JFK Asks $5.7 Billions For Education Program

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy told Congress today a crisis in American schooling makes it imperative that a five-year $5.7 billion aid to education program be enacted this year. He asked no help for church and private elementary and high schools.

It was this exclusion of parochial schools that stalled the aid for classroom construction and teachers' salaries program last year in a congressional row over help for church schools.

But Kennedy, a Roman Catholic said again today in a special message that his program offers "the maximum scope permitted by our Constitution." He contends federal outlays for church schools would violate the constitutional concept of separation of church and state.

Kennedy's program of federal loans, grants and scholarships at every level of learning would cost $1.5 billion in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

He said the outlay would be "the most profitable investment society can make."

As if to refute reports that his administration would be willing to forego funds for aiding public school construction and higher teachers' pay, the President put that contested measure at the top of his list.

Next came aid for college construction and scholarships, which are given a better chance of becoming law. Third was an array of "special" education and training programs with emphasis on more support for science and engineering, medical and dental training, and a broad attack on adult illiteracy.

Whether today's urgent plea would give the stalled teacher salary and construction bill a fresh start ws doubtful.

Few give the bill much chance, even if revived. But Kennedy spoke out strongly for vigorous government help. In the past year "our crucial needs have intensified and our deficiencies have grown more critical," he said.

"It is imperative that such a proposal carrying out these objectives be enacted this session."

The country must provide facilities for 14 million more elementary, secondary and college students by 1970, the message said, or an increase of 30 per cent. College enrollments alone will nearly double.

The message gave few figures. Those were outlined in Kennedy's budget message. It showed that the requested three-year program of classroom construction and grants to increase teachers' salaries would cost $2.1 billion overall.

The program for aiding higher education would require $332 million annually over five years—for loans to build academic facilities and for scholarships of up to $1,000 a year for "talented and needy" students.

The House has approved only the construction portion. The President therefore aimed at the Senate his appeal that scholarships be restored to the bill.

Two administration bills embodying segments of Kennedy's program are new this year. They were scheduled to go to Congress after the message.

An appendage of the general public school aid bill would provide $747 million over five years to give elementary and high school teachers up to 2,500 scholarships a year for full-time study at colleges. It also would assist the establishment of institutes for teachers at colleges.

The scholarships would go to teachers in private and parochial as well as public schools. The first year cost would be $120 million.

Contracts Awarded Monday By Council

Snyder City Councilmen opened bids last night on a variety of city supplies and tentatively awarded a construction contract.

The council also set the annual city election for April 3, and the filing deadline for March 4, 30 days prior to the election. The terms of Mayor John Hamblen and Councilmen D. D. Shelburne (place 2), Stanley Noah (Place 4), and Rex Fields (Place 6) expire this year.

Panhandle Construction Co. of Lubbock was tentatively awarded a contract to relocate water and sewer mains on right - of - way of the new U. S. Highway 84 in the northeast area of the city. The contract is contingent upon approval by the County Commissioners Court.

The county will pay for the required relocation of the water and sewer mains which Panhandle proposed to accomplish for $24,614.90. At the same time the city will make some further alterations to lines in that area which are not necessarily required by the highway project, and Panhandle's bid on that portion was $13,657.50, making an overall total of $38,272.40, the lowest of six proposals submitted.

The council tabled a proposal on a snorkel - type fire truck for further study. Only one bid was received on the snorkel equipment and two bids on the truck chassis to be used in conjunction with the equipment.

Continental Oil Co. was awarded the contract to furnish petroleum products for the city this year, submitting the lowest of seven proposals. Continental's bid included 18.5 cents per gallon for regular gasoline, 20.65 cents per gallon for Ethyl gasoline, 63 cents per gallon for two grades of lubricating oil requested and 56 cents per gallon for a third grade of oil, 12.8 cents per gallon for kerosene and 11.35 cents per gallon for diesel fuel.

T&T Supply Co. of Big Spring was awarded a contract to furnish chlorine for the city water plant on a bid of $6.22 per cwt., the lowest of three submitted.

Contract to furnish alum for the water plant went to Paul Carroll Oxygen Co. of Snyder for $2.87½ per cwt., the lowest of four bids received.

An ordinance closing a half-block segment of Fifth Street immediately west of Avenue S was passed on second reading.

The street has never been opened and the closing was requested by the East Side Church of Christ, which owns the adjoining property on either side.

The council postponed indefinitely plans to construct a million-gallon reservoir at the water treatment plant. Bill Kimzey, acting city manager, reported that installation of an altitude valve on the existing reservoir would increase its capacity by 300,000 gallons. This increase would be sufficient, he said, to take care of present needs.

The contract of Edgar Taylor to collect delinquent taxes was renewed for another year. Taylor collects delinquent taxes for a fee of 15 per cent of his collections.

Action was delayed on a proposed new franchise ordinance requested by Texas Electric Service Co. Councilmen indicated that they would seek revision of one section of the proposed ordinance which they felt limited the city's taxation powers in relation to the power company.

Two committees were named to nominate personnel for two boards. A committee composed of M. L. Broman as chairman, Fred Davis and D. D. Shelburne will submit nominees for the Zoning Board of Adjustment at the March meeting, and a committee composed of Maylor John Hamblen, Russell Yorgesen, Rex Fields and Stanley Noah will submit nominees for the board of tax equalization.

Gene L. Dulaney, attorney representing Prentis Bass, inquired as to the possibility of a settlement in the law suit Bass filed against the city. Bass recovered a judgment for over $14,000 in 132nd District Court for utility lines and paving in the Bassridge Addition, and motions for a new trial are now pending. Councilmen indicated that they would reject any settlement proposals suggested thus far.

REPRESENTING SNYDER on the all-state choir last week at Dallas was tenor Ralph Trevey, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Trevey, Rt. 3. The choir performed for music instructors from Texas and over 5,000 guests. Roger Gee, Snyder High music instructor, accompanied Trevey to the meet.

Promise By DeGaulle Stirs New Defiance

By RODNEY ANGROVE

ORAN, Algeria (AP)—The European Secret Army answered President Charles de Gaulle's promise of an Algerian peace agreement with the daring seizure today of an Oran newspaper. Secret Army commandos blanketed the city with a pirate edition asserting the French settlers will win their battle to block Algerian independence.

The publication and distribution of thousands of copies of the contraband newspaper in Algeria's second city was probably the most daring propaganda coup yet pulled by ex-Gen. Raoul Salan's rightist underground.

It followed only by hours De Gaulle's address to France in which he scorned the Secret Army as "subversive and criminal" and vowed that nothing would stand in the way of his plans for Algerian peace and independence.

De Gaulle's speech buoyed Algeria's Moslems with new hope and optimism. Although he did not say agreement had been reached with the rebel provisional government, many saw an end of the 7½-year-old rebellion near at hand. "This time peace is really around the corner," said one.

The speech aroused new bitterness and hatred among the North African territory's Europeans. The Secret Army wasted no time in demonstrating anew its defiance of De Gaulle.

A commando group of about 30 armed men, their faces masked with scarves, invaded the newspaper Echo d'Oran at 2 a.m. as the printers were about to start the night's run.

Herding aside workers in the composing room, the raiders in 30 minutes recast the newspaper's back page devoted to North African news.

The new page showed:

A banner headline saying "Special Edition of the OAS" (Organisation de l'Armee Secrete).

A two-column block of white letters on a black background declaring, "The OAS will win."

The text of a speech delivered by ex-Gen. Edmond Jouhaud in a pirate broadcast over Radio Oran Monday night. The Secret Army kept De Gaulle off Oran's TV screens by kidnaping seven radio technicians and broadcasting a speech by Jouhaud in which he declared: "We will fight to the death; victory is ours." In their haste, the raiders printed this speech upside down.

A portrait of Jouhaud working at his desk in a secret headquarters somewhere in Algeria.

Under the raiders' guns, about 20,000 copies of the new edition were run off. Beginning at 7 a.m., runners spread through the streets of Oran distributing copies eagerly snatched up by Europeans.

Authorities immediately ordered a general police alert, but by then the Secret Army men were back in hiding.

Soviets Deny Attempt On Krush's Life

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Foreign Office press spokesman today branded as a "provocative rumor without any foundation at all," a story current in Moscow that an attempt had been made to assassinate Premier Khrushchev.

"It is an invention and completely false," the spokesman added.

The rumors had been investigated by correspondents and diplomats for several days. No one could find any substance to them.

The first report was that Khrushchev had been shot in the lung during a public meeting in Minsk, in White Russia, in mid-January. But on Jan. 26, some days after the rumored attack, Khrushchev spent three hours with a Burmese trade and diplomatic delegation in Kiev, in the Ukraine.

One of the Burmese said the premier was clearly in good health and good spirits.

He said there were few known Republicans in 1960 when the party became active again here, but that activity in the presidential campaign and later in the successful campaign of Sen. 6 Democrats, 3 Republicans Assured In Governor's Race

By The Associated Press

Unless the postman turns up with added starters, six Democrats and three Republicans will be candidates for governor in the May 5 primaries.

