Death Toll Now Has Reached 33

WEST AND SOUTH IN GRIP OF WAVE BUT EAST IS WARMER

(By The Associated Press)

Winter ruled in the west and south today while the east struggled out of a storm that took at least 33 lives.

From the Rockies east and south cold prevailed during the night. In Kansas four victims fell, including an elderly couple found dead of exposure. Snow, sleet and rain blustered through Texas. Snow as deep as 30 inches and cold as severe as 24 below wrought misery in the Rockies region.

See First Snowflakes

Many southerners saw the first snowflakes of the season. Low temperatures blighted fruit, flowers and vegetables.

The northeast was digging out of deep snow. On the Atlantic a dozen vessels were in distress.

The crippled collier, H. F. De Bardeleben rolled helplessly on the North Atlantic, waiting for the seas to moderate so her crew of 34 could take to lifeboats. Two coast guard rescue boats were damaged by the storm.

Planes In Check

High winds held down airplanes waiting to search off the New Jersey coast for a coal barge and two fishing schooners, missing with 16 men. The barge Deepwater was listed missing at Norfolk, while off Mississippi the steamer Gulfpenn took the fishing schooner, Snapper King in tow when she lost rudder and anchor.

Most of the east expected more snow today. It already had plenty. Some communities in New York were still isolated.

Forecasts in the southwest and Rocky mountain states offered little hope of abatement. Sub-zero temperatures offered a threat to livestock.

Agricultural experts estimated the damage to the Oklahoma fruit crop at $750,000. Icy blasts, were felt in Texas as far south as the gulf.

Eastern Wyoming had its heaviest snowfall in three years, the fall being three feet on some places. Northern Colorado points reported from 10 to 30 inches.

TWO BANKS MERGE TODAY AT ANGELO

SAN ANGELO, Mar. 9. (AP)—The Guaranty State and San Angelo National banks opened as one this morning, consolidation under the name of the latter having been effected last night after vote of directors and shareholders. The business of the Guaranty State was transferred last night and all employes will be retained at least temporarily by the larger institution.

The San Angelo national reopened after reorganization January 4 with capital of $400,000 and surplus of $160,000. These figures are unchanged in the consolidation, but the total assets of the new institution are about $3,000,000, deposits $2,250,000 and bonds, cash and exchange $800,000. Loans approximate $2,000,000.

Sol Mayer remains president, but Roy Hudspeth, retiring president of the Guaranty State, becomes active vice president, and Dick Cauthorn and Victor Pierce are transferred to the directorate of the new institution and Ira Swope, cashier of the Guaranty State, becomes cashier of the San Angelo National.

JAPS LANDING NEW TROOPS

FOUR TRANSPORTS AT WOOSUNG WITH BIG NUMBER OF MEN

(By The Associated Press)

SHANGHAI, March 9.—Japanese military authorities continued to pour reinforcements and huge quantities of ammunition and supplies into their lines on the western Shanghai front today.

Four transports arrived at Woosung with an undetermined number of fresh troops. At least 2,000 were landed and immediately sloshed off through pouring rain and thick mud toward Kiangwan.

Large Number Aboard

A large number of additional soldiers remained aboard the transports but no announcement was made of the number still there. With the troops came great quantities of supplies and foodstuffs, guns, equipment, ammunition and everything necessary to keep the now large Japanese army in this area fed, clothed and equipped.

All reports today indicated that hopes for peace parleys were virtually non-existent, leaving the situation so uncertain that almost any eventuality was possible.

MEETING IS HELD

GAINESVILLE, March 9 (AP)—Members of the Highway No. 5 association met here today to reorganize the association and elect officers. Bonham, Sherman, Muenster, Gainesville and other towns were represented.

GO-BETWEENS

SMITH VOTERS LAG BEHIND

GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT IS EASY VICTOR IN FIRST SKIRMISH

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 9—Political leaders and observers sought to calculate the effect today of Franklin D. Roosevelt's sweeping victory in New Hampshire on other eastern states which must soon line up in the contest for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The New York governor was handed New Hampshire's eight votes in the national convention in yesterday's first delegate primary of the year. It was a test between Roosevelt and supporters of Alfred E. Smith for it was the latter's slate of delegates, entered with Smith's consent, which went down to defeat.

Supporters Confident

Smith leaders are not expected to consider the result an indication of what will happen in Connecticut, Massachusetts and Vermont where further contests between the two are impending. Roosevelt had most of the state's leaders with him and New Hampshire was virtually in his pocket until the Smith candidacy came along, rather late in the day.

Unquestionably, however, the Roosevelt bandwagon crew hailed the result as an enthusiastic omen.

All Funds Would Be Made Available Now

WASHINGTON, March 9 (AP)—Legislation to make all of the $200,000,000 authorized for loans to farmers under the reconstruction finance corporation law immediately available was approved today by the senate agriculture committee.

It would make the full amount available for loans immediately without waiting for sale of the corporation's debentures.

Only $75,000,000 is now available for loans to farmers and the committee's proposed legislation would make the whole $200,000,000 available for loans on the new 1932 crop.

ADDITION IS MADE

WASHINGTON, March 9. (AP)—The senate appropriations committee today added $1,017,512 to the annual supply bill for the departments of state, justice, commerce and labor and reported it to the senate. It carries a total of $126,232,905.

MAYOR STATES RETURN WAS ON SUNDAY

POLICE DECLARE THAT BABY IS NOT NOW IN ITS HOME

(By The Associated Press)

HOPEWELL, N. J., Mar. 9.—Police at the Lindbergh home stated flatly today that the kidnaped Lindbergh baby was not in either the Lindbergh or Morrow homes and said they knew nothing of a report emanating from Boston that the child had been returned.

As soon as it was reported from Boston that Mayor James M. Curley had what he considered reliable information concerning the baby"s return the following question was framed and sent to the police headquarters at the Lindbergh home:

"Mayor Curley of Boston has announced that he has received information from an 'authoritative source' that baby has been returned on Sunday night and that the police had been cleared away from the Lindbergh home to give the kidnapers 72 hours in which to make their getaway. Has the baby been returned? Is Mayor Curley correct in any respect?

Police conferred for more than an hour on this and other questions submitted at the same time and then replied to the question about the baby's alleged return:

"We know nothing of this."

MEMBER OF MORROW HOME GIVES DENIAL

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., March 9 (AP)—A member of the Morrow household, who said she was authorized to speak for Mrs. Dwight Morrow, today denied a report that the kidnaped Lindbergh baby had been returned.

Mrs. Morrow's representative declined to reveal her name. She said the Lindberghs would have no reason to withhold announcement of the baby's recovery.

PROGRESS IS ONLY WORD OF OFFICERS

HOPEWELL, N. J., March 9 (AP)—Progress!

It was the new word of hope in the search for an eaglet overlong missing from his nest.

It came from the lips of the spokesman for the New Jersey state police at Trenton. They are the agency designated at the outset by Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh as the official bureau of information concerning news of their stolen child.

Police Do Not Talk

The police would not say any word had been received from the persons who took the child from

Labor Bill Passes House By Big Vote

WASHINGTON, March 9 (AP)—The house passed the Norris-La Guardia anti-injunction bill with but 13 dissenting votes.

It was a mighty victory for organized labor. Coupled with the 75 to 5 approval given in the senate, it represented a sweeping triumph over the forces which for years beat back this legislation. When it becomes law, the "yellow dog" contracts which bind workers not to organize will no longer be recognized and federal judges will be limited stringently in their powers to quiet labor disputes by injunction.

LOAN MANAGER URGES SLASH IN ACREAGE

OWEN SHERRILL TALKS AT GATHERING HERE DURING FORENOON

BY J. SAM LEWIS
Journal Staff Writer

Texas' own Charles G. Dawes, who used expletives to express his views on agriculture—Owen W. Sherrill of Georgetown—today told a group of nearly 200 farmers, bankers, businessmen and county officials that if farmers of the South Plains do not cut their cotton acreage at least 35 per cent, "then God help you—the devil will get you." He outlined Uncle Sam's production loan plan to representatives from the area.

The session was held in the ball room of the Hilton hotel and P. R. Friend, banker and member of the county loan committee, presided and introduced the speakers. Mr. Friend was brief in his introductions because the meeting started half an hour late and the speakers cut their talks short to permit Mr. Sherrill to answer questions.

R. J. Murray Talks

R. J. Murray, Lubbock resident loaned to Dallas, was the first speaker and in his brief talk he stressed the cooperation of his organization, the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, in the handling of loan machinery. "The greatest asset of our country is its people," he said by way of introduction. "We (the T. C. A. A.) have maintained a world market in nearly every town in Texas," he said, "bringing to the farmers better prices for cotton."

A prediction that the next few years would see the greatest colonization program in West Texas, was made by the speaker.

Westbrook Is Heard

Lawrence Westbrook, Waco, West Texas administrator for the board gave a brief outline of the purposes of the loans. "It is a loan, not a dole," he declared. "It is an insult to offer to a farmer or to the resident of a town, a dole. I believe

Sales Tax Is Said To Be Revenue Hope

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9. (AP)—The house was told today by its ways and means committee that there was no other source of revenue that would yield the amount required for the treasury as the 2.25 per cent manufactures sales tax is expected to do.

The tax proposed by the committee is expected to yield $595,000,000 of the $1,096,000,000 estimated return of the bill and forms the legislation's foundation.

Further Breaks By Mobs Feared

POLICE DECLARE THEY WILL RESIST EVERY EFFORT AT RAID

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Mar. 9.—Authorities went about their investigation of Monday's fatal riot at the gates of the Ford Motor company's plant today with a weather eye out for new trouble that might develop from a meeting called for Friday to plan further demonstrations and a mass funeral for the four dead, announced for Saturday.

The meeting and the mass funeral were announced in hand bills late yesterday, which also professed to set forth demands the demonstrators had intended to make on Henry Ford through nine of their representatives.

Police To Resist

Police Chief Carl Brooks of Dearborn said "no further demonstration and no raid will be made on the Ford plant as long as there is a man left on the Dearborn police force to resist it."

The cross-fire of accusations as to who started the fighting which resulted in four deaths and injuries to several score policemen and marchers continued. Dearborn police insisted, and claimed to have witnesses prepared to testify, that six shots fired by a communist precipitated the battle. The wounded marchers as one denied any of their number was armed.

Demands Presented

Chief Brooks and the safety commission of Dearborn asserted last night the police followed "to the letter" their instructions to fire only to save their lives or to prevent destruction of property.

