COURT ERRED, IS CLAIM OF DEFENSE PLEA

JUDGE SAID TO HAVE ERRED IN APPLYING CHARGE IN CASE

(By Associated Press) DALLAS, May 26.—A formal motion for a new trial for John W. Brady, former high court judge, was filed in Judge Charles A. Pippen's court here today.

Judge Pippen said he would act on the motion tomorrow. In the event the motion is overruled, Brady, sentenced to three years imprisonment for the slaying of Miss Leola Highsmith, stenographer, in Austin last November, would be entitled to bond. He has been in jail since the slaying.

One striking feature of the new trial motion is the part which claims Judge Pippen failed to apply the law of murder without malice to the facts of the case.

The defense also contends the court erred in not allowing the defendant to select the entire jury from a special venire.

FOURTH COMMENCEMENT OF COLLEGE HELD; DEAN WALTER WILLIAMS HEARD IN ADDRESS

MISSOURI PRESIDENT-ELECT GIVES AN INSPIRING TALK; HONORARY DEGREE IS CONFERRED ON AMON G. CARTER OF FORT WORTH

Inspired by the poignant message of Dean Walter Williams, president-elect of the University of Missouri, who characterized the seven marks of education, 105 students of Texas Technological college received degrees this morning at commencement exercises in the college gymnasium.

Seventy-eight are listed candidates for degrees in August, bringing the total of degrees to be awarded by the college for the year to 183.

The gray-haired veteran of many commencement exercises charmed the audience which filled the gymnasium as he, with forcible simplicity, portrayed the distinguishing qualities of an educated person.

Seven Marks Given Seven marks of an education, as outlined by Dean Williams, are: 1. Ability to express yourself clearly in written and spoken speech.

2. Power of thinking straight. 3. To do worthwhile things right. 4. The gift or power of imagination.

5. To live comfortably and helpfully with other people. 6. To realize the supremacy of the spiritual in a material age.

7. Having belief in and the practice of democracy.

Must Have Ability "If one has not the ability to make himself understood his scholastic training is of little value," said Dean Williams. "I do not have reference to the precision of English, but to the use of words presented in such manner as to be intelligible."

"Thinking," he continued, "should be straight and never deflected by non-essentials and irrationalities. It should never be a stagnant pool, but a living, fluid stream. One should concentrate on doing the worthwhile things right and at the proper time."

"Without the gift or power of imagination one's life is greatly impoverished," he said. "The college and its students are products of imagination. We are indeed indebted to the dreamers—those who see through and beyond the mere veil of facts."

Behaves as Barometer "One's behavior is a barometer of his education. The educated man is tolerant, broad visioned and possesses sympathetic understanding."

"A man's vision is larger than his grasp, else why heaven? One's education is not complete if he or she is concerned with the material things of life only. If faith (Turn to Page 7, Column 5, Please)

The current rookie crop in the major leagues has been unusually good, producing a number of young sluggers who have been showing their older players a few things about hitting the ball, but it has not been particularly rich in good pitchers. In fact it was something of an event yesterday when two of the younger generation of hurlers turned in good games on one afternoon.

Leroy Mahaffey of the Athletics, who has been tried out in the majors before but did not make the grade, was the one winner of the two. Making his first start for the world's champions, he turned back the New York Yankees in neat fashion, stopping their batting spree with a seven hit game to win, 10 to 3. Mahaffey, who came up this year from the Portland Pacific Coast league club, perhaps recognized a kindred soul in Dusty Cooke of the Yankees, for he allowed Cooke two hits, including a home run, which aided his average considerably.

Chagnon Beaten
Leon Chagnon of Pittsburgh pitched well in the second game of the Pirates double header, but he could not cope with the experience of his rival, Red Lucas, and the Cincinnati Reds broke their losing streak with a 4 to 3 victory. Lucas himself scored the winning run in the ninth inning. The Pirates gave Cincinnati its tenth straight defeat in the ten inning opener by a 6 to 5 score.