After two late Republican entries, there were no further surprises prior to the Monday midnight deadline for filing.

There could be still other contenders, however, if applications to state executive committees of the two parties went into the mail postmarked before midnight. Candidates for some other offices chose to follow that course.

Jack Cox, a Breckenridge business man who had said he would run weeks ago, was the first GOP candidate for governor to pay a $1,000 filing fee Monday.

Then, while Roy Whittenburg of Amarillo was flying to Austin for the same purpose, Harry Republican Diehl of Houston—that's actually his middle name—got into the race against Cox. Whittenburg arrived a bit later and followed suit.

Gov. Price Daniel, seeking a fourth term, and Don Yarborough, Houston lawyer, were the latest to enter formal bids in the Democratic primary.

Democrats filing earlier are Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, former Navy Secretary John Connally, former state Highway Commission chairman Marshall Formby and Edwin Walker, the general relieved of his command in Germany last year in a dispute over indoctrination of his troops.

Whittenburg, an oilman and cattleman whose family publishes newspapers in Amarillo, Borger and Lubbock and also has television interests, polled 186,000 votes in an unsuccessful 1958 race against Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex.

Diehl was among 71 candidates in a 1961 special election leading to a runoff victory for Sen. John Tower, R-Tex.

The filing deadline also found crowded contests for several other statewide offices.

One is the new office of congressman-at-large. It drew five Democrats and three Republicans. State Democratic chairman J. Ed Connally of Abilene filled out a filing application but decided less than an hour before the deadline not to run.

There are five Democrats and two Republicans in the race for lieutenant governor, and five more Democrats seek the nomination for attorney general.

RESIDENTS ARE REMINDED OF STUDENT ID CARDS

Snyder area citizens were reminded today that all students in Snyder Schools involved in any type of sales or solicitation drive are issued identification credentials.

Robert L. Clinton, principal of Snyder High School, said it had come to his attention recently that a magazine sales crew had indicated connection with the schools here in attempting to sell a subscription to a local resident.

High School music students plan to launch their annual magazine subscription drive shortly to finance school trips, and all students accredited for the project will carry the new school identification cards, Clinton said.

Cuba, Soviets Set Stage For Big Propaganda Show

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Cuba and the Soviet bloc appear determined to magnify Cuban aggression charges against the United States into a major propaganda show in the United Nations designed to embarrass President Kennedy's administration.

The Communist strategy became clear when debate opened Monday in the General Assembly's 104-nation main Political Committee. Cuba, the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia delivered marathon speeches denouncing the U.S. government as the mastermind behind last April's abortive invasion of Cuba and accusing Washington of plotting new aggression against Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.

U.S. chief delegate Adlai E. Stevenson retorted that Cuba was trying to torpedo Kennedy's Alliance for Progress program and open the way for Red subversion throughout Latin America.

Observers predicted the debate would develop into a week-long display of Communist oratory.

The Soviet bloc set the stage for a full-dress airing of Cuba's charges.

Czechoslovakia and Romania put in a resolution calling on the United States to cease interference in the internal affairs of Cuba.

Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin attempted to maneuver the United States into the position of being on trial before the assembly. Zorin posed a series of questions directly to Stevenson dealing mainly with the United States' alleged part in the April invasion.

Zorin also demanded to know if Cuban exiles are being financed and trained on U.S. soil and at points in Latin America for another invasion thrust.

Stevenson replied that Zorin had merely dredged up a series of "lurid charges, all identical" to those delivered by Cuban delegate Mario Garcia-Inchaustegui and Karel Kurka of Czechoslovakia.

"I would ask the committee to note that they (the charges) all refer to events of last April," said Stevenson. "The only new charge that has been advanced is that refugees from Castro's Cuba are being trained at various places in the Western Hemisphere. But for that allegation he (Zorin) has not advanced a shred of evidence."

Chairman Mario Amadeo announced the committee would take a breather today to digest the mass of charges and counter charges delivered at the opening session and resume its debate Wednesday.

McNamara Is In Session With Solons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara met with investigting senators behind closed doors today in a new discussion of his stand that they are not entitled to know who censored what speeches by military and civilian leaders.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of an armed services subcommittee inquiring into charges that Defense and State Department censors have muzzled the military against anti-Communist statements, told newsmen he had asked McNamara to meet with the Senate group.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., who forced the Senate investigation, has insisted that individual censors must be identified so they can be asked to explain their reasons for the changes they made in speeches.

Thurmond insists that Pentagon employes should be cited for contempt of Congress if they, obeying McNamara's orders, refused to give testimony on specific censorship jobs.

Contempt is punishable by up to a year in jail and $1,000 fine.

Freeze Nips North Half Of State

By The Associated Press

Freezing weather gripped the northern half of Texas Tuesday on the heels of a whistling norther.

Before daylight the forward edge of an arctic front which pushed into the state Monday had raced on southward into the Gulf of Mexico and past the Rio Grande into Mexico.

Except for partly cloudy to cloudy conditions in South Texas, the skies were clear throughout the state.

By dawn the freeze line extended from Longview west through Temple, Junction, and into the Big Bend.

Low temperatures for the night ranged from 12 at Dalhart to 54 at Brownsville. Amarillo had 17, Lubbock 19, San Antonio 41, Houston 45, Austin 33, Dallas 26, Abilene 21, San Angelo 26, Wichita Falls 22 and Texarkana 30.

Top marks Monday ranged from 89 at Corpus Christi and 85 at Laredo down to 36 at Amarillo and 28 at Dalhart.

Pushing clouds away as it advanced, the dry norther ended more than a week of unusually mild weather. The only rainfall in the state Monday was a meager .01 inch at Beaumont.

Forecasts called for another chilly night with temperatures touching the low to middle 20s in parts of all sections, Wednesday is due to be a bit warmer in northern areas of Texas but still cold in the south.

Macmillan Overrides Motion For Censure

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan Monday night overrode a Laborite motion of censure because of his government's gloomy outlook toward the future of the United Nations.

Macmillan, roundly cheered by Sir Winston Churchill and other Conservatives, promised continued support to the United Nations but said his government recognizes the organization's peacemaking role has been harmed by financial difficulties and unexpected conditions that have developed since its birth in 1945.

The Laborite motion was rejected 326-228, a vote margin that showed Macmillan is still firmly in control of his party despite grumblings from some Conservatives.

Bible-Reading In Schools Protested

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Jewish Congress called on the New York City Board of Education Monday to discontinue Bible-reading in public schools, a practice it said was widespread in the city school system.

In a letter to the board president, Max J. Rubin, the AJC called attention to the unanimous ruling of U.S. District Court in Philadelphia last Thursday holding that daily reading of the Bible in public schools is unconstitutional.

The AJC opposes Bible-reading in the schools as a breach of the separation of church and state.

The new size Dodge Dart has the most powerful standard six engine in the business. It develops 145 horsepower from 225 cubic inches. It takes a V8 in other cars priced near Dart to keep up with it. Even then most of them can't. Dead weight and useless overhang have been all but eliminated in the '62 Dart. What results is an astonishing power-to-weight ratio that makes a Dart-6 act like an eight. And remember, this is the same six that got better than 23 miles to the gallon in last year's Mobilgas Economy Run. Frankly, we don't think anybody but a pro can get this kind of mileage. But it does give you an idea of the engine's potential. Repeated tests in the new size Dart prove that it will deliver at least 5% better gas economy than last year. See your Dodge Dealer now and drive the new-size Dodge Dart. There's no better value on the market today.

Linda Staton Receives Top Honor

Linda Carol Staton is winner from Snyder High School in the 1962 Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow, thus becoming eligible for one of 102 scholarships which total $110,000.

Having received the highest score in her school in the knowledge and attitude test on homemaking given senior girls Dec. 5, the winner now will have her paper entered in competition with those of winners in other high schools of the state for state honors.

The State Homemaker of Tomorrow to be named in the spring, will receive a $1,500 scholarship from General Mills, sponsor of the program. A $500 award will go to the second highest ranking state Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Later, State Homemakers of Tomorrow with their advisors will enjoy an expense-paid educational tour of New York City, Washington, D.C., and Colonial Williamsburg, Va., to culminate with the naming of the 1962 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow May 3 at a banquet in Williamsburg.

The national winner's scholarship will be increased to $5,000, with second, third and fourth place winners receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships, respectively.

The homemaking test, prepared and scored by Science Research Associates, Chicago, provides the basis for selection of local and state Homemakers of Tomorrow, with personal observation and interviews as added factors in national judging.

The 1962 Betty Crocker Search reached another all-time high in enrollment, with 406,132 girls in 12,874 schools participating. In the eight years since the program started, more than two and a half million girls have enrolled, and, including this year, scholarship awards will total more than three quarters of a million dollars.

