Bookmaker "Too Hot" To Kidnap

EVEN CHICAGO'S BAD MEN BUFFALOED

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 15.—Joseph B. Drell, known as one of Chicago wealthiest bookmakers, proved "too hot" for his kidnapers last night, and they set him free, after holding him all day for $50,000 ransom.

"I didn't pay them a cent," said Drell, owner of a chain of cigar stores on the West Side and the operator, police said, of several handbooks. "They wanted $50,000, and maybe I would have given it, but about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon they bought a newspaper and read what the papers had to say about the kidnaping.

One of the men said, 'This fellow's getting too hot for us.' So they blindfolded me and put me out of their car in Niles Center (a North side suburb.)

Drell was a captive for nine hours. He was kidnaped at the point of revolvers by three men who crowded his car to the curb just after he had driven his two children to school.

The abductors drove Drell around for several hours then took him to a farmhouse, which was somewhere in the Northern part of the county. They opened negotiations with Drell's partners and friends for the $50,000 ransom.

Drastic Stroke To Clear Docket

CHICAGO, March 15 (AP).—A drastic stroke to clear the Cook county criminal docket was contemplated by the courts today. It called for the concentration of the full strength of the courts on criminal cases, and the abandonment of all civil and divorce hearings until the criminal calendar is cleared.

The plan, as discussed by a joint committee of the circuit and superior courts yesterday, is this:

Suspend the hearing of civil cases in Cook county for an indefinite period;

Use all the 44 judges of the two courts exclusively for the hearing of criminal cases.

TECH SUMMER TERM IS SURE

APPROPRIATIONS WILL CARE FOR SESSION HORN ASSERTS

Appropriations as finally granted and approved by Governor Dan Moody for the 1929 summer session of Texas Technological College, when supplemented by funds derived from college fees, will be sufficient for the summer session work to be given in accordance with the enlarged plans already outlined, according to President Paul W. Horn.

"In addition to the comprehensive list of courses offered last summer, including a large per cent of advanced work, other valuable courses will be offered this summer," said Dr. Horn. The enrollment of 965 during the 1928 summer session represented a very substantial increase over the preceding summer, and President Horn is expecting and preparing for a material increase during the coming session.

"The demand for summer work," he said, "has been so pronounced and the attendance at Texas Technological College has been increasing at such a great rate that provisions will be made to take care of this demand in so far as it is possible with funds available for summer to summer. The work offered in the summer session is on a par with that done during the regular session, and it is the policy of the college to supplement the regular faculty by men of outstanding ability and reputation in certain fields."

"While the vacation possibilities of attending Tech has no doubt added considerably to the enrollment, this does not in any way affect the amount or quality of work done," Dr. Horn added. "We expect," he continued, "to maintain the high standards which has been the policy of the institution since its opening."

FOCH "VERY TIRED"

PARIS, Mar. 15 (AP).—Physicians of Marshal Foch found him "very tired in heart, and body and mind" when they visited him today. They said, however, he had passed a quiet night and had obtained some sleep.

TOWNS UNDER WATER, FATE IS IN DOUBT

LACK OF NEWS FROM STRICKEN CITIES CHILLS HOPE

(By Associated Press)

At least five towns in Southern Alabama were under water today with the fate of the residents in doubt as the numerous creeks and rivers which traverse that secton of the state continued to rise.

Regular channels of communication were cut off and reports of conditions were received mainly from refugees and from outposts of the national guard, which was in charge of rescue work. No check of the number of dead or injured was possible.

At Elba, Ala., where 4,000 persons were marooned by the high water, an observer who communicated with the national guard base from a tree a mile away reported that only the tops of taller buildings could be seen above the water. He could hear the screams of the marooned citizens.

Brewton, Ala., was under water and communication was cut off when the telephone exchange on the second floor of a building was flooded. Other towns flooded included Flomaton, Castleberry and Big Creek.

Two Groups Rescued

Thirty five persons were rescued at Big Creek and 37 were taken to safety from the vicinity of Elba by national guardsmen.

At Windham's Mill, Ala., the soldiers found seven women and children in a flooded store. Tying their motor boat to the outside of the building, they went in in rowboats and rescued them.

Efforts to carry on radio communication between airplanes and the rescue parties were made, but the planes were forced to return to their base because of the heavy fog which hung over the flooded district.

While Alabama was hardest hit, many other sections of the country

Begin Clean-Up In Scout Drive Here

With only about half of Lubbock's $10,00 budget raised in the recent Boy Scout financial drive, a handful of interested workers met at the city hall at 9 o'clock this morning and began the final wind-up campaign.

All of the local citizens, carded in preparation for the drive, who have not yet been seen, will be given the opportunity to contribute to the drive today. It is hoped that all of the remaining cards will be worked and the work finished for the present time.

Hurlwood School To Be Dedicated

The new Hurlwood school building will be dedicated with an elaborate program, starting at 8 o'clock tonight in the auditorium of the new building.

The program will be featured by speeches from W. O. Sheely, county school trustee; Miss Mae Murfee, county school superintendent; W. A. Fincher, superintendent of the school; Mrs. E. W. Camp of Lubbock, Prof. H. C. Pender of the Tech college faculty and some representative of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Tom Hickman Takes Ranger Stage Role

GAINESVILLE, Mar. 15 (AP).—A real Texas ranger will play a Texas ranger here this evening.

Captain Tom Hickman of the Lone Star State's ranger force, for the first time in his picturesque career, will appear behind the footlights in the role of a ranger in "The Bad Man," a Mexican border drama.

The captain is a member of the Little theater players' cast.

Friends of the ranger from many north Texas cities are here to see him embark upon his thespian and grease paint career.

Battle Lines Are Drawn Closely Together With Armies Near Torreon

General Jose Gonzalo Escobar, leader of the rebel host in Mexico, is ready for a finish fight with the federal armies at Torreon, he said today.

DURANGO NOW STANDS AS IMMEDIATE GOAL FOR FEDERALS

(By Associated Press)

Battle lines between federals and revolutionists around the strategic city of Torreon grew closer today as powerful rival armies were reported advancing on one another in an effort to come to grips.

The wide encircling movement of General Calles, federal commander-in-chief, to close in on Torreon and cut off the rebel retreat northward continued to develop steadily.

General Calles himself was within 20 miles of Durango. He hoped to capture it shortly and then to continue northward along the Mexican National Railway to Torreon.

Durango Fortified

Durango, however, may be a hard nut to crack as it is strong strategically and is reported guarded by 4,000 rebels.

Four other federal armies were also advancing on Torreon, three from the east and one from the south.

The government has expressed fear that the insurgent army will not stand and fight but will flee northward in an effort to escape.

Advices from Juarez, on the contrary, said the rebels were reported on the march south from Torreon to meet the federal forces outside of the city.

Battle Looms At Naco

At Naco, on the border, another battle was imminent between 1,200 federals and 1,000 insurgents. Ever since the return of Naco to the government fold, it has been a thorn in the side of rebels for whom it was an important point both for sending reinforcements southward and as an avenue of escape to the American border in case of reverses.

While the rebels have been inactive for the past few days on the west coast, General Manzo was again reported enroute to take command of the insurgent forces near Mazatlan.

Many Americans are stranded in Torreon, unable to obtain travelling funds because of the closing of banks. Others are arriving at Juarez having succeeded in leaving the beleaguered city.

LINDY FLIES OVER TEXAS

TAKES OFF EARLY IN DAY ON TRIP FROM BROWNSVILLE

(By Associated Press)

BROWNSVILLE, Mar. 15.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh took the air for the west at 10:06 a. m. today.

He was believed to be flying alone, and his destination was thought to be San Antonio, Texas, although it was unannounced. He was in his Curtis Falcon ship which was flown here for him Monday by Pilot I. L. Dobie.

Whether Dobie was with Lindbergh in the ship when it left here this morning was not announced by airport officials.

Lindbergh flew here yesterday from Mexico City in five hours and made a stop at Tampico on his way northward. He had been in the Mexican capital three weeks visiting his fiancee, Anne Morrow and the Morrow family.

Colonel W. C. Johnston, commanding officer of the twelfth cavalry, was host to the flying colonel last night.

While in Brownsville, Lindbergh did not discuss internal conditions in Mexico or his experiences in the war zone.

EAKER TAKES OFF FOR BROWNSVILLE

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 15 (AP).—Captain Ira C. Eaker hopped off from Kelly field at 10:35 a. m. for Brownsville, from which place he will take off Saturday for his dawn-to-dusk flight to France field, Canal Zone.

Despair Of Finding Lost Nebraska Youth

GORDON, Nebr., March 15 (AP).—The snow swept sand hills hold the fate of little Melvin Reeves.

The 60 hour search for the boy, last seen pursuing a hoop into a canyon on his father's ranch, was ended last night. Mr. and Mrs. William Reeves, the child's parents, were near collapse as they called off the search.

The army of searchers including 200 Indians from the Pine Ridge reservation and Kyle, S. D., found themselves snowbound today, unable to push through the snow drifts which in many places were eight feet deep.

COUNSEL FOR DUMAS SEEKS HIS RELEASE

FORMER LUBBOCK MAN IS NOW IN TRAVIS COUNTY BASTILE

AUSTIN, Mar. 15.—Attorneys representing J. H. Dumas, under a murder indictment in connection with the killing of two men in an alleged attempt to rob a Rankin bank last year, are attempting to free him from jail before he goes to trial.

Judge George Calhoun was asked today to set a habeas corpus hearing for Dumas. He is undecided as to whether this court has the right to grant such a bond, inasmuch as the case was transferred back to Upton county on a sustained motion challenging jurisdiction of the Travis county district court.

Dumas is jointly indicted with Carl F. (Red) Woods in conection with the double killing. Both have been held in the Travis county jail for several months. The cases were sent here on changes of venue, and later sent back to Upton county when it developed Dumas was not under arrest and had not been arraigned when the transfer was made. Woods is at liberty on bond.

Rebel Airplanes On Scouting Tour

HIPOLITO, Coah., Mexico, Mar. 15 (AP).—Two Rebel planes circled over the encampment of General J. A. Almazan today but made no attempt to drop bombs. Almazan has 5,000 cavalrymen.

As Almazan and his staff watched the planes with field glasses the general received a message from his train, several miles behind him in the desert, that the ships were mail planes seized by rebels when they evacuated Saltillo yesterday.

The message said the pilots were government mail pilots, and three rebel officers were in the cabins of each plane with drawn pistols covering the pilots.

Suggest Policy On Handling Of Rebels

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP).—The state department has submitted to President Hoover a suggested policy to be pursued with respect to Mexican Rebels who cross the border into this country. Announcement of the details of the policy was left to the White House by the department.

