Peace on Earth

By Helen Welshimer

MEN fight again, God, in the eastern meadows

So near the fields where shepherds watched their sheep

That night when angel voices made a hymning

That wakened them from startled, frightened sleep.

"Peace on the earth, good will to men forever,"

The song went on, "The Prince of Peace has come!"

Two thousand years have passed since that first chanting—

There is no peace, no rest, no muffled drum.

TONIGHT, the war clouds shut away the Heavens

And dim the glowing star that swung so high;

Around the world the bugles call to battle,

Ships guard the coast and men ride up the sky.

We bring no answer to the angel chorus

Who asked one night for brotherhood of men.

We held a vision once of peace forever;

This Christmas, God, give us the dream again!

ENROLLMENT OF QUOTA TO START SOON

Eastland county's quota of 60 rehabilitation clients this year will be increased to 200 by Jan. 1, George I. Lane, county supervisor of the Resettlement Administration, announced Saturday. Enrollment of the new clients will begin at once.

The increased quota will offer farmers receiving the aid an opportunity of working back to independence, Lane stated.

Long-time farm plans will be worked out as rapidly as possible, but in the meanwhile, direct grants for subsistence will be made. All families accepted for either the permanent or the temporary program must be approved by the county advisory committee.

The supervisor expects to continue working out farm plans with the object of getting all families started on a permanent program early in the new crop season. Making the loan is merely the beginning of the supervisor's job. He must see that the client grows his living at home and cans enough food to carry him through the winter—an average of 125 quart cans of food for each member of the family. Cash crops are permitted only after enough land has been set aside for food and feed.

The families will be required to make their own arrangements for renting land, after which loans will be made by resettlement.

The Texas Agricultural Association, represented by 1600 farmers from two hundred counties, at its meeting in Dallas recently, commended the Resettlement Administration and called upon Oklahoma farmers to join them in pushing through the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant bill, which would make an adequate sum available for purchase of farms and equipment for worthy tenants, without a down payment. Until some legislation is passed, the Resettlement Administration is confining its efforts in most cases to loans for teams, equipment and supplies. These loans draw five per cent interest and are repayable in one to five years.

For the purpose of administering relief, beginning Jan. 1, 1936, the state will be divided into 22 districts. The district in which Eastland county will be known as District No. 14, with headquarters at Eastland. Counties comprising this district are Eastland, Shackelford, Stephens, Callahan, Erath, Coleman, Brown, and Comanche. As a result of this re-division, some 3,000 Administrative Employees now on the Texas Relief Commission, will be dismissed as soon as the business of the present district organizations can be closed out. At any rate, not later than Jan. 15, 1936, thereby affecting the saving of approximately $200,000 per month. Only a skeleton force will be maintained in each county for the administering of relief to unemployed persons now working in the case work department. In this district, certified lists of unemployed persons and families will be submitted each month to the chief accountant at Austin, and checks will be mailed by him to the client semi-monthly. All unemployed clients in this district can expect their first check by mail on or about the 8th of January, and the second on or about the 24th of January.

Relief To Be Discontinued To All Employables By First of Year

Due to discontinuance of money grants by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, it is necessary that the Texas Relief Commission discontinue relief to persons or families who are employable or who have employable persons either male or female, within the relief group. This action is taken by the Texas Relief Commission to conserve the funds now on hand for the use of those persons or families who are unemployed and who would suffer through the winter, which lies ahead of us. It is estimated that there are 50,000 such families in Texas.

COACHES PICK ALL-DISTRICT GRID ELEVEN

The coaches of the Oil Belt gave Breckenridge the lions' share of the all-district selections this year when they balloted on selections for the positions at the request of the Abilene Morning News.

Six Buckaroos made the all-district team with Abilene getting three, Eastland one, Ranger one, and Brownwood two, which makes a 13-man team, but Campbell of Abilene, Vernon of Brownwood and Jim Taylor of Eastland tied for one of the guard positions, so all three were listed.

Cisco was the only team in the district that did not place a man on the all-district team, though two came in for honorable mention.

Mellinger Jacoby of Ranger, who was all-district end for two straight years was again selected for the position while Dean Walsh, who played at tackle in 1933 and made all-district, but who was played at halfback in 1934 and 1935, was given honorable mention as a guard, while Troy Taylor of Eastland also was given honorable mention by the coaches.

The All-District, as selected by the Oil Belt coaches, is as follows:

County Licenses For 1936 Received

Number range of Eastland county license plates for 1936 was announced Thursday by the county tax assessor-collector's office.

The automobile plates number range is 314-451 to 320-850. The truck plates begin with 45-151 and end with 46-150. Farm plate licenses begin with 21-101 and continue through 21-400.

