Red Attacks Part Of Plot To Divide West, Ike Says

Area Wildcat Going Deeper Into Strawn

Sunray Oil Corp. No. 1 Criswell, Northeast Scurry County wildcat, is drilling deeper in Strawn lime after a drillstem test in that zone from 6,287-296 feet.

The tool was open two hours with gas at the surface in 30 minutes. There was no gauge or estimate on the gas volume. Recovery was 90 feet of heavily oil and gas - cut drilling mud with 180 feet of free oil and 1,630 feet of salt water. Flowing pressure ranged from 200 to 920 pounds, with 30-minute shut-in pressure 2,600 pounds.

The No. 1 Criswell is 10 miles west of Rotan and in section 212-2-H&TC.

FISHER WILDCAT

Youngblood & Youngblood of Dallas have spotted location for a 6,400-foot wildcat to test the Cambrian in Southeast Fisher County.

It is to be the No. 1 Humphries, 2,000 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 46-1-H&-&B. That is about four miles east of Sylvester.

BORDEN COUNTY

Gulf Oil No. 1-E Higginbotham, Borden County wildcat, is taking electric logs at total depth of 8,080 feet in Pennsylvanian lime after a drillstem test from 8,030-080 feet.

The test tool was open four hours. Gas surfaced in 15 minutes at the rate of 51,000 cubic feet per day. Recovery was 580 feet of mud and water-cut oil, 10 per cent oil, and 740 feet of salt water.

James G. Brown and associates No. 1 Bacon, Southeast Borden reef wildcat, has spudded to 270 feet in red beds and cemented surface casing there. Hanley No. 1 Russell is drilling in lime below 3,742.

In West Borden County, Phillips No. 1 Quartz is drilling below 8,547 feet in lime after a drillstem test from 8,394-513 feet in an unidentified formation. The tool was open two hours, with gas surfacing in 22 minutes. Recovery was 270 feet of gas-cut mud, 490 feet of oil and gas-cut mud, 50 feet of free oil and 3,723 feet of salt water.

DAWSON PROJECT

Seaboard Oil Co. has announced location for its No. 2 H. J. Woodul as a one-quarter-mile north stepout from its No. 1 Vaughn which is now in the process of completing as a Pennsylvanian discovery.

The No. 2 Woodul is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 34-34-t5n-T&P. That is one-half mile east of Midway and on a 240-acre lease. Rotary contract is to 8,500 feet.

Seaboard No. 1 Vaughn has cemented five and one-half-inch casing at total depth of 8,285 feet and is to perforate for completion.

ROSCOE-STRAWN OILER

Union Oil Co. of California No. 2-74 T. D. Young has been completed as the second producer in the newly designated South Roscoe-Strawn field of Nolan County.

Operator reported a daily flowing potential of 681.08 barrels of 40-gravity oil plus 3.8 per cent salt water and .2 of one per cent basic sediment. Production is from perforations at 6,558-566 feet.

The new well is six miles south of Roscoe and in section 74-23-T&P.

SHARON RIDGE

Creslenn Oil Co. has reported completion of the No. 4 Hardee Moran in the Sharon Ridge 1700 field of South Scurry County.

The well pumped 24 hours to make 92.34 barrels of oil with no water. Gas - oil ratio was too small to measure. Gravity was not reported. The new well is in section 99-97-H&TC.

DRILLING REPORT

Texaco No. 1 Katie Green, Stonewall wildcat, has been ordered plugged and abandoned after a drillstem test from 6,187-293 feet. That zone was an unidentified lime, possibly Ellenburger. Recovery after 30 minutes was 200 feet of mud and 5,600 feet of sulphur water.

In Garza County, Atlantic No. 1 Swenson is drilling below 2,300 feet in sandy lime. Seaboard No. 1 Beggs is drilling in shale and lime below 4,490 feet. Continental No. 1-A Swenson is drilling in lime and shale below 8,115 feet.

Amerada No. 1 Ben Whitaker, Howard tester, is drilling in lime below 6,380 feet.

The pilot walked away from this T-33 jet training plane after the craft crashed-landed in a brush-covered pasture near Vincent late yesterday afternoon. Lt. Huey D. Rogers of Big Spring, rode the plane down after his jet engine had a "flame-out" while he was flying over Lake J. B. Thomas. The plane bounced across State Highway 350, coming to rest about a mile and a half from the point of its original contact with the ground. Lt. Rogers is stationed at Webb Air Force Base. Pilot Walks Away From Crashed Jet

A jet trainer airplane from Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring, crash-landed 29 miles southwest of here, near the Snyder-Big Spring highway, yesterday afternoon and the pilot walked away under his own power.

The pilot "bellied" the plane to a safe crash-landing in an area considerably too rough for forced landings. His craft first touched ground a mile and a half from its stopping place, bounced back into the air and glided toward the busy Texas Highway 350, mowing down mesquites and clipping off the tops of a few fence posts on both sides of the highway, then skidded to a stop 700 feet from the pavement.

"It's a hell of a note when you can't keep one in the air," he was quoted as saying when he climbed from the plane, apparently unhurt except for minor cuts and bruises.

The pilot was named, unofficially, as Huey D. Rogers, a second lieutenant whose home is Big Spring. Rogers had about 45 hours of experience piloting T-33 jets, the type crashed.

An air policeman from the Big Spring base told Capt. J. S. Roberts at the scene of the crash that the pilot radioed his engine failure at 5:23 o'clock yesterday afternoon and reported that he was 25,000 feet above Lake J. B. Thomas.

Roberts, a jet instructor at the base, said it was not known why the pilot did not either parachute from the craft or try to glide it either back to his base or to Winston Field at Snyder.

The captain said he supposed the pilot had a reason for not gliding to a base, but he added that unless there was some trouble other than engine failure, he could have glided back to Big Spring.

"With no wind, a T-33 will glide about 11 miles per each 1,000 feet of altitude it loses, and with wind, it will average five to eight miles forward for each drop of 1,000 feet," Roberts said.

Although the plane and the surrounding ground were wet with fuel at the crash scene, there was no fire. Air policemen stood guard with fire extinguishers.

"He's either an exceptionally good pilot or the luckiest—maybe both," Roberts commented. "Personally, if I had seen I couldn't make it to base, I would have taken a nylon let-down. This country's too rough for belly landings."

After crossing the highway near a dirt section line road, the plane skidded to a stop about 700 feet from the highway and about 200 feet from the other road.

A farmer driving by in a pickup truck met the pilot as he was leaving the airplane and took him to the highway, from where a motorist in a late model Oldsmobile took the pilot to a Big Spring hospital, air police said.

Cause of the engine failure was not known last night. The craft had plenty of fuel.

Injunction To Halt Operation Of Firm

AUSTIN (AP)—A temporary injunction to halt operation of the Commercial Security Insurance Co. of Houston was issued yesterday by Dist. Judge J. Harris Gardner.

The judge ruled the company had violated state law by going into business last April 20 on borrowed capital.

Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd brought the state action charging fraudulent organization July 15 at the request of the State Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Rhee Proposes Counterattack On Red China

WASHINGTON (AP)—South Korean President Syngman Rhee proposed today that an Asian army of more than two million men, backed by U.S. guns, planes and ships, launch a counter attack on Communist China.

In a speech prepared for delivery before a joint session of Congress, the fiery 79-year-old Korean leader said:

"Let us remember that peace cannot be restored in the world half Communist and half democratic.

"Your momentous decision is needed now to make Asia safe for freedom, for that will automatically settle the world Communist problem in Europe, Africa and America."

Rhee told Congress the essence of Soviet strategy for world conquest is to lull Americans into a "sleep of death by talking peace until the Soviet Union possesses enough hydrogen bombs and intercontinental bombers to pulverize the airfields and productive centers of the United States by sneak attack."

Rhee has long advocated resuming hostilities in Korea to drive the Communists out of the northern half of his divided land. But this appeared to be the first time he proposed an all-out attack on the Chinese mainland itself.

He did not call for the use of U.S. foot soldiers.

Rhee's call to arms ran counter to U.S policy, expressed by both President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles. Both said publicly last week the United States does not favor resumption of the Korean War.

"The American Air Force as well as the Navy would be needed to insure the success of the counter-attack on the Red Chinese regime," Rhee said, adding: "But let me repeat, no American foot soldiers."

And, the South Korean leader asserted:

"The Soviet Union will not stop of its own volition. It must be stopped."

GOP In Dallas Picks Shivers

DALLAS (AP)—Final election returns today show that Gov. Allan Shivers, a Democrat, won Saturday's Republican primary in Dallas County.

Shivers' vote was 1,335—all write-ins—and Tod R. Adams of Crockett, polled 1,223.

Ralph Yarborough, Shivers' opponent in the Democratic runoff primary for governor, received 123 write-in votes, about half of them were from Precinct 232, a predominantly Negro precinct in South Dallas.

GOP County Chairman Walter L. Fleming Jr. said the total vote in the primary was "around 2,600."

Fleming said it was "no surprise" that Shivers won the primary.

"I think it's safe to say that if Republicans had been allowed to cross-file in the Democratic primary, Mr. Shivers would have had no worry about a runoff," he said.

Bruce Alger, unopposed GOP candidate for Congress from Dallas County, got 2,362 votes. Wallace Savage, the Democratic congressional candidate, got 100 write-in votes.

Aid Bill Gets House Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House formally passed and sent to the Senate today a bill appropriating $5,208,419,979 to finance the foreign aid program for the present fiscal year.

The 265-128 roll call vote ratified tentative approval given the bill yesterday after seven hours of debate.

The bill is the last of the appropriation measures to be considered by the House this year.

Its total is $812,213,554 less than President Eisenhower requested, but his house leaders, with Democratic support, beat back efforts to trim it further.

The bill went to the Senate, where it joins a separate measure authorizing the foreign aid program. The Senate planned to take up the House-passed authorization today.

Committee In Harris Has Harmonious Meet

HOUSTON (AP)—The Harris County Democratic Executive Committee voted last night to accept the state committee's recommendations on selection of precinct delegates to Saturday's county convention.

The surprisingly harmonious meeting also saw agreement on appointment of a six-member committee—three liberals and three conservatives—to consider contested delegations. There were several rump sessions at Saturday's precinct conventions.

Asks Bar On Reds

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—President Gustavo Ofjas Pinilla asked the nation's Constituent Assembly last night to bar international communism from Colombia.

The President told the Assembly that democracy endangers itself by permitting groups directed by foreign powers to prosper.

Atomic Bill Spat Behind Closed Doors

By RUSSELL BRINES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Controversy over the bill designed to carry out President Eisenhower's atomic program shifted today behind closed doors after a marathon debate in the Senate finally ended last night with 57-28 passage.

