Tax Revision Law Is Signed By President

WASHINGTON —President Eisenhower today signed into law the biggest tax revision program in history — what he called a "monumental" overhaul that will "benefit all Americans."

The new law, Eisenhower said in a statement, will "help millions of Americans by giving them a fairer tax treatment." At the same time, he added, it "will help our economy expand and thus add materially to the strength of our nation."

The new law brings about/ tax reductions of $1,363,000,000 in the first year, and more later on, for millions of individuals and nearly all corporations.

In all, the initial year's tax cuts will total about $1,363,000,000. This will be increased later as the new program takes full effect.

Ten members of Congress looked on as the President signed the bill. Eisenhower kept switching pens, using enough so that each of the Congress members could have one as a souvenir.

Holding up the 929-page bill, the President grinned and remarked: "I must say that represents a long long bunch of work."

"Boy," he exclaimed, "there's a lot of work in there for lawyers."

Eisenhower said the bill is part of a comprehensive program which since last Jan. 1, "will have provided for tax cuts totaling $7,400,000,000—the largest dollar tax cut in any year in the nation's history."

"I congratulate the Congress and its leaders," Eisenhower said in his statement, "for having enacted this monumental tax revision."

In a brief analysis, the President broke the bill down into benefits for individuals, those he said will help the economy, provisions for "much needed clarification" of the tax laws, and devices for closing more than 50 loopholes through which he said some taxpayers may have tried to avoid "their fair share of the tax burden."

As examples of fairer tax treatment for individuals, Eisenhower singled out these:

Parents of dependent children can keep them as dependents regardless of how much the children earn.

Retired persons will get extra tax credits.

Taxpayers now will be able to claim some non-relatives as dependents.

Farmers will be allowed to deduct part of the cost of soil and water conservation.

Deductions for medical expenses will be more liberal.

Deductions are provided for working widows and many other mothers for child care expenses.

People getting sick benefits paid by employers need not pay any tax on this income, up to $100 a week.

Provisions effecting business, the President said, will "help our people produce better goods at cheaper prices." The tax law, he said, also will help create more jobs.

"This economic growth," he said "will be fostered by such provisions as more flexible depreciation and better tax treatment of research and development costs, thus encouraging all business, large and small, to modernize and expand.

"And, partial reduction of the double taxation of income from dividends will stimulate the investment of savings by our private citizens and so make available the thousands of dollars that provide the plant, tools and power needed for each new job in America."

BILL R. WISE
... Wins Jaycee Race

Snyderite Is Jaycee Veep

Bill R. Wise, 31, Snyder salesman, was elected state vice president for region 4 of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in an election which required five ballots before any candidate had a clear majority yesterday in Fort Stockton.

On the first four ballots Wise was in second place trailing Bruce Fields, candidate being run by the San Angelo Jaycees. The third candidate for vice president was Lingo Brown, Sweetwater.

On the fifth ballot the Abilene club changed its vote to Wise, and all other clubs followed Abilene's lead to give Wise a unanimous vote.

Wise is to serve eight months to complete the unexpired term of R. E. (Red) Hightower, San Angelo, who has been named a member of the national board of directors of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Wise was the first candidate for state office ever sponsored by the Snyder Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Sweetwater was selected as the location for the next semi-annual bi-region convention of the Jaycees. The convention will be held during February.

Plan New Bill To Outlaw Red Party

WASHINGTON (AP)— Congressional leaders agreed at a White House conference today to try to push through Congress a new bill to outlaw the Communist party as such.

In a session with President Eisenhower, the decision was to get the House to pass a measure declaring the Communist party is unlawful and without any rights.

It would not make membership in the party by individuals unlawful. But Speaker Martin (R-Mass) and Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) said the government already can go after individual Communists, and is doing so, under the Smith Act, which makes it illegal to conspire to overthrow the government.

The new approach is intended to supplant a bill that whipped through the Senate last week which would make it a crime to belong to the Communist party provided a person committed an overt act while a party member.

Ferguson explained the plan agreed upon today approaches the question from the standpoint of the Communist party as such rather than individual members.

Martin and Ferguson, the latter chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committe, said the new plan is acceptable to the administration. They said Atty. Gen. Brownell sat in on the White House discussions this morning.

Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP Senate leader, told reporters he thought the House might pass the new bill today under a suspension of the rules.

He said he also expects Senate action this week on three other antisubversive bills that would make it easier to remove security risks who are employed in defense plants, tighten penalties for peacetime espionage, and deny pensions or other benefits to government employees who are convicted under loyalty actions or refuse to testify on such issues.

The administration had been dissatisfied with the bill put through by the Senate.

Without a dissenting vote, the Senate passed a bill providing stiff fines and jail terms for anyone holding membership in the Communist party and actively carrying out its purposes.

On Saturday officials close to the President described him as opposing the Senate measure on grounds it would make "propaganda martyrs" of the Reds, and reporters were told he planned to ask the House to kill it.

To meet the administration's objections, House leaders and Justice Department officials hurriedly drafted a new bill which would strip the Communist party of its legal status, but which omitted the Senate provisions aimed at punishing individual party members.

Although Atty. Gen. Brownell and FBI director J. Edgar Hoover have opposed any ban on the Communist party, saying it would only drive the party underground, the House draft was reported to have been accepted reluctantly in preference to the Senate bill.

City Swelters Again

Snyder sweltered through another heated week end to mark the sixth day of temperatures in the 100-degree zone. Sunday's maximum temperature was 100 degrees with 101 degrees the top for Saturday and 102 on Friday. The temperatures at 7:30 this morning was 79 degrees after an overnight low of 74 degrees, Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said.

Solons Hope To 'Pry' Out Compromise Atomic Bill

Morse Tells Plans To Vote With Demos

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, the Senate's only independent, said today he will vote with the Democrats next January for party control of the Senate.

If the fall elections return a closely-divided Senate in the new Congress, Morse's vote could be the difference between Democratic and Republican control—and whether Democrats take over the highly important committee chairmanships.

Morse renounced his long time affiliation with the Republican party during the presidential campaign in 1952 and became an independent. But twice during the 83rd Congress, with the political balance favoring the Democrats, Morse stuck with the GOP on the questions of Senate organization.

Morse told newsmen the Republicans have had their chance to show what they could do in the past year and a half. He said:

"I am under no obligation to vote with the Republicans after the 1954 election. If they have a clear majority in the Senate—after the elections—then my position will be academic. If not, then they will have been repudiated.

"In any event, I feel that I will be free to vote with the Democrats. The public interest demands a check on the Eisenhower administration by the Congress."

Republicans now outnumber Democrats 48 to 47—with Morse holding the 96th seat. Last summer the death of Sen. Taft of Ohio, and his replacement with a Democrat, Sen. Burke, shifted the balance to 48 Democrats and 47 Republicans. Had Morse decided to vote with the Democrats, they would have had a two-vote margin. Actually, Senate Democratic leaders were not eager to take over the job and never have pressed for it.

The November elections put on the block fifteen seats now held by Republicans, and 22 held by Democrats. Should the Democrats wind up with 48 seats and the Republicans with 47, Morse's decision could swing control of Senate chairmanships to the Democrats.

Temperatures Mount Again Over State

By The Associated Press

Temperatures mounted in Texas again Monday with forecasts calling for not much change in temperatures through Tuesday at least.

Isolated showers again were forecast except in North Central Texas. Extreme South Central Texas had the best chance for rainfall.

Sunday's maximum temperatures generally were in the middle and upper 90s, ranging upward in a few cases to the 105 degrees at Presidio. Some coastal points had a maximum of 90.

Rainfall Sunday included .13 inch at El Paso and .01 at Victoria up to 6:30 p.m. Later, a baseball game was rained out at Harlingen.

Ethel Barrymore Sunday quietly observed her 75th birthday "because I don't want any fuss made over me," she said. Here she receives congratulations from Doris Day, above, on the set of the movie "The Young At Heart."

Conferees Start Task After Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional leaders indicated today that they may pry the atomic energy bill out of the congressional logjam the next day or so.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass) said after a legislative conference at the White House he would appoint House conferees to meet with those of the Senate immediately.

Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich) of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said that would mean the conferees might be able to work out a compromise late today, so that the Senate could vote on it tomorrow. The Senate already has rejected an earlier conference compromise.

Ferguson said he anticipated the conferees could come up with a version that would be acceptable to Senate Democrats who voted down the original compromise.

House negotiators, however, seemed determined not to yield on the issue.

Conflict centered on whether private firms should be allowed sole patent rights on civilian nuclear power developments, as is permitted under normal patent laws.

The Senate called for a 10-year period of compulsory patent sharing. It threw out Friday, 48-41, a compromise without that provision which had been worked out in conference with the House.

Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY) told a reporter he believes most House conferees will continue fighting the Senate proposal. And, in apparent answer to Senate criticism, he said he had acted only as representative of a House majority in insisting on exclusive patent rights.

He said his position would be determined by the majority stand, "as it always is."

Democrats charged on the Senate floor last week that one "stubborn man" — referring to Cole — was blocking agreement on the measure putting private industry into atomic energy.

The version tossed out by the Senate would have allowed exclusive patent rights to private firms in the atomic energy field for 17 years, renewable for the same length of time, provided the patents did not cover developments made under government auspices. It would also have directed the Atomic Energy Commission to give preference in granting atomic equipment licenses to companies agreeing to share patent rights for the first five years.

Senate Democrats charged — and administration supporters denied — that this did not adequately safeguard the future atomic power industry from becoming a private monopoly.

During first compromise negotiations, four of the five House conferees voted with Cole on the patent issue. They were joined eventually by three Republican senators.

Cole says he is opposed to any form of compulsory patent-sharing, calling it unconstitutional and contrary to American free enterprise.

Polio Chapter Begins Drive

A goal of $4,000 has been set on the emergency drive of the Scurry-Borden Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The special drive was to start today and last through Aug. 31. Fred Auforth, local attorney, is heading the drive, which is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and several other civic organizations. One of the groups, the Shrine, is planning curb solicitation Saturday. The Shrine and American Legion have already made donations as organizations.

The drive is being conducted here and in many other cities throughout the country because local and national funds are exhausted. The local chapter, financing treatment of patients stricken with pollo this year and those carried over from last year, has already run out of funds. Much of the national funds gathered earlier this year went into research.

Donations are being accepted here by Auforth, Joe Stinson, secretary-treasurer of the chapter; Forrest Beavers, vice-chairman of the chapter; and the Snyder National and West Texas State Banks.

TRY TO SETTLE FARM SQUABBLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate-House conferees try again today to settle their differences over price support levels for dairy products—the last major obstacle to the writing of a compromise farm bill.

Argument over dairy supports led to an angry breakdown of talks Saturday but conference leaders later agreed to another meeting today after a weekend cooling-off period.

The renewal of talks was negotiated by Sen. Aiken (R-Vt) and Rep. Hope (R-Kan), who head the agriculture committes and the conferees of the two houses. This was viewed as a sign that Aiken and Hope were still optimistic about chances of a dairy dispute compromise.

Senate conferees have said this is the last major roadblock to complete agreement on a farm bill that would carry out President Eisenhower's plan for a shift to flexible price supports on five basic crops.

Aiken, with powerful backing from Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson, wants to hold price supports for butter, cheese, milk and other dairy products at the present level. Benson last April cut dairy props from 90 to 75 per cent of parity.

Parity is a price standard said by law to be fair in relation to farm costs.

The Senate, after a stiff floor battle, approved the lower dairy support level although the House had voted for an increase to 80 per cent, effective between Sept. 1 and next April. The House also inserted directives for fixing the dairy price props after that date while the Senate voted to bring under price payments now-unsupported milk and butterfat.

Aiken said the Senate group would not accept the higher House supports but might agree to several related House dairy provisions not included in the Senate bill.

These include disposal of the government's butter and cheese surpluses through military and Veterans Administration channels and a special 15-million-dollar annual fund to eradicate brucellosis, a livestock disease that has hit many dairy herds.

Absentee List Still Runs High

For a non-presidential election year, the number of persons voting by absentee ballot in the second primary is considerably high. By noon today, 74 ballots had been issued by the county clerk's office, and 53 of these had been returned for casting.

Four years ago — the last non-presidential election year — only 66 persons voted in this county by absentee ballot for the second primary. Two years ago, a record-setting year for election interest here as well as elsewhere, about 250 voted by absentee in the second primary. Nearly 400 had voted in the first primary.

This year, the total number of absentee ballots cast in the first primary was about 300, or approximately three-fourths the number cast in the first primary of two years ago.

MAJOR STRIKES GO ON WITH NO LETUP SIGNS

By The Associated Press

Strikes against the country's biggest air line and the rubber industry continued without sign of letup today.

Negotiations are in progress in Cleveland, Cincinnati and New York in efforts to settle disputes against rubber's "Big Four," two of which—Goodyear and Firestone—are crippled by strikes. Talks continue meantime at U.S. Rubber and B. F. Goodrich, where employes continue to work although contracts have expired.

Firestone and Goodyear have offered 5-cent hourly pay hikes, which the CIO Rubber Workers have rejected.

Probably the country's oldest strike of any magnitude is in Sheboygan, Wis. There two thousand Kohler Co. production workers voted yesterday to continue their 19-week-old walkout.

The plumbing supply firm refused last Friday to grant a 15-cent hourly wage boost to skilled men, and 10 cents to other production workers.

Layoffs hit 1,891 American Air Line employes today in the two-week-old strike of 1,200 pilots. If the walkout continues two more weeks, 12,000 additional workers face the prospect of no jobs.

A spokesman for the AFL Air Line Pilots Assn., said there appeared to be little chance of a settlement. American's planes have been grounded in a dispute over pilot flight time on the carrier's nonstop transcontinental hops.

Terre Haute, Ind., was crowded today with visitors for the Vigo County Fair, but there was no transportation. Sixty members of the AFL Motor Coach Employes Union stopped work at midnight after the bus company insisted on a pay cut instead of a raise.

There was at least one settlement in the labor picture.

In New York, the American Safety Razor Corp. announced an agreement with the United Electrical Workers (Ind.). The effect of the agreement is that the company won't move to Staunton, Va., until next May, as originally planned. It had threatened to move immediately if no contract was reached. The company also agreed to a 5-cent hourly pay increase.

Flanders Asks Big Four Meet On Austria Treaty

LONDON (AP)—U.S. Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) today suggested a high level Big Four meeting to approve an independence treaty for Austria as "the first test of Soviet good faith."

Flanders said he thought President Eisenhower would be willing to attend such a conference "as long as the agenda was confined to Austria."

"The Austrian situation is simple and capable of solution," the senator said in an interview, "if we can't agree on that, we can't agree on anything."

Flanders, here on a vacation, blamed "pure nastiness" on the part of the Soviet rulers for failure to reach an agreement before now.

Youths Ask Asylum

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—A 60-mile canoe trip across the Baltic Sea has brought two Polish youths through the Iron Curtain to the Danish island of Bornholm. Authorities said the two landed hungry and exhausted last night and asked for asylum.

Both Candidates Pause For 'Non-Political' Talks Sunday

The candidates for governor and others in Democratic party runoffs faced 11 more days of campaigning Monday following a Sunday in which both candidates for the state's chief executive office claimed their appearances were non-political.

Neither candidate for governor in speeches Sunday hit directly at his opponent, but an undercurrent of politics was there, particularly in Gov. Allan Shivers' talk in which he took opportunity to point to a part of his record.

And the office of Ralph Yarborough, the other candidate, issued a statement that was purely political, answering a Shivers charge of Saturday and calling the governor a tyrant.

Meanwhile, Democratic party officials were preparing for what looked at this stage like a record vote. The predictions were based on extremely heavy applications for absentee ballots.

Shivers planned no speeches Monday. Yarborough was in Dallas for a statewide television speech at 6:30 p.m. Monday. On Tuesday, Shivers will swing through West Texas and Yarborough will make a statewide radio speech from Austin.

Sunday, Yarborough spoke at VJ Day memorial services held by the New Braunfels VFW organization. He spoke of the "folly of great powers quarreling over colonial possessions while the Reds are preparing to gobble them up," and called for cooperation among Western nations to stop communism.

