Anthracite Miners Quit After Soft Coal Strike Ends

Lewis Wins Pay Hike And Health Fund

By HAROLD W. WARD
WASHINGTON — (AP)—The coal strike is over. John L. Lewis won a $1.85 a day wage boost, a health and welfare fund and nearly everything else he asked for his 400,000 bituminous miners.

The public caught the vision of an uninterrupted flow of postwar automobiles, radios, refrigerators and gadgets from long-troubled assembly lines. But the public also got a bigger coal bill.

President Truman watched Lewis and Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug sign the contract late Wednesday in a White House ceremony that ended the last major barrier to full-scale industrial output.

Lewis' anthracite miners are due to walkout at midnight Thursday night, but hard coal is used primarily for heating homes.

A nationwide maritime strike is threatened for June 15, but the domestic market will quickly grab everything American industry can turn out for months to come.

Lewis said the bituminous pits will be in full operation by Monday. The strike lasted 59 days—broken only by a two-week truce when it was at the peak of its staggering impact.

When the government will be able to return the mines to their owners remained a question. The operators—contending they were advised of the contract terms only a couple of hours in advance of the actual signing—were plainly displeased.

The government seized the mines nine days ago and immediately got down to bargaining with Lewis. Out of those talks came these principal contracts:

1. An 18 1/2 cent an hour wage increase, which with overtime provisions will add $1.85 to the miners' daily rate and hike his earnings for a five-day week from $50 to $59.25

2. A $25,000,000 a year welfare fund to be financed by a five-cent a ton royalty on each ton of coal produced and to be administered by a three-way board. Present payroll contributions will go into a separate hospital and medicine fund to be controlled solely by the union.

3. The organization of a limited number of foremen.

4. Standardized safety, sanitation and housing facilities.

The contract, signed by Lewis with a pen borrowed from Truman, is good only for the period of government operation.

The operators themselves will have to sign before the mines will be returned to them.

Whether the operators eventually will accept the terms appeared to hinge on these determinations:

1. The amount of a price increase OPA will grant.

2. The cost of adopting the minimum safety standards to be set up

Midland Joins In Memorial Tribute To U.S. War Dead

Midland honored its war dead Thursday as the American Legion observed Memorial Day with services at the Fairview Cemetery.

Graves of soldiers of two wars were decorated with flags and flowers.

By The Associated Press
President Truman placed a wreath of white roses against the tomb of the Unknown Soldier Thursday to pay a nation's homage to its dead from every war.

It was a solemn, almost silent ceremony in Arlington National Cemetery in Washington. Truman did not speak. There was no crowd of observers.

The whole tribute lasted no more than a minute.

America's war dead were honored around the world with flowers, taps and rifle salutes.

Memorial services were conducted through most of the day in Arlington National Cemetery, where lie the unknown soldier and 70,000 other veterans.

Fresher graves drew pilgrims in France and Italy and on the bloodied isles of the Pacific.

Wreaths and flags were placed on the isolated graves of several thousand men whose bodies have yet to be removed from Germany.

Texas also was paying tribute to her war dead.

Throughout the state, simple ceremonies will recognize the services and sacrifices of fighting Texans who died on the battlefield.

Train Derailed When Track Gives Way

DALLAS — (AP)—A 35-car freight train was derailed early Thursday when the track gave way during a torrential rain storm.

The locomotive and 15 cars of the train left the track, the locomotive overturning into a water-filled ditch, endangering the lives of its crew.

Three crewmen of the engine were thrown or jumped clear. They swam back to the engine, part of which remained above water, and climbed upon the engine tank.

Two of the crewmen, W. T. French, 30, of Bellmead, fireman, and L. J. Tanner, 40, of Waco, were injured and brought to Baylor Hospital. French's left hand was crushed. Hospital attendants said Tanner was suffering from exposure.

The engineer, R. C. Coleman of Waco, escaped with only a good wrenching.

The train had passed through Honey Springs at 2 a. m. and approached Five Mile Creek at slow speed. At this point Coleman said the trackage looked clear and he moved the train on slowly.

Suddenly the engine appeared to settle in the soggy water-soaked roadbed, then fell to the left, pulling four cars into the high water.

After the crewmen made it back to the engine tank help was summoned. A switch engine uncoupled 18 cars which still stood on firm trackage. These were pulled back to Honey Springs.

Many homes and structures were damaged. Four hundred vacant huts at Kelly Field were reported blown down.

Damage to the San Antonio area was estimated at $3,000,000 to $5,000,000.

In the Dallas area the winds were accompanied by torrential rain, adding to the already serious flood threat along the Trinity River.

One house was demolished and many others were damaged by cross winds that swayed the Irving-Grand Prairie area, 10 miles west of Dallas.

Hail the size of hen eggs battered sections of the Oak Cliff district of Dallas.

Sheriff's Posse Will Direct Rodeo Parking
The Midland Sheriff's Posse, under direction of Sheriff Ed Darnell, will be on duty parking automobiles at the rodeo grounds and will direct traffic there.

This is an annual job of the posse and sheriff's department.

Wranglers Greet Visitors To City
The Wranglers Club of the Midland Chamber of Commerce was on duty Thursday serving as official greeters to visitors here for the annual Midland Rodeo.

Both Cowhand and Roughneck sides of the Wranglers were mingling with the crowds with insignia pinned on them telling the visitors the Wranglers greeted them to Midland.

Wranglers will be at the stands and arena Thursday night for host duties and throughout the entire rodeo.

They looked lean and wry and tough. Contrasted were many of drug-store variety. Citizens were leary of Sheriff Sandy Sandusky and his JayCee posse, who were supposed to "arrest" those not in rodeo attire.

"In The Mood"
Visitors were flocking to Midland. Many out-of-town cars pulled up and parked and some went to the stores to shop. Kiddoes waved flags and hopped around "in the mood."

Trailers with horses in them waddled behind big cars as the pullers threaded down the main streets enroute to the rodeo grounds.

The street and store-front decorations helped. The banners and

More Than 76,000 Diggers To Stay Idle Till Contract Signed

NEW YORK —(P)—As the lengthy strike of 400,000 soft coal miners came to an end, Pennsylvania's 76,000 anthracite diggers quit work Thursday to await a new contract with the operators.

The present pact expires at midnight Thursday night. However, the work stoppage became effective for all practical purposes early Thursday since no mining operations were scheduled for the Memorial Day holiday.

Leaders of John L. Lewis' AFL United Mine Workers rejected Wednesday an operators' resolution which would have continued the present contract for 30 days on a retroactive pay basis and served formal notice that the miners would not return to work without a contract.