The rest of the day's pitching triumphs went to veterans of at least several years' standing. Adolfo Lopez, one of the sages of the National League, held the New York Giants to four hits in ten innings as Brooklyn won, 4 to 3, for its 19th victory out of 25 games in a winning streak that started when the Reds and Giants clashed in their last series. The Reds, however, found one rookie very useful. Gordon Slade, who celebrated his debut as a big league regular Saturday by hitting a home run his first time at bat, belted brilliantly to help Lopez in the pinches.

SLATON YOUTH TO RUN AT CHICAGO

SLATON, May 26.—John Slaton, of Slaton High school, has gone to Chicago to compete in the one mile run at the National Track and Field Meet, to be held in Chicago May 30 and 31.

Slaton won the state mile championship at Austin last year, and took second this year, time 4:41. His best record is 4:35. He is expected to be a strong contender for national honors at the Chicago meet, which will be held at the University of Chicago.

Slaton graduated from Slaton High school this year. He has been an outstanding figure in track throughout his four years of high school work. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Slaton, of this city.

Projected Battle of the National League's Strikeout Artists in the Remaining Game Yesterday turned into a slugfest match in which neither pitcher was able to hold his own. The Boston Red Sox, however, maintained their margin by fanning four men to Kook's three during the low innings which pitched St. Louis. He belted brilliantly by rallying for four runs in the seventh inning and a six to three victory.

The fourth National League game, between Philadelphia and Boston, was rained out.

Marchers, Lyons Victory

Fred Marberry and Ted Lyons held the huriling spotlight in the American League. Marberry gave the Boston Red Sox only three hits for a 5 to 0 shutout as Washington won its sixth straight game from Boston. Lyons pitched his sixth consecutive winning game for the Chicago White Sox, holding the Cleveland Indians to four hits while Chicago pounded out 14 to win, 9 to 1. He also achieved a record unequalled so far with his eighth victory in nine games.

Detroit and St. Louis provided the leading exception to the rule that pitchers had the upper hand for the day by driving out 25 hits between them as the Tigers won the game, 9 to 8. Detroit used two pitchers and St. Louis four.

Sudan's Population Shows 1,014 Total

SUDAN, May 26.—(Special)—Population of Sudan for the 1929 census was officially announced as 1,014, according to word received here from Owen M. Unger, supervisor at Khartoum.

There was no comparative figure because the town of Sudan was not a separate organization in 1929.

Local residents say that at the taking of the 1929 census, January of that year, there were living here 15 persons. As late as 1922 there were only 40 farms in this section.

With 111 players already entered in the tournament, local officials are assured of approximately 100 more Monday and the most successful event in the history of the association. Included in the 200 golfers will be the cream of the talent from the entire western section of the state.

Bussey Off Form

Clinton Bussey, 1929 W. T. G. A. champion, has been in Brownwood several days, practicing on the course over which he must defend his title. As a feature attraction on Sunday's program, Bussey and Dennis Lavender, of Abilene, former Texas Amateur champ and West Texas title, paired up in a special exhibition match against Ray Garrett and Frank Tabor, Brownwood and San Angelo professionals respectively. The pros won 1 up on the nineteenth green. Bussey was badly off form as his score of 80 indicated. Lavender took low ball honors with a 78.

All Brownwood players qualified Sunday. A total of 109 had paid entrance fees Sunday night with another 100 due Monday.

Match Play Starts Tuesday

Match play is scheduled to start Tuesday morning. The second round will be held Tuesday afternoon with the third and fourth rounds Wednesday. The 36-hole final match will be played Thursday.

ITALY'S ENTRIES IN INDIANAPOLIS SPEEDWAY CLASSIC HOLD ATTENTION; 113 MILES PER HOUR BEST TIME YET

JOHNSTON HAS HARD TIME IN BRITISH PLAY

AMERICAN CHAMP WINS FROM FAMED GOLF WRITER

(By Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, May 26.—Italy's entries in the annual 500-mile automobile race to be run here next Friday, held the attention of speedway fans today as they prepared to prove their eligibility to contest for a $10,000 purse.

