Soil Stewardship Week Observed

In observance of Soil Stewardship week, members of the Mitchell County Soil Conservation District Board of Directors and area ministers made a tour of a number of county farms Thursday.

During their tour, the group observed the practices which are now being used on farms in the area to conserve the soil and water which are necessary to our lives.

On the Kent Carpenter farm, six miles northeast of Colorado City, the group was informed about a subsurface drainage system which can divert water into the areas of the farmland where it is needed most when the water table of any one specific area becomes too high.

They were also able to see the damage that too much water can do as they saw one field which had had several inches of soil washed away by the rain earlier in the week when four inches fell within an hour's time.

They visited the Anastacio Alvarez farm north of Loraine, and saw the effects of the conservation practice of cotton mulching in which cotton burrs are turned under or disked under the soil surface to increase fertility.

On the Gary Rich farm, northeast of Buford, the ministers and conservationists saw what that area farmer had done to prevent soil erosion and conserve water as far as the rebuilt terraces and terrace outlets which he had constructed.

At another farm southeast of Colorado City owned and operated by Guil Jones and Bunky Girvin, they saw range seeding and wildlife stripping being practiced.

The range seeding program turns marginal grassland back into adaptive grasses useful for grazing.

Wildlife stripping is a practice by which only certain parts of the brush in a pasture are stripped away and thus the wildlife in an area are encouraged to remain there and soil erosion is also prevented.

Merket was a district

winner in the sophomore class and Shaw was a district winner in the junior and senior class.

Budget Set For Board

The proposed 1979-80 budget for the Mitchell County Ambulance Service will be the main item on the agenda at the monthly meeting of the Mitchell County Hospital Board of Directors Tuesday night.

The budget which will go into effect on June 1 will have a proposed income of $70,220 and proposed expenses amounting to the same figure.

These figures are in comparison to the 1978-79 budget ending on May 31 which has a total estimated income of $61,411 and expense of $66,801 and will have a deficit of $5,390.

Bob Reilly, a member of the hospital board and ambulance board, stated that this $5,390 deficit has been taken off by a fund previously established by the ambulance board.

The main income and expense items in 1979-80 budget and their comparison figure in the 1978-79 budget are given as follows:

INCOME

--Operating income, local runs: 1979-80, $11,485; 1978-79, $11,485.

Operating income, long distance runs: 1979-80, $11,192; 1978-79, $11,192.

--Income supplement provided by city, county and hospital total, one-third each: 1979-80, $46,983; 1978-79, $38,820.

--Additional supplement provided by hospital: 1979-80, $9,951; 1978-79, $9,300.

--Included in the operating revenue for local runs is a 33 per cent reserve for bad debts for both year's budgets. A 50 percent reserve for bad debts for long distance runs is also included in the budget for both years.

Roy Nobles Dies In Accident

E. L. "Roy" Nobles, a longtime resident of Colorado City, was killed in a construction accident near Roby Wednesday when he was struck in the head with the scoop of a front end loader.

Nobles was working at a construction site on Texas 70 some nine-tenths mile from Roby, attempting to remove the lid of the ballast tank on a pneumatic roller. The driver of the front end loader, a Loraine resident, missed the brake and hit the accelerator according to a report from the Department of Public Safety.

Nobles was pronounced dead at 5:35 p.m. by Justice of the Peace Geneva Chandler of Roby.

Reflections

by Louise Taylor

Graduation is indeed a bitter-sweet time. It's a long-sought experience. Yet, with its coming there is a sadness—the ultimate realization that in this single event is the ending of one career and the beginning of another; the parting of old friends and the anticipation of new ones.

After twelve years, the Seniors of Colorado City, Loraine and Westbrook are ready to set new goals and directions for their lives. Many will choose to go to college or vocational school while others begin to seek job opportunities. It's a big world out there for them to conquer.

These young people are some of the finest I've ever known. They are bright, hardworking and conscientious young men and women. They have achieved much in their twelve years of learning and growing.