A Senate-House conference committee now must adjust basic differences in separate versions of a big bill to open the atomic power field to private industry and to authorize the release of limited nuclear information to U. S. allies.

Senate passage came at 9:47 p.m. last night, at the end of 13 days and nearly 169 hours of acrimonious debate. The bill was supported by 44 Republicans and 13 Democrats and opposed by 2 Republicans, 25 Democrats and independent Sen. Morse of Oregon.

The battle left open scars in the Senate over the bill's power provisions and the tactics used by Republican Leader Knowland of California to break what he termed an opposition filibuster.

Whether these resentments would lead to stiffer opposition to other key administration measures, including the foreign aid, housing and tax revision bill, remained to be seen. GOP leaders are driving for adjournment by Aug. 7.

Knowland said at the White House today that Eisenhower is happy about Senate passage of the atomic energy bill.

He called on the President to witness the signing of the bill authorizing construction of a dam on the Santa Margarita River in Southern California. After that session newsmen asked whether the President expressed any gratification over the end of the long debate on the atomic bill.

"He was pleased to learn that the legislative program is moving along now," Knowland replied.

In reply to another question, Knowland said he now believes Congress will be able to adjourn between Aug. 7 and 10.

"I think that's a good guess at the moment, depending upon whether we move along," Knowland said.

The Senate adopted amendments to the atomic energy bill, a revision of the 1946 basic act, to authorize the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) and other federal agencies to build atomic power plants, if they can get the funds. It also postpones any exclusive nuclear patents for 10 years.

The House bill, passed Monday, grants normal patent rights for civilian atomic developments not conceived under government auspices and bars the AEC from the A-power business.

These differences must be hammered out behind closed doors. Opposition senators have threatened another talkfest if their version is jettisoned. The House, under strong leadership control, appeared equally insistent upon its measure.

Egypt To Get Economic Aid

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The United States has promised a substantial military and economic aid program for Egypt to start in the near future as a result of her Suez base agreement with Britain, informed sources said today.

For the last three years Egypt has been getting only comparatively small Point Four technical assistance from the United States.

Ambassador Jefferson Caffery played a leading role in the behind-the-scenes talks which led to the British-Egyptian agreement last night.

One of the unwritten commitments to Egypt in return for the base agreement, an informed source said, is a quick start on American military and economic aid. Caffery was reported exchanging cables with the State Department today on the subject, urging a start as soon as possible.

Col. Anwar El Sadat, a member of Egypt's Revolution Council, said last night Egypt expected U.S. military aid to double the strength of the Egyptian army within five years. Informed sources said plans already have been discussed for supplying arms to Egypt, but they discounted talk of a big build-up in the size of the army.

The United States will emphasize economic aid, since Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser is expected to devote most of his energies to increasing the amount of irrigated land for overcrowded Egypt and an industrial project now that the emotional problem of British troops in Suez has been settled.

WEATHER

NORTH CENTRAL and WEST TEXAS: Clear to partly cloudy and hot this afternoon, tonight and Thursday. Widely scattered thundershowers.

EAST TEXAS: Occasional showers and thundershowers in south portion, partly cloudy and warm north portion this afternoon, tonight and Thursday. Moderate to fresh northeasterly winds on the coast, becoming strong at times in showers.

SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Partly cloudy and hot except scattered showers near the coast this afternoon and tonight and in east and north portions Thursday. Moderate to occasionally fresh mostly east winds on the coast.

ONE OF ENTERTAINERS

This airman is Dave Madden of Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring, who will be one of the entertainers tomorrow night at the annual Chamber of Commerce membership barbecue. Madden's part of the show includes several tricks of magic, which he has been practicing since he was 14. He is from Terre Haute, Ind. The barbecue will begin at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

Yarborough Makes Big Gain Over '52

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

County Democratic conventions, set Saturday in Texas, promised to be the next big arena of the continuing war for party control in the state.

Conservative-liberal battles appeared inevitable Wednesday after liberal elements, backing candidate-for-governor Ralph Yarborough, made inroads at last Saturday's precinct meetings into the conservative strength of Gov. Allan Shivers.

County committees, meanwhile, met Tuesday to canvass Saturday's primary and there were some minor changes reported from the unofficial tabulations.

In Travis County, for instance, Shivers was given a 713-vote gain over the first unofficial reports. Delayed returns were reported from Tarrant County, but quickly denied by T. Y. Collins, president of Yarborough club. He said that there was nothing to reports that boxes were withheld in hopes of swinging them to Shivers.

The final count between the two leading candidates for governor in Fort Worth showed Yarborough with 29,104 votes and Shivers with 29,588.

Shivers, hard pressed by Yarborough, apparently faced the bitterest, hardest fight of his long political career in the forthcoming run-off campaign. He had lost votes since 1952 when Yarborough had gained.

Exactly what caused the change in Texas voters was hard to explain. Issues of the campaign were many and varied.

But the issue both stressed strongly during the primary battle was party loyalty. Yarborough said it was the main issue. Shivers said he was willing to fight it out on that basis. It was the governor, more than any other man perhaps, who led the state's Democratic party organization into the Eisenhower camp in 1952. Thousands of Democratic voters followed him into the GOP fold.

Yarborough backed Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson.

The Texas Election Bureau, unofficial vote tabulating agency, in its final report Tuesday on the primary gave Shivers 666,226 votes to 642,374 for Yarborough. Less than 2,000 of the 1,344,730 votes cast had not been counted.

Two lesser candidates—Arlon B. "Cyclone" Davis with 16,147 votes and J. J. Holmes with 19,983—forced the run off. A candidate must have 50 per cent plus one of all votes cast to win without a run off. If Shivers had all the remaining 2,000 votes uncounted, he couldn't make it.

The governor, seeking an unprecedented third elective term, led in 133 counties. Yarborough took 119 counties. In two others they tied, 320 votes each in Hartley County and 3,029 each in Parker County.

Dividend Tax Cut Stays In WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today defeated a last-ditch Democratic move to strip a tax cut on dividends from President Eisenhower's tax revision program.

The next move is expected to be final passage of a compromise, 1,000-page revision measure which would reduce the nation's 1954 tax bill an estimated $1,363,000,000. But action was held up for a time to hear a speech by Korean President Syngman Rhee.

Democrats moved to strike from the bill a disputed provision to permit taxpayers to subtract 4 per cent of their dividend income from the tax payment they otherwise would make.

Their move would have sent the bill back to a House-Senate conference committee, which worked out the compromise version. The Senate still has to act on the compromise.

McClellan Is Holding To Slight Advantage

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Sen. John McClellan, who won nationwide attention as the Democratic leader in the McCarthy-Army hearings, early today had only a 2,736 vote lead over the combined opposition of his three opponents for renomination.

The unofficial count was based on all but 135 of the state's 2,301 precincts. Most of the missing boxes are in rural areas.

McClellan has to retain or increase that margin to stave off a runoff primary battle with his worst political enemy—ex-Gov. Sid McMath, whom McClellan helped defeat for a third term in 1952.

America Set For Defense Of Its Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the Chinese Communist attacks on American and British planes are part of the Red plan to split the Western Allies. He declared the United States means to defend its rights.

The President told a news conference the American rescue planes which were attacked by the Chinese Communists were engaged in legitimate business.

The United States means to defend its rights whenever it is engaged on legitimate business, he said.

The American aircraft shot down two Red planes after being attacked over the South China Sea.

The President also dealt with these other matters:

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM — Eisenhower said he would be more than bitterly disappointed if Congress should adjourn without approving such administration measures as those dealing with foreign aid, farm policy, tax revision, housing and social security.

And he added, in reply to a question, that he feels an increase in the 275-billion-dollar national debt ceiling is inescapable.

ANGLO-EGYPTIAN—He said he is highly pleased with the agreement reached by Great Britain and Egypt on terms for settling their argument over the Suez Canal Zone.

The agreement reflects statesmanship and patience on both sides, he said, adding that he hopes Egypt now will be able to advance with her friends from both economic and security standpoints.

POLITICS—Eisenhower said he still supports Sen. Cooper (R-Ky) for re-election despite Cooper's break with the administration on two votes in connection with the atomic energy bill.

The President said Cooper came to him and was honest about the whole thing in explaining his position. He said he respects the senator's opposition on a legal question involved in the issue.

FOOD PRICES—The President expressed the hope that food prices will stabilize if Congress passes the administration bill calling for a flexible farm price-support program instead of the rigid support plan now in effect.

TARIFFS—The United States, the President said, must continue to work toward a better flow of world trade, even though he found it necessary to hike the tariff on certain imported watches up to 50 per cent.

Eisenhower ordered the increase yesterday. Switzerland, which supplies this country with most of its imported watch movements, said the tariff hike dealt a serious blow not only to existing good relations between Switzerland and the United States, but also to the very principle of freedom of trade.

The President said he made a long study of whether to increase the duty on imported watches and concluded that from the standpoint of national defense it was imperative to preserve certain skilled industries in this country. He was referring, he said, to fine tolerance precision instruments.

GERMAN SOVEREIGNTY — The President said he is not ready to announce just what steps he might take toward granting sovereignty to West Germany. He made that reply when asked for his views on a resolution approved yesterday by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The resolution in effect supports sovereignty by direct presidential action unless France ratifies the European Defense Community Treaty.

Eisenhower said he thoroughly approves the resolution, but that the matter of just what steps

Snyder's Temperature Reaches 105 Tuesday

There was no respite for heat-weary Snyder yesterday. The temperature reached 105 degrees at its highest point, dropping to 75 degrees for the overnight low.

The maximum was five degrees below the 110 record for the year set on Monday. The minimum was two degrees below that of the previous day, and the 80 degrees recorded at 7:30 this morning was three degrees less than yesterday, Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said.

Heat Wave, Drouth Bringing Misery To Millions In Texas

By The Associated Press

More 100-degree-plus weather baked Texas again Wednesday as a heat wave combined with a drouth to bring misery to millions and near ruin to farmlands and ranges.

The Weather Bureau offered little hope of relief from either the heat or drouth. Forecasts called for continued clear to partly cloudy skies and high temperatures.

A few isolated or occasional thundershowers predicted could barely afford local relief. Row crops wilted and pastures turned brown and seared in the dry heat. Water supplies dwindled, electric consumption approached the limits in many localities, and livestock suffered.

In Austin, Gov. Allan Shivers said the U.S. Department of Agriculture has approved his recommendations for providing feed concentrates along with hay for drouth-stricken Texas Counties.

Shivers said the aid from the hay and feed concentrate program would be forthcoming in a "matter of hours." State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White was due in Washington Wednesday to sign the necessary documents.

Stricken rice crops in the upper Gulf Coast area were being helped by water purchased from the new Lavon Reservoir in Collin County. The water is being used in Liberty and Chambers counties.

