Firemen Hold Open House On Saturday

Wellington Volunteer Fire Department will hold its annual open house Saturday, October 11, from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m., Chief David Peters has announced. It will be at the Fire Station in Bura Handley Community Center.

This year, there is something special for boys and girls who come--a ride on the big red fire truck if they want it! A fireman will be the driver, and most members of the department will be present to explain fire-fighting equipment to visitors.

This event is a part of the observance of National Fire Prevention Week, and the public is invited to attend, Mr. Peters said.

Winners of the Fire Prevention Week poster contest will receive ribbons. This contest has been under way in the three elementary schools, Wellington, Quail, and Samnorwood, for more than a week, and within a day or two, judges will make their decision as to the best posters entered.

There are two categories in the poster contest, the first for children in first, second and third grades, and the other for those in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

The posters will be on display at the Fire Station.

City Approves 1975-76 Budget Of $372,170.00

The Wellington City Council in regular meeting Monday night October 6, passed without dissenting vote a $372,170 budget on which to operate for the 1975-76 year.

At the same time, they noted projected receipts of $405,687, which will give the city a balance of more than $30,000 for the year unless some unforeseen expense comes.

City Manager Glen Taylor pointed out Tuesday that after a check, it has been learned that Wellington is operating with one of the lowest per capita costs of any town in the area. Even if the entire receipts are spent, the cost of city government will

Business Law Class To Hold Mock Trial

Members of this year's Business Law class will participate in a mock trial in the County Courthouse at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, October 9, with judge Zook Thomas playing himself as the County Judge. The attorneys, Judge R.L. Templeton and Bill Spillman, will serve as prosecuting and defending attorneys. Texas Highway Patrol Driver's License Officer, Bill Ricks, will be the State's chief witness.

The mock trial is one in which the jury will decide if there is sufficient evidence to take away the driver's license of the defendant.

The defendant in this mock trial will be one of the class members, and the jury will also be chosen from the class. Class members include: Denise Archer, Jackie Black, George Brewer, Kim Cannon, Suzy Castleberry, Kay Coffee, Linda Coffee,

Greenbelt Bankers Hold Fall Banquet Here Oct. 16

The City State Bank and Wellington State Bank will jointly host the annual fall banquet of the Greenbelt Bankers Association Thursday, October 16, with representatives of 27 area banks expected.

Activities will begin with golf at Hay Camp Club, starting at 1:30 p.m. Carts and club facilities will be available to the visiting golfers.

Banquet registration will be in Bura Handley Community Building from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., when the western barbecue dinner with all the trimmings will be served, according to Billy Moseley, vice-president of City State Bank.

O.R. Stark, president of First National Bank, Quitaque, will preside.

Entertainment will be in the lighter vein. Ann Killingsworth of Kelton, humorist and popular after dinner speaker, is giving by request her hillbilly book review. In a folksy style, she will recount the happenings of a community of hill people.

Music by Roger and David Otwell, professional entertainers from Amarillo, will follow. Singing and playing popular music, they have been appearing at the Cross Timbers.

During the short business meeting, officers for the coming year will be elected and the spring banquet site will be chosen. Officers will

Judge C. C. Bishop Dies Here Monday

Judge C.C. Bishop, who served one of the longest tenures as county judge of any in the southeast Panhandle, died Monday, October 6, in Thomas Nursing Center, where he had been a resident three years. He was 77 years of age.

Judge Bishop established his law practice in Wellington in 1928, coming here from Abilene. He served two tenures as county judge each for several terms, and prior to that, he was Collingsworth County Attorney and Wellington City Attorney.

He retired from the judgeship January 1, 1967, to reenter the private practice of law.

A leader in First Baptist Church for 40 years, he was a long-time Sunday School teacher, and served on many committees which help to shape the course of his church and the religious life of the community.

For a long period, he was active in the Chamber of Commerce and he organized the Retail Merchants Associ-

To Spotlight Children in Trouble

A community workshop "How to Help a Kid," will be held in Wellington Friday, October 10, for those who work with youth or volunteers interested in working with boys and girls.

It will probe in depth ways to recognize a child in trouble and how to counsel with a child in trouble, according to Bob Watson, juvenile probation officer, who is heading arrangements.

Sponsored by Panhandle Regional Planning Commission, it will be held in the Heritage Room, beginning at 9:00 a.m. and lasting until 3:00 p.m., with a break for lunch.

The workshop will be conducted by Dr. Tom Cannon, Jr. associate professor of psychology, West Texas State University. He is also a consultant for Randall

Soil Conservation and Crop Variety Tour to Be Thursday

An overall superior farm operation, cotton, guar and sorghum variety tests, and a terracing system will be featured at the annual Collingsworth County Crop tour and field day, sponsored by the Extension Service and Soil Conservation Service.

The tour will be held Thursday, October 9, beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending with the traditional barbecue at Ellison Park.

Plans were announced jointly by Don Reeves, county agricultural agent, and Tommy Powel, SCS unit conservationist.

Only four stops are on this year's tour, so that more time can be spent at each. There will be an opportunity for visitors to ask questions and discuss the various projects with the specialists and owners.

The four stops are the John Brim Farm South of Wellington; Troy Gene Thomason farm immediately north of Wellington; Earl Lynn Bartlett farm at Cross Roads; and the Olan Farris Farm at Bean Hill.

Two will be at demonstrations carried out by the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration Program, under the direction of Tim Detweiler, farm demonstration assistant.

The remaining two stops are under the direction of Soil Conservation Service.

There will be three guest speakers, all from the Extension Service, Dr. Frank Peter, area agronomist from the District 1 office in Amarillo; Dr. Dale Lovelace, area agronomist from District 3, Vernon; and Paul Gross, District 1 agricultural agent.

The first visit will be at the John Brim farm south of Wellington on US 83. Mr. Powell will conduct the tour at this stop.

"Those on the tour will see the overall operation, with emphasis on bench leveling of fields, his bermuda grass pasture, and more or less how he handles his irrigation

Farm Bureau Barbecue To Draw 600 Saturday

The Collingsworth County Farm Bureau will hold its annual beef barbecue and business meeting Saturday, October 11, in Bura Handley Community Center, with approximately 600 members and their families attending.

Plans were announced by Jerry Scott, president.

Serving the barbecue will start at 6:00 p.m.

A film and explanation of the proposed state constitution, on which Texans will vote this fall, will be given by Steve Cochran, District One Farm Bureau field representative, from Aspermont.

Beginning immediately after the barbecue, about 7:00 p.m., this part of the program will be 15 to 20 minutes in length.

The three high school students who attended the FB youth seminar at Baylor University this summer will tell what the experience meant to them. These are David Null of Wellington, Kathy Guthrie of Quail and Bobby Myers of Samnorwood.

Mr. Scott will preside at the business session, when new officers will be elected and resolutions discussed and voted on.

Thirteen resolutions will be presented and others will be accepted from the floor.

Two of these on the county level have not been presented before, recommendations that caution lights be placed at all school zone

Skyrockets Travel To Wheeler Friday

During nearly a week of football glory such as Wellington has not known in probably 20 years, neither the Skyrockets nor their coaches lost sight of the game ahead--with Wheeler, another of the more experienced 2-A teams.

The teams meet Friday, October 10, at 7:30 p.m., in Mustang stadium.

"We don't have anything won and we have several more games ahead," declared Head Coach James Williams.

"They have a lot of kids returning from last year. This includes all their backfield except one boy and most of the line. They have quite a bit of experience and we're looking at them as a real tough team."

Wheeler runs out of the I formation or the pro set. Defensively they use a 5-man front and three linebackers.

Probably the outstanding Mustang is tackle Jim Burden, all-district from last year, who is 6'3" and weighs 230 pounds. Quarterback Don Brown does a good job running as does fullback David Massick, 185 pound junior.

They have pretty good size. This is the third week in a row we have had to get up for a game, but I think the kids realize how important each one is," Coach Williams commented.

Wheeler defeated Claude 25-22 in their meeting last week and presently stands fourth in season play, with two wins and two losses. However, the Mustangs have made fewer combined points than their opponents, 65-71.

Along with Wellington, Clarendon, and McLean, the Mustangs won their district opener, and of the four teams, came out with the largest score.

Two Skyrockets were

Linda Wolf Joins The Wellington Leader Staff

Linda Wolf, the wife of Lynn Wolf, has joined the staff of the Wellington Leader, Henry Wells, managing editor, announced.

Her duties will include phototypesetting and composition.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf and their small daughters, Lecia, 6, and Lindi, two, returned here recently from Arvada, Colorado, where he was on the staff of a youth camp which the church of Christ operates near Estes Park.

The former Linda Moore, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Thomason and graduated from Wellington High School in 1967. She also attended Clarendon College. She was employed by the Donley County Soil Conservation Service.

They were in Estelline two years, where he was on the school faculty, prior to his entering the ministry of the church of Christ. After a year at Cache, Oklahoma, they were in Tulsa, Okla., while he prepared for missionary work that took them to Cherryvale, Kansas, McKeesport, Penna., and

Leach Installed as Kiwanis President

Wellington Kiwanians installed veteran member Jake Leach as president in the annual banquet and installation of officers Tuesday evening, October 7.

He succeeds Bill Spillman, who a few minutes later received the Kiwanian of the Year Award.

Taking office with Mr. Leach were Gary Archer, first vice president; Don Reeves, second vice president; John Brown, who began his fifth term as secretary; and Jack Kennedy, treasurer.

New directors taking office were Sam Adams, Henry Wells, C.T. Hubbard, Kenneth Moore, Garner Altom, Wayne McClendon and Dr. Roy McNett. Mr. Adams was re-elected and Mr. Spillman becomes an ex-official board member.

WHS Report Cards Issued

Six weeks report cards for Wellington High School were issued Wednesday, October 8. Melvin Cardwell, high school principal, said this week.

The reports are for the first half of the first quarter under the new quarter system.

#10—continued from page 1 and planting methods," said Mr. Powell. Cotton and grain sorghum are on the bench leveled land, wheat on terraced land.

"We have people ask all the time how he does his operation. His farm is on Highway 83, and people watch what he does. He is an outstanding conservationist." Mr. Brim is a member of Salt Fork SCD board and a winner of the Save the Soil and Save Texas Outstanding Farmer award.

Mr. Reeves added: "Very few people have been to John Brim's house and really understand what that gentleman has done down there on that quarter section.

"He just doesn't lose any rainwater. I think that is one of the secrets to his success.

"Any time you handle dirt work, it's expensive, but I think Mr. Brim has proved it is profitable if you go about it right," he said of the bench leveling.

The group will return to the Troy Thomason farm immediately north of Wellington on First Street for a cotton and guar variety demonstration.

"These are strictly variety demonstrations, including new varieties of both cotton and guar," the county agent explained. "We are trying to see the varieties that may be adapted and give us more production in the county.