There appeared to be little doubt that the administration has decided to detain any rebels who may reach American soil inasmuch as the indications have been all along this government desired to carry out the spirit of the Pan-American treaty touching on that situation.

Speculators Stage Stock Raid Today

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP).—Speculators for the advance staged a wild bullish demonstration on the New York Stock Exchange today in response to the retention of the 5 per cent rediscount rate by the New York Federal Reserv bank, and the drop of $20,000,000 in brokers' loans. The gains are from a few cents to $9 a share.

Gordon, B. Sherrod To Speak At Sudan

Dr. J. M. Gordon, dean of Texas Technological college, will be the principal speaker at the annual banquet of the Sudan Chamber of Commerce to be held in that city tonight.

B. Sherrod, former president of the Lubbock Board of City Development, and Garnett Reeves, publicity manager of the local Chamber of Commerce, also will attend the banquet as visitors from here.

PIANO CONTESTS BEING CONDUCTED IN CONNECTION WITH MUSIC FEST FRIDAY

With today as the principal day in the annual spring music festival of the South Plains Music Teachers association, there is a large gathering of out-of-town people at the high school for the piano contests which are continuing throughout the day in the auditorium.

Voice, violin, orchestra solo and ensemble contests will be conducted tomorrow and all winners probably will be announced by 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, according to Miss Margaret Huff, president of the Sponsoring association. Wallace R. Clark of Canyon State Teachers college will judge the events tomorrow.

Nine towns are represented in the piano contests which have been continuing since yesterday and 500 names were listed. Miss Huff is chairman of this division.

The festival opened yesterday morning, and is to continue through Saturday. Silvio Scionti, pianist, who is judging the piano contests here, gave a recital last evening in the school auditorium. The Lubbock high school band, of which J. W. Crowley is director, is to give a fifth annual concert this evening in the auditorium.

TO HEAR ROAD AID REQUESTS

$2,500,000 IN WORK TO BE GRANTED AT SESSION

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 15.—In addition to letting contracts for about $2,500,000 worth of construction, the state highway department Monday [illegible] will receive delegations from eight counties, seeking aid, designations and relocations.

Delegations will be here as follows:

Live Oak county: Tender of aid for hard surfacing 45 miles highway 9 through the county.

Atascosa county: Location of Highway 9-A through the town of Charlotte.

Morris and Bowie counties: Extension highway 11 from Omaha, Morris county, to the Red River, Bowie county, via Dalby Springs and Dekalb in Bowie county.

Cherokee county: Tender aid for grading and drainage 6.7 miles highway 43 from Jacksonville to Henderson and for bridge over Mud Creek.

Willacy: Tendering 50 per cent cost of surfacing highway 96.

Limestone: Requesting designation from Groesbeck, Limestone county, to Mart, McLennan county.

San Jacinto: Aid on highways 45 and 45-A.

Lawyers Organize, Fight Jones Law

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP).—A group of lawyers has organized to aid Jones law defendants.

Frederick R. Couderi, Jr., chairman, one of the four former assistant United States attorneys on the committee explained its purpose as follows:

"It was felt that such a committee of lawyers might be helpful in aiding our juries to perform their invaluable functions in preserving civil liberties.

"Since the sale of a glass of beer has been raised to the dignity of a felony, carrying penalties similar to those provided in this state for assault and manslaughter, it was thought wist to form a committee to assist those who have done nothing condemned by civilized society and who might be subject to such severe penalties."

FORCE SWOOPS DOWN ON THREE LIQUOR DEPOTS; ARREST FIVE SEIZE HUGE CACHE OF BOOZE

Swooping down, unheralded, on three alleged liquor depots in the vicinity of Sudan and Littlefield late yesterday, federal prohibition agents staged one of the most extensive raids ever made in the South Plains country.

Five persons were arrested and approximately seventy-five gallons of liquor, ranging in quality from raw, rank moonshine to alleged imported "Straight American" whiskey and brandy were seized.

The ones arrested were: Bill Herman, Vernon Herman, W. R. Atkinson, John Atkinson, and Roy Campbell, officers reported. United States Commissioner Leonard L. Pearson this morning set Bill Herman's bond at $1,000 and the bonds for the others at $750, after examining trials had been waived.

The raid was conducted by Federal Prohibition Agents L. H. Tyson and J. M. Bacon, Commissioner Pearson, Deputy Sheriff O. B. Conley, and City Patrolman George Eubanks. The officers made liquor purchases at each of the three places raided before making the arrests.

Herman Charged As Owner

Bill Herman, wealthy property owner and former prominent rodeo star, is charged by the prohibition agents with being the owner of the three places raided yesterday. Net earnings from the three places was estimated by officers at $475 daily.

Specially built basements, trap doors, hidden cavities, secret panels, electric hairpin trap locks, installed at a cost of thousands of dollars, were revealed by the raids.

Enter By Trap Door

The Bill Wharton residence, eight miles north of Littlefield, was the scene of the first raid. Purchase of a half gallon of liquor was made before the search of the house was made, officers said. At this place 96 pints of peach brandy, 17 pints of moonshine whisky, two pints of Straight American, and 49 gallons

JEALOUS SPOUSE ATTACKS RIVAL

Wife Of Chicago Broker Disfigures Woman

CHICAGO, Mar. 15 (AP).—Mrs. Paul Ellsworth, whose husband is a Chicago broker, was arrested in their Gold Coast apartment last night. Detectives found her bending over, Miss Mildred Rogers, 28, who had been cut across the face and shoulders with a knife.

Ellsworth, the detectives were told, had been in the apartment a short time before, but he was not found.

Mrs. Ellsworth was charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Neither Mrs. Ellsworth nor Miss Rogers (who was taken to a hospital) would discuss the affair. Police said Miss Rogers came to the apartment in the absence of Mrs. Ellsworth and a cook in the apartment notified Mrs. Ellsworth of the circumstance.

At the hospital Miss Rogers' injuries were not serious, although they might result in permanent disfigurement.

Speedy Planes For Rebels Are On Way

FORT WORTH, Mar. 15 (AP).—Four speedy Waco sport model planes left here today for Brownsville where they will be delivered to a quartet of Mexican pilots for use by the federals in the Mexican revolution.

Pilots from the Garland Aircraft corporation of Tulsa were at the controls. The ships are the first of an order of 40 placed with Garland by Mexican interests. Robert J. Garland, Tulsa oil and aircraft operator, was a passenger in one of the planes.

Grave Digger Tells Burial Specification

MABANK, Texas, March 15 (AP).—A grave in the old Bethel cemetery, east of Mabank, today contained the body of the digger, A. A. Tucker, who also prepared his own casket.

Funeral services were held yesterday for the pioneer Van Zandt county man, who was better known as "Uncle Aaron."

In preparing his own grave "Uncle Aaron" walled it with brick and instructed that his body should be buried in a leaning posture. With this purpose in view, the pioneer inclined one of the walls about 30 degrees that the casket might be placed against it and not incline to one side.

Newton Nominated Third Hoover Aide

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP).—Representative Walter H. Newton, of Minnesota, today was appointed third secretary to President Hoover.

Mr. Newton will be liason officer between the chief executive and the heads of the various independent agencies of the government such as the Veterans Bureau and the Shipping Board. He will resign from Congress and will enter upon his new duties in the near future.

Special Session Of Solons In Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La., Mar. 15 (AP).—A call for a special session of the Louisiana legislature, to consider changes in the 1928 severance law, has been issued by Gov. Huey P. Long to convene Monday. He said he did not expect the session to run more than five or six days.

AIRPORT BOND VOTE ORDERED

$75,000 ELECTION IS AUTHORIZED BY CITY DADS

The Lubbock city commission, in regular session at the city hall, yesterday ordered a $75,000 bond issue election for the establishment of a municipal airport here.

This action was prompted by the recommendation of the Board of City Development that a bond election of $100,000 be called for the airport.

Date of the election was not set although commissioners intimated that it would be held in the next several weeks. It was the opinion of the city dads that $75,000 would be sufficient to purchase a 640 acre tract, three miles north of town, upon which an option has been secured, and to partially equip the field with hangars and other necessary equipment.

The airport site under consideration was selected by the airport committee of the Board of City Development which made an intensive investigation of several months into airports of other cities and the possibilities of the field here. Bids were received on a large number of sites before the present one was selected as the most suitable for the proposed airport.

NOW THE REVOLT IS GONNA FAIL!

AMARILLO, March 15 (AP)—Eldon and Carl Doyle, 9 and 13, tired of life in Dalhart, Texas, left yesterday for Mexico to take part in the revolution.

Amarillo police halted their journey today, however, when advised by the boys' parents that the revolution would have to get along without them. The boys were sent home.

Two Hundred Call Yesterday At Tea Given By First Presbyterian Women

A delightful musical program was given yesterday afternoon when the First Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary entertained with a St. Patrick's silver tea in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil H. Wright at 1622 Main street.

About two hundred women called during the afternoon.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with green as a predominating color. A lace cloth covered the table from which refreshments were dispensed and a cluster of sweetpeas in a green bowl formed a center piece.

Mrs. J. S. Johnson and Mrs. O. V. Adams presided at the table. They were assisted in serving by Misses Lucille Moxley, Kate Boyd, Louise and Ruth McKee, Nina Gordon and Mary Meador.

Others in Party

Others who assisted in the house party were Mmes. T. H. Ellis, Neil H. Wright, S. C. Wilson, D. F. Wulfman, J. B. Jackson, R. C. Harvey, R. A. Studhalter and J. H. Howze.

Mrs. R. D. Moxley was in charge of an enjoyable program.

Three high school students, accompanied by Mrs. L. J. Von Tungeln, sang solos. These were Lynn Grey Gordon, David Powell and Una Alcorn.

Other numbers on the program consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. R. F. Cook, Miss Nell Parmley, Mmes. Gus Shaw, G. N. Atkinson and J. H. Towze. Miss Margaret Stone played a violin solo, Mrs. W. M. Bralley played several piano numbers and accompanied for other selections. Piano duets were played by Mrs. Marlin R. Smith and Mrs. Claxton Draper. Mrs. C. Graham Stinson and Mrs. J. C. Powell.

Mrs. Jack M. Lewis and Mrs. Harry E. Blocker sang a duet and selections were sung by a sextette composed of Mesdames T. J. Beck, R. L. Douglas, G. N. Atkinson, Gus Shaw, Harry Blocker and Miss Nell Parmley. Mrs. Von Tungeln and Mrs. Raymond George were other accompanists.

