REV. MURRELL CONDUCTS LIONS MENTAL TESTS

Educational Program Brings Out Many New Ideas And Latent Features

Upon assembling for their luncheon Tuesday noon, members of the Lions Club were asked to name their favorite football squad by way of answering roll call. It is said that the Bronchos received the majority of backers, strange as this may seem, several of them foregoing a compliment to their Alma Maters.

H. T. Burton announced the impending game between the Bronchos and Quitaque team Friday afternoon of this week.

Rev. Murrell took charge of the assembly in conducting a "Lion's Educational Test" in which A. L. Chase was given the subject of "Why I Wanted an Education." He is said to have spoken in a manner that implied a greater necessity for the missing faculty than is commonly found in the average individual.

J. R. Porter was more fortunate at the hands of his Presiding Elder by reason of being a church officer, and was forced to discuss the subject of "What I did with mine", meaning his education.

Other members gave him no little credit for several bright remarks, among them that of asking each business man present to rise and state his "most outstanding development" in his line this past year.

W. H. Patrick brought cheer and encouragement by illustrating how two and a half million dollars was transferred from Texas to Wall street and back again in just seven minutes. The fact that it "went" was no mystery, but just how it got "back" has been a mystery to several since, and will no doubt call for further educational training.

There being no further developments, adjournment was had by singing America.

Mrs. J. T. King, who has been visiting her son, county attorney R. Y. King and wife, left the last of the week to visit relatives in Ft. Worth. Her home is at Taiban, New Mexico.

WATERFOWL GUN SEASON TO COVER ONLY ONE MONTH

Short Season Applies to All Sections of United States By Proclamation

According to information supplied the Leader by W. A. Clark, Jr., deputy U. S. Game Warden, the season for shooting ducks, geese, brant and coots in this state this fall will be from November 16 to December 15.

This hunting season has been reduced to one month over all the States and Alaska, and has become necessary because of the drought over waterfowl breeding grounds the past two years.

This statement is being printed at this time as a warning by request of the Biological Survey. Waterfowl are already coming to the Panhandle on the way to winter quarters. Northwest Texas is a favorite stopping place for an indefinite period. Lake Pauline is giving shelter to thousands of birds at this time.

Lakes on the north plains since the recent rains have been covered with a variety of waterfowl. Game wardens have been asked to be especially active that the new ruling be respected and that waterfowl be permitted to replenish.

Wife of Hall County Officer Buried There Monday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Alexander, wife of sheriff John Alexander of Memphis, was conducted at the Methodist church there at 3 p. m. Monday by the pastor, E. E. Robinson.

Roy Alexander and Mrs. Lee Pheland of Hedley are two of the ten surviving children.

Sheriff John Alexander is said to be seriously ill at this time suffering from an affection of the kidneys.

Carl Peabody is Injured By Torch Explosion

While making repairs to a tractor radiator with a blow torch Monday morning, Carl Peabody suffered severe burns to his hands and arms when the blow torch exploded.

The accident happened near the Dozier place. Mrs. R. S. Moss brought the wounded man to the office of a doctor here where prompt medical attention avoided further misery.

Peabody is in the employ of the County, operating one of the tractors on highway work. He is unable to return to work because of severe burns on his right hand and arm, and will be on an enforced vacation for several days.

Methodist Will Celebrate Birthday Aged Minister

Next Sunday afternoon a number of acquaintances and a large number of friends are expected to gather at the Methodist church to fittingly observe the 79th birthday of Rev. C. B. Ingram.

No set program has been planned so far as announcement, but a number of people are expected to speak on the achievements and life's work of the venerable minister.

Bert Hall Begins Twenty Year Sentence

After being convicted of complicity in the Richey murder at Hedley some three years ago, Bert Hall was taken to the state prison at Huntsville the past week leaving in charge of Bud Russell's "one way" truck Thursday.

Hall has spent about three years in jails at Wellington, Memphis and Clarendon. It is stated by local officers that Hall was anxious to get away from jail life, though he made no effort to escape in the recent jail break here.

Joe Dunwoody, also convicted on the same charge, began a 99 year sentence several months ago. Jim Brown, who turned states evidence in the case, and who is said to have been credited with the evidence that convicted the others, was given his freedom three months ago. The fourth man in the case was never captured.

BAND BOYS ARE MAKING A RECORD DUE TO TRAINING

Are Acclaimed as Best When Several Bands Exhibit Skill at Big Fair

Visitors to the Tri-State fair from other sections declared the Clarendon band to have been the best trained when the band exhibited samples of their skill while parading the streets of Amarillo on Donley county day Thursday.

After parading the streets, the band was taken to the Fair grounds and there played in each of the buildings to large and enthusiastic crowds. The band played before the grand stand by special invitation before the rodeo events began that afternoon.

At five o'clock, the Clarendon band broadcasted a program over WDAG. The quality of the music was such that the band was asked to consume an extra fifteen minutes giving them a broadcasting period of thirty-five minutes instead of twenty as was originally planned by the management.

The band will play for the football folks here Friday of this week when Quitaque comes to play the Bronchos.

A free concert will be given the general public Sunday afternoon of this week beginning at 3 p. m. The program broadcasted at Amarillo will be given at this concert hour. The public is cordially invited by the band leader, Gus B. Stevenson, to be present and enjoy the program which will be given in the open air.

Reporter on Chicago Tribune Visits Relatives Here

Chesley L. Manley, brother of Mrs. Allan J. Bryan and who was a student of old Clarendon College several years ago, again visited Clarendon spending the week end here. Since leaving here he has been reporting on a number of the leading dailies of the Northwest and at Milwaukee.