One of the cotton tests is a true experimental variety. Other varieties are ready for the market, and one is in its first year out. Mr. Gross will discuss the cotton test.

Dr. Lovelace will explain the guar demonstration.

"We are trying to find some more varieties that will be a little easier to combine-grow up off the ground more, and show increased production," said Mr. Reeves. "That's what we're looking for, but we don't know if we have it.

The grain sorghum variety demonstration on the Earl Lynn Bartlett farm at Cross Roads includes 14 varieties. This farm is on State Highway 203.

Only a few new varieties are included in this demonstration, but some of the others are new to this area, and again, it is increased production and disease and insect resistance that farmers are building tremendous interest in.

"None of these is greenbug resistant, but we have been promised some of those varieties for our demonstration next year," said the county agent.

Dr. Frank Peter will be the speaker at this stop.

The Olan Farris farm northeast of Wellington will be the final stop.

"Mr. Farris has grassed waterways that have been established several years, and a couple of kinds of terrace systems, both conventional and parallel graded terraces.

The terrace system is a little unusual in this area. Usually we do not have an outlet for the water to go into after it comes through the terrace system," Mr. Powell explained.

As in the past, the barbecue is hosted by Salt Fork Soil Conservation District, with Zebbies of Shamrock catering the meal.

The installing officer was Lt. Governor elect U.G. Berry, who spent part of his childhood in Collingsworth. Now the senior account executive for Westamerica Financial Corp., Amarillo, Mr. Berry recalled that he came to the Swearingin Community with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Berry, when he was one year old. He started to school there with Miss Maudie Coffee as his teacher. The family moved to Medina in 1936.

In presenting the Kiwanian of the Year Award, James Sullivan recalled his own entry into the Wellington Club, in 1937 or 38. The late Dr. J.W. Harper, whose office was next door to Sullivan Hardware, stopped by one day and said to Mr. Sullivan, "You've just joined the Kiwanis Club. We meet today at noon." There were only 7 members but those 7 maintained a consistent 100 per cent membership.

Recognition was given Miss Vikki Saunders, recording secretary and the club sweetheart, Denise Archer. A check for $400 was presented to Key Club, represented by Mr. Archer, sponsor for Kiwanis, George Brewer, president; and David Null, secretary.

Bill Spillman was master of ceremonies; Mack Saied, Jr. led the group singing and the Rev. Jim Boswell gave the invocation. Paul Spillman introduced the guests.

Attendance awards were presented: Millard Brown, one year; Pat McAlister and Garner Altom, 7; Mr. Leach, 12; Mr. Brown, 15; C.T. Hubbard, 17; Mr. Saied, 18; John Coleman, 21; and George Shadid, 27.

Guests included Kiwanians and their wives from Pampa, Amarillo and Shamrock.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Barjenbruch of Canyon visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Adams last weekend.

He was a veteran of World War I, a member of the American Legion and the Masonic Lodge.

Judge Bishop was born January 31, 1898, at Mangum, the son of the Rev. and Mrs. M.C. Bishop. His father served as a Baptist minister in the Greer County area.

He graduated from Caldwell High School in 1917, and received his degree from Hardin-Simmons University. He also attended Colorado State University.

First interested in education, Judge Bishop was superintendent of schools at Roaring Springs. He then entered the University of Texas Law School, where he received the LLB degree.

He practiced law in Abilene until coming here.

Fifty years after he was graduated from Hardin-Simmons, he was honored in special ceremonies held at the school.

When Texas celebrated the 100th anniversary of its independence in 1936, Judge Bishop was chairman of the panhandle District for the Texas Centennial Celebration.

A part of his love for education was his interest in writing. He published a number of books, among them "Churches", an account of the beliefs of the major denominations in the United States, and Centennial Stories, copies of which are in the archives of several major universities. He collected historical articles, some dating back to 1856-120 years.

He was married to Mrs. Iva Crosslan Love August 27, 1924, at Roaring Springs. She preceded him in death January 6, 1970.

Funeral services for Judge Bishop were conducted Wednesday, October 8, at 2:30 p.m. in First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Roy Collins officiating.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were Tom Wilkins, Cal Sugg, E.W. Clement, E.H. Harwell, Dr. J.M. Orr, Jimmie Cochran, Milburn Derryberry and Bobo Castleberry.

Judge Bishop is survived by a daughter, Mrs. H.C.

Christian of Ft. Worth; a brother, Albert Bishop of Lamesa; two sisters, Mrs. Coral Taylor and Mrs. Hiram Phillips of San Angelo. There are three grandchildren, Lt. Robert Christian, U.S. Navy, Woodbridge, Va. Mrs. Nancy Padian of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Karen Christian of Ft. Worth. There is also a great grandson, Joe Padian. A son, Burton Love, preceded him in death.

Mrs. Nita Brantley is a niece.

"We think they'll be ready Friday, but we're going to look at them more closely," said the coach.

In the event Tarver cannot play, Tony Martinez, with whom he alternated regularly, will go in on offense, and on defense it would be Arnie Ingram. Backing up Allred are Danny Morris and Ron Ingram.

Wellington Coaches will make no changes in the winning combination they have.

"I thought our kids had a great effort as a team," the head coach said of the Memphis game. "Memphis was picked to win district and we knew we had to win our first game to stay in the district.

"Our kids had played Childress the week before and had to get themselves up for the game, and I was concerned if they could do it again. But they didn't lose their poise, they played smart football and they won the game.

"It's really great to see people come out and get behind their team. It means a lot to the town to have a good football program and our kids appreciate the fact that our fans are with us. Some of them had never played before crowds like this and they were really excited."

Mrs. Nita White visited her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Tony White, over the weekend. They were in the process of moving from Dimmitt to Andrews and she assisted with the move.

On the state level, members will vote on bindweed control, promotion of cotton products and the equal rights amendment, and a recommendation that the schools teach basics and do away with frills in education.

New resolutions presented on the national level will recommend that organized labor not be allowed to dictate foreign policy, that salaries of Cotton Incorporated personnel be cut; that it be unlawful for a person to be publicly employed and forced to join a labor union; that there be no consumer production agency; that packers make cattle payments before they leave a feedlot; and that the use of natural fibers be encouraged to slow down the use of petrochemicals used to produce synthetic fibers.

Willie Knoll will again be in charge of barbecuing the beef, 1260 pounds of it.

Committees named to assist in the barbecue are:

Pit: Monty Mitchell, Albert Fulcher, Elmer Keller, Dee Coleman, and Guy Brandvik.

Cooks: Mr. Knoll, Sammy Motsenbocker, John Brim, Travis McGuire, Troy Gene Thomason, Frankie Green, Warren Merrell, Max Paschall, David Baumgardner, Alvin Horton and Dee Coleman.

Wood: Earl Patterson, Danny Davis, Doug Coleman, Jerry Scott, Ronnie Hartman, Virgil Patterson, Eddie Orr, Bob Cochran.

Chairs: Danny Davis and Jerry Scott.

Welcome committee:

Frank Campbell, Frank Coleman, Mr. Cochran and Ray Null.

Serving the barbecue will be Cliff Hartman, Dennis Lacy, N.E. Childers, Warren Merrell and Dan Guthrie.

Mr. Scott said that all volunteer help will be welcome.

Wellington JV Plays Wheeler Here Thursday

Wellington Junior Varsity will meet Wheeler B team at Powell Field Thursday, October 9, Coach Robert Hicks has reminded.

Fans should note the new game time, 7:30 p.m.

Little is known of the Wheeler B team here, but it is expected they will be improved over last year's squad, as the varsity is showing much more strength than for the 1975 season.

This game will be a double header, as the 8th Grade Firecrackers meet Wheeler at 6:00 p.m. Seventh Grade has an open date.

Former County Couple Have 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Wilson of Amarillo celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, October 5.

The reception was held in the couple's home from 2 to 5 p.m., and the event was hosted by their three daughters and eight grandchildren. The honorees children are Mrs. A.E. Barnhart and Mrs. Harold Green of Amarillo, and Mrs. Jay Brady of Las Vegas, Nev.

Mrs. Wilson is the former Alma Lorene Johnson, and she and Mr. Wilson were married on October 7, 1925 in Wellington.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson formerly farmed in the Salt Fork and Rolla communities, before moving to Dumas in 1945. Two years ago they moved to Amarillo to spend their retirement years.

Going from Wellington were five sisters, Mrs. Fred Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Hezze Jones, Mrs. Isla Morris and Mrs. Eunice Wilson.

The sixth sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs.

L.S. Riley of Pampa, were in attendance as were Kristi and Melissa Killian of Hollis, granddaughters of the Barney Glens.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson of Amarillo, the only living brother of Mr. Wilson also attended the anniversary celebration.

Mrs. Wilson's two brothers, Hollis Johnson of Dallas and R.B. Johnson of Fremont, Neb., were unable to attend the reception.

Mrs. Archie R. Super of Dallas has been a business visitor here recently. She is the sister of the late Miss Nola Beeks and niece of the late P.A. Mannahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bell had as guests Saturday afternoon Mrs. Bell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones of Tucson, Arizona. They had been to San Antonio to be with their son, who has been ill. Also with them was Mrs. Jones' sister, Jewell and her fiancée from Quanah, who they also had visited earlier.

