Communist Is Told To Leave Port Arthur

Homer Brooks, Candidate For Governor Of Texas Is Jailed For Several Hours And Released To Leave Town

Was To Give Talk

Man Had Been Scheduled To Give Talk; Three Other Texas Cities Refuse To Allow Him Speaking Facilities

(By The Associated Press)

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 29.—A. H. Metz, police sergeant, said tonight that Homer Brooks, communist candidate for governor, was released from the city jail at 8 p. m. upon his promise to leave town.

Brooks, Metz said, had been jailed late this afternoon and booked "for investigation," he said two other men detained with the candidate were also released with the same admonition.

GIVE HIM SOAP BOX

TUCUMCARI, N. M., Oct. 29. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred said tonight if Homer Brooks, communist candidate for governor of Texas was arrested "because of his political views I hope they will release him at once and give him a soap box to speak on."

Scheduled To Speak Tonight

Brooks has been scheduled to make a speech here tomorrow night. Police Chief H. F. Baker announced that he would not allow any communist candidate to speak here.

The two men who had been detained with Brooks were arrested and jailed after officers found circulars on them advertising the communistic address.

Brooks has had difficulty finding a place from which to speak in at least three other Texas cities recently.

On October 2, county officials at Houston denied Brooks the use of the courthouse for a rally scheduled for November 2.

At Austin today the city council refused him permission to use a public park for an address Saturday. It was the second time he had

Governor Puts O.K. On Bills

Number Of Local Bills And Resolutions Are Approved By Governor Thursday; Dickens County Act Included

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 29.—Governor Allred today approved a number of local bills and resolutions passed in the special session of the legislature. He did not submit local bills for consideration as in past sessions, but the legislature passed some anyhow.

Those signed included:

Creating road bond district No. 1-A in Cass county;

Providing an open season for hunting wild quail in Hemphill and Lipscomb counties from Dec. 1 to Jan. 16;

Validating Boundary Changes

Validating change of boundary lines of certain school districts in Dickens county;

Permitting Charles Berkley Normann to place a picture of the signing of the Declaration of Independence in the capitol;

Authorizing the state highway department to loan certain equipment to the City of Eastland;

Making it unlawful to take fish from the fresh waters of Dallas county other than by ordinary pole and line, rod and reel, set line, throw line or trot line;

Declaring Open Season

Declaring open season the year around on wild squirrel in Kenney county;

Declaring closed season on wild javelina, bear, badger, racoon and rock squirrel south of the Southern Pacific railroad in Brewster county;

Prohibiting the running of deer with dogs in Jackson and Wharton counties;

Providing open season Dec. 1 to Feb. 1 on wild coon, squirrels, opossum and mink and open season in December on wild quail in Shelby county;

Providing for the exception of the clear fork of the Brazos river from a previous bill describing seines and fish that could be taken in that section.

Texas Democratic Chiefs Want To Make State Vote Heaviest For Roosevelt

Party Leaders Endeavoring To Get Out Big Vote And Maintain State's Delegation

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 29.—Texas Democratic leaders maintain that President Roosevelt's majority in this state next Tuesday will be larger than in any other state if they can persuade the Roosevelt supporters to take the time to vote.

Heads of the organization are working hard to make the vote reflect the party's strength. They point out that apathy has resulted frequently in Texas registering fewer votes for the Democratic nominee for president than less populous doubtful states.

Carried 7 To 1 In 1932

Four years ago Mr. Roosevelt carried Texas by more than 7 to 1. Yet his vote was smaller than in Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri or New Jersey, each of which has less population.

Roy Miller, head of the campaign in Texas, said there were several indications the Roosevelt vote this year would be larger than in 1932.

Democrats must vote in large numbers, he said, to protect this state's representation in the national Democratic convention. The last convention abrogated the two-thirds rule for presidential nominations but placated the South to some extent by agreeing to consider the Democratic vote in determining how many delegates each

Allred Cites Need For Big Vote In State

Governor Stops Here Briefly Thursday En Route To New Mexico For Appearances For Democratic Committee

Heavy voting in Texas is particularly to be desired in the national election Nov. 3 since the total vote may have a bearing on Texas representation at the Democratic national convention, Gov. James V. Allred said when he visited in Lubbock briefly at noon Thursday.

Governor Allred was en route to New Mexico to deliver a series of pre-election addresses for the national Democratic ticket and Gov. Clyde Tingley. He was to speak in Tucumcari, N. M., last night.

May Affect Representation

Representation in the national convention may be based on the vote in the election, Governor Allred said. "In that case, a state with as heavy a proportion of Democrats as Texas should have a large vote."

Governor Allred was accompanied by Herman Jones, state representative from Wise county, and W. B. Stokes, his brother-in-law. He and his companions and Sen. G. H. Nelson were guests of Judge Clark M. Mullican at the Kiwanis club luncheon at Lubbock hotel.

Pleased With Results

"I am much pleased with the results of the special session of the legislature," he stated. He paid a high tribute to State Senator Nelson, saying the Lubbock man is "one of the finest and most capable men of the state. He is an ideal man and I personally appreciate his work. I thank the people of this district for sending to Austin such a high type of man."

The governor said he voted before leaving Austin, because he will be out of the state until election day. He will speak until the night before the election. His itinerary

Secret Army Plans Attack On Insurgents

Spanish Government Reported To Have Modern-Equipped Troops Ready To Advance From Rear On Rebels

(By The Associated Press)

British government leaders last night in the reassembled house of commons briskly defended the international "hands-off Spain" agreement.

Meanwhile in Spain, according to authoritative Spanish socialist sources in Paris, the Madrid government has concentrated a secret army equipped with tanks and warplanes for a rear attack on the Fascists besieging the capital.

Modernly Equipped

The Spanish government's secret army, Spanish socialists in Paris declared, is equipped with more than 110 modern tanks and many new bombing and scouting planes.

Some of the planes, the Spanish informants declared, were made in the United States and routed indirectly to the Spanish socialist troops.

Earlier, in Madrid, Premier Francisco Largo Caballero announced in a proclamation that the government now had strong mechanized forces and powerful aviation facilities at hand.

In a day-long counter-offensive against the Fascists south of Madrid, socialist troops regained at least three towns, Torrejon de La Calzada, Grinon and Humanes de Madrid.

At nightfall, government leaders claimed Torrejon de Velasco and Sesena were virtually within their grasp.

Park Meters Not Received By City

The "hitching posts" are up and completion of marking off in paint 45-degree parking stalls is being rushed, but there was no indication early today installation of parking meters in downtown Lubbock would be completed in time for use of the devices Saturday.

Shipment of meters, 350 of them, was expected immediately, however.

Earthquake Shock Is Felt On Island Of Guam Early Today

GUAM, Oct. 30 (Friday) (AP)—An earthquake of unusual intensity shook this mid-Pacific island at 4:40 a. m. today (1:40 p. m. Thursday est) and slightly damaged some buildings. No one was hurt.

The island population consists of about 200 Americans and 18,000 Chomorro natives.

Lesser shocks were still being felt at 8:30 a. m.

Guam, principal island of the Ladrone group, is of volcanic and coral formation.

Man's Burned Body Found In Car On Road

Victim Is Partially Identified As G. L. (Ace) Houston And Car Was Purchased In New Mexico Town Friday

No Trace Of Pair

Man Known As "Blackie" And Woman, "Mabel," Sought; Three Hitchhikers Witness Slaying On Roadside

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, Oct. 29.—Discovery of the burned body of a man in a smoldering automobile on an isolated road near here today set officers of three counties searching for a pair partially indentified as "Blackie" and "Mabel."

Three hitch-hikers told investigators they saw the victim, tentatively identified as G. L. (Ace) Houston, shot to death near St. Francis after an altercation.

Occurred On Highway

The witnesses, Delbert Smethers and Glenn Hardesty of Selma, Kas., and Wesley Bowman, Vici, Okla., said the slaying occurred on a heavily traveled highway.

The burned automobile bore New Mexico licenses.

The witnesses said the man called "Ace" drew his pistol first and the firearm discharged as the woman grabbed it, the bullet penetrating the windshield.

They said the car stopped and the two men shot it out. Then the woman and the survivor loaded the body into the automobile and drove away.

Sheriff Dwight Lee of Carlsbad, N. M., identified the automobile from its license plates as one purchased there for cash Friday by a

Mollison Out For New Mark

Noted British Long Distance Flier Is On His Fourth Hop Over Atlantic, Seeking To Set Time Record

(By The Associated Press)

HARBOR GRACE, NFLD, Oct. 29. Defying adverse weather conditions, Capt. James A. Mollison tonight headed across the Atlantic with hope of breakfasting in London.

Thrice conqueror of the Atlantic, the noted British long-distance flyer sought to establish a new record in spanning the storm-tossed ocean on a 2,100-mile flight.

He lifted his speedy Bellanca monoplane from the ground here at 3:40 p. m. (eastern standard time) after stating he hoped to reach Croydon airdrome near London, in between 10 and 12 hours.

Having taken six hours and 41 minutes yesterday to reach Harbor Grace from New York, he had 10 hours and 49 minutes in which to reach Croydon and still make good his hope to bridge the distance between New York and London in 17 1-2 hours actual flying time.

Crowds Jam Streets When Roosevelt Visits East Cities

Camden, N. J., Sees Greatest Crowd In Its History

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—Thousands jammed streets of Philadelphia and Camden to greet President Roosevelt today, waving flags and banners in a tumultuous welcome.

Crowds closed in on the president's automobile in Philadelphia and its neighbor city across the Delaware river in New Jersey. At times his car had to be halted, then pushed slowly through. Almost an hour was required for the mile and a half ride from the 30th Street station to the Camden City hall plaza.

Half Hour Late

The chief executive was half an hour late in making his Camden address because of the throngs.

Mr. Roosevelt smiled, nodded his head and waved his brown fedora hat. It was his first Philadelphia appearance since his speech before 110,000 in Franklin field, accepting his nomination last June.

As the president's special train pulled into the West Philadelphia station, a gaily-dressed mummers' band struck up "Happy Days Are Here Again," and the big crush began. Someone spied the president sitting in his car, there was an ear-splitting shout and several hundred pushed along the train platform.

Waitresses Wave Tablecloths

Through Market street and around City hall the party passed cheering thousands while ticker tape, torn paper and confetti fluttered through the air.

From one roof top waitresses waved tablecloths, much to the president's amusement.

Philadelphia police would make no estimate of the crowd. They just said "thousands." Camden police said the throng there was one of the greatest in the city's history.

Gives New Deal Credit

Speaking on the Civic plaza in Camden, late in the day, he gave the New Deal credit for heading business into the clear, providing more jobs and safer jobs, and helping to remove a "threat" to savings, investments, insurance policies and homes.

From the broad steps in front of the white-columned state house at Harrisburg, Pa., a few hours before he said the Republican "full dinner pail" slogan had been turned into "the empty market basket" and that "I am very confident the American people will go forward with those who are succeeding in filling it once more."

And from a platform built on a railway embankment on the edge of miners park at Wilkes-Barre,

School Elections Order Is Entered

Upon presentation of petitions signed by more than 20 eligible voters of each county in the districts affected, County Judge J. J. Dillard Thursday took judicial cognizance of a plea of Abernathy, County Line and of Harral County Line school districts for an election in the Lubbock and the Hale county districts to determine if they "in all things" may be consolidated for school purposes.

Judge Dillard ordered elections to be conducted in the school houses of the two districts Nov. 18 and designated W. E. Connell of Harral County Line and R. M. Hardesty of Abernathy County Line respective presiding judges, authorizing them to name their assistants, two judges and two clerks each.

The two districts are contiguous, and consolidation would "be for the best interests of the patrons of the public schools affected . . ." Judge Dillard set out.

"Simple Words Of Great President" Used By FDR

(By The Associated Press)

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 29—The text of President Roosevelt's rear platform speech here tonight follows:

Save for my own home state of New York, this meeting in Wilmington marks the close of my campaign.

It seems appropriate that on this occasion I should make no political speech because I can better describe the kind of liberty which our administration has sought and continues to seek, by reading to you the simple words of a great president who believed in that kind of liberty—the great president who preserved the American union. They are from the speech made by President Lincoln at the Sanitary fair in Baltimore in 1864:

"The world has never had a good definition of the word liberty, and the American people, just now, are much in want of one. We all declare for liberty; but in using the same word we do not all mean the same thing. With some the word liberty may mean for each man to do as he pleases with himself, and the product of his labor; while with others the same word may mean for some men to do as they please with other men, and the product of other men's labor. Here are two, not only different, but incompatible things, called by the same name, liberty, and it follows that each of the things is, by the respective parties, called by two different and incompatible names—liberty and tyranny."

I am still reading the words of President Lincoln—

"The shepherd drives the wolf from the sheep's throat, for which the sheep thanks the shepherd as his liberator, while the wolf denounces him for the same act, as the destroyer of liberty. Plainly, the sheep and the wolf are not agreed upon a definition of word liberty; and

Party Of Twenty-Three Lubbock Business Men To Make Tour To New Mexico Oil Center; Arrive At 11:50

Twenty-three Lubbock business men last night had arranged to make a goodwill trip to Hobbs, N. M., and three towns en route, leaving City hall at 7:30 o'clock this morning by bus.

The delegation had been arranged for a week ago as an expression of appreciation to citizenship of the towns for their support of Lubbock enterprises, but had been postponed because of weather and road conditions.

Stops Scheduled

Stops will be made at Plains, 9:30 o'clock; at Tatum, N. M., 9:45 o'clock mountain time, and at Lovington, N. M., 10:45 o'clock mountain time, before arrival at Hobbs at 11:50 o'clock.

Business men of the New Mexico city will join the boosters at a luncheon program in the Harden hotel ballroom. The Lubbock men are to return about 6 o'clock.

The following individuals were reported making the trip: A. R. Dalby, Roy L. Carmichael, W. O. Daniels, S. C. Wilson, E. C. Henley, Russell Morrison, H. D. Woods, Lennis Baker, Charles Smith, Alfred M. Coop, D. L. Cash, E. L. Klett, A. L. Ferguson, J. A. Williams, Morris Levine, J. O. Jones, Edgar Lewis, Cecil Horne, W. H. GOP Nominee Presents His Political Creed

Kansan Calls For President To State Within 48 Hours "His Purposes And Intentions" On The Constitution

Talks In New York

Three Questions Are Asked In Madison Square Garden By Republican Candidate; Asks For Roosevelt To Answer

BY WILLIAM L. BEALE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Gov. Alf M. Landon presented a nine-point political creed to the nation tonight and then closed his eastern campaign with a personal "challenge" that President Roosevelt state within 48 hours "his purposes and intentions" toward the constitution "he swore to uphold."

"The people of this country will not trust a man who does not trust them," the Republican nominee told cheering thousands in Madison Square garden." If he trusts them he will answer the questions being asked from one end of the country to the other.

Does He Favor Free Initiative?

"Does he favor reviving the principles of the National Recovery act? Or does he favor the American system of free initiative?

"Does he favor reviving the principles of the Agricultural Adjustment act? Or does he favor allowing the farmer to be lord on his own farm?

"Does he favor concentrating more and more power in the hands of the chief executive? Or does he favor a return to the American form of government?

"Tell Us Not In Generalities"

"These three things are inseparable. . . . Tell us where you stand Mr. President. Tell us not in generalities but clearly so that no one can mistake your meaning. And tell us why you have evaded the issue until the eve of the election.

"I leave my gage at your feet. My gage is the gauge of your confidence, Mr. President—your confidence in the American people.

"By the words that you speak in forty-eight hours, the American people will know the measure of your confidence and your duty and your faith in their wisdom."