May I offer my Congratulations and Best Wishes and these thoughts from the pen of Max Ehrmann:

Taylor Presented With State Award

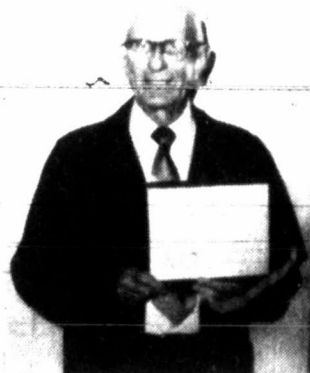

W.A. "Willie" Taylor, of Loraine, is the recipient of the State's Outstanding Award To Older Texans. These awards for distinctive leadership and outstanding service to Outstanding Older Texans is a cherished honor.

Taylor was presented with this reward recently at a regular serving day at the Mitchell County Nutritional Program Center in Loraine by Loraine Mayor Vance Dickson.

His recognition comes from his unselfish work and devotion to the cause of the older citizens of this community. He is president of the board of the Loraine Senior Citizens Inc., and chairman of the advisory council of the Mitchell County Nutritional Program in Loraine. He also serves as a member of the 19 county advisory council to the Area Agency On Aging Of The West Central Council Of Government.

At an age when many a person has put up his tools, Taylor is still up and at them. One thing his 70 years of life has taught him is, "You can not escape becoming a senior citizen if you live long enough, and things can be bleak if there isn't someone out there to give you a helping and loving hand when you do. I daily thank God that a program such as this exists and that a person like Mrs. Chris Kyker, who is director of the 19 county aging program, was selected to get it started. We of the older generation are finding that life is good again and even at 70 there is a lot of fire left in us."

Thank You

Rev. Bob Ford
Pastor
First United Methodist Church
Colorado City

So many times people get so busy in doing the 'busy work' of life that they do not stop to say 'Thank You' to those with whom they associate. So I want to take this time to say 'Thank You' to the people of Colorado City.

Four years ago my family and I came to be the pastoral family for First United Methodist Church in Colorado City. From the time that we agreed to come the people of our church have made us feel welcomed and loved. No family could have asked for the kind of support we have received from our church than we have received through the painful and joyful times. To the members of First United Methodist Church, THANK YOU!

One of the joys of the ministry is the fellowship of other pastors. That fellowship I have richly enjoyed. The churches of Colorado City are very fortunate in having the kind of pastoral leadership that, on the whole, works well together and enjoys one another. What a privilege to have been with such a group. THANK YOU!

God, in his wisdom, is hard to understand at times. In his wisdom he saw fit to send us to Colorado City and First United Methodist Church four years ago. What a blessing that has been for our family. Growth has come to us out of all our experiences here. So I must say, "THANK YOU, GOD" for your gift of sending us to First United Methodist Church and to Colorado City.

We will move to Midland on June 6, 1979 and Rev. Ron Hamby will become the pastor here. Ron and his family will be a good addition to First United Methodist Church and to Colorado City. So, THANK YOU, God, Bishop and District Superintendents for appointing Ron to this church and this town.

Peace,

Bob

Price of tickets is $3.50 per person and reservations may be made by phoning 728-3491 or by going by the Colorado City Opera House. The box office will be open Thursday, Friday and Monday from 1-5 p.m. and Tuesday through Saturday

The action in "Crown Matrimonial" revolves around the conflict within the royal family over King Edward VIII's (Duke of Windsor—commonly called David by the family), courtship of American divorcee Wallace Simpson.

The play takes place in the Queen's sitting room in Marlborough House in London, England. The time span covered in the play is from 1936-1945.

Those who remember the 1930's and followed the news accounts of the King's romance and his subsequent abdication from the throne so he could marry the woman he loved, will remember the drama as it unfolded at the time.

Characters in the Colorado City Playhouse production of "Crown Matrimonial" are:

—Bobbie Steakley as Queen Mary, queen consort of George V of England, mother of Kings Edward VIII and George VI.

—Casey Matlock as King Edward VIII, called David in the play as by his family in real life. Made Prince of Wales in 1911, became King of England in 1936 upon the death of his father. Later given the title Duke of Windsor. The oldest son of Queen Mary and George V.

—Walter Hearin in the role of Duke of York, Bertie in the play, who, upon Edward's abdication, became George VI. Husband of Elizabeth, father of Elizabeth II, current monarch of Great Britain.

—Trina Taylor as the Duchess of York, Elizabeth in the play, wife of Bertie, mother of Elizabeth II, present Queen Mother.