Students In Tokyo Cheer R. Kennedy

By CONRAD FINK

TOKYO (AP) — Thousands of students at Tokyo's Waseda University gave Robert F. Kennedy a roaring, cheering welcome today, but shouting, jeering leftists broke up a speech by the U.S. attorney general. It was the first hostility Kennedy has met on his visit to Japan.

It was estimated the hecklers totaled fewer than 100. U.S. Ambassador Edwin O. Reischauer said they were "a small group of hard-core Communists and I don't believe they were from Waseda."

Kennedy and his wife, Ethel, stood calmly on the university stage despite the pandemonium, then left the auditorium building through a rear door. Mrs. Kennedy was hit in the stomach by a gesticulating cheerleader trying to drown out the hecklers, but she quickly recovered her composure.

"I think the vast majority of the students were friendly," the President's brother said later. "I'm just sorry we didn't get more of a chance to exchange ideas. I'd like to go back."

Thousands of students swarmed about Kennedy's car as he drove into the university grounds to cheers of "Kennedy! Kennedy!" and cries of "Shake my hand."

The American visitor was literally carried up the steps of the building. Police and university security officials finally managed to get the disheveled Kennedy inside, but he turned and waved out the door, shouting "thank you!" A thunderous cheer went up from the students.

The auditorium was packed with about 6,000 students. As Kennedy waited to begin his speech, a disturbance broke out in the front rows and several youths tried to climb on the stage. Small knots of strategically located young people set up cries of "Kennedy go home. Kennedy off the platform. Cuba. Okinawa."

Most of the students kept quiet, and the attorney general plunged resolutely into his speech, reviewing his brother's policies. When he said he would discuss the "responsibilities of living in a democratic nation," strong applause broke out, but jeering, shouting students in the rear of the hall drowned out the rest of his remarks.

A college cheerleader jumped to the stage and got students to singing the university song. The leftists collected in the back of the hall, and the Communist international mingled with the school song.

The cheerleader then led the students in school cheers. From the back the hecklers continued jeering, heaped up wooden chairs and climbed on top of them, shouting, "Go home. Leave the platform. Cuba."

The Zengakuren leftist students' group said representatives from 30 of its chapters were at the university to ask questions of Kennedy and present petitions. The Zengakuren organization led the 1960 riots that resulted in cancellation of President Dwight D. Eisenhower's visit to Japan.

A Marine Corps helicopter was stationed about three miles away for use if it had been necessary to move the Kennedy party out by air.

Ambassador Reischauer said he thought the incident would backfire on the agitators.

"It provided a good case of the Communists exposing themselves for what they are, a small minority trying to dominate the majority—and that point became obvious to everyone else in the room," he said.

Four Charged In Robbery, Kidnaping

CHICAGO (AP) — Four men were charged Monday night with aggravated kidnaping and armed robbery in connection with the abduction and ransom of a South Side businessman's wife and their two teen-age children.

Irving Chanenson, 43, an auto parts dealer, reported to police Friday that he had just paid $4,600 to ransom his wife and two children from four Negro gunmen who invaded the Chanenson's home last Thursday night.

Police said the amount of ransom was first given as $8,200 in the hope of affecting a falling-out among the kidnapers. Chanenson told police the gunmen demanded $40,000 when they first invaded his home.

Held on charges of aggravated kidnaping and armed robbery were: Robert Hall, 28, an ex-convict who formerly worked for Chanenson; William Evans, 30, described by Pierson as a $40-a-day drug addict; Joseph Dear, 19 and Uwles Robinson, 27.

Police said $2,300 of the ransom money has been recovered.

Mrs. Chanenson and the two children were taken to an unheated apartment where they were held under guard for several hours.

Chanenson's wife, Gloria, 41; his daughter, Eileen, 18, and his son, Larry, 14, were freed within minutes after the payoff. None was harmed.

Penalties for aggravated kidnaping range from one year in prison to death in the electric chair.

Reservists Bring On A Minor Boom

By LEROY HITTLE

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — A minor economic boom with a Midwest flavor has hit this northwest corner of the United States.

It started four months ago when President Kennedy decided to build up the nation's armed forces because of the Berlin crisis.

About 20,000 National Guardsmen and Army Reservists—most of them from Wisconsin and other Midwestern states—were called to active duty at nearby Ft. Lewis.

With the troops came wives and children who required homes, food, clothing, schools, fuel, transportation, gasoline, electricity, services and other items.

Most of the housing at Ft. Lewis already was occupied by regular Army troops and their families.

As a result, the civilian soldiers with wives and children descended upon Olympia, Washington's capital city 15 miles west of Ft. Lewis, and Tacoma, the state's third largest city, 15 miles east of the Army post.

Almost overnight the long lists of furnished apartments disappeared from the classified advertisement pages of Olympia and Tacoma newspapers.

Merchants reported an upsurge in business.

A representative of the Ft. Lewis public information office reported that the 20,000 additional troops would boost the post payroll about $4 million a month to a total of more than $100 million annually, with other millions spent for food and supplies.

Most of the military migration was from Wisconsin to Washington as a result of the call to active duty of the 32nd Infantry Division, the Wisconsin National Guard.

"Fillers" came from other Midwestern states to bring the Red Arrow Division up to its authorized strength of 13,748 men.

More than 5,500 other troops reported at Ft. Lewis as part of 30 smaller National Guard and Army Reserve units mobilized from California, Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, South Dakota, North Dakota, Texas and Washington.

Residents of Olympia and Tacoma welcomed the young civilian soldiers and their families like long-lost relatives.

Churches held coffee hours to welcome the visitors. Soldiers were invited into Washington homes. Clubs and social organizations opened their doors to the men and their wives. Efforts were made to find housing for them.

Wives of many of the servicemen have taken jobs. They attend church in Olympia and Tacoma. Some, like Mrs. Bruce L. Hahn and Mrs. John D. Hahn of Clinton, Wis., sing in the choir.

The Hahns, whose 32nd Division husbands are second cousins, both work in a medical clinic in Olympia. The two families jointly rented a furnished house to cut down expenses, a common practice.

"We took a heavy reduction in our income and the cost of living is higher here," said Mrs. Bruce Hahn, 24, whose husband was in the grocery business with his father back in Clinton.

"We couldn't possibly get along if the wives didn't work," she added. "We help make ends meet by buying our food at the Army commissary and by two or more couples jointly renting a house."

Pfc. George M. Bickel, Jr., 23, Milwaukee, said his income dropped almost $400 a month when he was called from his job as a salesman for an oil company and placed on active duty as a 32nd Division cook.

"Prices are higher here," he said, "especially food."

The lament of lower income and higher prices was voiced in the basement of an Olympia apartment house where a number of the wives gathered in the laundry room for the daily social hour.

"We used to have a few luxuries at home, but we buy only necessities here," said the wife of Pfc. Jack Christopherson of Racine, Wis.

The personnel section of the 32nd Division estimated that there were 5,500 dependents of the officers and men in Washington, most of them living in civilian communities near Ft. Lewis.

The post provost marshal said there were between 5,000 and 6,000 cars in the area belonging to members of the 32nd Division.

Mayor Ben Hanson of Tacoma said the arrival of the 32nd Division and other Reserve units has given a noticeable boost to our economy.

"I haven't heard of any problems," Hanson said. "They are fitting into our community very fine.

The influx of visitors put a strain on some of the public school systems, especially in the elementary grades.

With the children came wives of servicemen who qualified as teachers. Some were hired for regular classroom instruction. Others were registered to bolster the list of available substitute teachers.

Tacoma public schools reported an increase of about 300 youngsters. Most were absorbed in existing classes, although four additional elementary classes were opened.

Two school districts serving the Olympia area — Olympia and North Thurston — reported enrollment increases totaling 400 pupils.

"I'm continually amazed every day by the number of Wisconsin men who are planning to stay here," said J. W. Johnson, executive secretary of the Olympia chamber. "They inquire about jobs and ask for information on the state and the Olympia area. They ask about schools and churches.

"I think one reason they feel at home here is that they came out as a unit rather than as individuals. They had a feeling of belonging."

Concert Assn. Changes Date For Drive

The Scurry Concert Association has announced a change in the dates for its membership campaign week to April 30 through May 5. The change has been effected to allow the group additional time to prepare for the campaign, additional time to study the talent available for the 1962-63 program series, and to accommodate the services to the group of Roy J. Williams, United Audience Service, New York City.

Williams will be in Snyder for a week prior to the campaign, as well as during the campaign week itself, to assist the local group in preparing for and carrying through their campaign.

Replies to the Scurry Concert Association's recent direct mail campaign are still being received. A spokesman for the group indicated the hope that all persons who have not yet sent in their reply will do so in the near future. The information gathered from these replies will greatly assist in plans for the membership campaign as well as giving an indication of the general type of program which is preferred.

Woman Convicted Of Tying Up Line

Stockton, Calif. (AP)—Virginia Irene Plumb, 44, was convicted Monday of attempting to hog a telephone line during an emergency last July.