The union traditionally has adhered to a "no contract, no work policy."

Two subsequent operators' proposals—one for extension of the contract for 15 days and another for extension for a week—also were turned down, said J. B. Warner, president of the Lehigh Navigation Coal Company and operators' spokesman.

Both sides, however, agreed to a miners' resolution that "such firemen, engineers, pumpmen, maintenance men and men in similar capacities as may be required in their regular line of work" should continue on the job on a retroactive basis.

Polio Epidemic Takes Three More Lives In Texas

By The Associated Press
The death rate in the current polio-encephalitis epidemic climbed higher Wednesday with new reports of three more victims of the disease.

Thursday the toll stands at 14 dead in Texas since May 1.

Seven of these victims have died in San Antonio hospitals, the hardest hit of Texas cities in the epidemic.

The victims reported Wednesday were Monroe England, 31, of San Antonio; Simona Trevino, 24, of Pearsall and Sam Albert Ditta, 38, of Houston.

The England death was the 37th case reported in San Antonio. Fourteen positive cases are being treated in a Dallas hospital. Another possible polio case is under diagnosis, i. e., eight cases of polio have been reported in Houston.

Stevenson Will Not Run Again

AUSTIN —(P)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson Thursday announced he would not be a candidate for re-election.

"Many months ago, I told my good friends of the Capitol press corps that I had no desire to run for re-election to this office, had made no plans to run, and had no intention of running for any office during the current election. This statement was given to the public through the columns of the press."

"This decision was arrived at after careful consideration of many issues involved of both personal and public nature. It was in keeping with the time-honored precedent of the past that when the state's chief executive has served two elective terms, he would not be expected to seek the office again. I had no desire to break this precedent. I had no ambition to continue in office simply for the sake of holding the office for another term. I have never consciously deceived either my friends or the public about my intentions or my views on public questions."

Midland Was 'Rodeo Town' Thursday As City Awaited Opening Of Wild West Show

Midland was rodeo town Thursday. The atmosphere was gay and colorful as citizens dressed for the occasion and mingled with brightly bearded visitors.

Hotel lobbies were meeting places for cowboys and cowgirls. The Chamber of Commerce office, official entry spot for cowgirls and in charge of their housing, was a busy place.

Real top hands stalked about the streets. They ate wads of sausage and eggs and hotcakes for breakfast and then got in station wagons to go out "to the grounds." Thursday night they would ride and rope and bulldog.

Rodeo Stock Neigh As If Talking Over Plans To Pitch Off Cowboy Riders

By TANNER LAINE

Old "Home Brew" and the other broncs were "talking" over the Midland Rodeo when we went out to the grounds to "get a feel".

So here was the chance. The chance to get an interview with the rough and tough stock themselves.

Now you take "Home Brew", that rough and rugged old buckner, who has spilled plenty of "am."

Old "Home Brew" switched his tail and neighed at "Tenderfoot," one of Everett Colborn's roughest and toughest, as if to say:

"So this is Midland, Texas, where the real bowboys are. Quite a show here, 'Tender.' Just as good as that one up at New York last year in Madison Square Garden."

"Ha, ha, that was a good one," snickered "Tenderfoot."

"High Pockets," big bay saddle bronc, flicked his tail and gave a whinny at "Susie," the bucking mare:

"Say 'Susie' gal, you remember that New York show too, don't you? You sure got mad at Bart Cleannan when he stayed on you at MSG but you got him with daylight at Boston right after, didn't you 'Susie' kid?"

"Of course I did, 'HP,' you old bay boy," gently whinnied back the lady horse Susie if a buckner can be a lady.

We hunched back on the top of the rail to listen to some more: "Gravel Gertie"

Another mare saddle bronc sided up with a lot of mean in her eyes. Here was "Gravel Gertie," every inch not a lady but every hand high a tough customer in the rodeo arena.

"No finesse," snorted "Susie."

"Aw shut up, you are no lady either," retorted "Gert."

"Who's that handsome guy?" questioned "Gert," as "Speckled Bird" cantered up.

"That he-horse," snorted old "Home Brew" and flicked out his heels to post the challenge of his top rank as the number one buckner.

There was getting to be quite a bunch of the rodeo stock together by this time. There was "Ruby," bareback mare; "P-38," a tough bareback bronc and son of a good buckner; "Hobo," and "P. J. McNutt," a couple of saddle buckners; "Duckin Dolly," good bareback mare; "Indian Skull," pinto barebacker; and others.

"Whoa, now, wait a minute, we yelled when in a cloud of dust up jumped the devil in the form of a horse—"Atomic Bomb."

"Atomic Bomb" is one of Colborn's new saddle broncs. A hellion of a thing to try to ride.

"To bad for Bill Linderman if he draws me," snorted "Atomic."

"I want to get that Tom Knight," offered "Duckin Dolly."

"Make mine Larry Finley," offered "Speckled Bird."

The strike, which began April 1 without much fanfare because of the sizeable stockpiles of coal, cost the miners $169,000,000 in wages, according to estimates of the Solid Fuels Administration.

SFA guessed, too, that it cost the operators $278,000,000 in gross income from coal that wasn't mined—and a net profit of about $14,000,000.

Railroads lost some $178,000,000 in coal freight charges, and the nation lost 89,400,000 tons of fuel.

Hogan Cites Publicity Given City By Events

Mayor Fred Hogan commented following the Texas Electric Show that it and the Rodeo are giving Midland a full week of bustling activity.

"The Texas Electric Show brought in a great many people from Midland's trade area," the Mayor said, "and afforded thousands of folk an opportunity to see the newest in electrical equipment, much of which will soon be available in Midland stores. Never before has it been possible to see so many types and kinds of electrical equipment in one great exhibit."

More Than 600 Enroll In Bible Schools Here

More than 600 Midland children are enrolled in Bible schools this week, and attendance is expected to increase before the two-weeks school terms end.

Vacation Bible schools now are underway at the First Baptist Church, the Calvary Baptist Church, the First Methodist Church, and the First Presbyterian Church, and at the Latin-American Baptist Mission.

Texas Electric Show Of '46 Is Well Attended

A crowd of 2,800 persons Thursday night visited the Texas Electric Show of '46 at the Midland High School and were introduced to the latest developments and ideas in the electrical world.

Total attendance for the two-day show was 5,229, it was announced. The show will move on to Odessa, where it will open Tuesday for a three-day run. People from the Midland area who were unable to witness the extravaganza here are extended invitations to visit the show next week.