He had spent some time with his mother and sisters at Post City by way of taking his vacation from his duties as a reporter on the Chicago Tribune.

He reported one of the Capone investigations out of several, and will likely be assigned the job when Capone is brought to trial. He is of the opinion that federal judge Wilkerson will stand pat for law and order, and that Capone will receive a sentence.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson of Clovis and Mrs. Dick Hughes of Pampa are here this week to be with their sister, Miss Mae Bennett, who is ill.

Mrs. Maude Bryan and Children, Emma Eva and Milton of near Claude, visited her sister, Mrs. Eva Humphrey and family here over the week end.

GIRL OF TWELVE WINS FREE TRIP TO STATE FAIR

Seventh Grade Pupil of Lelia Lake School Wins Honors 4-H Club Work

Wishing to learn something about subjects not included in her public school work led Bernice Self to join the 4-H club at Lelia in January of this year. She became interested in several phases of club work in each instance proving herself a worthy pupil reflecting credit upon her efforts in several different projects.

Gardening was chosen as her productive work. The fact that sandstorms compelled her to plant the third time, did not dampen her ardor for winning. Her canned vegetables won fourth place at the Tri-State fair at Amarillo. She has canned 210 quarts of vegetables for home use besides her exhibit at the fair, and three quarts of chicken in testing her skill with meats, choosing the variety most difficult to keep after canning.

Sewing is an important item on the schedule of 4-H club girls. In fact she likes that work best. She made the most attractive apron and cap in the county besides a number of garments for home use, and won first place, on cap and apron at the fair last week. She also won first on pillow cases and received $13 in prize money for her efforts.

Her reward for having done the best work in the county entitles her to a free trip to the Dallas

LELIA GINER IS BADLY INJURED LATE THURSDAY

Several Bones Are Broken When He Attempts Belt Replacement

B. D. (Del) Losson, an employee of the Smith Brothers gin at Lelia Lake narrowly escaped death late Thursday evening when he was hurled and thrown to the cement floor while attempting to replace a belt.

Other workmen rescued the injured man who was rushed to Adair hospital here where a surgeon discovered that his arm had been broken in two places, two fractures of the jaw, a broken nose, flesh torn from his hand and his body badly bruised and lacerated in numerous places.

His condition was critical for several hours. During the past few days Mr. Losson has shown a decided improvement and shows every evidence of a complete recovery within a reasonable length of time.

ETHICAL TALKS FEATURE PROGRAM ROTARIAN MEET

Professional Community Men And Their Values Furnish Theme For Speakers

Dr. Oscar L. Jenkins presided at the Rotary luncheon hour Friday at which time an impromptu program was presented that began by accident and grew to greater bounds until time for adjournment caused a cessation.

Dr. B. L. Jenkins discussed the so-called "eye specialist", about whom we hear through the papers as being abroad in the Panhandle at this time. The doctor pointed out the dangers of dealing with men of questionable training, and more especially strangers about whom we know nothing and can learn less.

J. C. Estlack discussed the value of the home doctor, dentist and opticians, asserting that many do not appreciate the home man in a professional way, preferring at times to wander into fields afar for services to our sorrow. He stated that the home practitioner though of equal skill, was more disposed to exhibit a more neighborly interest in his home people, and therefore take just a little more interest in the home patient's welfare.

Various committees were heard and more time extended where necessary.

The program for the luncheon hour next Friday will be in charge of the Club Service committee, the chairman announcing an extr good program for that day.

Names of Prize Winners Omitted Last Week

Due to the fact that the Leader could not secure a list of the prize winners from this county at the Tri-State fair last week, some names that should have appeared in the list were omitted by reason of this handicap.

Mrs. H. M. Reid of the Chamberlain club was awarded third prize on pickled onions.

Mrs. J. A. Toomb of the Clarendon club won third prize on watermelon rind preserves.

Mrs. Louie B. Merrell of the Ashtola club received third prize on canned spinach.

Any further omissions will be given publication promptly when brought to the attention of the Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Knox, Misses Lois Cx, Carrie Davis and Fannie Perry were fair visitors in Amarillo Saturday.

Mrs. Mack Spurgeon and children returned home this week from an extended visit in central and east Texas. She reports wonderful crops and says the people there are not taking hard times as much as they are here.

Mrs. Nora McMurtry announces that trustees of the school asking state aid should come to her office and sign application at once.

These applications will have to be mailed next Monday, October 5th, otherwise the school will be denied such aid. This matter is very important, and she insists that where trustees have not already done so, that they call at her office not later than Saturday of this week.

Ft. Smith Journalist Visits Here Over The Week

Miss Mae Keeter, proff reader and society editor of a Ft. Smith daily, arrived in Clarendon Sunday to spend a few days here with relatives. She was accompanied by her uncle, J. H. Rutherford, who had been visiting relatives at Ft. Smith and other places in the state.

Miss Keeter began her journalistic career with a small country daily at Arnett, Oklahoma some eight years ago. She has since benefitted from experience gained on the staffs of a number of dailies in Oklahoma and Arkansas, a part of that time being spent at Rogers and at Bentonville.

Drygoods Specials Reminds Us Of Old Times

Remember way back when we got a good pair of socks for a dime? Well that time has returned. The Greene drygoods company has a list of specials advertised in this issue, and among a lot of other bargains at prices of thirty years ago, socks at the rate of 10 pairs for a dollar is listed. Lisle socks at that, new stock and in a variety of colors.

And the men and boys have nothing on the women folks in this bargain list, for the ladies are being offered three pair of silk hose for a dollar. There is more material in three pair of hose perhaps, and the material is much better.