Brazoria and Fort Bend County farmers are receiving 3,000 acre feet of water daily from the Whitney Dam Reservoir. The Whitney supply is replaced by water from Possum Kingdom Dam, another Brazos River Authority project in the Mineral Wells area.

The water situation in Chambers and Liberty counties, where a 65,000-acre rice crop is about one-fourth made, is critical, Guy C. Jackson of Anahuac said. Jackson is chairman of the Liberty-Chambers Navigation District.

The hot weather was causing all kinds of discomfort.

Near Austin, two brush fires burned on after days of feeding on the tinder-dry countryside. At Houston, windows in three skyscrapers had to be pried open when building engineers walked off their jobs and left the buildings without air-conditioning.

Dallas, under alternate days of water restrictions, was almost sure Wednesday to have its 24th consecutive day of 100-degree or hotter temperatures. At 1:30 a.m., the temperature in Dallas a hot, sleep-killing 85 degrees. Many Big D residents slept on pallets and cots in their yards.

It was the same over much of the state. Travelers along the highways saw hundreds of persons sleeping outside in an effort to get a breath of air.

Temperatures Tuesday included Presidio's 112 degrees, highest in the state, and Galveston's 89, the lowest maximum. Others: Dalhart, Brownsville, Amarillo, Dallas and Childress 100; Del Rio 110, Laredo 109; Midland, San Antonio and Salt Flat 106; Houston 95, Victoria 103, Junction and Austin 105, Waco, San Angelo, Mineral Wells and Cotulla 102; Lubbock, Lufkin, Fort Worth and Abilene 101.

Shortly before dawn the temperature range was from 69 at Amarillo to 82 at El Paso, Mineral Wells and Laredo. It was 81 at Dallas and Fort Worth, 78 at Galveston and Houston and 80 at Corpus Christi.

Skies were partly cloudy and there was a thunderstorm at Lubbock and a thundershower at Corpus Christi. During the early morning hours there had been showers at Amarillo, Dalhart and Galveston.

Officials Doubtful Attacks To Cease

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States sought today by strong words and tough action to warn Communist China against the dangers of any more plane-shooting incidents along the Red coast of Asia.

But U.S. officials were by no means certain that such outbreaks could be prevented in the future. In fact, the existence of open conflict between Communist China and the Chinese Nationalist government on Formosa is regarded as carrying a grave risk of more such affairs.

The State Department announced yesterday the dispatch of twin protests to the Red regime at Peiping, relayed through the British diplomatic representative there.

At the same time officials said that search and rescue operations by American carrier-based aircraft will continue as long as there is any hope of finding survivors or wreckage of the British plane shot down off Hainan Island last Friday with apparent loss of 10 lives.

Two Chinese planes said by this country to have opened fire on American planes taking part in this search were shot down. From Peiping came a defiant "grave protest" saying the American pilots had "carried out barbaric attacks" on the Red planes.

"These acts are a repetition of imperialist America's aggression," said a statement by Chang Han-fu, vice foreign minister.

It was broadcast and heard in Tokyo.

Moscow also was heard from. The Soviet Communist newspaper Pravda called the U.S. action in shooting down the Chinese planes "a provocatory act designed to prolong tension in the Far East." Pravda said the Americans had joined the search without an invitation from the British and that the British were angered at this "interference."

A Moscow radio account of the incident, heard in London, called the incident a "piratical . . . gangster attack," and it added:

"There is no doubt that the American military authorities used the incident with the British plane in order to maintain the state of tension in the Far East which has noticeably eased as a result of the success of the Geneva conference."

Canvass Lists Some Changes In Figures

Less than half of the unofficial returns of the Democratic Party primary held Saturday were found to be correct when the party's county executive committee canvassed returns yesterday afternoon.

Of 54 totals on announced candidates, only 24 remained the same as announced by unofficial reports from election judges Saturday. The discrepancies were minor in nearly all races, however, although a few were large. Even the large differences failed to change any nominations or alter any runoff schedules.

Official canvass lessened the margin between Robert Patterson and his defeated opponent, Frank Sentell, for state representative, by only one vote. The margin announced previously between Mollie Pinkerton and Leona Weathers for county treasurer was enlarged by 15.

The margin between Dan Cotton and Pat Johnston for county clerk was lessened by six. The difference between Lloyd Merritt and Homer Whisnand for sheriff was broadened by eight. The biggest change in figures brought by the canvass was in the race for chairman of the executive committee. The margin dropped from an unofficial 259 to an official 29, Frank A. Wilson of Ennis Creek still the winner over Harold Bennett.

Canvass was not complete in the late afternoon for justice of peace races (none contested) and for constables, the latter being by precincts.

The canvass showed the following totals:

Governor, Yarbrough, 2,014; Davis, 45; Holmes, 92; Shivers, 1,600.

Lieutenant governor, Ramsey, 2,447; Johnson, 592; Hinson, 275.

Fear Visit To Cause Turmoil

TOKYO (AP) — The newspaper Asahi Evening News said today the Japan visit of "anti-American, pro-Communist Aneurin Bevan" of the British Labor party "could create turmoil, if not havoc, among Japanese workers. . . ."

The English language newspaper said the "political effects" of the visit of Bevan, former British Prime Minister Clement Atlee and other Labor party leaders "will be great."

The British Laborites are planning to come to Japan Sept. 2 after a visit to Red China.

"Coming at this particular moment, it is feared the stormy petrel of the British Labor party will create turmoil if not havoc among Japanese workers who are already in a state of confusion regarding international political issues, if he (Bevan) delivers the type of rabble-rousing speeches it had been his custom to make in England," the newspaper said.

Stock Is Solicited For Loan Association

Plans to continue solicitation of stock purchasing pledges were made by persons who attended a meeting last night to study the possibility of organizing a building and loan association here, L. A. McClanahan, said.

McClanahan said that about a dozen persons attended the meeting held in the district courtroom of the courthouse at 8 o'clock last night.

He is one of several local businessmen and individuals who are attempting to organize the building and loan association.

He said persons who have already pledged to purchase capital stock in the association decided last night to continue the drive for more prospective stock purchasers.

About $20,000 in stock purchases have been pledged. A capital stock of $75,000 is necessary for organization of the association.

The group set their next meeting date for August 10.

Short Circuit Cause Of Fire Alarm Today

Smoke partially filled the building of the Art Style Beauty Salon 2005 Twenty-fifth Street, when a short circuit occurred in a light fixture at about 9 o'clock this morning.

Firemen who reported to the scene had to hunt for several minutes before the source of the smoke was discovered.

There was no damage, Ivan Gather, fire marshal, said.

Parr Nominee Is Indicted By Grand Jury

SAN DIEGO, Tex. (AP)—Jesus Oliviera, newly - elected Duval County tax assessor-collector, has been indicted by a grand jury probing county finances on four counts of theft and conspiracy.

Saturday he defeated Gilbert Hinojosa for the post.

The former sheriff was indicted yesterday along with three others, including R. L. Adame, county school superintendent, and D. C. Chapa, former tax assessor-collector of the Benavides Independent School District. Both Chapa and Adame are under indictments.

Seven counts of theft of over $50 were returned against Adame, and Chapa was indicted for conversion of public money.

Sheriff Archer Parr said he was unable to release the name of the other man indicted yesterday until he was arrested or made bond.

Meanwhile, Judge A. S. Broadfoot took the stand for the fifth day in a hearing to quash indictments issued by the present grand jury against George Parr and others.

The defendants have charged Broadfoot with bad faith in dismissing the previous jury panel and appointing the present one.

Broadfoot was repeatedly questioned by Manuel Raymond of Laredo, attorney for Parr and the other defendants, on the part the state attorney general and his men played in the ousting of the jury commission and the men chosen by it.

The judge said that a report on Duval County finances made by State Auditor C. H. Caviness carried considerable weight in making up his mind.

He said he took into consideration affidavits by J. L. MacDonald and Diego Heras of Benavides, which were introduced at a court of inquiry called by him shortly before the discharge of the grand jury.

Concerning the influence of the attorney general's information, Broadfoot said he couldn't break down the various influences into percentages.

"It did have weight," he said. "If they told me facts, I gave them credence enough to go on with the investigation."

He added that he wasn't guided by the attorney general in his final decision.

TEXAS DEMOCRATS—A reporter told Eisenhower that Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas, a Democrat who supported Eisenhower in 1952, ran into stiff opposition in last Saturday's primary. The reporter said too that five Democratic congressmen from Texas had either voluntarily retired from the House or were voted out at the polls.

After noting that Shivers's support of Eisenhower was one of the issues in the primary, the reporter asked whether Eisenhower had had time to analyze the outcome of the voting.

No, the President replied, a smile on his face. He added that after all it was the other party—meaning the Democrats and not the Republicans—who were involved in the Texas situation.

Eisenhower went on to say Shivers is a friend of his—a friend he likes and admires.

He said Shivers has been a good governor, and that he (Eisenhower) is pleased that he had Shivers' support in the presidential election.

Kefauver, Opponent Set Busy Pace In Tennessee's Campaign

By PHILIP M. CARDEN

LAFAYETTE, Tenn. (AP) — A plastic bubble with an overhead fan dropped from the sky, eased between the telephone wires and blew dust all over the square as it settled to the heat-softened pavement.

Rep. Pat Sutton stepped from the helicopter for another pitch in his bizarre Democratic primary campaign to unseat Tennessee's handshaking champion, Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Four days later, Kefauver arrived on the same square by automobile to give Lafayette a close comparison of two of the most vigorous and contrasting campaigns ever seen by hardened Tennessee voters.

Kefauver has turned such things as coonskin caps and televised crime hearings to good account in rising from a relatively obscure congressman to a Democratic presidential contender, but his long suits always have been tireless handshaking and systematic stumping.

This time, Sutton is the relatively obscure congressman looking for promotion, and he is armed with new attention-getting gimmicks never seen in Tennessee before—the talkathon and the helicopter.

Let's ride along for a day with each candidate and see what it's like to stump Tennessee in July with the Aug. 5 primary near at hand.

You join Sutton a few days after he opened his middle Tennessee drive with a 26-hour Nashville television and radio talkathon that resulted in slander suits asking a total of three million dollars.

Your first hop is from Nashville to Carthage, a small county-seat town at the western edge of the Cumberland Plateau for a 10 a.m. speech. You're snugly sandwiched between Sutton and Al Holmgren, the pilot of the rented helicopter.

Suton waves at farm folk who might be able to read the big sign on the landing skids. He's peppy and confident despite court suits and short sleeping hours.

A crowd of about 300 is on hand when you land at Carthage. A little knot of men and boys swarms around the 'copter, but most of the crowd moves toward the microphone. All stand—some in the sun—and listen attentively to Sutton's rather brief standard speech.