The crowds wandered through the appliance exhibit in the gymnasium, witnessed the electrical marvels designed to aid the farmer and rancher in his work, and watched movies in the Reddy Kilowatt theater. There were plenty of things to see and plenty of things to cause amazement.

No one was too entranced to keep from asking questions on the wearability and labor saving mechanisms of the 1946 appliances. To add to the babble of questioning and demonstrations were the happy noises caused by children, wearing Reddy Kilowatt hats, as they dodged in and out among the exhibits.

Public To Pay Millions More For Dairy Goods

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government jolted housewives Thursday with a $250,000,000-a-year price boost for dairy products—and predicted still another sharp hike if Congress cuts subsidies.

Stabilization Director Chester Bowles estimated that the public will pay a quarter of a billion dollars more for food annually as the result of price increases of one cent a quart for milk, about 11 cents a pound for butter and approximately six cents a pound for cheddar cheese.

Bowles announced Wednesday night that the new prices will become effective early in June. The exact amount of the increases will be fixed when the date is set.

The stabilization chief also directed OPA and the Agriculture Department to institute controls on the use of butterfat in the hope of increasing butter production. These controls include a ban on the sale of whipping cream, effective July 1, and establishment of price ceilings on bulk cream for the first time.

Ice cream manufacturers also were authorized to cut down on butterfat without trimming their prices. It is butterfat that gives ice cream its richness.

Location is 330 feet out of the northwest corner of section 186, Washington County School Land survey, and on a block of about 12,000 acres assembled by W. J. Green of San Angelo and J. S. The exploration will be 11 miles northwest of San Angelo, and five miles east of Carlsbad.

Cooper Gas Company No. 1-A Koy, outpost to the Page gas field in Schleicher County, was making hole below 5,315 feet, in Strawn-Pennsylvanian, topped at 5,210 feet on an elevation of 2,893 feet.

Unofficial reports reveal that this project found the Strawn higher than any other exploration so far drilled in the Page area. It has had slight shows of gas, and is expected to find more of that product lower in the section.

It is at center of northwest quarter of northeast quarter of section 38, block L, GH&SA survey.

Jury Chosen In Trial Of Dr. W. R. Newton

PLAINVIEW—(AP)—The trial of Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron on charges of assault with intent to murder in the shooting four years ago of Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield, continued here Thursday. A jury was being selected.

Dr. Hunt was shot May 21, 1942, on a highway near Littlefield.

The trial is being held before Judge C. D. Russell in 64th District Court.

In a previous trial, at Plainview, held in August, 1943, Newton was given a seven-year sentence. The sentence was appealed and on June 16, 1944, the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed and remanded it.

MEN! GET PEP..

Do you want to feel young again? Why feel old at 40, 60 or more? Enjoy youthful pleasures again. If added years have slowed down your vim and vitality, just go to your druggist and ask for Casella tablets. Many men are obtaining remarkable results with this amazing formula.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcenate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Old Furniture Can Be Made Like New By Sanders' Shop

It always has been real economy to have furniture repaired and re-upholstered, but more so today than ever before, says J. B. Sanders, owner of Sanders' Furniture & Paint Shop at 411 West Illinois.

Among the factors Sanders points out as making expert repair and re-upholstering work more valuable than ever is that, with the quality of much of the new furniture far below par, older pieces repaired and re-upholstered are better than some of the new furniture.

Banner Creamery Installs Modern Milk Pasteurizer

Installation of a modern plate pasteurizer at the Banner Creamery, 300 East Texas Avenue, has been announced by M. F. McDaniel, manager.

The new equipment pasteurizes and cools in the same operation, and from the time the milk goes into the pasteurizer until the customer opens the bottle, it is not exposed to the air.

"Old time vat pasteurizers are outmoded by this modern equipment," McDaniel pointed out.

The milk goes into the pasteurizer and is put under temperatures of 162 degrees Fahrenheit, then immediately cooled at 40 degrees Fahrenheit.

All during the procedure the milk is in air-tight sealed stainless steel pipes and tanks. After the pasteurizing process, it automatically goes into the freshly-cleaned bottles, and the bottles are sealed by machinery. Thus, there is no chance for germs, dust or other properties entering the product.

Ice Has Many Uses In Addition To Its Refrigeration Value

In addition to furnishing the most thoroughly satisfactory method of refrigeration, adding enjoyment to summer drinks and foods, and being an efficient cooling medium, ice also has many other useful qualities, according to L. W. Sandusky, manager of the Southern Ice Company at 310 South Main.

Housewives may be glad to learn that ice will help cut down their worries when Junior drops his chewing gum on the rug or smears it on his clothing. To remove gum from carpets or clothing, rub the spot with a piece of ice until the gum rolls into a ball, then scrape the gum off with a dull knife.

An ice massage will bring temporary color to the skin, but, more important, it also helps to stimulate circulation and is a recognized beauty aid to eliminate dry skin.

Ice is used to retain the vitamin content of green vegetables. Kale, for instance, when packed in ice at harvest, shows no loss in vitamin C after storage for six days, but can lose 30 per cent of its vitamin content within two days under ordinary storage.

Ice is a "first-aid" abdominal pain, or pain associated with the digestive tract, may temporarily be relieved by applications of ice-packs. Heat may accentuate the trouble. The function of ice is to allay activity, and where relief is urgent, ice is the most innocent of first-aid measures.

Size Of Texas Bread Loaves Not To Be Cut

AUSTIN—(P)—Texans want to help alleviate hunger in Europe, but under Texas law, the size of bread loaves cannot be cut down 10 per cent to conform with the federal order, Agriculture Commissioner J. E. McDonald says.

"The laws of Texas fix the weight of bread to one pound, pound and a half or two pounds, or multiple thereof, and I have no authority to change the law. This would be up to the legislature when it meets next January," McDonald said.

Arab Leaders Pledge Full Support To UN

CAIRO—(P)—The leaders of seven Arab states Wednesday coupled a pledge of support to the United Nations with a warning to the United States and Britain that further Jewish immigration into Palestine might endanger world peace.

The pledge and the warning were combined in a statement issued at the close of a two-day meeting of the Arab leaders, who met here on invitation of King Farouk of Egypt.

Bill Not Big Enough To Choke This Calf

STRATFORD, S. D.—(P)—A breeze whisked away a $10 bill which O. H. Gerharter, cattle buyer, handed to his son Allen, in a feed lot and a six months old calf picked it up and started chewing.

"That ain't hay!" Gerharter shouted as he took hold of the animal and instructed his son to reach down the calf's throat. Allen retrieved the bill, about shoulder-deep in the calf's interior.

Anyone Gotta Coin?

