SLOWDOWN DEAD AHEAD — As this super-imposed highway sign so graphically illustrates, speed limits on Texas highways will be reduced from 70 to 55 miles per hour starting Sunday. It all has to do with the energy crisis.

NO CUTOFF NOW HEW's Ruling To Be Appealed

Big Spring School board members voted Thursday to appeal the HEW adverse decision when they met at a special meeting in the school administration building.

The board instructed their attorney, Guilford Jones, to file exceptions to the adverse ruling handed down by an administrative law judge after a hearing last August. The ruling listed five schools which HEW claims are not properly balanced racially.

These include Runnels Junior High, Lakeview, Bauer, Cedar Crest and Gay Hill elementaries. Gay Hill has since been closed.

The exceptions must go to the HEW judge by Jan. 27. If he denies any change in his ruling, the school will then have to be heard by the Secretary of HEW at a special hearing in Washington.

If this fails, the board will turn to the federal courts. All board members were present with the exception of Jerry Jenkins, who was out of town.

The ruling halts federal impact funds to local schools which are budgeted next year in the amount of $180,000. Don Crockett, superintendent of business, says the funds could amount to as much as $350,000, dependent upon changes made in Washington.

Such funds cannot be cut off however, while the case is under appeal.

Nude, Shaved Body Found

WAXAHACHIE, Tex. (AP) — Two boys found the nude and partially-shaved body of a young woman floating in an Ellis County creek near here Thursday, North Texas officers said today.

Officers said the woman, who has not been identified, had long hair that had been shaved back to the crown of her head. Her hands were tied behind her back, officers said.

They theorized she had been in the water for several days. An autopsy was being performed in Dallas to determine the cause of death.

Nixon To Outline Energy Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon announced today that he will make a live radio broadcast at noon EDT Saturday to lay out the government's energy program.

Nixon also announced that he will hold a bipartisan congressional leadership meeting Monday morning at which Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger will brief the leaders on Middle East developments.

Ink Pullback Compromise

By The Associated Press

Egypt and Israel signed military disengagement documents today, and Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger will fly to Damascus Sunday for talks on a separation of Syrian and Israeli forces, a U.S. official said.

Egyptian President Anwar Sadat will fly to Damascus also, on Saturday, for talks with the Syrians on disengagement of the Syrian and Israeli armies in the Golan Heights, the officials said.

"We will await the talks with the Syrians with the same dedication and good will" that was shown in Egypt, Kissinger said in Aswan, Egypt.

LOS ANGELES
Egypt announced that Syrian President Hafez Assad already had authorized Sadat to begin talks with Kissinger on Syria's behalf.

Egypt and Syria were the main combatants against Israel in last October's Arab-Israeli war. Syria retook and then lost part of the Syrian Golan Heights captured by Israel in the 1967 war, and in addition lost new territory to the Israeli army.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban told newsmen his government is ready for a disengagement agreement with Syria.

"The ball is in their court," he said.

TO CUT FORCES
Israel has insisted it would not negotiate with Syria until the Syrians furnished a list of the Israeli prisoners of war they are holding and allowed the International Red Cross to visit them.

Israeli Premier Golda Meir signed a copy of an Egyptian-Israeli agreement in Jerusalem, while Sadat signed another at Aswan. Egyptian and Israeli chiefs of staff signed disengagement documents at a desert tent between their forces on the west side of the Suez Canal.

Cairo agreed to cut its forces east of the Suez Canal to 7,000 troops and 30 tanks and to withdraw all antiaircraft missiles to a point seven miles west of the waterway.

The disengagement is known to call for Israel to withdraw from the west bank of the canal and to pull its army back 18 to 30 miles from the east bank to the Gidi and Mitla passes in the Sinai peninsula captured by Israel in the 1967 war.

The Egyptian-Israeli disengagement agreement could open the way for negotiations on finding solutions to the causes of three Arab-Israeli wars over a quarter of a century. The two countries will get their chance Jan. 24 when the Mideast peace talks resume in Geneva. The talks started last December but faltered because of old territorial disputes and claims of war atrocities.

Meanwhile, President Nixon called the disengagement agreement "a very significant step... toward a permanent peace in the Middle East."

The British government congratulated Egypt, Israel and Kissinger on a "significant achievement."

U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim promised U.N. support for the agreement and called it a "very important step."

Deputy Premier Abdul Kader Hatem of Egypt said the pact was a "success to Egypt... part of an over-all settlement." Cairo newspapers said no concessions were made by Egypt.

Israeli Deputy Premier Yigal Alon said neither side got all it wanted, "but neither side will have an advantage over the other." He said the accord opens "new prospects for a peace settlement."

Alon, in a television interview, gave this general outline of the agreement:

—Israel will withdraw from the territory on the west bank of the Suez Canal it captured in the October war and from a zone along the east side of the waterway.

—The U.N. peacekeeping force will police a demilitarized strip between the two armies.

—Israel promises to make further withdrawals from the Sinai Desert once the first pull-back is implemented, but only as full peace negotiations continue.

BIGGER THAN COAHOMA

Election To Incorporate Sand Springs Is Sought

By JOHN EDWARDS

A petition signed by 135 citizens wanting to incorporate Sand Springs was presented to County Judge A. G. Mitchell Thursday afternoon.

When Mitchell asked if the petitioners were afraid Big Spring might try to annex the area, Marshall Day said:

"That's what started it out, judge, to tell you the truth."

But Day mentioned another reason, now, "We're bigger than Coahoma. So we ought to have a government."

430 CONNECTIONS
He referred to an article in the Big Spring Herald which put the number of Sand Springs water connections at 430, compared to 418 water and sewer connections in Coahoma.

"I'd like to see it incorporated," Mitchell told Day and Jarrel Barbee.

Once incorporated as a municipality, Sand Springs would be eligible for federal funds for improvements. "That's what they want is that free money," the county judge said.

NO INDUSTRY
Not included in the plat attached to the petition is a nearby industrial area that includes Cosden's refinery and two carbon black plants.

Day spoke of holding a public hearing for Sand Springs residents before the election.

"This is all mouth to mouth," Day said of the present movement for incorporation.

Mitchell said he will present the petition to County Com-

Asking About Alleged New Gaps In Tapes

WASHINGTON (AP) — An assistant special prosecutor asked a White House lawyer today about alleged new gaps in Watergate-related tapes turned over to a federal district court by the White House.

Assistant prosecutor Richard Ben-Veniste asked White House lawyer J. Fred Buzhardt if he was aware that a cassette recording of the President's recollection of a March 21 meeting with John W. Dean III ended in mid-sentence.

After objections from White House lawyer James D. St. Clair, Ben-Veniste agreed to refer to it as "an incomplete sentence."

Buzhardt replied that he was aware and that it was not unusual for such dictation to include incomplete sentences.

