Council Agrees On 10-Cent Tax Increase

RAISE MAY GO TO 15 CENTS ON FINAL VOTE

City Commissioners Agree On Tentative Budget For New Year

SMALL INCREASES

Bond Issue, Street and Sewer Improvements Bring Raise In Levy

A minimum increase of 10 cents and a maximum of 15 cents in the city tax rate; the addition of two men to the Wichita Falls fire department personnel and a slight increase in the city budget was agreed upon Wednesday by the city council at a meeting held in the offices of Mayor R. E. Shepherd.

Budget Nearly Complete.

Compilation of the budget will be completed in time for presentation at the next meeting of the city council, to be held Monday night, Mayor Shepherd said. At the present time the exact amounts cannot be determined.

However, due to bond issues during the past year for the erection of the municipal auditorium, street paving and sewer construction, the members of the council agreed that the tax rate should be increased at least 10 cents and not more than 15 cents.

The amounts of the rate will be determined by the total tax valuation in the city. Last year the rate was $1.50 per $100 on a $45,000,000 valuation. The council anticipates that the total valuation this year will be $48,000,000.

Police Department.

The budget for 1927 will be practically the same as in 1926. Several slight increases will be given, Mayor Shepherd said.

The members of the council agreed that two men should be added to the fire department and that the number of men employed in the police department should be the same as in 926, during which the same as in 1926, during which There were 63 members of the fire department last year.

Grand Jury Charges Offer of $500 Bribe To Officer In Rum Seizure

25 Indictments Returned Early Wednesday After Morning Session of Wichita County Quizzers

Three and one half hours after convening Wednesday, following a four-day adjournment, the county grand jury returned 25 indictments.

The grand jurors convened at 10 a. m., and shortly after 1:30 p. m., the indictments were returned to the 30th district court.

Nine of the indictments were returned against Clark E. Piper, K. M. Dollar and Ollie Dollar. The trio are accused in burglarizing a railroad car and two homes. Three indictments for burglary were returned against each man.

An indictment for offering to bribe an officer was returned against Walter Holder. The indictment sets out that during an alleged liquor raid on Holder's premises that he offered to pay county officers $500 if they would allow him to enter his house and destroy a quantity of liquor before the officers entered.

Mrs. Pauline Ward, alias Mrs. Pauline Miller, was indicted for forgery. She is alleged to have passed a forged check to a Wichita Falls mercantile establishment.

Indictments Returned.

The indictments returned composed: One, disposal mortgaged property; two, driving an automobile while intoxicated; one, theft; two, violation of the state prohibition law; five, forgery; one, removing mortgaged property; one, theft by bailee; eleven, burglary and one, offering to bribe an officer.

It is expected that the grand jury will conclude its deliberations this week on cases presented to it by the district attorney's office.

May Adjourn This Week.

There will be approximately 40 cases presented this week. E. F. Fruechte, assistant district attorney, said Wednesday. Mr. Fruechte is in charge of grand jury investigations and has prepared all of the bills presented to the grand jurors for investigation.

Including the bills returned Wednesday, the grand jury had returned 67 indictments since it convened two weeks ago.

Countess Salm Given Divorce

PARIS, April 13. (AP)—Countess Salm, the former Millicent Rogers, has been awarded an absolute divorce. The decree, signed Monday, gave her custody of their child.

The count filed the first suit asking for a "limited" divorce.

The countess filed a counter suit for absolute divorce which was granted.

The court, however, also granted Count Salm a "separation."

Borger Justice Resigns Post To Become City Court Judge.

BORGER, April 13. (AP)—Judge George Webb, who yesterday announced that he would resign as city judge of Borger said today that he had reconsidered and would resign from his position as justice of the peace. He retained the justice position after his recent election as city judge.

300 "Prize" Eggs Offered For Kids In All-City Easter Hunt

Merchants of Wichita Falls have donated approximately 300 prize eggs for the all-city Easter egg hunt sponsored by the Wichita Falls Lions club and The Record News, Alec Ross told members of the club at the weekly luncheon Wednesday at the Kemp hotel.

Merchants co-operating in the Easter egg hunt, which will be staged Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Scotland park, will place specially marked eggs along with the 15,000 or 20,000 regular eggs the finders of these special eggs being entitled to prizes that include almost everything dear to the heart of a kid.

With between 15,000 and 20,000 eggs to be dyed and distributed in the great hunt Sunday, each child in Wichita Falls should find a number of the coveted treasures left annually by Mr. Rabbit. Ladies of Wichita Falls churches have volunteered to hide the eggs before the great search, which is expected to bring several thousand children to Scotland park.

Discussion at the luncheon Wednesday hinged around plans for the state convention at McAllen. The Wichita club will give a model luncheon during the convention, and will have other features for the convention, President R. H. Graham announced. James V. Allred invited Lions to attend the dinner to be given by the Optimists club to the Spudders team.

Fifteen or 20 members of the club announced plans to go over and join the Electra club in their luncheon today.

American Fliers Set Endurance Mark With Plane Still Roaring Overhead

MINEOLA, N. Y., April 13. (AP)—Bert Acosta and Clarence D. Chamberlin, civilian pilots, set a new American record tonight in their attempted 50-hour flight for the world's endurance record. At 9:35 o'clock tonight they passed the previous American time of 36 hours, 4 minutes, 34 seconds.

The fliers took off on their long grind in the clouds at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning in a Wright-Bellanca plane, traveling at less than 80 miles an hour, they have "shuttled" steadily back and forth between Roosevelt field and New York City, determined to keep up the pace until they established a new world's endurance record for America.

The previous American record was made by Oakley Kelly and John A. MacReady, at Wilbur Wright field, Dayton, Ohio, April 16-17, 1922, with 36 hours, 4 minutes and 24 seconds in the air. The present world record of 45 hours, 11 minutes and 59 seconds was made at Etampes Charles, France, in August, 1925, by Droughin and Landry. Acosta and Chamberlin hope to pass this record at 6:42 o'clock tomorrow morning.

FARM GROWTH GIVEN IMPETUS BY LAND BANK

Securities Of Irrigated Area Approved For Loans By Gossett

MONEY AT 5 PER CENT

Improvement Program Of Land Owners Made Possible

Rapid development of the Wichita irrigated section, with an ample improvement program made possible for the settlers and land owners in this section, was seen Wednesday in the announcement of Judge M. H. Gossett, president of the Federal Land bank of Houston, that he will recommend acceptance of Wichita Valley farm securities for loans at 5 per cent.

With loans at 5 per cent on Wichita Valley land available, many farmers and land owners will have ample funds to proceed with the levelling, ditching and general improvement of this great agricultural section which awaits intensive cultivation to make it one of the most productive in the state, according to officials interested in the irrigation development.

Inspects Valley.

Judge Gossett, accompanied by E. F. Shropshire, chief appraiser, and E. H. Ramsey, regular appraiser for the district which includes Wichita county, were guests of J. A. Kemp Wednesday, and visited the diversion dam and Lake Kemp, and also a large number of the farms in the section.

Irrigation engineers selected for the purpose have approved the plans and construction of irrigation enterprise, with the result that Judge Gossett said he will recommend to his associates of the executive committee the approval of loans by the Federal Land bank on farm securities in the irrigated valley.

"The Federal Land bank makes loans of 5 per cent per annum and any eligible farmer or ranchman who is paying a higher interest rate is paying too much, as measured by the facilities of the Federal Land Land bank to supply a less rate. There is a National Farm Loan association in Wichita Falls, with J. M. Hendricks, secretary-treasurer, through which the Federal Land bank of Houston has closed loans on approximately $500,000.

Methods Approved.

"The association at Wichita Falls was late in organizing and the facilities of the Federal Land bank to serve farmers was not extended for lack of organization of a local association until a few years ago. The Federal Land bank has loaned to more than 50,000 Texas farmers and ranchmen more than $150,000,000 since its organization ten years ago, and has closed more than $16,000,000 in the last six months, that is since our 5 per cent interest rate became effective."

People interested in the agricultural growth and development of this irrigated area are to be congratulated on their apparent purpose to avoid a boom and the methods of high pressure salesmanship, in finding purchasers and home owners to occupy the irrigated lands, Judge Gossett said.

PAINT EXPLOSION

One Missing, Two Injured In Ohio Factory Blast.

CLEVELAND, April 13. MATRON WINS NOVEL PRIZE

Kansas Married Woman Gets $10,000 For Work

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—The daughter of E. W. Howe, well known Kansas editor, has won a $10,000 prize for a novel—her first—about her home town.

She is Mrs. Mateel Howe Farnham, wife of Dwight T. Farnham, a consulting engineer. She and her husband have lived in New York five years, but the literary work that has brought her affluence deals with Atchison, Kan., and is called "Rebellion."

The prize was donated by Dodd, Mead and company, publishers, Pictorial Review and First National Pictures, Inc., in a contest of "first novels."

The winner failed to gain the entire prize of $18,500, originally announced for the competition, through the dissent of First National. The latter was said to have felt "Rebellion" was not the best manuscript for film purposes.

Profit of at least $50,000, however, will be Mrs. Farnham's if her book is as successful as Martha Ostenso's "Wild Geese," which won a similar competition in 1925.

Mrs. Farnham comes from a family of writers. Her brother, Eugene A. Howe, like her father, is an editor. Another brother, James P. Howe, is in the London bureau of the Associated Press.

BORGER LEGION OFFICERS GET DEATH THREAT

VETS ENDORSE MOODY

Legion Post Also Accords Approval To Work Of Texas Rangers

Special to The Record News.

BORGER, April 13.—Lives of officers of the Borger American Legion post and of members of the legion's vigilance committee were threatened Wednesday on account of their interest in the drive against crooked officers and underworld denizens of Borger and Hutchinson county.

Announcement to this effect was made late Wednesday by officers of the post and comes as a sequel to the publication by the Borger legionnaires of a resolution endorsing the work of Texas rangers in Hutchinson county and commending Gov. Dan Moody for sending state officers to Borger.

Legionnaires Active

"Efforts of the Borger legion post co-operating with the Texas rangers here have resulted in the resignation of several local officers. The legion's vigilance committee has caused the arrest of a number of major law violators. The legion drive has barely commenced," stated John H. White, adjutant of the Borger post Wednesday.

The resolution commending Governor Moody for sending the Texas rangers and endorsing the state officers for their work in Hutchinson county is as follows:

"Resolution by Hutchinson County Post No. 412, American Legion:

"Whereas to our knowledge conditions with reference to law enforcement in Hutchinson county and Borger for the past 12 months have been deplorable, and

"Whereas, His Excellency, the governor of the state of Texas, has seen fit to place the affairs in the county under direct supervision of Adjutant General Robert L. Robertson, who served overseas with the 141st Infantry, 36th Division, United States Army, the Hon. W. Boyd Gatewood, secretary to his excellency, the governor, and to Major E. T. Underwood, commander of the state ranger forces, and

Offer Their Services

"Whereas, it is part and parcel of our organization law that we stand squarely for impartial enforcement of all statutory law,

"Now, therefore, be it resolved by Hutchinson county Post, No. 412, of the American Legion, in special meeting assembled, that we extend to the adjutant general, to the Hon. W. Boyd Gatewood and to the state ranger forces now operating here our deep appreciation for the work they are doing and pledge to them our loyal support, individually and as an organization, for any service required that we may be able to render."

"By the committee: Glenn A. Pace and Jack Hyde.

"By order of Gilbert S. Fraser, post commander.

"Attest: John Herron White, post adjutant."

Wichita Falls Woman's Kin Among Dead Victims Listed In Rock Springs Wind Toll

Mrs. M. A. Cromeans, 2225 Holliday street, received word Wednesday morning that the entire family of her brother, J. W. Roberts, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and their four children had been killed in the tornado which wrecked Rock Springs, Texas, Tuesday night, killing more than 60 persons and wounding many others.

Mrs. Cromeans left Wednesday for the stricken town in company with two of her daughters and one son, Mrs. R. E. James, Mrs. Robert Clark and J. A. Cromeans, all of whom live in Wichita Falls.

The message to Mrs. Cromeans was in the form of an unsigned telegram, according to her son, Joe Cromeans, but was considered authentic owing to the fact that the Cromeans have many relatives who live in Rock Springs and vicinity.

Mrs. Joe Cromeans has a cousin in Rock Springs from whom she has not heard since the tornado, Mr. Cromeans stated. The cousin is Wayne Owens, president of the First State bank of Rock Springs and prominent merchant of the town.

A number of other relatives of the Cromeans family had not been heard from Wednesday night, Mr. Cromeans stated.

Mrs. M. A. Cromeans was a resident of Rock Springs for many years before moving with her family to Wichita Falls in 1922, Mr. Cromeans said.

ROCK SPRINGS, Texas, April 13.—(AP)—Death of an unidentified woman in an ambulance airplane and Jim Bourland, 40, on a special relief train, both taken to San Antonio from Rock Springs, scene of Tuesday night's tornado disaster, tonight fixed the list of known dead at 56, about nine of whom still are unidentified.

At least 30 of the victims were buried in the village graveyard this afternoon with simple ceremonies.

Forty-four of the estimated 150 injured were dispatched from Uvalde late today in the first of three trains sent to San Antonio with injured. Bourland was dead when the first group arrived.

The death list had been set definitely today at 62, but difficulties of identification caused errors not discovered until tonight.

Death of the woman who was an unidentified Mexican, was not discovered until one of the 10 Kelly Field airplanes making several round trips taking patients to San Antonio had reached its destination.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 13.—All of Rock Springs' seriously injured tornado victims tonight either were in San Antonio hospitals or enroute here by train and airplane, more than 50 victims arrived in the city shortly before 5 o'clock on a special relief train dispatched from here before daylight Wednesday.

The remainder were expected on the regular Southern Pacific passenger train from Uvalde and a second relief train, which was sent to Camp Wood, Rock Springs' nearest rail point, this afternoon.

Prior to the arrival of the first relief train, Master Sergeant E. F. Nendell of Kelly Field had brought three victims by plane from the town which was levelled Tuesday night by a tornado. One of three, a woman, died enroute. Another, six-year-old Nicolette Montello, was not expected to live.

John Bourland was the second one to die enroute to San Antonio. He failed to survive the trip on the first special relief train, dying just before San Antonio was reached.

ROCK SPRINGS, April 13.—Fifty-six are dead, 20 are dying and more than 100 are known to be injured after the tornado which last night swept through this little Texas town of 1000 population. The estimated property damage is $500,000. It may run higher.

The dead and injured represent about 25 per cent of the population of the town, which is the county seat of Edwards county. Most of the victims, if not all, it is believed, have been removed from the debris.

Late today Rock Spring buried her first dead in hurriedly excavated graves. Part of the force of rescue workers were assigned to the building of coffins from the lumber that could be salvaged from the street.

Detachments from the fifth U. S. Cavalry and the first machine gun company of Fort Clark, have placed the town under military rule.

No Warning of Storm.

A blustery wind that came from the northeast shortly after six o'clock Tuesday evening was the only warning Rock Springs had of the tornado. No one paid any attention to the wind and the threatening skies. A spring storm and noting more.

Suddenly, like the four winds of the earth at battle, the swirling black funneled monster dropped from the heavens.

A clock, retrived from the wreckage, told the hour of Rock Springs' tragedy. Its hands were stopped at 7:50 o'clock.

The tornado vent its fury in an area about four miles square. The town was in the center of it; directly in the path of the death dealing wind.

Houses splintered; trees were hurled through brick buildings and frightened people were plucked from the ground and hurled through the air to death or injury.

Storm Lasts 5 Minutes.

The storm lasted about five minutes. Then the tornado, death and broken bodies in its wake, fled to spend its fury in the skies, high above the cries of the stricken victims.

Cries of the dying and wounded pierced the black night. Dazed survivors stumbled among the ruins, their cries for loved ones drowning the faint responses from beneath the twisted mass of debris.

Petitions Here Urge Legislators To Vote Against Tobacco Tax

Petitions requesting the members of the legislature to vote against the tobacco tax if this question is submitted to the special session of the legislature were being circulated Wednesday in Wichita Falls and were freely signed during the day.

The petitions give reasons for the request to oppose the measure in language that sounds like an editorial in a newspaper and is as follows:

"We believe the tax is wrong in principle, unjust and discriminatory and ruinous in its effects upon our home merchants. It subjects our Texas merchants to a mail order competition, which they cannot meet and survive. It would, therefore, destroy the legitimate business which our home merchants have built up and out of which they pay their ad valorem taxes to the state, and out of which they pay their rent and support their families.

"We believe you will agree with us that the state ought not to pass a tax which will discriminate against its own merchants and have the effect of ruining their business."

Raley's Quest for $45,000 Tax Fund Ends With Final Payment By Company

Three year quest of Guy Raley, county tax collector, for $45,608.54 due the county by six oil companies for taxes was successfully ended Wednesday morning when Mr. Raley received a check for $6,276.10, the last payment due to the county.

In 1924 Mr. Raley read an advertisement in The Record News in which the receiver for the companies set out that he would receive all claims against the companies.

Investigating his records, Mr. Raley discovered that the companies had not paid taxes due for several years to the county. The total amount due was $45,608.54.

The receiver contested the payment of the amount, but in a suit held in federal court, the county won. All of the companies with the exception of one which owed $6,276.10, paid the county.

Due to litigation with the United States government, relative to income tax returns, payment by the company to the county was withheld. However, the litigation with the government was settled a short time ago and the county received Wednesday a check for the amount due.

Rid Yourself Of Body Poisons!

It is just as important to eliminate body poisons as it is to remedy the cause of their occurrence in your body. Do you know that the average person is only half alive?

You probably have "off days," when you simply haven't got a bit of pep. Know what is wrong?

You are probably stuffing yourself with foods that will not combine—foods that are working overtime generating gas and poisons in your system.

operator, was spared by the storm. The black monster lifted the telephone building from its foundations and dashed it against a wooden church. Stunned by the force of the wind, Mrs. Laurie crawled to her switchboard, wires, torn from their fatenings, sprawled over the board in a disordered mass.

A small light flickered, then died. It flickered again. It was like a message from another world, she said. "My heart beat wildly as I plugged in. I held the ear phones tight to my ears. The howling of the wind was terrible. There were no lights. Everything was black. I heard a faint voice. It was the ouerator at Kerrville, the connection broke. Then I tried to get the operator at Camp Woods. She finally answered.

"Then my switchboard went dead. My mind was awhirl for through the darkness I could hear feeble voices pitifully calling for help. I heard the shouts of rescuers as they tried to locate the buried. I kenw we must get outside help.

She Phones Through.

"I thought of a wire running to Camp Woods through a section of the outskirts which wasn't touched by the tornado. I picked a portable set and picked my way to a pole. The outer edge of the tornado must have struck the pole as it was bent close to the ground. I snapped on the connection and I could have shouted with joy when I heard the operator at Camp Woods say 'hello.'"

Through the night the call for doctors and nurses sped over a slender strand of wire that threatened to come down at any minute. The wind was still blowing hard.

The first rescurers reached Rock Springs a little after midnight just as fire threatened to make the town's bier one of ashes. The postoffice and a restaurant building, which had escped the fury of the storm, caught fire.

Flames Light Shambles.

The flames shout upward bringing into relief the ruins of what had been a prosperous cattle center a few hours before. Tired rescue workers left their work of mercy and attacked the flames that threatened cremation for the dead and injured still pinned beneath the debris.

Then from out of the heavens came atonement for the tornado. Rain, the night's first blessing from the skies, prevented the spread of flames.

The first injured taken from the ruins were carried to the Limestone courthouse where Rock Springs' two physicians administered first aid. Broken limbs were set without the use of an anesthetic. Gaping wounds were cleansed and quickly stitched. There was no confusion here. The two doctors worked in their undershirts. Housewives were pressed into service as nurses. The injured were placed on the stone floor to await medical attention and tight lips held back cries of pain. Pieces of wood were placed in the hands of those with broken limbs and their knuckles showed white from the strain of fighting pain with will power.

The town's supply of iodine gave out early. The meagre supply of antitetanus serum was soon exhausted and an SOS call was dispatched to San Antonio for the serum.