The "demands" to have been made on Ford, as set forth in the handbills, included: re-employment of all workers laid off by the Ford company; payment of 50 per cent of full wages to laid off workers; establishment of a six-hour day in the plant without reduction in pay and discontinuance of the "fatal speed-up," free medical service for employed and unemployed workers; abolition of private police; assumption by Ford of mortgages, back taxes and land contracts on workers' homes pending six months of regular employment by the owners; abolition of the "graft system" in hiring workers and the right to organize.

LUBBOCK BIDS FOR MEET

STATE DEMO LEADERS TODAY WILL CHOOSE CONVENTION CITY

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, March 9—Democratic leaders of Texas assembled here today as their state executive committee prepared to choose one of seven Texas cities as the site for the state convention May 24. That convention will choose delegates to the national convention in Chicago.

San Antonio, Houston, Austin, Dallas, Amarillo, Lubbock and Fort Worth were bidding for the choice.

Problem Is Up

After the selection of a convention city was made, the committee also had the important question of deciding whether candidates for congressmen-at-large — more than twenty of them—shall engage in a free-for-all campaign or run for designated places on the ticket.

Chairman W. O. Huggins arrived this morning and most of the other committee members were on hand for opening the meeting at 10 a. m.

Among Democratic leaders in attendance were Senator Pink Parrish of Lubbock, W. L. Boggess of Del Rio, former Mayor Oscar F. Holcombe of Houston, Clem Calhoun of Amarillo, Joe Burkett of San Antonio.

DESIGNATE PLACES

FORT WORTH, Mar. 9. (AP)—The Democratic state executive committee of Texas voted today to designate places one, two and three on the July primary ballot for candidates for congressman-at-large.

HENRY PU-YI WILL RULE NEW LAND

CEREMONY IS HELD IN PRESENCE OF NOTED FOREIGN VISITORS

(By The Associated Press)

CHANGCHUN, Manchuria, Mar. 9.—Henry Pu-Yi, young descendant of the former Manchu emperors was formally inaugurated chihcheng—"dictotar"—of Manchoukuo, "Land of Manchuria," this afternoon.

The ceremony took place in the main hall of the new presidential palace, formerly Changchun's city hall and lasted only 25 minutes. The attendance was limited to 30 Chinese, including several Manchus and Mongols, and 15 Japanese.

Pledges Efforts

"The people of Manchuria have long suffered under tyrannical government," the former boy emperor said in his inaugural address. "In these troublesome times I must confess myself poor in talent and unable to devise means to relieve the people from their pain and suffering.

"However, with a due sense of my unworthiness, I come to assume the office of dictator, unable to refuse to please the people. Therefore, I am determined to use my utmost efforts, with the kindly aid and wise advice of you all, to seek peace and safety for the state and the people."

"The heaven and sun above know all."

WRITS OF ERROR RECEIVED TODAY

AUSTIN, March 9 (AP)—The supreme court today granted writs of error in three cases involving a boundary dispute between counties in the Texas plains.

Original suits and cross actions brought have involved nine counties: Garza, Lynn, Lubbock, Crosby, Hockley, Terry, Yoakum, Kent and Cochran.

Garza county sued Lynn county to determine the location of the northwest corner of Garza county and the northeast corner of Lynn county. Lynn involved Lubbock, Crosby, Hockley and Terry counties in its answer to the suit. Terry's cross action brought in Yoakum county and Yoakum county then involved Cochran county. Lubbock county's reply questioned Kent county's boundaries.

RESIDENTS OF AREA SHAKEN BY BLAST

FOUR ARE HURT AND ONE MAN MISSING AFTER CHECK

(By The Associated Press)

CAMDEN, N. J., March 9.—An official of the Public Service Electric and Gas Co., said that 14 workmen were killed by the explosion in the purifying box at the company's plant here today. Four were injured, two of them seriously, and one man escaped.

Residents for blocks were shaken by the explosion, a mile from the central city area.

The scene was made harrowing by cries of relatives of the doomed men. Police roped off the streets a block from the gas tank.

Caused By Spark

The explosion was caused by a spark, either the result of a blow on the metal inner shell of the tank or a lighted match that ignited the gas collected within.

A tremendous roar announced the accident while practically the entire force of workmen, many of them earning their first pay in weeks, were trapped below.

Flame Extinguished

A fierce, torchlike flame which followed was speedily extinguished by the firemen and then the search within the chambers was begun.

Outwardly the tank showed no signs of the explosion. It is a square steel structure 20 by 20 feet and 15 feet deep raised from the ground on steel girders 15 feet in height.

MERCURY SLIDES DOWNWARD HERE

March may come in like a lamb but the 1932 variety more nearly resembles a polar bear, Lubbock residents could have reflected this morning as they faced the third consecutive day of cold March weather.

A temperature of 13 degrees was registered at the state experiment sub-station early today. The mercury hovered about that mark from 5 to 6 o'clock. At 7 o'clock, it had climbed only a single point, the reading being 14.

Although the day was clear and sunshine unbroken, the thermometric tendency barely indicated additional warmth. A temperature of 19 degrees was recorded here at 10:30 o'clock last night, Tuesday's low mark was 14½ degrees, early in the day.

BOMBING PLOT IS CLEARED

FUGITIVE ANARCHIST SUSPECT HELD IN FATAL SERIES

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 9—A nation-wide bomb plot of two months ago, directed against prominent Italian-Americans, was said by authorities today to have been cleared up with the arrest of Colombo Boeri, 47, a fugitive anarchist suspect.

Murray W. Garsson, special assistant secretary of labor, said he had "positive evidence" linking Boeri with a bombing last December in Easton, Pa., which cost the lives of two postal clerks and an explosive expert. Two alleged accomplices of Boeri are sought, Garsson said.

Explosives Found

In a raid on Boeri's home, Garsson said, a large quantity of explosives was found. Some of the explosives were similar to those used in the bombs, including one intercepted in Chicago.

Boeri refused to answer questions, Garson said he had learned Boeri was arrested in Chicago in 1918 on suspicion of anarchistic activities, posted bond and fled to Italy, returning to America after a short time.

Conspiracy Band Is Believed Discovered

TOKYO, March 9 (AP)—Tokyo police said today they believed they had uncovered the existence of a small band of ultra-patroits, dedicated to the assassination of notables in Japanese public life and responsible for the slaying of Junnosuke Inouye, former finance minister, and Baron Takuma Dan.

The arrested today a man named Daiji Kurosawa, who they said, was a third member of the "blood brotherhood" to which the two peasant slayers of Inouye and Baron Dan belonged.

Oliver Wendell Holmes Utters His Farewell To Life On 91st Birthday

(By The Associated Press)

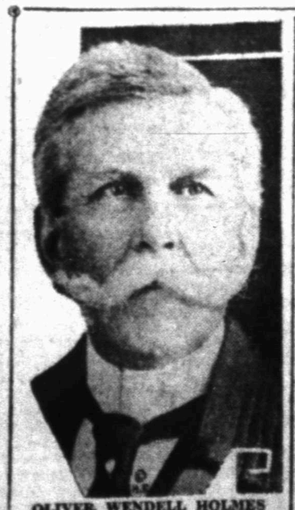

WASHINGTON, March 9—Oliver Wendell Holmes on his 91st birthday spoke a farewell to life.

To a distinguished company gathered to honor the great jurist at dinner last night he sent formal regrets that he could not attend, but he supplemented these in a separate message:

"Your kind invitation for March 8 has been answered, I believe, in due form. But I cannot say farewell to life and you in formal words.

"Life seems to me like a Japanese picture which our imagination does not allow to end with the margin. We aim at the infinite and when our arrow falls to earth it is in flames.

"At times the ambitious ends of life have made it seem to me lonely, but it has not been. You have given me the companionship of dear friends who have helped to keep alive the fire in my heart. If I could think that I had sent a spark to those who come after I should be ready to say goodbye."

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES

But the venerable writer of countless opinions which have lent brilliance to the supreme bench he occupied for almost 30 years, however near he may believe his mortal end to be, showed vigor of mind to the few friends who visited him on the anniversary. Cheerfully, he has expected that the end would steal upon him for some time. He had hoped it would find him still at work, but this could not be.

When TEETHING makes HIM FUSSY

One of the most important things you can do to make a teething baby comfortable is to see that little bowels do their work of carrying off waste matter promptly and regularly. For this nothing is better than Castoria, a pure vegetable preparation specially made for babies and children. Castoria acts so gently you can give it to young infants to relieve colic. Yet it is always effective, for older children too. Remember, Castoria contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics—is absolutely harmless. When your baby is fretful with teething or a food upset, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Be sure you get genuine Castoria with the name:

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

CO-OPERATION

In a normal family there are two parents. This fact we too often overlook. But our children dont. Frequently they are reminded of it tragically.

This time when it was assumed that the father was the family monarch. He always was to have the final word. Some do yet. Other fathers try, but if they have wives with intelligence and self respect they meet with strong resistances. At such times the children have to face the hazards of "no man's land."

Once I heard an eminent psychiatrist assert that the father still should be the dominant parent, in his views I do not share. If either parent is to dominant in the guidance of the children, it better be the mother, since she must spent more time and responsibility in their management, particularly in the earlier years.

No matter what one's theories may be, the newer freedom and responsibilities of the women make equal authority and responsibility for the children by both parents most nearly deal. They are a committee of two, with no chairman.

But with such relationships inevitable problems do arise. When either one dominance accepted graciously, there will as a rule, be fewer temporary conflicts, to be sure. Also there will be less planning and thinking together by the parents, less give and take, less need of exercising sportmanship. Consequently there will be less growth in character in both parents. Nor can there be so much contribution to the welfare of the children as when both parents work together a practical program for the upbringing of their children.

For both parents to function at their best, there must be continuous effort by each at cultivating sportsmanship toward the other, continuous effort to adjust the self and to exercise deference to each other continuous interchange of point of view in a calm, deliberate fashion. This, of course, is not easy.

To this end young parents, especially the young married pair who are expectant parents, have great possibilities for mutual growth in creative parenthood. Once the child is conceived the ideal pair spend many hours together talking over their points of view, making ready to adjust themselves to the child when he will have been born, and to each other in relation to him.

They plan for his upbringing, thinking through together their objectives, and how they are going to arrive at these objectives—his habits and how they best can be developed, mapping out their methods of procedure and the principles they covenant to work as one, to follow as deliberately and carefully as if they together were going to launch a great business enterprise at the head of which both were to operate as one executive.