Welcome to the Agricultural Tour

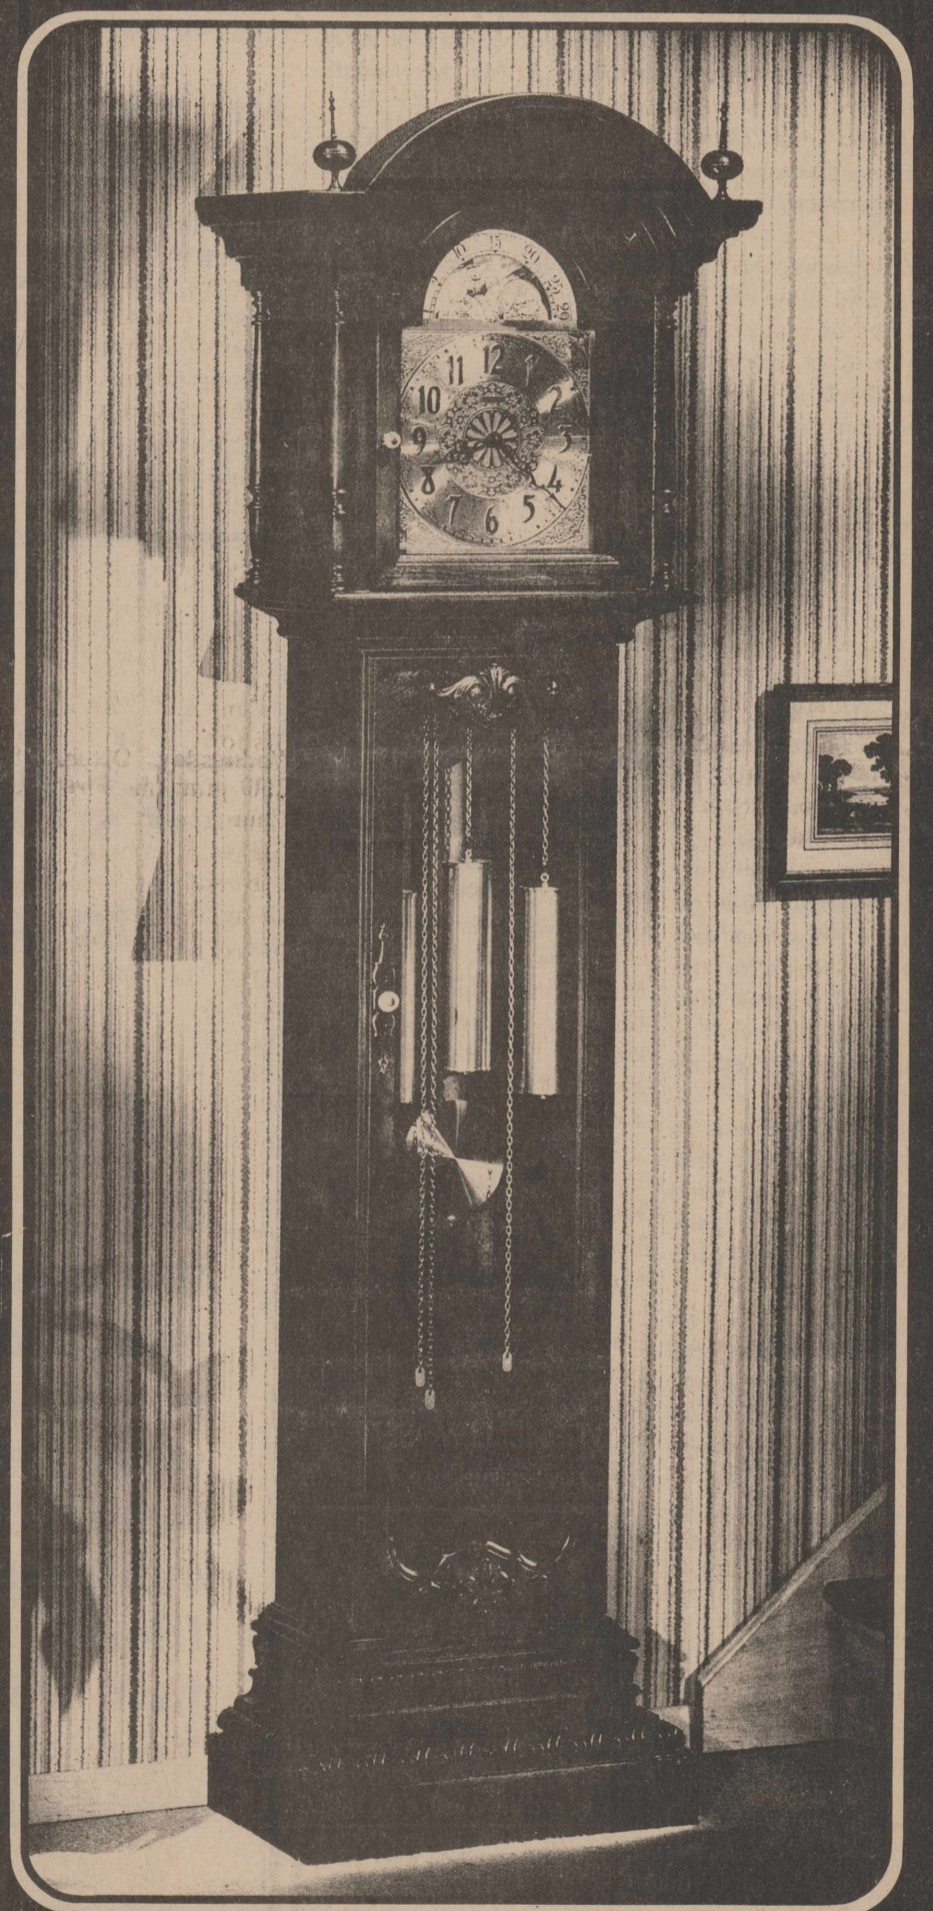

Never have grain and grass and cotton been so important to our economy, and the experimental work being done in Collingsworth County will benefit all of Texas.

We urge you to join the annual Farm Tour Thursday, October 9. You can see tests of grain sorghum varieties, cotton and guar demonstrations, bench leveling and grass waterways.

You will finish off the morning with a big free barbecue.

We heartily congratulate the Extension Service and Soil Conservation Service who are sponsoring the tour, as well as those who have given their land for the demonstrations.

Seniors are Debbie Simpson and Karen Lee, guards, Cindy Coleman and Ronnie Knoll, forwards.

Junior players are Ida Beth Stice, guard, and

Seventh Grade Downs Memphis 12-0 Thursday

Wellington seventh grade football team defeated the seventh grade from Memphis on home territory 12-0 Thursday afternoon, October 3.

The first touchdown was spectacular and came on the second series of plays. Tim Anderson took a pitchout, went around left end for 50 yards and the score. The try for extra points was no good.

It was a defensive battle until the fourth quarter, when Clint Bergvall blocked a punt deep in Memphis territory and Scotty Ingram covered the ball inside the Memphis 10 yard line.

Two plays later, Jody Coleman, on a quarterback sneak, went in from three yards out.

Wellington threatened again as time ran out. Coleman stepped back to pass, found all his receivers covered, and ran with the ball, but was stopped just short of the goal line. The game ended before Wellington could score.

Memphis, after losses to Childress and Quanah, had only 14 boys on the team and only once could they penetrate into Wellington territory.

"Our defense did a real fine job, and everytime the Memphis quarterback would hand off, we'd be on top of them," said Coach Ronny Glenn.

He had high praise for both the defense and offense and commented on their teamwork.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Kelso returned recently from a fishing trip to Port Aransas. They visited with the Claude Caisons and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harwell were also there.

Mable Bryant, forward.

The sophomore forward is DiAnna Schuab, while the guards are Tonya Kin-cannon, Donnie Knoll and Margaret Sanderson.

There are 6 lettermen among Coach Morris' 12 Eagles. Four of these are juniors and two sophomores.

The only senior on the team is Mark Thomas, a forward.

The juniors, all lettermen, include Robert Cruz, Clifford Oldham and Clinton Oldham, forwards and Gary Skinner, guard.

Both sophomore lettermen are guards, Ricky Bentley and Roger Lee. The other sophomore is Roger Sten-bridge, a forward.

The four freshmen include a forward, Mike Bentley, and three guards, Randy Breeding, Jody Knoll and Lowry Schaub.

Class B schools may practice basketball after school beginning October 1 and may have interschool scrimmages or games after October 15, Mr. Martindale said.

Class A, AA, and AAA schools may practice after school beginning October 15, and may have interschool scrimmages or games after November 15.

Visit Made Here After 29 Years

A former Wellington woman, now living in Houston recently made her first visit here in 29 years.

She is Mrs. W.R. Whitaker, who will be remembered as Hattie Mae Kersten. She brought her daughter, Mrs. Connie Finley, and granddaughter, Chrissy Finley.

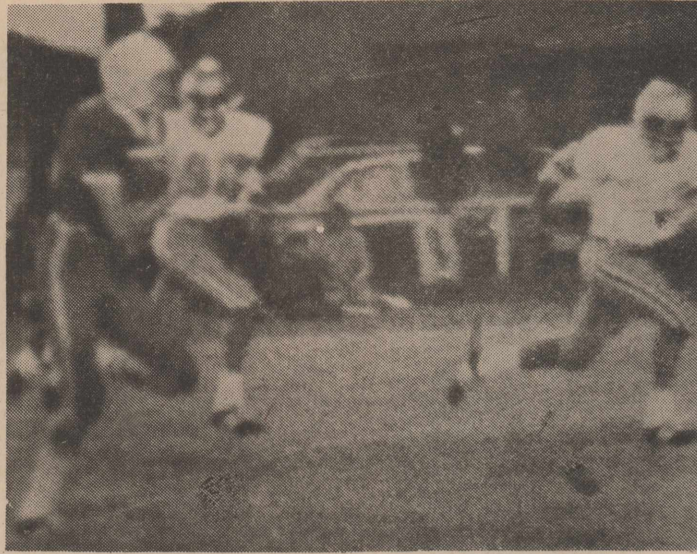

Mrs. Whitaker graduated from Wellington High School in 1946, and shortly after that moved from here.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Fred Kersten, now of Eugene, Oregon, and the late Mr. Kersten. She is also a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kersten.

Mrs. Whitaker spent part of her one-day stay seeing the changes that have been made in Wellington during this period that spans most of post-World War II years. She looked up a few friends.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Whitaker has three sons, Robert, a geology major at the University of Houston, Ralph, also of Houston, and Daryl, with the Navy in the Philippines.

Of the 7 children in the Fred Kersten family, Helen, who is Mrs. W.L. Gilbert, lives in Eugene Oregon; Merkie, Mrs. Harold Darby, in Coulee City, Washington; Ervin in Crescent Lake, Oregon; while Mrs. Whitaker, Roy Cecil and Fred Kersten, Jr., are in Houston.

Tremendous Rockets Take 23-6 Win Over Memphis

The Wellington Skyrockets knocked the wind out of the highly-rated Memphis Cyclones, 23-6, Friday, October 3, before a full house at Powell Field in the District 2-A opener.

The Rockets out-punted, out-passed, out-blocked, out-ran and out-tackled the Memphis team that some sportswriters and pollsters had (mistakenly) favored over Wellington.

The Rockets mounted three tremendous goal-line stands that stopped Memphis twice inside the Rocket 5 and once inside the one-yard line.

The Rockets first score came in a series in which they took control of the ball on the Cyclones 48 yard line. The Rockets picked up one first down on a great run by Dan Ford. Then George Brewer tried to pass and was caught for a long loss. The Rockets faced third and long yardage when Brewer found Shane Tarver and hit him with a pass and the quick footed Tarver out-ran and out-manuevered Memphis' defensive backfield into the end-zone and at 7:46 into the game the rockets led Memphis 6-0. Brewer faked and kept the ball around left end for the extra points and the Rockets led 8-0. It was going to be a long night for Memphis.

After the kickoff the Cyclones found themselves on their own 5 yard line and unable to move the ball. Memphis' Guy punted out of his own end zone and the Rockets took possession on the Memphis 23. On the first play from scrimmage Brewer faked right and ran left, and with some excellent blocking by the offensive line Brewer was in the end zone. Jessie Davis kicked the extra point and with just 2:36 left in the first quarter the Rockets blasted ahead of the Cyclones, 15-0.

