JO ELLEN SPAIN

JoEllen Spain Selected As OHS Drum Major

JoEllen Spain, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Spain, has been selected by Fred Stockdale, director, to lead the Olton High School band as drum major.

Stockdale said he felt "that the potential leadership as demonstrated in other activities and band contributed to her being selected as drum major."

The drum major's position is one of utmost importance to the band and JoEllen will attend drum major school at West Texas University in Canyon for two weeks, beginning July 13. She will study drum majoring techniques and leadership.

JoEllen, a junior, has been a member of the band for two years, playing the French horn, for which she was recipient of a scholarship presented by the Olton Band Parents organization.

A member of the National Honor Society, she will serve as treasurer next year.

She is active in all phases of high school activities, serving as secretary of the science club her sophomore year, historian of the Future Homemakers of America her freshman year and as fourth vice-president her sophomore year.

JoEllen has been a member of the student council two years.

She has been a member of the Olton High School Choir two years and is a member of the Triple Trio.

She was a member of the Freshman and B-Team basketball team.

She was elected Best Citizen for the fourth six weeks period during her freshman and sophomore years.

JoEllen is a member of the First United Methodist Church. Her hobby is playing the piano.

Olton Youth Speak Out

EDITOR'S NOTE: Buddy Brock, History teacher at Olton High School, recently asked his students to write two paragraphs - one beginning with the words "I support" and one beginning "I protest".

The following is the first in a series of comments written by the students.

I protest against some movies they make these days, for instance nude movies. I protest against this cause now days kids can't go watch the movie they want to because they're usually made just for adults. I protest against drugs and most of all Hippies.

I support the law because they help to stop riots. And I think the law should be respected because they help to prevent murders. The law should be respected because they help us for our own good.

I protest racial discrimination. I think all people should be considerate of another person no matter what race they are. I think if there was no racial discrimination that wouldn't have near as many wars and riots. I believe this because all races have different customs which causes them to think different. If we would consider the other races and try to live as one world instead of one nation, it would work better.

I support freedom. I think a man should be able to do as he pleases as long as it doesn't hinder his character or other people. Freedom is something we should all protect. Our freedom makes us a happy nation. Some people are not happy because they are not free.

I protest against the protesters. The student protesters have no right to demand that they run the schools. If the faculty did not run the school there would be nothing but chaos. The student protesters want to make their own rules, but this would not work. A person must live by rules that others make.

I support the faculty of all schools. I respect the right for a teacher to send a student out of class. If the faculty did not run the school there would be no learning. Every student should support the faculty to help build a better school.

As the Current Academic year draws to a close, it should be readily apparent that the students in the New Left revolutionary movement are not on college campuses to seek education. Rather, this conglomerate of malcontents is engineering a drive to destroy our educational system.

More and more, the New Left is being controlled by the followers of Karl Marx through the Old Left organizations of the Communist Party, USA (pro-Moscow), the Progressive Labor Party (pro-Peking), and the Socialist Workers Party (Trotskyites). Not since the New Left came into being has the influence of Marxism-Leninism been so strong.

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), largest of the New Left groups, is rapidly gaining a definite Marxist-Leninist coloration. At the SDS National Council meeting in Austin, Tex., in March, one of the organization's top leaders was quoted as stating, "Our primary task is to build a Marxist-Leninist revolutionary movement."

While the New Left movement may or may not make the dean's list this year, it rates an A plus in revolutionary exploits. The SDS and its adherents have rocked campuses from coast to coast with violence, riots, and sabotage. At the SDS National Convention last summer a workshop on violence and explosives was held. Literature explaining how explosive devices can be manufactured and used against Selective Service installations, ROTC buildings, and university facilities has been distributed. The results are a disgrace to a society which owes its very existence to democratic processes under the rule of law.

Many of the criminal acts of the New Left were, and are, committed as expressions of rights under the first amendment. Corruption of the first amendment would be a better term for such antics. Certainly, free speech and dissent are not synonymous with despotic obstruction and force. The wild and insatiable demands of the New Left for unlawful power and its blind determination to silence and destroy all who stand in its way are tyrannical acts of the first order.