Plane Brings Serum.

A Kelly field plane responded. It arrived as dawn was streaking a ghastly ulcture on the plains. It dropped gently to the ground with 400 tubes of the serum, sorely needed to combat lock jaw.

At down two women, neighbors for years, were found side by side —one delirious, the other conscious.

"I hope you will sleep well; I am tier," said one.

"I will be sleeping well in a——" she was dead.

Daylight also brought the story of T. K. Newell's heroism. At the height of the storm he rushed into the swaying Valentine hotel. A score of guests were in the lobby. Felled byfalling timber, he quickly regained his feet and continued to aid in the extrication of bodies.

U. S. CAVALRY TROOPS RUSH TO TORN AREA

SAN ANGELO, April 13.(AP)—United States cavalrymen from Fort Clark in Kinney county, 60 miles distant, arrived in Rock Springs with field kitchens and an emergency hospital during the night and took charge of the situation, H. V. Stokes of Sonora, correspondent of the San Angelo Standard reported. Sonora is about 40 miles northwest of Rock Springs.

Stokes said he reached the town with other Sonora citizens at 7 a. m., and telephoned from a ranch five miles north of Rock Springs. He said the dead were than estimated at between 50 and 59 and the property damage about two thirds of the total property of the town.

The business district forming a square about the courthouse was in ruins, the correspondent said. The tornado, accompanied by heavy hail struck the north edge of the town at 7:30 p. m., and wiped out the Mexican settlement. The second story of the new $50,000 school in the center of the town was ripped off. The courthouse was telescoped only its rock walls remaining. The top and rear of the First National bank were torn off, but the First State bank escaped with light damage. The two-story rock telephone building was wrecked and other business houses torn to pieces including the A. O. Owens store and the Hough Drug company.

Thirty-five persons in the Valentine hotel escaped injury, taking refuge in the new concrete addition. The frame part of the hotel crumbled like a shell.

The tornado apparently dropped down only long enough to make its terrible visit on the little town, and then ascended as no damage was reported from surrounding ranches.

In addition to the cavalrymen, aid also arrived during the night from Del Rio, 40 miles away on the Mexican border and from Sabinal, about the same distance to the southeast. Ten automobiles leaving Sonora were delayed by high water.

ROCK SPRINGS TORNADO RECALLS 1923 DISASTER

ABILENE, April 13.(AP)—The storm at Rock Springs last night recalls that nearly four years ago one of the more disastrous tornadoes in the history of West Texas struck at a point five miles southeast of Big Springs in Howard county and traveled 65 miles, ending at a point five miles northeast of Lorain in Mitchell county.

More than a score were killed and 200 injured with heavy property damage. The storm struck early on the morning of May 14, 1923, before many persons were out of bed. It narrowly missed the towns of Colorado, Westbrook and Lorain, but wrecked several rural communities.

TEXAS IN HEART OF CYCLONIC DISTURBANCE

HOUSTON, April 12.(AP)—A low pressure trough extending from South Texas to Oklahoma made conditions favorable for the tornado which swept through Rock Springs last night, L. H. Raingerfield, government metrologist said here today. The low pressure trough, he added, also was in evidence yet this morning. To the northwest and west, he said, air pressure was rapidly increasing.

FEAR OF TETANUS IN STORM AREA VOICED.

SAN ANTONIO, April 13. (AP)—In fear of tetanus adding to the death toll of the Rock Springs disaster, 1,500 units or approximately 500 doses of tetanus-antitoxin was being rushed from Waco to the tornado scene 120 miles west of here today.

W. W. Kelton, representative of the E. R. Squibb and Sons company here ordered the anti-toxin from the Waco warehouse. He left Wednesday for Rock Springs where he will supervise its distribution.

MOODY ASKED TO ISSUE CALL FOR STORM AID.

DALLAS, April 13. (AP)—Governor Dan Moody, here today to open the Texas league season said he had received a request from the southwestern readquarters of the American Red Cross, located in St. Louis, to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of Texas for funds, food and other forms of relief for Rock Spring sufferers.

The governor said he would postpone action on the proclamation until he could obtain more definite information regarding the situation.

"I know that country and I konw the citizens there are not easily downed, and that they are doing everything possible to handle the situation without aid from outside."

DALLAS RAISES FUNDS FOR TORNADO RELIEF.

DALLAS, April 13. (AP)—A campaign to raise money for relief of cyclone sufferers at Rock Springs was started here Wednesday by the Dallas Red Cross chapter.

Dr. David Lefkowitz, chairman of the Dallas chapter, urged residents to give liberally, as he said the disaster was one of the worst that had visited Texas in years.

"Many are homeless and many children have been made orphans by the storm," he said. "The Red Cross will have to help the homeless and provide a place for the orphans."

UVALDE FIRST BASE FOR TORNADO RELIEF.

UVALDE, April 13. (AP)—Uvalde this morning became the base of relief work for the little city of Rock Springs, 72 miles north of here, which was swept by a tornado last night, leaving a death toll of at least 40 and scores of injured.

With the first flash through the telephone exchange here that Rock Springs had been struck, every able bodied man in the town volunteered to go to its assistance. Within half an hour after the news of the disaster was received at 10 o'clock, 40 automobiles loaded with nurses, physicians and relief workers were enroute to the stricken town.

But 10 miles north of here on the Rock Springs road Indian creek, normally a small stream, was out of banks from the flood which had accompanied the tornado. Undaunted by this obstacle men waded into the water and pushed same of the cars across, the flood tide rising to the seats of the cars. After crossing the cars sped on to Rock Springs, carrying first aid kits and supplies.

FEDERAL TROOPS GUARD TORNADO TOWN AREA.

AUSTIN, April 13. (AP)—Reports reaching Assistant Adjutant General Robertson here today saying federal troops will be sufficient to preserve order at Rock Springs caused him to abandon virtually definitely a tentative plan to send state militia or rangers.

218 RED CROSS UNITS OF TEXAS ASKED TO AID.

WASHINGTON, April 13. (AP) National Red Cross headquarters here appealed today to 218 Red Cross chapters in Texas to donate funds for the relief of Texas tornado sufferers.

Fifteen doctors and 20 nurses were directed to proceed from San Antonio and Kerrville to the devastated area.

TO RUSH AID.

ST. LOUIS, April 13. (AP)—The American National Red Cross today moved toward relief of the tornado stricken town of Rock Springs, Texas.

William Baxter Jr., assistant to the vice chairman of the organization announced from headquarters of the mid-western branch here that Arthur Shaw, field director, located at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, was enroute to Rock Springs to take charge of the relief work.

Telegrams received by Baxter told of the sending of seven doctors and 16 nurses to the stricken town from San Antonio and eight doctors and 10 nurses from Kerrville, Texas.

An appeal was issued here to every chapter of the organization in Texas for financial assistance.

$50,000 DAMAGE FROM STORM AT ROBERT LEE

ROBERT LEE, Texas, April 13. (AP)—A tornado struck this town about 20 miles north of San Angelo Wednesday and caused about $50,000 property damage. Two churches and two residences were blown completely away. No one was seriously injured.

The house of Robert Pruitt, editor of the Observer, was demolished.

Mrs. Mary Brumley was found unconscious 50 yards from the spot where her home stood. She was revived and found not to be seriously injured but her home was a wreck.

The two Christian churches were entirely blown away, the church seats being scattered over the town. The Methodist church was twisted off its foundation and many windows broken.

Mrs. C. E. Eaton, wife of Dr. C. E. Eaton, whose house was taken from its foundation was cut on the arm by broken glass. All telephone lines in the city were down.

The storm lasted only a few minutes and appeared to rise off the ground a short distance from Robert Lee and to take off in a northeast direction.

TOWN NEAR ROBERT LEE FEELS SEVERE STORM

BRONTE, Texas, April 13.(AP)—A severe wind storm hit Bronte, a few miles from Robert Lee at 2 a. m., today, tearing off awnings and wrecking several buildings. A half inch of rain accompanied the wind.

ONE KILLED BY WIND NEAR FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH, April 13.(AP)—One person was killed, two were probably fatally injured and four were seriously hurt when a tornado struck the Watson community five miles northeast of Arlington between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning.

The dead: A 16-month-old daughter of Pete Walker.

The injured:

Mrs. J. L. Worthy, 47, skull fractured and several bones broken.

Mrs. Fanny Walker, 83, cuts about the head; internal injuries.

Mrs. Pete Walker, hip broken, injured internally.

Three small children, unidentified.

The twister, moving from the northeast to the southwest, travelled in a path 200 yards wide uprooting trees and demolishing houses, barns and telephone poles. Interurban service between Dallas and Fort Worth was paralyzed for more than four hours, but was resumed around 10 a. m.

THREE HURT, HOMES HIT BY WIND NEAR DENISON.

DENISON, April 13. (AP)—Three persons were injured and two homes destroyed by a tornado which cut a path 100 yards wide and two miles long near Needmore, Okla., eight miles north of here last night.

Two negro men and a negro woman were the injured. They were caught in the wreck of their home as the wind swept it away. The house of Stanley Lloyd was demolished. The family escaped injury in a storm cellar.

TORNADO HITS KENNEDALE 11 MILES FROM FORT WORTH.

FORT WORTH, April 13. (AP)—A cyclone struck the small town of Kennedale, 11 miles southeast of here, about 6:30 o'clock this morning, demolishing two residences, a dairy barn, and the school house. No one was injured, however, long distance telephone reports said.

The home of Mrs. Albert Wilson was wrecked by the wind, but Mrs. Wilson led five small children to a storm cellar after the roof of the building had collapsed.

The home of a man named Reynolds also was destroyed according to word received here.

The Kennedale school house was badly damaged, the roof being lifted off. Had the cyclone struck two hours and a half later it would have caught the school in full session.

TWO IN HOSPITAL AFTER WINDSTORM AT HEBRON.

DALLAS, April 13. (AP)—Luis Castello, 45, and his wife, Mrs. Maria Castello, 32, were brought to a hospital here Wednesday from a farm near Hebron, Denton county, where they were injured in a storm last night. Castello has a broken leg and his wife a wound in the face. She was struck by flying timber.

The Castello's worked on the farm of Charles McKamey and were in the field when the storm struck at 8 o'clock last night. McKamey said the wind blew down all the outhouses and the house the Castello's lived in, but that his own house was undamaged.

The storm came from the northwest and traveled in a path 200 yards wide. Large trees were uprooted.

Castello attempted to reach his house and was blown against a tree. Mrs. Castello reached the house to save her baby, but on the way was struck in the face. Just after she took the baby from the house the place was torn to pieces by the wind.

The two children of Rufus Collingsworth and his mother were reported injured. They also were on the McKamey farm. Several farm houses were destroyed nearby.

TWISTER DOES DAMAGE NEAR BELTON WEDNESDAY.

BELTON, April 13. (AP)—A twister demolished houses and trees over a large area and injured D. Cox, northwest of here between 5 and 6 Wednesday. At almost the same hour a storm struck in the Nolan valley, north of here.

The Nolan valley storm came from the northwest while the other one came from the southeast.

At the Carl Muilhollan farm, two miles northwest of here, the wind lifted a large house twice from the foundations, destroyed outhouses and uprooted trees. A dog's head was severed and property damage done at the Cox farm.

Similar property damage was wrought in the Nolan valley, and Nolan creek flowing through Belton, rose to its second banks at 9 a. m. An inch of rain fell here between 9 and 10 a. m.

TORNADO DOES DAMAGE IN MISSISSIPPI SECTION.

BOONVILLE, Miss., April 13. (AP) Houses were torn up, trees uprooted and wire communication seriously impaired by a tornado that struck here late yesterday, causing thousands of dollars damage to property. No one was killed and no serious injuries are reported.

Growing children sometimes require a tonic as do their elders

"Dear, I want you to know now that S. S. S. has been used for over 100 years—it is made from fresh roots and herbs—growing children sometimes need a tonic, as do their elders—it is helping you, and I want you to take it regularly before each meal."

Try S.S.S. and you will be surprised how quickly your appetite improves. If you are tired, run-down and listless you owe it to yourself and family to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps nature build up red blood corpuscles. It improves the processes by wheih the body is nourished. S.S.S. is time-tried and reliable, and is unequalled for restoring strength and vitality.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.—Adv.

Don't Be "Skinny" and Scrawny!

Build up Weight in 3 Weeks with New Combination of YEAST and IRON—or Pay Nothing

Pleasant Because Tasteless

No Woman Is Beautiful Who is Skinny

Underweight People Lack Pep, Vitality and Charm

"I Gained 10 Pounds"

"For over a year I had no energy or ambition. My complexion was muddy. I could not sleep at night. I fell off in weight until I was but a shadow of my former self. After taking one treatment of IRONIZED YEAST I feel like a new woman. My complexion has cleared up wonderfully, I have gained 10 pounds, and I am full of energy."—(Mrs.) M. B., Chicago, Ill.

It seems incredible how fast IRONIZED YEAST adds pounds of good firm flesh—on women and men, children and old people. Doctors know the value of vegetable iron and yeast in building up and improving the body. IRONIZED YEAST, in a highly concentrated form, contains all the blood-building properties of vegetable iron with yeast.

New Complexion For You

People ask—what is the magic in IRONIZED YEAST that transforms sallow, lifeless, faded complexions into the fresh, smooth, lovely skin of early girlhood? Wrinkles disappear. Eyes renew the sparkle of youth. Hollows fill out.

Thousands have given up cod liver oil for IRONIZED YEAST. Gives all the weight-building benefits of the oil. Vegetable iron and yeast have been used for years to vitalize the body; to make rich, healthy blood; to improve digestion and bowel action and add weight. In IRONIZED YEAST these two valuable elements are combined in a special formula. That's why IRONIZED YEAST works so quickly. So get a generous test treatment—60 nice tablets in a handy bottle. No nasty, pasty taste—Safe to take—contains no harmful drugs.

JURY TOLD OF WIFE'S ACT TO KILL HUSBAND

Slain Man Beat His Wife And She Shot Him, Says Witness

DALLAS, April 13. (AP)—Numerous wife-beatings led up to the shooting of G. A. Tedford on Sunday afternoon, March 7, 1926, witnesses testified here today in the trial of his widow, Mrs. Clara Tedford on a charge of murdering her husband.

The trial opened with J. H. Hunt, eye witness, on the stand. He told how Tedford had repeatedly slapped his wife during a quarrel just preceding the killing, and how she returned to the scene 30 minutes later and shot her husband three times.

Mrs. Flora Wilkins, a neighbor of the Tedfords, testified for the defense that she knew of several occasions when Tedford beat his wife, and once she said she heard him bumping his wife's head against the wall.

CLEAN UP WEEK

Electra to Conduct Sanitary Campaign Next Week.

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, April 13.—Mayor George Ragland of this city has issued a proclamation setting aside the week beginning April 18, as clean-up week. Mr. Ragland expects every organization, civic club and individual to co-operate with him in this clean-up campaign, in order to haul away or burn up all rubbish and trash accumulated during the winter months. In doing this the city will be less the danger of a fire hazard and greatly improve the appearance of things in general.

CHURCH CHIMES

Chimes Are Added to Pipe Organ in Frederick Church.

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, April 13.—Workmen are engaged in installation of a beautiful set of chimes in the pipe organ in the First Methodist church, which work is to be completed for an Easter service in which organ music will be a feature, according to Rev. J. D. Salter, pastor.

This is the only pipe organ in the city, and will be the mecca of organ music lovers for the festive celebration April 17.

WELLINGTON NOTES

Special to The Record News.

WELLINGTON, April 13.—A delightful affair of the week was given on Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Ed Fancher entertained at bridge complimenting De Jolly and Round Dozen Bridge clubs.

Tables were arranged for five suts of players. Mrs. E. W. Alley held high score and Mrs. Bob Glenn second high score for De Jolly club and Mrs. John French and Mrs. Carl Langmack for the round dozen. Delicious refreshments were served in two courses to Mesdames A. L. Cochran, E. W. Alley, O. B. Crawford, Ross Wilkerson, Bob Glenn, John French, Bill Moody, Jeff Greer, Ray Goodson, L. A. Manier, S. R. Pinkston, S. G. Henry, Roy Horn, M. P. Watkins, J. P. Sullivan, Carl Langmack, Ben Stover, Aubrey Dobbs, Jack Deahl and Miss Irene Moore.

Members of the Bridge Luncheon club enjoyed a delightful afternoon at the games on Thursday when Mrs. W. R. Orr entertained in her lovely home on El Paso Street. Street luncheon was served at 1:15, followed by five rounds of bridge. High score prize went to Mrs. A. L. Cochran and second high to Mrs. M. P. Watkins.

WILL IN COURT

Wichita Falls Legacy Upheld By Supreme Court.

Special to The Record News.

AUSTIN, April 13.—The will of the late husband of Mrs. Emma J. Schulz of Wichita Falls, cutting off four of his children with $5 each found its way into supreme court records today when the court reversed the Eastland court of civil appeals and affirmed the Wichita district court decision denying to Mrs. Frieda S. Garmany and others recovery of interest on proceeds of the sale of approximately $20,000 land. The suit was against Mrs. Schultz as beneficiary and administratrix. Proceeds of the sale were distributed among beneficiaries and the $5 allowances to four children were cited as evidences of Schulz specified intent not to allow the beneficiaries income or interest from the property pending its sale.

LAREDO, April 13. (AP)—A shipment of 225 rifles of army calibre with 36,000 rounds of amunition, addressed to the Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, customs guard, is being held up here by American customs officials because the state department at Washington has withheld a customs permit to export the munitions.

Earl Carroll Taken From His Train On Way To Prison In State of Coma

By Universal Service.

GREENVILLE, S. C., April 13.—After being undonscious for eight hours, physicians at the Greenville city hospital admitted late this afternoon that Earl Carroll, New York theater producer, was in a serious condition, and that fear was felt for his life.

Carroll was removed to the hospital here when the train on which he was traveling from New York to Atlanta, to begin serving a sentence of a year and a day in the federal prison, arrived in Greenville.

Carroll is charged with perjury in connection with the famous "famous bathtub party" staged in New York.

At 5:20 o'clock Earl Carroll was still in a state of coma, and attending physicians announced that his condition was "critical." A diagnosis of his case has not been completed, it was said, but it has been ascertained that the theater producer did not take poison, as first reported.

Other phsicians have been called in for consultation and it was said that a prominent New York physician will be summoned unless the condition of Carroll takes a decided turn for the better tonight.

Elaborate Spring Tea Honors Two Wichita Falls Visitors

One of the most elaborate affairs of the spring season was the tea given at the home of Mrs. C. P. Burton in the Country Club Estates Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Hubert M. Harrison, joint hostess. Fragrant blossoms in various colors were arranged in baskets throughout the reception suite, and the dining table was especially lovely with lace cloth and centered with lilies and Easter motifs.

The guests were greeted at the door by the hostesses and introduced to two out of town guests, Mrs. B. Florence, Deason, sister of Mrs. Burton, and Mrs. Edward Hoch. Others in the house party were Mesdames P. P. Langford, E. F. Kemp, F. R. Collard, W. J. Grisham, Ola G. Hamlin, Ben G. Oneal, Mark Walker, W. N. Walker, O. L. Powers, W. T. Knight, C. W. Gilliland, J. C. Mytinger, E. B. Bailey, C. W. Boller, Ralph Hines, R. A. King, S. M. Gose Sr., Lester Jones, J. H. Massie, G. B. Smedley, Horace Robbins, C. D. Shamburger, J. L. Waggoner, E. P. Bass, J. D. Bright, Paul Von Allman, A. G. Holmes, W. A. Freear, G. D. Anderson, H. B. Patterson, W. L. Scott, Walter Cline, Carrie Joline, Everett McCullough, T. P. Duncan, J. H. Martin, A. R. Bleakley and J. A. Kemp.

Assisting in the dining room where a dainty plate was served, were Misses Adele and Juel Ray, Martha Peters, Elizabeth Peters, Ella Merle Mathis, Mary Clare Burton, Mary Louise Ruff, Juanita Harrison, Christine Burton and Jeanne Burton.