After the kickoff the Rockets defense went to work and caused a fumble and the Rockets took possession on the Memphis 42. With the excellent running of Arnie Ingram, Jessie Davis, Richard Sims and George Darton and the passing of Brewer to Edward Thomas, the Rockets moved the ball downfield to the Memphis' 6 yard line. But the Rockets fumbled and Memphis recovered the ball on the one foot line. Eventually Cyclones' Guy had to punt from his end zone again.

After an exchange of punts, the Cyclones faced third and long yardage when Memphis' Bryley broke 50 yards through the middle to the Rocket 35, where Shane Tarver made a saving tackle. A late hit by a Rocket defender gave another 15 yards to the Cyclones and the Memphis bunch found themselves on the Wellington 20 yard line. The Cyclones picked up a first down and it seemed they were on the move. They found themselves faced with fourth and goal with just inches. The Cyclones went for the T.D. but the strong and fast reaction of the Rocket defense stopped them at the one foot line.

After a punt the Cyclones took possession of the ball with 33 seconds left in the half. Joe Baumgardner tackled the Memphis quarterback while he was passing, Cliff Pennon intercepted the pass, and the Rockets went in at half-time with a 15-0 lead.

The 3rd quarter saw the excellent defensive play of Randall Maxwell and Baumgardner and Davis, who caught the quarter-back of Memphis behind the line of scrimmage, leaving the Cyclones facing fourth and long yardage. The Cyclones punted to Arnie Ingram who caught the ball on the run and almost broke away. The Rockets made a nice drive down the field from their own 36 to the Cyclone 3 where the Rockets faced fourth and inches.

The Rocket offensive line held the Memphis Cyclones' back long enough for Brewer to deliver a quick pass over the middle to Tarver and the Rockets went ahead 21-0.

On the extra point attempt George Brewer tried a pass to Dan Ford but the ball was deflected into the air. Rocket Tony Martinez was also in the end zone, though, and he snatched the ball out of the air to complete the two-point conversion. The Rockets led 23-0.

In the fourth quarter Memphis' Pedro Salinas intercepted a pass from George Brewer and the Cyclones moved the ball from their own 35 to inside the Rocket 10. But the Rocket defense stood fast again and Wellington took possession.

The Rocket defense led by Martinez, Maxwell, David Null, Don Allred and Thomas kept the Memphis Cyclones bottled up the rest of the night with one exception. With 7:19 left in the game the Cyclones called a reverse and 9.9 sprinter Spruill took the ball in for Memphis' only score. The two point conversion failed and the score remained 23-6.

The final highlight of the game came after Memphis' Bryley intercepted a half-back pass from Richard Sims. On the next Memphis play Sims took revenge by intercepting a pass thrown by the Memphis quarter-back.

Long Beach Couple Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gollighugh of Long Beach, California are visiting her mother, Mrs. C.S. Needham, and her brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Needham, this week.

They attended the Wellington - Memphis football game last Friday night and were most enthusiastic about the Skyrockets.

They visited the Collingsworth County Museum and in looking through the old editions of the Wellington Leader noticed a 4-H news item which mentioned Mrs. Gollighugh and her two sisters' participation in the club.

The couple are visiting numerous relatives and friends in Wellington and the Quail area.

Mrs. Sims At Meeting

Mrs. B.M. Sims will be a guest speaker this week end at the board meeting of the Mesquite District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held in Anson.

She will be accompanied by Mrs. Sam Adams.

Mrs. John Berry of Clyde, Mesquite district president, will preside at the meeting, and another guest speaker will be Kathryn Duff, staff member of the Abilene Reporter-News.

The district federation theme will be "Circles of Friendship," and Mrs. Sims' talk will coordinate with this. She will use visual aids to emphasize pertinent points.

As third vice-president of the Texas Federation, Mrs. Sims serves as membership chairman, and her talk will stress this theme.

Excelsior Club Hears of the Abstract Artist, Kandinsky

Excelsior Club, which met Thursday, November 2, in the Greenbelt Directors Room, this year is continuing its study of art and artists.

Hostess for the meeting was Miss Bonnie Willis, who also gave a paper on the Russian abstractionist, Wassily Kandinsky.

Kandinsky was born in Moscow in 1866, and died in Paris in 1944. He studied political economy and law, but when he was 23, he visited Paris for the first time and seven years later he gave up his career to go to Munich to study painting. Miss Willis told the group.

"In 1910 he produced his purely abstract canvas—a vivid explosion of disjointed, unrelated and entirely non-realistic color-shapes," she continued.

He had arrived at this, he said, in two ways: One day the variegated colored spots of a woman's dress suddenly suggested the esthetic possibilities of color alone creating form without help from any realistic shapes; about this time, also, leaning against the wall a canvas that had no recognizable meaning or shapes but was beautiful in color-form alone. He soon realized that when he had left the studio the night before, he had inadvertently set the canvas, a landscape, upside down against the wall.

"From then on, he improved in color and abstract form, likening his art to music and developing the theory that by abandoning all imitation of visual nature and material reality, painting could come nearer to expressing the inner reality of the soul.

"With mystical fervor he both painted and spoke his new doctrine. In a remarkably short time he attained international fame. His book, 'The Art of Spiritual Harmony' was translated into English by Sadler, who wrote in his foreword, 'Kandinsky is painting music...he has broken down the barrier between music and painting and has isolated the emotion.'"

"This was and is the effect of Kandinsky's paintings not alone on the esthetically aware but on people with no knowledge of art and little appreciation of it. They are not confused or angered by the breaking up, distortion or falsifying of things they know as real. Entirely free

Banquet Held September 27

A Back-to-school Banquet for the high school and junior high young people of the church of Christ was held Saturday, September 27 in the Heritage Room.

H.K. Ballard, the youth director, was the master of ceremony. Min. John Edmerson of Chickasha, Oklahoma was the guest speaker. The theme of his address was "Commitment"

Pictures were shown of the young peoples' early childhood. Approximately forty-five guests attended the banquet.

The ladies of the congregation prepared the food.

MYF Attends SMU Game

The first United Methodist MYF attend the SMU-West Virginia football game at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas Saturday, October 4.

This is an annual event at which SMU invited the MYF groups to attend the game as their guests, and many many groups took advantage of the invitation this year.

The local MYF group left Childress by bus early Saturday morning and attended the football game and the from reality, Kandinsky's painting did not take liberties with it. And there was no need to search for—and be baffled by not finding—its meaning. It obviously had no more meaning than a summer's day or thrill of a meadow lark, though Kandinsky's painting is always much more dynamic than either. It falls upon the eye like stirring sound and magnificent chords upon the ear." Until 1921, modern art was not only permitted, but encouraged to flourish in Russia. Then the cultural climate changed abruptly, and Kandinsky returned to Germany.

Members present were Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, Mrs. J.F. Michael, Miss Rama Camp, Miss Dorothy Robertson, Miss Marie Shadid, Miss Rose Shadid, Mrs. Lowell Wells, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Miss Willis, Mrs. Russell Yates and Miss Sue Parker.

42 Club Meets Oct. 1

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Wood and Mrs. Buster Hughes were hosts for a forty-two club meeting Saturday evening, October 1 in the Heritage Room. The group enjoyed a buffet dinner and played forty-two afterward.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Belew, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Depauw, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keller, Mr. and Mrs. John Eron Forbis, the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Hughes and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Barton and Luther Sullivan.

Lydia-Esther Groups Meet

The Lydia-Esther Groups of United Methodist Women held a joint meeting Friday morning, October 3, to conclude their three-part study, "Decision for Destiny."

Mrs. Robert Karnes presented the study of the prophet Jeremiah. He was known as the Prophet of Doom, she pointed out, for all his prophecies were aimed at the evils of the people and foretold the fall of Jerusalem.

Mrs. Earl Alexander, giving the second part, recounted the actual fall of Jerusalem about 586 B.C., and the cruelties meted out to the people by their captors, and the blinding and imprisonment of King Zedekiah.

Mrs. Cecil Masten gave the study of Isaiah, whose prophecies related to the well-being of the people of Israel, including the foretelling of the birth of Christ.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. Masten, Mrs. Karnes, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Lowell Wells, Mrs. Fred Covey, Mrs. C.R. DeArmand, Mrs. S.L. Lindsey.

Mrs. Winfiel Vaughan, Mrs. Walter Franks, Mrs. W.E. Brewster, Mrs. Gorman Owens, Mrs. Cal Hurst, Mrs. Jim Boswell and Mrs. Bob Hightower.

Wellington Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Thompson Oct. 1

The Wellington Garden Club met Wednesday, October 1, in the home of Mrs. Joe Thompson.

Mrs. Robert Lacy presided over the business session and Mrs. O.B. Raburn read the collect. The hostess gave the devotional.

Mrs. Chester Fires brought an interesting and informative program on "Green Foundation". She stated that the size of the home and the different exposure of each side should be considered in planning shrubs.

Mrs. Fires stressed the importance of not setting shrubs too near the house. Be sure to allow adequate space for them to grow. She suggested that fill-ins of small shrubs and colorful flowers be used, such as the great variety of phlox, cannas and geraniums.

Summing up, Mrs. Fires said, "Plan for shrubs that will grow in our locality". She concluded with the "Story of the Legend of the Raintree".

Members present were Mrs. Ray Clubb, Mrs. Nell Cook, Mrs. Silas Crawford, Mrs. R.C. McNett, Mrs. G.L. Jones, Mrs. Raburn, Mrs. Lacy and the hostess, Mrs. Thompson.

New members present were Mrs. Lois Ratliff, Mrs. Rodney Myrick and Mrs. Gene Morrow. Mark Myrick was a guest.

Four B&PW Members Attend District 10 Conference

Four members of the Wellington Business and Professional Women's Club attended the District 10 Conference in Bowie, Saturday and Sunday September 27 and 28. Mrs. Dudley Phipps, president of the Wellington BPW Club, Mrs. Gary Brewer, treasurer; Mrs. Billy Williams and Miss Myra Hays took part in the workshops.

Mrs. Brewer is the District Young Career Woman and she spoke on Saturday afternoon, stressing the importance of each club having a Young Career Woman nominee from their own club. "It is very important that young women be asked to be members of BPW Clubs as it benefits them and the club," she emphasized.

The theme of the conference was: "Bicentennial: A Perspective for Women" with the keynote, "Let Freedom Ring". Mrs. Darlene Bonner, president of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, was the speaker for the banquet. She is a member of the Jack County Club, Jacksboro, which is one of the clubs in District 10. For two years Mrs. Bonner was the District Director for this district and served as state recording secretary, third vice-president, second vice-president, first vice-president, president elect, and now president. Get the most "freeze" for your freezer!