Crowd Fills Arena

In the historic sporting arena was a crowd filling more than 18,500 seats, assembled to hear the Kansan make his final bid for New York's 47 electoral votes before heading westward for home. On a platform behind him sat party leaders including William F. Bleakley, candidate for governor in the empire state, and Theodore Roosevelt, jr.

In his address, the nominee reviewed his position as outlined in previous speeches, taking agriculture, industry, unemployment, social security, spending and the constitution in turn. After each summary he asked where Mr. Roosevelt stood and then gave his own reply:

"No One Can Be Sure"

"The answer is: No one can be sure."

Landon listed these "basic principles of my political creed:"

"I believe in our constitutional form of government—a government established by the people, responsible to the people, and alterable only in accordance with the will of the people.

"I believe in our indivisible union of indestructible states.

"I believe in the American system of free enterprise, regulated by law.

"I believe in the liberty of the individual as guaranteed by the constitution.

"I believe in the rights of minority as protected by the constitution.

"I believe in the liberties secured

Strike Likely On Coast Now

Negotiating Session Breaks Up In Disagreement Last Night And Hopes Fade For Settlement Of Dispute

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—A negotiating session between offshore shippers and sailors broke up in apparent disagreement tonight, and one federal official said a strike, threatened to be called at midnight, appeared likely.

"It looks like a strike," said Assistant Labor Secretary Edward F. McGrady, who attended the conference.

McGrady, who said he probably would communicate by telephone with Washington, would not reveal details of the conference, which involved the group of shippers who employ about 10,000 of the coast's 37,000 maritime workers.

It was indicated however, the offshore operators refused to negotiate "fundamental issues," of the sailors, involving demands for preferrential union hiring and cash instead of time off for overtime.

Coercion Of Labor Is To Be Probed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Senator LaFollette (Prog-Wis) said in a statement tonight that his senate labor sub-committee would start an immediate and thorough investigation of pay-envelope attacks on the social security program.

In a formal statement issued from his committee's headquarters here, La Follette said "the recent well organized and grossly misleading attack on the social security act bears all the earmarks of a malicious drive designed solely through mistatement of fact to coerce labor and invade the anctity of the ballot box."

La Follette's statement followed a shot at the social security program by the Republican national committee and the publication of a detailed explanation of the program by the Social Security board.

The party committee said in a statement that "women who work a few years and then marry are especially hit" by the act.

Fresh Mound In Morton Cemetery Veils County's Tragic Case; Society's Questions Go Unanswered

BY R. C. HANKINS
Avalanche Staff Writer

COCHRAN county earth Thursday afternoon was shaped into a mound over the still frame of L. O. Cooper.

Over a way is another fresh mound—marking the place of that which is mortal of Juanita Kelly—whose life was ended in violence and who, even in death, was not assured of the peace allowed the dead.

Cooper had been charged with her death.

He, like her, "went out" unnaturally.

He was buried only once.

She was buried twice.

Nine days she lay in a shallow grave in a sudan field. No requiem had been said over her who lay in a torn shroud of her own blood-steeped clothing.

Not even a prayer—unless a frantic, incoherent and breathless plea of a man begging that blood on his own hands not be discovered.

Juanita Kelly had been murdered.

Her body was discovered Monday and was removed to a cemetery where rites of the church were read.

L. O. Cooper did not confess to killing Juanita Kelly. He said someone else did. He knew where the murderous knife was hidden. And he had dug her grave.

He told no more. More effectively than he could have done by biting off his tongue he forestalled society's efforts to learn more from him.

He killed himself.

"Released to Sanders Funeral home," was the terse entry made in Lubbock county jail records by Deputy Sheriff Parum Posey, jailer.

More than 6,000 persons had been in the jail since the administration of Sheriff Tom Abel, since Jan. 2, 1933. Sixteen hundred the first year. Never a suicide in that time.

L. O. Cooper's last few hours did not indicate necessarily his intentions, unless his half-veiled statement regarding if he were

GRANDMA KNEW BEST

WE'VE been reading up on the value of a bunch of old-fashioned remedies for breaking up colds and the like, and we've decided that grandma wasn't so far behind the times as we always had thought.

For instance, modern physicians are declaring that when our grandparent prepared a mustard plaster to break up a cold in the early stages she knew what she was talking about. Grandma prescribed a mustard foot bath probably because of the lack of a bath tub.

The modern treatment consists of a tub full of water as warm as you can stand. Mix four heaping tablespoons of dry mustard to a thin paste with cold water and pour the mixture into the bath. Then get in and lie down restfully for ten or 15 minutes. Dry yourself gently and tuck yourself in bed.

You need not be afraid that the mustard bath will burn your skin. The doctors say you will only be conscious of a relaxing warmth. And you won't smell like a frankfurter either, they promise.

GIVE 'EM A HAND

GEORGE M. HUNT and Sanders schools are staging huge benefit carnivals tonight. Hours and hours of time have been spent in the planning of them. The mothers, the teachers and the children, working together, are going to pull a couple of good shows.

How about ambling over to one of the schools and leaving a few nickels and dimes in their various sideshows? You will be surprised at what a good time you will have and the kiddoes will appreciate it.

Also you will have a chance to observe something of the many accomplishments possible under the newest methods of teaching children in the public schools. Unless you have a child in school or have paid a visit to one or more of the institutions of learning, you will be surprised at the changes since your three R days.

School buildings, these days, only look the part on the exterior. Halls and the classrooms, well—you'll just have to see for yourself to appreciate them.

HERE'S THE ANSWER

IN the event you have been puzzled at strange voice or voices that have answered your telephone calls to the society desk, we are submitting an explanation.

Journalism students at Tech are working part time in the newspaper office for college credit. The society department rates two assistants a day from the seven or ten who are working in the office, a week at a time.

Three weeks ago, when the plan was innovated, we had Misses Lorena Owens and Betty Bizzell. Last week we had Misses Maxine Fry and Ruby Lee Leary. Now it is Misses Helen Sims and Futrelle McClain.

They've had plenty of thrilling moments and disappointments during their first week with the general public. In general, however, they found patrons of the society department very, very good natured, patient and appreciative.

Miss McCrery Goes For Unit

Official Representative Of Local Branch, Three Other Members, Dr. Ogdon Leave For Texas Convention

Four women representing the Lubbock branch of the American Association of University women and Dr. M. E. Ogdon, associate professor of government at Texas Technological college, left Thursday for Dallas to attend a state A.A.U.W. meeting which began last night and will last through Saturday.

The women were Miss Jonnie McCrery and Mrs. L. T. Patton, past president of the local branch; Mrs. William G. Dingus who is to conduct a panel on international relations, and Miss Maurine Cunningham who is to represent the recent graduate group of the Lubbock A. A. U. W.

Doctor Ogdon is to appear on the convention program.

Miss McCrery is to be the official representative from Lubbock since the president, Miss Margaret Weeks, is unable to attend. Miss Weeks recently returned from a two weeks' trip to Canada where she was called because of the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Patton's son, Bruce accompanied her.

Benefit Party To Be Given At Tech

The home economics club of Texas Technological college will sponsor a benefit bridge party Saturday to raise money for the Margaret W. Weeks loan fund. The affair will be held at the men's dormitory from 3 to 5 p. m.

Tickets may be purchased through Miss Weeks' office, in the home economics building, or from any home economics student, at 35 cents each. Arrangements for tables may be made with Maxine Burrus, chairman, or Willena Nelson, co-chairman of the arrangements committee. Refreshments will be served and prizes given in auction and contract bridge, and forty-two.

The loan fund sponsored by the club is used to help needy students registered in the home economics division. The money is lent at a low rate of interest to girls that are financially unable to register without it.

In addition to the benefit bridge party Saturday, the club girls will have their annual home economics sale in December. Pottery, glassware, linens and brass are placed on sale at that time, besides some handmade objects.

Next meeting will be November 11 in the home of Mrs. Allen at 1416 Avenue E.

Two Weddings Are Announced

Miss Gene Dubberly Marries Mat Harrington And Miss Inez Earl Marries W. M. O'Laughlin, Jr.

Word was received here this week of the marriages of two former co-eds of Texas Technological college.

Miss Gene Dubberly and Mat Harrington, both of Big Spring, were married Saturday night, October 17, in Colorado. They are at home in Big Spring where he is employed in the Cosden refinery.

Miss Inez Earl of Hamilton and M. W. O'Laughlin, jr., of Miami were married in Austin, October 18. The couple is at home in Miami after a wedding trip to Monterrey, Mexico. During the college homecoming celebration last week Mrs. O'Laughlin visted friends here.

The former Miss Dubberly was a popular member of local college circles, having been secretary of Las Chaparritas club in 1933-34 and of the 1934-35 sophomore class. She was candidate for the aggie rodeo queen in 1934.

She is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. Dubberly of Big Spring.

Mr. Harrington is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Harrington of Fort Worth.

Mrs. O'Laughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Earl of Hamilton, is a graduate of Tech and a former student of John Tarleton Agricultural college, Stephenville. She was a member of Ko Shari social club while here. Last year she taught public school music at Miami.

The bridegroom is a son of M. W. O'Laughlin of Miami. He attended a St. Mary's college and New Mexico Military institute, Roswell, and is now a rancher.

Green-Agee Rites Are Read In Plainview On Wednesday

Miss O. D. Agee of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Agee of Tipton, Okla., and L. B. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Green, 1913 Eighth street, were married in Plainview Wednesday night at 9:30 o'clock at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. J. Pat Horton of the Plainview First Baptist church.

After spending a week in Fort Worth and Dallas, the couple will be at home in Lubbock where Mr. Green is a public accountant.

Colonial Needle Club Has All-Day Meetnig, Luncheon

Members of the Colonial Needle club, meeting all day Wednesday in the home of Mrs. W. V. Lewis, 2705 Twenty-first street, planned an evening Christmas party, date of which is to be announced later. The day's entertainment included embroidering and crocheting and a program. A covered dish lunch was served at noon.

Special guests were Mrs. J. D. Sutton of Belton and Mesdames R. D. Harris and C. J. McCarty and Misses Marcelee Bowers of Bledsoe, N. M., and Muriel Lewis. Others attending were Mesdames Bill Deatherage, Bryan Landers, Mary L. Gardner, Ellis Martin, C. C. Taylor, J. D. Stoneham, B. F. Foster and G. L. Sutton.

The club will meet all day November 11 in the home of Mrs. Landers in the Arnett-Benson addition. Luncheon will be served at noon.

Three Officers Take Oaths At Pythian Sister Meeting

Mrs. R. F. Huie, most excellent chief of the Pythian Sisters temple, acted as installing officer Wednesday night when three members took oaths of office. The installation took place at a regular business meeting at the Knights of Pythias hall. Those going to office were:

Mrs. A. W. Brown, excellent junior; Mrs. J. R. Taylor, guard, and Miss Lucille Glaze, staff captain.

Others attending were Mesdames G. H. Ater, E. P. Norwood, B. F. Stephens, Elmo Payne, J. W. Phillips and H. B. Huddleston.

Carnival Spirit To Reign At Round-Up Celebration

The carnival spirit manifested by horns, caps, confetti and general noise makers, will reign at the annual Round Up Dance to be given tonight at the auditorium, said Fred Higbee, booking manager of the Round Up club.

Ross Edwards' orchestra will play. No advance in prices of admission will be made, Mr. Higbee said. The dance starts at 9 o'clock.

Russian peasants crown the prospective bride with a garland of wormwood, to denote the trials and bitterness of marriage.

Padre's Spirit Stalks Pueblo

Strange And Eerie Tale Of Priest's Body Rising Out Of Grave In New Mexico Church Is Recalled Again

BY JOHN E. BAKER

ISLETA, N. M., Oct. 29. (AP)—They say, in this little Indian pueblo on the Rio Grande, that the body of Padre Padilla once more has risen from its grave beneath the church of St. Augustine and that martyred priest's uneasy spirit walks through the village again.

Old men of the pueblo are sure of it. For has it not been 28 years since the padre last appeared, riding his great hollowed cottonwood coffin up through the floor of the ancient church, even as legend says he had ridden it often before?

Strange And Eerie Tale

The story, of Juan de Padilla martyred padre of the Gran Quivira, is a strange and eerie mixture of Indian myth and historical fact.

The legend of his periodic resurrections was well known in 1908, deeply believed by the Indians and Spanish-American natives, discredited by many others.

One day that year, worsnippers at the old adobe church noted a bucking of the floorboards near the altar. They were lifted—and there lay the coffin enclosing the priest's body, well preserved despite the passage of more than three centuries.

Waited And Watched

Padre Padilla was reinterred with solemn rites, and ever since the Indians have waited and watched for some sign of his return.

The present padre will not allow the floorboards to be taken up so the natives may see if Padre Padilla has risen again.

Juan de Padilla was one of the three priests who first entered New Mexico with the conquering Coronado. He was slain by rebellious Indians.

Cuyahoga county, Ohio, gets its name from the Cuyahoga river, the word being Indian for "crooked."

Voting Discussed At Club Meeting

The importance of voting was discussed by Mrs. Olive Fluke at a meeting of the Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club Wednesday night at the Hilton hotel. Songs by Mrs. Lottie B. Hilton and a Sketch by Mesdames W. O. Harbison, A. C. Sanders and Ann Groth were also included in the program.

The group voted to continue a "club sister" project.

Dr. Pauline Miller was a guest. Others attending were Mesdames Ray Jackson, Ruby Stewart, Vera Maxey, Harriett C. Johnston, H. A. Welmaker, Floe Swenson, Willie Brown, Allie M. Dyer, R. E. Wylie, J. J. Smelser, Bertha Stahler and Misses Ruth E. Ford, Carrie Little, Ruth E. Butler, Myrtle Porter and Lola Mae Rozzell.

Mrs. Johnston is a new member.

Special Awards To Be Given In Dallas Pigeon Race Events

DALLAS, Oct. 29. (AP)—Three silver cups and 21 special prizes will be awarded winners in the racing Homer class for pigeons during the observance of National Pigeon week, Oct. 30-Nov. 5, at the Texas Centennial exposition.

Walter Burton, exposition poultry director, said five classes would be arranged for likeliest flyers and four for old birds.

The exposition will sponsor the show in cooperation with the Texas Pigeon association.

Someone Jumps The Gun On Hallowe'en; Take Barber Pole

The hot water heater tank which had been painted and used as a barber pole at the Joe George Barber shop at 1114 Avenue Q was hauled away Thursday.

"It needed painting again pretty badly," George said. "If they'll paint it and bring it back, I'll appreciate it." George thinks because Halloween is near his pole may be found on a new shop somewhere.

Don't Pay Over 25c For Medicine Today and Tomorrow

To Men and Women Suffering From Poor Health—Here's Good News for You! Scientific Medicine Relieves Acid Stomach, Stimulates Flow of Liver Bile, Flushes Out Sluggish Kidneys, Relieves Nervousness and Constipation

Every person who suffers can have a liberal introductory bottle of the World's Newest Medicine to try for 25 CENTS. Simply read the offer below. Do this in your own interest.

This new and scientific medicine, known as Van-Tage, has already been used by 20 Million Sick People. Therefore, we offer the trial bottle at 25 CENTS, because we believe the people who are benefitted will keep on using it. The regular full-size price of this medicine is $1.25.

G. H. Mosby, Originator of the Van-Tage formula of 30 ingredients, who choose today and tomorrow to offer his medicine purely on a trial basis at a fraction of its actual value.

WHAT IT IS!