—Marion Craddock in the role of Princess Royal Mary, sister of King Edward VIII and King George VI.

—Addie V. Payne in the role of Countess of Airliie (Mabell), a good friend of Queen Mary.

—Roy Byrd in the role of Mr. Moncton, K. C., an advisor to the king.

—Katy Byrd in the role of Hon. Margaret Wyndham, the Queen's Lady in Waiting.

—Debbie Wall in the role of Duchess of Gloucester (Alice), wife of a younger brother of Kings Edward VIII and George VI.

This will be first appearance on the Colorado City stage for six members of the cast although several have been active in several aspects of other Colorado City Playhouse productions.

Mrs. Steakley, Mrs. Craddock and Womack have appeared in various other productions in leading and supporting roles and have received acclaim for their performances.

Producer for 1979 productions at Colorado City Opera House is Marsha Moore.

the Mitchell County Soil and Water Conservation District, those making the tour included: Rev. Jim Hill, First Christian Church; Rev. Monty Jones, All Saints Episcopal Church; Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, First Baptist Church; Rev. Roy Byrd, First Presbyterian Church; Rev. Monte Wike, First Assembly of God Church; Rev. Bob Ford, First Methodist Church; Rev. George Flores, Christian Temple Church; and Chris Hubbard, music director, First Baptist Church.

Soil Stewardship Week had its beginning more than 1,500 years ago when the people of an area of France which had experienced widespread crop failure were called up to observe a time of penance and prayer because of their needs. This practice of setting aside three days annually for this purpose caught on in the church.

In this country during the early part of the century a number of southern churches began to set aside a Sunday as gratitude for the resources provided by God and eventually this grew into a week long observance, beginning the fifth Sunday after Easter and continuing through the sixth.

In connection with Soil Stewardship Week, the Mitchell County Soil and Water Conservation District held its annual conservation awards banquet Friday. The banquet was a part of the weekly meeting of the Noon Lions Club of Colorado City and was held at the Civic Center.

Several area farmers were honored including:

—Odell Fuller, conservation farmer of the year.

—Hank Brown, absentee conservation farmer of the year.

—Herman Hurdsnurcher, wildlife conservationist of the year.

Brown was recently honored at the Texas Conservation Awards Banquet in San Angelo as a regional winner of the absentee conservation farmer award.

Eastman House is more bedding.

More Steel

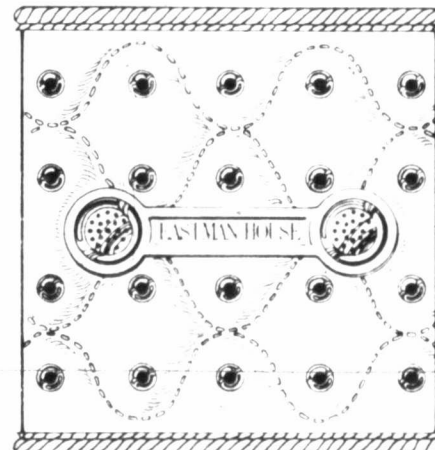

More steel in bedding means more comfort. In addition to 312 steel spring coils, we add a grid of woven steel to secure all vertical coils. Each coil is fastened to the grid, steel to steel.

More Cotton

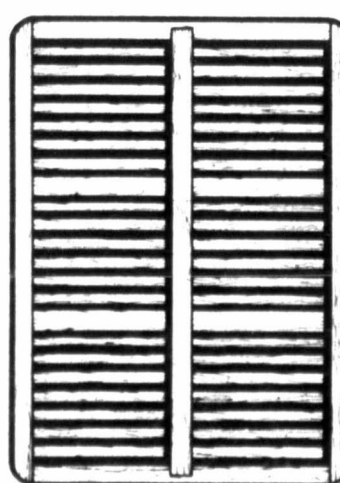

It takes real cotton to make a fine mattress. We use only premium cotton and make lumps. There are over 100 layers of this fine cotton to give you cradle-like comfort.

More Vents

If fine bedding is going to stay fine, it must breathe. Ours has as many as 520 border eyelets so that the interior continually gets fresh air as your weight moves on the surface.

