MOBILIZATION BY RUSSIA MAKES SITUATION GRAVE

Austrian And Servian Troops Clash And Real Conflict Is In Progress

GERMANY DEMANDS EXPLANATION BY CZAR

Hope Of Averting General Conflict More Remote—Fighting Under Way On Danube River

By Associated Press.

Berlin, July 30.—A note dispatched by the German government to St. Petersburg this morning gives Russia twenty-four hours to explain her intentions with regard to mobilization. In diplomatic quarters, it was stated that the note to Russia asked three questions—the object of the mobilization, whether it was directed against Austria-Hungary and whether Russia was willing to order a stoppage of mobilization.

Warlike Preparations On All Sides By Powers Of Europe

By Associated Press.

London, July 30.—While Austrian invaders and Servian troops were fighting the opening stages of their war on Servian territory today, European statesmen and rulers were engaged in what they regarded as the almost hopeless task of trying to avert a general clash of the millions composing the armies of the great European powers.

Sir Edward Grey, a central figure in the controversy owing to his strong efforts to keep the powers of the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente from engaging in conflict, was not able to give any cheering news when he spoke about the crisis to members of the House of Commons. He said:

"I regret I cannot say the situation is less grave than it was yesterday. Austria-Hungary has begun war against Servia and Russia has ordered a partial mobilization of troops. This has not hitherto led to corresponding steps by other powers so far as our information goes. We continue to pursue our one great object, of preserving the European peace and for this purpose we are keeping in close touch with the great European powers."

The gravity of the international situation was recognized in all European capitals today. Premier Asquith and Eir Edward Grey called on all parties in the British Isles to join in efforts to avert the immeasurable calamity of an extension of hostilities to other countries.

The German emperor conferred at length with the imperial chancellor and the ministers of war and marine and later reserve officers and received orders to mobilize.

Russia proceeded with her mobilization of a large number of troops.

President Poincare and the French cabinet decided to meet daily. The French defensive forces took precautionary measures.

Austrian invaders and Servian troops came into contact on Servian territory and hundreds of casualties were said to have resulted.

The whereabouts of the main British fleet is unknown since its departure yesterday from Portland under sealed orders.

The German squadrons are concentrated at Kiel and Wilhelmstadt. The French fleet has taken steps to prepare for eventualties.

Japan is said to have declared her readiness to join her ally Great Britain. In outlying British colonies the troops have been prepared for instant service. A German gunboat hurriedly quit Cape Town today and went to sea. The German and British fleets in the far east have ben concentrated at their stations.

All foreign students have been ordered to leave German schools.

European stock exchanges have virtually ceased operations and the leading banking institutions have taken steps to protect their stock of gold.

FRANCE WATCHING CLOSELY, DAILY CABINET MEETINGS

All Preparations For War Short of Actual Mobilization Have Been Made

By Associated Press.

Paris, July 30.—President Poincare presided over a meeting of the French cabinet this morning at which the European war situation exclusively was considered. The cabinet is to hold daily council while the international crisis lasts.

Every military preparation short of mobilization now has been made in France. The principal railroad stations and all the signal boxes and switches today are guarded by troops.

Rumors of the wildest nature were in circulation today to the effect that President Poincare after an all night council of war had decided to call out 800,000 men of the French army reserves. A strongly worded official denial of this was issued. At the same time a veil is being kept over the military operations.

Kaiser's Troops In Readiness, Although Not Yet In Actual Mobilization Process

By Associated Press.

Berlin, July 30.—At the German foreign office it was stated today that efforts toward the maintenance of peace still were in progress and that Germany had not yet ordered a mobilization of her army. Preliminary instructions, however, were sent today by the war department to all officers and soldiers of the reserves to hold themselves in readiness to join the colors. The officers of the regular army had received instructions yesterday to hold themselves in readiness for the mobilization of their units.

Representative officials at the foreign office declared the situation had grown worse today instead of better. They pointed out that the mobilization of the Russian army at a time when Austria-Hungary had not moved a man toward the Russian frontier could only be interpreted in one way and that was that Russia had determined to support Servia.

It was added also that France was making secret preparations and that although Germany had not yet mobilized it was questionable whether she could remain inactive much longer in face of the military preparations on her borders.

