J. W. KING, SR.

The finest rains we have had this time of year in several years has come during May up to now. It has been quite a while since we have seen so much water in fields and terraces broken in so many places. More rain is predicted for this week and if it comes there will be a lot of June cotton here.

The old migrant labor barn built on Kindred Street here several years ago has been the first to disappear from the scene in the present effort to rid Loraine of such unsightly places. There are others about town that need to come down.

The Loraine Masonic Lodge has authorized the purchase of ten rose bushes to be placed in the J. W. King Park to further beautify it. Some day we are going to have a first class park here in our little city. The park is still in need of playground equipment, and of course, other flowers and plants would be appreciated.

The time is getting closer when the city will ask the citizens of the town to vote for bonds to improve the water and sewer systems. Wait until you have all the facts before you make up your mind to oppose the issue. We've got to make this needed improvement if we expect to grow or even hold our own. Water is one of our most precious possessions and in order to have an ample supply we must make the improvements.

Rain Totals For Month of May

The month of May up to this date has been a very wet one. Since the 3rd day of May, when the first rain of the month fell, to the 16th when the last rain fell a total of 6.15 inches were dumped on the countryside bringing the total for the year to date to 10.35 inches in Loraine.

Up to now this section has been fortunate in that no really severe weather has occurred. Hail fell in varying amounts in the territory but only a few spots have reported much damage.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR SENIORS

By MRS. HARLIE OWEN

You, our class of 1969
Who graduate today,
Will be so missed in L.H.S.
All along the way.

But we are happy for you
and may you soar to fame,
Or just be happy, just be yourself,
Life isn't all in a name.

For as long as you keep Christ
Beside you
You'll never go astray, There'll always be a helping hand
To guide you along life's way.

And someday when you are living
In the sunset of your lives,
You'll reminisce the good
"old days
The fun you had at Loraine High.

This little verse will run
Through your mind,
Yes, Seniors, I know,
-Cause we're all of a kind.

ARCHIE SCARBROUGH SPEAKS TO SENIORS HERE SUNDAY

"Know yourselves, understand the meaning of being a man or woman in our world, and seek a spiritual basis for your life," were truths brought out by Archie Scarbrough as he spoke to Loraine High School Seniors at the Baccalaureate services Sunday night at the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Scarbrough continued with the subject by asking "What is our problem? Why all the tensions, misunderstanding between parents and children? Why all the confusion about money, sex, work, responsibility, etc? Why all the discipline, a son or daughter might ask,

He quoted Heb. 12:6, "The Lord disciplines those he loves." He brought out the truth that parents are the most important influence in their child's life; and told the young people that though they might possess this world's goods, and become great in many ways as seen through the eyes of the world, yet, "you will be a failure if you fail to take Jesus Christ into your lives."

Mrs. Rex McDaniel and Mrs. A. R. Miles played the processional and Recessional. Leona Huber, Pam Sanford, Frankie Stewart and James Lee were ushers.

Rev. Clarence Minton gave the Welcome, and Father James Foelker gave the invocation. Don Richard led in congregation singing, Rev. Montgomery Ashford read the scripture, and Bro. Jerris Bullard gave the benediction.

Loraine Senior Trip For 1969

The 1969 Senior class of Loraine High blasted off on the annual trip Thursday, May 8 at 2:30 p. m. The bus started sputtering and spitting before we got out of the city limits, but just a mile out it realized that there was no turning back so it behaved after that. The class carried a picnic lunch and stopped at Goldthwaite City Park to lay waste to it. There had been a little nibbling going on but there was still skads of chicken for everyone even Mr. Puckett, "the bus driver." The group went on to Austin Thursday night and stayed in the beautiful Villa Capri, which had two big heated pools, Mrs. Tartt, one of our sponsors, wasn't very impressed with the heat when the seniors pitched her in the deep end - clothes and all. Mr. Raymond Holt, former Loraine teacher who lives in Austin, visited the group until the wee hours, Rickey Walker, Terry Brewer, Steve McCollum, Stanley Hackfeld reported a great shortage of sleep - 30 min., 45 min., and an hour. The seniors and sponsors ate breakfast in the beautiful Villa Capri Cafe and then toured the capitol, where they nearly lost Pedro Pantoja in the rotunda. They toured the Governor's Mansion and grounds, and the Texas Education Agency, where Mr. Holt works in the Agriculture Dept. Before returning to the bus, they visited the Texas Library Building and saw the mural which covers 400 years of Texas history. The painting was done by the son-in-law of Peter Hurd, who is a famous Texas artist. One girl was so excited over the Loraine cowboys that she took a picture of "cowboys" Steve McCollum and Donnie Cornutt.

A highlight of the entire trip was the lunch on Friday at Christy's, famous for sea foods. Mr. Puckett decided a "Captain" was too much, but sponsors Mr. and Mrs. Church thought the "Mate" was just right. Even here some seniors preferred hamburgers.

Leaving Austin, the Senior group went on to San Marcos to the Aquaria where they saw the swimming pig and the ballet underwater, as they sat in a huge submarine.