Once the child arrives, many new problems will arise that they had not foreseen. These problems they will meet in the same calm, sportmanlike manner in which they had considered hypothetical proolems previous to his birth. Then from time to time they will sit down together deliberating, analyzing other problems and planning ways of meeting them ere they emerge.

Wee Scouty led the dancing for about a half an hour or more. He did a little funny dance which made the tub men grin. Then Duncy said, "Let's sin ga song and let our voices ring out strong. We'll show that we can sing real well, if you all will join in."

The butcher said, "That will be great. Please start right in. Gee, we can't wait." As soon as you have finished we will start our lengthy hike. You four will make a fine quartet and you'll be pretty good, I'll bet. Please make it something that you think we're pretty sure to like."

And then their little song rang out. They sang, "We travel 'round about to see the sights in every land. It's wondrous as can be. It seems there's always something new. Oh, there are lots of things to do. We never stay one place too long. Four travelers are we.

"We've been in planes up in the air and often we have had a scare. And we have sailed the ocean till we found a foreign shore. It didn't take long to unfold our song. And now it has been told. We can't sing any more because there isn't any more."

The three men clapped to beat the band and one cried, "My but that was grand. And now we'd best be on our way. You youngsters follow me." So, through the woods the party walked and to the men the Tinies talked. They all looked forward to a sight that they'd be glad to see. At last they reached the butcher's place. A smile spread on the old man's face. He said, "You all will notice that my home's a big meat block. Come on, we all will go inside. You'll find that it's unlatched, because I never use a lock."

(The Tinies see a strange sight in the next story.)

POST SCHOOL EQUIPPED

FEW SCHOOLS HAVE AS LARGE AN EXHIBIT FOR STUDENTS

By Staff Correspondent

POST, March 9.—Few high schools in West Texas, or in the state for that matter, the size of the Post high school, have as large a number of grain heads and cotton samples and other agricultural exhibits for the teaching of vocational agriculture as does the Post high school, according to school men who have inspected the vocational work in the local school.

C. J. Van Zandt, completing his second year as teacher, has 1,500 head of grain sorghums, a large amount of wheat, oats and barley and between 350 and 400 samples of cotton. All of the grains and cotton is used in class instruction and a good deal has been hand raised by members of the class.

There are 29 boys taking the work this year. All phases of vocational work is being undertaken by the boys, who are enthusiastic over their project work.

The grain sorghum includes milo, kafir, hegari and feterita. There is also cane and sudan. Three varieties of corn are used for instruction work. The cotton is all good middling or better.

This year at the annual vocational tournament at Texas Technological college, date for which has not been announced, Post will have four teams: livestock and plant and two new ones, dairying and poultry. The boys have been working hard this year on their projects and there are a number of farmers and others who are assisting the boys by having them work on their livestock or poultry.

In the vocational department is a large case displaying the various ... seed owned by the boys as well as types of seed grown in West Texas.

At the recent vocational agriculture tournament held at Plainview in connection with the calf and pig show for Hale county, teams placed as follows: plant, second; livestock, third; dairying, fourth and poultry, ...

Post had the high point man in Guernsey judging and the team as only 20 points behind the high team in livestock.

Clarence Davies was the high man in hogs and horses and also scored high point man of the meet.

The boys have won numerous cups and trophies through their work.

ROBBERY REPORTED

The carburetor and ignition box top were stolen from a Ford coach at 606 Avenue W, police were told last night.

She THINKS it's "RHEUMATISM" ...but it's really SELF POISONING

Do those twinges of pain in your muscles and joints mean that you have rheumatism? Not necessarily.

Thousands of people who think they have rheumatism are really suffering from self-poisoning. Poisons from putrid waste in the intestines have been absorbed into the blood. The polluted blood in turn carries the poisons all over the body. They not only torture the joints and muscles, but soon attack the kidneys and other vital organs. In time they even irritate the brain.

So if you have pain in the muscles and joints don't be in a hurry to call it "rheumatism." First make a little test to learn the truth.

AN AMAZING TEST

For the next three nights take a dose of B-L Tonic. If your case is like those of thousands of other so-called rheumatism sufferers you will be amazed at the improvement in three days. The pain will rapidly disappear. Your system will eliminate a startling amount of foul-smelling poisons. You will begin to feel healthier, happier. But that is only a promise of the reward to follow. Continue taking B-L Tonic every night for three weeks. You will thus keep the poisons from regaining a foothold in your blood. Meanwhile the stimulating properties of B-L Tonic will sharpen your appetite, improve your digestion, and thus help build up a more robust resistance to disease. Nine chances out of ten that's all you need to get rid of your "rheumatism." Get B-L Tonic at

LOVED TO EAT, AND NOW SHE CAN!

Much of the suffering from so-called "indigestion" or acid-dyspepsia could be avoided if everyone could know what thousands like Miss Lillian Ralston have learned. This New York City business woman, who lives at 1160 Park Avenue, says:

"I suffered from headaches and heartburn after meals; couldn't sleep like I should; never felt right.

"For five years I experimented with medicines and treatments, until I learned about Pape's Diapepsin. I have used three packages now; have gained five pounds, and feel fine."

If you, too, suffer from sourness, gas, belching, nausea, headaches, dizziness, or pain after eating—either regularly or just at times, get a box of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist. Then you need never worry again about what you eat.

Why Winter Cooking Requires More Gas—

who use gas for both cooking and heating realize why their bills are higher in winter than summer. They know that it takes much more gas to keep them warm during severe months than in periods of mild weather.

In

cases, however, where gas is used only for cooking, consumers sometime wonder why their bills are higher than in summer.

There are several reasons, one of which is that more hot food is eaten in winter than in summer.

Water

coming from the faucet in summer frequently averages around 70 degrees in temperature, while in winter it may average as low as 45 degrees, or a temperature lower than that of the ice water you drink in summer.

Thus

in winter, the temperature of the water may have to be raised 167 degrees to reach the boiling point, while in summer it may be necessary to raise it only 142 degrees—or even less.

This

same situation applies in more or less degree to all branches of cookery. The articles of food go into the oven or on the stove at a lower temperature than in summer, the utensils are colder and the air in and around the stove is colder—so more gas is required for cooking in winter than in summer even if the same menus are used.

Needless Alarm

Now and then someone comments on the fact that when famous women of the year are chosen by various periodicals and organizations the group is always composed of women whose activities have not been confined to their homes. That special prominence seems reserved for women who have achieved success in some field which has little to do with bruised knees and jelly tarts and round red mouths that whisper children's funny little secrets.

Of course the natural answer is that women whose achievements are known to a larger group are the ones who are chosen. But the fact that this is true in no wise diminishes the work of those who make a home from a house of rooms and plant love and laughter and sympathy in children's hearts.

The very fact that the graciousness of homemaking is taken as a matter of course shows that the foundation of our nation is built on solid rock. If such a trust were played up as something unusual there would be cause for danger. Storyhours at candle-lighting time, lullabies crooned with lips close-pressed against sleepy, curly heads rhymed voices that chant the old Now-I-Lay-Me-Down-to-Sleep . . . . these are cornerstones of American home life.

If it were an unusual thing for a woman to like the syrupy smell of boiling fruit that will make jam for her children's sandwiches, if it were strange for her to glory in the clean, crisp touch of white sheets, the cups and saucers that stand in bright rows in her cupboard—if women didn't love hearthfires, then there would be cause for serious alarm.

It is only right and natural for some women to go into the world and toil. There are tasks for them to do. And many of them keep homes as well.

But the vast majority keep faith at hearthsides. A woman's greatest pleasure consists now, as always, in telling the man she loves that it isn't his fault that he hasn't won the laurels that he deserves . . . and in telling a little boy, who looks like his father, that of course he will win them some day.

Those who are afraid that the modern woman—as women whose working hours are spent outside of their homes are sometimes called—has changed are doing much useless worrying. If the modern business woman were asked, and answered truthfully, it would be discovered that she is pretty closely related to her home-keeping sisters.

Gandhi's Secret

Mahatma Gandhi's recent plea to his followers to get rid of mankind's two greatest fears—the fear of death and the fear of the loss of material possessions—helps to explain how it is that this wizened little man can possess such a tremendous amount of power.

"No power on earth," says Gandhi, "can subdue a man who has shed these two fears."

When you stop to think about it, it is easy to see that he is right. If you have not the slightest qualms about losing everything that you possess, nothing that anyone can do to you can frighten you; and when a man who is in that fortunate position puts himself at the head of a great movement, it will prove an uncommonly hard task to stop him.

Those who said the disarmament conference would be unable to agree on anything were dead wrong. The delegates have already agreed on a two-weeks' vacation.

If Alfalfa Bill Murray lives up to his name, he will top the presidential straw votes by a whole stack.

WHEN a United States Senator dies it is very romantic and touching for the governor of the state affected to appoint the late senator's wife to the vacant post. Or, if the vacancy is filled by the electorate instead of by appointment, it is touching to see the widow swept into Washington on a wave of popular ballots.

But is that right? Is it the smart thing to do?

The Plainsman does not think—so—unless the widow happens to be equipped, as few women are to handle the position.

The business of electing or appointing a man or a woman to public office just because his father held it before him or her husband held it at some time or another, does not appear logical to this column.

The Plainsman prefers to see ability and talent, rather than sympathy, play the big part in the selection of our officers from constable to President. Gamblers bet with their heads and not with their hearts and it behooves electors to follow a similar route in choosing their public officials.

JOHN Garner, the Texas boy who made good in Washington, is making Uncle Joe Cannon look like a playboy as far as running the House of Representatives is concerned. The Journal's Washington correspondent advises that Garner is an absolute czar; his followers not only respect him but they fear him.

Rainey, the Yankee floor leader, is a figurehead and stands in awe of 'Uvalde Jack' Garner is courteous to Rainey but he doesn't pay any attention to him. Even the Senate jumps when Garner cracks the whip.

The report is interesting—and also cheering. It is cheering because there is a chance that a forceful character may land in the White House after the next election. Garner's Presidential chances are getting better and better, all the time and if he is nominated and elected, his reputation indicates that he'll run the show when he takes over the reins of government.

PERHAPS you've never stopped to consider it, but it's been a long time since the American people have had the pleasure of watching a dominant character in the White House. Not since the days of Woodrow Wilson—before the illness which cut him down to a mere shell—has a hard-hitting, straight-shooting executive held forth.

SPEAKING of Presidential candidates, Governor Roosevelt has just climbed out of one nine hole and it looks like he's going to be pushed into another. And the worst thing about it is that he can't blame it on politics. The gent who is causing him all the trouble is not a Republican.