Scionti Pleases In Recital Here

The best piano playing that has been heard in Lubbock in many a day thrilled an audience of music lovers last evening at the high school auditorium when Silvio Scionti played as the premier attraction of the annual Spring Music Festival of the South Plains Music Teachers Association.

This was Mr. Scionti's second appearance here as he came to Lubbock, the small town, 17 years ago upon the invitation of Miss Margaret Huff and gave a recital before a gathering of people.

Miss Huff, who is now president of the South Plains Music Teachers Association, was again instrumental in bringing him here from Chicago.

The audience last evening was made up partly of musicians and music lovers from outlying towns and main auditorium was well filled for the performance of this master pianist whose appearance was marked by a gracious response to the warm applause.

Living and Loving

BY MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

Wedding vows make the young couple promise to love and cherish one another. They do not mention the "in-laws." Which seems a good deal of an oversight, as these same "in-laws" figure very extensively in the fate of the marriage.

Suppose a minister with experience should insert in the questions he puts to the bride and groom something like this: "Do you promise to also love and cherish the close relatives of your husband—or wife—to be, never trying to prove that YOUR side of the family is superior?" How many young men and women would murmur, "I do," and keep the vow?

Many people seem to make it a point of honor to find fault with the mother, father, sisters, brothers, cousins, aunts and uncles of their life partners. Words and actions that would be passed over as of no moment in their own relatives or friends will be made subjects of quarrels if connected with in-laws. Isn't it a pity? Why not vow to ourselves that we will be as affectioneat and appreciative of our "in-laws" as we can be and if they prove disagreeable we will still be nice to them, remembering that it takes two to make a quarrel, and peace is so much better for all concerned.

"Virginia Lee, Dear Madam: I am about 53 years old and my wife and I have been married 30 years. We have trouble over our folks. She seems to think her folks are so much better than mine. My mother was 87 years old when she died and she did not get to come to my house for the last 12 years. My wife did not want her. There is only me and one sister left and my wife don't like me to go and see her. Her folks come and I treat them right. Her mother died last October. I took her to see her every Sunday, and when she got bad she went and stayed about three weeks and I bached at home. Now she has left me, which makes about 12 times. I have gone and begged her to come back before, but I am trying to keep from going after her this time. Now what must I do?

"LONELY HUSBAND."

If you have not learned to live happily, or at least peaceably, after 30 years, there seems little hope that you will, your signature would indicate that you are lonely without her, however, in spite of the fact that you can't get along. Too bad she couldn't have been nicer to your people, but so many disagree about their in-laws. Why don't you have a talk with her and ask her if she wants a divorce? Perhaps she expects you to go to her and again beg her to come back, and if she thinks you are not anxious to have her back she may want to come and you can work out some kind of agreement and get along better. Try it, anyway.

Betty Lu: I don't know how you are going to tell whether the love you have for this boy will last. Maybe he can't come any oftener to see you. He would hardly go with you for a year if he didn't care. Love comes before money, but money is mighty handy to pay the bills after marriage. An old saying such as you mention has no foundation of truth. It's just a superstition. Let things drift along and don't worry, and "time will tell."

Lu Beta Delphians Meet On Thursday

"Writers of the Renaissance Period" furnished a topic for an interesting program yesterday afternoon when the Lu Beta Delphian chapter met in Room 214 of the Tech administration building.

March 21 was set as the date for an annual banquet, which is to be in Our Cafeteria, and the next regular meeting of the club will be on March 28.

Mrs. R. A. Mills, president, gave the resume yesterday afternoon and Mrs. S. T. Hodges was leader of the program. She also gave a talk on social life in the fourteenth century.

Other topics discussed included the following: "Chaucer's Literary Apprenticeship", Mrs. Frazier McCrummen; "The Canterbury Tales", Mrs. Fred Standefer; "Piers, the Plowman", Mrs. Ed Reavill; "Petrarch, the First of the Humanists", "Rienzi's Revolution", Mrs. R. F. Cook; "The Ascent" and "To Posterity", Mrs. T. A. White; "Laura" and "The Sonnets", Mrs. A. B. Davis.

Bride And Groom Are Honored At Party

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Woodfin, bride and groom, were honored Thursday evening when Mrs. J. E. George entertained in her home at 2302 5th street. Bridge was played and a shower of gifts went to the honorees.

Guests included Mrs. J. P. Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman, Benjamin Kucera, Mr. and Mrs. Woodfin, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Moore, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Campbell, C. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crabb and Miss Teresa Everhart.

After bridge in which Mrs. Newman and Mr. Roberts scored high, Floy Jean Hale and Leland George, dressed as bride and groom, entered with gifts for the honor guests. Ice box cakes and coffee were served. The Easter motif was used in appointments.

Episcopal Women To Present Offering

The semi-annual united thanks offering of women in Saint Paul's Episcopal church will be presented Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at a corporate communion in th local church according to an announcement made this morning.

Each woman in the church has a box in which she has placed a "thank offering" and the boxes will be opened Sunday. The money will then be sent to the church headquarters. This sum amounted to $1,101,450 in the entire church during the three years ending with the triennial convention of Episcopalians in Washington, D. C., last fall, according to announcements made then.

The fund is used in supporting 200 women in the mission fields, in building churches, schools and hospitals.

Two Parties Will Be For Church Folk

Two parties are being given this week-end for young people in the First Presbyterian church.

The Young Business People's class is to attend a party this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McKee, 1816 14th street, and a candy pull and party is to be given at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening at the church for the Tech students in the institution.

This latter affair is an apron and overall party.

Formal Dance Will Be Given Tonight

The Men's Fraternity is entertaining this evening from 9 until 1 o'clock with a formal dance at the Up-Town Dance Palace.

Camp Fire Group Has Meeting Yesterday

The Uewelompatimmin Camp Fire troop, of which Mrs. J. A. Swindell is guardian, met yesterday afternoon with Eloise Smith at her home, 2209 10th street. A candy sale was planned for Saturday at the Sherrod hardware store.

REVOLUTION

STILL AWAIT NACO BATTLE

NACO, Sonora, Mexico, March 15 (AP)—American correspondents today were still awaiting the expected battle of Naco. To all appearances an encounter between General Augustino Olachea's 1,200 Indian federals fortified here, and General Fausto Topete, reported to be advancing upon the town from Nogales with 1,000 rebels, was imminent, but they have learned that "Manana" is a slogan of Mexican military, as well as civil, life.

At Augua Prieta, to the east, General Yucupicio still held the town with about 500 Mayo and Yaqui Indians, who at first were thought to be rebels, later became federals, and today apparently were of uncertain status as far as the revolution is concerned.

General Francisco Manzo was reported to be enroute to Mazatlan to take charge of rebel troops near the city. Rebel headquarters at Nogales said a total of 2,000 men would figure in the attack upon Naco.

CALLES FORCE IN 20 MILES OF DURANGO

MEXICO CITY, March 15 (AP)—Forces of General Calles were within 20 miles of Durango, capital of the state of that name today, and battle for its possession was imminent.

A government communique said the city was held by a small force of "fanatical elements." The communique quoted General Calles as advising President Emilio Portes Gil he intended to take Durango and proceed to Torreon.

The federal generalissimo said it was his hope "not to let a single insurgent escape."

Capture of Durango will open another rail avenue to Torreon for the federal forces but there was in the government announcements indication of a feeling that Durango may be more difficult to take than was heretofore supposed. The city has about 40,000 population, and, like Torreon, splendid natural mountain fortifications.

At Torreon, 150 miles northeast of Durango the rebels are reported to be strongly intrenched and in some circles there is less hope of evacuation of the city without a battle than has been the case heretofore.

Flight northward to Chihuahua offers the Rebel General J. Gonzalo Escobar and his forces an opportunity for possible escape into the United States; to remain in the city they court a decisive battle with the federals on which their cause must either rise or fall.

REBELS MOVE OUT OF NOGALES

NOGALES, Ariz., March 15 (AP)—The reported advance upon Naco, Sonora, by border revolutionary forces was regarded here today as an effort to clear a path for the rebels from Torreon to the international line before the opposing armies clash in a crucial battle in the state of Coahuila.

Important development were expected as the result of the sudden movement out of Nogales of most of the rebel soldiers, About 500 men, commanded by Gen. Fausto Topete, moved eastward yesterday, lending weight to a statement by General Francisco Borquez that an attack would be made "any time soon" upon Naco, eight miles south of Bisbee, Ariz.

PRO RAIDS

of moonshine whisky was found, according to the report. The liquor was discovered after the officers had released the trap to a secret door and entered a large basement, which showed no signs of liquor.

Hairpin Trap Used

One of the walls of the basement proved to be false and could be opened only by a hairpin placed in two small holes in another wall some distance away. The electric hairpin trap, said to cost about $2,000, was found after a search of about an hour. Hammers, crowbars, and axes are useless as only a hairpin will open the trap, according to officers.

The second raid was on a Sudan filling station where Herman was arrested. Twenty-four pints of alleged peach brandy were found here. The same kind of hairpin trap was installed at this specially-built filling station. The brandy was stacked on a number of shelves behind the secret panel. John and W. R. Atkinson were arrested at this place.

The third raid of the day, resulting in the arrest of Joe Campbell and the confiscation of 52 pints of whisky and brandy, was at a filling station and tourist camp in Littlefield. The same secret hiding place was found here, with heavy steel doors defying all attempts to open them except with a tiny hairpin.

Secret Cellar Found

Another secret trap cellar was found beneath a pig pen at the rear of Bill Herman's residence. In addition to the liquor four pressure pumps, fifty yards of copper, and a large pot were found, officers said. These were all new, however, and had never been used for making liquor.

The fruit jars in which the liquor was found were of a special type, with the top containing a machine-placed cork. The jars could be instantly destroyed by a slight twist.

Prohibition agents estimated that the alleged "bootlegging establishments" have been operating for at least eighteen months, and furnishing liquor throughout a wide area of the Panhandle and South Plains area.

The wettest spot on earth is East Bengal, India. The record annual rainfall here is 429 inches.

FARM BUREAU IN IDALOU MEETING

For the purpose of acquainting the Idalou members with the, present officers and board members, a membership meeting of the Lubbock County Farm Bureau was held at the club house in Idalou starting at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The program will include speeches by W. H. Hames, Crosby county state director of the bureau; R. E. Overstreet, Lubbock county state director; N. H. Payne, field representative; and Prof. E. O. Ellsworth of Tech College.

