Soil Conservation News of District

Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District. Lower Pease River District Board: W. C. Howard, Grady Halbert, O. T. Holmes, O. H. Brandon, H. L. Ayers.

During the past few months several farm ponds were completed on various farms and ranches in the Hardeman County area of the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District. Farmers and ranchers constructed these farm ponds for the purpose of providing a reservoir to catch rains that will furnish a supply of badly needed water for livestock use.

Mrs. J. C. Loveless, on her farm two miles north of Kings High School, has a farm pond located some 400 yards below an old tank that has silted up and become of little or no value. This new tank will now have protection from a great majority of the silt which will be caught by the old tank and will also furnish an adequate supply of water for livestock use after it rains.

J. C. Loveless, on his place about one and a half miles north of Kings High School; R. P. Jackson, on his place about one mile east of the Quannah Cotton Oil Mill; Brad Hancock, on his ranch eleven miles south of Quannah; and Ed Stepp, on his ranch just west of Brad Hancock, have all constructed earthen tanks, or farm ponds. These tanks have been located by landowners and Soil Conservation Service technicians to provide enough drainage area that the tanks will be filled when it rains. Their location will also help to distribute grazing over the pasture.

Foard County received moisture early Sunday morning which measured from .20 to .46 of an inch in the county. The rain measured .46 of an inch by the Government gauge at the Crowell State Bank. The precipitation was lighter in the west portion of the county than any other part. Whether the moisture is sufficient to be of benefit to the wheat crop is not known at the present time, especially where the fall was light.

Up to and including the rainfall recorded Sunday at the Crowell State Bank, a total of 13.77 inches has been received for the first eleven months of 1952. This is the least amount of rain recorded in eleven months in Foard County since 1917 when the county had received only 11.47 inches.

Last Scheduled Home Game of Season to Be Played Here Tomorrow Night When Crowell and Newcastle Tangle

The Crowell High School football team can cinch the district championship here tomorrow (Friday) night if the Wildcats can defeat the Newcastle Bobcats. Newcastle has not been so impressive this season with only one victory and one tie to its credit in district play but its team is rather dangerous. The Wildcats have not forgotten the 40 to 0 shellacking they received on the Newcastle field last season.

Crowell will be playing without the services of both defensive ends and one or two other boys are crippled enough to slow them up. James Pittillo, offensive tackle and defensive end is out this week with a sprained ankle. Gordon Graves will have to miss one game due to his participation in the game against Vernon last week. It can be either the Newcastle or Henrietta game. Billy Latimer and James Denton have recovered from their injuries sufficiently to be able to start this contest.

This will be Crowell's last home game this season on its regular schedule and there should be a good turn-out for the important contest. The probable starting lineups for the Crowell-Newcastle conference game that is to be played at Wildcat Stadium at 8:00 p. m. is as follows:

Cooperation of Hunters Urged in Controlling Woods and Forest Fires

The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission said cooperation of hunters and outdoorsmen generally is needed to avert a catastrophe to woods and forests from fire.

He said the woods and fields in most of the state have been reduced to extreme inflammability by the prolonged drought. He added that some fires already have caused great property loss as well as tragic loss to wildlife.

The Executive Secretary quoted a letter from the Texas Forest Service to emphasize his appeal. The letter, signed by D. A. Anderson, head of the Research & Education Department, said in part: "Of increasing importance are the fires attributed to hunters.

mission has suggested that Texans utilize the drought to improve tanks, ponds or lakes that have dried up.

He said that the tanks and ponds could be deepened and enlarged and silt removed from the bottom since, contrary to popular belief, silt is harmful rather than beneficial to water bodies.

The Assistant Chief also pointed out that the enlargement will increase the surfaces and thus benefit fish life since most fish foods are produced in the upper one foot of water.

Future food facilities also may be improved, he said, by planting legumes in the dried-up bottom area.

Farmers and ranchers also were advised to capitalize on the opportunity by planning to restock their tanks and ponds with desirable species and thus keep down the rough fish which prey on the game fish.

The Game and Fish Commission cooperates with persons with tank or pond or small lakes since they provide increased facilities for the fishing public and since waters oftentimes supply brood bass for state hatcheries. The Assistant Chief persons who have ordered state hatcheries to notify hatchery if their ponds have dried up or to. Such persons, he said, given priority when returns and deliveries are

The fires charged to hunters are no doubt caused through negligence but nonetheless they are increasing our fire problem. I felt that you could possibly assist us immeasurably by calling attention to hunters to the condition which presently prevails in the East Texas area and asking them to take every possible precaution in preventing fires. Not only are the forest resources at stake, but the wildlife as well.