Judge Samuel Seabury, who has been lord high inquisitor of New York's graft probe, put Roosevelt on the spot when he turned over to the governor one Sheriff Farley, of New York City, who had banked a great deal more money than he could account for. High in the councils of dear old Tammany, Sheriff Farley caused Roosevelt many a sleepless night before the governor had to remove him—or else. Farley was removed by executive order, which didn't help Roosevelt any with powerful Tammany.

Now Judge Seabury is opening both guns on Mayor Walker, who is being boomed in the north and east as a vice-presidential possibility, and if Seabury does as well as people have reason to expect he will, Walker may be the next fair-haired son of Tammany to walk the plank.

If Seabury forces the issue, Roosevelt will be in another switch.

And there's no dodging the issue.

When Is A War Not A War? That Is A Question The Entire World Has Asked And Sino-Jap Conflict Is Good Example

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, March 9—Question:

When is a war not a war?

Answer: When it's a war.

That's about the most satisfactory explanation anyone can get here as to why the present war between Japan and China isn't a war. Many uninformed persons, of course, think that it's a real war when cities are showered with bombs and thousands of troops and civilians are killed in weeks of heavy fighting.

Dutcher

But officially, as Secretary of State Stimson remarked at a press conference the other day, the two Asiatic nations are "in a state of profound peace." Officially, in fact, they are still "friendly powers." You might think that in all the notes Stimson has sent over there there might have been at least one accidental mention of "war." But no such slip of the pen has occurred.

All Agree There's No War

The League of Nations and the European governments also agree there that there's no war in the Orient.

Japan, of course, has insisted as much all along. Strangest of all, China has been especially meticulous not only in not declaring war but also from making the barest hint that war existed.

If she did, Japan, under precedents of international law, might justify herself in suddenly hurling all her military might at China.

Law Bears It Out

Difficult as the distinction may be for the lay mind, it is well grounded in international law. Under international law, it appears, you can get away with murder. And mass murder as well.

Of course, you are advised at the State Department, if Japan declared war and then refused to stop and negotiate on the call of the other powers she would be directly violating the Kellogg treaty. And if either she or China were to admit that a state of war existed it would be tantamount to a declaration of war.

A declaration of war is a statement that one government is proceeding against another government with all its forces of war. Far from being at war, Japan says she is merely defending herself and protecting Japanese lives and property.

Other "No War" Cases

American and British warships were firing shells into Nanking as late as 1927 but it wasn't war. In the so-called Anglo-Chinese war 90 years ago, when the British bombarded the Woosung forts, forced abandonment of Shanghai and wrung treaties, indemnities, concessions and territory, there was never a declaration of war.

Just in case we are still mixed up about this war business, let us follow in Stimson's footsteps and turn to a big book called "International Law," by Professor Ellery C. Stowell. That's the book Stimson consults every time he forgets something or gets stuck. Stowell admits that war is a difficult thing to define, but he says:

What Is War?

"War is that condition between states or politically independent communities which results when one of these indicates its intention to make a presumably jural use of force without specific limitation against another in order to overcome its resistance to the observance of international law. The evidence of the intention to have recourse to force, which has the consequence of establishing a state of war, may result from a formal declaration or from actual acts of hostility sufficient to establish the fact of the existence of such a contest by force of arms."

But Stowell also dwells on "punitive expeditions" and "vicarious enforcement of international rights." He says:

"If the offending government is greatly inferior in strength to the state which undertakes the punitive expedition an attempt to offer resistance is not always recognized as war."

War, according to Stowell, is "the last step to the most complete use of remedial force which is open to states."

So you see how it is as between China and Japan!

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Diet of the Normal Diet," "List of Books on," "The Care of the Hair," "Feminine Hygiene," and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Expectant Mother," "Indigestion and Constipation for Mothers," "Bed Wet and Skin," "Infant Feeding," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

SELF DIAGNOSIS

One out of about every hundred letters from readers which come to this desk states the opinion of self-diagnosis of the writer that he or she has an acid condition of the body.

Dr. Clendening

This common belief concerns one of the most complicated phenomena in the functions of the body. Our fluids are neutral—neither acid nor alkaline, or to be exact, very slightly alkaline in health and the body fights fiercely to preserve that neutrality. Even the slightest disturbance of the balance causes grave symptoms, and when the scales are considerably unbalanced it is almost impossible to restore them, and death ensues.

We have various ways of measuring the amount of acidity of the body fluids and of the accumulation of one form of reaction over another. These ways which have been devised are indeed extremely accurate. One is by measuring the carbon dioxide capacity of the blood plasma. As this is lowered it indicates a change from neutral to acid in the body fluids.

One of the things which causes such a change is lack of oxygen delivered to the cells in sufficient amounts. When this occurs an acid which is always formed from muscular activity—lactic acid—and which is normally burned by the oxygen in the tissues, accumulates.

Thus in states of low blood pressure—below 70 systolic—there is a gradual lowering of the carbon dioxide capacity of the blood plasma and this gets worse as the blood pressure falls. In states of surgical shock the condition is so severe as to be probably the most important factor in the fatal outcome so frequent in such cases.

Acidosis of an entirely different type is that seen in diabetes. If sugar is so insufficiently burned in the body that there is not a coincident burning of fats, the fatty acids, which are incomplete stages of fat combustion, accumulate and this acidosis results in diabetic coma. It is a form which can probably be entirely disregarded in persons other than diabetics. Fortunate, also, is the fact that our powers of treating it by insulin, are now very effective.

The body guards its neutrality so jealously—even the change in the blood reaction from the normal pH 7.4 to pH 6.95, which is infinitesimally over the acid range, results in coma—and maintains so efficient an automatic set of devices to make the proper adjustments that it is difficult to say whether any actual disease pictures of an obscure nature are due to acidosis. Perhaps they are, and study along this line has possibilities of fruitfulness.

Questions From Readers

A. E. P.: "Will you please tell me something more about Vitamin E? Do all cereals contain it? Is Vitamin E destroyed by heat?"

Answer: Vitamin E is widely distributed in many food stuffs. It is, in fact, probably the most generally distributed vitamin of all. Lettuce, whole wheat, egg yolk and liver, have been particularly mentioned as foods in which it is found. Vitamin E is not very easily destroyed by heat.

I. L. P.: "I would like to inquire what, if anything, it means to a woman of 50 in good health, to have a blood pressure of 110-112."

Answer: The figures you quote are entirely within the range of the normal and are extraordinarily good for a woman of that age.

Mrs. H. A. H.: "I have many warts on the tops of my hands. They grow rapidly and look terrible. Please tell me what to do to get rid of them."

Answer: A remedy which is frequently efficient is to get an ounce bottle of formalin, standard strength, and several times a day touch the warts with the cork which has been moistened by the solution. The X-ray is an almost certain method of getting rid of warts.

Berlin and Babies

NEW YORK, March 8—Irving Berlin continues to inject something of his immediate emotional reactions into his music.

It may be recalled that at the time his courtship of the charming Ellin Mackay was temporarily halted by parental interference, Berlin turned out two of his most wistful numbers: "I'll Be Loving You Always" and "All Alone By the Telephone." The first tune became his post-wedding song.

Berlin referred to it as "the chorus."

For something like five years Berlin failed to write a music show, and Broadway wondered. To be sure, he turned out a couple of numbers a year and composed a piece or two for Hollywood.

Recently it became known that Berlin had the score of "Face the Music" ready. Most of the compositions were satirical. But critics and audiences found a lullaby quality in one of them—a return to the sentimental vein. It was titled "Soft Lights and Sweet Music."

Just about a week after the number was first heard on Broadway, a second baby arrived in the Berlin household.

Home, Sweet Home!

Year in and year out the sidewalks and pavement in front of the Palace Theater attract a shifting crowd of assorted theatrical folk. Their manners, apparel, chatter, vanity, bravado and customs have become famous in song and story.

Some whose shoes are without heels wear spats and carry a cane; some boast of "having just come from a confab with Flo"; some have been without jobs for months, and some are waiting for a train to the nearest tanktown.

Yet whatever the status, the Palace has the same sentimental attachment for a trouper that his old alma mater has for a college man.

The other night, after an absence of several years, Sophie Tucker told the story of the whole trouping mob when she told a shouting audience simply: "It's just like coming home!"

Yes, whether they're standing on the sidewalk shivering in the cold and borrowing dimes or getting the big money on the inside, reaching this particular spot in Broadway is—"just like coming home."

And many are the tear-stained tales to testify to this!

In Again, Out Again

One of the more amusing demonstrations of the "Broadway gesture" has just been given by Earl Carroll. Just a couple of weeks ago Carroll might have been heard broadcasting over the radio his delight in the glittering show-house which bore his name and which was opened with great pomp and ceremony early in the current season.

Within a few days, however, Carroll was bidding farewell to this theater, while real estate moguls said he hadn't paid his rent.

Hardly had I finished feeling a bit sorry for "poor old Earl" when a note came to my desk. It read: "Mr. Carroll has taken elaborate new offices in Fifth Avenue at a rental of $25,000."

While looking about for new offices, incidentally, Carroll passed the stage door of a playhouse and noticed the Cain warehouse trucks backed up. One of the big music shows had folded up and was being carted away. Less than an hour after he had been ousted from his own house, Carroll was preparing to move his production.

It's this dizzy in-and-out, up-and-down that gives Broadway much of its exciting flavor.

SLATON GIRLS WOULD ENTER CAGE MEET

Dear Plainsman: The time is drawing near for the annual A. A. U. girls basketball tournament to be played. In fact, it is to be March 17-19 at Celeste, Texas.

Last year the girls from Celeste came to Plainview and carried off the banner. We do not know just how many teams are going from the South Plains but we would like to see Lubbock county represented at this tournament. We, down here at Slaton, feel that the high school girls, who have been county champion for five or six years, consecutively, should have a chance to represent our county in this event.

The girls had quite a little sum saved up for this event this year but were among the depositors who suffered in the recent bank failure. It looks rather gloomy, just when things looked so favorable, too.

Now is the time for all men, good and true, to come to the aid of their county champs and see that Lubbock county is represented in this, one of the important athletic events of Texas.

What do you say, Mr. Plainsman? What do you say, friends of Slaton? What do you say Slatonites? Can we, the Tigresses of Slaton High, enter this tournament at Celeste? Just how strong are you for us? We are ready to do our very best to represent you, so would like for some good booster to get out and see that the necessary means are at hand for us to pack our grips next week and head for the city of Celeste.