Buzhardt said it was not unusual for pauses to exist in the dictation recordings because President Nixon had the habit of pushing the microphone button and releasing it.

DEAN MARTIN JR.
Faces Federal Charges

FIREARMS RAP

Son Of Singer Dean Martin Arrested

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dean Martin Jr., 22-year-old son of actor-singer Dean Martin, has been arrested and charged with illegal possession of firearms, federal officials said today.

A spokesman for the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Bureau of the Department of the Treasury said Martin was arrested Thursday at his home in Beverly Hills, Calif.

AMMO SEIZED

Martin was scheduled for arraignment later today in Los Angeles, the bureau spokesman said.

The spokesman said five machine guns, a .20mm cannon and a supply of ammunition were confiscated at Martin's home.

The bureau spokesman said the machine guns included an M2 carbine, a British Sten gun, a Thompson .45-caliber submachine gun and two Belgian FM machine guns.

$675 'DEAL'
The bureau spokesman said an undercover agent purchased an M16 rifle and a North Korean-made AK47 semiautomatic weapon from Martin for $675 on Wednesday. He said agents returned to Martin's house Thursday with a search warrant and made the arrest and confiscated the weapons.

The bureau spokesman in Washington said Martin was charged with unlawful possession of a machine gun.

Martin, a premedical student at the University of California at Los Angeles, is married to actress Olivia Hussey.

Young Martin gained fame as an entertainer in the mid-1960s as a member of the Dino, Desi and Billy recording group, in which he was partnered with the son of actress Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz.

Efforts to reach his father, who is in Tucson, Ariz., for the Dean Martin-Tucson Open Golf Tourney, were unsuccessful.

Federal officials said the arrest culminated a month-long investigation headed by U.S. Attorney William Keller and Steve Morrissey, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles office of the federal Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Bureau.

Benfield Fails To Post Bail

Richard Benfield, arrested in connection with a series of Phoenix robberies and two Texas slayings, was ordered held in a Phoenix, Ariz., jail on $110,000 bond Thursday.

Benfield, 25 of Kennott, Mo., was arrested Wednesday at a northwest Phoenix tavern, ending what police called its largest manhunt in years.

Benfield appeared before Maricopa County Superior Court Commissioner James McDougall, who set the bond and scheduled a Jan. 21 preliminary hearing.

He was ordered held on four counts of robbery in connection with a Jan. 10 tavern robbery. Investigators said Benfield gave them a statement in connection with that robbery and those of nine other taverns in the city.

Texas authorities said Benfield was sought for the brutal slayings of two Big Spring men, Ernest E. Johnson, 18, and Eddy G. McCormack, 28.

Running Out Of Witnesses

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Constitutional Convention appeared to be running out of witnesses today but still made plans for night and Saturday sessions to hear from ordinary Texans.

Several of the eight committees either cancelled morning meetings or heard briefly from their staffs.

A law professor who said he was just representing himself, however, told the Finance Committee that one of the principal problems of property taxation "is the general hostility of the Texas court system to give the taxpayer a fair shake."

Mark Yudof added that the "rule of the judiciary is that the taxpayer always loses, and when he wins he doesn't win very much."

Palo Pinto Jail Break

PALO PINTO, Tex. (AP) — Three prisoners broke out of the Palo Pinto County jail here about 8 p.m. Thursday by overpowering a jailer and then locking him in a cell.

The three men fled the area in a pickup stolen from Palo Pinto Sheriff Dale Harris.

They also took four pistols, including a .357 magnum and a .45 automatic from the sheriff's personal quarters.

Harris said the trio somehow overpowered jailer Tim Tuttle and forced him at gunpoint into a jail cell. He was not injured, Harris said.

The sheriff made the discovery when he returned to the jail shortly before midnight.

Harris identified the escapees as Steve Wayne Chavez, 20, Jerry Ronald Knight, 28, and Steve Stephens, also 28.

Rainfall Is Light

The U.S. Big Spring Experiment Station at 11 a.m. today measured 0.11 of an inch in rain.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new Russian ocean surveillance satellite is keeping watch from space on U.S. Navy ship movements in the Indian Ocean and the Arabian Sea. Pentagon sources say the new satellite was sent up just before the end of 1973. In addition to monitoring a U.S. carrier force cruising waters that have become increasingly important since the Arab oil embargo was imposed, the Soviet satellite has reportedly been checking on other elements of the U.S. Seventh Fleet in the South China Sea and the western Pacific.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two federal officials and consumer advocate Ralph Nader have urged Congress to require more complete disclosure of energy data by the petroleum industry. But they differed on how far this disclosure should go. Federal Power Commission Chairman John N.

Nasikas and James T. Halverson, director of the Federal Trade Commission's Bureau of Competition, said some material given to government agencies should remain confidential. But Nader told a House subcommittee that "there is no information that constitutes a trade secret."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Will Rogers, the great American humorist who once quipped that the only way to make a political party respectable was to keep it out of office, might have had difficulty joking about Watergate, says Will Rogers Jr. "I just don't know how he could have done it — this is so extreme," said Rogers Jr., now 62. The humorist's son was in Washington in connection with the return to Ford's Theater next week of "Will Rogers U.S.A.," a one-man show by James Whitmore. Rogers Sr. died in a 1935 plane crash.

RAIN

A 30 per cent chance of more cool rain this afternoon. Wind warnings in effect for area lakes, but wind diminishing tonight. High today and Saturday in the 50s. Low tonight, upper 20s.

More Information, Please

Attorney General John Hill has issued an opinion which holds that police may withhold their reports if they desire. First reports indicated that the opinion was a blanket prohibition, but subsequent ones said the opinion left the decision up to local authorities.

Pending access to the complete opinion, it is perhaps premature to comment upon it except as a principle.

Few if any have questioned the sensitivity of certain reports, particularly as they apply to matters under investigation. Many authorities brief members of the media of the content of the information or the progress of the investigation in order that reporters will have better background. As a general rule both parties deal with the matter with common sense and with mutual respect.

But anything which would shut off the free flow of information must be regarded with suspicion, and to the extent that it deprives the public of essential information, it must be regarded with alarm.

We do not know that the opinion holds that police may withhold information or reports concerning people brought in for various offenses, or for holding in connection with a case or investigation of a case. If so, this holds potential for great mischief.

Anytime an arrest is made, that should go on an arrest docket and that made public together with the reason for the arrest. Otherwise, it would be possible in theory to hold an individual almost incommunicado. And where something is possible in theory, there always will be some who will make it probable in practice.

First impressions are that the opinion seems to be a serious bending of legislative intent. For that reason, it may be wise to find out just what the courts say is the law, and not what the attorney general thinks is the law. If they agree, then it will be time to get back to the salt mines to get legislative clarification.