More than 300 guests called during the afternoon.

Woman's Auxiliary Enjoys Buffet Supper

Members of the Woman's auxiliary to the Wichita County Medical society were entertained at a lovely buffet supper at the home of Mrs. C. R. Hartsook Tuesday evening with Mesdames Curtis Atkinson, G. H. Hampshire, O. T. Kimbrough and T. P. Lynch, hostesses.

A pretty Easter motif was carried out in the decorations in which the dining table centered with lighted green tapers. Following the supper, Miss Mary Southerland, Red Cross nutritionist, talked to the members on "Balanced Meals."

Those attending were Mesdames M. A. Beckman, S. H. Bell, F. R. Collard, J. M. F. Gill of Burkburnett, M. H. Glover, J. C. A. Guest, R. L. Hargrave, R. E. Hilburn, J. D. Hall, J. A. Heyman, Lewis B. Walker, Carris Wilcox, C. A. Wilcox, W. B. Whiting, J. M. Whitworth, O. W. Wilson, W. R. McAdams, William Rosenbladt, G. C. Singleton, J. E. Kanatser and Mrs. H. D. Knickerbocker of Little Rock, Ark., Miss Evangeline Hartsook and Miss Southerland.

Travis Girl Reserves Meet At School

Members of the Travis School Girl Reserves met at the school Wednesday afternoon when in the business session it was voted that the group will take part in the membership drive to be held at the Y. W. C. A. April 30.

The meeting was called to order by the president, June Bruce, and Addie McDonald, Dorothy Rogers and Fern Blankenship took part in the candle lighting ceremony. Dorothy Rogers read a poem, and Hazel Shultz told a story. A song was sung by the club after which a playlet, "The First Easter" was presented with the characters taken by Dorothy Rogers, Armista Arnold, Fern Blankenship, Patty Lou Hearn, June Bruce, Thelma Brewster, Bonnie Beason and Inez Richards.

San Jacinto Group

Hazel Senez presided over the meeting of the San Jacinto Girl Reserve meeting held at the school Wednesday afternoon when the candle lighting ceremony was presented by Johnnie Cunningham, Lottie Huffman and Bernice Whitehead. Devotionals were led by Lottie Hoffman, and an Easter egg hunt was planned for Friday afternoon. The group also decided to take part in the membership drive.

Dallas Rabbi Will Address Forum Members

Culminating the course for the year for members of the Literary department of the Woman's Forum, Rabbi Davis Lefkowitz of Dallas will talk on "Contribution of English Poetry to the Brotherhood of Man" from Anglo Saxon ideals to democracy, at the Kemp hotel Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dr. Lefkowitz comes recommended as a brilliant lecturer and has spoken to numerous organizations in Dallas on social and national questions.

Members are urged to bring their membership cards, and are privileged to bring guests at $1 a ticket or three for $2.50, according to Mrs. J. C. Berney, chairman of the literary department.

Rabbi Lefkowitz will address the congregation at Temple Israel Thursday evening at 8 o'clock and the talk will be followed by a reception in his honor with members of the Council of Jewish Women, hostesses.

1922 Study Club Meets At Y. W. C. A.

"The Negro Race" furnished an interesting subject for the 1922 Study club at a meeting held Wednesday morning at the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. A. J. Newby was leader of the program, and roll call was answered with quotations from negro poets. Mrs. A. P. Terrell read a paper on "What We Are Doing for the Negro in Texas," and Mrs. A. L. Williams read one on "Africa From Cairo to the Cape."

Those present were: Mesdames P. B. Curd, King Davis, E. E. Fisher, N. W. Gaut, L. I. Lucey, A. J. Newby, W. H. Newell, Earl Ruffner, Paul Steed, R. H. Stocks, A. P. Terrell and A. L. Williams.

Minter was awarded second high, a corsage. Special guests were Mrs. J. C. Hill and Mrs. Elizabeth Hough who were presented flowers. Mrs. Kelly Ross was given the high guest favor, a wall pocket.

An Easter motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshment plate, which was served to Mesdames L. H. Estes, Kelley Ross, E. V. Friberg, C. L. Bradford, C. G. Crump, Ed Crump, Robert Wolf, M. C. Leopold, C. J. Milliron, B. F. Minter, A. P. Perry, J. L. Webb and J. A. Maley.

Miss Thelma Brooks Weds Charles Jones

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Thelma Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brooks and Charles E. Jones, the Rev. Stuckey, pastor of the Methodist church at Henrietta reading the ceremony at his home Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bentley.

The bride is connected with the bookkeeping department of The Record News, while Mr. Jones is employed at the Wichita Falls Glass factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will be at home in this city.

Woman's Day Of Work and Play

"I don't want to hav'ta play with my dolls. I want to dig ditches!" If your small daughter should send up this sort of cry, encourage her in her desires. One little girl wanted to dig ditches, and she did, and with this result.

Miss Elsie Eaves has just been presented with a membership pin of the American Society of Civil Engineers. She is the first woman in the 75 years' existence of the society to be recognized as a member for professional engineering ability and experience.

Building bridges and skyscrapers, that is a real woman-sized job!

Egged On By Ambition.

Counting her chickens before they're hatched, hatching them, and collecting the eggs they lay, is part of the duties of Clemence Dane on her chicken farm in Devonshire, England.

Besides raising chickens she raises plots. Miss Dane is an English novelist, playwright and chicken farmer. She is the only British playwright, outside of Shaw, who has made Broadway with one or more plays and who has never seen Broadway. Miss Dane was born Winifred Ashton. She was trained to be a painter. Preferring the stage, she entered on a stage career very early in life.

Violating the Law.

Here is a unique story about a woman who wasn't counting her calories—she counted on them!

Edna Ferber told of her anxiety in a lecture given at Yale university. "If this prohibition regime continues to develop I shall be out of a job and my books will be under ban. I was brought up on Dickens and can not resist the temptation to feed and clothe my characters with a lavish hand," she said, "and I am sure that my characters will violate the next constitutional amendment, which logically will be against overfeeding."

Miss Ferber delivered one of the annual Francis Bergen lectures. It was her first public address in two years. She devoted most of her time to reading one of her stories, "The Gray Dog, or the Chicago Loop Hound."

Alathean Class Will Have Easter Hunt

Members of the Alathean Sunday School class of the First Baptist church will enjoy an Easter egg hunt Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Municipal Golf club, according to an announcement made Wednesday.

Save Half Hour Of Headache

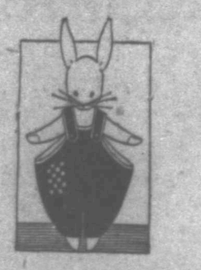

To stop a headache, nothing gives such quick and grateful relief as Capudine. Other pains, such as neuralgia, rheumatic pains periodical pains, lagrippe aches and high nerve strain yield almost instantly to Capudine. Being liquid, Capudine acts in one-fifth the time required by tablets and powders, which means you can save at least a half hour of suffering.

Capudine relieves pain by soothing the nerves,—not by deadening them. It does not upset the stomach and contains no opiates. That is why it is perfectly safe and is approved by physicians and druggists. At all drug stores; family size 60c, individual size 30c. Full directions with each bottle.—Adv.

"SAY it with Flowers"—there is no other medium half so effective as a beautiful Easter lily, a colorful and fragrant corsage for the Easter service, a pot plant or a box of roses to express the friendship, gratitude and love you wish on Easter, and there is no other place where you will find lovelier blossoms, more attractively arranged, than at the new home of the Wichita Floral company, 911 Indiana.

The Bebb suggestions for every occasion have an established reputation for originality and beauty, so it is not surprising that from the charming atmosphere of the new shop, especially radiant Easter flowers will be sent.

Exotic Chinese Deutzia.
Begonia.

JUST arrived at P. B. M. company are the most charming of new hats, which are not only extremely smart but truly representative of the Easter mode. Chequette, visca and felt, in the entrancing pastel shades expressive of our southern clime, have flattering clusters of flowers over one ear or both.

The deftly placed summer flowers, with summer colors—cameo-pink, orchid, white and dashing red—make these fitted hats surpass the expectations of those who have waited for the last chic arrivals before purchasing an Easter bonnet. $15 and more are their prices.

It is nice to have a fashion service as authentic and swift as that of P. B. M. and the articles it suggests at our command, isn't it?

THE announcement of special reductions for Easter on children's hats, dresses and coats, including the popular Katherine Hutchin's frocks, is made this week by the Frances Shoppe, Broad at Tenth Street.

CINDERELLA would probably be entirely de trop, not only after twelve but at all hours, if she were here today. The modern conception of an enviable foot is one clad in shoes smart in design and perfectly fitted, rather than of tiny size. Almost any foot in a new, sensonable and well-fitted shoe is attractive.

McClurkan's Easter slippers are especially smart. A new sandal effect, in pastel parchment, trimmed in silver kid, boasts a T strap, while many other models in pumps and strap effects, are equally attractive.

* * * *

IT IS hard, when your purse is full and business is going along with the power and ease of a twelve-cylinder motor, to realize that the old warning "save for the rainy day" is really worth heeding. Now the oil slump has caused many a woman who usually has ample funds at her disposal to wish for a few extra Easter dollars.

Begin a savings account with the North Texas Building and Loan association. The small amounts placed there at regular intervals will never be missed at the time, but in their union there is strength, and a "neat sum" will soon await your convenience. Women will find the 6 per cent interest-bearing accounts, which may be withdrawn at any time, especially convenient.

TUB silks—don't you feel cool and comfortable and fresh at their mention? Miller-Ferguson is showing tub silk frock, tailored, flounced and pearl "bebe ditioned," in peppermint stripes, pink, peach, yellow, orange, nile green radium and all white, at reasonable prices.

LAST minute shoppers will be glad they have waited until late to purchase Easter bonnets when they read the next paragraph.

William's offers Easter hats in the new shades, straw, ribbon and felt, at prices from $1.97 to $5.85. Some of them are wide brimmed Milan effects. Others are the tiny chapeaux which barely pull on over even a bobbed head (the closer the better in a fitted hat) and still others are of the conservative style with large head sizes for the matron.

A DULL gold finish, the highlights brought out by lines of red and green, thick rugs, full length mirrors and the consistent courtesy of employes, make the new home of Sanderford's Booterie at 913 Indiana, the most pleasant place imaginable to purchase shoes.

The entire stock is new. Every shoe offered is of the spring of 1927—it is most gratifying to know that here you will be shown only the latest, prettiest and best of Easter footwear and that the Booterie has a wider range of widths and lengths than ever before.

* * * *

FLOWERS find a welcome awaiting them at any time, but if one day could be chosen from the 365 when they are received with most happiness that day would probably be Easter.

The Morgan Floral company offers an unusually lovely array of Easter flowers. The Easter lily, of course, heads the list, with corsages and boutonnieres arranged for the Easter service and bright pot plants close behind.

If you have decided just what floral offering will best express the love, appreciation and remembrance you wish next Sunday, place your order with the Morgan Floral company, 716 Tenth Street—if you have not, ask there for suggestions. Telephone 7500.

SOMEONE has written a booklet on the language of the fan, and someone else should certainly explain the language of the garden hat. One thing is easily understood, however—a large hat lends itself to coquetry as nothing else does, perhaps that is the other reason, besides a warm spring sun, which has brought the wide brim into such high favor for Easter. Large hats lend allurement, too, on the principle that a partial concealment and mysterious shadow are far more intriguing than relentless daylight.

Regardless of the reasons, this season's smart women will have no blistered noses and McClurkan's is showing a lovely and varied assortment of wide brimmed hats, formal and informal, in every shade and every straw.

* * * *

A GLIMPSE of one long-lashed eye makes you wish to see both, and the eyes beneath a wide-brimmed hat are never squinted—two very good reasons for buying one of Miller-Ferguson's garden hats for Easter.

Dorothy Dix Articles Daily--Advice To Women

MODISH MITZI — Acquires Peace of Mind — By JAY V. JAY

Mitzi is suffering a relapse. "There's something on your mind," says the doctor firmly. "There is," confesses Mitzi, and she proceeds to tell him what. Being a doctor, she will never know whether he really sees her charming pajama lounge suit carrying out the compose color scheme.

It was a question of suits. There were three spring three-piece suits on her mind. She ran a fever trying to decide which she should buy. Since the doctor advises her to stop worrying, she must begin by purchasing the first, a three-piece suit of canton faille with the jabot blouse.

Not that that gives her peace of mind—she keeps thinking about the georgette costume, with coat, blouse and skirt in two colors. It's stunning and worn with the hat with the irregular broken brim is quite irresistable. She feels faint at the thought of not buying it, so she does.

If Mitzi couldn't own this suit it would cause her anguish. The tuxedo collar of the coat, the pleated skirt and the blouse are just what she wanted. In order to relieve her mind she'll buy it. Three suits to gain a tranquil mind. But, as Dad remarked, 'Mitzi must get well at all costs!

Popular Girl Need Not Be Petter But She's Got to Be Salve Expert

Is it True That Most Men Marry Just to Get a Housekeeper?—Advice to the Too-Willing Girl on How to Interest a Man—Five Personal Questions Answered for Four Chums.

Dear Dorothy Dix—A woman said to me bitterly the other day that men only netered into matrimony with the single motive of having some one to keep house for them. Do you think this is a degradation of the highest ideal of marriage?"

GRACE.

I don't think that this accusation is just. Of course, few men, and especially widowers, do marry to get a housekeeper who will work without wages and who cannot give notice and quit when she objects to the way she is treated and finds her job unsatisfactory.

But if men generally married to get a housekeeper, or even if the thought of their material comfort was largely in their minds, they would exercise more discretion in the kind of wives they picked out and would turn a wary eye upon the domestic qualifications of the girls they led to the altar.

So far from doing this, men never even try to find out if their prospective wives are on speaking terms with the cook stove or if they know a leg of lamb from a breast of veal or if they can make bread that isn't a first-aid to the coroner.

It's not the thrifty, industrious housewifely maidens whom men run after. It's the cute little flappers who dance out more stockings than they darn, who have a waiting list of eligible men from whom they can pick a husband when they get tired of running around.

Inasmuch as a sensible man wouldn't buy a velvet-lined limousine if he wanted a truck to haul potatoes in, we must absolve him from marrying to get a housekeeper when he deliberately picks out a girl for a wife who knows nothing about cooking and who couldn't boil water without scorching it.

Yet you can't blame many women from thinking the way their husbands treat them that they married to get a servant instead of a companion. So far as they can observe, their husbands take no interest in them personally and only regard them as pieces of useful household machinery that function automatically without ever having to be greased or taken care of and that will stand all sorts of hard knocks.

It is not flattering to a wife's vanity to feel that her husband looks upon her merely as a combination vacuum cleaner and patent dishwasher and gas range and sewing machine attachment that he acquired at the marriage license bureau. No wonder she resents it.

But, while it certainly degrades the high ideal of matrimony for a man to marry a woman just to get a housekeeper and because wife labor is scab labor and the cheapest in the world, still, for all that, every man does marry for a home and his most beautiful and tender thought of his wife is as a home-maker.

There is nothing sordid in that. There is nothing that humiliates a woman in her husband expecting her to do her part in building her home. On the contrary, it is the very finest flower of romance.

The man gets together the rough material for his palace of dreams—the bricks and stones and wood and plaster. He furnishes the money that pays for clothes and food and fuel and light. And the woman takes these and makes of the house a home, a place of beauty and peace and rest and cheer and comfort, in which love grows year by year and happiness abides.

And unless the womn is a homemaker, unless she is efficient and keeps her house clean and her family well fed and the bills within reason, the marriage goes on the rocks, no matter how beautiful and accomplished she is or how much she really cares for her husband.

DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—A very dear girl friend of mine has fallen deeply in love with a young man who is finishing up his law course in an office in which she works. He loves her in a way and at the same time is smitten with another girl. Being with him in the office every day, I imagine my friend might win out if she played her cards right but I do not think she is doing so. So we want to settle it for us.

The question is, should she allow him to make love to her in order to see how much cares for him and to pet? I say she shouldn't. She says she can't help it, she is so much infatuated with him. What do you say?

TWENTY-ONE.

ANSWER:

I say that you are right and that your friend is cheapening herself in the young man's eyes by letting him know that she is his for the taking.

Of course there are a few abnormally vain men who admire themselves so much that they only care for the women who prefer them and who can best be won by a girl displaying her affection for them. Such men haven't the heart to turn down a poor dear feminine who is crying for them, so a maiden's best play is to weep on their shoulders and tell them that she cannot live without them.

But the great majority of men have enough sporting blood in them to want to be the chaser of the chased. Their mouths water for the peach that grows highest on the tree and is hardest to get and they have no appetite for the overripe one that drops into their mouths.

They feel that it is something rather degrading to their manhood in being led to the altar by a woman. Therefore, they lose interest in the overwilling girl and chase off after the one who flouts them.

I think that if your friend is wise that she will be hard to date She will cultivate other young men instead of sitting around waiting for this one to condescend to ask her to go somewhere with him. And she will cut out the kissing and petting and save that for some man who mentions wedding rings along with his line of love talk.

DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—One. If a young man loves a girl enough will he give up smoking for her?

Two. Is it proper for an engaged couple when separated for six months or a year, to go out with others just as friends?

Three. Is a man of 31 too old for a girl of 20?

Four. Is it right for a boy of 20 to go out every night with different girls or do you think it would be better for him to go only with one or two girls?

ANSWER:

One. I do not think that woman has any right to dictate to a man about his personal habits, providing he does nothing wrong.

One of the main things that makes matrimony a failure is that the husband and wife attempt to regulate the lives of each other and interfere with all of each other's little ways. If you don't like smoking, pick out a sweetheart who doesn't use tobacco, but don't ask a smoker to give up an innocent pleasure for you.

Two. It is a good thing for an engaged couple to see something of other people.

It keeps the mfrom getting self-centered and morbid and gives them a chance to compare their sweethearts with others.

Three. A girl of 20 is just the right age for a man of 31.

Four. The more girls a boy of 20 goes with the better.

He is too young to marry and he is wise to look them all over before he makes his choice.

SALLYS SALLIES

SOPHIE IRENE LOEB Says—

"Old Man's Darling—Young Man's Slave."

Once upon a time there was an old man's darling. He was very, very old. She was very, very young. He had money. She had youth. They exchanged.

During her school days she had heard about the choice of being a young man's salve or an old man's darling. She pondered over it much. She loved all the good things of life. Shee longed for luxuries that she knew her parents could not buy.

As many like her, she thought if she had a wonderful house with an automobile, beautiful clothes and all the rest, that she could manage to go through life without love.

She could put up with the husband who was such a fairy godfather. So when this old man came along jingling his money bags and heaping presents on her, it was not long before she came to believe that nothing mattered so much as being mistress of all she surveyed.

But as time went on the luxuries became a matter of course and almost monotonous, because the days were unvaried. There was no inspiration, no incentive.

It made no difference what she did—always she had to come back and cater to the old man. He grew older and more decrepit and dependent on her, until she almost hated the sight of him.

Finally she could bear it no longer and she left. She was willing to give up all to gete away—away from ease and comfort that meant the old man with it.

The old man died and she came in for the share of his money.

"Ah, now I will live!" thought she.

The great feeling of freedom came over her and she looked about her. And now, as is often the case in human perversity, she wanted the other extreme—to be a young man's slave.

It was very simple to find the young man. There are so many looking for a young widow with money. Well, it came to pass that husband No. 2 entered on the scene. Ah, verily was she his slave. He was master indeed, through her infatuation, her love for him.

She did everything he wanted, and when he knew he had her completely he became drunk with power and secured control over all the money the old man had left her.

To make a long fable short, he squandered and speculated until one morning the receiver was summoned and the woman found she had nothing left.

Also, the man had tired of her, too, because no man can stand being absolute master—not even the "ne'er-do-well," as the young man was. He likes to be met with some spirit. The game is not worth the candle when it is too easy.

So she could not even be slave.

In choosing a husband, neither be an old man's darling nor a young man's slave, but the real partner of equal responsibility and work, a position which carries respect and a consequent chance for happiness.