Van-Tage is a new, advanced medical compound of 30 medicaments, 21 of which are the Finest Natural Herbs, and not one a habit-forming drug. It is taken after meals and mixes with the food in one's stomach, thus throwing off the poisons that foster stomach troubles and stimulating the kidneys and liver to function more efficiently. It acts within 10 minutes to stop gas pains, sourness, bloat and belching. It will not gripe or nauseate you like ordinary liver medicine. It will work the bile from the liver as black as ink. At the same time Van-Tage drives the poisons from the kidneys and relieves backaches, bladder irritation and weakness. Often relieves children from bed-wetting in a few days, strengthening the nerves by natural means.

Now, whether Van-Tage will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will relieve your suffering in a day or a week—remains to be seen. But in light of what it has done for others, it is surely a mistake not to try it for 25 CENTS, only a fraction of its worth. This introductory offer is good Friday and Saturday ONLY, so read the rest of this announcement and act at once. Do this in fairness to yourself, your family.

What It Will Do!

Van-Tage will cleanse your bowels (gradually—not drastic or severe) as they were NEVER CLEANSED BEFORE.

It will bring out awful gases and impurities (frequently from the first dose) which may have been inside you a long time, causing you many days of misery with headaches, dizzy spells, skin eruptions and lazy, drowsy, tired feeling.

Van-Tage will relieve acid conditions and make the digestive organs sweet and clean and give quick relief from indigestion, bloating, sour stomach, shortness of breath and dyspepsia.

IT WILL give you the greatest appetite you EVER HAD IN YOUR LIFE.

Van-Tage will act as a diuretic to sluggish kidneys and flush out quantities of impurities that may have become dammed up inside, causing BACKACHE, SHARP PAINS and RISING AT NIGHT.

It will make your liver more active; will clear away old bile deposits, thus relieving spells of biliousness and sick headache.

Rheumatism is often caused by acid arising from stomach hyperacidity. Neuritis is also many times traceable to an acid stomach which poisons the nerves.

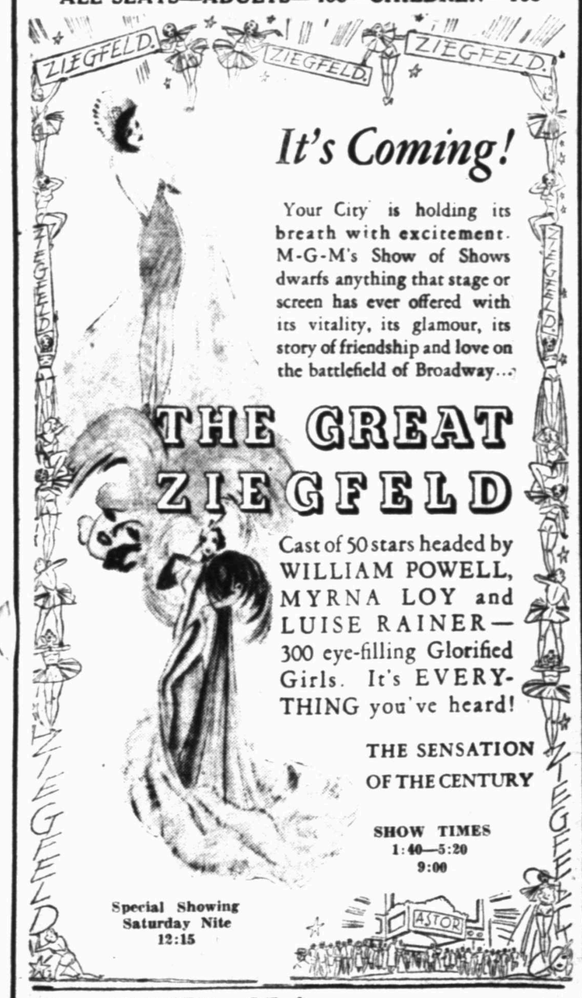

IT WILL clear up skin eruptions that are caused by the impurities in the organs, which overcome the sallowness or muddiness that is due to sluggish liver and will work to restore the ROSY GLOW OF HEALTH into your cheeks.

Van-Tage will act on your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, build you up in general and make you LOOK, ACT and FEEL like a DIFFERENT MAN or WOMAN, years younger than your real age.

To get your first bottle for 25c (Friday and Saturday ONLY) bring coupon to our store or send with 25c (stamps or coin) to Van-Tage Medicine Co., 1265 North Vermont Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., and medicine will be shipped postpaid.

Tech Students Are Given Aid

Employment, Scholarships And Loans Listed In Report Of College To Southern Association; 64 Get Scholarships

Employment, scholarships and loans which aided students in attending Texas Technological college during the 1935-36 session were listed in a report mailed to the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Dr. Bradford Knapp, Tech president, said Thursday.

Scholarships were issued as follows: 31 to highest ranking students in accredited high schools; 16 to veterans of the World war; 8 to sons and daughters of veterans of the World war (LaVerne Noyes scholarships); 7 Montgomery Ward and company scholarships; 1 Overton-Craig; 1 history scholarship given by Dr. M. C. Overton.

Employment Report

The report of employment showed that 204 men and 53 women students were employed by the college the first semester and 204 men and 48 women students were employed by the college the second semester. The National Youth administration gave employment to 339 students in the two semesters. The report estimated that 525 students were given work at places other than the college.

Loan funds under control of the college and number of students they helped were: Freshman, 24 students; Morrow, 121 students; Home Economics, 20 students; Engineering, no report. Other loan funds for benefit of students are existent but are not under control of the college.

The association provides each member college with information from reports from other members.

But They Keep On Dating Each Other

Eds And Co-Eds Express Their Opinions On Opposite Sex; Girls' Chief Defect Is "Financial Strain They Cause"

By FRED HARRELL

"THEY'RE all snakes," chorused the co-eds.

"They have red fingernails and are golddiggers," retorted the males.

And there you are!

So-eds and men students at Texas Technological college were interviewed on the question: "What idiosyncracies, habits, and oversights do you most dislike about the opposite sex?"

Conceit, Sloppiness, Whiskers

Conceit, sloppy clothes, need of a shave, jealousy, smoking, dirty fingernails, and uncombed hair were some of the other things that arouse the co-ed ire, while smoking, drinking, and chewing gum stir the male anger.

One girl complained that the eds were always broke, and a boy retorted by saying that the chief defect of the girls is the "financial strain they cause."

"Boys who are always fussing because I go with other boys get my goat," said a vivacious girl who evidently enjoyed great popularity, and another of the same type stated emphatically that "college boys don't know when to go home—I need to sleep sometime."

Girls Who Shifts Ring

"I despise the engaged girl who shifts her engagement ring to her right hand when she goes out on a date," cried a boy. "Also the girl who asks you one question and then fires another before you can answer the first one."

"Boys are all alike," condemned one co-ed, "they clutter up the halls so that we can't get by and they are always griping because they can't loaf all the time." She ended her blast by saying, "Otherwise they are a pretty fair bunch of boobs."

"Gang Up On Stairways"

"They gang up on the stairways"; "they talk too much and say too little", and "they are always giggling and gushing," were comments from various males.

"The better I know boys the more I believe in evolution," opined a brunette, while a redhead stated that she disliked college boys on general principles "if they had any."

One ed said that he didn't mind the girls smoking but he wouldn't marry a girl who smoked because "she would always be dropping ashes in the baby's cereal."

"Bragging about her dates with boys who have cars while you are taking her home on the bus, gets me," feelingly said one boy, while a co-ed said:

"Tech boys don't have cars."

Among the co-eds interviewed extremes of opinion were given by two young women.

"I don't like anything about them," said one contempuously to this reporter (a poor college male), while the other girl cooed happily,

"They all look good to me."

The battle between the sexes continues to rage seemingly with great viciousness but they keep on dating each other!

Comedians Are To Show Here Tonight

Offering "the greatest show on earth for the money", and on its twelfth annual tour of the nation, Billroy's Comedians will be in Lubbock for one performance.

A cast of 80 people directed by Billy Wehle, manager and producer, will perform in 15 vaudeville acts beneath a theater tent seating 4,000 persons to be located on east Broadway, just south of Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds.

Featured in the billing of the show, brought to Lubbock for the first time, will be "Daphne," fan dancer. Other entertainers are the well-known Palais Royale orchestra, musicians from Bouche's Villa Venice at Miami Beach, Fla., and dozens of chorines who will appear in numerous ensembles and fifteen exceptional vaudeville acts. A three-act comedy farce is also scheduled.

The big tent will be opened at 7:15 o'clock this evening, with an overture starting at 7:30 o'clock. The curtain will be raised at 8:15 for the show. Ladies are to be admitted free when accompanied by one paid adult ticket.

The organization comes to Lubbock from Sweetwater following a tour of East Texas and will proceed to Amarillo Saturday on a tour of the Panhandle before making a swing into South Texas.

Thirty-five cars, trucks and buses are required to transport the artists and dancers.

Favorable reviews of the show have appeared in numerous eastern newspapers, and the organization will have played from the tip of Maine to Mexico this year when it reaches South Texas.

Board Of Control To Confer On Financing Of Pensions

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—The board of control will confer with Orville S. Carpenter, state director of old age assistance, between now and Monday on financing of pensions for November.

Claude Teer, board chairman, said the board also would decide soon on a director under the new pension setup provided by the recent special legislative session.

Payment Of $3 On Per Capita Made

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—L. A. Woods, state superintendent of education, announced today a $3 per capita school apportionment had been mailed to depository banks. It was the first payment on the current $19 apportionment and was based upon 1,562,786 scholastics.

Patman Says Bill Is Aimed At "Captain Kidds" In Business

CHICAGO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Rep. Wright Patman (D-Texas) said today the recently-enacted Robinson-Patman bill "is aimed at the 'Captain Kidds' in business who have been detouring the Golden Rule."

In an address prepared for delivery at the annual convention of the Central Supply association, Patman asserted the act "makes effective the original intention of the Clayton act, viz; the prevention of direct or indirect price discrimination by the seller among his customers."

Winter Social Season Opens For Los Angeles Police Department Thursday

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—The police department's winter social season opened today. A reception committee of detectives went out to the gates of the city to form receiving lines, particularly along railroad tracks.

They were looking for a certain class of visitors—drifting, indigent unemployed. These visitors are expected to arrive here in increasing force as the climate grows harsher in the East. They will be escorted into town and introduced to judges of the City Hall set. Open house will be held at the City jail all winter.

Those who happen to miss contact with members of the reception committee on arrival will be met whenever possible by police within the city.

Police Chief James E. Davis and his ranking aides devised the program the other day.

Under his plan, the expected visitors will be booked principally on two charges, vagrancy and evading railroad fare. Vagrancy will apply to those who, having no relatives or job here, arrive without money or promise of a job. Evading railroad fare will be the charge against those riding trains into town without tickets, under any circumstances.

Those convicted will be sent to city prison camps. Chief Davis hopes for sentences of six months.

"I was run-down—

"... looked pale ... lacked a keen appetite ... felt tired ... was underweight."

"What did I do?"

"MY intuition told me I needed a tonic. Naturally, I am happy and grateful for the benefits S.S.S. Tonic brought me."

You, too, will be delighted with the way S.S.S. Tonic whets up the appetite... improves digestion... restores red-blood-cells to a healthier and richer condition. Feel and look like your old self again by taking the famous S.S.S. Tonic treatment to rebuild your blood strength... restore your appetite... and make better use of the food you eat.

S.S.S. Tonic is especially designed to build sturdy health... its remarkable value is time tried and scientifically proven... that's why it makes you feel like yourself again. Available at any drug store. © S.S.S. Co.

STOMACH SUFFERERS

If you are suffering from indigestion, atonic dyspepsia, sour stomach, gas pains, "raw stomach," inflammation of the intestines (entertis), gastric acidity and sick headaches, due to excessive acidity, you can't afford to ignore these warning signs. You should try at once the Doctor's Prescription, known as Gasa Tablets. If you allow these conditions to become worse, the acids may eat into the delicate mucous membrane of your stomach and intestine and possibly cause dangerous ulcers. Gasa Tablets are pleasant to take and they start to work in just a few minutes to give gentle, effective relief of pain and discomfort caused by excessive acidity. They soothe the raw, inflamed lining of the "acid stomach" and help convert starchy foods into dextrose, which is so essential to energy of the body, and preservation of health. Because of their remarkable success in many cases of acidity, and digestive troubles resulting from acid conditions, Gasa Tablets are offered now to sufferers under a guarantee that the first bottle must produce results or money back. For only a few cents a day, you may now have the benefits of this Doctor's Prescription which has helped so many other sufferers to a greater joy of living. Ask your druggist today for Gasa Tablets. Take just one or two of those quick-acting, soothing, antacid tablets and see how they help your stomach to "tackle a hearty meal." At John Halsey Drug Store.—(Adv.)

Eight Charged With Bribery

Officers On Cleveland, Ohio, Department Are Named In Indictments For Accepting Bribes In Prohibition Era

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28. — Eight police officers, from deputy inspector to patrolmen, were indicted today by the grand jury as the result of an investigation conducted secretly by Safety Director Elliot Ness.

Ness, a former federal alcohol tax unit operative, leader of the so-called "untouchables" who cut off the income of Al Capone, Chicago gangster, as he was charged with income tax evasion, described the police-underworld liaison as a "million dollar graft ring."

During Prohibition Era

The indictments alleged that the briberies occurred during the prohibition era.

The grand jury received evidence from Ness' investigation Oct. 8 after the safety director had ordered wholesale police transfers, suspensions and dismissals in a purge of the law enforcement department.

Indictments were returned against:

Deputy Inspector Edwin C. Burns, Captain Michael J. Harwood, Lieutenants John H. Nebe and Thomas J. Brady, Sergeant James Price and Patrolman Clarence H. Alberts, John W. Shoemaker and Gaylor Stotts.

The true bills alleged the officers solicited and accepted bribes from bootleggers for protection against arrest.

Beware The Cough

From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

Policeman's Slipping On Rug Results In Break-Up Of Vice Ring Operating In 6 States

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 29. (AP)—A state policeman's slipping on a rug in the Bethany Inn led to the arrest of 80 alleged participants in operations of a vice ring in six states, which the government contends did a $2,500,000 annual business.

Special Agent Leon G. Turrou of the federal bureau of investigation disclosed today that State Policeman Henry Mayo slipped on a rug in the parlor of the inn when he went there to pick up a defendant on a routine request from the White Plains, N. Y., police. He discovered a trap door beneath which two girls were hiding. This led to a series of raids in Connecticut and other states.

Thirty-two men and women have been convicted or await sentence on pleas of guilty. Four cases remain to be tried.

Two Are Charged Thursday In Forgery Cases; Both In Jail

Charged with forgery, two men who together face four counts, Thursday night remained in Lubbock county jail, one in lieu of bond, and the other having not been arraigned.

Naming I. M. Stevens, complaints were filed with Justice of the Peace J. T. Trigg, bond of $500 being set in each case. Deputy Sheriff Bedford F. Carpenter signed the complaints.

Ralph Nobles, who has served penitentiary sentences for forgery, was named in a charge filed with Justice of the Peace J. T. Inmon. Nobles had not been arraigned late Thursday afternoon. Nobles served one sentence for forgery when he was convicted in Lubbock about six years ago. He was arrested by police. Sam W. Fort signing the complaint Wednesday.

Japan May Be Given Query

League Of Nations May Ask Nation About Intentions To Organize Airlines Over Of South Pacific

(By The Associated Press)

GENEVA, Oct. 29.—Authoritative quarters said today Japan may be questioned on its decision to organize airlines over a vast expanse of the south Pacific.

The decision to connect Japan with its far-flung mandated islands below the equator, necessitating the construction of airdromes, was reported to the current meeting of the League of Nations mandate commission.