EFFORTS TO BRING ABOUT ARMISTICE

UNITED STATES IS USING INFLUENCE UPON GENERAL CARRANZA

APPEAL IS MADE BY CARBAJAL

Says Further Fighting Not Only Unnecessary But Inhumane Under Circumstances

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 30.—Efforts were made today by the United States to influence General Carranza to bring about an immediate armistice in Mexico. This action followed an appeal from Provisional President Carbajal to the effect that further fighting not only was "unnecessary but inhumane in view of the certain success of the peace negotiations."

Secretary Bryan telegraphed John R. Silliman, personal representative of President Wilson with Carranza, urging a suspension of hosilities. The situation from the viewpoint of Carbajal was outlined in the following statement prepared by his personal representative here, Jose Castellot:

"Provisional President Carbajal is fully resolved to carry out negotiations on the general basis already agreed upon. His delegates should arrive in Saltillo tomorrow and begin conference immediately with General Carranza. It is the unalterable purpose of Mr. Carbajal to turn over the government in a peaceful and dignified way. Mr. Carbajal has urged me to make every effort to obtain an immediate armistice and if not possible, the suspension of all hosilities without loss of time, although this is not formally declared, but merely established as an actual fact, since in view of the certain success of the negotiations about to begin any further bloodshed would be unnecessary and quite inhuman."

Act of 18-Year Boy Caused War That May Change Map of Europe

London, July 30.—A fanatic—a mere stripling of 18 years—is directly responsible for the gigantic war that threatens to envelop Europe. Gavrio Princip, the Serb who fired the shots that killed Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife, has really brought about the greatest crisis that ever confronted the European nations.

This youth's act may cause the loss of thousands of lives and millions of dollars and even the ruin of nations. When he fired the shots that ended the lives of the heir to the Austrian throne and his wife, this Serb touched a match to the fire that has been smoldering for years in Austria. The feeling between the two countries has been bitter. Princip's act was all that was needed to bring down the wrath of the Austrians on the Serbs. Copies of newspapers received from Vienna and Belgrade show that a bitter war baiting between the press of Austria and Servia preceded the declaration of war. Violent attacks were made on each side.

The Belgrade Zyono published an alleged letter charging that Princip, assassin of Archduke Ferdinand, was an illegitimate son of a woman member of Austrian royalty. It stated that the mother urged Prinzip to kill Ferdinand because she believed Ferdinand plotted the murder of her hrusband. This publication infuriated the aged Emperor, Franz Joseph and other members of the royal family. Other bitter exchanges led to such feeling that advocates of pacific measures found little opportunity for their arguments.

WRECK WEDNESDAY NORTH OF HARROLD

NONE OF THOSE HURT ARE EXPECTED TO DIE FROM INJURIES

EXACT CAUSE IS NOT LEARNED

Sun Kink In Rail Is Believed To Be Responsible—Three Cars Leave Track

THE INJURED.

MRS. FRED BOONE, Memphis, Texas, severe bruises and probably internal injuries.

MISS JULIA STONE, Tyler, Texas, right arm torn, internal injuries, serious.

J. A. WHALEY, Memphis, badly bruised about the body.

F. N. SASSER, ear split, right arm and right leg bruised.

MRS. F. N. SASSER, bruises on forehead and right leg.

TWO SASSER CHILDREN, slight bruises.

MISS LUCILE HOLDEN, Wichita Falls, right arm cut and bruised.

MISS EMMA HOLDEN, Wichita Falls, right arm bruised and wrist sprained.

J. R. GASKIN, Valley View, severe bruises over the body.

WALTER TRUEBLOOD, Memphis, formerly of Wichita Falls, right ankle sprained and left arm hurt.

MRS. J. S. DORAN, Childress, bruises.

O. J. MORRIS, address not known, severe bruises.

W. B. JOHNSON, Electra, slightly injured.

G. W. MAULFAIR, Channing, slightly injured.

None of the fifteen persons hurt when one day coach, the diner and one Pullman on southbound Fort Worth & Denver passenger train No. 2 were derailed four miles north of Harrold Wednesday afternoon were fatally hurt, according to statements by physicians here, although several have received serious injuries.