"I assure you that any help you can give will be sincerely appreciated. It is urgent of course that action be taken at once since our problem is now critical."

The Executive Secretary suggested that Texans in the field prove their understanding of the peril to conservation by not only preventing fires but by offering to help control any fires they may encounter.

Reading and Lighting and 'Rithmetic

Look what some figure-happy statistician just found out. From kindergarten through high school, school kids have to plow through a pile of books 18 feet high. A photograph taken of this pile of books would make your eyes ache.

Close visual work is hard on the eyes. A New York State survey of 83,000 students showed only one in 20 kids had vision defects at kindergarten age. By senior high, eye troubles affected six students in 20.

Good lighting is one readily available means of making seeing easier for these students. Lighting engineers find that over half the schools still use old, globe-type fixtures that give only one-sixth the light that ought to be on the desks.

In those schools that have installed modern lighting, teachers report that students are more eager to study, are happier and require less discipline. The teachers find their jobs easier.

To help schools analyze what light is needed, General Electric engineers work out various lighting systems in model classrooms where effects can be demonstrated and compared. A booklet is offered, "Making Schoolwork Easier on the Eyes," in which current practices are summed up. (Write the Lamp Division, Nela Park, Cleveland, Ohio.)

It is the aim of General Electric to translate its engineering help into public service at the community level.

The Director of Law Enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission, in issuing the monthly arrest report, called attention to game wardens' instruction to counsel hunters whenever possible.

"As the fall hunting season approaches maximum effort, it seems appropriate to call attention to the fact that game wardens have standing instructions to cooperate with hunters," he said.

"The routine of the modern warden is predicated on the fact that at least a good part of the hunters mean to obey the law. The wardens of course realize that a certain percentage of persons are just as irresponsible in the field as they are in their normal pursuits.

It shows 390 cases for total fines and court costs of $10,786.90, compared to 303 cases and $8,708.95 for the same month last year, and compared to 201 cases and $5,691.91 for the preceding month this year.

NOTICE TO ALL OLD AGE PENSIONERS:

Many of you have been told that your pension will be cut, due to the election of a Republican Government. I have been working for the benefit of the old people since 1935, and we have raised the pension from $7.95 in some places to its present level. If you are told such tales, just remember who told it to you, and also remember that even "Peter lied to the public in his time." Remember also that Foard County was one of the few counties with dragging feet in the election; but did make some progress. In 1948 only 66 Republican votes were cast, against 419 in this election. So Foard County was not all out of step with the Nation.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK EMPHASIZES "CHILDREN IN TODAY'S WORLD"

Our children of today are our world leaders of tomorrow. With the realization of this fact, this year's American Education Week emphasizes more than ever our children in today's world and our world of tomorrow.
The American Legion is the sponsor of this very worthwhile week with its national commander being the co-founder of Education Week. This week has become outstanding each year as its activities pave the way for better education and general advancement in every way.

Tying in with the general theme, Children in Today's World, day-by-day topics are their churches, homes, heritage, schools, country, opportunities, and most important of all, their future.

Because of its national acclaim over ten million parents are expected to visit public schools during the 1952 week's duration from November 10-15. All Crowell parents are invited to visit school during this week or any other time that is convenient.

CROWELL FHA CHAPTER OBSERVED NATION-WIDE
FHA WEEK

Members of the Crowell chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, in cooperation with all FHA clubs throughout the nation, observed FHA Week beginning Sunday, Nov. 2, and continuing until Saturday, Nov. 8. It was announced by Mrs. Ruth Kenner, homemaking teacher. Crowell stated its celebration Sunday by each girl attending the Sunday school and church of her choice.

Monday was designated as badge day. All of the girls wore badges of red and white, the FHA colors. Tuesday was set aside to visit the shut-ins and take fruit and flowers. Wednesday was courtesy day. Thursday was to say grace at supper. Then on Friday every girl was supposed to prepare supper for her family.