Black numerals on the plates are on a cream background. The plates were manufactured at the Texas penitentiary in Huntsville.

An innovation in wrapping will aid deputies in sale of the plates. They are wrapped in paper through which the numerals may be seen without necessity of the paper's removal. Heretofore the plates were placed in envelopes with the numbers—which sometime were wrong—written on the outside.

The word "Centennial" is on the base of the plates.

Though definite instructions have not been received for sale of the plates, it was believed, as last year the sale would begin Feb. 1, March 1 was fixed as initial date of placing the plates on automobiles last year.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE

OUR New England grandmothers knew less about dietetics than we do—but they shrewdly figured out a good many smart items for themselves.

Look at the way they used salt fish as an appetizer, for instance. The modern housekeeper can take a tip from them and aid her ailing budget.

Creamed codfish, codfish balls and codfish soufflé prove a boon to the home-maker who finds herself unable to supply her table with fresh fish.

There are so many brands of salt codfish on the market, all of varying degrees of saltiness that it's rather hard to give specific directions for freshening the fish. However, the small filets and flakes will freshen in a much shorter length of time than the larger bony pieces.

Put the fish in lukewarm water and let stand two or three hours, changing the water at least three times. Very salty fish may need to stand from twelve to twenty-four hours, changing the water many times.

A grand breakfast at least once during holiday week can be built around codfish balls. Begin the meal with chilled grapefruit juice and go on to codfish balls, cornbread and coffee.

Codfish Balls
One cup salt codfish, 3 cups diced potato, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon butter, 1-8 teaspoon white pepper. Wash fish and pick in small pieces. Let soak in lukewarm water for half an hour and drain. Pare potatoes and cut in dice before measuring. Put fish and potatoes in a sauce pan and cover with boiling water. Cook until potatoes are tender (about 15 minutes). Drain and return to the stove to dry thoroughly. Shake the sauce pan over the fire to prevent sticking. Mash thoroughly, adding butter and pepper. Be sure there are no lumps left in the potato and add egg slightly beaten. Beat hard until the mixture is light and smooth. Drop by spoonfuls into deep hot fat (385 degrees F.) and fry until brown, about 1 minute, and drain on brown paper.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Grape fruit juice, codfish balls, cornbread, coffee. Add cereal with cream and milk for children.

LUNCHEON: Vegetable soup, toasted cheese sandwiches, orange ambrosia, milk and tea.

DINNER: Slice of ham baked in milk, grilled sweet potatoes, green beans in cream, pineapple and cheese ball salad, mince pie, milk, coffee.

Three fine oranges, 3 table-spoons powdered sugar, 1 cup shredded coconut. Peel oranges and cut in thin slices, slicing fruit into a serving dish. Sprinkle first orange with 1 tablespoon sugar and cover with a layer of coconut. Continue this way with each orange, the last layer being of coconut. Chill and serve.

Expert Prepares A Recipe For a New Cocktail

By United Press
WASHINGTON. —Secretary of

Interior Harold L. Ickes' specially appointed expert has emerged from his researches to announce the final, official formula of the New Deal's Virgin Island Cocktail. Here it is:
Two thirds Virgin Islands rum, produced by the United States Government under auspices of Ickes; one third strained lime juice; sweeten to taste; stir, don't shake, and add a cherry.

"It is my masterpiece; the culmination of my career," said Ickes' specialist, Michael Straus, weary after two weeks of intensive experimentation, which he began immediately upon his appointment by the Secretary of Interior.

Every night after his regular work in Ickes' Public Works Administration, Straus repaired to his laboratories. There he tried grenadine, curacao and rose liquor. Then he blended federal rum with juices of the pineapple, the grapefruit, the lemon and the rest of Washington slept, Straus was measuring, measuring—always measuring.

Finally he produced a liquid half way between amber and gold. He held it up to the light. It was translucent. Testing it with his clinical thermometer, he found it was frosty, but not too frosty.

A smile of triumph began to spread over Straus' careworn face. Carefully he poured the precious brew into a long-stemmed goblet and reverently he tasted it.

His work was done. As the delicate fluid trickled across his sensitive palate he realized that it was his supreme achievement.

Quickly he jotted down the recipe (which may be preserved among other valuable papers in the archives) and hid it behind the clock. Then he went to bed and slept soundly for the first time since Ickes commissioned him to produce the All-American cocktail.

There he shook and there he stirred. And there he lived up to

Work Commences On Landscaping of Centennial Park

DALLAS.—With the coming of cooler weather, work has commenced on the $250,000 landscaping scheme which will transform Texas Centennial Exposition Park into one of the beauty spots of the nation.