Mrs. Plumb was charged with refusing to relinquish her rural party line to Mrs. Ora Smith who was attempting to summon aid for her baby, whom she believed critically ill.

The defense contended that no real emergency existed since the baby was dead at the time of Mrs. Smith's attempted call. The prosecution held Mrs. Plumb should be judged guilty of an attempt to commit the crime.

Judge William Dozier set sentencing for Feb. 20.

Convention Speeches Confuse Delegates

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — You couldn't blame delegates to the Virginia Farm Equipment Association convention if they left Monday's session a bit confused.

One speaker issued a call for "new dedication to old-fashioned thinking and salesmanship."

The very next speaker advised the delegates not to use "the same methods of selling as in the day of the one-room schoolhouse."

The next speaker's topic was "Today's problems."

From me to you A DAILY VIEW

Rev. R. Charles Spivey

"For there is no distinction; since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, they are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as an expiation by his blood, to be received by faith." Romans 3:23-25.

These verses from the apostle Paul are almost a summary of the whole gospel. It tells of man's fall, that all men have sinned against God. It tells of God's plan of action to bring men back into the family again,—that God out of his great love for men whom he had created, sent Jesus Christ to die on a cruel cross, thereby giving to men the gift of fellowship in the family of God once more.

It tells of the way in which men can have this gift of God—that it is received, not by man's merit, not by man's effort, not by man's inherent goodness (he dosen't have any); rather it is received, as a gift, by the faith in God alone.

Tiger, Wolf Quintets Battle Tonight, 8 p.m.

With the grim reminder of their "near miss" against Colorado City's Wolves earlier in the season foremost in their minds, the Snyder Tigers travel to the Wolf lair tonight to do battle again at 8 p.m.

The two schools will meet in a B game at 6:15.

The Tigers currently rest in the district's number three slot with a 4-2 reading, while the Wolves have yet to post their first victory in five attempts. Overconfidence should be the furtherest thing from the minds of the Bengals of Coach J. P. Ward, however, as it may be remembered that in their first clash they had to recuperate from an 8-16 halftime deficit and rally mightily to take a 40-39 win.

The Wolves incorporated a stall game that almost paid off handsomely on that occasion, and may have some more of those hijinks in store tonight.

Over the entire season Snyder now may boast of a 13-10 record, while Colorado City is 4-16.

Tentative Tiger starters include Steve Free, Travis (Pooch) Hatter, Freddy Miller, William Robinson, and either Tim Marcum or Eddie Phy.

Miller has been ailing recently, but is expected to be able to play.

Wolf coach Caddo Matthews is expected to go along with Steve Hillhouse, Ronald Lyon, Bobby Nobles, Kenneth Stinson and Larry Oliver.

Snyder B will enter its contest with a fine 14-8 record for the season and a 4-2 reading within the district. After dropping their first two 3-AAA tilts, the Tiger juniormen have come back strong to ring up wins in their most recent four. Included in the string was a 65-35. clobbering of tonight's opponents.

Leading Snyder B scoring is Benny Minor, who has sacked up 190 points for an average of 8.6 per outing. Four of his teammates have also notched over 100 points for the season including Billy Stewart (134), Jim Marcum (103), and Jimmy Wilson (101). Wilson has been seeing duty on both the varsity and B teams during the greater part of the season.

The other district match of tonight pits Lake View and Lamesa in Lamesa. Should the latter team win at that time as expected, then it will move into a first-place tie with Sweetwater, a team that is resting on its laurels this evening.

All Southwest Conference basketball teams are in action Tuesday night, and each game will have at least two of the top 10 scorers.

Jan Loudermilk, who tops the league with 290 points for an 18.1 average, will lead Southern Methodist against Texas at Dallas in a survival game. SMU must win to stay in the title race. Texas needs a victory to hang among the leaders.

Texas doesn't have a player among the top 10 scorers but it does have the two most accurate field goals shooters—Jack Dugan and Jimmy Brown, who rank 1-2. Dugan has a .556 average, Brown .529.

League-leading Texas Tech is host to Texas Christian with three of the top five scorers vying. Harold Hudgens of Texas Tech is third with 262 points and Del Ray Mounts of Tech is sixth with 245. Phil Reynolds of TCU is tied for fourth with Carroll Broussard of Texas A&M with 257 points.

At College Station, Broussard heads a list of five of the league's top 14 scorers as Texas A&M entertains Rice. Three are sophomores—Kendall Rhine and Larry Phillips of Rice and Bennie Lenox of A&M, with 218, 202 and 192 points, respectively. A&M and Rice will be fighting for second place.

Owls, Bears Nab Fine Prospects

By The Associated Press

Rice and Baylor made big hauls in schoolboy football stars Monday.

Baylor got three all-staters in pre-enrollment registration. They were Ken Ozee, guard from Fort Worth Castleberry; tackle Mike Jurecek of Eldorado and Troy Kennedy, halfback from Breckenridge.

Baylor also signed Eddie Whidon, Amarillo Tascosa quarterback; Tommy Shaffner, Odessa Permian tackle; Dwin Finley, Anson center; Jerry Wimpee, Rockwall guard, and Will Walker, Carrollton end.

Rice landed Jimmy Kasch, San Marcos tackle; Glenn Hine, Devine halfback; Lanny Torrence, Corpus Christi Carroll halfback, and Howard Ayers, Carroll end.

Texas signed a basketball star —Wayne Ballard, a member of the Houston Austin team that won the Class AAAA state championship last winter. Ballard, an all-stater, finished his high school eligibility at midterm.

Ohio State Unanimous Pick Again

By The Associated Press

Unbeaten Ohio State has done it again. Once more the weekly Associated Press poll of a committee of sports writers and sportscasters has cast a unanimous ballot for the Buckeyes.

Coach Fred Taylor used all of his 14 men Saturday as Ohio State ran its winning streak to 18 by thumping Northwestern 97-61. The poll covered only games through Saturday, Feb. 3.

After Saturday's game with Minnesota, Ohio State will have only six more to play in the regular season, including a big date with Wisconsin March 3. Ohio State, upset in overtime in the NCAA final last year by Cincinnati for its only loss never has gone all the way to a perfect basketball season.

The only change among the top ten teams in the new poll found Oregon State (16-1) moving into the select circle and Southern California (12-4) dropping out after its defeat by UCLA.

Next after Ohio State came the Kentucky Wildcats (16-1) who added to their record last week by knocking off Georgia Tech, Georgia and Florida. Kentucky hasn't lost since it bowed to Southern Cal Dec. 4 in its second game.

Cincinnati held tight to third place, right on Kentucky's heels, by boosting its season record to 17-2 by beating Drake, Houston and North Texas State.

The standings of the top ten with first place votes in parentheses, points figured on the basis of 10, 9, 8, etc:

1.	Ohio State (41)	410
2.	Kentucky	352
3.	Cincinnati	334
4.	Kansas State	275
5.	Duke	227
6.	Duquesne	171
7.	Bradley	145
8.	Bowling Green	119
9.	Mississippi State	78
10.	Oregon State	58

Texans Trip C-City Twice

COLORADO CITY—Tom Kincaid poured 18 points through the hoops here Monday in leading Lamar 9th to a 58-40 victory over Colorado City.

The triumph upped the Texan record for the campaign to 13-4.

David McKay had 18 for the losers, also, to tie for game scoring honors. Second behind Kincaid in Texan point production was Danny Fenton, who had 10.

Texan Kenneth Dower grabbed off 13 rebounds to be tops in that department.

Lamar 8th experienced a cold shooting night from the field in falling to the home team 28-16. They could manage only one field goal during the entire first half, and at one stage of the game missed seven straight layups in what their coach described as his team's poorest performance of the season.

Bill Blum topped Texan scoring with 9.

The Texan 7th notched its eighth win in 12 attempts by dropping Colorado City 7th 31-25.

Rob Golden, with 8, was top scorer for Lamar, while Murray Bowden and Tommy Sinclair were only one point behind him. Jones of Colorado City was high for the game with 16 to his credit.

Lamar will host Big Spring Runnels in a cage tripleheader in Lamar Gym this Thursday. Efforts to re-schedule a trio of iced-out games with Colorado City proved fruitless, so that all three have been cancelled.

Lamar will cap off its season here Monday in Tiger Gym against crosstown foe Travis.

Johannson Plotting Comeback Strategy

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP) Ingemar Johansson has a three-part plan for his comeback, providing he beats former British champion Joe Bygraves in their 10-round heavyweight bout here Friday night.

1. Challenge Dick Richardson of Wales for the European title.

2. Fight Sonny Liston in an outdoor bout there.

3. Take another crack at the world title.

"I'm still young," Ingo, 29, said today, "and I've got another five years of boxing in me. I think I am still good enough to win back the world title if I get a chance."

The former champ, who hasn't fought since he lost by a knockout to heavyweight king Floyd Patterson in Miami last March, has seemed serious about training for the Bygraves fight.

"I went on a diet," Ingo said. "Previously, I used to eat anything and everything at anytime. Now I don't and I feel fitter and harder." He said he weighs 198.