Shivers spoke at Praha, a Czech-American community in Fayette County. Czech-Americans from throughout Texas came to the little town for an annual celebration.

He pointed out his record in "putting that union out of business"—a reference to a Port Arthur strike by a union which the governor said was Communist dominated.

The governor pointed out that Czechoslovakia has fallen under Communist domination and said, "We must keep our guard up at all times and maintain our determination to see that it never happens here."

The real politics, however, came in a statement issued by Yarborough's office in Austin. It was set off by a statement by Shivers that Yarborough was "slandering" the state by rating it as "one of the worst in the nation in which to live."

Yarborough countered by saying he was proud of Texas, but then added that Texas stands 47th in public health among the states, in the bottom quarter in pay for school teachers, very low in water and soil conservation, and that there has been no increase in old age pensions from state funds in five years.

"I have a Texan's love for Texas and a Texan's pride," said the former district judge. "....But my pride is not false pride. It will not keep me from making public at every opportunity the deficiencies resulting from my opponent's record of too little and too late for too long."

Okinawa Hit By Typhoon

OKINAWA (AP)—A howling Pacific typhoon which raked this U. S. island fortress with winds of 150 miles an hour yesterday left one person dead and 11 injured, the U.S. Army announced today.

One Japanese drowned. All the injured were Americans, but only three were hurt seriously enough to require hospitalization, the Army said.

Winds of 60 miles an hour and heavy rains are still pounding the island and all residents are still in typhoon-proof shelters.

A number of unoccupied quonset huts were destroyed, some roofs were ripped off and communication lines were cut.

The typhoon is moving toward South Korea and is expected to hit tomorrow night. Weather experts said the storm has lost much of its violence and no heavily populated areas lie in its path.

A second typhoon is approaching Japan and winds of 60 miles an hour are forecast for Tokyo tomorrow evening.

McCarthy Probers Seeking Shortcuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) said today his special six-member committee will "take every possible shortcut" toward a report on censure charges against Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) so the Senate can vote on the issue before the November election.

But Senators Knowland (R-Calif) and George (D-Ga) agreed that unless findings are ready for Senate action by the first week in October it may be impossible to get senators to interrupt re-election campaigns to return to Washington.

Watkins, who heads the bipartisan committee studying 46 accusations that McCarthy has not conducted himself as a senator should, said in an interview he hopes the group "can have a report ready by Oct. 1."

"I am reasonably sure that we can do it," he said, "but I don't want to set any time limit because our progress will depend on the amount of cooperation we receive."

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo), the committee's vice chairman, predicted a report before Oct. 1. The Senate Democratic leadership, he said on a CBS television program last night, "wants a vote" on the censure issue.

Watkins said much testimony may be eliminated by accepting Senate documents produced in past investigations and by permitting McCarthy to make an explanation that he cares to give. He said the three senators who made charges against McCarthy will be asked to testify only about matters of personal knowledge in support of their charges.

The three senators are Flanders (R-Vt), Fulbright (D-Ark) and Morse (Ind-Ore). Their charges, a number of which overlap, range from accusations about McCarthy's financial affairs to contentions that he has ridiculed other senators and public officials.

McCarthy demanded yesterday that Flanders return from Europe, where he has gone for a three-week vacation, to repeat under oath the 33 charges Flanders made against the Wisconsin senator. Flanders, in London, said he would return at once if asked by Watkins — not McCarthy.

Flanders said he had "cleared" his vacation with Watkins, who "did not require my presence during the period of this short holiday."

Knowland Declares Adjournment Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate majority leader Knowland of California said today this is adjournment week for Congress, barring "unexpected snags."

But he added he is not yet ready to take the "maybe" out of adjournment prospects "until we clear a number of priority items"—among them the atomic energy bill, farm legislation and a two billion dollar money bill which are still in dispute between Senate and House.

House Speaker Martin of Massachusetts told newsmen he is also hoping for adjournment Friday or Saturday, "but there is a good possibility it will not be until next week."

Both Knowland and Martin voiced their cautious hopes for quitting this week after meeting with President Eisenhower at the weekly White House conference for congressional leaders.

The House is taking its adjournment cues from the Senate. The 435 member House has been ready to knock off work for some time.

Operating under tight debate curbs, it has completed its essential legislative program about twice as fast as the Senate.

Sen. George (D-Ga) called this "the toughest Senate session" of them all. He spoke as an authority, being the senior senator in length of service starting back in 1922.

"I'm certain," said George in an interview today, "that this has been the most strenuous (Senate session) in lengthy hours.

"We always have long hours just before adjournment, but they have been going on for weeks now. We seem to be doing most of our legislating at the tag end of the session."

Knowland said he will call up for Senate action in the "final" few days two bills aimed against internal subversion, one to allow the death penalty for peacetime espionage and one to rid defense plants of saboteurs; a bill to expand the unemployment compensation act; and several minor measures.

Still awaiting final passage are some major "must" bills. One, the atomic energy bill which upset Knowland's timetable when it touched off 13 days of speechmaking the first time through the Senate, is headed back for Senate-House conference after the Senate threw out one compromise version Friday. There could be more delay on it.

Also in conference or headed there: a general farm bill; social security expansion; foreign aid appropriations; a catch-all supplemental appropriations bill. A Senate measure to temporarily hike the national debt limit six billion dollars to 281 billions may be accepted by the House without change.

There's the Senate-passed bill to outlaw the Communist party which the House takes up today with an eye to writing a version more to the administration's liking. That may still go back to the Senate and perhaps to conference.

During the first six months of the present session, Capitol officials said, the Senate has been in session more than 921 hours, or nearly double the hours put in by the House, 478½.

Over 250 Register Here For Pre-School

Forty-seven more first-graders were registered this morning for the Snyder school system's first pre-school, which is to begin tomorrow.

The number registered by noon today brought the total so far enrolled for the pre-school to 261, of which 214 registered a week ago.

"A few late registrations are still being made," Frank W. Wilson, director of curriculum, said at noon. "We will continue to take new registrations throughout the pre-school."

The number registered is more than half the total number anticipated to be enrolled in the first grade at the beginning of the regular term Sept. 3.

Only those able to attend without dependency on the school buses and without undue inconvenience to their parents are urged to attend the pre-school.

Predicts Iran House To Approve Oil Pact

TEHRAN, Iran, (AP) — Premier Gen. Fazollah Zahedi said today the Majlis, the powerful lower House of Parliament, is certain to ratify the new agreement settling the British-Iranian oil dispute.

In an interview on the first anniversary of his premiership, the royalist leader said:

"Majlis deputies are patriots and will approve the action taken by the government which serves them. There will be opposition, but it will be minor."

Representatives of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co., which developed the Iranian industry, five American companies and Dutch and French firms reached a 25-year agreement with Iran early this month for operation of the nationalized properties.

Goan Nationalists See Drive Stymied

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Goan nationalist drive to oust the Portuguese from India appeared temporarily stymied today. Indian and Portuguese police combined to keep yesterday's much-heralded "liberation" invasion down to a mere trickle. There were no reports of any injured.

But one Goan nationalist leader vowed his group would march again—without warning.

Reports reaching New Delhi on yesterday's demonstration for the merger with India of Goa and Portugal's other 400-year-old holdings on the subcontinent gave this picture:

Indian police, apparently acting on government orders, banned Indian nationalists from taking part in the demonstration timed to coincide with this country's independence day celebration.

As a result, only small groups—mostly teen-agers—out of Goa's total population of 600,000 actually demonstrated.

At the main Portuguese settlement of Goa, south of Bombay, only about 50 demonstrators crossed the border at three points. The Portuguese police arrested all of them.

At the Portuguese settlement of Damao, north of Bombay, Indian police detained 1,200 Indians who tried to march into the enclave. The demonstrators — members of the Praja Socialist party—were herded into trucks after they refused to disband and carted off to Vapi, where they were turned loose several hours later.

Indian police at collection points for the Goan demonstrators also searched them to insure that they carried no weapons. In a previous attack on a Portuguese settlement, the invaders killed four Goan policemen.