Lovingly yours,

Ruby Banks, Helen Harper, Inez Patterson, Irene Cook, Mildred Self, Laura Saage, Maurine Mitchell, Maxie Poteet, Lorena Saage, Imogene Harper, Tigresses, and J. G. Wilhite, coach.

(Dear Tigresses and Coach: I am glad to publish this for you. I hope you get to go to Celeste because I think you have earned it and because I believe you can win the state championship. Best Wishes: The Plainsman.)

One good thing the depression has done is to abolish the fashionable 18-day diet. There are too many on it for it to be fashionable.

Makes You Lose Unhealthy Fat

Mrs. Ethel Smith of Norwich, Conn., writes: "I lost 16 lbs. with my first bottle of Kruschen. Being on night duty it was hard to sleep days but now since I am taking Kruschen I sleep plenty, eat as usual and lose fat, too."

To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a few cents—get it at Mark Halsey Drug, City Drug, or any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and harmless way to lose fat—your money gladly returned.

Don't accept anything but Kruschen because you must reduce safely.—(Adv.)

INCOME TAXES ALMOST DUE

DATA ON HOW ONE IS TO MAKE RETURNS IS GIVEN

BY DAVID BURNET
Commissioner of Internal Revenue

WASHINGTON, March 9 (AP) — Under the law, returns must be filed on or before March 15, 1932, with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer has his legal residence or principal place of residence. At the time of filing, at least one-fourth of the tax must be paid. The taxpayer may, if he desires, pay in full at the time of filing.

The taxing act directs the imposition of severe penalties for failure to file and pay on time, an amount

EDITOR'S NOTE

At the request of the Associated Press, instruction on how to make income tax returns have been written by David Burnet, commissioner of internal revenue, in three articles. This is the first.

equal to 25 per cent of the tax in instances where no attempt to evade tax is involved and more severe penalties where elements of attempted fraud are present.

Those Affected

Individuals required to file.

Returns are required of every unmarried or single person whose net income for 1931 was $1,500 or more. Widowers, widows, divorcees and married persons not living together are classed as single persons. Every married person living with husband or wife, either of whom received a net income of 3,500 or more, as well as every person, single or married whose gross income was 5,000 or more regardless of net income; also husbands and wives whose combined net income was $3,500 or over or whose combined gross income was $5,000 or over, must file a return or returns.

Definition Given

Gross and net income defined.

Two of the terms used in the income tax law, namely, "gross income" and "net income" should be noted particularly, as they are vitally important to the whole subject of the income tax.

Gross income includes in general all income from any source whatever, unless exempt from tax by law. Net incomes upon which the tax is assessed, is gross income less the deductions allowed under the statute. Such deductions include business and professional expenses, as salaries, pensions and bonuses to employees, taxes, losses, interest paid, bad debts, depletion, depreciation, contributions, etc. Failure to understand deductions against gross income and credits against net income has resulted in numerous errors on the part of taxpayers.

Exemptions Listed

Determining gross income.

Certain items are specifically exempt from the income tax and need not be included in the taxpayer's return for the purpose of determining gross income. Among such items are the proceeds from life insurance policies amounts received as gifts, bequests, devises or inheritances, interest on municipal bonds, state bonds, bonds issued by the possessions of the United States, federal farm loan bonds, and certain bonds issued by the United States government, amounts received through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation acts for personal injuries or sickness and damages received on account of such injuries or sickness.

Amounts received as compensation, family allotments, and allowances under the provisions of the war-risk insurance and the vocational rehabilitation acts, or the World war veterans' act, 1924 or as pensions from the United States for services of the beneficiary or another in the military or naval forces of the United States in time of war, or as a state pension for services rendered by the beneficiary or another for which the state is paying a pension, also are exempt from tax.

(The next article will deal with how to determine income subject to tax.)

SCHOOL TOTAL HAS BIG NUMBER

(By Staff Correspondent)

POST, Mar. 9—With an enrollment of approximately 600 for the year, the Post school system now has 510 pupils enrolled, Ira Witt, superintendent, says.

There are 124 in the high school and 28 in the seventh grade, housed in the senior high school building, Mr. Witt said. At the grade school there are 358 pupils.

Nineteen teachers comprise the faculty, nine in the high school including Mr. Witt who teaches two subjects, and ten in the grade building. Besides these there are two others, a kindergarten teacher and a music teacher, whose salary is met by tutition fees.

"Every high school teacher holds a degree," O. C. Thomas, principal, said. "There are very few schools of this size that have a faculty with that record."

The high school enrollment is divided as follows: seniors, 33; juniors, 34; sophmores, 29 and freshmen, 28, a total of 124.

STORIES TOLD ABOUT RANCH

MRS. GILES CONNELL HAS A PICTORIAL RANCH HISTORY

(By Staff Correspondent)

POST, Mar. 9. —One of the most complete pictorial histories of any ranch in Texas is that of the O. S. ranch here, owned by Giles Connell of Post and Fort Worth, and his father W. E. Connell.

Mrs. Giles Connell has compiled a pictorial history of the ranch, dating back to 1890. The pictures are actual photographs of roundups, ranch scenes, the homes and other operations.

At nearly every roundup since that time, and there have been two a year, spring and fall, there has been a camera of some kind to take snapshots of the roundup and the participants.

"We know the names of every man in all of the pictures except half a dozen or so," Mr. Connell said. "We have taken the old pictures, rather Mrs. Connell has, and from old timers we have the names of all those in the picture, except just a few.

"I recall one early roundup scene. There are two men in that whose names we do not know. They had just ridden up before the photographer snapped the scene and of course were included. It was taken down near Colorado City some time in the early 90's. In another picture there are two men whose identity is not clear.

"We have pictures of each of the outfits, the managers, bosses and owners. It is a very interesting book and Mrs. Connell takes great pride in keeping it up."

The ranch has roundups about May 1 and November 1. Length is two or three weeks as a rule, sometimes less, depending upon the number of cattle on the ranch and the calf crop.

Why You Must Do More Than Change "Brands" If You Want to Get Better Coffee

Here are 20 Different Brands but the Coffee Inside is the Same in All.

For a Real Change

(FOLGER PHOTO)

How many times have you changed your brand of coffee trying to find one your husband really liked?

Not one woman in 50, domestic science experts tell us, knows the real reason why coffee that men like is so hard to get. Yet the reason is simple.

All your life you've probably been using just one kind of coffee. For according to U. S. Import Statistics almost 70% of all coffee sold is this one kind. You may try 20 different brands and styles of package. But it's still the same coffee inside.

So for a real change, you must do more than change "brands." You need a different KIND OF COFFEE!

A Different Country

Down along the West Coast of Central America, we procure coffees utterly different in flavor and richness. These mountain coffees, experts concede, have a rare tang and mellow body, not duplicated anywhere else in the world.

If you want something different in coffee, try them! Less than one pound in 20 of the world's coffee comes from this famous district. It's a flavor that few people in a lifetime ever have a chance to enjoy. See for yourself how unusual it is.

A 3-Day Test

Order a pound of Folger's from your grocer today. It comes in a special key-opening vacuum tin that brings it right to your coffee pot as fresh as it left the roaster. Drink it tomorrow morning. Next morning serve the coffee you have been using.

Transplanting baby coffee trees in the Antigua district where Folger secures coffees famed the world over for extra richness and flavor.

The third morning serve Folger's again. Then choose between them.

If for any reason you decide against Folger's, your grocer will refund your money. We'll pay him—gladly. But if you do as 8 out of 10 do, you'll never be satisfied to return to less flavorful coffees. Try it. You'll be glad you did. 130

Att: Mr. Norman, Adv. Mgr.,

Gentlemen:

It will no doubt be of interest to you to know the results obtained thru your papers in our recent advertising campaign introducing "FLAKE O' WHEAT" Breakfast Cereal.

Within ten days after starting this campaign we had placed this product in 51 stores in Lubbock, some calling our office even before we called on them. The out of town results was, however, more surprising. In one town practically all of the better stores had received calls for "FLAKE O' WHEAT" within two days after running our introductory ad.

We are indeed gratified at the response obtained from your paper in the matter of—Results, Expense and Time required to acquaint the public with our product.

Yours very truly,

BASEBALL'S BIG "IF" NOW HOVERS IN TIGER QUARTER

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

'Way back in 1925 the first coaching school ever conducted in Texas, if we remember aright, was held at St. Edwards University at Austin. Knute Rockne and Doc Meanwell conducted the school. Jack Meagher, now head coach at Rice Institute, was promoter of the school.

Known for his versitility on and off the football field, Mr. Rockne stole the show when he recited a speech, originated by him, entitled "Football in 1940." He has recited it often since then, and not many coaches in the country have not heard it. Due to the recent changes in football rules, several scribes have tried to go into paradoxical verbiage tending to belittle the changes, which seem to be "softening" the great old game. None of them, however, has been as good as the original one by Rockne. He must have sensed then that the time would come when stricter rules would be made. We submit the parody here, respectfully:

"It was a nice, crisp, autumn day, just cool enough to allow all the socially elect to appear in their latest style winter garb. Notre Dame met Nebraska today in the nineteenth football contest.

"Receiving at fullback for Nebraska was M. Bickerdyke Hicks III, of the famous North Platte Hicks. The Nebraska team was very grandly attired in scarlet and mauvette tunics and suspended from their necks were pendants of the lavelliere type on which was engraved the coat of arms of the university, with the motto, 'we will fight fearlessly, but fairly.' About their waists were wide girdles with a Louis XIV buckle. The shoes were by Hanan & Son, hosiery by Burson. Their striking costumes were very much commented on by the spectators.

"Kicking off for Notre Dame was T. Fitzpatrick Murphy, familiarly known to his companions as 'Two Lumps,' as he always calls for two lumps of sugar in his Orange Pekoe. The Notre Dame team was also striking in appearance in its green shirtwaists and its headgear comprised of a woodman's toque. Unique, without being gaudy, were the hip pads which were trimmed in georgette. The officials were in the regulation knickerbockers with crepe de chine blouses.

"Precisely at 2:30, 'Two Lumps' kicked off to Bickerdyke, who was receiving at fullback for Nebraska. Bickerdyke returned the ball ten yards before he was tagged by the Notre Dame left end. Nebraska tried to advance the ball on three plays, but found the tagging defense of Notre Dame was impregnable, and so on the fourth down, Bickerdyke dropped back and punted forty yards to 'Two Lumps' right in his tracks. To their dismay, the Notre Dame lads now found that Nebraska was just as adept at tagging as the Irish were, and so the first half ended with neither side having any decided advantage.