His friend and adviser, Edvin Ahlquist, is encouraged by Johansson's condition and attitude.

"I thought Ingemar had decided to quit after he lost the second Patterson fight," Ahlquist said, said. "But he is determined to try to get back to the top. He looks great in training and is anxious to get as many fights as possible."

"If he beats Bygraves," Ahlquist said, "then he will have one other fight, probably next month, before challenging Richardson for the European title. I plan to match Johansson and Richardson in an open air fight at Goteborg Stadium in May. That fight would pull around 30,000 spectators.

"If Ingemar gets back his European crown, the man Ingemar would like to tackle is Liston. I am certain we could get up to 60,000 people and the takings would be something like $1½ million.

Impressive Lineup Due For Dallas Fete

DALLAS (AP)— The American League's batting champion Norm Cash, manager of the year Bob Scheffing and rookie of the year Don Schwall will be among the celebrities at a baseball dinner here Thursday night.

Cash will be honored as Texas major league player of the year by the Oldtimers Professional Baseball Association of North Texas. Scheffing, manager of the Detroit Tigers with whom Cash plays, will present the plaque.

Schwall will attend with his manager, Pinky Higgins of the Boston Red Sox.

Travis 9th Bops Lamesa

Onrushing Travis 9th stormed to its sixteenth win in 17 outings here Monday, knocking the props out from under Lamesa 74-55.

The Blue Devils' "Leslie combo" paced the scoring once again, with Leslie Brown ringing up 34 points and sidekick Leslie Anderson chipping in with 21.

The visiting Warriors placed four in double figures, with Franklin being high for the team with 14.

Over the span of the contest Travis capitalized on 30 of 65 field goal tries for 46 per cent and 14 of 21 gratis tosses for 67 per cent.

Reed Robinson and Gary Bergeron did a good job of cleaning the boards for the Blue Devils, and Jimmy Featherston sparkled in the playmaking department.

After building up a substantial 61-33 third quarter lead, the Blue Devil second and third teams took over and finished out the game.

In a game that left the fans limp, Lamesa dropped the Blue Devil 8th by 22-17 in a contest that was not decided until after two overtime periods.

Travis Rallies

Travis trailed by 10-14 going into the fourth quarter, and held the visitors scoreless during that stanza to deadlock the game at 14-14 at the end of the regulation time. Both quints managed three points in the inital overtime before Lamesa hit a hot streak in the second three-minute stretch to take the victory.

Blue Devil Jackie Rice led both teams in scoring with 12. Steve Robertson was high for Lamesa with 8.

Travis 7th also went under, 39-22, in a game Lamesa broke open in the final period after managing only a 24-20 third period advantage.

Gary Mayfield paced the winning effort with 10, and David Cadena was top man for Travis with 9. Kenny Haskell had 6 for the Blue Devils, also, all of which were canned from outside.

All three Travis teams will see action Thursday, when they hit the road for Big Spring for competition against Goliad Junior High.

WHAT? BUILD A PICKUP TRUCK SPECIALLY FOR TEXAS?

YES SIR—THE '62 FORD!

IT STARTED IN TEXAS—when Ford engineers came here to track down exactly what Texans need in a pickup. They drove Texas roads . . . talked to Texas truck owners . . . and produced a truck that fits Texas to a "T." Drive the '62 Ford pickup and you'll agree!

The wheelbase is long—114 easy-riding inches (122 for 8-foot bodies). There's little chance of bumper-scrape on inclines because of the short front overhang—and more ride stability. The ride is smo-o-o-oth. To the long wheelbase, add easy springing—and the ride's as soft as a Texas drawl!

The frame is strong. It's built to stand the twisting of high-crowned Texas roads.

The savings are BIG—and they start right today! You save now on Ford's pickup prices—the lowest of any leading make.* And you save from now on! Save on gas with Ford's modern engines, Six and V-8. Save on oil—go 4,000 miles between oil changes, thanks to Ford's Full-Flow oil filter. Save on tires because Ford's I-beam suspension keeps front tires tracking true. In certified tests against pickups using independent front suspension, Ford front tires lasted up to 83⅓ longer!

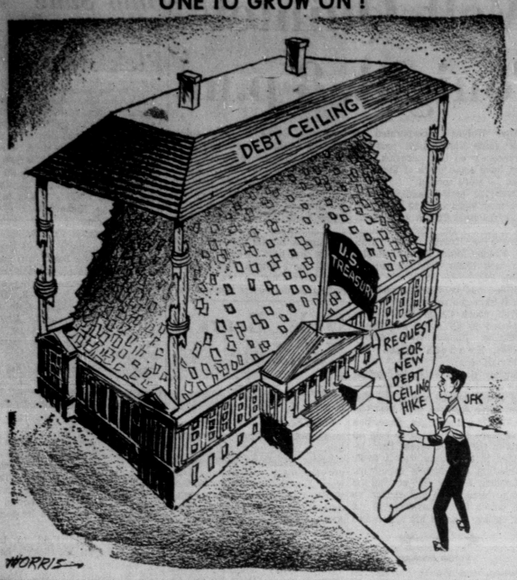

Stop in and drive a '62 Ford pickup today. It's built for Texas, built in Texas. Let us show you why Ford's full-time economy only starts with low price!

ONE TO GROW ON !

Men Really Indispensable, Especially On Moving Day

BY INEZ ROBB

Only a few days ago there appeared in a New York newspaper a portentous editorial, titled "Is Man Obsolete?"

No, no, a thousand times NO! Man, the strong, the brave, the calm, the resolute, the comforter of the weak; man, creation's noblest masterpiece! Far from being obsolete, he is the one indispensable ingredient. It is not too much to say that he is the secret ingredient, without which life has no savor, the salt no essence.

It is unthinkable that he should ever be replaced by machines, even automated, as the above-mentioned editorial broodingly contemplated. What womanly woman wants an IBM machine, no matter how smart in its deductions or swift in its calculations, to put its metallic arms around her to offer her a cold shoulder on which to cry in her time of troubles?

Every creature in the world has his breaking point. With calm and a semblance of bravado, I have withstood war, shot, shell, air raids, earthquakes, traffic, acts of God and the general meri and terl of modern life. However, I fall apart and go to pieces on moving day.

There are women, noble creatures, who surmount this awful ordeal when all is going to pot around them. But not me! The trial reduces me to quivering jelly, to a semi-strait jacket case. Oh, I'm just dandy when it comes to packing and sorting and indexing. And tagging each peice of furniture as to its future location in its new home.

But then comes the really fatal day when the movers arrive, and the very sight of them unhinges me. They have only to make a pass at Great Aunt Mary's desk or look at the old highboy, and I am, to all effects and purposes, a basket case.

Before me stretches only the boxed and barren wreckage of what, only a week ago, seemed a delightful home. Now, stripped and forlorn, everything without exception looks shaby—even shoddy—beyond compare. Junk, just junk, and how I shall ever reassemble it into another home worthy of the name escapes me. It seems doubtful that even the Salvation Army would touch the stuff for salvage!

At this point a miracle comes to pass. A tall, dark, handsome man stands in the middle of the whole mess, the monarch of the glen, the Colossus of Rhodes, the Rock of Gibraltar. Monumental in his calm, soothing in his speech and lofty in his control of the situation there stands man, my man, the Head of Clan Robb.

"Take it easy!" he commands, and adds, "take ten dollars and scram. Go to the movies, and keep going all day. Just get out from under, and don't come to the new apartment until at least 6 p.m."

Then, looking eight feet tall and capable of dealing with all natural disorders, such as moving, he says, "Everything's going to be all right! I promise you. Everything's going to be fine."

And I look at him with the awe and admiration that must have been mirrored in the eyes of those who heard General MacArthur, on another ominous and hectic day, murmur, "I shall return."

The moving men are regarding him with the look of men on the field of battle to recommend a Congressional Medal for a comrade, or at least a spot promotion. It is easy to read their collective minds. They are saying, plains as anything, "Here's a guy knows how to deal with a dizzy dame, get her out from underfoot and leave us to do the job without no interference."

So I take the $10 and depart. And that darling man takes over. When I finally reach the new apartment at 6:45 p.m., he is still in command, to the extent of having ferretted out the gin for a dry Martini.

"Have one on the new house," he says with a tired grin as he hands me the libation. "and when I get my strength back, I'll carry you over the threshold."

Man obsolete? Why, he is the center of the universe; the only really vital thing in it! A machine replace this miracle? What utter rubbish!

Visiting Ill Is Ritual Of Office Life

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the great rituals of office life is visiting "the one who is ill."

In a large business firm there is always someone coming down with ulcers, a strange virus, or just plain gravel in his gizzard.

One by one—or sometimes in glad groups—other members of the office herd wind slowly o'er the lea to their stricken fellow worker's pallet of pain, bringing him a nosegay of wilted daffodils and advice on how to get well.