The next stop was San Antonio where they checked in at the Western Sun Motel. The Seniors visited with the animals in Brackenridge Park. Joey Lucas was rather bossy with the lion. They walked over the hill to the famed Sunken Garden where they took many pictures. They went by Trinity University. The Seniors ate at various places - notably Shakey's Pizza Hut where the young people had to eat in the kid's room and the sponsors in another. That night the young people had a big party in a little room. This lasted until 12, but about 2:00 A. M., Lydia Munoz, Emma Madrid, Sherry Rose and Carolyn Jones telephoned Mr. Church, in a whisper because they had these loud talking neighbors. They were surprised to see Mr. Church arrive with a toothpick in his mouth. He reported the rowdy neighbors to the manager, and they were soon quiet. Saturday morning, the Seniors drove to the Alamo, enjoyed Joske's, shot to the top of the Tower of the Americas and plummeted to earth again. Then another highlight of the trip was dinner at the sidewalk Cafe on the San Antonio River, the Casa Rio. One little Japanese got a good picture of Patrice Baumann as she walked between his camera and his subject. This happened as they walked down the River walk. The Lone Star Brewery Hall of Horns, the Buckhorn Saloon, the Hall of Finns, the O. Henry home, and the German Beer Garden were the next stop. Mrs. Tartt was caught riding a very rough elephant and someone accidentally snapped a picture.

At this time the busload of Lorainians went to the Circle R Dude Ranch on the Medina River. This was two miles west of Medina. They played volleyball after everyone had stowed their gear in the cabins. They enjoyed a barbecue with about one hundred students from Gregory-Portland, near Corpus.

It was fun to discover a former classmate, Christina Villarreal with them.

Another highlight of the trip was the basketball game that had no time limit, referee or rules. The members of the team were Mr. and Mrs. Church, Mr. Puckett, Ricky Walker, Debbie Oliver, Stanley Hackfeld, Joey Lucas, David Terry, Lydia Munoz, Donnie Cornutt and Sammy Alvarez. At this time there was a table tennis game going on in the "hotel." This game was played by Emma Madrid, Juanita Garcia, Herminia Davila, Diana Chavez, John Raymond DeLoera and Mary Miles.

Sunday dawned beautiful, clear and bright. Breakfast was served in the mess hall, cafeteria style, and about half the class dressed up and drove into Medina and Bandera to go to the church of their choice. Mrs. Tartt accompanied one group and the rest of the class went horseback riding, swimming, and rowing in the river. Big John was the foreman and horse wrangler. Terry Brewer was thrown from his horse and David Terry, Donnie Cornutt, Terry Brewer and Steve McCollum flipped over in their boat.

After lunch there was more horseback riding for the group who had gone to church - Juanita Garcia, Herminia Davila, Lydia Munoz and Sherry Rose rode horses for the first time. When Sherry squealed, the poor horse hardly knew what to do. Stanley Hackfeld, Mr. Church and Mr. Puckett held a small rodeo in the arena. The audience was not large but was very enthusiastic. Sunday evening the Loraine group loaded onto a covered trailer for a modern day "hay ride," behind a Ford tractor. The first stop was the Medina River, where a contest was the entertainment.

There was a cable across the river and there was a $5 bill for anybody who could swing on the rings hanging down from the cable, across the river and back. Mr. Puckett was the only one who wore his swimsuit so he tried it first. He did very well but could not make it and fell into the cold river. After he tried Sammy Alvarez, Pedro Pantoja, Terry Brewer, Steve McCollum, David Terry, Donnie Cornutt and nearly all the hands who worked there tried it.

Sammy came nearer to winning than anyone else but he too fell into the river. Just before reloading the hay trailer, Mr. Church was tossed bodily into the river with all his clothes on except boots and hat. The class then had a supper of grilled hamburgers, salad, pickles, spice cake and Kool-ade. After the hayride they played around the pool and played pranks on the sponsors, Debbie Oliver, Gaye

Green and Patrice Baumann stole all of Mr. Church and Mr. Puckett's light bulbs and sheets only to discover hours later that theirs were missing too. This was the last night out and everyone got a fairly good night's rest.

Monday morning the first rain fell on the vacationers, but the sun soon came out and there was more horseback riding, swimming and boat rowing. One group drove on to the Collins Bag Factory at Medina where they bought Mother's Day gifts and paper mache pins for their room mothers.

After a fine dinner of spaghetti and meat sauce and ice cold watermelon, purchased near San Antonio by the Senior class, the group packed and headed for San Angelo. Arriving at the Western Skies Steak House an hour before planned, the seniors relaxed until the room mothers and others from Loraine arrived. A fabulous supper of K. C. steaks, salad and baked potatoes was served to the seniors and sponsors, and Mr. and Mrs. Armando Baumann, Mrs. Joe Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Walker, Alfred Hackfeld, Lee Roy Cornutt, Billy Don Green, Mrs. Wayne Oliver and Mrs. Eddie Puckett. After a fine reunion, they all drove on home to be met by the remainder of the parents and friends. Everyone was tired and happy to be back in good old Loraine after a good Senior trip.