There's probably no more stalwart household servant than your electric freezer—think of the variety of healthy, flavorful meals it's helped serve up to your family! Make sure you're getting the most "freeze" for your freezer by following Reddy's consumer tips:

Don't overload: Efficient freezing calls for adding no more unfrozen food at one time than 2 or 3 pounds per cubic foot of your freezer's capacity. This ensures unfrozen food will freeze within a healthy 24 hours and that your freezer isn't overworked.

Take advantage of sales: Avoid overstocking with commercially frozen food that's always available; use your freezer as your own bargain counter and store foods you can buy on sale. But do allow space for short-time baked goods, leftovers and special party foods.

Lock in flavor: Use moisture and vapor-proof materials especially designed for freezers to wrap your foods. Tightly sealed, these lock in flavor and moisture and prevent "freezer burn" (surface drying) on foods. Don't use wax paper, bread paper or regular cellophane for freezer foods.

Label packages: Date and identify freezer packages so 1) you don't accumulate a lot of mysterious shapes and 2) you'll be able to pick out foods that have been in the freezer longest.

Mr., Mrs. Lyman Daniel Visit Oahu and Maui

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Daniel returned Tuesday, September 30, from a week's visit in Hawaii.

Mr. Daniel, owner of Lyman's Automotive, won the trip for topping his sales quota for Straus-Frank, an automotive parts company.

Of all the things they saw and did, Mr. Daniel found their visit to Pearl Harbor most interesting.

"It's moving," he summed it up. "It's a two and a half hour tour and the guide, and all the other people, know their history and can tell you what you want to know. They really love their state."

For much of the three days in Honolulu, they toured points of interest with the other 360 members of their group. But the Daniels also rented a car to go to the top of Haleakala Crater, a dormant volcano. They went to the Punch Bowl, another crater which became a world-famous National Cemetery with World War II.

There were fun evenings, too, when they head the Don Ho and Liz Damone shows.

Their days on Maui were as busy. They went to the top of Iao Crater. Rainfall on one side of the mountains of this island reaches 116 inches a year. On the other side it is a mere 16. There is a drought in some parts of the island, and the landscape is as dry and brown as it becomes here," Mr. Daniel said.

They drove by lush fields of sugar cane and were told the cane is planted by sophisticated machines.

Most of the tour group, which included only Straus-Frank dealers, were from Texas, although there were a few from New Mexico, and one couple each from Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Mrs. Daniel found a former schoolmate from Lubbock, and Mr. Daniel a classmate from Lorenzo, now living in Corpus Christi. They had not seen each other in 20 years. They also met A.V. Wood, a relative of Woody Wood, and a member of the Muleshoe City Council.

Accompanying the group was Joe Straus, president of the San Antonio-based company.

Mrs. Lindsey Wins in South Plains Fair

A pant suit tailored by Mrs. V.H. Lindsey recently placed third at the South Plains Fair in Lubbock.

Mrs. Lindsey made the suit for her niece, Mrs. Jack Bilbrey of Lubbock.

"I was so impressed with it that I entered it in the fair," said Mrs. Bilbrey.

"In the one division that I entered this suit, she was competing against women of all ages and there were at least 1,000 items entered and only four ribbons awarded, so I feel real competent when I say that Aunt Lena is a very good seamstress."

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny White of Vernon were guests in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Kilgo last weekend.

Three-Day Drivers License School Due

A driver's license school will be held October 21, 22, and 23, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Community Action Center, 612 East Avenue at 7:30 P.M.

Patrolman Bill Ricks, Department of Public Safety will conduct the school and will cover all questions asked on any driver license examination, including rules and signs. It is not the purpose of the Department of Public Safety to find out who does not have a driver's license, but to assist those who need help in obtaining a license.

This school is designed for all persons, including those having difficulty reading and writing, who wish to get their Driver's License. Hand books will be available in both English and Spanish.

The course is free of charge and open to anyone in the area who is interested. Several such schools have been held in the past. In the school that was held last October, all of those passing the written examination obtained their driver's license with the exception of one person.

For those already having a driver's license a school such as this is an excellent way to learn the meaning of the new signs that are beginning to appear along the highways.

Quail News

By Mrs. G.T. Stephens

We have been having beautiful fall weather recently with warm nights and sunny days. The crops are maturing fast and most farmers have started harvesting. Most of the peanut crop is out and they are combining maize at present. The cotton fields are beginning to get white so cotton harvest is just around the corner.

T.C. Crabtree observed his 89th birthday Monday, October 6, by operating his business, The Quail Mercantile Store, as he has done for a number of birthdays before.

Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree came to Quail in 1919 to make their home. He established the store soon after arriving here. The doors were opened for business 56 years ago in October. Therefore, the couple can rightly be classed among the pioneers of this area. Quail was one of the largest rural consolidated high schools in the United States at one time, and he was president of the school board for a number of years. Congratulations Mr. Crabtree for your many achievements. We wish you many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Boyett were hosts for the 26th wedding anniversary of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Boyett of Amarillo, on Sunday, October 5. The couple was married in Amarillo October 5, 1949, where they have lived ever since. They have four children: Mrs. Barbara Ezell, Mrs. Patsy Fivek and two sons Rick and Mark, who are still at home. They have one baby granddaughter, Christene Fivek. Those here for the anniversary dinner were the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Boyett, Mr. and Mrs. David Ezell and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Boyett. They all attended church Sunday morning at the Quail Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Jones visited in Amarillo last Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hamby and family.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T.C. Crabtree Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Gib Gibson of Shawnee, Oklahoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Corlette of Oklahoma City, Okla. The ladies are Mr. Crabtree's nieces.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Clay Oatman and Mrs. Jennie Oatman were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morrow of Bend, Oregon. They stopped by to visit until Wednesday. The couple were enroute to Florida for the winter.

Mrs. Clay Oatman went to Amarillo Monday, October 6 for a medical check-up at Medi-Park Plaza. She is to go next Tuesday for some tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil (Stuff) Jones of Bula visited recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Jones.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farmer last week were Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Lindley and their daughter, Mrs. Christene Shirley of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Orbie Allred of Chickasha, Oklahoma visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ople White recently. Mrs. Allred is the former Vera Simmons. The couple lived at Quail a number of years. She is a cousin of Mrs. White.

Min. and Mrs. Rudell White and daughter, Gina, of Odessa visited over the weekend in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ople White and Mr. and Mrs. Buford Chandler of Wellington. He is the minister of a church of Christ in Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. G.T. Stephens spent last week in Spearman visiting in the home of their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Phillips, Toby and Terry.

Vaccines for Children to Be Held Oct. 13

A clinic offering vaccines that give protection against several childhood diseases is scheduled for the community action center at 612 East Avenue Monday, October 13.

The hours will be 1:30 to 4:00 p.m.

The diseases for which vaccine will be given include polio, diphtheria, lock jaw, whooping cough, measles and rubella, according to Jerry DeSha, health program specialist for the Texas Department of Health Resources, Amarillo.

There will be no charge.

Youth Dies In Accident

Kendall John Young, age 9, of Cheney, Washington, died September 2 after being struck by a car as he crossed the Spokane County road in front of his home on his way to school.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S.C. Young, one brother, Kevin, age 13, and one sister, Malei, age 11. Mrs. Young was the former Carole Puryear, who lived here.

Those attending the Lutheran memorial services from Texas were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Puryear, Kerrville; an aunt of Fort Worth; and a great aunt, Mrs. Margaret Peters of Dallas.

Others attending were Dr. and Mrs. K.A. Davis of Gig Harbor, Washington, who recently moved from Denton.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. John Gibson and other relative this past weekend were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gibson and Danene and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leftwich all of Lubbock. Also visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Donald White, Randy and Brett of Clarendon.

Feed Cattle Abundant But Prices Down

COLLEGE STATION -- The "numbers game" may sometimes tend to get a little confusing when agricultural projections or estimates are issued. But there is one number that is currently bearing heavily on the total cattle industry of the nation -- the immense number of feeder cattle on farms and ranches.

"That, along with only a moderate increase in cattle feeding, is the key reason for the continued low cattle prices," contends Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

There were about 59.2 million head of feeder cattle on hand as of July 1, and Uvacek estimates that some 6.6 million of these will be slaughtered as non-fed cattle and calves during the remainder of this year. That would still leave some 52.6 million feeder animals on pastures and ranges.

"This high number of feeders is about the same as the number on hand last year," notes the Texas A&M University System specialist. "And, of course, the oversupply continues to depress the market."

Uvacek points out that some easing in grain prices that may result from a bountiful harvest this fall could boost cattle feeding. This segment of the industry has been in the doldrums due to the cost-price squeeze.

He feels, however, that any increase in movement of feeders to feedlots will be slow, which means that cow-calf producers will continue to get poor prices for their animals until well into 1976. "Hopefully, then, the oversupply situation will have eased somewhat, cattle feeding will again be on the upswing, and the nation's cow herd will be smaller, thus producing less calves."

JOIN THE ANNUAL AGRICULTURAL TOUR

The annual Farm Tour and Field Day sponsored each year by the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service will be held in Collingsworth County this Thursday, October 9. You are invited to attend.

Farmers and business men who go on the tour will be shown a series of experiments seeking grain sorghum varieties and cotton varieties that are best suited to this area. There will be an opportunity to see how a well established pasture can be an important part of your farming program. You will see how a water problem can be controlled.

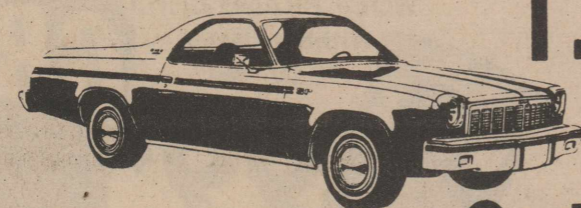

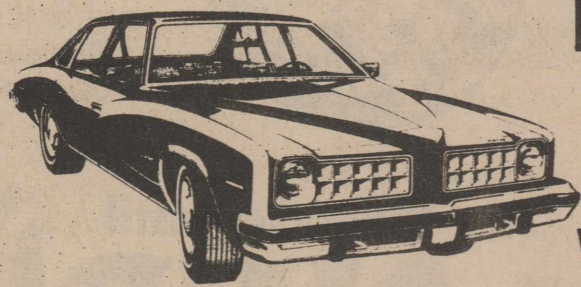

We believe the farmers and stockmen, business and professional men, will find this tour profitable and we know you will enjoy the noon barbecue that is being sponsored by Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District.

Deck's Didactics

—by Deskins Wells

October's golden days continue to cast their magic over the land as the trees change their green to brilliant yellows and reds. Each day brings new colors that delight the eye and all too soon much of this beauty will be gone.

There is a lot to see right here in Wellington. Take your time and travel new routes that are different from your usual pattern. The trees at the Robert Posey home present an entirely different scene when you are driving west to east than the one you see while traveling north and south. The same is true of the Clyde Drake home with all its evergreens. There are enough trees on either side that change their colors to provide a refreshing contrast.