Besides these items, the list contains a lot of bargains just as cheap in price for the Friday and Saturday period. When you take advantage of the grocery specials, you can also lay in a supply of these drygoods specials.

FOXALL WINNER BI-COUNTY GOLF TOURNAMENT SUN.

Golf Tournament Season Ends With Blazing Finish Sunday On Memphis Course

Finishing with a brilliant 33 on his last round of play, Frank Foxall, Memphis ace and twice winner of the Greenbelt Championship, led a field of 51 players Sunday to win the first Donley-Hall County Golf Tournament. Foxall had trailed the veteran Bill Cooke of Clarendon until the final round of play when Cooke found trouble in sinking his puts and carded a 40 to finish in a triple tie with M. P. Gentry and Ira Merchant for second place. Gentry scored a 33 on his last round of play to gain the tie while Merchant played his usual consistent game. The tie was decided by the toss of a coin, Cooke gaining second place in the tournament and Gentry third.

The second flight also furnished close competition. W. A. Wilson, who had led the flight in the first day of play was closely pressed by M. J. Draper of Memphis until the last round when Draper found trouble all over the course and finished with a 43 while Wilson carded a 35 to win first place. In the meantime, E. E. Hickey, Hedley, played his final round in 37 to over come Draper and finish second, Draper taking third.

The third flight was won by Raney Westberry of Hedley who played a flashy brand of golf all day. Second place in this flight was won by H. A. Poole, Turkey, while Thomas Copeland, Estelline took third place.

Frank Garrett, Memphis gained the honor in the fourth flight and a fellow townsman, Buster Helm, took second place. Another Estelline entry, R. D. Alston, won third place in this flight.

The tournament was pronounced a success and all the contestants are looking forward to a bigger and better tournament next season.

Mrs. E. L. Palmer arrived home Monday after spending several weeks with relatives at Plainview.

BRONCHOS MAKE READY TO MEET QUITAQUE FRI.

Record-Breaking Crowd Is Expected to See Home Team Defend Honors

The first game of the season to be played on the home field will be played here Friday with the Quitaque eleven. From all reports and dope it seems that Quitaque has an even chance of winning this game. They have played three strong teams of this section so far and have not been beaten. They tied the score with Wellington, beat Memphis and McLean. It will be a hard game.

The Broncho mentors, Stocking and Hutton, say that the full Broncho strength will be in this game. It is essential that they win this game to continue in the race for sectional honors. Wellington is yet to be played and they might have an ace in the hole.

It has been rumored that Behren and Easterling would not be in the game but that is not a fact according to Coach Stocking. Stocking says that he does not know who he will start in the game, but that Behrens and Easterling will both be in suits ready to go in if they are needed.

Some change will probably be made in the backfield. McMahan will be back in his regular berth which was occupied by aMnn at McLean. "Board of Strategy" Benson will bark the signals from the guard position.

Henderson will call the game at the College Park at 3:30. Let's all be out backing the Bronchos.

Probable starting line-up: Backs; Captain Nicols, Reid, Andis and McMahan; ends, Martin and Behrens; tackles, Greene and Easterling; guards, Benson and E. Watson; center, Watters.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK PROCLAMATION

Whereas the Governor of Texas has set aside the week beginning October 4th as Fire Prevention Week, and has called upon the people of all sections of the country to unite in combating the "Red Menace".

Fire Losses in Clarendon in 1928 amounted to ----- $14,940.34

1929 amounted to ----- 6,698.90

1930 amounted to ----- 6,072.02

And for the coming year we would be glad to have no losses whatever. And if the citizens of Clarendon are willing to cooperate with us, we will be able to accomplish that purpose.

I, therefore take this method of calling to our people's attention that the week of October fourth to October tenth should be devoted to a measure to efforts toward reducing the fire hazards in our city, and that our schools and college should cooperate to the extent of having fire prevention lessons, demonstrations and lectures during the week and that those who are informed on fire prevention methods offer their services to the end that our people may be further educated on this subject.

If we try sincerely in this effort, we will not only save property and life but will reduce our local fire rate.

Phantom Ideas.

Upon closer inspection, that Legion beer lake may turn out to be merely a "mirage" after all.

Inside Information.

The fellow who got sore at what we said about him last week, should be thankful for what we knew about him and did not publish this week.

In Civilization.

A man in Ottawa, Illinois broke a window and took a loaf of bread to feed his hungry family. He received a sentence of fourteen years in the penitentiary on a charge of stealing.

In a Texas town a bank employee was convicted recently of embezzling over sixty thousand dollars, and was given a federal prison sentence of less than two years.

Passing The Buck.

Over at McLean when the folks get up against anything that looks like an impossibility, they elect Editor T. A. Landers to head the organization that is supposed to lead them to victory.

For the 'steenth time he was elected president of their Chamber of Commerce just last week to succeed one who had resigned. Every one is back on the job again with every assurance that Landers will lead them to victory—he always has in times past.

Why Blame Hoover?

A clipping from the Claude News appears under the heading "Why Blame Hoover" is reprinted in this issue of the Leader because of the pertinent facts Editor Waggoner brings out.

While we do not think Hoover is altogether to blame, we do think that Mellon is "all" to blame and Hoover is Mellon's president. Read the article. We will vouch for the fact that Roosevelt stopped the game in 1907 because the writer was right in the big middle of it.

Dickens of a Note.

Down in Dickens county, those in authority have announced that persons guilty of vagrancy will be put on the county roads if the fines are not paid in cash.

Another paragraph of the notice reads: "White persons found in the negro section of Spur at unusual hours may be charged with vagrancy."