Among the more seriously injured were Mrs. Fred Boone of Memphis, Miss Julia Stone of Tyler and J. R. Gaskin of Valley View. Mrs. Boone is in a local sanitarium where she was brought last night with her seven months old baby. The baby came out of the wreck without a scratch but Mrs. Boone suffered severe bruises and internal injuries the extent of which are unknown. Miss Stone and Mr. Gaskin were carried on to Fort Worth. Miss Stone was believed to be internally injured.

Injured Are Brought Here.

Most of the injured were brought here last night on the part of the train which did not leave the rails. Those now in sanitariums or hospitals here include: F. N. Sasser and two little girls of Memphis, Mrs. C. N. Sasser, Memphis, Mrs. Fred Boone, Memphis, J. A. Whaley, Memphis and Walte. Trueblood, Memphis.

The Misses Lucile and Emma Holden are at their home here. Neither is seriously injured.

The derailment is believed to have been caused by a kink in the rails resulting from expansion under the hot sun.

The front baggage and day coaches passed over all right but when the day coach ahead of the diner hit the kink it left the track. The diner and the Pullman behind it followed.

At the point where the derailment took place the track is on a fill of about seven feet. The day coach and the diner careened over on their sides down this fill. Passengers in the day coach were tossed about as the car went over and flying glass from shattered windows showered over them. Fortunately the Pullmans behind them remained on the track and did not crash into them and in a few minutes the wrecked day coach was emptied. Al lof those injured were riding in this coach.

Physicians Rushed To Scene.

At the time of the derailment the train was not running more than twenty miles an hour and to this is probably due the fact that there was no loss of life.

The accident was reported from Harrold and physicians from Electra, Vernon and Wichita Falls summoned. These began to arrive on the scene within half an hour after the accident. Dr. Everett Jones and Dr. Q. B. Lee made the trip from Wichita Falls to Electra where they met the train bringing the injured in fifty minutes by automobile.

A trained nurse who was on the train but whose name was not learned was of great help to the injured both before and after physicians arrived.

The engine, express, mail and baggage cars and several day coaches did not leave the rails and the train was run on to Wichita Falls and to Fort Worth reaching here at about 6:30.

AUSTRIANS INVADING SERVIA MEET SHARP RESISTANCE

By Associated Press.

London, July 30.—A newspaper dispatch from Rome says sharp resistance is being offered to the Austrian advance from the Northwest by small detachments of Servian troops left to impede their progress. The news comes from Nish, Servia, by way of Saloniki.

The Austro-Hungarian invaders followed the valley of the river Moreva and first encountered a body of Servian troops at Semendria on the Servian side of the Danube. The Servians held their ground until nightfall and then retired. Both Austrians and Servians sustained heavy losses.

Several hundred soldiers were killed in the engagement. On the western side of Servia an Austrian column came in contact with a Servian force at Losnitza which put up a stubborn defense and held the fort there until dark, inflicting heavy losses on the Austrians. The Southern Austrian column in Bosnia remained stationary today awaiting the movement of the Montenegrin troops.

The ancient fortress of Belgrade was reduced by the Austrian artillery which however caused only slight damage to other parts of the Servian capital. The British legation was struck by an Austrian shell. Servian sharp shooters greatly harried the Austrian artillery men during the bombardment.

The Austria-Hungarian force invading Servia totals 500,000 men according to a newspaper dispatch from Rome. Of these 150,000 are operating from Semlin opposite Belgrade, the Servian capital; 100,000 from Scornik, on the River Drina in Bosnia; 150,000 from Srayevo, the capital of Bosnia and 100,000 from Milanovatz on the Danube in the eastern part of Servia.

Another message received by the Servian legation says the Servian troops successfully resisted the Austria advance at Lostitza to the west of Belgrade.

BEING CANDIDATE PROVES EXPENSIVE

STATEMENTS ARE FILED OF AMOUNTS SPENT IN MAKING RACES

PRINTERS GET LARGE AMOUNT

Announcements and Cards Constitute Chief Item of Expense In Statements Filed

Running for office is an expensive proposition even if the candidate has no opponent and if he is beaten when he has an opponent. More candidates have filed statements of expenditures with County Judge C. B Felder.

R. V. Gwinn's statement of expenses in his race for sheriff shows he spent $192.90. Of this amount $35 was for auto hire, $50 for newspaper announcements, $16 for railroad fare and $40 for incidentals.