Under the first amendment, a person may hire a hall and speak on any subject to as many people as he can persuade to listen. However, he has no right to disrupt classes and assemblies and prevent other persons from hearing a speaker of their choice. Neither the New Left nor any other group should be allowed to plunder, riot, and terrorize our educational institutions and impose its will upon a majority of students who do not share its views. Crime under the ivy-covered arches of a college campus is no more excusable than crime in our city streets.

SDS leaders know that if a revolution is to be brought about, they must inject more discipline and organization into the movement; the anti-discipline, free-wheeling, individualistic, anarchistic mood of the New Left must be controlled and molded into a strong, centralized, Marxist-Leninist revolutionary force. The Old Left groups, of course, are working hard to capture at least a part of the movement.

The pro-Peking Progressive Labor Party (PLP) already has a strong beachhead inside the national SDS. On some key issues, the PLP comes close to having enough strength to swing votes in national meetings. While considerable factionalism now exists within SDS ranks on "how to bring about a revolution," the pro-Peking, the pro-Moscow, and the Trotskyites all agree on one major point: students alone cannot bring about a revolution. One well-known communist youth leader wrote, "We must view the worker-student alliance as a mutual necessity and do everything in our power to insure its growth and endurance." The PLP and the Trotskyites also supported similar linkage of the students and "workers."