Vagrants and loafers are in for a hard winter in the land of Dickens. Citizens have used every reasonable effort to help adicts of both classes to become respectable citizens. If all other means fail, the road work will begin.

If Dickens county can work her roads with labor in lieu of cash fine payments, Donley county can do the same thing. Either Dickens county is all wrong, or the taxpayers of Donley county ought to have some more relief than they have been getting.

From Consolidations.

We take it that the consolidation of the West Texas, Heart o' Texas and Panhandle press associations is desired at this time to attempt to accomplish what the State and Regional associations have failed to accomplish to date.

It appears that necessity demands the effort.

If such a consolidation means a consolidation audit, market surveys and research work, we are heartily in favor of the proposed change.

Radio stations, daily papers, small concerns, radio advertising agencies and even advertising firms have been making surveys of the market in the weekly papers

Often in the same town where the small daily is published, a live weekly or semi-weekly has four times the circulation of the small daily but gets nothing but a membership card and a yearly convention privilege simply because the publication has no representation.

Newspapers like all other industries, are going through a transition stage never before known in the history of our nation. The time is ripe to take advantage of opportunities. To continue sleeping under the delusion that Franklin was right when he said, "keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee", means disaster.

Thousands of dollars are invested in printing plants in West Texas. A vast empire is being developed that calls for the expenditure of millions of dollars. Shall we continue to be content with one annual convention as a social feature, or shall we progress to the point of making a more profitable contact between buyer and seller and take our place in the general scheme of modern day business institutions in West Texas?

INVENTIVE MINDS

Americans pride themselves as being a race of people with inventive minds.

There is someone in almost every community who is constantly working out some kind of an idea which can be monopolized and eventually turned into money. Some of these ideas turn out as planned, while others fall to the wayside because they are not practical.

Even the pioneers of our country had plans for making contraptions which would reduce human labor and save time, and the records at the patent office of the United States reveal many interesting things.

George Washington invented a seeding plow, Thomas Jefferson designed a folding desk, while other notables who have taken out patents are Mark Twain, Jack Johnson, D. W. Griffith, and John Jacob Astor.

Most Americans probably have the opinion that Thomas A. Edison is the heaviest customer at the patent office but this is not so. Ethan I. Dodds, who resides in a small city in the state of New York, holds this record. He has taken out more than 1,800 patents, all of which relate to railroading.

Mr. Edison however is well toward the front, and has more than 1,050 patents. Dodds, Edison and Peter Cooper Hewitt are looked upon as the most professional inventors America has ever produced, while in every community, large and small, there are others who have taken a chance on some of their ideas, and made good.

A great many inventions had their beginnings in accidental form. One does not have to be working in a large factory to devise an idea for a machine. When a noted pianist obtained a patent on an automobile attachment, a prize fighter invented a new kind of monkey wrench or a person high up in finances thinks out a plan of providing a mechanical shoe polisher, it only shows that the minds of Americans are active, thinking of things outside their ordinary line of thinking.

Peddler Tax Law Repealed By Legislature

PLANT FOOD AND FEED

The recent rain makes it possible to plant winter pasture. Seed is cheap and a green pasture means much to the dairy industry with cream advancing in price.

Plant a fall garden. Keep the canning season going. Plenty of feed and food means more money to the grower in the saving effected.

"Why My Next Car will be A FORD"

WHEN you buy a Ford there are two things you never have to worry about. One is reliability. The other is long life.

Here's an interesting letter from a Ford owner in North Carolina:

"My Ford was purchased May 8, 1928, and has been run 121,767 miles. It has never stopped on the road for repairs of any kind whatsoever except punctures.

"The brakes were relined at 101,000 miles. My gas mileage averaged 21 miles to the gallon, and on tires, 19,000 miles per tire. I travel over all kinds of road conditions—mountainous and flat.

"I consider this a wonderful record and I assure you my next car will also be a Ford."

This is just one of many tributes to the reliability and long life of the Ford. A Ford owner in Iowa tells of driving his Ford 73,000 miles in a single year. Another writes of 120,000 miles of good service.

Think ahead when you are considering the purchase of an automobile and consider what it will be like after thousands of miles of driving. Will you still be satisfied? Will you still say "it's a great car"?

If it's a Ford, you know everything will be O. K. It will be taking you there and back in good style, just as it has always done. And you will have saved many important, worth-while dollars in cost of operation and up-keep and low yearly depreciation.

MELLOWED A HUNDRED MILLION YEARS

While the Stegosaurus drank from PENNSYLVANIA'S springs

NATURE guards her dearest treasures jealously! Millions of years ago in the Devonian Age she covered the earth with tossing seas and stored away beneath it her finest crude oil. Other oil-bearing ages came with far greater quantities of oil—but today this rich Devonian crude, pumped from the Bradford-Allegany District in the Pennsylvania field, commands the highest price of all Pennsylvania grade crude oils!

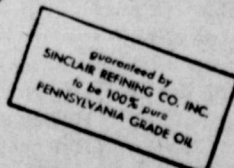

In the big, new Sinclair refinery at Wellsville, N. Y., expert refiners put the crowning touch to a hundred million years of Nature's filtering and mellowing. They de-wax Bradford-Allegany crude at as low as 60° F. below zero. They minimize its carbon-forming compounds. They have developed a Pennsylvania grade that flows at zero—Sinclair Pennsylvania, the long-lasting, clean-burning, year-around Pennsylvania grade motor oil!