More Attractive Plums

The County Commissioners Court has adopted the salary schedule for officials, deputies and all other employees this year, settling up on a 15 per cent increase.

While we do not begrudge the employees getting what they can, it does seem that this percentage outstrips the cost-of-living factor. Not many businesses have been able to do that well by their employees.

One thing about the raise — the court has now boosted the total salary figures to such levels that they are pretty attractive. Just maybe some other citizens will have a look at that and decide they also want to run for the offices.

Primary Jitters

Around The Rim

John Edwards

A case of primary jitters is spreading in this community, my associates in the press confirm.

SHARP OBSERVERS recognized the symptoms months ago while the disease was dormant. They remember seeing, for example, a member of an old established family nodding to a poorly dressed person with few assets outside of a pointed pencil.

We now start witnessing late stages of primary jitters. An old acquaintance becomes a friend you didn't know you had, and some friends are acting strangely friendly. You're ferreting for a morsel of news when a carrier of the illness startles you with a blast of neighborliness. It may be a slap on the back, "Hey, Mr. John" or just a blushing hello.

A PRIMARY jitters will tell stories of wild dreams, pace an empty office and explain issues yet to materialize.

One May night, feverish worrying will intensify and the sufferer will either die (politically) or win a reprieve.

The next working day, he'll arrive late and nod to someone with a pencil in his pocket.

'Americans' Record

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — A three-minute recording called "Americans," spoken not sung and written by a 73-year-old Canadian in praise of his fellows to the south is proving to be balm to the spirits of some citizens of the United States.

Two million of those citizens had bought it by today putting it at No. 14 on the best-selling chart, which usually is a listing of rock records.

The recording puts its premise on the line in the first sentence: "Americans, this Canadian thinks it's time to speak up for the Americans, the most generous and probably the least-appreciated people in all the earth."

IT WAS WRITTEN in early 1973 as an editorial by Gordon Sinclair, 73, owner of radio station CFRB in Toronto. Reprinted in newspapers through the year, it was read on Dec. 2 on station CKLW which beams across the border from Canada into Detroit by Byron MacGregor, 25, also a Canadian.

While he played Paul Simon's "Bridge over Troubled Water," MacGregor read Sinclair's words written the spring before: "As long as 40 years ago, when I first started to read newspapers, I read of floods in the Yalu River. Who rushed in the men and the money to help? The Americans did. Today the rich bottomland of the Mississippi is under water and no foreign land has sent a dollar to help."

"GERMANY, Japan and to a lesser extent Britain and Italy were lifted out of the depression of war by the Americans who poured in billions of dollars and forgave billions in debts. None of those countries today is paying even the interest of its remaining debts to the United States."

"When distant countries are hit by earthquakes it is the United States that is there to help. So far this spring 39 American communities have been flattened by tornados. Nobody helped."

"I can name you 5,000 times when the Americans raced to the help of other people in trouble. Can you name me even one time when someone else raced to the Americans in trouble? I don't think there was outside help even during the San Francisco earthquake."

THE ESSAY also mentions the Vietnam war a couple of times, saying that countries which once received Marshall Plan aid have newspapers "writing about the decadent, warmongering Americans." A later reference says, "Our neighbors have faced it alone and I'm damned tired of hearing them be kicked around. They'll come out of this thing with the flag high and when they do, they are entitled to thumb their nose over the lands that are gloating over the present troubles."

THE READING ends with the statement that the American Red Cross was told at its annual meeting "that it was broke. This year's disasters have taken their toll and nobody but nobody has helped."

The day that MacGregor read "Americans," despite spring floods and the Vietnam war being over, his radio station received 3,500 phone calls of approval.

Armen Boladian, head of Detroit's only record company, Westbound, decided to make a recording. An arrangement of "America the Beautiful," a song in the public domain, was made and played by members of the Detroit Symphony.

The recording was cut three days after MacGregor's broadcast and distributed less than three weeks ago by Chess-Janus Records of New York, whose president, Marvin Schlachter, expects sales to reach five million.

AUTHOR SINCLAIR also has made a record of "Americans" and MacGregor on Thursday went into a recording studio to read the "Gettysburg Address" and a few other patriotic statements to put together with "Americans" to make an album.

Throughout the last year, U.S. buyers of spoken word albums about the United States have been far more in the mood for praise than blame. None of several comedy albums on Watergate solution but John Wayne's "America, Why I Love Her," on which he read patriotic poems by actor Robert Mitchum's brother, was an extremely brisk seller.

That's A Lot Of 'Sempre Libra'

NEW YORK (AP) — Anna Moffo has played the role of Violetta in Verdi's "La Traviata" more than any other Metropolitan Opera soprano. The Philadelphia-born diva, who began her Metropolitan debut as the tragic courtesan in the Verdi opera, believes that she has repeated that performance more than 500 times in major opera houses around the world, on television and in recordings.

Just counting her performances with the Metropolitan Opera Company, for example, she has played Violetta an average of 20 performances each season for 14 years in New York and on tours.

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

I'm sick of being reminded of the problems of the very young and the very old. The intimation is that those in the middle age group have little to worry them. I know differently, and I wish someone somewhere could provide some help. Why doesn't the church say more about our age group, and stop taking us so for granted?

H.B.
I am aware of some churches who have done exactly what you suggest. In one case, it is a special adult Sunday school class that relates itself to the problems of the middle-aged. They talk about such things as rearing problem children, getting along with in-laws, employment security and job challenge, plus the inevitable downward of life goals in the middle years.

In another church, group therapy sessions have been arranged using the services of a local psychologist. Insights come through mutual sharing of problems and solutions, and the comparison of Bible teaching.

The marvel of the Scripture is that it has something for everyone. Are you aware of God's promise in Isaiah 46:4 where He asserts that: even to old age, He will carry and sustain His own. It was said of Jesus in John 2:25 that nobody needed to tell him of the changing needs of human personality, for "He knew what was in man."

Do what you can at the human level to air your problem and find solutions, but remember above all, that James has promised (1:5) if we lack wisdom, God will give it to us — liberally and without criticism.

A Devotion For Today

Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not stop them, because the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." (Matthew 19:14)

PRAYER: Help us, O God, to feel thy presence everywhere. In these days of confusion and turmoil, of sorrow and disappointment, may we find time to thank Thee for our many blessings and live as Christ would have us live and pray as He taught us: "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

Livens Campaign

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — By running for President for the third, or maybe it's the fourth, time Nelson Rockefeller is enlivening a dreary political scene. He finds himself the target of the professional rightists and the professional leftists, each side smiting him for their own reasons.

FOR THE right, he is a big spender and a hightaxer. He may claim to have cleaned up New York State's rivers and to have put through other major reforms during his four terms as governor, but he did it with the people's money and they would have been better off spending their own money. So goes the refrain on the conservative side.