You note little reaction to the political pitch, but appreciative laughs greet his story of boyhood watermelon thefts and his remarks in the sound truck to the next stop, that he was raised—not reared—in a tenant farm family of 14.

You ride with driver Earl Hollis in the sound truck to the next stop, a crossroads hamlet 12 miles up a twisting mountain road. Sutton has two sound trucks, but one is used for advance work a day ahead.

Earl, a former stock car racer, has a recorded march playing on the truck's amplifier and is ready to wave the helicopter into a nearby field well before it appears overhead.

The next stop is Lafayette, where you eat lunch with Earl, Al and the fuel truck driver while Sutton addresses a municipal election-day crowd. Sutton seldom eats lunch.

The small, fast-paced party keeps well abreast of its schedule, which includes four more mountain stops before nightfall.

Four days later you experience a slower pace and hotter weather as you join Kefauver's caravan deeper in the Cumberlands at Celina, east of here. This is the first of only three daytime stops.

The local campaign committee has already set up a card table on the shady side of the courthouse by the time V. C. Adcock drives up in one of two sound trucks which leapfrog on the schedule.

The sound truck, like Sutton's, is a station wagon. But all seats are filled in this caravan. Other passengers are Miss Nora Kefauver, the senator's sister; Mrs. Frances Boyle; and Jack Papaas, all volunteers.

The truck tours the town as Mrs. Boyle announces the time of the senator's speech in breaks between recorded hillbilly music.

At the courthouse later, Adcock sets up the microphone and keeps the music going while the others shake hands and pass out campaign literature, buttons and stickers.

The second sound truck arrives and tarries awhile before going on to set up the Lafayette appearance. Finally comes Kefauver just before the 10:30 a.m. schedule. He is riding with Hubert Bennett, his area campaign manager.

Kevauver, coatless and his shirt wet with sweat in spots, walks slowly to the card table, shaking hands as he goes. There's nothing perfunctory about the handshake. He takes time to get the names straight and exchange a word or two with each.

The crowd of 250 or so listens attentively as Kefauver speaks at length—without rustic jokes. Occasionally a point is rewarded by a scattering applause. Kefauver winds up by answering written questions gathered by his local campaign manager. Later he talks with local campaigners.

Shoe Stores Change Here

Owners of two shoe stores in Snyder and one in Brownfield have discontinued their partnership and each still owns one shoe store here.

They are Myron Fenton and Gene Thompson, who have operated the Fenton & Thompson Shoe Store since 1950, and owned Herman's Shoes since it was opened early this year. They also owned a Fenton & Thompson Shoe Store in Brownfield.

Fenton is to be owner of the former Herman's Shoes store here and the Brownfield store. The store will be renamed Fenton's Quality Shoes.

Thompson is to own and operate the former Fenton & Thompson Shoe Store, and it will be renamed Thompson's Family Shoe Store.

Herman Elkins, manager of Herman's Shoes store will continue to manage the Fenton store here.

Johnny Greenfield will be assistant manager of Thompson's store.

Jayton Is Officially Seat Of Kent County

Jayton has officially become the Kent County seat.

Both the Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland and the Texas Supreme Court have denied motions for a re-hearing filed by attorneys representing parties seeking to keep Clairemont as the county seat. Three weeks ago the supreme court upheld a ruling of the civil appeals court that the county seat would be moved. The suit grew out of a contest of an election to determine whether or not the county seat should be moved.

Compensation Suit Goes Into Second Day

A workman's compensation suit in district court here, C. B. Hightower vs. American General Insurance Co., went into its second day of trial this morning.

The case had been tried here previously in March of last year. A jury then voted to award the plaintiff the full amount sought, the maximum set by statute of $25 a week for 401 weeks.

This judgment was contested by the defendant, however, and a new trial was ordered.

Testimonial Dinner To Honor Roy Cohn

NEW YORK (AP) — A testimonial dinner will be given tonight for Roy M. Cohn, and the sponsors say there is room for only a fraction of those who want to attend.

Cohn, a key figure in the recent Army - McCarthy hearings, resigned as chief counsel for the Senate investigations subcommittee after the hearings ended. Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis), chairman of the subcommittee, will be speaker.

Tonight's dinner had been planned before Cohn's resignation.

The Joint Committee Against Communism in New York, which organized the Cohn testimonial, said it had to turn down 3,500 applications for tickets.

About 2,000 are expected to attend the dinner in the Hotel Astor at $7 a plate.

Ike Defends Stand On Watch Tariffs

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Eisenhower today defended his action in raising tariffs on Swiss watches, on both business and national defense grounds.

He said his decision is not sacrosanct and can be reconsidered.

The President yesterday ordered immediate tariff increases up to 50 per cent on certain imported watches—a step long sought by some U.S. watch manufacturers but indignantly received by the Swiss government. The Swiss indicated they might hit back by raising tariffs on goods Switzerland imports from the United States.

Eisenhower told a news conference he has received many recommendations for higher tariffs from the Federal Tariff Commission, but has disapproved virtually all of them in the interest of stimulating international trade. He stressed that he continues to believe in the necessity of broadening that trade.

But he said he decided after intensive study that in the cases of watches the weight of the evidence is on the side of a tariff increase.

This, he said, seems right at the moment. But he said the tariff commission must submit a further report at the end of two years, and noted he can ask a resurvey of the situation at any time.

Asked about defense aspects of the situation, Eisenhower said this country must preserve the skills of certain workers who would be needed on defense projects in an emergency.

He gave watchmakers as a good example of workmen who are skilled in highly delicate craftsmanship. And he said a number of them have been unemployed.

Under these circumstances, Eisenhower said, it seems advisable to save 20 to 25 per cent of the watch market. He did not elaborate on this figure.

A spokesman for U.S. manufacturers said most Americans will still buy Swiss imports.

Importers of watches and movements joined the Swiss in criticism of the tariff raising decision.

Public Vs. Private Power Was Cause Of Clash On Atomic Bill

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate fight, made by Democrats and a couple of others on the Eisenhower administation's bill to change the atomic energy law, centered mainly on the question of public versus private power.

The Democrats' fight took two directions: one involved the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) and the other the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC). The TVA supplies electric power to a wide area of the Middle South and to an AEC plant at Paducah, Ky. If it had not been pumping some of its juice into Paducah, TVA would have some of it in reserve for the growing power needs of its area.

To meet those needs, it asked the administration that it be allowed to build another plant. The administration didn't let it. And on June 17 President Eisenhower told the AEC—not TVA—to negotiate a contract with a private utility group to build a 107-million-dollar steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply TVA with about 600,000 kilowatts of power.

This power would not be for AEC use—AEC would only be acting as a government broker in the deal—but for TVA. The administration, dedicated to more free enterprise, has spoken in favor of more private development of power. The private utility group in this case—Middle South Utilities, Inc., and the Southern Company—is known as the Dixon-Yates group after E. H. Dixon, president of the former, and E. A. Yates, chairman of the latter.

Democrats accused the administration of trying to block further TVA development and of using the AEC as an instrument for doing it. They argued it would cost the government, over 20 years, 90 million dollars more for the private power than if TVA had built its own plant.

And the Eisenhower administration "contemplated" paying all the federal, state and local taxes for the Dixon-Yates group on any profits from supplying power to the TVA. This was mentioned by Rowland Hughes, director of the budget, who told AEC the President wanted the negotiation carried out.

The Democrats weren't able to block the administration from going ahead with this deal but they did get enough votes — on an amendment proposed by Sen. Gore (D-Tenn)—to keep the federal government from paying the private utility group's federal taxes, if the deal goes through.

But the House passed a similar bill without this provision. Now the House and Senate must compromise their differences on the slightly different bills. So the final law may not contain the Gore amendment. Both houses will have to approve the compromise, whatever it is, before it can become law. If the Gore amendment is dropped from the final draft, the Democrats may start fighting all over again.

The basic law on atomic energy was passed in 1946. But there have been changes since then—in foreign relations, technological developments, and progress in realizing development of atomic energy for peaceful purposes is closer than it seemed eight years ago.

So the bill which the administration supported to revise the 1946 act would, among other things, let this country share some of its atomic information with its allies. It can't do so now. And it would let the President arrange with other nations, even Russia, for pooling atomic materials for peaceful uses.

Those parts of the bill, in spite of some objections by the Democrats that they don't go far enough, went through the Senate untouched. The Democrats concentrated most of their fire on another section which would open atomic development, until now a government monopoly, to private industry.

Democrats argued that a few big companies, which have been working for the government in the atomic field, would have a head start on any competition and could in short order grab a monopoly. The AEC would, of course, continue its atomic work, particularly in weapon development.

The Democrats did get enough Republicans to go along with them to put into the Senate authority for the AEC and other government agencies to operate atomic power plants. This is specifically forbidden in the bill passed by the House. Since there must be a compromise, the fight may not be over.

Former Local Men Get Auto Dealerships

Two former Snyder men have been selected as dealers for Ford automobiles in Oklahoma and Colorado, respectively.

G. W. (Pinky) Ferguson is the new Ford dealer in Hobart, Okla., while Harold Mahoney is Ford dealer in Pueblo, Colo.

Both were formerly associated with Wade Pipkin Motors, Snyder's Ford dealer, Ferguson serving as salesman and Mahoney as business manager until 1952. More recently Mahoney has been employed as an auditor in Oklahoma City. Ferguson only recently departed from Snyder to take over the Hobart agency.

Perry Bros. Celebrating Anniversary

Another story of progress in the Southwest—a story in which Snyder has had a part—is being celebrated today.

The occasion marks the anniversary of Perry Bros. Variety Stores, an organization that embraces 65 establishments, including one in Snyder.

Started by the five Perry brothers, Roscoe, Frank, John, Hollis and C. W. with the purchase of one small store in 1915, the rise of the Perry organization fits the popular American picture of Horatio Alger's fictional heroes.

The first Perry store was managed by Frank Perry, who was assisted by his brothers from time to time. The other brothers worked in different jobs at the time, but as a new store was bought or opened, each brother, in turn, gave up his job to become manager.

In the first few years following the purchase of the store at Center, additional stores were opened in Navasota, Lufkin and surrounding East Texas towns. As the numbers increased, additional employes were added and home offices were established in Lufkin in 1920. Today these offices are housed in the magnificent store and office building erected in Lufkin in 1950.

Over the years the number of Perry's stores has increased and improvements have been made to existing stores to keep the company abreast of the times, modern and up-to-date. The Snyder store was opened in 1934.

J. B. Perry Jr., son of the co-founder and chairman of the board of directors, John B. Perry Sr., now presides over the Texas-wide activity of the company, following the same progressive business program conducted by the founders.