Have us change your oil to Sinclair Pennsylvania according to the Sinclair Law of Lubrication. Then examine this oil after long, hard driving. Note how it stands up—how it comes out of the crankcase almost as good as it went in. Note, especially, how little has been used up—positive, visible proof that this rich, Pennsylvania oil protects the last mile as well as the first!

 TEMPLE OF TRUTH By the Apostle *****

Gangway! Gangway! The Old Apostle is not going anywhere, but he dang sure is coming away from some place, and that place is what the goodwoman calls home.

Family racket? Worse and more of it—remedies. The Apostle was seized and dragged down to a knockout about the middle of the week. He got pale and refused to eat. When tempted with liver and onions, he said everything and all around stunk worse than hamburger.

The goodwoman wanted to know if we had been smelling the city dump again. And we told her NO! She got the idea—the old man's sick, of all things once in 50 years but he's it now.

Shelut out for the family strong box and pulled out the Apostle's insurance policy. After reading that paper a half minute, she looked up into our face. She was wearing the most disgusted look ever wrapped around a human face—our life insurance policy had expired three days before. All hope had vanished. Air castles that stood a mile high a moment before, were cast to her feet, or the floor or somewhere else. Her next act was to save the victim and get that policy renewed—the policy that had been her hope and ambition for years.

She called in doctors—in variety. The medico said the patient had "lingualitis" which means talking too much. He left soon after shooting the patient with a serum.

The chiropractor said a "lombard" had slipped and he almost killed the patient by pounding and yanking before he was satisfied that it could be done.

The hoss doctor from what used to be the livery stable pronounced it "internal itch" and advised a mustard bath. This was given by the veterinarian and 'took' by the Apostle. He doped our insides with a pepper tea and was mixing up some more stuff when the above photo was taken as the old mar hit across the country in a mad effort to escape his doctors—and the nurse.

More people suffer from remedies than disease. The Apostle had the flue most of the week. He caught it from a waitress at Amarillo when he aught to have been at the fair ground.

Walking into a swell looking eating dump, the old man sat down at a swell looking table and a sweller looking young lady came up and said: "I have deviled pigs feet, calf's liver and scrambled brains." And I told her while she was in a dickens of a fix, I could sympathize with her because I had corns, bunions, rheumatism and a terrified conscience lest some one come in and report the conversation to headquarters.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. And this pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria has him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drugstore; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fitcher's signature.

When you are discouraged, think of Jorah. Did he get discouraged? He certainly did not. Did he give up? Not a bit, but the whale did.

Some men are like bananas—they get skinned every time they get away from the bunch. (It happened at the fair).

Had a visit with a young man Saturday who used to live down here. He is a product of west Texas. He was educated in our west Texas schools and went out into the world to make a place for himself. We lost sight of him for a while and then he bobbed up as a reporter on a daily up in Minneapolis, Minnesota. After being there a few years, we next heard of him as a reporter on the world's largest daily—the Chicago Tribune. He's there now. Was down here last week to see his old mother and the rest of the folks. As we talked we looked him over. Clean cut young fellow. No evidence of dissipation. Man all the way through and a brilliant mind that spells success. Chesley L. Manley is everything that his name implies—he's a manly young fellow. Another country boy who went to the big city and made good. Durn 'em, they just got to come out to west Texas to get the best material for every big job they undertake. Here's a million wishes that he breaks every record.

A hen residing near Plaska down in Hall county, is said to be able to lay eggs of any color. The owner first noticed a rainbow on an egg. He tried colored cloth by hanging it in front of the hen. She runs true to color and the owner has orders of several thousand Easter eggs now in solid colors.

Here is a simple suggestion that will be worth a lot to the women who keep house, and who use refrigerators. Place a handful of wood charcoal in your refrigerator and it will absorb all the scent. You can keep as many different articles in the same space as you like. A suggestion like that is worth five dollars. Half of it will go to charity. All who try it can bring, send or mail it in, but above all things give this simple suggestion a trial and report results.

Those of you who have written in asking for a photo of the Apostle, don't know when you are well-off. It can't be done. His only picture appears at the head of the column. This goes for the girl of silly giggles down on the coast, too.

What's the matter with turning this country back to the Indians? We have about got it ruined.

England, Norway and Sweden have quit the gold standard and we aught to. Let's burn up the paper money and make fish hooks out of the gold, silver and copper. Jail everybody who asks any one to pay them anything. Turn out the cows, hogs, chickens and let them run wild. When we need meat, go out and get what we want. In the mean time, we can get in a lot of fishing between hunts.

It may be necessary to bust up the radios, destroy the newspapers and stop the mails to keep from being bothered with other folks' trouble. We can do a lot of trading because we are going to have to do that anyhow. Let it be known that the first fellow who mentions politics or taxes, he gets swung from the highest limb. Yes, sir, let's start all over again, or turn it back to the Indians.

M. T. (Doc) Howard was in fondlay and in discussing several important things including politics and improvements, he is of the opinion that no one has any real concern about the danger of snuffing any aroma off the city dump grounds since he held his nose and voted for Hoover and lives to tell the story—but he can't say how much longer he will manage to get by.

And say, folks! The milk of human kindness has not all evaporated. The phrase "and ye have done it to the least of these" still continues to ring down through the ages regardless of depression. Times may change and conditions waver, but God's old human nature still survives. There is that parental instinct knocking for admittance to the greater life of happiness. There is in memorie's walls a picture of dimpled cheeks, bright eyes and ruby lips of a helpless bit of humanity that brings joy to the human heart such as nothing else can.

There is a latent yearning within the human breast to foster and care for the helpless human form before the time when pattering footsteps of lisping infancy sound as music to ears attuned to the love born of angels. That love that forgives when tiny finger imprints appear on mother's windows, because the same little arms entwine the neck of her whose every sacrifice in its behalf is a joy unbounded.