It is time to get out and see as much as you can. Going on a foliage tour is fine because of the fellowship as well as the massive spectacles; but the changing season is something to be enjoyed every day and every hour, on your way to work and on your way home.

Dick Sweat was talking about hogs bringing 63 cents a pound on the hoof. He said that the Montgomery plant between here and Memphis intended to double their capacity. When it is completed they will be able to send a double decker truck full of 200 pound and up hogs to the packers each week. That is quite an operation.

Here is an interesting bit of news that also concerns the price of hogs. The Department of Agriculture has made a new rule allowing meat processors to use more beef and less pork in their products. For instance a product that once required 30% pork to a like amount of beef can now cut down on the pork provided they add that amount of beef. Can you imagine the packers asking to use more beef and less pork in a product?

Reports on ginning released by the Department of Commerce show that a total of 168,703 bales had been ginned in the United States up to August 31, 1975. This is in startling contrast to the 543,240 bales that had been ginned up to this date in 1974.

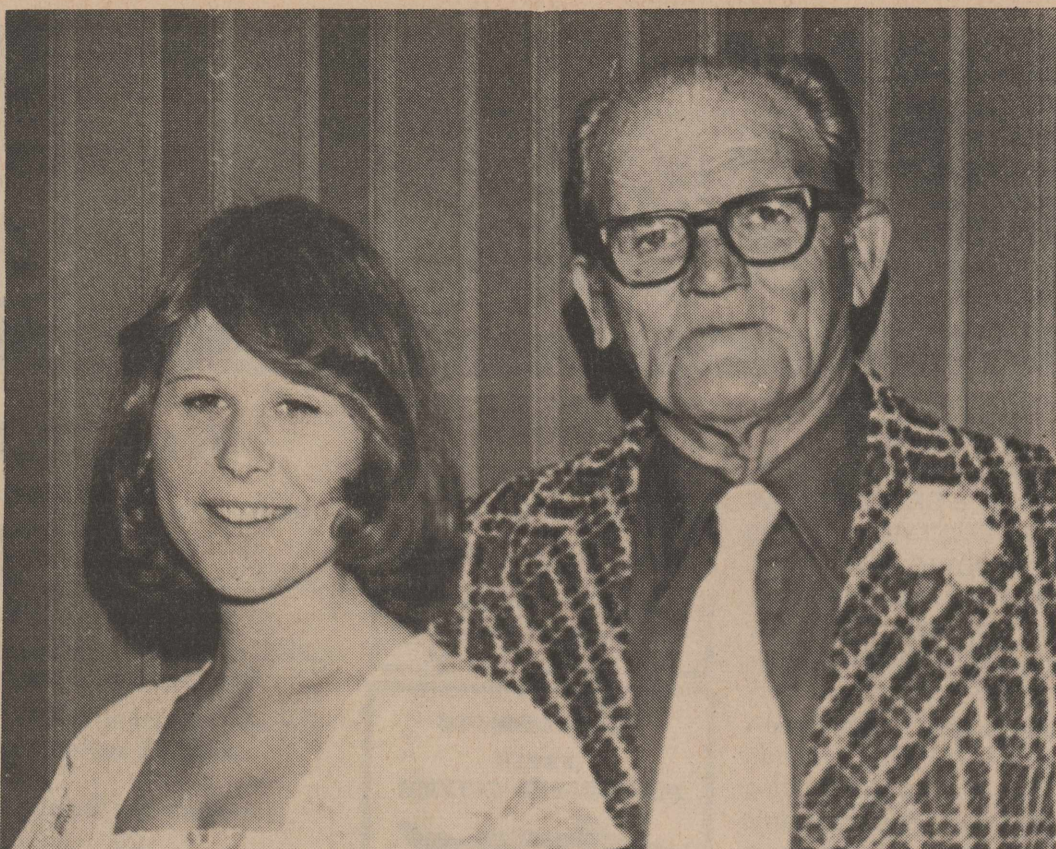

In other years this early report of ginning would have included some twelve far southern counties in Texas such as Brazoria, Cameron, Fort Bend, Hidalgo, Hill, Milam, Nueces, San Patricio, Wharton, Willacy, Williamson and Zavallas. It would also include Mississippi delta land in southern Louisiana and Mississippi and in the lower part of Alabama and Georgia.

This is less than one third of the cotton that had been ginned up to August 31 of 1974. I reported earlier that the farmers had planted many of their cotton acres in soy beans; but I did it somewhat wistfully and hopefully. Now it appears to be a hard reality. The deep South will produce much less this year due to cotton acres planted to other crops such as soy beans.

Good cotton is nearing the 50 cent mark and it may remain at that price or rise. Our problem is the quality of the cotton we will produce. The whole area needs more weeks without a freeze for good quality cotton.

They may not know it; but our football team is in the same wagon as the cotton farmers. It is a long time between now and Nov. 14 which is the date the Rockets will meet Clarendon in the final game of district play. The Broncos have a strong team and have already defeated the Irish and could be really tough by the end of the season.

It is fortunate that the Skyrockets will be playing both Shamrock and Clarendon on their own field in the closing games of the season. Both of these teams are good as is McLean. A real contender could emerge from these three teams and Memphis should not be

NEW SWEETHEART - NEW PRESIDENT

Jake Leach was installed as the new president of Wellington Kiwanis Club Tuesday evening, October 7, and at the same time Denise Archer took over official duties as club sweetheart. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Archer.

Armed Forces Tests Will Be Held This Month

Qualification tests for the armed forces will be given at Clarendon College administration building on three Fridays of October.

The time is 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Sgt/IC Bert Pinales said in Wellington Thursday, October 2, that the purpose of the test was to help young men and women discover their talents and potential and where they can fit into the armed forces. The test is free.

The dates are October 10, 17, and 31.

Those wishing additional information may contact Sgt. Pinales by calling collect 806-376-2181 in Amarillo.

be only $135.29 per person, based on population of 3,000.

Receipts from the water and sewer system will amount to $183,800 while income in the general fund will be $221,887. The general fund receipts will include sales tax, revenue sharing, property taxes, and all other sources of income.

Expenditures include $147,650 for the water and sewer department, and $224,520 from the general fund.

Only two persons appeared for the budget hearing.

In other business, the Council heard a brief discussion by Bill McMorris, its engineer, concerning the proposed rate increase asked by Lone Star Gas Company. Information which the city, through its legal advisor, Paul Spillman, had requested arrived too late to compile a report on what can be considered a fair rate increase, they said. Representing Lone Star Gas were Mike Lockett, local manager; and Mike Sweighard, from the district office at Childress.

counted out of the running yet.

The Rockets most formidable opponents at this time are not football teams. They are more insidious and treacherous foes. Right now their real opponents could be: overconfidence and injuries. A player can get hurt in an easy game easier than he can in a hard one in which he is going all out.

The Rockets have been so well coached and have played with such team spirit that it is hard to imagine any of these elusive opponents laying them by the heels; but it has happened in the past.

It is a long time until November 14.

Nazarene Church Holds Mission Rally Oct. 15

Rev. Robert Clack, District Superintendent of Wisconsin District Church of the Nazarene will be the special speaker for a Home Missionary Rally to be held in the Wellington Church, Wednesday October 15 at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Clack is well acquainted with Home Missionary Churches as a result of many years as an outstanding Pastor and successful District Superintendent. This will be his first time on the West Texas District. Dr. Lyle Eckley, District Superintendent of the West Texas District will accompany Mr. Clack on a tour of the entire District, by zones. The District is boosting for $50,000.00 for "Space Project", which is funds used to purchase property to establish new churches. The newest churches begun through "Space Project" funds are at Dimmitt, and most recently at Grandbury. There will be special singing by the youth of the Church.

The Wellington Zone consists of churches in Dodson, Childress, Clarendon, Quannah, Shamrock, Wellington, Wheeler. These churches will be participating in the Rally.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Ensign Tennison on US Naval Destroyer

Ensign Steven L. Tennison, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Tennison, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turley of Wellington, is currently serving aboard the United States Naval Destroyer USS Cory, homeported in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Tennison accepted his commission in the United States Navy in Newport, Rhode Island, at the Naval Officers Candidate School on June 27.

He is the damage control assistant, as well as the "R" division officer aboard the USS Cory. The damage control assistant, in time of conflict, makes recommendations to the captain to counter-balance the effect of structure damage to the ship.

The USS Cory is a Naval Reserve fleet destroyer that is active in the training of selected reserves in the Philadelphia area.

Symposium on Constitution Will Be Oct. 23

A symposium, with speakers discussing the proposed Texas Constitution pro and con, will be held Thursday, October 23, at 8:00 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

This is set up to give Collingsworth voters a better knowledge of the content of the constitution on which they will vote in November, explained County Judge Zook Thomas.

Jim Blair of Amarillo, a tax attorney who collects delinquent taxes for the city and county, has been invited to speak in opposition to the proposed constitution. A speaker favoring the change will be selected.

"I'm personally of the opinion that this is the most important vote Texas citizens will ever make," said Judge Thomas.

A planning meeting was held Monday evening, October 6, with representatives of the Commissioners Court and a number of clubs and organizations present.

There is no admission charge, and brownies, ice cream, coffee and pop will be available in the gym foyer, said Mr. Martindale.

Lions Make $354 From Caravan Sale

Wellington Lions Club had its most successful sale in conjunction with the Blind Shop Caravan Saturday, October 4, President Joe Montgomery reported.

The club's portion of the proceeds amounts to $354.54. This will be used on some local project, Mr. Montgomery said.

The sale total amounted to $1,418.14, but all items sold were furnished by the Blind Shop Caravan.

Houston Wants to Know the Score

"What was the score of the Wellington and Memphis game last night?" The Houston Chronicle inquired of The Wellington Leader Saturday morning, October 4.

By the middle of the morning, that newspaper, one of the largest in Texas, had received four inquiries to its sports department.

These readers had looked through all the football scores in the morning paper and couldn't find how their favorite team, the Skyrockets, fared the night before.

blaze will be on display. Seen for the first time will be the Survive-Air-Packs, the newest pieces received by the department. On display also will be one or more of the light plants which can be set up in case of an emergency in which Wellington loses its power.

The open house is the final event of the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department year. New officers will be elected at the regular meeting Monday, October 13.

Present officers, in addition to chief Peters, are Carroll Reynolds, first assistant chief; Buster Hughs, second assistant; Jim Sikes president; Leon Martin, secretary.

Hose captains are Billy Wilkerson, Lyman Daniel and John Green. The mascot is Johnny Green.

The department is presently without a chaplain, and a new one will be elected Monday.

many years.

Born in Harrison, Ark., April 20, 1897, he was the son of the late William E. and Susan Eads. He attended the local schools, growing up in the period when Collingsworth County was fast changing from a ranching country to farming.