The professional leftists slam Rockefeller as the archetype of the establishment. He is the sign and symbol of Eastern seaboard wealth and quondam power. They ridicule his Commission on Critical Choices, caricaturing it as a sleazy device to escape exposing his own positions on critical issues.

LET ME state my own position. Of all the visible and half-visible candidates for 1976, Rockefeller is by both domestic and foreign experience the best equipped. He has proved himself as an administrator and, beginning with his experience in World War II as coordinator of Latin-American affairs, he has demonstrated his understanding of the currents of foreign policy.

His handicap, in my opinion, is his identification with big oil and oil is likely to be the leading issue of the campaign this fall and in 1976 as well. Gasoline prices, gasoline shortages, the shortfall of heating oil with cold homes, this adds up to deep discontent and a profound distrust of the five or six major oil companies.

NELSON'S GRANDFATHER, the first John D., put together Standard Oil, the cartel colossus, that fixed production, prices and distribution. It was the basis of the huge Rockefeller fortune that has proliferated down through three generations. As proof of how tight the hold still is, a recent prediction by economist Walter W. Heller, who was chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers in the Kennedy and Johnson Administrations, puts the rise in the profits of the oil company majors at $24 billion in 1974 over 1973. This is based on the assumption of a 50 per cent rise in retail prices of petroleum products over the levels of last summer. That is an educated guess.

IF CONGRESS gets off the dime and enacts the "windfall profits" tax, Heller estimates that about $8 billion of this gain will be paid to foreign governments and $3 billion to the United States Treasury. This would leave a net after-tax profit of $13 billion. Outside the oil industry, profits, according to Heller, are expected to decline by 8 to 10 per cent compared to 1973 levels.

To tag Nelson with the rapacity and the power to crush all competitors of his grandfather may seem unjust. But the legacy of that era when Ida Tarbell and the other muckrakers exposed the price fixing and the rigging of markets and rail rates cannot be simply sloughed off.

A spokesman for the Rockefeller family says the present generation has a comparatively small holding in the oil companies put together by the founding father. But comparatively small for a Rockefeller would be an awful lot for an ordinary citizen.

IF HE is a serious candidate, Rockefeller, in my opinion, has only one choice. That is to dissociate himself from big oil. He can do this by declaring for the excess-profits tax on the huge increment that will come to the majors as the result of swiftly rising prices for gas and heating oil.

The field of 1976 is narrowing. Spiro Agnew sank without a trace. And whatever happened to the big Texan, John Conally? The man in the catbird's seat is vice president Gerald R. Ford.

New Bombshell

Rowland Evans

WASHINGTON — After separate secret previews of the technical experts' report on the famous 18-minute buzz, the special prosecutor's office and President Nixon's lawyers moved off on separate tracks likely to converge in historic confrontation.

PURGED OF any possible doubt, special prosecutor Leon Jaworski immediately determined that the matter of the erased Watergate conversation between Mr. Nixon and H. R. Haldeman on June 20, 1972 (three days after the burglary) could not be ignored. Whether Judge John Sirica were to order it or not, Jaworski decided to go to the Watergate grand jury to find the truth and probably seek indictments.

But at the same time in the White House, the findings of the experts, demolishing previous explanations by presidential aides, were not allowed to interfere with the new Nixon hard line on Watergate. Instead, prominent Republicans were encouraged to issue broadsides against the President's critics without being informed of the findings by the technical experts.

THE COLLISION course set by these two lines is obvious. While Jaworski's prosecutors are seeking to place responsibility for tape tampering within the White House, Mr. Nixon's lieutenants are admitting nothing, revealing little and counterpunching vigorously. That collision, even some Nixon stalwarts now believe, could lead to impeachment.

The shocking report of the technical experts was no surprise to either the prosecutors or the White House. Each side had been given progress reports by the experts, including information weeks ago that it was possible to discover "finger-prints" on the tape left by the Uher recording machine. Around the time Boston lawyer James D. St. Clair was hired to lead Mr. Nixon's defense, it was obvious that the experts' report would be bad news for the White House.

WITHIN THE last week, it had become clear that the matter would end up in the grand jury — either at Sirica's order or by Jaworski's insistence. What's more, the grand jury would probe not only possible perjury in earlier hearings before Sirica on the lost 18 minutes but who pushed the buttons on the Uher machine and, most important, who ordered the buttons pushed.

The President's lawyers had two possible responses. They could express their own shock and pledge an attempt to find the culprit. Or they could issue a hard-nosed lawyer's challenge to Jaworski: prove what you can but we'll fight you every step.

"You, sir, are an unpatriotic, Unamerican conspirator."

Helen, Keep It Clean

Hal Boyle

EDITOR'S NOTE: During a recent illness of columnist Hal Boyle, a friend, who believes in keeping America beautiful, made a volunteer, one-woman crusade to clean up his desk, which has been described as "the greatest 15-square-foot mess of clutter in the Western world." Here are her conclusions.

By HELEN CAMP PALMER
Substituting for Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things you'd never know unless you offered to do the impossible — clean Hal Boyle's desk:

That a man can be so gregarious with people in person, and so ungregarious with correspondence.

That Hal Boyle, in good journalistic tradition, favors motherhood and God, but gets better reader reaction when he writes about the former.

That in November 1963 Hal wrote in a column: "There's a lot of talk about landing a man on the moon by 1970. But I'm willing to eat the helmet of any man who gets to the moon and back by 1975." His public still sends requests to attend the banquet.

That he gets as many kindly offers from kindly ladies as most movie stars and probably collects almost as many prayers as a parish priest. His best offer was from a lady who said if he was "already promised" she'd take Lady Dottie, his daughter's cat. When he wrote about the trials of widowhood, widows responded, naming particularly the chores of taking care of the family car. That lets Hal out. He never owned or drove a car.

That he is a sentimental slob and that the real reason he doesn't open his mail is that he is afraid people will write him about problems he can't help them solve.

That almost everyone writes: "Dear Hal, I call you Hal because I feel I know you so well from reading your column . . ." That a cult of Pennsylvania women threaten never to write him again if he doesn't answer the letters they've been writing for five years.

That when you get down to the green top of the desk, you find a philosophical memo from Hal Boyle to Hal Boyle that says: "A clean desk is the sign of a frightened mind."

That among the readers who write to him are a great many very nice people, a few nasty ones, and an enormous number of lonely ones.

That he truly means to read all the letters, books and press releases he gets. That's why when office windowsills have to be painted, he moves his window-sill collection into cartons, and why co-workers build cardboard fences between his desk and theirs. One sign, rising slightly over the Himalayan hump of Boyle's mail, reads simply: "Boyle Stops Here."