Mrs. Percy Bond Hosts Study Club

The Athenaeum Study Club closed the year's work at the home of Mrs. Percy Bond.

Mrs. Doyle Hester, moderator, led the American's Creed and Pledge to the Flag.

First topic on the program was "Let's Make Government Work Better," from an article by the late Dwight Eisenhower.

Mrs. Woodrow Pratt gave a very informative sketch on this subject. In brief, the former president stated that some changes need to be made in the terms and tenures of Senators, Congressmen and Federal Judges, and in other areas of government procedures.

The purpose of this is to keep up with the times. "If these changes were made, it would produce a far better Congress, more responsive to the needs of the nation today, stated the former president.

Mrs. Pratt also gave highlights from a recent newspaper article about the top honor conferred upon Congressman George Mahon.

In the absence of Mrs. T. L. Finley, her paper was read by Mrs. T. J. Finley. This topic was "A Proposal for our Times," also by Eisenhower, concerning the advantages and possibilities of desalting sea water for irrigation purposes.

This could bring large arid regions of desert lands into agriculture production and furnish jobs for thousands of people.

There is nothing new about converting sea water into fresh usable form on small scale, but the process is too expensive for large agricultural uses. Plans are already being formulated to solve this problem, concluded the author.

Mrs. Riden conducted a short business session, in which plans were discussed for Lorraine clean-up campaign.

Mrs. Bruce Johnson reported on the County Federation at Colorado City this month.

Refreshments were served to 13 members.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Kirby, Sandra and Steve, of Levelland, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dobbs, and Sandra remained for a longer visit.

City Cuts Water Rate Through June

As an inducement to users of city water to raise gardens, flowers and lawns, the City Council has authorized a lower water rate to resident and non-commercial customers. The new rate is being tried through June and if it proves satisfactory will probably be extended all through the summer.

The minimum has been raised from 3,000 to 4,000 gallons for $1.50, the next 1,000 gallons for 15c and 10c per 1,000 gallons for all over 5,000.

Mrs. Hallmark Hosts Bible Study Group

"A Church Which Made A Missionary Proud," was the subject for a Bible study when the Willie Mae Kennedy group of the Baptist W.M.U. held their meeting in the home of Mrs. Edwin Hallmark Monday afternoon at three o'clock.

The study question for this month was "What can I see in Paul's letter to the Thessalonians which helps me to understand more fully the responsibility of my church." This lesson concludes the current study of Paul's letters which told us about the missionary struggle of the early Christian Church.

Mrs. Woodrow Pratt was the leader for the program. She was assisted by Mmes: J. W. King, Cline Taylor, T. J. Riden and L. E. Crutcher.

Mrs. Hallmark read the Call to Prayer, reading I Timothy 1:12-20 and the names of the missionaries.

Mrs. Riden led the prayer for the missionaries and Mrs. Cline Taylor led the closing prayer.

Others attending beside the ones mentioned were Mmes: Hal Bennett, H. C. Taylor, H. L. Leach and one visitor, Mrs. Gladys Turner.

Mrs. Malcolm Bruce returned home Thursday from Goldthwaite where she spent six weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Richards during their illness and his passing.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wells spent Friday night and Saturday in Tahoka with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Robinson.

W.S.C.S. Holds Meet In Church Wed.

The W.S.C.S. met at the church Wednesday morning for a regular study lesson. Meeting opened with the song, "I Am Thine O Lord."

Mrs. James Bennett gave the devotional, reading I Timothy 2:1, "Bring up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it."

Mrs. James Watkins led in prayer before the study from the book Crisis in Southeast Asia. She talked on the people and costumes of Singapore, etc. Their language is Chinese and most of them are Moslems, and they have a very low standard of living. The Methodists started work in Singapore in 1885 and many other denominations are doing mission work there, among them are Seventh Day Adventist, Salvation Army, etc. With the population explosion the big problem is food for the people.

Mrs. Cecil Tune led the closing prayer, after which Mrs. C. H. Martin read a letter from a former member, Mrs. J. G. Bruce, and Mrs. Marsahll Bruce read excerpts from a letter she received from a nephew in Vietnam.

Present were Mmes: Jim Johnson, Percy Bond, Watkins, C. H. Martin, Bruce, Tune, S. E. Meadows, Mae Crippliver, Claude Neely, Jack Linam and Martin Dobbs.

pick a chicken?

I suppose I could muddle through if I had to but who needs it? With low cost electricity from the LONE WOLF Electric Cooperative, CHICKEN PROCESSING PLANTS DO SUCH a neat and clean job of dressing fryers I'd be foolish to try it. With a dependable electric supply chickens are picked, drawn, inspected, chilled, and boxed in less time than it would take me to catch one.

So just call me chicken hearted when it comes to chicken plucking. Send him to me ready for the pan. I'm great with an electric fryer.
