

REMINDER: Please remember that Tuesday, November 13th is the Rotan Chamber of Commerce sponsored Western Trade Day. Events will be set up in the grassy area West of the new Rotan City Hall.

Also remember that Friday, November 9th is the Rotan First United Methodist Church gumbo and stew supper and annual church bazaar. Begins at 5:30 p.m. Fellowship Hall.

Roby First Methodist bazaar and bake sale is November 16th.

Roby Church of Christ recently moved the Men's Breakfast to the first monday of each month-which also happens to be the morning the Roby Methodist Men hold their monthly breakfast meeting.

Rotan First Baptist "Pastor Search Committee" travelled to hear a prospective pastor last Sunday.

THANKS: Had a phone call last week from Beth Dannheim, Fisher County Extension Home Economist. She is in the same business as a lot of us - public relations of a sort. She was letting this cranky Ol' wind bag know that she liked the new heading on her weekly column. Nice of her to call, but you'd expect that - she is a nice lady. She is spoiling the members of the Fisher County Commissioners Court - fresh cakes and cookies each time they meet.

COMMERCIAL: The Newspaper Office "Christmas Open House" is Saturday, November 17th. This place looks like a winter wonderland and smells like cinnamon, peppermint, pine and spice. We are proud of the Christmas gift selection this year. Stop by, give us the opportunity to fill your shopping list - locally.

THE WATER MESS: Sure easy to read a person when the water goes dry. For a week the City of Rotan was on the brink of fixing a broken 8 inch line coming into Rotan. All kinds of problems cropped up - DPR water customers were out for several days, some Rotan customers for several days. One lady called demanding to know when she would have water. The stores sold out of bottled water. Those without were drawing from those with. One DPR customer, when his line went dry, got water from town and commented that it was terrible tasting. Tell us about it - but it's the same water.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY: November 8 - 14 to - 8th - Valene Kiker; Tish Salazar; Jeff Klein and Debby Burnes 9th - Rode Morrow; 11th - Mina Curlee and Monte Morrow; 12th - Daniel Markham; 13th - Teresa Dycus and 14th - Leon Helm and Oleta McNaron.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY: November 9th - Donny & Dee Ann Mullins; 10th - Mac & Carolyn Weathersbee; 12th - James & Darlene Carter and Jim & Brenda Sheehan; 14th - Earl & Annette Leach.

CONGRATULATIONS: To Billy Green who finishes 20 years of keeping the Sunday School records at the First Baptist Church of Rotan.

DEADLINE NEARS: For the price break on ordering photo Christmas cards from Keaton Kolor (November 16th). Cards from prints, negatives, slides - envelopes. Order 100 and cost drops to .44 cents each. Order from The Newspaper Office.

JOINT SERVICE: November 16th is the joint Roby First Baptist and Roby First Methodist Thanksgiving Service at the First Baptist Church. Starts at 6:00 p.m.

THE OPEN LETTER: Dr. Nolan Kinsey had an interesting "Open Letter" to residents of the Rotan Consolidated Independent School District in last week's paper. Glad to see the interest in seeing that the general public is informed of school activities from all aspects of the institute of learning.

UNITED PARCEL SERVICE: We are anticipating a busy season with the mailing of UPS parcels before Christmas. A few comments. Ship early. Have your packages to The Newspaper Office

Five Fisher County Cotton Gins Expect 40,000 Bales

If Fisher County gin managers are correct in their predictions, Fisher County cotton farmers will gin twice as many bales in 1990 than they did in 1989.

Fisher County cotton farmers ginned a total of 21,471 bales in 1989 and are expected to gin 40,000 in 1990.

The five Fisher County gin managers, all contacted last Monday, each reported that their respective gins were running and expected the busy period to be about two weeks away.

Jim Gruben, manager of the Rotan Gin, indicated that a new gin stand had been installed that "gives us a total of 4 gin stands and a 30 bale per hour capacity". Gruben indicated that he hopes the gin could average 25 bales per hour. "Increasing the ginning capacity and making all the adjustments internally, gives the Rotan Gin the ability to process cotton at a high rate of speed yet do the quality ginning job that we demand", said Gruben.

Gruben said the Rotan Gin had ginned a total of 1,525 bales so far this season and that "the lint is turning out above average". The Rotan Gin had a total bale count of 10,425 in 1989 and expected to finish 1990 with 17,000 bales.

Mike Terry, manager of the Terry

Gin in Roby, indicated that a new Redi Feeder cotton module feeding system by Beltwide had been installed in the off season. "The new module feeding system will carry four modules at a time and will allow us to do a better job of ginning", said Terry. He was in hopes that the new system would speed up ginning time considerably over last year.

Terry Gin baled a total of 4,995 bales in 1989 and from Terry's prediction should hit close to 10,000 bales in 1990. "We should hit a pretty steady pace for the next two weeks, then from about the end of November until after January 1st, we'll be running 24-hours a day, wide open", said Terry.

Bud Guelker, manager of the Farmers Union Coop Gin at Roby wasn't quite sure how the Sunday night freeze affected the cotton. "The temperature stayed below freezing for 3-4 hours but you can't ever tell, a wet freeze is a lot different than a dry freeze", said Guelker.

He indicated that he expected the big rush within two weeks after the freeze dried all the leaves. Farmers Union Coop Gin had a total of 1,940 bales in 1989 and from Guelker's predictions that gin will bale close to 5,500 bales in 1990.

Esther Hayes manager of the Hobbs Gin reported a total of 250 bales ginned to date for 1990. She said she was having a hard time predicting a total count for the season due to a lot of variables. Her estimate was that Hobbs Gin would finish the season with 4,000 bales.

The final Fisher County gin, Longworth Gin at Longworth, managed by Donald Coker, just started ginning and had a total count of 86 bales through last Monday morning.

Coker indicated that the Longworth Gin had a total bales count for 1989 of 2,136 bales and could hit 3,500 for 1990 if projections hold true.

