Germany's Grip On France Slipping Fast As American Seventh Army Closes In

U. S. Troops Reported In City Of Paris

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LONDON—(AP)—Adolf Hitler's grip on France slipped with almost unbelievable rapidity in almost every direction Thursday.

Lt. General Alexander M. Patch's U. S. Seventh Army reached the Swiss frontier after a drive of 200 miles in 10 days through the French Alps from the Mediterranean.

Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's U. S. Third Army had pushed 15 miles beyond Sens, 32 miles southeast of liberated Paris, toward the German frontier, 150 miles away.

The two forces apparently were less than 200 miles from a junction isolating all Southern France—but already much of Southern France is free.

An Algiers broadcast said Bordeaux, big French port on the South Atlantic coast, had been captured by a combined force of Americans driving south from the Loire and French Maquis who had marched north from the Spanish border.

French patriots were reported in control of the entire Lyon region, the great southern metropolis on the Rhone in Southern France, and at Perpignan, just north of the Spanish border on the Gulf of Lion.

Paris and Marseille, the first two cities of France, had been captured in a single 24-hour period.

Allies Enter Paris

The Second French Armored Division and some American units were reported to have entered Paris. American, British, Canadian and Allied units rode roughshod over parts of two Nazi armies covered below the Seine.

With a swiftness indicating the completeness of the German rout, the American Third Army thrust 25 miles northwestward along the south bank of the Seine toward the sea and captured Elbeuf, one of the chief ferry points across the river. Gen. Guenther Von Kluge had (Continued on Page 4)

Russians Move In On Oil And Wheat Supplies

By The Associated Press
MOSCOW—Captured report hostilities spreading between the troops of Germany and Romania Thursday while two great Russian army groups swept toward the heart of the oil and wheat kingdom in drives apparently aimed at trapping any Nazis still in their path.

Companion offensives in South and North Poland continued apace. Troops which seized Debica were declared overrunning hundreds of German war factories, 150 of them in Debica alone. Red Star said the Lwow-Karkov railroad bristled with German war plants of all kinds. The advance moved within 17 miles of Tarnow. Further North, Russian columns were within 35 miles of Krakow and 75 of German Silesia itself.

Split German Armies

GOP Happy Over Peace Prospects

ALBANY, N. Y. —(P)—Prospect that the European war may end before American voters choose their next president provided an undisputed lift in the Spirit of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's supporters Thursday although Democrats generally were inclined to discount the effect on the November 7 election.

The Republican presidential nominee was silent about the political reaction that might come with defeat at Germany, but some of his friends expressed the belief the New York Governor's chances would be enhanced by developments that might offset the Democratic plea for retention of President Roosevelt as Commander-in-Chief.

Dewey Makes Prediction

It was evident they considered the announced liberation of Paris a long step toward victory and Dewey himself lost no time in issuing a formal statement Wednesday that it meant "the beginning of the end of Nazi domination in Europe." Calling on Germany and Japan to surrender before the consequences to them become more severe, Dewey predicted the Allied armies would sweep onward to Berlin.

Many Democrats contend the cessation of hostilities in Europe will produce peace problems that may be of more lasting importance than the war itself and that President Roosevelt has had the opportunity to become more familiar with these problems than any other American.

Dewey, who has predicted that the next president will serve more of his four-year term in peace than in wartime, has taken occasion recently to identify himself publicly with the consideration of postwar problems.

U.S. Air Arm Hitting Deep Into Germany

LONDON—(AP)—Great American air fleets were reported by Berlin to be striking Germany Thursday from both Britain and Italy after a night in which swift Mosquitoes made a "concentrated" attack on Cologne while other planes bombed Seine River crossings.

Allied fighters and bombers filled the Channell skies during the morning.

Mosquito bombers raised the 24-hour bag of German tanks, barges and vehicles destroyed or damaged to around 1,000 as the Allied air offensive knocked out two of the German's crossing points over the Seine near Elbeuf.

With Allied ground forces within 150 miles of the German border, air attacks on the Reich itself can make an increasingly important contribution to the immediate progress of the campaign.

Allied Troops Are Battling Way Into Paris

LONDON—(P)—Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters disclosed Thursday that Allied troops were fighting their way into Paris, large sections of which are held by the French Forces of the Interior.

Fall of the city is expected momentarily, but so far as Allied Headquarters is concerned it has not yet been liberated. Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the commander of the French Forces of the Interior, Lt. Gen. Joseph Pierre Koenig, had announced Wednesday that the capital was liberated and their statements were hailed by governmental leaders the world over.

French underground leaders, after four days of street fighting in Paris, negotiated an "armistice" with the German garrison, presumably on the terms that the Nazis were to leave the city, Supreme Headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Force said. The Germans apparently repudiated the agreement and kept on fighting and the underground called on the Allies for help.

7,500-Foot Test Is Spotted In C-W Lynn Area

By JAMES C. WATSON
Oil Editor

D. D. Feldman, Dallas, has filed application with the Railroad Commission to drill a 7,500-foot wildcat in Central-West Lynn County.

It will be his No. 1 C. O. Edwards, 660 feet from the south and east lines of section 312, block 3, EL survey. It is about five miles west and slightly north of Tahoka. Drilling is to start by Oct. 1. Feldman reported he had a block of 12,344.45 acres surrounding the drillsite.

Some of that acreage has been sold to other operators, according to a plat filed with the drilling application.

Amor G. Carter and Pure Oil Company No. 8-E Walton, 660 feet from the south and east lines section 2, block B-3, psl survey, is a new extension for the Wheeler-Elleburger field, in North Winkler County. It is one mile south of the closest Ellenburger producer in that area. It is to go for Ellenburger oil, or to 10,500 feet, starting by Aug. 29.

Union Oil Company of California No. 1-B Paul Moss, 660 feet from the south and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 44, block 42, TP survey, T-2-N, is a stepout from production in the South Cowden field, in Central. (Continued on Page 6)

LONDON—(AP)—German troops and tanks paraded through the streets of Paris three days before its liberation "firing into crowds and killing many civilians," Lt. Gen. Joseph Pierre Koenig said in a communique Thursday.

LONDON—(AP)—A vast armada of 2,300 American planes smashed a dozen targets in Germany and on the Czech border Thursday, while the RAF bombed and strafed a Nazi "Dunkergue" attempt from the great port of Le Havre at the mouth of the Seine, only a few miles beyond advancing Allied lines.

U.S. Driving Nazis Toward Their Border

By WES GALLAGHER
SHAEFF—(AP)—American armored columns streaked along the Seine Thursday in a drive toward the sea, capturing Elbeuf, 30 miles from the river's broad mouth and rapidly throwing a noose around another huge force of Germans in Northern France.

A new lightning advance of 25 miles from last reported positions overran Elbeuf, South of the river, and drove the Germans from positions where in the last few days they have been hurriedly ferrying out their fleeing troops. In that area Allied airmen destroyed 500 German vehicles Wednesday.

At Elbeuf the Americans stood within nine airline miles of Rouen, old capital of Normandy and a city of more than 100,000 which sits astride a bend in the river to the North.

Meet Some Resistance

Canadian and British armies drove deep indentations into the Western fringes of the trap, although meeting some determined German resistance, particularly east of captured Lisieux.

Field dispatches said the Germans, now denied ferry crossings in the Rouen area, had shifted to others, still more difficult, nearer the Seine delta.

Southeast of Paris the Americans thrust two more spearheads across the Seine in the vicinity of Fontainebleau. There was no further news of an American armored column which last was reported 15 miles beyond Sens, 65 miles South-East of Paris, in a drive aimed toward the borders of Germany, 150 miles away.

Jap Premier Warns Nips Of Invasion

By J. B. KRUEGER
Associated Press War Editor

New American stabs into the Bonins, 600 miles below Tokyo, gave point Thursday to Japanese Premier Koiso's warning to his people that "the enemy is watching for an opportunity to land on our homeland."

Japan, he said, faces an "unprecedented grave national crisis."

Radio Tokyo said Liberators bombed Chichi Jima Thursday (Tokyo time). Two days before, Adm. Chester Nimitz announced, Liberators sank two cargo vessels and set a third afire off Chichi Jima, principal fortress in the Bonin Island defenses guarding Japan.

Mindful that the Bonins have been under steady attack since American investment of Saipan to the South, General Koiso warned of possible homeland invasion and asked the people to increase Japan's fighting power.

Fear of Super Fortresses

He asked too for improved air raid defenses, no doubt in recollection of the attack on Saipan. (Continued on Page 3)

Lt. Clyde H. Pate Is Prisoner Of War

Lt. Clyde H. Pate, previously reported missing in action, is prisoner of war of the Slovakian government.

Mrs. Pate was notified by the War Department Wednesday that the Flying Fortress pilot who was last seen going down over Yugoslavia is now in a prisoner of war camp.

Lieutenant Pate entered the Army in May 1943. He was employed here by the Walker-Smith Company before going into the Army.

Germans Confused As Balkans Begin To Crumble Again

By WADE WERNER
LONDON—(AP)—Romania began marching against Hungary Thursday after her sudden exit from the war against the Allies in an about-face which directly threatened the whole German position in the Balkans.

Bucharest broadcasts said Romania in fact had turned co-belligerent and there were reports of spreading fighting in the rich oil and wheat kingdom between Romania and German troops.

Bulgaria, already outflanked in the South by Turkey's severance of relations with Germany, now was periled from the North as well, and in an entirely untenable position.

Americans Take Salon, Advancing North To Arles

ROME—(P)—American mobile columns have captured Salon 25 miles Northwest of liberated Marseille and are only 20 miles from Arles and the Rhone River, headquarters announced Thursday as French troops mopped up dwindling enemy pockets in Toulon, great naval base of Southern France.

Arles is at the South end of France's Rhone River highway.

The Allied headquarters communique made no reference to the situation at Grenoble, industrial city 140 miles from the Mediterranean whose fall Wednesday placed the Allied troops less than 240 miles from a junction with Gen. Eisenhower's forces in the North.

(A dispatch from Geneva said today American troops had arrived at the Swiss frontier. These troops presumably advanced from Grenoble, 75 miles south of Geneva.

American Reach Annecy

The Swiss radio said American troops had reached Annecy in a swift 51-mile advance Northeast of Grenoble, while other forces fanning out from Grenoble were reported within 15 miles of Lyon.

(French patriots are in control of the Lyon area, 240 miles Southwest of Paris, according to the Algeria radio.)

Collaborating with the fast-stepping Allied columns were B-25s which bombed two bridges ahead of two German panzer divisions, headed apparently for the Riviera beachhead. Mitchell's struck at rail centers in South France and found a good target at Settimo, 40 miles North of Turin, where German troops were reported massed.

There was no report yet of how much damage had been done to Marseille, normally a busy industrial city.

As long ago as Wednesday noon the French and Americans had slammed into the city's outskirts after overwhelming the suburbs of Mont Du Paradis, Carqueiranne and Mont Des Oiseaux.