Some Allergic To Aspirin

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is it possible to have an allergic reaction to aspirin? If so, what type of reaction would occur?

— Mrs. R.H.
Very definitely yes, some individuals can be hypersensitive to aspirin. Not that it's common, but it does happen.

Likeliest manifestations are breaking out in a rash or hives; or touching off an asthma attack; or intestinal track symptoms.

Aspirin is a common ingredient in many headache or pain-relieving preparations, so anyone with such an allergy should watch for the word aspirin in the contents of various mixtures. Look also for its chemical name, "acetylsalicylic acid."

An alternative medication for such folks is acetaminophen, also called Tylenol, either alone or in combination with other medication.

And, of course, always remember to remind your doctor, when he is prescribing for you, that you have that allergy.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please send me your booklet, "Ear Noises," for which I enclose 15 cents and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. Sometimes I have a sort of ear ringing, and once in a while I get a bit of blurred vision for a few seconds. Could these be signs of a vitamin deficiency? — N.S.

No, they don't fit the picture of vitamin deficiency at all. High blood pressure could be involved, as well as such possibilities as otosclerosis. I'd want to check your blood pressure as a first step and then your hearing.

What about constipation? Many can be relieved of it, both mentally and physically, by reading the booklet, "The Way To Stop Constipation." For a copy write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed envelope, and 25 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

Report Is Given On SA Projects

Thirteen members of the Big Spring Salvation Army met in the Big Spring Savings Association Building Thursday morning to hear reports in their January board meeting.

Treasurer Johnny Justiss, vice chairman of advisory board, W. L. Wilson Jr. and Christmas Chairman G. G. Morehead reported on the status of Salvation Army projects and finances.

Next board meeting will be 8 a.m. Feb. 21.

The Army now has $4,834.65 on hand — much of it left over from $7,047.65 gathered in the Army's Christmas drive. The Army also passed out food and toy baskets to 173 families during Christmas. The Army now plans to build a thrift store on three vacant lots next to their headquarters on 308 Ayford, but buying the land is still in their "lawyer's hands," as Capt. L. Z. Sullivan put it.

Women Of Chapel Name New Prexy

Mrs. Paula Howard was elected co-president of the Webb AFB Women of the Chapel (WOC) this week. She replaces Mrs. Tillie Black, who left the base recently.

Chaplain (Maj.) Neil Daley presented a talk on the Holy Lands, and showed slides of the area. He has been stationed in Incirlik, Turkey, and has traveled extensively throughout the Holy Lands.

A devotional was led by Mrs. Cindy Elwell, who spoke from Proverbs, chapter 31, on the qualities of a godly wife.

In a short business meeting chaired by Mrs. Sue Williams, the group discussed adopting a Nursing Inns visitation project. A committee headed by Mrs. Paula Howard will implement the project.

Another project the WOC has begun is the collection of household items, children's clothing and other things which people wish to donate to needy families. Plans call for the items to be brought to WOC meetings for collection.

Immaculate Heart Schedules Ecumenical Prayer Service

By MARJ CARPENTER
In celebration of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, an ecumenical prayer service will be held on Wednesday, January 23 at 7:30 p.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, 1009 Heart St.

This week of prayer, held each year from January 18 to 25, is an intense period of prayer for unity, when churches take stock of the efforts made in fostering this unity and plan for the future.

The Rev. Louis Moeller, pastor of Immaculate Heart of Mary, will be the leader of the service, which has as its theme "We have but one Father and that is God Himself." (John 8:41). Rev. Clayton Hicks, chaplain at the VA hospital, will give the sermon.

Coffee will be served in the parish hall following the service. Everyone is invited to attend.

COLLEGE BAPTIST Church will be engaged in January Bible Study beginning Sunday, January 20, through Wednesday, January 23. The Rev. Robert L. Bratcher, pastor of the Crescent Park Baptist Church in Odessa, will be the guest speaker — teacher.

The Bible study will be centered around the book of "Colossians," one of Paul's, the Apostle, little letters. Rev. Bratcher will speak at both Sunday services, 10:55 a.m. and 6:55 p.m., and Monday through Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Bratcher was born and reared in Lubbock, educated in the public schools there and attended Wayland Baptist College in Plainview. He is married to the former Carolyn McAdams and they have four children.

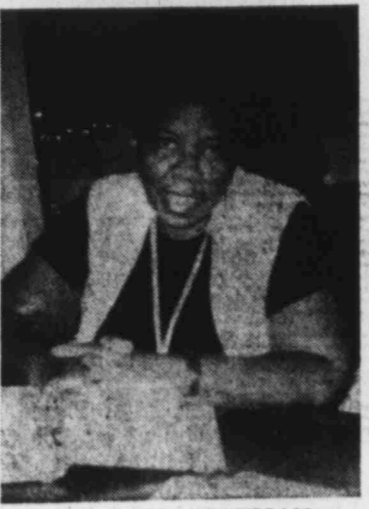

Before pastoring at Crescent Park, he pastored for sixteen years at Mountain View Baptist Church, El Paso. He also has served on the staff at First Baptist Church, El Paso. He has pastored at Crescent Park since September, 1970.

Special music will be provided by the Church Choir, the Youth Choir, and the Young Musicians, plus soloists will be used. David Norville, minister of music and education of College Church will direct the music.

Dr. Jimmy Law, pastor of the church, invites all to this informative Bible study. Nursery facilities will be provided for all children three years and under.

at Midland Memorial Hospital and Parkview Hospital. The public is invited to hear the dynamic speaker.

BAKER'S CHAPEL will also have a memorial service in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King during the 11 a.m. worship service in the sanctuary. The public is also invited to attend this service.

DR. V. M. COLEMAN

DEFINITELY an apology is owed to the Rev. Collyns Moore Jr., pastor of Hillcrest Baptist Church whom we recently listed as the Rev. Collins Rice. Rice is not a reverend, and I must have reached way back in my rusty memory bank to pull out that name because Rice was a Permian football and baseball player. The Rev. Moore is responsible for none of his wins or losses.

THE DIOCESAN BOARD of Education held its quarterly meeting at Sacred Heart Church, 1633 South 8th in Abilene on January 12.

Mrs. Vera Koth, president, convened the 35-member board composed of representatives from the six Catholic schools of the diocese and representatives from the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) from throughout the diocese.

The Catholic Schools Department, chaired by Reverend Timothy J. Murphy, J. L. C., Superintendent of Catholic Schools, discussed development of a policy applying to married students in Catholic schools within the diocese. Although schools in Midland, Odessa, Big Spring and San Angelo have children only through the sixth or ninth grades, St. Joseph School in Rowena has twelve grades in operation and instances may occur when high school students in that school may marry prior to graduation. The policy is still under development and is taking into consideration the feelings of Parish School Boards toward students remaining in Catholic schools in cases of sacramental marriage, marriage without the benefit of clergy, and in instances of pregnancy.