W. J. Howard spent $22.35 to be re-elected justice of the peace in precinct 1. J. P. Jones spent $31.35.

M. P. Kelly spent $124.60 in his race for county clerk. Announcements took $57.50 of this sum; cards $38.50 and auto hire $10.75. Mr. Kelly spent $10 for buggy hire and $4 for horse feed.

R. M. Johnson who was unopposed for county superintendent spent $71. Announcements and the fee for getting his name on the ticket took up this sum.

A. F. Kerr who was renominated without opposition for district clerk spent $41.

B. M. Bullard's statement shows that he spent $174.85 in his campaign for nomination as tax collector. Announcements was the biggest item of cost in Mr. Bullard's statement.

It cost John Robertson for tax assessor in announcements and getting his name on the ballot $66.

J. M. Blankenship one of the unsuccessful candidates for county attorney, spent $146.90.

Auto hire cost him $5, horse feed $2.50 and "drinks of all kinds" about $7.50. Stamps and paper are itemized at $1.

At The Theaters

At The Empress.

Gene Gauntier is featured in a three part special, "Twilight," a picture of intensity of feeling and emotion that will not fail to interest and please the most critical audience. One other picture completes the program.

The Lamar Airdome.

A new vaudeville bill opens tonight at the Airdome and press notices for both acts state that they are unusual and of much interest. The picture program for tonight is also extraordinary. Warren Kerrigan plays in a double role in "The Sand Hill Lovers," a Victor Drama. Kerrigan takes the parts of Philip Hull and his brother, Dave. Dave is steady, slow to hate and true in love. Philip is totally different, a gay and popular gambler, perhaps more lovable on the surface but is shifty and flare tempered underneath. Dave loves Meg, daughter of a cattle rustler. However, he does not know of her father's occupation. Philip shoots a gambler in a quarrel and makes his escape to his brother's ranch. Here he meets Meg and begins courting her. She yields to him and he promises to marry her. Meanwhile the sheriff and his posse searches for Phil. Dave has learned of his brother's refusal to marry Meg and determines that right shall be done, so he goes for the minister. The father, too, has learned of the wrong done his daughter, but thinks that Dave is the man and decides to kill him. Dave returns to his home only to find the posse on his brother's trail. He offers to change clothes with Phil and submit to arrest if he will marry the girl. Phil agrees and Dave dresses as his brother slips through the window to draw pursuit. Meg's father approaches and shoots through the open window at Philip whom he supposes is Dave. Dave is brought back and the tangle is straightened out by the sad wedding of Meg and the true Dave.

The program is completed by a two reel drama of teh Belgium coal fields, "The Mask of Affliction."

The Majestic.

"The Idiot," a Biograph drama, an Essanay comedy, "The Snakeville Volunteer" and a two part comedy, "When the Men Left Town" are today's pictures. A synopsis of the last mentioned picture is as follows:

When Honoria Dawley was elected mayoress of the town new and startling things immediately began to happen. The hand that rocked the cradle placed firmly on the help made the poor old ship of state go through a series of stunts which were in many ways remarkable. The men were the chief sufferers from the new order of things. Honoria and her peers had peculiar ideas about liquor, tobacco and all the small masculine vices. The fact that their wives and daughters were running things seemed highly amusing to the men until they discovered that they could neither smoke, drink nor gamble under any circumstances whatever. Rob the lioness of her cubs, the eagle of her mate and you will but separate not man from his pipe and his bottle. After two days of the new regime, the indignant males of the town assembled and decided to teach the women a lesson. After dark that night, they stole from their homes and fled to a place of refuge, fifty miles distant. When day dawned there was not a man in the place.

After the first gasp of surprise, the women decided that they were in possession of a splendid opportunity to show the men exactly how useless and unnecessary they really were. They would prove that masculine help was absolutely unnecessary in the management of a large municipality, and in a few days the crestfallen men would come slinking home. Like many another golden dream, this beautiful idea suffered when it was subjected to the actual proof. The women discovered that tidying up a whole town was subtly different from dusting the parlor and tying velvet bows on the what-not. It was not quite so easy to handle large ash cans as it might seem from the point of view of the casual onlooker. Then again, all such intricate affairs as the trolley line had to be abandoned completely. Nobody dared to monkey with the dingusses that make the car go. Finally the exasperated feelings of the foresaken wives and sweethearts were given expression in a monster parade of protest. They could not reach the men by telegraph because nobody could work the key, but a means was at last discovered in some pigeons Tom Carson had sent to his sweetheart. A wild scene took place when the men finally returned.