The climax of the week was on Saturday when the Crowell girls took part in the program at the district meeting at Abilene. The CHS FHA program was made up of a solo by Joan Fox, jazz band with two dancers led up of Ann Wishon, Nita Carroll, Nan Shultz, Nancy Hallmark, Kay Rasberry, Zonell Eddy and Barbara Fairchild; a quartet by Jackie Rasberry, Virginia Tamplen, Nell Johnson and Mary Woods, accompanied by Faye Black; a humorous reading was given by Gail Knox; Sue and Frances gave an amusing auto ride, and in between acts FHA materials were advertised.

FHA GIRLS ATTEND DISTRICT MEETING

Twenty-seven delegates accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Kenner, sponsor, and Mrs. Claudia Carroll, FHA mother, attended the FHA district meeting held at the Abilene High School, on Sat., Nov. 8. The girls left Crowell at 5:30 a. m. by bus, with the ever-faithful George Fox as driver.

Carolyn Bursey, the voting delegate from Crowell, was also on the nominating committee.

The theme of the meeting was "Yesterday's Youth Towards Tomorrow's Future." The Crowell girls gave a thirty minute skit advertising FHA chapter supplies. Mrs. Carroll said, "The Crowell skit received more applause than any other on the program."

Faye Black was elected pianist for next year. Billye Bell was runner-up for song leader and secretary.

After a profitable meeting and an enjoyable day, the group returned home arriving about 6:30 p. m.

BARBECUE FOR WILDCATS

The Wildcats know that the people of Crowell are still behind them. Henry Johnson, Bill McClain, Gerald Knox and Milburn Carroll gave them a barbecue at the Spring Lake Country Club at 7 o'clock, Thursday, Nov. 6. Parents and friends were also present to enjoy the occasion.

Mountain of delicious barbecue served with a special sauce, baked beans, and numerous side dishes satisfied the hungriest of football appetites.

Good fellowship among teammates, parents, and friends accompanied by the enjoyment of good food lent a merry note to the atmosphere and resulted in an enjoyable "get together" for all.

LINDY'S SON EXPLORES—Jon Lindbergh, son of famed flier Charles Lindbergh, returns to New York from ocean exploring expedition. Jon, a student at Stanford University, examines specimen party found on floor of the Atlantic. They also discovered a canyon 300 feet deep and 800 miles long in mid-ocean.

DINNER GIVEN IN THEIR HONOR

As an expression of their loyal support and good wishes to Crowell's fighting Wildcats, whom they believe are on their way to state honors, several Crowell men combined forces and gave the local team a dinner at the banquet room of the DeLuxe Cafe last week.

Jack Turner welcomed the guests and gave the names of those men who made the dinner possible, Jack Turner, George Self, Dick Todd, Gerald Knox, Mike Rasberry, Bill McClain and Bill Bell.

After superintendent of schools Grady Graves gave the invocation, the boys, their hosts and coaches, Amosett, Erwin and Taylor enjoyed a turkey dinner. The menu consisted of turkey and dressing, cranberry sauce, lima beans, salad, milk and ice cream.

Dick Todd brought the evening to a climax with a talk inspired by a subject which was closest to the interests of everyone present, football. As a past football star and head coach of the Washington Redskins, Todd was more than qualified to talk to the players in their own language. Professional Football was his topic, and a contrast between professional and high school football was his theme. Questions by the boys themselves were answered by Dick at the close of his talk.

As a mid-season entertainment for the football players, the dinner was outstanding.

KINCAID DISPLAYS AMBITION AND VERSATILITY

The talent displayed with lots of hard work has earned Marcia Kincaid the admiration of everyone.

Marcia, a senior, is as energetic and ambitious as they come. On her high school record for the past four years lies an impressive list of extra-curricular activities. Drum major for the Wildcat Band for two years, Round-up favorite for 1951, Thespian, Dramatic Club, FHA, Band Sweetheart for 1952, are just a few examples of her accomplishments.

"Cla," as she is known to her friends, loves to do anything which will give her a sense of accomplishment. Aside from the aforementioned activities and her full-time job as editor of the Wildcat, she is very interested in music. An accomplished pianist, she prefers semi-classical music with "September Song" being her favorite. At present, she is sweetheart of the Crowell Lions Club where she is also club pianist.

Marcia plans to attend Texas University after graduation, where she will major in journalism.