THE 50th ANNIVERSARY of his priesthood will be celebrated by Rev. Theo Francis, OMI, on February 3 at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Big Spring, Texas.

Fr. Francis has been stationed in Big Spring on three different occasions. At present he is a chaplain at the VA Hospital.

Outstanding Individuals Due At Baptist Association Meet

Baker's Chapel A.M.E. Church will observe Woman's Day Sunday, Jan. 20 beginning at 3 p.m.

Dr. Viola M. Coleman, M.D. will be the guest speaker. She is a member of St. Paul C.M.E. Church of Midland. A member of the Midland County Medical Society, she is a staff member

Two outstanding personalities among Texas Baptists will be on the program of the Big Spring Baptist Association evangelist conference Monday.

The meeting will begin at 6 p.m. at Hill Crest Baptist Church with a meeting of the association board.

In the program beginning at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Jaroy Weber, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Lubbock, will speak and Bob G. Fuston, consultant, for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will suggest effective use of the Sunday School in evangelism.

The Lubbock church, one of the largest in the denomination, called and waited most of two years to get Dr. Weber, then pastor at Dauphin Way church in Mobile, Ala. Called to preach at age 12, he was thought to be Texas' youngest pastor at 16. He holds degrees from Louisiana Baptist College and Theological Seminary.

Starting with 23 members at North Orange, he presided over a program that increased membership to 2,900. Called to West Monroe, La., he saw membership grow from 3,000 to 5,400 and the budget multiply five times. He pastored five years at First Baptist in Beaumont, sixth largest in the denomination, and saw 2,400 added to bring membership to 7,300. In 1966 he was called to the Alabama Church, where in 1972, he baptized 456. He has been in world evangelism conferences and was named outstanding citizen of Mobile.

Fuston, a native of Dallas, felt the call to full time Christian service while attending SMU. He graduated from Baylor and Southwestern Seminary, was active in youth evangelism, served as music and educational director in many of the state's larger churches as well as in Oklahoma, and currently is director of education at First Baptist, Arlington. He is regarded as one of the leading experts on Sunday School.

The host church will serve dinner at 6:45 p.m. The Rev. Warren Hall, pastor of First Baptist, Stanton will preside; Dan McClinton, Baptist Temple, will lead the music, and Rev. Haskell Wilson, West Side Baptist pastor, will be in charge of Scripture reading and prayer.

Unbeaten Brahmas Score 12th Victory

SNYDER — The Big Spring freshman Brahmas kept their record clean here Thursday with a tense 65-63 overtime victory

Sports... In Brief

FOOTBALL

JACKSON, Miss. — The University of Mississippi named assistant coach Ken Cooper as head football coach replacing Johnny Vaught, who will remain at the school as athletic director.

MACOMB, Ill. — Brodie Westen, assistant coach at Western Illinois the last three years, was named head football coach replacing Darrell Mudra.

TENNIS

SAN FRANCISCO — Top seeds Chris Evert and Billie Jean King advanced to the semifinals of the $50,000 San Francisco tennis tournament with impressive straight set victories.

BASEBALL

LOS ANGELES — Veteran Frank Howard, 6-foot-8 slugger released by the Detroit Tigers, signed a contract to play baseball for the Taiheyo Club Lions in Japan this year.

over Snyder Lamar, the Brahmas' 12th without a loss this season.

Mike Wood hit the winning basket with 35 seconds left and Cornell Kimble, who had hit the first overtime basket, followed with a steal to ice away the win.

Three starters had fouled out prior to the close of regulation play, which ended with the score knotted at 61-61, but Arthur O'ague and Jimmy McChristian filled in well in relief.

Bubba Stripling hit 16 points before leaving the game with five personals. Bill Arenecbia notched 14 and Kimble added 10 points. The Brahmas hit 28 of 79 shots from the field for 35 per cent and nine of 17 free throws.