Within the next 30 days more than 300 large trees will have been transported here from various parts of the state so that the flora of every section of Texas may be represented on the exposition grounds. The trees will be shipped by freight and motor truck. Palm trees, 40 feet tall, will come from the Rio Grande valley, live oaks from Waco and Austin, Spanish oak from South Texas, towering pines and cedar elms from East Texas and magnolias from the south central part of the state. Four huge court yards, each of them 100 by 175 feet, are to be established along the sides of the Esplanade of State, the great open expanse between the main entrance gates and the million dollar Texas Hall of State. Each of these courts will be landscaped to represent a section of the state. Hackberries, cedars and sycamores will represent North Texas. Pines and palmetto will typify East Texas. Palms, bamboo, palmetto, Spanish dagger, and prickly pear will be among the South Texas planting. The West Texas court yards will display such growths as mesquite, huisache, lecheguilla and many varieties of cacti.

Banks of the reflecting pool, which centers the esplanade, will be transformed into a riot of color by thousands of rambling roses. Water lilies will be planted amid flashing underwater lights. Shrub planting will commence before Jan. 1 with thousands of crepe myrtles in the color scheme. Other shrubs and plants will be ordered by the thousands. All lawns will be sodded and plantings of perennials and annual flowers will be made so as to afford perpetual color from the opening date, June 6, until the close of the exposition in the fall.

H. Daniels of Graham was a visitor in Eastland Tuesday.

CHARITY GAME RECEIPTS ARE REPORTED $305

The Ranger All-Stars defeated the Eastland All-Stars in a surprisingly good football game at Lillard Field Sunday afternoon by a score of 7 to 0 before a good crowd that paid $305 into the coffers of Eastland and Ranger charity funds, each town netting about $150 on the game.

Advance ticket sales in Ranger amounted to 25 cents more than the sales in Eastland, one more student ticket being sold for the game in Ranger than in Eastland, making everything from the advance sale, the total receipts and the score of the game about as even as possible.

In the first quarter of the game Eastland made a serious threat to score when two passes from Brown to Poe and Cox to Poe, put the ball on the three-yard line on first down. The Ranger line held and at the beginning of the second quarter Ranger got possession of the ball on about the two-yard line. Buster Mills kicked out in old-time fashion, the kick going over the safety's head and going to the Eastland 25-yard line.

Eastland made several threats to score, but a stubborn Ranger defense was too much for the ball carriers, while the Eastland defense was such that it almost prevented Ranger from scoring.

The fans got a thrill when Mills broke up an Eastland pass in midfield, started to the left only to be surrounded by Eastland players, but he whirled back to the right and almost broke into the open to place the ball on the Eastland 20 and the fans yelled for a field goal.

Later in the game a pass from Anderson to Landers gave Ranger an apparent touchdown after a good run by Landers, but Ranger drew a clipping penalty. Another pass from Anderson to Landers put the ball on the Eastland three-yard line. Anderson carried it through to the one and two plays by Hamilton through the line put it on the six-inch line and Anderson carried over for the touchdown and then kicked goal to convert for the extra point.

Both teams were remarkably well trained for the short time they had to prepare for the game and with the exception of repeated substitutions on the part of Ranger a visitor might have had the impression that the teams had been playing all season.

Cox, Poe, Simmons, Brown and several others whose names were not available and who were not recognized from the stands, played outstanding ball for the Eastland team, with Yonker of Ranger being the outstanding player of the entire game, being a tower of strength on the defense at tackle and breaking up nearly every Eastland play that was stopped. Mills, Hamilton, Landers, Anderson, Conley were among the outstanding players on the Ranger team, though many went in and out of the game so often that it was hard to keep track of who was doing the most brilliant playing, and everyone who got into the game on either team turned in a brand of play that amazed the entire crowd of spectators.

Both the Eastland and Ranger promoters of the game today thanked the players who took part in the game for their efforts toward aiding the needy of the two towns, the Eastland band for playing during the game, those who sold tickets and took tickets at the gate, J. C. Shaw for his services as referee, and everyone who had any part in helping to make the game a success.

There has been some talk of playing a return game in Eastland but no efforts have been made, as yet, toward getting up another charity game in either of the two towns.

Eastland Gridmen Banquet Monday

A turkey banquet for which they furnished the food was held by Eastland football boys Monday night in the lower assembly room of the Baptist church.

Impromptu talks were made by members of the squad. John Allen Mouser played a violin solo.

Table decorations were arranged by Rev. and Mrs. Fred Eastham, assisted by Miss Inez Bouchillon.