How wonderful, when fate's cruel decree indicts a new born babe to a sentence of desertion, and loving hands stop to lift from depths of despair a frail little form of helpless humanity, love it, care for it, and keep it as their very own. All honor to those of childless homes who open their hearts to the waifs who have been unfortunate.

Edward Irwin, aged nine days, the sixth child in a home in which the mother had been deserted by the husband, has been taken by Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Galloway. It's a big job folks, but a happy one. It involves responsibility. There will be sadness perhaps, and at times anxiety. But in the end, there will be reward. This babe has come to Clarendon to make his home. Dozens have called to pay their respects. He is king of the throne. What a change! Passing from a home where he was not wanted to a home where he becomes an honored guest. May he live to repay the kindness of those who will care for him, shower him with affection and make any sacrifice in behalf of the welfare of the wee babe who today can only abide his time to begin payments in smiles and baby talk that only woman can understand.

THERE'S THE "HIDDEN QUART"

IT STAYS UP IN THE MOTOR AND NEVER DRAINS AWAY....

The first time you use Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil, a pint to a quart will cling to, penetrate and combine with metal surfaces and stay up in your motor. This "hidden quart" never drains away! Because of this, Germ Processed Oil gives you sure protection at all times that no other oil can give.

Almost half of all your motor wear occurs while starting. The "hidden quart" of Germ Processed Oil stays up in your motor even after your car stands idle for weeks... and gives safe lubrication while you're starting. It stays up in cylinders to form a strong piston seal, which makes starting easier and quicker. Other oils drain away, leaving parts unlubricated. The "hidden quart" has saved hundreds of motorists costly repair bills by protecting motors when thru accident crankcases were emptied miles from town.

Only Germ Processed Oil gives you the extra benefits of the "hidden quart"... for only Germ Processed Oil has penetrative lubricity, the ability to penetrate and combine with metal surfaces.

From the first fill on, you'll always have that "hidden quart"... worth its weight in gold! Fill now with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil at any station displaying the Conoco Red Triangle.

Industrial Possibilities of Texas

By COL. WM. E. TALBOT

(Editor's Note—Following is the first of a series of articles by Col. W. E. Talbot, agency manager for the Southland Life Insurance Company and the prime mover in the campaign for Texas industries, in which he discusses the possibilities of Texas from an industrial standpoint, answering the question: "What manufacturers does Texas have and what can we profitably manufacture?" Other articles will follow.)

In August, 1930, it was apparent to all thinking people that Texas had an economic problem to solve that would require the energy and ability of every single citizen.

Four of her major industries, agriculture, railroads, oil, and manufactures were "taking it on the chin"—which meant a tremendous loss of buying power, formerly available in this state.

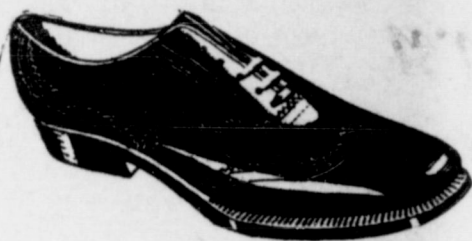

We were in the position of the negro bride who had been handed a wash-board and a looking-glass as presents from her husband with the instructions that she could either take the wash-board and go to work, or the looking-glass and sit down and watch herself starve to death.

Here was Texas, first in cotton, hides, wool, mohair, oil, and gas; high in production of coal, lignite, fruits, citrus, and vegetables; and yet 29th among all the states in per capita wealth. It was apparent to any thinking person that what we needed was an industrial structure to parallel our agricultural structure, allowing one to consume from the other.

In other words, it was apparent that we would have to cease furnishing the raw material for other states so they could make the larger profit by producing the finished product. We were feeding the cow that was being milked somewhere else, and the immediate job was to bring the tail-end of that cow down where we could not only feed the cow, but milk it, and get some of the cream. This was the job that confronted Texans in August, 1930.

Inexpensive Christmas Gift

The source of inspiration for this attractive hot-dish mat is none other than grandma's calico patchwork quiltblocks. The pattern speaks for itself. This circular motif made of bits of bright calico patched together as for any quiltblock, is applied on a circle of unbleached muslin cut an inch larger all around than the asbestos mat which it is to cover. An openwork edge is crocheted around this and a drawing is run through and tied at the back. These mats are not only useful, being removable and washable, but they are decorative.

Hand-Embroidered Gifts

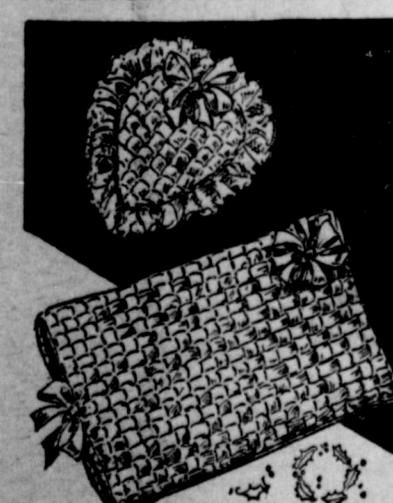

This trio of lamp shade, table scarf and cushion, of heavy natural-colored linen, embroidered in gay wool yarn, emphasizes the vogue for ensemble furnishings in the home. As a Christmas-gift suggestion it scores 10 per cent perfect. The materials are easily available at any fancywork department.