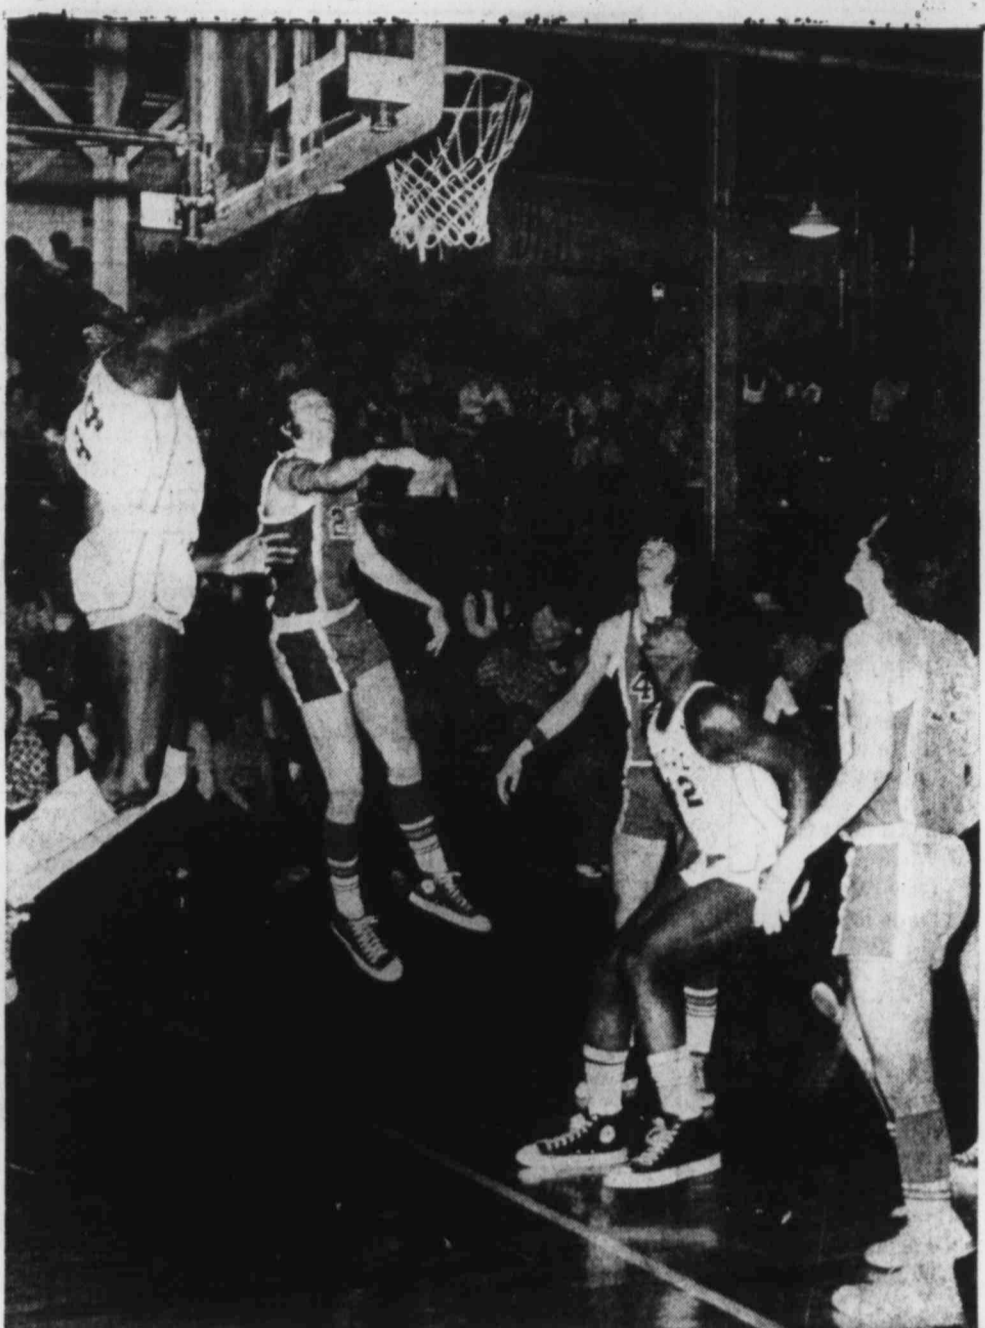

Arenecbia pulled in 14 rebounds to lead that category as the Brahmas outrebounded their hosts 47-35, including 22 of 25 offensive rebounds. McChristian and Stripling each had eight, Wood had seven and Kimble five rebounds.

In an earlier game, Goliad's Mavericks dropped a 51-29 decision to the Lamar squad. The Mavs, stale after a month-long "avoff" trailed by 33-7 at the half and fell to 7-4 on the year.

BRAHMAS (65) — Bill Arenecbia 5-4-14; Cornell Kimble 5-0-10; Bubba Stripling 8-2-16; Mike Wood 4-0-8; Arthur O'ague 2-3-7; Phil Woods 1-0-2; Jimmy McChristian 3-0-6; totals 28-94-5.

LAMAR (63) — Young 4-4-16; Beard 3-1-7; Foltz 6-0-12; McCormick 3-8-14; Johnson 1-3-3; Fletcher 4-1-9; O'Day 0-2-2; totals 23-7-65.

SNEAK ATTACK — Taylor Williams makes his approach from behind for these two points Thursday during the Howard College Hawks' 100-70 victory over the Angelo State Junior Varsity. Mike Dickey (21) of the Rams tries for the block as Hawk David Tolliver prepares for the rebound. Looking on for ASU are David Sisson (43) and John Bandy (15).

Steers In 'Must' Situation Again; Cougs Visit Tonight

It's been showtime time for the Big Spring Steers each night since the Dist. 5-AAA race started two weeks ago. Tonight is no different, as the Steers entertain league-leading Abilene Cooper in an 8 p.m. struggle that's crucial for both teams.

Tonight's game will probably be another run-and-shoot classic, typical of this year's wild league race that still has six teams seriously contending for the first half flag with three games remaining.

"I think a team with three losses can pretty well be eliminated from the title picture, at least for the first half," Steer Coach Ron Plumlee said, adding that he'd never seen the race so well-balanced before.

With his Steers at 2-2, that makes tonight's game another "must," Cooper, 17-4 on the year, takes a 3-1 district standing into the game and hopes for a first half finale with Abilene High that would decide the championship.

A possibility of a six-way tie looms following tonight's slate which also has San Angelo at Abilene, sends Lee to Permian and Odessa to Midland High.

Abilene, 3-1, has already lost once this year to the Bobcats, who are tied for second with Big Spring, Midland and Lee, all at 2-2.

The two Midland schools are heavy favorites over the Odessa teams tonight, although that hasn't meant much in the league chase this year.

Plumlee says Cooper "will open it up and run with us" tonight, and both teams will be pressing most of the time. The Cougs' top offensive hand has been 6-4 Larry Bradford, averaging 17 points a game in district, while 6-2 Reggie Leffall and Cave Baum also rank among the top scorers in the league.

Big Spring will counter with its Smith duo — John Thomas, the 6-2 whiz who leads the Steers in scoring and rebounding, and Albo, who threw in the crucial free throws with 10 seconds remaining Tuesday that lifted the Steers to a 74-72 upset of Lee.

Although they're not related, the two have shown similar style in coming up with clutch plays.

Joining the Smiths in the starting lineup will be 6-3 post men Tim Dunn and Randy Marshall and guard Larry Stanley. Plumlee says his reserves are as important as the starters, and they prove it each game.

"We've had great bench strength all year," the coach said. "It seems like every game, four or five people come on and help us out — in fact, most of the games we've won, we couldn't have done it without our bench."

Guards Jim Ray and Jeff Kuykendall and post men Rick Traylor and James Zapp are the top reserves, with Tom Sorley, Bobby Greene and Vicky Woodruff also ready for action.

The Steer Junior Varsity and Cooper JVs will collide in a 6 p.m. preliminary. Coach James Griffin's Steers stand 7-8 on the year.

Miller's Play 'Ridiculous'

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — "Ridiculous." Johnny Miller had a big, broad smile stretched across his usually-expressionless face as he shook his head and repeated:

"Ridiculous. I'm playing so good it's ridiculous. I know it won't keep up. No one can keep on going like this — but right now the game seems awfully easy."

Miller, the current U.S. open title-holder and the only champion the pro golf tour has had this season, made it look easy Thursday as he casually ambled home with an eye-popping, 10-under-par 62 in the first round of the $150,000 Dean Martin Tucson Open.

Miller, who swept the first two titles on the pro tour this season, established a whopping, four-stroke lead in his bid to become the first man since Arnold Palmer in 1962 to win three consecutive American tournaments.

"I don't mean to sound cocky or anything like that," Miller said, "but if I use my head, don't start making mental mistakes, I don't think anybody can beat me this week."

"I'm 10 under par now. I don't see any reason I can't finish 15 under. And I think 15 under will win it."

Jerry Heard, a close friend of Johnny's, and Allen Miller, no relation, had 66 on the 7,305 yard Tucson National golf club course, six-under-par but a distant four strokes back in the chase for a $30,000 first prize.

Gary Sanders followed at 67 while the group at 68 included Orville Moody, Gibby Gilbert, Kermit Zarley, George Johnson and Roy Pace.

Howard Sleepwalks Past Rams, 100-70

By JACK COWAN

There was a certain amount of flatness, a stale quality not familiar to most of the 700 Howard College fans Thursday as the Hawks effortlessly rolled over the Angelo State Junior Varsity 100-70 in the HC gym. But then, there's really nothing to worry about, says Hawk Coach Harold Wilder.