Following on the heels of today's meeting, the Terry County Farm Bureau will hold an all-day program at Brownfield tomorrow. The program will be presented by the 4-H club boys of that county. It will start at 10 o'clock in the morning and continue throughout the day including a basket lunch at noon. Lubbock county is expected to be represented at the meeting by a large delegation.

Among the ones to appear on the program at Brownfield will be: W. F. Moore, of Levelland, president of the Hockley County Farm Bureau; Mrs. M. S. Hudson, of Hale Center, state director of the bureau; Prof. E. O. Ellsworth of Tech College; and Mr. Overstreet of Lubbock.

Hughes Is Guest Of New President

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Charles Evans Hughes, for many years an associate of President Hoover in the Harding and Coolidge cabinets and more recently an active figure in his political campaign, was an overnight guest of the executive at the White House.

Since the campaign, Mr. Hughes has come to be regarded as a close "unofficial adviser" of the Hoover administration, and it is assumed his visit gave the president an opportunity to talk over with him several subjects.

BILL IS SIGNED

AUSTIN, March 15 (AP)—The Holbrook bill closing coastal waters to seining has been signed by Governor Moody and filed with the secretary of state. Under its provisions, it does not become operative until January 1, 1930.

SHE THOUGHT HER CASE HOPELESS

Yet ALL-BRAN Brought Relief Almost Immediately —No Trouble Since

When constipation once gets a grip on a person, it is almost impossible to relieve it, let alone prevent it with drugs and treatments. But here's a lady who was freed from her suffering—read her letter.

"Mine was an extreme case of constipation and although I had tried about everything that was recommended to me, I had almost given up hopes of ever being relieved.

"One day I came across your advertisement, so I thought I would try ALL-BRAN. It relieved me almost immediately and I have had no trouble since, which was almost three months ago. —Mrs. E. E. Leslie, 2104 Lyman St., Flint, Michigan.

Your system must have roughage or bulk daily, otherwise constipation is almost inevitable. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will supply this bulk. It is a healthful cereal to eat every day. To use in cooked dishes or serve with milk or cream. To mix with other cereals.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation and to prevent it. Far better than pills and laxatives whose doses often have to be increased to be effective. Two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. It is 100% bran and is 100% effective. Doctors recommend it. Your grocer sells it. Served by hotels, restaurants, dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

CHURCH PLAN IS OUTLINED

WILL START WORK ON OPEN AIR PULPIT IN FUTURE

The 1929 program for the St. Paul of the Plains Episcopal church of this city were outlined last night at a meeting of officials of the church at Hotel Lubbock, with the Rt. Rev. Cecil Seaman, D.D., of Amarillo, bishop of the district of north Texas, as the honor guest.

Bishop Seaman arrived yesterday and aided in adopting a budget for the local church, increasing its efficiency and formulating plans for the beginning of permanent work on the church lot on Avenue Y, one block from the Tech college campus, upon which it is planned to erect an open air pulpit.

It was announced that the Rt. Rev. Clinton S. Quin of Houston, popular young people's worker, will be here early in May in the interest of student work. Deaconess Powell, former principal of the girls' school in Mexico City, and recently with the Training School of the Pacific for church workers in California, will be here Tuesday and Wednesday confering the women's auxiliary, the Y. W. C. A., and the Episcopal students of Tech.

BLONDES BANNED

T. C. U. Students State Wishes In Selecting Mates

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Mar. 15.—Gentlemen no longer prefer blondes. At least they do not at Texas Christian university, where students answering a questionnaire on "What Characteristics Do T. C. U. Students Desire of Their Future Mates," voted nearly two to one in favor of brunettes.

The typical husband wanted by girl students, according to the survey, is a young man, tall and slender, with black, curly hair. The typical wife desired by boys is an attractive girl, of average height, having blue or brown eyes, and with dark or red hair.

Eighty-five per cent of both boys and girls demanded that their future mates have a college education. Fifty-five per cent wanted "home loving" mates.

Of the girls, 65 per cent preferred marriage to a profession or career, 20 per cent were non commital, and 15 per cent expressed a preference for single blessedness and a career of their own.

One student commented on the uselessness of making such a survey. "Love is blind," this one wrote, "and when one falls in love it makes no difference about physical or social characteristics.

"Petting" was condemned as undesirable in a future mate by 95 per cent of the students.

Poker Games Bring Student Suspenion

DALLAS, Texas, March 15 (AP)—Friendly games of poker in a school dormitory are thought to be responsible for the suspension for one week, of 38 Southern Methodist University students. Two prominent track men, looked to as point winners in the Southern exposition track and field meet at Fort Worth tomorrow, are included in the list of men suspended, with several other prominent campus figures.

The disciplinary committee refused to make public the grounds for the suspension, but some of those suspended admitted they had been questioned about poker games in the dormitory.

Veteran C. I. A. Staff Member Dies Today

DENTON, Texas, March 15 (AP)—Thousands of young women, students and former students of the College of Industrial Arts here, today heard of the death of a prominent mentor, Miss Mariam Long, professor in home planning in C. I. A. for many years.

A coroner's verdict was that she died from an apopletic stroke. Her body was found in her apartment late yesterday after firemen had broken down a door in response to a fire alarm caused when the proctor failed to attend two of her school classes.

Claims Britain Not In Armament Race

LONDON, Mar. 15 (AP).—W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty, introducing naval estimates calling for three new cruisers to be laid down during the coming year, today declarated in the house of commons governmental assurance that that thing that Britain desires is to compete with the United States.

He repeated the claim that Britain had done more than any other nation in disarmament.

The minister declared the British naval program was essentially one of replacement.

LUBBOCK MAN RECALLS VILLA REVOLT

WHEN THOSE BOYS RAIDED A TOWN THEY DIDN'T LEAVE ANYTHING BUT THE LAND

By VESTAL LOTT

As the bloody hue of revolution is again splotched across the battle-scarred canvas of Old Mexico, memories of other revolutions in that strife-torn country are recalled and lived again.

In 1920 soon after the last Mexican revolution, Dr. I. E. Barr of this city made a trip into a devastated section of the county. He remembers with vividness how the little city of Naco, Sonora, which has figured as an important stronghold in the present revolution, was almost completely annihilated.

"There wasn't a building in the entire town that was standing as much as three or four feet high," he said. "The greatest loss to the people in that section, however, was in cattle and saddle horses. When the revolutionists came through they took all of the available horses and as much cattle as they needed for beef. Villa gave the cattlemen I. O. Us for the stock, but of course, they were never any good.

Hid Stock In Hills

Dr. Barr went about 100 miles down into Mexico below Naco, in connection with a cattle deal he was on. "While I was there, some of the foresighted cattlemen were driving their stock mares down from the mountains where they had hidden them during the revolution."

"In fact," he continued, "the revolution was not entirely over when I was there. I remember I passed through one little town—I don't even remember its name—in the morning, and when I passed back through that afternoon the town had been attacked and almost completely destroyed. When they attacked a town nothing would be left standing."

Smuggling Main Trade

Dr. Barr recalls one entire valley where the sole means of livelihood of the inhabitants was making whiskey and smuggling it across the border to be sold in the United States. The Mexicans would plant a little corn, barley, and rye, make it into whiskey at an exceedingly low cost, then sell it across the border, he recalls. He said that the revolutionists did not bother the whiskey-making inhabitants of the valley, but only drank a little of the whiskey and moved on.

RE-ELECT SCHOOL HEADS AT TAHOKA

(Special To The Journal)

TAHOKA, March 15.—At a meeting of the Tahoka school board Tuesday night M. L. H. Baze was re-elected as superintendent, Nat Williams as principal of the high school, Mrs. Callie Baze as principal of the central ward, and W. Arnold Casey as principal of the south ward. Mr. Baze and Mr. Williams are now serving their third year. Mrs. Baze her second year.

The Tahoka schools continue to build in size and scholarship. They will employ twenty-eight teachers during the 1929-30 term. The high school will have twenty-six subjects accredited at the end of the present term. For the second year the school has been placed on the Southern accredited list. It boasts of having the largest choral and glee clubs of any schol in Texas its size, the former club numbering one hundred twenty and the latter seventy-five. Trips have been planned to near-by towns during the spring term. The new high school building is an object of pride and beauty, and is regarded as one of the prettiest in Texas.

Royal Arch Masons Will Meet Tonight

The Lubbock council of Royal Arch Masons will convene at the lodge rooms, Citizens National bank building, tonight for the purpose of conferring degrees, it was announced here this morning. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock and in addition to the ritualistic work a lunch will be served.

Members of the council from Littlefield and other neighboring points are expected to be on hand. Visitors will be welcomed.

HAGEN MAKES FAST FINISH TO WIN TITLE

PAIRED WITH DIEGEL, FAMOUS PRO TAKES BEST BALL EVENT

(By Associated Press)

MIAMI, Fla., March 15—Walter Hagen has stepped out of the lethargic brand of golf he has been playing in recent tournaments. Today as he climbed into the van at Jacksonville in quest of the Florida open title, he carried with him a fresh victory.

One of the greatest exhibitions of the ancient and royal game, certainly the best he has displayed in the last few months, laid new laurels at his feet yesterday, when, paired with Leo Diegel, he won the Miami annual international four ball tournament.

Overcoming a three up lead held by Johnny Farrell and Gene Sarazen, Hagen almost single handed won the match by sinking a long putt on the 36th green for a one up victory.

Hagen and Diegel split first money of the $4,900 purse, while each of the contestants—there were 16 pairs at the start—received some remuneration for their efforts.

GOLFDOM'S STARS GATHER IN SOUTH

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 15 (AP)—Goldom's greatest gathered here today, lured by the $5,000 Florida open championship tournament. Starting in threesomes over the Florida Country Club course, such stars as Hagen, Diegel, Armour, Farrell, Sarazen, Ciuci, Horton Smith, Mehlhorn, Cruickshank and three score others began their 72-hole trek toward the second richest golf prize offered in the state each year. The final 36 holes will be played Saturday over the difficult Timuquana course a few miles to the south of the starting point.

NEW GOLF PRO FOR HANDICAP

BYRNE IS BELIEVER IN EQUAL BASIS FOR COMPETITION

J. W. Byrne, Lubbock Country club's new golf professional, who arrived here to take over his duties, is a firm believer in individual handicaps in golf tournaments, foursomes or any other match where the skill and temperament of the golfer is concerned.

"No successful tournament can be held, or no interesting matches played until the players are accurately qualified according to their skill and temperament. No amateur golfer can expect to enter whole-heartedly into a match when his opponent has him outclassed and enters the game on the same basis. Some golfers play a much better game under pressure, while others blow up under fire. These things should be considered in manipulating handicaps for tournaments."