Brown, one of the best singers in

Bessie of Blues

We all have our blue days, but every day is blues day for Bessie the country.

Crooning blues songs nightly in a cabaret she finances her daughter's college career and lays ambitious plans for her own future.

"Do I want you? Oh my, do I? Honey 'deed I do!"

These are the songs she sings, in deep, full-throated tones. She has composed several songs, and this year made four records which delight her many admirers.

"Go until your run is out," Bessie advises youth. "Don't settle down too soon."

Reminiscences

Clara Clemens Gabrilowitsch, daughter of America's outstanding humorist, gives a very interesting glimpse into the character of her father.

Mark Twain was a pessimist, she says. So tense was his pessimism and so sharply did he react to stories of sordidness in newspapers, that late in his life efforts were made to prevent his reading them. In these moods he wrote a collection of short essays entitled: "What Is Man?"

In his happier aspect Clemens loved billiards and would play until 4 a. m. if he could find an opponent. He was devoted to all animals.

He seldom spoke of the books by which he was best known. His favorite of all his works was Joan of Arc, his preference, due to its indictment of human inhumanity. It always pleased him if people found in Tom Sawyer, Huck Finn, and others of his characters things which seemed to come from their own lives.

Out in the sun-baked mesas of New Mexico a new profession for women is being developed. There, a young woman hailed as "dude wrangler queen" holds forth with her band of fifteen women wranglers.

Miss Erna Ferguson is queen: she is the granddaughter of pioneers who came in prairie schooners to settle in the southwest. Her band consists of girl guides who direct a tourist service through the New Mexican pueblos and cliff dwellings. The girls are trained in courses on archaeology, geology and the history and customs of the pueblo people.

Miss Ferguson herself made the rounds of the Indian villages and arranged with the governors of each for welcoming the influx of visitors she brings into their territory.

The red men are proud of the independent guide who is said to have more Indian friends than any other white woman in the United States.

WHY FAT IS DISAPPEARING

Note in every circle how slenderness prevails. Note how many of your friends have reduced. One reason lies in Marmola Prescription Tablets. They combat the cause of excess fat, so results are brought without requiring abnormal exercise or diet. People have been using Marmola for 19 years, and users have told others. As a result the demand has grown to very large proportions. Let it do for you what it does for your friends—for people all about you. Reduce to your normal weight.

All druggists supply Marmola at $1 a box. Each box contains a pamphlet explaining the results. Go try it. You will be delighted.

Facts about Child-Birth

FOR the expectant mother's comfort and well being, there is nothing that equals Mother's Friend. Its highly refined oils and other wonderfull ingredients quickly commends it to the thoughtful mother. Through the daily use of Mother's Friend the skin is made soft and pliable—thus aiding Nature to do her part without the unnecessary discomfort and pain. This is why Mother's Friend has proven such a blessing to expectant mothers for over three generations. Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician. It is safe for you to use because it contains no harmful drugs and is applied externally.

"I will tell all my friends about Mother's Friend," writes Mrs. Ben Abraham, Princeton, Ill. "It is a wonderful help all through the period."

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 25, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

FIVE PER CENT MONEY FOR OUR FARMERS

JUDGE GOSSETT, president of the Federal Land bank at Houston looks over the Wichita irrigated valley and decides to recommend loans to farmers to improve their places at the rate of five per cent interest, thus the pioneers of this great development enterprise and granted the same concessions as farmers in central and south Texas.

Probably the most significant feature of Judge Gossett's proposed recommendation to his board is the fact that this federal financial institution, in so many words, puts its stamp of approval upon the great Wichita valley project and says that the dreams of its authors will come true. And the importance of the judge's recommendation is to be measured in the growth of the valley farms with cheap money and easy terms applied to its development.

The gate is now opened for successful farming in the valley. We have the water. We have the land. We have the money and we have the farmers. A few years hence should see a remarkable growth in our agricultural background and should, likewise, mark the personal prosperity of those farmers who are coming into the Wichita valley territory.

WHO GETS THE VELVET?

TEXAS has a vast army of tenant farmers. They are called croppers. They live from hand to mouth all the while producing cotton for the millers of the world. Now it is said that the growers of Texas are holding but two per cent of the staple. For this reason the vast majority of producers will get little or no benefit from the government census bureau on ginnings, which sent the price on cotton in the New York market upward to the extent of two or three dollars a bale.

A. B. Spencer of Fort Worth, a former banker and cotton grower, has submitted figures. According to his estimate the growers of the state are holding but two per cent of the staple, and about one million bales are being held in the state. His viewpoint is that the country over the growers have about two per cent; the factories, those who have cotton in storage for training or speculative purposes, between 30 and 40 per cent and the speculators have the balance.

Banker Spencer is for co-operative and orderly marketing. His argument is that if the farmers had their cotton in their own control as a result of co-operative methods, they could get the full benefit of the recent increase. Experience has taught him that orderly marketing, the feeding of a seasonal product into the market as needed, is about the only safeguard the farmer has.

Regardless of the bumper crop last year and the heavy slump in price, West Texas newspapers predict that the acreage in that section will be as great if not greater this year than in the year 1926. If there is another bumper crop this year, who will hold the bag? Why, the cropper, the tenant who grows cotton.

He is carried by the landowner, the banker and the merchant. He must meet his obligations. He must sell his cotton after it has been picked and ginned. He has been doing it for 60 years.

FIGURES FOR THE SCRAPBOOK

IT IS well to recall that 1926 was the banner cotton year in American history; that total Texas ginnings in 1926 was 5,456,318 bales compared with 4,098,249 bales in 1920. For years and years the counties of Ellis and Williamson were rivals for the honor that goes with the county producing the greatest number of bales. Ellis landed at the top in 1926 and Williamson won second place.

Ellis 125,839 bales; Williamson 102,900 bales; Nueces 102,717 bales; Hidalgo 89,911 bales; McLennan 89,645 bales; Jones 84,083 bales; Nevarro 78,088 bales; Kaufman 76,856 bales; Crosby 73,126 bales; Lubbock 71,019 bales; Hill 71,003 bales; Collin 70,366 bales.

Collin county headed the list in production in 1925. Neuces county gave Williamson a merry run for second place in 1926. Crosby county away out in the west made a surprising showing last year and Hidalgo county ran McLennan an exciting race for fourth place.

Not many years ago Jones county, away out in the west, was the domain of the cow kings and their herds. In 1926 Jones produced 84,088 bales of cotton and think of Hill county away out in the Panhandle with a yield of 69,405 bales, Collinsworth with 51,548 bales and Cottle with a showing of 45,255 bales.

Clarence Ousley for years and years a student of cotton economics, after surveying the field and the conditions returned a verdict that it is possible for West Texas growers to make a profit above the cost of production on 15 cent cotton.

If it is possible for the West Texas growers to do it, why not the growers in the lower Rio Grande valley and the Nueces river and Gulf coast sections of Texas?

GAS AND ITS COST

REPRESENTATIVE CLAUDE TEER has made an estimate of the increased gasoline tax. He predicts that it will add $8,000,000 to the revenues. One-fourth goes to the schools and three-fourth to the highways. There are more than a million motor vehicles in Texas. There will be four million new automobiles manufactured and sold to the American people this year. Is petroleum a big game? Is it a paying game? Well, the first American billionaire invented the game. Money talks.

"OVER IN GEORGIA"

MASKED riders are rampant in sections of Georgia. Editors and preachers who denounced the law of the jungle and called for courthouse justice were flogged and their lives threatened.

Georgia has been sending lynchers to the penitentiary. Now Georgia should place behind the bars its masked ruffians who flog and torture their victims, throttle free speech and make mockery of the courts of the commonwealth as well as the laws of civilized society.

The SOB-SISTER

A STORY OF MYSTERY, SUSPENSE AND LOVE

By CLIFFORD WEBB AND ROSE ELO

WHAT AS HAPPENED

DIANA BROOKS, beautiful daughter of ROGER BROOKS, owner and publisher of the CATAWBA CITY TIMES and a chain of nine other newspapers, had been kidnaped then released. Her father is engaged in a persistent fight against the corrupt administration of CATAWBA CITY and through the medium of the TIMES redoubles his scathing attacks on politicians of the RING and the UNDERWORLD.

Later, Brooks himself is kidnaped and in five days released. On his return he finds that his newspaper stock is being manipulated and supects JOHN W. WALDEN, and prepares for a fight.

Brooks' closest friend is DONALD KEENE, his literary editor, who is the guardian of TEDDY FARRELL, reporter and Sob Sister. Teddy is in love with Don. He, however, believes himself in love with LOLA MANTELL, Diana's cousin.

Teddy and DINNY MORRISON, young reporter, who is in love with her, rescue Diana from JOHN W. WALDEN JR., an unscrupulous cad who through a ruse brings Diana to a roadhouse where he tries to attack her. Dinny knocks Walden out and Terry, although she doesn't care for him as he does for her, reveals a new admiration for him. She arranges to go to a picnic with him. Diana, returned to her home, tells her father that Walden admitted that he and his father are conspiring to ruin the publisher.

NOW GO ON

CHAPTER XXXIV.

"And—oh, Don!" Diana added, her face flaming from mortification, "he insinuated that we—you and I—on the island—oh, it was to humiliating," she finished, lamely.

"Did the cur imply anything wrong?" queried Don, slowly, rising and putting a hand on her shoulder.

"But then, you and I know it does not matter, Diana, what he implied or said," he added, gravely, his brown eyes searching her troubled gray ones.

Teddy listened to the conversation at first indifferently. She had been eating slowly, without any relish. Don and Diana had not been thrown very often in each other's company where Teddy had been present. In fact, this family gathering was an outstanding occasion for the little reporter.

In the matter-of-fact atmosphere of the office Diana and Don were always chummy, true. But here, tonight, the little sob sister sensed a closer bond between them. It struck her as significant that they seemed subconsciously to lean toward each other; that their eyes met and held as if attracted by a magnetic power.

Lola, too, was stirring to a suspicion that was making her uneasy, a little less sure of her irresistible charms.

* * *

Saturday dawned gloriously, full of promise. Teddy sprang from her bed and turned off the alarm on her clock. She had one small assignment at the Times—then in the afternoon, the picnic!

"But I wish—I wish—" she whispered aloud, "I wish it were you I was going with."

She ran her forefinger lovingly over a picture of Don she had clipped from the Times. It was a poor little likeness, only a half column size, and it blurred so quickly that Teddy replaced it with a fresh one every Sunday from the page of literary reviews. She stood in front of it for a moment studying it with wistful tenderness.

Nope, it didn't do him justice, she reflected. It didn't make him look handsome and Don was absolutely good-looking — especially when he smiled.

The little sob sister went through this performance every morning. She made it a religiously-kept ritual, except when she overslept and was late for the office.

"Feelin' better You look well," was the quizzical greeting of Mrs. Speed, as she met Teddy emerging from the bathroom.

The girl twisted her bar of wet soap into her face towel and looked away.

"I never was really sick, Mrs. Speed," she said, hesitantly, "just blue, I guess."

"Ye looked kinda pale there for awhile," observed the landlady, "Yer not love-sick, are ye?" she teased.

Teddy caught her breath and her face flushed. "Of course not," she retorted, sharply.

"I'm going on a picnic this afternoon," she added, feeling that Mrs. Speed was in a conversational mood.

It was that afternoon that Mrs. Speed suffered a mild shock. Teddy, the respectable, reliable and modest was getting into a car dressed in a—bathing suit!

Of course she had a robe over her suit, but two white, pretty knees just managed to peep out as she stepped on the running-board. Mrs. Speed was watching her tenant's departure from behind the curtains of the parlor.

Now that, she thought decisively, wasn't nice! Besides, the child might catch an awful cold coming back all wet.

Mrs. Speed shook her head disapprovingly as she went about her weekly vacuum cleaning. No, she gave it up. She couldn't figure out the young folks of today. They were too much for her. What with girls smoking—it had taken the good soul a long time to reconcile herself to the sight of the little tube-shaped rolls of tobacco lying around on Teddy's bedroom table. And that wasn't the worst of it. The butts in the ash-tray were marked with red stains. Lip-stick!

"Ho-hum," she sighed, with patient resignation. It was a shame, and Teddy such a nice girl, too, otherwise.

Teddy was Mrs. Speed's favorite topic of discussion with her neighbors and her other tenants.

To her neighbors she talked of the sob sister with the intent of making an impression. It was a distinction to have a writer, a newspaper woman among her motley charges. The neighbors never ceased to be impressed.

To her tenants, especially girls around Teddy's age, the landlady always pointed her out as an example of the ideal roomer. If the listener was of dubious virtue then Mrs. Speed made her praise very emphatic.

"You never see Miss Farrell comin' in at all hours of th' night!" she might say. "Except," she would add, "when something exciting breaks at the office."

"And another thing," she would ramble on. "She doesn't go gaddin' 'round with a different fella every night. Of course, Mr. Morrison calls her up now an' then but she don't seem to have so very much use for him."

Mrs. Speed hoped this Saturday afternoon that the neighbors hadn't seen Teddy leave—in a bathing suit! It might weaken the effect of her customary praises.

Teddy, fortunately, was spared the knowledge of her landlady's innermost thoughts. She was eager to get into the water, partly because her body welcomed its cool contact, and partly to show Dinny that she could swim.

"Why don't you turn this can in for an open car?" she asked him, crossly, as they went bumping along their way. She had forgotten her resolution to treat him with more respect.

"If you promise to ride with me through life, I will," returned Dinny, romantically.

"What earthly difference does that make?" she quizzed. "You'd be more comfortable yourself with an open car in summer. I'm just gasping for air."

"As soon as I can pay cash for a new one I may. I haven't got quite enough saved up for it yet. Another raise from th' Times and I'll be all jake," he replied with a quick side glance at her. "I'm thinkin' of buying a lot, too."

"What are you goin' t' do with a lot after you get it, besides pay taxes on it?" she queried sarcastically.

"You know what I could do with it, Ted," said Dinny, gently. His voice had a hurt note in it.

"What?" asked the girl, in a softened tone. She regretted her arrogance.

"I could have a little house built on it—something modern. Just a modest home, you know, a—a—sort of bungalow. Of course, most of th' fellows go in for flats, but I don't like 'em myself. They're not homelike—do you think?" he wound up with a beautiful disregard for English.

"Yep," said Teddy, equally careless.

"A man can't get a feeling of independence in an apartment—can't take th' right kind of pride in his home," continued Dinny, a far-away look in his eyes.

Teddy pacifically "let him rave." This wasn't the first time he had dwelt on his dream "home" although he had never before gone quite so much into detail.

She felt a guilty relief to find they had reached the lakeside. There would be enough diversion for the afternoon to make him forget his foolish dreams. Teddy told herself.

"Park that tin outrage in th' shade," she cautioned him. "Th' sun's likely to make it curt up and keel over."

Dinny laughed good-naturedly.

"That's another thing I especially like about you, Ted," he remarked, with large nonchalence. "Your sense of humor. I don't think you know what it is to mope or cry. Do you?"

Her face clouded and a wave of bitterness swept over the little reporter. But she laughed again as she replied:

"Not I, Dinny! Why, I'm Polyanna herself. Everything is gonna be all right—see?" she hummed, gaily, flinging aside her robe and running toward the beach.

She didn't plunge into the water at once, but held off waiting for him to join her. Dinny had lagged behind to pick out a good place to eat their lunch.

Teddy appraised him critically. He looked better, she thought, in his bathing suit than in his regular clothes. His was the deceptive slightness reculiar to many men. Unclad, the lithe ripple of muscle playing up and down his arms and shoulders could not do otherwise than draw admiration. Dinny was more of a man than she had thought.

(To Be Continued)

Dinny, yes. But how can Teddy give up her love for Don? Read the next installment.

"THE TRIUMPHANT SPIRIT"

Thursday.

"Love Triumphs Over Hatred"

SCRIPTURE: Read—John 18: 19; 19:7.

"Behold the man!" (Jn. 19:5). "Lord, lay not this sin to their charge" (Acts 7:59). "Love suffereth long . . . taketh not account of evil" (I. Cor. 13:4, 5).

See—Matthew 5:40, 41; Romans 12:19, 20.

MEDITATION: All through the abuses of the trials, and the tortures of the scourging and the crown of thorns, love failed not. His tears were not for His torturers; His sadness was for the misled crowd; His burden was for humanity.

"Let me too be saddened with the sins and sorrows of the crowd; let me too be burdened with the deeds and destinies of humanity."

HYMN:

Immortal Love, forever full,
Forever flowing free,
Forever shared, forever whole,
A never ebbing sea!

We may not climb the heavenly steeps,
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps
For His no depths can drown.

But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is He;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.
—John G. Whittier, 1866.

PRAYER: Thanks for sympathy.

Pray for—spirit of compassion; those antagonistic to Christ.

Collect—O Thou whose will-to-do fails not, we thank Thee for freedom, for the responsibility which makes failure possible but success glorious. We bless Thee that Thou hast trusted us. Such friendship is beyond price. Give us now the inner power of Him who triumphed over every obstacle, yea, even over agony, hatred, and death. We fear for our souls before the high trusts of heaven. We confess our sinfulness in pursuing little things. Correct us by the call of Thy faithfulness. Give us increasing faith in the invisible, unfaltering courage for the conflict with evil and deliverance from the fear of death. Amen.

ACID FRUITS AND ACIDOSIS

For many years, in my writings and lectures, I have found it necessary to explain away the common belief that acid fruits have a direct effect in producing the condition of the body known as acidosis.

There is no more truth in this assumption than there is that bread is the staff of life, or, that onions are good for the health. We collect so many false beliefs which seem so easy to understand without investigation and learn so much that "ain't so."

From my laboratory experiments, and after years of experience in teaching patients how to cure acidosis, I am convinced that there is not the slightest excuse for believing that acid fruits have any effect whatsoever in creating this condition. In order to understand this fact, it is well, first of all, to know what acidosis means. It may be simply defined as acid-intoxication of the tissues of the body. The causes are varied. It is a condition present with such diseases as diabetes, tuberculosis, cancer, fevers, appendicitis, peritonitis, pneumonia, stomach and intestinal ulcers, indigestion, tonsilitis and, in fact, almost all ailments. The normal state of the bodily tissues is alkaline, and, in all diseases, bad habits of living are responsible for the predicament in which the sick ones find themselves. Chief among these errors in living are the use of wrong quality and quantity of food, improper combinations of food, insufficient exercise and improper habits of thought. If too much of the carbohydrate foods are used, that is, breads, pastries, refined white flour products, sugar, etc., you are providing the material for the generation of acidosis.

Bad combinations of food, especially of the kind named, will produce excess fermentation with the consequential creation of flatulence and hyper-acidity of the stomach and intestines. If not enough sufficiently vigorous physical culture exercise is indulged in, even the best foods will also generate toxins.

All enervating habits waste energy which is needed in the processes of digestion and the result is that the body attempts to chemically change the food materials into useful substance which can be assimilated by throwing out large quantities of gastric juice containing hydrochloric acid. The continued effect of this is to lower the blood's alkalinity producing a state of the tissues, favorable to any of the dificiency diseases. The blood is never really acid until death, but bad habits will reduce the normal alkalinity. Faulty metabolism (change of tissue) takes place and the result is that the system does not have the proper resistance against disease. The body is literally dying more than it is being built up and closer to death one comes, the less the normal alkalinity of the blood exists. The first signs will be depression, coated tongue, poor circulation, bad color of the skin and a general "blue" feeling. If the food is recombined properly and increased duced to the proper amount and exercise is taken, the bodily forces will again resume this proper balance and no serious disease will occur.

QUESTION: Interested Reader writes: "Would you advise almond oil for wrinkles under the eyes? Would it grow hair? I think your articles are splendid, and I cut them out.

ANSWER: Almond oil makes an excellent oil to use for massaging the skin. There is no reason to believe that any of these oils have the property of growing hair. Thank you for your interest in my articles.