STUDENTS URGED TO ENTER ESSAY CONTEST

The Texas Committee for Employment of the Physically Handicapped and the Disabled American Veterans are again sponsoring a state-wide essay contest for "all 11th and 12th grade students of any public or private high school. The subject will be "The Physically Handicapped, a National Asset."

The contest opened Oct. 15 and lasts until Feb. 1, 1953. A local committee will select the best essay from Crowell High School and forward it to the state committee. Major credit will be given for the story content of the essay, originality, or impact of the story, organization and English composition in the story itself. Essays should contain between 1,000 and 1,200 words.

The state is offering prize money of $100 first, $60 second, $40 third, $20 fourth and $10 for fifth.

This is the 5th year for this annual essay contest which has been the only national government sponsored essay contest approved for high school students by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

The Wildcat Staff urges wide participation of Crowell High School's juniors and seniors. It is convinced that much more potential talent in writing prize-winning essays attend CHS than has yet been brought to view. "This contest has proved valuable since it brings before today's high school students, our leaders of tomorrow, a more keen appreciation of a wide range of talents and skills possessed by the physically impaired."

NEW BOOKS ARRIVE FOR LIBRARY

CHS students can stop complaining about the library book situation because of the arrival of sixty-eight new books last week.

Most of the new additions were horse, dog and sports stories. Some of these include "Winter Horse" by Balch, "Prairie Colt" by Holt, "Cow Country" by James, "Ton: a Wild Dog" by Hinkle, "Wolf Eye: The Bad One" by Henry, "Shortstop Shadow" by Brain Gridiron, "Courage" by Alton, and "Goal Line Stand" by Frindlick. Many girls' books were added along with these, some of them being Paintbox Summer, Two's Company and A Girl Can Dream, all by the popular author of girls' books, Betty Cavanna.

The ever-growing demand of non-fiction books was met by the arrival of many new ones. The most important non-fiction include "The Sourcebook of Atomic Energy" compiled by Glasstone in high school language. This book was written to bring about a better understanding of the atom because atomic energy must be used peacefully. "The Greatest Book Ever Written" by Fulton Oursler should create new interest in the Bible because it is the story of the Old Testament. It tells the story of Adam and Eve down through Noah and the flood and so on.

All of these are highlighted by a new unabridged Webster's International Dictionary. It contains 3,350 pages altogether costing $1,300.00 to compile. There are 600,000 entries with 12,000 of these illustrated.

With all the new editions, Crowell students may enjoy many hours of good reading.

FLASH! DAVIS MATH CLASS CHEWS GUM

What can this mean? Is the world coming to an end? Just what can the world be coming to when an all time anti-gum-chewer, Mrs. Davis, allows such monkey business to go on in her Algebra I class.

Inside reports hint that sophomore Buddy Kelly furnished the entire class, teacher too, with bubble gum Monday morning. Jaws were fairly popping as the young Einsteins labored over a test. As Jackie Roberts said, "Kelly really used his head that day."

FREDERICK'S COLORED WILDCATS TRIM VERNON'S
COLORED BEARCATS 13-7

The Frederick Wildcats purred long and loud last Saturday night as they came out with a 13-7 win over Vernon's fighting Bearcats. The game was a well played contest with lots of exciting moments all the way through.

Frederick started the scoring when Shaw, their main offensive threat, went over from the five. The P.A.T. was missed.

The Vernon boys were not to be denied as Gilbert Gates ran and passed his team for six points. Gates made a forty yard run setting up the touchdown and the half ended with the game tied 6-6.

In the last half the game was fought on equal terms until late in the fourth quarter when Shaw again broke through Vernon's line going twenty-five yards for the

TD.