Associated Press Correspondent Harold Milks reported from the little Goan frontier town of Polem that Indian and foreign newsmen milling about the border outnumbered the 19 marchers at that point.

Some of those who crossed the northern border briefly occupied the small fortress of Terekhol, but reports reaching here said Portuguese police rounded them up quickly.

Ishwarlal Desai, Socialist leader of the 1,200 would-be marchers on Damao, fired off a telegram to Prime Minister Nehru asking him to rescind his order forbidding non-Goans to take part in the demonstration. He received no reply and officials in New Delhi refused to comment.

Nehru gave the go-ahead Friday to the liberation march but he stipulated that the marchers must be Goans and must adhere to the Gandhian principle of nonviolence.

Nehru told 100,000 cheering listeners at an independence day celebration here in New Delhi that the freedom India won from Britain seven years ago would not be complete until foreign enclaves have been eliminated from India.

India is negotiating with France for the latter's withdrawal from her two areas on the east Indian coast, Pondichery and Karikal. But Portugal refuses to discuss Indian claims for cession of Goa, Damo and the island of Diu.

Entries Come In For Rodeo

Entries were trickling in today for various events in the first annual World Championship Junior Rodeo, which will start here Wednesday and last through Saturday night.

This is the last junior rodeo of the year in which participants can make points. At the end of this show, world champions will be declared in each of the eight events, as well as two all-around titles, one for a boy and one for a girl. These are figured on the number of points the juniors have made in rodeos this year.

The first of activities scheduled will come at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, when the cutting horse contest will begin. Other events will be held in the night performances, which will begin at 8 o'clock. Dances will be held at the rodeo pavillion each night, starting at about 9 o'clock tomorrow night.

The rodeo will officially open with a parade at 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with rodeo participants and riding groups taking part.

On the two middle days, Thursday and Friday, an open class cutting horse contest will be held, with both juniors and adults participating. Time for that will be announced later, according to Alvin Davis, rodeo promoter.

Davis said many entries are expected by telephone tomorrow, while the remainder will come in Wednesday morning. About 12 states are to be represented by some 300 boys and girls 19 years old and younger.

Sheppard Case Is Submitted To Grand Jury

CLEVELAND (AP)—The state began presenting grand jury evidence in the Sheppard murder case today after a court continuance permitted by-passing of a preliminary hearing.

Common Pleas Judge William K. Thomas continued a preliminary hearing until Wednesday at the state's request. The rescheduling was regarded as a technicality to keep alive the first degree murder warrant against Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard.

Counsel for the 30-year-old osteopath, accused of slaying his wife last July 4 in their lakefront home, entered no objection to the move.

William J. Corrigan, chief counsel for Dr. Sheppard, then asked that his client be permitted bail and Judge Thomas took the matter under advisement.

Asst. County Prosecutor Saul Danaceau told the judge "we vigorously oppose" the request.

Corrigan said Dr. Sheppard made no effort to leave the county between the time of the slaying and July 30, when he was arrested, and added:

"We feel he should be released because of the circumstances of the case."

The attorney said defendants are entitled to bail in first degree murder cases except "where the evidence is overwhelming."

Dr. Sheppard, dressed conservatively in a light grey flannel suit, was in court and listened with interest to the proceedings.

The prosecution is expected to take several days to complete presentation of its case to the grand jury.

Expansion Of Trade Asked

BONN, Germany (AP) — Acting West German Chancellor Franz Bluecher called today for an expansion of West German trade with the Soviet block but said the Bonn government must first establish "some form" of relations with the East.

Bluecher stressed in an interview that West Germany "will not leave the road of cooperation with friendly states."

Commenting on the clamor in West Germany for greater trade with the Communist nations, he said:

"I think that expansion of German trade with China, Russia and the satellite states is desirable. Several problems of economic and trade policy which now concern us Germans could be easier solved then."

He said visits by German trade delegations to Communist nations or the establishment of German commercial missions with the Reds "could do useful work" toward promoting trade. But he warned:

"We cannot disregard the fact that a satisfying exchange of goods can only be carried out on the basis of certain general formal agreements. There must be certain agreements which serve as a basis for the work of such delegations or missions.

"That means that finally, and in some form or other, the (West German) Federal Republic must assume relations with the Communist nations. But this is a question of our general foreign policy and the Federal Republic will not leave the road of cooperation with friendly states."

Evacuation By Sea Started

By DON HUTH

ABOARD FLAGSHIP ESTES (AP)—U.S. Navy units today converged on Haiphong, Indochina, to begin what some experts call history's greatest mass civilian evacuation by sea.

The gigantic operation will move hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese from Northern Indochina before the Iron Curtain of communism falls there.

Rear Adm. L. S. Sabin, commander amphibious group, Western Pacific, will command the huge sea operations.

The first ship — the troop transport Menard — arrived in Haiphong Sunday. It will be loaded as soon as French and Vietnamese officials can move refugees to loading areas.

Adm. Sabin said he does not know how many men, women and children will be transported to Southern Viet Nam. There have been varying estimates ranging from 100,000 to 750,000.

As many as 40 ships may participate in the operation. These will include transports, cargo ships and amphibious craft.

Adm. Sabin's staff has been working day and night on the problems of loading, unloading, food, sanitation and medical care.

Two typhoons sweeping the Western Pacific have slowed the arrival of some ships.

Turning The Crank On The Freezer Produces Reward

By ANITA HALL

What could be a better topic for discussion on these 'dog days' of summer than good, cold homemade ice cream? It is a treat for anyone at any time, loved by everyone from babies to grandads. An inquiry made here revealed that any number of local residents still prefer the old hand-crank freezer method of making ice cream to any other way.

Mrs. J. C. WILLIAMSON, west Thirty-fifth Street, has experimented with many recipes but this one has proved to be the one her family likes most. Her basic recipe for one gallon of ice cream is:

5 eggs
2½ cups sugar
1½ tablespoons cornstarch
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 pint whipping cream
Milk

Beat egg whites until stiff, then add beaten yokes. Mix sugar and cornstarch and stir into egg mixture; add cream and vanilla. Pour the mixture into the freezer bucket and add enough milk to fill the bucket. If fruit is used, add more sugar to sweeten the fruit.

For those lovers of ice cream who are allergic to eggs, Mrs. L. L. D. STONE, 500 Twenty - ninth Street, has found the answer in this recipe for one gallon of eggless ice cream.

2 cans Eagle Brand milk
½ pint whipping cream, whipped
¾ cup sugar
1 tablespoon vanilla
Milk

Mix together the Eagle Brand milk and sugar; add the whipped cream and vanilla. Pour into freezer bucket and add milk to fill it.

When she lived in Illinois, Mrs. RAY E. QUANCE, 2909 Avenue I, made her homemade ice cream from the recipe on the back of a Junket package. She suggests adding one pint of coffee cream and more eggs than are called for in the recipe.

Mrs. FLOYD C. CHANDLER, 600 Nineteenth Street, and her family prefer strawberry ice cream and she makes it often. Here is her recipe:

6 eggs
2¾ cups of sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
Dash of salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 packages frozen strawberries
1 teaspoon red food coloring
2 quarts milk

Beat the eggs until they are very stiff, then add the cornstarch, sugar and salt. Beat this mixture until it is smooth and creamy; add 2 packages frozen strawberries, 1 teaspoon vanilla and 2 quarts of milk. For extra color add the food coloring.

Another variation of the basic recipe for ice cream was supplied by Mrs. W. D. EVERETT, JR., 610 Twenty-fourth Street.

Her recipe calls for:

1 large can condensed milk
2½ cups sugar
6 eggs
1 package instant pudding (any flavor desired)
1½ quarts milk

Beat the eggs until stiff; add the sugar, canned milk and instant pudding. Mix well and heat the mixture for 2 minutes. Pour it in freezer bucket and add 1½ quarts of milk.

DONALD R. SCOTT makes the ice cream at his home and this is his favorite recipe:

2 cups sugar
6 eggs
1 pint whipping cream
2 tablespoons vanilla
½ gallon milk

Beat the eggs and sugar together; add pint of whipped cream. Then add ½ gallon of milk and 2 full tablespoons of vanilla.