Mr. Eads was married to Miss Alene Lindsey on February 9, 1931, in Childress. He was a member of Faith Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, October 2, in First Baptist Church, with Dr. James O. Brandon of Clarendon officiating. Burial was in Memorial Gardens under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were Sam McGill, Ross O'Hair, Raymond Fike, Tommy Thomas, Dennis Pepper, and Howard Holton.

Surviving Mr. Eads are his wife of Wellington; one son, Jack Eads of Clarendon; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Walker of Wellington and Mrs. Inez Grant of Mustang, Okla.; one brother, Frank Eads of Texline; and two grandchildren.

Music throughout the day will be directed by Bobby Watkins of First Baptist Church in Shamrock.

The Good-Time Singers and Adult Choir of the First Baptist Church in Wellington will bring the special music during the evening worship sessions.

Messages will be brought by Rev. James Conner of Kelton, Dr. James Brandon of First Baptist in Clarendon and Area Missionary Rev. Doug DuBose.

The Closing Sermon will be brought by Rev. Lloyd Elder of the Gambrell Street Baptist Church in Fort Worth.

Dr. Elder, reared in the Dallas area, received the BA degree from Howard Payne College, Brownwood, and the BD and ThD degrees from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

DR. LLOYD ELDER

He has held pastorates at Big Delta, Alaska; in Brown, Eastland and Grayson Counties, and at first Baptist churches at Holland, Princeton, and College Station, before going to his present pastorate in 1969.

He has offices and committee and board membership on the associational level, in the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the Southern Baptist Convention. He has written articles for Baptist publications and is listed in the current Who's Who in Religion.

Open House Will Honor Mrs. Arla Felts Oct. 13

Arla Felts Day will be held Monday, October 13, when Home Demonstration Club members and other friends honor Mrs. Felts, who has resigned as Collingsworth County Extension Agent.

An open house will be held from 1:30 to 4:00 p.m. in Bura Handley Community Center. Co-sponsors are the Extension Service and Retired Senior Volunteer Service, with which she has worked.

The public is invited to attend, said Mrs. Haskell Manuel, who is helping with the event.

Mrs. Felts will begin work Wednesday, October 15, as home extension agent for Potter County, with headquarters in Amarillo. She and her family will move there shortly.

All home demonstration clubs are assisting with the open house, also, and these, with their presidents are Mrs. W.R. Breeding; Dodson, Mrs. Lynel Black; Fresno, Miss Inez Clement; Lillie, Mrs. Bill Hill; Midway, Mrs. David Peters; and Samnorwood, Mrs. Jack Lowry.

Preceding the open house, a meeting of the County

Home Demonstration Council will be held in which club members will hear reports from the Texas Home Demonstration Association annual convention. These will be given by the three delegates, Mrs. Cecil Masten, Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Rufus Sweat. This will be followed by a covered dish luncheon at noon, to which all home demonstration club members are invited.

Courtney Works With TAES Cotton Program

A former Wellington conservationist, Lynn Courtney, is now working with the cotton breeding program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Lubbock.

Mr. Courtney was here recently, a few days after he and his wife returned from a vacation in Mexico City and Acapulco, Mexico. They also visited the famous Pyramids of the Sun and Moon northeast of Mexico City.

One of the projects on which extensive work is being done is okra leaf cotton, under the direction of Dr. L.L. Roy. Because there are fewer leaves on this type than on conventional cotton, sun can penetrate more easily to the lower bolls on the stalks, allowing better maturity.

It is believed okra leaf cotton has potential when sowed broadcast. Much work is to be done on breeding of okra leaf cotton, but interest is growing, Mr. Courtney —See #2, Page 2B

Two Librarians Hired Through STEP Program

Mrs. A.V. Mote and Mrs. Emil Kersten have been named by the Commissioners Court to work in the county library, under a program funded by STEP.

This is a state program, and does not take away from the county any of its jurisdiction over the library, County Judge Zook Thomas explained.

Mrs. Mote has worked in the library under the supervision of Mrs. R.H. Isbell, who retired recently, and she is familiar with its operation.

Mrs. Kersten formerly worked for Strong's Flowers and prior to that was associated with her husband in his business enterprises.

Judge Thomas said that all applications made for the post of county librarian have been placed on file, and when the STEP program expires, these will be reviewed for a librarian to be paid out of county funds, as she has been in the past.

STEP - Senior Texans Employment Program - is a state-funded program employing low-income elderly people for community improvement projects. It is handled through the Governor's Committee on Aging which contracted with the Farmers Union Community Development Association to administer the 1976 program.

Jay Naman, president of the FU Community Development Association, and Vernon McDaniel, executive director of the Governor's Committee on Aging, signed the $350,000 two-year contract which represents an increase in funding of $150,000.

Bob Carroll of Waco is STEP project director and was in Wellington recently to work with Judge Thomas in setting up the program.

Grants are awarded to local tax-based agencies on an 80-20 match basis, with the local agency providing its 20 per cent in contributions of materials, equipment and supervision. The workers' wages are paid from the 80 percent that comes from state funding.

Altogether, the county STEP program has six workers, Judge Thomas said.

Mrs. Marie Gollighugh is at the elementary school, helping children to cross 15th Street or assisting in the cafeteria.

Beautification projects are stressed, and Bill Jones was hired for certain improvement work in Wellington, including cutting weeds that are coming up through sidewalk joints in the business section.

Two men are employed at Pioneer Park on Salt Fork, also in beautification and improvement work. These are Dee Kincannon and Robert Oldham, both of Samnorwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Garcia and daughter, Angela, of Borger were here recently to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Saldana. The occasion was Garcia's birthday. He has been employed with Phillips Petroleum Co. at Borger since receiving his degree from West Texas State University in the spring.

4-H Heritage Saluted In Weeks Observance

COLLEGE STATION--The 4-H program has a proud heritage, and the upcoming National 4-H Week observance, Oct. 5-11, provides a good opportunity to reflect on its history, its current status, and the new horizons that lay ahead, says Dr. Don Stormer, state 4-H and youth leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

More than 215,000 Texas 4-H boys and girls will join the 7.2 million 4-Hers across the nation in special events and activities keyed to this year's theme, "4-H-'76... spirit of Tomorrow."

Assessment tests will be offered is Saturday morning, Oct. 18, it was announced by Don Van Pelt, school counselor.

Announced also was the complete schedule of 1975-76 national test dates for the ACT Assessment Program. The dates (with registration periods in parenthesis) are: Oct. 18, 1975 (Aug. 18--Sept. 22); Dec. 13, 1975 (Oct. 20--Nov. 17); Feb. 14, 1976 (Dec. 15--Jan. 19); April 10, 1976 (Feb. 16--March 15); June 12, 1976 (April 12--May 17).

Nearly one million students last year used the ACT Assessment Program, which is required or recommended for applications at more than 2,400 colleges and other post-secondary schools and scholarship agencies.

It is recommended that students use the ACT Assessment Program in their junior year or early senior year of high school in order that the resulting information can be of maximum value and assistance in the student's educational planning. The basic student fee for the program is $7.50.

"But in looking to and planning for tomorrow, 4-Hers are also reflecting on the past, and Texas played a big part in the 4-H heritage," notes Stormer.

"For it was in 1908 that a Corn Club was formed in Jack County by part-time county Extension agent T.M. Marks to teach farm boys about corn production because he was having little success reaching the farmers themselves. The club started with 111 boys, and the results that Marks achieved drew nationwide acclaim. This club was a forerunner of 4-H as it is known today."

So 4-H grew out of a need to make education more practical and interesting to farm youth. It provided enriching, real-life learning experiences through the "learning by doing" concept, and today's programs offer similar experiences although the projects and activities have changed.

"By encouraging high standards and setting of meaningful goals, 4-H lays a broad and firm base for a lifetime of personal growth," points out Stormer. "As today's youth grow to adulthood, they will face a world unlike the one most of us grew up in. There will be more people and fewer resources. And there will be vital issues in government that call for wise decision-making. 4-H prepares young people to assume the responsibilities of adulthood in a changing society."

With more than 60 different projects and activity areas now attracting 4-H members through Texas and the nation, 4-H has, indeed come a long way since 1908.

Scouts Work On Badges

The Boy Scout Troop 232 of Wellington spent Saturday, September 26 at Camp M.K. Brown near Wheeler.

The scouts did follow-up work on their summer program. Some practiced on the archery range under the supervision of John DeVoss, and others worked on their canoe merit badge with Scoutmaster Glenn McLain. They also found time to do some fishing.

Those going were Chuck Darter, Brent Long, Jerry Lee, Doug Riley, Jerry Henry, Gary Issacs, Harold Scott, Tim DeVoss, Craig Darter, Jimmy Morgan, Neal Van Pelt, Glenn McLain and John DeVoss.

The major, new service step will extend to all first class mail weighing 13 ounces or less. "In practical terms, what this service improvement means is that domestic first-class postage now will purchase the level of service that previously only airmail could buy," said Postmaster Bratten.

"Under the new program, there no longer will be an advantage in purchasing airmail postage for domestic delivery," he said.

Priority mail (now starting at weight in excess of 13 ounces), which includes air parcel service, and international airmail are unaffected by the improvement program and continue in their present form, the postmaster said.

"Airmail stamps will be sold for use on priority and international airmail. They can also be used in various combinations with other stamps for first-class mail," he said.

Customers can exchange airmail stamps, and stamped envelopes and cards at full postage value for ordinary stamps, stamped envelopes and cards. Stationery bearing airmail indicia will be allowed to be mailed at the first-class rate, Postmaster Bratten said.

Our Unsightly Weed Crop Has Grown Into a Problem

We take pride in Wellington's usually fine appearance so much for granted that we seem to be overlooking an eyesore that has developed this summer. It is the biggest crop of tall weeds Wellington has probably produced in a good many years.

Part of the weed problem can be laid at the door of property owners who have not adequately cared for their premises and vacant lots they may own.

Another part of the problem is the large number of lots, some with vacant houses, belonging to absentee owners, or owners who are unknown. If they are not mowed at all, the City of Wellington is going to have to do it.

These weeds are unsightly and people who come from out of town are commenting on them. Some of our own people are complaining. The growth has also created a traffic hazard, making it impossible for a driver to see who is approaching an intersection from either his left or right.

The city kept much of the area mowed during the early summer, until in a council meeting, part of the members felt mowing should be stopped as an economy measure. In recent days, growth became so rank that corners of blocks were mowed for greater visibility.

There are several courses the city can follow with the careless weeds. It can provide for this service in future budgets, just as it does for street sweeping and care of the parks.

Or it can keep these lots mowed and make an assessment against the property, just as a paving assessment is made. This action will cloud the title of the property until the assessment is paid.