The Right Track At Last

The Political censorship section of the soldier vote bill was good for some laughs, but the joke was beginning to wear thin. So now the inevitable modification of the measure has been voted by Congress.

The Senate amendments do just what should have been done in the first place. They make certain that the soldier or sailor will get the same sort of reading matter available to him at home, limited only by the exigencies of war. They are going to let him see what movies and plays are available, listen to the radio, and receive his private mail—including political literature—without interference.

And they are going to dispel some unflattering and undemocratic inferences that existed in the original measure as drafted by Sen. Robert A. Taft. It was hard to escape the conclusion, under Army execution of the original law, that Congress regarded a citizen as radically changed when he put on the uniform of his country.

Congress seemed to think that he abandoned all independence of judgment with his civilian clothes. It appeared, at least under the law's application, that the man fighting his country's battles should be protected from any writing inclined to excite discussion. Congress apparently felt that the serviceman's diet of information should be extremely bland—no roughage, no condiments, and not much quantity.

Senator Taft consented to and co-operated in the Senate amendments to the political censorship law, which is to his credit. But in doing so he blamed the War Department for failure of the first measure, and suggested that the Army's over-literal application of the law had been deliberately ridiculous, designed to discredit Congress and sway the election.

This seems unlikely. If the original law had not been vague, flexible and ill-advised, its interpretation would not have been so silly. If the original law had not carried some stiff penalties for violation, the Army probably would not have been so zealous.

Senator Taft also voiced some doubts about the War Department's political impartiality. This also seems unlikely. The War Department is headed by a distinguished, respected Republican statesman. The Army's chief of staff has never voted. Its officers are drawn from men of both parties.

No, the sad truth seems to be that Congress pulled a legislative boner.

We are not surprised that Buster, the Brookline cat who is heir apparent to a $100,000 fortune, has developed nerves and dyspepsia in addition to fame and fortune. He's undoubtedly worrying about taxes. He's apprehensive about touches and maybe blackmail at the hands of those alley companions of his carefree, penniless days.

He now suspects that every human that strokes him, offers him a saucer of milk or a sprig of catnip may be a fortune hunter.

Cats may look at the wealthy, as well as kings. Buster's done just that—and now he jumps at the slightest noise and can't keep a thing on his stomach.

Slightly Vulnerable

They couldn't try Thomas De Lorenzo for saying that he would rather see Americans die in battle for want of equipment than see his union lose any of its "rights" at the Brewster aircraft plant, where he is the UAW local's president. But they could try him on the charge of lying about his police record to get a job, and find him guilty.

De Lorenzo's punishment, if it survives appeal, is mild—30 days and $500 fine. But at least it should serve notice to him that he is not inviolate, and that he cannot flout the nation's laws as he did its interests and safety during the scandalous period of Brewster's inefficiency.

There are those among us who fear that our Russian ally means to change the face and political structure of tremely bland—no doughage, no condiments, and not much learn of some changes that the Russians have begun at home.

Several recaptured cities in the Ukraine have been given new names. Tarnopol, for instance, has been changed to Ternopol. And Czertkow (pronounced Chertkov) has become Chortkov (pronounced Chortkov).

The revolution may be under way. But it certainly is proceeding in low gear.

Replacements Still Needed

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, the Selective Service chief, dropped some rather confusing remarks the other night in Seattle. He told a group of local draft board members that "we've got the Army practically built," but that the need for replacements was such that "even the men up to 38 are liable to be called."

This seems to put us right back in the muddle that existed before the country's pressing manpower needs were finally reconciled between industry and the armed forces.

Yet we cannot quarrel with the purpose behind the need for replacements. "Some of our boys have been overseas two and three years," General Hershey points out, "and it's time we brought them back." Certainly the return home for many is overdue.

A Hint To The Postwar Planners

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

Romania's double back-flop—surrender to the Allies and war against the Germans—will render the Balkan Peninsula untenable for Hitler although he will hang on as long as he can as a further measure to delay his own capitulation.

The Romanian turnabout represents another great military victory for the Allies, although diplomacy has played its part. This biggest of the Balkan countries has flown the white flag because she has been beaten in battle and was about to be overrun by the Red forces which were bearing down on her from the north. The importance of her surrender is fourfold:

1. Bulgaria, already wavering, may be expected to follow suit now that her next door neighbor has deserted the Nazi camp.
2. Hungary, which also lies against Romania's border, is now vulnerable to direct attack—and Hungary is Germany's south-eastern shield. The great Danubian Basin, which is a gateway into the Reich, will now be open to the Allies.
3. Hitler will lose great supplies of which he is in desperate need.
4. The moral effect the world around, especially in Germany and Japan, will be great. It's the sort of thing that's breaking the hearts of the Nazis and the Nipponese.

So far as Romania itself is concerned, it has represented Hitler's greatest source of supplies in the Balkans. Not only has he depended heavily on the Ploesti oil to keep his war machine running, but this fertile Balkan state has been a land flowing with milk and honey.

Romania produces vast quantities of corn and other foodstuffs which have played their important part in keeping the people of Germany loyal to the Fuehrer.

O'Daniel Says Major Companies Will Buy Lines

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator W. Lee O'Daniel says major oil companies will buy the $140,000,000 worth of government-built Texas-East Coast pipelines at 10 cents on the dollar, adding that such a sale is a foregone conclusion.

He said in an interview—referring to the $77,000,000 "Big Inch" and the $66,000,000 "Little Inch"—concludes that "they were never even needed in the war effort."

"They were shoved through under the guise of an emergency with the deliberate intention of their being turned over to the big oil companies after the war to be used for transporting natural gas to the East," O'Daniel declared.

O'Daniel favored Tankers
He asserted he saw little chance that the oil pipe line provision written into the House Surplus Property Disposal bill, pending now in the Senate, would hinder sale of the two lines to private oil companies.

Asked whether he thought buyers of the pipe lines might be able to acquire them for as low as 50 cents on the dollar, O'Daniel replied: "I'd say 10 cents on the dollar. Who else is in the market for them but the major oil companies? And they will all get together on the price."

The Texan declared the oil transportation problem during the early months of the war could have been solved by putting the steel used in the lines into the building of more tankers.

U. S. GOLD CONSUMPTION

Arts and industries in normal times require 1,500,000 ounces of gold annually in the United States alone. This is 10 per cent of the world's output and amounts to $50,000,000, making America the greatest consumer of gold in the world.

Joe Erickson Advocates Campaign For 'Adequately Endowed' Hospital

An endowed hospital to serve Midland is advocated by Pvt. Joe Erickson, superintendent of Western Clinic Hospital, now on leave of absence while in the armed forces. He writes:

"Camp Berkeley
Aug. 19, 1944
"Midland Reporter-Telegram
"Midland, Texas
"Gentlemen:

"I notice in Sunday's 'Telegram' a letter from J. L. Greene regarding the hospital facilities in Midland. It has long been my desire to make a public statement in this matter and now that I am on leave of absence from the hospital, feel that I can do so.

"The management of the Western Clinic Hospital has several times in the past two years made the statement that Midland needs a publicly owned hospital built and operated through funds donated by the citizens. I am quite sure there are quite a few of our citizens who would be glad to donate substantial sums for this purpose if given the opportunity.

"A hospital is not a money making institution and should be able to render service without regard for the cost other than normal economies wherever possible. Only in rare instances does a hospital pay its operating costs much less pay anything on the original investment. It is my contention now as in the past it is not the responsibility of any one individual or group of individuals to provide hospital facilities for a city and that it is definitely the responsibility of the public whom the hospital serves.

"There are two types of publicly owned hospitals—the city or county owned or the endowed. I think most hospital people will agree the latter is the most successful because the public is more interested in it as individuals, there is not the stigma of charity commonly associated with city-county units and there is less possibility of political interference.

"It is my earnest hope the people of Midland will get an adequately endowed hospital, well started financially, so when the latest building plans and equipment will again become available we can build a hospital owned and operated by the citizens of Midland. Our records at the hospital are a definite proof that hospitalization in Midland is adequate at this time. The American Hospital Association says the danger point in hospital census is 75 per cent of the beds occupied all the time, and Western Clinic-Hospital census is well below the danger point. However now most definitely is the time to get organization and funds under way for the post war period when our City returns to normal living. If we do have these plans and the funds to back them up there is no reason why Midland should not be a medical and hospital center for West Texas.

How Different Will be Post-war Homes?

Matt Dooley, our local carpenter, has been showing us architect's drawings of the kind of post-war houses that we're going to live in. Some of them look like squared-off dominoes; some are streamlined like they were going to fly. And they're all filled with fancy things like air-conditioning and what-not.

"Sure change our home life!" Matt says importantly.

"Shucks," says Dan Mason, "it isn't the shape of a house, or the gadgets in it, that make up your home life."

"What is it then?" says Matt.

"I would also appeal for your understanding and indulgence during these times. It is most difficult to operate a hospital 24 hours a day and provide trained or experienced personnel. Nurses are human beings subject to fatigue (and the public does forget this sometimes) who don't like to work long hours seven days a week all the time. There are also many nurses now on a day's leave from their homes in order to help out and they don't particularly need to work. Please keep this in mind when you feel like criticizing. On the other hand if you feel commendation is due remember a pat on the back is a big help.

"In closing, keep faith with your doctors. Spare them as many night calls as you possibly can. Sure they accepted their profession voluntarily and are subject to night calls but put yourself in their shoes and forget yourself for the moment. Would you like to work eight hours a day, go home to a phone ringing constantly until bed time? Suppose you were awakened only four times a night for a five minute conversation to say nothing of getting up, dress and out for an hour. How long could you keep steady nerves and a clear mind? Add to this the sleep lost in obstetrical cases and the strain of operations and a steady stream of patients and you have your doctor—a darned good man.

Lockhart Wants Federal Control Over Insurance

AUSTIN — (AP) — Chairman O. P. Lockhart of the State Board of Insurance Commissioners advocates federal legislation which will keep for the states regulatory powers over insurance companies.

Lockhart in a formal statement said also that approval of such legislation should be followed by submission of a Constitutional amendment by which the people could decide whether Federal or State government should regulate insurance.

He was referring to a decision by the Supreme Court of the United States which held that insurance is commerce and is subject to regulation by the Federal government.

Lockhart declared:
"Since insurance in a person contract * * * the people should have the right to say whether this contract should be supervised close at home with rules to fit each case or at a distance from a centralized bureau with rules that are broad and uniform. The companies too should have the right to place the question before their policy holders."

He said further that Congress does not have the time, under wartime conditions, for devising a system of Federal control of insurance.

Finnish Minister Goes To Helsinki

STOCKHOLM — (AP) — The Finnish minister to Sweden, G. A. Gripberg, suddenly departed by air Thursday for Helsinki in a journey obviously connected with efforts to get Finland out of the war.

Reliable quarters said, however, that "as far as we know, the Finnish government has made no attempt directly to contact Moscow up to Thursday morning."

Opinion here was that Romania's exit from the war might hasten action by Baron Mannerheim, president and marshal of Finland.