Bacchi Borzacchini and Leterio P. Cucinotta placed their hopes in two flat, red colored cars of the same make, one powered by a 16-cylinder motor and the other by an 8-cylinder plant.

Most of the leading American drivers qualified their cars Saturday and Sunday, while the Italians tinkered with minor adjustments and got the feel of the track.

Borzacchini, with a 16-cylinder car that has hit the dizzy speed of 150 miles an hour, was conceded a chance to top the best time made to date in the trials—113 miles an hour. Billy Arnold, Chicago youngster, did that to win the pole position last Saturday. Neither Borzacchini nor Cucinotta, however, opened the throttle in practice spins, being content with 100 miles an hour speed.

Others to Qualify

Only Deacon Litt, Dave Evans, Babe Stapp and Wilbur Shaw of the American speedway stars, remained to qualify their cars. Some of them hoped to be out today, while motor problems threatened to hold up others until Tuesday or Wednesday.

Louie Meyer, 1928 and 1929 driving champion; Peter Depaolo whose record of 101.3 miles an hour for the local race has stood since 1925; Lou Moore, Tony Gulotta, Shorty Centerfield, featured with his speedy baserunning, pilfering four bases in all. On one occasion Brothers went from first to third on Scott's bent down the first base line.

Some Stayed At Home

The Lipperts, representing a Plainview business college, have been organized for just a short time. Several of the club's outstanding players were left at home, Manager Peters explained.

HARVARD HOST TO CONTESTS

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA IS FAVORED TO WIN TRACK TITLE

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 26.—Picked athletes of California's three major universities were headed toward the east today for the 54th track and field championships of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. to be held in Harvard Stadium, Boston, Friday and Saturday.

All calculations point to an overshadowing triumph for Dean Cromwell's powerful Southern California squad, a well rounded outfit that crushed Dink Templeton's Stanford Cardinals, another formidable array, 84-12 to 46-11-12, in a dual meet. Stanford has been installed as the expert choice for second place with the east's most of all Atlantic seaboard arrays, Harvard, Penn. Cornell or Yale.

SCOTT HOLDS HALE PLAYERS TO TWO HITS

LOCAL SLUGGERS POUND OUT 20 SAFETIES; GAME IS RIOT

Founding the ball to all corners of the orchard and running wild on the bases, Lubbock's sluggers smothered a hapless diamond aggregation from Plainview at Merrill Park Sunday afternoon beneath the topheavy score of 25 to 1.

The exhibition was little more than a batting practice for the locals and the entertainment furnished the local customers came in the order of the visitors' comical demonstration. Bombardment on the Plainview hurlers started in the first frame and lasted throughout the farce. In two innings, the home-ings batted around, reaching the high mark in their scoring spree in the sixth stanza when 12 runs crossed the rubber.

Scott In Great Form

Sam Scott, on the mound for Lubbock, held the visiting batsmen to two lone singles, one of which was a doubtful scratch. In five of the nine innings, the Lipperts were turned back in order. While the Puckett forces slammed out 20 base hits, many of their counters came as a result of a wobbly Plainview defense.

While Marshall, Young and Hodges led the batting assault for the winners, the entire Lubbock lineup took a hand in the rampage. Orville Brothers, flashy one-handed centerfielder, featured with his speedy baserunning, pilfering four bases in all. On one occasion Brothers went from first to third on Scott's bent down the first base line.

Some Stayed At Home

The Lipperts, representing a Plainview business college, have been organized for just a short time. Several of the club's outstanding players were left at home, Manager Peters explained.

Memphis Chicks In Lead In Southern

ATLANTA, GA., May 26.—(Special)—The Memphis Chickasaws were three games ahead in the Southern Association today. They completed the series with Birmingham yesterday by winning 9 to 3 and making it three out of four.

Mobile and Chattanooga split a double bill, the Bears shutting out the Lookouts in the first 9 to 0, and the Lookouts taking the second 6 to 2. Chapman, Mobile third baseman, hit for the circuit treble in the first game.