If you have ever had to temporarily trade your swivel chair for a hospital bed, here are a few types of visitors from your office you are probably familiar with:

Hungry Hubert—He arrives just as they bring in your evening meal. "I wouldn't over load my stomach at a time like this," he says. Hubert lets you have the soup and crackers. Then he eats your bread and butter, roast beef and potatoes, and dessert. Then he borrows a toothpick and leaves grumbling, "How do they expect anyone to survive on grub like that?"

Ambitious Albert—He has always wanted your job. "Have they given you the last rites yet?" he asks hopefully. When you shake your head no, he says, "Well, see you back at the old salt mine." And he tromps out and goes to the nearest bar to drown his sorrow.

Take-charge Tillie—The personnel secretary is a frustrated Florence Nightingale. She stuffs three pillows under you to make you uncomfortable, bawls out the entire hospital staff for neglecting you. As soon as she departs, an angry nurse makes you unveil your backside and harpoons you with three needle shots—in revenge.

Opportunistic Oscar — "How about a little gin rummy?" he demands, pulling out a deck of cards and shuffling them on your stomach. He feels sure that in your weakened condition he can win back the $3.17 he lost to you in the locker room two weeks before.

Created-tongue Charlie — the office hypochondriac inquires about your symptoms in detail, asks to see your incision, if any. The next morning, early, he is wheeled into the next room as an emergency case. Overnight he has come down with your ailment.

Practical Pamela — The pretty stenographer told the boss she'd need three hours off to visit you. She sticks her head in the door, says "Hi!" brightly, and spends the remaining 2 hours, 59 minutes and 58 seconds doing her personal shopping.

His Omnipotence — The boss comes in swinging a golf club. "Take all the time you need—and don't worry," he burbles. "I've got one of the younger executive trainees filling in for you, and he's doing a real bang-up job."

That does it. Pale and wan, you show up at work the next day. You realize that the only place you'll ever recover is back in your warm swivel chair, where your office well-wishers will no longer bother to overwhelm you with cheer.

Asian Flu Hits

TOKYO (AP) — Asian flu has hit Tokyo again, and some 250 schools have been closed. Officials say it is a milder version than the virus which killed 683 persons here in 1956. No fatalities from the disease have been reported thus far.

Junior Editors Quiz on STARS

QUESTION: How were stars formed?

• • •

ANSWER: On a clear bright night we are able to see that the sky is filled with great numbers of stars, some very small and far away, others larger and much nearer. Stars are really large masses of hot gases. Some scientists believe they were formed ten billion years ago, when one big mass exploded and pieces tore off which became the stars and the sun, and the planets. Stars contain the same elements found in the earth, but since the stars are so much hotter, these elements are changed to gases. Scientists can tell what elements are in the stars by studying their light. Hydrogen, helium, calcium and iron are in all stars.

Stars are grouped together. The sun, the planets and most of the stars we can see. There are many galaxies like ours scattered throughout the universe, although none is larger than ours.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Study a group of stars in the sky near you. Study them a few hours later, and see how they seem to have moved. See if you can learn why.

Touchy Theme Handled Well In Musical

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP)—A pair of rookie authors handle a touchy theme with highly entertaining results in "Fly Blackbird."

The musical, which arrived Monday night at the tiny Mayfair Theater in a Broadway basement, concerns racial integration. It rollicks with good nature, rocks with melodic ingenuity and rarely sermonizes.

Score, lyrics and book are the joint creation of Clarence Jackson and James Hatch, whom the program identifies only as "on the staff" of the University of California at Los Angeles. Jackson is a Negro.

The show, their first professional stage venture, was inspired by a speech delivered by the Rev. Martin Luther King, integration leader. A one-act version was presented on the West Coast last year.

The slender story concerns a group of New York college students who get locked up after an exuberant — and tuneful — anti-segregation session in a park. The yarn is merely a device for some fairly fanciful side excursions into such matters as mixed blood, Uncle Tom-ism and crusade methods.

Like Ossie Davis, author of the current comedy "Purlie Victorious," Jackson and Hatch are tackling their subject with laughter. The team also manages to strike a balance of candor and to remind that "every problem has two points of view."

The music is hauntingly fresh and distinctive, providing both the dancers and vocalists with exciting challenge. The company includes Avon Long of "Porgy and Bess" fame, Robert Guillaume, Mary Louise, Thelma Oliver, Glory Van Scott, Helen Blount and Michael Kermoyan. All are rousing under the Jerome Eskow direction.

Robert Soule's sets and costumes are imaginatively adapted to the Mayfair's congested facilities. An engaging and clever show, all around.

Airline Is Fined By FAA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Braniff Airways has drawn a $14,000 fine from the Federal Aviation Agency for inadequate maintenance.

R. V. Carleton, vice president of the Dallas firm, protested the penalty indicted Braniff was negligent while it actually is a responsible and capable firm dedicated to safe, reliable and economincal operation.

The FAA said Braniff X-rayed a "right front spar cap" on a DC6 Jan. 4, 1961, and the films were developed but apparently were not inspected. Although they showed a crack, it said the part was not repaired or replaced until Feb. 28, after the plane had made 126 scheduled flights, three training flights and one ferry flight.

The FAA charged Braniff with other violations.

Daily Crude Flow Drops

TULSA (AP)—U.S. oil production dipped slightly last week, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

The magazine said average daily production of crude oil and lease condensate for the week ended Feb. 3 was 7,402,332 barrels, down 13,773.

Oklahoma with production of 518,000 barrels daily, was down 17,700 from the previous week. Colorado output fell 2,600 barrels to 120,000 per day and Texas dipped 2,075 barrels to 2,658,965 a day. Louisiana was up 4,250 barrels to 1,300,000.

License Is Sought For Dam On Sabine

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Sabine River authorities in Texas and Louisiana filed a joint application Monday for a Federal Power Commission license to build the $54.5 million Toledo Bend Dam Project on the Sabine.

Utilities in both states would buy the power generated at the project. It would have a capacity of 86,400 kilowatts.

The project would be in Newton, Shelby and Sabine counties in Texas and Sabine and DeSoto parishes in Louisiana.

Former Texas Attorney Dies

DALLAS (AP) — Death has claimed George Blackburn, 74, a former prosecutor and assistant Texas attorney general.

He died Thursday in a hospital at Vista, Calif.

Blackburn retired in 1960 after three years as an assistant to Atty. Gen. Will Wilson. Previously he was a city and district attorney at Paris and for 16 years was a district judge in Fannin and Lamar counties.

Blackburn once practiced law in Tyler.

Kennedy Is Using Family Diplomats

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has picked up what President Eisenhower started — the informal, personal, and even family touch in foreign affairs — and added some touches of his own.

His most glittering addition has been the decision to let his wife, Jacqueline Kennedy, make a goodwill trip to India and Pakistan next month.

Even Premier Khrushchev seems taken by the idea of making use of somebody besides ambassadors in foreign dealings.

He sent his son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubei, editor of Izvestia, over here last November to interview Kennedy. Last week Adzhubei came back for a three-hour luncheon at the White House.

President Truman, except at the beginning of his presidency, stayed pretty much to home, as did most of his predecessors except for the trips of Presidents Roosevelt and Wilson as a result of war.

Eisenhower in his first year traveled to Canada, Mexico and Bermuda on official business.

Kennedy traveled even more in his first 12 months: to Canada, Bermuda, England; France, Austria (to see Khrushchev), Colombia, and Venezuela.

Eisenhower did much more traveling later in his presidency. Kennedy is a cinch to do more too.

In his first year Eisenhower used his family in foreign affairs, sending his brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, to Latin America on a fact-finding mission.

Also in 1953 he sent Vice President Richard O. Nixon on a goodwill visit to Asia.

Kennedy in his first year sent Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson on a goodwill journey to Asia. Now the president's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, is making a 26-day goodwill trip through Asia and Europe.

This month the President's youngest brother, Edward M. Kennedy, is to go to Poland. But this has been described as a private trip with no arrangements for meeting the Communist leaders there.

Earlier last year the President sent both brothers, Edward and Robert, to Africa on separate missions. His brother-in-law, Sargent Shriver, visited South America in behalf of the Peace Corps he heads.

Sisters Jean Smith and Eunice Shriver took a vacation behind the Iron Curtain but managed to have tea with the wife of Yugoslavia's President Tito.

The Kennedy family is a big one and before the President's term is up the various members of it ought to cover a lot of international real estate.

Compared with today's jet-traveling world leaders, Stalin was a stay-at-home except for his wartime conferences with Roosevelt. It was the extroverted Khrushchev who put the personal touch by personal visit into Soviet foreign affairs.

Maybe he got the traveling idea from Eisenhower. Perhaps he thought of it himself. But he became quite a traveler, although he didn't start moving around until 1953. Then he made up for lost time.

Kennedy and Khrushchev have used their press relations men to work out some pretty important arrangements.

Last June 24 Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's press secretary, appeared on a TV debate in New York with Adzhubei and Mikhail Kharlamov, press officer of the Soviet Foreign Ministry, discussing the role of the press.