Mr. Byrne began his golfing career in Philadelphia as a caddy. Since that time he has studied the game from every angle, paying especial attention to the scientific side of the game. In order to qualify himself as an instructor, he has played the rounds with every sort of grip known to the game. The over-lapping grip, he recommends as the most comfortable and effective of them all.

In addition to his instruction to amateurs, Mr. Byrne, is to handle a full line of golf equipment at the country club. He will be equipped to make golf clubs in accordance with the specifications of the individual. This, he believes, is of paramount importance.

The bee-louse is a small creature which clings to the hairs of the honey-bee. It is six-hundredths of an inch long.

MACK, WITH SAME STAFF, HOPES FOR FLAG THIS YEAR

NO NEW FACES TO APPEAR IN TEAM LINEUP

PLANS TO REARRANGE MEN FOR CAMPAIGN THIS SEASON

BY BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

FORT MYERS, Fla., March 15 (AP)—Connie Mack, active and cheerful in spite of nearly half a century in baseball, will attempt to win an American League pennant for Philadelphia with practically the same players who failed by a narrow margin last year.

Manager Mack will rearrange his men to some extent but no new faces will appear in the regular line-up. Every indication, however, points to one new pitcher and if the young man about to be struck by major league lightning has a curve ball Athletic fans will see a great deal of him. This promising recruit, Bill Breckenridge, late of Dartmouth, may be the only player who will have to be introduced at Shibe Park.

Jimmy Foxx

"Breck" as he is affectionately addressed by the other players, has not yet been called on to show specifications for a curve ball but there is little doubt that he has everything else a pitcher needs.

Foxx to First Base

Assignment of the versatile Jimmy Foxx, of the extra X Foxxes, to first base will cause a revision of the infield plans. Max Bishop, would have been renominated at second base but he showed a disinclination to sign. Jimmy Dykes will play second with Joe Boley at short and Sammy Hale at third. If Bishop gets in at second, Dykes still may get a chance at a regular job by forcing Hale from third base to a utility status. Joe Hassler and Eddie Collins again will stand by for infield emergencies.

The outfield of last season's close has been brought over intact, with Albert Simmons, George Haas and Bing Miller in undisputed possession of the field. Homer Summa, former Cleveland outfielder, will be a reserve assisted by Ossie Orvoll, who was a pitcher last year and first baseman this spring. Redman Hume, Southern Methodist University football player, and John Scott, Mercer University product and protege of the Fort Myers Kiwanis club are not yet ready.

REDMAN HUME

Cochrane Mainstay

Mickey Cochrane, the most valuable player in the American League by official verdict, will do the bulk of the catching but Cy Perkins is available as first aid.

Bob Grove, George Walberg, Howard Ehmke, John Quinn, Eddie Rommell and George Earnshaw will be the chief dependence in the pitching department with Breckenridge, Stewart Bolen, Carroll Yerkes and Bill Shores available for relief roles.

The Athletics have plenty of confidence and hope to do better than they did last year. One department in which improvement is expected is that of double plays. If the runners up had been more adept in getting two at once, they might have won the American League championship.

200 Attend Lamesa Home Town Banquet

(Special To The Journal)

LAMESA, March 15.—More than 200 persons attended the annual "Home-Town" banquet of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce here Thursday night. The program was presented by home talent and there were few out-of-town visitors.

It is planned at a later date to have a good will banquet and invite out-of-town guests. The annual report picturing accomplishments of the past year was given at the banquet and the plans for the coming year were outlined.

WELTER TITLE AT STAKE IN BATTLE

CHICAGO, March 15 (AP)—The National Boxing Association will recognize the winner of the Jackie Fields-Young Thompson fight, scheduled for the Chicago Coliseum March 25, as the world's welterweight champion.

Joe Dundee of Baltimore, the present titleholder, has been given until March 21 to defend his crown by the association, but he has no title match booked and will not fight before that date.

Thompson, hard-hitting Pacific Coast negro, scored a two-round knockout over Dundee here last summer, but the title was not at stake as he was forced to enter the ring over the welterweight limit. Fields, a product of Chicago and who earned his reputation on the West Coast, won a 10-round decision over Thompson later at San Francisco.

National Legion Commander Coming

PARIS, Texas, March 15 (AP)—Paul V. McNutt, national commander of the American Legion, will spend four days in Texas, April 12-15, when he comes to Texas to attend a joint convention of the first and fourth divisions at Dallas, April 14, it was announced here today by Col. Rufus D. Scott, jr., of Paris, Texas, commander.

Cities on McNutt's tentative schedule for Texas include Denison, Paris, Wichita Falls, Amarillo and Dallas.

BASKETBALL IS SAME THE NATION OVER

FROM EVERY PART OF COUNTRY, THEY PLAY ALIKE

—KANSAS CITY, March 15 (AP) — Basketball is much the same the nation over.

With slight variations, the type of game played by the 44 teams entered in the 1929 National A. A. U. tournament was the same whether the team hailed from the Florida Everglades, the Rocky Mountains the Midwestern prairies or the Pacific coast. The one outstanding exception was the Ke-Nash-A five from Kenosha, Wis., whose "stalling" offense was unlike any other of the tournament.

The man-for-man defense was used by all teams part of the time and by most of them for all the time. The zone defense, popular a few years ago, is fading from the picture. Its impotence against a clever team was especially emphasized when the Kansas City Athletic Club, a tournament favorite, tried it against Ke-Nash-A and was routed.

A delayed offense was the favorite attack, although the forwards frequently resorted to a fast passing attack with stars from back court. A man-to-man defense was employed by the champions.

Post Still In A. A. U. Girls' Cage Tourney

BRECKENRIDGE, Tex., Mar. 15 (AP)—Eight teams remained in the running for the state A. A. U. girls' basketball championship as the third round of the tournament opened here today.

Those remaining in the tournament after yesterday's matches are, Breckenridge, Cisco, Celeste, Mongus, Seagoville, Post, Roby, Frankell and Southbend.

RED SOX WALLOP REDS IN EXHIBITION ENCOUNTER

PHOENIX, Ariz., March — Manager Bucky Harris sent the Detroit Tiger squad through another long routine drill yesterday, ing his candidates a little of everything from One "Cat" to olley ball and sliding les. He is not yet decided which 5 men of the 35 on the squad will take trip to the coast for the exhibition series.

Bucky Harris

There are at least two specific reasons why the National Reds do not wish to engage in regular league entries regularly: Namely, Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Bostonians, champions in the American circuit for many moons, gave the Red 13 to 4 trimming yesterday, the worst they have had this season.

With Dazzy Vance not to enter the fold and Glenn Wright's arm mending rapidly, for which has smiled ed on Wilbert Robinson and the Brooklyn Robins at water, Fla. Robinson announcement's de- mands for a salary $23,000 had been met. News Miami indicated Wright's arm was responding to treatment.

Andy Reese, who or may not play second base for the New York Giants this year, going to pick his spots for him in San Antonio with little are hereafter. He poled out a ard drive over the center field as the Giants downed San A yesterday, 15 to 5. That ball sailed over ight. But the part of the fence on which is pa a sign reading: "For every ho hit over this part of the fe will give a permanent wave. had to take a lot of kidding.

The Philac Athletics were without the ices of Jimmy Dykes, veteran baseman, today. He was red in yesterday's tilt with the s at Winter Haven when Le oul slid into second. One fingers was cut badly. His probably will be taken by M hop, who has been a holdout.

Jones, Congressman Visits In Lubbock

Congressman Marvin Jones of Amarillo arrived in Lubbock yesterday afternon and is to remain here throughout today.

As a member of the agricultural committee, he will go to Washington March 22 to aid in drafting appropriate farm legislation at the request of President Herbert Hoover. Mr. Jones pointed out that the two major issues facing the special session of congress on April 15 were the tariff and farm questions, and he expressed a hope that the present administration will outline some effective farm program.

chers in 1927 and one of the big disappointments in 1928, was to receive his first real test of the season today. Manager Joe McCarthy announced he would use Root against the Los Angeles club in the opening game of their 28 game schedule, at Los Angeles.

Billy Southworth's St. Louis Cardinals were soundly trounced at their Avon Park, Fla., training camp yesterday when Walter Johnson's Senators put a 12 to 9 Indian mark on them.

At West Palm Beach, Fla., the same infield manager, Dan Howley, expects to open the season for the St. Louis team, will get the call for the initial exhibition struggle tomorrow. It will be Lu Blue at first; O'Rourke, second; Kress at short and Grimes, third.

Rain was the refrain at the Cleveland Indian camp at New Orleans today. The weather has begun to worry Manager Roger Peckinpaugh. There was little practice yesterday or the day before adn Heinaman Field today was soaked. The Indians are to play New Orleans tomorrow.

BUFFS GIVEN SERVICES OF NEW SLUGGER

SAN ANTONIO TRAIN IN TWO SQUADS DURING WEEK

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Mar. 15.—Managers Jake Atz and Lena Blackburn of the Fort Worth Cats and Chicago White Sox, respectively, arrive here from their training camps Mineral Wells and Dallas tod ready for a game here today. A brought 22 men. Blackburn brought all of his squad except Faber, Jack Mealey and John Mostil.

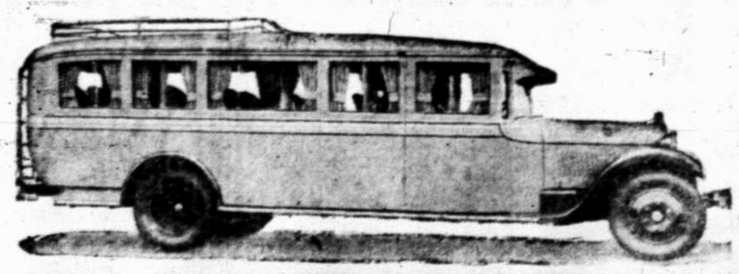

Manager Frank Snyder has announced the Houston Buffalo have secured the services of Raymond Pepper, right handed outfielder of the Danville club. Pepper has been working out with the Cardinals this spring and has shown plenty of class. He played with the Laurel club last year and was noted for his hefty clouting. He hit for extra bases in the first three games he played this spring. If he lives up to expectations he will be used in the outfield in place of the veteran Ray Powell.

The San Antonio Bears baseball squad worked out in two sections today, most of them here, and a few of them at Laredo where they were left with Honus Mitze, ex-Bruin manager, recently signed as skipper of the Coleman West Texas league team. The Bears in San Antonio squeezed in a practice session between the two New York Giant workouts. Manager Alexander decided his Bruins could stand some batting practice and that his young pitchers needed lots of drilling after the New Yorkers bumped San Antonio 15 to 5 yesterday.