TERRE HAUTE, IND.—(P)—Perry W. Pine and Ivan Pugh each polled 100 votes in the primary election in the race for democratic trustee. They asked a recount and they were still tied—each had lost one vote in the recheck.

Newschart above, prepared from Department of Commerce's Survey of Current Business, shows profits of U. S. corporations from 1929 through 1945. While gross profits and taxes had a parallel rise, net profits leveled out from 1941 throughout the war. Thus, although gross profits reached a peak of $24,900,000,000 for 1943, that war-year's net profit was but $9,900,000,000, which compares with the $8,400,000,000 net of 1929.

COULD THIS BE YOUR HOUSE?

Now that the war's over and a lot more civilian goods are on the market, it's a big temptation to spend just about all you make, and not put anything aside.

But to fall for that temptation is plenty dangerous. It's like trying to live in the house above—a house that might come tumbling down about your ears at the first little blow of hard luck.

Right now the best possible way to keep your finances in sound shape is to save regularly—by buying U. S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan.

These Bonds are exactly like War Bonds. Millions of Americans have found them the safest, easiest, surest way to save. The U. S. A. protects every dollar you invest—and Uncle Sam gives you his personal guarantee that, in just ten years, you'll get four dollars back for every three you put in!

If you stick with the Payroll Savings Plan, you'll not only guard against rainy days, you'll also be storing up money for the really important things—like sending your children to college, or buying a home.

So— isn't it smart to buy every single U. S. Savings Bond you can possibly afford?

Boo Ferriss Hurls Air-Tight Game To Blank A's; Yanks Beat Senators

By The Associated Press
 Even Dave (Boo) Ferriss' severest critics agreed Thursday that the Boston Red Sox' sensational right-hander was no mere first year "morning glory."
 Five weeks ago, after the ex-Army Air Force sergeant was driven from the mound under a barrage of base hits for the second straight time, tears were openly expressed that the soft-spoken Mississippian, who thrilled the baseball world last year by winning 21 games in his first big league campaign, might be in for a rough season in 1946.
 The dubious ones pointed out that eight of Ferriss' 10 defeats in '45 came in the final two months of the season, or just about the time the prewar stars began to trickle back into the big league lineups.

 Saved from defeats in his first two starts only because of the slugging prowess of his mates, Ferriss went on to roll up seven straight victories in less than a month's time to prove conclusively that he was not haunted by the sophomore jinx that has tripped up many a first year wonder.
 Wednesday he made it eight in a row by blanking the Philadelphia Athletics 2-0 to duplicate his freshman season performance when he won his first eight decisions.
Yanks Beat Seniors
 The Yanks called on their 42-year-old standby, Charley Ruffing, to stave off Washington's bid to oust them from second place, and old Rufus responded with a brilliant three-hit 4-0 victory.
 Southpaw Vic Lombardi became the first National League pitcher to record seven triumphs when he throttled the New York Giants on five hits in pitching the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 5-1 victory.
 The Cards, with Pitcher Harry Brecheen and Outfielder Terry Moore collaborating whipped the Cubs, 5-2.
 Detroit's Hal Newhouser joined Ferriss as the majors' only eight-game winners when he pitched the Tigers to a 4-1 decision over the Cleveland Indians.
 The Cincinnati Reds replaced the Cubs in third place by edging out a 7-6 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.
 Schoolboy Rowe held the Boston Braves to five hits under the arc lights to pitch the Philadelphia Phillies to a 3-1 triumph.
 The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox were not scheduled.

Cats Beat Indians Twice To Widen Texas Loop Lead

By The Associated Press
 The Fort Worth Cats took a good lead in the Texas League Wednesday night with a doubleheader victory over the Oklahoma City Indians, 7-4 and 8-3.
 Second place Dallas fell before the Tulsa Oilers, 4-3, in a 10-inning battle.
 Shreveport at San Antonio was called because of rain. Wet grounds postponed the Beaumont at Houston game.
 In the first game Fort Worth rode high and heavy all the way, scoring four times in the opening inning and three more in the fifth. The Indians garnered one in the first and rallied three more in the fourth.
 In the second stanza, Oklahoma led off with single runs in the first and second. However, Fort Worth settled with a lone run in the fourth, a six-run barrage in the fifth, and another in the eighth. The Indians scored a third run in the ninth.
 The Tulsa Oilers staged a two-run ninth inning uprising to tie the Rebels and then went to tie sound taps with another in the over-time inning. The Dallas defeat ended the four-game series, two and two.

Reporter-Telegram Beats Andrews, 20-6

The Reporter-Telegram softball club defeated the Andrews Firestone team, 20 to 6, Wednesday night in a game played under the arcs at Andrews.
 Jack McKissick started the Midland scoring off to a good start when he knocked the first pitched ball beyond left fielder for a home run.
 It was home-run night for the newspapermen with Lewis Yarborough following with one in the third, Whitworth one in the fourth and A. T. Pierce another in the fifth.
 The Reporter-Telegram exploded with a big 12-run inning in the third.
 Wilson of the Andrews team scored in the second frame on a walk home after Pierce had hit three batters in a row with pitched balls. Callahan scored in the third inning. The Andrews County players had their big moment in the sixth when four runs were credited to Rhodes, Callahan, Bufkin and Jackson.
 The game was called at the end of the sixth on time limit.
 McKissick and McNeal hurried for the Andrews club.

Goodall Round Robin Meet Opens Thursday

NEW YORK —(P)— Highlighted by the second half of the 36-hole international match between Byron Nelson and Dick Burton, the Goodall Round Robin Golf Tournament opens over the Winged Foot Course at suburban Mamaroneck Thursday after a wartime absence of five years.
 Burton, Britain's duration open champion, faced the final round of his challenge match with Nelson with a deficit of six holes, carved out by the U. S. PGA titleholder in their first 18-hole duel over the Charles River Country Club layout Thursday at Newton, Mass.
 They will be joined by Jimmy Demaret to firm the leading threesome in the opening round of the four-day Goodall meet, in which each of the 15 selected professionals meets all his rivals during the seven rounds.
 At the end of the 126 holes Sunday, the winner will be decided by the number of gross points, based on the holes won.

New Manager Of U. S. Employment Service Office Not New Here

Alton L. Hill is new in his job as manager of the United States Employment Office in Midland, but he is not new in the city. He recently succeeded Dewey Wattle as manager of the office located in the Old Heidelberg Inn. Hill was the first enlisted man assigned to Midland Army Air Field and thought he was "going to be the last to leave it." He was assigned to the field Dec. 16, 1941, and spent three years and 10 months on duty here, leaving Oct. 29, 1945, for Ellington Field for discharge. He had a total service of five years, one month and 17 days. He was a sergeant major in charge of C Squadron. He joined the employment service January 7 this year.