More Wood

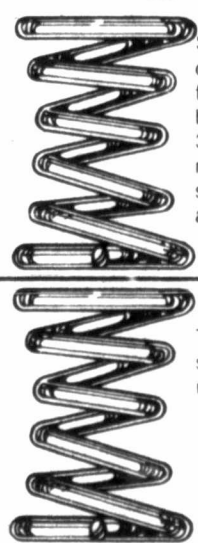

It takes strong wooden beams to make box springs last.

Ours have 24 slats of solid wood, one beneath each row of springs to give the support you need.

Our springs can't float or shift.

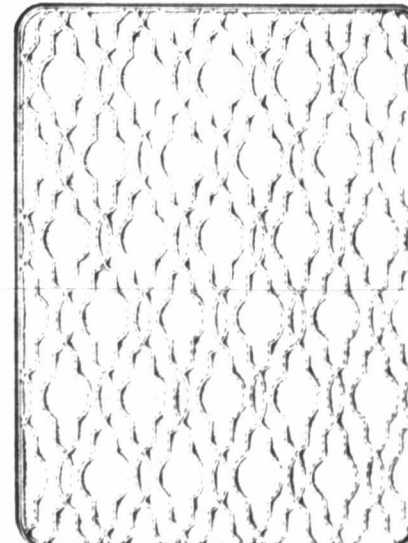

More Springs

Steel makes bedding lastingly comfortable. And our bedding gives you 312 steel coils to make your sleeping surface solid, even and comfortable.

There's a box spring under every mattress spring.

More Sleep

Eastman House is as good as bedding can be.

"Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth, nature, strength of spirit to shield you, and strive to be happy."

This is also the time of the year for summer activities, long awaited vacations, baseball, softball and hotdogs.

In our area, there are many bountiful places for summer fun. Ruddick park has a swimming pool, picnic facilities, swings for the children, and Lone Wolf Creek adds beauty to it all. Also in town, our museum is something to be proud of.

Two area lakes provides lots of fishing, boating and swimming plus camping facilities. They are Lake Colorado City and Lake Champion.

So if you don't want to take a chance on not finding gas for your vacation there are lots of activities in and around Colorado City.

For the farmer, it is a very busy time getting ready to plant, that is, if the rain came at the right time. There is planting of the crop, praying for rain, and working 24 hours a day fighting the weeds. He can neither neglect nor forget about all those nasty little insects that always seem to be around! When the cotton blooms, the first open bole, the first bale in, it seems to be worth it all.

Everyday is a busy day, summer, fall, winter, and spring! Have a nice summer!

Officers for the VFW are commander, Tommy Braten of Abilene; senior vice commander, J. A. Gilley of Brownwood; junior vice commander, Roy Butler of Eastland and chaplain, Tommy Richter of Stamford.

Officers for the Ladies Auxiliary are president, Shorty Ferguson of Brownwood; senior vice president, Dorothy Clark of Colorado City; junior vice president, Daisy Moore of Brownwood; chaplain, Barbara Gilley; guard, Nell Flower of Snyder; treasurer, Wanda Wombley of Sweetwater and trustees, Shirley Minyard of Snyder and Francis Clark of Abilene.

Daphne Moore of Sweetwater installed the officers.

Attending the meeting were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hardin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson, Fritz Mogford, Howard Massingill and Jimmy Bradley all of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Smithy and Mrs. Maqueline Self of Big Spring.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight street length dress of chiffon made with accented long sleeves and cuffed at the waist with a belt decked with small covered buttons. The bodice overlapped in front with emphasis on the gathered yoke at the shoulder. The skirt was circular with a satin lining underneath.

The bride carried out the traditional something old and borrowed by wearing the cross necklace her mother wore in her wedding forty one years ago. Something blue was her garter, and something new was her wedding dress and earrings, a gift from the groom.

Her bouquet was a nosegay of yellow and white daisies with a white orchid nestled in the center for her going away corsage.

Maid of honor was Miss Becky Sumnerlin of Weatherford. She was attired in a pale yellow terry velour A-line dress with cap sleeves and a boat neck. She carried a small nosegay of yellow and white daisies.

Best man was Adrian Charlton, brother of the groom, of Denton.

The brides parents hosted a reception in the dining room of their home.