"Look at it this way. We won by 30, got 100 points and we're 23-2. That's not so bad." But that was his optimistic side speaking, and his realistic side knew the Hawks had just played their most uninspired ball of the year.

"We had a pretty good first half, and then when we came out for the second half we just couldn't get it going. We were up by 20, and the guys just weren't hustling — there was a lot of standing around. Then the second bunch got in, they were fresh and ready to play and things started happening."

"The fact that the Hawks weren't their normal, explosive selves became obvious early as the HC troops seemed to have trouble taking their visitors seriously, and it showed."

The Hawks, who smacked the Ram JVs 111-92 last Saturday, showed occasional signs of the type play that has made them the eleventh-ranked NCJAA team during the first half, powering to a 47-26 lead.

But the Howard Cagers, averaging 105 points a game, could do little right following the intermission and scored just four points in the first seven minutes, as the Rams cut the bulge to 51-43.

David Holtsclaw, ASU's 6-6 post man who hit 27 points, and Jim Leach led that blitz.

Bobby Beall finally hit a basket that helped the Hawks get on the road back, however, making it 53-43 with 13 minutes remaining. A minute later Taylor Williams, HC's high scorer with 19 points, returned from a break to join 6-7 Thomas Bledsoe and reserves Keith Lewis, Johnny Harris and Willie Young and things began to click.

Bledsoe, who finished with 15 points, seemed to let go some of his frustrations with eight minutes to go when, after an unsuccessful ASU free throw, he found himself in the air and grabbed hold of the rim, hanging there for about three seconds.

It was the first of three technical fouls in the game.

The Hawks began to run after that, with Williams and David Tolliver at the post positions, and the hosts outscored ASU 14-2 in the next three minutes to make it 86-57 with 4:47 left.

From there it was mainly free throws that carried the Hawks up to the century mark, and then Young shot the 100th point on a jump shot with just over a minute to play.

Lumzy had 12 points in the victory, Howard College's 16th in a row, and Lewis and Mike Randle notched 11 apiece. For the Rams, it was also the 13th time this year they've reached 100 points.

John Elder helped the ASU cause with 20 points as the team slipped to 4-4. David Sisson of Lamesa, who had burned the Hawks for 25 points in their first meeting, could manage just seven points before fouling out with two and a half minutes to go.

Cosell Threat Ends In Arrest

BUFFALO (AP) — An unemployed steelworker from nearby Lackawanna has been arrested on federal extortion charges and accused of threatening to blow up sportscaster Howard Cosell.

Marian G. Batko, 27, also known as Michael Batko, was arraigned Thursday before U.S. Magistrate Edmund F. Maxwell, who released him on $500 bond pending a preliminary hearing Feb. 5.

FBI agents said in an affidavit filed in U.S. District Court here that Batko mailed a postcard to Cosell with the threat written on it.

The postcard message read, "Howard Cosell — The Mouth. Why don't you drop dead... I'll help you. There's a bomb in the Rich Stadium. It will blow you up at 10 Monday, Oct. 29 at Rich Stadium, Buffalo, N.Y."

The postcard was intercepted by the Lackawanna Post Office just before Cosell's arrival in Buffalo to broadcast the Buffalo Bills-Kansas City Chiefs Monday night football game Oct. 29.

The FBI affidavit said agents matched the handwriting on the card to Batko's signature on a job application filed with Republic Steel Corp. in 1971.

Prior to the Feb. 16 Valentine Ball, a cocktail party will be held in the home of Mrs. Wilson for chapter members.

A pledge ritual was held for Mrs. Stan Allen.

Jewelry was the subject of a program presented by Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Allen explained that jewelry originated in the primitive era, with the majority of it having religious meaning. In the past, it has been worn, not necessarily for dress but, because of religious convictions or as a 'good luck' charm. She pointed out that jewelry was not mass-produced until the 19th century, at which time it became less expensive and was worn more.

A selection of hand-painted china jewelry was displayed as Mrs. Smith told about each piece.

Sounds Great

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 26-year-old single black man. I played pro football for a few years, have a degree in business management and a good job.

I am 6 foot 5 inches, weigh 240 pounds, and have been told I'm handsome. I neither smoke nor drink, am in excellent health, and work out in the gym three times a week. I'm a good dancer, own a late model car, and have no skeletons in my closet. I know many young ladies, but some of the married ones are too friendly, and a relationship with a married lady is not my thing, so that's out. All the single chicks I know have boy friends, and I am not the one to break up a romance, so that's out.

I'm clean, well-dressed, polite, and use the mouthwash people hate, but I can't seem to get a girl. Why?

WANTS COMPANIONSHIP
DEAR WANTS: You must be kidding! Pass the word to your friends, (married or single) that you are interested in meeting a nice chick — object companionship, and you'll need the Pittsburgh Steelers to run interference for you.

DEAR ABBY: Is it possible for a man to love two women at the same time?

NETTIE

DEAR NETTIE: Yes, but it would be very tiring.
DEAR ABBY: "Piggy Bank Peggy" wrote to you saying she cured her husband of using objectionable language by getting a piggy bank and making him put a quarter in it every time he used a swear word, and a dollar every time he used a really dirty word.

Seeing as how I had the same problem with my husband, I tried it. I didn't work. He got mad, used a swear word, and asked me for 75 cents change, saying he had a "dollar" word in mind but used a 25-cent word instead.

LITTLE OLD CHANGE-MAKER
CONFIDENTIAL TO ANYONE FOR WHOM IT IS NOT YET TOO LATE: Don't make the mistake so many parents (who can afford it) make — giving their children expensive gifts instead of time and thoughtful guidance. The only real security children will ever have in this life will come from whatever ability they develop to get along with each other and to make their own way, not from material things.

Gift Shower Held After Meeting

A gift shower was held for Mrs. Wayne Rock following Tuesday's meeting of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Mothers Club.

During the business session, Mrs. Larry Key, president, announced that the club will assist with the "50th Jubilee Celebration" honoring the Rev. Theo Francis. The event is slated Feb. 3. A luncheon will be served that day, following the 10:30 a.m. mass, and a reception in the cafeteria will begin at 1:30 p.m.

It was announced that room mothers are needed for the fifth grade. Persons who can help are asked to call Mrs. Key at 267-2368.

The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 12 in the school cafeteria.

"Then I'll quote you some features you could never get before!"

New for '74—International rides 2 inches wider than any pickup ever rode before!

This new wider ride made it possible to add a lot of other great improvements to the new '74 International* Pickup. "Like moving the suspension springs further out for improved stability. The rear shocks have also been improved—staggered to reduce "power hop".

This means my International is a better riding, better handling pickup than ever before.