"Between halves both teams had tea, and feeling greatly refreshed therefrom, they went back into the game for the second half with renewed determination. There was nothing startling in the third quarter, as both teams continued to play defensive ball. It looked like a deadlock.

"In the middle of the fourth quarter, however, on a hidden ball play, the ethics which was severely questioned by some of the spectators, old Bickerdyke went streaking up the sidelines with a clear field for the goal posts. A groan went up from Notre Dame.

"But when 'Two Lumps,' who was playing safety, saw Bickerdyke streaking towards the goal posts and no one near to stop him, he cooly put his hands to his mouth and called in a loud voice: 'Oh, Bickerdyke! There is a run in your stocking!'

"And what could poor Bickerdyke, being terribly mortified, do but cut for the club house! As a result, the game was saved for Notre Dame, even though it was one of those nothing to nothing scores which are rather unsatisfactory, to say the least."

British Polo Star Is Seriously Injured

DEL MONTE, Calif., March 9 (AP)—Though his condition still was considered serious, Capt. C. T. I ("Pat") Roark, British polo player of international fame, who was injured here, was reported "resting easily" by his physician Dr. Mast Wolfson.

Dr. Wolfson said Captain Roark was suffering with multiple concussions and sprains.

If it were possible to reach the moon, an adult weighing 175 pounds on earth would weigh only 29 pounds on the moon.

DETROIT HEAD DEPENDS ON GEHRINGER

STANLEY HARRIS SAYS HE MAY PRODUCE A SURPRISE TEAM

BY RUSSELL J. NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9 (AP)—The big "if" in the baseball plans of the Detroit Tigers this season concerns Charley Gehringer and his return to form. The brilliant second sacker, whom Manager Stanley Harris describes as "the best in the league, when right," injured his throwing arm in the first game of 1931. Illness also handicapped him, but he played 101 games to hit .311.

Thus far in training, Gehringer has given every indication he will be ready. If he is, Skipper Harris says the Tigers may be a "surprise team." And if he isn't ready the Detroit pilot says "we're sunk!"

Need His Punch

"We need Gehringer's punch at the plate and his steadiness at second. The same goes for Dale Alexander. Big 'Alex' could improve his work around first base but he doesn't need any lessons in standing up to home plate."

A pitching staff fortified with veterans and boasting several young prospects is the high spot of the club. Tom Bridges, with the team last season, is ill with the "flu" but Manager Harris looks to him for help later.

Rookies Promising

Luke Hamlin and Isidore Goldstein, rookie right handers from the Texas league, have shown promise. "Whit" Wyatt, who divided his time between Detroit and Beaumont last year, will be given every chance. Sorrell, Uhl, Whitehill, Hogsett and Herring will handle the heavy work.

Catching duties will be cared for by Harold "Muddy" Ruel and Ray Hayworth.

Bill Rogell, acquired from Toronto last year, appears to have cinched the shortstop position. Nolen Richardson, up from Toronto last season, has first call at present at third base, with Bill Rhiel, up from Portland of the Coast league, and Henry Schuble, from Beaumont, furnishing opposition.

Roy Johnson and Johnny Stone are outfield regulars. Bill Lawrence and Joyner White, [illegible] rookie from Beaumont, are practically certain to be carried along.

YOUTH IS GIVEN SUSPENDED TERM

A two-year suspended sentence was dealt Max Lee Farm, 18, after he had pleaded guilty of attempted burglary Tuesday afternoon in 72nd district court. The suspended sentence, fixed by a jury, was not opposed by Durwood H. Bradley, district attorney.

Farm was charged early in January after an intruder at the Bray tailoring plant, 2410 Nineteenth street, was shot by P. J. Candler, plant nightwatchman. Farm subsequently was treated for shotgun wound on his face, right shoulder, right hand and right foot. The injuries caused loss of one eye, his attorney said in arguments.

Homer Roark was freed of prohibition law violation charges when a jury acquitted him yesterday afternoon.

Body Of March King Is To Lie In State

WASHINGTON, March 9 (AP)—The body of John Philip Sousa will lie in state in the band room of the marine barracks from 3 p. m. today until the great bandmaster is borne by a naval escort Thursday to congressional cemetery.

Visitor from official and private circles have filed through the chapel on Pennsylvania avenue where "the march king's" body was brought Sunday night following his death from a heart attack in Reading, Pennsylvania.

He will be given a funeral with full military honors.

About This Time of Year! . . . . By Okerbloom

AROUND THE TRAINING CAMP CIRCUIT OF BIG LEAGUES

MARK IS SET

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 9 (AP)—Danny MacFayden, versatile Red Sox pitcher, has set his mark at 18 victories for the season and he has hopes of possibly winning 20 games for his team mates. Bob Quinn, Sox owner, says the Somerville, Mass., deacon is at his prime and "may burn up the American league."

BRAVES NOT HITTING

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 9 (AP)—The hitting in the Braves camp hasnt been so good but Manager Bill McKechnie is confident that as soon as Shires, Berger, Schulmerich and the other sluggers get in form he'll have all the hitting he needs. Batting practice heads the practice sessions at the tribesmen's camp this week as they prepare for their tilt with the Yankees Saturday.

ATHLETICS WARM UP

FORT MYERS, Fla., March 9 (AP)—Another six-inning intramural game today will help get the Athletes in shape for the game Friday against Indianapolis. Three pitchers were slated to twirl two innings each on both sides.

CONNELL LOSES CHANCE

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 9 (AP)—Abe Connell has lost his chance to avenge the defeat his team suffered from Al Todd's nine in the Phillies first intramural game. He played on the same team as Todd yesterday when the "A" team, composed largely of regulars, was tied at three-all by the "B," mostly reserves and excess catchers.

ROOKIES SHOWING UP

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9 (AP)—When the management of the San Francisco Seals protested against the dearth of regulars in the line-up of the Detroit Tigers for the training schedule opener, Manager Bucky Harris remarked it is very possible those recruits may be the 1932 regulars.

They lived up to his advance notice yesterday by pounding three Seal pitchers for 16 hits and winning under wraps, 12 to 7. Five of the Seal runs were scored off veteran Art Herring in a bad second inning. Recruit Luke Hamlin held the enemy to two hits in three innings, as did veteran Elon Hogsett.

BOBBY REIS IS GOOD

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 9 (AP)—Young Bobby Reis, a native of New York, is giving the veteran Wally Gilbert a great battle for the third base job in the Brooklyn infield.

"I have an idea the boy will come through this season," Manager Max Carey says, "but I would like to see more of him before I commit myself definitely on that point. Just now I feel safe in saying that he can do everything but we will learn more about that when we meet other teams in exhibition games."

NEEDS TWO INFIELDERS

LOS ANGELES, March 9 (AP)—John McGraw of the New York Giants has room for two utility infielders to fill in for his regulars, Terry, Critz, Vergez and Jackson, and there are four aspirants for the vacancies.

Eddie Moore, formerly with Pittsburgh and Boston, is a rookie only in that he comes up from the miners, and Eddie Marshall and Sam Leslie have been around with the Giants for several seasons. The only real rookie in the group is Gilbert English. Moore and Leslie, right now, seem most likely to stick.

GRIMES AS CUB

Burleigh Grimes dons his uniform, that of the Chicago Cubs as the veteran pitcher gets in shape in Catalina Island training camp. Burleigh has worn the spangles of Pittsburgh, Brooklyn and St. Louis in other seasons.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 9 (AP)—It used to be Johnny Allen in the New York Yankees' training camp but from now on it probably will be "Zipper."

He collected the new tag from the way he "zipped" the ball past Babe Ruth's team in a practice game yesterday. He allowed only two hits and fanned four in three innings.

He looked like a pitcher at all times except when at bat. Then he smashed a double to left field and the pessimists immediately commented he couldn't be "much of a pitcher and hit like that."

OUTFIELD MADE UP

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND, Calif., March 9 (AP)—On the eve of departure from the island, Manager Rogers Hornsby has just about decided on the makeup of the Chicago Cub outfield.

To start the season, Kiki Cuyler probably will be in center with Riggs Stephenson in left and Lance Richbourg in right. Stephenson will remain in the lineup as long as his aging legs permit and Richbourg if he hits, will be a fixture in right.

The utility outfield jobs lie among Vince Barton, Dan Taylor, Johnny Moore and Marvin Gudat.

WHITE SOX TO PLAY

SAN ANTONIO, March 9 (AP)—Some one of these days the Chicago White Sox will play an interclub baseball game—if the capricious Texas weather permits.

Manager Lew Fonseca yesterday had planned a contest but a "norther" blew through the region and the athletes spent another day training in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The weather reports indicated another two days of unsuitable temperatures but practice games will be played as soon as possible thereafter.

REDS VS. CARDINALS

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 9 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds meet the champion St. Louis Cardinals at Bradenton today, relying on Si Johnson, Al Eckart and Owen Carroll to baffle the Cardinal batsmen.

But, with first string infielders still at home, the Reds will be forced to use Heath at first, Grantham at second, Durocher at short and Andy High at third.

USE FIVE PITCHERS

NEW ORLEANS, La., Mar. 9 (AP)—Five pitchers in whom the Cleveland Indians are interested were promised a chance to show their stuff in today's practice game between the Tribe and the New Orleans Pelicans.

Howard Craghead from the Pacific coast league, Oral Hildebrand from the American association, and Clydus Jones, a Texas protege of Sarge Connally, will work three innings each for the Indians.

HEINIE WILL SIGN

BILOXI, Miss., Mar. 9 (AP)—A telegram from Heinie Manush saying he would report this afternoon seems to have ended definitely the Washington Senators' hold-out worries.

President Clark Griffith had given the big outfielder a day of grace but warned him not to report unless he was prepared to accept terms. The word from Heinie was taken therefore, as a good indication the last dotted line would be inked in.

FOUR ARE MISSING

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 9 (AP)—With only four players missing, officials of the St. Louis Browns expected today to have the squad playing at concert pitch by the end of this week.

Goose Goslin and Benny Bengough haven't signed yet but as they are in camp the club officials apparently are worrying little about the possibility that wage negotiations might fail. Only absentees now are Walter Stewart, star southpaw, "Rip" Collins, righthander, Ralph Kress, infielder, and Rick Ferrell, first-string backstop.