Has Not Relinquished Guardianship

Although Japan has resigned from the league she has not relinquished her guardianship over some 1,400 islands under a mandate which prohibits the erection of fortifications or the establishment of military or naval bases on them.

The question, therefore, is set in the mandate commission's lap, because of Tokyo's agreement to submit regular accounts of Japanese stewardship as though Japan still were a member of the League of Nations.

Japan inherited the islands in reward for her support of the allies during the World war.

Bank Clearings In U. S. Are Increased

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Bank clearings in 22 principal cities totalled $5,782,673,000 in the week ended Oct. 28, a gain of 19.5 per cent over clearings of $4,840,431,000 in the same week last year, Dun & Bradstreet reported today.

In the previous week clearings in the same cities were 7.0 per cent ahead of the 1935 comparative.

Thomas Cochran, Partner In J. P. Morgan & Co., Is Dead

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Thomas Cochran, partner in the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. died of a heart attack today at his home in Bedford Village, N. Y.

Cochran had been a partner in the Morgan firm since January, 1917. He was 65 years old.

A native of St. Paul, Minn., he came to J. P. Morgan & Co., from the presidency of the Liberty National bank. He was chairman of the executive committee of the Bankers Trust Co., and a director and member of the finance committee of Kennecott Copper Corp.

Four Bandits Get $10,000 In Haul

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29. (AP)—Four bandits held up two employees of the Burke Payroll Check service today in front of the company's office in the industrial district and escaped with $10,000 in cash, police reported.

B. V. Killian, a teller of the payroll check service, and Dorothy Tetro, cashier, were stopped by the four men as they prepared to enter the offices, Killian carrying a satchel with the money. The teller was armed, but he told police he had no opportunity to reach for his pistol.

The four bandits all wore dark glasses, the victims reported.

Health Had Been Constant Source Of Worry To Him

Then Gly-Cas Proves The Solution To Mr. Jacobs' Health Troubles. Has Returned To Work. Better Than He Has Been In Years

"For many years before I heard of Gly-Cas, I had suffered from stomach disorders so severe that awful indigestion would attack me after each meal," said Mr. G. C. Jacobs, 115 Oakland St., West Monroe, La. "I bloated so badly that it was difficult for me to get my breath. At times I became so dizzy I would be compelled to lie down to keep from falling. I had been unable to work for a year and was becoming more worried over my condition as my continuous experimenting with various medicines failed to bring me any relief. But when I began hearing so much praise for Gly-Cas I decided to give it a fair trial and was more than satisfied with the results it did give me."

"Gly-Cas is one medicine that can be depended upon to do just what it claims for itself," he continued. "My stomach and bowels were so regulated that I can eat anything I wish without any fear whatsoever of those awful after effects. I am never bothered with those distressing dizzy spells anymore and feel full of strength and energy better than I have ever felt in years, and am once more able to work. If all similar sufferers would give Gly-Cas a fair opportunity to prove its merit I feel certain they would obtain the good health I have been given through its use."

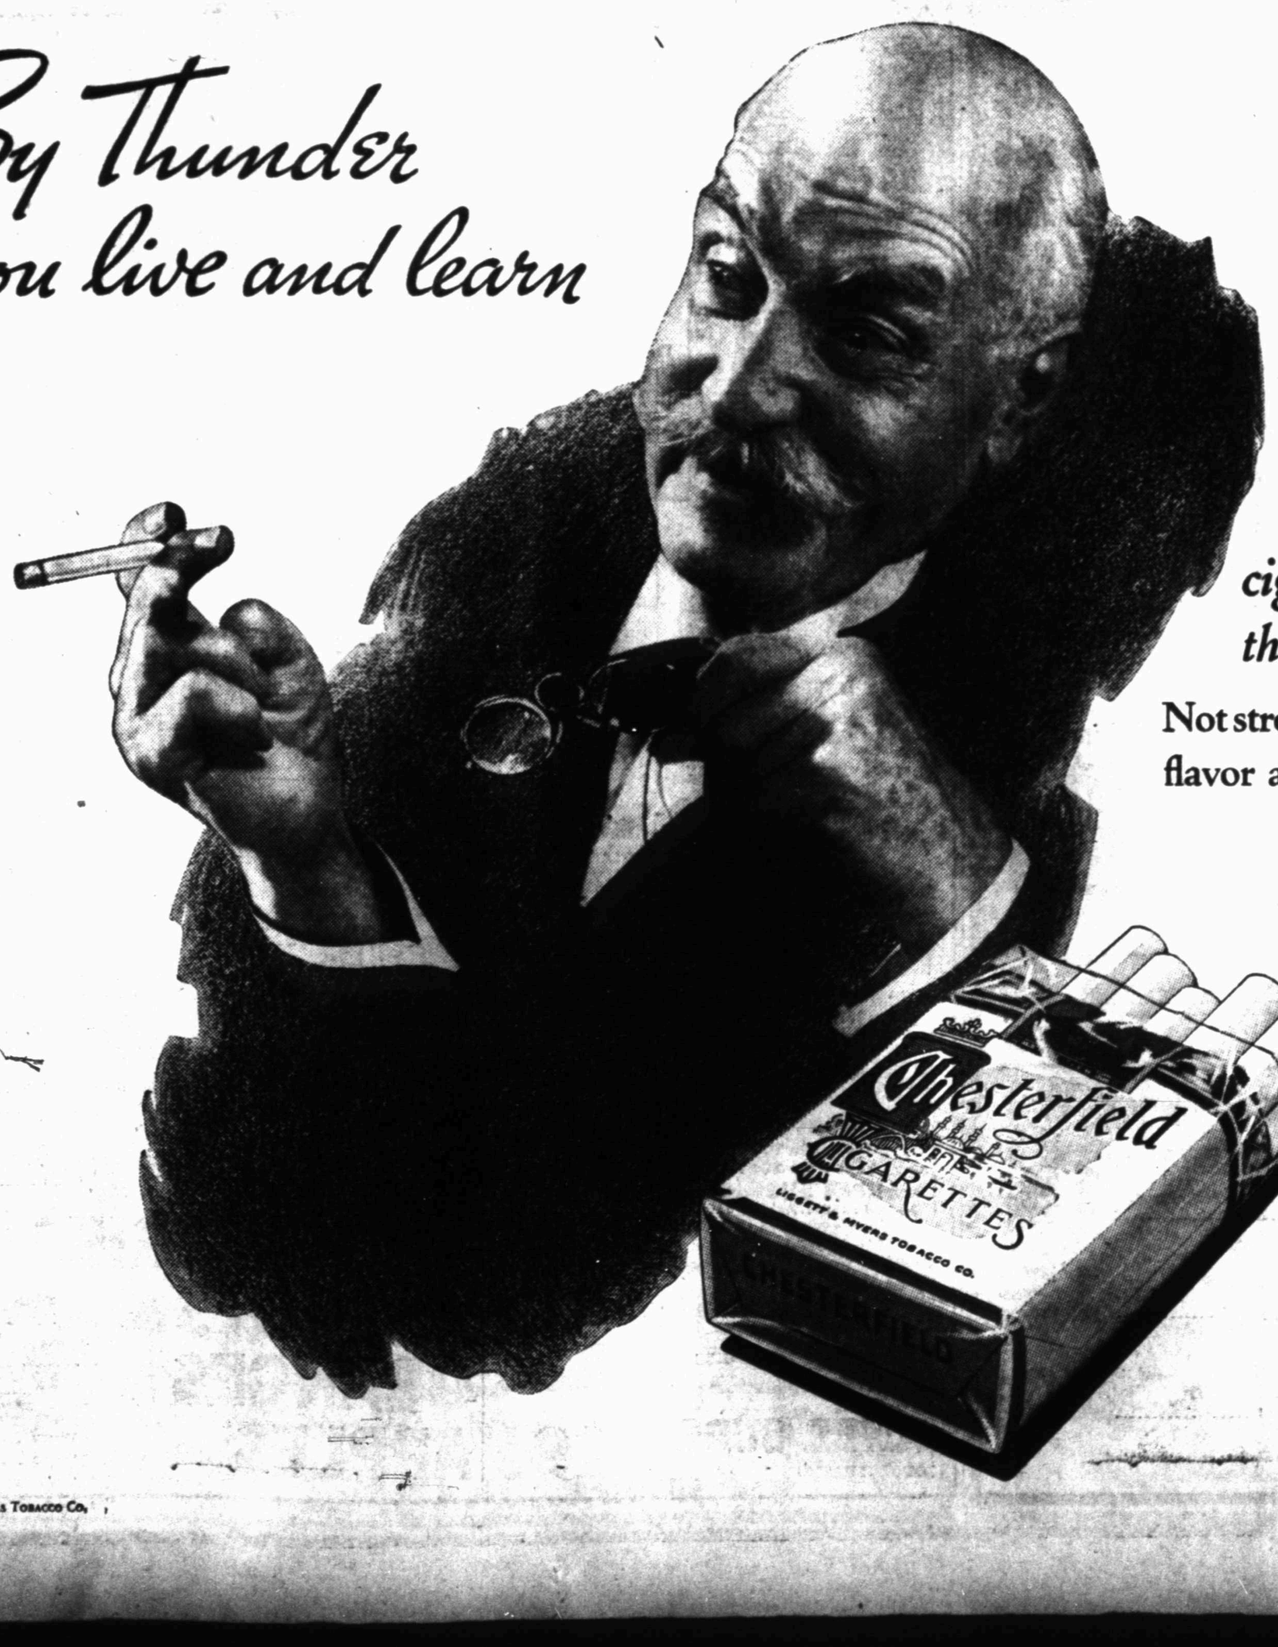

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Store, 1217 Broadway and by all leading drug stores in surrounding towns.

CCC Boys 'Digging In' For The Winter

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—With the coming of cooler weather, enrollees of the Civilian Conservation corps camps in the Eighth Corps area are busily engaged in "digging in" for the winter months.

Settling for the winter involves the reoccupation of winter camps vacated last spring so enrollees could be placed on special projects which could not be worked during the winter.

There are 35 camps in the Eighth Corps area being moved now from summer to winter locations.

Company 894, composed of white juniors is being moved to occupy Company 2875 at Canyon, Texas, in the Lubbock district, these juniors will occupy a camp which had previously been occupied by colored enrollees.

The negro enrollees from Canyon are being moved to various other negro companies in Texas as replacements for discharged enrollees, 60 being sent to camp SP-44-T at Fort Parker, Texas; 50 to Fort Sam Houston and 50 to the Fort Bliss district.

Day Of Prayer For Aid In Marking Ballot Announced

Guidance in selecting presidential electors in the Nov. 3 general election will be prayed for nation-wide today by churches of the Four-Square Gospel.

At Lubbock; as in the other churches, prayer will begin at 6 o'clock this morning and be concluded at 6 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Floyd Dawson, pastor, will speak at 2:30 o'clock on "Baptism of the Holy Spirit."

"Nothing partisan will be heard," said the minister. "We will give vent to no prejudice. We have as our object invoking of Divine assistance in dictating our choice. Our motive is based on: 'If my people which are called by My name shall humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sins and will heal their land.'"

County Clerk Ed Allen Falls For Old Gag; About To Issue "Hunting License" To Couple

Ed D. Allen fell for a gag that has whiskers.

After all, he'd been county clerk only a few years.

John C. Sanders, farmer living three and a half miles southeast of Lubbock towed in a man and a woman and said he wanted a "hunting license" for them.

Allen asked requisite questions as he filled out a blank. Name, age, height, weight, and color of hair and of eyes.

E. L. Gouge, 23, of Lubbock was asked to sign, and Allen tore out the blank and handed it over for the $2 fee.

"Do you want one, too, young lady?" Allen asked.

"No, we wanted to get married," said Miss Vera Read, 18, of Lubbock.

Oil Company Is Seeking To Buy Grapeland Area Holdings

DALLAS, Oct. 29. (AP)—Toddie L. Wynne, counsel for the American Liberty Oil company, said today the concern was negotiating for between 1,200 and 1,300 acres of oil land in the Grapeland area owned by Lawrence Haberle and others.

Wynne said the deal was not consumated. He did not name the sum involved but said the consideration was a "matter of development."

The attorney named Paul L. McBride, E. A. Ellison and A. P. Thornton as other owners of the tract.

Deer Hunter's Rescue Made

Young Salt Lake City Man Is Rescued From Ledge 1,000 Feet Above Canyon's Floor; Lay There 10 Hours

(By The Associated Press)

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 29.—A young deer hunter with a broken leg was rescued today from a narrow ledge 1,000 feet from the bottom of a granite studded canyon where he had lain 0 hours in the cold while bobcats prowled the nearby brush.

Lloyd Rawson, the 21-year-old hunter, a radio repairman, was sent hurtling to the precarious ledge Wednesday morning when a rolling rock knocked him over the brow of a cliff in the towering Wasatch mountains 15 miles southeast of Salt Lake City.

Reached Last Night

Rescuers, led by Rawson's brother and hunting companion, Joe 18, reached the marooned man about 7 o'clock last night but it was 3 o'clock this morning before they were able to get him to a hospital here.

From his bed, husky Hunter Rawson said today "I wasn't afraid, but it did get pretty cold up there."

"As night approached," he said, grinning, "bobcats could be heard stalking through the brush near where I was lying.

Brush-Crackling Ceased

"I built another fire and the brush-crackling ceased."

Previously, he had started a blaze to keep warm.

"Before I fell, I saw bear and mountain lion tracks in the snow."

Rawson fell over a 30-foot ledge landing on a steep slope. The boulder crashed on his left leg, breaking it in two places.

He said he rolled down the slope another 200 feet, lodging between two rocks and two pine trees on a two-foot ledge perched some 1,000 feet above the canyon bottom.

Built A Fire

He dragged himself from the rocky wedge that saved his life and built a fire from meagre kindling wood within reach.

"I whistled (a prearranged signal) for my brother Joe about 9:30 a. m. yesterday," said the bronzed youth. "Joe was some distance away, but returned the signal."

It was nearly noon yesterday when the injured man was found by his brother. Making him as comfortable as possible, Joe Rawson ran and walked seven miles for help.

Rope Themselves Together

The younger Rawson and four men who returned with him, roped themselves together to ward off disaster as they toiled through the heavy underbrush and around giant boulders.

The descent was a problem. A stretcher was useless. Rawson tied his legs together, sat on his heavy coat and "slid down the mountain." Rescuers guided him between the timber and boulders. The "toboggan" slide required four hours.

There were cheers from a group huddled, waiting, in the canyon.

A feminine voice cried, "Lloyd!" a woman ran to the stretcher. It was Rawson's bride of a month.

"Gee, honey," gasped the man on the stretcher. "I'm glad to see you!"

Townsend Attorney Plans To Give Radio Talk For Roosevelt

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Sheridan Downey, former personal attorney for Dr. Francis E. Townsend, announced today he would deliver a radio address tomorrow night in which he would urge Townsendites to vote for re-election of President Roosevelt.

Dr. Townsend has urged members of his clubs to vote for Gov. Alf Landon in those states in which the Union party candidate, William Lemke, will not appear on the ballot.

Boy Scouts News

Three additional Boy Scouts of the South Plains area council have signed to attend next years jamboree at Washington. They are Maurice Middleton and Wiley Hartman of Slaton and Caroll Clairborne of Lubbock, said Tom Carter, jamboree chairman.

Slaton has organized a new Scout troop, 29. Sponsor is Men's Fellowship class of the First Presbyterian church. Jerry Mudgett is scoutmaster, and John W. VanDyke is chairman of a troop committee that includes as members J. N. Hannah and R. L. Scudder.