Watch Out!

Employment Situation In Midland Area Is Brightest Of Entire State, Report Shows

The employment situation in the Midland area is brighter than any spot in the state, Alton L. Hill, manager of the U. S. Employment Service Office here, said Thursday. Fewer persons in proportion to other cities are seeking jobs here, although construction and development work is being held back by lack of materials. As of Wednesday, only 113 persons were on the rolls of the office, including veterans and all other workers. Since the first of the month 91 applicants have been placed in permanent jobs. About 80 per cent of those placed are veterans, Hill said, and the office is giving special attention to the employment needs of returning service men. Many of the persons on the rolls are war workers whose skills are not adaptable to many jobs listed with the office. There is a rapid turnover in workers, Hill said. Many jobs go begging because there are not persons with the skills needed to fill them. At present the office has 200 openings in foreign service work. Adapting the skills of veterans into peacetime jobs is one of the services being performed here. Two men who served as radar operators during the war have been successfully placed in seismograph work, and many other war-skilled workers are finding jobs in corresponding civilian fields. The majority of men returning from the services have been given expert training in some line of work, Hill reported. Prospects Only Fair Immediate employment prospects in Midland County are only fair, Hill reported, because of continued scarcity of materials for construction and curtailed oil field activities. The local labor situation is generally sufficient to meet current demands. Present job openings are mostly for clerical workers, bricklayers, carpenters and mechanics, and heavy male laborers for railroad section crews. Wages for laborers range from 55 cents to 75 cents per hour. Openings for clerical workers offer $25 to $50 a week for a 40-hour week. Existing jobs which are difficult to fill include those for auto mechanics at $50 a week, stenographers at $150 a month, and female general office clerks at $125 to $150 a month. The Employment Service's report on living conditions says that furnished houses and apartments are very scarce and that single rooms are at times available for $20 to $40 a month.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A $92,500,000 fund to help the War Department start returning to this country the bodies of 275,000 war dead was approved Wednesday by the House Appropriations Committee. It was part of a $661,520,810 deficiency supply bill sent to the House floor by the committee—$418,556,000 of the total being earmarked for expanded activities of the Veterans Administration. In addition to the cash sum allotted to the Veterans Administration, the bill gives the administration $441,250,000 in contract authority to complete 76 new hospitals and other buildings. That, plus the actual cash, boosted the measure's total to above $1,000,000,000.

Fines For Not Voting

CATAMARCA, ARGENTINA—(AP)—Citizens who couldn't get worked up enough about politics to vote in the recent election are going to be sorry—$2.40 worth of regrets. Provincial authorities have opened legal proceedings against 4,800 of them under the provisions of a law making voting compulsory.

Amarillo Secretary Tries For Movie Role

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD—(P)—Jorja Curtright knows how cinderella felt when midnight sounded. The Amarillo, Texas, gal has not changed into a scullery maid. But she is back at her old job as secretary to Producer Seymour Nebenzal.
 Jorja went to work for the producer four years ago. She warned him frankly that she wanted to be an actress. For three years she kept an eye on castings and finally found a role she thought she could do. It was in "Whistle Stop" and she wheedled it out of the boss. "Whistle Stop" turned out to be an odoriferous although money-making picture. However, most critics agreed that Jorja was a bright light in the sorry mess. She had a triumphant return to her home and to New York. Now she is back taking dictation.
 "I want to be near the center of activity," she explained. Besides, she can keep an eagle eye out for the next role to come along.
 "I know I'm ugly and have no sex appeal," said Jorja. "But I can act."

This Cream Soup Reduces Heat

Crema Vichyssoise—simple, impressive soup for a hot day.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 NEA Staff Writer
 For those early hot-day lunches, serve chilled crema Vichyssoise. It makes a perfect, food-saving party special.

Crema Vichyssoise
 Four leeks or 3 small onions, diced, 2 1/2 cups diced potatoes, 1 16-ounce can chicken soup with rice, 2 cups milk, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon white pepper, 1/2 cup real mayonnaise.
 Cook onions and potatoes in three cups boiling water. Drain, then press through a fine sieve into double-boiler. Add soup, milk, salt, pepper, and real mayonnaise. Re-heat to blend. Chill thoroughly. Garnish with parsley or chopped chives.
 Yield: 6 servings.
 Here's another "butter-saving" surprise:
Young Spinach, Country Style
 Twelve-ounce package fresh or frozen spinach, 4 slices bacon, diced, bacon drippings, 1 tablespoon flour, 2/3 cup evaporated milk (1 small can), 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon chopped onion, 1 teaspoon vinegar.

 Put washed fresh spinach in kettle, with no water added. Cover, and cook until just tender. (If frozen spinach is used, follow cooking directions on the pack.) Reserve liquid. Fry bacon until crisp and brown, and add the cooked bacon bits to the drained spinach.
 Stir flour into bacon drippings and blend thoroughly. Add spinach liquid to milk and gradually add to flour mixture in frying pan. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add spinach and bacon, salt, onion, and vinegar to white sauce, and mix until blended. Heat thoroughly (do not boil) and serve immediately.
 Yield: 4 servings.

Court Rules Property Owners Can Sue For Airspace Trespass

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Supreme Court has extended property rights to low altitude airspace with a precedent-making decision for the age of flight.
 The high tribunal's ruling had two main points:
 1. That a landowner has title to as much of the air-space above his property as its use and enjoyment requires.
 2. Hence repeated invasion of such airspace by low-flying aircraft is akin to trespassing, and subject to legal redress.
 The court reached its conclusion by a 5 to 2 decision after looking into the protests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee Causby, a North Carolina farm couple whose chickens were so badly scared by Army bombers from a nearby airfield they flew into fences and broke their necks.
 The situation became so bad, Causby said, that he was forced out of the chicken business and his home made uninhabitable, with his family suffering from fright and nervousness.

At Texas U. 32 Years, But Not Named Coach

AUSTIN—(AP)—Dr. Daniel Allen Penick is preparing to take a squad to the National Collegiate Tennis Tournament at Evanston, Ill., next month. If the boys win Dr. Penick might be appointed officially as tennis coach at the University of Texas.

The 76-year-old professor of classical languages isn't sure he ever has been named officially to the post although he's been coaching tennis since the turn of the century at the state university.

Dr. Penick's teams have won 24 doubles and 21 singles championships since the sport was introduced into the Southwest Conference 32 years ago. Nationally, Texas has won two singles and five doubles titles. The Longhorns rank third in the nation with seven points toward the Charles Garland cup, trailing only Miami and Stanford universities, which have 12 and 11 points respectively.