RESUME PRACTICE

PASO ROBLES, Calif., Mar. 9 (AP)—After a two-day lay-off due to adverse weather, the Pittsburgh Pirates were ordered by Manager George Gibson to resume practice today.

Capt. "Pie" Traynor will break into the regular lineup for the first time since his arrival in camp, while Floyd Young, recruit third baseman who has been playing sparkling ball in Traynor's absence, will cover the hot corner for the Yannigans.

PIRATES LOOK GOOD

PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 9 (AP)—Manager George Gibson says he is pretty well satisfied with the Pittsburgh Pirates 1932 model and believes the spirit in training camp here will produce an aggressive team by the time the season opens.

The new Pirate pilot is pleased with the way the boys have been hitting the ball.

PETROLLE NOT TO BE SEEN ON FRIDAY

BILLY HAS A STIFF NECK; BILLY RAN TO SUBSTITUTE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 9—Billy Petrolle has a stiff neck and won't be able to fight this Friday night but Christopher (Bat) Battalino is doing no cheering because of that.

When Petrolle told Madison Square Garden officials he wouldn't be able to go through with his 12-round match with the former featherweight champion, Promoter Jimmy Johnston got busy and dug up Billy Ran of Poland as a substitute.

There's no saying Ran is as dangerous an opponent as Petrolle but the Polish youngster can knock them kicking with that right hand of his and Battalino would do well to be extremely cautious. Ran's last two fights have ended in knockouts. He put away Billy Townsend of Vancouver in two rounds at the garden a couple of weeks ago and put Marty Goldman on the floor for the full count in 45 seconds of fighting Monday night.

Although Ran scales the class limit of 147 pounds he will have very little edge on Battalino. The Hartford slugger scaled 142 pounds the other day.

JACK GIBBONS IS TO BATTLE

MINNEAPOLIS, Mar. 9 (AP)—Only time will tell whether the old saw "like father, like son," was right.

But boxing fans will get a rough idea of its veracity when young Jack Gibbons climbs through the ropes at a golden gloves tournament Thursday and Friday just as his famous father, Mike, the phantom, climbed into the squared circle 15 years ago.

No one knows, except his father, just how good the 19-year-old Detroit university student is but his performance during the tournament was expected by friends of Mike to give them a line on the boy's potential ability.

"Jack boxes fairly well," said Mike. "But he's green and inexperienced."

Jack Dempsey Scores Couple Of Knockouts

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 9 (AP)—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion of the world, scored two first round knockouts in two exhibition bouts carded for two rounds each here. A crowd of 4,000 watched the program.

The first victim of the old Manassa mauler was Johnny Chick, Detroit. Eddie Anderson of Baltimore was the other opponent.

PLAINVIEW TO TALK PLANS

KANSAS CITY MAN TO CONSIDER PLAN TO SET UP MATTER

PLAINVIEW, March 9. (Special)—Ira E. Gaskill, Kansas City, Mo., financier and banker, who has visited Plainview to discuss forming a national bank here, is expected to return this week to go into the matter further and to discuss plans for the formation of a bank that would use some of the assets of the closed Plainview National bank. Mr. Gaskill recently notified Col. R. P. Smyth that business kept him in Kansas City longer than he had anticipated.

Recently Mr. Gaskill met a group of 119 persons interested in the formation of a national bank. He outlined his plan, which would be for a small group to go over the note case with the receiver of the bank. F. A. Bleckenbeckler, with a view to seeing what could be done. He suggested that as R. A. Underwood, formerly with the First National bank here, had been instrumental in interesting him in the proposition, be named on the committee. The meeting instructed him to select his own group.

"I am coming here in the hope that we might reach some agreement and acquire the assets of the closed bank, which could be worked out with a new organization," he stated while here. "It would not be the plan to throw the assets in the new bank, but to work out a separate organization—a holding company. If we could complete such an organization of acquire possession or control of the assets, a new banking institution could give immediate relief and follow with deferred payments from time to time.

"We cannot now discuss details of the organization of a holding company of the proposed bank. However, application should be made for a national charter with $100,000 capital and $100,000 surplus. My plan would be to have half of the capital and surplus subscribed by Plainview citizens. It would come, of course, from a portion of the deposits of the bank."

Cooperation of depositors of "almost one hundred percent" would be necessary, he explained.

Gaskill is said to be connected with the Jarbo banking interests.

ATOMERG IS NEWEST UNIT TO BE FOUND

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., March 9 (AP)—The "atomerg," a unit of matter smaller than anything hitherto known, was announced last night in a new theory of matter by Dr. E. K. Fiyler, associated professor of physics of the University of North Carolina.

The atomerg he said, is a tiny particle of light, that is, of energy, probably electrical. Its probable size is represented by a decimal.

It is probable, said Dr. Fiyler, that most or all of the material things in nature are made of atomergs as building blocks. Although he said his researches have not progressed to the point of proof, yet it is likely that matter, energy, electricity, magnetism, electrons, protons and photons are simply different manifestations of bundles of atomergs.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Mar 9 (AP)—The cotton market today opened quietly but steady with opening sales unchanged to one point down. May sold at 7.03, July at 7.18 and Oct at 7.36. Immediately after the first call hedge selling increased and resulted in declines of two to three points from the opening sales with May at 7.00, July at 7.16, and Oct at 7.35.

Severe cold weather over the belt, which many cotton traders took to mean that young cotton had been killed in the lower Rio Grande valley, failed to reflect in cotton prices.

The rest of the morning session found the market extremely quiet but it maintained its steady tone. Up to noon all active positions traded within a range of only 3 to 4 points with both highs and lows established during the initial hour's trading. The trade appeared to be awaiting a stabilization of sterling. May traded at 7.03, July at 7.18 and Oct. 7.37, unchanged to one point down on the day and unchanged to one point up on the opening sales.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Mar 9 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today 2 points up to 1 point off on trade buying and covering coupled with some southern selling. May sold at 7.02.

Trade interests were buyers of near months but prices eased off with May declining to 6.98 and October to 7.36 with the general market showing net losses of about 2 to 4 points at the end of the first half hour.

Arbitrage operations were somewhat less active than yesterday and after the early offerings had been absorbed, prices steadied on trade buying and covering. May sold up to 7.04 and October to 7.43, or 2 to 4 points net higher. Reports of cold weather in the south with prospects for freezing temperatures in the western belt attracted some attention and possibly led to some buying on an idea that early planted cotton in the Rio Grande valley might be injured. Such buying however had little effect on the market which was quiet and steady at midday with prices ruling around yesterday's closing quotations.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, March 9 (AP) — Cotton futures opened steady today: March 7.00 bid, May 7.03, July 7.13, Oct. 7.36, Dec 7.53, Jan 7.60.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, March 9 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today: March unquoted, May 7.02, July 7.20, Oct. 7.39, Dec 7.56, Jan 7.63.

Arguments In Murr Trial Carded Today

The defense rested after Murr took the stand in his own behalf and told of incidents the night of July 26, 1931, when Bill Elston, 25-year-old son of a Panhandle county judge, was killed as he fled from officers who had arrested him.

Blackboards of steel with enamel surfaces are now being used in schools.

that before we get through we will loan $10,000,000 to Texans."

High points of the program were: Loans can be made to any man who farmed last year, who will give as security a first lien on his crops. The loan limit is $400 to a landlord or tenant and $1 an acre for feed, the same to purchase seed and a dollar an acre for general purposes. Loans are due and payable by November 30 and collections made by the government as the crop is made."

Objective Is Told

Carl Gallagher, Quanah, representative for Arizona and New Mexico, said it was the objective of the Dallas office to make a loan within 24 hours after the application, technically correct, was received at Dallas. "You will get your money quicker than you did from St. Louis," he added.

"I am not going to tell you of the government feeding the people in one section for about five years," Mr. Sherrill said by way of introduction. Two states, he said, had paid back less than 50 per cent of their loans of last year.

Mr. Sherrill told the story of a German community of Williamson county and how the banker straightened out his farmers on crop productions.

Money Is There

"We are not asking you to reduce," he declared, "in order to get the money. The money is there, it is yours: you can take the money—if you reduce your cotton acreage."

The speaker urged the farmers who got loans to "take the check and put it in your local banks and don't check it out all at once." He promised action within a week after the application was made, provided the application blank was made out correctly.

Specific directions to members of the county committees and to county agents and judges were given on handling loan applications. Many questions were asked from the floor, following his talk, the meeting lasting well into the afternoon. Mr. Sherrill said his group was not going to eat as long as there was anything to do.

Set-Up Announced

Organization set-up, on a basis of one man to five counties, was announced Tuesday. Directors for counties in this section include:

D. H. Sandige, Lubbock, Cochran, Hockley, Terry Yoakum, Lynn.

ohn C. Stovall, Motley, Hall, Childress, Cottle, Ford Hardeman.

Morris Tanner, Dawson, Gaines, Borden, Andrews Martin, Howard.

J. Edwin Brown, Haskell, King, Knox, Stonewall.

F. H. Simpson, Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Briscoe, Swisher.

Amount of money to be available for the South Plains area depends on speed with which farmers take advantage of the offering, Sherrill pointed out. Lubbock county is one of 225 already qualifying for assistance by naming a local committee.

"The original fifty million dollars set aside for the farm loan division of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation already has been increased to eighty-five million and we expect it to be swelled to two hundred million," Sherrill declared.

Loan applications must be mailed in time to be received not later than April 30, 1932, he said.

Loans are to be made for seed, feed, fertilizer, gas for tractor farmer, or for $1 per acre for general farm production.

Applications will be received here starting this morning after the meeting. Several hundred loan applications already have been received from other parts of the state.

Some of the rulings, under which the loans will be made, are:

The government recommends that loan applications originate in local banks. This is not mandatory, however.

Loan limit to the individual is $400; and limit to all tenants of any one landlord is $1,600.

Loans will not be made to applicants planting cotton in excess of 65 per cent of their total cotton acreage in 1931. This restriction will not apply to those planting ten acres or less.

The security must be an absolute lien on the entire 1932 crop of applicant. Interest rate is 5 1-2 per cent; applications for loans must be made by April 30; maturity date November 30. No loans will be made to minors, nor to persons who did not farm in 1931, and will be made only to farmers "who are unable to obtain loans for crop production in 1932" from other sources.

Proceeds of loan may not be used for purchase of machinery or livestock, or for payment of taxes or debts.

Maximum loan for field crops where fertilizer is not essential is $3 per acre. Of this, $1 may be allocated to purchase of seed; $1 for feed for work stock and (or) fuel and oil for tractor; and $1 to miscellaneous expense in crop production. For truck crops this allowance is $12 per acre.