Rehearsal of the southeast district of the council for a Scout circus in November was conducted late Thursday night at the Slaton gym. Troops from Post, Slaton and Tahoka participated.

Scoutmasters and their assistants of Lubbock will meet at 7 o'clock tonight at the home of Earl M. McClure, council executive, at 1906 Avenue T for perfecting Scout circus plans. McClure said Lubbock district will conduct rehearsal Thursday night at Tech gym.

Price Of Lead Reaches New Five-Year Top On Thursday

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—The price of lead was boosted to the highest level since 1930 and export copper reached a new five year top under a further wave of buying in metals markets today.

Lead was advanced $2 a ton by St. Joseph Lead Co. and American Smelting & Refining Co. The former named 4.85 cents a pound New York and 4.965 cents East St. Louis, and the latter 4.80 cents New York and 4.965 cents East St. Louis.

These prices, metal authorities said, were the highest witnessed since December, 1930, when the market was 5.10 cents a pound New York.

Fatal Day On Mart Recalled

Thursday Marked 7th Anniversary Of Most Tumultuous Crack In Stock Market's History; Quiet Now

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. — Today marked the seventh anniversary of the most tumultuous crack in the history of the New York Stock Exchange when an unprecedented total of 16,410,030 shares changed hands at sharply lower prices.

Conspicuous losses that day, which heralded spectacularly the start of the world-wide depression, were: American Telephone, $28 a share; Santa Fe, $17, General Electric, $28, and U. S. Steel, $12.

Trading today found activity, limited. Observers said the trading of the entire list might not exceed greatly the sales of General Motors alone on Oct. 29, 1929, when more than 970,000 shares of General Motors, alone, was sold.

RATIO AGREED ON

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—The railroad commission announced today operators in the Long Lake and Cayuga fields had agreed to a 5,000 cubic feet per barrel gas-oil ratio. The commission has not as yet issued an order on the experimental ratio.

Aggies Face Definite Test In Arkansas Game; Baylor, T.C.U. Tangle In Important Session At Fort Worth

BY FELIX R. McKNIGHT

DALLAS, Oct. 29. (AP)—Tied once, but still undefeated the Texas Aggies, temporary bellwethers of an unruly Southwest conference flock, have Arkansas's sky raiders to contend with Saturday in one of three conference games that will tell many stories.

Will the Aggies pass the half-way post in an 11 game schedule still undefeated? Will Southern Methodist, seeking its second straight title, stop the Texas Longhorns at Austin in their conference debut? Will it be Texas Christian or Baylor to sink into the second division after their Fort Worth game?

Who Knows The Answers?

Those are major questions confronting fans as the conference, already topsy-turvy, goes into its full schedule.

Injuries may hamper both the Aggies and Razorbacks at College Station. Sophomore Dick Todd, generator of the Cadet offensive machine, and Johnny Morrow, stellar end, are limping on bad angles but may start. Charlie Deware, center, and Joe Routt, All-America guard prospect, down with a knee injury and a lime burn, are other Aggie casualties.

Arkansas starts without Ken Lunday, the "hog-calling" senior center, out for two weeks with a broken finger, but Jack Robbins, Bobbie Martin and Allan Keen, three backfield terrors, have fully recovered from recent hurts and will be available. Their usual companion at the fullback slot, Jack Holt, will not play, however. Vann Brown, scrappy little ball toter, will take his place.

To Break "Repeat" Jinx?

A champion has never repeated in the conference but Coach Matty Bell's Methodists, impressive to date, have announced a jinx-breaking campaign this fall. With the exception of Jack Morrison, halfback out with a broken ankle, they will be physically ready for Texas. "Jarring John" Harlow, the sophomore halfback, has nursed a lame ankle back to normal and will probably start with Johnny Stidger, the Methodists' most likely successor to Bobby Wilson; Johnny Sprague and Bob Finley in the backfield.

Bumped twice in their only conference starts against Baylor and Rice, the Longhorns will be striving for their first victory in the fifth game of their back-breaking schedule. Drilled all week on a pass defense, the Steers likely will start with Wolfe, Atchison, Arnold and Mittermayer in the first string backfield.

Baylor, feared after their surprise victory over Texas and a scoreless tie with A. and M. last weekend in which they slightly outplayed the leaders, meets a Texas Christian team due to blow the lid off an offense that has been bottled since the Arkansas rout. Sammy Baugh, the eminent forward passer

Baylor's Crooning Quarterback To Get Ft. Worth Audition Saturday; Tells Why He Sings; Coach Snorts

That "quadruple-threat" quarterback of Baylor's, Lloyd Russell, is shown here picking up yardage with two of his threats. He kicks, passes, lugs the leather—and croons. Here it starts lugging the leather, with a lullaby for opposing linemen. Texas Christian university hopes Russell is off key tomorrow when the Bears invade Fort Worth for an important Southwest conference game.

BY FELIX McKNIGHT

WACO, Oct. 29. (AP) — Triple-threater Lloyd Russell, who can hit high "C" and an enemy line without dropping a note, is ripping off gains to his own vocal accompaniment in the Southwest conference again.

The Baylor university quarterback is no Bing Crosby but he likes to sing and does so on or off the gridiron.

Two seasons ago Russell broke into song as he romped away on a punt return against a tune-up opponent. Jinx Tucker, veteran Waco sports editor, caught a bar of two, fumbled at his typewriter and came up with a paragraph about the "crooning quarterback." It not only stuck—it spread.

Subconscious Singing

Fans flocked to the stadium to see and hear the slippery Russell in action—a youngster who could run touchdowns and the scales simultaneously.

Russell insists his vocal accomplishments have been greatly exaggerated and explains—

"I have a peculiar habit of calling signals after the ball is snapped, often after I'm tackled. Some of the opposing players have told me that just before I am tackled I start mumbling and singing. I don't willfully start singing, but I have caught myself doing it."

Head Coach Morley Jennings snorts when the subject is mentioned. He respects Russell as a triple-threater but when the extra "threat" of crooning is tossed in, he labels it "tommyrot."

But Russell doesn't object to being called the "crooning quarterback," a name that brought him a couple of radio offers, both declined.

The son of a mail-carrier, Russell ranks with the best of the Southwest conference backs, is one of the few 4-lettermen in Texas and one of the brightest young baseball prospects hereabouts.

Rumor says he is to have a fling in baseball under the guidance of the Cleveland Indians after his graduation from Baylor.

On top of all his other accomplishments, in baseball, football, track and basketball, he's a star performer with the textbooks — an honor student.

Class B Teams Of District In Four Conference Games Today

Lamesa May Take Lead In Game With Tahoka; Brownfield Is At Post; Littlefield And Olton Go Calling

It is a big weekend for Class B grid teams and their fans of District 5, what with four conference games and a "bi-district" contest scheduled today and tomorrow.

Here's the shedule:

FRIDAY GAMES

Olton at Crosbyton, 3 o'clock.

Littlefield at Ralls, night game.

Brownfield at Post, night game.

Lamesa at Tahoka, afternoon game.

SATURDAY GAME

Roscoe at Slaton, night game.

All the teams in the southern division of the district are occupied, and all but Levelland in the northern group are scheduled.

The Olton-Crosbyton game was postponed from last week due to almost unplayable weather and field conditions at Crosbyton. The game is to start at 3 o'clock on the Crosbyton field this afternoon.

May Decide Title

Littlefield plays at Ralls in a game calculated to have definite bearing on the district race. Coach Bill Sanders Wildcats, pre-season favorites to cop the northern division and as yet unbeaten, nevertheless is not a heavy favorite over Ralls, which played a scoreless tie with Levelland last week. Ralls was winner in its first game and was tied for the lead with Littlefield until last week's game.

In the southern group, Lamesa and Brownfield are expected to come through over Tahoka and Post respectively, although Post may

Lubbock Meets Borger In Big Game Of Week

Tied For Lead In District 1, Westerners And Bulldogs To Settle Question Saturday At Texas Tech Field

Lubbock high started tapering off Thursday for the game with Borger at Tech field tomorrow afternoon. Aside from one or two injuries the Westerners are ready to go.

The locals are not underrating the visitors at all but are expecting to battle from beginning to end.

Borger's record thus far in the season is anything but heartening to the Westerners, even though they do rate slight favorites.

BORGER ACE INELIGIBLE

BORGER, Oct. 29. (AP)—Plainview and Borger interscholastic football officials were at odds again tonight over the eligibility of a player.

The status of Lewis Ramires, ace Borger halfback, was at stake. Borger school officials have a birth certificate from Carichic, Mexico, showing his birthday to be June 21, 1918, and Plainview has one from Chihuahua showing the date to be June 21, 1917.

It was indicated that the Borger school will probably send a man to Mexico in time to determine Ramires' status before the Lubbock-Borger game Saturday.

Borger Comes Forward

Always a weak sister in District 1, the oil eleven is enjoying a good season. Victorious in their first start in district competition the Bulldogs are out for blood this week.

Lubbock is seated in the top position with Borger. Tomorrow's melee will decide which of the teams will give Amarillo the best fight for district honors.

The 1934-1935 state titleholding Sandies will come to Lubbock for the annual classic November 11.

After running his boys through some hard practices earlier in the week, Coach Weldon Chapman confined Thursday's drill to less sanguine efforts. The workouts this week have been concerned chiefly with developing a good defense for the diversified attack that is expected of the Borgans.

The team brushed up on its pass defense for a long period yesterday, with the second team tossing the ball to every nick and cranny of the field. The linemen were given some polishing on both offense and defense.

Signal practice consumed a good part of the afternoon as the boys went through their paces on plays designed to stop the Bulldogs.

Choice seats have reserved fast since tickets were put on sale Tuesday at the Hub Clothiers. Reservations should be made at once by those who would like to see the game from a good position in the new Tech stadium.

The Bulldogs will arrive in Lubbock tonight, to be followed tomorrow by a host of Borger fans, band and pep squad. The visiting band will parade downtown beginning at 1:30.

GENTLEMEN TO RIDE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 29. (AP)—Churchill Downs will open its fall meeting tomorrow with charity day program headed by a race for gentlemen riders. Six other events are scheduled.

Raiders Idle This Week But Keep Up Pep; Aggie Eleven Is Next Visitor

Coaches Hope Spirit Not All For Lions And Coast Trip

The old pepper and spirit that dominates Texas Tech football workouts just before an important game is holding its own this week, although there is no game until a week from this afternoon.

Tech coaches, however, hope all the chatter isn't being dedicated to the November 11 game at Los Angeles, because between now and then comes a home game of more than medium importance.

Coaches Pete Cawthon and Dutchy Smith are not exactly sullen, but they're solemn enough, and don't mind telling you that they're a bit shaky lest their charges will come another cropper like that at Wichita, Kansas, a few weeks ago. The coaches called the turn on that game, a week ahead, sensing that the boys were not in the correct frame of mind.

Work On Aerials

Considerable respect is held for Coach Tex Cox and His Oklahoma Aggies, who move in next Friday. The Aggies' work in recent tilts justifies the respect.

Both offensive and defensive measures were practiced in yesterday's drill, with considerable time devoted to passing. Jim Neill divided time with Ed Smith and Demp Canon in the gunning department, indicating that the Red Raiders will be loaded for ducks when the Aggies present themselves.

With fair weather prevailing Tech may take to the air more seriously than heretofore, which means a lot of aerials if the Centenary game, played in the mud, is a basis of comparison.

Alabama Poly Is Greeted On Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Appearing fit and ready despite a tiresome transcontinental journey, Alabama Polytechnic football players arrived here today to prepare for their intersectional battle Saturday with University of Santa Clara.

Coach Jack Meagher led his squad of nearly 40 men off the train and into a series of receptions, topped off by a luncheon, but the ceremonies were interrupted for a brisk workout in early afternoon.

The group from Auburn, including players, coaches, newspapermen and rooters, were officially welcomed at Mayor Angelo Rossi's office.

Coach Meagher declined to comment on odds favoring Santa Clara 10-9. He said his advance reports described the Western team as big, fast and well stocked with reserves.

The game, bringing together an undefeated eleven from the old South and the only unbeaten, untied major Pacific Coast team, is expected to outdraw the conference engagement between Washington State and California across the bay Saturday in Berkeley. Santa Clara officials estimated a turnout of 35,000 fans.

Oklahoma Aggies Aim Anti-Aerial Guns At Enemies

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 29. (Special)—Face to face with their third and probably hardest Missouri Valley conference game of the 1936 season Saturday afternoon at St. Louis, Mo., Ted Cox's Cowboys are digging in at practice sessions this week, hopeful of overcoming the favored Washington University Bears.

Coach Jimmie Conzelman's lads from the Mound City, crippled by injuries from close battles with Illinois, Notre Dame, and Boston college, displayed an amazing pass attack last weekend, although being nosed out by Drake university, 18-20. Bucking Joe Bukant, Washington fullback, is a major league pitching star and was in fine form last week.

It is expected that the Bears will depend on an aerial attack for victory against the Aggies.

The Cowboys weak on pass defense as the season opened, have snapped out of their lethargy. In the last two Valley games with Washburn and Tulsa, these two teams completed but five out of 31 passes attempted, the Punchers intercepting nine. If such a defense can function this weekend while the Aggies roll on their ground attack Ted Cox's boys may have a chance in Washington's Homecoming clash.

Twenty-eight players, the coaching staff, and trainers were to leave Stillwater by bus Thursday noon, planning a workout at Claremore the same day, stopping overnight at Joplin, Mo. The squad expects to arrive in St. Louis some time Friday afternoon.

After the game Saturday afternoon the Aggies will come as far as Rolla, Mo., returning to Stillwater Sunday.

Mack Garner, Famous Jockey Who Rode Cavalcade, Dies

COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 29. (AP)—Mack Garner, one of four brothers who won acclaim as jockeys, has ridden his last race. He died last night in the "home stretch" of his career in the saddle at the age of 36.

During his 23 years on American tracks, Garner "booted home" more than 2,000 winners and earned well over $2,000,000.

Stricken with a heart attack upon his return last night from River Downs (formerly Coney Island) track at Cincinnati, Garner was hurried to a hospital where he died at 10:01 o'clock (c.s.t.)

Garner was astride Cavalcade when he won the Kentucky Derby in 1934.

During his long activity he straddled 7,695 mounts, exclusive of this year, and came in first 1,299 times.

Grid Hallowe'en

It's Hallowe'en every Saturday for Andy Roddenberry, University of Georgia quarterback. Andy, suffering from a broken nose, has to wear a special mask to protect his face. Here he is with the awesome helmet that any youngster would be proud to wear on Oct. 31, the night the witches cavort.

FOR ROSS CHALLENGER

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—The No. 1 challenger for Barney Ross' welterweight crown is expected to come out of tomorrow night's fisticuffs at Madison Square Garden.

Celferino Garcia, hard-hitting Filipino from Los Angeles, goes against Izzy Jannazzo, pride of New York's east side, in a 15-rounder. Ross has agreed to meet the winner in a title bout November 27.

Gophers To Be "Given Works"

Northwestern To Open Up With Hitherto Concealed Bag Of Tricks In Minnesota Scrap At Dyche Stadium

CHICAGO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Northwestern's heaviest gridiron artillery, silent all season, will roar against Minnesota Saturday in full fury.

Northwestern has mowed down four opponents using a half dozen plays. The Wildcats have tricky elaborations and other stuff Minnesota's eagle-eyed scouts have not seen. Coach Lynn Waldorf has kept them a squad secret.

Every secret the Wildcats have, everything in the arsenal, will be touched off before a throng of 47,000, all Dyche Stadium will hold, in the battle that figures to settle the Big Ten championship and may alter the national "title" situation.