Wilmer Allison and Berkeley Bell were not only singles champions but were members of the Davis Cup team and Allison once was ranked as the nation's No. 1 performer in open play. Bruce Barnes was another nationally-known star developed by Dr. Penick.

Dr. Penick says his coaching job "like the famous Topsy, just grew up." During his last two years as a student at Texas in 1891 and 1892, Dr. Penick took up tennis merely as a social activity to be enjoyed with "young ladies and gentlemen of my acquaintance." When he returned to his alma mater as a member of the faculty in 1899, he drifted into the role of godfather to tennis which then was "an orphan among sports at the University."

In 1909 Dr. Penick succeeded in getting tennis made an official sport and he coached the first term. He's the only coach Texas ever has had.

Legion Seeks Souvenir, Gets 5,000 Pound Gun

BRAZIL, IND.—(AP)—The Brazil American Legion post should have included the dimensions of its lawn when it asked the War Department for a souvenir weapon.

The souvenir arrived—an anti-aircraft gun, 22 feet long and 5,000 pounds heavy.

The legion's lawn isn't that big. Post officials have asked the city park board to mount it in a park.

House Bill Would Exempt News Agencies From Antitrust Act

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A House judiciary subcommittee is considering a bill exempting mutual news gathering organizations from provisions of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

Requests for approval came from Rep. Mason (R-Ill.), author of the measure and George C. Blohm of Chicago, who said he spoke for 814 members of The Associated Press. The AP is a non-profit news cooperative.

Mason asserted the legislation is necessary to "clarify and nullify" the Supreme Court's decision last year that membership bylaws of The Associated Press then in effect violated the Sherman Act. The bylaws later were amended.

Blohm said that "now because of fear of contempt of court every applicant is being given membership." He added, in a statement filed with committee, that the court decision "compels AP to travel the road to monopoly" and that as such "it will be subject to complete regulation by the state x x x and then you lose freedom of the press."

In response to questions by newsmen, Blohm said he is employed by The Chicago Tribune, but emphasized that he did not appear as a witness in this connection. He said he held proxies for 814 Associated Press members who asked him to present their views.

In State Of Chaos
Blohm said the court's decision "leaves the whole news industry x x x in a state of chaos."

"If any change is required in the industry," he added, "such changes should be effected by acts of Congress and not by judicial decisions."

The antitrust laws, Blohm contended, should be amended to give press associations the right to contract with their subscribers not to furnish service to another publisher in the same field served by a subscriber.

Hebert A. Bergson, special assistant to the attorney general, received the committee's permission to file a statement on the legislation later. He said the attorney general's views had not been cleared by the Budget Bureau yet and could not be offered until they are.

Acting Chairman Byrne (D-NY) announced another hearing will be held June 6.

THANKS, FOLKS, FOR HELPING MAKE THE TEXAS ELECTRIC SHOW OF '46 SUCH A GREAT SUCCESS

The Texas Electric Show of '46 has moved on from Midland. It was a great success, thanks to the many thousands of our friends and neighbors who turned out to visit it. Each day saw the High School gymnasium, the Farm-Ranch Electrical Exhibit and the Reddy Kilowatt Theater filled to capacity. When the little pigs and chickens had been put to bed in the farm and ranch electrical exhibit and the last person had visited the dazzling displays of the new and modern electrical appliances, some 7,000 men, women and children from Midland and surrounding communities had been counted.

Thanks again, folks, for helping make the Texas Electric Show of '46 such a great success.

The Texas Electric Show of '46 Now Goes to Odessa

The Texas Electric Show of '46 is on tour in the West Texas areas served by the Texas Electric Service Company. It has been seen by more than 125,000 West Texans since the show first was presented at Fort Worth. Folks at Wichita Falls, Sweetwater and Big Spring have seen this show.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, folks in Odessa and surrounding communities will have a chance to see this great show. From there it moves to Lamesa. If you missed the show here, you can still see it at Odessa or Lamesa.

The Texas Electric Show of '46, sponsored by Texas Electric Service Company with the co-operation of leading electrical manufacturers, is the greatest show of its kind ever staged in West Texas.

THE ROAD BACK

DEBBY told Mr. Nickerson she was all in. And it wasn't the kind of thing you could fix with a week's vacation, or a month's. She thought she'd better quit and let him find somebody else.

He told her he wouldn't think of it. He would find somebody to fill in for as long as she wanted to stay out, but the job would be open for her whenever she wanted to come back. How about the first of the year? That would give her two and a half months to get rested up and to get herself straightened out.

She thought it over for a day and went back and told him all right; that was what he really wanted her to do, she would come back the first of January.

Then one morning Ellie went to Provincetown, and that afternoon when they were out driving, with Ellie pushing the old beach wagon along at twenty-five miles an hour and Debby and Agnes in the front seat beside him, he said, "I ain't goin' fishin' this winter."

They both looked at him curiously and he said, "Fixed it up this morning for one of the boys to go as captain on the Constance and Anna. I'll still get the owner's share, of course."

"You going to take it easy?" Agnes asked.

Ellie smiled at Debby. "I'm gonna' build a house."

Debby waited for Agnes to ask where he was going to build it, but Agnes just stared ahead at the road and didn't say anything, and finally Debby asked, "Where?"

He grinned. "Where d'ya think?"

Debby looked at him, smiling timidly. Then she turned to Agnes. "You know where he's going to build it, Agnes?"

"Course I do." They rode on, and after a while Agnes said, "I guess I'd just as soon move back out there, provided I can have a little car like Debby's, to get me into town and up to Orleans."

Ellie and Debby looked at each other. Ellie said, "You don't have to if you don't want to, Agnes. We can keep the Kendall house."

"I GUESS I'd just as soon move back out there," Agnes said, "only I want an electric refrigerator. And a bathroom. And an electric stove. I'm all through standing over a hot wood stove in the summertime. Remember how hot it used to be in that kitchen?"

Ellie was ready to agree to anything. Debby knew he was thinking about how it was going to cost a fortune to have electric wires run all the way out there, but he didn't say anything about it. He was ready to agree to anything, except, just for appearance sake, he had to enter just one mild little protest about the electric stove. But Agnes said no sir, she wasn't going to stand over a hot stove in the summertime. "What ever became of that old pot-bellied stove?" she wanted to know.

Ellie said, "It's still out there, settin' in the corner of the barn."

"Well, I guess you could put it up somewhere, couldn't you?" In the dining room, or the living room?" She nudged Debby with her elbow. "You can stick your big feet up on it, can't you?"