The incident occurred Aug. 16, while 35 men were being taken by bus to an induction center at Fort Leavenworth.

Teacher Pay Increase To Be Considered

AUSTIN — (AP) — A joint legislative committee meets here August 23 to begin framing a bill which would permit salary increases for teachers and larger administrative expense allowances for rural schools.

Senator G. C. Morris of Greenville, chairman, said it was proposed that the annual salary for teachers with college degrees be increased from $900 to $1,350. A schedule of raises for non-degree teachers also will be continued.

Committeemen also propose to increase the $180 per year teacher administrative expense allowance to $250.

Governor Coke R. Stevenson has announced he will recommend salary teacher increases, perhaps on an emergency basis so that the next legislature which meets in January can immediately consider such legislation.

If a salary increase bill is approved finally it could be made retroactive for the school year which begins in September. Unless it is made retroactive present salary ceilings which are part of the Rural School Aid Law will remain in effect until September, 1945.

Romanian Head Flees To Arms Of Nazi Friends

LONDON — (AP) — A Swiss broadcast, quoting dispatches from Bucharest, declared Thursday Marshal Ion Antonescu, deposed premier of Romania, has fled to Germany.

The broadcast also asserted Romanian troops Wednesday night marched into the border province of Transylvania, which Romania ceded to Hungary early in the war at German behest.

The report of Antonescu's flight suggested that he might be installed by the Germans as the head of the puppet "National Government" which a Berlin broadcast said earlier had been formed "to save Romania from Bolshevization."

'One Man Army' Of Anzio' Only Man After All

RED HILL, PA. — (AP) — Wedding bells did what the enemy couldn't—shake the steel nerves of the "One Man Army of Anzio."

It took just 10 minutes to turn Efc Alton W. Knappenberger, Congressional Medal of Honor winner for holding off two German companies and mowing down 60 Nazis, into jittery bridegroom.

Maybe it was the marriage license clerk at Norristown who first noticed the change, for he asked the "Army" to speak louder.

That's when the 20-year-old veteran—his childhood sweetheart, 16-year-old Ruth Eickhoff, by his side—admitted he was "more scared than I ever was."

Forgot Marriage License

However, everyone smiled when he hurried into St. Paul's Lutheran Church, fumbled in his pockets and then dashed off again, leaving his bride-to-be to explain.

He had forgotten to bring the marriage license.

It wasn't long before the "Army" was back, with the license. The ceremony started.

It was over in 10 minutes. By that time the "Army" had steadied down to the point where he was almost as calm as his young bride.

The honeymoon trip will have to be postponed until after the war because the "Army" expected to return to service soon.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Vinaigrette Sauce Improves Salad, Gives Sprightly Taste To Vegetables

Fresh vegetable platter, with vinaigrette sauce and southern pepper biscuits.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

A cool main dish is a platter of freshly cooked, chilled vegetables served with a tart, sprightly vinaigrette sauce.

Sauce Vinaigrette

One teaspoon dry mustard, 1/8 teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon celery salt, 2/3 cup of oil, 1/3 cup taragon vinegar, 1/8 teaspoon basil, pinch cayenne, 1 teaspoon grated onion. Mix all ingredients together. Serve over chilled vegetables—freshly cooked and chilled broccoli, cauliflower and crisp shredded red cabbage mixed with watercress. Keep the various vegetables separate. Arrange on large platter with egg garnish on top. Garnish. Cut hard-cooked egg in quarters. Remove yolk. Arrange whites like daisy petals at crown of vegetable mound. Mix yolk with prepared mustard, sufficient to moisten. Press mixture through sieve to form yellow flower center. Sprinkle paprika over top. Serve with an extra dressing of lightly seasoned mayonnaise.

Southern Pepper Biscuits

Two cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon celery salt, pinch red pepper, 5 tablespoons fortified margarine or other table fat, 3/4 cup milk (about), 1/2 cup peanuts, coarsely chopped.

Sift together flour, baking powder, celery salt and add just a pinch of red pepper, finely ground. Cut in three (of the five) tablespoons of margarine or other table fat until it looks like peas through the floor. Add milk sufficient to make a soft but not sticky dough.

Roll out on floured board to 1/4 inch thickness. Divide into three pieces of equal size. Spread each with the remaining 2 tablespoons of margarine or fat and cover with peanuts. Sprinkle each (very lightly) with a little ground red pepper and salt. Put together in three layers.

Roll lightly with floured rolling pin to 1/2 inch thickness. Sprinkle top with chopped or whole peanuts. Cut into finger-length biscuits or use round biscuit cutter. Bake on ungreased biscuit sheet, in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Serve hot or cold.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur contributed to this gloomy enemy appraisal with successful attacks on six ships South of the Philippines. Mindanao was hit for the tenth time by MacArthur's raiders and big fires were kindled in the island's main city of Davao. Halmahera Island, 300 miles South, was bombed again.

The bitter bloodletting centering of Hengyang for control of the Hankow-Canton railway continued without sign of approaching decision. The Chinese halted two enemy thrusts and strove to halt another Japanese attempt to get rolling down the unconquered 170-mile gap in the railway.

Captured Romanians said the Germans had trained their guns on them, seeking to block their retreat in some places. Many Romanian units were reported raked by machinegun fire.

The Russian advance continued uninterrupted toward the Danube Basin and Galatin Gap. At midnight, Soviet troops had galloped within 167 miles of Bucharest and 140 of the Ploesti oil center, and less than 50 from the mouth of the Danube—a principal transport artery for Hitler. FDR Informed Of Reverse Lease-Lend

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The entire

months to waterproof hundreds of American and British wading tanks, ment used in the invasion of West-

This was disclosed in a lend-lease

President Roosevelt. In giving details of reverse lend-lease, it said:
"One of the biggest last-minute rush jobs done for us by the British" was the waterproofing so the Allied equipment would reach the

Campaigning? Dr. Cook Says Youth Is Greatest Asset Of United States

Dr. Harris M. Cook of Canyon,
Rotary International district governor, told Midland Rotarians at their meeting Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer that youth is the greatest asset of the nation.
"Youth challenges us to provide a place for young men and young women to grow up and obtain an education," he said, "and Rotary will meet that challenge."
Dr. Cook discussed juvenile delinquency and praised youth programs of Rotary clubs, asserting,
"youth must have an opportunity to achieve."
The district governor, who is dean of men at West Texas State College,
Canyon, was introduced by Bill Kerr,
a past district governor of Rotary.
Dr. Cook praised activities and records of the Midland club.
"Community service," he said, "is a responsibility of every Rotary club."
"We must train youth for peace as we have done for war," he told the club.
Miss Lou Nell Hudman entertained with vocal selections. She was accompanied by Mrs. Raymond Hall.
C. H. Shepard, club president, presided at the meeting.

Germany's Grip -

been trying to rescue his broken forces.
This thrust—to within 30 miles of the mouth of the Seine and only nine miles from Rouen—narrowed to disastrous size the pocket into which the splintered divisions of the German 7th and 15th armies were caught.
This and other advances cut the pocket down to half its former size.
Germans Boast Reverses
The German communice declared American forces which had crossed the Seine northwest of Paris at La Roche-Guyon, near Mantes, had been thrown back across the river. Allied headquarters, however, gave out no news concerning this spearhead which was in a position to strike northward toward the Somme battlefields of the first World War and the rocket coast.

The Germans also declared
Americans had suffered a reverse northwest of Fontainebleau where they had crossed the Seine southeast of Paris.

On the contrary, Supreme Headquarters announced a 15-mile advance from Sens to the southeast and beyond Montargis, 30 miles southwest of Sens. The Loire River had been crossed.

South of Paris the Americans had a front of 40 miles broad pointed toward Nancy, Strasbourg, Belfort—a string of former French strongholds facing the Rhine.

The Americans who reached the Swiss frontier presumably were the force which took Grenoble. This force apparently was headed for a junction with Patton's army and a joint attack on the Germans' West Wall.

Some New Ideas And Recipes For Serving Your Favorite String Beans

String bean platter, with salmon-wrapped deviled eggs.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

There are string beans, of course, growing in your garden—baby limas, red speckled beauties and other varieties. So you'll welcome some new ideas and recipes for serving these favorites.

String Bean And Egg Platter

One and one-half pounds string beans, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1 cup cream sauce, 1/4 cup grated cheese, 4 eggs, deviled, wrapped in smoked salmon.

"French" the string beans, cutting them into long slim pieces. Add the salt and boiling water; cook quickly until beans are just tender and the water absorbed. Arrange on a pyrex or other oven platter. Over the beans pour the cream sauce.

Cream Sauce: Two tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, mixed with 2 tablespoons flour and cooked with 1 cup milk and smooth and creamy; season with salt and pepper.

Salmon Wrapped Deviled Eggs

Arrange on platter around the beans, the halves of eggs deviled and then wrapped in smoked salmon. Sprinkle cheese over the beans, cream sauce and eggs. Brown in hot oven (450 degrees F.) or under a very low heat in the broiler. Send to table piping hot.

Four hard-cooked eggs, 2 tablespoons prepared mustard, 1/2 pound smoked salmon, thinly sliced, cayenne pepper, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, milk, vinegar, as needed.

Remove shells from eggs—cut in half lengthwise and remove yolks. Mash yolks, add prepared mustard, parsley and vinegar sufficient to make a moist filling. Add cayenne to taste. Fill hollows of egg whites. Wrap each egg with a thin slice of smoked salmon; fasten with toothpicks. Arrange on platter with beans.

Strangler's Victim Found Near Orange

ORANGE, TEXAS—(P)—Deputy Sheriff Louis York identified a woman whose body was found here Wednesday as Miss Wynona Holden, 27, of Covington, La.

J. P. Swain, justice of the peace, said the woman had been strangled to death. Marks, believed to be fingerprints, were on her throat. York said the woman formerly was employed at a road house East of Orange, in Louisiana.

Senate Promotes Patch To Lieutenant General

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Senate Wednesday confirmed the promotion of Maj. Gen. Alexander M. Patch, Jr., to the temporary rank of lieutenant general.

He was elevated to his new rank at a session in which the Senate also confirmed promotions of ten officers to major general and 28 to brigadier general.

Colonels confirmed as brigadier generals included the Texans: Alvin R. Lueddecke, El Dorado; Homer L. Sanders, Henderson; and Edward N. Backus, Brownsville.

State Patrolman To Be Recalled To School

Examiner-Patrolman C. B. Strain, of Big Spring, announced Thursday he was being recalled to Austin for a week's refresher course by the State Department of Safety. The course will be held the week of September 4 through September 9.

Patrolman Strain has been issuing drivers' permits in Midland for the last two years, on Wednesday of each week. He said that although he would not be here to examine and test drivers on September 6, that the following week would see the schedule resumed on a normal basis.

Those who have not signed are urged to call at the AAA office. Only a few minutes are required to complete the forms, Waddle pointed out.