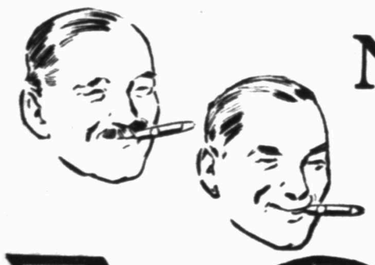

Against Iowa, North Dakota State and Illinois, Northwestern won on excellent kicking and power smashes inside the tackles. Coming from behind to conquer Ohio State, the Wildcats were forced to unlimber heavier guns, and demonstrated they had them by executing a smart lateral-forward passing play for the winning touchdown.

The Gophers will get a look at

Wall Street's Earnings Rise

Optimism Is Reflected In New Reports Being Made In Past Few Days; Business Picture Shows Improvement

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—When directors of the United States Steel corp., plumped down the most favorable third quarter earnings statement in six years, they started Wall Street on a serious review of mounting industrial earnings in general and other indices in the improving business picture.

Allowing for the deterring factors that do not always show in the bare figures, business observers found these statistical grounds for optimism in the flood of company reports of the last few days:

Profits Are Shown

1. September quarter earnings of 172 companies in all branches of industry showed combined net profits of $226,353,400, an advance of 55.6 per cent over the $145,384,383 earned in the third quarter of 1935.

2. Twelve steel companies reported for the quarter net income of $23,394,473, against only $2,085,794 last year, an increase of 912.1 per cent. Statisticians warned that noting percentages of increase account must be taken of transfers from loss to the black ink side of the ledger.

3. Net operating income of 40 railroads rose 19.6 per cent in September over that of a year ago, with $48,873,000 earned against $40,873,000. Estimated net operating income of class one roads was placed at $27,000,000 for the month against $13,500,000 in September, 1935, a 100 per cent rise.

Bethlehem Steel Has Highest Since 1929

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Directors of Bethlehem Steel corp. today declared regular dividends on both preferred stocks and reported the highest thir dquarter net income since 1929.

highest third quarter net income increased to $4,575,058, equal to 84 cents a share on the common stock, compared with $3,431,391 or 49 cents a share in the second quarter and $701,616 in the third quarter of 1935.

Class B Games

give Brownfield considerable trouble. Lamesa is tied with Slaton for the lead, each with two victories and no defeats. The teams clash November 11, possibly for the championship.

Champions Meet

Slaton's game Saturday night is due to attract a large crowd as defending champions of two districts meet. Roscoe won the District 6 title last year and played Slaton in the bi-district celebration.

In District 4, two important games are scheduled, as the four southern division teams tangle in conference games. Spur, which upset the defending champion Matador team, engages Floydada in what may determine the division championship. The game is booked for tonight.

Matador plays at Paducah in another important fray. Victory by Paducah would virtually elliminate Matador from the race, while a Matador victory would throw the situation into a tied-up affair, especially if Floydada were to defeat Spur.

In the northern group of District 4, Flomot plays at Silverton. The schedules for Quitaque, Turkey and Lockney are not known.

that tricky maneuver and a lot of others.

Where Minnesota has a legion of stars—Andy Uram, Rudy Gmitro, Bud Wilkinson, Dwight Reed, Ray King and the rest—22 Wildcats will share the terrific burden of trying to halt the Gophers' winning streak short of 22 straight. Waldorf has a big squad, but against the nation's ranking football power, only a few more than the top 22, belong on the same field with Bierman's mighty men.

Carl Hubbell Better Hurler Than Dizzy Dean, Says Famous Official

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29. (AP)—"Beans" Reardon, after another season of umpiring in the National league, came back home for the winter and spread a word of praise for Carl Hubbell, Giant pitching star.

"Hubbell is a better pitcher than Dizzy Dean, only Dizzy puts up a big speech and commands attention," Reardon says. "Hubbell never says a word on the mound. He takes the good breaks with the bad without a smile or a frown."

"Beans" recalled a close play he called in the 17th inning last summer that cost Hubbell a game with St. Louis.

"I ruled that the man sliding home with the winning run was safe because Catcher Gus Mancuso was off the plate. Mancuso says 'Phewie, that's terrible,' and Travis Jackson gets mad and puts on an act on the field, but Hubbell doesn't say a word and walks off to the dugout.

"The next day," Reardon continued, "Mancuso comes over and tells me that when Hubbell went into the dressing room he informed the boys I'm not a highwayman because he saw with his own eyes that Mancuso was not covering the platter.

"Yes, sir, that Hubbell is a fine fellow and a great pitcher."

New York State Commission Takes First Step In Drive To "Clean Up Wrestling"

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP) — The first step in a brand new campaign to "clean up wrestling" has been taken by the New York State Athletic commission.

Calling in every matchmaker in the city, the commission laid down the law respecting loose methods, then showed it means business by clapping a $1,000 fine on one club for rule infractions.

This club, The Coliseum, admitted it advertised a card featuring Ed (Strangler) Lewis recently, then substituted a wrestler for Lewis without notifying the public.

Bill Harkin, Coliseum matchmaker, said he guessed his press agent forgot to inform the newspaper of the change.

This was too much for Commissioner Bill Brown. Banging his fist on the table, he shouted:

"We'll either clean up this mess or get off the job. I'll not be a party to any such goings on."

"Neither will I," agreed Chairman John J. Phelan. "We'll get to the bottom of it."

New Mexico Military Plays Portales Team On Saturday

ROSWELL, N. M., Oct. 29. (Spcl.) A hard-fought game is expected here Saturday between the New Mexico Military Institute Broncos and the Greyhounds from Eastern New Mexico Junior College of Portales, as both teams will be seeking to get back into the victory column after gridiron defeats last week-end.

The Broncos were defeated, 13 to 7, on a fourth quarter touchdown by the University of New Mexico Lobos at Albuquerque last Saturday, after upsetting the New Mexico Aggies the week before, while the Greyhounds were nosed out, 3 to 0, by the New Mexico Normal University Cowboys before a Homecoming crowd at Las Vegas.

It was also by a 3 to 0 count that the Greyhounds defeated the Broncos here last year, and the Cadets are determined to avenge this defeat in next Saturday's tilt. They will also be seeking to keep their home record clean, having won all three games they have played in Roswell this season.

out for the last 10 days with a lame ankle, will start "on the mound" for the Frogs with David O'Brien, capable soph reserve, ready as "relief pitcher."

The veteran Baylor backfield of Lloyd Russell, Carl Brazell, Bob Masters and "Bubba" Gernand will have one replacement, Patterson probably starting for Brazil, ill with a cold. Blue, tackle, and Boyd, end, will see it from the sidelines also, injuries keeping them out.

Rice Institute, perking up after victories over Georgia and Texas, rate on even terms with George Washington, powerful Washington, D. C., eleven, in the day's lone intersectional game at Houston. The Colonials recently sent Arkansas home with a 13-6 licking.

"ALL-BRAN KEEPS ME IN SHAPE EVERY DAY"

"When I had eaten a heavy breakfast, I would feel logy. After a couple of days of this, I would have to take a laxative.

"One morning I had a dish of ALL-BRAN. Believe me, it beats any laxative, as it keeps me in shape every day."—Wm. C. Billings, 1330 19th St., Denver, Colorado.

Why put up with half-sick days, when a delicious cereal will make you feel so good? Because ALL-BRAN has "bulk" which absorbs moisture within the body. Then gently sponges out your system, wipes away the listlessness, the "blues," the headaches.

Arizona Star To Be Out Of Scrap Against Kansans

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 29. (Special)—Arizona university's Wildcats will face the Kansas university Jayhawkers in Lawrence minus Ken Knox, Chandler, Ariz., all-conference quarterback and Tex Oliver's most powerful offensive blocker, who received a broken shoulder in the New Mexico Aggie game here on Saturday, Oct. 24.

Victory over Jerry Hines' Aggies which came in scoring figures, 28 to 7, now appears extremely costly to the Cats who entrain today without their prize package of dynamite who has started nearly every game since he was a sophomore two years ago.

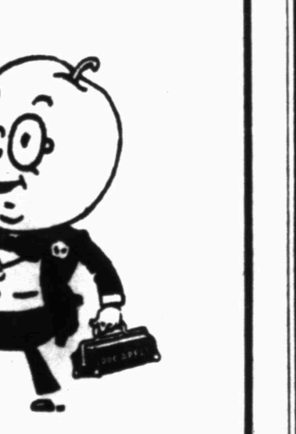

Oliver entered his training period here Monday afternoon with the task of finding a capable replacement for Knox, whose injury will keep him from play during the remainder of the season. Sam Tucker, Santa Ana, Calif., 165-pound reserve in the position is believed somewhat light for regular duty. Roy Wigley, Chandler, Ariz., a sophomore, lacks experience although he is somewhat heavier than Tucker; lighter yet than Knox who weighs 190 pounds.

The Arizona Wildcats romped through their game here with the New Mexico Aggies with apparent ease in a contest in which at least 30 men were used. Oliver substituted freely in the backfield and to a great extent 'n the line, yet the Arizona attack never slowed down. Using a ground attack for the most part, the Arizona backs shoved over 341 yards of gridiron while the visitors were forced to content themselves with a paltry 43.

The Aggies completed 13 out of 22 passes in displaying a dangerous aerial attack. They drove over 157 yards by air and earned their single touchdown by that method. Arizona's pass defense however proved more than equal to the visitors uncanny ability to toss accurately and incessantly.

Frenship And Roosevelt To Meet At Wolfforth Today

WOLFFORTH, Oct. 29. (Special)—In a game calculated to have important bearin gon the Class C race in District 20, teams of Frenship and Roosevelt clash here at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Neither team has been defeated in conference competition, each having won from Cooper. Coach Trenton Davis' Frenship team is a slight favorite to take its home contest. Frenship meets New Deal at Monroe on Nov. 6 and plays Petersburg at Wolfforth Nov. 13 to wind up its schedule.

Be Careful While Hunting

DEER hunting season has started in a number of our western states, including our neighboring state, New Mexico.

It will not be long now until scores of Lubbock and South Plains hunters will be setting off in search of the festive buck in this and nearby territories, including Old Mexico.

But already the old bugaboo of deer hunting has been stumbled over.

Already 36 hunters have been shot by mistake—either theirs or the other fellow's—and 18 of the 36 have been taken for a deer in spite of the fact that they were two-legged and were wearing red caps!

As for the other victims, 10 shot themselves by accident, four were drowned in the heat of the chase and four just naturally got so excited over it all that they just fell dead from heart or some other trouble.

This casualty list gives the sport of deer-hunting a grim and hazardous aspect which makes a supposedly dangerous game such as football look like a quiet afternoon at home with a solitaire deck.

This is a big country, but it is beginning to look as if it had become too small for promiscuous use of high-powered rifles. There are still some great open spaces, but in many sections the hunter finds it almost impossible to get out of range of his fellow-hunters' guns.

Remember all this when you sally forth to New Mexico, Old Mexico, the Kerrville or the Davis mountains sections of Texas. The chances are you will come back alive, but it won't hurt you to watch your step.

STILL 'ONE UP' ON GERMANY

If you listen to the radio you probably are ready to side in with millions of other down-trodden souls who have arrived at the conclusion that, thanks to the big chains, these are times to try men's souls.

Let a citizen tune in at almost any hour for music or other light diversion, and almost surely he will be greeted by the stentorian blast of some orator or other, decrying the works of brain trusters or economic royalists.

Probably the only thing that keeps the average listener-in from picking at the covers is the fact that he can blot out the voices of the speakers merely by twirling a dial.

But if he is aggrieved over this state of affairs, he might consider a news item out of Stuttgart, Germany. A baker of that city has been deprived of his tradesman's license and arrested, and will be tried on a charge of sedition, because he turned off the radio during a speech of Chancellor Hitler.

Despite our tribulations, we're still well ahead of our German cousins!

WITH OUR CONTEMPORARIES

"Of all the nerve of the female this editor's wife has it," complains Jess Mitchell, sage of Hurley, in the Muleshoe Journal as he recovers from the jitters of too much New Mexico and not enough Texas. "A few days ago her baldheaded husband accompanied her to a picture show, and while sitting demurely by his side, she had the unmitigated nerve to remark: 'what beautiful hair that movie hero has!' Shades of Inferno."

"When a town the size of Littlefield makes up a train of 17 cars, and includes a baggage car loaded with roasted whole beeves and other food to feed 500 children, it's a headline story in any newspaper," John A. Price, the "daddy" of the recent special to Dallas Centennial, reports. "And that's just what the Centennial special to Dallas last week end was in the eyes of the Dallas News, the Lubbock Avalanche and dozens of other papers over the state, whose editors and state editors grabbed the story." (It was a good stunt for Littlefield, and for any much larger than your town, John.)

"Fear of ridicule is the great barrier to progress," Douglas Meador points out in the Matador Tribune. "The world is yet stumbling through darkness because men hesitate to declare their thoughts and perfect their dreams, preferring rather to follow the known trails than the chatter of monkeys and the laughter of hyenas in the jungle surrounding a new idea."

BEGIN HERE TODAY

KATE and CAROLINE MEED live on a blue Grass farm with their grandfather, MAJOR SAM MEED, and two old Negro servants, ALTHY and ZEKE. Kate is engaged to handsome MORGAN PRENTISS, who neglects her for EVE ELWELL, beautiful and wealthy.

Major Meed has mortgaged the farm and the mortgage is foreclosed by JEFF HOWARD, a bitter young mountaineer, who decides to settle among the Blue Grass people he hates.

As the Meeds are packing, Kate encounters Jeff and treats him rudely. He responds with insolence. The Meeds move into a dilapidated tenant house and Morgan Prentiss sends Kate three dozen roses. Having no vases, Kate has to put them in a milk can on the back porch. Morgan comes to call, sees the roses in the milk can and is selfishly offended.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER X

Jeff Howard paid his landlady, gave directions for the forwarding of his trunks and boxes, got into his car and drove away.

He was on the way to the Blue Grass farm that was to be his home. One day during the past week he had visited the place, and that brief visit, punctuated by the insolence of a bronze-haired girl, had whetted his appetite for complete possession.

Today he would receive the keys. Today he could walk unchallenged through the rooms and halls, could open the great front door and step out on the porch with the fluted white columns, lord of all he surveyed.

He arrived before noon and drove his long, noiseless roadster into a lane that led to the barn. In the yard near a side porch he could see two wagons being loaded; he would wait. Very quietly he made his way to the barn.

The emptiness of the big stable affected him queerly. All the things that usually encumber such a place were gone—ropes, halters, saddles and bridles, hay, pitchforks, curry combs, even hens' nests were absent. Yet two horses remained in their stalls, tied by halters to the mangers. Jeff went near and looked at them. By the lean, sinuous build of them he knew them to be riding horses. The little black mare let him stroke her head, but when he put out his hand toward the bay, he lunged.

At that moment a small Negro boy of uncertain age entered the stable and approached the stalls. Seeing the tall stranger there, he stopped in his tracks to stare at him.

The man said shortly, "I'm Mr. Howard. I own this place now."

"Yessuh," replied the boy. Velvety eyes looked out of a sullen brown face, as at an enemy.

"You've heard of me, I see," Jess Howard said acidly. He recognized distrust and aversion when he saw it. Last week when he had been here an old Negro man and woman had looked at him in that same sullen manner. "What's your name, boy?"

"Name Rutherford B." answered the urchin shortly.

Jeff Howard said with mocking intuition, "Last name Hayes?"

"Yessuh."