Applicants must agree to plant a garden sufficient for home use and sufficient acreage in feed to care for his livestock.

REPORT THAT KIDNAPED BABY NOW IS SAFE IN HOME IS DENIED BY POLICE

his second-floor nursery crib the night of March 1.

They would not say ransom arrangements had been made.

They declined to discuss the activities of private investigators or even those of certain branches of the state police itself.

They were silent concerning a mysterious journey made late yesterday by one of Col. Lindbergh's representatives.

Nor would they comment on reports that the long-awaited "break" in the case was only a matter of a few hours away.

Question Is Asked

The question was asked:

"What are the latest developments in the police investigation?"

The answer, coming on the authority of Major Charles Schoeffel of the state police in charge at the Lindbergh estate in the Sourland hills, was:

"Progress."

It was terse and without amplification; but it was the first definite, authoritative word of encouragement that has been spoken among the hundreds of thousands of words, spoken and written, that have been carried to an anxious America since "the most famous baby in the world" was abducted.

What Is Progress?

What has the progress been?

Has there been some valuable clue come from the long days of questioning Henry (Red) Johnson, boy-friend of the baby's nurse (Miss Betty Gow), who still is held by Newark police without formal charges?

The police would not say.

Have Spitale and Bitz, the New York gangmen named by Col. Lindbergh himself as go-betweens to deal with the kidnapers, been able to contact the baby-snatchers?

"We know nothing about Spitale and Bitz," the state police reply.

Has some telephoned or written communication to the flier himself been of such a nature as to lead police to hope that the baby soon may be restored to his parents?

Give No Explanation

The police were not to be drawn into explanations. Their duo-syllabic answer was:

"Progress."

Word spread that an announcement of great importance might be expected soon from the home of Mrs. Dwight Morrow, mother of Mrs. Lindbergh, at Englewood, N. J. The report sent newsmen to Englewood on the double quick.

All was quiet there. A policeman told the pressmen they were on a wild goose chase.

"There'll be no news until 10 o'clock this morning," he said, knowingly. "Then you may get a surprise. A heavy police guard is to be placed around all streets leading to the Morrow home at that hour. Something you'll want to know about may happen then."

Force Is Cut Down

There were some indications that Governor Moore was putting into effect his suggestion that the way for the return of the baby be made easy. The force of troopers stationed at the Lindbergh estate was cut from 25 to 10.

More sensational reports were heard today, mentioning Al Capone and seeking to show a possible connection with the affair.

There were denials by the police of any friction with the Lindberghs because of the manner in which the search has been carried on. It was emphasized that first word of the abduction was telephoned by Col. Lindbergh himself to the state police, and that he turned the investigation over to them at once.

Lubbock Child Dies After Brief Illness

The baby was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sandlin of Lubbock and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baldridge, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Tubbs, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Burrus, and Miss Lula Jones, all of Lubbock.

SHERMAN, Mar. 9. (AP)—Rev. J. A. Lovell, the young Baptist preacher who suddenly appeared at his parent's home at Tom Ball yesterday after being missing for three days, was en route back to his Abilene home today, driving alone.

His parents said he declined to reveal where he was from the time he disappeared last Saturday until he was located in Tom Ball. The speedometer on his car indicated he had traveled about 1,500 miles.

ABERNATHY IS DINNER HOST

DELEGATIONS FROM A NUMBER OF TOWNS ATTEND AFFAIR

ABERNATHY Mar. 9.—(Special)—Petersburg, Plainview, Anton, and Lubbock were represented by guests at an annual Abernathy Chamber of Commerce dinner last night in the Overton building on Main street. Guests totaled 179.

Judge Clark M. Mullican of Lubbock, who made the principal address, outlined present legislation being pushed by the government to improve economic conditions, pointing out that no miraculous or immediate cure could be expected. He decryed the widely prevalent tendency to abuse the government and President Hoover, asserting that sincere efforts were being made to better conditions, both in this country and throughout the world.

Fritz Strnve mayor of Abernathy, presided as toastmaster at the banquet, which was served by the home economics class at the high school under the direction of Miss Carolyn A. Newsome, teacher. An address of welcome was made by Ray Pinson. On the program also were a trombone solo by C. M. Kiker, accompanied by Mrs. Ercel Givens, and readings by Mrs. J. L. Harral. Music was furnished by the Abernathy orchestra.

Officers of the chamber of commerce include George Ragland, president, Ray Pinson, vice-president, and J. P. Nystel, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the Lubbock delegation at the banquet included Judge and Mrs. Clark M. Mullican, Dr. J. O. Ellsworth, of the agricultural economics department of Texas Technological college, E. D. Cook, manager of the Farmers Gin, and Mrs. Cook, J. H. Brock, representative of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and Neil C. Vanzant, manager of the South Plains Farmer.

OLTON Mar. 9.—(Special)—The trail of Ivan ("Bat") Inkleberger, 29, for the murder of Johnny Lee, 28, was continued for the term by Judge Charles Clements of 64th district court Tuesday, when J. W. Wills, a juror, became sick in the jury room.

Six jurors had been selected from 24 examined. A special venire of 75 has been ordered. Lee had helped Inkleberger in cotton harvests in 1929 and 1930. The homicide occurred last Oct. 17 about four miles northwest of Littlefield.

The English-speaking countries of the world are reported by the department of commerce to be carrying 85 per cent of the international life insurance total.

As Lubbock Opened Drive For Good Times

The photo above, taken just after a parade had been staged through the downtown streets here in the interest of the state-wide anti-hoarding campaign, shows how the city greeted A. P. Barrett of Fort Worth, Texas, chairman of the Citizens Reconstruction organization committee. Mr. Barrett spoke at a mass meeting here last Tuesday. The picture shows one of the signs used in the parade with members of the band in the background. C. E. Maedgen, left, past president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, is standing with Mr. Barrett, right. Mr. Maedgen presided at the meeting.

CHARGES FILED AGAINST YOUTHS

LEVELLAND, Mar. 9.—(Special)—Charges have been filed against two Hockley county youths in cases investigated at Lubbock by County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson and Sheriff Wade Hardy, Monday, after a prematurely born girl baby had died.

C. C. (Claude) Atkins, 21, faces the incest charge in connection with alleged illicit relations with his two sisters, one between 16 and 17, and the other 19. E. L. Krantz, 17, stepbrother of Atkins, is charged with statutory rape for purported offenses against the younger of the two girls. Both boys made statements to County Attorney Wilson, who telephoned County Attorney Weldon Johnson of Hockley county. Johnson filed the complaints with Justice George P. Smith here Tuesday.

The younger of Atkins sisters gave birth to a child in an automobile in Lubbock between 8 and 9 o'clock Sunday. The child died soon after a doctor arrived, death being attributed to prematurity. The older girl told officers she was to become a mother in May. They are being cared for in Lubbock by the Salvation Army.

County Attorney Johnson said he planned to continue investigations after Atkins and Krantz are carried to Levelland. They were in Lubbock county jail this morning. Ten members of their family lived in a two room farm house, the boys told officers.

Rotarians Hosts To Ladies On Tuesday

A swiftly moving program was presented before about 150 wives, women friends and Lubbock Rotarians Tuesday night at the Hilton hotel. The clubmen were hosts.

Several members were put on the "spot" as one of the entertainment features. A strong spotlight located members, including Mayor J. J. Clements, W. O. Daniels, H. L. Allen, Chas. A. Guy, Wesley Read and W. T. Gason, and either Miss Louise Jennings, Miss Sue Brown or Miss Zella Riegel sang to the person in the limelight. A quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blocker, H. F. Godeke and Mrs. R. C. Goodwin repeated the songs.

Mrs. N. L. Peters presided at a mock auction sale arranged by Rotary Anns. Miss Louise Jennings daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Jennings was auctioneer. In the absence of President N. L. Peters, who was out of town, Homer D. Grant, vice president, presided. The program was arranged by J. A. Raley, jr., and B. C. Dickinson.

SCHOOL TAXES IN LYNN SHOWING UP

(By Staff Correspondent)

TAHOKA, March 9—Beter than 30 per cent of the 1931 school taxes were collected according to John N. Thomas, collector for the Tahoka Independent school district.

"The district is on a cash basis at this time and it looks like we will be able to continue to the end of the full nine months term without going into too much debt," said the collector. "We are out of debt now.

"During the month of March we are due to receive from the state four dollars per scholastic. That will be more than enough to take care of our current expenses. If we get all of the state aid we should for this year, and collect some current back taxes, I believe we will not have to borrow to pay our warrants.

"Last year at the close of the school term we were about $4,000 in debt. This year we have made that much up and have kept up our current expenses."

Collection of back taxes for 1929 and 1930, in addition to the 1931 or current collections amounted to approximately 70 per cent of the roll.

MERCHANTS WILL RETURN TO CITY

Virtually all merchants attending a fifth semi-annual West Texas Wholesale Clothing market, which closed here Tuesday afternoon, indicated they would return for a similar fall market here late in September.

Three score of apparel wholesalers left late Tuesday. Both wholesale and retail branches represented at the two-day market reported improved business conditions on the South Plains and in West Texas generally.

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce announced last night that plans for the fall show will be started immediately. Much better results than had been anticipated were reported by many wholesalers dealers from Kansas City, St. Louis, Dallas and other wholesale clothing centers said.

Co-Op Facilities In Area To Be Enlarged

Enlargement of Texas Cotton Cooperative association facilities in Lubbock possibly will be effected for next fall's crop, R. J. Murray, general manager, said here late Tuesday. The Lubbock office, he said, had handled about 95,000 bales this season, this area's volume being second only to the Waco area's.

Payment next year probably will be made directly from Lubbock. What additional staff members are necessary to handle the work will be added, he said.

Wonderful results

"I WAS very nervous. I could not stand up under any work. Mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and said it would help my case.

"I tried it with wonderful results. It quieted my nerves and strengthened me. I have gained weight which I needed.

"Now I can do my work and feel well, thanks to the Vegetable Compound." Mrs. Elmer Shultz, R No. 1, Krakow, Wisconsin.

You dropped that fly
And spoiled the no-hit game I'm pitchin'?

Oh, yeah . . . a cough?
Yuh couldn't stop yer throat from twitchin'?

Them fags yuh smoke
Would make you choke.
Well, listen to what I'm remarkin'—
You just arrange

And smoke OLD GOLDS and stop that barkin'!