The Victoria.

Mutual Weekly No. 75 showing the International Horse show, Royalty parade and many other events of interest from all over the world and a two reel Majestic, featuring Lillian Gish and Robert Harron, "The Rebellion of Kitty Bell" are among the pictures showing here today.

The Gem.

Wallie Van and Lillian Walker are featured in a two reel Vitagraph comedy, "Cutey's Wife."

Cutey Dexter, a young man of wealth becomes infatuated with Mlle. Denise, the leading woman of a small theatrical company, who schemes to ensnare him, thereby securing a rich husband and much free advertising for the show. Betty, a pupil in a fashionable school runs away to become an actress. Miss Crab, the principal, starts out after her. Closely pursued, she desperately climbs into the nearest refuge—the window of Cutey's apartment. Mr. Dexter learns his son intends to marry an actress and goes in haste to see him. Betty hears Cutey coming and ducks into the wardrobe. A door closes and she thinks he has gone. Seeing him still there she hastily dodges back but is seen by Pa Dexter. Mr. Dexter opens the wardrobe and Betty steps out. Cutey is speechless with amazement. Mr. Dexter thinks Betty is his new daughter-in-law. They do not undeceive him and declaring the boy has good taste, he makes the best of it. Miss Crab arrives with a policemen, but Dexter orders them out. He then takes the supposed bride and groom to his home. Each blames the other for their predicament and they quarrel. Pa Dexter undertakes the role of peacemaker, but becomes exasperated and locks them in their room. He then calls up Judge Goodman and asks his help. Cutey and Betty calm down and by the time the judge arrives are on better terms. He goes in to them and they explain matters and he says the only solution is an immediate marriage. The judge performs the ceremony. He steps out and tells Dexter he has persuaded them to make up.

The bill also includes "The Road to Plainville" and "The Tango in Tuckerville."

ED HOWARD, Manager.

"It's no harm to kill an editor." Doubtless, that is the way the jury viewed the killing of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Le Figaro, by Madame Caillaux.

There is this much to say in favor of our State Democratic primary election: It has about taken in all that was left of the Republican party, and has left only one or two of the Bull Moosers out. All are now Democrats, at least until the next National election, when a few will go back to their old parties.

Mr. Ferguson, who is to be the next governor of Texas, is in favor of endorsing the Wilson administration at El Paso. Ex-Senator Bailey only wants to endorse the administration partially. The issue is clearly drawn and will be settled at El Paso.

Mr. Ferguson during his campaign, promised that, if elected governor, he would give the peopleof Texas a genuine business administration—something Texas has been in need of for several years. Therefore, even thosewho voted against him should do nothing to prevent him from putting into effect the forms and measures for which he stood and were approved by a majority of the Democrats of this state. Fair play is a jewel that does honor to all who wear it, and if he wants his tenant farm land plank to be a part of the Democratic State platform, his wishes in that respect should not be opposed. It is true, however, that if a resolution or plank is adopted regulating farm rentals it may be followed later on in some future Democratic platform with one regulating rentals on business and residence property. But be that as it may, the majority of the Democrats of Texas have approved Mr. Ferguson's ideas along that line, and to oppose him at the El Paso convention would be showing bad faith.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR

(Houston Chronicle)

Jamse E. Ferguson of Temple has been nominated as the democratic gubernatorial candidate by a substantial majority.

Mr. Ferguson made a remarkable race, and it would be gross injustice to deny him acknowledgement of it.

Quite possibly the greatest single element in his favor was the fact that he was supported by so few leading politicians.

Loneliness and isolation are not infrequently great assets in a political campaign. The remarkable runs made by John B. Morgan in Massachusetts, William T. Jerome in New York and Cole L. Blease in South Carolina illustrate this point.

The liquor question does not appear to have been such an important factor in the primary as many thought it would. Only about 60 per cent of the vote seems to have been recorded either one way or the other on the issue of submission. The remaining 40 per cent was evidently either undecided or did not take sufficient interest to express an opinion.

What effect Mr. Ferguson's land plank may have had as a deciding factor is purely a matter of speculation.