After an enforced idleness because of rain yesterday, Manager Jim Galloway today put his Wichita Falls Spudders through the usual two routine practice sessions. A bright sun greeted his charges this morning. Beginning tomorrow, the practice sessions will be interrupted with exhibition games, the stage for this part of the spring training having been reached. The spudders first will meet the St. Paul club of the American association.

Notwithstanding a home run by Hack Miller with two men on base the Shreveport Sports took their third straight game from Minneapolis yesterday, 12 to 9. The Sports won on a four run rally in the eighth. The team is in great form and the arm kinks and muscle aches are things of the past.

Household Hints

MENU HINT

BREAKFAST: Raw apples, scrambled eggs, whole wheat toast, coffee.

DINNER: Swiss steak, macaroni salad, buttered beets, apple pudding with butterscotch, hard sauce, coffee.

SUPPER: Macaroni and cheese, baked apples, cookies, milk.

Unless you have a very large family the recipe for macaroni salad can be at least cut in half. Cook all the package, however, use what you need for the salad and the rest for the macaroni and cheese supper dish.

Today's Recipes

Macaroni Salad: One package macaroni, one grated onion, one cup diced celery, one cup shredded cabbage, two chopped pimentos, two teaspoons chopped parsley, one teaspoon salt, mayonnaise. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and cool. Add other ingredients. Serve very cold on lettuce.

Apple Pudding: One cup sugar, one tablespoon butter, one egg, one cup milk, two teaspoons baking powder, two cups flour. Cut apples in eighths and spread a layer on top.

Butter Scotch Hard Sauce: One cup light brown sugar, one-third cup butter, one egg yolk, one tablespoon milk. Cream the butter, add the sugar gradually and beat until very light. Add the egg yolks and milk and beat well.

Suggestions

Choosing the Meat: Tender cuts of meat for roasting, broiling and frying, and the less tender meat for cooking with moist heat are the general rule in most households. Slow cooking under moist heat makes meat more tender, while cooking under dry heat leaves the meat much as it was. Only tender meat, then, lends itself to cooking by dry heat.

In spite of this general rule, cuts of unusual tenderness are bought for pot roasting, boiled beef and ragouts. For, as any experienced market man or housewife knows, the higher the quality of the meat, the better it will satisfy, whether cooked by dry or moist heat. Less time is required in cooking the better cuts en casserole or poting.

The one striking exception to the rule, that the higher the quality of the meat, the greater the satisfaction, is soup. The flavor and gelatinous nature of shins of beef, for instance, is preferred for soup making to the better and higher priced cuts of beef. Bones are the cheapest part of the carcass that can be bought, and yet there is probably nothing to take the place of the marrow in the bones. Marrow is chiefly fat, of course, but it is blended with other valuable food substances in such a way that a distinct flavor is imparted.

Hope To Restrict Oil To 1928 Level

DALLAS, March 15 (AP)—The Dallas News will say today that restriction of the 1929 American and Venezuelan crude oil output to the 1928 total will be sought Friday in Houston at a meeting of the general committee of the American Petroleum Institute world committee on production and consumption of petroleum and its products.

"Restriction of the output in the interior region, consisting of Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma will be recommended by the A. P. I. committee appointed to survey this area," the paper will say.

Brother Of Former Governor Is Dead

CORSICANA, Tex., Mar. 15 (AP)—W. P Colquitt, 66, brother of former Gov O. B. Colquitt, died at his home here today.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Mr. Colquitt for many years had resided in Corsicana, and published the old Corsicana Democrat from 1885 to 1905, and later was in the banking and real estate business. He was a native of Georgia.

Death was due to heart attack.

Doobler Gets Death Verdict At Wichita

WICHITA FALLS, March 15 (AP)—D. J. Doobler must pay with his life for the slaying of Arthur Pendergraft, wealthy Oklahoma farmer and his employer, unless his attorneys upset a verdict returned here late yesterday.

Pendergraft disappeared in January. After authorities had searched for his body for some time Doobler made a statement to them. Several days later he led them to an abandoned ranch ten miles from here and the body of the slain Oklahoman was found.

HOOVER WILL NOT DICTATE TERMS OR NAME OF FARM RELIEF LEGISLATION

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 15.—President Hoover has no intention of undertaking to dictate either the terms or the name of the farm relief bill to be considered at the special session of congress—a measure he expects will form the basis for a solution of the agricultural problem.

While he will outline his views on the subject in his message at the opening of the extraordinary session April 15, he looks to the house and senate agricultural committees to work out a constructive measure from the various proposals which have been or will be submitted for their consideration.

There has been conjecture of late as to what name the new farm measure should bear with the suggestion made in some quarters that an unfortunate psychological effect might be produced if it bore the title "McNary-Haugen," the same as the bill which twice ran upon the rocks of a presidential veto in the Coolidge administration.

This argument is believed to carry no weight with President Hoover, who naturally expects it to be introduced in the senate by Chairman McNary of the agriculture committee, and in the house by Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee, and so take the name of the authors as is the almost invariable custom.

McNary Bill is Basis

The McNary bill, which was introduced at the last session of congress and failed from urging its passage, probably will form the basis at least for first consideration of the whole relief question by the senate committee.

This measure has been prescribed as the original McNary-Haugen bill with the controverted equalization fee eliminated. It provided for a revolving fund of $250,000,000 for use in controlling the exportable surplus of the major crops and also for the creation of a farm board and of stabilization corporations.

During his campaign Mr. Hoover outlined a program calling for the creation of a farm board and farmer owned corporations to see to orderly marketing processes and the protection of the producers from seasonal gluts and to care for the surplus of their crops.

Thought For Today

For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.—Romans 7:11.

We are all sinful. Therefore, whatever we blame in another we shall find in our own bosoms.—Seneca.

Madness

The platform of a New York subway station was jammed with a crowd of home-going workers. Packed closely together, men and women waited restlessly for their trains.

Suddenly a panic broke out. A stocky laborer, demented, drew a long knife and began slashing indiscriminately at those about him. There was no chance for anyone to get away; indeed, the jam was so dense that half a dozen or more people were cut before the madman could be subdued.

All of this made only a brief newspaper item. Yet the story gave a graphic picture of the terror that held that crowd during the few moments that the maniac wielded his knife. It was easy to see the whole thing; the mass of people, waiting for a train just as they always did, suspecting nothing, suddenly driven wild by fear when one of their number went insane and drew a knife. None of us would envy any man his place in that mob that night.

Nothing terrifies us so much as madness. We can understand downright malice, hatred or wickedness; a tincture of those qualities is always present in our own hearts. We know how to cope with such things. But the thought that a man has lost all reason and has become uncontrolled fury, unpredictable and unreasoning, is supremely unnerving.

Yet the psychologists tell us that our modern life breeds madness more than any former era. The pace is so fast that only the hardy can stand up under it. The weak, who might get along well enough in a more leisurely, placid time, give way—and we have horrible outbreaks ranging all the way from this subway slashing to the Hickman case.

That is one of the prices we pay for trying to move so fast. We may not know exactly where we are going, but we are all quite sure that we want to get there quickly. So even the business of getting to and from our daily jobs becomes a matter of jams and hectic confusion. We never get a chance to get away from one another. Always, from one year's end to another, we are the victims of crowds.

In most people, of course, this produces little more than a mild nervous irritation. But it is small wonder that occasionally a man breaks down and goes on a rampage. The New York man, cutting indiscriminately at the crowd that oppressed him, was only doing what a great many perfectly sane people have often felt like doing.

Probably it will be a long time before we get this matter of crowds and hurried movements settled. But settle it we must, sooner or later. The human soul has few needs more imperative than the need for frequent personal isolation. As long as we continue to step on each other's toes every morning and evening we shall continue to be under a strain that will irritate us all and madden a few.

"No more crowding" would be a fine slogan for someone to put on a banner and wave up and down the land like a war flag. It would draw a huge army of eager, if slightly tired, recruits.

A port that's a dandy!

The Lubbock city commission made history yesterday—or at least the commissioners opened the history for the voters to later write a chapter in the city's advancement—when it was decided to call a bond election to furnish funds for the purchase of land and the erection of a municipal airport for Lubbock.

The Plainsman happened to be in the commission-meeting room when the decision to call the bond election was made. Commissioner A. V. Weaver was not present but the motion, made by Commissioner Leaverton and seconded by Commissioner Hankins, carried the immediate approval of Commissioner Bacon. And it didn't take much time.

As soon as City Secretary W. H. Rodgers finished reading the report offered by George Benson's B. C. D. airport committee they asked a number of questions regarding incidental problems. As soon as they finished the questions the matter was brought to a vote and finished up in jig time. The Plainsman has no authority for the belief—he hasn't talked to the commission about the way its members feel—but he'll bet a hat that commissioners, from Mayor Harley Woods on down, will cast a vote for the airport when the election rolls around.

The fact of the matter is, The Plainsman further believes the majority of Lubbock business men favor the project. It is entirely probable that the bonds will receive public approval—and they had better if Lubbock is going to continue to progress. We surely can't afford to let the air lanes pass us by and see the ships land at other cities. Transport facilities, we all know, are essential to any growing city and unless a lot of wise men aren't as wise as most of us think they are, air transportation is going to be one of the big ones—if not the biggest—ere many more gallons of water flow under the well known bridge.

Old Pink Parrish, serving his first term in the state senate, has joked, orated and by sheer reasoning ability become one of the powers of the upper body of the legislature which yesterday closed its session at Austin. If there has ever been a senator make himself heard, noticed and respected as much in a short length of time, The Plainsman has never heard of the fact. And, remembering his stand on the "land grabbing bill", recalling that Texas Tech is being well taken care of and looking back over the records of the session at large, Pink has "done himself proud" and has made this district a bang-up good representative.

J. P. Hankins was down in Austin last week and the other day he was in telling The Plainsman about Pink's prowess. "Why," said Mr. Hankins, "those fellows listen to him when he has the floor."

And those who know anything about state legislatures will admit that such a thing is unusual even for a veteran power, let alone a newcomer to the historic halls at Austin.

Pink's crowning triumph, however, came yesterday when he was nominated for the position of "president pro-tem, ad interim" of the senate. In plain English, that means "head of the senate during its recess" and is an honor which is rarely accorded a first-termer. Incidentally, The Journal's Austin correspondent discovered that in corralling 12 votes Senator Parrish received more ballots than have been accorded any "baby senator" in the recollection of veteran solons.