Dallas Meet Can Alter Demo Picture In Texas

HOUSTON—(P)—The Democratic Convention at Dallas Sept. 12 can legally nullify the work of the May State Convention, says Herman Jones, Austin attorney and state chairman of the pro-Roosevelt forces.

The May convention named presidential electors and instructed them not to vote for the party nominee but for some other Democrat if certain Texas demands were not met.

In an interview with the Post, Jones said "Anybody who says the State Supreme Court held that the May convention had exclusive authority to nominate electors either can't read English or is failing to tell the truth."

"All the Court held was that in the absence of explicit statutes, the party could determine its nominating methods and the Court concluded the statutes did not explicitly require nomination of electors by direct primaries."

Jones said he believed the September convention would have the power and authority to name electors who would vote for Roosevelt and Truman. He said pro-Roosevelt forces have at least 643 out of a possible 1,401 votes and should be able to control the convention, which will nominate and certify the party's candidates.

driving toward Galati and Ploesti knocked out Romania's defenses.

Germans Withdraw

Even before Romania's announced acceptance of armistice terms, reports reaching London told of German troop withdrawals from Southern Greece in apparent preparation for a large scale contraction of their lines in Southeastern Europe.

The Germans appeared to be moving quickly to control the situation in Bulgaria where Turkish reports, a few hours before Mihail's capitulation, pictured the Bulgarian government as trying to get peace without sacrificing territory taken from prostrate Greece and Yugoslavia.

Franz Bish, leader of Germans in Hungary, ordered formation of an armed German home protection organization, the Swiss reported.

Moscow announced German troops on the Eastern front were killing Romanian forces seeking to pull away from the two-fisted Russian offensive driving through North-eastern Romania and Bessarabia toward Bucharest, less than 170 miles away.

A German military broadcast heard in London said the Romanian Third Army was fighting beside the Russians. The Swiss radio said other Romanian troops had marched into Transylvania, wrested from Romania in 1940 by Hitler and given to Hungary.

Romania's about-face, disclosed by young King Mihail in a broadcast announcing formation of a new government headed by Gen. Konstantin Satescu, knocked a major prop from Hitler's Balkan position.

"Clique of Traitors"

The Germans, frantically trying to repair the damage, termed the capitulation the act of a "clique of traitors" and announced formation of a "National Government"—presumably a puppet regime—around which Berlin broadcasts asked the Romania people to rally.

"Obey only its orders and not those of traitors," urged Berlin in a broadcast beamed to Romania.

Germany found large numbers of her forces in the midst of hostile country with uncertain communications to the rear.

Politically Hitler's Balkan edifice was cracking badly. Bulgaria has been edging toward peace for at least a week. After the Romanian announcement, the cabinet of Puppets Slovakia reported "important decisions" were made in an "urgent" meeting.

Hungary is still tightly in the Nazi grip, but the effect there was expected to be electric—especially since King Mihail declared conquest of Transylvania a major Romanian objective.

Without specific mention of Romania's shift, the Moscow radio shortly after the Bucharest announcement called upon the German people to "surrender immediately," adding:

"This is the eve of victory for the Allied nations."

In 42 years America produced 86,000,000 motor vehicles.

British Continue Nazi Squeeze Play

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE—(P)—Continued "satisfactory" advances by British Second Army troops along the southern end of the pocket in which German forces are being squeezed against the Seine were announced Thursday.

Official secrecy, however, cloaked the extent of the advances and the specific towns taken.

Intelligence reports showed the Germans were retreating hastily in a northeasterly direction toward the mouth of the Seine, where Nazi big guns at Le Havre could help cover their crossing of the river. The best ferries also are available near the river mouth.

Air reconnaissance has shown little digging along the far bank of the Seine in this area in contrast to that seen along the Somme and Marne, and staff officers asserted they did not expect the Germans to attempt a real stand along this river.

They believed instead that what the Germans wanted most was to get as much armor and supplies and as many men as possible onto the opposite bank.

Egg Production Declines Here

Poultry and egg production in Midland County has taken a decided slump recently, R. A. Doran, Midland poultry and egg buyer, said Thursday.

Only 60 days ago all local storage facilities were filled with Midland County produced eggs, and every egg for which a market could be found was shipped out. Now, this egg production is only 25 per cent of what it was, and eggs are being imported from the Plains.

An unusually large number of hens were brought to the local market until within the past few days, but now the number is showing a rapid decline almost daily, Doran said.

Hardly any Midland County fryers are being placed on the market, and Doran is importing fryers from the Valley.

Despite the recent seasonal decline in poultry and egg production here, Doran predicted that this year's production would reach an all-time high.

Scharbauer Eidson Is Prisoner Of War

Information has been received by Millard E. Eidson indicating his son, Sgt. Scharbauer Eidson, is a prisoner of war of the Germans. He has been reported missing by the War Department since July 23.

Lt. James C. (Buster) Howard Jr., formerly of Midland, said in a letter to his parents, "A Midland man, Sgt. Scharbauer Eidson, was captured recently. I know him well and talked to him the day he was captured." The letter was dated the day after Sgt. Eidson was reported missing.

Both men were in the 90th Division and were in action in France. Sergeant Eidson was in a machine gun unit. He entered the Army in March 1942 and reached England in March 1943.

Sergeant Eidson is a graduate of Midland High School.

There were 81,000,000 head of cattle on American farms at the beginning of this year.

Heinhold Meets Garcia For Galveston Bout

GALVESTON — (AP) — Proctor Heinhold, Texas lightweight champion, meets Buddy Garcia in a six-round bout here Friday night as part of a card headlined by a 10-round scrap between Jack Marshall of Dallas and Jimmy Carolla, heavyweights.

Heinhold's title, which he won a couple of weeks ago from Jimmy Brentz, will not be at stake.

BOBO TURNS COP TO CHECK CAR MILEAGE

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Bobo Newsom, Philadelphia Athletics' hurler, turned detective. Bobo hid in a garage to learn why his car mileage was increasing without him driving. He caught a culprit about to move the auto and turned him over to police.

Chicago Cubs Bow To St. Louis Cards

By The Associated Press

It's no disgrace to lose to the St. Louis Cardinals this year but the Chicago Cubs threaten to make a life's work out of the habit.

After bowing 11 times in a row when they were lowly cellarites, the Bruins tangled with the Red Birds Wednesday night for the first time since they attained their lofty but unsteady perch in the first division.

The result was the same. Never in the history of the major leagues has one team swept an entire season series from a rival. The New York Yankees of 1927 came the closest when they slaughtered the St. Louis Browns 21 times before bowing 6-2 on Sept. 11 in their last meeting of the year.

Ten More Chances
In 1937 Pittsburgh trampled Cincinnati by a 21-1 margin in total games and earlier in 1909 the Chicago Cubs themselves slaughtered Boston in similar fashion.

Charley Grimm's Cubs have 10 more chances to keep their names out of the record books as the only club to go through an entire season without beating all of their rivals at least once.

The Cooper boys teamed up on Chicago Wednesday night, Morton coasting to his 18th win 11-1, and Walker driving in three runs with three singles and his 9th home run. St. Louis hit a new season high with a winning percentage of .750 by their latest success.

The entire American League was idle Wednesday with all the other Nationals.

McSpaden And Nelson Hold Favored Spoils In All-American Play

CHICAGO — (AP) — It was Harold (Jug) McSpaden and Byron Nelson — golf's biggest money winners — against the field Thursday as they started playing for keeps in the rich $42,500 All-American Tournament.

The favorites, running one-two among the professionals in money earned this season, were matched against the country's top shooters in the first 18 holes of the 72-hole open carrying a top reward of $13,462 (maturity value) in War Bonds.

Simultaneously, 26 amateurs including the defending champion Dale Morey of Martinsville, Ind., and 28 women began their 72-hole circuitous to furnish a three-ring circus atmosphere at Tam O'Shanter.

"Jug" Has Slight Edge
Sideline seers were enthusiastic about McSpaden, the 1943 winner, and Nelson, third a year ago, in the open. To embellish their arguments they hauled out statistics showing that "Jug" had won five major tournaments and Nelson had taken three. Narrowing the choice to either McSpaden or Nelson was something else, however.

In 15 tournaments under P.G.A. sponsorship since last Jan. 1 Lord Byron has a three-stroke advantage over "Jug." Their respective totals are 3,687 and 3,690 for averages of 69.56 and 69.62 in 53 rounds.

Qualifying rounds for the non-exempt entries in the open continued until darkness halted proceedings last night with a half-dozen shooters unable to finish.

None of that "look at the birdie" nonsense for 18-month-old Denny Dean. He knows how to smile for the camera, especially when the photographer is his daddy, Ray L. Dean, Salem, O., newspaperman.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK — (AP) — Coach Howie Odell of Yale says he likes all the football rules changes adopted by the Eastern group except allowing the boys to run with recovered fumbles. . . . Howie thinks that leaves too much to chance and the better team might lose. . . . Isn't that what started most of the recent rules trouble? The coaches didn't want to take chances on losing through a fumble or a runback of a kickoff and eliminated a lot of the thrills the cash customers want.

Sherts And Shells
Five faculty members and one advanced student at Michigan State College have been assigned the enjoyable task of deciding whether hatchery-raised brook trout taste as good as wild ones—by eating both kinds for lunch. . . . Bob Gormley of the Philadelphia Americans, one of the best soccer forwards in the country, recently suffered a triple fracture of a leg while sliding in a softball game. Just a softie, eh? Roosevelt Raceway has named one of its fall stakes for the Gahagan brothers, Tom, Will and George. The pacers likely would set a track record if they let the Gahagans set the pace.

Confidence Note
When the St. Louis Browns were trailing early in a recent game and a new pitcher was warming up, Umpire Bill McGowan remarked to First-Baseman George McQuinn: "You're doing all right, even if you lose three out of four here." . . . McQuinn snorted: "Lose three out of four? We'll not lose this ball game." . . . And the Browns didn't.

Service Dept.
Cpl. Eddy Storey, instructor in combat swimming at Camp Lejeune, N. C., is doubly a hero to his Marine pupils. Eddy was cited for bravery on Guadalcanal, and he confesses he passed up a movie contract to play opposite curvaceous Esther Williams. . . . Lt. (jg) Forrest Evashevski, ex-blocking back, will be an usher at Lt. Tommy Harmon's wedding. Still running interference!

Jaycees To Clash With Baptist Team

The Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce softball team and the Training Union team from the First Baptist Church will stage another of their series of softball games at 6:30 p. m. Thursday at Cloverdale Park.

The Jaycees will meet the Weather team from MAAF next Thursday in an attempt to avenge the 11 to 4 defeat handed them by Weather Tuesday.

Better Ask A Friend When Drunk In Omaha

OMAHA, NEB. — (AP) — "Hey, get out of the middle of the street," Policeman Nels Sorensen shouted to a man attempting to walk a white line along an Omaha street. "Do you want to get killed?" "Sh-sh-sh!" cautioned the line-walker to the policeman. "I'm trying to prove to myself that I'm sober." He sobered up in jail.