State Capital Highlights

By Lyndell Williams
Texas Press Association

The dirtiest political campaign in the history of Texas ended this week, and Capitol eyes turned to watch what may be the last gasp of the most political Texas Supreme Court ever.

The dominant theme in judicial elections was whether lawmakers elected to judgeships can be trusted not to make laws from the bench - and voters thought they had their say Tuesday.

Not entirely so. In a neat display of political sidestep, the High Court Democrats and lame-duck Attorney General Jim Mattox have managed to drag a very tax-expensive issue away from the force of this week's election.

As a result, the five sitting Democrats on the Texas Supreme Court - all former state legislators - as a group will have a final say in telling the Legislature, at the bottom line, how much money it must spend.

How did they do it?

After an Austin state district judge waited until September to declare the Legislature's new school finance plan unconstitutional, Mattox pulled an end run around the appeals court and brought the case directly to the Supreme Court.

On one hand, his tactic saves time and money, but there are political profits to be repeated as well.

First, the hot potato case is delayed until after the election; Mattox and the Democratic leadership knew full well that to hand down a tax-prone decision before an election would jeopardize their entire ballot.

Second, Mattox essentially gave the issue to the bench's current majority of Democrats to handle in December, even though two justices - Franklin Spears and C.L. Ray - did not run for re-election.

Window of Opportunity
If Mattox had gone through the appeal court, the case would have been delayed past their terms. As it stands

COUNTY FOOTBALL: Rotan is open next week. Plays Robert Lee in the final regular season game on November 16. Roby plays Garden City at home.

FINALLY: Ol' Whistle Britches is looking to buy a Macintosh computer - really. He wants to set his weekly junk at home and transmit it to the office electronically. If you have an un-used Apple Macintosh, give the Newspaper Office a call. Money is no object to Ol' Whistle Britches. He says he has money buried in fruit jars and coffee cans in the back yard that he hasn't seen in years. If he wants a computer, we'll try to help him get one.

SOMETHING NEW: Ol' Whistle Britches is asking for more space. He wants to pen a new section called "As A Rule Of Thumb", here goes. As A Rule Of Thumb - When you are trying to decide what to eat - if you can't figure out what to eat, you're not hungry, as a rule of thumb.

HUSBANDS: The average husband worries about what his wife spends and what the government spends. The difference is he's not afraid to criticize the government.

COMMON SENSE: Most people have fairly good common sense, but they only use it in an emergency.

PREJUDICE: Prejudice squints when it looks and lies when it talks.

WORRY: There will always be enough worries for today without taking on the worries of tomorrow and yesterday.

CHILDREN: If you plan on teaching your children the value of a dollar - you better do it quick.

FRIENDS: You can win more friends with your ears than with your mouth.

FINALLY, FINALLY: Ol' Whistle Britches says "A democracy is a system where a man who didn't vote can belly-ache about the candidate the rest of us elected and feel good about it."

now, the bloc of former legislators on the Court have a month-long window of opportunity.

Couldn't they wait a month? After all, State District Judge Scott McCown waited all summer before striking it down.

Hardly. Three seats were up for election, with the six non-contested seats held by three Democrats and three Republicans; facing the possibility of a Republican majority on the court, the former legislators couldn't afford to take chances.

Special Master Re-Enters
Now, when the new justices take their oath in January, they'll likely find the school finance case has been sent back to the Legislature or given to the special master, himself a former Democrat legislator and Supreme Court Justice.

The pro-legislative maneuver is totally legal, is no deep dark secret, and is well-applauded in many Capitol circles.

Advocates argue Texas needs equity in education funding, and since the Legislature won't draw it up, the special master might as well.

Unless conservatives in the judiciary can delay action until the lame-ducks are off the court, he probably will.

Could Have Built Schools

The doomsayers expect this lame-duck cabal to order costly reforms that will force legislators over the brink and into a state income tax.

So, the issue remains with us, whether it is right or prudent for a judge to force the Legislature to spend more money than it has on the books.

Texas has seen it all too often this past decade; in fact, had a federal judge not forced the Legislature to spend millions on new prisons, the Legislature might have been able to appropriate more money for public education.

Texans could have been building better schools instead of better prisons.

Initiative Rights Eyed
State Rep. Rick Williamson, D-Weatherford, plans to sponsor legislation in January that would give Texans initiative and referendum rights. Although similar efforts failed in 1989, Williamson said he believes the bill has a better chance in 1991.

Residents in about half of the 50 states can put such measures as whether to slash taxes and impose limits on officerholders' terms, through the petition process.

In Texas, people don't have that power. But some lawmakers and political observers think the time may be ripe for change.