Debby chuckled. She hadn't felt so good in a long time. "You know what I think, Ellie? I think Agnes wants to move back out there just as much as we do."

"Well, why not?" Agnes demanded. "I liked it out there, I liked watching those hills, different times of the year. Course I didn't like roasting in that kitchen, or using a privy, or the way all the food spoiled in that old ice-box. And I wanted to move into town because I thought it would be good for Debby to—" She stopped short and bit her lip. (This was an embarrassed silence, as they all three stared out at the water. Then Debby said, "I guess everybody has to get a few kicks in the pants, don't they—to keep 'em from being damned fools?")

BY the end of the week Debby had had all she wanted of this sitting around doing nothing. The bird season had opened a few days before, and on Monday morning she and Ellie took their guns and started out to give Bull the training he should have had long ago. By noon, Debby had had enough for the first day. When they came in for dinner Agnes asked, "Well, how did it go?"

Debby grinned. "Bull had a swell time," she said, "and Ellie and I got a lot of exercise, and none of the birds got hurt any. I guess it was nice for everybody."

They went out every day after that but at the end of the week Debby had to admit to herself, reluctantly, that the hunting seemed just a little bit empty, a little pointless. It was like trying to renew an old friendship with everything you have in common is gone.

When Ellie suggested that they give it a tryout in Shooting Bay some morning, Debby didn't know whether she wanted to or not. It seemed like an awful lot of effort to get up so early, in the cold, and row way out there to the Island or somewhere.

But when, two days later, she did get up in the dark and come downstairs in her cap and jacket, with her boots in her hand, and when they stepped out of the door and she could feel the cold pinching her nostrils, and when, later, she sat huddled in the stern of the boat, listening to the creaking of Ellie's oars and tasting the salt on her lips, and then when the dawn began to break and everything was just exactly the way it always had been, the clinging wet sand and the seaweed and the gurgling tide and the Meadow and Bayberry Point, she thought perhaps this was going to be different. There was still a thrill in this.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

America's Card Authority

While Mrs. McKenney and I do not play as partners in many tournaments, that does not mean that I do not consider her a fine player. While I do not actually agree with the theory that husbands and wives do not make good bridge partners, somehow or other we do get along better when we do not play. Here is a pretty hand that she played recently.

Her opening bid was a little optimistic, and her second bid even more so.

She won the opening lead in her hand with the ace of clubs. Reasoning that if there were four spades in one hand it would be impossible to make the contract, her next play was the deuce of diamonds to the ace and a small diamond back, which she ruffed with the four of spades.

She led a small trump to dummy's jack and played another diamond, but this time she was careful to trump with the queen of spades.

A small spade was played to dummy and another diamond trumped. Thus the diamond suit was established and she had a club entry.

'BOY' GETS OUT OF HAND BUT HE'S JUST 45

YONKERS, N. Y.—(AP)—"My boy is getting out of hand," complained William C. Smith over the telephone to Yonkers police.

Surprised patrolmen, prepared for a juvenile problem, arrested Charlie Smith on a disorderly conduct charge.

Charlie is 45, his father, 75.

MUMPS IS NO REASON FOR PASTOR TO BE MUM

TRUMPH, MINN.—(AP)—Mumps was no reason for the Rev. Paul Leroy Olson to keep mum, he thought.

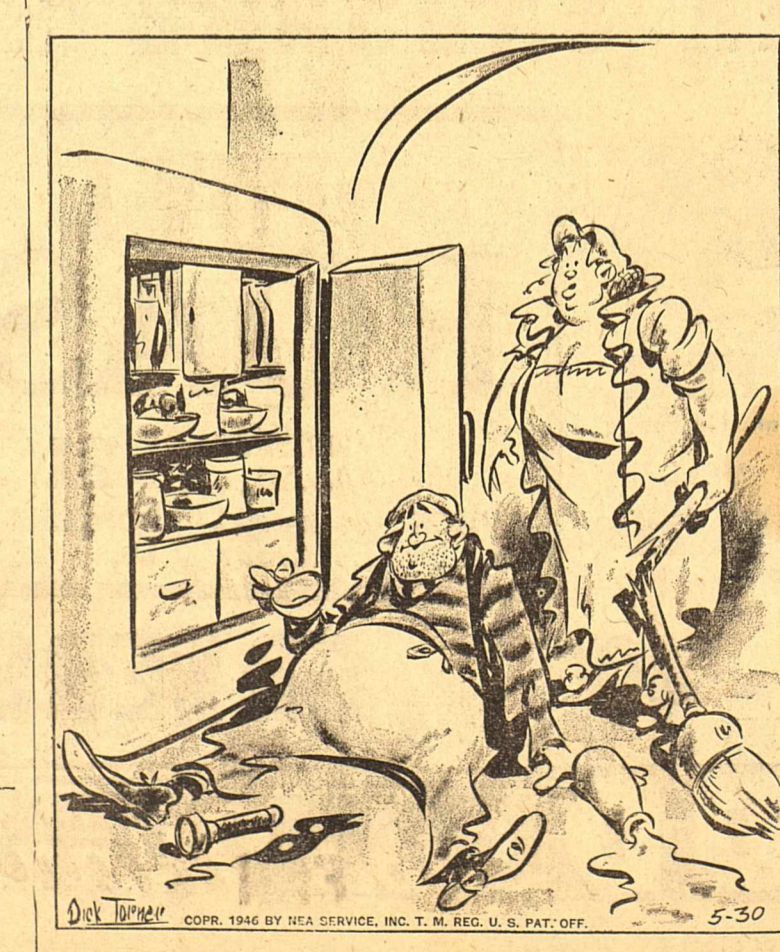

After preparing what he believed was an especially good sermon for Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Olson came down with the mumps.

Not wishing to expose his flock, he hooked up a loud speaker at the Mission Covenant Church and spoke from his home.

Cool Drinks Win Summer Praise

Iced chocolate—easily made from home-prepared syrup.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Keep chocolate syrup in jars in the refrigerator, ready for iced summer drinks. Here are a few variations on the popular theme.

Cocoa Syrup
(For Drinks or as Sauce)

One cup breakfast cocoa, 1/2 to 3/4 cup sugar, 1/2 to 3/4 cup corn syrup, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup cold water, 2 teaspoons vanilla.

Combine cocoa, sugar, syrup, and salt in saucepan. Add water slowly, and place over low flame, stirring until smooth; then boil gently 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Add vanilla. Turn into jar; cover tightly. Keep in refrigerator.

Makes about 2 cups syrup.