7,500-Foot Test —

East Ector County. It will be 3,740 feet southeast of the closest oil well. It will go to around 4,600 feet for the pay in that district.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2-B Butler, 680 feet out of the northwest corner of section 2, block A-32, psl survey, is a three-quarter of a mile northwest flanker to the nearest proven area on the north side of the Fullerton field, in Northwest Andrews County. It will drill to the Fullerton pay, or 8,000 feet.

Champion Showed Oil

Champion Refining Company No. 1-B University, lower Permian well, in Southwest Andrews County, in section 5, block 11, University survey, is drilling ahead past 7,262 feet, in time after getting 130 feet of richly oil-cut drilling mud on a 35-minute drillstem test at 7,135-7,262 feet.

The formation yielding the petroleum signs is said to correspond to the lower Permian section which is productive in the Fullerton field, in the northwest sector of the county.

Fork lime won.

More Delay

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 State National Bank of El Paso, trustee, section 7, block 140, T&STL survey, nine miles southwest of the Apco-Warner field, in Central-North Pecos County, started to drill out the cement on the casing which had been set four feet above the total depth at 5,449 feet, in lime.

Top of the cement was found at 5,312 feet. It was drilled out to 5,352 feet. There was some bit trouble, and the drill-pipe became plugged. The operator was trying to remedy that condition so operations could proceed.

Humble No. 1-C Williams, section 19, block 119, GC&SF survey, northwest extension for the Williams field, about ten miles northwest of Fort Stockton in West-Central Pecos, was taking another core below 2,308 feet. A core at 2,897-2,902 feet had a recovery of five feet of lime and streaks of shale. A drillstem test at 2,897-2,902, open for one hour and seven minutes recovered 310 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, and had a gas flow estimated at 270,000 cubic feet per day.

Neville G. Penrose, Inc., No. 1 Parker, section 111, block P, Harbells survey, in Central-South Andrews, plugged back to around 6,910 feet, to test a section up to about 6,800 feet, which had slight oil indications when drilled through.

given up as barren, following a Schlumberger survey.

Amarinda Petroleum Corporation No. 5-A Todd, one quarter of a mile north extension to the Todd field, in Crockett County, flowed 197 barrels of 41.6 gravity oil during four hours of an official potential test. The oil came through a one-inch choke on two-inch tubing. Gas-oil ratio was 626-1. The oil came through 692 perforations in the casing. Those holes are at 5,727-95 feet, and at 5,810-5,915 feet, in the Grindal zone.

Stanford Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Locke, section 96, block M, El survey, in West-Central Dawson County, was core under 5,012 feet, in dolomite.

A core was taken at 4,992-5,012 feet. The recovery was ten feet of dolomite with fine porosity, and with anhydrite inclusions, and the material was wet on fresh breaks, and nine feet of the same stuff, showing medium porosity, and being wet on fresh breaks.

Sinclair Prairie Oil Company No. 1 McKnight, section 6, block B-17, psl survey, Ellenburger prospect in Northwest Crane County, was unofficially reported to had penetrated under 5,000 feet, in unrevealed formation.

Bryd-Frost, Inc., No. 1 University section 18, block 2, University survey, five miles northwest of the Big Lake pool, in Reagan County, is being plugged and abandoned at total depth of 3,631 feet in lime, after developing sulphur water from 3,623 feet to the total depth.

The Life of EISENHOWER

84 Francis
Travelyan
Miller
First Biography of America's Great General
Copyright, 1944, Ann Woodward Miller. Distributed, NEA Service, Inc.

"WE COME AS FRIENDS . . ."

XVI
AT the end of October, a story was "planted" in the newspapers to the effect that General Eisenhower had been recalled to the United States for a series of discussions. This rumor accounted for his absence, an absence later explained by the fact that the general went to Gibraltar. He was given command of the fortress.

"Never in my wildest dreams in my West Point days," he said, "did I ever think that I—an American general—would ever command the British fortress of Gibraltar."

His headquarters were under 1400 feet of solid rock and constituted 40 rooms. The only exercise the general and his staff was able to get consisted of running to their offices through a dripping tunnel. Many a private was startled at the sight of his commander and his staff sprinting through the narrow passageway.

To outwit Hitler and divert German attention, General Eisenhower had ordered that units of American forces be outfitted for the Arctic. The Eisenhower strategy worked perfectly. The Germans were reported to be bolstering their defenses in Norway.

All through the night of Nov. 7, General Eisenhower worked in his cavern headquarters. Great events were impending; great chances were being taken. The die was being cast. In his hand he held a decoded message. It was from General Marshall, back in Washington, and read:

"You and your command sailed with the hopes and prayers of America. For months you have planned, trained, and conditioned yourselves for the great task ahead. Godspeed to your success. I have complete confidence in your leadership and in the aggressive fighting quality of your troops."

General Eisenhower, his features tense and lined by tremendous strain, read dispatches, issued orders, and waited. . . .

On the morning of Nov. 8, 1942, the world was startled by the news: "The Americans have landed in North Africa."

The greatest armada in the world's history, up to that time—850 ships—had brought the first American army to the battlefield. They had landed during the night hours and at daybreak were engaged in a gigantic pincer movement. Within 76 hours they had won 1300 miles of the coasts of North and West Africa, advancing from Algiers and Morocco.

Eisenhower, with the aid of the British, had outwitted Hitler and Mussolini.

GENERAL EISENHOWER'S only comment as he left Gibraltar to advance his headquarters to North Africa was, "The only thing I was disappointed in was the resistance of the French Navy, particularly the coast batteries. We don't want to fight the French and they are opposing us, holding up the job and expending effort which might well be used against the common enemy—Germany."

General Eisenhower's mission was to liberate the French from their Nazi captives, not to engage in warfare against them. Appealing to their in his name this message was broadcast:

"Frenchmen of North Africa, the forces which I have, the honor of commanding, come to you as friends to make war against your enemies. This is a military operation directed against the Italian-German military forces in North Africa. Our only objective is to defeat the enemy and to free France. I need not tell you that we have no designs either on North Africa or on any part of the French Empire. We count on your friendship, and we ask your aid."

Empire. We count on your friendship, and we ask your aid."

"I have given formal orders that no offensive action be undertaken against you on condition that you for your part take the same attitude. To avoid any possible misunderstanding, make the following signals: Fly the French tricolor and the American flag, by day, one above the other. I repeat, by day, fly the French tricolor and the American flag, one above the other, or two—I repeat, two tri-colors, one above the other. By night, turn on a searchlight and direct it vertically toward the sky. I repeat, by night, turn on a searchlight and direct it vertically toward the sky."

"We come, I repeat, as friends—not as enemies, we shall not be the first to fire. Follow exactly the orders which I have just given you. Thus you will avoid any possibility of a conflict, which could only be useful to our enemies. We summon you as comrades to the common fight against the invaders of France. The war has entered the phase of liberation."

The voice over the radio, speaking in General Eisenhower's name, rang out over land, sea and air. "Frenchmen of North Africa: Faithful to the traditional and age-old friendship of the government and people of the United States for France and French North Africa, a great American army is landing on your soil. The purpose of the mission is to protect the people of French North Africa from the threat of Italian-German invasion. Our principal aim is the same as in 1917, that is to say, the annihilation of the enemy and the complete liberation of invaded France. The day when the Italian-German threat no longer menaces French territory we will leave your soil. The sovereignty of France over French territory remains complete. We know we are counting on your support to open the road which leads to victory and peace. All together we shall triumph."

Within two days an armistice was reached—the French ceased firing and Algiers and French Morocco surrendered on Nov. 9, 1942.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

Psychic bids are not as disturbing as they used to be. Arthur Jarmel of New York used a good one not long ago, made for the purpose of defeating the contract. Although his hand was void of clubs, he opened the bidding with one club. When his partner made a free overcall of two hearts and East then bid two spades, Jarmel decided to carry the psychic on a bit, and bid three clubs. He was confident that his opponents were going to buy the contract in spades. North's jump to five clubs worried him a little.

but East promptly bid five spades and Jarmel doubled.

North opened the queen of clubs, Jarmel trumped and returned a heart. North led another club, and again Jarmel trumped and led a heart. He was able to trump the third club, so North and South took the first five tricks, defeating the contract three tricks.

Army Made Notable Flight In Texas

EAGLE PASS ARMY AIR FIELD (P)—"AAF," official guide of the Army Air Forces, says the first history-making non-stop flight in military history was made at Eagle Pass in the pioneering era of military aviation more than 30 years ago.

The historic flight, says "AAF," was completed March 3, 1911, by Lt. B. D. Foulis and a civilian pilot, P. W. Parmelee.

The flew a chain-drive, two-propeller Wright plane a distance of 106 miles from Laredo to Eagle Pass in the then astounding time of two hours and some minutes. This only eight years after Orville and Wilbur Wright made their historic flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C.

FDR And Churchill May See Paris Parade

LONDON—(P)—The London Daily Herald said Wednesday plans were being made for President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill to be present in Paris, "if that is practical," when Allied troops parade under the Arc de Triomphe.

Declaring the march into the French capital will wait until the "campaign of destruction of the German armies goes a stage farther," The Herald said special news reel operators already have been detailed to record the event and the military bands which will participate now are practicing in France.

The Daily Mail said a conference between Roosevelt and Churchill would take place within a matter of weeks on French soil.

John Foster Dulles Confers With Hull

WASHINGTON—(P)—The possibility of bi-partisan support for current efforts at postwar security comes to a head Wednesday in an unprecedented meeting between Secretary of State and John Foster Dulles, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's foreign policy advisor.

Preliminary to his afternoon session with the Secretary, Dulles sought the advice of two Republican members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Austin of Vermont and Vandenberg of Michigan.

Nazis Holding Petain Prisoner At Belfort

LONDON—(P)—Marshal Petain, 88-year-old chief of state of the Vichy government, was reported Wednesday to be a virtual prisoner of the Germans at Belfort, where he was taken by Gestapo agents who spirited him from Vichy Sunday.