Their visit to Snyder marks two firsts for this group from East Alton, Ill. The couple with their son, at left, are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Calhoun and Dennis. Mrs. Calhoun's mother, Mrs. Nellie Lee, is seated next to Mrs. Mary Fesmire (extreme right), who is Mrs. Lee's aunt. Coming to Snyder to see Mrs. Fesmire meant the first time the Illinois family had been to Texas and the first time any of them except Mrs. Lee had seen Mrs. Fesmire. (Lee Watson photograph)

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Visiting, Vacationing Not Slowed By Record Heat

Coming and going seems to be hitting a record breaking high along with the heat these July days. Snyder people have been up to New York and down to Mexico, and visitors to Snyder keep coming from far-away places.

TO MEXICO

"They really do take a siesta every afternoon," said Mrs. AREL FAVER, back from four days in Monterrey, "and we were glad to adopt the custom while we were there."

Mr. and Mrs. Faver, and Mr. and Mrs. SIG LINE returned last week from their Mexico vacation. They went by Laredo, but right after they crossed the international bridge there it was closed so they had to come back by Reynosa.

In Monterrey they rode burros to Horse Tail Falls, saw the traditional promenade and did a little shopping.

FISHING TRIP

Remains of one of the biggest floods in the history of the Devil's River made one of the most memorable sights of a recent fishing trip for the HERBERT McKINLEYS. They went to Del Rio with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Chandler of Big Spring and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Mooney of Abilene.

"Everybody but our party was catching a lot of fish," Mrs. McKinley said. "We enjoyed the trip, but we didn't catch many fish and we couldn't help being appalled at the signs of wreckage left by the flood."

FROM ILLINOIS

It's not a bit hotter here than it is in Illinois, say Mrs. Mary Fesmire's visitors from "up north."

"This is our first trip to Texas," Mrs. Earl Calhoun said, "and when we started everybody told us it would be so hot and dry here we couldn't stand it. But we like Texas and the weather's not any hotter than it is in East Alton."

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun, their son Dennis and Mrs. Calhoun's mother, Mrs. Nellie Lee, drove down from Illinois to see Mrs. Fesmire, who is Mrs. Lee's aunt. That makes four generations, together for the first time.

Colorado Springs was having a heat wave and a water shortage last week when Dr. and Mrs. C. L. YARBROUGH, 2501 Thirty-second Street, their son, CHIP, and JIMMY FEATHER visited there. "It didn't have any effect on the pleasure of our stay, however", Mrs. Yarbrough said. They spent a week in New Mexico and Colorado.

LIONS CONVENTION

"New York City is fine to visit but I surely would not want to live there" said Mrs. H. O. BEARD, 3605 Avenue U. She and her husband, HASKELL BEARD, and children, BILLY and JERRY, returned last week from a three week motor trip. They also visited Washington, Niagara Falls and other interesting places while on their tour, and were among Snyder people attending the Lions convention.

Mr. and Mrs. ROLAND BELL, 804 Twenty-fifth Street, and daughter, Beverly, returned recently from a tour of the eastern part of the country and parts of Canada. Highlights of the trip, according to Mrs. Bell, were "the magnificent view of New York's skyline, the drive down Broadway, a boat ride around Manhattan Island, a trip to Coney Island, the Lions International Convention, and a visit to Ottawa, the capitol of Canada."

Another couple who attended the International Lions Club convention in New York were Mr. and Mrs. LEE SMYTH, 3712 Austin Avenue. They flew from Dallas to Washington where they took a sight-seeing tour of the capital city. Thence they went on to New York by plane to the convention. The United Nations building and the Statue of Liberty were two of the many places of interest visited by the Smyths. They went to see the play, "Oh Women - Oh Men," starring Franchot Tone and Betty von Furstenburg.

"It was cool in New York the morning we left, but when we landed and got off the plane in Dallas that afternoon, the heat was terrific. It was 109 degrees", said Mrs. Smyth.

Recent Bride Honored

A bridal shower honoring Mrs. Corky Kruse of Ira was given Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leon Sterling, Route 3, Snyder.

Corsages of blue and white carnations were presented to the honoree, Mrs. Kruse; her mother, Mrs. McBride of Vealmoor and to Mrs. Robert Erwin, Midland, sister of the groom.

Refreshments were served to fifty-three guests from a table laid with white lace over a blue linen cloth. Daisies, painted blue, were used in decorating the house.

Hostesses were Mrs. Leon Sterling, Mrs. Joe Falls, Mrs. Pete Sterling, Mrs. Leroy Leard, Miss Eula V. Holdren.

Helps For Homemakers

Keep this recipe in mind for those dog days when you don't want to heat up your kitchen for any length of time, but still want to give your family at least one hot dish for lunch or supper. It is quickly put together, then broiled in a matter of minutes.

This dish is frankly fancy looking, but don't let appearances mislead you. It is filling enough for the heartiest male appetite. Under the mask of mayonnaise there is a generous serving of the salmon. There are so many appropriate accompaniments to Cover-up Salmon. Here are four of them that are particularly suitable in warm weather.

Bundles of whole green beans (home-cooked or canned) marinated in a vinaigrette sauce. To make the sauce just mix olive or other salad oil, vinegar, pinch of dry mustard, salt and ground pepper. The beans should be cold and at serving time may be topped with thin rings of onion.

Another dish that goes well with the salmon is a relish of whole-kernel corn, finely diced celery and sweet red or green pepper in an old-fashioned dressing of vinegar, sugar, salt and freshly ground pepper.

Drained bundles of canned or frozen cooked asparagus 'tied' with strips of canned pimiento.

Thin slices of fluted cucumber and sprigs of water cress are attractive and good accompaniments for the main dish.

COVER-UP SALMON

1 1-pound can red salmon
4 slices bread
1 tablespoon lemon or lime juice
½ cup mayonnaise

Open salmon can at one end; carefully turn out salmon in one piece. Cut salmon cross-wise, into 4 slices. Use empty salmon can to cut each slice of bread into rounds. Place bread rounds on broiler rack to toast lightly on one side. Place salmon slices, using wide spatula, on untoasted side of bread rounds; sprinkle with lemon juice. Place on broiler rack with surface of food about 3 inches below heat. Broil 5 to 8 minutes, or until salmon is heated through. Watch so as not to scorch and adjust rack or heat if necessary. Cover top and sides of salmon with mayonnaise; broil 2 to 3 minutes longer. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

An interesting variation of this recipe is to place a thin round of onion on top of salmon before putting under broiler. Sprinkle mayonnaise with paprika before putting under broiler. When salmon rounds are ready, garnish center top with capers. Serve for lunch or supper on a dinner plate; place tomato slice on each side of salmon round; top each tomato slice with half a hard-cooked egg and surround with shredded lettuce.

MARRIAGE TOLD

Miss Mary Sue Boren was married Saturday afternoon to Charles A. LeBlanc in a ceremony at Carlsbad, N.M. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Eddythe Boren, Snyder, Bill Boren, Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew LeBlanc, New Orleans. The newlyweds are at home here at 2112 Thirtieth Street. The bride attended McMurry College and Texas Tech. Mr. LeBlanc, employed by Dowell Chemical Company, attended Kilgore Junior College and the University of Texas.

Greenberg Finally Has Live Player, Wertz Still Hitting

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hank Greenberg, whose player deals during the past few years have backfired more often than a 1929 jalopy, finally appears to have found a live one in Vic Wertz. Each day, the outfielder-first baseman looms larger and larger in the Cleveland Indians' pennant plans.

Last night, for instance, he slammed a home run and double and drove in three runs as the Indians whipped Boston 6-3 for their 14th victory over the Red Sox in 15 decisions.

The Tribe now leads the New York Yankees by 2½ games. The Yanks were shut out by Chicago's Virgil Trucks 4-0.

In the National League, the St. Louis Cardinals thrashed the New York Giants 7-4 after Brooklyn's onrushing Dodgers had won a 7-6 slugging bee from the Chicago Cubs. The Giants' onetime seven-game bulge over Brooklyn has dwindled to a mere two in six days.

In other games, the Philadelphia Phillies whipped the Cincinnati Reds 8-2, Baltimore defeated Washington 7-5 and Philadelphia's Athletics beat Detroit 8-3 after the Tigers had won the opener of the twi-night twin bill 3-2. Milwaukee and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

It was a lucky break for the Indians when they acquired Wertz from Baltimore for pitcher Bob Chakales at the start of last month. The bald-headed outfielder, hitting an anemic .202 for the Orioles, didn't figure to be of much help. But since joining the Tribe, the 29-year-old Detroiter has been hitting at a .306 clip.

With Al Rosen adding a homer for Cleveland, Bob Lemon had an easy time registering his 12th triumph although he yielded 10 hits. Ted Williams failed to hit safely, ending his 14-game hitting streak.

Trucks, the strong-armed Chicago right-hander, handcuffed the Yankees with five hits. It was his fourth shutout and 14th victory of the season. Harry Byrd was tagged for eight hits, two each by Phil Cavarretta and Jim Rivera.

The Dodgers, powered by home runs by Duke Snider and Jackie Robinson, gave Don Newcombe an early 6-0 lead but the big right-hander lost most of it and it took a neat relief job by Billy Loes to pull the Dodgers through.

Wally Moon and Stan Musial led a late St. Louis drive to bring the Cardinals up from a 2-0 deficit to an easy victory over the Giants. Moony smashed four hits. Musial cracked his 28th homer with two mates aboard.

Robin Roberts became the first 15-game winner in the majors as the Phils submerged the Reds. Del Ennis, Bobby Morgan and Danny Schell homered to give the ace right-hander an early 8-0 lead.

Sparked by Billy Hunter's triple and two singles, the Orioles snapped Washington's six-game winning streak with a 13-hit attack. Every Baltimore batter hit safely except pitcher Duane Pillette, who gained his ninth victory.

Bill Tuttle's ninth-inning single scored Red Wilson with the run that gave Steve Gromek his 12th victory as Detroit grabbed the opener from Philadelphia. The Athletics rapped Ned Garver for 12 of their 13 hits to give Marion Fricano an easy victory in the nightcap.

An angry northern pike leaps from the water and spits out the spoon that hooked him on Lake LacSeul, Ont. Oliver Hoglund, Cloquet, hooked the fish, then lost it a split second before the picture was made. C. Herbert Smith, commercial photographer, snapped the picture with a 4x5 Speed Graphic camera at 1/1,000th of a second when the fish was about eight feet from the boat.

Minor League Play

EVERYBODY IS STILL IN RACE

By The Associated Press

The Texas League has fewer than 50 games to play and everybody still is in the race although Dallas and Beaumont, down in the last places, have some big humps to level.