Football boys were Pete Garrison, Bob Sikes, Charles Van Geem, Clyde Garrett, Jr., Troy Taylor, Harry Taylor, Roy Taylor, Jim Taylor, Andy Taylor, Evans Mitchell, Fuzzy Brown, James Hill, Cleo Key, L. Good houses make it easier to have food homes. Thoughtful citizens have, therefore organized throughout the nation to arouse local interest in home improvement.

Better homes campaigns will be carried on in the future as they have been in the past. The national office will be located on the campus of Purdue University at West Lafayette, Ind., and from this office will emanate suggestions, plans, bulletins and letters of assistance and encouragement to each of the many local committees throughout the United States.

Prizes or certificates of award are usually offered to committees which put on the campaigns showing the most effort, best planning and results. The Eastland Better Homes committees, for 1935-36, comprises the membership of the Civic League of which Mrs. Jackson is president. This same committee accomplished outstanding work in last year's Better Homes campaign, under chairmanship of several prominent clubwomen, appointed by Mrs. Jackson, who has served as chairman for Eastland, for 10 consecutive years.

This year's Eastland plans will include lectures in public schools; musicals, addresses in local clubs and church society activities. The library of the Douglas (colored) school will be enlarged by substantial book campaigns. Other features of Better Homes interest will be announced later.

The following colored citizens contributed $1 each to the fund: Mr. and Mrs. Armstead West, F. K. Evans, Mattie Lee, Eugene Gaines, W. A. Love, Rev. A. L. Dunn. Students gave 46 cents.

Sacking of Toys Begun On Monday

Fire Chief A. W. Hennessey stated a committee would inspect the sacks in order to determine if amount of toys of each child is proportionate and if any of the prospective recipients' parents are unable to provide for their children.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed. How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds. Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

Santa Claus Himself and Members of the Fire Department

Here is Old Santa putting his approval on the work done by the Eastland Fire Department in making toys for the unprivileged children of this community at the annual community Christmas tree event. The toys will be distributed house-to-house, to all those whose names have been sent to Fire Chief Hennessee. Behind Santa is Chief A. W. Hennessee and some of his fire boys. Grouped in the center are a few of the many toys that the fire department have been making. Santa will be Chief Hennessee's guest today and will appear on the streets of Eastland at 1 p. m., where he will give candy to the children and direct the turkey throwing for the grown-ups.

"When one realizes that in this country there are approximately 15,000,000 workers engaged in manufacturing, mechanical and mineral industries, then it is evident that the magnitude of the problem has not been overemphasized."

Bloomfield said that there are four methods of dust control in operation at present:

1. Substitution of non-dust-producing or harmless substances: A non-dust compound has been used successfully for foundry molds, with a resulting saving on the lungs of workers, who otherwise would have breathed the harmful silica. Use of steel instead of sand in blast rooms is another example.

2. Isolation of the dusty operation: In the up-to-date abrasive cleaning room, only the person working is exposed to this hazardous process and he is equipped with a protective helmet. In some of the old-fashioned plants, this work is done in the open and all laborers are exposed to the bad effects.

3. Wetting the dust at its source: Application of this principle cut exposure risks more than 90 per cent, according to tests made in anthracite coal mine operations. Under this process, many less particles of dust had an opportunity to float in the air and thus permit some of them to get into the miners' lungs.

4. Local exhaust ventilation: This is one of the most effective and widely applied of dust control methods.

"In such cases, it is necessary to furnish the worker with personal respiratory protection devices to prevent his exposure to the harmful effects of the dusts present. These devices consist of various types of respirators, masks and helmets."

Other "first tarpon" Port Isabel by visitors to the ley included those by Mrs. F. Mesker, St. Louis, 3 feet 9 1/2 inches; E. L. Davenport, Edna, Texas, 4 feet 1 1/2 inches; J. L. Rowsie, Port Isabel refinery, 4 feet 6 inches.

Two thousand Baby Ruth bars were contributed by the company to the merchants of Eastland to be distributed on "Santa Claus Comes to Eastland Day." Santa Claus Due To Arrive At One O'clock For Visit This Afternoon

By Santa Claus Editor
Today is the big day, and Santa Claus will arrive promptly at 1 p. m. in all his glory. Flash radiogram, Polar regions, December 20th. Dear Chief Hennessee: Left for Eastland. Expect me any moment. Give me same quarters you so graciously extended to me on my last visit. Have all the kiddies of the entire community on hand Friday afternoon. I have lots of candy and I want to especially talk to lots of the kiddies in person. Heard you had the big hook and ladder truck all shined up for me. Glad that wonderful Eastland High School band will let me hear their excellent music again. Will see that there is no delay in giving away the 51 turkeys that the merchants so generously agreed to give away free. Luck and good wishes to everybody until I arrive there. Yours, Santa.

in manufacturing, mechanical and mineral industries would have better health, fewer accidents and longer life if current knowledge in controlling dust were utilized. Under his proposal, particles would not fill workshops where men were doing those hazardous activities which are necessary for our present civilization.