Lubbock has long been noted for sending able and capable men to the state senate and if his first record can be taken as a criterion of his work as a whole the toga of the Thirtieth district is in good hands as well as across sturdy shoulders. Pink'll be home in a day or two and when he gets here we ought to give him a hand.

OUR DUTY TO HOOVER

With masterly good sense President Hoover, in his inaugural address stressed public disregard for law as the most malign of all the dangers from which self-government must be safeguarded and declared that finding a remedy for this evil is the most sore necessity of the times. It would be impossible for the American public to accord too much consideration to this phase of the president's address.

Law observance is the ultimate foundation upon which our system of government rests and disregard of law is a movement directly in opposition to the government.

Mr. Hoover said: "Our whole system of self-government will crumble either if officials elect what laws they will enforce or citizens elect what laws they will support. The worst evil of disregard for some law is that it destroys respect for all law.

It is almost impossible to conceive of the magnitude of the task which Mr. Hoover assumed and the obligations which he accepted upon taking the oath of office as president of the United States. For the next four years he is pledged to "faithfully execute the office of president of the United States," and to the best of his "ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States."

Most anyone can recognize the responsibility thus assumed by Hoover, but it seems that there are a great many people who are unable to perceive the obligations due the president by citizens. We must realize that the duty of preserving, protecting and defending the constitution of the nation not merely a pendant to public office. It is an inherent obligation of every American citizen. The responsibility rests upon the citizens as much, in so far as their personal endeavor is concerned, as upon those selected for office.

Hoover has well stated the fundamental of law enforcement, and has exhibited rare governmental acumen in summing up the problems confronting the people of the United States. We must be patriotic indeed if we refuse to recognize him as worthy of respect. He has publicly acknowledged his duties to us, and surely we can do no less than be faithful in keeping our obligations to him, although we have not been required to make public our acknowledgment.—Denison Herald.

There seems to be a general disregard for law in America, and especially if it happens to be a law that is not very generally popular. The American people seem somewhat inclined to want to take the laws of the land in their own hand, obey the ones that are convenient and to their liking and not exactly violate the others absolutely, but rather ignore them, and hope to get them changed through the channel of disrespect for them, and the hope that because of their unpopularity will be able to throw them into disrepute, and finally convince the law makers that thew cannot be enforced, reach a repeal in that way. Mr. Hoover is of the opinion that disregard for the law is one of the great dangers of the nation, and is therefore of the opinion that no nation can stand with this condition existing, and is going to undertake to have the federal laws of the nation enforced, which is a very important thing to do.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 15.—Seekers after higher protective duties on imported goods aren't really so exacting after all. In fact if they can't have their money in gold they will be glad to take it in honest currency.

Dr. Chev

President Hoover favors limited tariff revision. The tariff hogs who are getting along well as it is favor unlimited tariff revision and so many of them are pleading dire poverty that it is difficult to distinguish those industries which aren't being adequately taken care of from those which are.

And they will not insist on general revision upwards if they can get something just as good. Hence the proposal to substitute, in determining tariff duties, the basis of American valuation for the foreign value basis now used wherever imports are taxed on ad valorem or percentage basis. That is, instead of determining the value of imported articles by consulting invoices and other data abroad we would find out what the same type of goods are selling for when made by American manufacturers and fix the value for duty assessment purposes accordingly.

Of course the general net effect would be to boost the amount of duty on imported goods where the American valuation scheme was applied without raising the ad valorem rate of taxation. Apparently the adoption of the proposal would save a lot of fuss and make it necessary for many interests to demand specific favors for their own industries.

In the general rush the opponents of the proposal contend, there would be no separation of sheep from goats—and hogs. It is complained that, besides setting up extremely high rates in many instances, the scheme would be very difficult to apply and that there would be constant uncertainty as to what the duties actually assessed would be. This last objection has caused importers to make an especially bitter fight against the proposal. It would mean, they say, that importers would no longer be business men, but gamblers.

Of course anyone who represented the well known "consumer" would stress the certainty of higher rates.

But the other side of the story should not be neglected. Here's what Joseph B. Grundy, high priest of the protective tariff and president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association has to say:

"Practically every schedule of the tariff act was represented by the leading industries under that schedule in the hearings before the ways and means committee just completed. With very few exceptions every industry appearing before the committee condemned the foreign value basis and requested some form of valuation having as its basis all the facts within the United States.

"Many estimates of the actual fraud on the government through a foreign value basis were submitted. Many witnesses testified that this basis is easily manipulated by the foreign importer. If anyone can correct under valuations arising under the present system he will manifest more consummate wisdom and strength than congress and those governmental officers

OVEREATING FOR NEEDS MAKES SURPLUS FLESH, PREDISPOSES TO SICKNESS

Answers to Mothers

God could not be everywhere; therefore He made mothers.—Jewish Proverb.

"My little girl is eight years old and weighs over 100 pounds. She is tall and large-framed. She is a very healthy, happy and busy child, and a good eater of all foods. I have Petersized myself and lost 85 pounds, so I know how to balance the diet, etc., and feel that my little girl is rightly fed. She had her tonsils and adenoids removed when about three years old and has gained flesh since. Some hint at thyroid trouble. Do you think I have to fear that and to have her examined for it? Should she have swimming, skating and dancing, or would you let it go with just the regular exercises?

LULU HUNT PETERS, M.D.

"ANXIOUS MOTHER."

Your little girl is probably overweight for the same reason that you were overweight, Mother, and that is that she is overeating for her needs. Yes, she should have swimming, skating and dancing, if she can, and increase her other physical exercises, too. Of course, it is always wise to have a check-up by a physician occasionally, whether there is any symptom of disease or not, so I would have her examined. With your experience in reducing your own weight, you will know how to reduce hers.

It is important for a fat child to have her weight reduced, for overweight, as well as underweight makes children more susceptible to diseases. Besides, the fat child is at a disadvantage with her playmates and may be made unhappy from their jibes.

It is very important in reducing children's weight that only candies and other sweets, starches and fats are limited, for the full quota of growth foods should be taken every day. The reducing pamphlet gives directions which may be applied to children.

Striae Gravidarum

"Since the birth of my baby, I was left with whitish lines on my abdomen. Will these marks ever disappear?

—MRS. C."

Those lines are known as striae gravidarum. (Striae means lines or stripes, and gravidarum means pregnant.) They are due to stretching of the skin and thinning out of the under layer, with the formation of scar tissue. Once they have appeared, they will always remain.

These striae may appear after any great stretching of the skin—in heavy, pendulous breasts, for instance from overweight, or from a large tumor.

Striae gravidarum can largely be prevented, according to McPheeters, by persistent daily massage of the abdomen, begun around the second or third months of pregnancy, with some lubricant, such a cocoa butter or oil. (It is the massage that is effective.) Then the abdominal wall should be supported by a properly fitting support. It must not be tight, however, for wearing tight supports predisposes to the weakness of the abdominal wall.

Exercise of the trunk muscles, especially those that are taken lying on the back—by raising the legs, or the body—and walking on all fours, also strengthens the wall and helps to make an easier labor. Obstricans are now having their patients begin active exercise of the abdominal wall two days after labor, while the patient is still in bed. These are continued after the patient gets up, and are increased. They not only help prevent the relaxation of the abdominal wall, but they help the uterus to go down to its normal size and keep it in its normal position.

We have an article on abdominal exercises.

UNIFORM REQUIREMENTS IN FEDERAL CONTRACTS URGED BY LOUIS C. CRAMTON

Congressman From Michigan

(Louis C. Cramton was born in Lapeer county, Michigan, Dec. 2, 1875. He attended the University of Michigan and received an L. L. B. degree. From 189 to 1905 he practiced law at Lapeer, then published the Lapeer County Clarion until 1923. He was law clerk of the Michigan state senate for three sessions. He was elected to congress in 1913 from the seventh Michigan district and has been re-elected each term since.)

The bill to establish uniform requirements for government contracts, which was not acted upon by the 70th congress, will be revised and reintroduced in the next regular session of congress.

I intend to reintroduce the revised form at the December session of the new congress, and to press it for enactment by congress. Meantime probably the interdepartmental board in the bureau of the budget, which formulated the bill will give it further study and make such changes as may seem necessary.

The government does a business of $4,000,000,000 a year, which necessitates an almost countless number of contracts. The drafting of these contracts, the safeguarding of the rights of individuals under them the construction of the terms o these contracts by the comptroller general of the United States, all are much more involved than they should be because the special laws as to the making of contracts in one executive department of the government are different from the law requirements as to contracts in other departments, and sometimes differ as between bureaus of the same department.

For a same special purpose there may be varying laws in the different branches of the government service.

The purpose of my bill is to secure uniformity as to all departments of the government establishment in the making of contracts. That would ensure a more definite safeguarding of the interests of the government by using the common, well-known standards. It would make it much easier for individuals to do business because they will become more familiar with the government requirements. It would simplify the work of the comptroller general in construing contracts.

STOCKS HAVE BULLISH TONE

MARKET OPENS WITH AN OUTBURST OF ENTHUSIASM

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Mar. 15.—The stock market opened with another outburst of bullish enthusiasm. Radio (new stock) opened with a block of 30,000 shares at 102, up 1 1-2, and then moved up to 102 3-8, a new high record, while the old stock opened at 505 and jumped to 510 on the next sale, up 9 points. Early gains of a point or two were recorded by U. S. Steel common, Du Pont, Studebaker, International Combustion, Columbia Graphophone and and Rossia Insurance.

Retention of the 5 per cent rediscount rate by the New York Federal Reserve Bank and the drop of $20,000,000 in brokers' loans provided the chief bullish stimulus for the market.

Early trading was in unusually heavy volume, several blocks of 5,000 to 35,000 shares changing hands at advancing prices. "Bear" traders, who sold stocks short earlier in the week in the belief that a rise in the rediscount rate was imminent, were driven to cover, and pools resumed operations on a large scale.

Radio (old stock) quickly ran up 11 points to 512 and the new stock crossed 103 to a new high. General Motors opened with a block of 35,000 shares at 90, a new high, and Chrysler moved up more than 3 points. Coty, Goodyear Rubber, Anaconda Copper, Du Pont and Bethlehem Steel all sold 3 to 6 points higher, the last named touching 111 1-2, the highest since 1917.

Foreign exchanges opened firm, with cables 1-16 of a cent higher at $4.85 1-4.

EARLY BOOST TO PRICES ON WHEAT

CHICAGO, March 15 (AP)—Unexpected upturns in quotations at Liverpool helped give an early lift today to wheat values here.

Opening 1-2 to 1 1-8c higher, Chicago wheat afterward kept firm, corn and oats showed an upward trend also, with corn starting at 1-4c to 1-2c gain, and subsequently holding near to nitial figures. Provisions were inclined to sag.