Shreveport, leading the race by 3½ games, has 43 games to play; San Antonio and Oklahoma City, second and third, have 46; Houston, in fourth place, must play 42; Tulsa plays 47; Fort Worth has 43, Beaumont the same and Dallas 46. The latter is 16½ games away from first place.

Shreveport lost ground last night as the Sports dropped their series final to Dallas 8-1. But the Sports had taken three in a row.

San Antonio crushed Oklahoma City 7-0 and Houston licked Tulsa 10-1 to move within a game of Oklahoma City.

Dallas pounded 10 hits in finally beating Shreveport with Pat Scantlebury allowing the Sports only seven. The Eagles routed Ottis Jacobs before he could finish an inning, shoving across four runs in the first and getting two more in the second to ice the game early.

Procopio Herrera twirled a 3-hitter as San Antonio slashed Oklahoma City. Vincente Amor, the Indians hurler, was no mystery to the Missions. San Antonio got to Amor for eight hits, five of them for extra bases and including a home run by Witty Quintana, who drove in four tallies with his homer and a 3-run double.

Houston slammed six runs across in the first inning to beat Tulsa with ease, pounding 12 hits off three Oiler pitchers. Meanwhile Hisel Patrick was limiting the Oilers to eight scattered blows. He won his ninth victory.

Bob Marquis clouted a 3-run homer to feature a 6-run splurge in the sixth as Beaumont whipped Fort Worth 9-4. Dave Hillman pitched 6-hit ball for the Exporters.

PEDRO TRIPLES FOR DUKE WIN

By The Associated Press

Stocky little Pedro Santiago slammed a bases-loaded triple in the second for the Albuquerque Dukes last night and salted away at 6-2 West Texas-New Mexico League win over the league-leading Clovis Pioneers.

In the other games, Plainview plastered Abilene 17-1, and Pampa edged Lubbock 7-6.

At Albuquerque, it was the 16th win of the year for big George Socha. Clovis' Ernie Sadler went the distance for the loss, his seventh of the year.

The Plainview Ponies wore down eighth Abilene moundsmen and collected 19 hits in smothering Abilene. Righthander Cecil Davis earned an easy victory, giving up only five hits. Andy Alonson absorbed the loss, his 10th against 19 wins.

Pampa finally stopped a ninth-inning rally by Lubbock after five runs came in. Winner was Sam Williams. He held Lubbock to nine hits while batting in four Pampa runs with two doubles and a homer. Harry Wise was relieved by Curt Simmons in the seventh after Pampa had collected six runs.

WACO MAY WIN MORE THAN 100

By The Associated Press

Waco's rambunctious Pirates appear destined to win more than 100 games and be the only club in Texas professional baseball to accomplish the feat.

The Pirates, who two years ago set a record nationally for losing by dropping 118 games, might lead the nation for winning this season.

Waco last night won its 78th Big State League game in 105 by edging Harlingen 8-7. The Pirates were taking their 15th triumph in the last 16 games. They did it with a last-minute splurge as Rex Babcock singled in Ronnie Boone in the ninth for the decision.

Ramon Mejias of Waco ran his consecutive hitting streak to 50 games with a double in the first inning.

Corpus Christi moved within a game of second-place Tyler by licking the Tigers 2-0. It was Corpus Christi's 13th victory in 14 games with the Tigers. A double by Dean Stafford and Sylvester Henry's single were the payoff blows.

Tyler fell 14½ games behind leading Waco.

Austin pushed into a tie with Galveston for fourth place by blasting the White Caps 10-1. Austin pounded 13 hits with Don Mason, Al McAfee and Hardie Nettles each getting three.

Temple slammed five runs across in the eighth to beat Bryan 9-5. Kenny Jones' triple with the bases full featured the rally. Temple lashed 18 hits for the evening.

ARTESIA WINS 8 OUT OF 9

By The Associated Press

What to do about Artesia is the question in the Longhorn League.

The Numexers last night rapped Carlsbad 9-0 for their eighth victory in the last nine games. They're a comfortable 6½ games ahead of runner-up Roswell.

Bart DiMaggio gave up only six hits in posting his ninth victory of the campaign. He struck out 10 Potashers and got two hits, batting in a couple of runs.

Roswell was lapping Big Spring 17-7, blasting an awesome 22 hits and scoring in bunches. The Rockets whipped out six hits on Mike Rainey in the first inning to score five runs and then administered the coup de grace in the fourth with five more.

Midland beat Odessa 6-1 as southpaw Julio Ramos hurled 6-hit ball to post his 12th victory of the season. Bud Hull chipped in on the Midland 12-hit attack with his 34th homer of the campaign. Joe Riney also poled a homer for Midland.

Lowly Sweetwater beat San Angelo for the second straight time, whipping the Colts 10-7 as Chico Recio lashed a 3-run homer in the 11th inning. He also had three other hits and drove in five runs for the night.

LAWTON STILL GOING STRONG

By The Associated Press

The Lawton Braves continued their torrid pace in the Sooner State League last night trouncing the Pauls Valley Raiders, 11-1, for their seventh straight victory.

The triumph left the second-place Braves 13 games behind league-leading Shawnee but still represented a sensational climb for the Braves who at one time floundered in the second division.

Shawnee lost ground by losing a 12-inning thriller to the Ardmore Cardinals, 11-8. The Cards scored three runs in the top of the 12th for the victory.

McAlester's Rockets overcame a five-run deficit to beat the Gainesville Owls, 8-7, to retain third place. The Seminole Oilers went on a hitting binge, and got good pitching to boot, to smack the Ada Herefords, 20-0. The Oilers got 19 hits.

The teams resume their current series in the same parks tonight.

Jones Is Made 2-1 Favorite

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Jones, who hit the headlines by twice beating Gil Turner and then turning down an alleged $15,000 bribe offer in a fight with Joey Giardello, is a 2-1 favorite to whip Trenton's George Johnson tonight at Madison Square Garden.

The 10-rounder, to be telecast by CBS, will start at 10 p.m., EDT.

The last time Jones was in the Garden he aroused the customers to loud protests when the officials gave Giardello a unanimous decision. It was razor close on all three cards, 5-4-1.

Jones, 28-year-old Oakland, Calif., veteran of 65 fights, is a fine boxer without too much wallop. He has stopped only five men in his career while piling up a 37-20-8 record since 1945.

Johnson is a youngster of 24 with a good wallop. He stopped Moses Ward, the man who upset Yolande Pompey last week, and had run up a string of 17 straight until he was knocked out by Holly Mims May 5 at Baltimore. His career record is 27-4.

Both boxers are "light" middleweights, weighing around 153 or 154 pounds.

Downey, Jones Tops In Second Round

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A repeat match between Curtis Cup team alternates Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore and Mrs. Mae Murray Jones of Rutland, Vt. was one of the top gallery attractions today in the second round of the 54th Women's Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

The Vermont veteran won their 1953 Western Amateur battle 2 up.

Miss Downey was 2 under par for 12 holes Tuesday in an 8-and-6 victory over Barbara Warble of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Jones matched par for 14 holes in beating Barbara Bremmerman of Indianapolis, 5 and 4.

Defending Champion Claire Doran of Cleveland, 1 under par in a 5-and-4 victory over Polly Martin of St. Clairsville, Ohio, met Mrs. Dorothy Ellis Balch of Indianapolis, many times Indiana State champion, in the second round.

Mrs. Balch defeated Mrs. Roy Edwards of Glencoe, Ill., in the latter's first appearance in championship flight, 1 up.

Amarillo Boy Leads Nation In Qualifying

By The Associated Press

Rex Baxter Jr., the Amarillo hotshot who was National Junior Champion last year, led Texas' 13 qualifiers for the National Amateur Golf Tournament yesterday—and also topped the entire nation.

Baxter's great 9-under-par 133 over the Lubbock Country Club's 6,233-yard course sends him to Detroit next month as the fellow to talk about.

Rex had a 2-under-par 69 in the first 18 and finished with a blazing 64.

Murrell Tripp, mayor of Lubbock, was second low qualifier with 138.

Bobby Cupit of Dallas was third in the state with 143 and Ernie Vossler of Fort Worth was next with 144.

Cupit shot his score over the 6,715-yard Brook Hollow course in Dallas as did Vossler.

Bobby Moncrief and Jim Leavell of Houston led in qualifying over the 6,501-yard River Oaks course in Houston.

Qualifiers from the three Texas sectional spots:

At Lubbock—
Rex Baxter, Amarillo, 69-64—133.
Murrell Tripp, Lubbock, 70-68—138.

At Houston—
Bobby Moncrief, Houston, 70-75—145.
Jim Leavell, Houston, 73-72—145.
Howie Johnson, Houston, 74-72—146.
Jack Little, Corpus Christi, 75-74—149.
John Garrett, Houston, 76-76—152.
Jack Flaitz, Houston, 76-78—154.
Dick Nauts, Houston, 79-75—154.

At Dallas—
Bobby Cupit, Dallas, 73-70—143.
Ernie Vossler, Fort Worth, 71-73—144.
Jim McGonagill, Shreveport, 71-74—145.
Floyd Addington, Dallas, 76-71—147.

Fem Softballers Win Over Coahoma 23-12

The Fikes & Grimmett women softballers last night outscored Coahoma 23-12 on the Towle Park softball field.

This gave the locals a 6-4 record They have another game scheduled for 8 o'clock Thursday night here with the Piggly Wiggly team of Lubbock.

Ruby Medford was winning pitcher. She struck out six, walked four, and gave up 11 hits. The loser, Marie Shaffer, fanned four, walked 15, and allowed 15 hits.

Kittie Reese hit a home run for the local team in the third inning with none on base. Three-base hits were by Dora Rogers and Ruby Medford. Coahoma got one three-bagger.

Dodgers Move Up, Beat Red Sox 6-4

The Scurry Butane Dodgers captured lone first place in the Pony League last night when they downed the Von Roeder Red Sox 6-4.

The two teams had been tied for first. Now the Sox are tied for second with the Courthouse Tigers, who last night beat the Lions Phillies 8-4.

The Dodgers got four runs ahead in the first inning of their game when two batters walked, Ronnie Baker got a hit to bring one in, Dwayne Overman made first on an error and got one home, then Baker and Overman both made home on passed balls. The Red Sox came back with two runs in the second when A. L. Minica and Kenneth Drake both got hits and went home on a hit by Johnny Drake. His hit, coupled with a two-base error, got them home.

Neil Boyd singled for the Dodgers in the fifth, and Mickey McGrew slammed a home run to keep his team still four runs ahead. In the seventh, the Sox began to score again but could not catch up. Earl Burleson and George Williams brought in one each with singles.