Meet the Powder-Puff Lady

"Merry Christmas" is what this daintily attired powder-puff lady is going to say to legions of maidens and matrons on the morning of December Twenty-five. Nineteen Hundred and Thirty. The hem of the skirt of this bewitching china doll is arranged in pockets, each of which contains a gay-colored powder puff.

Made-of-Ribbon Gifts

Basket-woven ribbon fancywork is again in fashion. There's going to be many a "Merry Christmas" card tied to everything from sachets to handkerchiefs and glove cases, pillows, dresser mats, and even large cases to hold the "nighties" made of ribbon, as the picture shows. Nothing so expresses heart-to-heart sentiment as the "I-made-it-myself" gift.

THE POOR TURTLE DOVES

Tuesday, September the first, was the day set apart for the beginning of the slaying of the poor turtle doves. They are beautiful birds, and as the saying goes—as harmless as a dove. You know in the Bible story of the Ark, they sent the dove out to look the situation over, see whether or not the flood had subsided. The dove came back with a green twig, evidencing the fact that dry land had appeared. And say, had you thought about it? If all bird life was destroyed, there would not be any green twigs; crop pests would convert this green earth into a desert. Right by my window in my library near typewriter and desk, there is a peach tree—Sitting there, we stopped to watch the bird doing its daily task—looking that fruit tree over for plant pests, looking the body and the limbs over, getting its daily rations, looking the leaves over, getting down and looking beneath the leaves in search of pests, just like a gardener pruning up the fruit trees. Yes, nature's orchardist, nature's gardener, guardian of our crops, of our gardens and orchards. That bird finished its daily labor, getting its menu, saving that peach tree—Then it flits away, lights by the the roadside, still in quest of mites and crop pests. Along comes a scatter gun fellow, just out for sport, and kills the beautiful winged bird. O yes, they are slaying 'em by the millions. You know man, with all his culture and learning, is not very far away from the jungle, the killing instincts still grip him. With club and stone, sling shot and gun, he walks up and down the earth slaying. Today all the wild game is gone, bird life is fast becoming extinct. Yes, man is a killer, notwithstanding he worships, pay his vows at a religious shrine, sends missionaries to the heathen, and yet the greatest killer and the cruelest of all animals—Just rub his hair the wrong way, and dog-gone the old hot jungle blood still flows in his veins. With shot and shell and scatter gun he walks up and down the earth, slaying, ever slaying. And think of it, the poor turtle dove is gun fodder for this sportsman—Nature's forrester, nature's gardener. Killing the birds, then the federal government has to step in and spend multiplied millions to fight the crop pests. Why slay these pretty harmless birds?—Man the killer.—Dick McCarty in Albany News.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

"Business will pick up—when you pick it up. Business has a habit of falling off without help. But business never picks itself up. Business picks up only when some man, eternally and intensely interested in business picks it up for himself and his business."

* CHAMBERLAIN *

Brother Ingram is driving his gray pony from Clarendon to the Reavis farm where he is leading maize. After the days work, the ever faithful pony briskly and willingly clips off the eight miles and safely delivers its master to his home for a good night's rest.

In our judgment there are few ministers that do the effective work that is done by this veteran preacher. Like John the Baptist, he goes out in the highways and byways and proclaims the gospel to fallen man.

Many times his audience consists of a wayward boy or a sinful man on the highway, yet he is as patient in trying to point them to a higher life as though they were in one of the crowded auditoriums in some rural district where he so often preaches. They usually leave him with the promise I'll meet you there. The judgment alone will reveal the amount of good this faithful man of God is doing.

Incidentally we learned that there will be a home-coming or rally at the Clarendon Methodist church next Sunday evening at three o'clock honoring brother Ingram on his seventy ninth birthday. His friends in the rural districts and elsewhere are invited to attend.

Mrs. W. A. Hughes spent three days last week visiting relatives and attending the fair at Amarillo. School has dismissed for the cotton gathering season.

Speaking of cotton we are reminded of the story told of an A&M college student who became so proficient in judging livestock that being completely blindfolded he could tell the name and the good and bad points in any animal.

So on one of his tryouts they brought him an animal, and being a somewhat of a phrenologist he felt the animal over and said this is a percheron horse, he is seven years old, dark brown and weighs fifteen hundred pounds and that was correct.

Another animal was brought, he said this is a Jersey cow, color light brown, age six years, weight eight hundred and she will give four gallon of milk. His critics declared he was right again.

The next animal was described as a poland-china hog, age two years, some good and some deficient points. The correctness of his judging was proving beyond doubt that the young student knew his okra.

But still he must be given another test, and a William goat was trotted out. Well the young man gave this royal bumper a gentle stroke across the back, felt of his head, examined his chin and said, well he has a long beard, a hard head and a soft brain, he's a cotton farmer.

WHY BLAME HOOVER?

It is a common thing these days to hear people joke about "Hoover prosperity." Not only Hoover, but the Republican Party is widely blamed for the financial depression.

This scribe is not a Republican, but we would like to see less blame placed on Mr. Hoover's head. The chief executive may have done a few things he shouldn't, and there may be a few things he has left undone, but that does not make him responsible for "hard times."

—The Garland News.