"Stir it all up and then start cranking," he said.

Mrs. Edmonson is the former Betty Joyce Payne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Payne, 1010 Twenty-eighth Street. The couple was married July 10 in Madill, Okla., and is now at home at 2312½ Twenty-ninth Street. They plan to move soon to Dermott.

Mrs. McCright was at the bride's book where about 30 guests registered. Guests were presented plate favors of miniature bags of rice bound with pink ribbon.

Brooklyn Almost Catches Up With Giants; Braves Climbing

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Brooklyn's glee over dumping "them Giants" three in a row is tempered by the knowledge that giddy Milwaukee, on a nine-game spree, shows no signs of running out of winning.

The Giants' lead, once a bulging seven games, now measures only half a game over the Dodgers. The Braves are 3½ games behind.

If Brooklyn beats the Phillies tonight in the only game scheduled, they'll trail New York by only .002.

Brooklyn bumped off New York yesterday 9-4 for a sweep of their three-game series while Milwaukee squeaked past Chicago 2-1.

St. Louis barely survived, 14-12, over Cincinnati when Gus Bell, Ted Kluszewsi and Jim Greengrass hit successive homers in the ninth inning. Pittsburgh won its fourth straight 9-6, its longest streak of the year, at Philadelphia and rallied to tie the second game 5-5 before the curfew forced play to be suspended.

Cleveland moved three full games in front of New York in the American League race. The Indians ran their winning streak to six by downing Baltimore 5-2 and 3-1.

The Yanks scored eight in the first inning on the way to a 14-9 decision over Boston, their seventh straight. Chicago was practically eliminated from the pennant race by losing twice to Detroit 2-1 and 8-7, dropping 9½ games behind Cleveland. Johnny Schmitz pitched Washington to a 4-1 victory over Philadelphia.

Billy Loes' pitching was a most important factor in Brooklyn's success against New York. The young right-hander calmly set down the Giants with seven hits for his sixth straight triumph. After Jim Hearn's wildness presented the Brooks with three gift runs in the second, the sluggers took over. Duke Snider and Gil Hodges homered and Jackie Robinson contributed two doubles. Willie Mays hit No. 37 — his first since July 28 — and Ray Katt, Al Dark and Hank Thompson also hit home runs for New York.

Gene Conley, the Braves' lanky rookie, won his 12th with a seven-hitter that included six infield hits. Joe Adcock's double and Johnny Logan's single in the fourth provided the winner after Milwaukee scored an unearned run on Vern Morgan's wild throw in the third.

The homers by Bell, Kluszewsi and Greengrass tied a record held by many clubs but couldn't save Cincinnati from defeat. Joe Cunningham's homer with two on and Stan Musial's 31st helped the Cards win a wild one.

The Pirates won the opener in Philadelphia with the help of Fran Thomas' homer. The second game was played under protest. Manager Fred Haney claimed Willie Jones threw his glove at a Bob Skinner line drive single in the seventh. A wild pitch by Steve Ridzik allowed the Pirates to tie the score.

Larry Doby and Bobby Avila slammed homers in Cleveland's sweep over Baltimore. Doby hit No. 27 with two on in the sixth inning of the first game after Baltimore scored twice on winner Art Houtteman. Avila's 12th homer got the Indians off on top in the second game, won by Mike Garcia over Lou Kretlow.

Rookie Bob Grim won his 16th for the Yanks although Boston made it a little uncomfortable after trailing at one stage 11-0. Art Schallock and Tom Morgan finally subdued the rallying Red Sox. Harry Agganis homered for the Sox. Mickey Mantle smashed No. 26 for the Yanks.

Steve Gromek's four-hitter got Detroit off to a good start against Chicago and the Tigers then routed Virgil Trucks in the second game for his worst beating of the season.

Jim Busby knocked in three of Washington's four runs with a pair of singles off loser Johnny Gray while Schmitz scattered seven hits.

Ted Williams Is Not So Bad After All

NEW YORK (AP) — This might give you an insight on Ted Williams, who has been condemned publicly as hard to get along with, ill-tempered and self-centered.

In his comfortable home at Silver Springs, Md., a few miles outside of Washington, Bill McGowan, the umpire, is sitting out the rest of the season. The doctors sent Bill home from Chicago a few weeks ago with instructions to take a long rest. A re-examination in January will determine whether he returns to work again.

As McGowan, a fiery little fellow who came up to the majors in 1925, is finishing his 30th year in the American League, it was a severe wrench to call it a season.

There had been little publicity about his illness. Bill just quietly slipped out of the box scores and Bill Summers moved over from another city to take his place on a four-man team.

Last week the phone rang at McGowan's home. It was Williams on the line.

"How're you feeling, No. 1?" he asked. "They tell me you'll be out for the rest of year. Take it easy and don't rush it. Don't forget, you're still No. 1."

That was all. Just a friendly phone call, but McGowan couldn't have been more pleased if President Eisenhower had called. "Imagine that," he commented over the phone. "The greatest player in the league calling up to see how I felt."

McGowan always contended it was the "bushers" who gave the umpires the most trouble, not the big stars of the game. Joe DiMaggio never griped about a pitch, nor Williams. They are the real pros, the fellows who know if a pitch was close enough for an umpire to call, it was close enough to hit.

Talk Is For Class B Loop In Area

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—President Hal Savles of the Class C West Texas-New Mexico League confirmed yesterday that there is interest in this area in possible formation of a Class B league.

No formal meetings have been held, Sayles said, and nothing will be done until the winter meeting of the National Baseball Assn.

The Longhorn League also operates in this area but Sayles said he had not talked to any of the clubs about formation of the Class B circuit.

Toski Pars Final Round To Take World Title, $50,000

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — On a course where par meant nothing, Bob Toski used one yesterday to win the equivalent of $100,000.

His final round of 72 — put together the weirdest fashion in tournament history—gave him the "World" title at Tam O'Shanter and $50,000 in cash plus an exhibition contract worth just as much.

The 127-pounder, at 27 the youngest Tam winner, settled for a 72-hole score of 274. This was 14 strokes under pra, with brilliant rounds of 67-65-70 and the finale of par 72.

By one stroke he beat out Earl Stewart Jr., the money-hungry 54-hole leader from Dallas, who blew to a closing 74, and Jack Burke Jr., also a Texan, who did the last 18 in 69. Each of the runners-up, who locked with 275, collected $7,500 as shares of a $150,000 purse distribution.

The wiry Toski, registering from Livingston, N.J., never will forget that closing 72 as long as he lives.

He started out the last round with birdies on four of the first five holes. Then suddenly, he began to look like you and me. The roof fell in with a triple bogey 7.

He parred the next three for a 35 against standard 36 for the front nine.

At this point — 63 holes — he totaled 237, Stewart, 236, and Burke, 240 with a front nine of 34.

After salvaging a par 5 on the long 64th from a trap, Toski bogied four holes in a row by wandering into sand and missing short putts.

At this time — 68 holes — he had used up 261 strokes in all while Burke and Stewart were deadlocked at 258.

While Stewart went for a birdie 4 on the 69th, Burke drove out of bounds and took a 6. Toski hit a perfect drive, stuck a No. 4 wood 12 feet from the cup and holed the outt for an eagle 3. This tied him with Burke at 264, while Stewart jockeyed ahead with 262.

On the 215-yard 70th, Stewart overshot the green, stubed a chip shot and finally took a 5. Burke and Toski parred in 3s.

Stewart, who was behind the other two, parred the 71st and also took a 4 on the 72nd after failing to sink a 13-foot putt for a birdie 3 and took 275.

Burke and Toski each took 4 on the 71st.

On the final hole Burke parred with 4, two-putting from 20 feet. Toski planted his approach eight feet from the pin. He rammed in the putt for a birdie 3 — and it was all over.

Lloyd Mangrum took fourth place with 277 and Walter Burkemo, fifth with 278.

Other "World" champions crowned were:

Women pros — (Worth $5,000) — Patty Berg with a 6-under-par 298, three strokes ahead of Louise Suggs.