AMERICANS IMPOLITE

OLSO, Norway, April 1 (AP)—Newspapers here comment on what they describe as the lack of politeness shown by the American students during the recent visit here of the floating university liner Ryndam, which is making a world cruise.

Just a Reminder to You Boys and Girls That Wichita Falls Never Has Won an Opening Day Trophy—Let's Show 'Em a Few Here Next Tuesday

TOP O' MORN STUFF
By Blondy Cross.

May the eminent wrong-hander be imminently right today. Anyhow, he usually is.

Yassah, our Mr. Williams would portside the boys this afternoon over in Louisc-e-e-anny. The great Fussell gets the call. Allow us to hope Mr. Williams changes not his mind.

* * *

With the fork-arm on the throne it's almost like just sitting down and saying, "well, we won another." At least, so it has loomed all spring. For Freddy has looked more like the Freddy of yore than ever before.

* * *

LaFayette has carried his heavy-hitting right on into the regular slate. There's power around that first sack this year. Whammed three out of five yesterday. That's what the scorers in Shreveport gave him. Robbed of one single, George whipped a drive past first with the sacks loaded in the fourth. Payne failed to touch second and was relayed out. Scorers couldn't see a safety for George.

* * *

UH HUH

Fort Worth will finish first, Houston second, Dallas third and Wichita Falls fourth, predicts Plem Hall, Panther sports writer.

* * *

Wichita Falls will depend on an outfield composed of Jenkins, Fitzgerald and Metzler to carry along an ordinary team, Plem observes in touching the Spudder situation, if any.

* * *

Considering that fire-and-miss butfield crack, we're not sure just how to take Plem's one-two-three-four prophesy. Inaccuracy at one point does not necessarily indicate inaccuracy at another, neither does it insure correctness. But Plem, whether intentionally or through oversight, gives Lyman Lamb the complete run-around.

* * *

Lambie, ladies and gentlemen, is worthy of a position on the Spudder club more than any other athlete, barring Williams himself. Lambie, girls and boys, is the class of the Spudder outfield, which, incidentally, Hall avers is the cream pasture patrol of the Texas league.

* * *

HE'S THE OKRA

Lambie, masculine friend, can hit that apple. Lambie, old top, can snag that sphere, too. Lambie on the bases is seven times as smart as Jenkins ever thought of being. Lambie has more spirit and hustle in 20 seconds than the gallant Fitzgerald displays in three weeks.

* * *

Lambie, in short, is the best ball player on the lot where our Spudders are concerned. He's our nine's most valuable player. He hits 'em when they count. He always is in there battling. And he's the type of happy-go-lucky, scrappy cuss that is highly conducive to the good morale of any ball club to have him on it.

* * *

BLUB, BLUB

Sure, I know some of you smart onions are, in the parlance, ON Lambie, don't like his guts and can't give him credit. I've heard your yaps when Lambie failed to come up with a bad bounder or just managed to get near enough to a dirty drive in right to tag a hand on it but fail to spear it. Sure, Lamb and the rest of the ball club have heard your yurps, too. But Lambie plugs right along. Sour bug let out a yelp in an exhibition game here the other day when Lucy went under a steaming drive to right center at full gallop, timed her sufficiently to stick one hand on her cross-wise but couldn't hold her. Few outfielders could have timed the smash enough to get a paw on it, much less catch it. Yet woof-woof lad upped and bellowed: "Get him outta there! Hit 'em all to right field if yuh wanta be safe! Owe-o-o, give us a fielder!" and other such gruff. Wise Alec, this bombre.

* * *

Metzler joined the club yesterday. Alex is a hustler all the way and a sharp all-around outfielder, but how he is going to break into the Jenkins-Fitzgerald-Lamb combination is a problem. All right, Jenkins is your heaviest hitter. Perhaps you don't want to take him out. Fitz with a little more hustle and Lamb with the pace he has been setting round out a barrier Metzler will be forced to do some mighty spry stepping if he breaks through.

* * *

Notice where the wrestling impresario intends calling in your artistic friend "Boo!" Montana for a showing here next week. The "Boo!" can give the customers a run for their cash on looks alone. Doesn't have to wrestle to make it square with the pasteboard packer. Charley Grip, that other handsome guy, wants to fight Mr. Bull Montana just on general principles, mainly because Bull lays claims to more masculine beauty than Charles, but the matchmaker says Bullet-head is too little to work with the movie man.

NOT SO GOOD FOR S. CONLEY

Steers Fail To Show Power So Cats Win Out

DALLAS, April 13. (AP)—The Dixie champions failed to unleash their vaunted hitting power in the opening game of the season at Steer Park Wednesday and the Fort Worth Panthers won, 4 to 0.

Danny Burns, pitching ace of the Cats, whipped the Steers with his swift benders and a dazzling change of pace. He was given perfect support by his hustling mates in the field and at bat as well, as their timely pasting of Scott Perry's husky heavy testified. The score:

We'll Battle 'Em, Says Williams

"Everything is looking good," wired Spudder Manager Carl Williams from Shreveport last night to The Record News sports editor. "We don't expect to win them all but do expect to battle for them all.

"We are still hitting and fielding fine and playing heads up baseball. And by the time we return to Wichita Falls I am sure our pitchers will be going (not all directions) but the entire game in good fashion."

Three Homers In Panhandle Victory

Home runs by Graves, Randolph and Horton featured the Panhandle Refinery baseball team's 7 to 2 victory over the Continental team on the Panhadle diamond Wednesday afternoon.

Bob Roberts played a sensational game on third base for the Panhandle. He turned in many nice stops and throws.

Smith and Lynch pitched for the Panhandle and Harris and Rice worked for the Continential.

Hood Runs Burk To Near-Victory

Pat Starts Behind In Relay and Comes In Third

The Burkburnett Bulldogs took third place in the medley relay at Norman last week, but it really was pat Hood who copped the place and scored the two points for Burkburnett. Hood beat his best record on the last grinding mile run, but was started under too far a handicap to win.

Hood ran the last mile in 4 minutes and 44 seconds. He copped the mile run at the Burleson meet in Greenville some time ago with 4 minutes 45 seconds time. Burkburnett ran the race in barely three seconds more than the former world's record and 8.1 seconds short of the new world's record. The time for the Burkburnett crew was 8 minutes and 21 seconds.

Team Starts Poorly.

Here is the story of the race as it happened from a Burkburnett standpoint: H. D. Hurd started off with the 880-yard run. After a poor start, Hurd came in to pass the baton Leroy Eddy for a good third place. Hurd ran the 880 yards in 2 minutes and 8 seconds.

On the 440-yard dash Eddie didn't know just where he was to pass the baton so he spent most of his time trying to get a first place for his next team mate, but finished tenth. His times was 63 seconds.

Little by Little.

L. D. Stacey made a brave run of it and managed to land in Eighth place on the 220 yards to give Hood the sendoff. His time was 26.5 seconds.

Hood then started out after the leaders who were then a good 110 yards ahead of him. Before the second lap had been finished Burkburnett held fourth place and the third lap Burkburnett held second place. Hood was pushing the Kansas high school for a new record. The fourth lap was a hard fought one and found the boys only about a yard apart. In closing the gap, Oak Cliff from Dallas passed Burkburnett and finished second.

Hood had made a great fight for first place for his school, but the pace was too much and the gap too large when he started on his famous mile run to overcome.

Hood can not be given too much credit for what he has done for the Burkburnett high school in the way of winning honors in track meets over the southwest.

Wrestlers Move Outside in May

Alec Ross' wrestlers will move out doors the first week in May, Ross announced yesterday. Construction is to begin immediately on an open air arena between Tenth and Eleventh on Indiana near the auto parking station, Ross said.

The arena is to seat upwards of 1500 customers, it is to be modern and up-to-date. It is to be used strictly for wrestling, no plans having been made for other sporting events.

The wrestlers will continue in the Palace theater the rest of April, said Ross. Contracts with the theater ends when the new month comes in.

Dave Shade Nears Chance At Walker

CHICAGO, April 13.(AP)—Only Tiger Flowers stands today between Dave Shade of California and a championship fight with the middleweight titleholder, Mickey Walker.

Shade Tuesday night outboxed Phil Krug of Paterson, N. J., in 10 rounds, getting the decision of two judges and the referee. Krug, who had held Shade to a draw in a previous fight when both were welters, was the last battler in the middleweight division excepting Flowers to challenge Shade's right to a chance at the title.

Billy Petrolle, the Fargo express, whose past performance has boosted himself into the light of a lightweight challenger, was given a pause in his pursuit of the title. Freddie Mueller of Buffalo, N. Y., accepting the assignment on three hours notice after illness caused the scheduled opponent, King Tut, to withdraw, held Petrolle to a draw and outboxed him most of the way.

Electra Nine Wants Baseball Opposition

Tommy Courtney's Electra all-stars are open for games with any and all comers, it was announced Wednesday.

In other words, the amateur world at large is challenged. However, the Electra team, of course, prefers games with North Texas teams, especially Wichita Falls nines, considered by the Electrans as soft pickin's.

YAQUI DEFEATS GRIP ON FOUL

Bullet-Head Chunks Indian Over and Stomps Him

By BLONDY CROSS.

Your elf-like boy friend, Charles C. Gr-r-r-r-rip, lost another Wednesday night at the Palace. And, oh, how he did lose it. Robbed out right, if you you'll requisition Charley for an alibi.

Fact of the matter, Charles beat himself. With the match all square at a fall each, Grip fouled Yaqui Joe, the Indian welter, lost the bout and then trotted in under police custody or something.

Bill Allen didn't like Charley's stuff, so Bill upped, stuck out the long arm of the lawr and arrested Buffalo's beauty ad.

I saw Bill snooping around the ring apparently ready to pounce and I feared for Charley. But being the referee I had no opportunity to run Bill away.

All An "Accident."

But, as remarked, with the battle at a stand-off, Charley carrying a possible edge, the great Grip hoisted Joe up in the atmosphere and slung the Redskin overboard all in unorthordox fashion, then struck the leg through the ropes and stamped the imprint of a number 12 wrasseling boot on Yaqui's swarthy map.

That's about the crop. The mistake was made in nine minutes of pastiming on the rubber comeback. Charley set up a wail, "I didn't go to do it!" Bill hove into view and clamped on a heavy hand. Some funny ringsider fell through the ropes at the risk of getting squashed (yeah, there were three of them in that ring who could do it) and wild-eyedly yapped something. After which the crowd went home.

She was a pretty interesting fracas as interesting fracases go. Both boys got kind of rough, indulged in the sock-sock and exchange of kicks to the breeches and tummy. Charles pulled Joe's hair, made ugly faces and cut up just as comical as ever. Both have worked on the domestic mat here many times before.

Joe Scores First.

First honors went to Yaqui via the flying-mare route in 28 minutes. After being on the score end of the deal most of the way, Grip rallied and copped the second in 41 minutes with what looked strangely like a reverse full nelson combined with a grapevine. Now you try to name it.

Charley Leahman, Detroit middleweight, won a preliminary match from "College" Bates of Berkeley in straight falls. Bates refused to take the first fall on forfeit when Leahman put on a stalling foray. That was just too bad for Batey. He got hurt in the next minute or so, flopped on his dome in a freak fall and then went out under pressure of a headlock. Time was 25 minutes. Leahman grabbed number two in nine minutes with a headlock attack.

There was a kid curtain raiser.

ROTARY ELECTS

Olney Club Names Directors At Special Election.

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, April 13.—Annual election of a new board of directors for the Olney Rotary club was held at the weekly luncheon today, the following being elected: Bruce Schulkey, R. A. Drum, Joe C. Benson, John P. Alexander, Mabrey Wolverton, Dr. H. C. McKinney, and Rhea Anderson.

A meeting of the new board has been called for tomorrow at which time the officers for the year will be elected. The new board of directors and officers as now elected will not take office until the close of the fiscal year, sometime in July.

SPORT-a-la-CARTE

BY ROY GROVE

He slid into the base
As if he didn't care,
Evidently he did not,
Another man was there.

Joe Boley should have his greatest year running around with Connie Mack and his bought and paid for ball team. Boley has been a star for many years without a chance to sparkle in the big show. His major league debut should fill him with renewed inspiration, with just enough fire to cast a revengeful eye at Dunn for not giving him a chance to do his stuff years ago.

Joe is now playing aongside the great Eddie Collins. That in itself is enough to guarantee a man a great year. Boley has foundation and experience and with the aid of a few of Eddie's tricks should become a star over night.

Is Hole-in-One Luck?

What are holes-in-one, and how are they made? That was the question, or rather the fundamental,

They grappled on the carpet,
Gasping for a breath,
Never, fear, 'eall right dear,
They know nothing of death.

that led to general discussion.

The famous professional J. H. Taylor, discussed this at length, and J. H. should know, because he has made more aces than any professional golfer in the game.

The mediocre player analyzed this as "absolute accuracy," and "knowing your game," as far as he was concerned.

To boil the argument down, all three par holes are beckoning efforts for a hole out. The dub calls the ace "form in golf" and insists that, after a certain effort at accuracy, one should be able to hole out in one, although he doesn't add "with consistency."

That consistency is known to Taylor as accuracy, and that accuracy would be more consistent for the golfer who "prefers" a hole-in-one shot, which he says is not luck, but form.

Houston Shades Exporters, 4-2

HOUSTON, April 13. (AP)—Ken Penner's great pitching and hitting were big factors in Houston's 4-3 win today over Beaumont. About 6,000 persons saw the game.

Penner bested Pillette in a stirring mound duel, giving up four hits to eight allowed by Pillette. In the second, Penner's double scored Miller and Martin who had singled. Ray Powell with a triple started the winning rally in the eighth. The score:

FIGHTS FOR LIFE

Edgins Shows Slow Improvement In Hospital Here.

J. C. (Jimmy) Edgins, is fighting for his life as he lies in the General hospital with his back broken, 10 days after the accident occurred in which he was injured.

Mr. Edgins has much of the fight before him, it was stated at the hospital, but he has been resting well for the past several days and improvement is noticible in his condition.

A 2000-pound cement carrier fell on Edgins while he worked on a scaffold in the Culbertson addition west of the city on April 2.

Four Mack Hurlers Fail To Stem Onslaught

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—The New York Yankees trounced the Philadelphia Athletics for the second time in two days, belting four pitchers for 16 hits in a 10 to 4 victory today. Koenig led the assault on Gray, Willis, Pate and Ehmke with five singles in as many times at bat. Babe Ruth recovered from a slight illness to hit two singles. Dutch Ruether also was clouted freely, but the Athletics failed to reach him in the pinches. Score:

Lew Tendler Drops One to Ace Hudkins

LOS ANGELES, April 13.(AP)—Lew Tendler, veteran Philadelphia fighter, went back into the losing class Wednesday after a stiff but losing battle against Ace Hudkins, Nebraska boxer, here Tuesday night.

The southpaw fighter in spite of defeat showed strong in the seventh, eighth and ninth stanzas of the 10-round go, but still was unable to prevent Hudkins from boring in.

Hudkins, although puzzled by the Philadelphian's left hand fighting, peppered his opponent generously throughout the early rounds. They fought at 149 1-2 pounds.

SHREVEPORT, April 13. (AP)—A nine-run lead gained in the first inning when 13 batters faced two Shreveport pitchers enabled the Wichita Falls Spudders to win the opening game of the season heretoday 14 to 8. The locals made a game uphill fight but the handicap was too much. About 6,000 persons attended the game. A light rain just an hour before the start of play cut in on the attendance that was expected to reach 7000. Home runs were hit by Taylor and Turgeon. The locals used six moundsmen and Rainey was the only one to last more than one inning.

George Payne and Milton Steengrafe, righthanders, divided the box work for the Spudders. Both took it more or less easily behind the mammoth lead amassed by their team mates.

LaFayette and Turgeon split hitting honors, each crashing three base blows. LaFayette came through with a single and a double in the same inning, that riotous first. Turgeon paired a two-bagger and a single with his home run.

Start With Rush

The Spudders stepped out in the first inning and put the game on ice, smashing over nine runs. LaFayette slammed a single to right field. Mann popped out to third. LaFayette stole second. Fitzgerald came through with a double to right, scoring Lafayette. Lamb lined to Nason who muffed the ball. Fitzgerald going to third. Jenkins hit to first who threw low to the plate. Fitzgerald scored. Turgeon walked filling the bases. Swenson singled past third, scoring Lamb. Thompson was pulled and Ogden went in. Lapan singled past third, scoring Jenkins and Turgeon. Payne walked, filling the bases. LaFayette doubled to left, scoring Swenson and Lapan. Mann fouled out to the catcher. Fitzgerald hit to Dumovich who muffed the ball, Payne scoring. Fitzgerald went out stealing.

A double by Harris, a hit batsman, a walk, sacrifice fly and a single by Kilduff gave Shreveport two in her half of the first inning.

Afte rtwo were out in the second, singles by Harris, Taylor and Dumovich spliced in with a walk to Distel gave Shreveport two more.

A double by Lapan and a single by Fitzgerald gave the Spudders another tally in the third inning.

After two men were out in the fifth inning the Spudders scored two more runs. Singles by Lamb and Jenkins followed by a double by Turgeon scored them.

Sports Menace

A walk to Payne, a stolen base, and a single by LaFayette gave Wichita Falls another run in the sixth inning.

Shreveport scored four runs in the sixth inning. A double by Barnes and a long home run by Taylor scored the first two. A single by Taylor, a double by Dumovich and a single by Nason gave them the other two. A fast double play then cut them off.

The last run by the Spudders was a long drive over the left field fence by Pete Turgeon in the seventh.

Braves Nudge Out On Robins, 4 to 2

BOSTON, April 13. (AP)—Brilliant defensive work behind Larry Benton while the Robins were backing Jess Barnes aided Boston Braves to a 4 to 2 victory over Brooklyn in the second game of the season today. Boston nicked Barnes for all four runs, aided by two costly errors, before Jess gave way to Rube Ehrhardt and a pinch hitter in the seventh.

PENNANT CHANCES

By STANLEY HARRIS
Manager Washington Senators.

My chief regret in opening this new season is that Walter Johnson was not able to pitch the opening game for us. When Barney was injured he told the boys not to let his absence hold the team back and all of them assured him we would be around the top when he came back to us ready to pitch. I consider myself extremely fortunate in getting Tris Speaker. What a wonderful fellow he is on a ball club. If I can get steady and reliable pitching I don't see who is going to beat us out next fall. I have seen many wonderful outfields, but who can match ours, with Rice, Tris and Goslin? Buddy Myer has had a year of experience at short, and that will help our infield.

Fillingim Smears Pratt Outfit, 4-0

SAN ANTONIO, April 13. (AP)—Striking out the first batter up on the first three balls pitched, Dana Fillingim gave promise of being in form and he fulfilled the promise when he went through the nine innings, holding Waco to six scattered hits to win the opening Texas league game here Wednesday, 4 to 0, before a crowd of about 8,000.

Before Fillingim took the hill Judge "Billie" Anderson, star shortstop of the Sunsets of 1934, was led on the field to try his control. It was perfect, for he split the plate with City Commissioner Paul Steffler on the receiving end.

Fillingim was tight as a miser's purse strings until the ninth inning when he walked Miner and Pratt, first two batters to face him, putting an aspect of uncertainty on the game until Blackerby forced Pratt at second. Glass popped to Philbin and Murphy flied to center, ending the contest.

White Sox Slam It On Indians, 7 to 2

CLEVELAND, April 13. (AP)—With the game won until the ninth inning the Cleveland Indians blew up and allowed Chicago to score six runs and take the second game of the opening series, 7 to 2 today.

Batting for Peck, Hunnefield started the rally by reaching first on Spurgeon's error. McCurdy bunted safely and Clancy walked. Miller replaced Levsen in the box but with fatal results. Boon batting for Moore singled, Kamm doubled, Barrett singled and Faulk doubled. Then Manager McCallister sent in young Hudlin, who retired the next three Sox. Levsen allowed but one hit until the eighth inning.