Our crop of weeds has been a breeding place for mosquitoes this summer and if they are not disposed of before frost, more careless weed seed will cover the ground or blow onto nearby areas to create even greater problems next summer.

They are such a potential fire hazard that given the right combination of a high wind and a carelessly tossed match, we could have a bigger fire than any of us want to think about.

Other Editors Say . . .

Not All Equal

This country has been on an equality kick for quite some time now and it appears to us that while nobody wants discrimination, the fact remains that we are not all equal, and no amount of legislation is going to make us that way.

All we Americans ought to demand is freedom of opportunity and an equal chance at finding our opportunities.

Yet we are seeing more and more laws designed to make everybody equal. The labor union movement promotes the seniority system whereby a person gets more money by the mere fact of being on the job longer.

The school teachers operate under the same method. A poor teacher gets just the same as a good teacher if both have the same degrees and have worked the same number of years.

We have the Environmental Protection Agency and the Agency for Consumer Advocacy which are promoted as bills designed to protect us and make us all enjoy equal benefits.

Some of our colleges and universities have turned from the traditional grading methods and have gone to the "pass-fail" method whereby most students are equal in that they pass the course.

The busing laws which are designed to make all races equal have failed to do so. These laws have been adopted as one way to destroy racial barriers in housing, but no two houses are absolutely equal regardless of what race of people live in them.

The graduated income tax attempts to make everybody equal but the smart ones prove more equal than the dumb ones by figuring out ways to pay less tax.

About the only place where things are really equal is in prison, in mental hospitals and those countries where slavery is practiced.

Attempts to make everybody live on the same level results only in driving down that level and destroying the incentive of those who want to achieve a higher level than their peers.

FIRST PAVED ROAD INTO WELLINGTON
Concrete is poured into forms in early spring, 1936, at Lucky Corner, 15th Street and Hwy. 83, as the first paved highway linking Childress and Wellington is completed. It was a transition period in road construction -- all dirt construction was done by mule-drawn equipment, but trucks were used in finishing work. (Photo courtesy

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Auto insurance rates almost certainly are going up—and rather steeply.

The State Insurance Board staff recommended an average statewide increase of 17 per cent at an October 1 hearing on proposed new rates.

Even that didn't satisfy insurance industry spokesmen who asked a 24.9 per cent overall increase.

Figures proposed by Board staff actuaries would increase company revenues $112.8 million a year. The companies sought a $165.4 million hike.

New rates outlined by the Board staff would raise premiums of so-called typical or average motorists over 25 years of age driving late-model medium-priced cars to work in the range of $8 to $43 a year.

Smallest increase would be in the Sherman-Denison area and the largest in Houston.

Figures refer to standard liability, $100 deductible collision and full coverage comprehensive.

Young drivers in Houston may face a $130 increase, to $746 a year, for their regular coverage, while older drivers in that city pay about $296 for the same insurance.

The Board will make its decision by October 15, Chairman Joe Christie indicated. New rates would take effect January 1. A raise of 8.8 per cent was ordered last year.

Spending At Record

State government spending hit an all-time monthly high of $962,154,535 last May, Treasurer Jesse James has reported.

James' report for the fiscal year ending August 31 said average monthly spending totalled $712,750,000 during the period.

The Treasurer said the state earned more than $78.9 million during the last fiscal year of $1.33 billion worth of time account deposits in 1,240 Texas banks. He said cigarette tax collections totalled $247.6 million, interest and dividends on investments held by the treasury bond division $315 million and escheat and other taxes collected by treasury $2.97 million.

Commission Gets Case

The new Texas Public Utilities Commission got its first case last week—a controversy over telephone equipment rates.

Its authority to act before January 1 is expected to be challenged, since the law creating the agency gave it regulatory duties starting next year.

Fisk Telephone Systems Inc. of Houston accused Southwestern Bell Telephone Company of offering "fictitious" low prices on special PBX telephone equipment in an effort to drive out competitors.

The case was accepted by the Commission for filing and turned over to the attorney general's office for where-do-we-go-from-here advice.

Courts Speak

A federal district court jury convicted District Judge O.P. Carrillo on income tax charges. Duval County Commissioner Ramiro Carrillo was also found guilty.

Increases in assessed property values for more than 500 Fayette County owners of rural land without individual written notice were invalidated by the Third Court of Civil Appeals.

A divided Supreme Court held Lo-Vaca Gathering Company must pay $7,244 to an Erath County couple due to damage of their fishing lake in laying a pipeline.

The Third Court of Civil Appeals, in an Austin case, said mechanics who repaired a car later abandoned had first claim on it, over a bank which held a larger note on the vehicle.

Appointments

Former Harris County Judge Bill Elliot was named by Gov. Dolph Briscoe to the Fourth Court of Domestic Relations in Houston.

Fred Wulff of Brady was reappointed by Briscoe to the School Land Board.

The Governor appointed Peter S. Solito of Houston 208th district judge.

He named Gene H. Bishop of Dallas, J. Frank Holt III of Dallas and John P. Thompson to the Texas Turnpike Authority board of directors. (Holt and Thompson are reappointees.)

Henry Sanchez Jr. of Brownsville, a former state representative, is new deputy director of Texas Good Neighbor Commission.

U.S. Sen. John Tower placed Bill Keener of Dallas in charge of his Austin office. Larry Combest will move from the Senator's Austin office to Dallas, and Mrs. Dorothy De La Garza of Dallas will assume public relations duties in Tower's Dallas office.

AG Opinions

A school district can't charge for supplies, lab fees and band uniforms without legislative authority, Atty. Gen. John Hill said in an opinion.

Hill concluded the Texas Open Records Act on confidentiality of personnel records does not keep Alvin Independent School District from disclosing employment applications to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Hill also found hospital districts liable for medical care of indigent prisoners.

Firms specializing in fitting executive-level personnel into jobs are still private employment agencies for regulatory purposes if a significant portion of their activity involves providing employees for employers Hill said.

The Attorney General said a state employee who exhausts accrued sick leave becomes eligible for workmen's compensation benefits.

He classified crew leaders, day labor contractors and operators of temporary labor pools as "labor agents."

Bullock Balks

Comptroller Bob Bullock turned down a University of Texas request to pay an architectural firm for UT law school building remodeling plans.

Bullock, reviving a long-standing controversy, said the law school project had not been approved by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, and the Governor had vetoed appropriations bill riders attempting to give the project legislative approval.

Let's keep it growing for 200 more years.

Rocket JV Wins 2-A Opener from Memphis

Wellington Skyrocket Junior Varsity defeated Memphis 18-0 on home turf Thursday, October 2, to begin District 2-A play.

The first score came with a minute to go in the first period, when Carl Taylor, quarterbacking with cracked ribs, tossed a 25 yard pass to Ermino Nevarez. The try for extra point was no good and it was a defensive game until the half.

Wellington's second score came half-way through the third period on a 55-yard pass play from Taylor to Craig Needham, who ran the ball over. Again the extra point try was no good and Wellington led 12-0 into the fourth.

With only 25 seconds left in the game, Wellington recovered a fumble on the Memphis one-yard line and on the next play Taylor scored on a quarterback run. For the third time, the extra point try failed.

Memphis penetrated the Wellington 20 yard line only once, and that was when a Rocket punt was blocked.

Wellington had a drive stopped inside the Memphis 20 and gave up the ball on downs.

Coach Robert Hicks cited Taylor, Nevarez and Needham for a good job offensively, then noted the defensive work of Pat White, Mike Ray and Richard Garcia in stopping Memphis runs.

"I think we executed real well on those scoring plays," Coach Hicks said.

Congress Passes Beef Research, Information Act

Washington, D.C. -- Congressman Jack Hightower today announced final passage of the Beef Research and Information Act by the House of Representatives.

The bill, H.R. 7656, passes by a margin of 40 votes, 229 to 189.

"I am delighted with this action by the House," the center last Saturday evening.

Congressman said. "In approving the bill by such a substantial margin the House has firmly endorsed and commended the beef industry's desire and intent to help itself."

Hightower said the bill will enable cattlemen to conduct a referendum on whether a two-thirds majority favors a uniform collection to establish a fund for research, consumer and producer information and market development. The program is voluntary, allowing any producer to get his assessment refunded upon request.

The Congressman said

there had been intense lobbying against the bill by organized consumer groups, prompting the House leadership to postpone final consideration three times.

"Beef industry leaders believe the program must have extensive input from consumers," Hightower said, "but they believe, and the House concurred, that those who finance the program should control it."

The Congressman said the program will cost the government nothing. The U.S. Department of Agriculture will conduct the referendum. As originally proposed producers would reimburse the department for all administrative expenses if the referendum passed.

Mr. and Mrs. Venum Fitzgerald and children, Venette, Vincent, Vonda and Vee Ann, visited relatives in Dallas and Ft. Worth over the week end.

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS (S.J.R. NO. 11)

SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to:

Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature, is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an appropriation so the governor-elect may organize an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V, The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the voting and election provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections, is amended to:

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the VOTING AND ELECTION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the education provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VII, Education, is amended to:

Provide that the Permanent and Available School Funds and the county public school funds are continued for the support of the free public schools. The State Board of Education is retained and the Permanent and Available University Funds are continued for the benefit of The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the Fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. Authority to issue Permanent University Bonds is continued but the bonds may not exceed 30% of the Permanent University Fund.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the EDUCATION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976, except Article VII, Section 9, which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the finance provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VIII, Finance, is amended to:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present deduction of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans' organizations, nonprofit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the FINANCE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the general provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article X, General Provisions, is amended to:

Provide the basic requirements relating to public officeholders such as the official oath and residency requirements. The provision defining the separate and community property of spouses is retained, and the protection of a homestead from forced sale is continued. The legislature is required to protect certain personal property from forced sale. Current wages for personal service are not subject to garnishment. A private corporation may not be chartered except under general law, and no bank may engage in business at more than one place in this state. The legislature must provide for the regulation of bank holding companies. The present system of local-option elections for the prohibition or sale of alcoholic beverages is continued. The legislature is required to prohibit lotteries and gift enterprises but may permit certain bingo games and raffles. The presently existing provisions for retirement benefits of teachers and other public employees are modified to allow the state to contribute more than 10%. A policy that the quality of the environment of the State of Texas is to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the GENERAL PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the mode of amending provisions of the Texas Constitution. The proposed article will be the last article of the constitution. If only Proposition No. 8 is adopted, the article will replace Article XVII of the present constitution. If other propositions are adopted, the article will be appropriately renumbered to remain the last article of the constitution. If all propositions are adopted, the article will be Article XI. Article XVII, Mode of Amending the Constitution of the State, is amended to:

Establish a procedure for constitutional amendments requiring a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and majority approval by the voters. The calling of a limited or unlimited constitutional convention with voter approval is provided. The question of whether to call a constitutional convention must be submitted to the people every 30 years.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the MODE OF AMENDING PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.