Ronnie Baker hurled the win for the Dodgers. Going all the way, he struck out 13 while allowing five hits and four walks. Loser was Dick Hayes, who went four and one-third innings for four hits, nine strikeouts, and five walks. Bud Morgan, who finished the game, fanned five, walked two, and allowed one hit.

The Tigers led off with one run in the first inning of their game, that one scored on hits by Roger Hensley and Jimmy Allen. In the second, the Phillies moved ahead 2-1 when Maxey Carey got a hit and later walked in when the bases were loaded and when Jackie Tucker singled and came in on a grounder by Roger Kerbow. Gary Vice got on base for the Tigers in the third and came in when Allen singled to tie the game. The fourth was the big inning, when the Tigers got five runs. Mike Ridley singled, Bobby Rogers got to first on fielder's choice, Gale Courtney made first on an error and brought both of them in, Vice singled to bring in Courtney, and Hensley singled to bring in Vice, later making home on an error.

Winner of that game was Vice, who went five and two-thirds innings for four hits, four strikeouts, and one walk. He had relieved Dean Staton, who had walked two, fanned two, and given up two hits. Loser was Jackie Tucker, who went one and one-third innings for two hits, two walks, and two strikeouts. Mickey Craig finished the game for eight hits, 10 strikeouts, and two walks.

With five nights of play remaining, the league has rearranged its schedule. The remainder of the slate: July 29, Phillies vs. Dodgers, Tigers vs. Red Sox; Aug. 3, Red Sox vs. Phillies, Tigers vs. Dodgers; Aug. 5, (4 p.m.) Red Sox vs. Dodgers, Phillies vs. tigers; Aug. 10, Red Sox vs. Tigers, Dodgers vs. Phillies; Aug. 12, Dodgers vs. Red Sox, Tigers vs. Phillies.

Semi-Pros In Playoffs

DALLAS (AP)—Texas' representative in the National Semi-pro Baseball Tournament at Wichita, Kans., will be decided within the next three weeks.

There are three regional tournaments in the state to furnish teams for a state tournament at Sinton starting Aug. 15.

Fort Bliss, Tex., and Jal, N.M., are playing for the West Texas-New Mexico division title at El Paso. They reached the finals in a field of 16 clubs.

Saturday the North-West Texas section will decide its champion when Amarillo Air Force Base and Tri-Service Drillers of Midland start a series at Midland. They are survivors in a field of 10 clubs.

Friday, the South Texas tournament opens at Sinton with the Refugio Vets, Sinton Oilers, Victoria Rosebuds, Brooke Army Medical Center, Corpus Christi Navy and either Laredo or Seguin playing for the title.

When the tournaments are finished, the West Texas-New Mexico winner plays defending state champion Refugio a series at Sinton starting Aug. 7, while the North-West Texas champion meets the South Texas champion in a series at Sinton starting Aug. 10. If Refugio should win the South Texas title, the runner-up would play the latter series. Refugio will be in the state playoff regardless.

Jerry Feille of Dallas, state semi-pro commissioner, announced the lineup for the playoffs today.

In four appearances in All-Star competition, Mel Harder of the Cleveland Indians pitched 13 innings without giving up an earned run.

L'il Leaguers Matched With Big Springers

The Snyder Little League all-stars will be matched with those from the Big Spring national league in area playoffs in Lamesa next Monday.

The two teams will play at 6 o'clock Monday afternoon. At 4 o'clock, the Lamesa team and that from the Big Spring American league will meet. The two winners will play at 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The Snyder leaguers will work out this week under the leadership of Skipper Joyce, manager, and Bill Roberts, coach.

The winner of the area tourney at Lamesa, along with winners of similar playoffs at Midland, Lubbock, and Sweetwater, will come to Snyder Aug. 5-7 for the district tourney. District champs from this playoff and those at Carlsbad, N. M., Cisco, and Pecos, will go to a sectional tournament at Carlsbad Aug. 9-11, and the winner there will go to the regional tourney at Austin Aug. 16-19.

Lost 90 Pounds With Barcentrate

Mr. L. A. Vance, 505 N. Crockett, Sherman Texas, states as follows: "I lost 90 pounds taking Barcentrate. I could never stay away from sweets. The tablets that come with Barcentrate really curb my appetite for sweets and they are so pleasant tasting. Lately I go for weeks without taking any, but when I feel like overeating, I get another bottle of Barcentrate."

You can get Barcentrate at any Texas druggist. Money back guarantee on the very first bottle.

Facts 'n Figures In Oddity Almanac

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Facts, fancies and figures from an odity almanac in a modern world:

Let's start off with the girls, since they interest everyone. Are "falsies" really necessary? Even girls torn by doubt, or stern feminine honesty, now have a choice in their solution. A manufacturer has come out with a brassiere coated with a thin layer of foam rubber to achieve a desired silhouette, and claims he is doing very well overseas from Belgium to Peru.

Do you know how often your heart beats? If you live the biblical span of 70 years, it will pulse between two and three billion times. The encyclopedias are chary of saying how often the average human heart beats. They don't want to worry you, but mine checks 75 when I am not worried, and 100 plus when the boss is looking. But they will tell you that a horse's heart beats 30 times a minute, these are the ones I bet and lose on; and a mouse races his pumper 500 to 1,000 times every 60 seconds.

Names not only make news they also make you wonder. The town of Smackover, Ark., for example, came from the French term, Chemin Couvert, meaning covered road, and I can't find out why. The authorities all agree on Smackover, but nobody I know claims to know how Wham, La., got its punch. Business firms are easier to trace. The Rugcrofters, a major hand-woven rug company now in in Puerto Rico, migrated from North Carolina, where its weavers still held to the old Scottish word "croft," meaning a small firm.

You probably never bothered to think about how the great Shell Oil Co., got its tag. Well, back in the 1830s it was a small general trading company that, among other things, earned a fast buck by importing sea shells from the orient to make mother of pearl. Then it stumbled into oil, and quit worrying about the button market.

But suppose it had adopted the title, "Mother of Pearl, Inc.," and then had to go into the world market peddling gasoline? An industrial outfit can, of course, change its corporate name to meet the purposes of its life. But a child is more reluctant to turn upon its parents, and this is why every parent should give a child at least four names at birth, so that later in life it can have a choice if it feels it needs it.

The almanac editorial: Last winter, as usual, we warned our readers against the spreading prevalence of the common cold, which year after year begins more and more to resemble "virus X," an ailment for people who, for personal reasons, prefer to catch an uncommon cold.

Now we summon our subscribers to a concerted attack on ragweed, which many of our friends say causes them to suffer from hay fever, a disease they say is an allergy.

Personally, we think that a guy who gets a common cold in the winter, and insists on calling it "virus X," is naturally subject to hay fever, which we ourselves believe is a summer cold. But you can't deny a friend the pleasure of making his own malady mysterious.

So do your neighbors a good turn. Attack and destroy ragweed—root, stalk and pollen—wherever it leers a green head. There is no market for the stuff anyway.

(Editors Note: This issue of the oddities almanac is skipping its usual science department notes because the man assigned to this field took a new wonder drug and, as we go to press, is still too sick to describe its benefits to mankind.)

Almanac quotes to live a life by:

"Does his own fatal passion become to each man his god?—Virgil.

"Success is the child of audacity"—Disraeli.

Almanac long-range weather forecast: Hot air storms, spreading across entire country and reaching a peak just before autumn elections; followed by cooling showers.

Firebug Put Back In Jail

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—A 13-year-old boy, recently released from Juvenile Hall after a year's detention for arson, is back in custody after setting another fire.

Police said he caused nearly $600,000 damage in 15 fires last year. They included a $250,000 lumber yard blaze and a $300,000 warehouse fire. A condition of his release was that he have 24-hour supervision at home.

Lt. Stanley Paggeot, head of the police juvenile bureau, said the latest fire was set during an absence of less than 10 minutes. He said the boy soaked papers in oil and ignited them in a guinea pig cage near a pet shop. A passer-by extinguished the flames before the animals were injured.

The boy said his pet, a ring-necked dove, died while being cared for in the shop while he was at Juvenile Hall.

Doctors Are Told How To Establish Fees

DEDHAM, Mass. (AP)—The Norfolk County Medical Society advises its physician-members in its current medical news publication how to arrive at a fair fee for all patients.

It emphasized, "The fee should have no bearing whatsoever on the physician's need or lack of money or the patient's willingness to overpay."

The article said: "If the very wealthy wish to throw their weight around, the physician should consider what he might lose in prestige by accepting an honorarium in excess of the established fee."

Some scientists think the planet Venus may be completely covered by water.

Dog Days Bringing Sharp Competition

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Competition is sharpening up in the dog days. Business management is getting in some of its heaviest licks now, fighting for the most favorable position possible in the fall.

The year of the "hard sell" is bringing no-quarter battles within industries, and between industries. It's back of many of the mergers of the day. It leads to pleas to Congress for relief from some forms of competition, and to federal regulatory agencies for bans on "unfair" competition.

Capacity to produce more than the present market needs lights the fire under most of the competition for the consumer's dollar.

The auto, steel, oil, textile and television industries are examples.

Battles over competing ways of doing things are another phase. Examples are: the struggle of bottles, cans and cartons for food and beverage distribution; and the attempt of the railroads to compete with trucks by carrying truck-trailers piggy-back on flat cars.

To-the-death competition in the auto industry has led to three mergers among the smaller companies and to talk of still more combining to come. One aim was to strengthen the dealer setups of the merged companies, since dealer systems are the backbone of sales.

The dealers themselves have been in bitter competition. The cries over "bootlegging" of new cars at used car prices were carried all the way to the U.S. Department of Justice.

In the oil industry, competition has been somewhat tempered by the state regulation of output. But the small companies and the large ones without oil fields in other lands are protesting at the better competitive situation of the oil giants with foreign oil to import. As long as the domestic oil industry has overcapacity to face, the fight over oil imports can only grow in bitterness.

Tariff battles are heightened also by growing competition in other industries. In the postwar years of the "easy sell" the tariff question was left alone. Now the demand for protection increases in proportion to the stepup in competition for the consumer's dollar.

Steel merger rumors also seem to stem back to the increasing competition in that industry. The bigger, diversified companies have the best competitive position for sales and profits, now that the industry as a whole is operating at only about two thirds of capacity.

In textiles competition between the various natural and man-made fibres is getting stiffer. At the same time, overcapacity and falling sales have sparked merger moves to get companies in better position for the race for markets this summer and fall.

Television set makers are in a price-cutting battle. At the station level the fight is between the ultra high frequency and the very high frequency outlets.

It all makes the consumer look pretty well off.

Woman Dies Of Attack After Husband's Death

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mrs. Mae A. Rutter Bien, 49, under treatment for a coronary impairment, was warned several months ago that a sudden shock might be too much for her.