Four runs in the first frame seemed to inspire the Atlanta Crackers and they hit two Little Rock hurlers 13 times and won 7 to 6.

New Orleans defeated Nashville, 11 to 6.

SPUDS BACK ON TOP AGAIN AFTER LETUP

There were grave fears Friday night that the Wichita Falls Spudgers had shot their bolt and were headed for the rear, but Carl Williams' boys snapped out of it over the week-end, and today were even more firmly entrenched at the top of the Texas league standing.

After dropping three in a row to Fort Worth, the Spuds knocked the troublesome Shreveport Sports over in two attractions, yesterday, thanks to some extraordinary pinch hitting by Storti, the Oilers took the Louisianaans, 4 to 3 and 4 to 2.

THREE TWIN BILLS ARE DIVIDED SUNDAY IN TEXAS LEAGUE

(By Associated Press)

Fort Worth's winning streak was halted at six straight when Dallas captured the second game of a double header bill, 4 to 3, behind Grady Adkin's fine pitching. The Cals had taken the first 11 to 5, as Jimmy Walkup out-pitched a covey of Steer hurlers.

Beaumont split a pair with the Waco Cubs, dropping the first, 5 to 1, but winning the nightcap, 4 to 3, behind Walter Newman.

Houston strengthened its hold on second place over the week-end, dividing yesterday's double bill with the San Antonio Indians after having captured the opener Saturday, 6 to 1, but were scalped 5 to 7, in a wild hitting second game.

Thought For Today

"Politics"

Shortly after his campaign manager and eight of his workers had been arrested for alleged election irregularities, former Mayor William S. Fulton, of Gary, Ind., shot himself to death in the bedroom of his home. He left a note to his family, containing this significant message to his son:

"Bill, you have been a good boy. This care of mother, finish school and carry on, but don't get into politics."

It is that final admonition that makes one stop and think.

"Don't get into politics!" The last word to his son of a man who had been for 17 years. "Don't get into politics!"

There is a good deal of meaning in that bit of advice. It signifies the result of a trend that has long been apparent, but that we seldom have brought home to us so closely; the long, steady decline of politics from the honored place it used to hold.

A couple of generations ago, a political career was the goal of every ambitious young American. It was a highly honorable career; to be a senator, a mayor, a congressman or a governor carried a great deal of prestige, marked one as a man of exceptional talent, testified to one's ability and rectitude.

The result was that with few exceptions the best brains in the country turned to politics, and the public service was filled with the statements of a high order. There were men in high office, to be sure—no country was ever without them—but on the whole politics was the one profession for the energetic man who wanted to make his mark upon his time.

But now? The ambitious youngster, 20 to one, will look to business, to the law, to industry. Politics is in bad repute. The easiest way to get a reputation is to get into business, to ride the bicycle, to be a congressman or a mayor being caught in some law violation, nor are we surprised to find this Gary politician advising his son, "don't get into politics."

We have brought all of this on ourselves. Politics doesn't interest us as it used to. We devote all of our attention to other matters, and let the politicians do about as they like. We feel, broadly, that about as this Gary man evidently felt, that politics is no place for a fine, ambitious youngster.

Politics won't regain its old eminence, either, until the day comes when we make it our business to study questions earnestly, vote intelligently and demand 100 per cent performances from the men we elect to office.

Forest Fires

The opening of the automobile touring season brings Americans once more up against the growing menace of the forest fire, not because the tourist is ever menaced by forest fires, but because he so often starts them.

"Ninety-nine per cent of the forest fires now raging are caused by human carelessness," declares Charles Lathrop Pack, famous president of the American Tree Association.

"The touring season is at hand and millions are going into our forests this year. These forests are fast becoming the nation's playground, and the citizen who enjoys them must get the point of view that these forests are his forests and that he must exercise the same care with fire while in them that he does in his own home."

In 1929, 250,000 "foreign" cars carrying nearly a million people visited Montana. If a small percentage of this number is careless with fire, the result cannot be estimated. The terrific drain on our forest resources because of fire must be cut down to the point where lightning alone can be blamed.