"It has been estimated that the minimum expectancy in savings to employers and employees from an indicated reduction of the accident rate and of the time lost on account of illness (or an equivalent reduction in mortality), demonstrated as attainable, is $20 per year per employee," Bloomfield said.

Low Average Taken
"This estimate is for plants whose accident rate is considerably below the average, and in which there are no occupational health hazards. It is quite apparent from these figures that the savings in plants where hazards are known to exist should be far in excess of this conservative estimate."

Factory Loss By Dust Is Set At Many Millions

The entrance hall was set with pots of blooming poinsettias, and the grand piano in clubroom, had an artistic arrangement of poinsettias and holly decorations.

The club hostesses receiving were Mrs. Roy Birmingham, and Miss Marguerite Quinn.

The amusement program featured a dressing doll contest, in which each individual member gave the doll and the material.

The dolls were beautifully dressed and will gladden the hearts of many small girls.

The prize for the best dressed doll, a lovely box of bath powder, was awarded Mrs. Jack Ammer.

Benefits of Cotton Program to Spread To All Sections

COLLEGE STATION. — Discussing the necessity for the continuation of a cotton adjustment program, W. B. Camp of the AAA Cotton Division told State Agricultural commissioners at their recent meeting in Washington, D. C. that the benefits of the cotton program are not confined to the South but extend to all sections of the country through the purchasing power of the cotton grower.

In demonstrating this he said, "cotton furnishes directly the livelihood for 14,500,000 people in the United States. Eleven million of these people on the 2,200,000 cotton farms in the South and Southwest are dependent upon cotton for the major part of their incomes. Three million more individuals are supported by cotton textile manufacturing in all its branches. Another 500,000 people are dependent upon the miscellaneous uses of cotton. Others are indirectly affected by the merchandizing and the financing of the finished cotton products."

Camp went on to say that, "A volume production system, as formerly practiced, often resulted in double loss to the grower because every acre used to produce surplus cotton could have been put into needed food and feed crops. Big yields, large exports and ruinous prices have been the history, with but few exceptions of unadjusted production of cotton."

He showed by actual figures that the cotton adjustment program had practically doubled the prices of cotton, raising them from about 6 cents per pound in 1932 to twelve and one-half cents in 1934, and increasing the farmer's cash income from $465,000,000 in 1932 to $895,000,000, including compensation for adjustment of cotton acreage, in 1933, and $822,000,000, including benefit payments in 1934.

Christmas Tree By Bible Class
A delightful Christmas party was given by the members of the Bible class, the honor guests, Tuesday night, when a dinner was served at 7 o'clock in the lower assembly room of the Baptist church. It was under direction of the hostesses, the executive officers of the class, Mmes. R. A. Lerner, R. W.

Chalker, W. G. Womack, Fred Crossland, J. J. Boen, R. L. Slaughter, C. T. Lucas, Claud Maynard, William Shirriffs, Hollis Bennett, Joe Blankenship; Mrs. Ben Hamner, chairman of the program, and Mrs. E. E. Layton, president of the class.

The dinner tables, in horseshoe shape, that seated sixty-seven guests, were arranged in red and green decorations, of holly and pine cones, forming streamers down table length, with inter-twined silver leaves, spacing the red and green lighted candles in crystal sticks, matching hand-made place cards of Christmas candles with holly base, these the artistic handicraft of Mrs. T. L. Amis.

The decorated and lighted Christmas tree, shimmering in silver strands, centered the platform and focused all eyes.

Mrs. Ben Hamner, toastmistress, presided. Invocation was offered by pastor Fred C. Eastham, followed with the introduction of Santa Claus (L. J. Lambert) and of the guests, the husbands.

A toast to husbands was offered by Mrs. Layton, president of the class, and a witty response was made by W. G. Womack.

"Christmas Shopper," a comedy skit, was the clever offering by R. A. Lerner.

A and B numbers, vocal, "Love Has Eyes," and "Mammy Song," by Mrs. Victor Ginn, had sparkling piano accompaniment by Mrs. D. L. Kinnaird.

A reading, done in pantomime, "The Great Guest Comes," by Mrs. W. G. Womack, was another delightful feature of program, which closed with the A and B, voice, "Virgin's Lullaby," and "The Icicle," a charming climax by Mrs. Fred C. Eastham.