To make cold drinks, use 2 tablespoons cocoa syrup to 1 cup milk.

Premium Chocolate Syrup
(For Drinks or as Sauce)

Three squares unsweetened chocolate, 2/3 cup water, 1/2 cup sugar, dash of salt, 1/2 cup corn syrup, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Place chocolate and water in saucepan. Cook and stir over low heat until thick and well blended. Add sugar, salt, and syrup; bring to a boil and boil gently 4 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Cool slightly; add vanilla. Turn into jar; cover tightly. Keep in refrigerator.

Makes about 1 1/2 cups syrup. Use hot or cold.

Chocolate Pineapple Float

Three-fourths cup chilled milk, 2 tablespoons chocolate syrup or cocoa syrup, 1/4 cup crushed canned pineapple and juice, chocolate or vanilla ice cream.

Add milk slowly to syrup, stirring constantly. Add pineapple, and beat or shake well. Pour into tall glass. Add ice cream and serve at once.

Makes 1 serving.

New U.S. War Weapons To Be Kept Secret

WASHINGTON—(AP)—House Appropriations Committee members have shouted an emphatic "no" to suggestions that the public be told more about major new secret weapons.

Referring particularly to the reported development of biological or germ warfare and "atomic poison gas" weapons, these members disclosed privately that they are considering boosting Army funds for further scientific research.

The suggestion that the public be given more information about the new weapons came from W. A. Higginbotham, chairman of the Federation of Atomic Scientists, in a speech here.

Higginbotham asserted there are "at least two major secret weapons in existence potentially as dangerous to mankind" as the atomic bomb and that scientists believe "the public has a right" to know more about them.

"If it were simply a matter of letting the American people know about them, it would be an easy thing," one appropriations committee said. "But you can't make these secrets public to the American people without letting the whole world know about them."

"Certainly the United States should not have to spend all the money developing these things and then give the result of that expenditure to other nations not footing any part of the bill. Other nations are experimenting in these fields, too, and they aren't letting us in on their secrets."

Danes Have Food And Cigars For Women

By HAL BOYLE

COPENHAGEN—(AP)—Dear Frances: Denmark is the country where women smoke cigars in public.

I figured Denmark as a land of Amy Lowells, where a cigar hungry American could step up to a lady and say: "Excuse me, lady, could you lend me a stogie."

In two days I haven't yet seen a woman light up a Panatella. At a movie luncheon I finally got a visiting Swedish movie actress—Barbro Ribbing—to take a puff from a good Havana on a dare.

She just wrinkled her blonde nose and said: "I don't like it. Only old women smoke cigars anyway."

Girls here are more interested in what is being worn on Fifth Avenue. Coming into Denmark from Germany is like going to dinner at a rich farm place after a long stay in the country poor house.

This tidy land in peacetime is only a "little country cousin" of powerful Germany, one that has on occasion felt the family fist of her big neighbor to the south. Now those roles are reversed. Denmark doesn't have much space, but she does have food.

Her people, however, are weary of being pictured as knee deep in bacon, steaks, cheese, butter and milk. They live on ration points just like other people.

Agriculturally Rich

There is no food shortage here, of course, because Denmark is agriculturally rich. But strawberries—first of the season—cost a nickel apiece.

Danes have a reason to be touchy about their food situation. They point out rightly that they are short of many things. Women, for instance, are wearing dresses made from fabrics originally used for tablecloths. There is also a shortage of machinery.

They are proud of their high cultural level and brag that: Every family has a bicycle, two-thirds of the homes have radios and one home in three has a telephone. Denmark has more cars per capita than any European country except Great Britain and France; they publish proportionately 15 times as many books as the United States and three times as many as England; 100 per cent of Danish boys graduate grammar school and 70 per cent go on to higher schools.

For some reason they don't mention the girls.

The most likeable quality the Danes have besides friendliness is their sense of humor and the fact they don't try to oversell themselves. Your loving husband, Harold.

Many Lose Lives Searching For Lost Gold Mine In Mountains Of Arizona

APACHE JUNCTION, ARIZ. — (AP)—"Here lie the remains of Snow-beard the Dutchman, who in this mountain shot three men to steal a rich gold mine from Spanish pioneers, killed eight more to hold his treasure, then himself died in 1892 without revealing its location."

So reads a tablet on a monument to Jacob Walz, erected here by the Phoenix Dons Club, an organization to perpetuate the lore of the Southwest.

Recently 2,100 tourists from 27 states drove the 50 miles from Phoenix to Superstition Mountain for the annual Lost Dutchman trek.

Indian Curse Recited

"Dozens of searchers have met mysterious death in the canyons there. Yet the ore lies unrevealed. Indians say this is the curse of the thunder gods on white men in whom the craving for gold is strong," the monument marker continues.

"Beware, lest you, too, succumb to the lure of the Lost Dutchman mine in Superstition Mountain."

The Dons Club climaxed an all-Saguaro cactus illuminated a crude stage and a loud speaker carried the narrator's voice to echo holiday outing for tourists with a play-let re-enacting the bloody history of Arizona's most infamous gold mine. And, lest the whole thing sound too fantastic, the club introduced the great grand niece of the Lost Dutchman.

She is Mrs. Laura B. Middaugh, of Joplin, Mo., who is going to hunt for the mine herself, says Tom Fitzwater, Dons president.

An eager audience sat on rock seats in a natural amphitheatre. Spotlights hanging from a 20-foot trolley from the walls of Superstition Mountain. Amateur actors, with blank cartridges and a burro pantomimed the story.

Old Timers' Explanation

Skeptical old timers think Jacob Walz pocketed nuggets from another mine, the $25,000,000 Vulture lode, where he cached his gold in the Superstition range and invented the story of a new mine to explain his wealth. But none deny that Walz did come out of Superstition Mountain a half dozen times carrying rich ore.

Best local authority on the Lost Dutchman is "Brownie" Holmes, middle aged cowboy who has spent half his life seeking the treasure. He will show you specimens of wire gold, cuff links, and a scarf pin of wire gold imbedded in quartz—actually taken from the lost mine, he swears.

"When Walz was dying," Holmes says, "he called my father in and said, 'Look under the bed.' My dad pulled out a small box and the Dutchman gave it to him. It had $4,000 worth of ore in it."

"Old Walz didn't want strangers around," Brownie explains. "Once Tom Fitzwater, and under federal law a prospector can still stake a mine. Next day or so Walz saw him in Phoenix and said: 'You are a friend of mine, but don't you never try to follow me again or I'll hafta shoot you like I shot them others.'"

The land is public domain, says Tom Fitzwater, and under federal law a prospector can still stake a mine.