All three then came to Washington and for a couple of days talked about ways to improve communications between the United States and Russia.

Out of this discussion, which was right after Khrushchev had given interviews to three American newsmen in Russia, came the idea for Adzhubei's interview with Kennedy in November, the text of which was printed in Russia.

All this, of course, had Khrushchev's approval. There can hardly be any doubt he picked his son-in-law, who is also a member of the Soviet Communist party's Central Committee, to do the interviewing.

Salinger has traveled abroad to confer with Allied press chiefs. Recently on one of these trips to Paris he reportedly talked with Kharlamov about having Kennedy and Khrushchev make TV films which would be shown in each other's country.

Last week, while Adzhubei was here to lunch with Kennedy, it was announced that Salinger has been invited to visit Russia later this year. He'll go, with Kennedy's full approval.

Frigid Air Hits Areas Of Midwest

By The Associated Press

Frigid air from Canada, powered by stiff northerly winds, enveloped broad areas of the nation's midsection today and the sting of the icy air was felt all the way into sections of the Gulf Coast.

Most of the eastern half of the nation was in the path of the arctic blasts, which ended a brief spell of mild weather.

Coldest weather appeared confined to Minnesota, with temperatures dropping nearly 30 degrees below zero in International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border. Monday's high in the norther border town was 10 below, and it was -27 this morning. It was -16 in Minneapolis and -17 in Duluth, Minn. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., reported -15.

Below zero readings also were reported in parts of Michigan, Wisconsin, the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska and northern Illinois. It was -1 in Chicago, which had a spring-like reading of 50 Sunday.

Cold wave or freeze warnings were in effect as far south as the Gulf Coast states from southern Texas east, northeastward through the lower and middle Mississippi Valley, the Ohio Valley, most of the Great Lakes region and sections of the Northeast.

Fire Sweeps Beatnik Spot

FORT WORTH (AP)—Fire in downtown Fort Worth early today swept through a closed beatnik house and spread upward into an old three-story building.

Fire officials estimated damage at $30,000.

The blaze, they said, started under the back stairway of The Cellar, a beatnik nightspot closed Sunday by health officials, and spread up an elevator shaft to the upper floors.

Two firemen, Mike Darwin, 23, and R. L. Auerbach, 31, were overcome by smoke in the third floor of the building, formerly known as the Honolulu Building.

Fire Chief H. A. Owens said when his men arrived they found the back door open and pillows, cushions and a settee flaming in The Cellar's stairway.

The Cellar was closed by the Public Health Department after a vice squad raid early Sunday.

Jail Chosen By Marchers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nine "peace marchers" arrested in front of the White House have chosen 10 days in jail instead of paying $10 fines for refusing to comply with a Washington picketing law.

The group was arrested Monday after refusing to obey a police order to move to the far end of a park across from the White House. Six others in the group sponsored by the Committee for Nonviolent Action of New York complied. All were protesting nuclear testing.

Police said they arrested the nine after explaining to them a Washington law forbidding demonstrations within 500 feet of an embassy or the grounds of any building occupied by foreign dignitaries. The police acted after Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula entered the White House for luncheon with President Kennedy.

The nine, who agreed to move across the street to the park but not to the far end of it, later told Municipal Judge Edward A. Beard they felt "morally obligated" not to pay the fine.

The nine were identified as Scott Herick, 36; his wife Beatrice, 26; Robert Gilmore, 40; and Susan Hoffman, 19, all of New York; Lawrence Scott, 53, Washington; Gerald B. Lehmann, 25, Mokena, Ill.; Harry Purvis, 46, Northport, N.Y.; Stephen Groff, 20, Souderton, Pa., and Beverley Kanegson, 21, Norwich, Conn.

Explosive Situation Is Found In Home

NEW YORK (AP)—Joseph Martin found a potentially explosive situation in his home Monday night.

Martin, who had just moved into his Bronx apartment, was plastering a closet when he came across a live hand grenade and a live bazooka shell.

Police deactivated the devices.

Army Is Set To Release Reservists

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Army reported today it is releasing an undisclosed number of reservists it acknowledged shouldn't have been called to active duty during the Berlin crisis mobilization.

It said it "has instructed the field to advise those individuals erroneously called up they are eligible for release from the service."

Involved are men who, due to misinterpretation of policy, were kept in the ready Reserve when they should have been transferred to the inactive Reserve.

Th Army said it does not have any figures on the number affected. Generally, they are among the more than 14,000 Army reservists ordered to duty specifically to fill up ranks of understrength Reserve and National Guard units mustered into active service last fall.

During the mobilization, some protested they were called up unjustly. The Army in effect admitted this today, saying "during the build-up certain personnel were called to active duty erroneously."

It noted that men entering the Army before enactment of the 1955 Reserve forces law incurred an eight-year ready Reserve obligation.

"When they completed five years of combined active duty and a ready Reserve service they were eligible for transfer to the standby Reserve," the Army said.

"Some Army installations misinterpreted Army policy and carried the men in the ready Reserve for the entire eight years and did not transfer them to the standby Reserve," the Army said.

"Consequently they were retained in the ready Reserve and ordered to active duty."

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara told a news conference Monday he couldn't say when the 156,000 Army, Navy and Air Force reservists called up last fall can plan to go home.

"At this time, in a period of tension and crisis, we cannot give any specific date," McNamara said.

Says Walker Will Trail

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edwin Walker, the former major general, will trail badly in his Texas race for governor, Sen. Stephen Young, D-Ohio, said Monday.

He told the Senate that "wealthy right wingers" are putting up the money for Walker to make the campaign. Young said they are largely Republicans who feel potential 1964 candidates for president are "too liberal or too much to the left."

Walker, a native Texan, resigned his Army commission last year after a controversy arose over his public statements and the information program for soldiers he commanded in Germany before being relieved of that post.

Young assailed Walker for criticizing former President Harry Truman. The senator said:

"Apparently, this John Birch party member believes that as a man on horseback he will ride to the White House come 1964 as a Confederate cavalryman after enjoying a brief interregnum as governor of Texas. Some Texas businessmen and oil millionaires are supposed to be backing him."

Tiros Firing Is Postponed

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Technical troubles with the booster rocket forced postponement today of an attempt to launch an improved Tiros weather satellite into orbit.

Scientists had only a 47-minute period ending at 7:50 a.m. in which to launch the rocket to put the Tiros IP payload on the proper course. When it became apparent that the problem could not be corrected in this time, the shot was called off for the day.

No new launching date was set. If the trouble is minor another effort may be made Wednesday.

Tiros IV is the fourth in a series of satellites aimed at developing a worldwide network of space stations to forecast weather by photographing earth cloud cover.

Peron Is Barred As Argentine Candidate

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A court barred three political parties Monday from running ex-dictator Juan D. Peron as a candidate for Parliament in the March elections.

Dr. Leopoldo Isaurralde of the Electoral Court ruled that Person, now in exile in Spain, had not kept his residence in Buenos Aires and his name could not figure in the electoral rolls of the capital. He also noted in his decision that Peron was illegally incapacitated because of four charges still pending against him as a fugitive.

Elizabethan Era Into 2nd Decade

By ANTHONY WHITE

LONDON (AP) — The second decade of the new Elizabethan era began today with artillery and flag salutes to Queen Elizabeth II and toasts in the pubs to a long and happy reign for the 35-year-old monarch.

Elizabeth was expected to spend the 10th anniversary of her becoming queen quietly with her family. It was a day of leave-taking for the monarch and her husband, Prince Philip, who leaves by plane tonight for a two-month tour of Latin America.

It was also a day of sad memory, the 10th anniversary of the death of her father, King George VI. She was in Africa on Feb. 6, 1952, dressed in slacks, excitedly watching wild game, when the news was brought that the king had died and she was Britain's ruler.

Telegrams flooding into Buckingham Palace indicated her place in the heart of the vast number of Britons is as strong as ever. Newspapers trumpeted loyal toasts.

No sovereign, said the Daily Telegraph, has more completely realized the fusion of mystery, splendor and plain humanity than has the second Elizabeth.

"The crown," it said, "can no longer provide a bond of union between the kingdoms and republics of the Commonwealth; the queen can. In her they have seen courage, devotion to her high duty, radiant happiness in worthily fulfilling it. By such qualities hearts are won."

But there is growing public criticism of some aspects of Britain's ancient royal system. Some observers, noting the changing social habits of Britons growing ever more prosperous, say there must be some radical change in the queen's own public expression of her historic role.

"She has been criticized for being unduly conventional, and too much withdrawn from the life of her subjects," said the Manchester Guardian. "And the criticism has substance.

"In her public role the queen has cast herself as a carefully conventional woman of no known opinions; in her private life she pursues the traditional interests of a wealthy country landowner.

"Is this good enough for the long reign that seems likely to stretch before her? The candid answer must be no."

The Guardian said that much more significant than the queen's remaining political rights is her power to influence social attitudes.