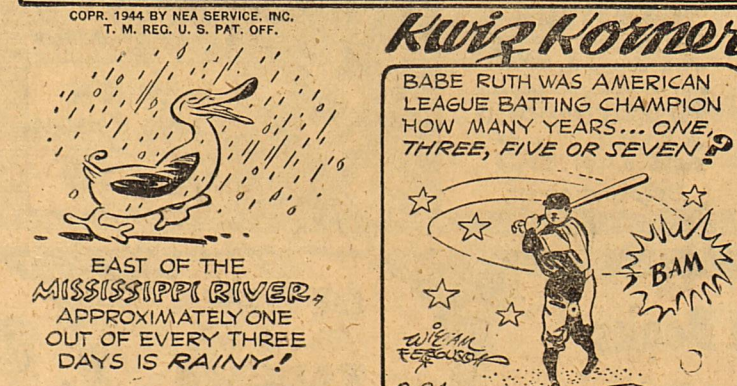

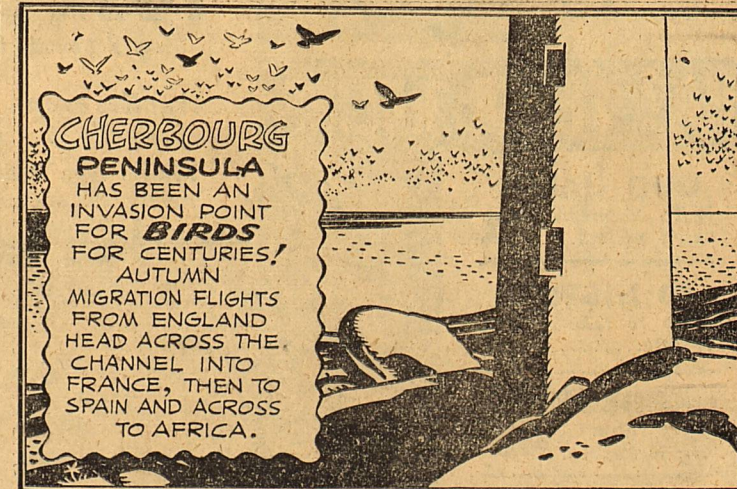

Advices from the French-Swiss border said Petain was unceremoniously carried away by the Germans with other members of his government, apparently as a result of his refusal to accompany Pierre Laval to the new puppet government seat. Laval also was said to be a virtual prisoner of the Nazis at Belfort, a French city about 25 miles from Basel, Switzerland, and an equal distance from Germany.

Andrews Strike Chief U. S. Oil Item Last Week

Andrews County, particularly, and the Permian Basin, generally, "highlighted" in the Aug. 23 issue of "The Oil And Gas Journal."

That internationally circulated industry weekly featured importance of the recent discovery of Devonian production, made by Mid-Continent Petroleum Corporation No. 1-7 University in Northwest Andrews.

Following is from that publication:

"The discovery of oil in a pay tentatively identified by paleontologists as Devonian, by Mid-Continent Petroleum Corp. 1-7 University, a wildcat in Section 20, Block 13, Andrews County, Texas, about two miles south of the Fullerton pool, has added considerable fuel to the flames of renewed geological thinking about the Permian Basin area of West Texas and New Mexico.

"The new discovery seems to be quite substantial, the electric log indicating fairly uniform good porosity of 180 ft. thickness at 8,470-86,650 ft., and casing perforated through 140 ft. of this at 8,490-8,600 ft. Casing was set at 8,971 ft., cement plug drilled out to 8,750 ft., with 2 1/2-in. tubing run to that point, tubing perforated at 8,597-8,600 ft., and the well washed in with 1,000 gal. of acid. It then flowed 135 bbl. and 150 bbl. of 40 gravity oil in the first and second hours respectively, through a 3/4-in. tubing choke.

Reported High

The test was drilled on seismograph work and is said to have run structurally high on the Permian and still higher on the Devonian, but is not believed to have reached the Ellenburger or Ordovician age. Two shallow shows were reported in the Permian. These data indicate intensification of folding with depth and that the Devonian production will underlie less surface area than the Permian structure. Some geologists believe that the Ellenburger, if found productive, might prove to underlie a larger surface area than the Devonian, on the theory that the Ordovician structure below the unconformity might be broken out.

"Since it is now evident that structure in the deeper beds does not always coincide with the upper Permian structures, renewed geophysical activity on an even larger scale than at present is a probability for this area, sharpshooters for structure in specific potential producing horizons below the Permian. Incidentally, the term Permian Basin is gradually becoming a misnomer, for this area in so far as it indicates

'We're Glad You're Here,' French Tell Yanks Who Bombed Their City

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

COUTANCES—You might have expected recrimination and bitterness and complaint. You might have expected hatred of the Allies, whose bombing attacks have wrecked almost every one of the thousand homes in this martyred town. Only the beautiful Coutances Cathedral, with its slender twin spires, miraculously escaped annihilation.

Yet, despite the devastation and suffering which liberation has brought to this once smiling Normandy province, the people of Coutances are full of courage. Though they still suffer from shock, they are preparing to tackle the vast work of reconstruction ahead of them. They face the future with calmness and confidence.

All the people have smiles of greeting for Americans in uniform. "We are so glad you are here," they would invariably say.

They have endured gruelling experiences. There are entire families in both Saint Lo and Coutances who have been completely wiped out. Others have lost trace of their children in the shuffle of hasty evacuation. It seemed incredible that only a short while ago, the town had been the scene of a fierce attack.

There were only a handful of people gathered on the Place du ravins in front of the Cathedral, where I found the Mayor, Dr. Henri Guillard.

Liberation Is Costly

As I sat in his office and listened to his story, I realized what a price these people had had to pay for their liberation. But at the same time I felt that the flame of patriotism burned brightly and fiercely. There is a tri-color flag on the spire of the Cathedral. It was placed there by the town watchmaker when the first Americans came. The Germans were less than 300 yards away.

Coutances was bombed on D-Day with two attacks which lasted several hours. Seven days later, our planes attacked again, dropping incendiaries. That was when two hit the nave of the Cathedral, but by great fortune were immediately extinguished.

Dr. Guillard recounted how he started his first amputation at 9 o'clock at night and worked on steadily for 40 hours without a break, though his house had been completely demolished and he and his family escaped death by a miracle. There were between 300 and 400 people killed that first night.

The Germans systematically pillaged every house in the town. They even took away livestock. Many of the inhabitants had hidden their most precious possessions, linen, silver, wine, soon after the occupation. Few will ever find them again. I talked to Madame Gilbert, wife of the local engineer, who said it had taken her 15 minutes to locate the spot on which her house stood. Another told me how she was the only woman left in the town and had worked as stretcher bearer. She had helped bury 75 dead, working day and night for 72 hours without any sleep at all.

Coutances is without light or water. Most of the people have only the clothes they stand in or what they could carry away in a small suitcase. No civilian is allowed back in town. The houses that are still standing have not yet been cleared of booby traps.

Food 15,000

The problem of evacuation was a tremendous one for Dr. Guillard. All but 100 of the 8,000 people in Coutances have been sent to Coutainville, a little family seaside resort that had been almost entirely requisitioned and taken over by the Germans as a rest center. Here, at least, they had not had much time for pillage.

Soup kitchens were immediately started. Before long, the population swelled to 15,000, as people of neighboring villages and small towns flocked there. The kitchen I saw was serving from 900 to 1200 meals twice a day. At noon meat and two vegetables were served, and at night a large bowl of thick vegetable soup was provided. Food is a minor problem for the moment. There is plenty of fresh meat and vegetables, milk and cheese. The American Army had just brought in 30 tons of flour, the wheat crop is said to be excellent, and while farmers are sadly lacking in farming implements, there will be enough wheat for winter months. Fortunately the Germans had not had time to mine the fields as in other sections of the Department.

"Medical supplies will soon be furnished to us by our American friends," said the mayor. "My own clinic was stripped by the Germans before they left. The only thing they did not take away was my operating table."

Mayor Guillard has great plans for his town. Aside from the fact that henceforth it will be the capital of the Manche Department, in place of Saint Lo, his ambition is to rebuild Coutances on modern lines while still retaining all its picturesque Norman character.

Scotch whiskey is the largest item of import to the United States from Great Britain in normal times.

Plenty Of Rubber But Tire Problem Is Acute

CLEVELAND —(AP)—Despite an adequate supply of rubber, "there is no remedy in sight for our heavy-duty tire problem" before early next year, Col. J. Monroe Johnson, director of the Office of Defense Transportation, declared Wednesday.

"Tire production is at a peak," said Johnson, "but we simply can't seem to enlarge our tire production facilities."

The rubber director, in an interview, blamed the tire shortage on "those responsible for allocating rubber to the heavy-duty section of the tire industry."

It is believed that the folding fan was introduced from Korea in the 11th century.

Sweetwater Pilot Sticks To His Controls Despite Severe Injuries

A BOMBER BASE IN ENGLAND (P)—Sticking to his controls 15 minutes after his left foot had been blown off by flak, a courageous pilot saved the lives of his crew by pulling their crippled Flying Fortress out of a 15,000-foot dive during the June 18 raid on Hamburg, Germany.

Even then, the pilot, Lt. Charles Hodges of Sweetwater, Texas, felt his job was not done.

When he learned his co-pilot, Gaylord Corlis of Albuquerque, N. M., would have to crash land the plane in England, he tried to crawl back in the cockpit and help him. Hodges has been recommended for a high decoration.

"I have never seen such a brave man as Hodges," said Lt. Vincent Gierul of Baltimore, bombardier. "Although he was in great pain and suffered considerable loss of blood, he was so determined to help Corlis out I had to hold him down."

Corlis landed safely at an RAF base. Flak burst killed the command pilot, Lt. Robert Crutcher of Kansas City, Mo., who was sitting next to Hodges.

The hydraulic system caught fire, but the top turret gunner, Tech. Sgt. William Talbot of Abilene, Texas, extinguished the flames.

Allied Air Leaders See Occupational Air Force In Reich

LONDON—(P)—Allied air leaders were reported Wednesday to be planning an occupation air force, possibly of 15,000 bombers and fighters, to work with ground troops which will be sent into Germany to preserve order when the Reich capitulates.

Most indications are that for ground operation purposes Germany will be divided into three spheres of influence, controlled respectively by the United States, Britain and Russia.

On the air side, a joint, combined setup without separate spheres of influence is believed likely because the air distances in Germany are small and because pooling of the three nations' differing air resources probably would be more advantageous.

Before the war England imported eels from France, northern Italy and North Africa.

through flak barrages the crew was given their choice of bailing out or staying. They stuck with the ship.

Mont St. Michel Is MP's Dream

MONT ST. MICHAEL, FRANCE
—(P)—Once upon a time there were four military cops who spent one day in paradise.

There were no dusty roads to police, no stragglers to round up, no speeders, no doughboys to bawl out for forgetting to wear leggings or helmets and no truck drivers to yell at for tying up traffic as they asked their way to some unpronounceable French town nobody ever heard of.

For in this 24-hour MP's Shangri-La there was only one narrow cobbled-stoned street and no military vehicles of any kind moving along it.

This brief policeman's heaven was Mont St. Michel, one of the world's foremost tourist centers in peacetime and, in war, one of those pleasant little islands of peace amid raging battles.

The four MP's didn't know what they were getting into when the corp's Provost Marshal assigned them to guard a tiny village on a granite promontory connected with the shore only by a long and narrow causeway.

Just a Couple Of Tourists
But, like any other tourists, they gasped as they drove along the causeway. They saw a splendid church perched atop a sheer rock with its time-worn spire rising 400 feet above the sea like a child's dream of Camelot.

Driving up to the entrance, through great 13th century stone walls which once withstood a 22-year siege by the British, the four cops climbed out of their jeep and stuck up the familiar old Army sign:

"Off limits to all troops."

They strolled a few feet up the historic Grand Rue, answering the waves of friendly villagers until they came to the Hotel Poulard where they registered.