A delightful social hour followed with an interchanged gift distribution by Santa, from the Christmas tree, these gifts to be sent the Cradle Roll of the church nursery.

The affair was an outstanding one, and greatly enjoyed by members and their honor guests.

The menu of baked turkey, with dressing and gravy, cranberry jelly, candied yams, celery, had second course of fruit salad with wafers and last course of frozen pudding and coffee.

South Ward P. T. A. Has Christmas Party

The Parent-Teacher Association of South Ward School was hostess to the West Ward School P. T. A. Tuesday afternoon in the South Ward clubroom, with meeting opened by their president, Mrs. Guy Patterson, and minutes offered by their secretary, Mrs. J. Frank Sparks.

A brief business period brought the election of Mrs. O. L. Harper as chairman of finance, vice Mrs. C. Metz Heald, who has moved to the West Ward district.

The treasurer, Mrs. N. K. Pratlley, reported $115.70 in treasury. The next meeting was announced for Jan. 23, South Ward School.

Mrs. A. F. Taylor presented the school glee club in a group of Christmas carols, and the vocal duet, "There's a Song in the Air," given by Jo Cile Coffman, and Wilma Dean Pierce.

Haynes Saunders sang "Silent Night," and a piano solo, "The Fairy," by Jack Coffman, concluded this program, when adjournment was taken to the cafeteria.

Here, decorations were in bright flowers, and a beautifully trimmed Christmas tree, hung with gifts for every member of the faculty, and presented from the tree by Mmes. Johnny Hart and J. Frank Sparks.

The married women received a green crystal refrigerator bowl, each, and the "flapper" teachers, each a handsome handkerchief.

Jim Carter, the only male member of faculty, was presented a handkerchief, and refrigerator bowls were presented Mrs. A. F. Taylor, head of music studio and Mrs. Collins, the cafeteria hostess.

Mr. Herring, who has been caretaker of the school building for many years, was remembered by Santa with a nice gift.

Refreshments were served of coconut cake and coffee and plate favors were gumdrop candle holders of a wee green or pink lighted taper.

The cards attached to the gifts were cleverly worded, that of Miss Reva Seaberry reading, "Aristic Reva," and Miss Brogdon's, "La Vogue Brogdon."

Those present, Mmes. J. R. Gilkey, John Hart, W. W. Kelly, N. K. Pratlley, J. Frank Sparks, Marvin Hood, Frank Pierce, George L. Brogdon, O. L. Harper, F. L. Cole, H. C. Davis, J. F. Brock, T. W. Overbey, Clyde Griffin, C. W.

Guests were Mmes. Karl F. Page, C. W. Young, T. L. Amis, W. E. Kellett, L. Y. Morris, Hollis Bennett, C. Metz Heald, Ruth Poe Herring; Misses Maurine Davenport, Marjorie Spencer, Jo Kindred, and Nettie Thornton.

Miss Seaberry's room was awarded the $2 prize for having the most mothers present.

Martha Dorcas Entertains With Brilliant Party

The members of the Martha Dorcas Class met for their Christmas party Tuesday night in the lower assemblyroom of the Methodist church, that presented a veritable out-of-doors scene in the big stage arranged in a Christmas woodland vista, with a carpeting of autumn leaves, and brightly illumined by a beautifully decorated Christmas tree, flashing in lights of all hues.

The lusters throughout the long room were veiled in mistletoe, and the 10 tables arranged for "42" were developed in the Christmas motif in appointments, and with a Christmas wish, penned on each tally.

Hostesses for this charming affair were Mmes. C. W. Hoffmann, E. C. Satterwhite, who, with their co-hostesses, represented the entertainment groups for November and December, Mmes. R. F. Jones, J. L. Roper, Frank Pierce, C. W. Young, V. O. Wyatt, C. J. Germany, F. A. Jones, J. Atchley, H. C. Davis, H. O. Satterwhite; Mrs. Charles C. Robey, chairman of the entertainment, assisted by Mmes. Atchley and M. B. Griffin.

After the games, groups were formed and the gift distribution from the tree followed. A lovely feature was the presentation by Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite to the Martha Dorcas Class for their classroom, a large framed photograph of their Bible teacher, Mrs. C. C. Robey, as an honor tendered Mrs. Robey.

Refreshments of fruit cake with whipped cream topping, coffee and Christmas candies were served on the tables surfaced in white linens.

Assembly singing of Christmas carols, led by Rev. E. R. Stanford and Mrs. Fred L. Dragoo, with Mrs. C. J. Germany at the piano, closed a very delightful evening attended by:

Assists In Removal Of Relief Office

Miss Rita Troxell, former clerk in the county relief office at Eastland, is in Abilene where she is assisting in removal of the district office to Eastland. The removal of the office, though effective Jan. 1, will not be complete until Jan. 15, Wortham Seale, case worker in charge, announced Thursday.