Interested in?
A cute steady, Jonny and Jackson.
Seems as though Coleman just doesn't like girls. (Pd. adv.)
Seen riding around Friday nite were Sue and Gerry, Zonell and Wayne, Barbara and Raymond.
I wonder where Gwynne Johnson was Saturday? Couldn't have been with James, could she?
Babs and Carolyn seem to have gotten lost in Abilene. I wonder what they were looking for.
It seems as if Oleta Lankford has been seen with a football jacket on. I wonder whose it is?
Oogie and Jackie were seen at the ball game Saturday night.
Grim, do you always get stuck with having to change people's flat tires?
Who is it that went around with a long face over the week end?
Could it have been Billy Bell?
Steady couples of the week—
Gail and James, Zody and Wayne,
Babs and Holly, Chick and Jean,
Ginger and Marcia, Fran and Grim,
Billy and Gogyne, Sue and Gerry, Billie and DuWayne, Gwynne and James.
Seems as though Mrs. Sloan and Mr. Kenner are trying to learn the sign language.
Did all the FHA girls have fun in Abilene? Meet any cute boys?
Disappointment of the week!
Rat hasn't been giving the Crowell girls a chance. (Pd. adv. by single girls of Crowell High).
Jimmy Harper, you had better be guarding your property. There were some inquiries about Joan Sunday afternoon.
What is this we hear about Jean Whitty and T-H-A-T-S-R-A-D-E-R
B-O-Y? Is it true that you have called it quits?
Noma Kelly seems to be making the rounds. This last week end it was Charles Wishon. What is Milton going to say, Noma?
Jimmy Everson and Peggy New were seen together Saturday night.
Jimmy, why don't you give the Crowell girls a chance?
Dorothy, what is this we hear about your being engaged? Is it true?
We want to send our best wishes to one of our ex-students, Norma Jean Mathews, who is flashing a sparkler on her third finger.
Lucky J. W. Hanes.
Squint, what is this we hear about you stepping across over into Quannah again? Is this true?
Ace, what is this we hear about you going to the B string football game with Mary Lou Woods?
What will Bobby say?
Glyndon, what is this we hear about you having a double romance?
Buddy, do you and Babe like to take pictures?

LET'S TALK
LIVESTOCK
BY TED GOULDY

Some of the highest selling calves of 1953 are being reared for market right now. Yep, that's right—I said Nineteen-Fifty-Three!

Now we do not own a crystal ball, and fear nothing worse than making a guess as to what is going to happen—but unless every past performance fails the really thick fat calves that sell during February, March, April and perhaps May in 1953, will be some of the highest priced calves seen all year.

This has been the case in virtually every year of record because that is a time of year in which relatively small numbers of really fat calves are available. It is a season when large amounts of heavy fed steers are on hand but there is always need for more good and choice fat calves than the supply offers during this period of the year.

Right now the calves that are going to cash in on these high prices and that will top the market at Fort Worth time after time during February, March, April and May, are eating just a few handfuls of feed each day from creepfeeders on the farms where they were born this fall.

These calves will gain more weight and will attain a bloom-like finish that will make the buyers at Fort Worth eager to own them for their packing houses.

Some of these calves are eating a home-mixed ration out of the creep. Others are eating one of several really good creep feeding rations made by reputable feed manufacturers. But, all of these, regardless of quality, are putting on extra pounds and putting on extra dollars to the selling price
when they come to Fort Worth—regardless of quality.

Sometimes even the half dairybred types—the kind that would be called common or plain for quality—sell for as much or more than a highly bred animal. Lots of times that "plain" mother cow gives extra milk that is extra rich.
It looks like another season
in which creepfeeding will pay off in weight and dollars and it will get the calves off the cows earlier and give drought-seared pastures
a chance to re-seed and come back faster in the summer and fall of 1953.

Look ahead to 1953 and think seriously about creep-feeding weather.

The hardest bulbs are the narcissi or daffodils, jonquils, grapehyacinth, snowflakes, snowdrops and most of the early blooming bulbs. The specialist recommends waiting until later to plant those with roots or bulbs that frozen soil would destroy. Gladiolus grow from tender corms and dahlia from tender tubers, so these bulb-like plants are not planted until hard freezing weather is past. In much of Texas they can be planted in January and February.
Most bulbs grow best in fertile soil which is moist but well drained. The specialist says most bulbs will grow better in full sun, however many of them grow in the shade.
Prepare the soil by fertilizing with 5-10-5 for the sandy and light soil, and 16-20-0 for black and potash-rich soils in West Texas. The specialist recommends one-half cup to each 25 square feet of soil. Add a tablespoon of bone meal and a cup of sand one or two inches beneath each bulb
when placed in the soil.
The depth of planting depends on the size of the bulb. A large narcissus bulb may be planted seven to nine inches deep. Tulips are usually planted about seven inches, and bulbs of Dutch iris are smaller and planted four or five inches deep. Grape hyacinth is still smaller and planted two to four inches deep. Iris which grow from rhizomes, are planted almost on top of the ground barely covered with soil. The crocus is planted only three inches deep. Place lilies which root at the base of the bulb five inches deep in the soil.