Her husband, Charles B. F. Bien, 63, and apparently in good health, died yesterday after a heart attack in their home.

Mrs. Bien collapsed when her husband was stricken. She died five minutes later.

Voice Of America Forwarded By Ship

WASHINGTON (AP) — For two years a sleek white Coast Guard cutter, the Courier, has been anchored off the island of Rhodes in the Aegean Sea — a floating radio station broadcasting the American story to the Near East and southern Russia.

An old Navy cargo ship, she is the only such vessel afloat in the world today. Her antenna, a retractable device which can shoot up to 172 feet, is pulled into the air by a small balloon which floats at 740 feet.

For 12 hours each day the call goes out: "This is the Courier, seaborne relay base for the Voice of America." The call is in 16 languages, including Turkish, Arabic, Persian, Urdu, Ukrainian and Russian.

The Courier staff's first job is to make friends for America in the Near East countries. Its second job is to beam the American story behind the Iron Curtain into southern Russia.

Programs to the Near East are concentrated between 6:30 p.m. and 10 p.m., when citizens of the area collect in coffee houses to talk and listen. They especially like light music, drama and short stories.

Programs to Russia start after midnight when people with hidden radios can take the chance of listening.

Capt. O.C.B. Wev, the Courier's commanding officer since she was commissioned, feels certain the message is reaching an increasing audience. Discussing the Courier in Washington, on his way to a new assignment as chief intelligence officer for the port of New Orleans, he said:

"This spring we noticed the Russians were particularly anxious to jam our programs to the Ukraine. We don't think they succeeded because we use so many channels at different times of the day.

"But their jamming ties in with the rumors we have from other sources that the Communists are having trouble controlling the people of the Ukraine."

Voice of America staff checks show that letters from the Near East have trebled since the Courier dropped anchor at Rhodes. From Iran, alone, 2,326 letters commenting on Voice programs came in during April.

The Courier, 338 feet long and weighing 5,800 tons, has a crew of 87 enlisted men, 10 officers and 3 Voice radio technicians. Her programs are written in New York and Cairo.

The Rev. Bernard C. Cronin, 44, points to a bandage on his neck covering a stab wound he received while saying mass in St. Gabriel's church in San Francisco. He will recover. Police said a woman identified as Miss Josephine Avanzino, 37, is being held in connection with the stabbing. They said she was sitting in the church when they reached the scene and refused to identify herself. Identification, police said, was made by her mother, Mrs. Natalia Avanzio. She lived in the neighborhood.

Newlyweds Will Live In Snyder

Announcement has been made here of the marriage of Barbara Quilalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carrell of Talco, to J. L. Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Taylor, 801 Twenty - seventh Street.

The single ring ceremony was held on July 21 in the parsonage of the Baptist Church in Portales, N. M., with Rev. Boyce M. Sandlun officiating. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Golden Hester, Portales, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dyer, Hobbs, N.M., and Mr. and Mrs. Dean McMillan, Snyder.

Collection Is Costly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It cost the state 36 cents yesterday to collect 1 cent in sales tax revenue. Furniture dealer John Glancy of Goshen in southern Ohio sent a check for a penny by registered mail. State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy had to pay 36 cents postage due.

Dallas Doctor Shot To Death

DALLAS (AP)—Dr. Jack W. Sharp, associated with a popular local clinic, was shot to death about 11:15 last night at the home of a woman lawyer, a widow.

Sharp's assailant, presumably armed with the pistol that killed the physician, was still at large today.

Detective L. D. Stringfellow said Sharp was struck once in the chest. He was dead on arrival at Parkland Hospital.

Stringfellow said Dr. and Mrs. Sharp had been visiting in the home of Mrs. Nona Bird and that Dr. Sharp was returning a pistol he had borrowed from Mrs. Bird.

During the visit, Stringfellow reported, an argument developed between Dr. Sharp and a 38-year-old male friend of Mrs. Bird. Dr. Sharp apparently was shot with the same gun he was returning to Mrs. Bird, the detective said. It was thought to be a .38 caliber revolver.

Only the one shot was fired, Stringfellow said. After the shooting, he continued, the assailant jumped into Mrs. Bird's car and fled.

When detectives arrived at the Bird home the doors were barred, Stringfellow said. When police gained entrance, they found Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Sharp both in the house in a terrified condition.

Dr. Sharp's body was on the kitchen floor.

The physician's son and his wife are his only survivors.

Adjust Crude Prices In Southern Oklahoma

DALLAS (AP)—The Magnolia Petroleum Co. has announced an adjustment in the price of crude oil in several Southern Oklahoma counties beginning today.

The new price will be $2.80 a barrel for 40 gravity and above, with a three - cent differential downward for each change in degree of gravity to a price of $2.20 a barrel for 20 gravity and below.

Carter, Comanche, Cotton, Jefferson and Stephens counties are affected.

Carries A Needle In His Body 76 Years

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP)—A physician removed an inch-long needle yesterday from the right foot of Guy J. Gilbert, 83.

Gilbert recalled he accidentally swallowed the needle 76 years ago in Angola, Ind. About six months ago he began feeling a dull ache in the foot.

Hungry Burglar Gets Himself Good Supply

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—When San Antonio police captured a burglar in a restaurant, he explained that he was hungry; hadn't eaten in three days.

Then they looked over the loot. It included 31 pounds of bananas, potato chips, a bag of chili peppers, hot sauce, gum, dill pickles and some cigars.

Wells Plugged In New Mexico

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—Attempts to extend New Mexico's oil production to unexplored areas failed in recent days.

The Lion Oil Co. abandoned its Lion Oil Co. Haire Well, which was drilled four miles southwest of Kenna in a part of Chaves County where there is no production.

The British American Oil Co. plugged its Fields Federal Well, which was located 10 miles northwest of Jal on the eastern edge of the Delaware Basin. That well was found dry in the Bone Springs formation. It was two miles west of a producing oil pool.

The Union Oil Co. of California temporarily abandoned the Gilmore Federal Well, a rank wildcat in the middle of the Delaware basin 30 miles west of Eunice. It also turned out dry in the Bone Springs stratum.

In the northwest part of the state, El Paso Natural Gas Co. went back to an old dry hole with the intention of plugging it back to a shallower depth. The well is the Amerada No. 1 Allison Unit, which was previously drilled to 8,860 feet. Oil Conservation Commission sources said El Paso hopes to turn the well into a producer from the Dakota formation, in the vicinity of 7,500 feet.

A great forest fire in Maine and New Brunswick burned over about three million acres in 1825.

Record Price Paid For Colt

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A fabulous $86,000 bid for a chestnut son of Nasrullah, a record American price for a thoroughbred yearling, echoed from Kentucky's Bluegrass horse country to Texas today.

F. J. Adams of Fort Worth, retired oil executive, bought the colt for the Adams Syndicate from the consignment of Clifford Mooers' Walnut Springs Farm.

Adams, a newcomer to the Breeders' Sales Co. summer auctions, is retired vice president of the Gulf Oil Corp. and Gulf Refining Co., and a director of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth.

The contending bidder for the Nasrullah-Lurline B. colt was A. E. Reuben of Toledo, Ohio, master of Hasty House Farm. Reuben gave $23,100 for a yearling from the Mooers' consignment in the 1952 summer sale and the colt, Hasty Road, became the leading money winner among juveniles in 1953 and captured the Preakness this spring.

The old record for a yearling was the $75,000, which Eastland Farm Syndicate gave in 1928 for New Broom.

Nasrullah was second among the leading sires in England last year. The imported stallion is the sire of Noor, who four times raced Citation, the turf's only millionaire, into defeat.

Jail Term Is Assessed Here

Lewis Minica, 49, Big Spring highway, was sentenced yesterday afternoon to 90 days in jail and assessed court cost of $23.50 when he pleaded guilty to a county court charge of swindling by worthless check.

Minica's new sentence will run concurrently with the remainder of a 30-day sentence he was serving when brought before the court on the last charge, which was filed July 20.

Yesterday's action concerned a worthless check given to Snyder Drug for $10. On July 16, Minica was sentenced to 30 days and assessed court cost when he pleaded guilty to a charge of swindling by giving a worthless check to Harold C. Denson.

Minica has waived extradition through the sheriff's department for transfer to custody of officers at Tucumcari, N. M., when his sentence here is completed, the department said.

Man Assessed Fine On Plea Of Guilty

Carl Wesley Smith, 58, route 2, pleaded guilty in county court yesterday to a charge of driving while intoxicated and was assessed a fine of $73.50, including court cost. A three-day jail sentence mandatorily assessed in such conviction was probated.

Smith's drivers license was suspended for six months by automatic law.

Smith was driver of a late model Dodge pickup which left the pavement of a farm-to-market road about six miles southeast of here July 19, hurdled a creek bed, and struck a fence. He was hospitalized several days but was not seriously hurt.

Firm Plans To Move Out Of Bomb Area

BOSTON (AP) — A technical firm says it is planning to move 50 miles to Fitchburg to "get out of the potential bomb target area of Boston."

Robert G. Dexter of Barkley and Dexter Co. and the Barkley and Dexter Laboratories, Inc., machinery designers and electronics researchers, said yesterday the firm will move to Fitchburg in February.

Don't Miss It! PERRY'S BIG ANNIVERSARY Sale!

CELEBRATING OUR 39th YEAR and

TWO GENERATIONS OF PROGRESS

STARTS THURSDAY JULY 29th 8 A.M.

J. B. PERRY, SR.

J. B. PERRY, JR.

REMEMBERING THE PAST - - LOOKING TO THE FUTURE!

Progress is not achieved by foresight only, but also in remembrance of things past. The things of the past that thrills us most is the way in which YOU OUR CUSTOMERS have stood by us through these TWO GENERATIONS OF PROGRESS. Without YOU we could not have accomplished our record of growth. Again looking to the past we are PROUD of the fact that we have always tried to give our customers HIGH QUALITY, DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE, at reasonable prices. MR. JOHN B. PERRY, the senior member of our firm, who was one of the co-founders of our Company and now chairman of our board of directors, has, from the very beginning steadfastly stood for the highest ideals of fair treatment of our customers. He, too, deals in the same fine manner with PERRY'S many employees. MR. J. B. PERRY, JR., who is now president and general manager of our Company, "LIKE FATHER LIKE SON" stands for these same high standards of dealing with our customers and Company employees. No institution was ever founded on a better foundation than the high ideals for which both of these men stand. Looking to the future—we pledge ourselves to the same high standards of dependable service to our customers and sincerely ask you to continue letting us serve you in the future as in the past. In celebration of 39 YEARS OF STEADY PROGRESS we are offering MANY SPECIAL VALUES IN GOOD MERCHANDISE. BE HERE EARLY ON THURSDAY MORNING and get your share of the bargains.