If every motorist could take this warning to heart, the summer forest fire bill could be cut down very materially.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says most women will go through anything with a man—particularly a bank account.

THE PLAINSMAN is in receipt of a copy of the Christian Science Monitor, nationally circulated newspaper, which contains among its features a description of the Decorators' Studio, of Lubbock, the Monitor, official publication of Christian Scientists and known in the newspaper fraternity as a most excellent paper, gives the studio almost a column of space.

The efforts of Mrs. L. E. Hunt and Mrs. J. E. Vickers in building their studio to its present point of popularity are explained in the item, which bears a Fort Worth dateline. Through a lot of people are going to hear of Lubbock and learn of interests in this section. Many of them otherwise might never have run across either.

Incidentally, both Mesdames Vickers and Hunt have been residing in Lubbock for many years, both of them spending most of their lives in the city and vicinity. Before her marriage Mrs. Vickers, upon whose home property the studio is located, was Miss Elizabeth Jarrott, daughter of a pioneer West Texas ranch family. Mrs. Hunt was Miss Freda Spikes, also member of a well known and old-time family in this section.

To learn that home decoration and other forms of art are practiced in the "wide open spaces" doubtless came as a shock to many persons residing in other sections of the country and who believe all they see in the movies about Texas. The Monitor, by the way, is published in Boston where reside many people who have no conception of the Southwest other than that gleaned from the cinema and through novels.

L. H. Simpson, who at his home place at 1402 Avenue M always has a nice lawn, comes forth with some valuable suggestions if we can't get them over to those who need the counsel. Mr. Simpson points out that pedestrians and bicyclists play havoc with lawns if they aren't watched and urged that both take care in tracking across grass and flower plots.

"Pedestrians," says Mr. Simpson, "will cut corners. It seems like you can't get them on the walk, when they're being. They don't think of the havoc they wreck on the lawns which other people have worked to improve. They just tramp down without a thought."

All of which is true—and which presents a problem to the homeowner or homeowner who would make his property look to its best advantage. As for the bicycle riders, there's a city ordinance covering their activities on sidewalks and lawns alike. People having difficulties with boys who ride on the walks might remember that fact.

Heaven knows, beautiful, well-kept lawns are scarce enough in Lubbock. People who really work and spend their money to improve the looks of the city should be given a break by the rest of us. The least we can do is keep off the lawns and flower beds. Anybody can do that with very little trouble or penalty in time.

That Man on Avenue Q says when a lean, lanky girl inherits a fortune the newspapers describe her as tall and stately.

Then there's the story about the Scotchman who wanted some heavy underwear—so he put some weights on his bedstead.

They're telling a story about a Lubbock man and woman, passengers on one of the city buses. It seems that a buxom woman was standing in the aisle and hanging onto a seat-back, right next to a cranky looking man who was perusing his Daily Journal on the way home from work.

The car stopped suddenly and the fat woman trod sharply on the man's foot, which was protruding into the aisle.

He looked over his paper with anything but a happy expression and demanded:

"Madam, get off my foot!"

"Put your foot where it belongs," she retorted sharply, to which he answered with a sigh.

"Don't tempt me, Madam, don't tempt me!"

"Let me see something that has gone about 127,000 miles," said the Tech colleague to the man on the used lot. "I haven't time to break one in!"

In this day and time a win chicken just doesn't try to cross the road.

Hoover's Appointment Of Owen J. Roberts To Supreme Court Is Wise Move Politically, Rodney Dutcher Avers

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Writer
 WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Hoover displayed no further lack of political acumen when he came right back at the Senate with nomination of Owen Joseph Roberts as an associate justice of the supreme court.

Owen J. Roberts, newly appointed associate justice of the Supreme Court.

At any rate, there was much more political sagacity in the quick appointment of Roberts than there was in Mr. Hoover's original statement of intention after Parker's defeat by the margin of one vote.

Nothing Else to Do
 There simply wasn't anything Hoover could say after the Parker vote that would have done any good. Nevertheless, one understands the president was all set to give out a warm statement criticizing the state of affairs which permitted small minorities to stir up enough agitation and noise to block an important reorganization at the White House.