George Burns smacked a homer over the right field wall in the eighth. Score:

LONGHORNS WIN

AUSTIN, April 13. (AP)—Outhitting, outfielding and outpitching, playing the Rice Owls, the Texas Longhorns took their fourth straight game in the conference baseball race Tuesday, 14-7.

It was one of the most thrilling games ever played on Clark field. Twice the Longhorns came from behind a two-run lead.

The big rally came in the seventh when the Texas batters got six hits for 10 bases that netted them five runs and finally put the contest on ice. It was the miserable work of the Rice infield behind Bob Ables that gave the Longhorns the victory.

The score:

Rice . . .020 050 000— 7 6 6
Texas . . .023 000 90x—14 13 1

WRECK FATAL

Brakeman of Cattle Train Killed In Crossing Accident.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., April 13. (AP) J. N. Williams of Muskogee, brakeman on a Midland Valley freight train, was killed in a cattle train wreck near Myers, 112 miles northwest of here, today. The engine was derailed due to soft track, according to meager reports received at the general offices of the road here.

ELECTRA GRID CARD IS MADE

Percentage Basis To Decide District Title

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, April 13.—The football season for district No. 3, University Interscholastic League of which Electra high school is a member, will open Oct. 5.

Electra's first game will be played against Quanah on the home court on that day.

B. M. Dinsmore, superintendent of the Electra high school went to Quanah last Saturday to attend the meeting of the executive committee of the football division of the league.

The schedule for the official season was made and some important changes were announced in the rulings on eligibility of teams.

Each of the seven teams of the district will pay each other team and the winner will be decided on a percentage basis.

Heretofore the championship has been decided by a process of elimination with two sections of the district fighting it out among themselves as the winners meeting for the title. Wichita Falls, Vernon, Electra and Quanah have played in one group and Amarillo, Lubbock and Plainview in the other.

To Build Interest.

The executive committee in making the drastic change believes that more and longer interest in the annual pigskin races will ensue. In the past season a team once beaten even if it was the first of the year was permanently eliminated from championship competition. Under the new plan a team will not necessarily be out of the running because of one defeat and interest will be sustained throughout the season.

Only the six games scheduled by each team count in the championship race but each member is privileged to play as many outside games as it desires.

The change in the championship plan was the only important action taken. The committee ruled that scholastic grades on Friday afternoon would govern eligibility for the games of the following week.

C. E. Davis, superintendent of the Quanah schools was unanimously re-elected district chairman, besides the chairman were Dean S. H. Rider of Wichita Falls; W. A. McIntosh of Amarillo; Coach Frank, Lubbock; B. M. Dinsmore of Electra and W. T. Loftin and E. A. Baggert of Vernon.

Schedule Announced.

Oct. 15—Quanah at Electra.
Oct. 22—Electra at Lubbock.
Oct. 29—Vernon at Electra.
Nov. 5—Wichita Falls at Electra.
Nov. 19—Electra at Amarillo.
Nov. 24—Plainview at Electra.

CHINESE RIOT FEVER HOTTER

U. S. Gunboats Reported To Have Been Fired On

By Universal Service.

SHANGHAI, April 13.—China is in a state of ferment today. Serious internal dissension between the left and right wings of the nationalists is reported from various sections.

During the night, there was serious fighting in this city, between nationalist troops and guerilla gunmen of the extremist faction. Casualties resulted.

In Amoy, the nationalist soldiers are arresting many of the extremists, and martial law has been declared.

Looting by the nationalists is reported from Nanking. Residents of the city are in a state of apprehension, it is indicated, because of a possible northern attack. Airplanes of the northern troops are bombing Nanking and Fukow intermittently, advices state.

Two hundred communists, 2000 rifles, and two machine guns were captured when the nationalists raided extremist groups here last night.

Pitched battles between the nationalist soldiers, and guerillas, continue sporadically in Shanghai. The majority of the guerillas are armed laborers, it is reported.

More than 1000 guerillas have been imprisoned at nationalist headquarters.

Three hundred and fifty guerillas were trapped by the nationalists at the Commercial Press plant, after nine hours of machine gun engagement. The armed laborers were captured.

U. S. GUNBOATS FIRED ON BY CHINESE FORCES

By Universal Service.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—American gunboats, destroyers and ships with refugees aboard are almost continuously under fire on the Yangtse river, it was stated at the White House today.

Thus has developed one of the gravest and most dangerous problems with which the United States has to deal in China.

American ships have been ordered to return the fire and are doing so, it was stated, but have so far been unable to silence the firing from both banks of the river, down which hundred of Americans are trying to reach Shanghai and safety.

At the same time a new element of danger developed when it was learned that three Chinese cruisers are now operating on the Yangtse. For the present they are said to be firing upon the Cantonese positions on either side of the river, but there is apprehension that they may not hesitate to prey upon any refugee ships which ventured down the river without protection of foreign warships.

It was indicated that the Cantonese, who apparently had been defeated by the North China troops, stopped their retreat as reinforcements came up and are making a determined stand. Admiral Clarence S. Williams, commander-in-chief of the American forces in China, reported by radio that the retreat has ended. If this is verified it will again put the Cantonese in control of the Yangtse, it was stated.

It was said for President Coolidge, however, that he is so hopeful that the demands which this government has made on the Cantonese for protection of lives and property and indemnity for the Nanking outrages will be met that no consideration has been given to reprisals in case of a refusal to do so. It was also said that this government has not yet fixed a time limit within which the demands must be met.

Coast of Morocco On Mediterranean Swept By Distaster.

MADRID, Spain, April 13.—More than 20 lives are reported lost in a violent storm which has swept the coast of Morocco. Many small craft are believed to have been sunk and considerable damage along the water fronts is reported at various ports.

Trial Of Negro In Stabbing Of Barnett Set Thursday, April 20

J. D. Masters, negro, convicted Tuesday and sentenced to 10 years for the alleged stabbing of Sam Spence, assistant district attorney, will be brought to trial Thursday, April 20 on a charge of assault with intent to murder in connection with the stabbing of M. W. Barnett, United States narcotic enforcement officer.

The setting of the trial was announced Wednesday by Ben Allred, district attorney, who also set the following trials:

Monday, April 18—L. A. Talley, forgery; Arthur Gillard, three cases, forgery; Harold McCoy, forgery; T. L. Tipton, violation of the liquor law and Virgil Gant, violation of the liquor law.

Tuesday, April 19—R. B. Bird, W. A. Turner and Cecil Johnson, theft; C. L. Williams, forgery; Steve Parker and Duke Martin, theft.

Thursday, April 20—J. D. Masters, assault with intent to murder and driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Monday, April 25—J. B. Criswell, two cases, criminal assault; Marion Fetters, burglary and Charles Watson, burglary.

Wednesday, April 27—E. E. Savage, robbery and Carroll Mumford, robbery.

JAIL CROWDED

105 Prisoners Occupy Cells In County Institution

The Wichita county jail has contained an average of more than 100 prisoners for the past two weeks and at times has been filled to its capacity, stated Jailer Sid Johnson Wednesday.

A check of prisoners being held in the county bastile Wednesday showed 105, all of whom are termed "regulars," Mr. Johnson said. The term regulars does not include "drunks" and minor offenders who habitually find themselves surrounded by cell walls over the week-end.

The count taken Wednesday is said to be among the highest mid-week jail rosters ever credited to Wichita Falls. The number of prisoners has averaged well over 90 since January 1, Mr. Johnson stated.

TORNADO HITS MOUNTAIN BAR

This Saves Oklahoma Town From Destruction

MUSKOGEE, Okla., April 13. (AP) A mountain apparently deflected a tornado from McCurtain, Okla., F. H. Blackford, Stigler newspaper publisher, who viewed the storm, related here today.

"The storm broke at 2:30 o'clock," Mr. Blackford said. "It became very dark. A huge black cloud swept down the valley.

"As it approached the mountain near McCurtain it apparently gained momentum, hit the mountainside, then fell back. It gained strength, made another assault, then a third, before it could go over. As it struck trees and house tops shot into the air. The mountain apparently changed its course, and only this, I believe kept it from striking the town of McCurtain.

"The first house hit by the twister," Mr. Blackford said, "was John Ross', two and one-half miles southwest of McCurtain. Mrs. Ross in an attempt to shield her baby ran from the home with the child in her arms. She was hit in the face by a plank and died a short time later at a neighbor's home.

"The baby's leg was broken in several places. It was rushed to a Fort Smith hospital. Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Ross' mother, Mrs. Lucey Elliott and William Ross, three years old, were in the home when the storm struck.

"The house was demolished. Mrs. Elliott was lying on a bed when the house was whirled away. The bed was blown from under her, leaving her uninjured.

"The other victim of the storm was a man named Dozier, who was killed while walking on a road several miles from McCurtain."

The publisher said W. M. Whorton shielded his wife's head with his hands when the tornado crashed through their home. A sharp rock struck his thumb, almost severing it. Mrs. Whorton was not injured.

MAYFIELD RAIL BILL TO PASS

That's Prediction Made By Texas Senator

AUSTIN, April 13. (AP)—United States Senator Earl B. Mayfield here for the summer, expressed belief today that the next congress will pass his recently defeated bill to permit functioning railroads to make extensions without requirement of consent from the Interstate Commerce commission.

The senator thinks millions of dollars will be saved southern cotton farmers through his cotton classification act which will limit department of agriculture cotton estimates to monthly reports instead of semi-monthly.

"These semi-monthly reports have cost the south millions upon millions of dollars," Senator Mayfield said. "A vast portion of the cotton crop deteriorates in the field and never reaches the gin. That cotton has been included in the semi-monthly estimates and the effect has been to depress the price of cotton already ginned."

Provision is made in the cotton classification act for the three reports annually by the secretary of agriculture on grades and staple length of surplus or carry-over cotton, so as to segregate the class of cotton tenderable on future contracts from the low grade product, which affects the price of good cotton.

"When I introduced this measure in the senate," Mayfield said, "cotton had reached the lowest price since 1921, since that time, cotton has advanced about $15 a bale, and Mr. Theodore Price, one of the greatest authorities on this question, says the reaction in the price was due largely to effect of this legislation."

STILL SEIZED

Crowell Farmer Arrested After Sunday Raid On Home

Special to The Record News.

CROWELL, April 13.—A 25-gallon still fully equipped for the manufacture of whiskey was captured Sunday on the farm of J. M. Teal near Foard City by Sheriff L. D. Campbell of Foard county and R. J. Thomas, city marshal of Crowell. Teal was arrested on a charge of possessing the still and was later released on a five hundred dollar bond. The still was found in a straw stack together with a small amount of whiskey.

The low price of cotton and a hard year for the renter was given by Teal as his reason for being engaged in such business, according to Sheriff Campbell.

BEER DRINKERS DODGE FARMER

Officers Arrive Too Late To Nab Revellers

A nine mile drive by a woman to Wichita Falls Wednesday afternoon while her husband attempted to entertain and detain members of the "beer party" found on his farm until she returned with officers proved fruitless.

The owner of the farm, with face bleeding and clothing torn, was found standing beside a pile of broken beer bottles where officers hoped to arrive in time to arrest the gay revellers.

The owner of the farm, which is located nine miles northeast of Wichita Falls, discovered the party after it had held sway for some time. The participants were said to have been well "lit."

The farm owner attempted to be so hospitable that the visitors would not leave before officers arrived but they became suspicious and broke the evidence, succeeding after a short struggle in going their way.

Federal and city officers later raided a house near the scene of the party and just across the line in Clay county, finding a quantity of beer. The two men are expected to be arrested Thursday.

HONORS OF LEGION

Funeral Services Today for Veteran of Two Wars.

Funeral services for Charles A. Petit, former Wichitan and a veteran of two wars, who died at Legion, Texas, Tuesday, will be held at the Hines mortuary chapel Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Pat Carrigan post No. 120, American Legion, will have charge of the services and all ex-service men are requested to meet at the Hines mortuary preceding the services.

Mr. Petit is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Anna Belle Maddox of Houston and Mrs. Hattie Smithson, 1321 North Ninth street, two brothers, Burns Petit and Joe Petit formerly of Wichita Falls and now of Dallas and a niece, Mrs. M. M. Frank, 1323 North Ninth street.

Pall bearers have been selected as follows: T. R. Bronson, O. T. Ailes, R. J. Claypool, W. M. Huey, Don Wofford and Dr. L. I. Lucey.

POLICE BUSY

12 Landed In City Hall During Busy Hour.

Cell doors at the city hall were straining at the hinges, figuratively, for a time Wednesday night when what started as a serene night for the police developed into a miniature round of law violators.

A raid on a dice game near the business district resulted in six young men being brought to the city hall. All perfected cash bonds. Possession of small amounts of liquor landed five others in jail.

A fist fight in a local hotel terminated with one of the battlers filing complaint on the other who was locked up. All of that consumed about one hour.

U. S. VETERANS GET LOANS.

WASHINGTON, April 13. (AP)—About $7,000,000 has been loaned by the government to more than 70,000 veterans on their bonus certificates, Director Hines of the veterans bureau reported today to President Coolidge.

SPENCE IMPROVES

Sam Spence, assistant district attorney, was able to visit his physician's office Wednesday afternoon but was forced to return to his bed within a short time after leaving it. Mr. Spence was stabbed on April 2 while attempting to arrest three negroes for speeding.

He was released from the General hospital several days ago and had appeared as a witness in the trial of one negro when physicians ordered that Mr. Spence return to his bed.

Although the wound is slightly infected, Mr. Spence was reported to have been much improved Wednesday and unless complications set in he will be up again within a few days.

SHOWS PRAISED

Many Feature Attractions With Francis Organization.

The John Francis shows which come here Monday to furnish attractions for the American Legion spring frolic are preceded by many high recommendations from towns in which they have shown, it was stated Wednesday.

One of the main attractions with the John Francis shows is the big circus side show with 12 feature circus acts, including Tottie, educated chimpanzee of the movies; Professor Gonzales in an untamable lion act and Queenie, a 28-foot boa-constrictor, according to advance word.

Another feature of the exposition is Zona, the show beautiful. Zona doubled for Mae Murray in the memorable picture, "Peacock Alley," it was stated.

CROWELL WILL GET OIL TEST

Drill To Go Down Soon On "Big Four" Ranch

Special to The Record News.

CROWELL, April 13.—Contract has been let by the Big Four company with Wiley Blair, A. C. Adkins, C. W. Clark of Wichita Falls for the drilling of an oil well near the old Bomar Ranch home, 15 miles southwest of Crowell. Drilling is to start within 60 days of the date of the contract.

Two wells are being drilled in Foard county about 20 miles west of Crowell at the present time by the Hunmble and Sun companies. Fuel for the drilling of the Humble well is coming from the Navarro Humble gas well which is located about a mile south of the drilling operations. The Humble well is said to be down about 2000 feet at the present time. The Sun well is about three miles north of the Humble.

Since January first, Foard county has received an income of approximately $200,000.00 from oil leases and royalties according to Tom Bell, vice-president of the Bank of Crowell and closely in touch with oil operations in Foard county. Leading companies with blocks in Foard county are: Marland, Roxana, Texas, Humble, California and Sun. A number of other major companies have checker-boarded the county with small blocks. The Marland has two blocks in Foard county comprising 20,000 acres; Texas Company has a 10,000 acre block in the southern part of the county; and the Roxana company has six to eight thousand acres in a block on the Halsell ranch. A great many other blocks have also been made in Foard county. J. M. McCluney and associates of St. Louis recently leased 12,000 acres of land in this section.

Three soil tests have been made by the Fain-McGahay Oil company, founders of the Fluhman field; on their leases 10 to 12 miles east of Crowell. The Fluhman field which is a heavy producer is located 24 miles east of Crowell.

Interest in Foard county oil operations has been shown by a number of large companies who are keeping over 100 people working out of Crowell in geological work all over this section. From all indications there will be many tests started within the next few months and the general opinion here is that Crowell has excellent prospects of becoming an oil center.

ELECTRA SOCIETY

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, April 12.—The Beaver Creek Home Demonstration club met Tuesday, April 5, at the home of Mrs. George B. Ancell Jr. The house was beautifully decorated with wild flowers. The subject of the lesson was "How to Shop and Know Your Household". The following subjects were discussed by Miss Ethel Louise Webb and others: Comparison of cotton and silk for dress material and underwear from a standpoint of economy and style; Advantages of ready-to-wear against home made garments; Making soles last longer; Demonstration of fabrics showing adulterations and tests for adulteration.

This being the last meeting in which Miss Ethel Louise Webb will take part in until after her return from Europe, there was a note of sadness over the assembly and yet all rejoiced in her winning the appointment in which she will be allowed a three month's vacation from the Home Demonstration club work of Wichita county. During that time she will visit foreign countries on a tour of pleasure and education to make a study of home economic conditions. She leaves in May.

A luncheon plate of sandwiches, muffins, orange jelly and coffee was served to the following: Mesdames F. W. Hamilton, Jap Keyes, M. L. Pinkerton, Ora Ackerman, Robinson, W. D. Guilherie, Scott, Richardson and Miss Webb.

Mrs. E. W. Hamilton will be hostess Tuesday, April 19th with "Becomingness of Dress" as the subject.

Central Council.

Mrs. M. B. Rohrer entertained the Central circle of the Baptist W. M. U. Monday afternoon with Mrs. John Brownlee the leader in charge. In the short business session, reports from the various committees were given and Mrs. Taylor reported the sum of $7.50 on the building fund. Mrs. Ben Twomey of West Roosevelt avenue will be hostess next week. There was a fine attendance and dainty refreshments were served at the conclusion of the evening.

Presbyterian Ladies.

The Presbyterian Auxiliary met in regular session at the church Monday afternoon with nine ladies and the pastor present. The meeting opened with a song, "Have Thine Own Way" and Dr. L. D. Grafton read the 138 Psalm, followed by a prayer. The election of officers was taken up with the following officers being elected: president, Mrs. E. R. Keller; vice-president, Mrs. Luther Tinnin; secretary, Mrs. R. A. Franklin; treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hembly; and press reporter, Mrs. E. F. Birk.

The auxiliary voted to purchase a hot plate for the church kitchen, and names of the Electrans of the Presbyterian faith in Electra were distributed among the members so that visits may be made before Easter.

North Circle.

The North circle of the First Baptist church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. Suttle, with a very interesting meeting being held. The meeting opened with the song, "Rock of Ages", and a prayer by the hostess, Mrs. Suttle, Mrs. F. W. Tubb leader of the circle conducted the scripture lesson from Hebrew, 11th and a short business session was taken up with plans being perfected for a linen shower to be sent the Buckner Orphans' home during the month of April. Dainty refreshments were served to Mesdames C. F. Birkhead, J. M. Brister, H. E. Miller, R. R. McClung, W. E. Reneau, J. L. Stephens, A. M. Tanner, Elsie Weaver, J. D. Suttle, J. T. Taylor, Willard Parsons, S. A. Mindermus, P. E. Griffin, F. W. Tubb and Mrs. Lewis.

Assembly Society.

The Methodist Missionary society met at the church Monday afternoon with O. A. Basham the president in charge. Mrs. S. E. Trevathan, district secretary of the Womans Work and Mrs. J. Brown Hopkins of Wichita Falls sang for the group. Mrs. L. J. Crawford read the scripture lesson, and Mrs. Trevathan conducted the opening prayer. Mrs. W. J. Sheldon made a very fine talk on "Moslem Women" and Mrs. Trevathan spoke to some length on last year's mission work and offered suggestions for the improvement of the 1927 work, also outlining plans for the entertainment of the District conference which will met in Electra on May 8.

Plans for the play which will be the "Flapper Grandmother" and presented by the society at the Waggoner Ward school April 26 was discussed. There were about forty present.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. Clyde Crass honored her small daughter, Marion Jean, with a birthday party Saturday afternoon, on the occasion of her second birthday. The little tots spent a most delightful afternoon playing games, with little Easter baskets being presented as favors and later delightful refreshments were served. Those present were, Margret Lou Bickley, Jean Campbell, Virginia Havens, Pat and Bruce Smith, Burton Dungan, Virginia Dee Wilbanks, Dona Jo Knowsler, Wilton, Ishmel and Geraldine Simms, Petty Jo Crass, Lorene Crass and the little honoree.