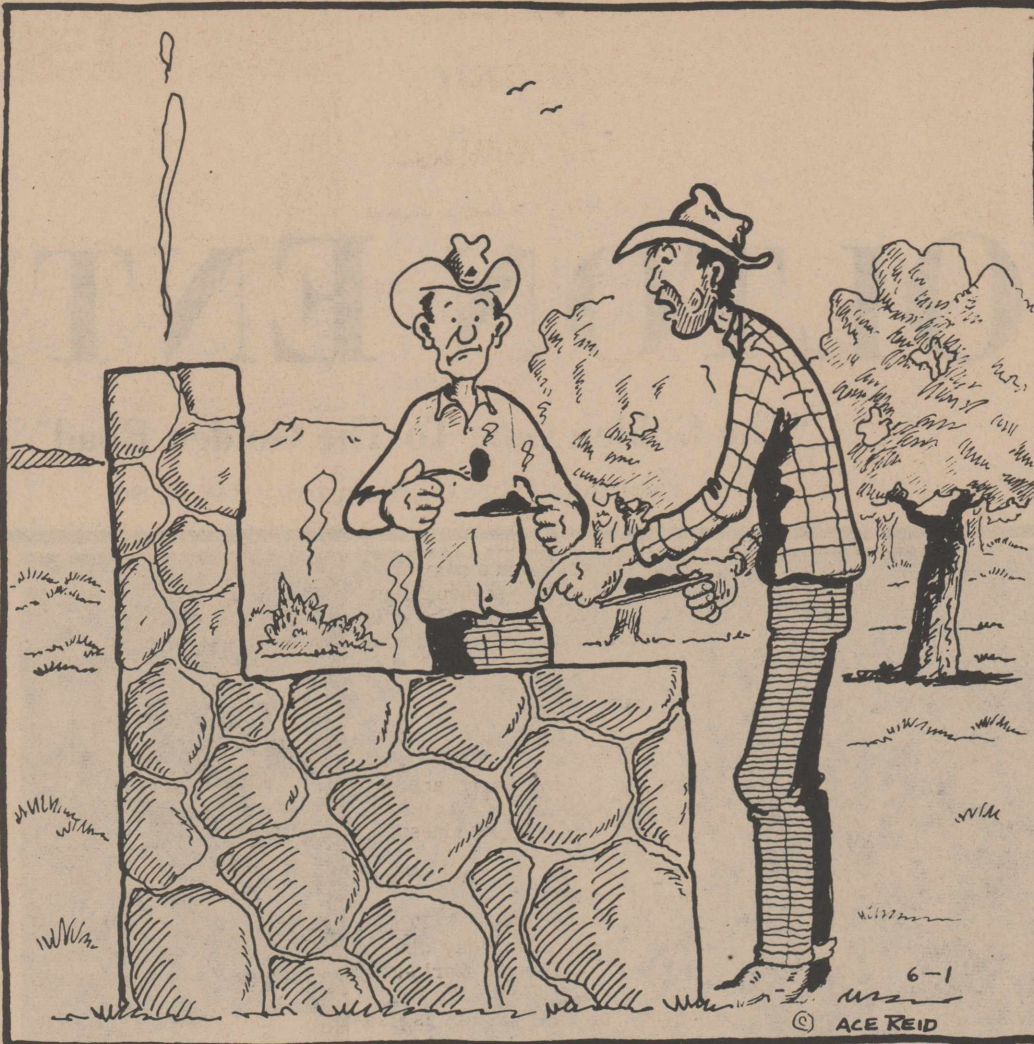

Not all SDS members accept the Old Left organizations. Many feel that SDS can promote a viable revolutionary youth program without stringent controls and free of parental tutelage from a foreign or internal Marxist party. Whether this is possible or not remains to be seen, and the answer may be decided at the SDS National Convention this summer, where this issue will be bitterly and hotly contested.

Meanwhile, a basic fact looms. Never before in this country has there been such a strong revolutionary Marxist movement of young people which is so eager to destroy established authority. Furthermore, the New Left movement has made it emphatically clear that mere change and revision are not its objectives. Armed with a long list of "non-negotiable" demands, its immediate goal is the complete overthrow and control of our educational system. We all know what its ultimate goal is.

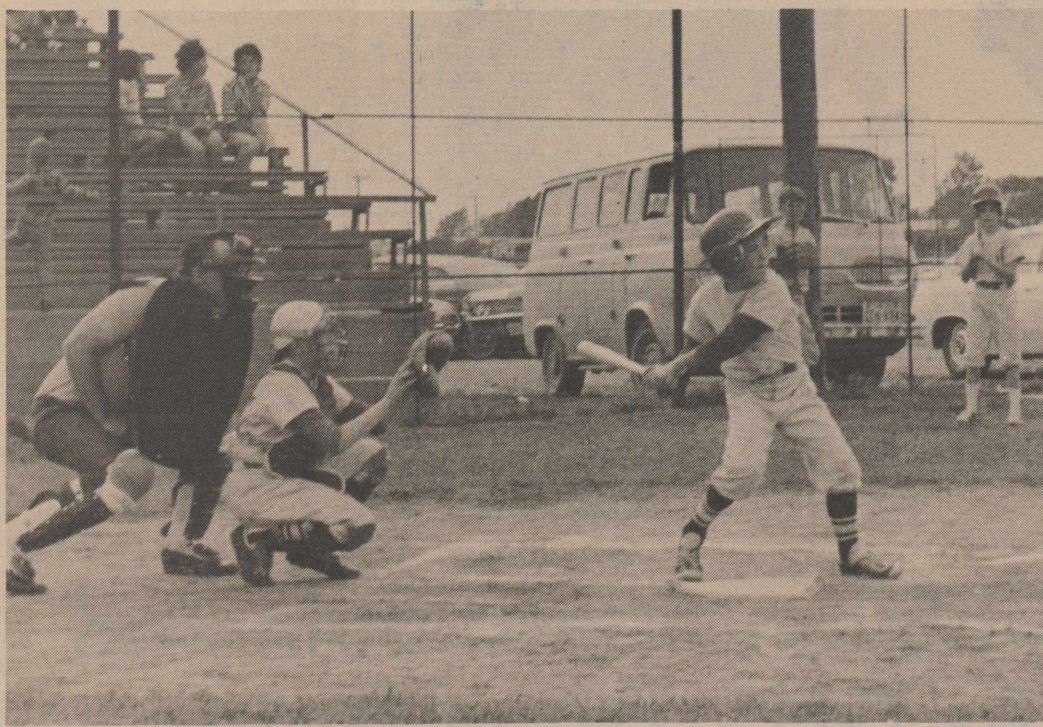

Concessions and appeasements will not satisfy those bent on anarchy and nihilism. America should take note before it is too late.

Sue's Views

Advertising

BY SUE CANNON

I ran across a real "goodie" recently and kept it just for weeks like this week, when I was onery and didn't want to write a column.