The bride was given in marriage by her father who also officiated, assisted by Dr. W. Marshall Craig.

Mrs. Bill Brown of San Antonio, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Audrey Verner, maid of honor; Miss Jimmie Lee Jones and Miss Beverly Black were junior bridesmaids. Each wore a pale green satin gown, a halo of green net and each carried a colonial bouquet of bronze pompons and bronze ribbon.

Students Censure Adult Drivers

Chevrolet checked 5,000 high school students on their opinions of adult auto drivers and found Disregard of Traffic Signs (enacted above) a prime target for criticism. Recklessness was worst fault in poll.

DETROIT—If an adult driver could look at himself through the eyes of the younger generation he'd see a person who is inconsiderate of others, who cheats a bit on speed laws and who believes he can solve traffic jams by getting mad.

At least this is the picture given by a Chevrolet Motor Division survey which asked 5,000 high school driving students what they thought of their elders. Here's the way the juveniles ranked adult driving faults:

- No. 1—Recklessness. ("Lots of times we ride the bumper of the car ahead.")
  - No. 2—Poor Sportsmanship. ("He thinks the road belongs to him.")
  - No. 3—Speeding. ("Dad goes just as fast when there's traffic as when there isn't.")
  - No. 4—Failure to Signal Properly. ("We got hit once when pop stopped too quick for a hamburger.")
  - No. 5—Impatience. ("My father thinks he can untangle traffic by just swearing.")
  - No. 6—Disregard of Signs. ("Some speed up when they see 'Slow School Crossing.'")
  - No. 7—Inattention. ("Mom talks too much when she's driving.")
  - No. 8—Neglect of Car's Safety Features. ("All of us cross our fingers when dad steps on the brakes.")
  - No. 9—Ignorance of Laws. ("When two drivers meet at a corner they eye each other like in a duel. Neither of them knows who's supposed to stop.")
  - No. 10—Lack of Skill. ("She can't get out of skids.")
- The Chevrolet survey gave a cross-section of national opinion. Cities covered included Baltimore, Los Angeles, Miami, St. Paul, Atlanta, Dallas, Denver and Pittsburgh among others.

Home Demonstration Notes

MARY DEEB BROWN

Don't forget that each club is to make a poster advertising the food sale and Achievement Day to be held Nov. 22. These posters are to be up by this Saturday, Nov. 15. All exhibits, food, etc., should be ready by 10 a. m. Saturday morning, Nov. 22, for Achievement Day. The building will be open the Friday afternoon before, if you want to bring your things in then. Remember to bring tables to show your things on.

The Gambleville Home Demonstration Club has changed their next meeting from Nov. 21 to Dec. 5. At that time they will make plans for their Christmas party and Mrs. Archie Campbell will show how to prune a mandarin and a pyracantha.

Council will meet when we have Achievement Day instead of this Saturday as shown in the yearbook.

Now is the time for you to begin inviting new members to join your club. I'm sure that many women in your community would enjoy the sewing meetings we have planned, but often they are a little timid about coming to club uninvited, so please make an effort to see that they have a special invitation.

The pyracantha berries are beautiful this year and would make excellent decorations for the Thanksgiving holidays. Also you still have time to collect many beautiful autumn leaves. To prevent these leaves from curling and drying up, set ends of stems in a solution of 2 parts glycerine and 1 part water. As this liquid is absorbed by the stems, add plain water when necessary. After about 3 weeks the branches should be pretty well saturated and require no additional water unless, of course, they are in a very warm temperature.

Most People Have Two Colds Each Year

Studies show that most people have two or more colds a year, each lasting about two weeks and causing a considerable amount of study discomfort, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The danger of the common cold lies mainly in the other infections that may follow after it. A cold lessens resistance, and is likely to pave the way for other more serious respiratory ailments.

Sinusitis, ear infections, bronchitis, and the various forms of pneumonia are frequently ushered in by a cold. Pneumonia, particularly, is likely to attack a person who is overtired, or run-down because of a severe cold.

Fortunately, many of the respiratory diseases are not as dangerous as they used to be. Modern infection-fighting drugs, such as penicillin and the sulfa drugs, offer highly effective treatment for many cases. But, of course, it is always better to prevent a serious illness whenever possible.

If you have a cold, it's just good sense to stay away from people, to avoid spreading the infection; and to get plenty of rest—in bed if possible.