"The queen has neglected this aspect of twentieth century monarchy. At a time when qualities of innovation, originality and daring are needed to regalvanize our society, the royal family ought to think of themselves as pacesetters."

Astrologers Are Feeling Evil Effects

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The first evil effect of the planetary conjunction has fallen on the astrologers and soothsayers who predicted the weekend's celestial phenomenon would bring horrible calamities to the world.

A crowd of women in Jaipur chased four Hindu priests and beat up two of them for being scaremongers.

"Astrologers ridiculed by Delhi citizens," India's largest chain of newspapers, the Indian Express, said today over its lead story.

"Cassandras belied but can still argue," the Hindustan Times said.

Some of the doomsday boys kept up a last-ditch battle.

"The Western countries are in for trouble the next 30 months," Swami Madhavacharya persisted.

The clean-shaven pandit told a news conference the moon had left the conjunction but Saturn had taken over for the next 30 months.

"Saturn is black in color and therefore it is bad for the whites" he argued.

The swami said congregational prayers, mainly for the welfare of the Western nations, will continue until Feb. 26 outside the 17th century Mogul gate.

Poona was rocked with two earth tremors of slight intensity Sunday but meteorologists hurried to deny any connection with the planetary conjunction.

The rumble of a passing truck set off earthquake scares in a congested area of Calcutta. One person was trampled to death in the stampede.

Mexican Airline Is Near Bankruptcy

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The Mexican airline Compania Mexicana de Aviacion has been officially described as near bankruptcy by a government fact-finding board.

The group, headed by Gen. Roberto Fierro, chief of the Mexican Air Force, strongly recommended Monday the immediate adoption of emergency measures to save the company.

The board recommended a 15 per cent reduction of personnel, a 12 per cent salary cut and the financial help of the government.

Rusk Says Bonds Must Be Purchased

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today national interests "allow us no choice" except to buy U.N. bonds.

Testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Rusk led off the Kennedy administration's drive for authorization to buy up to $100 million of the $200 million U.N. bond issue.

The bonds are designed to help the United Nations out of a financial hole deepened by its Congo operation and Soviet refusal to pay Russia's share of the costs.

Rusk made it plain he sees the United Nations as a necessary mainstay of U.S. foreign policy in the years ahead.

Rusk cited what he said were these dollars-and-cents reasons why the United States should buy $100 million of bonds:

1. Rather than letting the non-paying U.N. members like Russia get off the hook, the bond issue would put pressure on them to pay up lest they lose their vote in the United Nations.

2. Since bond repayments are to become part of the U. N.'s regular budget, this would drop the U.S. contribution to Congo costs from 47.5 per cent to 32.02 per cent and Congress would not have to appropriate new money for Congo operations next year.

County's Traffic Toll Up Sharply

Scurry County had an 80 per cent increase in fatal traffic accidents in 1961 over 1960, Sgt. B. J. Butler of the Texas Highway Patrol, has reported.

During the past calendar year, Scurry County logged nine fatal accidents, compared to five in 1960. The 1961 accidents resulted in 12 deaths, compared to five for the previous year.

Totals for 1961 also show 30 personal injury accidents, with the property loss totalling $41,820. In all, there were 91 traffic accidents in the county reported to the Department of Public Safety.

In 1960, in addition to the five fatal accidents, there were 33 personal injury accidents with 64 persons injured, and 63 property damage accidents with losses totalling $64,668. There was a total of 101 accidents in 1960.

Thus, the county had a reduction in every category, except in fatal accidents and total deaths.

Sgt. Butler said a survey revealed that most of the accidents were caused by excessive speed, and that a stepped-up enforcement program for Scurry County is being instituted in 1962.

The traffic death record for 1961 was the worst for Scurry County in the past decade.

During the period from 1952 through 1961 there were 77 deaths, 631 persons injured and a total property loss of $636,724.

Says Show Should Have Been Canceled

WASHINGTON (AP)—A television network president says that on second thought he should have canceled the show in which teen-age singer Fabian portrayed a psychopathic killer.

Oliver Treyz, president of the American Broadcasting Co. television network, told the Federal Communications Commission Monday orders have been given that ABC is not to rerun the controversial episode of the "Bus Stop" series which appeared last Dec. 3.

Treyz was testifying as the FCC resumed its hearings on television network programming practices. The commission recessed the hearings today for another meeting, but will return to the subject Wednesday, with more testimony from ABC executives.

Prior to its showing, the regular sponsors of the "Bus Stop" series dropped the episode and 25 ABC affiliates declined to show it.

Entitled "A Lion Walks Among Them," the show featured Fabian in the role of an immoral and murderous youth. Treyz called the show a borderline case when he testified last month before a Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee hearing.

Asked by FCC Chairman Newton Minow if he had acceded to a request by the National Association of Broadcasters for an advance screening, Treyz replied: "No. We didn't think that it was necessary because our standards are as high as theirs."

New Solons Assigned To Committees

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two new congressmen from Texas received committee assignments Monday.

Rep. Clark Thompson, another member of the Texas delegation, said Rep. Ray Roberts of McKinney will serve on the House Veterans Affairs Committee and Rep. Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls on the House Agriculture Committee.

Roberts took his oath earlier in the day as representative of the North Texas district the late Speaker Sam Rayburn served for nearly half a century.

Before studying law and winning election as a district judge, Purcell took a degree in animal husbandry from Texas A&M College.

"Agriculture is vitally important to my district," Purcell said in voicing satisfaction at his assignment. "I will do my best to render a real service on the committee."

Thompson announced the appointments as a member of the House Ways and Means Committee, whose Democrats also constitute a committee on committees for others of their party in the House.

FLOYDADA (AP)—A picture of one of the FBI's most wanted men on a post office billboard led to his capture Monday.

Federal agents nabbed Delbert Linaweaver, 30, described by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover as a vicious jailbreaker who had vowed not to be taken alive, on a farm near here in West Texas. He was not armed.

The FBI said he would be arranged today at Lubbock.

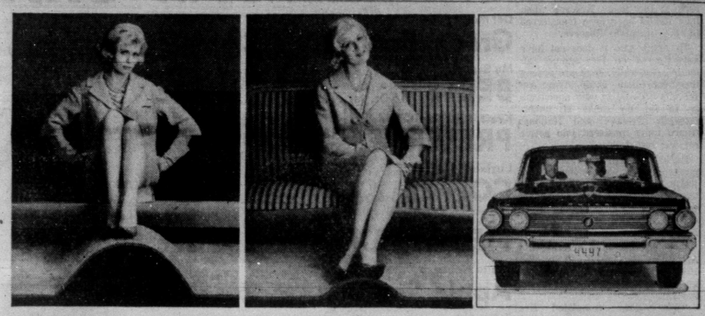

Linaweaver had been working on the farm slightly more than a year, using the name of James Thomas. He married a Floydada woman last July at Clovis, N.M. They lived at Silverton, where she operated a cafe.

Sheriff Walter Hollins of Floydada notified the FBI after two men who knew Linaweaver told him Thomas was the same man pictured on an FBI poster in the post office here.

Put on the FBI's "10 most wanted" list just a week ago, Linaweaver is charged with breaking jail July 8, 1960, at Salina, Kan., and fleeing to escape imprisonment. He had been convicted of burglary and awaited transfer to the Kansas prison to serve a 5 to 10-year term.

Linaweaver and two fellow convicts used a sack filled with broken glass to beat two jailers and make the Salina break, the FBI said. He also had been convicted of forgery and assault with a dangerous weapon.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN BE SURE OF ABUNDANT HOT WATER WORRY FREE!

INSTALL A MODERN FLAMELESS ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

Important advantages:

1

SAFE — NO FLAME

Perfectly safe in any location, an electric water heater has no flame to blow out, no fuel to leak, no pilot light or flue to worry about. And the outside of an electric water heater is always cool.

2

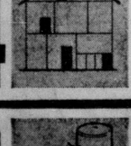

HIGH EFFICIENCY

Electric heating elements are in the water, inside the tank. The tank is completely insulated, even on the bottom, to prevent heat loss. And no heat is wasted up a flue. You get hotter water faster and it stays hot longer.

3

LONG LIFE

With an electric water heater, the tank bottom is not subjected to the corrosive action of flames. There are no valves to stick, no moving parts to get out of order. An electric water heater assures you many years of trouble-free service.

4

INSTALL ANYWHERE

Because an electric water heater requires no flue, it can be installed anywhere in the house, close to the point of greatest use. This saves long pipe runs and consequent waste of heat due to water cooling in the pipes.

5

SUNSHINE CLEAN

With an electric water heater, there are no by-products of combustion to soil walls or ceilings. No unpleasant fumes. No flue to accumulate soot. An electric water heater provides the cleanest method known for heating water.

6

MODERN — COMPACT

Choose from round or table top models at your plumber's or appliance dealer's. Compact round models require only four square feet of floor space. Table top models provide additional counter space in kitchen or laundry.