Personalities came to the surface and remained there until the struggle was ended.

That they were of greater advantage or of greater detriment to one candidate than they were to the other is beyond proof, but they served to make campaign one of the bitterest and most unpleasant in the history of the state.

Concerning Mr. Ferguson's injection into state politics, his spectacular rise and his final victory after so short a contest, there is at least one optimistic conclusion to be drawn: His triumph will foster the theory that somehow, some way, an unknown man can offer himself for office and win without the help of powerful politicians.

As to the defeated candidate, Hon. Thomas H. Ball, he has the consolation of knowing that he was supported by a class of citizens whose votes and friendship he should prize highly.

No man has ever been a candidate for governor with better support from the big personalities of the democratic party—city, state and national.

That support was so nearly unanimous that it may have been a detriment rather than a help to his candidacy.

Colonel Ball was also handicapped by his record as corporation lawyer—a record which shows no stain or dishonor, but which was used successfully as a battle cry against him among laboring people and in many agricultural communities.

He was handicapped by the support of Joseph W. Bailey, who in one breath urged the election of Col. Ball for governor, and in the next attacked the Woodrow Wilson policies, and threatened to oppose, in the coming state convention,those fundamental principles for which Wilson and progressive democracy have been so successfully fighting.

He was handicapped by the eleventh hour support of men and newspapers who were not for Ball at heart, and who advocated him simply because they could not unite on a satisfactory candidate in opposition. Their sincerity was uestioned, and their advocacy of Colonel Ball raised doubt and suspicion in the minds of many voters.

He was handicapped by the spreading of reports regarding his membership in clubs, which are a credit to any man in the business world, but which agricultural communities regarded as dens of infuity causing them to doubt the sincerity of his prohibition views.

He was handicapped by being forced constantly to answer untrue and demagogic personal attacks instead of confining himself to a discussion of real problems that confront the state.

But, after all is said, the result is the same. Mr. Ferguson made a wonderful campaign; he has secured the votes, and he will be the next governor of Texas.

The Chronicle does not regret its strong opposition to Mr. Ferguson, but, now that he is the nominee of the party, it will give him cheerful support and hopes that his administration will be a credit to the state, and that his record as governor will be one of which all Texans may be proud.

Chicago Futures.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, July 30.—Incessant reports of warlike movements sent the wheat market soaring today. The advances in prices were only surpassed by the tremendous bulge which day before yesterday accompanied the declaration of hostilities. Few traders however, would risk a sale and owing largely to almost prohibitive margin calls it was next to impossible to buy. The opening in wheat which ranged from 3 to 7½ higher than last night was followed by some additional upturns but also by a reaction of two cents or more. Later the market again stiffened. Corn showed more responsiveness to the wheat excitement than any day previous. The market opened 3-4 to 3½ higher and only receded to a moderate extent when wheat suffered a temporary setback. War disturbances extended into the pit trade in a decided manner; the market in some cases swung upward nearly two cents a bushel. Both wheat and corn closed weak. Closing: Wheat, July 94; Sept. 94 1-8; corn, July 75; Sept. 72 5-8; oats, July 36½; Sept. 37 1-4.

SEVEN CENTS PER BUSHEL ADVANCE IN WHEAT TODAY

By Associated Press.

Chicago, July 30.—Wheat today jumped seven cents a bushel in the first minute of trading. The December option which closed at ninety-one cents last night sold immediately today at ninety-eight cents. Prices were two cents in different sections of the pit at the same moment.

After a sensational advance today on account of the imminence of Russia and Germany entering the Austro-Servian war the wheat market closed in a state of apparent collapse. Seemingly complete paralysis of export demand was responsible for the break at the close when the values were down three cents a bushel from the earlier high figures. The rise in war risks on the ocean making shipments unprofitable seemed to put a stop to buying on foreign account. Jumps in prices at one time today were fully nine cents, almost as much as when Austria first declared war.

MAINLY ABOUT MARRIAGE

Marriage is the result of a maiden effort.

Generally, being in love means being out of pocket.

A diamond is often the cornerstone of a castle in the air.

Some get a prize in the marriage lottery, some a surprise.

The girl with the elastic step won't necessarily spring at a proposal.

No matter how silly a girl is, her folks always expect her to marry well.