This little bit of wisdom(?) comes from the Wisconsin Press Association and although it doesn't really fit Olton very well, it gives you a good insight of the news business.

Many times we've thanked the Lord that He gave us a sense of humor. You need one in the newspaper business (and most other business too, we imagine).

Put yourself in our shoes for a minute or two and see if you agree with us.

Okay, here we go! You're the editor of a weekly newspaper. You try to publish a paper that will be a credit to your community.

You may be boasting a little, but you think your newspaper may be a bit better-looking, bigger and contains more news of area-wide interest than a number of others you've seen published. (And these other editors probably think the same thing about their papers.)

Naturally, you try to do the best job you can to publish an interesting newspaper; to serve your reading public by thorough coverage of spot news events, as well as news of their public bodies.

You try to support all civic activities and drives. And you do your best to accommodate folks who want special stories published.

You make mistakes, sure, and you'll be the first to agree that various aspects of the paper could be improved; with time and money.

The management has a payroll to meet, of course, local folks who trade in your home community. And there are considerable mechanical costs and overhead, plus local taxes, dues and donations.

You know that the advertising in your newspaper must pay these bills, as the money you get on subscriptions barely cover the cost of the newspaper the paper is printed on.

It's the day before press day. You've had a long hard day and you're ready to head for home. Just then a friend of yours, or his wife, who runs a local business comes in with some "hand written" copy for you to "fix up" for this week's paper.

You're glad to oblige. It's a good story. So you stay a little longer to do the typing and re-writing, write the headline and schedule the story. Your Linotype operator sets it and you read the proof. And you make sure the story runs as your friend wants it.

Next week your friend does the same thing, with some civic activity he wants publicity on. Again you're glad to help.

Then, comes the next week. Your friend is called on to see if he wants to run an ad in your newspaper. "Not this week," he says, "drop by in a week or so and maybe I'll have something." You go to the post office the day before your newspaper is published and check your mailbox. What do you find but an "advertising sheet" your business friend has used to promote his store. And you know it probably cost him more than the same size ad in your newspaper.

Here's where your sense of humor comes in, if you can get it percolating.

You see numerous copies of the "mailer" dumped in the post office wastebasket. But you don't find one single copy of your newspaper in that wastebasket the next day when it comes out.

You can't help wondering a bit, though, why didn't your friend use his "circular" for his news stories, too?

ATTEND GRADUATION

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Ellis were in Texoma Monday through Wednesday with their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis, Brenda, Terri, Tammy and Kyle. Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ellis attended Brenda's graduation from Texoma High School.

IN DALLAS

Mrs. I. D. Grimsley and her granddaughter, Ronda Gullett, went to Dallas Saturday where they will stay a few days with Mrs. Grimsley's daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Smith, Danny, Beverly and Stephanie.

Let us remember how they died so that we might live free

As we enjoy the benefits of the American way of life,
let us reflect on how that way of life has been preserved ... by the sacrifice of countless lives throughout our nation's history.

This Memorial Day we will pause to honor the brave men and women who have given their lives in the service of our country.
We invite you to join us in observing Memorial Day, May 30th.

CROCKER'S CORNER

By Dick Crocker

Well, everything is really moving now. We just had our partnership tournament, the swimming pool is open and David Turner had his first hole in one.

Our Partnership tournament was a real big success, we had 62 players here for the two-day 36-hole event.

It was a real battle right down to the wire for first place, with the winners being Dick Tubbs and Joe Kerr, both from Hereford. Tubbs and Kerr beat our home town favorite Andy Andrew and his Hale Center partner Bubba Brooks.

Third place in championship flight went to Pat George and Johnny Goodwin both from Tulia. Our local boys were really successful in the first flight with T. J. Roberson and Rusty Sherman capturing 1st, Rick Cox and Bill Cruce from Tulia holding 2nd and for 3rd we had a tie between the Joe Turner, Jim Curtsinger team and the Buddy Sharp and Ed Miller team with Turner and Curtsinger winning the sudden death playoff on the 6th extra hole.