Club Organized.

The J. U. G. Sewing club composed of wives of the employes of the Rio Bravo Oil company, mainly who reside on the oil lease south of the city, organized a sewing club recently when they met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Brackeen on the lease. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. L. C. Neeak; first vice president, Mrs. Fred Walton; reporter, Mrs. Lois Hutchingson; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Tom Vandeventer.

The afternoon was spent most delightfully in playing games and contest with dainty refreshments being served to the following: Mesdames Elliott, Webster, Bissell, Hutchingson, Cawthorn, Hanks, Clayburn, Robinson, Moore, Walton, Vandeventer and Neeak, Brackeen, Alexander, Mrs. J. W. Alexander is musician of the club, and the next meeting will be held in two weeks by Mrs. Bruce Cawthorn.

Orchestra Receives Invitation.

The eighteen piece orchestra of the First Methodist Sunday school received an invitation to render a concert at the Sunday school hour on May 1 at the Altus, Okla., Methodist Sunday school. The entire orchestra, under the able direction of Professor Paul Smith, will go to Altus leaving early in the morning of May 1 and a large group of other members of the Sunday school are expected to go also.

Altus Sunday school and the Electra Sunday school have been in a contest for the past three months on attendance and offering and this contest closes Mothers' Day.

Debaters to Wichita Falls.

J. W. Hart and son, Jere, accompanied Miss Norma Hart and Miss Myrtle Russell and Miss Lettie Davis, debating instructor to Wichita Falls, Monday evening when the young ladies the representing won the county debating championship at Burkburnett, debated the team at the Wichita Junior college. This debate has no bearing on the interscholastic meet, to be held for the district when the young ladies hope to take first place, but is splendid practice for them in preparation for the district meet.

Young Women Circle.

The Young Women's Circle of the Baptist church met with Mrs. T. M. Myracle on the West pavement, Monday afternoon. Mrs. Al Gillum read the eighth chapter of Romans and Mrs. C. C. Cuthbam had charge of the book, "Stewardship and Missions." Plans were made for a bake sale, for the benefit of the circle to be held next Saturday at the R. P. Birk Grocery. Mrs. Herman Keesee will be hostess next week. There was a fine attendance.

East Circle.

The East Circle of the Baptist W. M. U. was entertained by Mrs. A. F. McCormick of North Electra Street, Monday afternoon with seven ladies present. The opening song was "Rock of Ages" and Mrs. John Freeman led the devotional from Acts 12th chapter. Mrs. McCormick led in prayer. A candy and pie sale is being planned to benefit the circle. Plans for the linen shower for the Buckners Orphanage was discussed. Those present were Mesdames John Freeman, W. J. Brown, J. N. Wrekow, Ed Miller, L. M. Owens, J. R. Ratcliffe and the hostess.

South Circle.

The South Circle of the Baptist W. M. U. met with Mrs. C. O. Roberts of East Summitt Avenue, Monday with Mrs. Lee Scoggins, leader of the devotional from the first epistle of Saint John. Mrs. T. W. Chenault led in prayer and plans were made for sending a linen shower to the Buckners Orphanage. Dainty refreshments were served to the ladies.

Artcela Delphian Society.

The Artcela chapter of the Delphian society met Friday afternoon, at the Kum-Jon-Us Sunday school class room at its first regular meeting with 14 members present. The aims and purpose of the Delphian was read by Mrs. George LeBus. After a short business session a very interesting program was given. Mrs. Dannis Dale had charge of the program with the following topics being discussed: "The Three Epochs of Prehistoric Life," by Mrs. H. H. Iman; "The Discovery of Fire," by Mrs. T. H. Easley; "Primitive Homes," by Mrs. W. C. Riker; "Development of Food Plants," by Mrs. A. Fisher; "Domestication of Animals," by Mrs. Dewey Doval; "Primitive Clothing," Miss Bonnie Jennings; "Art and Picture Writing," by Mrs. Mary Jowell; "The Religion of the Primitive Man," by Mrs. Ratcliffe. The next meeting will be held April 27.

Forty-Two Party.

A group of young people enjoyed a forty-two party at the home of Miss Dellia Mae Woods of East Harrison Monday evening. Two tables of forty-two were played with Hosey Graves winning the high score. Dainty refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games. Those attending were Misses Eloise Gafford the hostess; Mrs. Gafford and Mrs. Joe Woods; Messrs. Hosey Graves, Melvin Rogers, Frank and Henry Jullanson and Joe Woods.

BASS FOR LAKE

Crowell Preserve Will Be Stocked With Black Bass.

Special to The Record News.

CROWELL, April 13.—Crowell will receive a shipment of black bass fish for the city lake here as soon as this year's output is ready for distribution, according to communication received by Mayor George Self from Representative Marvin Jones. Mr. Jones has taken this matter up with the bureau of fisheries and has the assurance of the commissioner that this matter will be attended to, which will not be later than June and possibly the last of May.

Loss to the fisheries caused by high waters last summer prevented Crowell from receiving an earlier shipment. The Crowell lake has a few bass now but not enough to insure rapid stocking of it, but it will not be long after the shipment reaches here that there will be an abundance of fish in the lake.

SPELLING BEE

Old-Fashioned Contest Staged At Electra High School.

STUDENTS TO HEAR BARKER

Noted Rotary Lecturer To Speak At Olney

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, April 13.—The schedule of the lectures to be given next Tuesday by Dr. Charles E. Barker, noted speaker, has just been announced. Dr. Barker will deliver an address to the high school students on Tuesday morning a short address to the Rotary club at the regular luncheon meeting; a talk to the ladies of the community at three o'clock in the Palace theater; and an address to men in the evening at the Palace theater at eight o'clock.

Dr. Barker is a man of wide experience on the public platform, and from all reports his addresses are of such amazing and inspiring character that all who have had the opportunity to do so should hear him. In 1919 he so attracted the attention of the Rotary clubs at their annual convention with his great address on "A Father's Responsibility to His Son" that requests come to him from all quarters of Rotary to speak. Since then the Doctor has been devoting more and more of his time to the Rotary clubs until now all of it is devoted to them.

The local Rotary club is bringing Dr. Barker to Olney on this occasion, not only that the individual members of the club may have an opportunity of hearing him but that the entire community may enjoy the privilege.

SCHOOL PROGRAM

Frederick P. T. Association to Extend Its Scope.

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, April 13.—Officers of the county council of Parent Teachers association in the county, in session Saturday, determined on a definite program for the coming year.

A drive is to be made to secure a local P.-T. A. in every school district in the county. In addition to this, special emphasis will be placed on the necessity of standardizing every rural school in the county.

MEMORIAL LEFT

Graduates of 1927 to Honor Frederick School.

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, April 13.—Appropriate dedication cememonies marked unveiling of a beautiful memorial to be left to Frederick high school by the senior class of 1927.

Jack Kadane, president of the class, tendered three beautiful friezes, mounted in the auditorium above the stage, representing the scenes of "The Landing of Columbus," "Landing of the Pilgrims," and "Waashington Crossing the Delaware."

The token was costly, representing an investment of more than $300.

EX-PUNCHER REALIZES DREAM OF FLOWING GOLD ON RANCH

SKELLY OPENS NEW OIL POOL

No. 1 Shaffer Flow Natural At 80 Barrels Hourly

Special to The Record News.

AMARILLO, April 13.—Another dream has come true. The Skelly Oil company early Wednesday found oil on the Henry Schafer ranch, in eastern Carson county and thus opens a big oil area in that section of the Panhandle that some folks did not think looked good.

Skellys No. 1 Schafer, in section 198, block 3, of I and G. N. survey, had its first show of oil at 3,047 feet, and best pay in sandy lime from 3,310 to 3,147 feet and is estimated as flowing 80 barrels an hour natural.

Holds Entire Ranch.

The Skelly company has a mineral lease on the entire 13,000 acre Schafer ranch. Henry Schafer is now in France enjoying himself. It is his first trip abroad and was made after he had sold a 200-acre lease, the last of his lands to the Skelly company for $300,000.

The Schafer ranch is partly in Carson and Gray counties and it is an empire within itself.

Schafer was once employed at El Reno, in Oklahoma. Prohibition came on and closed his business. He came to the Panhandle and bought a ranch and returned to El Reno, putting his son-in-law, B. Miller to running it.

For a long time he has dreamed that oil would be found on his ranch, but only the Skelly geologists agreed with him until the Roxana pool was opened last fall in northern Carson.

FINANCE MERGER

NEW YORK, April 13, (AP)—Public financing in connection with the $20,000,000 merger of independent oil companies in California into the California Eastern Oil company will involve the sale next week of $7,500,000 first mortgage 6 1-2 per cent convertible gold bonds. Sponsors of the new company have privately subscribed to a junior issue of $5,000,000 five-year seven per cent convertible gold notes. Common stock will consist of 10,000,000 shares of no par value. The new company, built around the Julian Petroleum corporation, will hold nearly 38,000 acres of land in California, Montana, Texas and Colorado.

AT CONTRACT DEPTH.

J. E. McKanna and others No. 1 Collins, in section 2, block 13, of G. & M. survey, in Hartley county, are shut down at 3509 feet, contract depth. The elevation there is 3678 feet and it may be drilled deeper. This test is on a block the Marland Oil company farmed out.

News of The Fields

WOLF, DAUME

A. T. Wolf's No. 1 Daume, located in section 1, S. P. R. R. survey, near the Archer county line and in Wichita county, is swabbing between 150 and 200 barrels daily from sand at 1808-12 feet. This test extends the Shappell-Jackson pool approximately three quarters of a mile to the northwest.

BRIDWELL-HEYDRICK, GROVES

Bridwell and Heydrick Oil company has spudded in its No. 1 Groves, located 150 feet each way out of the northwest corner of section 1491, T. E. & L. survey, being eight miles east of Olney in Young county.

BURNS, TURBEVILLE

Lester T. Burns has completed his No. 7-E J. H. Turbeville, located in section 124, Robert Carson survey, Archer county, the well having swabbed at the rate of 500 barrels when drilled in. No. 8-E is drilling 300 feet east of No. 5-E.

FAIN-M'GAHA, CHAFIN

Fain McGaha Oil company is drilling below 700 feet and expects to hit the 900-foot sand within the next few days in No. 1 Chafin, a south offset to No. 1 Otto in Cooke county which opened a new pool there three weeks ago.

BRIDWELL-HEYDRICK, CRENSHAW

Bridwell and Heydrick Oil company's No. 1 Crenshaw, Montague county wildcat two miles north of Belcherville and in the William Wallace survey is drilling along at 1900 feet.

ATLANTIC, WILBARGER

Wilbarger county citizens who are following developments in Atlantic Oil Producing company's No. 1 Wilbarger county fee, located in the Day Land and Cattle company survey and in the Fluhman pool southwest of Vernon, are forced to undergo a bit of suspense in waiting for the test to enrich the county's coffers. The well topped a sand showing oil at 1475, drilled to 1479 and then entered a hard sand to 1487 feet. Tuesday the well was fishing for the swab. This well is on the west edge of the pool.

PANHANDLE, M'CLUSKEY

The Panhandle Oil and Refining company may find itself with a well of gusher proportions before the end of the week with its No. 17 McCleskey just 50 feet from the unparalelled Stovall deed sand at 3885 feet. The Panhandle's test is located one location south and across the river from Stovall's No. 1 fee which is now flowing approximately 1000 barrels daily after coming in at 1800 barrels on Christmas day. Stovall's No. 5 gauged 5320 barrels Tuesday.

BRIDWELL-HEYRDICK, WAGGONER

Bridwell and Heydrick have reached a depth of 2050 feet and are still drilling in their No. 1 W. T. Waggoner, located in section 3, H. & T. C. survey of northwest Archer county and on the west bank of the diversion lake.

Penn Crude Is Cut 25 Cents

Six Grades Of Pennsylvania and Keister Lowered

PITTSBURGH, April 13. (AP)—Six grades of Pennsylvania crude oil were cut 25 cents a barrel by purchasing agencies here today. Keister crude, in addition, was cut 15 cents to $1.10 a barrel.

The new prices of the other grades, each reduced 25 cents, are: Pennsylvania grade in New York Transit and Bradford district oil in National Transit lines, $2.90.

Pennsylvania grade in Eureka lines, $2.75.

Pennsylvania grade in Buckeye lines, $2.60.

ELECTRIC PUMPS

Empire Installs New Equipment In Panhandle.

AMARILLO, April 13. — The Empire Gas and Fuel company is installing electric pumping equipment on two of its producing properties in the South Hutchinson county area of the Panhandle field.

Equipment for pumping, swabbing and cleaning out wells on the Weatherly lease, in section 19, block Y, of M. & C. survey, has been installed and is being tested out.

Tests in Kansas and Oklahoma prove that the use of electric pumping equipment is more economical than to pump, swab and clean out wells with gas and steam engines. In the Oil City area of Kansas the Empire has used electricity successfully in drilling wells, but it has no plan so far to drill with electricity in the Panhandle.

FIVE MONTHS OLD

TULSA, April 13.—T. B. Slick's No. 1 in the northwest corner of the northeast of 35-9-6, the first well to be drilled by Slick in the Seminole field, was five months old yesterday, and is flowing 3400 barrels natural. This well has produced more than one million barrels of oil in five months. After it was drilled in it was agitated and its peak for one day was 10,863 barrels.

Production in the Greater Seminole pool yesterday was 320,216 barrels from 332 wells, an increase of 2000 barrels over the previous day.

Cotton--Stocks--Latest Market Quotations--Grain--Cattle

N. Y. Stocks

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—Frequent shifts of speculative sentiment imparted widespread irregularity to today's stock market, but the day's advantage again rested on the side of those working for higher prices. Industrials developed several new points of strength, but the leading rails lost ground, presumably on selling inspired by the falling off in car loadings. The bulk of the trading appeared professional in character.

Banks called about $5,000,000 or $10,000,000 in loans to prepare for mid-month demands, but the call money rate held steady at 4½ per cent. A reported slackening in the producton of and demand for steel wit hthe composite price of the finished product down to the lowest level since 1922, and another cut in Pennsylvania crude prices, undoubtedly induced some selling, but offerings generally were well absorbed.

Commercial Solvents B was again the outstanding individual feature. This stock sold as low as 223 this year and as low as 118¼ last year.

Among the many other industrials and specialties to reach new peak prices during the session were Air Reduction, American Sumatra Tobacco, Colorado Fuel, Columbia Gas, Corn Products, National Biscuit, National Dairy Products, Laclede Gas, Otis Steel preferred, Union Tank Car and Union Bag and Paper.

American Woolen preferred touched a new low at 51 and then rallied to 53¾. Electric Refrigeration made further recovery in reflection of the optimistic statement on business conditions by the head of the company. U. S. Steel common and General Motors made moderate gains. Oils turned heavy in the morning, but made good recovery later while an early burst of buying in the coppers quickly petered out. Vulcan Detinning issues were strong on odd lot buying.

Such recent strong spots n the rail group as Atchison, Chesapeake and Ohio and Illinois Central lost a point or more.

Amusement issues were run at the expense of an overcrowded short interest. Warner Brothers Pictures advanced nearly six points and Fox Film A two, but Pathe and Famous Players failed to maintain their early gains.

Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Establishment of another new high for several years by Italian lira just under 5 cents featured the strong foreign exchange market. Demand sterling ruled slightly higher around $4.85 5-16 and French francs held firm above 3.91 cents, while sharp advances again took place in Norwegian kroner and Spanish pesetas.

MARKET GOSSIP

J. H. Baldwin and Co., brokers, basement Bob Waggoner building, today received the following from New York, New Orleans and Chicago connections:

COTTON LETTER.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Cotton started a little higher on cables and heavy rains over Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Tennessee held the small advance until the afternoon when prices eased on selling by early local buyers. Market was very small. Exports 42,000 bales, the continues to mark time awaiting developments. There are open buying orders under the market for a very large total of contracts so any decline of consequence is unlikely. Chances favor higher prices should the weather continue favorable.

Stocks: While advances were numerous today, they were by no means general, but losses on the other hand were small. It was largely a specialty market. Commercial Solvent soared to a new high as did General Electric, Corn Products and a number of others. Rails were quiet. It is evident that any big break in seasoned high grade stocks is remote.

GRAIN LETTER.

Wheat: Opened somewhat firm this morning on the higher Liverpool market which closed to ⅝c up and due to further rans in west and southwest, but higher prices attracted commission house selling which continued during the early part of the session and had the appearance of being general liquidation. The May future showed more eweakness than the deferred and at one time sold about four over July. Crop advices continue generally favorable, but sentiment is affected by rains. Further comment was heard about unfavorable weather delaying seeding in our northwest and Canada. During the latter part of the session all futures firmed up quite sharply, with liberal short covering in evidence. Advices late stated that export sales as result of the early decline were airge and estimated at about 1,250,000 including winters, durums and Manitobas. Gulf premiums on hard wheat were firm, with offerings light. Our price as compared to Winnipeg and Liverpool is much more attractive with July wheat about 22 cents under Liverpool and May wheat about 18 to 19 cents under Liverpool, which leads to the belief that liberal quantities of our wheat will be taken on all declines from this level. We are inclined to feel that the recent decline in our prices and the better competitive basis that we are on suggests that purchases on decline for at least moderate turns might be advisable.

Corn: Heavy liquidation was in evidence again this morning with all futures selling at a new low. The May-July spread widened again as support in the former was lacking due to the continued slow demand for the cash. Buying against weakly and daily bids was an influence in bringing about a moderate rally. Cash interests were active in changing hedges from May to July, receipts are tight and probably will continue so, but eastern demand shows very little signs of improving. While we would hesitate about making sales on breaks, we feel consumptive demand must be urgent if market is to do better.

Oats: Some scattered liquidation was in evidence, but offerings seemed to be pretty well absorbed. Weather is somewhat better for farm work, but season is not an early one. A fair cash demand prevails.

Rye: Was affected by action of other grains, but offerings were well absorbed and some of the buying was said to be for seaboard interests. Export sales of around 200,000 bushels were reported as a result of the break. It appears that our rye would be wanted on all declines.

Provisions: Prices were lower, being affected by weakness in grains and due to scattered selling. Consumptive demand remains inactive.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, April 13, (AP)—After an opening spurt under the influence of western storms the cotton market settled to a close of steady, unchanged to four points down, with trading largely restricted to evening up for the triple Easter holiday.

The opening was 3 to 5 points up, although Liverpool cables were about as due and gains registered immediately after the call carried March up to 14.20, July to 14.47 and October to 14.62, or 5 to 6 points above the previous close.

Although the boll weevil emergence report was considered moderatly bullish, it exerted little influence on the market and realizing which set in during the early afternoon swept May down to 14.21, July to 14.39 and October to 14.54, 6 to 9 points below the highs and 2 to 4 points under the previous close.

The market hovered near the lows until the end and the close was near the bottom.

Exports were 45.823 bales.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, April 13, (AP)—An early advance on reports of unfavorable weather for farm work in the south, was followed by reactions in the cotton market today, July contracts selling off from 14.44 to 14.38 and closing at 14.40. The general market closed steady at unchanged prices, to a decline of one point.

The market opened steady at an advance of two to four points in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables and an unsettled weather map. Buying seemed to be promoted to some extent by bullish features in the weekly report of the weather bureau, while there also was comment on the report concerning boll weevil emergency to the effect that initial infestation might be heavier than last year at some points in the south.

May sold up to 14.24 and October to 14.72 on this buying, or about four to six points net higher, but demand was comparatively light, while the bulge seemed to meet a little southern selling, and realizing or liqudation. Prices later eased under a continuation of this selling, the market reaching the lowest figures of the day during the afternoon, when May sold at 14.18 and October at 14.65. The close was at approximately the lowest.

Private cables said the Liverpool market was steady on local and continental buying.

Exports for the day 42,823, making 8,205,159 so far this season. Port receipts 34,796. U. S. port stocks 2,266,956.