Now that gasoline has gone up so high in Italy, it's only a matter of time until station attendants there deal out the tire air at so much a puff.

Merchants' Orders Should Be Forwarded To Abilene District Office

Merchants having relief disbursement orders should forward them to the district Texas Relief Commission office in Abilene immediately for payment, Wortham Seale, case worker in charge, advised Thursday.

It is essential that the orders be sent to Abilene before Jan. 8, said Seale. By that date the auditing department of the district relief office, which will be moved to Eastland Jan. 1, will have been abolished.

In event that the orders are not sent to Abilene by the deadline date, it will be necessary to send them to Austin, which will require considerable time.

Removal of the district relief office to Eastland Jan. 1 will not mean many additional employees at Eastland, Seale indicated. The new district will be known as District No. 14 and will comprise Eastland, Shackelford, Stephens, Callahan, Erath, Coleman, Brown and Comanche counties. The office will be operated in conjunction with the county office on the fourth floor of the Eastland National Bank.

F. A. Wells of Abilene will be district case supervisor. Seale, now case worker in charge, will be assigned as a case worker. W. E. Moore, now case supervisor in Taylor county, will become a case supervisor. Miss Don Moorman, who is now a case worker in the county will continue in the same position. Other workers will include a secretary for Wells, Mrs. Jewell Reaves, now intake secretary, will continue with additional duties as clerk.

The county office has certified a list of 231 unemployables eligible for relief. Checks for the clients in the new announced arrangements. First checks on unemployables will be received twice monthly from now on.

Cases of employables absorbed by the Works Progress Administration are being closed this week.

850 Employed On 45 WPA Projects

Eight hundred and fifty men and women are receiving employment on 45 Works Progress Administration projects in Eastland county, the National Reemployment Service office announced through its director, Crigler Paschal, at Eastland Thursday.

What about TEMPERATURE?

Any sudden change in temperature as you go from a warm room into a cold one disturbs the heat regulating apparatus of the body and makes it susceptible to cold germ attacks.

Protect your family against becoming overheated or chilled. Give them the benefit of healthful, pure, warmed air throughout the house. If you are not keeping a comfortable and even temperature in every room don't go through the winter without this health protection.

If your home is inadequately heated... if you "huddle" in one or two rooms, sudden temperature changes are unavoidable. Your family goes from a heated room into a cold hall or adjoining room. Then, shivering and chilled, they return to the heated room. This happens many times a day, and each time they have unnecessarily subjected themselves to conditions that make them susceptible to highly communicable diseases. America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold germ, finds a fertile field in inadequately heated and poorly ventilated homes.

Keep comfortable temperatures and adequate ventilation throughout your home. You will find that it will add to your happiness as well as assist you to protect your health and that of your loved ones.

... Community Natural Gas Co.

Don't gamble with a "cold"! Consult your family doctor before it has an opportunity to undermine your health. Tune in each Thursday night at 6:30, WFAA-WBAP, for helpful information from a leading physician that will assist you to guard against the common cold germ.

CHRISTMAS DAY ATTRACTION

She storms your heart as the sweetheart of the South in "The Littlest Rebel". In the Fox picturization of the play all America cheered, SHIRLEY TEMPLE heads an all-star cast, sings new songs, does new dances.

ROLICKING NEW MUSICAL OPENS AT CONNELLEE TODAY

"Broadway Hostess" First National's rollicking musical comedy drama, with thrilling high lights, catchy music and mammoth spectacles, will open at the Connellee Theatre Saturday, with an all star cast.

The story treats of life on the Great White Way, particularly the night clubs and the palatial gambling halls. It is the story of a little country girl who goes to the big city to make good in theatrical work.

She finds it a tough job to crash Broadway, however, until she meets a big shot gambler, who puts her over in a big way and makes her the toast of the bright light district.

Comedy and thrills follow in quick succession until a smashing climax in which the gambler is slain by the brother of the woman he loves. Winifred Shaw, musical comedy star, has the role of the little country girl who sings her way to fame, Phil Regan is her assistant, while Lyle Talbot is the gambler and Genevieve Tobin the society girl who Talbot loves.

Miss Shaw, besides playing the leading part, sings three songs by herself and one with Regan.

Phil Regan also sings one song alone. The musical and lyrics were specially written for the picture by Allie Wrubel and Mort Dixon, famous Broadway and Hollywood rest.

song writers.

Two spectacles were created and staged by Bobby Connolly, in which scores of beautiful dancing girls appear.