Squabble For Fourth Place In Big State

By The Associated Press

A lively race for fourth place is about all there is to the Big State League campaign as it staggers down the stretch.

Austin and Galveston are locked in the big fight for a place in the approaching playoffs.

As of Monday, Austin is on top. The Pioneers moved into fourth place last night by staying away from the ball park. Galveston, with whom Austin was tied for fourth, took an 8-5 drubbing from league-leading Waco.

Waco slammed three runs across in the 10th. Rex Babcock singled in one run, Myron Hoffman trioled to drive in Babcock and the third talley came on an infield error.

Tyler's second - place Tigers scored four times in the 10th to beat Del Rio 14-10. A 2-run double by Troy Mitchell featured the winning surge which came on four hits. Vallie Eaves was pitching at the time for Del Rio and absorbed the loss.

Moe Santomauro was the Tyler batting star with two home runs, one a grand-slammer. Pete Konyer also hit two home runs for Tyler.

Corpus Christi lashed Temple 12-5 with Al Facchini and Walt Peterson sparking an 11-hit attack. Facchini got two hits, scored four runs and stole three bases. Peterson had two triples and a single and drove in two Corpus Christi runs.

Temple got to Jim Vitter for nine hits but he was tight in the clinches.

Austin's game at Harlingen was postponed because of rain.

Financial Disease Hits Clovis Club

CLOVIS, N.M. (AP)—The Clovis club must raise $8,000 by Thursday to continue operations in the Class C West Texas-New Mexico League. But a spokesman says "this won't be another Borger situation."

President Bern Gantner of the Clovis club referred to the collapse of the Borger, Tex., club which left the league with only seven members.

"I am confident that we will raise the money," Gantner said yesterday. "We have frequently had fund raising drives in midseason before and our Clovis fans always come through."

Gantner said the club must pay off a $9,000 tax obligation from last year and declining attendance has made it difficult to do this.

Smith Act Best Present Law For Use In Controlling Reds

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The best single weapon the government has at this time for jailing Communists for their conspiracies against the United States is the Smith Act, passed in 1940.

Under this law 81 Communist leaders have been convicted and jailed for conspiring to teach forceful overthrow of the government. More than 100 have been indicted. And the Supreme Court has upheld the constitutionality of the act.

The communist party is nowhere mentioned by name in the Smith Act. The convicted Communists were found guilty of violating the law as conspirators, not as Communist party members.

If the Communist party had been specifically named in the Smith Act the Supreme Court might have held the law unconstitutional. For example, the party, although government agencies have found it to be a Moscow tool, calls itself a political party.

The court might have decided that a law which was aimed at the party by name might therefore have infringed on the Constitution's guarantee of free speech.

The government has spent a long time, still without final positive results, trying to move against the Communists under still another law, the McCarran Internal Security Act of 1950.

Under that law — the Communist party isn't mentioned by name there either — Communist party leaders and members must register with the government if their organization:

1. Is found, by the Subversive Activities Control Board (SACB) to be the agent of a foreign government, in this case Soviet Russia. The board so found it after giving the Communist party a hearing which lasted a year.

2. If the Supreme Court upholds the board's findings. When the board ruled against them, the Communists appealed to the courts. The Supreme Court is expected to give a final decision by mid-1955.

If the Supreme Court finds the McCarran Act is unconstitutional or that the board was wrong in saying Communists must register, the government will have spent five years for nothing.

If, on the other hand, the court upholds the board, what happens? Communist party leaders, although appealing to the courts, have indicated they would not register if the final decision is against them.

Suppose on the day the court ruled they must register, the Communists dissolved their party under its present name and organized another party which had the same purpose.

Would the government then have to go through the whole process all over again? Some government lawyers think that would be necessary. Others argue the FBI could go out and arrest the Communists who didn't register.

There are still penalties for not registering, but since there are an estimated 25,000 Communists in the country the government would have its hands full jailing all of them.

Now Congress seems in a mood—the Senate voted for it but the House hasn't acted yet — to outlaw the Communist party, flatly and by name. Atty. Gen. Brownell previously expressed concern about such a move. He's chief spokesman for the Eisenhower administration's opposition to banning the party outright.

He feared that outlawing the party might wreck all the work the government has put in so far in trying to make the Communists register under the McCarran Act.

There's a section of that act which says anyone forced to register under it does not in any way incriminate himself by registering. But if now Congress outlaws the party, Communists could argue at once and could be upheld by the courts on grounds that:

It is unconstitutional for the government to require a man to give evidence against himself as he would be doing if he registered as a Communist when there is a law making it a crime to be a Communist.

Of the 200 kinds of dangerous snakes in the world, at least 60 are found in Africa.

Navy Advised To Clarify Its Reserve Aims

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three admirals and a businessman today advised the Navy to adopt a single Naval Reserve policy and stick to it.

The men, members of a special reserve evaluation board, said the Navy has presented six different "authoritative" statements on the mission of the reserve and that the six were "incompatible" with each other.

Some of these statements were classified "secret," making it impossible for reservists to learn what their real mission is, the board complained. It blamed Washington for "error, ambiguity, duplication and conflict."

The board, which has been studying the reserve program since last October, listed its recommendations and criticisms in a report to the secretary of the Navy.

Vice Adm. Felix Johnson, retired, became chairman of the board after the death last January of Adm. W. H. P. Blandy.

The board found that the Naval Reserve program is generally good and that the air reserve system is "outstanding." It recommended, however, that the Navy make it easier for airmen to get into the reserve program but harder for them to stay in unless they continued active flying.

An intense public information program, keynoted by the President, was urged to overcome the feeling of "bitterness and resentment" among reservists who might believe one tour of active duty should discharge their service obligations.

Reservists also need to be told that participation in active training programs will not automatically make them more liable to immediate recall in time of emergency than if they stayed inactive, the board said.

German Tans Elephant Hide

GROSS UNSTADT, Germany (AP)—Karl Emmerich's job is reputedly the only one of its kind in Europe. He tans elephant hides.

A tall, lean man, with dueling scars on his left cheek, he operates a tannery founded in 1868 by his grandfather after a scientist friend disclosed that elephant skins were excellent for polishing steel and other metals. For generations, it has been shipping polishing and grinding discs made from elephant hide to all parts of the world.

Elephant skins are too expensive to import, Emmerich told a reporter from the U.S. Army newspaper Stars and Stripes. So he waits until elephants die in zoos and circuses, then contracts for their skins. During the last war, he bought elephants killed by Allied air raids.

An elephant's hide averages two inches in thickness. It is carefully processed, first being soaked in chemicals to remove dirt, then softened. For final tanning, it is stored in a pit and covered with oak bark. It may lie there for as long as three years.

CHICKEN FRIED AUTOMATICALLY

Chicken that is fried to the same perfection every time is insured when eating at the Chuck Wagon Restaurant, above, 1112 Twenty-fifth Street, because the restaurant uses an automatic chicken fryer. The chicken fryer is thermostatically heat controlled so that each piece of chicken is fried the same. (Lee Watson photograph).

Consistency Pays In Frying Chicken

If you have often eaten fried chicken in restaurants, you probably have noticed that most restaurants do not cook their chicken the same everytime with the result that sometimes the chicken is over or under cooked to suit your taste.

That is never true at the Chuck Wagon Restaurant, 1112 Twenty-fifth Street, because a thermostatically controlled chicken fryer is used to insure that the chicken is always fried exactly the same each time.

R. W. "Chunk" Burney, owner, said that the automatic chicken fryer at his restaurant has won many steady chicken customers, although most persons do not realize what his secret of consistent chicken frying is.

"The machine has a thermostat which controls the heat of the grease in which the chicken is fried so that it does not cook too slowly, nor too fast. If chicken is cooked too fast, the outside will get too crisp and tough before the inside of the thicker pieces of meat are cooked," Burney said.

The automatic chicken fryer is just one of several pieces of modern equipment which make the Chuck Wagon's kitchen outstanding.

One of the other major features of the Chuck Wagon kitchen is barbecuing facilities which insure consistently good barbecued meats.

Complete fountain service, not offered in most restaurants, is another leading feature of the Chuck Wagon, Burney said.

