called an 11th-hour attempt to regain the sagging fortunes in America's cotton — once the king of crops.

Those fortunes are at a low level, perhaps at the lowest point in the long history of a fiber crop which once ruled the world markets. What has happened has been an eroding of U.S. cotton markets at home and abroad by rapidly expanding foreign cotton and man-made fibers.

Cotton's present plight — described by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman as "serious" — has grown largely out of government cotton programs. These programs, over the years, have supported U.S. cotton prices at levels which encouraged expanded acreages abroad and the development of a highly competitive synthetic fiber industry here and in other countries — particularly Europe.

U.S. government leaders would be the last to deny this. Records show that since the government started placing a floor under cotton prices in the 1930s, the cotton acreage has increased in other parts of the world with an ensuing decline in this country's percentage of the export market. Of course, there have been some years when crops were short in other parts of the world, and U.S. sales overseas increased. But the trend has been downward.

Freeman agrees that the United States is not getting what the government considers this country's fair share of the world cotton market.

At home, cotton's share in the manufacture of textiles has declined sharply, giving way to rayon, nylon and other man-made fibers.

But farm officials contend that there has been little choice in the matter of supporting cotton prices, at levels which reduce cotton's competitiveness. Such prices have been necessary, they contend, to assure growers an income that would keep them in production.

They say that had cotton been priced over the years at competitive world levels, cotton production would have declined with a consequent loss in markets equal to if not larger than the losses sustained under the price support operations.

Farm officials say American farmers need a higher price than most foreign producers because of higher production costs, based on this country's higher living and price standards.

But some farm leaders disagree with this official position. They argue that the government has held cotton prices at levels high enough to keep marginal and even highly inefficient growers in production while at the same time placing production restrictions on the most efficient producers who could have grown and sold cotton at considerably lower prices — prices which would have helped hold foreign and domestic markets.

In recent years, the government has sought, with a minimum of success, to offset this price disadvantage by offering subsidies on cotton sold abroad. The subsidy payments go to exporters so they can pay the higher U.S. prices and sell broad at what is considered competitive world prices. But to a considerable extent, these subsidies have been offset by reductions in prices of competitive cotton which have kept them just a little below the new U.S. export prices.

This cut-rate price on cotton sold abroad brought protests from U.S. cotton mills that they could not compete with foreign mills getting U.S. cotton at reduced prices. Consequently the government last year set up a new cotton program making payments to mills as well as to exporters under a plan designed to offset the export subsidies.

In signing legislation to put this broad price reduction — described it as action which was "full of comon sense and hope."

Yet, 15 months later, the administration is before Congress appealing for new legislation. It says that the cotton situation has deteriorated rather than improved under the 1964 legislation.

A new bill approved by the House Agriculture Committee would provide for a further reduction in prices at which cotton would be sold to foreign and domestic users. Growers would get much lower prices for their cotton, but their returns would be supplemented by government income payments.

Freeman has said that the purpose of this new legislation — which has much opposition within the cotton industry — is intended to help roll back production abroad and synthetic fibers at home. In other words, the measure would go a little further than heretofore in a price-cutting effort to push U.S. cotton competition aside.

A big question being raised is, will this work any better than previous efforts? Is it possible that this country has held the price umbrella over world cotton too long — that is, long enough for competition to get well enough established to maintain itself against any new U.S. onslaughts?

Other questions being asked include:

Are we not in danger of alienating some friends abroad by our proposed efforts to halt, if not push back, their expansions in cotton production — expansions which this country, whether it intended or not to do so, encouraged?

By using tax funds to support this new plan to regain lost cotton markets at home, is not the government using taxes paid by the man-made fiber industries to help cotton undermine those same industries?

Yet, if cotton production is not to be maintained, the government will face a new problem of what to do about those farmers forced out of the production of the fiber crop.

Tall Beauty Reigns As Miss Texas

FORT WORTH (AP)— Mary Lou Butler, who stands 5-feet-8, is perhaps the tallest girl ever to reign as Miss Texas.

Officials say she's taller by an inch than any other winner since 1959, and perhaps in the history of the Miss Texas Pageant.

After capturing the crown Saturday night, she said:

"I was going to try to win. But if I didn't—well, it's just one of those breaks in life."

"That's also the way she feels about the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City next month. She will represent Texas.

Miss Butler, 18, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Butler of Irving. She was a student at Stephen F. Austin College last year and competed in the Texas pageant as Miss Nacogdoches.

She has blue eyes and brown hair, and her measurements are 37½-25-37½.

For her talent number she sang "Summertime" in a voice some described as husky and sultry. She hopes to become a professional singer.

"If it hadn't been for my sisters, my family and the good Lord, I couldn't have made it," she said.

As the new Miss Texas she won a $1,000 scholarship, a $2,000 wardrobe, a contract with Fort Worth's Casa Manana Musicals and other prizes.

Marion Wilkinson, 21, competing as Miss Fort Worth, was first runnerup. Tanda Jo Taylor, 18, Miss Abilene, was second runnerup.

NEW PHARMACIST AT SNYDER DRUGS—Eddie Peterson has joined the staff of pharmacists at Snyder Drugs. Peterson, who was reared at Lamesa, came here from Breckenridge, where he had been employed with a drug store.

New Pharmacist At Snyder Drugs

A new pharmacist has joined the staff at Snyder Drugs, located on the Big Spring Highway just north of Thirty-seventh Street.

He is Eddie Peterson, who moved here some two weeks ago to join the local firm that has served the Snyder area for two decades.

Peterson has sort of grown up in the drug business. His father owns a drug store at Lamesa. Peterson is a graduate of Lamesa High School and received his degree in pharmacy at Southwestern State College in Weatherford, Okla.