Others in the cast include Allen Jenkins, Marie Wilson, Spring Byington, Joseph King, Donald Ross, Frank Dawson and Harry Seymour. Frank McDonald directed the picture from the screen play by George Bricker.

RAYMOND, CALLAHAN, ROMANTIC TEAM IN MYSTERY MELODRAMA

A high-speed romance carried on a spooky atmosphere under the ever-present threat of desperate gangsters and blazing guns, and livened with side-splitting comedy situations, forms the basis of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," with Gene Raymond.

While Raymond does not discover the identity of her new love, Margaret Callahan, until the very end of the film, this uncertainty adds to the love affair in this RKO Radio thriller.

The story opens with Raymond, as a novelist seeking a quiet place to write a new book, coming to a deserted mountain inn on a mid-winter night. Though he hopes to be alone, a series of unexpected and mysterious visitors arrive and his solitude is turned into a turmoil, amid which the heroine remains almost as baffling as the famous Broadway and Hollywood rest.

BAND BENEFIT FEATURE

Starred in Fox Film's "The Gay Deception," Francis Lederer and Francis Dee discover that it's fun to be fool. They are the gay deceivers of this light-hearted comedy and when they finish pretending to be what they are they find themselves in each others' arms and intoxicated in love. This is the feature for the Eastland High School Band Benefit tonight.

Curtiss Company Sends Eastland Kids Candy Bars

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—So that that boys and girls of Eastland, Texas, and surrounding territory may celebrate "Santa Claus Comes to Eastland Day" in the real spirit of the holidays, with candy, Otto Schnering, president, Curtiss Candy Company, announced today that his company had just made a shipment of 2,000 Baby Ruth candy bars to Eastland, in response to a telegram received from the Eastland Telegram. The candy bars are a gift of the Curtiss Candy Company to the merchants of Eastland who are sponsoring the celebration.

With the demand for Curtiss candies for Christmas reaching unprecedented proportions the three big plants of the Curtiss Candy Company are working at capacity to take care of the annual Christmas rush.

More than 2,500 employees in the various departments are busily engaged turning out the millions of candy bars every day that will bring delight to hundreds of thousands of youngsters at Christmas time.

Carload after carload of delicious Baby Ruth, Butterfinger, Buy Jimmy, Moon Spoon, Coconut Grove and other tempting Curtiss confections are leaving the factories daily destined for all parts of the United States.

Thousands of children all over the land will shout with delight on Christmas morning as they find Curtiss candy bars tucked away in the toe of Christmas stockings or as they gaze with admiration at Christmas trees from which hang Baby Ruth candy bars in their flashing red and white wrappers and Butterfinger bars in their appealing blue and yellow jackets.

"In recent years," said Mr. Otto Schnering, president of the big Curtiss Candy Company, thousands of people have turned to our wrapped candy bars as a convenient, inexpensive and sanitary means of trimming the Christmas tree. Not only are the bars good to look at as their attractive coloring adds beauty to the tree but they are good to eat as well.

"More and more the custom of passing out Curtiss 5-cent candy bars is growing during the holidays and at other times," Mr. Schnering continued. "Folks give them to the newsboy, to messengers, to the postman. They are putting them in Christmas stockings. They are passed to holiday guests; sliced and served at parties; used as favors to grace the table, given as bridge or other prizes."

The result of all this activity in the plants of the Curtiss Candy Company is seen in figures released showing the materials used in the manufacture of Curtiss candy bars during a recent year. These reach staggering proportions attesting to the tremendous popularity of Curtiss Baby Ruth and other candy bars.

It required an annual production of approximately seven million pounds of milk or the production of a herd of approximately 3,600 cows to meet the Curtiss requirements of 92 score creamery butter and milk consumption.

Forty-five million pounds of fresh, delicious, first-grade peanuts grown in Virginia and Georgia were consumed in a single year.
This required the cultivation of 118,000 acres of peanut-growing land and utilized the services of about 12,000 farmers alone in their cultivation and shelling.

Corn syrup consumption amounted to 36,000,000 pounds represented by 34,000 acres of corn cultivation and necessitating shipment in 400 tank cars of 90,000 pounds capacity.

Granulated sugar consumption reached the astonishing total of 48,000,000 pounds. This required the cultivation of approximately 23,440 acres of sugar beet and sugar cane.

Chocolate consumption amounted to 32,000,000 pounds or approximately one pound for every four men, women and children in the United States.

In the 52 packing lines, Curtiss used 2,500,000 pounds of glassine paper; 16,500,000 pounds of box board. These materials required 5,700 freight cars to transport and a forestation equivalent to almost 26 square miles.