They washed up — they couldn't take a bath because of the shortage of water on the island — and after leaving one man on guard at the gate to turn back military wayfarers, they explored Mont St. Michel from basement to turret.

with the help of a young French guide whose only fee was a couple of cigarettes.

They stuffed themselves on Mont's famous gastronomic delicacy — flaming omelettes — veal, fresh bread and butter, fried potatoes and dessert tarts. And in the dusk, they sat like kings at ease on the terrace overlooking the sea while they puffed on cigars and sipped wine and cognac.

Bright and early the next morning, up drove a fifth military policeman with word that their commander wanted them to return. He had decided that Mont St. Michel needed no policing. The four transients climbed sadly into their jeep and waved wistfully to the villagers as they drove away.

Their furlough in paradise was over.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatism, pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur contributed to this gloomy enemy appraisal with successful attacks on six ships South of the Philippines. Mindanao was hit for the tenth time by MacArthur's raiders and big fires were kindled in the island's main city of Davao. Halmahera Island, 300 miles South, was bombed again.

The bitter bloodletting centering of Hengyang for control of the Hankow-Canton railway continued without sign of approaching decision. The Chinese halted two enemy thrusts and strove to halt another Japanese attempt to get rolling down the unconquered 170-mile gap in the railway.

Captured Romanians said the Germans had trained their guns on them, seeking to block their retreat in some places. Many Romanian units were reported raked by machine-gun fire.

The Russian advance continued uninterrupted toward the Danube Basin and Galatin Gap. At midnight, Soviet troops had galloped within 167 miles of Bucharest and 140 of the Ploesti oil center, and less than 50 from the mouth of the Danube—a principal transport artery for Hitler. Tighina, Cetatea-alba and Vaslui all fell in Bessarabia.

FDR Informed Of Reverse Lease-Lend
WASHINGTON—(AP)—The entire output of Britain's sheet steel rolling industry was taken for three months to waterproof hundreds of American and British wading tanks, trucks and other mechanized equip- ment used in the invasion of West- ern Europe.
This was disclosed in a lend-lease report submitted to Congress by President Roosevelt. In giving de- tails of reverse lease-lease, it said, "One of the biggest, last-minute rush jobs done for us by the Brit- ish" was the waterproofing so the Allied equipment would reach the invasion beaches in fighting condi- tion after plowing through the surf.

Crop Saving Shower Revives Midland Farms And Ranches
Rain that started falling at 3 a. m. Thursday brought new life to parched ranges and crops of Midland County.
Reports gathered by the AAA of- fice indicate that the southern sec- tion of the county received the heav- iest showers. This part of the coun- ty needed rain more than any other. Grain sorghums in this section were sorely needing rain and were heading out.
The AAA reports indicate the rain was general over the county. In Midland 30 of an inch had fallen by 8 a. m.
Jay Floyd reported that it rained all night at his place 21 miles South- east of Midland. This section had received less rain this year than any other part of the county.
Sections Report
One-fourth of an inch fell four miles west of Midland at Les Floyd's place.
A half-inch fall was reported at the Arthur Judkins place 25 miles southeast of Midland, a section that has been lacking in moisture until now.
A good shower fell at the W. Bry- an place 15 miles south of Midland. North of Midland, George Glass reported showers at his ranch.
"Thursday's rains were very tim- e- ly," County Agent I. O. Sturkie said.
Cotton stands for the most part, have withstood the heat and recent dry weather but the rains are wel- come.
Clouds kept the temperature down Wednesday with a maximum of 84 from 4 to 9 p. m. The mercury had fallen to a 71 at 6 a. m. Thursday and held there until 8 a. m., when it began a slow rise.

European Situation Speeds Dunbarton Oaks Peace Conference
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Evidence from Romania that Hitler's Europe is beginning to collapse on political as well as military fronts gave new impetus Thursday to British insis- tence at the Dunbarton Oaks Con- ferences for early decisions on post- war world security organization.
Sir Alexander Cadogan, chief of the British delegation, has taken the lead in urging that at least a part of the security organization should be set up soon to span the gap between the end of the Euro- pean war—which he says may come sooner than expected — and the formal creation of a new inter- national league to preserve peace.
The British view, it was learned, is in line with the feeling in some quarters of the American delega- tion that the British-Russian-American-Chinese pledge made at Moscow to cooperate in the en- forcement of peace after the war should now be given some specific and organized form.
This has raised speculation in diplomatic circles here that the spade-work of the Dunbarton Oaks talks might be followed relatively quickly by a meeting of President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Church- ill and Premier Stalin to confirm and set in action three-power co- operation in the European area in the immediate postwar period.
The present plan is to delay form- ing a permanent peace agency until all smaller nations have had op- portunity to make suggestions and offer criticisms of the proposals to be evolved here.

been trying to rescue his broken forces.
This thrust—to within 30 miles of the mouth of the Seine and only nine miles from Rouen—narrowed to disastrous size the pocket into which the splintered divisions of the German 7th and 15th armies were caught.
This and other advances cut the pocket down to half its former size. Germans Boast Reverses
The German communiqué declared American forces which had crossed the Seine northwest of Paris at La Roche-Guyon, near Mantes, had been thrown back across the river. Allied headquarters, however, gave out no news concerning this spearhead which was in a position to strike northward toward the Somme battlefields of the first World War and the rocket coast.
The Germans also declared Americans had suffered a reverse northeast of Fontainebleau where they had crossed the Seine south- east of Paris.
On the contrary, Supreme Head- quarters announced a 15-mile ad- vance from Sens to the southeast and beyond Montargis, 30 miles southwest of Sens. The Loire River had been crossed.
South of Paris the Americans had a front of 40 miles broad point- ed toward Nancy, Strasbourg, Bel- fort, a string of former French strongholds facing the Rhine.
The Americans who reached the Swiss frontier presumably were the force which took Grenoble. This force apparently was headed for a junction with Patton's army and a joint attack on the Germans' West Wall.

Severns has been eating only fruit juices, Moore said, and his weight has fallen from 185 to 120 pounds.

Dr. Cook Says Youth Is Greatest Asset Of United States
Dr. Harris M. Cook of Canyon, Rotary International district gov- ernor, told Midland Rotarians at their meeting Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer that youth is the greatest asset of the nation.
"Youth challenges us to provide a place for young men and young women to grow up and obtain an education," he said, "and Rotary will meet that challenge."
Dr. Cook discussed juvenile delinquency and praised youth pro- grams of Rotary clubs, asserting, "youth must have an opportunity to achieve."
The district governor, who is dean of men at West Texas State College, Canyon, was introduced by Bill Kerr, a past district governor of Rotary.
Dr. Cook praised activities and records of the Midland club.
"Community service," he said, "is a responsibility of every Rotary club."
"We must train youth for peace as we have done for war," he told the club.
Miss Lou Nell Hudson entertain- ed with vocal selections. She was accompanied by Mrs. Raymond Hall, C. H. Shepard, club president, pre- sided at the meeting.

Some New Ideas And Recipes For Serving Your Favorite String Beans

String bean platter, with salmon-wrapped deviled eggs.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

There are string beans, of course, growing in your garden—baby limas, red speckled beauties and other varieties. So you'll welcome some new ideas and recipes for serving these favorites.

String Bean And Egg Platter (Serves 4)

One and one-half pounds string beans, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1 cup cream sauce, 1/4 cup grated cheese, 4 eggs, deviled, wrapped in smoked salmon.

"French" the string beans, cutting them into long slim pieces. Add the salt and boiling water; cook quickly until beans are just tender and the water absorbed. Arrange on a pyrex or other oven platter. Over the beans pour the cream sauce.

Cream Sauce: Two tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, mixers with 2 tablespoons flour and cooked with 1 cup milk and smooth and creamy; season with salt and pepper.

Salmon Wrapped Deviled Eggs

Arrange on platter around the beans, the halves of eggs, deviled and then wrapped in smoked salmon. Sprinkle cheese over the beans, cream sauce and eggs. Brown in hot oven (450 degrees F.) or under a very low heat in the broiler. Send to table piping hot.

Four hard-cooked eggs, 2 tablespoons prepared mustard, 1/2 pound smoked salmon, thinly sliced, cayenne pepper, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, milk, vinegar, as needed.

Remove shells from eggs—cut in half lengthwise and remove yolks. Mash yolks, add prepared mustard, parsley and vinegar sufficient to make a moist filling. Add cayenne to taste. Fill hollows of egg whites. Wrap each egg with a thin slice of smoked salmon; fasten with toothpicks. Arrange on platter with beans.

Dallas Meet Can Alter Demo Picture In Texas

HOUSTON—(AP)—The Democratic Convention at Dallas Sept. 12 can legally nullify the work of the May State Convention, says Herman Jones, Austin attorney and state chairman of the pro-Roosevelt forces.

The May convention named presidential electors and instructed them not to vote for the party nominee but for some other Democrat if certain Texas demands were not met.

In an interview with the Post, Jones said "Anybody who says the State Supreme Court held that the May convention had exclusive authority to nominate electors either can't read English or is failing to tell the truth."

"All the Court held was that in the absence of explicit statutes, the party could determine its nominating methods and the Court concluded the statutes did not explicitly require nomination of electors by direct primaries."

Jones said he believed the September convention would have the power and authority to name electors who would vote for Roosevelt and Truman. He said pro-Roosevelt forces have at least 643 out of a possible 1,401 votes and should be able to control the convention, which will nominate and certify the party's candidates.

Germans Withdraw

Even before Romania's announced acceptance of armistice terms, reports reaching London told of German troop withdrawals from Southern Greece in apparent preparation for a large scale contraction of their lines in Southeastern Europe.

The Germans appeared to be moving quickly to control the situation in Bulgaria where Turkish reports, pictured the Bulgar government as trying to get peace without sacrificing territory taken from prostrate Greece and Yugoslavia.

Franz Bish, leader of Germans in Hungary, ordered formation of an armed German home protection organization, the Swiss reported.

Moscow announced German troops on the Eastern front were killing Romanians seeking to pull away from the two-fisted Russian offensive driving through North-eastern Romania and Bessarabia toward Bucharest, less than 170 miles away.

A German military broadcast heard in London said the Romanian Third Army was fighting beside the Russians. The Swiss radio said other Romanian troops had marched into Transylvania, wrested from Romania in 1940 by Hitler and given to Hungary.

Romania's about-face, disclosed by young King Mihai in a broadcast announcing formation of a new government headed by Gen. Konstantin Satesescu, knocked a major prop from Hitler's Balkan position.

"Clique of Traitors"

The Germans, frantically trying to repair the damage, termed the capitulation the act of a "clique of traitors" and announced formation of a "National Government"—presumably a puppet regime—around which Berlin broadcasts asked the Romania people to rally.

"Obey only its orders and not those of traitors," urged Berlin in a broadcast beamed to Romania.

Germans found large numbers of her forces in the midst of hostile country with uncertain communications to the rear.

Politically Hitler's Balkan edifice was cracking badly. Bulgaria has been edging toward peace for at least a week. After the Romanian announcement, the cabinet of Pupp Slovakia reported "important decisions" were made in an "urgent" meeting.