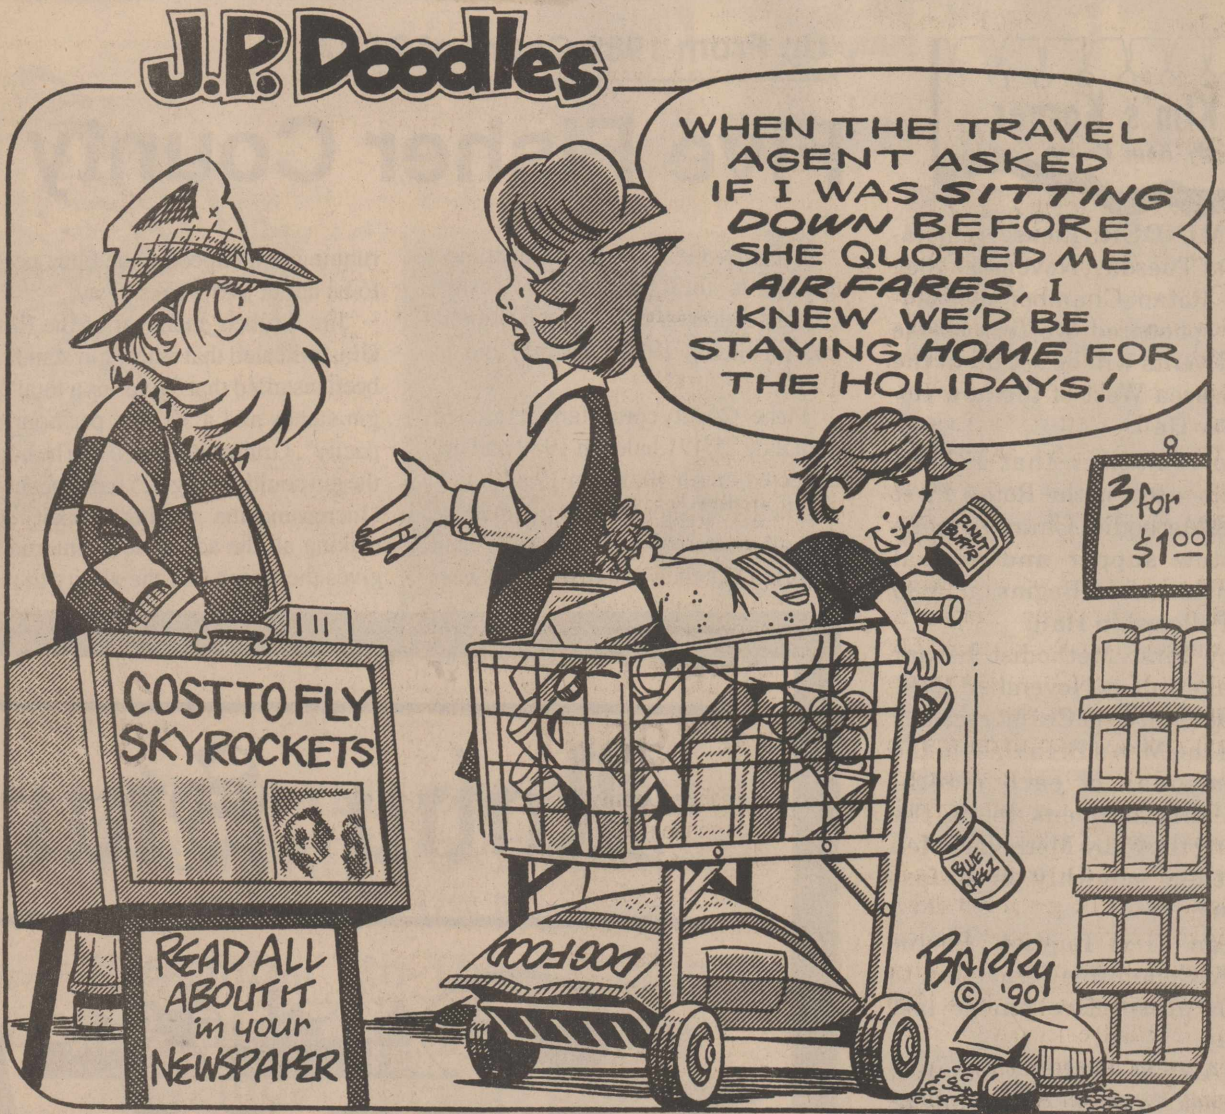

"It is the future of public policy," said Williamson. "The information - communications revolution of the 1980s has put on the table permanently that voters should have control over public policy."

Other Highlights

* Two former chief justices, both Democrats, endorsed a Republican for Place 1 on the Supreme Court. John Hill and Joe Greenhill gave the nod to San Antonio's State District Judge John Cornyn over Democrat Gene Kelly.

* Congress just gave Texas 11 new federal judges, the most any state received, with five slated for South Texas, three for West Texas, two for Dallas-Fort Worth and one in East Texas.

* The last Gallop Poll before the election found that of the 12 percent of "most likely voters" who were still undecided, most were conservative, white females concerned with schools and crime.

That We Might Be Free

Some were young, having never before left the security of home. Others were older, raising families and engaged in established occupations. Yet, each had a common denominator. All of those brave men and women put a halt to their lives as they knew them, left familiarity behind, and traveled to foreign shores, risking their lives to protect our concept of democracy. Inevitably, many died for this noble cause.

Each time we cast our ballot... every Sabbath as we worship in the church or synagogue of our choice... those instances when we might express a political opinion without fear or reprisal, let us remember the months and years sacrificed by our veterans as they defended and still defend the rights which we enjoy today.

As Veteran's Day approaches, may we honor the selfless men and women who have paid with a portion of their lives that ours might be free.

College Career Day To Be Held At Roby

Parents For Better Education will be hosting a College Career Day at Roby High School, Nov. 14th at 10:30. They will begin with a brief meeting in the auditorium, then dismiss to visit with the colleges and universities present. All high school students will have an opportunity to speak with the representatives from these schools.

They encourage parents to take time to talk with their children about the possibility of a college education. Students need to find out what the entrance requirements are. How much will it cost? What grants and scholarships are available? What paperwork is required and when does it need filled out? They should ask about a day to visit the campus. Find out what the job market is like in case they need a part-time job to help meet financial obligations. What is campus life like? How big are the classes? This will be a good opportunity to talk with a variety of schools and compare value. Students make a large investment in the college they choose to attend. Hopefully this will help them make the right investment.

Parents are encouraged to attend. Whether you plan to take classes yourself or want to see what choices are out there, you may attend.

Bug Country Report

Watch Out For Greenbugs In Wheat

Nature of Damage. Greenbugs are aphids that suck plant juices and inject toxins into small grain plants. These aphids are pale green, approximately 1/16-inch long, with characteristic dark green stripes on the back. Greenbugs develop in large numbers under favorable conditions and may cause economic losses. Greenbugs reproduce rapidly at temperatures between 55 and 95 degrees F. Natural enemies, however, reproduce slowly when temperatures are below 65 degrees F. Thus, in cool weather the greenbug may increase to enormous numbers while its natural enemies multiply slowly. The average temperature must be below 20 degrees F for at least a week to kill 99 percent of the greenbugs. The population also must be without protection from snow cover. During the winter, infested fields may have yellowed spots preceding the appearance of small, deadened areas. Later, greenbugs in these spots may increase and spread throughout the field. Greenbugs cause more damage when small grain crops suffer from deficient moisture during a mild winter and a cool spring. Greenbug damage may be confused with moisture stress and/or nitrogen deficiency or foot rot.