The man burst into quick laughter. "Both of us named for presidents!" he said. "Rutherford B. Hayes an' Thomas Jefferson Howard! Well, now."

"Yes, uh," responded the boy distrustfully. With the sensitiveness of his race he detected bitterness and shrank from it. He went to the stalls and untied the horses.

"Nice horses," remarked Jeff. "Who do they belong to?"

"Black horse Miss Caline's. Big un's Miss Kate's."

Jeff Howard cleared his throat and asked another question. "Is Miss Kate the tall girl with the reddish colored hair?"

"Tis," Rutherford B. answered, and led the horses away.

Jeff Howard stood in the empty stable with his hands in his pockets and a derisive smile on his lips, unconscious of the grace of his lean body as he struck a pose which would have delighted a sculptor. "Kate!" he said aloud. Well, he knew her name now. Kate. It rhymed with hate. Couldn't be better. Shakespeare's shrew—Kate.

He went out of the deserted barn by the rear door and walked across a pasture and a cornfield. He walked until, turning to look back, he could no longer see the house. He came on two turkey hens wandering among scrub oaks, and beyond he found some graves enclosed in an iron fence.

He climbed the fence that surrounded the little burying ground and stooped to read what was on a granite tombsone there. "Julius Meed," he read. And below it, "Beloved and faithful bodyservant to Crittenden Meed. An example to his fellow-slaves, an inspiration to his master. Born April 2, 1802. Died Easter Sunday, 1862."

Jeff Howard stood upright and looked down at the grave. . . . So some of the Blue Grass people were decent to their slaves, eh? Loved them even. Gave them the family name. Buried them with eulogies. He looked further and saw that all the stones marked the graves of slaves. Yet to this day the plot was kept inviolate. Even neat.

He climbed over the iron fence and walked toward the house, irritated and ruffled to find this proof of humanity among those proud first families who had ruled his state.

As he approached the house he saw that two shabby cars were driving off. His far-sighted eyes informed him that the old man and the small blond girl who had said, "Good morning, Mr. Howard," when he encountered her in the yard last week. Not friendly, exactly. But not mean, either—

In the smaller car the tall girl sat. He could see the sunlight burnish her hair. She seemed to be in the midst of a pile of junk, but her head was high. . . . "Your head's mighty high, Kate!" he said to himself, and laughed softly.

He stepped behind a clump of trees to avoid being seen His vindictive spirit rejoiced in the spectacle, yet he could not bring himself to face these people at the moment of their downfall. Something cowardly deep within him prevented it. Or was it something sensitive?

They were hardly out of sight when the old Negro man came to bring him the keys. After that the wagons drove off also, and he was free to enter the house.

Jeff walked through the rooms and told himself that they were his. His! They were more impressive than he had realized. The ceilings were higher. The furniture was handsomer. . . .

Yet a feeling of futility and loneliness laid hold of him. The house seemed to him an empty shell without a spirit.

The thought caused him to laugh at himself in shamed-faced chagrin. He said aloud, "Let it get a new spirit! it's my house now!"

He would use the downstairs bedroom for his own, he decided. The room that had been the old man's. It held a great square tester bed with a faded silk canopy. A bathroom opened off the room. Twenty-five years ago, Jeff recalled hearing from his lawyer, the old man had modernized the place, building a large windmill for pumping water, and converting a couple of dressing rooms into baths. He had run in electricity, too. Only the heating remained antiquated — open fireplaces in all the rooms.

Jeff went upstairs to inspect the two big bedrooms that occupied the front of the house. He wanted to discover which room had been Kate's. He concluded—and correctly—that it was the one with the higher hooks in the clothes-closet.

He said aloud, "I'll dry some of my tobacco in here. Spread it all over—"

The thought of the defilement stimulated him. The girl had said he could eat from crockery dishes. She had looked at him with eyes that rejected and despised him. She had said to him, "Get out till Monday!" Well, Monday was here. . . .

The furniture was carved rosewood, though he could not have named the wood. The head of the bed toward the ceiling. The footboard was quaintly low. Yet it was the dresser that intrigued Jeff most. The drawer handles were carved roses, under which the fingers could slip; the tall mirror was flanked on each side by a series of round Victorian—not museum stuff by any means—but its size and elegance impressed the mountaineer profoundly.

He thought of the cheap little varnished dresser with the cracked mirror that his mother had used, and the old resentment welled within him like gall. His mother was dead now. Dead, he remembered, without having had a chance to enjoy the money that came too late. His possession of this house would be his revenge for her against fate.

As he turned to leave the room he saw a shoe lying on the floor near the door. He knew immediately that it had been dropped there on the occupant's last trip from the room. He pictured the tall girl with the red-brown haid spilling it "because her head was so darned high."

He stoped and picked it up. It was a slender black kid pump with a rakishly high heel. The heel was still straight and true, but the toe was scuffed, and in the thin sole a hole was worn through.

Jeff Howard carried the shoe downstairs, intending to throw it on a rubbish heap. A more urgent matter came to his mind and his thoughts took up the new subject with their usual intensity.

He went down to the bedroom he had chosen for himself, took off his coat and hung it up. The shoe, he absent-mindedly put in a far corner of the wardrobe, like a dog burying a treasured bone. There was no psychologist near to tell him he had performed a very significant act. . . . When he found it there next morning he angrily hurled it through an open window. It lodged

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ira Bennett

POLITICIANS agree that President Roosevelt did not injure the New Deal's chances when he addressed a negro audience at Howard university. His remarks, they say, were shrewdly calculated to appeal to negro voters while seeming to be nonpolitical.

Nobody knows exactly what caused the unmistakable swing of negro voters to Roosevelt. Benefits obtained through the Hopkins relief organization are credited with having a powerful influence. But there is something more. In some quarters it is believed that the equality law enacted under New Deal auspices in Pennsylvania has had much to do with the movement. Among negro voters the belief is widespread that social emancipation is on the way. This is heard among Washington negroes. "We're going to have equal treatment in restaurants and theaters," they say. "No more Jim Crow railroad cars."

Echoes of this are heard in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

ELECTORAL: Gov. Fitzgerald of Michigan probably can find somebody willing to fill the unexpired term—until Jan. 20—of the late Senator Couzens. The appointee would serve fifteen days, while Congress will be in session. But they will be important days, for in that period Congress will canvass and declare the result of the electoral vote.

REFORM: General law prohibits government officials from purchasing goods in the open market, without bids, in amounts over $500, except in special cases. The Walsh-Healey act applies certain labor requirements to concerns making contracts of $10,000 or more with the government. The question now is whether open-market purchases can be made of standard goods up to $10,000 without observing the labor requirements of the Walsh-Healey act. The Labor department regulators squint at strict application of the $500 restriction.

If manufacturers of standard goods must comply with the Walsh-Healey act as to wages, labor conditions, etc., in order to get government business, they will be subjected to great expense in revamping factory practice in many states.

Lawyers are now in Washington trying to untangle the situation. Government purchasing officials complain that the Labor department regulation will interfere with them in ordinary operations and increase the use of red tape to an enormous extent.

NOTES: New chemical products are calling for large quantities of raw materials from farmers—and the South is waking up to new opportunities . . . Control of Connecticut river floods is in prospect . . . Congress has authorized construction of ten reserviros in Vermont and New Hampshire to cost $10,000,000 . . . Air-conditioning of hospitals opens up business and saves lives . . . G-men hereafter will be retired at age of 62, on account of extra hazard.

NEW YORK
By James M. Wallin

WELL-POSTED New Yorkers express private confidence that two of the taxes most obnoxious to industrialists and financial men will be sharply modified no matter who is elected.

One is the "abomination" enacted by the last Congress—the levy on undistributed corporate profits. It is true that President Roosevelt warmly defended this tax in his campaign speech at Worcester but he left a loophole by saying that imperfections would be corrected.

Sources with excellent administration contacts get word that the loophole will be used at the next session of Congress—if Mr. Roosevelt is still in office—to change the law in such a way as to encourage capital expenditures, ease the burden on corporations in debt and give more encouragement to the building of adequate reserves.

RECONCILE: The capital gains tax—pet hate of large traders in securities—is widely reported to be on its way to the scrap heap.

Certain members of the White House inner circle have been thoroughly sold the idea that this levy, by discouraging traders from cashing in their profits, costs the Treasury a lot more revenue than it brings in.

Action to abolish or tone down these two levies would go far to reconcile large capital to four years more of Roosevelt and to restore the "confidence" which business spokesmen claim has been shattered. It is of course taken for granted that Landon will get after these taxes at once if he is elected.

LEARNED: Recent large issues of new corporate securities have been snapped up with exceptional zest. The record breaking bond offering by American Telephone & Telegraph went to a premium at once, as did an issue by Pacific Gas & Electric. The market for new securities is no longer congested with many simultaneous offerings, as it was during the spring and summer. That sort of thing cloyed investor appetites and made several issues uncomfortably sticky.

Investment bankers have learned their lessons from that stickiness. They are more careful to set an attractive coupon and an attractive price, instead of trying to squeeze by with the cheapest interest and the highest price the traffic could possibly bear.

Also they are timing their offerings more intelligently. Instead of rushing to market with security issues the moment registration with the SEC becomes effective—which was the customary practice before August—they now often wait for some time after the effective registration date until they are sure the market will be receptive.

DIRIGIBLES: Negotiations to interest American capital in a transatlantic dirigible service (first made public through this column) are progressing slowly but satisfactorily. Most of the obstacles are of a technical nature which can be ironed out easily with time and study. Insiders understand that the federal government is prepared to cooperate.

It will take 8 or 9 airships of the Hindenburg type to carry out plans now under discussion. The first two or three of these at least are sure to be made in Germany. After that, Goodyear may get a crack at construction of commercial dirigibles, which would be a sweet break for that company. Since the Akron and Macon disasters, it has looked as if Goodyear's expensive investment in plant and equipment for Zeppelin manufacture might as well be written off a total loss.

The U. S. Navy is also watching developments closely. Quite a few officers still have faith in dirigibles and would like to see more of them built for naval use. Up to now they haven't had a ghost of a chance of getting a Congressional appropriation for the purpose. But the Hindenburg's success has reawakened public interest and a practical transatlantic commercial airship service would give them the opening they are working for.

KNOWS: Keen New York observers rate Henry Cabot Lodge a 3 to 1 shot to defeat Jim Curley for the job of Senator from Massachusetts. They also prophesy a brilliant political future for the grandson and namesake of Woodrow Wilson's senatorial nemesis.

Mr. Lodge decided he wanted to be Senator about a year ago and began quietly touring the state to build a following. This year the leaders of the state G.O.P. intended to pick Sinclair Weeks—son of another former Senator—as the nominee. Great was their surprise to discover that Mr. Lodge had other ideas and a strong enough backing to put himself over. It is clear that he knows what politics is all about.

TARZAN AND THE LEOPARD MEN, No. 83

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

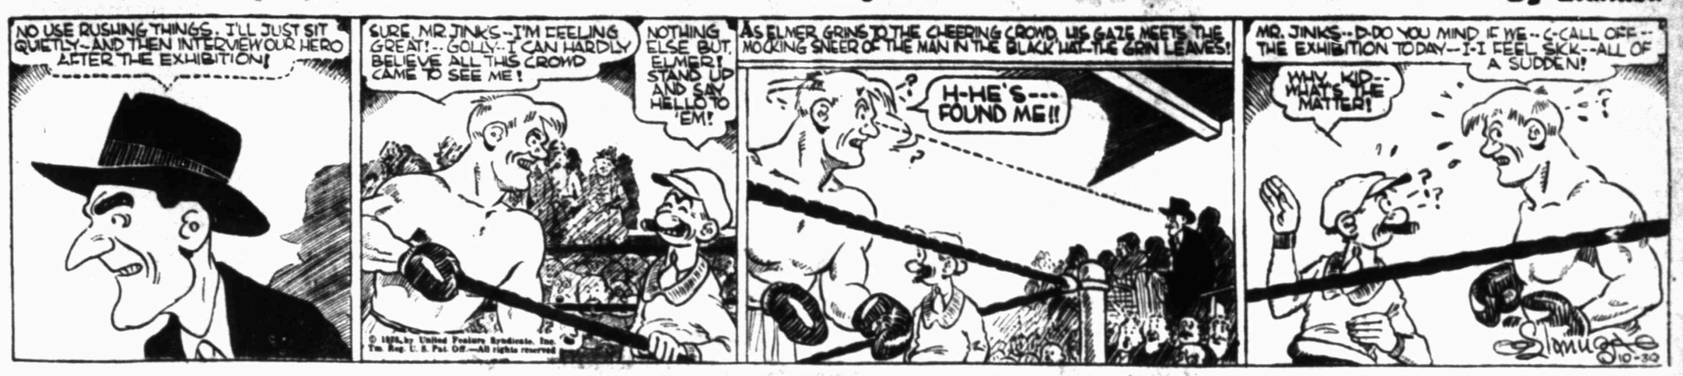

Lulimi's messenger hastene dto the gloomy chamber of the inner temple where Kali Bwana awaited hopelessly the horrors of the night. Silently he beckoned with his taloned hand. The white girl followed. At the end of a corridor she was thrust through a doorway.

Kali Bwana found herself in a large room occupied by a dozen women. "This," announced her escort, "is the new high priestess of the Leopard God. Lulimi commands that she be prepared for the sacred rites." He turned then and vanished, closing the door behind him.

Immediately these lesser priestesses of the Leopard God surrounded her, angrily, resentfully. She was beautiful; and these degraded, yellow-fanged creatures hated beauty. Besides, they were jealous of the white one who was to be set above them in rank and favor.

With menacing cries they set upon her and ripped every stitch of clothing from her. The fear of Lulimi prevented them from doing her further harm; but there was no assurance that their hatred would not overcome their restraint. Actually their desire was to kill her!

WHAT IS PUPIL DILATION AND HOW IS IT PRODUCED? Nature provided muscles to regulate the size of the pupil to control the amount of light entering the eye in proportion to the intensity of the light. Excessive light is very injurious. Reaction of the pupil is to contract, reducing the amount of light entering the eye. Light of less than normal intensity necessitates more light entering the eyes, to maintain normal or near normal vision. These muscles act involuntarily.

Fixed abnormal pupil dilation is produced by a drug instilled into the eyes which paralizes the muscles hence Nature is interferred with, preventing the regulation of the size of the pupil as required by light stimulation. In this condition, eyes cannot be used for near work. Remember this, no drug can refract light or the human eye. Our Modern Scientific Optometrical Eye Examinations Are Safe and Free From Pupil Dilation.

Texas WCTU Closes Session Thursday; Plan Education

SHERMAN, Oct. 29. (AP)—The Women's Christian Temperance union closed its convention here today with expressions of favor toward Galveston as its next meeting city.

Members voted to begin an educational campaign seeking return of prohibition to the United States.

The organization's board of directors will meet in February to name the next convention city and choose delegates to the World WCTU convention in June at Washington, D. C.

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Courage returned to the stock market today and in a fast sprinting finish many issues surged forward 1 to 2 or more points and a few 4 to 7.

Specialties registered the wildest gains during the greater part of the session but steels leaped to the fore along with utilities, rails, coppers and merchandising favorites just before the close.

Continuance of the extra and increased dividend deluge, together with highly optimistic earnings statements, brokers said, inspired the buying splurge. A few stocks moved into new peak territory for the recovery.

Revival of steels, listless most of the day, accompanied reports of good news to come from the Bethlehem Corp. meeting after the close. The company announced September quarter profits were the best since 1929.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced .8 of a point to 71.2. Transfers totaled 1,708,670 shares against 1,632,130 yesterday.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29. (AP)—A moderate decline carried cotton prices off from 1 to 5 points today.