Hungary is still tightly in the Nazi grip, but the effect there was expected to be electric—especially since King Mihai declared conquest of Transylvania a major Romanian objective.

Without specific mention of Romania's shift, the Moscow radio shortly after the Bucharest announcement called upon the German people to "surrender immediately," adding:

"This is the eve of victory for the Allied nations."

In 42 years America produced 86,000,000 motor vehicles.

British Continue Nazi Squeeze Play

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE—(AP)—Continued "satisfactory" advances by British Second Army troops along the southern end of the pocket in which German forces are being squeezed against the Seine were announced Thursday.

Official secrecy, however, cloaked the extent of the advances and the specific towns taken.

Intelligence reports showed the Germans were retreating hastily in a northeasterly direction toward the mouth of the Seine, where Nazi big guns at Le Havre could help cover their crossing of the river.

The best ferries also are available near the river mouth.

Air reconnaissance has shown little digging along the far bank of the Seine in this area in contrast to that seen along the Somme and Marne, and staff officers asserted they did not expect the Germans to attempt a real stand along this river.

They believed instead that what the Germans wanted most was to get as much armor and supplies and as many men as possible onto the opposite bank.

Egg Production Declines Here

Poultry and egg production in Midland County has taken a decided slump recently, R. A. Doran, Midland poultry and egg buyer, said Thursday.

Only 60 days ago all local storage facilities were filled with Midland County produced eggs, and every egg for which a market could be found was shipped out. Now, this egg production is only 25 per cent of what it was, and eggs are being imported from the Plains.

An unusually large number of hens were brought to the local market until within the past few days, but now the number is showing a rapid decline almost daily, Doran said.

Hardly any Midland County fryers are being placed on the market, and Doran is importing fryers from the Valley.

Despite the recent seasonal decline in poultry and egg production here, Doran predicted that this year's production would reach an all-time high.

Scharbauer Eidson Is Prisoner Of War

Information has been received by Millard E. Eidson indicating his son, Sgt. Scharbauer Eidson, is a prisoner of war of the Germans.

He has been reported missing by the War Department since July 23. Lt. James C. (Euster) Howard Jr., formerly of Midland, said in a letter to his parents, "A Midland man, Sgt. Scharbauer Eidson, was captured recently. I know him well and talked to him the day he was captured." The letter was dated the day after Sgt. Eidson was reported missing.

Both men were in the 90th Division and were in action in France. Sergeant Eidson was in a machine gun unit. He entered the Army in March 1942 and reached England in March 1943.

Chicago Cubs Bow To St. Louis Cards

By The Associated Press

It's no disgrace to lose to the St. Louis Cardinals this year but the Chicago Cubs threaten to make a life's work out of the habit.

After bowing 11 times in a row when they were lowly cellarites, the Cubs tangled with the Red Birds Wednesday night for the first time since they attained their lofty but unsteady perch in the first division.

The result was the same. Never in the history of the major leagues has one team swept an entire season series from a rival. The New York Yankees of 1927 came the closest when they slaughtered the St. Louis Browns 21 times before bowing 6-2 on Sept. 11 in their last meeting of the year.

Ten More Chances
In 1937 Pittsburgh trampled Cincinnati by a 21-1 margin in total games and earlier in 1909 the Chicago Cubs themselves slaughtered Boston in similar fashion.

Charley Grimm's Cubs have 10 more chances to keep their names out of the record books as the only club to go through an entire season without beating all of their rivals at least once.

The Cooper boys teamed up on Chicago Wednesday night, Morton coasting to his 18th win 11-1, and Walker driving in three runs with three singles and his 9th home run.

St. Louis hit a new season high with a winning percentage of .750 by their latest success.

The entire American League was idle Wednesday with all the other Nationals.

McSpaden And Nelson Hold Favored Spots In All-American Play

CHICAGO — (AP) — It was Harold (Jug) McSpaden and Byron Nelson — golf's biggest money winners — against the field Thursday as they started playing for keeps in the rich $42,500 All-American Tournament.

The favorites, running one-two among the professionals in money earned this season, were matched against the country's top shooters in the first 18 holes of the 72-hole open carrying a top reward of $13,462 (maturity value) in War Bonds. Simultaneously, 26 amateurs including the defending champion Dale Morey of Martinsville, Ind., and 28 women began their 72-hole activities to furnish a three-ring circus atmosphere at Tam O'Shanter.

"Jug" Has Slight Edge
Sideline seers were enthusiastic about McSpaden, the 1943 winner, and Nelson, third a year ago, in the open. To embellish their arguments they hauled out statistics showing that "Jug" had won five major tournaments and Nelson had taken three. Narrowing the choice to either McSpaden or Nelson was something else, however.

In 15 tournaments under P.G.A. sponsorship since last Jan. 1 Lord Byron has a three-stroke advantage over "Jug." Their respective totals are 3,837 and 3,690 for averages of 69.56 and 69.62 in 53 rounds.

Qualifying rounds for the non-exempt entries in the open continued until darkness halted proceedings last night with a half-dozen shooters unable to finish.

Texas' Passing To Bolster LSU Team
BATON ROUGE — (AP) — Standout passing by Freshman Tailback Y.A. Tittle of Marshall, Texas, in practice Wednesday offset blows to Louisiana State's football machine in the loss to the Army of Fullback Joe Nappa and Guard James Lewis. LSU's opening game is Sept. 30 against Alabama here.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK — (P) — Coach Howie Call of Yale says he likes all the football rules changes adopted by the Eastern group except allowing the boys to run with recovered fumbles. . . Howie thinks that leaves too much to chance and the better team might lose. . . Isn't that what started most of the recent rules trouble? The coaches didn't want to take chances on losing through a fumble or a runback of a kickoff and eliminated a lot of the thrills the cash customers want.

Shirts And Shells
Five faculty members and one advanced student at Michigan State College have been assigned the enjoyable task of deciding whether hatchery-raised brook trout taste as good as wild ones—by eating both kinds for lunch. . . Bob Gormley of the Philadelphia Americans, one of the best soccer forwards in the country, recently suffered a triple fracture of a leg while sliding in a softball game. Just a softie, eh? . . . Roosevelt Raceway has named one of its fall stakes for the Gahagan brothers, Tom, Will and George. The pacers likely would set a track record if they let the Gahagans set the pace.

Confidence Note
When the St. Louis Browns were trailing early in a recent game and a new pitcher was warming up, Umpire Bill McGowan remarked to First-Baseman George McQuinn: "You're doing all right, even if you lose three out of four here. . . . McQuinn snorted: "Lose three out of four? We'll not lose this ball game." . . . And the Browns didn't.

Cpl. Eddy Storey, instructor in combat swimming at Camp Lejeune, N. C., is doubly a hero to his Marine pupils. Eddy was cited for bravery on Guadalcanal, and he confesses he passed up a movie contract to play opposite curvaceous Esther Williams. . . Lt. (jg) Forrest Evashevski, ex-blocking back, will be an usher at Lt. Tommy Harmon's wedding. Still running interference!

Better Ask A Friend When Drunk In Omaha

OMAHA, NEB. — (P) — "Hey, get out of the middle of the street," Policeman Nels Sorensen shouted to a man attempting to walk a white line along an Omaha street.

"Do you want to get killed?" "Sh-sh-sh!" cautioned the line-walker to the policeman. "I'm trying to prove to myself that I'm sober."

He sobered up in jail.

7,500-Foot Test —

East Ector County. It will be 3,740 feet southeast of the closest oil well. It will go to around 4,600 feet for the pay in that district.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2-B Butler, 660 feet out of the north-west corner of section 2, block A-32, psi survey, is a three-quarter of a mile northwest flanker to the nearest proven area on the north side of the Fullerton field. In Northwest Andrews County. It will drill to the Fullerton pay, or 8,000 feet.

Champlin Showed Oil
Champlin Refining Company No. 1-B University, lower Permian wildcat in Southwest Andrews County, in section 5, block 11, University survey, is drilling ahead past 7,262 feet, in line after getting 180 feet of richly oil-cut drilling mud on a 35-minute drillstem test at 7,135-7,262 feet.

The formation yielding the petroleum signs is said to correspond to the lower Permian section which is productive in the Fullerton field, in the northwest sector of the county.

Shows of oil were logged at 6,645 feet; at 6,715-20 feet, and at 7,080-30 feet, according to informed sources. The operator plan to drill ahead for some distance before attempting more testing. Observers familiar with the project think it can be developed for some sort of a Clear Fork lime well.

More Delay
Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 State National Bank of El Paso, trustee, section 7, block 140, T&STL survey, nine miles southwest of the Apco-Warner field, in Central-North Pecos County, started to drill out the cement on the casing which had been set four feet above the total depth at 5,449 feet, in lime.

Top of the cement was found at 5,312 feet. It was drilled out to 5-352 feet. There was some bit trouble, and the drill-pipe became plugged. The operator was trying to remedy that condition so operations could proceed.

Humble No. 1-C Williams, section 19, block 110, GC&SF survey, north-west extension for the Williams field, about ten miles northwest of Fort Stockton in West-Central Pecos, was taking another core below 2,308 feet. A core at 2,397-2,992 feet had a recovery of five feet of lime and streaks of shale. A drillstem test at 2,897-2,992, open for one hour and seven minutes recovered 310 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, and had a gas flow estimated at 270-000 cubic feet per day.

Neville G. Pease, Inc., No. 1 Parker, section 111, block P, Harbells survey, in Central-South Andrews, plugged back to around 6,910 feet, to test a section up to about 6,800 feet, which had slight oil indications when drilled through.

The section from 6,910 feet to the total depth at 7,910 feet has been given up as barren, following a Schlumberger survey.

Anavada Petroleum Corporation No. 5-A Todd, one quarter of a mile north extension to the Todd field, in Crockett County, flowed 197 barrels of 41.6 gravity oil during four hours of an official potential test. The oil came through a one-inch choke on two-inch tubing. Gas-oil ratio was 620-1. The oil came through 692 perforations in the casing. These holes are at 5,727-95 feet, and at 5,810-5,915 feet, in the Crinoidal zone.

Stanford Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Locke, section 96, block M, El survey, in West-Central Dawson County, was core under 5,012 feet, in dolomite.

A core was taken at 4,992-5,012 feet. The recovery was ten feet of dolomite with fine porosity, and with anhydrite inclusions, and the material was wet on fresh breaks, and nine feet of the same stuff, showing medium porosity, and being wet on fresh breaks.

Sinclair Prairie Oil Company No. 1 McKnight, section 6, block B-17, psi survey, Ellenburger prospect in Northwest Crane County, was unofficially reported to had penetrated under 5,000 feet, in unrevealed formation.

Eryl-Frost, Inc., No. 1 University, section 18, block 2, University survey, five miles northwest of the Big Lake pool, in Reagan County, is being plugged and abandoned at total depth of 3,631 feet in lime, after developing sulphur water from 3,623 feet to the total depth.