Such a statement surely would have stirred up organized labor men and negro leaders and started the Senate shooting at Mr. Hoover all over again.

So the president's advisers called him off and there was no statement about the Parker reorganization at all. Instead, he has very high regard for the masters way in which he generated the naval oil reserve.

The general impression is standing that he is one of the most unbiased, honest-to-goodness citizens on the premises.

One of the men here who knows him best—a liberal—says that on the supreme court Roberts would be much the same type of judge as Justice Harlan Elkes Stone. A between conservatives and liberals on the court, Stone is considered standing above in the middle between the consistently liberal Brandeis and Holmes and the consistently conservative Justices Hughes. Thus, there is likely to be quite a few decisions with Roberts dissenting—the old "five to four" lineup. Like Stone, Roberts may be regarded as intellectually honest and comparatively independent of prejudices.

Roberts has a reputation as a corporation lawyer, but men associated with him in the oil cases remember that he threw himself into the government's fight on Doherty and Sinclair with all the fervor that any lawyer ever put into a case. He unquestionably had the courage to play to the galleries and build himself up as a national figure, but ignored the opportunity which many men would have seized.

Pinchot Admires Him
 Liberals rather than conservatives will find consolation in the fact that Roberts was politically broad enough to support Gifford Pinchot when the latter first ran for governor of Pennsylvania and that after being elected Pinchot had such a high regard for his integrity and ability that he offered him the important post of attorney general in his administration. Roberts declined.

The certain amount of dry opposition to Roberts has intensely interesting possibilities, which probably won't materialize. The appointment appears to be more wet than dry in his personal sympathies, but the dry seem hardly likely to make a mass attack upon him for that reason. For one thing, the supreme court decisions have always been so overwhelmingly dry that the ap-

CONSULT A PHYSICIAN AND FOLLOW HIS DIET DOCTOR TELLS SUFFERER

DEAR DOCTOR: I've been good for a person who has trouble with ulcers of the stomach, or will it cause ill-effects? MRS. R.

All alcoholic drinks are strictly barred in ulcers. If there are, these things are also smoking; for these will cause a recurrence of symptoms. (And they may be a cause in the first place.)

You should be under the care of a physician who is giving you a diet to follow, Mrs. R.

Worried: There is no danger in the marriage of first cousins if there have been no congenital deformities, no epilepsy, certain insanities, deafness, or feeble-mindedness. If there are, these things are much more liable to crop out in the children of such marriages. This is the only danger.

Yes, you see, worried, you should study your ancestral trees very carefully before commencing such a union.

Dear Doctor: What should I do to reduce the fat from my shoulders? I have layers of fat on them that hang over. I have used your Tummy Ten, with good effect everywhere except my shoulders. MRS. B.

From your description, I think your trouble might be real fat tumors, or lipomas, and the only cure is surgical removal, Mrs. B.

Mrs. L.: I don't advise a reducing diet, which consists of only two or three articles of food, for more than three days to a week—unless it is a milk and orange juice diet, which may be taken for two or three weeks (but this should be under the supervision of a physician.) After this time, the diet should be full and varied, in order to get all the elements necessary for proper functioning and growth and repair.

If you send for the Peterizing pamphlet, you will get full instructions. See column rules for obtaining this.

Mrs. P.: The Z-Ray is used on certain types of tonsils, but you must see a physician in whom you have confidence, and abide by his decision.

Yes, it is all right to eat the so-called acid fruits with cereals. In fact, it's a delicious combination of anything nicer than cereal with ripe peaches and cream, do you?

Most acid-tasting fruits (with the exception of prunes, plums and cranberries) leave final alkaline reaction in the body, and the cereals would tend to neutralize this acid. (We need both kinds of food, but we should have a larger proportion of the alkaline-rich foods in the diet.)

We have an article on Balanced Diet which will help you to check up on your diet. See column rules for obtaining this.

Mrs. M.: Our pamphlet on Kidney and Bladder Disorders answers your question.