Sampling for Greenbugs. While walking diagonally across the field, make a minimum of five random counts per 20 acres of field area, each consisting of one linear foot of row. Greenbugs can be counted on small plants. On larger plants, slap the plants against the ground to jar greenbugs loose for counting. If greenbugs are numerous, estimate the number present. Make counts during the warmest part of the day when greenbugs are most likely to be exposed on the above-ground part of the plants. During periods of cool, dry weather, greenbugs may congregate in loose soil at the base of plants, making detection and chemical control difficult.

It is important to outline specifically all conditions under which insecticides should be applied for greenbug control. However, information in the following table may serve as a general guide in determining the need for treatment.

Plant height (inches)	Number of greenbugs per linear foot
3-6	100-300
4-8	200-400

News From Down South By Bertha Warren

Ollie Ogden attended the turkey dinner given by the Fisher County Senior Citizens. There was a large crowd and so much food. Everyone had a great time.

Erma Lee Jones went with 18 other senior citizens on a trip to Bronson, Mo., saw a lot of live entertainment and such beautiful scenery. Carlos Jones has a new job at TDC in Palestine, Tx. He has been there about a week and sure does like it.

Marry Etta O'Donald has returned from her trip to Wylie visiting Don and Nancy and Brad and Ronny and Vicky. She reported them all well and busy with jobs and school.

Carrol and Lena Hodges visited with Frank and Janice Healer Sunday. Lena had a check up with her doctor in Abilene Monday and Carrol went to see his doctor in Lubbock Tuesday. Jerry, Karen and Nikki of Big Spring visited the Hodges Sunday.

Kathy and Chris Gee of Ft. Wood visited Harvey and Cleo Davis over the weekend.

Lorene Henderson's brother Ed Rucker of Grandbury came for a visit last Wednesday and went home Tuesday. Friday their sister, Texas Lambert of Sweetwater spent the day with them. They had a very good visit as it had been some time since the three of them had spent any time together.

We were all saddened Tuesday by the death of Edmonia Baugh, 74, of the Double Mountain, north of Rotan. Besides her husband Sam, she was survived by four sons: Todd, David, Bruce and Stephen and one daughter Frances White. She was buried Saturday at Rotan. Our sympathy goes out to all her family.

Well, I'm glad the weather has changed. Now I can complain about the cold wind, having to go outdoors to get in the car, can't leave the doors and windows open, ice on the wind shield, cold feet. This is great! I can gripe every day about something new.

Emily Jean Wanderer, 66, of Big Spring, died Monday at her home. Survivors include her husband Bernie; two daughters, Jan Elliott and Pam Yanez both of Big Spring; one son, James Owen Milam of Harlingen; two brothers, Dub Landers and Lester Landers both of Sweetwater; three sisters, Scean Woods of Roby; Lee Kent of Sweetwater and Mabel Wyatt of Lubbock and six grandchildren.

Meaningful Roles For Youth

"Be quiet." "Do what you're told." "Don't rock the boat." "I don't need your ideas." "Be thankful for what I do for you."

If your boss gave you these messages for eighteen years, how would you feel about your job? Your boss? Yourself? Would you be eager to go to work? Would you feel that you were an important part of the team?

According to Stephen Glenn and Jane Nelson, authors of Raising Self-Reliant Children In A Self-Indulgent World, this is the message that youth receive from their parents, from their school, and from society as a whole. Today, children and youth have absolutely no role to play in the well-being of their family, neighborhood, or community.

Most youth have the feeling that it makes no difference what they do, if they show up, or how they behave. This sense of being irrelevant has contributed to the passivity and indifference of youth and has led to declines in academic achievement, motivation, and discipline.

Not affirming the value of children and youth as individuals has been costly. Suicide attempts, alcohol and substance use, teen sexuality and pregnancy all proclaim youth's need to be of value and importance to someone for some period of time.

Children, like adults, need to feel that they are important, contributing parts of the family, the school, the neighborhood and of society. If we want capable kids, we must look for ways to restructure school and family dynamics so that youth can be actively involved.

Parents and teachers can help children grow toward competence and self-reliance by allowing children to do things for themselves, even if it would be faster and easier for the adult to do it; by showing children that others depend upon them, by not doing the chores for the child; and by allowing children to suffer the consequences of their actions, even if it may hurt a little at the time.

"I won't get a second chance to plan my funeral."

ForethoughtSM is funeral planning... before the need arises

After the fact, everything happens so fast. There's so little time and so many decisions, everyone could really feel uncomfortable. I know my family won't have that problem. They already know how my funeral is going to be and what it's going to cost because I took the time to plan what I want. I even paid the bill with the Forethought life insurance policy designed and approved specifically for Forethought funeral planning. And, because I'm between 40 and 90 years old, I couldn't be turned down for any reason.

TAX PLANNING

Written by Richard E. Rodgers, CPA

IRS NOTICES (Know What You're Paying)

The Internal Revenue Service sends out numerous tax deficiency notices which are incorrect. Don't pay additional amounts on your income tax return unless you are satisfied that you owe it.

IRS offices are staffed with ordinary people that make ordinary mistakes. Add to that a computer that can make ordinary computer mistakes and you have the ingredients for improperly mailed notices. Because these notices came from a Federal agency, the average person gives them more credibility than they may deserve.

The Internal Revenue Service is attempting to match certain documents to your social security number and your tax return. If you receive interest, dividends, rents, royalties, or any number of other types of income, you will probably be issued a "1099" information slip identifying the earnings. If the IRS can't readily locate that information on your tax return, they may send you a deficiency notice even though that income may be included somewhere in your tax return.

Don't assume that you owe additional taxes to the IRS just because they send you a statement. Because of the possibilities of both mechanical and human error, it's worth checking to make sure you owe the amount requested.