Pre-election apathy dominated dealings and kept both the trade and professionals from engaging in any spirited activity.

Dec. held relatively steady, finishing at 11.63, but Jan. at 11.62, March at 11.66, May at 11.68 and July at 11.63 were off minor amounts. On sales of 6,977 bales middling at New Orleans held unchanged at 12.08.

The trade could find little news in the day's gists that warranted a price movement in either direction.

Liverpool held steady in quiet trading. English traders continue to be more impressed with the long-term outlook for American cotton than the domestic trade does.

Weather developments were featured by heavy rains in the central belt. These showers were confined mostly to those areas where cotton has already been picked and as a result had little potency as a price factor.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29. (AP)—The average price of middling cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 11.95 cents a pound.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Cotton eased today from moderate early rallies under continued hedging pressure with more favorable weather in the south.

January sold off from 11.71 to 11.60 and closed at 11.64 with prices generally 1 to 5 points lower.

The spot cotton and cotton goods markets were again said to be quiet but steady.

Exports today 30,291 making a total of 1,508,233 for the season port receipts 87,787, U. S. port stocks 2,673,754.

Livestock

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Oct. 29. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Hogs 700; top 9.25; bulk good to choice 180-300-lb. averages 9.10-15.

Cattle 3,000; calves 2,000; 2 loads 1,186-lb. steers 8.00, load good yearlings 7.85; bulk good fat cows, 4.25-75; good fat calves 5.25-6.00.

Sheep 1,400; medium to good fat lambs 7.50-8.25; feeder lambs 6.50.

KANSAS CITY REPORT

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Several loads of good fed grassers sold from 8.25-75; medium short feds were highly numerous around 7.00-35.

Four loads of medium lightweight South Texas Brahmas cashed at 6.75-7.00 and a few plain quality steers ranged downward to 5.25. Fat heavy calves 7.25. Stocker and feeder classes scarce.

Hog market dull. Early top of 9.30 was paid by shippers for choice medium weight butchers.

Fat lambs were around 25 cents lower, choice range lambs 8.70.

Wilmington Talk

precisely the same difference prevails today among us human creatures, and all professing to love liberty.

"Hence, we behold the process by which thousands are daily passing from under the yoke of bondage hailed by some as the advance of liberty, and bewailed by others as the destruction of all liberty. Recently, as it seems, the people have been doing something to define liberty, and thanks to them that, in what they have done, the wolf's dictionary has been repudiated."

Those are Lincoln's words, they apply today as they did then. The people of the city of Wilmington and the state of Delaware appreciate their significance in the same measure as men and women in every other part of the union.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Influenced largely by more than 3 cents a bushel break in Liverpool quotations, the Chicago wheat market today underwent material downturns.

Reports of rains benefiting wheat crops both in Argentina and Australia were a notable bearish factor.

A tendency to raise estimates of Australia's wheat this season was apparent.

Chicago wheat futures closed steady at but little above the day's bottom level, ⅜-1⅛ under yesterday's finish, Dec. 114⅜-½, May 113-113⅛, July 99¾-⅜, corn unchanged to 1½ down, Dec. 93¾-⅞, May 89⅝-¾, July 86¾-½, oats ⅛-⅜ off, Dec. 40⅞, and rye showing ⅝ decline, Dec. 83. The provisions outcome varied from 2 cents setback to an equal gain.

The brunt of selling in the Chicago wheat pit was borne by the December future, which declined 1⅛ cents to a low of $1.14¼.

Corn reflected mostly an increase of receipts here together with widespread ideal weather for husking. Oats and rye eased with corn and wheat.

Moderate buying of lard steadied the provision market.

FORT WORTH REPORT

Texas Democrats

state would have in the future.

Not To Be Harmful

The statewide campaign against the president conducted by the Jeffersonian Democrats has stimulated interest in the election, Miller said, "and the net result will not be harmful to the Roosevelt cause."

"There is more enthusiasm among the Roosevelt supporters," the director continued, "than I've ever seen before in a general election campaign in Texas. We have used almost 15,000 postcards to acknowledge Roosevelt-Garner contributions of $1 or less. That shows the interest of the average voter this year."

Miller expressed confidence that Texas would return a solid Democrat delegation to congress. He said the worst he expected in San Antonio, where Republicans contend they have an excellent chance of defeating Congressman Maury Maverick, was 3-2 margin for Maverick.

Creager's Views Differ

The views of R. B. Creager of Brownsville, Republican national committeeman, differed sharply from those of Miller. He predicted that Ernest W. Clemens, Republican nominee for congress from Bexar county, would beat Maverick. He said further that Landon would carry Bexar county and show considerable strength in many sections.

The Jeffersonian Democrats organization was hopeful that many thousands who supported Roosevelt four years ago would vote for Landon. Texas Democrats opposed to the New Deal were speaking over the radio and state hook-ups were arranged on addresses by national leaders of the organization such as Alfred E. Smith and former Senator James A. Reed.

Wide difference of opinion existed as to the size of the vote next Tuesday. Miller said it might reach a million notwithstanding that it was only 850,000 in 1932 when there was a lively race for governor between Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson and Orville Bullington. Some believed it would be little larger than in 1932 or possibly not as large because of the absence of state contests.

Miller predicted Landon's vote would not exceed 175,000. Republicans countered with assertions that Roosevelt's margin would be considerably less than 3 to 1.

Boy Scout court of honor for October will be held in Lubbock county court house Nov. 6 at 7:30 p. m., with George W. Dupree in charge.

Raymond Cozart, fined $15 when arraigned in corporation court to answer a charge of speeding Oct. 16 on Broadway, Thursday carried his appeal to county court. Appeal bond of $50 was executed. Lewis Kittrell, City motorcycle patrolman, swore to the complaint before C. E. Luce, City recorder.

Gregoria Ybarro, Slaton Mexican, late Thursday remained in Lubbock county jail after being lodged there Wednesday on a charge of theft of a shotgun valued at $47.50 by Nick Carter and Sherrod Bros. Hardware company, owners. R. L. Wicker, Slaton police chief, swore to the complaint before Jess C. Levens, county attorney, and the complaint was filed in county court.

One hundred six Lubbock county absentee ballots had been voted in person or by mail through 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, said Ed D. Allen, county clerk. Allen said there is insufficient time for sending out further ballots by mail, since they could not be marked and sent back in time to meet Saturday's deadline for the general election. Voting absentee in person also will be closed Saturday afternoon.

Deputy Sheriff Parum Posey left Thursday for Gainesville to transfer a negro juvenile, who had drawn a 5-year sentence to a state reform school. The boy had pleaded guilty of burglary when arraigned in juvenile court.

Because of misunderstanding of the time of meeting the presidential rally sponsored by Young Democrats of Texas Technological college was postponed indefinitely last night, E. C. Blythe, president said. The meeting was to have been for discussion of national nominees by students and talks by Dr. Bradford Knapp, Tech president, and other speakers acquainted with politics.

Mrs. Lillian Barnhard of Lubbock was elected one of the five grand examiners of the Order of Eastern Star Thursday night at Mineral Wells, the Associated Press reported. Mrs. Florence Reed of Coahoma was chosen worthy grand matron and El Paso was selected as next convention city. The convention closed with installation of officers.

Predicts Substantial Majority

He said he believed that President Roosevelt will be returned to the White House with a substantial majority.

The governor gave a brief response to a welcome speech at the Kiwanis club luncheon.

The October attendance campaign of Kiwanis club closed Thursday with presentation of a trophy to Team No. 4 and its captain, O. J. (Bo) Sexton, for having the best percentage of attendance at the five meetings of the month. The presentation followed an elk-hash lunch.

Four Boy Scouts from troops 3 and 11 staged an entertainment program. Herman Green played two accordion selections, the group sang two scout songs and Leete Jackson did a tap dance in cowboy boots. The closing number included snapping the bull-whip, with Ben Alexander, Jackson and Marvin McLarty doing the stunts and Green playing an accordion accompaniment.

Allred Says "Money Changers Driven Out"

TUCUMCARI, N. M., Oct. 29. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred declared in a Democratic campaign speech prepared for delivery here tonight that the election issues were the same as those of 1932 when "Republican money changers were literally driven from the halls of government."

The speech was the first of a series the Texas governor planned to make on invitation of Governor Clyde Tingley of New Mexico and the Democratic national campaign organization.

Clamoring To Get Back In

"Now the Republicans are clamoring to get back in," Allred said, "and most of their spokesmen have become so desperate they are willing to adopt almost any platform or embrace almost any creed while at the same time dealing in glittering generalities and purest platitudes."

"Today the leaders of the Republican party shout denunciation at our greatest humanitarian president. This Republican leadership has not hesitated to vilify and condemn the president's motives. They point to the mistakes they say have been made without substituting a workable program of their own save in the most vague and general terms."

Cochran Tragedy

allowed to go to bed he would "finish everything . . . ."

Everything was finished for Juanita Kelly. Only Wednesday a letter addressed to her parents from a man at Clovis, N. M., explained how her happiness had been severed simultaneously with her life.

"We had planned great things," he said, under protests of undying affection and grief for the girl he was to have married soon.

Did Juanita Kelly's announcement of her being pledged to another cause her death?

Was the crime one of jealous frustration?

Was Cooper's will not bent appreciatively because of his secret knowledge no court "down here below" would have jurisdiction over him if he did what he was prepared to do? Was that why the last night he conversed freely with Deputy Sheriff Grady Harrist, who guarded him?

Those seem to be the answers say most investigators.

Maybe no more ever will be known. The cause has been "marked off." Cochran county's 72nd district court grand jury has been adjourned without having voting any indictments.

Left is only the grief of those attached to the principals—and diminishing shudders inspired by the case's sudden flare on the front pages of the daily press.

been denied. The council gave no explanation for its action.

At Beaumont, Brooks had been turned down on requests to use the city auditorium, the courthouse and a lodge hall for meeting purposes. The chief of police there denied the communists a parade permit.

Woodul "Surprised"

At Houston tonight, Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul, acting governor, said he was "surprised" to learn that Brooks had been detained at Port Arthur. He said that he would take no action unless the matter were brought to him formally and both sides of the case presented.

"I know nothing about it," he asserted. "Personally, I am a great believer in free speech—all kinds. The speaker can always be held liable for abuse of the privilege.

"I naturally rely on local authorities to give me their side of the case. Neither has been presented to me. If I am approached on this matter tonight, I will do nothing until I am advised of both sides of the question."

by the bill of rights and in their maintenance as the best protection against bigotry and all intolerance, whether of race, color or creed.

Believes In Independent Court

"I believe in an independent Supreme court and judiciary, secure from executive or legislative invasion.

"I believe that in the future, as in the past, the hopes of our people can be realized by following the American way of life under the American constitution.

"I believe in the principles of civic righteousness exemplified by Theodore Roosevelt and I pledge myself to go forward along the trail he blazed."

In putting his questions to his Democratic opponent, Landon noted that in 48 hours Mr. Roosevelt would be addressing a rally from the same platform on which he stood.

"And so," the governor said, "in closing this meeting I leave a challenge with the president. I say to him: Mr. President, I am willing to trust the people. I am willing to stand up and say openly that I am against economic planning by government. I am against the principles of the Agricultural Adjustment act. I am against concentration of power in the hands of the chief executive.

"Tell us where you stand, Mr. President."

More Oil Lands To Be Auctioned

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—The second public auction sale of oil and gas leases on lands of the University of Texas will be held here tomorrow.

J. H. Walker, land commissioner, said inquiries about the tracts indicated all major oil companies and many independents would bid. The land offered is in Andrews, Crane and Ector counties near proven oil production areas. The 75 tracts are in 160-acre blocks.

Col. E. Walters, veteran land auctioneer from Oklahoma, who conducted the first oil and gas lease sale for the university board of lease July 20th, will again conduct the sale. In July oil and gas leases on more than 8,000 acres of land were sold for more than $300,000.

"This was more than $37 an acre," Walker said. "This price is better than that we were getting on sealed bids."

Stephen F. Austin's 143rd Birthday Is To Be Observed

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP) — Austin residents won't be too busy casting ballots in the general election Nov. 3 to observe the 143rd anniversary of the birth of Stephen F. Austin, Texas colonizer.

Attorney General William McCraw, who is campaigning for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket in several states, including Connecticut, native state of Austin's father, Moses Austin, will speak at ceremonies at Stephen Austin's grave in the state cemetery here.

Dr. Eugene Barker, authority on Stephen Austins life also will speak. A cannon salute and showering the grave with flowers from airplanes will conclude the ceremonies.

One Man Decapitated As Train Is Derailed In New Jersey

PRINCETON JUNCTION, N. J., Oct. 29. (AP)—One man was decapitated and at least six others injured tonight when the Clevelander, crack Pennsylvania railroad flyer, was wrecked here, blocking the railroad's four-track main line. Ten of the 13 cars, mostly Pullmans, left the track.

The train broke between the 7th and 8th cars and the engine, traveling at 75 miles an hour, dragged the forward seven cars almost a mile.

The man killed was riding in the 7th car which was dragged on its side and crushed.

E. E. Dowdee, of Westchester, Pa., said he saw the head of the man sitting beside him in the car fly over his shoulder.

Second Victim Of Crash Dies; Charge Filed Against Driver

WACO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Claude Jameson of Hico died this afternoon of injuries sustained in an automobile collision on highway 67 last night, the second victim of the crash.

Joe Alton Hix of Clifton was instantly killed and three persons were slightly injured, including Roy Smith of Waco, who faces a murder charge in connection with the collision between his car and the one in which Hix and Jameson were riding.

Fifty-Three Years In Salvation Army Is Gilks' Record

A Salvationist for 53 years and holding a commission for 50 years of that period is the record of Col. W. Roy Gilks who is in Lubbock for two weeks to deliver a series of evangelistic lectures sponsored by the local Salvation Army.

The Salvationist is on a good-will tour of United States for the purpose of gaining a million converts to Christianity. Colonel Gilks reports that Commissioner Earnest Pugmire, territorial commander for the southern states, told in a Salvation Army congress held recently in Dallas that 20,000 had already been converted in the South.

Besides his regular lectures Colonel Gilks will speak to Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis, and ABC clubs on the highlights in the history of the Salvation Army, and British social problems and how they are being met. It is possible that he will also address students of Texas Technological college and high school on the missionary work of the Salvation Army.

A native of England, Colonel Gilks now makes his home in Los Angeles, where his two married daughters reside. Colonel Gilks also has a son, Major W. G. Gilks, who is divisional commander of the Salvation Army in Texas.

Registration Of Workers Is Begun

WPA workers in Crosby county who are at present assigned to jobs will be registered November 2-6, inclusive, it was announced yesterday.

Workers in Lubbock county will be reregistered by tonight, and at the close of the Crosby county period, arrangements will be made for reregistration next in Dickens and Hockley counties, said A. J. Delahunty, supervisor of the division of employment of the WPA.

To Classify Workers

The reregistering, Delahunty said, is being made by the National Reemployment service for purpose of classifying workers by occupation. They are now registered as common labor.

"Every person working on a project in Crosby county must report during the period designated, to maintain eligibility," Delahunty said. Jack Thomman, senior interviewer for the NRS, will be stationed at the courthouse at Crosbyton each day from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Generally, all workers assigned to jobs in the district of 15 counties must be reregistered by November 18, a date extended from October 30 because of cotton picking in the district, and those waiting to be assigned WPA jobs must reregister between November 18-30, Delahunty stated. Of 4,219 cases on the WPA rolls, the first group represents 2,069, and the second, 2,150.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