Burney recently purchased the interest of his partner, Joe Rue Burney, and "Chunk" Burney is now sole owner and operator of the restaurant.

125,000 Attend Church Assembly

By GEORGE CORNELL

CHICAGO (AP) — Chanting voices, chiming bells and air-piercing trumpets roared above 125,000 persons in Soldier Field last night, a highlight of the first day of the Assembly of the World Council of Churches.

In a spectacle packed with drama and reverence, figures huddled in a pool of light raised their arms high as the hymn of "Come, Lord Jesus, Come" surged forth.

The outdoor service brought together believers of many creeds and customs in one of this country's greatest displays of Christian faith. The massive crowd, brought to Chicago by four special trains, 503 chartered buses and 9,300 automobiles from all over the nation, jammed the huge stadium and paced the entrances.

The number inside before the service began was estimated by Park District Police Chief George A. Otlewis as "more than 125,000." At the same time, an announcer said 30,000 were outside, unable to get in.

The stirring Festival of Faith came after the World Assembly opened with a morning worship service in suburban Evanston, with the 1,500 representatives from 161 denominations in 48 countries present.

"We have learned how to study, to speak, to stand and to serve together," Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of Washington, one of five council presidents, said in a sermon. "We intend to stay together."

The dramatic evening service depicted in music and pageantry the creation of the earth and man, the rise of evil, the coming of Christ, His Resurrection and finally, the promise of a new world. It used a cast of 4,000.

With the huge bowl of the field in darkness, a fanfare of trumpets sounded suddenly from a high parapet, and a spear of light fell on a man standing in the center of the field on a tall, gold-draped rostrum.

"Oh, all ye works of the Lord," he intoned. And out of the darkness chorused a choir of hundreds, "Bless Ye the Lord." There were more praises and responses, then a 2,000-member choir sang out:

"Holy, holy, holy."

Flood lights bathed the green field, and into the arena moved a slow procession of leaders of the worldwide aggregation of churches — old churches, new ones, Protestant, Orthodox, Old Catholic and ancient Eastern communions.

"All hail the power of Jesus' name," sang the chorus.

Then, for two hours, there unfolded a tableau of stirring music, of dancers in costumes of gold, pink, blue, green lavender and red.

In symbolic movements, under an ever-changing spectrum of lights, they traced the birth of life, its subjection to evil and the struggle against it toward redemption.

MASTERPIECE UNCOVERED

Dr. Hanns R. Teichert, 53, uses a magnifying glass in Chicago on a painting he purchased from a New York antique dealer for $450. It turned out to be a Madonna and child by Leonardo da Vinci worth more than a million. When he bought the painting there was another painting on the surface.

Attlee Group Following A Busy Schedule

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Labor party delegation visiting Communist China followed a busy schedule of sightseeing, talks and socializing today.

British correspondents accompanying former Prime Minister Clement Attlee, left-wing leader Aneurin Bevan and six other leading Laborites reported the party was greeted everywhere in Peiping with cordiality and friendliness.

The Britons arrived in the Red Chinese capital by plane Saturday from Moscow. Later this week they go to Mukden for four days of inspecting industrial development in Manchuria, then return to Peiping for a meeting with the Red Chinese chief, Mao Tze-tung. Late next week the group flies on to Shanghai and then to Canton.

Premier Chou En-lai was the visitors' host at a 5½-hour lunch yesterday. Deryck Winterton, accompanying the party for the Labor party organ, the Daily Herald, reported that Chinese-British relations, including East-West trade, were discussed.

(Efforts by The Associated Press to obtain visas for a reporter to accompany the Attlee party to Red China were unsuccessful.)

Winterton said the visitors also asked questions about the Chinese constitution and trade unions and that "answers" were given.

He said the delegation's requests to visit such Peiping points as a prison, schools, hospitals, a mine and a textile plant were all granted. He added that the Chinese people were "cheerful and friendly."

Chou's luncheon yesterday was given at one of the former imperial palaces. The menu included lotus flower roots, bamboo shoots and sharks' fins. Toasts were drunk in vodka-like maltai.

An official banquet for the Laborites was scheduled tonight.

In London, observers speculated that Chou in his talks, with Attlee was pressing his new, stepped-up campaign to get Formosa from under the control of Chiang Kai-shek.

Rites Set For C. R. Roberson

Charles Russell Roberson, 71, a resident of Scurry County for 22 years died of a heart attack about 10:30 yesterday morning while attending a Sunday school class at the First Presbyterian Church. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Cogdell Memorial Hospital shortly after being stricken.

Funeral services are to be held at 5 p.m. today in the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Ronald Hubbard, pastor, will officiate. He is to be assisted by his father, the Rev. Edgar Hubbard from Kemp, Tex. Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Mr. Roberson is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. R. C. May of Snyder, Mrs. O. E. Pattison of Clovis, N.M., and Mrs. L. Rose Robison, who is a doctor in Kermit; a sister, Mrs. Sally Graves of Snyder; three grandsons and many nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be John R. Covey, Jr., Warren Sturgeon, Lawrence Boatenhamer, Jim McCright, John McCright, Tollie Faver, Edgar Taylor and Emmett Floyd. Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Men's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Roberson was born July 8, 1883, in Pikesville, Tenn. He was married to Edith Lane in 1906 in Abilene, and the couple moved to Clovis in 1916. Mr. Roberson, a farmer, had been a member of the Presbyterian Church for 30 years and an elder of the Snyder church for several years.

Egyptians Protest Crossing Of Border

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Egypt's War Ministry protested to the U.N. Mixed Armistice Commission today that armed Israeli soldiers crossed the Egyptian border east of Gaza, blew up a water pumping station and killed an Egyptian workman.

The Voice of Israel broadcast from Jerusalem last night that Israeli citizens had blown up the station Saturday in reprisal for a similar attack on an Israeli water line last week. The broadcast made no mention of anyone being killed.

Be Satisfied With A Week Of Seven Days

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, (AP) — Morning thoughts of an alley Aristotle on the start of a new week:

Monday is the limpest day in the average man's calendar. He returns to work tired from working at play.

We take the seven-day week for granted. Sometimes when I feel like criticizing both the Lord and mankind—even an upset stomach can stir these solitary thoughts of rebellion—I often harbor thoughts about the God of the Old Testamen that would hardly please him.

Yet he labored to create the world in six days and rested from his vast efforts on the seventh day. That created the tradition of the seven-day week. The modern effort in most industries has been to try to get the working job done in five days.

But suppose the Lord had labored 99 days in a row to perfect our vineyard and rested on the 100th day. Could human beings have accepted this pattern of a 100-day week? Certainly not today. So maybe one Monday every seven days isn't as bad as it sometimes seems.

We claimed we are made in the image of God, but there are no quarrels in a Christian heaven. More often we imitate in our daily lives the old Greek and Roman gods, who squabbled among themselves in petty rivalries so much that today they would feel as much at home in Times Square as they did on Mount Olympus.

The victory of Christianity over the centuries is that it reflects the ordinary man's craving to revere something more substantial, and less jealous, than he knows himself to be.

Peace has been the mouth-spoken dream of every generation of mankind under the sun. Yet the simplest way to create world unity would be an announcement that invaders from another planet had landed on earth.

The sad fact of so-called civilization as we have known it is that dire necessity, a man's urgent loneliness and dependence on the frightened fellow who must protect his flank, has knitted firmer friends in danger than can all the pleading platitudes of peace.

Evacuation Plane Crashes

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—A twin-engine cargo plane evacuating Vietnamese refugees from Hanoi crashed in the Se Done River near Pase in southern Laos yesterday, killing 46 persons. Most of the dead were women and children.

Three of the four French crewmen and a Vietnamese woman and child were the only survivors.

The plane had taken off from Hanoi for Saigon with the refugees, fleeing occupation of that area by the Communist-led Vietminh.

Airport authorities at Pase said the pilot had radioed an hour before the crash that one of the engines of his Bristol plane had coned out and he was heading for the Pakse landing strip. Coming in for the landing, the plane suddenly nosed into the river a mile short of its goal.