 Gilbert Swad

NEW YORK, May 26.—In mid-Forty-second street, where Broadway begins its gayest chapter, there's a shop which has become the American capital of "presto, change."

Here, when all the clan has gathered—which is almost any time of any day—you'll find millionaires and lawyers, doctors and small boys, magicians of professional and amateur standing.

If you stand by for a few hours, the chances are you'll decide that the world has gone just a bit mad. For in will come rushing some millionaire banker who draws a deck of cards from his trim business suit and shouts blithely: "Say, wait till you see this one!"

He's more pleased than if he had put over a million-dollar deal. "Yes, he's mastered a new card."

All about may be found bias and dyed-in-the-wool experts. They all drop in at Max Holden's shop to show off their latest achievements in legerdemain. Society folk and hobby-wearing professional men are the latest hangers-on.

Recently he has been furnishing nifty stunts for the choruses of music shows. One current show has a "handkerchief change" trick with which to baffle the audience in the course of their dance routine.

One of the most incurable pains, and one of the master tricksters, as well as Max Casdler, son of the millionaire soft drink magnate. It is recorded that Casdler jumps into his airplane and rides to Manhattan at regular intervals to pick up the best examples of mystification lying about the market.

The Society of American Magicians is made up almost entirely of well-to-do business men. Each year they gather at a dinner in some prominent hotel and try to outshine each other with some eye-teasing bit of magic.

The number of professional and non-professional magicians is not generally appreciated. Thus, while there are but a couple of dozens to be found on the professional stage there are more than a thousand who go about making private demonstrations, appearing in ballrooms at dinners and other gatherings.

One of Manhattan's outstanding "private citizens" who appears to take his magic seriously is none other than Professor John Mulholland of the Columbia University psychological staff. From the campus there have long drifted down tales of how the professor holds the attention of his students by coin palming and card disappearances. In many instances he is said to have used tricks to get psychological reactions from the classroom.

Just at a time when prize fighters are coming as large as mastodons, Jack Dempsey announces he will go to Africa to hunt big game.

Chicago bandits should be given credit for suppressing at least one racket. They held up a jazz orchestra the other day and seized all the instruments.

A newspaper editor writes seriously that Lindbergh should run for president. Perhaps his father-in-law will have something to say about that.

THANKS EXTENDED PAPERS FOR PUBLICITY ON CLEAN-UP AND PAINT-UP CAMPAIGN

The Plainsman, Avalanche-Journal Pub. Co.
 Dear Sir:

The General Steering Committee of the Clean Up and Paint Up campaign voted heartily and unanimously to extend to you and to the entire staff of the Avalanche-Journal its sincere appreciation for the valuable services which you rendered during this campaign in the matter of news stories and publicity which carried the message to the citizens of Lubbock.

They appreciate the fact that any and all demands which were made upon your time and space in your paper were kindly honored by you. This cooperation on your part was instrumental in giving the campaign just the necessary publicity that caused it to be popular and to be supported by a large proportion of the citizens of Lubbock.

We want you to know that we stand ready to cooperate with you at any and all times, and count it a pleasure to assist you in any way that you may desire our help.

Yours very truly,
 Clean Up and Paint Up Campaign
 W. B. ATKINS, Chairman.

Thaden, vice-president of the Pittsburgh Metal Airplane company, at the annual convention of the Society of Mechanical Engineers, aeronautics division, here Thursday.

The plane is being designed in the Rumpler works and actual construction is expected to start within a year.

FAMILY NEARLY WIPED OUT IN ONTARIO

OSHAWA, Ont., May 26 (AP)—Five members of a family met instant death today when the car in which they were returning from Montreal to their home in Hamilton was struck by a Canadian National Airways engine near Coburg, Ont.

In the car were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Johnston, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, Jr., Robert Johnston, 20, and the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, Jr., James, five, and Bobby, eighteen months. All were killed except Robert and James, James, who was in his mother's arms, was badly hurt. Robert jumped clear just before the crash.