Unlike other bonds, the bonds of matrimony run for an indefinite period.

A wise wife never reminds her husband of the fool things he said while courting her.

It is better to marry a real man than to cherish an ideal and die an old maid.—Christian Science Monitor.

UNUSUAL FEAT BY WICHITA FARMER

RAISES AND HARVESTS 380 BUSHELS OF WHEAT SINGLE HANDED

GETS NEARLY $6000 FOR CROP

Hires No Help Until He Is Ready To Shock Wheat—Also He Is Single Man

An article reprinted from the Burkburnett Star in Sunday's Times telling of the feat of a farmer single handed in raising and cutting 380 acres of wheat failed to mention one important feature and that is that Mr. Maha is a single man. The question naturally arises that if Mr. Maha was able to do all this work alone, how much could he do in double harness.

Instead of living near Burkburnett, Mr. Maha lives four miles north of town. He broke the ground and sowed the wheat on 380 acres of land with six horses. When he went to cut his crop he hired an extra team but drove his fourteen foot binder through the cutting of the entire crop. He did not hire any help until ready for the shocking of the wheat. He has already marketed his entire crop of 7,835 bushels and has deposited the proceeds, $5,856.18 at the First State Bank & Trust Co. This is the largest deposit of wheat crop money made at that bank by any farmer this season.

Mr. Maha is planning to sow about 350 acres of wheat again this fall and intends to do most of the work himself.

The record he made this year is believed to be without an equal in Texas and indeed in the entire country. If any man has done better the fact has not been reported.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

Seeley, Who Fitted Czar of Russia, Called to Wichita Falls

"Rupture is not a breach or tear in the abdominal wall as commonly supposed therefore nothing to knit or heal, but rupture is the dilation of a natural opening, therefore subject to closure," said F. H. Seeley of Chicago and Philadelphia the noted truss expert, who will be at the St. James Hotel and will remain in Wichita Falls Saturday only. August 1st. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield as now furnished and supplied to the United States government will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, affording immediate and complete relief, but closes the opening in ten days on the average case. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, harmful injections, medical instruments or prescriptions. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. All charity cases without charge, or if any interested call he will be glad to show same without charge or fit them if desired. Any one ruptured should remember the date and take advantage of this opportunity.

Rams	3	1	2	.333
Black Cats	3	0	3	.000

Everything was lovely for the Black Cats until the last inning Wednesday and then a blow up came, giving the Rams the large end of a seven to three score. The figures were three to two in favor of the Cats when the last inning started.

This afternoon's game will be between the Irish Lads and Black Cats. Tomorrow afternoon the Liepolders and Rams will be the opposing nines.

TEN DAY SUIT EXPIRES IN TEXAS COMPANY CASE

By Associated Press

Atoka, Okla., July 30.—The ten day limit for filing attacks on the jurisdiction of District Judge Robert M. Rainey's court here in the state's anti-trust suit against the Texas Company expires today. Attorney General West began these proceedings July 20 and the ten day period for briefs on the courts jurisdiction was granted when A. L. Beatty of New York, general counsel for the Texas Company declared this court had no jurisdiction. Mr. West charged that the Texas Company violated the state's anti-trust laws through its operations with two subsidiaries, the Producers Oil Company and the Central Petroleum Company. Both these subsidiaries are producers of crude petroleum.

Mother's Prayer

My son don't forget me. When comrades insist, and sin tempts you to forgetfulness, go to my lonely grave and remember all that I taught thee.

How many dying prayers go unheeded? Count the neglected graves the forgotten mounds, the nameless graves and then should you have a neglected loved one, remember something good they did in life. It will make you a better man or woman. You will perform a sacred duty if you will remember them with a substantial MEMORIAL. Try the dealer in Wichita Falls. I can help you, and you will be surprised at the nominal cost for high grade work.

Was severely criticised as being too boastful. Undoubtedly the criticism was deserved.

At the same time we feel justified in saying that we can give you better coffee values than the out of town roaster. We also feel that our twenty-five years' experience as retailers and several years as roasters should put us in a fair position to judge. We have handled at different times nearly all of the leading brands of High Grade Coffees in America and have tested them all. However at last you must be the judge and we respectfully ask you to pass your opinion, and if you don't feel justified in purchasing a pound for trial we will cheerfully supply a free sample upon request.