If you have paid someone to prepare your tax return, give them a copy of "all" correspondence you receive from the Internal Revenue Service, even those which do not request additional taxes. Your tax return preparer needs a full track record of all aspects of your tax return if he's to do an adequate job of representing you. Most IRS notices require a response within a specified number of days; therefore, all correspondence should be given to your accountant as soon as possible.

Letter To The Editor

Letter To The Editor:
The employees of the City of Rotan are to be commended for their valiant efforts in repairing breaks in the water line. For almost two weeks these men worked day and night, some going without sleep for 36 hours or more, in order to provide water to the area. These men did not have the equipment or the expertise of a major pipeline company, but they cared. We appreciate them. Charles and Darlene Cleveland

Hustling Around Hobbs

By Joy Walker

This Monday morning was a real winter wonderland when we awoke, as everything was white with frost and the sun came out early, and it was truly a beautiful sight. When the norther hit Saturday evening, it really blew in with a bang, and it was cool in a very short while. I also measured 1 inch of rain here at the house and the wind was so strong. Sunday was a miserable day, dark and so cold. The leaves are almost all blown off my trees except for the pecans and they still have plenty of leaves, but that is about all as this year I have a very sparse crop of pecans. Guess maybe it was some kind of disease that was on the trees, anyway pecans will be scarce this year in some places.

I saw and heard Jim Ratliff on television Tuesday night. He and his fellow wheelchair athletes were playing the Wylie coaches. Funds raised will help purchase an automobile chair lift for Stacy Kirk, a Wylie senior injured in a football game, last year. Jim was playing and spoke on behalf of all the High Rollers who were playing.

Bro. C.J. Smith is still in Washington visiting with his son, and in his absence Bro. Dee Threatt from Rotan brought our messages on Sunday. We were really pleased to have him and his wife, Diana. They ate dinner with Carl and Lila Guinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Martinez went to Abilene Tuesday and while there, they visited with Mary and Emilio Martinez. They also attended the 25th wedding anniversary for Dr. Maurice and Ruth Callan on Sunday.

Larry Phillips from Lubbock visited with Opal Phillips Friday through Sunday. Sherry Payne from Lubbock and Larry's little daughter, Brandi, are staying with Opal.

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Etheredge went to Snyder to watch Courtney Wilburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilburn, play volleyball at Snyder High School on Saturday. They were playing for district. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilburn and the J.W. Etheredges all ate lunch with Mrs. Lealon Wilburn on Sunday, and then Sunday night the Jim Wilburns, Mrs. Lealon Wilburn, and Randy and Cody Etheredge all visited with the J.W. Etheredges.

I went to Abilene with Mrs. Sheila Gruben last Monday. Then Friday I went to Snyder after working that morning. When I came home, I was feeding my cat, and he had stirred up a rattlesnake at the corner of the house, so I got my boots on and the hoe and killed it in about two hacks. This is the first time I have ever killed a rattlesnake and I was determined it wasn't going to get away. The cat sure had it mad, and it was concentrating more on him than me, thank goodness.

The foliage round about us reflects the fall season, as October turns to November, and green turns to yellow, brown, red and orange. Some of the trees are a picture, although with the high winds we have been having, they will soon be bare.

In this country we should find it easy to be thankful because of the many blessings that are ours. We spend millions of dollars to reduce our waist lines due to over-eating and drinking, whereas most people in the world struggle from dawn to dusk to gain a full meal. Besides the freedom and opportunities that we enjoy, there are so many natural blessings in this country, and our land is rich in natural resources. Americans are often unaware of the rich and diverse natural heritage we have.

The water situation out this way has at last eased up, and everyone that has been without water for over a week, is sure glad. Hopefully they have got the breaks fixed this time. Don't forget Hobbs Homecoming is this Saturday, the 10th, make your plans accordingly and try to attend. Also don't forget the Quail Cook-off which also is Saturday at the Cottonwood Recreational Vehicle Park, one mile south of Roby. I attended the Senior Citizens turkey dinner on Sunday and there was a big crowd there despite the bad weather, and then I visited with Janet Branch at Dr. Maurice and Ruth Callan's 25th wedding anniversary. It was so nice and a huge crowd attended. Congratulations to them both. It was sure good to see Janet and Andrea again. When Melody is home she and Janet never can seem to get together, but we are hoping Thanksgiving they will be able to at least talk on the phone. Well this is about all for this week. See you next Thursday.

Faculty and Administration Notes:

Recently, I attended a meeting of Roby's PFBE (Parents for Better Education); my reason for attending was not particularly noble-- my wife, facing a ton of papers and other work, felt too overwhelmed to go. But she knew that I had caught up my work. You can figure out the balance of the conversation.

Anyway, I arrived, armed with a notepad, and found a hard-core and valiant few, who were attempting to grapple with questions about projects, volunteers, etc. All of them were working people with jobs, families, problems, debts, and more demands upon their time than anyone should allow.

Some days before, I had been walking down the corridors of the Junior High in search of someone, and I stumbled over a group of volunteers, hard at work in the Work Room. I remember being a little surprised; they were working so diligently that I doubt that they ever saw me. Finally, I come to my point.

Speaking as a teacher, I must say that those volunteers ("down in the trenches") deserve more credit and praise than I can render. Roby CISD owes them a great deal as there will always be more work than workers to do the work. But what I am afraid of is that the general community, in some respects, may have forgotten that they, those overworked volunteers, are in those classrooms and workrooms, trying to do the right thing for the children. So, this brief note is for those volunteers and the members of the PFBE. Remember, as the beatitude says (slightly amended and paraphrased): "Blessed are the volunteers, aides, and assistants for they are the keepers of thy sanity and the hope of thy administrative salvation."

For all other parents out there, the PFBE meets on Nov. 26 at 8:00 p.m. in the High School auditorium. The PFBE Board meets on Monday, Nov. 19. These fine people (and your schools) need your input and expertise. Make some time and be there.