It Don't, Eh? Who told you so? Probably you are too young to remember past history relative to "HARD TIMES" being knocked in to a cocked hat by a Republican also a Democratic President. It does not seem to matter whether it is a Republican or a Democrat, just so the man elected has the guts to go up against the MONEY POWER and show them where to head in. In the Year of Our Lord 1907, President Roosevelt, a Republican, was at the helm, with his big stick and told the MONEY GAMBLERS that if they persisted in drawing in our circulating medium, money that he would start the printing presses to work printing money and would send it out to the people on proper security. These Devils Quaked into their den and the money panic went Flooeey. A few years later, these same CUNNING grafters told President Wilson, a Democrat, that money is too cheap, we must draw more money in—take it out of circulation—in order to make money worth 100 cents on the dollar. Knowing that such action would cause a money panic and HARD TIMES President Wilson begged them to desist, especially at that time. They would not until Mr. Wilson grew angry with them and warned them that if they drew money in or took it out of circulation, that he had the Federal Reserve Banks behind the Government and that every time these crooked criminals took one dollar out of circulation that he would let out THREE DOLLARS through the Federal Loans Banks. Did they draw in our money? Nay, verily. They knew that President Wilson, like Mr. Roosevelt would protect the people by doing just exactly as he said he would. No Financial panic in those days and the cause came from a President who had a backbone and not a shoe-string to hold him up. It was not a question of Party, but a question of a President who has the courage to stand by the people in times when a Financial panic is upon us. Our Farmers have produced the food and clothing, and everything else to make a happy contented people, but they have no money with which to do business. There is no money in circulation to move these wonderful crops of food and clothing, from producer to consumer. Our circulating medium—MONEY—the Life blood of the nation has been drawn in and the nation is FINANCIALLY SICK, almost unto death. What we need is another Doctor Wilson or another Doctor Roosevelt, who will take the Government Knife and separate these Money Gamblers from their graft. These Money Gamblers do not draw in our money just to see suffering humanity squirm and agonize in the dust. They do this for the pelf, the graft that such actions bring to them. You can readily see that each one of them who has one million dollars in money, has that same million dollars converted into TWO MILLION DOLLARS in buying power, as soon as our circulating medium has been reduced one-half, for the very good reason that one million dollars will buy twice the amount it formerly did when we had more money in circulation. If the Young Man running the Garland News will digest the foregoing thoroughly and then sit down and write an article proving to The Claude News Editor that he is wrong, we will give him ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS IN GOLD.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Reeves of Lelia visited the lady's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Lyons.

Mrs. Tom McGowan of Hedley visited her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Paulk Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stogner entertained the young people with a party Saturday night.

Mrs. I. O. Noble and children of Clarendon visited Mrs. I. M. Noble Sunday.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

BRONCHOS DEFEAT MCLEAN TIGERS 13 TO NOTHING

Nichols Struts His Stuff
And Other Players Tell
District Victory Near

Last Friday the Bronchos started their march for the sectional championship by defeating the McLean Tigers on their home field 13 to 0. This was the best game so far this season. The Tigers are plenty good and it took eleven Bronchos to beat them.

In the first quarter, Nichols tore through the Tiger's line headed for a touchdown. He traveled fifty yards and then fumbled the ball. Greene picked up the oval and went ten yards to cross the goal line for the first touchdown. Reed kicked for the extra point.

The Tigers threatened to score late in the second quarter. They advanced down to the two yard line and then hit a stone wall. E. Watson covered Christian's fumble and eased the strain. The half ended with the Bronchos leading by 7 to 0.

In the last quarter Behrens circled the end on a fake play for 24 yards and the second and last touchdown. T. Watson and McMahon went in for E. Watson and Mann in the last period.

The Tigers could not stop the plunges of Nichols, powerful back of the Broncho eleven. Every man on the Clarendon team should be given credit for the victory. They were in there fighting for the Maroon and White. Kinard was the high-light for the McLean team. Clarendon made 8 first downs and McLean made 4.

Starting line up for Clarendon: Backs—Nichols, captain, Reed, Andis and Mann; Ends—Behrens and Martin; Tackles—Greene and Easterling; Guards—E. Watson and Benson; Center—Watters. Substitutes, McMahon and T. Watson.

Starting line up for McLean: Ends—Ellison and Crockett; Tackles—Cash and Lynch; Guards—Cable and Kinard; Backs—C. Christian, L. Christian, Switzer and Back.

Referee—George Close.

State Fair this month, a contribution for merit by the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce.

Her home improvement work has been one of her outstanding achievements, and in which she received a prize of wall paper for her bedroom. She has made cushions, mats, rag rugs as learned from her club work instruction. Her exterior home improvement work has included flower beds and vines that have added much to the beauty of her home surroundings.

While not an officer of her club, she takes an enthusiastic part keeping her records in a manner that meets with the approval of the C. H. D. agent. She entertained her club with a swimming party and her personality and skill has been of much value to the other members in arousing enthusiasm for the work. She has never missed a meeting of the club to date.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Self of Lelia and has made her home in that community for the past five years. Her accomplishments is another illustration of what girls may accomplish if possessed with plenty of energy and determination.

Clarendon to Observe Fire Prevention Week

According to a proclamation issued by Mayor W. P. Cagle and published in this issue of the Leader, Clarendon has something to boast of in the way of an excellent fire record.

Fire losses of $14,940.34 in 1928 were reduced to $6,072.02 in 1930. According to the present schedule, it will be still less for 1931.

This record is made possible by a first-class fire fighting equipment ably managed, and a thorough cooperation on the part of the responsible citizens of the town.

Cotton Pickers Are Wanted Over Large Section

There is no occasion for any one to be idle at this time. Farmers are badly in need of help for gathering feed, and cotton pickers are in still bigger demand.

Most of the cotton is being snapped. Prices paid for this work varies. In some instances, it is not so much the price in cash, as the fact that the grower is willing to furnish cows, chickens, vegetables and whatnot, in addition to a house, in order to get reliable help.

Several families are helping to gather crops with a view of remaining over the winter on the farm where they can get occasional jobs and a house and other helps after the crop gathering pay stops.