COTTON OPENS WITH ADVANCE

GOOD CABLE NEWS AND RAIN REPORTS ARE BOOST CAUSE

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP)—Cotton opened steady at an advance of 4 to 15 points in response to relatively firm Liverpool cables and reports of further rains in the south. May sold up to 21.30 or within 14 points of the recent level while new October advanced to 20.63. Realizing caused prices to react several points. A steady undertone prevailed.

Demand was comparatively quiet after early buying and prices eased under further profit-taking. May sold off to 20.17 and the new October to 20.53. The market was quiet at midday with prices 1 to 4 points net higher.

NEW ORLEANS FIRM

NEW ORLEANS, March 15 (AP)—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 9 to 10 points. Relatively steady Liverpool cables, bad weather and floods were responsible for the early advance which carried May up to 20.60. July 20.65 and October 20.43, or 10 to 13 points above yesterday's close.

Prices continued to slip back slowly. May eased off to 20.48, July 20.54 and October 20.35, or 8 to 12 points from the early highs but still 1 to 2 points above yesterday's close.

At noon the market was steady and at the lows.

PIANO CONTESTS

piano contests probably will be available this evening, Miss Huff said.

Miss Beulah Dunn is chairman of the violin department, Mr. Crowley has charge of the bands and Mrs. Lillian Butler of Slaton is chairman of the voice department.

There have been an unusually encouraging number of entries in vocal contests this spring, better than any during the history of the festival, Miss Huff said last night.

Sixth Annual Event

This is the sixth annual festival sponsored by the South Plains Music Teachers association.

Piano teachers and towns represented in the contests yesterday and today are as follows: Plainview, Mrs. Eva Barnes; Levelland, Miss Juainta Nugent; Crosbyton, Miss Pauline Buck; Ralls, Mrs. M. E. Ware; Slaton, Mrs. Lillian Butler and Miss Jeanette Ramsey; Tahoka, Mrs. Jack Jackson; Lamesa, Mrs. Flaniken; Lockney, Miss Mary Richardson; Lubbock, Miss Mary Gresham, Mrs. Mamie I. Neal, Miss Mary Dunn, Miss Huff, Mrs. John L. Ratliff and Mrs. Sam J. McFarland.

Mr. Scionti, who visited Lubbock 17 years ago, expressed surprise at the growth of Lubbock and this section upon his arrival here for the festival. He was gratified with the quality of playing done in contests yesterday, saying that the performances would be a credit to cities much larger than this one.

He is a teacher in the American Conservatory of Music at Chicago and is now on vacation from that institution. Mr. Scionti expects to spend next winter in Europe and now has some engagements made to play there.

Third National Chinese Congress

NANKING, Mar. 15 (AP).—The third national congress of the Kuomintang, or Chinese Nationalist party, opened today with 211 delegates representing all of China and Sino communities throughout the world. The 211 constituted a quorum from the total of 356 elected delegates for the carrying on of the business of the congress.

BOGUS MONEY 'RING' FOUND

BIG COUNTERFEIT PLOT IS UNEARTHED AT TULSA TODAY

(By Associated Press)

TULSA, Okla. March 15—Carl W. Blair, federal operative in charge of the Oklahoma district, said last night that Tulsa was headquarters for one of the most extensive rings of counterfeiters and "passers" uncovered in the United States in the past several years.

Blair's statement followed the arrest of Harley Dean and his wife Lola, of Tulsa, here and a man identified as C. W. Crabbe, in McAlester. Blair added that six other persons were being sought in and near Tulsa, for connection with the alleged "passing" of $75,000 in counterfeit $10 federal reserve notes.

Most of the money, it was said, had been passed in Omaha, Wichita, Kansas; Fort Smith and Little Rock, Ark.; Nashville, Tenn.; Fort Worth, Texas, and in various towns in Oklahoma.

Blair said last night that according to a detailed confession made by Dean, "members of the ring" had contracted for $300,000 in counterfeit notes, from a plant "known to be operating in Mexico."

Much Interest In Prairie Dog War

Much interest is being manifest throughout the county in the prarie dog extermination campaign, County Agent D. F. Eaton said today.

Mr. Eaton reports that the county has been pretty well covered by the use of poison grain. He plans to make a county-wide survey in the near future, announcing the communities which are free from the prairie dogs.

A follow-up campaign using poison will be used in about a week.

Plans Progressing For Big Dairy Show

Plans are progressing rapidly for the Panhandle Plains Dairy show to be held at Plainview from April 2 to 5, according to Lubbock County Agent D. F. Eaton, president of the dairy show association.

Mr. Eaton is spending much time working on plans for the show, which promises to be the best ever held by the association.

FOUR MARRIAGE LICENSES

Four marriage licenses were issued from the offices of County Clerk Amos Howard yesterday to boost the month's total to thirty-two.

The licenses granted yesterday were to: Garland Hamilton and Levi Harve; Claude Stephens and Anna Bacon; Lourance Owens and Ruth Speer; Gayle Smith and Bertie Berry.

HALF HOUR'S JOB LIKE DAY'S WORK

Lubbock Carpenter Says He Has Taken New Lease On Life

"Orgatone has simply given me a new lease on life," said J. C. M. Barnes, of 602 Avenue S, Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Barnes, has been a carpenter, here, for the past six or seven years.

"Before I commenced taking Orgatone," he continued, "I was so run down and miserable, a half hours job would tire me as much as a whole days work does now. I suffered with sharp, intense pains in my stomach, and sides, from my kidney trouble. I suffered also, with indigestion, and my nerves were so unstrung that I was irritable and out of sorts all the time. I would get up in the mornings feeling as tired and worn out as when I went to bed and my work got to be a punishment to me. I had no appetite at all, and what little I did eat, disagreed with me, and gas would form on my stomach, and I would have billious, dizzy spells. I would bloat up so, until I would feel as if I would burst. My kidneys were in a terrible condition and I had a bad case of constipation. I was nervous and restless and got very little sleep during the night.

"I had reached the point where it was necessary for me to do something, and Orgatone was recommended so highly I decided to try it. I am getting wonderful results, and feel fine after taking one bottle. I now sleep sound, eat hearty and can do a hard days work without feeling it. Orgatone has relieved all my troubles. I recommend Orgatone to everybody with those miserable tired, nervous feelings, like I had, for it certainly has straightened me out in fine shape. Orgatone has restored my health and a years suffering which every thing else failed to do."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowen's Drug Store, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Out of town customers are being supplied by mail upon receipt of price one bottle $1.25 or six bottles for $6.25. Adv.

MOODY IS GENEROUS

AUSTIN, March 15 (AP)—Bart Watson, of Bowie county, who served thre years of a four year sentence in the penitentiary for assault to murder, was given a general parole by Governor Moody today.

Henry Loftis, Hill county convicted of violating of the prohibition law and sentenced to one year in prison, was granted a furlough of sixty days. His case was recently affirmed by the court of criminal appeals.

Luna Kilburn, Panola county, serving one year for violation of the prohibition law, was given a furlough of 30 days to care for his five children, whose mother died recently.

FLOODS

were suffering from floods. Communities in Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois felt the effects of spring freshets, but unless rains set in no trouble was expected.

The Mississippi was rising rapidly. At Memphis the river was more than two feet above flood level. It was indicated that the crest of the swollen water would be reached there by the middle of next week.

In New England, the Connecticut and other rivers were rising, the Mohawk, in New York state was above flood level.

MISSISSIPPI LOOMS AS SERIOUS MENACE

CHICAGO, Mar. 15 (AP).—The flood menace had shifted today from its northern tributaries to the Mississippi river itself.

Most of the lesser streams were getting back to normal after a three days rampage, but reports of water seeping through levees and a threatened break had spread consternation among some of those living near the Mississippi.

Many communities in Nebraska, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois were suffering today the effects of the spring freshets of the last few days, but unless rains set in, the tributaries were not expected to cause much further trouble.

The Mississippi, on the other hand, was threatening to break through a levee on the Illinois side, north of Burlington, Ia. Inhabitants of Gulfport, a village of 100, have moved to higher ground while large crews attempted to reinforce the levee. Water was dribbling through holes, apparently made by musk rats.

While eastern Nebraska and South Dakota were suffering floods, the western section of those states experienced one of the season's worst blizzards. Rapid City, S. D., reported traffic paralyzed by the snow.

GUARDSMEN MAKE ALABAMA RESCUES

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Mar. 15 (AP) Alabama national guardsmen had succeeded in rescuing 37 persons, a majority of them women and children from the inundated regions around Elba, Governor Bibb Graves was advised at 8:30 a. m. today.

The message was the first direct word had from the guardsmen since they left their headquarters here. It made the terse announcement that the refugees had been removed to safety from a point six miles from the city of Elba, adding they were pushing on toward the flooded city in motor boats.

It is a purely herbal tonic in fluid or tablets. Send 10c. to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. for sample.

FATE OF ELLA RESIDENTS IN DOUBT

TROY, Ala., Mar. 15 (AP).—Fate of 4,000 residents of Elba, Ala., fifty miles south of here was uncertain this morning as every recue party attempting to enter the flooded town was turned back. Flood water flowed through streets of the village with such force that it defied operation of frail craft, available. Rain was falling in torrents adding to the discomfort of those perched on housetops to escape the flood.

Virtual tidal waves from White river, Big creek and the treacherous Pea river descended on Elba late yesterday and last night as a result of a record rainfall during the previous 48 hours.

Reports from Enterprise, 18 miles southeast of Elba, indicated the position of the flood sufferers was extremely precarious. Rescue parties after six miles o fslow travel were stopped by a washed out bridge. A party of national guardsmen from Montgomery were marooned by the same washout. Their means of escape back to Montgomery to attempt another route to Elba was cut off.

Direct communication with Elba has been impossible since yesterday afternoon. Reports of the plight of residents there reached Enterprise and were relayed here by couriers and a party of four refugees, a Mrs. J. C. Johnson and her two small children and a Miss Hughes. They were taken from the four feet of water that stood in the Johnson home by two men who paddled to the front door in a canoe.

Mrs. Anna Crow Is Buried Thursday

Funeral services were held at the Abernathy Methodist church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Anna Mae Crow, 44, who died at Brownwood Tuesday. The Rev. Michael officiated.

Burial was in the Idalou cemetery under the direction of Bynum Brothers. She is survived by her husband, six brothers, and one sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hardy returned yesterday from Coleman where they had been for the past several days due to the death Tuesday of Mrs. Hardy's mother, Mrs. M. L. Mitchell.