One final comment as regards to High School activities: Mr. Hudson's Choir and Mrs. Coats' Spanish II class got together for a delicious Mexican food lunch just last week. The Spanish class provided the food and the choir provided the clean-up crew and entertainment. Everyone had such a good time that plans have been laid to repeat the effort (no date yet; but all of us in the High School are anxious to get on the guest list!) And in another joint venture, Mr. Hudson sponsored a trip to Abilene for his Music History class and some members of the Spanish classes went along. The purpose was to take in a performance of Man of La Mancha, a musical based on Don Quixote by Miguel de Cervantes, Spain's most famous novelist. The performance was excellent and everyone had a marvelous time. Mr. Hudson hopes to generate some additional interest in future trips. These activities are intended to expand "cultural horizons" and to add a little extra "zip" to the curriculum. Watch for future announcements!

Roby Lions Bury Plow Point In Victory Over Roscoe

by Larry Coats

Last Friday night the Lions, favored to defeat the Roscoe Plowboy's by at least one TD, went to Roscoe and improved upon that prediction, plowing under the Plowboys, 22-8. The Lion offense finally came to life and provided good lead blocking for Lion running backs, and the linemen gave Quarterback Kenny Heflin time to do something with the football.

The first half of the first quarter started off inconclusively. Neither side seemed able to sustain an offensive movement. Both defenses played well. It was not until about six minutes into the quarter that the Lions found an opportunity. Thomas Cortez, on a 4th and 8 situation, punted the ball from near the Lion 40 and it sailed all the way to the Plowboy 8 yard line. Roscoe, with 5:58 left in the quarter, tried to run the ball out, but determined efforts from Nick Dickson, Albert Barrera, Mike Williams, Joe Rivas, and others kept the Plowboys backed up near their own goal line. When Roscoe punted the ball away, Kenny Heflin returned it to the Plowboy 30, and it was at this point that the offense began to click.

Heflin and Barrera worked the ball down to the Plowboy 11 for a first down, and with 3:50 left, continued to pound the middle of the Roscoe defense with runs over the right side and with quarterback keepers. The Plowboys adjusted, and when the Lions got to the 2 yard line, the Roscoe defense stiffened; Mike Williams met a wall of defenders at the line of scrimmage; Kenny Heflin was also stopped just short of the goal. Finally, however, on a 3rd and goal, Heflin executed a quarterback sneak and went over for the TD. The extra point kick was good, and the Lions led by seven with 36 seconds left in the first quarter.

Big Mike Williams kicked off for the Lions, and the Plowboy ball carrier might have made more progress upfield except that he was nailed squarely at the Roscoe 30 by Joel Collier. Their next offensive play resulted in a fumble at the line of scrimmage. The quarter ended at that point. But Roscoe was not yet willing to give up the effort. Just after the second quarter began, the Plowboys found a hole in the Lion defense and they ran right up the middle for nearly a 40 yard gain down to the Lion 20. Only the speed and determination of Jeremy Terry prevented the touchdown. It looked like Roscoe might have a shot at the end zone.

They did manage to push the ball as far as the 14, but the Lion defense shut down their drive there. When the ball went over, the Lions had not better luck in moving the ball, so Cortez had to punt it away. The low kick went deep, and the Plowboy runback was forced deep, reversed, and finally chased down at the Roscoe 21 by Jeremy Terry and Joe Don Helm. The best efforts of Roscoe were repeatedly met by Joe Rivas, Jeremy Terry, and others, resulting in quarterback sacks and smothered pitchbacks. Compounding the lack of offensive production, the Plowboys had to punt into a stiff breeze which made the ball bounce dead at their own 35.

Sniffing another opportunity, the Lions opened with a series of running plays directed at both sides of the line: David Scott and Albert Barrera made good gains; Heflin, on a keeper, pushed the drive to near the 25; Barrera, on 4th and inches, crashed over for a key first down; and Scott's pitchback runs rolled up more yardage. However, the drive almost stalled out when a holding call against the Lions brought the ball back to the 30. On 4th down and 16 yards to go for the first, Kenny Heflin launched a beautiful pass over the left side to Jamie Amador, who rambled in for the second Lion TD. Once again, the extra point kick was good. Much credit goes to the offensive line of the Lions; they made things happen on this drive. With the second quarter almost gone, Roby led 14-0.

On the kickoff, Mike Williams' kick went all the way to the end zone, giving Roscoe no chance for a return. On this possession, Roscoe made little progress on the ground. Their one productive play was a long pass which gave them plenty of breathing room at their own 47. But with less than two minutes remaining, things came unglued. Following another running down, the Lion defense stripped the ball and gathered in the fumble at their own 35. The Lion offense then scared their opponents with a drive that almost scored again: Scott, behind Williams' and Dickson's excellent blocking, spurred up the middle to near the Plowboy 41; Scott again, on a pitchback, drove to the 35; Barrera then bulld his way to a first and 10 at the 15. Then, with 41 seconds left, the Plowboys saved themselves by intercepting a Heflin pass. The first half ended with Roscoe sitting on their own 1 yard line.

The second half commenced with Heflin making a seven yard return to the Lion 27. Roby's running attack went into action again, with combinations of Barrera and Scott, but the going was slow. On 3rd and 10, the Lions pulled off a draw play and David Scott streaked for almost 35 yards to the Plowboy 40. Roby kept the pressure on, running Scott and Heflin at different points of the defense until they had a first down at the Roscoe 33. Then, a spinning run by Scott, accompanied by good blocking, carried the offense to the 17. The Plowboys then dug in and slowly forced the drive to a halt. At the Roscoe 14, Scott and Barrera were stopped short, and an attempted reverse by Amador was cut down as his blockers could not help him. Roscoe took over at their own 20, and with time running out in the third quarter, they needed a miracle to stay alive. They got one on their second play from scrimmage.