Second flight was dominated by the out-of-towners. First went to Ray Kinnison and Dub Farris both of Clovis. Second went to Gary Davidson and Tommy Chathan, two fine high school players from Plainview, and third went to Leon Kendall and Dick Cole, a former Oltonite, now in Lubbock.

The swimming pool opened with a big splash, we had a lot of swimmers this weekend and hope to have all summer.

Well, it was bound to happen, David Turner scored a one on number 8. David has been playing real good golf and is going to be one of our better golfers. David hit a no 7 iron to score his ace. Congratulations David.

Well, it's time to go. I'll see you later.

MRS. BOB STRAIT

Cook Of The Week

A very busy housewife, Mrs. Bob Strait, shares two of her favorite recipes with Enterprise readers this week.

Bob and Carol Strait moved to Olton in February 1968 although he had been associated with the First Baptist Church as minister of music and youth for approximately one year. They had made their home in Plainview and Carol taught in Kress schools.

Carol taught language arts in Olton Junior High this year. She has enrolled at West Texas State University for the summer sessions to continue working for her Masters Degree.

One of Carol's classmates at West Texas is her mother, Mrs. B. F. Ayers of Amarillo. "Mother decided to go back to school when they got me through," Carol says. Mrs. Ayers is a senior with a major in English and Spanish.

Carol loves to sing and works with the primary choir at the First Baptist Church. She and her husband are helping with Vacation Bible School. She took up decoupage so that she might help her junior group make "flowers with faces" at the Bible school this week.

Cut steak into 2 x 1/2 inch strips. Combine all ingredients in 1 1/2 quart casserole; cover with foil. Bake at 425 degrees for 30 minutes or until meat is tender. Prepare drop biscuits with 1 tablespoon poppy seed added to recipe. Drop dough by spoonfuls around edge of casserole. Bake 20 minutes more.

BROKEN GLASS CAKE

4 pkgs. of Jello (orange, lemon, lime and cherry) -- dissolve each package in 1 1/2 cups boiling water and pour in pie or cake pans and congeal before making rest of cake.

Combine 1 cup pineapple juice with 2 tablespoons sugar in sauce pan. Dissolve 1 package Knox unflavored gelatin with 3 tablespoons cold water and add to sugar and pineapple juice. Bring mixture to a boil, then set aside to cool.

Crumble vanilla wafers or graham crackers to line bottom of angel food cake pan and to cover the top of cake.

Take Jello from icebox and cube with knife in 1/2 inch cubes. Set aside.

Whip 1 pint whipping cream stiff in very large bowl. Fold pineapple mixture into whipped cream and add cubed Jello one pan at a time, mixing thoroughly.

Pour mixture into the angel food cake pan lined with crumbs and line top with remaining crumbs.

Chill 4 hours in icebox. Then remove to plate.

HE-MAN MAIN DISH

1 lb. round steak
1/4 c. flour
1 tsp. paprika
1 tsp. salt
dash pepper
1 c. tomato juice
1 pkg. Lipton's onion soup
1 tsp. bottled brown bouquet sauce

WHAT SHALL IT PROFIT A PARENT IF HE GAIN THE WHOLE WORLD AND LOSE HIS OWN CHILD

Children out of school for the summer will have many hours of free time, time in which they will be bombarded with thousands of ideas, both good and bad, through radio, television, movies, books and as-sociates. Every child's destiny is in the balance this summer.

Be a wise parent and see to it that your children along with their friends attend the well-planned, Bible-packed Vacation Bible School to be held at Main Street Church of Christ June 9-13. The child you save may be your own.

4-H ROUNDUP--THERE'S at least one roundup in Texas which doesn't involve riding, roping and the other events well known to folks of the west. The Texas 4-H Roundup on the other hand involves some 1,800 members of the "Green and White and Head, Heart, Hands and Health" organization. These 4-H Club members will come from sections of Texas to the campus of Texas A&M University on June 3-4 for their annual state meeting. They've been doing it for well over a half century; thus, establishing it as one of the oldest such meetings in the nation.

FRIENDS OF 4-H--Among the very active participants of the June 3-4 Texas 4-H Roundup will be some 200 folks who are proud to be known as "Friends of 4-H". They support the organization with funds and their time and talents.