WHEAT HOLDS SHARP RALLY

Late Day Trading Boosts Grain Back Up

BY CHARLES J. LEYDEN, Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, April 13.—A marked rally in wheat prices took place in the latter part of the session today, following an early period of liquidation during which the May delivery dropped to a new low point for the season. May wheat recovered most of the early loss while the deferred deliveries closed at net gains for the day.

Corn was under pressure much of the day and new low prices were seen for Many and July deliveries. Oats regained early losses and closed steady to firm. Rye was irregular.

May wheat opened at $1.32⅝@1.32⅞, dropped to $1.30⅝ after a few interruptions then rallied to $1.32⅛ and closed at $1.32⅛@1.32⅛. July opened at $1.27⅞@1.28, declined to $1.26⅝, rallied to $1.28 and closed at $1.27⅞@1.28.

Reports of large export business stimulated buying late in the day and sales at the seaboard were reported at 2,000,000 bushels, including American and Canadian wheat. Liverpool wheat closed ⅛@⅜ pence higher. Buenos Aires closed unchanged.

Locally, wheat closed ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher, corn ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher, oats steady to ⅛c hgher and rye ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher.

Long May corn was dumped on the market freely and the price broke below 70c. Holders are discouraged by the faialure of important demand to develop for the cash corn in local elevators, of which the stock is very larfge. It is believed that there will be liberal deliveries of corn on May contracts as some of the elevators will probably not want to carry the grain any longer.

Liquidation of long oats was done freely early. Elevator interests took May and sold July oats at ⅛@⅛c difference.

Rye was affected by the action of wheat wheat with volume of trading rather light.

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW.

CHICAGO, April 13, (AP)—Big export buying of wheat rallied all grain today after wheat and corn had both fallen to low price records for the season. Difficulties of the Armour Grain company had a good deal to do with the temporary weakness of values. Wheat closed irregular, ⅛c net lower to an equal advance, corn unchanged to ⅛c down, oats unchanged to ⅛@⅛c up and provisions unchanged to 13c decline.

Aside from Armour complications corn was depressed by assertions that much acreage intended for oats and spring wheat may be used for corn. Oats developed comparative strength largely because of unfavorable weather and that fact that farm work over a wide area is now later than normal.

Provisions were responsive to downturns in the corn market and in cotton oil as well.

TEXAS CASH GRAIN.

FORT WORTH, April 13. (AP)—Wheat receipts were very much lighter Wednesday on the grain market. Demand showed some increase with mills exhibiting more interest in buying and several inquiries were received from mills that have not been buying for the past several weeks. Premiums are steady with firm tone.

Corn receipts much lighter with steady demand. Cash corn does not follow options down holding firm in face of decline and receipts and offers rather light.

Women Mechanics.

Cleveland women are not satisfied with merely owning and driving automobiles, but they are going in for the study of the mechanics of the cars as well. A twelve weeks course of instruction is open to them at a trade school of technology.

STOCKS CLOSE FOR RECOVERY

New Highs and Lows Set In Day's Trading

BY BROADAN WALL. Universal Service Financial Expert.

NE WYORK, April 13.—Stocks recovered toward the close today after a day of new high and low prices. New favorites were brought to the front and such stocks as Commercial Solvents, Philadelphia Reading Coal, Mack Trucks and Colorado Fuel were in persistent demand at higher levels. Power stocks were in the limelight under leadership of General Electric. Quiet prevailed in the railroad market. Oils were under additional pressure following a reduction in the price of Pennsylvania crude.

Money renewed at 4½ per cent. Italian lire sold at the best price in four years. Commodities were steady.

Commercial Solvents was the outstanding feature of strength. The stock jumped from an opening of 338⅛ to a high of 355 and closed near that figure. It is asserted that the stock will be split-up and put on a big dividend basis. Corn Products sold at the best price on the current move as the company owns a large block of Commercial Solvents and its own business is increasing, due to the prosperity throughout the country.

Fleischmann was strong. Since Fleischmann has become a Morgan stock it has started to discount its possibilities. The company is one of the largest manufacturers of pure alcohol, vinegar and other by-products. As the sale of yeast is understood to be increasing. The stock is believed to be in a way to sell higher. With Morgan management, the stock is thought to have the promise of a good market.

Activity developed in Public Utilities with a demand prevailing for General Electric and Columbia Gas. The latter is said to be in a position, because of its big treasury assets and earnings, to sell higher. Th ecompany has acquired in the last few years some valuable properties and are now said to be negotiating through the Morgan interests for the acquisition of additional concerns.

Philadelphia Reading Coal developed strength on buying attributed to the First National bank interests who, it is said, will shortly take over control of the company. The Baltimore and Ohio, it is estimated, owns approximately 300,000 shares of Philadelphia and Reading Coal shares and, it is understood, is negotiating for the sale of this stock. Reports current in Wall Street today were that the new Lackawanna securities corporation, controlled by the Lackawanna railroad, would acquire the Baltimore and Ohio's holdings. The First National group, in turn control the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western. Should the Baltimore and Ohio get $50 a share for its holdings of Philadelphia and Reading Coal, it would mean $15,000,000 for the treasury of the B. and O.

Victor Talking Machine preferred was higher. The issue is regarded as an investment stock. The common shows earnings of $10 a share, which places the preferred in a favorable position. Union Bag sold at a new peak for the year on its new process which will soon be put into use on an extensive scale.

Universal Pipe went off on selling attributed to the bears. This stock, it is understood, will be in the dividend class soon. Earnings are holding at a satisfactory rate and th ebears may find themselves in an uncomfortable position. The short interest in the market today is enormous. Every trader in every office stretching from New York to the Pacific coast is looking for "tops" and selling stock short.

Some of the biggest bears are the bootleggers in all parts of the country. One exchange firm recently told one of the governors of the stock exchange that he had ten customers short of stocks from 5000 to 50,000 shares.

Some brokers encourage short selling as they are enabled to do more business on less margin. One case in point was that of a Chicago firm hose customer went short 000 shares of Commercial Solvents, 60 points under the present market and is still short! His loss at today's high was $120,000.

Some of the pucture stocks were strong. Loew was up two points for the day. Developments are going on in the picture and Newsreel Field. There will be six news services and the largest will be the Hearst organization, which will issue two Newsreels—one, The International News, now being released through Universal and which is produced by the International Newsreel corporation, a Hearts corporation, and the second will be the M-G-M News, which will be produced by the Hearst News Service and released through the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer distributing corporation, which is owned by Loew. Loew will not make any comedies for Universal, it is learned. Universal has its own comedies and the comedies to be released through the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer company, a Loew corporation, will be made by Hal Roach.

POULTRY PLAY

Unusual Entertainment Staged At Elliott School.

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, April 13.—An enthusiastic audience of 500 people attended the poultry play shown at Elliott school Tuesday night under the auspices of the Electra Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture and the Farmers Elevator company. "The Lay of a Hen," a cleverly arranged comedy in four acts, pointed out five distinct ways of making poultry flocks pay better profits than before.

TEXAS LIVESTOCK.

FORT WORTH, April 13. (AP)—Beef cattle trade at Fort Worth Wednesday opened steady on heavy weight, fed cattle, and closed weak later on plain offerings. She stock and young slaughter stock moved early at satisfactory prices; calves active and showed strength. Mixed classes slow.

Beef cattle in three cars of better than 1100 pounds took $9.00 and other cattle of 1200 pounds took $8.85.

She stock on the early rounds took up to $6.50 for desirable beefy cows and this class took a spread of $5.75 to $6.25. Butcher cows and other slaughter grades of she stock were lacking in numbers, selling steady with the early portion of the week.

Good quality yearlings and heifers in car loads took $9.50.

Calves furnished a few light veals good enough to sell at $10.25 and a small number of heavies brought $9.00. Bulk of the run was of a plain sort selling active and unchanged.

The hog trade was as hesitant as at any other part of the week. No reports of sales had been made at 1 o'clock. Western markets reported trade as about steady with values ruling as at the close of Tuesday.

Sheep sold steady, wethers $9.00, genuine spring lambs $15.00. Fat goats at $4.50 were 50 cents lower.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Wichita County, Greetings:
You are hereby commanded to summon R. E. Nokes and H. O. Thomas by making publication of this citation once each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the 78th district court of Wichita county, to be holden at the court house thereof in Wichita Falls, on the first Monday in May, A. D. 1927, the same being the second day of May, A. D. 1927. Then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 21 day of Dec., A. D. 1927, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 19,282 wherein, Mand Keylon and J. W. Keylon are plaintiffs and R. E. Nokes, H. O. Thomas and O. L. McGill are defendants, and said petition alleging suit on vendors lien note in the amount of Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars dated Jan. 6th, 1926, and due monthly after date bearing interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum and given in part payment of the east 65 feet of the west 115 feet of lots number 29 and 30 of the Hinkley Addition to the city of Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Texas. Plaintiff prays for money judgment and for judgment foreclosing said vendor's lien according to law and for such other and proper relief.
Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this the 6th day of April, A. D. 1927.
EUNICE JACKSON, Clerk.
District Court, Wichita County, Texas.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.
Notice is hereby given that stock, fixtures and equipment of Gaspar Stationery company assigned to me for benefit of creditors is now for sale for cash and I am prepared to receive sealed bids for cash reserving the right to reject any and all bids. Stock, etc., may be seen at 813 Ohio Street, Wichita Falls, Texas.
J. RALPH SCHOOLFIELD.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
The undersigned, the trustees in the deed of trust executed by the Miller Petroleum company, a Delaware Corporation, dated as of July 1, 1925, duly recorded in Book 54, Page 169, Records of Deeds of Trust of Wichita County, Texas, at the request of the holders of all the outstanding bonds secured by said deed of trust, hereby give public notice that, default having been made in the payment of certain of the bonds and interest coupons secured by said deed of trust and described therein and in the performance of various of the conditions, covenants and agreements in said deed of trust contained, and all of the outstanding bonds secured by said deed of trust having been declared mature, due and payable, as provided in said deed of trust, and all requisite demands and notices having been made and given, they will offer for sale and sell at public vendue at the south front door of the County Court House in Wichita Falls, Wichita county, Texas, on Tuesday, May 3, A. D., 1927, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 3 o'clock p. m., to the highest bidder for cash, the following described property, to-wit:
The real estate and the refinery located thereon, together with all equipment, tanks, one cross-cracking unit and all machinery, in, about or connected with the said refinery, all located at Wichita Falls, Wichita county, Texas, said real estate being described as follows:
All that tract or parcel of land, with the buildings and improvements thereon erected, located in Wichita county, State of Texas, and more particularly described as follows:
Thirty (30) acres of land, being twenty-three (23) acres out of the southeast corner of the Donato Leona survey, and seven (7) acres out of the southwest corner of the S. L. B. Jasper survey, Wichita county, Texas, said tract being more particularly described by metes and bounds as follows:
Beginning at the southwest corner of said Jasper survey in the north line of the J. A. Scott survey Number Seventeen (17); thence east four hundred eighty-five (485) feet, to the west right-of-way line of the W. F. and N. W. Railway company; thence north ten degrees five minutes west with said right-of-way line, nine hundred (900) feet; thence west thirteen hundred and eighty-seven (1,387) feet; thence south eight hundred and sixty-four (864) feet, to the south line of the D. Leona survey; thence east with said south line, eleven hundred and fifty-two (1,152) feet, to the southeast corner of the D. Leona survey, and the southwest corner of the S. L. B. Jasper survey, the place of beginning.
Together with all buildings and improvements of every kind and character now upon the above described land and premises, including among other things boilers, engines, machinery, railway tracks, refining plants, stills, condensor boxes, pumps, tanks, tools, pipe, pipe lines and all other fixed equipment, and also all of the rights, members and appurtenances thereto belonging; and they are hereby giving thirty days public notice of the time, terms and place of said sale and the property to be sold.

14 TO ATTEND AUTO MEETING

Wichita Falls Seeks 1928 State Convention

Fourteen members of the Wichita Falls Automotive Dealers association will attend the annual convention of the Texas Automotive Dealers association in Dallas Thursday and Friday. A number of Wichita Falls dealers left Wednesday night for the meeting, while others will go to Dallas today.

The Wichita Falls association, one of the largest and most efficiently organized in the state, will make a determined bid for the 1928 state convention of Texas association.

400 Expected At "Love Feast"

Pre-Easter services which are being conducted every night this week by Dr. Floyd Allen Bash at the First Christian church will be continued until Friday evening, according to the announcement made Wednesday.

Perhaps the most impressive program of the special services will be Thursday night at the "Love Feast" to be held in the main auditorium of the church bufiding. All lights will be turned out except those in an electric cross which will burn over the communion table. Between 300 and 400 persons are expected at the service Thursday night, Dr. Bash said.

ROTARY LUNCH

J. Wilkie Talbert will be the main speaker at the Rotary luncheon Thursday at the Kemp hotel, when he will talk on "Business Methods."

A short musical program and sing-song has also been arranged for the meeting, according to Walter Curlee, chairman of the business methods committee.

OPTIMISTS TO GREET SPUDS

Rooters To Wear Painted Straws At Opener

New officers for the coming year, elected Wednesday at the Optimist club luncheon at the Kemp hotel will be installed in June, according to the announcement by S. R. Featherstone.

The officers are B. D. Sartin, president; J. Dell Bright, first vice-president; Thos. R. Glass, second vice-president; Bill Burke, third vice-president; Claude Miller, fourth vice-president; Jerry Schafer, sergeant-at-arms; Ira D. Brown, secretary; Clyde L. Murph, treasurer; Rev. Leslie Miller, chaplain; Will Fry Wear, Dr. J. D. Hall, and Bert King as board of governors.

Members of the "Night in Hawaii" entertainers that are appearing at the Olympic theater this week gave banjo numbers and several songs, and a sing-song was led by Joel MacGregor. Mr. MacGregor announced that the Optimistics would go in a body to the ball park Tuesday for the opening game, and each member would wear a brightly painted straw hat.

Claude Miller announced the concert to be given by Floyd Ard May 19.

UNIVERSITY CLUB

Abilene Lecturer and Reader To Speak Here Saturday.

Charles R. Brewer, of Abilene, head of the public speaking and expression department of the Abilene Christian college, will speak at the University club luncheon Saturday at the Kemp hotel. Mr. Brewer is an after dinner speaker, lecturer, reader, and impersonator.

The public has been invited to hear him, and a special musical program has been arranged by Mrs. J. S. Pitman, according to an announcement made Wednesday.

WITNESSES JAILED

Three Placed in Woman's Ward of Jail in Case Here.

Three witnesses in the caseof J. B. Criswell, Wichita Falls man under indictment on a statutory charge, were placed in the woman's ward of the county jail Wednesday afternoon.

The witnesses were incarcerated on attachments issued on a court order in 50th district court. District Attorney Allred said the attachments were issued as a precautionary measure.

Today { At the Theaters

By Ruth Morrison

Majestic: Five acts Interstate vaudeville; "Too Many Crooks," on the screen with Mildred Davis Lloyd; comedy and Pathe News.

Olympic: Richard Dix and Mary Brian in "Knockout Riley," "The Collegians," and Fox News.

Mission: "Bashful Buccaneer," starring Fred Howes, and comedy.

Gem: Fred Thompson in "Lone Hand Saunders," and Educational comedy.

Garden: "The Fighting Boob," and comedy.

Vaudeville fans may give vent to their exclamations of regret this week as fitting to the last vaudeville bill at the Majestic theater this season, which Thursday and Friday performances will conclude.

Robert Sparks, manager of the Majestic, has announced that his summer policy for the theater will be made known in a few days and that he is endeavoring to maintain his entertainment as the most interesting for Wichita Falls motion picture fans.

"Tiptoe Revue" will close the season as an excellent climax. A company of five possessing much versatility in song, dance and fun make this a revue that is crowned by scenic and staging qualities that are unusual and decidedly worthwhile.

The remaining four acts are composed of a comedian team, Cescia and Verdi, a delightful feminine musician, Miss Padula who sings and plays and is utterly different in her presentations; a country hick impersonator in a rural skit called "The Hick and the Chick" which is a very clever flirtation; and "The Seven Collegians" which is a musical comedy surprise. And you may depend that these seven campus cut-ups will offer an abundance of it.

Dix has an especially strong cast supporting him in this picture, the story of a young steel puddler who fights his way to ring fame at the instigation of a girl with whom he falls in love. Mary Brian but lately featured in "Beau Geste," is here featured as Mary Malone, cabaret entertainer whose brother Pat, is the dethroned pugilistic champion. Jack Renault, the well known boxer is cast as Killer Agerra the new champ, and the cause of the Dix troubles.

"Knockout Reilly," is a fast moving film with scene following on exciting scene. A pleasing love story motivates the action. Director St. Clair made judicious use of dramatic sidelights to sustain suspense. The picture is reputed to be one of the finest Dix has made to date.

FACES CHARGE

Electra Man Accused Of Stabbing Youth.

Accused of stabbing Ike Wallraven during a dance held near Electra Tuesday night, a charge of aggravated assault was filed Wednesday against Vascal Grady, oil field worker, in the county court at law.

The arresting officers were E. D. Pryor, Electra constable and A. D. Cooper, Electra policeman. Wallraven was stabbed in the back and legs.

High Winds and Burned-Over Range Spoils Big Wolf Chase at Newlin

Special to The Record News.

NEWPORT, April 13.—High winds and burned-over grounds disappointed 400 people who went to the Garner ranch Saturday night to witness the big wolf chase that was expected to be had by the Cross Timbers Wolf Hunters association at their April meet of the association. Seventy-five dogs were entered for the race and all efforts by the dogs to jump a trail and hold it for any length of time failed and the hounds were all called off at a late hour in the night and the hunters expressed regret at such hard luck and broke camp and went home.

A large number of young people from Shannon, Prospect, Buffalo Springs and Deer Grove communities enjoyed a party at the ranch home in connection with the hunters' meet at which a most delightful time was had until a late hour.

A feast was served by the hunters at sundown, along with more than 100 members and guests which consisted of hot coffee, bread, beef, pickles and onions.

Impressive Easter Pageant to Tell Story of Resurrection of Christ

Surpassing in elaborateness the Sunrise pageant sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance and Readers club last year on the bluffs just off the Seymour road, will be the Easter event Sunday morning, according to predictions made by those who have witnessed rehearsals.

Mayor R. E. Shepherd will be in charge. The story of the resurrection will be told in pantomime and the scene is laid in Joseph's garden. The Rev. Geider, junior pastor of the First Presbyterian church will introduce the characters, and at the conclusion of the pageant, a hallelujah chorus representing local churches and seated in the shape of a cross, the members wearing white costumes, will sing the Easter anthem, "Christ is Risen."

The characters will include: Angels, Mesdames Porter Oakes, Eugene Graham, Bernice Martin, Mary Brown and Martha Ellen Hines. Mary Magdalene, Miss Modina Howell; Salome, Dorothy Nolen; Mary, Mother of James, Mrs. Homer Karrenbrock; Mary, Mother of Jesus, Mrs. J. S. Shipley; soldiers, Homer Karrenbrock, George Snow and John Keevil; Peter, R. W. H. McCulloch, and John, DeWitt Early.

Mesdames E. F. Bohmfalk and Overton Abernathy are directing the pageant and Mesdames John Rhea and T. M. Conrey are in charge of the costumes. Miss Ella Mathis is property assistant and Mrs. E. W. Wade is chairman of music with Joel MacGregor, general director.

Renew Your Health By Purification

Any physician will tell you that "Perfect Purification of the System is Nature's Foundation of Perfect Health." Why not rid yourself of chronic ailments that are undermining your vitality? C-C DANCES

Committee May Double Number of Balls for Visitors.

Holding of six dances, instead of three, as originally planned, for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention was taken under consideration Wednesday at a meeting of the entertainment committee.

The exact locations of the dances have not yet been determined but it is anticipated that satisfactory arrangements will be made by the committee within the near future.

In the program announced for the convention a short time ago, three dances, at the Country club, Kemp hotel and convention tent, were programed. However, due to the expected large attendance at the convention the committee came to the conclusion that three dances would not be sufficient to accommodate the delegates and visitors.