A Roscoe running back broke free over the left side and beat the Lion secondary. He sprinted for 80 yards and a TD, and with the extra points having been run over for 2, the Plowboys, had, at least, avoided a shut-out: Lions 14, Plowboys 8. But 5:17 remained in the quarter, and the Lions, surprised but not demoralized, surged back. Since the kickoff sailed into the end zone, the Lions opened from their 20 with the running attacks of Scott and Barrera. Scott, on another pitchback, exploded out for nine yards. Barrera fought his way up the middle for another first down. Scott then duplicated his last effort and made nine more yards. The duo of Scott and Barrera moved the Lions out to their 44 where Heflin kept the ball on a fake sweep. His run, coupled with more runs by Scott and Barrera and more keeper plays, forced the Plowboys back to their own 27. On 3rd and 1 at the 27, Heflin dove for the first down and wound up at the 22. The quarter ended just as Scott, behind beautiful blocking, barreled down to the 12.

This time, the Lions were not to be denied a score. Heflin succeeded in getting a first and goal situation on a keeper play. Barrera pushed the ball even closer, and finally, Scott went over the left side, behind superb blocking by Cortez and Barrera for the TD. Moses Campa provided the "icing on the cake" by running in for the extra points behind more lead blocks thrown by Cortez and Barrera. The Lions now led 22-8 and 10:55 remained in the quarter.

Thanks to a fine kick and a penalty, the Plowboys were once again faced with the prospect of starting deep in their own territory. They managed to push their way out to their 24, but Roby's Dickson, Helm, Rivas, Williams, and Barrera played the run tough, finally bringing up a 3rd and 7 situation at Roscoe's own 37. At that point, Mike Williams reached out and literally "collared" the Plowboy quarterback for a loss, forcing a 4th and 14 and a punt. The ball was called dead at the Lion 47.

On this possession, Roby was unable to move the ball, but a holding call and some incomplete passes killed any real scoring potential. The highlight of this series had to have been a perfectly thrown pass from Heflin down the sideline to Amador, which allowed the Lions to pick up another first down on the next play. On 3rd and 1, Albert Barrera got the first down at the Roscoe 40. The drive, however, died there when a pass just missed Jeremy Terry and David Scott was stopped on a 4th and 5 situation. The ball went over to the Plowboys, who had only 3:16 left with which to work. Expecting the pass, the Lions had some Plowboy runners move the ball out to mid-field, but at that juncture, the Lion defense toughened. J.T. Elmore put a particularly fine hit on a Plowboy runner at the line of scrimmage, and the rest of the defense spoiled other running plays. On 4th and 2 at the Lion 39, the Plowboys returned to the passing game, but had it eliminated when Joe Rivas picked off a pass. This would have ended the game for Roscoe, but a late hit on their quarterback gave them a second chance. From the Lion 25, on first and 10, the Plowboys tried another run, but Elmore, once again, cut the play to only short yardage. Roscoe pushed against a stubborn Roby defense, finally moving to the 18, then to the 14, and down to the 10. They tried two consecutive passes from the 10, but both were incomplete, and Roby regained the ball with 5 seconds left. The game ended with the Lions in possession of the ball and a 22-9 victory.

This had to be one of the best games that the Lions have played this season. The offense executed their plays well, and the defense did a good job of containing the Roscoe offense. There were few obvious mental errors made by the Lions, and the team effort was clearly visible. When asked for his comments, Head Coach Theissen defined the ingredients for this victory: "We talked all week about winning the game at the line. It was a great effort by our offensive linemen. They have continued to improve every week and this game was an example of how consistent practice on the same things produce habits. Hopefully, we can continue to improve these last two weeks and, with a break here or there, surprise someone."

The game stats reveal how consistently the Lions played. In rushing yardage, Roby had 271 yards, and the Lions amassed 69 yards in the air. Total offensive yardage was 340. In addition, the Lions held the Plowboys to 221 of total offense.

The Lions needed this kind of game as next week they will be hosting Garden City in Lion Stadium. Garden City's reputation is well known among those who follow football in Fisher County, and the Lions will likely be a decided "underdog" in this contest. But if they continue to play consistently, they will give Garden City a tough game. Game time is 7:30. Lion fans are urged to make this game and get those "claws" up in the air!

Yellowhammers Take Giant Stride Toward Fourth Playoff

by Jim Gruben

Rotan Yellowhammers took a major step Friday night by making the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year by defeating the Bronte Longhorns 10-0 Friday night.

The 1st half action proved to be a defensive standoff as neither team managed to score. A series of 6 consecutive punts was brought about by strong defensive plays that kept both teams from moving the ball successfully.

Bronte mounted a drive early in the 2nd quarter, to the Rotan 24 yard line. Facing a 4th down and 19, Bronte attempted a field goal but was unsuccessful.

Rotan drove to the 40 yard line before a fumble halted another possession.

Yellowhammer defense again stiffened to force Bronte to punt. A 7 yard Longhorn punt gave Rotan excellent field position at the 38. Yellowhammers were again unable to sustain a drive and was forced to punt for the fourth time in the half. Rotan had a 70 yard touchdown run called back due to a mistaken sideline call. You hate to criticize officials but this was a crew made up primarily of first year rookies. Bronte was again unable to move the ball as time expired in the first half of play.

Bronte held a slight lead in first downs 5 to 3 and a 80 to 61 advantage in total offensive yardage.

Rotan defensive team played one of their best games of the season and definitely kept the Yellowhammers in the game.

After being held scoreless the first half, Rotan came out the second half determined to get on the scoreboard.

Rotan's leading rusher, David Daniel entered the game for the first time and proved to be the spark the team needed. Behind a determined offensive line, Daniel slipped through openings that appeared plugged the first half.

Yellowhammers drive started on their own 25 with David Daniel accounting for 11 carries for 72 yards in a 12 play drive covering 75 yards. Daniel scored on a 3 yard touchdown run with 7:02 remaining in the 3rd quarter. Danny Warren kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

Rotan defense appeared too tough to handle by shutting down the opening Longhorn drive of the second half.