DRIVER DIES FROM CRASH INJURIES

KANSAS CITY, May 26 (AP)—A contest for a first prize of $50,000 cost the life of Lewis Wolfe, 21, a year-old Kansas City racing car driver.

Wolfe died yesterday in an ambulance while en route to Kansas City after he was injured in a collision on a dirt track at Smithville, Mo., a suburb.

FIVE ARE KILLED AS TRAIN HITS CAR

BATAVIA, N. Y., May 26 (AP)—Kate and Eleanor Miller, sisters of Napoleon, Ind., were among three women and two men who were killed when their automobile was struck by a westbound New York Central train.

The other victims were Clarence Smith of Corfu, N. Y., driver; Samuel Miller, 17, Corfu, and Marie Miller, 21, of Clarence, N. Y.

D. N. Leaverton and son, contractors in charge of the erection of the Archer building at Sweetwater, have completed the structure.

DAILY MARKETS

STRENGTH IS GIVEN STOCKS

POOL OPERATIONS ARE RESUMED; GAINS OF LEADERS MADE

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP)—Recurrent strength in the pivotal industrial encouraged more general buying during early hours with high priced shares setting the pace.

Pool operations were resumed in mid fashion in several of the low priced stocks, and the list, in general, gave a better exhibition of all around strength than for some time.

Gains of from one to two points were registered by most of the stocks that lay claim to any activity, with larger improvement confined to the volatile issues.

Peoples Gas rose 12 1-2 points, Pere Marquette 8 3-4, Allied Chemical and Auburn Auto 6 each, J. I. Case owing partly to lower 3, and Eastman Kodak, Worthington pump, Johns Manville and Loews 3 to 4 points.

COTTON MAKES SLIGHT GAINS

OPENING IS EASY BUT RALLIES RECORDED ON TRADING

NEW ORLEANS, May 26 (AP)—Cotton opened somewhat easier today, but mainly to final liquidation of the May positions today being the last notice day that month in this market.

The circulation of final notices caused May to decline 16 points at the start and later months trading in sympathy. A little later May rallied and recovered all the loss, and the later months also recovered 5 to 9 points with July at 15.88, October at 14.66 and December at 14.74. At the end of the first hour the market was steady and at or near the high.

The market became somewhat firmer later owing to improvement in May, which advanced to 15.72, or 21 points above early lows due to stoppage of the final notices.

Later months advanced partly in sympathy with May but mainly, owing to a forecast for less favorable weather in the west, July traded to 15.90, up 11 points and October advanced to 14.77, up 17 points from the low. At midday the market was steady and only a few points under the high.

WEATHER INFLUENCE ON N. Y. TRADING

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 2 to 7 points under selling promoted by reports of generally favorable weather in the south over Sunday and relatively easy cables. Concern for the return of unsettled conditions for possible showers in Oklahoma served to check the selling.

After closing off to 16.15 for July and 14.90 for October, new contracts Oct. 14.62; Dec. 14.70; Jan. 14.73; March 14.88.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, May 26 (AP)—Cotton opened steady, July 15.72; Oct. 14.70; March 14.78; May 15.51; July 15.79; Oct. 14.61; Dec. 14.69.

FORT WORTH MAN PRAISES SECTION

"This is my first visit to the Plains, although I have been over other parts of Texas," W. Wiley Murrain, secretary of the Tarrant County Building and Loan association, said Saturday in discussing his tour of the Panhandle and South Plains. "I was certainly surprised at the size of Lubbock and the business I have seen here," he continued. "I find in these agricultural towns on the Plains, everywhere out in this great country in fact, wonderful crops. "Up around Plainview, where I was Saturday morning, they have very good prospects for a big wheat crop. Also over at Floydada and towns around there. We came by way of Wichita Falls and this country looks very much better to me than around Wichita Falls."

Mr. Murrain said business conditions in Fort Worth at this time are good but that he believed conditions in Lubbock and vicinity were looking better. With Mr. Murrain were his wife and W. H. Newsom, of the State Life Insurance company and Mrs. Newsom.