Los Angeles Youth Is Soap Box Derby Victor

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Dick Kemp, 14, of Los Angeles coasted his $9.40 blue racer to victory—and a $5,000 college scholarship—in the 17th All-American Soap Box Derby here yesterday.

Carrying a lucky silver dollar and wearing a favorite though weathered pair of red leather moccasins, Dick flashed down the 975.4-foot Derby Hill track in 27:80 seconds in the final heat. It was his slowest heat of the day.

The freckle-faced champ was just an inch or so ahead of Gary Miller of Long Beach, Calif., the second-place winner, who in turn was just barely ahead of the third-place John Kirtley of Evansville, Ind.

Father, Daughter Are United After 50 Years

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) —After nearly half a century, Herbert Tucker has been reunited with the daughter he "walked away" from at the age of 3 weeks.

The daughter, Miss Marie Tucker of Nashville, Tenn., found her 71-year-old father through a friend and came to Louisville yesterday to join him.

Tucker frankly admitted he "just walked away" from his family at High Cliff, Tenn., 48 years ago. Asked why he did it, he said: "I had no sense."

He said he had regretted the mistake over and over.

Man Drowns In River While Dodging Officer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Eugene Hicks, 25, Columbus, ran from a police officer making a routine check of a picnic area where his car was parked, stumbled into a river and was drowned yesterday.

Cruiserman Kenneth Cashner Jr. said Hicks apparently didn't know the river was there.

Cashner said as he approached the car Hicks and two others jumped from it and ran. The other two were rescued from the river. They told Cashner they had feared they would be arrested for parking in the area.

Lifts Automobile Off Leg Of His Young Son

HARMONY, R. I. (AP)—William R. Backman Sr. weighs only 130 pounds but he lifted a 3,300-pound auto off his young son's leg yesterday.

Backman said he was backing his car out of a picnic area when he felt a bump. He got out of the car and saw one wheel resting on his 4-year-old son's leg.

The son was pulled clear while Backman lifted the car.

The leg was only bruised.

Gadget-Filled Auto On Long Non-Stop Junket

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The gadget - equipped automobile of Eljas (Louie) Mattar passed through his home town of San Diego yesterday on a 6,391-mile nonstop run from Anchorage, Alaska, to Mexico City.

Mattar said he expects to reach the Mexican capital Aug. 19 on schedule. He left Anchorage Aug. 10.

The car's tires can be changed without stopping by means of hydraulic jacks on wheels. Mattar, who owns a garage, has been adding gadgets — like a dashboard bar, electric refrigerator, kitchen sink and television — to the car since 1947. He has two substitute drivers with him.

Urges U. N. To Visit World Areas Of Tension

SINGAPORE (AP) — Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, outgoing president of the U.N. Assembly, says she thinks the international organization should meet in parts of the world "undergoing great tension rather than "secluded in a glass tower."

Addressing the second World assembly of youth here yesterday, the Indian woman leader said solutions to important questions might be speeded by putting U.N. delegates in close proximity to the troubles instead of in their New York headquarters, "with every kind of luxury inside and out taking our minds away from these problems."

Appraisals Of Hall, Mitchell Disagree

CHICAGO (AP) — The chairmen of the two major political parties drew widely different appraisals of the Eisenhower administration today.

Stephen A. Mithcell, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, discussed GOP farm policies, foreign policy and the 83rd Congress at a meeting of the insurance section of the American Bar Assn., now holdings its 77th annual meeting Chicago.

Mitchell, in his prepared address, said America's farmers "are making four billion dollars a year less than they were in 1952," and added:

"They have lost one dollar of income out of every four. All the new Republican farm program offers is still lower prices and lower income."

Hall, in a similar prepared address, said of the administration's farm program:

"The Eisenhower administration, with commendable courage and farsightedness, has obtained an improved farm bill. This provides price supports for six basic commodities between 82½ and 90 per cent of parity. Its aim is a better balance in agricultural production. And, any support level adjustments will be gradual — in line with the President's recommendations."

Hall said the House GOP members stood firm for the administration's "sound program, but the Democrats fought us."

Of the administration's foreign policy, Mitchell said:

"The raw isolationism of the 1920s was no more deadly than is the sugar-coated isolationism of today — whether it is served with a slogan by a smiling Eisenhower or bullied down our throats by a sneering McCarthy over the prostrate body of Dulles."

Hall said the administration, burdened with a rather grim legacy when it took office, "was immediately presented with six highly critical situations," which he listed as Korea, Guatemala, Iran, Suez, the European Defense Community and Indochina.

"The outcome of five of these six tests can be termed a plus," Hall said. "To be candid, the sixth (Indochina) must be accounted something of a minus for reasons quite bevond control of this administration. . . ."

Concerning economic conditions under the administration, Mitchell told the group:

"At any rate, you all know we're in a recession. You know production and income are not where they were or where they ought to be. Secretary Weeks might be able to stimulate the economy by using next year's funds this year just before election, but there will be a compensating loss of stimulus after election."

Hall said:

"For the first time in the recent history of politics, we have witnessed the curious spectacle of a party caught flat-footed by good times. For that is exactly what happened to the gloom-and-doom division of the Democratic party which, only a few months ago, was crying 'Wolf!'

"This wolf, of course, was at Uncle Sam's economic door and ready to move in.

"We all know this fancied depression never came off."

Reds Warn Of Religion Evil

MOSCOW (AP) — As a new school term approaches, Russia's teachers are being warned to stay away from religion and not to try to instill any "religious prejudices and superstitions" in the nation's youth.

The warning was published by the newspaper Teachers Gazette, which complained that some teachers have been backsliding—"getting married in church, bringing their children to baptism and having ikons in their homes."

Teachers Gazette thus carried forward a newly revived and intensified antireligious campaign that is sweeping through the Soviet press.

Teachers Gazette also assailed what it termed superstitions and the "harmful influence" of the church on children.

The paper singled out a so-called "holy lake" near the city of Gorki on the Volga River, where it said "girls go to shrines to give thanks for having passed examinations or graduated from school . . ."

"And there are also churches in the neighborhood of this so-called holy lake where frequently children comes so much under the influence of the church that they quit school. . . ."

Duke On Fishing Trip In Labrador's Wilds

GOOSE BAY, Labrador (AP)—The Duke of Edinburgh roughed it in the wilds of Labrador today, fishing on Eagler River 115 miles east of here for salmon, brook and lake trout as he continued his tour of Canada.

The husband of Queen Elizabeth arrived at the camp in a downpour. The only building there is a log cook shack and he and his party slept last night in tents, bedding down in sleeping bags on cots.

10 Hurt When Plaster Dislodges In Theater

Dhala Women Do Most Work

ADEN (AP) — Chewing narcotic "qat" leaves and wandering around idly while women do all the work is the normal daily life of the men of Dhala.

Beautiful, well-built women of Dhala village in the Amiri protectorate, in the southern Arabian British, controlled protectorates, certainly spoil their men. Besides preparing the meals, housekeeping, going out in search for water and firewood, they do most of the work on the farms.

The men cultivate qat trees and chew their leaves. They may do some fighting from time to time when their tribes differ. Even fighting is done comfortably, behind high strong walls with small openings for the guns. They window-snipe.

The 6,000 inhabitants of the 500 houses of Dhala live mainly on agriculture, and the main crop is qat.

A Dhal'i often consumes qat worth nearly $2 a day. He may go without food to buy the stuff.

"It makes you feel energetic and lively. If we stop chewing we feel exhausted and half-dead," Dhali's argue.

Hostess Leads Plane's Passengers To Safety

BLACKBUSHE AIRPORT, England (AP) — A calm Irish hostess held the door of her burning airliner open here yesterday as all 37 Britons aboard filed out to safety. A few minutes later all but the tail section of the plane burned.

The chartered Viking airliner, belonging to Airwork, Ltd., crash-landed after one engine failed following takeoff. A wing and an engine snapped off as the aircraft belly-landed short of the runway and caught fire.

Nine passengers were taken to a hospital at nearby Oxford for observation.

The hostess, Beryl Rothwell, discounted her own role in the crash, paying tribute instead to the passengers. "They behaved as cooly as though an air crash were an every-day incident," she said.