Bronte was forced to punt to Trey Carrillo, who returned the kick 12 yards to the Rotan 36.

Yellowhammers punted back to Bronte but a fumbled punt return attempt was recovered by Jessie Garcia on the Bronte 35. Rotan drove to the 9 before being faced with a 4th and 5 situation. On comes kicker Danny Warren, holder Poose Alls and snapper Grant Kinsey to attempt a 26 yard field goal. Rotan has never been known for kicking field goals nor even attempting to kick a field goal. The field goal is an effective scoring weapon, as 3 points in this case would force Bronte to score two touchdowns in the final quarter to win the game instead of one touchdown and 2 point conversion attempt. This was an excellent call by Coach Dallas and the kick was true. Rotan led 10-0 just seconds into the 4th quarter.

Momentum was on the Yellowhammers' side to stay as the defense covered sideline to sideline as Bronte faced a familiar 3 downs and punt.

Yellowhammers next drive started on their own 36 and steadily drove downfield with runs by Eric Smith and David Daniel. Rotan was successful on a 3rd down 5 and a 4th down 2 situations. Rotan drove to the 5 yard line and attempted a dive play to hopefully break into the end zone. The 1 yard play ended up on the 4 yard line but 2 of the officials signaled touchdown. Well, the band started playing the fight song and Rotan made plans to kick the extra point. Statistician Norvelle Kennedy alerted the coaching staff that the ball was actually on the 4 yard line and now 3rd down. The officials noticed their error after spotting the ball but to my amazement made no attempt to notify the coaches that the touchdown had been nullified.

Rotan's concentration was definitely broken after realizing a return to the field was necessary. A fumbled snap miscue turned the ball over to the Longhorns on the 3 yard line. Fortunately, it was not the key scoring play of the game that determined the outcome. The game would have definitely been backed up with a 17-0 advantage.

Yellowhammer's defense continued to exhibit their aggressive tackling that made the difference on the effectiveness of the Bronte ball carriers. Jessie Garcia made one of the biggest hits of the night on the Bronte quarterback to stop a last ditch effort to score.

Rotan allowed Bronte only 1 first down and 21 yards of total offense the 2nd half. Rotan logged 14 first downs to 6 for Bronte and dominated total offensive yardage 259 to 101 for the game.

David Daniel (23 carries for 118 yards), J.P. Martinez (6 carries for 33 yards), Eric Smith (10 carries for 50 yards), Stephen Warren (12 carries for 27 yards), Herman Zavala (4 carries for 12 yards) and Trey Carrillo (1 carry for 11 yards). Rotan had 0 completions on 2 attempts and no interceptions.

Rotan now posts a season record of (5-4) and a district record of (3-1). Yellowhammers will play the Robert Lee Steers on Nov. 16th at H. Govan Field.

Rotan has an open date this week and will use the time to heal injuries and prepare for Robert Lee. The winner and runner up of District 9-A have both drawn byes in the 1st round of the

Letter To The Editor

Mr. Editor, Dear Sir:

May I use your column to express my appreciation to all our public servants, city and county? Case in point at this time: we are deeply indebted to our Rotan water department for the long hours of work in restoring our water after the recent major line break. These men, I understand, worked a 24 hour shift without rest, besides many other hours.

Long winter days ahead (nights as well) will see them in the cold ditches of water and mud to get our services restored following another burst line. The same is true of our electricity men and gas men.

Thank you gentlemen! God bless you!

Sincerely,
Wanda Murphree

Sheriff Investigates Two Burglaries To Roby Businesses

Fisher County Sheriff's Department officers investigated two break-ins at Roby last week, no merchandise at either of the locations were reported stolen however, according to law enforcement officers.

Fisher County Sheriff's Department personnel reported that Perry Thomson, manager of Roby's West Texas Utility reported that someone attempted to break-in the back door to the business. Sheriff Counts indicated that Thomson didn't feel that entry to the building was actually gained and he indicated that nothing was found to be missing inside the building.

The same night, November 2nd, someone kicked in the back door of the Roby Flower Shop. "They were apparently after money and didn't find any", said Counts. That break-in was reported by Maxine Burk.

Acreage Yields And Production Totals Due

The Texas Agricultural Statistics Service will begin contacting farmers and ranchers across the state in late November for 1990 acreage, yield and production totals and end-of-year livestock and poultry inventories.

"Extreme weather conditions have certainly had an impact on Texas agriculture this year. From the heavy rains and flooding in East Texas last spring to this summer's prolonged hot, dry conditions, weather has been a major factor in Texas production this year.

These surveys should help us summarize where the industry stands at the end of 1990," state statistician Dennis Findley explained.

"Information from these confidential surveys conducted by mail, telephone or in person will also help producers make their plans for the coming year."

"Sound production and marketing decisions require good, reliable information and some advanced planning, and our reports provide producers with solid facts and figures they can incorporate into their plans," Findley added.

As always, the Texas service will be trying to keep survey costs at a minimum, so Findley is urging producers to return their mailed questionnaires as soon as possible to avoid follow-up contacts.

"Remember, these are sample surveys, so if you are contacted it is important to provide the requested information, since one producer represents several other operations of the same type and size. Our estimates can be no better than the numbers producers provide," Findley noted.

Results of the surveys will be published in early 1991. Anyone wanting a copy of the results can write Information Section, Texas Agricultural Statistics Service, P.O. Box 70, Austin, Texas 78767.

TREE SALE

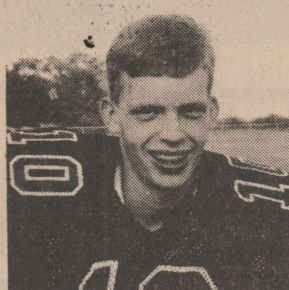

The Upper Clear Fork SWCD will be selling windbreak tree seedlings, hardwoods and wildlife packets. Orders should be placed as soon as possible due to free availability. Persons interested should call 735-3411 or come by the Soil Conservation Office.