Before coming to Snyder, Peterson was employed by a drug store at Breckenridge.

His wife, Nancy, also is a graduate of Southwestern State College with a degree in secondary education. They have two sons, Clay 5 and Casey 3 months. The family lives at 2402 Forty-first Street, and they are members of the Church of Christ. Peterson also is a member of the Jaycees.

In coming to Snyder, Peterson joined one of the best known business firms in this region.

The pharmacy, of course, is under the personal supervision of R. E. Patterson, the owner of the store.

However, Snyder Drugs provides many more services. The firm has long been noted as a gift headquarters, with top brands of merchandise featured, ranging from costume jewelry to baby supplies to small electrical appliances to cosmetics. In fact, the cosmetic lines are among the most extensive in West Texas.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: You are so ridiculously prejudiced in favor of the men that it gets quite nauseating at times. A man practically has to beat his wife to death before you will condemn him.

A woman wrote to ask if it was "stealing" to pick her husband's pants pockets while he slept, and you said it was!

As usual, you lit into the wife, completely ignoring the sin of her stingy husband, who gave her so little she had to steal to make ends meet.

When my husband and I had pre-marital instructions, our minister told us that money was community property between husband and wife, to be shared equally. Now, I ask you, how can anyone "steal" a portion of what is hers in the first place? Just because the husband gets his greedy fingers on the money first is no reason for HIM to steal HER share.

I hope your attitude improves in the future.

"HOT IN THE SOUTH"

DEAR ABBY: I have always suspected that you hated men. Now I'm positive.

A poor, neglected husband asked you what to do about a wife who has to spend every day with her mother or else talk to her for hours on the phone. You told him he married a "mamma's girl" and to learn to live with it. A lot of good that did him.

Why didn't you tell him he ought to give his wife a good hard boot in the bustle and tell her to stay home and act like a wife? And if that didn't knock some sense into her, pack her up and send her home to her mother?

DEAR ABBY: Why, oh, why do people get dogs, tie them up and let them bark from sun-up until sundown? I can't get any rest in the afternoon because the dogs bark. I can't sit out in the yard and enjoy the cool of the evening because the dogs bark. When I go to bed at night, I can't sleep because the dogs bark louder than ever. What am I to do? I am not a well man, and I'm

NO SPRING CHICKEN

DEAR NO: If you know the owners of the barking dogs, complain to them directly. If the barking persists, call your local police department or sheriff's office. I don't know what the law enforcers of your community can (or will) do about it, but it's their job to maintain the "peace."

DEAR ABBY: My sister-in-law lives with me and she gets her mail here. Last week she received a letter. My three-year-old son tore the envelope half-way open, took the letter out and handed it to me. I was as surprised as anyone could be. I quickly put the letter back into the envelope and sealed it up again as best I could. Anyone could tell at a glance that the envelope had been torn open and resealed. When my sister-in-law came home and saw that letter, she gave me the funniest look, but she didn't say anything.

I didn't say anything, either, because I don't think she would have believed me anyway.

How can I make things right with her? Or is it too late? I feel so guilty and yet I have nothing to feel guilty about. Please advise me.

DEAR J. Y.: Tell your sister-in-law exactly what happened and try to clear the air. If she doesn't believe you, you'll be no worse off than you are now.

CORE Preparing To Enter Arena Of National Politics

By AUSTIN SCOTT

NEW YORK (AP) — The Congress of Racial Equality, whose name has been synonymous with direct-action sit-ins, boycotts, protest marches and picket lines, is preparing to step into the political arena.

"We must be prepared," says CORE National Director James Farmer, "to put up candidates for nomination and to endorse or oppose candidates for election."

The decision marks a radical policy change for the 21-year-old CORE, which just six years ago amended its bylaws to prevent any of its chapters from participating in a political campaign.

"The old way," Farmer has said, "won us the right to eat hamburgers at lunch counters and is winning us the right to vote, but has not basically affected the life of the average Negro."

The "new direction," as Farmer calls it, will back up the direct action tactics with political pressure. Demonstrations that are not backed up by political "muscle" yield "only diminishing returns," Farmer says.

This new direction was very much in evidence at CORE's national convention, held early this month in Durham, N.C., where delegates rescinded the ban on political activity and adopted resolutions which a spokesman said:

"Affirmed the fact that the direction of the organization would be that of action in the political arena."

This, the spokesman said, will include more "freedom Democratic movements" in northern urban areas like Brooklyn, where the FDM is sponsoring a Negro candidate for a seat on the New York City Council.

It will also mean more intensive efforts to organize Negro communities around local issues, including supporting or opposing political candidates.

And, the spokesman said, CORE hopes to create more store front community centers, north and south, where Negroes can find legal advice, job placement services, and "immediate redress of grievances on a number of levels."

CORE officials point out that they are not stopping their direct-action campaigns. They simply have to back up these protests more effectively.

"We can no longer rely on pressuring and cajoling political units toward desired actions," Farmer says. "We must be in a position of power, a position to change these political units when they are not responsive."

"We have won amazing successes without political muscle. This does not indicate strength. It merely shows what CORE can accomplish in spite of weakness, and thus shows how much more could be done if we had the political power."

Reserves Preparing For Call-Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Deputy Secretary of Defense Cyrus R. Vance said today the Pentagon is undertaking special measures to increase the readiness of certain reserve units in case a call-up should become necessary.

Vance told a House Armed Services subcommittee that three Army Reserve divisions, six independent brigades and certain combat and service support units would get the special attention.

The subcommittee is investigating the Pentagon plan to reorganize the Army's Reserves.

Two weeks ago, when a call-up of some Reserves appeared imminent because of the situation in Viet Nam, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said there was no contradiction between a callup and a further reorganization of the reserves and guard "to increase combat readiness of remaining units."
